The Southern Illinois football team moved into the brand-new $29.9 million Saluki Stadium for the 2010 season, after playing the previous 73 seasons at historic McAndrew Stadium. SIU, which was ranked No. 5 in the nation at the time, opened Saluki Stadium on Sept. 2, 2010 with a 70-7 win over Quincy in front of a sellout crowd of 15,276.

At the time it was built, Saluki Stadium was the newest of 12 stadiums constructed by an FCS school since 2000*. The horseshoe-shaped facility has a seating capacity of 15,000.

Seating includes 1,080 prime chairback seats as well as spots on the grass berm enclosing the north end zone.

The two-story press box features 12 suites, a 2,500-square foot VIP Club Room, along with traditional booths for radio, television, coaches and the print media. A 20x40 foot TS Sports scoreboard with video replay capabilities in the North end zone and expanded concessions and restrooms significantly enhance the fan experience.

FieldTurf, a Tarkett Sports Company, installed its Duraspine PRO turf system and its patented sand and rubber infill at Saluki Stadium. The top of the line artificial turf is the same that has been installed at Gillette Stadium, home of the New England Patriots, and numerous other high-profile collegiate institutions and pro football organizations.

Saluki Stadium was a part of the $80 million Saluki Way Project, which included a renovation to the 46-year old SIU Arena and the construction of the Donald Boydston Center that features new football offices, an athletic training room and a 5,000-square foot locker room for the team.

360 Architecture designed Saluki Stadium and J.E. Dunn Construction was the general contractor.

A half-cent sales tax increase approval by the city of Carbondale along with an increase in student fees, private donations and the sale of 12 new suites will pay for the balance of construction costs.

King Tut's Tomb

The tomb of King Tut was moved over from McAndrew Stadium to its current spot between the SIU locker room in the Donald Boydston Center and Saluki Stadium. Each home game, the Salukis walk out of the locker room and pat Tut's Tomb for good luck on the Saluki Walk to the tunnel where they run into the stadium.

King Tut was the first live Saluki Dog Mascot and he was buried in the northeast corner of McAndrew Stadium.

Where We Came From...

McAndrew Stadium History

Mid-1930s - SIU athletic director and football coach William McAndrew begins drive to replace Bayliss Field. He secures Works Progress Administration labor for the project.

Spring 1937 - Construction begins on McAndrew Stadium.

Oct. 23, 1937 - The SIU Maroons, as they were called then, lose the first game at the new stadium, 17-0, to Western Illinois. The stadium was not complete, but was used that season.

Oct. 29, 1938 - Stadium officially dedicated, known as Southern Illinois Teacher College Stadium. By the time it was completed, it cost $150,000 to build.

Oct. 22, 1949 - Stadium formally named McAndrew Stadium.

Nov. 10, 1950 - SIU wins first game under the lights at The Mac, 44-13, over Eastern Michigan.

1973 - Renovations, including a new artificial turf and the west bleachers getting expanded, pushes the capacity to 17,000.

Dec. 5, 2009 - Salukis play their last game at McAndrew Stadium and lose, 24-3, to William & Mary in the quarterfinals of the FCS playoffs.

Dec. 16, 2010 - Demolition on the stands begins as construction crews tear down McAndrew Stadium.

Gameday Atmosphere

Fans flock to Saluki Row before games for the tailgate festivities.

Origins of the Saluki

Several members of the Southern Illinois University athletic staff suggested a new nickname in 1951. The teams had been known as the Maroons since intercollegiate athletics began in 1913. The name became official on March 19, 1951, when the student body overwhelmingly approved "Salukis" as the new symbol of SIU athletics, easily besting "Rebels," "Knights," "Flyers," "Marauders," and "Maroons."

The oldest purebred dogs in the world with records dating back to 2600 B.C., the Saluki is an ancient Egyptian hunting dog known for its speed and hunting prowess.

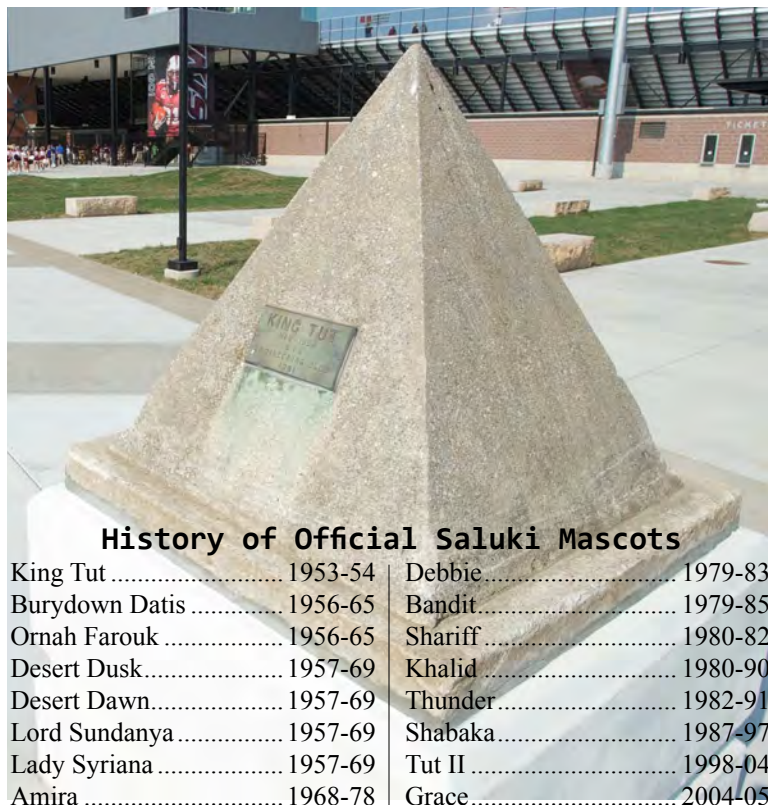

So why is the name Salukis relevant to Southern Illinois? Natives of southern Illinois know that the region is frequently referred to as "Egypt." Historian Baker Brownell, in his book "The Other Illinois," explained how the region came to be known as Egypt.

He wrote, "There was a drought in the northern counties (of Illinois) in the early 1800s...the wheat fields dried up, the streams died in their beds. But in southern Illinois, rain fell and there were good crops, and from the north came people seeking corn and wheat as to Egypt of old. Thus, the name, Egypt."

The 19th century drought in Illinois parallels the Biblical account of the country of Egypt.

"There was famine in all lands; but in all the land of Egypt there was bread. All the earth came to Egypt to Joseph to buy grain, because the famine was so severe. And (Jacob) said, 'Behold, I have heard that there is grain in Egypt; go down and buy grain for us there, that we may live, and not die.' So 10 of Joseph's brothers went down to buy grain in Egypt." (Genesis 41:45b, 57, 42:2-3)

In Egypt at that time, Salukis were accepted as the finest animal a family could possess. Adopting such a well-respected dog as its mascot fit perfectly for a school in a region known as "Little Egypt."

1983 National Champions

It was the year that the Southern Illinois University football team put together a dominating and magical run to take the Division I-AA National Championship. After just missing an undefeated regular-season with a loss to Division I-A Wichita State in the regular-season finale, the Dawgs marched through the playoffs, outscoring their three opponents by an average of 23 points, capped by a 43-7 thrashing of Western Carolina in the National Championship game. The Salukis finished that campaign with a sparkling 13-1 record, by far the best mark in SIU history.

2003-09 - Seven Years of Dominance

- Overall Record: 70-19 (.787)
- Conference Record: 42-8 (.840)
- Conference Championships: FIVE
- FCS Playoff Appearances: SEVEN
- FCS Playoff Victories: FIVE
- Weeks Ranked No. 1: 16

99-Straight Weeks in the Top 25

The Southern Illinois football team set the Missouri Valley Football Conference record by being ranked in the top 25 for 99 consecutive weeks. The streak started on Sept. 8, 2003, when the Salukis were ranked No. 23 in the coaches poll and No. 21 in the media poll. It lasted until Oct. 18, 2010, when the Salukis dropped out of the top 25.

41-4 at Home Since 2003

Southern Illinois has compiled a 41-4 (.911) record at home in regular season games since 2003. Included in that streak is a 26-3 record in Missouri Valley Football Conference games. If you add in home playoff games, the Salukis are 45-8 (.849) overall since 2003. Now that's a homefield advantage.

2003-09 - Seven-Straight Playoff Appearances

Southern Illinois advanced to the NCAA Division I Football playoffs seven-straight years from 2003-09. That streak is tied for the third longest in FCS (formerly NCAA Division I-AA) history. Southern Illinois made the quarterfinals in four of those seven seasons and advanced to the national semifinals in 2007, when Delaware quarterback Joe Flacco led the Blue Hens to a 20-17 win over SIU in the game that was televised by ESPN.

Four Academic All-Americans

Southern Illinois has had four players named CoSIDA Academic All-Americans in the last two seasons. Safety Mike McElroy was a second team selection in 2009. In 2010, SIU tied with Penn State for the nation's lead with three Academic All-Americans. Wide receiver Joe Allaria and defensive end Chance Coda were voted to the first team while offensive tackle David Pickard was a second team selection.

A Plethora All-Americans

Southern Illinois has had 12 first team All-Americans over the last 10 seasons. Of those 12, five have been running backs. Tailback Arkee Whitlock (2005 and 2006) and cornerback Korey Lindsey (2009 and 2010) are two of three players in school history to be named a first team All-American in back-to-back seasons. Lindsey, who was a third team All-American in 2008, is one of two players in school history, along with Alexis Moreland (2002-04), to garner All-America accolades in three separate seasons.

HEAD COACH

DALE LENNONNorth Dakota, 1983 • 15th Year as a Head Coach • 4th Season at SIU

In just three seasons at Southern Illinois, Dale Lennon has become one of the most successful coaches in school history. His 25 victories in three years are five more wins than any other Saluki coach had through their first three seasons at SIU and he is 25-11 (.694) overall at Southern.

Lennon was named Southern Illinois' 20th head coach in program history on Dec. 27, 2007.

He guided the Salukis to back-to-back Missouri Valley Football Conference titles and into the FCS playoffs in each of his first two seasons at the helm. Lennon was tabbed as the MVFC and AFCA Region IV Coach of the Year in both 2008 and 2009, joining six other previous league coaches to win Coach of the Year honors in consecutive seasons.

Awards have also been plentiful for a number of Lennon's players. Running back Deji Karim was the 2009 MVFC Offensive Player of the Year and was one of three finalists for the Walter Payton Award, which is given to the most outstanding player in the FCS. Karim was a sixth-round draft pick of the Jacksonville Jaguars in 2010.

In each of the past two seasons, linebacker Brandin Jordan ('09) and cornerback Korey Lindsey ('10) were finalists for the Buck Buchanan Award that goes to the FCS's most valuable defensive player.

In his three seasons, SIU has had six players named first team All-Americans and has had four Academic All-Americans. Before Lennon had arrived at Southern, the Salukis only had six Academic All-Americans in the previous 95 years. The coach has guided 18 players to the MVFC All-Academic team in three years, which is the second most honorees of any team in the league during that time.

Lindsey flourished under Lennon and his staff. He was named an All-American three-straight years from 2008-10, becoming just the second Saluki to ever gain All-America status in three separate seasons. He was also named a first team All-American in 2009 and 2010, becoming just the third Saluki to be a first-team honoree in back-to-back seasons. Lindsey received the 2010 Elite Defensive Back of the Year Award from the College Football Performance Awards for his career accomplishments.

The 2010 season was a challenging one, and it was one that saw Lennon have just his third losing season in 14 years as a head coach. It was an injury-ridden year - one where a combined 70 games were missed from players on the two-deep. The Salukis finished with a 5-6 record and a tie for third place in the MVFC with a 4-4 league mark.

His 2010 squad still found a way to knock off the top teams they faced. Southern was 3-1 against ranked teams and Lennon has an 8-4 record against the Top 25 (7-2 in regular season games) in his three seasons at SIU.

In 2009, Southern Illinois enjoyed a historic season in which it set a new MVFC record with its 14th-straight conference victory, registered the program's fourth 10-win season since 2003, and won 11-straight games - the third longest winning streak in school history. SIU became the first team in league history to go 8-0 in conference play, doing so in convincing fashion as the Salukis won road games at No. 2 Northern Iowa and at No. 9 South Dakota State. Southern Illinois finished the 2009 season ranked No. 6 with an 11-2 overall record, which is the third-most wins in a year in program history.

The Salukis were ranked No. 1 by The Sports Network for three weeks and entered the 2009 NCAA Division I playoffs - the schools seventh consecutive playoff appearance - as the No. 3 overall seed. Lennon guided SIU to the quarterfinals of the playoffs and the Salukis finished the year ranked No. 6.

In Lennon's first season in Carbondale, the coach guided SIU to a 9-3 record, a share of the MVFC title and into the playoffs.

Lennon had the difficult task of replacing the most successful coach in school history - Jerry Kill, who was the 2007 Liberty Mutual Coach of the Year.

The challenge did not intimidate Lennon, who came to SIU with his own personal string of five-consecutive playoff appearances when he arrived in Carbondale. Lennon has now been to either the Division I or II playoffs in 10 out of his last 13 seasons. He also owns a National Championship ring, which he captured in 2001 when he was the head coach at his alma mater, North Dakota.

Lennon's success at SIU and North Dakota has made him as one of the winningest active coaches in the country. In 14 seasons as a head coach, Lennon has compiled a 127-44 (.743) record.

He stands as the winningest coach in UND history with a 90-24 record in nine seasons. In addition to leading North Dakota to a national championship, Lennon's teams made seven playoff appearances, played in two national championship games and won five North Central Conference Championships.

Lennon graduated from Rugby High School in Rugby, N.D., a town of less than 3,000 residents near the Canadian border. He went on to play running back at the University of North Dakota from 1979-83, where he was a team captain.

The first half of Lennon's coaching career was on the defensive side of the ball, as he was North Dakota's defensive line coach (1988-89) and defensive coordinator (1990-96).

The Fighting Sioux made four-straight playoff appearances from 1992-95, which ultimately led to Lennon's hiring as head coach of the University of Mary in Bismarck, N.D. in 1997. He reversed the fortunes of that program and led it to an NAIA playoff appearance in 1998.

Lennon returned to his alma mater as head coach in 1999, and the program flourished underneath him.

He reached the pinnacle of success in 2001, when he guided his team to the NCAA Division II National Championship and earned AFCA Coach of the Year honors. He won the NCC Coach of the Year laurels three times.

Lennon and his wife, Chris, have three sons: Jared (22), Trevor (20) and Cody (17).

BUBBA SCHWEIGERT

Associate Head Coach/Defensive Coordinator
Jamestown College, 1985
27th Year Overall
4th Season at SIU

The 2011 season will be Bubba Schweigert's fourth season as the defensive coordinator for the Salukis and his third year serving as the associate head coach.

Schweigert's defensive units have set the tone for SIU, which has a 25-11 record since he arrived in Carbondale.

He worked miracles with his 2010 defense. Despite the fact that his side of the ball was decimated with injuries - four starters in the secondary were lost to season-ending injuries and 50 games in all were lost by players on the two-deep - his unit still led the Missouri Valley Football Conference in total defense. The Salukis only gave up an average of 332.1 yards per game, which was by far the best mark in the league.

Schweigert's defensive philosophy evolves around pressuring the quarterback and creating turnovers.

His 2009 defense ranked second nationally by intercepting 23 passes on the year and the Salukis tied for fourth nationally with 33 turnovers gained. That year, his defense also ranked eighth-nationally in scoring defense, allowing just 15.92 points per game.

In 2008, SIU was tied for 12th nationally in turnovers gained (29) and in three seasons his teams have forced an average of 2.2 turnovers per game (81 total).

Southern Illinois led the MVFC in 2009 with 36 sacks, a figure that ranked 12th nationally.

Because of the success from his defense, it is no surprise that many of his players have received numerous accolades. In his first three seasons at SIU, Schweigert has had two first team All-Americans and 14 All-Conference selections (seven first team, four second team, three honorable mention).

Cornerback Korey Lindsey garnered All-American accolades in each of his three seasons under Schweigert, and is one of just two players in school history to be an All-American in three separate seasons.

Lindsey was a finalist for the Buck Buchanan Award in 2010, as was linebacker Brandin Jordan the year before. Jordan was a consensus All-American in 2009.

Prior to SIU, Schweigert compiled a 22-21 record as head coach at Division II Minnesota Duluth (2004-07). He was named the North Central Conference Coach of the Year in 2005 after directing UMD to an 8-4 record, defeating three American Football Coaches Association top 20 teams along the way. His team won a share of the school's first NCC title and its second NCAA Division II playoff berth in four years. Schweigert was also named the D2football.com Northwest Region Coach of the Year and the AFCA Division II Coach of the Year for Region 5.

Prior to UMD, Schweigert spent 15 seasons at the University of North Dakota where he helped guide the Fighting Sioux to six NCC titles, eight playoff appearances and a Division II National Championship in 2001. He was Dale Lennon's defensive coordinator from 1999-2003. Schweigert was named the AFCA DII Assistant Coach of the Year in 2000.

Before joining North Dakota, Schweigert was the defensive coordinator at his alma mater, Jamestown College (N.D.), from 1985-88. He also served as admissions counselor and head baseball coach.

Schweigert, 48, has a bachelor's degree in business administration from Jamestown College and a master's degree from North Dakota. In 2002, he was honored with Jamestown College's Rollie Greeno Award for Outstanding Commitment in the field of education and coaching.

Schweigert and his wife, Laura, have two sons, A.J. (8) and Cooper (6).

KALEN DeBOER

Offensive Coordinator/Wide Receivers
University of Sioux Falls, 1996
14th Year Overall
2nd Season at SIU

Kalen DeBoer enters his second season as the offensive coordinator at SIU and he also serves as the position coach for the wide receivers.

DeBoer was hired on Feb. 5, 2010 after compiling a 67-3 (.957) record over five seasons as head coach at the University of Sioux Falls. He guided USF to three National Championships and was a three-time NAIA National Coach of the Year.

In his first season in Carbondale, the Saluki offense averaged 30.1 points and 378.2 yards of total offense per game behind a balanced attack. SIU ran for 189.5 yards per game and threw for 188.7 in the first year in DeBoer's system.

DeBoer's offense put up 508 yards of total offense in the final game of the 2010 season against Indiana State. That was the most yards gained in a game on the year and was one of five games SIU had with more than 400 yards of total offense. SIU's rushed for over 300 yards in two games and threw for over 300 once. His offense had 34 plays that went for 20 yards or longer (eight rush, 26 pass) on the year.

Prior to joining the Saluki coaching staff, DeBoer led one of the most dominant programs in the nation. In his five years as the head coach at Sioux Falls (2004-09), DeBoer won four Great Plains Athletic Conference Championships, 50-straight home games and 29-straight games overall over his last two seasons. That winning streak was the longest in the nation at any level in college football at the time.

His teams won back-to-back NAIA National Championships in 2008 and 2009, and adding in his 2006 national championship, DeBoer won as many National Championships as games he lost during his five-year tenure as USF's head coach.

He coached two NAIA National Player's of the Year in quarterbacks Lorenzo Brown (2009) and Chad Cavender (2007).

A graduate of USF, DeBoer played for the Cougars from 1993-96, where he was an All-American wide receiver. He set school records for receptions (234), receiving yards (2,400) and touchdown catches (33).

After his playing days were over, he became a student assistant for Sioux Falls under coach Bob Young in 1997. From 2000-04, he served as USF's offensive coordinator and succeeded Young as head coach in 2005. At the age of 32, he led Sioux Falls to the 2006 National Championship.

He and his wife, Nicole, have one daughter, Alexis.

RANDY HEDBERG

Quarterbacks
Minot State, 1977
33rd Year Overall
4th Season at SIU

Randy Hedberg enters his fourth season as the quarterback's coach at Southern Illinois.

Under Hedberg's tutelage, Chris Dieker was a two-time All-Conference performer who moved into the top five in 13 different offensive categories in the school record books. Dieker rounded out his Saluki career in 2010 with a 20-9 record in three years starting under center. He became one of just three quarterbacks in Saluki history to throw for over 5,000 yards in a career and signed a free agent contract with the Pittsburgh Steelers on July 27, 2011.

Dieker finished his Saluki career ranked third in career passing yards (5,237), career completions (446), career attempts (757), career completion percentage (.589), touchdown passes in a career (41) and total offense (5,735).

Dieker was named the Missouri Valley Football Conference Offensive Player of the Week after throwing for a career-high 279 yards and four touchdowns to go along with a pair of rushing touchdowns in a 49-21 win over Indiana State, Nov. 20, 2010.

In 2009, Dieker's season was cut in half when he went down with a broken collarbone against Youngstown State. The position didn't see a drop off, as Hedberg had backup Paul McIntosh ready to step in and lead the team. On his first pass after replacing Dieker, McIntosh threw an 86-yard touchdown pass to Joe Allaria, which is the second-longest TD pass in school history.

McIntosh went on to throw for 888 yards, eight touchdowns and his 67.2 completion percentage ranks No. 2 in school history for a single-season. McIntosh also rushed for 588 yards in 2009, which is a SIU single-season record for a quarterback. He was named to the 2009 MVFC All-Newcomer team.

Prior to SIU, Hedberg spent nine seasons as head coach at St. Cloud State, where he posted a 47-51 record. In 18 years as a collegiate head coach, he compiled an overall record of 92-74-2.

Hedberg began his collegiate coaching career as an assistant (1979-81) and head coach (1982-90) at Minot State. He also worked as an assistant head coach and offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach at Central Missouri State (1990-96). From 1996-99, Hedberg was the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks/receivers coach at North Dakota.

A four-year letterwinner in football, basketball and baseball at Minot State, Hedberg was drafted by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 1977 and started five games as a rookie. He was with Tampa Bay through 1978, Oakland in 1979 and Green Bay in 1980.

He was named by Sports Illustrated as one of the top 50 North Dakota sports figures of the 20th century. Hedberg holds a bachelor's degree from Minot State and a master's from North Dakota.

He and his wife, Chery Hysjulien, have four grown children - Jennifer, Katie, Christopher and Maddie.

TRAVIS STEPPS

Secondary
Pittsburg State, 2001
10th Year Overall
8th Season at SIU

Travis Stepps is in his eighth year as a member of the coaching staff at Southern Illinois and is in his sixth year as a full-time assistant. He came to SIU as a graduate assistant coach in 2004 and has been SIU's secondary coach, specifically in charge of the cornerbacks, since 2006. Stepps is the lone holdover from the Jerry Kill staff.

Stepps' players have received 10 All-Conference accolades in his tenure at SIU and he has coached a pair of All-Americans in Craig Turner and Korey Lindsey.

Turner was an honorable mention All-American in 2007 and Lindsey became just the second player in school history to be named an All-American in three separate seasons. Lindsey was a third team All-American selection by The Sports Network in 2008 and was voted a first team All-American by the AP in 2009 and 2010, becoming just the third Saluki to ever repeat as a first team All-American.

In 2010, Lindsey received the FCS Elite Defensive Back Award from the College Football Performance Awards, recognizing him as the top performer at the cornerback position based upon his cumulative performance among all Division I FCS cornerbacks in 2008 and 2009. In addition to those awards, Lindsey was a finalist in 2010 for the Buck Buchanan Award that goes to the top defensive player in the FCS.

Under Stepps' tutelage, Lindsey was a three-time All-MVFC selection and finished his career ranked third in school history in career interceptions (14) and ninth in pass breakups (16).

Stepps' secondaries have constantly been one of the nation's leaders in interceptions. In 2009, the Saluki defense ranked second nationally with 23 picks. In 2008, Southern ranked 22nd with 16 interceptions. The Salukis have also returned eight interceptions for touchdowns in the past three seasons under Stepps' watch.

SIU ranked No. 4 in the conference in pass efficiency defense in 2008 and was second in 2009. Then in 2010, Southern Illinois was second in the MVFC in passing defense and first in total defense.

Prior to joining the Southern Illinois coaching staff, Stepps spent two seasons on the staff at Washburn University. As a player, he was a two-time All-American defensive back at Pittsburg State.

The Fort Scott, Kan. native earned a bachelor's degree in social studies and education from Pittsburg State and a master's degree in sports management from Southern Illinois.

STEVE CRUTCHLEY

Running Backs
Wisconsin-Eau Claire, 2001
10th Year Overall
4th Season at SIU

Steve Crutchley is in his fourth season as the running backs coach at Southern Illinois. He has guided two different running backs to All-America accolades in his first three years at SIU.

In 2008, he coached Larry Warner, who was an Associated Press first team All-America selection, named to the CSN Fab-Fifty All-America Team and was selected by The Sports Network as a third team All-American. Warner rushed for 1,265 yards and 10 touchdowns under Crutchley's tutelage also returned three kickoffs for TDs while posting the nation's second-highest kickoff return average (31.2).

After Warner's departure, the running back position was the biggest question mark for the Salukis entering the 2009 campaign.

Crutchley transitioned the position better than imaginable and guided Deji Karim to consensus All-America status, as he led the nation with 1,694 rushing yards. Karim was the 2009 MVFC Offensive Player of the Year and finished third in the voting for the Walter Payton Award that goes to the most outstanding player in the FCS.

Karim set new school records in average yards per carry in a game (21.0 vs. Southwest Baptist), most all-purpose yards gained in a season (2,339) and he twice broke the school record for the longest run from scrimmage (had touchdown runs of 92 and 93 yards). Karim went on to be drafted in the sixth round of the 2010 NFL Draft by the Jacksonville Jaguars.

Behind his coaching, Southern Illinois as a team ranked fifth nationally in 2009 by averaging 221.1 rushing yards per game.

After Karim went on to the NFL, the running back position at SIU was once again left with vacancy. Crutchley in turn led a trio of running backs in 2010 that combined to rush for 189.5 yards per game. The combination of Lucien Walker, Shariff Harris and Steve Strother put up four 100-yard rushing games and Crutchley's running backs have posted 17 100-yard rushing games in his three-year tenure at SIU.

Asides from Warner and Karim, Crutchley also led fullback John Goode to first team All-MVFC accolades in 2009 and second team honors in 2010. In 2010, Harris was named to the MVFC All-Newcomer team.

Crutchley came to SIU after spending six years at St. Cloud State (2002-07). He joined the St. Cloud State staff as the wide receivers coach in 2002 and was promoted to co-offensive coordinator in 2007.

Crutchley played football and competed in track and field at the University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire. He was a three-year starter and letterwinner at wide receiver. His team won the WIAA title in 1998, and he was a two-time All-Conference selection.

In track, Crutchley was the 1999 conference champion in the indoor 200 meters and currently holds the 200-meter record at UWEC. He was also a member of the national qualifying 4x100 meter relay team in 1998 and 1999.

Crutchley received a bachelor's in social studies from UWEC and a master's in sports management from St. Cloud State in 2006.

ERIC SCHMIDT

Outside Linebackers/Defensive Line
North Dakota, 2002
10th Year Overall
4th Season at SIU

Eric Schmidt is entering his fourth season as SIU's outside linebackers and defensive line coach. He has coached seven All-Conference players in his first three years with the Salukis.

In 2010, defensive end Chance Coda was a second team All-MVFC selection after posting 8.0 tackles for a loss and 4.5 sacks. Coda was also a first team ESPN Academic All-American. Outside linebacker Jayson DiManche was named to the All-MVFC honorable mention team after leading the team in sacks and he was named the MVFC Defensive Player of the Week following his three-sack performance in a win over No. 20 Western Illinois.

Schmidt, who in his playing days had a knack for getting to the quarterback, has relayed that knowledge to the players he now coaches.

In 2009, outside linebacker Kyle Walker finished third in the MVFC with nine sacks, helping SIU lead the conference in total sacks. Another outside linebacker, Chauncey Mixon, capped off his career with 41.5 tackles for a loss and 16.0 sacks, which are tied for the seventh most in school history.

Mixon was a two-time All-MVFC player under Schmidt and the coach also led James Cloud to a second team All-MVFC nod in 2008.

On the defensive front, Schmidt guided nose guard Chris Arthurs to first team All-MVFC honors in 2009 and honorable mention accolades the year before. Defensive end Kyle Russo was named to the MVFC All-Newcomer team after recording six sacks in 2009.

A former standout linebacker under Dale Lennon at the University of North Dakota, Schmidt coached with Lennon at his alma mater for two seasons (2006-07) before coming to SIU.

Prior to UND, he spent four years as head football coach at Crookston (Minn.) High School. He led the Pirates to a Section 8AAA runner-up finish in 2004, and one year earlier, led the team to the Minnesota state semifinals. Schmidt was named the 2003 Section 8AAA Coach of the Year. He also coached girls basketball at Crookston and guided the team to a State AA runner-up finish in 2006.

A native of Mandan, N.D., Schmidt played for the Fighting Sioux from 1998-01 and was a captain of UND's 2001 national championship team. A two-time All-North Central Conference selection, Schmidt earned All-America honors as a senior in 2001. His 10.0 sacks as a senior set a new school record.

Schmidt received his bachelor's degree in secondary education from North Dakota in 2002. He and his wife, Tiffany, have a one year-old daughter, Kennedy.

PHIL MEYER

Offensive Line
Illinois State, 1979
31st Year Overall
8th Season Overall at SIU

Phil Meyer is in his second stint as an assistant coach at SIU and his eighth season overall with the Salukis. The Milwaukee, Wis. native that has 31 years of coaching experience was SIU's offensive coordinator from 1989-93 and now enters his third season since his return in 2009 as the Saluki offensive line coach.

In his first two seasons back with the Salukis since the early 90's, Meyer's offensive line has paced Southern Illinois to over 30 points per game in both 2009 and 2010. SIU ranked seventh nationally by averaging 34 points per game in 2009 and his unit led the Saluki rushing attack that averaged 221.1 yards per game - good for No. 5 in the FCS. Southern Illinois allowed just 14 sacks in 13 games in his first season as the offensive line coach, which were the second fewest in the conference.

Meyer has mentored a pair of All-Conference linemen. Center Bryan Boemer and left tackle David Pickard received All-MVFC recognition in both 2009 and 2010, and the duo returns under Meyer along with the three other starting linemen in 2011, which should make for his best unit yet.

Pickard received third team All-America accolades from The Sports Network (TSN) following the 2009 season and TSN tabbed Boemer as one of the top 10 offensive linemen in the nation entering his 2011 senior season. Both Boemer and Pickard have twice been named the MVFC Offensive Lineman of the Week.

Previously, Meyer has coached at Minnesota (OL, 2007-08), Wisconsin-Oshkosh (head coach, 2000-06), Iowa State (QB, 1998-99; TE, 1995-97), Illinois State (OC, 1994), Western Illinois (OL, 1994), Northern Arizona (OL, 1988) and Southeast Missouri State (OC, 1986-87; OL, 1984-85).

As head coach at Wisconsin-Oshkosh, Meyer led the Division III program to 31 wins in seven seasons, including a 16-4 mark in non-conference games.

Meyer earned a bachelor's degree (1979) and master's (1980) from Illinois State. He coached at his alma mater as a student assistant (1978) and graduate assistant (1979-80). Meyer attended Milwaukee Pius XI High School, where he was a starter on the Popes' 1972 WISAA state championship team. He played one season at UW-Milwaukee and three at Illinois State. He and his wife, Brandi, have two daughters, Miranda and Madison.

JOHN STEGER

Inside Linebackers/Special Teams Coord.
Loras College, 1985
23rd Year Overall
1st Season at SIU

John Steger was hired on Jan. 6, 2009 and enters his second season as SIU's inside linebackers coach and special teams coordinator. He adds 22 years of experience as a defensive coordinator to the Saluki staff.

In his first year at SIU, Steger mentored linebacker Stephen Franklin, who led the team with 76 tackles and was a second team All-MVFC selection. Fellow inside linebacker, Joe Okon, was second on the team with 71 tackles and he and Franklin combined for 12 tackles for a loss.

Steger's linebackers were instrumental in leading the Saluki defense that led the MVFC in total defense in 2010, giving up just 332.1 yards per game.

His special teams units made a number of big plays throughout the year, most notably two blocked punts that were returned for touchdowns and Steve Strother's 91-yard kickoff return for a touchdown against Southeast Missouri State. Additionally, Steger guided true freshman punter Austin Pucylowski to the MVFC All-Newcomer team, as Pucylowski averaged 39.8 yards on 64 punts with no touchbacks.

Prior to joining the Saluki staff, Steger spent 11 seasons at the University of Minnesota Duluth and led the Bulldogs to four playoff appearances and the 2008 NCAA Division II National Championship. UMD posted an 86-42 (.672) record with eight winning seasons and four conference championships in Steger's time in Duluth.

Under Steger's skillful watch, UMD's defensive units were constantly ranked among the nations best. In 2009, when he led the Bulldogs to an 11-2 record and the quarterfinals of the playoffs, Duluth ranked in the top five nationally in rushing defense (69.1 ypg) and total defense (251.0) while finishing second in scoring defense by only allowing 12.5 points per game.

During the run to the 2008 National Championship, his defense allowed the third fewest points per game and total yards with the second fewest rushing yards per contest in the NCAA Division II ranks. For his success guiding his defensive unit, Steger was named a finalist for the 2008 footballscoop.com NCAA II Coordinator of the Year Award.

Steger's student-athletes have been the direct beneficiaries of his tutelage, as 11 of his defensive players were named to the All-NSIC North Division first team in this last two years at UMD. Inside linebacker Robbie Aurich was named the 2009 NCC North Division Defensive Player of the Year and the Daktronics Super Regional 3 Defensive Player of the Year. He was a first team AFCA All-American in 2009. Russ Rabe also earned All-America status under Steger in 2004, when the defensive end ranked third among NCAA II players in quarterback sacks.

Steger joined the UMD staff in 1999 after being employed the previous 11 years as a defensive coordinator at two NCAA Division III schools. He served a seven-season stint at the University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire (1992-98) and spent four years at Sul Ross State (1988-91). Steger's first coaching job was at Sol Ross State, where he spent two seasons as a graduate assistant coach.

A native of Dubuque, Iowa, Steger started a pair of seasons at linebacker while attending Loras College (Iowa) and co-captained the Duhawks as a senior in 1984. He lettered three times in two sports -- football and track (sprinter) -- at Dubuque's Wahlert High School and landed All-Mississippi Valley Conference honors following his final prep football season.

Steger, 47, received a B.A. degree in both physical education and business from Loras College in 1985 and a master's degree in education from Sul Ross State three years later.

Steger and his wife, Barbara, reside in Murphysboro.

JIM JACKSON

Tight Ends
Cornell, 2003
9th Year Overall
2nd Season at SIU

Jim Jackson enters his second season as an assistant coach for the Saluki football team. He is responsible for coaching the tight ends.

In his first year at Southern Illinois, Jackson's tight ends were instrumental in helping the Saluki offense average 30.1 points per game and 378.2 yards of total offense. The tight ends, playing a major role in run blocking, helped pave the way for the Saluki rushing attack that averaged 189.5 yards per game and scored 22 touchdowns on the year.

Kyle Harruff tied for the team lead with three touchdown receptions under Jackson's guidance and Harruff had 17 catches for 294 yards - an average of 17.3 yards per reception. Fellow tight ends C.J. Robertson, Philip Schumacher and tight end/fullback John Goode also hauled in touchdown catches in 2010. Goode was a second team All-MVFC selection in 2010 under Jackson.

Jackson came to Southern Illinois from the University of Minnesota, where he was an assistant offensive line coach from 2007-09. In 2007, Jackson helped coach the Gopher offensive front that ranked 10th in the nation in sacks allowed (13 total). He worked directly with the Gopher centers along with his various other coaching duties.

Prior to joining the Minnesota staff, Jackson spent one season as a defensive graduate assistant working with the defensive line at Louisiana-Lafayette. Before that, Jackson spent the 2005 season as a graduate assistant working as video coordinator and with the offensive line at Toledo and in 2004 he served as assistant defensive backs coach and assistant video coordinator at Lehigh. He started his coaching career in 2003 as the outside linebackers coach at Methodist (N.C.) College.

Jackson played both football and baseball at Cornell University in Ithaca, N.Y. He was a three-year starter on the baseball team and a team captain and played two seasons on the football team.

A Mesquite, Texas native, Jackson received his bachelor's degree in communications from Cornell in 2003. He earned his master's degree from Minnesota in sports management in 2009.

He and his wife, Michelle, married in July 2011.

JARED NESSLAND

DALE DUNLAP

Defensive Graduate Assistant
Tennessee Tech, 2006
3rd Year Overall
1st Season at SIU

Dale Dunlap is in his first season as the defensive graduate assistant coach with the Saluki football program. He is responsible for game preparation and scouting and also assists in coaching the outside linebackers.

Dunlap comes to SIU after coaching two seasons at Northern State University in Aberdeen, S.D., where he was in charge of the outside linebackers. Dunlap also had two different stints as a defensive coordinator at the high school level in Tennessee.

He played linebacker at Cumberland University from 2001-03. Dunlap holds a Bachelor of Science in history from Tennessee Tech University, which he received in 2006. He is expecting his master's degree in educational administration from Northern State and has started working on a master's of sport management at Southern Illinois.

Dunlap and his wife, Mallory, married in the summer of 2008.

LARRY WARNER

Offensive Graduate Assistant
Southern Illinois, 2009
1st Season at SIU

Larry Warner, an Associated Press first team All-American running back at Southern Illinois in 2008, returns to his alma mater as the offensive graduate assistant coach for the 2011 season. Warner is in charge of the video operations for the team and is responsible for game preparation and scouting while assisting in coaching the wide receivers.

After graduating from Southern Illinois with a degree in recreation, Warner spent time on the coaching staff at Carbondale High School.

In his playing days for the Salukis (2007-08), Warner ran for 1,790 yards and 15 touchdowns while averaging over six yards per carry in his career. Warner returned 28 kickoffs in two seasons for an average of 27 yards with three touchdowns. He ranked second in the nation in 2008 with a 31.2 average on 19 kickoff returns with three touchdowns.

Warner received first team All-MVFC accolades as a senior in 2008, when he was also tabbed as a third team All-American by The Sports Network and named to the CSN Fab-Fifty All-America team.

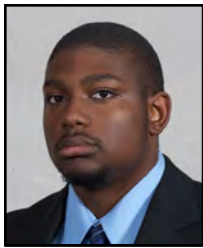

Prior to coming to Southern Illinois, Warner was a NJCAA All-American at Mississippi Gulf Coast Community College in 2006, and led his team with 1,237 yards and 12 touchdowns on 169 carries.

Warner, a native of Vicksburg, Miss. and graduate of Warren Central High School, is working towards his master's degree in sports management at Southern Illinois.

He and his wife, Dominique, have one daughter, Penny.

CARBONDALE, Ill. -The Southern Illinois football team opened Saluki Stadium in front of a sellout crowd Thursday night, handily defeating Quincy, 70-7.

The 15,276 in attendance marked the second-largest crowd for a home opener in school history. Head coach Dale Lennon said afterwards that he knew the people in Southern Illinois would come out and christen the stadium in grand fashion.

"It just felt so good to be in the stadium with that many people there, and them having a good time," Lennon said. "I just hope that they all had a good time at the game because we got some big games coming up and we're going to need them."

The 70 points the Salukis scored in the game were the eighth-most in school history. SIU had six different players that scored TDs, and senior running back Lucien Walker led the way with three rushing scores.

"It felt good to get my first start and get my feet wet," Walker said. "I thought we executed well. We passed well, ran the ball well, blocked well. I think the O-Line did an awesome job."

Walker, who only had two career rushing touchdowns coming into the game, finished with 116 yards on the ground off 12 carries. Three other running backs also found the end zone and junior Shariff Harris (rushing) and sophomore Steve Strother (one rushing, one receiving) both had two touchdowns.

Southern Illinois scored on 10 of its 14 drives in the game and had 496 yards of total offense.

Senior quarterback Chris Dieker had an efficient game in limited action, throwing for 148 yards on 11-of-15 passing with two TDs. Jeff Evans led all receivers with 78 yards on seven catches with one score. Senior tight end Kyle Harruff caught a 42-yard touchdown from Dieker in the third quarter.

The young Saluki defense only gave up 194 yards to the Hawks. Former SIU quarterback Bobby Brenneisen, who transferred to Quincy over the summer, finished with 89 yards passing. He completed 10-of-18 passes with one touchdown.

Sophomore linebacker Joe Okon led the team with seven tackles, and SIU recorded nine stops behind the line of scrimmage in the game. Two Saluki freshmen, Boo Rodgers (interception) and E.J. Clark (fumble recovery on kickoff) created turnovers and Robert Spann added a fumble recovery caused by Connor James to give the defense three turnovers on the night.

Walker got the Salukis (1-0) off to a hot start, scoring rushing touchdowns of 16 and four yards on SIU's first two drives of the game.

Dieker racked SIU's lead up to 21-0 with an 11-yard touchdown pass to Evans on the first play of the second quarter.

Quincy's Adam Dry returned the ensuing kickoff 56-yards to the Saluki 31, and three plays later on a third-and-9, Brenneisen found Justin Dickens on a lob to the end zone for a TD.

The Hawk score was one of two hiccups for the Salukis in the first half, as Harris added on a six-yard touchdown run to give SIU the 28-7 lead at the break.

Southern Illinois came out of the half and scored three touchdowns in under seven minutes, using just 11 plays.

Walker stiff-armed several defenders on a nine-yard run for his third TD and Dieker hit Harruff on a 42-yard pass. The Hawks failed to field the ensuing kickoff after Harruff's score, and Clark hopped on the ball at the QU 23.

That led to a seven-yard touchdown pass from Paul McIntosh to Strother.

Harris capped off a 28-point third quarter with a three-yard run to give SIU a 56-7 lead. Those 28 points are the second most scored by the Salukis in the third quarter of a game in program history.

Strother would score again in the fourth quarter on a one-yard run that was set-up by his 18-yard scamper. Anton Wilkins put in the final points on a four-yard run in midway through the fourth.

CHAMPAIGN, Ill. - No. 2 Southern Illinois created three turnovers, but were only able to score three points as the Salukis fell 35-3 to Illinois Saturday night at Memorial Stadium.

SIU's offense had the ball in the Illini red zone four times, but came away with just three points. The empty drives ended on downs, a fumble and a missed field goal. Southern Illinois falls to 1-1 on the year while Illinois improves to 1-1.

"We're disappointed we didn't put on a better show tonight," head coach Dale Lennon said. "We felt we are capable of doing things better than what we did."

"Our players played hard. It wasn't that the want-to wasn't there, it was just that we made mistakes - made some young mistakes - and that is something that we got to clean up."

The Saluki defense and special teams gave the offense the ball in Illini territory three times, but Southern couldn't capitalize. The Salukis converted just 3-of-16 third-down attempts in the game while the Illini were 8-of-13.

"The main thing is just execution," Lennon said of the red zone struggles. "You look at our third-down conversions, we were just not very good."

Senior kicker Kyle Dougherty tied the school record by making his 50th career field goal. He was 1-for-3 with misses from 38 and a career-long attempt of 56 yards.

Illinois outgained SIU 407-230 and redshirt freshman quarterback Nathan Scheelhaase threw for 229 yards and two touchdowns to lead the Illini.

SIU senior quarterback Chris Dieker was 19-for-35 in the game for 168 yards and one fumble. Joe Allaria caught a career-high nine passes for 94 yards, but Southern only got 46 yards rushing Saturday.

"It's disappointing," Allaria said. "We're going to learn from it and that's what we have to do. We're going to keep fighting - we fought hard tonight - and we are going to put more points on the board."

Safeties Mike McElroy and Boo Rodgers both picked off passes and Connor James recovered a fumble on a punt return. Senior Stephen Franklin led Southern's defense with a career-high 12 tackles.

Illinois jumped out to a 14-0 lead after the first quarter behind a pair of big pass plays. Scheelhaase hit A.J. Jenkins for a 54-yard touchdown five minutes in. Then his 34-yard completion to Evan Wilson set up Mikel Leshoure's one-yard run towards the end of the opening quarter.

Illini wide receiver Eddie McGee threw three passes in the first 25 minutes of the game, and SIU intercepted him twice. McElroy picked off his second one, giving the Salukis the ball on the Illini 20-yard line.

Southern couldn't get into the end zone, but Dougherty's record-tying field goal from 30 yards out gave SIU its first points five minutes before halftime.

Leshoure scored for the second time on an 8-yard rushing touchdown inside of three minutes to give Illinois a 21-3 lead at the half.

SIU came out in the third quarter and went three-and-out, but on the punt, Illini return man Jack Ramsey touched the ball he let drop and James recovered for the Salukis at the Illini 17-yard line.

However, Dieker fumbled while scrambling on a third-and-three at the 10-yard line and SIU came up empty once again in Illinois territory.

The missed opportunity told the story of the night, and Illinois followed with a 10-play, 90-yard drive to up its score to 28-3. Scheelhaase hit Justin Lattimore on a 33-yard TD pass off a third-and-three.

Southern's offense would get no more and Illini tacked on a rushing touchdown in the fourth to end the scoring.

CARBONDALE, Ill. - Southeast Missouri State rallied from a 21-3 deficit with just over 18 minutes to go to come back and hand No. 5 Southern Illinois its first home non-conference loss since 2002.

Henry Harris' 67-yard touchdown run with 3:41 to play put the Redhawks up for good in their 24-21 victory on Saturday at Saluki Stadium.

Southeast Missouri State, who was also the last team to beat SIU at home in non-conference play, ends SIU's 16-game streak.

This is the first time in Southern Illinois head coach Dale Lennon's tenure that the Salukis have lost back-to-back games. SIU falls to 1-2 on the year while Southeast Missouri improves to 2-1.

"This is one of those that is extremely disappointing," Lennon said. "It was there for the taking, we just failed to close. We just didn't have the ability to make the stop when we needed to, and to be successful you got to play four quarters. We played three quarters and didn't get it done."

Shariff Harris' three-yard touchdown run with 3:46 left in the third quarter gave SIU the 21-3 lead. Southeast Missouri, which had the ball for nearly seven more minutes than SIU did in the second half, put together drives of eight and 10 plays to pull within four points with five minutes to go.

Southern Illinois had the chance to run out the clock after that, but went three-and-out to give the ball back to SEMO for its decisive score. SIU, who was 3-of-16 on third downs last week in a loss at Illinois, converted just 3-of-9 third-down tries on Saturday.

SIU now out gained 391-255 on the night and the Salukis only had 83 yards passing on just 12 attempts. Shariff Harris ran for 89 yards to lead the Dawgs, who had 172 yards on the ground. Paul McIntosh replaced starting quarterback Chris Dieker in the second quarter and finished 5-for-6 passing for 76 yards and one touchdown.

Henry Harris finished with 142 yards rushing and two touchdowns to lead the Redhawk option rushing attack that racked up 228 yards on the ground.

Two turnovers from SIU to start the game, one that came off an interception near the SEMO goal line, led to a 34-yard field goal from Drew Geldbach at 1:57 to give the Redhawks the early lead.

It didn't last long though, as Steve Strother returned the ensuing kickoff 91-yards for the touchdown. It was SIU's fifth kickoff return for a touchdown in 28 games under Lennon.

McIntosh led SIU on its two drives in the second quarter and he gave Southern a 14-3 lead when he found Matt Guinn on a 36-yard touchdown pass right before the half.

After only gaining 37 yards in the entire second quarter, Southeast Missouri State drove 51 yards to the SIU 10-yard line on its first drive of the third quarter. However, the Redhawks came up empty as Geldbach missed a 27-yard field goal.

Southern Illinois made the most of the missed field goal, and drove down 80 yards on 12 plays to take a 21-3 lead. 11 of the 12 plays on the drive were rushes - eight that were by Harris - and he capped it off with a three-yard touchdown run at 3:46.

The Redhawks got their first touchdown of the game right before the end of the third quarter. Mike Jones finished an eight-play, 71-yard drive with a one-yard touchdown run.

That drive swung the momentum to the Redhawks for the first time since SIU's two turnovers to start the game. It then led to another long scoring drive that covered 74 yards in just over five minutes.

Henry Harris capped off that drive with a 14-yard rushing touchdown to close the gap to 21-17 with eight and a half minutes to play.

Five minutes later, Harris scampered for a 67-yards for the game-winning score.

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio - Youngstown State forced four turnovers and scored 31 unanswered points to defeat Southern Illinois, 31-28, Saturday at Stambaugh Stadium in the Missouri Valley Football Conference opener for both schools.

Southern Illinois (1-3, 0-1 MVFC) has now dropped three-straight and this defeat ends SIU's 14-game conference winning streak, which is the all-time league record. This is the first time since 2002 that SIU has lost three-straight games and the first time since 2001 that Southern has lost a MVFC opener. Youngstown State improves to 3-1 on the year and 1-0 in league play.

SIU opened up with a 14-0 lead, but failed to score in the middle two quarters. The four turnovers, three of which came in the second quarter, led to Southern's demise on Saturday.

"You can't make the mistakes that we made tonight and expect to win," head coach Dale Lennon said. "That's what is discouraging and I think that we are better than what we showed. We have to play smarter football and be able to execute at a higher level on a more consistent basis."

Youngstown State dominated the ball for a majority of the game, controlling possession for 37:16 in comparison to Southern's 22:44.

Senior quarterback Chris Dieker opened the game up by completing 7-of-8 passes for 69 yards and a touchdown, but finished 24-for-42 for 258 yards and two TDs with two interceptions.

Joe Allaria had nine catches in the game, including a 37-yard catch for a touchdown to pull Southern within three with less than a minute to go in the game. His third reception was the 100th of his career. Jeff Evans lifted a somewhat stagnant SIU offense, tallying 10 catches for 100 total yards.

YSU's offense was led by quarterback Kurt Hess, who completed 9-of-15 passes for 94 total yards and three touchdowns. Jamaine Cook added 111 yards and one TD in 26 attempts on the ground.

The storyline of the first half was turnovers and special teams play.

Both teams missed field goals on their opening drives, and Luke Thuston's blocked punt sparked a flurry for the Salukis to end the first quarter.

Taylor Hunter returned Thuston's block 38-yards for a touchdown for the first points of the game.

On YSU's third play after the punt block, Chance Coda's sack on Hess knocked the ball free and T.J. Shine recovered for SIU on its own 49-yard line. Southern then only needed three plays to find the end zone, as Dieker hit John Goode on an eight-yard pass with four seconds left in the opening period.

The 14-point lead didn't last long though, as Hess found Kevin Watts for a pair of touchdown passes in the first 10 minutes of the second quarter. The first was a 15-yard pass and the second score was set up on a Dieker fumble caused by David Rach's sack.

Southern finished the half with three turnovers, and it was the third giveaway that gave Youngstown State the opportunity to take a 21-14 lead into the half.

Dieker was picked off near midfield, allowing Hess to throw his third touchdown of the game. This time he hit tight end Carson Sharbaugh on a third-and-goal at 1:32.

YSU picked off Dieker for the second time at 7:37 of the third quarter, giving the Guins the ball at their own 22-yard line. Four plays later, Cook gave Youngstown State a 28-14 lead on a one-yard touchdown run.

A 37-yard Stephen Blose field goal on the first play of the fourth quarter gave the Penguins a 31-14 lead. Southern knocked on Youngstown's door with 1:28 left in the game on a four-yard rush from Dieker sealed with a Kyle Dougherty extra point. Five plays later, after a successful on-side kick, Dieker found Allaria for SIU's final score of the game.

SIU was unable to recover a second on-side's kick and ended up falling by three points.

NORMAL, ILL. - Luke Thuston blocked a punt and returned it for a touchdown and No. 23 Southern Illinois ran for a season-high 342 yards to defeat No. 19 Illinois State, 38-17, Saturday at Hancock Stadium to snap a three-game losing streak.

SIU improves to 2-3 on the year and 1-1 in the Missouri Valley Football Conference with what could be a season-changing victory on the road. Illinois State falls to 3-2 overall and 2-1 in the conference with its first home loss of the season.

"When you are going through a losing streak you kind of question everything and you just got to stick to what you believe in and believe in the players," head coach Dale Lennon said. "Today it all came together for us."

"The nice thing was, now we've played a full game and we were able to close when we needed to close. For today at least, we did what we had to."

Junior running back Shariff Harris had 37 carries for 163 yards and two touchdowns and quarterback Chris Dieker added 91 yards rushing on 10 carries with one touchdown. Dieker threw for 78 yards with one TD to Matt Guinn in the third quarter.

"What worked for me was the offensive line," Harris said when asked about his big day running the ball. "This was a very important win, and the whole team was very hungry to get the win."

Thuston, a redshirt freshman who made his first career start at strong safety, had 1.5 tackles for a loss, one fumble recovery and his blocked punt was his second in as many games. Thuston's pressure of quarterback Matt Brown with seconds remaining in the second quarter led to a Stephen Franklin interception when the Redbirds had the ball on the Saluki two-yard line.

Kyle Dougherty broke the SIU school record when he made the 51st career field goal in the first quarter.

SIU outgained Illinois State, 420-218, and the Saluki defense held the Redbird passing attack to just 149 yards, which is 115 yards under their average. Illinois State also only had 69 yards rushing on the day.

Sophomore running back Steve Strother added 49 yards rushing on seven carries and quarterback Paul McIntosh came in to add 26 yards on five carries and picked up one big fourth down. SIU was 5-of-5 on fourth-down conversions in the game.

Outside linebacker Jayson DiManche had a team-high eight tackles, 1.5 tackles for a loss and two pass breakups at the line of scrimmage. Cornerback Nick King had a career-high six tackles, including several big hits when Illinois State tried some short passes to his side of the field.

Southern Illinois came out ready to play on Saturday, scoring 17-straight points to start the game.

Dieker led SIU down 77 yards for its first drive, which he capped off with a 13-yard touchdown run.

After a big sack from Chance Coda on a third-and-13, the Redbirds had to punt from out of their own end zone and the Salukis got the ball at the ISU 34-yard line on their second drive.

That led to a 23-yard Dougherty field goal at 3:06 to put SIU up 10-0. His 51st career field goal moved him ahead of Craig Coffin for the most field goals made in school history.

Thuston then blocked a punt and returned it eight yards for a touchdown to give SIU the 17-0 lead after the first quarter.

After changing ends of the field at the quarter, Illinois State got on the scoreboard with a 28-yard Matt Brown to Marvon Sanders touchdown pass.

The Salukis had the ball on the ISU eight-yard line inside of two minutes before halftime. Dieker was hit while throwing and the ball popped up in the air and into the arms of Redbird defensive tackle Dave Rivas.

Illinois State had drove down all the way to the Saluki two-yard line, but with 15 seconds left, Thuston pressured Brown to throw an errant pass that Stephen Franklin intercepted right in front of the goal line.

Thuston continued on with his strong play in the third quarter, recovering a fumble at the Redbird 16-yard line. Two plays later, Dieker hit Guinn for a 15-yard touchdown pass to give SIU a 24-7 lead.

Illinois State climbed back to within 14 at 4:46 of the third quarter with a Steven Fetzer 39-yard field goal.

The gap was cut closer when ISU's punt block team returned the favor to SIU. With 25 seconds left before the end of the third quarter, Redbird receiver Marcus King blocked a Austin Pucylowski punt and Mike Hiestand returned it 28 yards for a touchdown.

Dieker then engineered a touchdown drive to kill ISU's momentum and put the Salukis back up by 14. His 33-yard rush, which came when he escaped what should have been a sure sack, set up a two-yard touchdown run by Harris with 12:01 to play.

SIU then grinded out the clock the rest of the way and Harris capped off the scoring with a 3-yard touchdown run at 5:48.

CARBONDALE, ILL. - Chris Dieker hit Jeff Evans on a 7-yard touchdown pass to lift No. 21 Southern Illinois over No. 15 Northern Iowa in overtime, 45-38, on Homecoming Saturday at Saluki Stadium.

Dieker led SIU (3-3, 2-1 Missouri Valley Football Conference) back from a 38-31 deficit with 4:36 to play and his 3-yard touchdown run with 1:11 left pushed the game into overtime.

There the Salukis were on offense first and on a third-and-3 from the seven, he lobbed a pass to Evans who was able to get a foot inbounds at the back of the end zone for the go-ahead score.

Southern's defense then came up big and forced Northern Iowa (2-3, 2-1) into a fourth-and-18 with the help from a UNI penalty and a Chance Coda and Kayon Swanson sack. Panther quarterback Tirrell Rennie tried to hit Montari Leonard in the end zone, but SIU's Buck Buchanan Award candidate Corey Lindsey swatted the pass away to secure the Saluki victory.

"I'm still trying to take everything in with this crazy win," said Evans, who finished with seven catches for a career-high 159 yards and two touchdowns. "I feel like we finally broke in our stadium with this one. Dieker just put a great ball right there in the corner, and I got one foot in."

The win was SIU's 13th in a row at home in MVFC games and ninth-straight homecoming victory. Head coach Dale Lennon's squad has now won back-to-back games after losing three-straight to end the month of September.

"That's why you play the game, because these are special moments," Lennon said. "I'm proud of the team for hanging in there. The guys have a lot of pride in representing SIU Football and I do think that carries us a long ways, and is something pretty significant."

The game was one of runs. Southern Illinois scored 21 unanswered points to take a 31-14 lead at the half. Northern Iowa responded with 24 unanswered after halftime, but Dieker drove SIU down 72 yards in 11 plays to tie the game up in the final minute and force overtime.

"UNI is too good of a team not to expect them to make a run at us in the second half, and they did," Lennon said of the Panthers' comeback. "Our guys responded and that was the good thing. I thought we did keep a very positive sideline, especially in the fourth quarter, and when we needed to respond, we did."

Dieker finished the game with a season-high 263 yards on 20-of-27 passing and two touchdowns. His 15-yard touchdown pass to tight end Kyle Haruff with 19 seconds left before halftime was the last points SIU scored until Dieker's game-tying touchdown run with a minute left.

The 329 passing yards that Southern had in the game is the most in Lennon's tenure, and the most since SIU had 348 yards through the air against Southeast Missouri State in 2005.

Northern Iowa was led by its explosive quarterback Rennie. He ran for 126 yards and two scores and threw for 104 yards and another touchdown.

The Saluki defense did give up 463 yards of total offense, but they created four turnovers and Southern scored 17 points off the four Panther mishaps. Freshman safety Luke Thuston returned an interception 36 yards for a touchdown in the second quarter and Robert Spann and Terrell Wilson also had picks.

Southern's running game was held in check, as they only had 85 yards in the game. The Salukis effectively used both quarterbacks, and Paul McIntosh had a team-high 49 yards rushing with one 20-yard touchdown run. McIntosh also hit Evans on a 66-yard touchdown pass in the first quarter. Evans beat the defender deep, but was caught and fumbled at the nine while being tackled. He was able to get up and recover it for the touchdown just before the ball went out of the back of the end zone.

Senior linebacker Stephen Franklin led the defense with 10 tackles, which was his second double-digit tackle game of the year. E.J. Clark forced a fumble in the first quarter that set up SIU's first score of the game, a 23-yard field goal from Kyle Dougherty.

"I don't know if it's really set in how we won the game, but I'm just so happy we won," Franklin said. "We're ecstatic right now."

CARBONDALE, Ill. - Kyle Minett ran 30 times for 144 yards and two touchdowns to lead South Dakota State to a 31-10 victory over No. 15 Southern Illinois on Saturday at Saluki Stadium.

The Jackrabbits (2-4, 2-2 Missouri Valley Football Conference) started the year out 0-4, but have now won back-to-back games and their win over SIU (3-4, 2-2 MVFC) ends its 13-game home winning streak in league play.

South Dakota State had 194 rushing yards in the game and the Salukis have now allowed 519 yards on the ground in their last two games.

"We got it handed to us and that's disappointing," Saluki head coach Dale Lennon said. "That's our job to get the team ready to play, and we just didn't have what we needed today."

Cole Brodie's 87-yard interception return for a touchdown on a Paul McIntosh pass at 6:54 of the second quarter was the play that sparked SDSU's route. The game was scoreless before that and it seemed to sink Southern Illinois, who failed to come up with a big play of its own all game.

"They took advantage of their opportunities and they made it hurt," Lennon said. "We just couldn't get that spark going to get any type of momentum. It was an uphill battle all day."

The Salukis only managed to find the end zone once on the day, late in the fourth quarter when Chris Dieker found Joe Allaria from 10 yards out. Allaria led both teams with 105 receiving yards on 10 catches, but overall SIU's offense struggled to put together successful drives.

South Dakota State held the Salukis to 24 points under its per game average. SIU did out-gain the Jacks, 333-297, but 132 of that came in the final 8:48 of the game when the Salukis were already down 31-3.

Joe Okon was a bright spot in Southern's defense, recording a career-high 13 tackles. Okon, finishing with three assisted and 10 solo tackles, is the second Saluki this season with 10 or more tackles in a game.

The first quarter went scoreless, but it appeared SIU was going to be the first to get on the board as it had reached the red zone midway through the second quarter. A holding penalty put the Salukis in a second-and-long, and McIntosh was then picked off by Brodie. He returned the interception 87-yards for a touchdown to give SDSU a 7-0 lead.

The Jackrabbits then went up 14-0 with 1:57 to go in the second quarter on a Thomas O'Brien six-yard pass to Aaron Rollin. It capped off an 11-play, 62-yard drive that spanned 3:28 on the clock.

McIntosh was able to get Southern on the scoreboard before halftime, as he drove the Salukis down 45-yards in 1:29 to set up Kyle Dougherty's 38-yard field goal right before halftime.

SDSU's lead went up to 21-3 late in the third quarter when Minett scored on a one-yard run on third-and-goal.

South Dakota State had a short kickoff after the touchdown and the Salukis failed to field the ball. That gave the Jacks the ball at the SIU 28-yard line, and three plays later, Minett rumbled 22 yards for his second rushing touchdown in 57 seconds.

Peter Reifenrath added a 35-yard field goal for the Jacks and SIU got its lone touchdown, a 10-yard Dieker to Allaria pass in the fourth quarter, to round out the game.

SPRINGFIELD, Mo. - Missouri State scored the final 10 points in an offensive firestorm to hand the Southern Illinois football team a 51-41 loss on Saturday at Plaster Field.

The loss, SIU's second in a row, all but ends Southern's chances of extending its nation's second-leading playoff streak to eight consecutive seasons. The Salukis fall to 3-5 on the year, 2-3 in the Missouri Valley Football Conference.

Missouri State, with its fourth-consecutive home victory, improves to 4-4 overall and 3-2 in league play.

Head coach Dale Lennon thought the difference in the game was Missouri State scoring 13 points off three Saluki turnovers and Southern's inability to force the Bears to turn the ball over.

"I think the turning point in the game was in the third quarter offensively when we committed two turnovers," Lennon said. "We got to protect the ball and those were things we didn't do. That kind of started the track meet after that. Fortunately we responded and got back in it, but we just weren't able to close."

Missouri State overcame a two-point halftime deficit by scoring 17 unanswered points with the help from two Saluki turnovers in the first 10 minutes of the third quarter. SIU tied the game up at 41 with plenty of time left in the game, but was unable to hold off the MSU attack.

The Bears, who came into the day with the nation's No. 5 scoring offense at 36.6 points per game, threw for 365 yards and had 495 yards of total offense. The 92 combined points in the game is the highest scoring affair Southern has been a part of since Oct. 5, 2002, when SIU defeated Western Illinois, 54-52.

The Salukis had 475 yards of total offense and 282 of that came on the ground. Junior running back Shariff Harris ran for 152 yards on 16 carries (9.5 average) with one touchdown. The loss ends Southern's 15-game winning streak when they have a 100-yard rusher.

Sophomore running back Steve Strother had 145 all-purpose yards and two touchdowns. His first was a 60-yard touchdown reception from Chris Dieker in the third quarter, and his second was on a five-yard run that helped SIU tie the game at 41 with 11:23 to play.

Dieker threw for 210 yards on 15-of-21 passing and one interception that went through the hands of a Saluki receiver and into the arms of Missouri State's Derek Miller. Dieker threw two TDs on the day and ran for another.

Missouri State quarterback Cody Kirby was 24-of-36 passing for 348 yards and two touchdowns. Jermaine Saffold had nine receptions for 176 yards and one touchdown to lead the Bear receivers.

Southern's defense was led by senior inside linebacker Stephen Franklin, who registered his third double-digit tackle game of the season with 10 stops. SIU had nine tackles for a loss in the game and three sacks. Outside backer Jayson DiManche was in on a pair of sacks and finished with nine tackles.

FARGO, N.D. - North Dakota State blocked a punt and returned it for a touchdown and the Southern Illinois football team failed to find the end zone for the second time this season, as the Salukis fell 20-6 to the Bison on Saturday in the Fargodome.

Southern Illinois (3-6, 2-4 Missouri Valley Football Conference) out-gained the Bison 342-251, but only mustered up two field goals as the Salukis dropped their third-straight game.

North Dakota State (6-3, 3-3) forced SIU into four turnovers and kept the Dawgs out of the end zone when the Salukis had the ball inside the Bison 20-yard line three times.

"We just haven't been able to put together a complete game where we are not hurting ourselves," head coach Dale Lennon said. "We have been the victim of giving up more turnovers than we receive."

Field position was a main factor in the game. SIU's average starting field position was its own 22-yard line, but the Bison's average start was at their own 41. Four Bison drives began on SIU's side of the field.

The Saluki defense held the Bison to just 2-of-12 on third downs and just one touchdown, but that one TD was a back-breaking 32-yard screen pass from Jose Mohler to Landon Smith on a third-and-4. It came early in the fourth quarter when it still was a one-score game.

"Our defense gave a gutsy effort," Lennon said. "We put them in bad situations, especially in the second half, but they kept getting stops on third downs. We took a big step forward defensively today."

Offensively, sophomore running back Steve Strother carried the ball 13 times for a career-high 97 yards - an average of 7.5 yards per run. He had four runs of over 14 yards on the day with a long of 27.

Senior quarterback Chris Dieker was under heavy pressure throughout the game and was sacked four times. He finished the game completing 18-of-34 passes for 154 yards and had one interception. Dieker did move into fourth place for the most passing yards in a career at Southern.

NDSU's pressure on Dieker resulted in three fumbles. SIU did force a pair of fumbles deep in Bison territory, but the Salukis couldn't get the ball to bounce their way and were unable to recover them. This is the third-straight game that Southern Illinois did not create a turnover.

Senior receiver Matt Guinn had a career-high five catches for 83 yards and Joe Allaria also hauled in five passes.

North Dakota State jumped out to a 10-0 lead in the first 11 minutes of the game. SIU gave up its second blocked punt returned for a touchdown this year and then Ryan Jastram made a 22 yard field goal at 4:29 of the first.

Both teams turned the ball over in the red zone in the second quarter, SIU's on a interception and NDSU's on downs. Kyle Dougherty's 37-yard field goal 15 seconds before the half accounted for the only points in the quarter and it cut NDSU's lead down to 10-3 after 30 minutes of play.

Dieker drove SIU 68 yards on the scoring drive and he hit Guinn on passes of 11 and 34 yards while Strother added a 17-yard run to help SIU get into field goal range.

A failed attempt at an onside kick to start the second half cost the Salukis three points. That gave the Bison the ball at the SIU 35-yard line, but the Saluki defense held tight and NDSU had to settle for a 30-yard Jastram field goal.

Strother had runs of 27 and 14 yards on SIU's last drive of the third quarter, but the Salukis were unable to cross the goal line in their third trip into the red zone. Dougherty did hit a 22-yard field goal to cap off the nine-play, 63-yard drive.

The Bison scored the first offensive touchdown of the game on the 32-yard screen pass. The play came on a third-and-4, which was the first third down the Bison converted in their last seven tries.

Smith's touchdown gave the Bison a 20-6 lead with 10:42 to play. The Bison drive was set up by a Matthew Gratzek forced fumble on a sack at the Saluki 38-yard line.

Continued pressure from the NDSU defense prevented the Salukis from mounting any comeback and the loss eliminates SIU from finishing the year with a winning record.

CARBONDALE, ILL. - Southern Illinois' defense held the nation's top offense to negative seven yards rushing and just 10 points, as the Salukis ran by No. 21 Western Illinois with a 20-10 victory on Saturday at Saluki Stadium.

Western Illinois came into the game leading the nation with 496 yards of total offense and ranked third with 39.1 points per game, but Southern's defense shut down the potent Leatherneck attack. WIU did throw for 343 yards, but SIU held the Leathernecks to negative seven yards rushing, thanks in part to a season-high five sacks for a loss of 61 yards, and a season-low 10 points.

Sophomore outside linebacker Jayson

DiManche led the way with three sacks for a loss of 43 yards. This was the seventh game in school history that the Salukis held a team to negative yards running the ball and the first time since Sept. 10, 2005 when Union (Ky.) was held to minus-14 yards rushing.

"Coach talked about giving a complete team effort, and we knew it was going take a team effort on offense, defense, special teams," said senior cornerback Corey Lindsey, who finished with five tackles and two pass breakups. "The offense really helped with running the ball and moving the chains."

The loss ends a three-game losing streak for the Salukis (4-6, 3-4 Missouri Valley Football Conference), while ending WIU's (6-4, 4-3) hopes to win the conference title.

"When you win a game today, against a very quality football team that was putting up some unbelievable numbers offensively, and only allow them to score 10 points, it shows that we had a great team effort," head coach Dale Lennon said.

SIU came into the game looking to control the ball with a sturdy rushing attack. The Salukis succeeded, running for 254 yards on 57 attempts with two rushing TDs. SIU held the ball for over 15 minutes more than Western Illinois had it.

"We executed a game plan," Lennon said. "We did it from start to finish. The guys hung with it and never broke faith and it paid off. Sometimes you're best defense can be your offense on the field just grinding it out and eating the clock up."

Sophomore running back Steve Strother set new career-highs with 29 rushes for 150 yards. Quarterback Chris Dieker's 17 rushing attempts were a personal best and he racked up 66 yards on the ground with 110 passing. Shariff Harris and Lucien Walker had SIU's two touchdown runs early in the game.

"I give all the credit to the offensive line," Strother said. "They had holes opening up for us all day, they were blocking hard all day. It wouldn't have been possible without them."

A number of players stepped up for Southern Illinois Saturday. Besides DiManche, Chance Coda and Robert Spann also had sacks. Spann's interception of Matt Barr at the SIU three-yard line with under a minute to play sealed the win for the Salukis and put an exclamation mark on the victory.

Junior wide receiver Cam Fuller was another Saluki that made significant contributions. He didn't have a catch in his career coming into the game, but Fuller caught three passes for 26 yards and hauled in a five-yard touchdown pass from Dieker in the fourth quarter.

Barr, WIU's Walter Payton Award Candidate, threw for 343 yards on 23-of-44 passing. Lito Senatus had nine receptions for 157 yards and he caught WIU's only touchdown of the day.

CARBONDALE, ILL. - Chris Dieker accounted for six total touchdowns and the Southern Illinois football team had two 21-point quarters as the Salukis beat Indiana State, 49-21, on Saturday's Senior Day at Saluki Stadium.

SIU's eighth consecutive win over the Sycamores gives the Salukis two-straight victories to close out the season. Southern finishes the year with a 5-6 record and 4-4 mark in the MVFC while ISU closes 6-5 overall and 4-4 in the Valley. The Salukis have now outscored Indiana State 407-85 in their last eight meetings.

"That's how you want to send (the senior class) out and you want them feeling good about their last game," head coach Dale Lennon said of getting the senior's one last victory. "The season didn't quite progress the way we wanted it to, but we did a good job down the final stretch and hopefully that is something we can build off of going into next year."

Dieker set new career-highs in the game with four touchdown passes and 279 yards passing. He finishes his Saluki career ranked third in school history with 5,237 passing yards and 41 touchdown passes.

"I was just out there making plays," Dieker said. "There's nothing more that I wanted than to win this football game. I was going to do everything in my power to win it. Great supporting cast, offensive line, receivers. I could just go on and on."

Southern Illinois had a season-high 508 yards of total offense in the victory. Its defense had three sacks and three interceptions, which is the program's seventh, three-interception game in the last three years.

SIU jumped out to a 21-0 lead, but the Sycamores tied the game up at 21 early in the third quarter. Two big plays from Southern turned the tide for good.

Jeff Evan's 48-yard diving catch on the first play after ISU tied the game led to a Dieker TD run. Then on the Sycamores next possession following that score, Indiana State tried a fake punt but Connor James intercepted the pass and returned it 40 yards to the ISU five. Those third-quarter plays led to Southern scoring 21 points in the quarter.

From there on out, Dieker and the Salukis coasted, making the game look as easy as it was to them in the first quarter.

Senior tight end Kyle Harruff led SIU with three catches for 81 yards and one touchdown. Joe Allaria, Cam Fuller and Philip Schumacher all hauled in TD's from Dieker, who also finished with two rushing touchdowns himself and 41 yards on the ground.

Defensively, senior linebacker Stephen Franklin altered the game on ISU's third play from scrimmage, when he knocked Sycamore quarterback Ronnie Fouch out of the game on a sack.

Safety Brad Briggs led the team with eight tackles. All-world cornerback Korey Lindsey had one of the team's three interceptions and Southern finished with 10 tackles for a loss in the game.

Sycamore running back Darius Gates finished with 179 yards rushing and two touchdowns.

Southern Illinois jumped on the Sycamores right from the get-go, scoring 21 first-quarter points.

Dieker threw a pair of touchdown passes - a seven-yarder to Allaria and a 31-yard pass to Harruff - and Shariff Harris added a one-yard TD run in between those scores.

Indiana State got on the scoreboard for the first time early in the second quarter on a 10-yard run by Gates. His 65-yard run at the end of the first set up the score.

After the rough start, the Sycamores controlled the second quarter and held SIU to just 53 yards of offense after they had 167 in the first 15 minutes.

Coy Glass's 12-yard touchdown pass to Brock Lough 1:06 before halftime cut Southern's lead down to 21-14 at the break.

Indiana State got the ball first in the second half, and thanks to a pair of Saluki penalties that extended the drive, the Sycamores drove down 71 yards on seven plays to tie the game. Gates scored for the second time with a 20-yard touchdown run.

Southern countered quickly, scoring just four plays later on a one-yard Dieker touchdown run. Dieker put the Salukis in scoring position with his 48-yard pass to Evans to start the drive.

James' interception of Matt Seliger and 40 yard return on a fake punt gave the Salukis the ball at the ISU five-yard line a minute and a half later. SIU capitalized with a Dieker two-yard touchdown pass to Schumacher two plays later for Southern's second touchdown in its last six plays.

Following Lindsey's interception, Dieker hit Fuller on a 29-yard TD strike to push Southern's lead up to 42-21. He then ran for his second touchdown early in the fourth quarter and the Salukis carried their 49-21 lead to the end of the game.

Hired at SINU in 1913 to develop a physical education department "for boys," McAndrew organized the athletics program, which previously had "club teams" and occasionally an approved team.

He served as head coach, with the exception of years spent in the armed forces and while pursuing a second degree, until 1938. The stadium was built in 1938 and named in his honor in 1943, shortly after his death.

Sam Patterson was a volunteer coach for SINU, and he filled in for one season after William McAndrew joined the armed forces during World War I.

No Teams in 1918 and 1920

William Lodge

Like Patterson, Lodge was a fill-in for McAndrew. He also coached the basketball team and served as acting athletic director.

Glenn (Abe) Martin
1939-49

Record: 31-42-5

Abe Martin starred on the university's only unbeaten football team in 1930 and became the second alumnus to play professional football, competing for the Chicago Cardinals in 1932.

As coach at SINU, Martin's biggest milestone was guiding the 1947 team to a victory in the Corn Bowl.

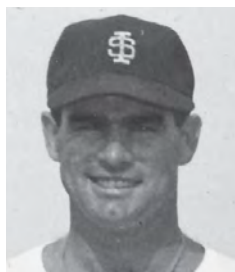

In addition to coaching football, Martin was SINU's interim athletics director and head basketball coach in 1943 before eventually being named AD in 1945. He also revived the baseball program in 1947.

Bill Waller
1950-51

Record: 3-14-1

A Benton, Ill., native, Waller was an Illinois graduate who played professional football and baseball.

William O'Brien
1952-54

Record: 6-20

O'Brien lettered in football, baseball and track at SINU in the early 1940s.

After a stint in the Marine Corps, he returned to SIU in 1952 and was named head football coach at the age of 29. He coached until 1954, when he became director of SIU's Outdoor Recreation Department and embarked on a career in football officiating.

O'Brien had a long and productive career in the National Football League as a referee, and was an observer for the NFL until 1990.

Al Kawal
1955-58

Record: 20-15-2

Before arriving at SIU, Kawal had eight years of head coaching experience at Drake and Temple.

The native Chicagoan, had his best year in 1958, posting a 7-2 record, including a key, 32-31 win over Western Illinois. He was unbeaten in four seasons at SIU against Eastern Illinois and was 3-1 vs. Northern Illinois.

Carmen Piccone
1959-63

Record: 28-20

The 30-year old Piccone joined Southern Illinois' staff as an assistant coach in 1955 after serving under Al Kawal as an assistant at Temple.

Piccone had been a star quarterback at Temple and captained its 1952 team.

In five seasons at SIU, his teams never lost to Illinois State (4-0), Central Michigan (4-0) or Eastern Michigan (3-0). His 1960 squad won the IAC championship with a perfect 6-0 record.

Don Shroyer
1964-65

Record: 4-16

Shroyer joined SIU in 1964 after two seasons with the football St. Louis Cardinals.

His only wins at SIU were over Louisville, Drake, Northern Iowa and SW Missouri State. He returned to the Cardinals and primarily helped develop former Saluki standout quarterback Jim Hart.

Ellis Rainsberger
1966

Record: 4-5-1

Rainsberger came to SIU after serving as an assistant at Kansas. He left the Salukis after one season to become an assistant at Illinois, where he spent six years. Rainsberger later moved on to the Canadian Football League.

Dick Towers
1967-73

Record: 30-37-2

Towers was promoted to head coach after just one year as an assistant at SIU.

His teams battled top competition including, Louisville, East Carolina and Oklahoma State. Towers' teams posted three seasons above .500, three below and one at 5-5. After leaving SIU, he returned to Kansas and later served as athletics director at Kansas State.

Doug Weaver
1974-75

Record: 3-18-1

Weaver was named athletics director at SIU in 1973 and added the head football coaching duties the following year.

Weaver had been an assistant at Michigan State, Missouri, Kansas and UCLA, and head coach at Kansas State prior to SIU.

He resigned at SIU following the 1975 season to become the athletics director at Michigan State, where he served until retiring in 1990.

Rey Dempsey
1976-83

Record: 54-37

Dempsey had a reputation for rebuilding programs and had turned around the football fortunes at Youngstown State immediately prior to taking over SIU. The Salukis became a player at the national level during his eight-year stay, winning games against Temple, East Carolina, Fresno State, Marshall, Tulsa, West Texas and New Mexico State.

His lone loss to Wichita State in 1983 cost the Salukis a conference championship, but the Salukis ultimately won the National Championship, and Dempsey was named Division I-AA "Coach of the Year."

Dempsey left Southern within a week of winning the national title and took over the football program at Memphis State.

He resigned after several years at Memphis to become a full-time minister in the Columbus, Ohio, area where he still resides.

Ray Dorr
1984-87

Record: 17-27

Dorr had the difficult task of succeeding Dempsey.

His 1986 team was a pleasant surprise as it was perfect against Ohio Valley teams. A one-point loss at Kansas, after taking a late lead, will be remembered as one of the toughest defeats in the school history. His teams were 3-1 against both Eastern Illinois and Illinois State.

Rick Rhoades
1988

Record: 4-7

Although credited with upgrading the program, the genial Rhoades resigned just two months after his first season ended.

He returned "home" to Alabama where he joined the Crimson Tide's staff. He later became an assistant at Kentucky, and in 1993 was named head coach at McNeese State.

Bob Smith
1989-93

Record: 17-38

In five seasons at SIU, Smith's teams and players established numerous offensive records.

One of the most remarkable accomplishments of his five-year tenure came in 1991 when the Salukis managed to post a 7-4 record by winning the first five games of the season, rising as high as No. 15 in the national polls. The 1991 team was adept at winning close games, as six of its seven wins came by a total of just 14 points. The club won three games by a single point.

Shawn Watson
1994-96

Record: 11-22

Watson took over at SIU after putting in impressive seasons as an assistant at Miami (Ohio). His first team avoided a winless season when it upset a good Western Kentucky club, 10-7. Following the 1-10 start, his teams recorded back-to-back 5-6 seasons in 1995 and 1996. His final club in 1996 got off to a 4-1 start before a five-game losing streak and 5-6 overall finish.

Jan Quarless
1997-2000

Record: 14-30

Quarless became SIU's 18th head coach in January 1997. He had previously served as an assistant with the Salukis from 1977 through 1982 under Rey Dempsey.

Although his first team was 3-8, his 1999 club went 5-6 and set a new SIU scoring record.

Jerry Kill

2001-07
Record: 55-32

In eight years at the helm of SIU, Kill guided the Salukis to four-straight Gateway Conference championships and five-straight playoff appearances.

In 2004, the Salukis spent 10 weeks atop the FCS polls, and Kill won the Eddie Robinson Award for Coach of the Year in FCS.

Kill left SIU after the 2007 season to become head coach at Northern Illinois.

Dale Lennon

2008-Present

Record: 25-11

Dale Lennon was named the 20th head coach in school history on Dec. 28, 2007. He has guided SIU to back-to-back MVFC Championships and FCS Playoff appearances in 2008 and 2009. In 2009, Lennon led the Salukis to the No. 1 national ranking for the first time since Oct. 10, 2005. The Sports Network had SIU pinned as the No. 1 team for the last three weeks of the regular season.

Lennon was named the AFCA Region IV Coach of the Year as well as the MVFC Bruce Craddock Coach of the Year in both 2008 and 2009. He joins six previous league coaches to be named the conference's coach of the year in back-to-back seasons.

SIU won 11-straight games in 2009 and finished with an 11-2 record. He is just one of three Salukis coaches to lead the Dawgs to a 10-win season. His 25 wins in his first three seasons at SIU is five more than any other coach in their first three seasons.

#23 HARRY BOBBIT (1961-63)

Harry Bobbit died of a blood clot in July 1964, the year prior to what would have been his senior season. His number was retired after that year. One of three team captains of the 1963 team, Bobbit caught a then program record 34 passes for 503 yards and five touchdowns.

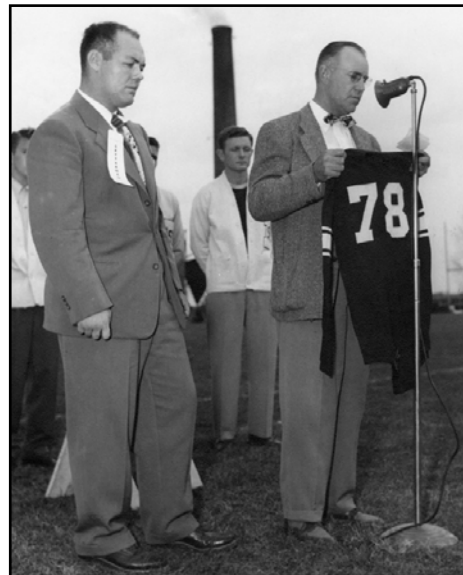

#30 MARK HEMPHILL (1979)

Mark Hemphill was a football-track letterman, who had suffered a sever spinal injury during the 1979 football season. On Sept. 13, 1980, Southern Illinois University honored him with "Mark Hemphill Day" at McAndrew Stadium. A McAndrew Stadium all-time record crowd of 17,150 showed up to watch SIU beat Eastern Illinois 37-35 on that special day. More than $30,000 dollars was raised in contributions and given to Mark's family to help in covering his various rehabilitation expenses. Illinois Governor Jim Thompson was on hand to present Mark with a plaque at halftime during which time his football jersey was retired. Mark died a year later in St. Louis, his hometown.

#78 JIM LOVIN (1946-49)

Jim Lovin, a Benton, Ill. native who is shown on the left in the picture above, was the first Southern Illinois football player to have his jersey number retired. Not only was Lovin the first player in SIU's history to start ever game throughout his four-year career, but he was the first Illinois Intercollegiate Athletic Conference player to be named first team All-Conference four times. The tackle was SIU's team MVP in 1948 and 1949. In the 1949 season finale, a 41-14 win over Indiana State at McAndrew Stadium, Lovin was rewarded with an opportunity to kick a PAT, which he made.

99-STRAIGHT WEEKS IN THE TOP 25

The Southern Illinois football team set a new Missouri Valley Football Conference record by being ranked in the top 25 for 99 consecutive weeks. The streak started on Sept. 8, 2003 when the Salukis were ranked No. 23 in the coaches poll and No. 21 in the media poll. It lasted until Oct. 18, 2010, when the Salukis dropped out of the Top 25.

Note: The streak does not include preseason polls

League History

In 2009, the Missouri Valley Football Conference celebrated its 25th season as an FCS league. Founded in 1985 as the Gateway Conference, the league has undergone three logo changes and one name change since its inception. Eleven different members have been a part of the conference, including the current nine-member configuration.

SILKWORM INC. PRESS CENTER

The Silkworm Inc. Press Center for working press is located on the south end of the second floor of the press box at Saluki Stadium. It opens two hours prior to game time. Radio, coaches and TV booths are located in the center of the second floor of the press box.

Meals will be served prior to kickoff. Media credentials are required for admittance to the press box and for meals.

Game programs and flip cards will be made available in the press box while all game notes, statistics and media guides will be available on SIU's game day web page, where you can also find a link to the game viewer for current in-game stats.

All post game statistics, play-by-plays and quotes will be provided after the game.

A limited number of phone lines and internet outlets are available for use on a first-come, first-serve basis in the Silkworm Inc. Press Center. Dial "9" to get an outside line.

Complimentary wireless Internet is available for use. A SIU IT representative will be on hand to assist media members accessing the wireless network.

CREDENTIALS

Credentials are required for entrance to the press box or access to the field (for photographers). To request a season or single-game press credential and/or sideline credential, please contact Associate Sports Information Director Jason Clay at 618-453-5470 or jclay@siu.edu.

Credential requests should be made by sports editors or sports directors of accredited media outlets and should be limited to working media only. Because of limited space, requests should be made as early as possible. Family/friends of credentialed media members will not be granted access to the press box.

Credentials will be mailed to the requesting individual or organization if time permits or sent to the visiting school's sports information director for distribution. Credentials can also be picked up in the Media Services office located in Room 117 of Lingle Hall or at the media will call at Saluki Stadium.

Credentials will be issued to working media only. Media credentials are not transferable and use by anyone other than members of the working media is unauthorized. Media credentials used in an unauthorized manner will be revoked immediately. News organizations allowing unauthorized individuals to use credentials will have their credentials revoked for the remainder of the year.

SIDELINE ACCESS

Sideline access is strictly limited at Saluki Stadium. In addition to a media credential, field photographers must obtain an armband that allows access to the sideline. Armbands will be available on the second floor of the press box. This armband must be worn in plain sight at all times. Please observe NCAA regulations and shoot from the designated areas. Photographers must shoot from behind the white lines between the 25-yard line and the back of the end zone on either side of the field.

In an effort to ensure the best possible working conditions for media photographers, uniformed security personnel will be monitoring the sidelines. Anyone holding a media pass without the sideline credential will be escorted from the sideline.

GAME DAY PARKING

Media working on deadline will receive a priority parking pass to the press parking area located at the front of the circle lot on the south side of the SIU Arena, in Lot U.

POSTGAME PROCEDURE

Postgame interviews will take place in the football auditorium, located in the Boydston Center across the hall from the football offices. Head coach Dale Lennon and requested players will be made available in the football auditorium approximately 10 minutes following the game.

SIU's locker room is located on the bottom floor of the Boydston Center. It will remain closed following games. The visiting team's locker room is located on the bottom floor of Lingle Hall. The visiting SID will establish visiting locker room admittance policies and it is up to his/her discretion to hold postgame interviews outside their locker room or in the Boydston Center.

Southern Illinois University is committed to a policy of equal access for both male and female reporters and photographers.

FOOTBALL E-MAIL LIST

If you would like to be added to the Saluki football E-mail list to receive breaking news about the team, please E-mail Jason Clay at jclay@siu.edu.

INTERVIEWS DURING THE WEEK

Head coach Dale Lennon will hold a weekly press conference on Monday's in the Tedrick Auditorium on the second floor of the Donald Boydston Center. Select players will be available at the Monday presser. Players and coaches are also available before practice on Tuesday's and Wednesday's. Please let a member of the Saluki Media Services staff know if you plan to attend practice. Check with a member of the media services staff on the location of where the practice will be held the day you wish to attend. Video and still photographers may shoot the stretching period and first 20 minutes of actual practice time on the designated media days, Tuesday and Wednesday. On days the team practices in Saluki Stadium, interviews will take place in the south entry point to the field. Once practice begins, all members of the media must move into the stands.

Out of town media wishing to conduct interviews with players or coaches may do so over the phone. Please contact Associate Sports Information Director Jason Clay at 618-453-5470 or jclay@siu.edu to arrange an interview.

True freshmen will not be allowed to speak to the media unless granted permission from head coach Dale Lennon.
