NOMENCLATURE

In 2008, the Gateway Football Conference changed its name to the Missouri Valley Football Conference. On second reference or when abbreviating the league name, please use either Valley Football or MVFC.

Beginning with the 2006 Playoffs, the designations "I-A" and "I-AA" ceased to exist, according to the NCAA. Teams are now distinguished by whether they compete in the Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) or Football Championship Subdivision (FCS). Southern Illinois University competes in the FCS sub-classification. Both sub-classifications are considered Division I.

The new football stadium will significantly enhance both the student-athlete and fan experience. The horseshoe shaped facility will be located south of McAndrew Stadium and will have a capacity of 15,000. Seating will include 1,080 prime chairback seats as well as seating on the grass berm enclosing the north endzone.

The new stadium will be highlighted by a two-story pressbox that will feature 12 luxury suites and a 2,500-square foot VIP Club Room, along with traditional booths for coaches and TV/radio personnel. Student-athletes will benefit from a new playing surface with the latest in synthetic grass technology, while fans will experience expanded concessions and restrooms as well as a new scoreboard with video replay capability.

October 23, 1937

Western Illinois 17, SIU 0

This was the first game played in the new stadium. Not only was the stadium nameless when it opened, but the school was then known as Southern Illinois Teachers College, and its athletics teams were known as the Maroons. The Maroons played their four 1937 home games in the new stadium, despite the fact construction was not complete. The 8,543-seat stadium was officially dedicated in 1938. Per then-state law, the stadium was not named for the school's long-time athletic director, head football coach and head basketball coach, William McAndrew until after his sudden death in 1943.

October 4, 1958

SIU 32, Western Illinois 31

SIU ended a 10-game winless streak versus Western Illinois with an Illinois Intercollegiate Athletic Conference season-opening win. The Salukis scored on the game's final play to draw within one point of the Leathernecks. Southern then won the game when it converted the subsequent two-point conversion attempt. Saluki Hall of Fame QB and Centralia-native Bill Norwood passed 67 yards to Lane "Night Train" Jenkins to bring the Salukis within one point, 31-30, as the game clock expired. Jenkins then rushed for the game-winning two-point conversion.

October 29, 1960

SIU 66, Eastern Michigan 8

SIU clinched a tie for its first conference title in 30 years with this Illinois Intercollegiate Athletic Conference win. The Salukis led, 14-0, 25 seconds into the game. Saluki KR Jim Thompson returned the opening kickoff 75 yards for a touchdown. The Salukis sealed this game when they scored a school-record 31 fourth quarter points.

October 28, 1967

SIU 16, Tulsa 13

This is one of the biggest upsets in school history. The Salukis, who were 0-5, upset the Hurricane, who were ranked No. 8 in the Litkenhous ranking. Then-Southern Illinoisan sports writer Lon Eubanks termed the come-from-behind win a "miracle win." Saluki Hall of Fame LB Carl Mauck's fourth quarter interception and 24-yard return to the Tulsa 10 yard line set up Galloway's game-winning field goal.

October 31, 1970

SIU 69, Bradley 3

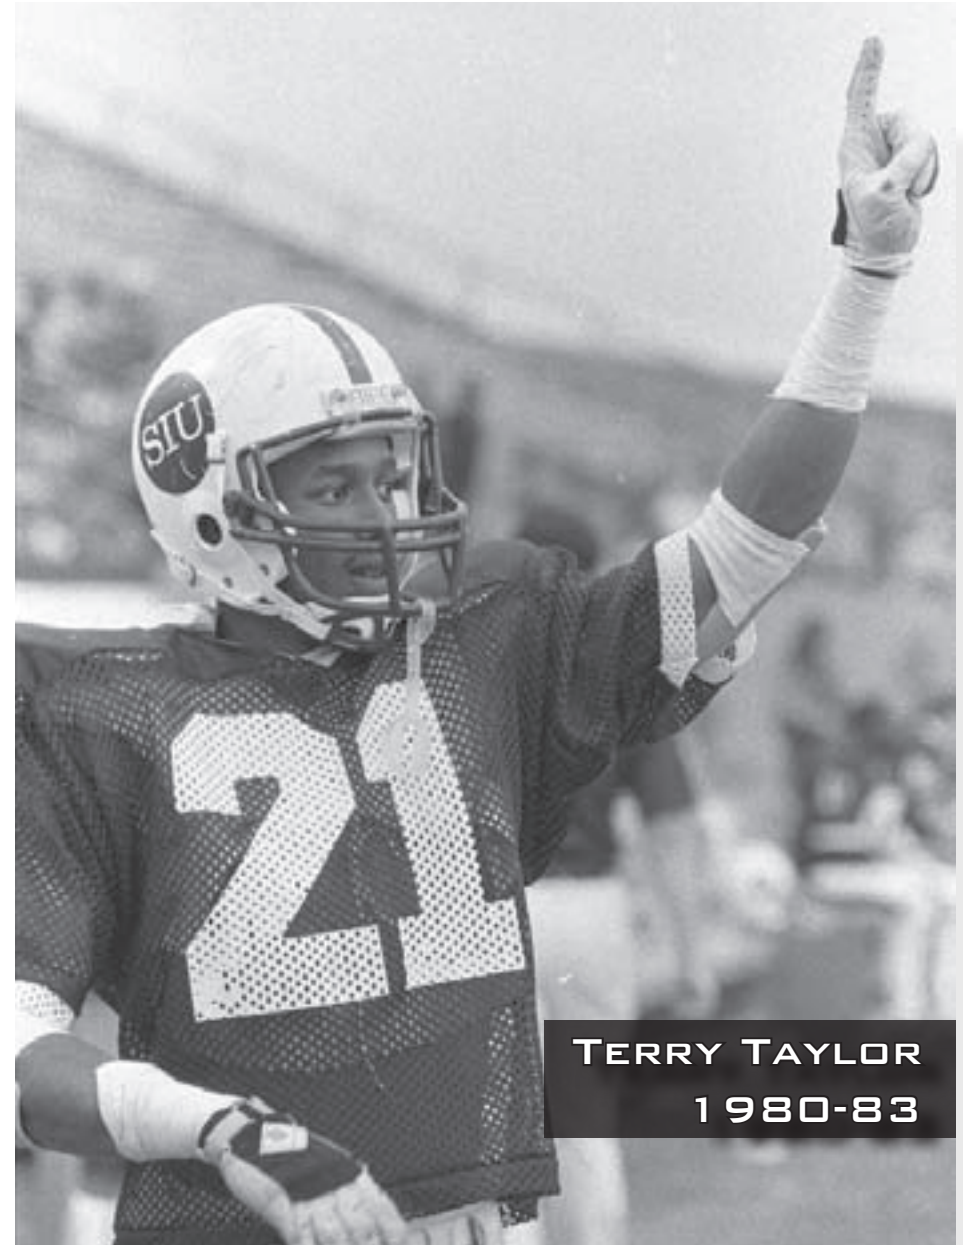

This game remains the second-most points SIU has ever scored in a game versus a Division I opponent. The Salukis set records for total yards in one game, 754, and total plays in one game, 112. The Salukis overpowered the Braves rushing for 466 yards on 75 carries. No Saluki rushed for more than 76 yards. Eleven different Salukis rushed the ball in this game. The Braves, who dropped their program following the season, managed just 38 yards total offense and only five first downs. The Homecoming game attracted an estimated crowd of 14,000.

TERRY TAYLOR
1980-83

October 23, 1976

SIU 54, Northern Illinois 0

This game was played in a driving rain storm-marked by occasional hail, and was clearly the Andre Herrera Show. The senior All-American running back set the school record for rushing yards in one game, 319. He carried 35 times. Herrera rushed for 184 yards in the first quarter, breaking Mercury Morris' NCAA record for rushing yards in one quarter. His 85-yard first quarter run is the longest from scrimmage in SIU history (he did not score on the play).

September 13, 1980

SIU 37, Eastern Illinois 35

This was Mark Hemphill Day. It attracted the largest crowd in McAndrew Stadium history, 17,150. Hemphill, a wide receiver from St. Louis, Mo., suffered a career-ending spinal cord injury while attempting to recover a teammate's fumble in a game the previous season versus Illinois State. The injury left him paralyzed from the neck down. Mark Hemphill Day was then-Saluki Athletic Director Gale Sayers' idea. It was designed to raise money for Hemphill's rehabilitation expenses. Then-SIU Assistant Athletic Director Fred Huff organized the event. It raised some $30,000, including $1,000 from SIU students, who resided at Brush Towers. Then-Illinois Governor James Thompson attended the game and presented Hemphill, who died accidentally one year later, with a plaque denoting the retirement of his jersey number 30. His jersey number is one of only three that SIU has retired.

November 7, 1981

Drake 22, SIU 17

The second-largest crowd in McAndrew Stadium history (17,000) saw the Salukis miss a chance to clinch a tie for their first-ever Missouri Valley Conference title. It was a game of two halves. Drake out-scored SIU, 19-0, in the first half. SIU out-scored Drake, 17-3, in the second half. Southern finished 5-2 in the MVC, tied for third place.

September 10, 1983

SIU 17, Eastern Illinois 14

All-American and Saluki Hall of Fame DB Terry Taylor contributed in many ways to the Salukis' 1983 I-AA National Championship. But perhaps his most spectacular contribution came in this game. Taylor, who blocked either a field goal or a punt in three of the first four games in the 1983 season, blocked Dave Strauch's 20-yard field goal attempt to tie with 19 seconds remaining in the game. Ron Miller's tie breaking 28-yard field goal with 2:48 remaining in the third quarter proved to be the game winner. It was one of only three Saluki games decided by seven or less points that year, as the Salukis posted a 13-1 record and the school's only national football title.

November 5, 1983

SIU 28, Illinois State 26

The third-largest crowd in McAndrew Stadium history (16,600 on Homecoming) saw the Salukis play their closest game of the National Championship season and raise their record to 10-0. Illinois State failed to convert a two-point conversion attempt to tie with 12:20 remaining.

1987-89

December 10, 1983

SIU 23, Nevada 7

SIU's first-ever Division I-AA semifinal playoff game was played in driving rain and sleet. The crowd of 11,000 seemingly cheered on every play, no matter its significance. No. 1 SIU built a 9-0 halftime lead on three Ron Miller field goals. Nevada (then known as Nevada-Reno) drew within two points with a third-quarter rushing touchdown. SIU scored 14 fourth-quarter points to seal the win, including Terry Taylor's 24-yard interception return for a TD.

October 1, 1988

SIU 45, Arkansas State 43

The 88 points scored by the two teams in this game stood as the McAndrew Stadium scoring record until 1999. SIU scored 24 of its points in the fourth quarter. Coach Rick Rhoades and the Salukis trailed the Indians, 36-21, at the start of the fourth quarter. Rushing TDs by Chuck Harmke and freshman Garrett Hines, plus a safety gave the Salukis a 38-36 lead. An Arkansas State TD with 24 seconds left in the game made it 45-43. Saluki WR Chontal Brown recovered ASU's subsequent onside kickoff, clinching the Saluki win. SIU's wishbone offense rushed 53 times for 224 yards.

September 9, 1989

Western Illinois, 14 SIU 7

This game was played over two days. With SIU ahead, 7-0, in the first quarter on Saturday, September 9, the game was postponed by lightning and a torrential rainstorm that flooded the McAndrew Stadium playing field. The game resumed Sunday, September 10. WIU All-American LB Bryan Cox blocked a David Peters' punt for a touchdown in the third quarter, tying the game. The Leathernecks broke the tie in the fourth quarter on a 48-yard pass play and beat the Salukis for the sixth year in a row.

September 15, 1990

SIU 45, Murray State 7

First-year Saluki QB Brian Downey set the school record for pass completion percentage in a game (minimum of 20 attempts), converting 86.5 percent of his passes (19 of 22) for 284 yards and three touchdowns. Downey had a hand in 24 of SIU's season-high 45 points in this game, as he also caught a touchdown pass thrown by running back Greg Brown.

October 14, 1995

SIU 33, SW Missouri State 30 (OT)

Division I-AA conferences began using the tiebreaker system to break ties in regular season conference games in 1994. SIU's first overtime game came on Homecoming 1995, when Coach Shawn Watson and the Salukis beat Missouri State before a crowd of more than 12,000. SIU QB Danny Smith threw three TD passes to WR Jermaine Gray to give Southern a 27-20 lead with 5:20 remaining. PK Ryan Given missed the subsequent extra point. Missouri State scored a TD with seven seconds remaining in regulation to force overtime. In OT, Missouri State had the ball first and settled for a 36-yard field goal. On the fifth play of SIU's possession, Smith passed 10 yards to WR Reggie Fowler for the winning touchdown.

SIU 31, Illinois State 29

This was Jan Quarless' second win as SIU's head coach, and it followed a bitter last-second defeat the week before versus Missouri State. Saluki QB Kent Skornia passed 26 yards to 5-foot-8 WR Ray Barnes for the game winning TD. The Salukis led, 18-3, after the first period, however, the Redbirds scored the game's next 26 points and led SIU, 29-18, at the start of the fourth quarter. The Skornia-to-Barnes game-winning touchdown pass capped a seven-play, 80-yard drive, in which Skornia completed 5-of-7 passes.

September 11, 1999

SIU 58, Murray State 51

The teams combined for the most points scored in a McAndrew Stadium game — 109 points. The Salukis and the No. 25-ranked Racers combined for 1,218 yards total offense and 952 yards passing. SIU QB Sherard Poteete passed for a then-school record 399 yards. He was 20-of-31 and threw a school record-tying six touchdown passes.

October 5, 2002

SIU 54, Western Illinois 52

Though SIU finished the season 4-8, most Saluki observers believe this Homecoming win jump-started coach Jerry Kill's program. Southern's victory ended an 18-game losing streak versus the then-undefeated and No. 8-ranked Leathernecks. Freshman QB Joel Sambursky's six-yard touchdown pass to RB Brandon Robinson as time expired won the game, but RB Muhammad Abdulqaadir's performance keyed the Saluki victory. One week after rushing for 312 yards at Eastern Michigan, Abdulqaadir rushed for 261 yards versus the Leathernecks and scored four touchdowns. The teams combined for 1,038 yards of total offense, and 41 of the game's 106 points were scored in the fourth quarter. Chaos ensued after the game, as many Saluki fans sitting on the east side of the stadium rushed the playing field.

October 11, 2003

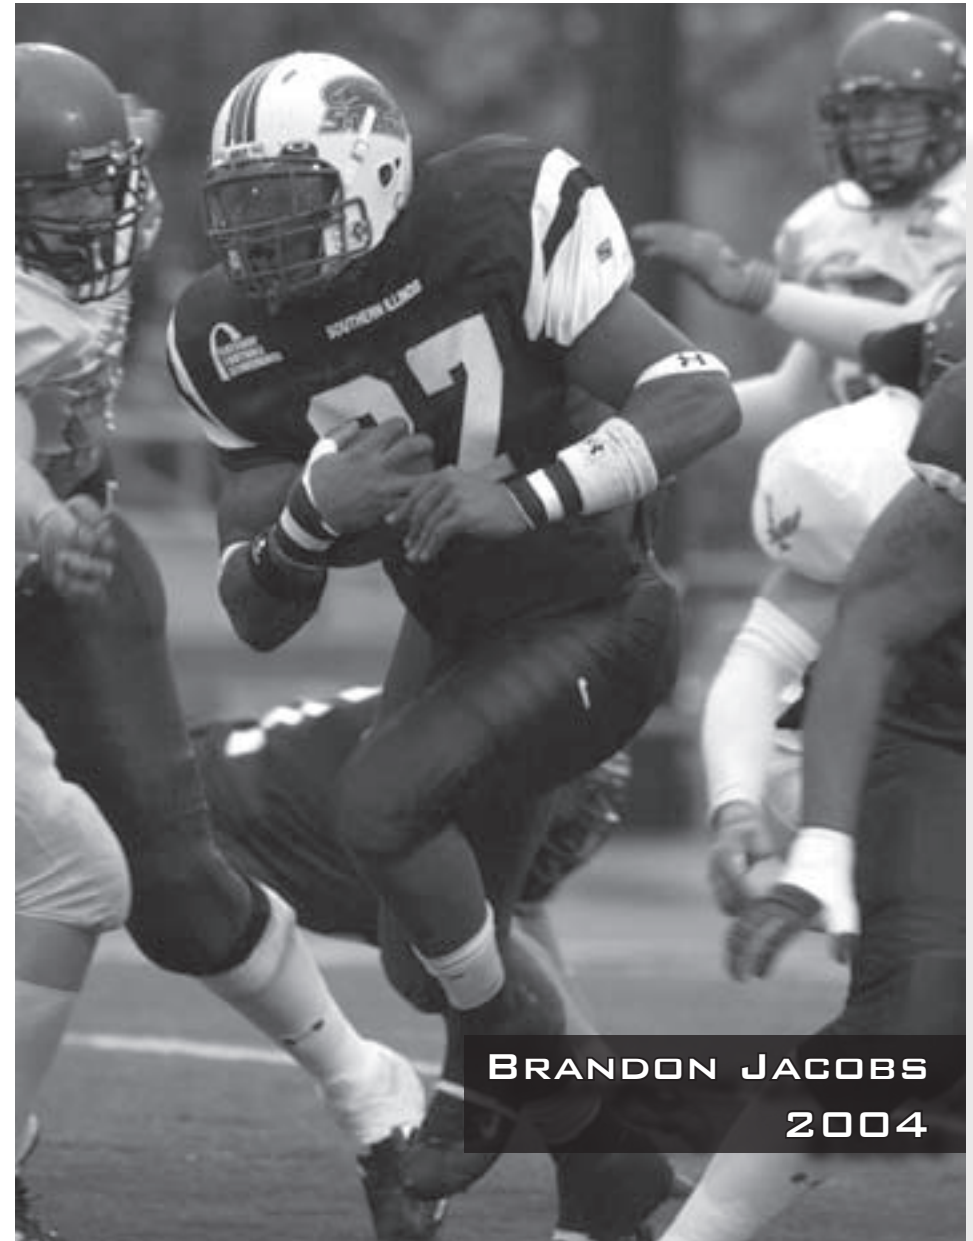

SIU 45, Illinois State 17

Tom Koutsos became the Missouri Valley Football Conference's all-time leading rusher. He broke the record in the fourth quarter of this game during a 35-yard run. The record setting run perhaps typified Koutsos' rushing style, as he ran over numerous tacklers. It was the third-longest run of his career. Koutsos, playing five days after his 23rd birthday, rushed for 153 yards and three touchdowns. Wearing goggles in the second half, after having his contact lenses knocked out in the first half, "Touchdown Tommy" rushed for 97 yards in the third and fourth quarters.

November 8, 2003

SIU 24, Youngstown State 17

The undefeated and No.3-ranked Salukis clinched their first conference title as a I-AA school and their first conference title since 1961. The win also earned SIU its first berth in the playoffs since 1983. SIU rushed for 337 yards in this game, as RB Tom Koutsos rushed for 153 yards and RB Muhammad Abdulqaadir added 120 yards.

SIU 40, Northern Iowa 36

This was one of the most exciting Homecoming games in Saluki football history as 12,326 saw the No. 15 Panthers race to a 20-0 lead late in the second quarter. Special teams keyed the comeback for the No. 1-ranked Salukis, as RB Craig Turner returned a UNI punt 58 yards for a touchdown to put SIU on the scoreboard. The Salukis did not take the lead until RB Arkee Whitlock's two-yard TD run gave them a 38-33 advantage. Southern added two more points when it sacked UNI QB Eric Sanders in the end zone for a safety. S Marlon Heaston preserved the win, when he intercepted a Sanders pass at the SIU two yardline.

November 24, 2004

Eastern Washington, 35 SIU 31

This first-round playoff loss was a bitter defeat for the heavily favored Salukis, who were ranked No. 1 and seeded No. 1 in the playoff field. A crowd of 7,304 on a windy, rain-soaked 47 degree day saw the Salukis build a 17-7 halftime lead on rushing TDs by RB Brandon Jacobs. Jacobs, who carried 25 times for 166 yards, scored two more Saluki touchdowns in the second half — his final one with 2:37 left gave SIU a 31-28 lead. Eastern needed just five plays to regain the lead. Sambursky then drove SIU to the Eastern 22 before time expired. Afterward, he told reporters, "We should have won the game."

October 1, 2005

SIU 30, Missouri State 23 (OT)

Impressive goal line stands at the end of regulation and overtime, plus a pair of missed Bears' field goals, helped the No. 1 Salukis avoid a homecoming upset. On the second play of overtime, Sambursky passed 12 yards to FB J.T. Wise for a touchdown. The defense then stuffed the Bears on four-straight running plays from the Saluki 1 to preserve the win.

December 8, 2007

Delaware 20, SIU 17

No. 13-ranked Delaware, led by QB Joe Flacco rallied to beat SIU in a nationally televised game on ESPN. The Salukis had a touchdown called back by penalty in the second half and missed two field goal attempts. Trailing 20-17, SIU could not convert either of its final two possessions in the game, stalling out at the Delaware 29 with 3:56 remaining and throwing an interception in the game's final minute. The Salukis finished with a 12-2 record, and Kill accepted an offer the following week to become Northern Illinois' head coach.

September 27, 2008

SIU 27, Northern Iowa 24

Larry "Lightning" Warner struck on this game's first play, returning the opening kickoff 97 yards for a touchdown. The Panthers rallied to tie the game with a 17-point third quarter. With the game apparently headed for overtime, UNI fumbled at its own 38. Three plays later, K Kyle Dougherty booted the game-winning 40-yard field goal as time expired. The victory eventually provided first-year coach Dale Lennon and the Salukis with the necessary tiebreaker for the MVFC's spot in the FCS playoffs.

SALUKIS IN THE NFL

Saluki Football

TERRY
TAYLOR

Several members of the Southern Illinois University athletic staff suggested a new nickname in 1951. The teams had been known as the Maroons since intercollegiate athletics began in 1913. The name became official on March 19, 1951, when the student body overwhelmingly approved "Salukis" as the new symbol of SIU athletics, easily besting "Rebels," "Knights," "Flyers," "Marauders," and "Maroons."

The oldest purebred dogs in the world with records dating back to 3600 B.C., the Saluki is an ancient Egyptian hunting dog known for its speed and hunting prowess.

So why is the name Salukis relevant to Southern Illinois? Natives of southern Illinois know that the region is frequently referred to as "Egypt." Historian Baker Brownell, in his book "The Other Illinois," explained how the region came to be known as Egypt.

He wrote, "There was a drought in the northern counties (of Illinois) in the early 1800s...the wheat fields dried up, the streams died in their beds. But in southern Illinois, rain fell and there were good crops, and from the north came people seeking corn and wheat as to Egypt of old. Thus, the name, Egypt."

The 19th century drought in Illinois parallels the Biblical account of the country of Egypt. "There was famine in all lands; but in all the land of Egypt there was bread. All the earth came to Egypt to Joseph to buy grain, because the famine was so severe. And (Jacob) said, 'Behold, I have heard that there is grain in Egypt; go down and buy grain for us there, that we may live, and not die.' So 10 of Joseph's brothers went down to buy grain in Egypt." (Genesis 41:54b, 57, 42:2-3).

In Egypt at that time, Salukis were accepted as the finest animal a family could possess. Adopting such a well-respected dog as its mascot fit perfectly for a school in a region known as "Egypt."

ORIGIN OF THE SALUKIS

Saluki Football

The tomb of King Tut lies in the northeast corner of McAndrew Stadium and will be exhumed and moved to the new stadium in 2010. After Khalila died in 2005, Saluki fans throughout the area have volunteered their purebred dogs to serve as mascot.

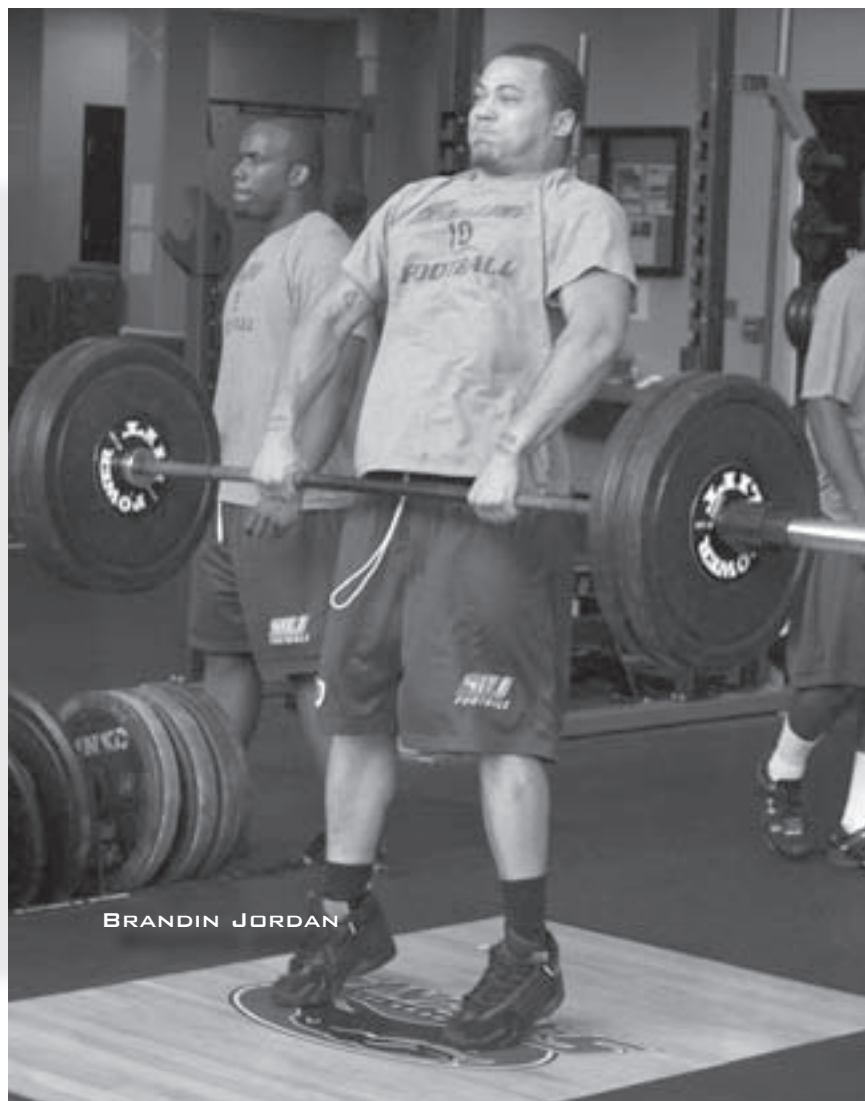

The guiding force behind the team's strength program is coach Jared Nessland. The primary objectives of the strength and conditioning program at Southern Illinois University are to reduce the incidence of injury and help our student-athletes achieve their full athletic potential. We will achieve these objectives by designing and implementing a long-term and comprehensive strength, speed, and conditioning program. Through the guidance of our staff, Saluki student-athletes will become better athletes and be prepared both physically and mentally for the rigors of collegiate athletics.

Building Excellence Through Commitment

Southern at 150 articulates a series of commitments and actions that will place us among the top 75 public research universities in the United States by the year 2019, our 150th anniversary, while we continue to provide the foundation for academic, economic and social progress in Southern Illinois.

Our Core Values

Student-responsiveness: We must listen and respond to our students and provide instruction and services that help them achieve their full potential.

Diversity: Diversity will drive our ability to attain our educational mission.

Building trust: We are a public institution and covet the confidence and trust of the public we serve.

Academic freedom and responsibility: We are an academic institution dedicated to the discovery and preservation of the truth.

Excellence as the measure of all things: We will seek excellence in everything we do.

A more civil world: We will endeavor to produce citizen-leaders with global perspectives.

Leadership and management: We will manage ourselves in a way that exceeds effectiveness.

Pride: We will develop and foster a sense of pride in our University, its traditions and its values.

World view: We must expand our reach throughout the world.

SALUKIS IN PURSUIT OF SEVENTH-STRAIGHT PLAYOFF BID

The Salukis return 18 starters from last year's conference championship team, so expectations are naturally high.

Second-year head coach Dale Lennon said the program has even bigger goals than making the playoffs for a seventh-straight year.

"Our goal is to compete for a National Championship," he said. "There's reason for optimism. We've been here a year and have the system in place, plus the players that are returning are pretty good players. We feel we can improve upon what we accomplished last year."

The most difficult piece to replace from last year's team is All-American running back Larry Warner. He not only rushed for 1,265 yards and 10 TDs, but was explosive in the return game with three kickoff returns for touchdowns.

"Any time you lose a great player, you're never going to replace him immediately with a great player," Lennon said. "What you want to do is make sure it's a joint effort — a group of people replacing him. It doesn't have to be just the backfield. It could be the receiving corps or the offensive line picking up their level of play."

The Salukis are loaded on defense, where they return nine starters. Lennon, in fact, considers himself a defensive coach, though he favors a team approach.

"I've always hung my hat on defensive football," he said. "Defense wins championships. Offensively, you can help the defense by making good decisions and not putting the defense in bad situations. How smart you play on the offensive side really impacts the defense. If you're taking a lot of gambles, a lot of chances, sometimes you put the defense at risk."

How many risks the Salukis can take on offense will depend on the progression of quarterback Chris Dieker, who returns for his second year as a starter.

"We want to get Chris to that comfort level where he understands the offensive expectations," Lennon said. "We need him to get us out of bad plays when he recognizes a situation — basically making good decisions, making sure the right personnel is in the game. If he can take that next big step, he's going to be a pretty good quarterback."

Here is a position-by-position breakdown of the Salukis.

Quarterback

Chris Dieker won the quarterback derby over Joe Allaria and went on to have a solid 2008 season, completing 57 percent of his passes for 2,083 yards and 16 TDs. Dieker is a prototype pocket passer with a big arm and good field vision.

Army transfer Paul McIntosh had an impressive spring. The 2007 Gatorade High School Player-of-the-Year in Indiana is a top athlete with excellent running skills. Bobby Brenneisen, one of the most productive passers in Illinois high school history, will compete for a back-up role. Likewise Taylor Beasley set high school passing records in Florida and will compete for a reserve spot.

Running Back

The Salukis are looking for a feature back to replace All-American Larry Warner.

Instead, they may have a backfield by committee, with a deep stable of proven ball carriers sharing the load.

Richard White is a slasher and the most versatile back on the team, with 10-career rushing touchdowns and eight pass receptions. He's also a solid blocker.

Deji Karim is a power back, who had an excellent debut year in 2007 with 386 yards and eight TDs. He missed all of 2008 with injury.

Scatback Anton Wilkins had an impressive spring and possesses some of the same skills that Warner brought to SIU. Jonate Govan has gradually worked his way back from injuries and has talent. Lucien Walker is a power back, who can also play fullback. He had a big game at Northwestern last year.

Receivers

Joe Allaria may have lost the quarterback battle, but he came out a winner at wide receiver. Allaria made a remarkable mid-season transition and caught 27 passes in the last seven games of the year. He has great hands, open-field running ability and field awareness.

Bryce Morris had a solid year with 26 catches at the slot position in 2008 and will push for a starting berth. Look for Marc Cheatham to have a big year. He made eight starts last season and was the team's second-leading receiver with 29 catches, including the game-winner at Missouri State.

Matt Guinn followed up an 11-catch season with a solid spring and will compete for a starting job. Injuries derailed much of the 2008 season for Jeff Evans, but he caught six passes in the four games he started before injury trouble.

Anthony Seay has explosive speed and can stretch a defense. Redshirt freshman Luke Standiford and veterans Beau Hoffman, Steven Morse and B.J. Thompson are also in the mix for playing time.

Tight End

Ryan Kernes is a two-time honorable mention all-conference pick and ranks among the team's leading returning receivers. A favorite target in the red zone, Kernes was second on the club in touchdown catches with four and has 10 in his career.

Sophomore C.J. Robertson is a strong blocker who made two starts last year when the Salukis began the game in a two tight-end set. Kyle Harruff is an athletic tight end, who caught two passes last year, including a touchdown in the playoff game against New Hampshire.

Offensive Tackle

The all-important left tackle spot is in good hands with David Pickard who emerged as one of the team's top linemen last year, before a leg injury ended his season after eight games. Pickard added 10 pounds during the off-season.

At right tackle is savvy veteran Shawn Smith, who has started 39-straight games for the Salukis. He played guard his first three years, but will move outside to tackle as a senior.

The Salukis have a pair of talented, young prospects in reserve. Scott Becker played in three games a year ago as a back-up right tackle, while Richard Wilson is an athletic, redshirt freshman at left tackle.

Offensive Guard

Former Ball State transfer John Purdy stepped in and started seven games at right tackle last season. This year, he moves inside to guard. Purdy is a power blocker, who has slimmed down to 315 pounds from 340 a year ago.

Blake Brunner is a mauler at left guard, where he played in four games a year ago. Look for veteran Mike Nitti to challenge for the starting job. He has made 10 career starts at both guard and tackle.

The Salukis have solid depth at the guard spot between Tyler Graves, Matthew Van Dril and Ben Koenig.

Center

Bryan Boemer is expected to step into a starting role at center. He has eight games of playing experience behind two-year starter Mike Farrell, who graduated. Boemer's backup is redshirt freshman Eric Bergman.

Fullback

John Goode emerged as a key contributor as a redshirt freshman last season, making six starts. In addition to blocking, he was an adept receiver, catching eight passes.

•Returning Starter

Defensive End

Chance Coda started every game at right end and led the defensive line with 23 tackles.

Dolapo Adubifa was productive in the handful of starts he made a year ago and will get a chance to earn a starting berth at left end.

Jason Seaman is an improving talent who made 22 stops and 2.0 sacks last year as a reserve. He could emerge as one of the team's top linemen. Scott Bauer, Kyle Cavil and Luke Sherrill are young players who provide depth.

Nose Tackle

Chris Arthurs has been a steady force at the nose position for three-straight years. He made 17 tackles last year and earned honorable mention all-conference honors.

His backup is Tony Colletti, who played in 12 games a year ago and made 19 tackles. Kayon Swanson is a redshirt freshman who excels against the run and had a strong spring.

Outside Linebackers

With 14.5 career sacks, Chauncey Mixon is one of the most productive linebackers in school history. He has a non-stop motor and a knack for making big plays. Mixon will move from the left to the right side this year.

Veteran Fred Wright anchors the left outside linebacker spot, where he made 27 tackles as a reserve last year.

Look for special teams ace Kyle Walker to have a breakout year in 2009. The senior has bounced around from various positions but has found a home at outside backer, where his speed and ferocity should pay dividends.

Scott Cole had a solid spring after playing a limited role last year. Travis Littles and Jayson DiManche are young players who add depth.

Inside Linebackers

Inside linebacker may be the deepest position on the team.

Brandin Jordan is one of the most decorated linebackers in school history and should finish his career in the top five in career tackles. With his great range and instincts, plus a football pedigree that includes his father, Buford (played RB for New Orleans Saints) and uncle, Enis Hicks (played RB for Pittsburgh Steelers), Jordan already has 285 career tackles to his credit.

Jordan teams with West Frankfort-native Ryan Patton, who blossomed into a solid player in his own right last season with 58 tackles and an interception.

Stephen Franklin had a terrific year in a reserve capacity last season, tallying 44 stops, including a pair of sacks. Connor James was also a productive reserve for the Salukis in 2008, notching 24 tackles. Keep an eye on Joe Okon, a redshirt freshman with great promise. He stood out in the spring.

Safety

The Salukis have one of the best safety tandems in college football. Marty Rodgers is an enforcer in run support and led Southern in tackles last year with 82. He also intercepted two passes. The other starting safety is Mike McElroy, who recorded 56 tackles and three interceptions a year ago.

SIU has experienced depth behind its starters. Veteran Lance Caldwell recorded 16 tackles last year, while Rashad Graham is a rising talent who notched 11 tackles as a freshman in 2008.

Cornerbacks

Korey Lindsey had an All-American sophomore season last year, picking off six passes to lead the team. Two of his interceptions came in the playoffs.

His counterpart is senior Brandon Williams, who remains one of the best cover men in the conference. He did not record an corner. Also in the mix are Jerris Halley and Michael Thornton.

Specialists

The Salukis have been blessed to have two of the best specialists in the league between punter Scott Ravanese and placekicker Kyle Dougherty.

Ravanese had another terrific season, averaging 43.3 yards per punt and earning First-Team All-MVFC honors.

Dougherty made 15-of-23 field goal attempts, including a game-winning 42 yarder against Northern Iowa.

Kyle Harruff backs up Ravanese at punter, while Steven Fox is the reserve kicker.

SIU returns its starting long snapper in junior Travis Bloomfield. Ryan Kernes backs up Bloomfield. Ravanese returns as holder.

DALE LENNON GUIDES SALUKIS INTO YEAR TWO

A year ago at this time, everything was brand new — a new head coach, a new staff and a new system for the players to learn. As Lennon reflects on his first season with the Salukis, he notes how much progress has been made in a short time, yet he remains focused on the goal of bringing a National Championship back to Carbondale.

“Going into this summer, we have a head of steam that we didn’t have last year,” Lennon said. “Last year, the players were just trying to learn the packages. We’re really pleased that we could expand upon our packages during spring ball. Now, the players believe in what we’re doing.”

Although the Salukis finished 9-3 last season, won a conference championship and advanced to the playoffs for the sixth-straight year, there was a point in the season when things almost went bad. “When we were 2-2, it was a crossroads for us,” Lennon recalled. “We had a disappointing loss at North Dakota State. How do we respond? The way the team responded was by winning seven-straight games. We were able to win close games, which a lot of times is very difficult to do with a new program.”

Lennon was rewarded for the team’s success by being named the MVFC Coach of the Year.

This offseason has been one of introspection and fine-tuning for the Saluki Football program.

“We’ve gone through a thorough self-analysis of our offense and defense,” Lennon said. “What are the things we did well? What are the things we didn’t do so well? We’ve string of five-straight appearances in the postseason. The challenge did not intimidate Lennon, who now has his own personal string of six-straight playoff appearances. He also owns a National Championship ring.

His keys to success are steadiness, preparation and team chemistry.

“I don’t want the highs to be too high, and I don’t want the lows to be too low,” he said. “I want to make sure that everyone is focused and the plan of attack is in place, and then it’s just a matter of going out and executing.”

You won’t find Lennon prowling the sidelines, stalking officials or raising a ruckus.

“You’re going to see my emotions under control during the course of a game,” Lennon said.

“I told the players I don’t want us playing emotionally — I want us playing enthusiastically.”

Lennon attributes his success at North Dakota, where he compiled a 90-24 record in nine years, including seven playoff appearances, one National Championship and five North Central Conference Championships, to thorough preparation.

“You don’t want surprises,” he said. “You want to make sure you control what you can control. That’s been my motto. Just make sure everything is covered that needs to be covered, and success will follow.”

Lennon graduated from Rugby High School in Rugby, N.D., a town of less than 3,000 residents near the Canadian border. He went on to play running back at the University of North Dakota from 1979-83, where he was team captain.

The first half of Lennon’s coaching career came on the defensive side of the ball — he was North Dakota’s defensive line coach (1988-89) and defensive coordinator (1990-96) for nine years.

“I’ve always hung my hat on defensive football,” he said. “Defense wins championships. Offensively, you can help the defense by making good decisions and not putting the defense in bad situations. How smart you play on the offensive side really impacts the defense. If you’re taking a lot of gambles, a lot of chances, sometimes you put the defense at risk.”

The Fighting Sioux made four-straight playoff appearances from 1992-95, which ultimately led to Lennon’s hiring as head coach at the University of Mary in Bismarck in 1997. He reversed the fortunes of that program and led it to an NAIA playoff appearance in 1998.

Lennon returned to his alma mater as head coach in 1999, and the program has been among the best in the nation ever since.

He reached the pinnacle of success in 2001 when he guided his team to the Division II National Championship and earned American Football Coaches Association Coach-of-the-Year honors. He has won NCC Coach-of-the-Year laurels three times.

Lennon is a perfect fit for Saluki Athletics’ approach to academics, where excellence is not just encouraged, but expected. In eight of his nine seasons, the team GPA at North Dakota was better than 3.0. More than 50 Sioux players earned academic all-conference honors during his tenure.

Last year, his Saluki squad had 33 players receive academic recognition from the Missouri Valley Football Conference.

Lennon and his wife, Chris, have three sons: Jared (20), Trevor (18) and Cody (14).

RANDY HEDBERG
CO-OFF. COORDINATOR/QBs
 2nd year at SIU
 31st year overall
 Minot State (1977)

Randy Hedberg enters his second year as the Salukis' co-offensive coordinator and also serves as quarterbacks coach — mentoring a group of signal callers that includes 2008 all-conference performer Chris Dieker.

Prior to SIU, Hedberg spent nine seasons as head coach at St. Cloud State, where he posted a 47-51 record. In 18 years as a collegiate head coach, he has compiled an overall record of 92-74-2. Hedberg began his college coaching career as an assistant (1979-81) and head coach (1982-90) at Minot State. He also worked as an assistant head coach and offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach at Central Missouri State (1990-96). Hedberg also spent three years as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks/receivers coach at North Dakota (1996-99).

Hedberg was a four-year letterwinner in football, basketball and baseball at Minot State. He was drafted by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 1977 and started five games as a rookie. He was with Tampa Bay through 1978, Oakland in 1979 and Green Bay in 1980. He was named by Sports Illustrated as one of the top 50 North Dakota sports figures of the 20th century. Hedberg holds a bachelor's degree from Minot State and master's from North Dakota. He and his wife, Chery Hysjulien, have four grown children — Jennifer, Katie, Christopher and Maddie.

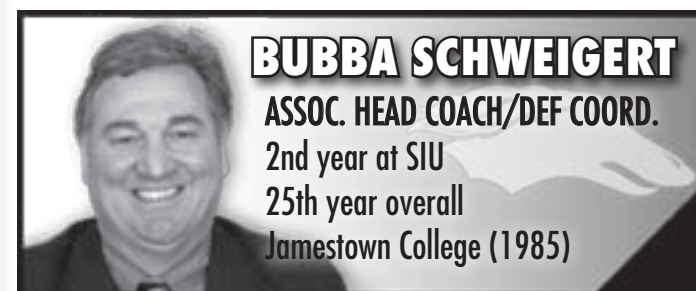

PHIL LONGO
OFF. COORDINATOR/WRs
 2nd year at SIU
 16th year overall
 Rowan University (1992)

Offensive coordinator Phil Longo directed a Saluki attack in 2008 that featured a 1,000-yard rusher and a passing game that was ranked No. 2 in the conference.

Prior to SIU, Longo was the offensive coordinator under Bubba Schweigert at University of Minnesota-Duluth (2007) and served as head coach at LaSalle (2005-06). During his time at the LaSalle helm, Longo produced two MAAC Offensive Player of the Year award winners, five All-Americans (a first for the LaSalle football program) and 13 All-MAAC selections. In addition, he oversaw an offensive unit which set numerous school records and finished first in the MAAC in both passing and total offense on two occasions. A New Jersey native, Longo joined LaSalle after coaching stints at William Paterson (N.J.) University, Parsippany Hills High School (1996-99) and Orange High School (1995). In addition, he worked as an assistant coach at Williamson (Pa.) Junior College (1994) and New Jersey City State University (1993).

Longo played three years of football at Rowan University (1988-89 and 1991). As a running back, he was a member of the school's first New Jersey Athletic Conference championship and NCAA Division III playoff team as a senior. He earned a bachelor's degree in physical education from Rowan in 1992.

BUBBA SCHWEIGERT
ASSOC. HEAD COACH/DEF COORD.
 2nd year at SIU
 25th year overall
 Jamestown College (1985)

Defensive coordinator Bubba Schweigert guided a Saluki defense that ranked No. 3 in the conference in points allowed in 2008. After the season, he was promoted to associate head coach.

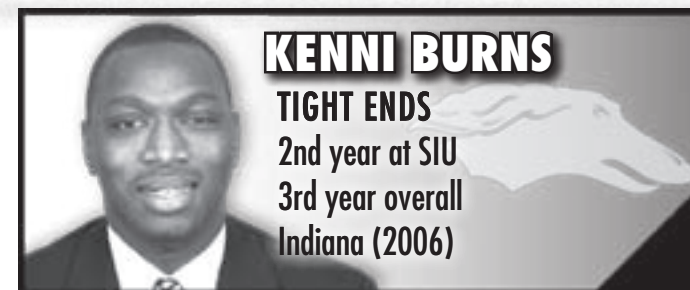

Prior to SIU, Schweigert compiled a 22-21 record as head coach at Division II Minnesota-Duluth (2004-07). He was named the North Central Conference Coach of the Year in 2005 after directing UMD to an 8-4 record, defeating three American Football Coaches Association Top-20 teams along the way. His team won a share of the school's first NCC title and its second NCAA Division II playoff berth in four years. Schweigert was also named the D2football.com Northwest Region Coach of the Year and the AFCA Division II Coach of the Year for Region 5.

Prior to UMD, Schweigert spent 15 seasons at the University of North Dakota, where he helped guide the Fighting Sioux to six NCC titles, eight playoff berths and a National Championship. He was Dale Lennon's defensive coordinator from 1999-2003. He was named the AFCA Division II Assistant Coach of the Year in 2000.

Before joining the North Dakota staff, Schweigert was the defensive coordinator at Jamestown College (N.D.) from 1985-88. He also served as admissions counselor and head baseball coach.

Schweigert, 46, has a bachelor's degree in business administration from Jamestown College and a master's degree from North Dakota. In 2002, he was honored with Jamestown College's Rollie Greeno Award for Outstanding Commitment in the Field of Education and Coaching.

Schweigert and his wife, Laura, have two sons, A.J. (6) and Cooper (4).

KENNI BURNS
TIGHT ENDS
 2nd year at SIU
 3rd year overall
 Indiana (2006)

As the Salukis' tight ends coach, Kenni Burns was instrumental in the development of all-conference tight end Ryan Kernes last season. Prior to SIU, Burns was the running backs coach at Millersville University (2007).

Burns played running back for four years at Indiana University, where he lettered three times. In 2004, Burns received the Indiana University Iron Man award, an award given to the player with the most snaps taken during the spring. While attending Indiana, Burns was a member of the Indiana Student Government as the Athletic Project manager, which was the bridge between the student government and the athletic department. He helped create more student seating at football and basketball games and helped reduce ticket prices for students.

Before arriving at Indiana, Burns attended Sacred Heart Griffin High School. He was a three-time all-state player and was the first ever sophomore to receive all-state honors. He also received several All-American honors his senior year.

STEVE CRUTCHLEY
RUNNING BACKS
 2nd year at SIU
 8th year overall
 Wisconsin-Eau Claire (2001)

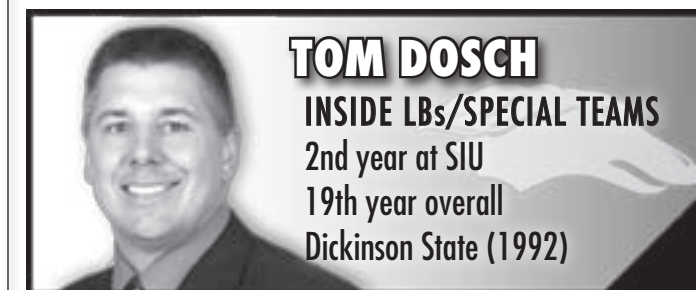

Steve Crutchley tutors SIU's backfield and mentored All-American running back Larry Warner in 2008.

Crutchley came to SIU after spending six years at St. Cloud State (2002-07). He joined the St. Cloud State staff as the wide receivers coach in 2002 and was promoted to co-offensive coordinator in 2007.

Crutchley played football and competed in track and field at the University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire. He was a three-year starter and letterwinner at wide receiver. His team won the WIAA title in 1998, and he was a two-time all-conference selection.

In track, Crutchley was the 1999 conference champion in the indoor 200 meters and currently holds the 200-meter record at UWEC. He was also a member of the national qualifying 4x100 meter relay team in 1998 and 1999.

Crutchley received a bachelor's in social studies from UWEC and a master's in sports management from St. Cloud State in 2006.

TOM DOSCH
INSIDE LBs/SPECIAL TEAMS
 2nd year at SIU
 19th year overall
 Dickinson State (1992)

Tom Dosch coaches SIU's inside linebackers and oversees the special teams. He was instrumental in the development of all-conference linebacker Brandin Jordan in '08, as well as a return game that featured three kickoffs returned for touchdowns.

Prior to SIU, Dosch compiled a 25-17 record in four seasons as head coach at Jamestown (2003-07). The Jimmies qualified for the NAIA playoffs twice and were ranked No. 6 nationally in 2007. Prior to Jamestown, Dosch was the defensive line/outside linebackers coach at the University of North Dakota for eight seasons. During his time at UND, the Sioux won a national championship in 2001 and a national runner-up finish in 2003. In addition, the team won North Central Conference (NCC) titles in 1993, 1994, 1999, 2001 and 2003. The Sioux went 92-27 and had 20 all-conference selections during that span. Dosch had a brief stint as assistant head coach and offensive coordinator for Jamestown and helped recruit players who became the cornerstones of the school's 1997 and 1998 playoff teams.

Dosch played collegiately at Dickinson State, where he earned four letters, started two seasons and was eventually inducted into the school's hall of fame. Following his playing days, he coached one season each at Dickinson State (1991) and Belfield High School (1992).

Dosch earned a bachelor's degree in physical education and social and behavioral science from Dickinson State in 1992. He also received a master's from UND in 1997. He and his wife, Tina, have two children — Lauren (4) Matthew (2).

PHIL MEYER
OFFENSIVE LINE
 1st year at SIU
 29th year overall
 Illinois State (1979)

Phil Meyer's career comes full circle as he returns this season to coach the offensive line at SIU. The Milwaukee, Wis. native was offensive coordinator for the Salukis from 1989-93.

Previously, Meyer has coached at Minnesota (OL, 2007-08), Wisconsin-Oshkosh (head coach 2000-06), Iowa State (QB, 1998-99; TE, 1995-97), Illinois State (OC, 1994), Western Illinois (OL, 1994), Northern Arizona (OL, 1988) and Southeast Missouri State (OC, 1986-87; OL, 1984-85).

As head coach at Wisconsin-Oshkosh, Meyer led the Division III program to 31 wins in seven seasons, including a 16-4 mark in non-conference games.

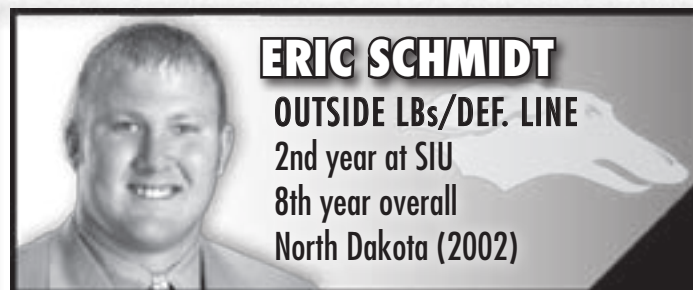

Meyer earned a bachelor's degree (1979) and master's (1980) from Illinois State. He coached at his alma mater as a student assistant (1978) and graduate assistant (1979-80). Meyer attended Milwaukee Pius XI High School, where he was a starter on the Popes' 1972 WISAA state championship team. He played one season at UW-Milwaukee and three at Illinois State. He and his wife, Brandi, have two daughters, Miranda and Madison.

STRENGTH
 2nd year at SIU
 8th year overall
 Montana State (2001)

Jared Nessland and his staff oversees the training of more than 350 student-athletes in SIU's state-of-the-art Troutt-Wittmann Academic and Training Center. Nessland directly supervises the football, men's basketball and baseball programs.

Prior to joining Southern, Nessland was the strength coach at Montana (2006-07) and North Dakota (2002-06). He also served as an assistant at Nebraska (2002) and North Dakota (2001-02). He began his career as a student intern at Montana State 1998. A native of Havre, Montana, Nessland competed on the Montana State track and field team. He is certified through the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association. He and his wife, Janice, reside in Carbondale.

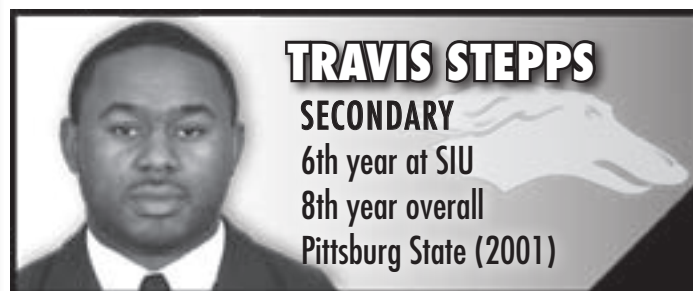

ERIC SCHMIDT
OUTSIDE LBs/DEF. LINE
 2nd year at SIU
 8th year overall
 North Dakota (2002)

Eric Schmidt tutors SIU's outside linebackers and defensive line — positions that produced three all-conference players in 2008.

A former standout linebacker at the University of North Dakota, Schmidt coached at his alma mater for two seasons (2006-07) before joining Southern's staff. Prior to UND, he spent four years as head football coach at Crookston (Minn.) High School. He led the Pirates to a Section 8AAA runner-up finish in 2004, and one year earlier, led the team to the Minnesota state semifinals. Schmidt was named the 2003 Section 8AAA Coach of the Year. He also coached girls basketball at Crookston.

A native of Mandan, N.D., Schmidt played for the Fighting Sioux from 1998 to 2001 and was a captain of UND's 2001 national championship team. A two-time All-North Central Conference selection, Schmidt earned All-America honors as a senior in 2001. Schmidt received his bachelor's degree in secondary education from North Dakota in 2002. He and his wife, Tiffany, reside in Carbondale.

TRAVIS STEPPS
SECONDARY
 6th year at SIU
 8th year overall
 Pittsburg State (2001)

Travis Stepps begins his sixth year on the coaching staff at Southern and is in his fourth year as a full-time assistant. He is the lone holdover from the Jerry Kill staff.

Stepps works with the team's defensive backs and has mentored seven all-conference players in his tenure, including All-Americans Craig Turner in 2007 and most recently, Korey Lindsey. Last year, SIU ranked No. 4 in the conference in pass efficiency defense.

Prior to SIU, Stepps spent two seasons on the staff at Washburn University. As a player, Stepps was a two-time All-American defensive back at Pittsburg State.

The Fort Scott, Kan.-native earned a bachelor's degree in social studies and education and a master's degree in sports management from Southern Illinois.

GLENN POSHARD LEADS UNIVERSITY SYSTEM AT SIU

Glenn Poshard, who was inaugurated as President in September of 2006, brings more than 40 years of public service to Southern Illinois University.

The fifth of five children who grew up on a family farm, Poshard is a native of White County, Illinois. He graduated from Carmi Township High School in 1962 and after graduation served in the United States Army in Korea, where he received a commendation for outstanding service.

Dr. Poshard is a three-degree graduate of Southern Illinois University Carbondale, the first such graduate to serve on its Board of Trustees.

Entering on the G.I. Bill, he earned a bachelor's degree in secondary education in 1970, a master's degree in health education in 1974, and a Ph.D. in higher education administration in 1984. During this time he worked as both a student worker and a civil servant.

While working toward his master's degree, Dr. Poshard taught and coached at Galatia and Thompsonville high schools. Over the next 10 years, he served as Assistant Director of the Southern Illinois Regional Education Service Center and Director of the Area Service Center for Educators of the Gifted.

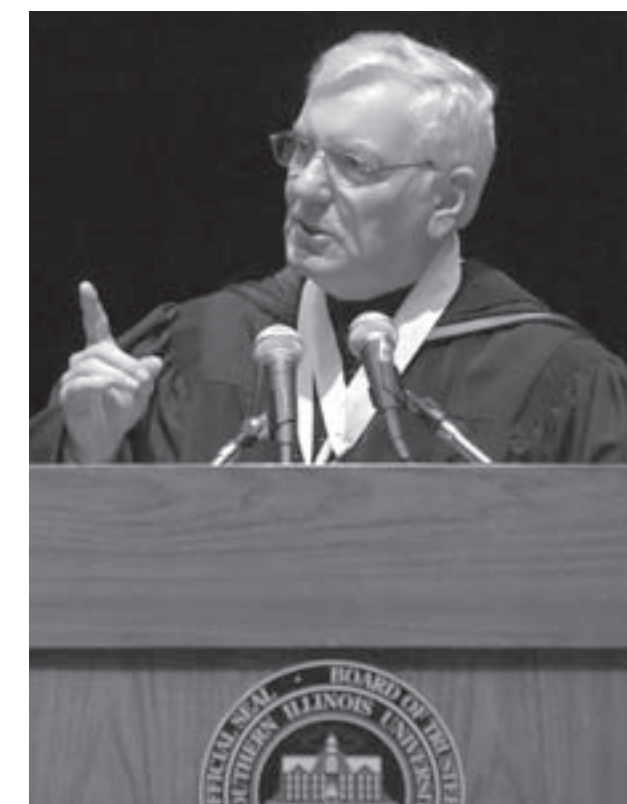

In August 1984, Dr. Poshard was appointed to the Illinois State Senate. He was successfully elected later that year and was re-elected in 1986.

Based on his success in the State Senate, the citizens of southern Illinois sent him to the United States Congress in 1989 to represent the 22nd Congressional District. He set a limit of ten years on his service in Congress and in 1998 won the Democratic nomination for Governor of the State of Illinois but lost in the general election.

During his years in the Illinois Legislature and in the U.S. Congress, he advocated for campaign finance reform, clean coal research, the Shawnee National Forest, tourism, economic development, transportation, and higher education.

Dr. Poshard limited individual donations to his campaign and refused to accept donations from political action committees.

In 1999, Dr. Poshard

and his wife, Jo, founded the Poshard Foundation, which raises money to fund care for abused, neglected, and abandoned children. The Foundation has been a leader in efforts to prevent child abuse throughout southern Illinois, including helping to build a new $600,000 women's shelter in Cairo in December 2003. Presently, the Foundation is building a new shelter in West Frankfort, Illinois.

In 1999, Dr. Poshard was appointed Vice Chancellor for Administration for the Carbondale campus of Southern Illinois University, a post he held until July 2003. Governor Rod Blagojevich appointed him to the Board of Trustees of Southern Illinois University in January 2004. Later that year, he was elected Chair of the Board of Trustees, a position he held until declaring his candidacy for President of the University system.

Dr. Poshard is a past recipient of the Lindell W. Sturgis Memorial Public Service Award (2003) and the SIU Distinguished Alumni Award (2003) and is a member of the SIUC College of Education and Human Services Hall of Fame (1992).

The Poshard family includes two adult children, Dennis and Kristen, a daughter-in-law, Diane, and five grandchildren, Lydia, Madeline, America, Tucker, and Harrison. Glenn and Jo, a retired public school teacher, live in rural Murphysboro.

SAMUEL GOLDMAN IS SIUC'S CHANCELLOR

Southern Illinois University President Glenn Poshard named retired professor and long-time Carbondale community leader Samuel Goldman the school's chancellor on April 11, 2008.

"My biggest focus is to bring the university campus together to meet the challenges we have," Goldman said upon taking over as chancellor. "We have such an enormous wealth of talent here. We need to remember our main source of strength is in the university."

Goldman is a native of Winnipeg, Canada. He earned his bachelor's degree in English and sociology at the University of Manitoba, and then moved to the United States in the mid-1950s to attend the University of Chicago.

He earned both his master's degree and doctoral degree in social sciences with a major in education from the University of Chicago.

He became an American citizen in January 1978.

In 1980, Goldman left Ohio University to become dean of the former College of Human Resources at SIU Carbondale.

He subsequently joined former President Albert Somit's staff, focusing on regional research and service. Goldman then served as a professor in the Department of Educational Administration and Higher Education in the College of Education and Human Services.

In addition to his research, administrative and classroom work, Goldman served on the Faculty Senate's Judicial Review Board.

Goldman was a member of the committee that drafted SIUC's strategic plan, Southern at 150: Building Excellence Through Commitment. Goldman retired from that position in 2003 and remains very active in the southern Illinois community.

He has worked separately with Hospice of Southern Illinois and with Southern Illinois Regional Social Services in both fund raising and marketing.

Upon completion of his three-year term as Chair of the Carbondale Human Relations Commission (2003-2006), he was appointed to the Carbondale Convention and Tourism Bureau and currently serves as Board Chairman.

He is a certified clergy volunteer at the Illinois Youth Center in Murphysboro, Memorial Hospital of Carbondale, the Veterans Affairs Medical Center in Marion, St. Joseph's Hospital in Murphysboro and Herrin Hospital.

He has won numerous honors for his contributions in education and in community service, including: Kentucky Colonel award from the governor of Kentucky for service to public education in that state; Honorary Tar Heel, from the governor of North Carolina in recognition of his service to public education in that state; special citation from the Ohio Legislature for "an extensive record of community services especially in the areas of community health and public education"; 2000 Citizen of the Year from the Southern Illinois District of the National Association of Social Workers; and the 2001 Essence Award from the Center for Comprehensive Services in Carbondale.

He has two grown sons, Joseph, who is Assistant Director of Golf Operations at a resort in Hawaii, and Peter, who is a sculptor and attends Northeastern Illinois University in Chicago.

MARIO MOCCIA DIRECTS SALUKI ATHLETICS

Under the leadership of director of athletics Mario Moccia, the future has never been brighter for Saluki Athletics. Not only does the department have a host of successful teams, soon it will have the state-of-the art facilities those programs deserve.

Shortly after Moccia arrived on campus in 2006, he charted the course for Saluki Way — an ambitious $83 million facilities campaign that will feature a new football stadium, renovated arena and 50,000-square foot team facility.

The department broke ground on the project last spring and the new facilities will open in 2010-11.

When Moccia (pronounced Mo-chuh) took the helm at SIU, the annual scholarship fund had peaked at slightly more than $600,000. Three years later, it has nearly doubled to $1.275 million.

Ticket sales have made dramatic gains during Moccia's tenure, with sharp increases in revenue in both football and men's basketball. The athletics department also reached lucrative agreements with both Learfield Sports and Under Armour.

The financial success has allowed Moccia to hire and retain top coaches such as Dale Lennon and Chris Lowery.

During Moccia's tenure the football program has risen to elite status. The team reached the Final Four of the FCS Playoffs in 2007 and pulled off shocking upsets of FBS schools Indiana (2006) and Northern Illinois (2007).

Under Moccia's watch, the men's basketball program advanced to the Sweet 16 in 2007 and finished No. 11 in the nation — the highest ranking in school history.

The Salukis have also won conference championships in women's golf, women's basketball, men's cross country, men's tennis, women's track and women's swimming & diving in the last three years.

Equally impressive are the marks Saluki student-athletes have posted in the classroom. The cumulative GPA of all student-athletes stands at a school-best 3.06.

Prior to SIU, Moccia was the senior associate AD for external operations at the University of Missouri, where he oversaw the largest fund raising effort in the history of Mizzou Athletics with the Champions For Life campaign. The external components of the athletics department at Missouri were routinely recognized as among the best in college athletics. During his tenure (1998-2006), Missouri posted record football season ticket sales and an increase of more than $3 million in annual giving over a five-year period.

Prior to Missouri, Moccia was associate athletics director at Texas State University in San Marcos from 1997 to 1998, and he was director of sales and assistant director of the Lobo Club for the athletic department at the University of New Mexico from 1993 to 1997.

Moccia holds a bachelor's degree in psychology from New Mexico State University (1989), where he was the Most Valuable Player of the Aggie baseball team in 1988 and 1989. As a senior, he was a pre-season All-American. Moccia was drafted by the Detroit Tigers and played professionally for two years before beginning his sports administration career.

Moccia earned a master's degree in sports administration from the University of New Mexico (1993). In 1998, he was named to the New Mexico State University Athletics Hall of Fame. Moccia is a member of the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA) and serves on several regional and national committees.

Mario and his wife, Heidi — a former All-American women's soccer player at UMass — reside in Murphysboro with their daughter, Addie.

CARBONDALE, Ill. - Larry Warner rushed for a career-high 151 yards and scored two touchdowns, including one on a 95-yard kickoff return, to help Southern Illinois secure a 37-31 win over Hampton.

Warner finished the night with a total of 353 all-purpose yards. That total was the fourth-most in a game among Missouri Valley Football Conference individuals.

“Larry’s kind of a coach’s dream,” said Saluki head coach Dale Lennon. “His heart is so big, you need both hands to cover it during the National Anthem. He’s strong, and he was a difference-maker tonight.”

Warner added, “I’ll do anything I can to help the team. It’s all about winning.”

SIU had a 20-3 lead with 6:40 left in the second quarter before HU scored its first touchdown of the game on a 62-yard pass from Herbert Bynes to Justin Brown.

On the ensuing kickoff, Warner broke free for a 95-yard touchdown, giving SIU a 27-10 lead at the half. Warner’s kickoff return was the Salukis’ longest in eight years.

Behind Bynes, who completed 30-of-47 passes for a career-high 403 yards and three touchdowns, the Pirates pulled to within three points after putting up a pair of TDs in the third quarter.

Bynes hooked up with Brown again, this time for a

85-yard touchdown, and later scored on a 1-yard touchdown run to narrow SIU’s lead to 27-24 at the 7:12 mark.

Bynes also threw three interceptions, none more bigger than his pair on consecutive possessions in the fourth quarter.

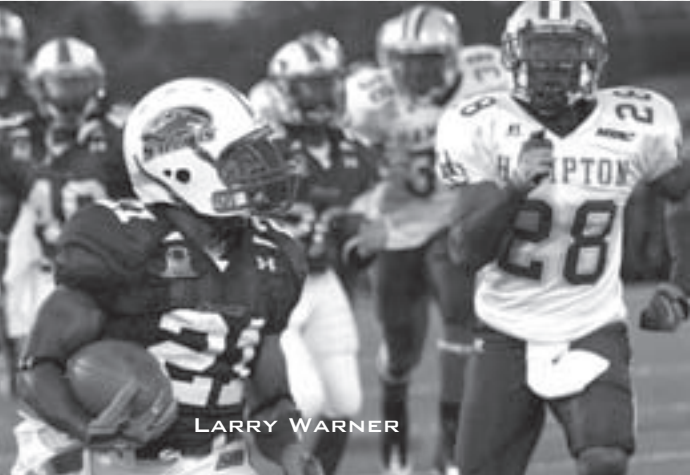

Down, 34-24, after Warner scored on a 20-yard scamper, HU moved the ball to its own 33-yard line when Mike McElroy picked off Bynes, giving SIU the ball at the Pirates’ 47. SIU later drove to HU’s 1-yard line before falling short of the end zone on a 4th-and-1.

McElroy intercepted Bynes again on HU’s next possession, and SIU took over on downs at the Pirates’ 20. Five plays later, Kyle Dougherty made a 30-yard field goal to give the Dawgs a 37-24 lead with 7:03 remaining.

“We had a talk at half-time about how we needed to attack more on defense,” said McElroy. “The coaches put us in a great position to make plays and we just did our job.”

Offensively, sophomore Chris Dieker completed 16-of-29 passes for 216 yards and three touchdowns in his debut as the Salukis’ starting quarterback. Dieker threw touchdown passes to two different receivers, including two to Damian Sherman and one to Jeff Evans.

“There were some nerves, but once I stepped on that field, I focused and the nerves went away,” said Dieker when addressing his first career start. “We were happy with the performance.”

EVANSTON, Ill. - Northwestern scored 27 unanswered points to subdue Southern Illinois at a soggy Ryan Field.

The Salukis led, 7-6, after the first quarter, but were blanked the rest of the way, ending SIU’s two-game winning streak against Football Bowl Subdivision (formerly I-A) opponents.

“I was disappointed with the way we played,” said Saluki head coach Dale Lennon. “We had our chances, especially in the first half. We just didn’t do the little things we needed to do to win the game.”

Arnado Villarreal made a career-high four field goals, including two in the first quarter, to give NW an early 6-0 lead.

The Salukis, after taking over on downs at their own 40-yardline, faced a 3rd-and-7 when Chris Dieker completed a 38-yard pass to Marc Cheatham. Cheatham made an excellent grab over Wildcat defender Brendan Smith to get SIU a first down at the NW 19.

Larry Warner broke free for a 19-yard touchdown on the ensuing play, giving the Dawgs their only lead of the game as time expired in the first quarter.

Tyrell Sutton’s 44-yard touchdown led to 10 more points for the Wildcats in the second quarter. Villarreal’s third field goal, this time from 18 yards out, later pushed NW’s lead to 16-7 at the half.

SIU trailed at half-time for the first time since November 3, 2007 (9-3, at Western Illinois).

SIU finished with 263 total yards, however, the Saluki offense was penalized 10 times for 105 yards. Neither team turned the ball over in a steady downpour that lasted all day.

Linebackers Ryan Patton (8), Stephen Franklin (7), Brandin Jordan (6) and Chauncey Mixon (6) led SIU in tackles. The Saluki defense has given up a combined 64 points in its first two games this season.

“We need to look at the game film to find out what things we have to do to get better,” said Jordan. “We’re just going to keep working hard in practice.”

CARBONDALE, Ill. - Sophomore placekicker Kyle Dougherty nailed a 40-yard field goal on the final play of the game to give Southern Illinois a thrilling, 27-24 victory over Northern Iowa.

UNI had the ball with 1:13 left in the game when James Cloud sacked quarterback Pat Grace. Grace fumbled, and Brandin Jordan recovered, giving SIU the ball at the Panther-29.

SIU ran two plays and called a timeout with one second left before Dougherty's game-winning kick.

"I felt like it was good right when it came off my foot," said Dougherty. "That was the best kick I ever had. It was also the first time I ever had a game-winner."

SIU beat UNI for the sixth-consecutive time at McAndrew Stadium. The Salukis also opened Missouri Valley Football Conference play with a win for the seventh year in a row.

"I tip my hat to Northern Iowa. It was a great game. Our special teams weren't perfect, but we made some key plays that probably won the game for us," said SIU head coach Dale Lennon.

UNI entered the game with a +5 turnover margin, but turned the ball over five times, while forcing only one Saluki turnover. The Panthers lost four fumbles -- two recovered by Jordan and two recovered by Jason Seaman -- and threw one interception. Larry Warner returned the game's opening kickoff 97 yards for a touchdown to get SIU a quick 7-0 lead. Warner has returned two kickoffs for TDs in three games this season.

SIU added 17 more points in the second quarter to extend its lead to 24-7 at the half.

The Panthers, however, roared back with 17 unanswered points in the third quarter and tied the game at 24-24, when Grace completed a 1-yard pass to Victor Williams with 37 seconds remaining in the third quarter.

UNI marched all the way to SIU's 1-yardline on its next possession, but Marty Rodgers jarred the ball loose from Corey Lewis and Jordan recovered for the Dawgs.

"The turnovers late in the game were key," said UNI head coach Mark Farley. "We could have won this game by two touchdowns. When we lost that one on the 1-yard line, that was the difference."

SIU moved into UNI territory on just two occasions in the second half and had 49 yards of total offense in the game's final 30 minutes. UNI outrushed SIU, 242-49 and had 365 yards of total offense to the Salukis' 231.

FARGO, N.D. - North Dakota State scored on four of seven possessions in the second half to overcome a 20-point deficit and beat Southern Illinois, 35-27, in front of a sold out crowd of 18,942 at the Fargodome.

SIU scored the first 20 points of the game, but gave up 28 points in the second half, including 21 in the fourth quarter, as the Bison earned their 15th-consecutive win at home.

NDSU was shutout for the first 29:24 of the game before scoring its first touchdown on a 9-yard pass from Nick Mertens to Jeremiah Wurzbacher with 36 seconds in the second quarter.

That play ignited a stretch of 35-straight points for the Bison.

"We gave ourselves a chance in the fourth quarter with the on-side kick, but the disappointing thing about it is, is that it shouldn't have gotten to that," said Lennon.

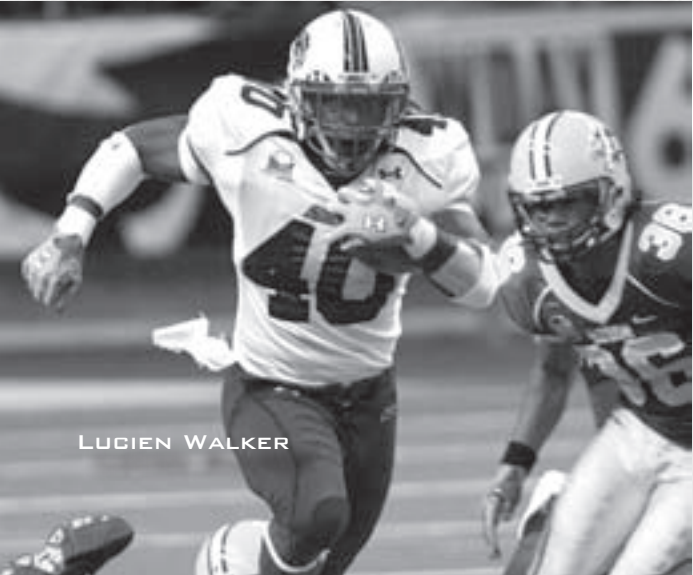

Lennon's return to his home state for the first time as SIU's head coach started with a bang.

Saluki QB Chris Dieker had the best half of his career to date, completing 9-of-14 passes for 97 yards and two touchdowns.

SIU dropped to 0-12 in dome games since 1983. NDSU's 21 points were the most a conference opponent scored in the fourth quarter against the Salukis in five years. "We said going into today's game that we needed to be focused to handle the Fargodome crowd and play a good football team," said Lennon. "We could not be our own worst enemy. The first half we accomplished that, the second half we didn't."

The Salukis return to action when they host Indiana State on homecoming Oct. 11. Kickoff is set for 1:30 p.m., CT, at McAndrew Stadium.

CARBONDALE, Ill. - Ten Salukis scored in Southern Illinois' dominating 60-7 win over Indiana State in front of a Homecoming crowd of 11,857 at McAndrew Stadium.

SIU put up 50 points in the first half, including 36 in the second quarter. It was SIU's second-most first-half and second-quarter points scored in a game in school history.

The Salukis also made huge plays on defense and special teams in the balanced effort. ISU lost its 20th-straight game and now owns the nation's longest losing streak at all divisions.

"Today is what we needed. We were able to accomplish a lot of the things we wanted on offense, defense and special teams," said SIU head coach Dale Lennon.

The Dawgs seemed to score in every conceivable fashion early on. Chris Dieker completed a 60-yard touchdown pass to Damian Sherman on the first play from scrimmage, and the rout was on.

"We came out strong and scored on the opening drive," said Dieker. "It set the tone for the rest of the game."

Another big pass play, this time a 22-yard completion from Dieker to Sherman, helped set up Larry's Warner's 10-yard rushing touchdown on SIU's third possession. Warner's TD capped a 9-play, 81-yard drive, as the Salukis extended their lead to 14-0 with 8:03 left in the first quarter.

Then came the big second quarter.

"Today was just a big day for us overall as a football team," said Kyle Walker, who recovered a botched second-quarter punt and returned it for a TD. "We did everything we had talked about all week in practice."

The Salukis had three takeaways on the day, all of which came off fumbles. Cloud also forced a fumble, while Coda and Bloomfield joined Walker with fumble recoveries.

Special teams wise, Caldwell (6), Dougherty (10) and Seaman (2) added 18 points to SIU's scoring. In addition, Caldwell became the first Saluki to block a kick this season. Ravanesi also had a nice 41-yard punt that was downed at ISU's 1-yardline.

"We actually worked a lot this week on kicking from the 45-50 yard line because Scott's leg is so strong. A lot of times he's been kicking into the end zone. He did a great job of toning down his kick," said Lennon.

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio -

Southern Illinois' defense scored eight points, registered a season-high four sacks, had two interceptions and blocked a field goal in a dominating 33-0 win over Youngstown State earlier today at Stambaugh Stadium.

The Salukis blanked the Penguins for the first time in 20 meetings. SIU also recorded its first shutout against a Missouri Valley Football Conference opponent on the road since 1982.

SIU handed YSU its second shutout this season. The last time the Penguins were held scoreless twice in a season was 1980.

It took SIU only three plays in a little over a minute to get on the board. After Larry Warner broke free for a 42-yard run, Chris Dieker threw a 24-yard touchdown pass to Joe Allaria with 13:58 left in the first quarter. The TD reception was the first of Allaria's career.

The Saluki defense added its third touchdown in two games when Ryan Patton picked off Dailyn Campbell on a 3rd-and-8. Patton, who followed a great block from Fred Wright, ran 52 yards into the end zone, giving SIU a 14-0 lead at the 1:48 mark.

SIU had 62 yards of total offense in the second quarter, including 53 on its final drive of the half. Kyle Dougherty's 42-yard field goal capped a 10-play march as time expired, pushing the Dawgs' lead to 17-0. Dougherty has now made six-consecutive field goals.

YSU had opportunities to cut into SIU's lead when it started consecutive drives in Saluki territory midway through the second quarter.

The Penguins, however, came up empty on both occasions thanks to more big plays by the Saluki defense. James Cloud blocked a field goal and Wright dropped Dana Brown for a loss on fourth down to keep YSU scoreless.

SIU held YSU to under 100 yards of total offense in the first half. The Penguins had 73 yards, including -6 on the ground and 79 through the air.

YSU, aided by a 38-yard run from Karym Keys, managed to get to SIU's 31-yard-line, before Brian Palmer missed a 43-yard field goal on the Penguins' first drive of the second half.

YSU started its next possession inside its own 10 when Cloud and Stephen Franklin sacked Campbell at the 2-yardline. The ball came loose on the play and the Penguins recovered in the end zone for a safety, as SIU took a 19-0 lead with 7:46 left in the third quarter.

SIU put the win on ice with a pair of rushing touchdowns in the last 6:30 of the game.

SPRINGFIELD, Mo. - Chris Dieker escaped a sack and threw a 51-yard touchdown pass to Marc Cheatham as time expired to give Southern Illinois a thrilling 23-17 win over Missouri State.

SIU had the ball at its own 49-yardline with seven seconds left. Dieker dropped back to pass, avoided three MSU defenders and found a wide open Cheatham along the near sideline. Cheatham went untouched into the end zone as the clock ran out.

“It looked like Chris was going to be sacked and the whole defense converged. I was running a crossing route and just got behind the defense and put my hand up, and he threw it up there,” is how Cheatham described the game’s final play. “It’s a great feeling to get opportunities to make plays.”

The Salukis scored 20 fourth-quarter points, including 14 on consecutive drives.

After Derek Miller returned Cory Harbor’s blocked punt 36 yards to give MSU a 7-3 lead with just under four minutes left in the third quarter, SIU countered with back-to-back touchdowns to take a 10-point lead.

Dieker scored on a quarterback sneak on fourth down to give SIU a 10-7 edge with 11:50 remaining. Dieker’s 1-yard run capped a 16-play, 77-yard march for the Dawgs.

SIU then forced MSU to punt and took over on downs at its own 48. Four plays later, Dieker hooked up with Cheatham for a 29-yard strike to push the lead to 17-7 at the 9:03 mark. Cheatham stiff-armed a Bear tackler to the ground during his impressive run after the catch.

MSU managed to get to SIU’s 2-yardline the next time it had the ball, but was held two a field goal thanks to the Salukis’ smothering goal line defense. The Bears were stopped on three-straight rushing attempts before Matt Hottelman’s 20-yard field goal sliced SIU’s lead to 17-10 with 4:11 left.

The Bears retained possession at their own 13 with 1:42 remaining following a SIU punt. The Salukis were flagged for two penalties, resulting in 30 yards. The latter of the two personal fouls gave MSU a first down at the Saluki-31.

Cody Kirby then completed two passes of 20 or more yards, including a 26-yard TD to Brandon Oliver, as MSU tied things up at 17-17 with 19 seconds on the clock.

For SIU, the beginning was one the Salukis would rather forget. The Salukis turned the ball over on each of their first four possessions of the game. SIU fumbled three times and threw one interception over that span.

“It was a strange first half and we were fortunate to be ahead,” said SIU head coach Dale Lennon. “We could have very easily been down a couple scores. You knew the longer they stuck around, the more of a run they would make at the end, which is exactly what they did.”

CARBONDALE, Ill. - Larry Warner rushed for a career-high 256 yards and scored two touchdowns to lead Southern Illinois to a 40-21 win over North Dakota on Military Appreciation Day at McAndrew Stadium.

Warner finished with 100 or more rushing yards for the third-straight game. He became SIU’s first 200-yard rusher since Arkee Whitlock ran for 207 yards against Tennessee-Martin in 2006. Warner is now sixth all-time in single-game rushing yards at SIU.

“I am able to make big runs because of our offensive linemen. They want the yards just as much as I do,” said Warner of his performance. “I am a slasher-type runner and I just try to make things happen on every play.”

SIU went seven-consecutive games without a third-quarter touchdown, but Richard White ended that stretch with a 3-yard run. White, who scored the only points of the quarter, capped a 9-play, 75-yard drive at the 3:03 mark.

Both teams combined for 27 points in the fourth quarter, but SIU was too much for the Fighting Sioux to handle.

“Offensively, I was very pleased with our entire day,” said SIU head coach Dale Lennon. “We felt there were some matchups that would be advantageous for us and there were some things we were hoping we’d be able to do. The offensive line really did give our running backs chances to make some big plays.”

Defensively, Chauncey Mixon had nine tackles, including 2.5 for loss. Mixon had 1.5 sacks as well. Brandin Jordan followed with seven takedowns.

Lennon faced his former team for the first time as SIU’s head coach. He compiled a 90-24 record in nine years, including seven playoff appearances, one National Championship and five North Central Conference titles at UND prior to taking over the Saluki helm.

“It was emotional,” he said. “Obviously, I know a lot of these guys. It was good to get this win today.”

CARBONDALE, Ill. - Korey Lindsey intercepted two passes in the last 1:36, one of which he returned 48 yards for a touchdown, to lead Southern Illinois to a 24-14 win over Western Illinois.

SIU led, 17-14, late in the fourth quarter when Lindsey picked off Matt Barr at the WIU 48 and ran all the way to the end zone. A native of Baton Rouge, La., Lindsey returned an interception for a touchdown for the first time in his career.

“I was just trying to make a big play for the team,” said Lindsey. “We needed a stop and we didn’t know how we were going to do it. I just saw the opportunity and took it.”

Lindsey came up with his second interception on the second play of the Leathernecks final drive to seal the win for the Dawgs.

SIU, which has the MVFC’s best defense against the run, went up against the league’s top rushing team in WIU. The Saluki defense made a huge statement again, holding the Leathernecks to only 80 rushing yards, while forcing three turnovers on the day.

“It was pretty much what we expected. It was an old-fashioned football game, very physical,” said SIU head coach Dale Lennon. “We knew it would be a fourth quarter, to-the-end, kind of matchup.”

Herb Donaldson, who became WIU’s all-time leading rusher, was held to under 100 (99) yards on 28 carries. He had this to say about SIU’s defense.

“They are really good up front, move a lot and bring a lot of pressure. They did a good job of keeping their offense on the field and made some big plays.”

SIU’s defense consistently gave WIU a long field to work with. As a result, the Leathernecks were forced to begin 12 of their 14 drives inside their own 30-yardline. WIU also punted eight times, fumbled once and threw two picks.

“Congratulations to SIU for a good win,” said WIU head coach Don Patterson. “They did a good job of keeping their offense on the field.”

Marty Rodgers and Brandin Jordan keyed the Saluki defense with eight tackles apiece. Rodgers also recovered a fumble. Lindsey also added two tackles and broke up two passes on the day, as well.

SIU won its fifth-straight game.

“I thought this game really had a playoff feel to it,” said Lennon. “There were two heavyweights just taking their best shots at each other. You just know there is going to be a play or two that you could look at as really being the difference. That’s kind of what happened today.”

CARBONDALE, Ill. - Kyle Dougherty made a 28-yard field goal and James Wheeler came up with a huge interception in the last three minutes of the game to give Southern Illinois a 38-35 win over South Dakota State at a frigid McAndrew Stadium.

As expected, SIU and SDSU hooked up in an exciting Missouri Valley Football Conference showdown that came down to the wire.

“It was another game that came down to the end,” said SIU head coach Dale Lennon. “I don’t know why our games are always like that, but it just seems to work out that way.”

SIU, which led 35-21 at halftime, saw its two-touchdown lead disappear when SDSU scored on two of its first three drives of the third quarter.

SIU, which went scoreless in the third quarter for the sixth time in 10 games, then pieced together its longest drive of the game en route to the decisive score.

Chris Dieker completed 6-of-8 passes and Larry Warner ran eight yards to pick up a big first down on a 3rd-and-long to help get SIU deep into SDSU territory. Dougherty, after missing two field goals the week before, then watched his 28-yard kick sail through the uprights to give the Salukis a 38-35 edge with 2:59 left in the game. SIU marched 75 yards in 16 plays, chewing up 6:40 prior to Dougherty’s kick. “Chris did a very good job of managing the offense,” said Lennon. “He had a couple big third down conversions. The play calling was diverse and we wanted to give our players a chance.”

SDSU stormed back, with Berry completing six of his first seven passes to quickly move the Jackrabbits to the Saluki 29-yardline. Shortly after a first down in-completion, Berry was picked off by Wheeler along the near sideline.

“I thought for a lot of reasons in the second half that we played better football,” said SDSU head coach John Stiegelmeier. “I thought we were going to win the game. This was the toughest game we’ve lost.”

NORMAL, Ill. - Southern Illinois used a 29-yard touchdown pass from Chris Dieker to Ryan Kernes and a huge goal line stand to subdue Illinois State, 17-10.

SIU won a share of the Missouri Valley Football Conference title and clinched the league's automatic post-season berth. The Salukis, who advance to the postseason for the sixth year in a row, have won or shared the conference championship four times (2003, 2004, 2005, 2008) in their football history.

ISU tied things up at 10-10 and sent the game to overtime when Kevin Brockway threw a 8-yard touchdown pass to Eyad Salem with 44 seconds left in regulation.

SIU had the ball on the first possession of overtime and faced a 3rd-and-14 when Dieker found a wide open Kernes in the back of the end zone for the game-winning touchdown.

ISU had one last chance and managed to get to SIU's 1-yardline, but fell inches shy of a first down when Chance Coda and Kendrick Young dropped Walter Mendenhall on a 4th-and-1.

"This wasn't our best game overall, but we hung in there and found a way to win at the end," said SIU head coach Dale Lennon, who became only the third coach in Valley Football history to win a conference title his first year coaching in the league. "Football is a game of inches and it was today."

SIU had a hard time finding its rhythm offensively, but made up for it with outstanding defense. Especially, in the fourth quarter, where the Salukis forced fumbles on three-consecutive possessions.

SIU finished with 311 yards of total offense, including 138 on the ground and 173 through the air. The Salukis also turned the ball over twice.

Dieker completed 20-of-35 passes for 173 yards and one touchdown and Warner ran for 49 yards and one TD on 13 carries to lead the Dawgs. Warner finished with 94 all-purpose yards, and as a result, became only the fourth Saluki to register 2,000 or more all-purpose yards in a season. He has 2,027 all-purpose yards in 11 games this year.

Defensively, Chauncey Mixon (13), Rodgers (12) and James Cloud (11) each finished with double-digit tackles. It was the first time three Salukis had 10 or more tackles in a game since Sept. 8, 2007.

"Our defense is what carried us through the game," said Lennon. "I've always believed defense wins championships. We did what we had to do to limit the points on the board and give ourselves a chance at the end."

The game marked SIU's sixth overtime contest in school history. The Salukis improved to 3-3 in such contests.

CARBONDALE, Ill. - New Hampshire scored 21 points on special teams en route to a 29-20 win over Southern Illinois in the first round of the NCAA Division I Football Championship.

UNH, which handed SIU its first home loss of the season and snapped the Salukis' seven-game winning streak, advanced to face Northern Iowa.

The Wildcats returned five kickoffs for 199 yards, averaging nearly 40 yards (39.8) per return. They also blocked a punt and put up 15 points on a perfect 5-of-5 field goals by Tom Bishop.

"Special teams was probably the difference in the game," said SIU head coach Dale Lennon. "Those were points that were directly from kickoff returns that set up field goal opportunities. The blocked punt was also very disappointing."

UNH held a 16-13 lead at halftime and scored 17 unanswered points, beginning with Bishop's 28-yard field goal with 2:34 left to play in the second quarter.

"The two momentum swings were the blocked punt and touchdown right before the half," said Lennon. "They definitely had some things going in their direction. You need to make plays at certain points in time and they did."

SIU narrowed the gap to, 26-20, when Chris Dieker threw a 30-yard touchdown pass to Kyle Harruff at the 12:57 mark of the fourth quarter.

Bishop, however, split the uprights for his fifth field goal when he connected from 32 yards out to ice the 29-20 win. UNH marched 71 yards in 13 plays, chewing up 5:38 prior to the kick.

SIU had its chances, but couldn't capitalize as Kyle Dougherty missed field goals (47 yards, 46 yards) on two-straight possessions in the third quarter when the Dawgs trailed by three. As a result, SIU came up empty in that stanza for the eighth time this season.

SIU ended its 2008 season at 9-3, with 13 seniors playing in their final game at McAndrew Stadium.

"I told the team it's been an honor and a privilege to be their coach this season," said Lennon. "I thanked them and let the seniors know they left an incredible legacy here to this football program which I hope to build on."

FORMER SALUKI AND CURRENT NEW YORK GIANTS RUNNING BACK BRANDON JACOBS

HEAD COACHING HISTORY

William McAndrew
1913-16, 1921-38
Record: 83-79-20

Hired at SINU in 1913 to develop a physical education department "for boys," McAndrew organized the athletics program, which previously had "club teams" and occasionally an approved team.

He served as head coach, with the exception of years spent in the armed forces and while pursuing a second degree, until 1938. The stadium was built in 1938 and named in his honor in 1943, shortly after his death.

Sam Patterson

Sam Patterson was a volunteer coach for SINU, and he filled in for one season after William McAndrew joined the armed forces during World War I.

No Teams in 1918 and 1920

William Lodge

Like Patterson, Lodge was a fill-in for McAndrew. He also coached the basketball team and served as acting athletic director.

Glenn (Abe) Martin
1939-49
Record: 31-42-5

Abe Martin starred on the university's only unbeaten football team in 1930 and became the first alumnus to play professional football, competing for the Chicago Cardinals in 1932.

As coach at SINU, Martin's biggest milestone was guiding the 1947 team to a victory in the Corn Bowl.

In addition to coaching football, Martin was SINU's interim athletics director and head basketball coach in 1943 before eventually being named AD in 1945. He also revived the baseball program in 1947.

Bill Waller
1950-51
Record: 3-14-1

A Benton, Ill., native, Waller was an Illinois graduate who played professional football and baseball.

William O'Brien
1952-54
Record: 6-20

O'Brien lettered in football, baseball and track at SINU in the early 1940s.

After a stint in the Marine Corps, he returned to SIU in 1952 and was named head football coach at the age of 29. He coached until 1954, when he became director of SIU's Outdoor Recreation Department and embarked on a career in football officiating.

O'Brien had a long and productive career in the National Football League as a referee, and was an observer for the NFL until 1990.

Al Kawal
1955-58
Record: 20-15-2

Before arriving at SIU, Kawal had eight years of head coaching experience at Drake and Temple.

The native Chicagoan, had his best year in 1958, posting a 7-2 record, including a key, 32-31 win over Western Illinois. He was unbeaten in four seasons at SIU against Eastern Illinois and was 3-1 vs. Northern Illinois.

Carmen Piccone
1959-63
Record: 28-20

The 30-year old Piccone joined Southern Illinois' staff as an assistant coach in 1955 after serving under Al Kawal as an assistant at Temple.

Piccone had been a star quarterback at Temple and captained its 1952 team.

In five seasons at SIU, his teams never lost to Illinois State (4-0), Central Michigan (4-0) or Eastern Michigan (3-0). His 1960 squad won the IIAC championship with a perfect 6-0 record.

Don Shroyer
1964-65
Record: 4-16

Shroyer joined SIU in 1964 after two seasons with the football St. Louis Cardinals.

His only wins at SIU were over Louisville, Drake, Northern Iowa and SW Missouri State.

He returned to the Cardinals and primarily helped develop former Saluki standout quarterback Jim Hart.

Ellis Rainsberger
1966
Record: 4-5-1

Rainsberger came to SIU after serving as an assistant at Kansas. He left the Salukis after one season to become an assistant at Illinois, where he spent six years. Rainsberger later moved on to the Canadian Football League.

Dick Towers
1967-73
Record: 30-37-2

Towers was promoted to head coach after just one year as an assistant at SIU.

His teams battled top competition including, Louisville, East Carolina and Oklahoma State. Towers' teams posted three seasons above .500, three below and one at 5-5. After leaving SIU, he returned to Kansas and later served as athletics director at Kansas State.

Doug Weaver
1974-75
Record: 3-18-1

Weaver was named athletics director at SIU in 1973 and added the head football coaching duties the following year.

Weaver had been an assistant at Michigan State, Missouri, Kansas and UCLA, and head coach at Kansas State prior to SIU.

He resigned at SIU following the 1975 season to become the athletics director at Michigan State, where he served until retiring in 1990.

Rey Dempsey
1976-83
Record: 54-37

Dempsey had a reputation for rebuilding programs and had turned around the football fortunes at Youngstown State immediately prior to taking over SIU. The Salukis became a player at the national level during his eight-year stay, winning games against Temple, East Carolina, Fresno State, Marshall, Tulsa, West Texas and New Mexico State.

His lone loss to Wichita State in 1983 cost the Salukis a conference championship, but the Salukis ultimately won the National Championship, and Dempsey was named Division I-AA "Coach of the Year."

Dempsey left Southern within a week of winning the national title and took over the football program at Memphis State.

He resigned after several years at Memphis to become a full-time minister in the Columbus, Ohio, area where he still resides.

Ray Dorr
1984-87
Record: 17-27

Dorr had the difficult task of succeeding Dempsey.

His 1986 team was a pleasant surprise as it was perfect against Ohio Valley teams. A one-point loss at Kansas, after taking a late lead, will be remembered as one of the toughest defeats in the school history. His teams were 3-1 against both Eastern Illinois and Illinois State.

of just 14 points. The club won three games by a single point.

Jerry Kill
2001-07
Record: 55-32

In eight years at the helm of SIU, Kill guided the Salukis to four-straight Gateway Conference championships and five-straight playoff appearances.

In 2004, the Salukis spent 10 weeks atop the FCS polls, and Kill won the Eddie Robinson Award for Coach of the Year in FCS.

Kill left SIU after the 2007 season to become head coach at Northern Illinois.

Shawn Watson
1994-96
Record: 11-22

Watson took over at SIU after putting in impressive seasons as an assistant at Miami (Ohio). His first team avoided a winless season when it upset a good Western Kentucky club, 10-7. Following the 1-10 start, his teams recorded back-to-back 5-6 seasons in 1995 and 1996. His final club in 1996 got off to a 4-1 start before a five-game losing streak and 5-6 overall finish.

Dale Lennon
2008-Present
Record: 9-3

Dale Lennon was named the 20th head coach in school history on December 28, 2007. In his first season as head coach, Lennon guided a youthful squad with only 11 seniors to an MVFC championship and a berth in the FCS Playoffs.

Lennon was named the Coach of the Year in the MVFC and the AFCA Region 4 Coach of the Year.

Jan Quarless
1997-2000
Record: 14-30

Quarless became SIU's 18th head coach in January, 1997. He had previously served as an assistant with the Salukis from 1977 through 1982 under Rey Dempsey.

Although his first team was 3-8, his 1999 club went 5-6 and set a new SIU scoring record.

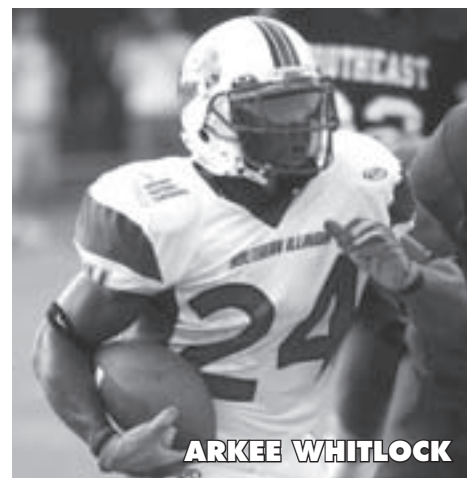

Bob Smith
1989-93
Record: 17-38

In five seasons at SIU, Smith's teams and players established numerous offensive records.

One of the most remarkable accomplishments of his five-year tenure came in 1991 when the Salukis managed to post a 7-4 record by winning the first five games of the season, rising as high as #15 in the national polls. The 1991 team was adept at winning close games, as six of its seven wins came by a total

LIONEL ANTOINE

MARK GAGLIANO

1983 NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP

Nineteen eighty-three. For many Southern Illinoisans, that year brings back more than just memories of Michael Jackson, Ronald Reagan and big hair.

It was the year that the Southern Illinois University football team put together a dominating and magical run to take the Division I-AA National Championship.

After just missing an undefeated regular-season with a loss to Division I-A Wichita State in the regular-season finale, the Dawgs marched through the playoffs, outscoring their three opponents by an average of 23 points, capped by a 43-7 thrashing of Western Carolina in the National Championship game.

The Salukis finished that campaign with a sparkling 13-1 record, by far the best mark in SIU history. Fans were inspired to record a song about the team and carry the goal posts from McAndrew Stadium to the Strip on two occasions.

But has it really been 20+ years? Believe it or not, more than two decades have passed since SIU won it all.

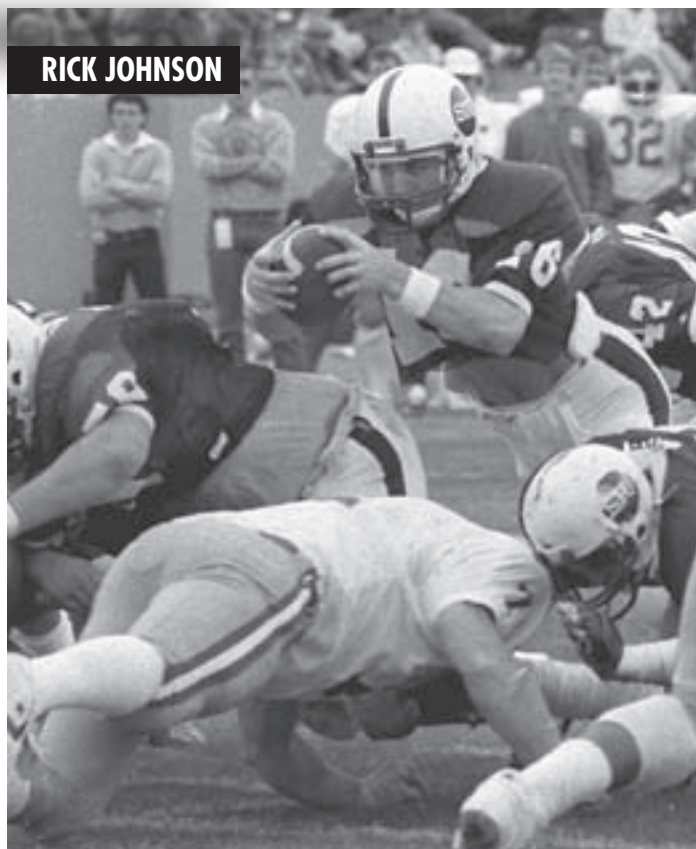

“Even though time is flying by,” said then-SIU coach Rey Dempsey, “it’s still amazing it’s been 20 years.”

“Sometimes it seems like 100 years ago,” said that team’s starting quarterback, Rick Johnson. “And sometimes it seems like yesterday. It’s kind of weird.”

The team celebrated the 20th anniversary of that magical season with a reunion at McAndrew Stadium on Sept. 27, 2003 when SIU played St. Joseph’s. Approximately 50 players from that team attended the game and reminisced about what was indisputably the greatest football team in school history.

The ‘83 Salukis had it all —

chemistry, dedication, talent and a confidence that was there from the get-go.

“I recall friends saying ‘I heard you are going to have a good team,’” Dempsey said of the weeks leading to the ‘83 season. “My reply was, ‘I think we’re going to win a I-AA championship.’”

“We thought we were that good coming in. In general, we agreed among ourselves we were going to do it.”

That confidence was a direct result of the team’s unparalleled unity and preparation. Dempsey and his staff set the tone.

“We were close knit as a team and staff,” Dempsey said. “That looks easy to do, but that is a hard thing to do.”

“The guy never slept,” Johnson said of Dempsey.

“We felt nobody was going to outwork us as a staff,” Dempsey said. “And our players worked very hard. It all starts from the top. If you work hard, they will work hard.”

“You always had the sense that someone had your back,” Johnson said. “We all hung out together. When you get that, everything starts to work together.”

Ironically, despite being so dominant, the Salukis were not a team of superstars. There was no, one, star player, just a focused group of team-players with one common goal.

“You can name any player on the team,” Dempsey told Greg Hardwig of the Southern Illinoisan in 1997, “and you can say ‘Hey, he was very vital to us.’”

“You give credit to coach Dempsey,” said tailback Sterling Haywood, “he kept us humble.”

None of the players’ individual stats jump out at you. But the only stat that really mattered certainly does — SIU averaged 32.6 points per game that season and gave up just 14.3.

“I think 28 of those were scored by the defense,” Johnson said, half-seriously. “Our defense was awesome. We just had studs.”

Primarily in their secondary, which featured cornerbacks Terry Taylor and Donnell Daniel. Taylor went on to be a first-round NFL draft pick and have a, 11-year career.

“With Terry Taylor,” Johnson said, “you could see the fear in the quarterback’s eyes.”

The duo were also dangerous on special teams, as Taylor specialized in blocking kicks, while Daniel was a threat on punt returns.

Safeties Greg Shipp and B.T. Thomas joined them in a secondary that picked off seven West Carolina passes in the National Championship game.

Linebackers Granville Butler, Fabray Collins, Dan Wetzel and Mike Brascia, plus linemen Ed Norman, Ken Foster and Haywood rounded out the unit.

SIU’s offense was solid, but not spectacular, led by fifth-year senior Johnson. Their backfield featured tailback Derrick Taylor, fullback Corky Field and Terry Green. Wideouts James Stevenson and Cecil Ratliff were Johnson’s primary targets, as were tight ends Cary Shephard and Carbondale native Mike O’Day.

“The defense was really good, but the offense put up a lot of points too,” Haywood said.

Future NFL star Tom Baugh anchored a young offensive line at center, flanked by guards David Bock and Mark Banburry and tackles Ralph Van Dyke and John Cook.

The Salukis’ success throughout the regular season can be attributed mostly to talent...and a little luck.

For the most part, SIU dominated. Wins over Western Illinois, Southeast Missouri State, Northern Iowa, Drake, Missouri

State, Indiana State and New Mexico State were all decided by at least two touchdowns.

But the second game of the year, a 17-14 win over defending Division II national champion Eastern Illinois, is considered by Johnson, Dempsey and Haywood as the flash point of the season.

A blocked punt by Frank Carr that was recovered in the end zone tied the game at 14 late, and freshman Ron Miller kicked a field goal to provide the margin of victory later.

“I think we were just a normal team until the Eastern game,” Johnson said. “I think that was a turning point. It seemed like we could never beat them.

“That’s when it was like ‘That’s it, there is no turning back. That’s when our team got the swagger.’”

The Salukis pulled out two other close games during the regular season, coming back from a 28-21 halftime deficit to beat Arkansas State, and shocking Illinois State, 28-26.

The Redbirds held a 26-21 lead, and had the ball in Saluki territory late in the game.

The game appeared to be over. But a pair of bad snaps — thanks in large part to a noisy McAndrew Stadium crowd — forced the Redbirds to punt deep in their own territory. SIU then drove in for the game-winning touchdown on the ensuing series.

The only blemish of the season turned out to be a blessing. At 10-0 and ranked 20th overall in the country (I-A and I-AA) going into the regular-season finale, the Salukis were humbled.

Wichita State ruined SIU’s perfect season with a 28-6 thumping, costing the Salukis the Missouri Valley Conference title.

Fortunately, the loss just made SIU stronger.

“They didn’t panic after the Wichita State game,” Dempsey said. “That made them angry.

“It was a wake-up call,” Johnson said.

“We lost the conference,” Haywood said. “We blew that. We definitely didn’t want to blow it in playoffs.”

“I don’t think it fazed us one bit,” Johnson said. “I think it made us mad.”

Did it ever.

Despite the loss, the Salukis entered the playoffs as the No.1 seed, getting a first round bye. With home field advantage, they rolled past Indiana State and Nevada-Reno by identical 23-7 scores to advance to the championship in Charleston, S.C.

The confidence displayed in the regular season only intensified before their showdown with West Carolina.

SIU was so ready for their opponent that coach Dempsey canceled a team meeting the night before the game.

“He said ‘this game is over,’” Haywood said. “And he told us to go back to our hotel rooms.”

The Salukis were so anxious the next morning that many of them skipped the pre-game meal.

“Some of the players asked if they could take their steak and put it in a bag,” Dempsey said.

“They were ready to play.”

The Salukis were able to back up that swagger from the opening kickoff to the final seconds.

“To tell you the truth, it was total dominance,” Haywood said.

The Salukis picked off seven WCU passes in the game, and led 33-0 entering the fourth quarter. Johnson led the offense, completing 19-of-25 pass for 213 yards and three touchdowns in his final game at SIU.

“We thought it would be a very close game because they had tremendous speed and great coaching staff,” Dempsey said. “But we never expected that big of a lead.”

“They were determined they were going to win that game.”

To listen to Dempsey and Johnson reflect on that season, one would guess it happened a few weeks ago. But its been a while, and a lot has changed.

Johnson is now an actor, appearing in such films as Jerry McGuire, Any Given Sunday, and The Rock. Dempsey is a senior pastor at his church in Ohio.

But the Saluki program may be on the verge of going full circle.

Twenty-three years after winning the National Championship, the Salukis are among the preseason favorites to compete for a I-AA Playoff bid and the national title.

Delaware 48 Southern Illinois 7 November 29, 2003 Delaware Stadium

NEWARK Del. — It was a nightmarish end to a dream of a season.

And in painfully ironic fashion, the very things that got the Southern Illinois University football team to the playoffs for the first time in 20 years were the things that led to its quick exit Saturday against eventual National Champion Delaware.

After giving up just 28 first quarter points through 11 regular-season games, the Salukis gave up 27 unanswered points in the first quarter alone.

And after turning the ball over 11 times all year, the Salukis coughed up the ball four times in the first half -- three of which led to touchdowns.

The result was a stunning 34-0 deficit midway through the second quarter.

The Salukis never recovered, as second-seeded Delaware went on to drub SIU, 48-7, in the first round of the I-AA tournament. SIU wound up turning the ball over six times in the game and also had a punt blocked which resulted in a touchdown.

“The strength of our football team all year was that we didn’t turn the ball over,” said SIU head coach Jerry Kill. “That didn’t happen today. We’ve always been good in the kicking game. Those two things we didn’t do well today.”

“All the credit to Delaware,” senior tailback Tom Koutsos said. “We got our butts kicked today, but we didn’t help ourselves. All year we didn’t have turnovers, blocked punts, stuff like that.

Today, the ball didn’t bounce our way. We made a lot of mistakes and shot ourselves in the foot more than anything.”

SIU ended a memorable season in forgettable fashion, but things could have been much worse.

Trailing 41-7 late in the third quarter, quarterback Joel Sambursky was literally leveled by Delaware linebacker Brian McDermond.

Sambursky lay motionless on the ground for about 10 minutes, while his teammates convened on the sidelines for a prayer and the training staff tended to the injured Saluki. Sambursky had to be taken off the field on a stretcher and was taken to the hospital.

“I love the kid like a son, just like a I love all these kids like sons,” Kill said. “Your heart just sinks, and the whole football team’s heart sunk. But I also think Delaware’s (heart) sunk. Nobody wants to see that.”

“It was a very emotional, scary moment,” said wide receiver Brent Little. “He’s the leader of the team. To see him down like that was very scary.”

Fortunately, Sambursky was fine, though he did not return.

The stat sheet would indicate a close game: Delaware had 340 yards of total offense to SIU’s 303.

“The more physical football team won today,” Kill said. “I think they put a lot of pressure on us. They were very physical and I thought they caused a lot of those turnovers.”

Muhammad Abdulqaadir led the Salukis with 87 yards rushing, passing the 1,000-yard barrier for the season. Koutsos had 27 yards rushing in the final game of his record-breaking career.

As disapointing as the Salukis final two games were, they still finished with a 10-2 record and a Gateway Conference title -- unthinkable accomplishments coming into the season.

“It was a good season,” said senior linebacker Eric Egan, fighting back tears. “We’ve made huge strides in this program and it’s going to continue to get better and continue to improve.”

“I look for us to be back and better in the future,” Kill said.

“We’ve come a long way. This is just part of our educational process.

“I guarantee you we’ll learn a lot from this and we’ll be back.”

2004 I-AA PLAYOFFS

Eastern Washington 35 Southern Illinois 31

November 27, 2004

McAndrew Stadium

CARBONDALE, Ill. — In the end - on a rain-soaked field at McAndrew Stadium - the Salukis simply ran out of time.

Eastern Washington quarterback Erik Meyer threw to Eric Kimble over the middle -- and the receiver outran the SIU secondary to the end zone with 1:49 left - as the Eagles upset top-seeded Southern Illinois 35-31 in the first round of the NCAA Division I-AA Playoffs.

The game went back and forth in the last quarter, and the Salukis' final drive ended as Joel Sambursky's pass was knocked down at the EWU 20-yard-line as time expired.

"We had enough time, but we just didn't execute," Sambursky said. "And, they're a great football team."

The Salukis, who had an outstanding regular season, found themselves in a disappointing first-round loss in the postseason.

"We played a very good football team today, and we knew that going in," said Southern Illinois head coach Jerry Kill. "We didn't take them lightly. We played as hard as we can play, and they played better than we did today."

Darius Washington ran seven yards for a TD and put the Eagles up 28-24 with 13:37 remaining in the game. But, late in the quarter, Brandon Jacobs continued his dominant performance for SIU (10-2).

The Salukis - trailing 28-24 - began from their own one-yard-line after Alexis Moreland forced the ball out of Meyer's hands as the QB was attempting to score.

JOEL SAMBURSKY

The drive began with a 15-yard steamroll by Jacobs - who took half of the EWU defense along for the ride. Eight plays later, Jacobs capped the drive with his fourth rushing TD of the game, and the Salukis led, 31-28, with only 2:37 remaining.

The bruising tailback scored four touchdowns and rushed for 166 yards in the game.

Sambursky and company had just marched 99 yards in nine plays, but Eastern Washington kept its focus and returned the favor. Unfortunately for SIU, Meyer had just a little too much time remaining.

SIU led 17-7 and had the momentum at halftime, but EWU changed the direction of the contest within the first minute of the second half.

On second down at the SIU 22, EWU safety Nick Denbeigh slipped in front of SIU's Micah Turner and picked off Sambursky's pass. On the very next play, Washington ran 23 yards for a score - and EWU moved to within three points at 17-14.

Meyer - the nation's top-rated QB - threw for a remarkable 437 yards and three touchdowns. The junior threw 31-of-44 with just one interception for EWU (9-3). Kimble caught 11 passes for 195 yards and three touchdowns.

"Offensively, we haven't played anybody like that," Kill said. "And certainly with their quarterback, he's about as good as it gets."

Sambursky was 14-of-31 with one pick for 163 yards. The junior signal caller had several gutsy running plays that resulted in 51 rushing yards.

After the game, a visibly upset Moreland probably echoed the sentiments of many people around the Southern Illinois area.

"I want to take my hat off to Eastern Washington," Moreland said. "They came out and beat the best team in the country today.

Kill expressed how proud he was of all of his players but especially for those who will not be coming back next year.

"We're certainly down about today, but there's been a heck of a lot accomplished here in a short time," Kill said. "I don't feel bad for myself, but I feel bad for the seniors."

"They gave a lot to this program, and they put us where we're at."

Southern Illinois 21, Eastern Illinois 6

Nov. 26, 2005

O'Brien Stadium

CHARLESTON, Ill. — Southern Illinois won its first I-AA Playoff game in 22 years, beating Eastern Illinois, 21-6.

Saluki fans had been waiting a long time for a playoff victory, and it showed. Of the estimated 5,000 in attendance at O'Brien Stadium, at least half were rooting for Southern Illinois, and their collective voices frequently drowned out the home team's fans.

"If not for the people of Southern Illinois, we don't win the game," Saluki head coach Jerry Kill said afterward.

Well, that's not entirely true. The gang in maroon & white did its share.

Southern Illinois (9-3) did not dominate the game, but it clearly won every phase of the contest, including the all-important special teams. Consider these facts.

SIU's offense featured three rushing touchdowns by Arkee Whitlock, plus a masterful 15-of-21 passing performance by quarterback Joel Sambursky.

The defense held Eastern Illinois (9-3) to 2.9 yards per rush attempt and did not allow a touchdown in three Panther trips inside the Saluki 20.

And the special teams delivered one of the game's biggest plays -- a blocked field goal late in the first half that stemmed Eastern's momentum after it had recovered a Sambursky fumble at the SIU 12.

"If you play good defense and do well in the kicking game, you have a chance to win games," Kill observed.

Immediately after the game, Kill and his coaching staff waited outside the locker room, giving the players a few minutes to celebrate the victory among themselves.

"We've got 22 seniors who have put a lot into this program," Kill said. "And this is their day today."

Sambursky said he and his fellow seniors aren't ready for the season to end.

"Right now, we're playing for a championship, but we're also playing because we still want to be with each other one more week," he said. "That's probably more powerful than a championship. We're fighting like crazy because we love each other."

Whitlock came up shy of his ninth 100-yard rushing game of the season, but he scored all three Saluki touchdowns.

2005 I-AA PLAYOFFS

Appalachian State 38, Southern Illinois 24

Dec. 3, 2005,

Kidd Brewer Stadium

BOONE, N.C. — Appalachian State delivered an early knockout punch to Southern Illinois and cruised to a 38-24 win in the quarterfinals of the I-AA Playoffs Saturday.

The #4-ranked Mountaineers (10-3), who extended their home winning streak to 17 games, jumped out to a 24-0 lead midway through the second quarter.

Spreading the field with four wide receivers, Appalachian State quarterback Richie Williams executed a short-passing attack to perfection, completing 12-of-15 passes for 214 yards in the first half alone. He finished with 367 passing yards and 3 touchdowns.

"(The Mountaineers) do an excellent job with the scheme they use, and they have an excellent trigger man," Saluki head coach Jerry Kill said.

Appalachian State's quarterback was clearly the difference-maker in the game. Saluki cornerback Brad Brachear said Williams, who also ran for 36 yards and a touchdown, was especially tough to defend because of his scrambling ability.

"He would scramble around a lot, and it made it hard to cover receivers for that long," said Brachear. "They have a lot of team speed, and (their receivers) just got open."

The Salukis (9-4) looked shell-shocked in falling behind by 24 points, but they did regroup. SIU closed the deficit to 24-10 on a field goal by Craig Coffin just before halftime and a 93-yard kickoff return by Craig Turner to start the second half.

But the three-time Gateway Conference champions never came closer than two touchdowns thereafter. Besides not being able to stop Williams, the Salukis stopped themselves on two early drives.

Quarterback Joel Sambursky was intercepted twice in the first half, ending promising drives at the Appalachian State 25 and 29 yardlines.

"I recruited these guys on chasing a dream to try and compete for a national championship," Kill said. "They bought in, and they gave me everything they have."

CARBONDALE, Ill. - Nick Hill threw a go-ahead 45-yard touchdown pass in the final minute, and Arkee Whitlock rushed for 207 yards and four touchdowns to lead No. 10 Southern Illinois University to a 36-30 come-from-behind victory over No. 12 Tennessee-Martin in the first round of the NCAA Division I Football Championship.

SIU trailed by 20 points early in the third quarter, but rallied behind Whitlock's three second half TDs.

"I can tell you this, I've been down 21, I've been down 28, and as long as the kids don't see you quit as a coach, they don't panic," said Saluki head coach Jerry Kill. "I thought the coaches did a great job of keeping their composure."

"We are a young team, and we almost fell apart a couple of times, but we kept fighting and never gave up."

Whitlock's 1-yard run gave the Salukis their first lead at 28-27 with 9:42 left in the game.

Taylor Brown's 34-yard field goal regained a 30-28 advantage for the Skyhawks, but the Salukis ended all UT-Martin playoff hopes on their last drive of the game.

SIU took over on downs at its own 20-yard line with 2:39 remaining and marched 80 yards in eight plays behind its first-year starting quarterback.

The winning touchdown saw Hill loft a pass over the head of UT-Martin defender Dante Harrold. Receiver Alan Turner adjusted to make the catch, as the ball was held up in a gusty wind out of the south. He then dashed down the sidelines for the winning score.

UT-Martin had one chance at the end, but Derrick Belton intercepted a Greg Preston pass on a second-and-six at the Skyhawks' 29-yard line.

UT-Martin had SIU on the ropes in the first half, but failed to deliver the knock-out punch in the second as they were outscored 29-3.

Whitlock's four rushing TDs tied a career-high, as he posted his third 200-yard game of the season. He also became SIU's all-time single-season leader in points scored (150 pts.), surpassing Muhammad Abdulqadir's 128 points in 2002. Whitlock rushed for a total of 775 yards and 14 touchdowns in his last four games alone.

"Arkee's the best player in the country. Not the best running back, the best player," said Kill. "He's unbelievable and I've never seen anything like it in my life. It's fun to watch him."

Hill completed 8-of-14 passes for 129 yards and the game-winning touchdown. He also ran for 19 yards on nine carries.

"Nick never loses his composure," said Whitlock.

Attendance: 18,883

MISSOULA, Mont. - Montana held Southern Illinois to just 129 yards of total offense en route to a 20-3 victory in the NCAA Division I Championship Quarterfinals at Washington-Grizzly Stadium.

SIU played in front of a crowd of 18,883, its second-largest of the season. However, it was definitely the loudest, according to head coach Jerry Kill.

"It's a very difficult environment," said Kill. "You're not going to hear a snap count out there. There's no possible way. It's hard to communicate. Their fans are coached up."

SIU entered the day ranked second in the nation in scoring offense (37.08 ppg) and third in rushing offense (245.5 ypg). But, the crowd was too much of a factor and SIU struggled to find its rhythm.

SIU punted five times, rushed for 27 yards, had one first down and went 0-for-5 on third-down conversions, but still found itself in the game at the half, trailing 13-0.

SIU moved into Grizzly territory only twice in the game, and one of those drives netted a Craig Coffin 27-yard field goal to cut the deficit to 13-3 early in the fourth quarter.

Montana, however, answered with an 8-yard touchdown pass from Swogger to

2006 I-AA PLAYOFFS

Chambers to put the finishing touches on its 20-3 win.

A swarming Grizzly defense limited SIU to only 37 passing yards and 92 rushing yards on the day. The last time SIU was held to 129 or less yards of total offense was against Nicholls State on September 6, 1997. The Dawgs had 120 yards in that game.

"They're a team you can't make too many mistakes against," said Whitlock. "It's kinda hard to get back in the game when you have that type of crowd noise."

Defensively, SIU played well enough to win. Patrick Jordan paved the way with 17 tackles, while Craig Turner and Brandin Jordan followed with 11 apiece.

"Things just didn't go our way," said Patrick Jordan, who also played his last game in a Saluki uniform. "It's tough for us seniors, but we had a great year. I'll always be proud to be a Saluki."

Southern Illinois also had five sacks, including two by first-team all-Gateway Conference defensive end Lorenzo Wims.

SIU ends a season with nine or more wins for the fourth year in a row. The Salukis also made the post-season four-straight times, and they were eliminated in the quarterfinals their last two trips.

"We've knocked on the door four years in a row," said Kill. "We're going to work on knocking on the door a fifth time, and see if we can go a little farther."

CARBONDALE, Ill. - Nick Hill threw for 234 yards and two touchdowns and rushed for 32 yards and one TD to lead No. 4 Southern Illinois to a commanding 30-11 win over No. 17 Eastern Illinois University in the first round of the NCAA Division I Football Championship.

SIU, which completed a sweep of the Illinois directional schools (also beat Northern Illinois and Western Illinois this year), advanced to the quarterfinals for the third year in a row.

SIU scored the first 20 points of the game and never looked back.

Turnovers doomed EIU from the start. First-team all-Ohio Valley Conference running back Ademola Adeniji fumbled on the Panthers' first play from scrimmage, giving SIU the ball at the EIU 21-yardline.

On the ensuing play, Hill hit Alan Turner for a 21-yard touchdown, and just like that, SIU led, 7-0.

The Salukis proceeded to put points on the board on three of their next four possessions prior to the half.

Hill polished off yet another fine performance, completing 24-of-30 passes. He also carried the ball 13 times for 32 yards. He threw for 200 or more yards in a game for the eighth time this season.

SIU's explosive offense also sported five different wide receivers with at least two catches. Turner led all receivers with six catches for 75 yards.

Defensively, the Dawgs forced two turnovers that led to 10 points. Brandin Jordan forced a fumble, while Trevor Moe had an interception. Overall, Craig Turner led SIU with 11 tackles.

SIU limited EIU to only 66 rushing yards on the day.

CARBONDALE, Ill. - Nick Hill threw for 216 yards and three touchdowns and No. 4 Southern Illinois scored 20 first-quarter points in an impressive 34-27 win over Massachusetts in the quarterfinals of the NCAA Division I Football Championship.

SIU saw its season end in the quarterfinals each of the last two years, but broke through that barrier today.

The Salukis advanced to the semifinals for the first time in 24 years.

"This is a great moment for us," said an elated Saluki head coach Jerry Kill. "We're very excited about the win. We executed well and made plays when we needed to."

SIU jumped on UMass early, scoring on its first three possessions of the game. Nick Hill threw a 69-yard touchdown pass to tight end Byron Gettis on the third play of the game to give the Salukis a 7-0 lead. Gettis caught the ball along the far sideline and sprinted to the end zone.

Richard White's 10-yard run capped an eight-play, 60-yard drive the next time SIU had the ball. White's fourth rushing TD of the year extended the Salukis' lead to 13-0.

UMass got on the board with a 46-yard field goal by Chris Koepplin, before SIU answered with a 7-play, 80-yard march that culminated in an 8-yard touchdown pass from Hill to fullback Rick Burgess.

What seemed to be the biggest back-breaker for UMass came a little over eight minutes into the third quarter.

Larry Warner broke free for a 64-yard touchdown run on his first carry of the game to push SIU's lead to 34-13 with 6:52 left.

CARBONDALE, Ill. - (AP) Joe Flacco threw for 243 yards and two touchdowns, helping No. 13 Delaware edge fourth-ranked Southern Illinois 20-17 on Saturday to advance to the Football Championship Subdivision title game.

Omar Cuff ran for 102 yards on 21 carries for the Blue Hens (11-3), snapping the Salukis' six-game winning streak.

Jon Striefsky added had two fourth-quarter field goals for Delaware, the first a 47-yarder that extended the Blue Hens' lead to 17-10 with 10:09 left.

Southern Illinois' Craig Turner returned the ensuing kickoff 88 yards for a touchdown, tying the score at 17. But Flacco picked away at the Salukis (12-2) on the next possession, completing five passes for 67 yards in setting up Striefsky's 24-yard field goal with 6:58 to play.

Southern Illinois' ensuing drive stalled when Nick Hill was sacked on fourth-and-4 at the Delaware 36 with 3:56 left. Anthony Walters sealed Delaware's victory by intercepting Hill at the Southern Illinois 45 with 1:42 to go.

John Randle had 129 yards rushing for the Salukis. Hill finished with 106 yards on 12-of-25 passing, but was intercepted twice. Hill also ran for 41 yards.

Delaware, which trailed

2007 FCS PLAYOFFS

10-7 at the half in a game thick with razzle-dazzle, took its first lead on a 9-yard TD pass from Flacco to Kervin Michaud midway through the third quarter.

Southern Illinois then squandered opportunities on its next two possessions, first botching a snap on what would have been a 40-yard field goal attempt.

On the next drive, holder Justin Allen threw a 17-yard TD pass to lineman Andrew Kernes on a fake field goal. But Southern Illinois was flagged for an ineligible receiver, and Kyle Dougherty missed a 39-yard field goal.

Delaware linebacker Tim Prindle was ejected on that drive for slugging Randle out of bounds.

The Salukis, who had never trailed in their previous two playoff games, jumped to a 10-0 first-quarter lead by harrassing Flacco with blitzes and heavy pressure while keeping the ball for most of the opening quarter.

Randle did the heavy lifting, carrying 11 times for 64 yards in the first quarter, including a 1-yard TD run that put Southern Illinois ahead 10-0.

Flacco eventually found his rhythm, closing the Blue Hens to within three on the second-quarter's first possession with a 9-yard TD pass to Robbie Agnone. Cuff kept the drive rolling, gaining 25 yards on four carries.

The Blue Hens, on the first play after halftime, caught the Salukis sleeping. Flacco lateralled to wideout

TREVOR MOE

Aaron Love, who threw a 41-yard completion to a wide-open Cuff to the Salukis 27. But Delaware, hit with a 10-yard holding penalty before Flacco was sacked for a 6-yard loss, eventually punted.

Kyle Dougherty put the Salukis ahead 3-0 with a 42-yard field goal with 5:46 to play in the first quarter, just two plays after a 20-yard TD pass from Hill to Alan Turner was taken off the board because the Salukis were flagged for having an ineligible receiver downfield.

On Southern Illinois' next possession, a 21-yard completion from Hill to Turner set up Randle's 1-yard TD run.

The past three seasons have dealt great change to the Missouri Valley Football Conference. Within that span, the league has lost a member, gained two members and changed its name.

Despite those developments, one thing -- quality, nationally competitive football -- has remained constant for the league, which celebrates its Silver Anniversary in 2009.

The Missouri Valley Football Conference enters its 25th year of existence this fall and has proven to be one of the nation's premier NCAA Football Championship Sub-division (FCS) leagues.

There's not much that has eluded the conference in its first 24 years of existence. The league's first two-plus decades have included national championships, national players of the year, national coaches of the year, No. 1 national rankings, and countless All-Americans.

Strong coaching and great players have helped make the league a national force, but the stability and leadership of Commissioner Patty Viverito -- the only commissioner the league has ever known -- has helped make the Missouri Valley Football Conference a standard bearer on the FCS scene. Indeed, all signs point to continued national prominence for the Missouri Valley Football Conference as it enters its 25th season in 2009.

In June 2008, presidents of the nine-member Gateway Football Conference and the 10-member Missouri Valley Conference approved a rebranding initiative that changed the football conference name from the Gateway Football Conference to the Missouri Valley Football Conference. It represented the second name change for the football league. Initially, the conference competed as the Gateway Collegiate Athletic Conference (1985-91) and the Gateway Football Conference (1992-2007).

Although the league shares the Missouri Valley name, the football-playing members compete under a separate administrative umbrella, as the Missouri Valley Conference and the Missouri Valley Football Conference will remain separate entities.

While the 2008 season didn't produce a national championship, it was a successful one, as UNI became the 14th different league team to reach the semifinals of the FCS playoffs, while Southern Illinois also represented the conference in the playoffs, marking the 14th straight season in which at least two teams have participated in post-season play. For four-straight weeks, six league teams were ranked in the Top 25 -- the first time that had ever happened, while North Dakota State enjoyed the No. 1 national ranking for two-straight weeks early in the 2008 campaign. RB Herb Donaldson was a finalist in the Walter Payton Award voting while leading the nation in rushing and scoring.

MEDIA INFORMATION

Credentials

Credentials are required for entrance to the press box or access to the field (for photographers). To request season or single-game credentials, please contact media services.

Photographers

Please observe NCAA regulations and shoot from the designated areas. Photographers must shoot from behind the white lines between the 25-yard line and the back of the end zone on either side of the field.

Game Day Parking

Media working on deadline will receive a priority parking pass for the lot adjacent to the west side of the stadium (press box side).

All other media should park in Lot 89 next to Lingle Hall. No pass is required for this lot.

Postgame Procedure

Postgame interviews will take place in the interview room located on the northwest concourse of the stadium. The press box is equipped with ethernet, wireless internet and phone lines.

Football E-Mail List

If you would like to be added to the Saluki football e-mail list to receive breaking news about the team, please e-mail Tom Weber.

Interviews During the Week

Players and coaches are available before practice on Mondays and Tuesdays. Please let the media services staff know if you plan to attend practice.

All MVFC head coaches will participate in a weekly teleconference, which takes place on Wednesday mornings. Please contact Mike Kern, (314) 244-2326, at the conference office for further information.
