Department of Athletics Mission Statement

Southern Illinois University Carbondale is a contemporary, comprehensive student-responsive university committed to providing quality teaching, research and service. In keeping with the University's mission, the primary purpose of intercollegiate athletics is to sponsor a broad-based, fiscally and ethically responsible athletics program designed to promote each student-athlete's academic, athletic and personal well-being and development. It is our goal to create a culture of excellence for our student-athletes, staff and fans that values integrity, diversity, equity, sportsmanship and community service. A successful, well-run athletics program also helps build pride in and support for the University among the citizens of Southern Illinois and among the thousands of SIUC students, staff, and alumni.

TROUTT-WITTMANN CENTER

SALUKI FOOTBALL = ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

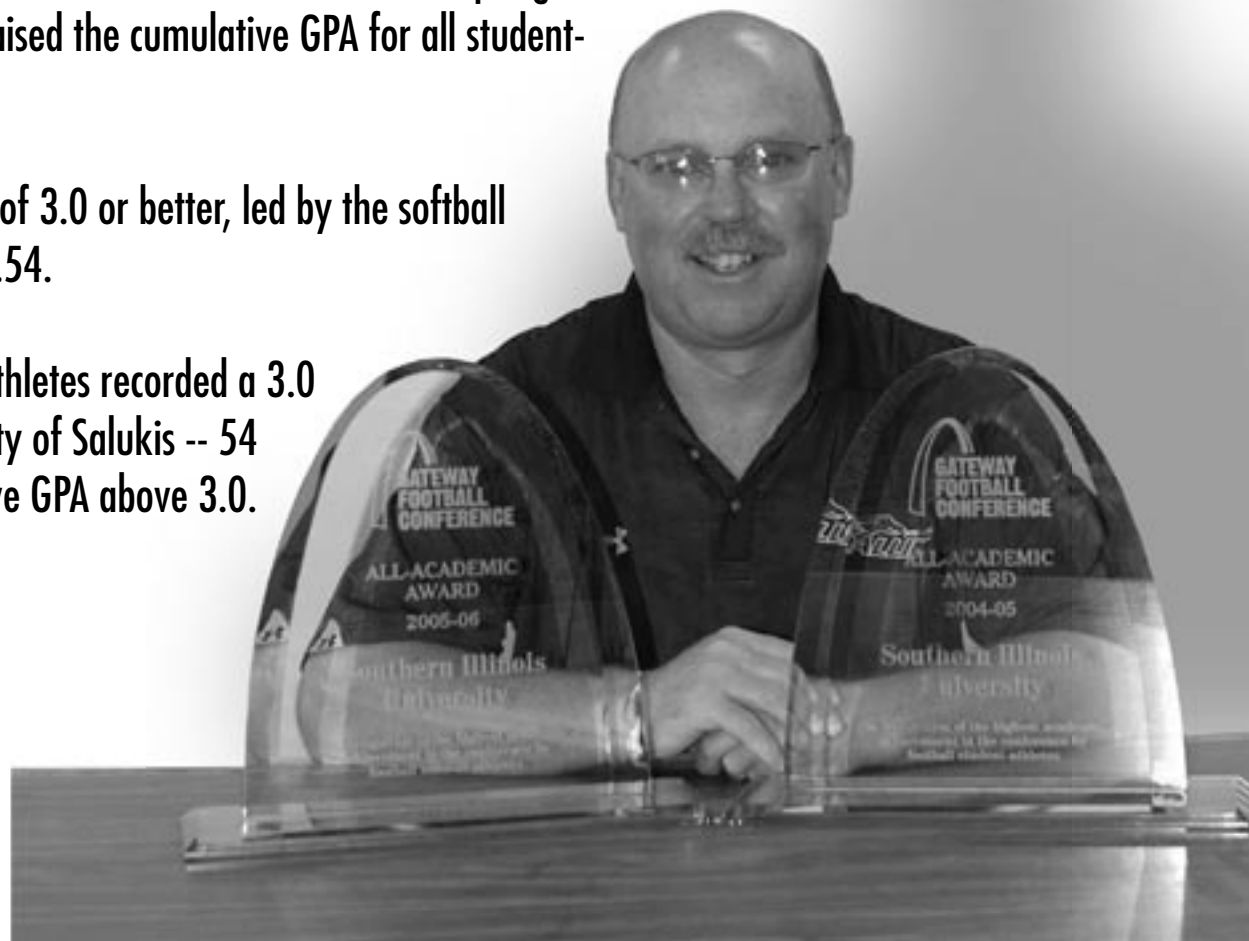

The Saluki Football team has won the Gateway Conference's All-Academic Award each of the last two seasons. The award is given to the program with the best overall cumulative Grade Point Average.

On October 1, 2005, the spectacular, new Troutt-Wittmann Academic and Training Center had its grand opening. The state-of-the-art 12,000-square foot facility was built entirely with private funding by Saluki alum Pete Wittmann. His $4.5 million gift was the largest in University history. The Troutt-Wittmann Academic Center provides the academic support and learning environment in which all student-athletes have the opportunity to achieve their academic and personal goals.

The average grade point average for all student-athletes at SIU in the spring of 2007 was a school-record 3.01. That raised the cumulative GPA for all student-athletes to a record-high 3.00.

Ten of SIU's 18 sports had a team GPA of 3.0 or better, led by the softball team, which recorded a team GPA of 3.54.

Fifty-seven percent of Saluki student-athletes recorded a 3.0 or better GPA in the spring. The majority of Salukis -- 54 percent to be exact -- have a cumulative GPA above 3.0.

WORLD-RENOWNED SALUKI MASCOT

Several members of the Southern Illinois University athletic staff suggested a new nickname in 1951. The teams had been known as the Maroons since intercollegiate athletics began in 1913. The name became official on March 19, 1951, when the student body overwhelming approved "Salukis" as the new symbol of SIU athletics, easily besting "Rebels," "Knights," "Flyers," "Marauders," and "Maroons."

Various Dogs	2005-Present

The tomb of King Tut lies in the northeast corner of McAndrew Stadium.

After Khalila died in 2005, Saluki fans throughout the area have volunteered their purebred dogs to serve as mascot.

The oldest purebred dogs in the world with records dating back to 3600 B.C., the Saluki is an ancient Egyptian hunting dog known for its speed and hunting prowess.

So why is the name Salukis relevant to Southern Illinois? Natives of southern Illinois know that the region is frequently referred to as "Egypt." Historian Baker Brownell, in his book "The Other Illinois," explained how the region came to be known as Egypt.

He wrote, "There was a drought in the northern counties (of Illinois) in the early 1800s...the wheat fields dried up, the streams died in their beds. But in southern Illinois, rain fell and there were good crops, and from the north came people seeking corn and wheat as to Egypt of old. Thus, the name, Egypt."

The 19th century drought in Illinois parallels the Biblical account of the country of Egypt.

"There was famine in all lands; but in all the land of Egypt there was bread. All the earth came to Egypt to Joseph to buy grain, because the famine was so severe. And (Jacob) said, 'Behold, I have heard that there is grain in Egypt; go down and buy grain for us there, that we may live, and not die.' So 10 of Joseph's brothers went down to buy grain in Egypt." (Genesis 41:54b, 57, 42:2-3).

In Egypt at that time, Salukis were accepted as the finest animal a family could possess. Adopting such a well-respected dog as its mascot fit perfectly for a school in a region known as "Egypt."

SALUKIS HAVE WORLD-CLASS STRENGTH PROGRAM

The Salukis would not be three-time defending conference champions without the tireless work of strength coach Eric Klein. He is the guiding force behind the team's improved strength and quickness. The primary objective of the strength and conditioning program at Southern Illinois University is to achieve the maximum level of performance of each athlete through an aggressive approach to comprehensive training.

The club was created for individuals who attain a total of 1175 pounds in the combination of the Bench, Squat, and Hang Clean.

PICTURESQUE SOUTHERN ILLINOIS UNIVERSITY

From its humble beginnings as the state's second teachers college — founded in 1869 with a dozen academic departments and an inaugural class of 143 – Southern Illinois University Carbondale now ranks among Illinois' most comprehensive public universities.

Southern at 150

Building Excellence Through Commitment

Southern at 150 articulates a series of commitments and actions that will place us among the top 75 public research universities in the United States by the year 2019, our 150th anniversary, while we continue to provide the foundation for academic, economic and social progress in Southern Illinois.

Our Core Values

Student-responsiveness: We must listen and respond to our students and provide instruction and services that help them achieve their full potential.

Diversity: Diversity will drive our ability to attain our educational mission.

Building trust: We are a public institution and covet the confidence and trust of the public we serve.

Academic freedom and responsibility: We are an academic institution dedicated to the discovery and preservation of the truth.

Excellence as the measure of all things: We will seek excellence in everything we do.

A more civil world: We will endeavor to produce citizen-leaders with global perspectives.

Leadership and management: We will manage ourselves in a way that exceeds effectiveness.

Pride: We will develop and foster a sense of pride in our University, its traditions and its values.

World view: We must expand our reach throughout the world.

SALUKIS RELOAD FOR RUN AT FIFTH-STRAIGHT PLAYOFF BERTH

Dynasties are few and far between among the 122 schools that comprise the Football Championship Subdivision (formerly known as I-AA). The reason, of course, is the limit of 63 scholarships, which makes winning year-in and year-out a difficult task.

Under the direction of Jerry Kill, however, Southern Illinois has consistently beaten the odds. The Salukis are one of only two FCS teams to make the NCAA Playoffs four-straight years (Montana is the other).

A big reason why the Salukis are consistent winners is the stability within the program. In six years with Kill at the helm, only one assistant coach has left Saluki Football.

Also, Kill is a big believer in home-grown talent. He takes in fewer transfers than most, sprinkling in just a handful of key transfers to the roster per year.

While each season presents unique challenges, Kill is confident his program will remain among the FCS elite again in 2007.

The biggest challenge will be finding a replacement for All-American RB Arkee Whitlock, who finished third in the voting for the Payton Award last season. Whitlock was a workhorse in the Saluki backfield from 2004-06.

Kill said he's optimistic at least one player will emerge from a talented group of backs eager to fill Whitlock's shoes. Those players include senior John Randle, who was Whitlock's understudy last year after transferring from Kansas, and a pair of highly touted JUCO runners — Deji

Karim and Larry Warner.

There are relatively few question marks among the rest of the starters on offense. Senior QB Nick Hill was extremely efficient in his first year as a starter in 2006 — throwing 15 touchdowns versus four interceptions.

The offensive line features four returning starters, including junior guard Aaron Lockwood, who rates among the best blockers in the FCS. At wide receiver, senior starters Alan Turner and Phil Goforth both return. They combined for 41 catches and seven TDs last season.

On defense, the Salukis return five starters, including Gateway Freshman-of-the-Year LB Brandin Jordan. One of the most explosive players in college football is shut-down CB Craig Turner, who earned All-America status as a punt returner last season.

Here is a position-by-position look at the Salukis.

Wide Receiver

A pair of senior starters in Alan Turner and Phil Goforth give the Salukis a veteran presence at wide receiver. Turner is a proven big-play threat. He averaged a team-best 18.7 yards per catch last year, and six of his 22 receptions went for touchdowns. Goforth is a big target, who runs crisp routes. He pulled down 19 catches a year ago.

Two other seniors, Justin Allen and Ryan Beeler provide excellent depth. Allen, a former quarterback, caught nine passes last year and ranks among the team's fastest players. Beeler caught eight balls a year ago and is a dependable underneath receiver.

The Salukis are loaded with promising young prospects at receiver. True freshman Anthony Seay saw limited action in 2006, however he demonstrated explosive speed and the ability to stretch a defense. Damian Sherman has prototype size and speed and only lacks experience. Kurt Long, Beau Hoffman and Bryce Morris add to the unit's depth.

Tight End

The Salukis' top receiver a year ago was Braden Jones, but he now plays for the Minnesota Vikings.

WR ALAN TURNER

2007 SALUKI FOOTBALL

HARD HAT + LUNCH PAIL = CHAMPIONSHIPS

G AARON LOCKWOOD

Poised to step into Jones' place is sophomore Ryan Kernes, brother of starting tackle Andrew. Kernes played sparingly as a true freshman last year, but he had a great spring to seize the starting job.

His backup is Byron Gettis, one of the truly unique stories in college football. Gettis is a 28-year-old sophomore, who played professional baseball, climbing all the way to the big leagues with the Kansas City Royals in 2004. With a full season of practice under his belt at SIU, Gettis has the athletic ability to make a significant contribution.

Redshirt freshman Kyle Harruff is also expected to contribute at tight end.

Offensive Tackle

Both Darren Marquez and Andrew Kernes enter the 2007 season having started 26-straight games at left and right tackle, respectively. Marquez is an athletic pass blocker, who earned honorable mention All-Gateway status last year. Kernes is a savvy veteran, who executes with precision. Depth is provided by Craig Kombrink, Dave Shipula and Kevin Green.

Offensive Guard

Junior Aaron Lockwood may be the best offensive lineman in the Gateway Conference this season, according to offensive coordinator Matt Limegrover. Lockwood was an honorable mention all-conference pick last year, and he combines terrific athletic ability with a nasty disposition.

Opposite Lockwood at right guard is Shawn Smith, who started every game as a redshirt freshman last year. He will need to fend off veteran Matt Ruth for the starting position, however. Blake Brunner is a former tight end who is a bit undersized, but demonstrates a mean streak.

Center

Mike Farrell has a leg up in what may be the most competitive battle for a starting spot on offense. As a redshirt freshman last season, he played in seven games behind All-American center Will Justice.

Mike Nitti sat out most of last season as a medical redshirt, but he is a talented young player and will challenge Farrell for the starting berth. Brunner can also play center.

Quarterback

The engineer of the Saluki offense is senior lefthander Nick Hill.

A question mark heading into 2006 because of his lack of experience, he demonstrated the ability to be an elite quarterback in the Gateway Conference. Hill is a dual threat, passing for 1,721 yards and 15 touchdowns last year, while rushing for 382 yards and six more TDs. He completed a remarkable 61.7 percent of his passes and threw just four interceptions.

Behind Hill is redshirt freshman Chris Dieker (6-5, 215, Fr.). He has great size and a strong arm, and Hill has quietly taken the youngster under his wing.

Running Back

John Randle is the obvious heir to All-American Arkee Whitlock. Randle rushed for 489 yards, a 5.1 average and four touchdowns in a reserve capacity last year. He also demonstrated his versatility by catching five passes. Although he missed spring ball with an injury, he will be fully recovered before camp starts.

Deji Karim had a solid spring for SIU and brings impressive credentials from Northeast Oklahoma A&M, where he rushed for 978 yards and 10 TDs last season.

Naji Shinskie showed flashes of ability in five games last season and during spring ball, but needs more consistency. Lucien Walker had a strong spring and brings a unique dynamic to the backfield. He can play fullback or tailback and can also line up in the slot.

The wildcard in the backfield is Mississippi Gulf Coast Community College transfer Larry Warner. He was not present for spring practice, but has wowed the coaches in summer workouts with his athletic ability. A “Kevin Sproles-type” player, according to Limegrover, the 5-foot-7 Warner rushed for 1,237 yards and 12 touchdowns last year.

Fullback

Rick Burgess emerged as a valuable contributor as a true freshman last year. He played in nine games and was particularly effective as a receiver, catching eight passes, including one TD.

Jon Habbe is a converted linebacker who continues to improve and could wind up as more than a role player.

Defensive End

The Salukis lost both starting ends to graduation, including sack leader Lorenzo Wims. However, a trio of young speed rushers in Jemere Gainer, Devon Reese and James Cloud should provide more than ample pass rush.

Gainer burst onto the scene as a true freshman in 2006 and recorded 3.0 sacks and 6.0 tackles for loss. Reese contributed 11 tackles in part-time duty, while Cloud added a tackle for loss. Both are juniors.

Adding depth at end are Dolapo Adubifa and Emmanuel Fuller.

Defensive Tackle

A pair of seniors anchor the defensive tackle position for SIU. At one tackle spot is Andre Tillman, a Gateway Conference All-Newcomer team pick last year after starting all 13 games and recording 17 tackles, including a pair of sacks.

His running mate figures to be Larry Luster. Although Luster started only six games in 2006, he was a force to be reckoned with, notching 23 tackles and 2.0 tackles for loss.

The Salukis are blessed with quality depth at tackle with two rising sophomores — Tony Colletti and Chris Arthurs. Colletti played in all 13 games and picked up 15 tackles last year. Arthurs, a true freshman in 2006, also played in every game and added nine tackles.

Linebackers

Brandin Jordan is one of the top young linebackers in college football. He was named the Freshman-of-the-Year in the Gateway last season after leading the Salukis with 107 tackles from his middle linebacker position. Jordan has great range and instincts, plus a football pedigree that includes his father, Buford (played RB for New Orleans Saints) and uncle, Enis Hicks (played RB for Pittsburgh Steelers).

Another returning starter at linebacker is senior Trevor Moe. In his first year as a full-time starter, Moe racked up 86 stops in 2006 and also recorded 3.5 sacks and 6.5 tackles for loss.

The other outside linebacker starter figures to be either Justin Thurston or Chauncey Mixon. Thurston is a junior, who came off the bench to pick up 16 tackles last year. He made one start. Mixon is a rising sophomore, who earned Gateway All-Newcomer team honors last season, after piling up 55 tackles and 4.5 sacks. His speed causes offenses fits.

The Salukis are blessed with additional depth at linebacker, featuring the likes of senior Weithley Leonord and sophomores Ryan Patton and Fred Wright.

Safety

Clayton Johnson returns to start at one safety position. A fourth-year junior, he has played 24 career games and has 12 starts. Last year, he ranked fifth on the team in tackles with 55 and also added a pair of interceptions.

The other starting safety will likely be Marty Rodgers. As a true freshman in 2006, he came off the bench to make 16 tackles. He also started one game. Junior Derrick Belton figures to challenge Rodgers for the job, however. Belton played in all 13 games last year and picked up 12 tackles and one interception. Blake Sims and Lance Caldwell add depth at safety.

Cornerbacks

If you're looking for a prototype corner, look no further than Craig Turner. The senior is not only one of the best cover men in the league, having defended a team-high nine passes last year, he is also one of the nation's most dangerous return men. In his career, Turner has returned three punts for touchdowns. He was ranked seventh in the nation in punt return average last season (14.9).

The corner opposite Turner features a battle between Anthony Williams and Brandon Williams. Anthony is a fifth-year senior with 37 games played under his belt, while Brandon is a sophomore, with plenty of speed but much less game experience. Senior Larry Turner adds depth at corner.

Specialists

The Salukis said goodbye to career scoring leader Craig Coffin after the 2006 season. He was one of the most dependable placekickers in the country. Look for starting punter Scott Ravanese to get first crack at replacing Coffin, although true freshman Kyle Dougherty arrives with impressive credentials.

Ravanese is expected to lock down the punting job after he averaged 39.1 yards per kick to rank fourth in the league as a true freshman in 2006.

2007 SALUKI FOOTBALL HARD HAT + LUNCH PAIL = CHAMPIONSHIPS

COACH KILL HAS FORMULA FOR SUCCESS IN FOOTBALL AND LIFE

The slogan that adorns the 2007 Saluki Football media guide — Hard Hat + Lunch Pail = Championships — is Jerry Kill's self-described prescription for success. Whether it be the game of football or the game of life, Kill takes a no-nonsense approach to solving problems. The first member of his family to graduate from college, this son of a farmer has seen his share of adversity and is a shining example of how hard work and perseverance pays dividends.

Now entering his seventh year at the helm of Southern Illinois, Kill has built a model program at SIU that consistently contends for the Gateway Conference championship and FCS playoff appearances.

Not many people thought he could do it. Prior to Kill's arrival, Saluki Football had posted nine-straight losing seasons.

Now, Southern Illinois has made the playoffs four-straight years and won a staggering 38 games during that span.

2004 EDDIE ROBINSON COACH-OF-THE-YEAR

The Salukis have made two Elite Eight appearances in the playoffs (2005 and 2006). The 2004 season was especially memorable as SIU spent 10 weeks atop the I-AA polls, and Kill was named the winner of the Eddie Robinson Award honoring the Coach of the Year in I-AA.

To fully appreciate the renaissance of SIU's football program, you must first understand how far it had fallen.

After dropping to Division I-AA status in 1983 and winning a National Championship, the Salukis hit a 20-year dry spell without a playoff bid or conference title. In fact, the program had posted 11-straight losing seasons heading into the 2003 campaign.

Five head coaches had tried and failed to right the ship.

It's no wonder then that his brethren at the American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) named Kill a regional coach-of-the-year two years in a row (2003 and 2004) and asked him to deliver a speech to his colleagues to explain exactly how he and his staff accomplished the turnaround.

Although he is quick to praise his players and coaching staff, there is no mistaking who has orchestrated the Saluki revival.

Yet who is Jerry Kill, and how has he risen from football obscurity to coaching a team that regularly contends for a national title?

The Cheney, Kan. native describes himself as an overachiever. Clearly, he has excelled when others thought he couldn't.

Not an especially gifted

Born: August 24, 1961

High School: Cheney (Kan.), 1979
College: Southwestern (Kan.), 1983

Children: Krystal Nicole (19) and Tasha Marie (16).

athlete, he weighed 160 pounds as a freshman at Division II Southwestern College (Kan.) in 1979. His football coach encouraged him to play point guard for the basketball team.

Instead, Kill played linebacker and eventually became a starter, all-conference player and two-time captain. He was named the team's most inspiration player his senior year. In 2004, the former teaching major was inducted into the school's Hall of Fame.

His coaching career began shortly thereafter, and Kill paid his share of dues, earning a meager sum as an assistant coach to his mentor, Dennis Franchione, at Division II Pittsburg State. He was eventually promoted to offensive coordinator -- the title he held during PSU's 1991 National Championship run.

Kill worked his way up the coaching ladder, eventually landing his first head coaching job at Saginaw Valley State in 1994. He posted five-straight winning seasons at SVS, including back-to-back 9-2 campaigns in 1997 and 1998.

Yet after his father passed away from liver cancer in 1999, Kill took the head coaching job at Emporia State (Kan.) to be closer to his grieving mother. In the process, he left a program that was nationally ranked to coach one that had a losing record.

After arriving at SIU in 2001, Kill made incremental progress his first two years. He was instrumental in striking a deal with the local electrical union to install lights at the stadium so the team could play night football again. He reached out to the community, making himself and his team available for frequent community-service and goodwill projects.

The community, in return, rewarded his team with the biggest crowds at McAndrew Stadium in more than a decade.

Himself a generous donor to worthy causes, he has inspired others to contribute to the program, which helped renovate the locker room and replace the stadium's artificial turf.

In 2005, Kill had a well-publicized off-season bout with kidney cancer. It prompted him to start the Coach Kill Cancer Fund, a foundation to assist needy southern Illinoisans seeking cancer treatment.

Although his cancer is in remission, his trials have only strengthened his faith and commitment to God, family and his fellow man. He tries to follow the Golden Rule — do unto others as you would have them do unto you. He loves football, but cares about people even more.

Kill's work ethic, honesty and integrity are unparalleled. He brings a consistent, high-character approach to daily life. No matter what the final score on the scoreboard says after a ballgame, Kill shows us what it means to be a winner.

THANK YOU! from Coach Kill

BRIAN ANDERSON
WIDE RECEIVERS

Western Illinois (1993)
7th year at SIU
16th year overall

In addition to tutoring Brent Little, one of the best receivers in school history and a current member of the Kansas City Chiefs, Brian Anderson has helped develop five wide receivers who went on to play in the National Football League. Prior to joining the Saluki staff in 2001, Anderson coached at Coffeyville Community College (1996-2000), where three of his receivers eventually achieved NFL status -- Donni O'Neal (San Francisco), Joe Perez (Kansas City) and Boo Williams (New Orleans/New York Giants).

Prior to Coffeyville, Anderson spent two years as receivers coach and passing game coordinator at Highland Community College (1994-95). That was preceded by a two-year stint as receivers coach at Western Illinois (1992-93), where he coached Fabian Bownes, a seven-year NFL vet, who played with Seattle, and Gunnard Twyner, who played with three NFL teams.

A native of Rockford, Ill., Anderson played collegiate football at Ellsworth Community College before transferring to Western Illinois.

TRACY CLAEYS
DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Kansas State (1994)
7th year at SIU
18th year overall

Under Tracy Claeys, the Salukis have ranked among the best defensive units in the nation in the FCS three of the last four seasons. In 2005, SIU was #13 in rushing defense. In 2004, the Salukis led the nation in scoring defense, holding opponents to a school-record 13.2 ppg. So dominant was Claeys' defensive squad that it held seven of 12 opponents to 10 or fewer points in 2004. In 2003, Southern ranked 18th in the nation in total D.

Under Claeys, SIU has adapted its schemes to fit the strengths of personnel, yet consistently plays an attacking style. Claeys has a history of mentoring solid defenses. He accompanied Kill to SIU in 2001 after spending two seasons as a defensive assistant at Emporia State (1999-2000). He coached at Saginaw Valley State (1995-98), tutoring the defensive line and linebackers, and the defense finished sixth in the nation against the run one year and led the Midwest Intercollegiate Football Conference.

Two of Claeys' former SVSU players played in the NFL — DE Lamar King (Seattle, Tampa Bay) and DE Paul Spicer (Detroit, Jacksonville). He also mentored Saluki linebacker Bart Scott, who is in his sixth season with the Baltimore Ravens.

A 1994 graduate of Kansas State, Claeys began his coaching career as a student-assistant at Kansas in 1990, and later as co-defensive coordinator at Santa Fe Trail H.S. in Carbondale, Kan.

MATT LIMEGROVER
OFF. COORDINATOR/OL

Chicago (1991)
7th year at SIU
14th year overall

The Saluki offense has been among the most prolific in the nation the past four seasons, and the architect behind the unit is Matt Limegrover. In the last five seasons, the Salukis have averaged a remarkable 36 points per game. In the last four seasons, SIU has ranked 3rd, 4th, 16th and 4th in the nation in scoring, respectively. The 2004 squad piled up a school-record 511 points and also set school records for first downs, rushing yards and total yards.

Prior to joining the staff at SIU, Limegrover was Kill's offensive line coach at Emporia State (1999-2000). Before that, Limegrover spent two seasons as offensive line coach and running game coordinator at Ferris State (1997-98). Limegrover also served as a graduate assistant at Northwestern (1994-96), where he helped the Wildcats to two bowl appearances (Citrus and Rose) and two Big Ten Championships.

A native of Pittsburgh, Pa., Limegrover was an all-conference tackle at the University of Chicago. He served as offensive assistant at his alma mater from 1991-92. In 1993, UC led the nation in rushing with Limegrover as coordinator. Matt and his wife, Ann, have two children, Emma (4) and T.J. (2).

TOM MATUKEWICZ
LBs/CO-COORDINATOR

Fort Hays State (1994)
7th year at SIU
14th year overall

Tom Matukewicz enters his seventh year as SIU's linebackers coach and also serves as the team's running game coordinator.

His impact on the program is unmistakable. In addition to his knack for recruiting, Matukewicz has mentored Saluki linebackers Bart Scott, who now starts for the Baltimore Ravens, Royal Whitaker, a four-year starter and all-conference player, and Brandin Jordan, the 2006 Gateway Football Conference Freshman-of-the-Year.

Coach "Tuke" came to Carbondale from Emporia State, where he was the defensive line coach and marketing and promotions director. He began his career in 1994, coaching linebackers at Butler County Community College. Later, he moved to his alma mater, Fort Hays State, where he coached the defensive line. Next, he went on to coach offensive tackles and tight ends at Pittsburg State, where he earned a Master's degree. Matukewicz also coached at Coffeyville Community College, which has become a pipeline of talent for the Salukis.

CARL MAUCK
TIGHT ENDS

Southern Illinois (1969)
2nd year at SIU
26th year overall

Veteran NFL coach and Saluki alum Carl Mauck is in his second year tutoring the tight ends and helping Matt Limegrover mentor the offensive line at SIU. Mauck returned to his alma mater after spending 24 seasons as an offensive line coach with seven different NFL teams.

Mauck enjoyed a stellar football career at Southern from 1966-68 and also played basketball as a freshman, lining up alongside future NBA great Walt Frazier. He was inducted into the school's Hall of Fame in 1979. Mauck was drafted in the 13th Round of the NFL Draft in 1969 and played 13 seasons with the Colts, Dolphins, Chargers and Oilers. He played in 166 career regular-season games, including a stretch of 156 in a row. He also played in eight career playoff games, including back-to-back AFC Championship games for Houston in 1978 and '79.

Mauck holds a degree in business management from SIU. He and his wife, Vicki, have four children: Tim, Chrissy, Teresa and Cathy.

PAT POORE
QUARTERBACKS

Fort Hays State (1986)
7th year at SIU
23rd year overall

The Saluki passing game has been among the best in the country, thanks to the expertise of quarterbacks coach Pat Poore. Last year, SIU's quarterbacks ranked seventh in the nation in passing efficiency among FCS schools.

Quarterbacks Joel Sambursky and Nick Hill have been the primary beneficiaries of Poore's tutelage the past five years. Sambursky won Gateway Conference Player-of-the-Year honors in 2004 and was a two-time finalist for the Walter Payton Award, while Hill ranked seventh in the nation in passing efficiency (156.67 rating) in his first year starting under center.

Prior to joining Kill's staff in 2001, Poore was an assistant coach at Central Oklahoma (2000), after serving three years as offensive coordinator at Tarleton State (1997-99). A defensive back at Fort Hays State, Poore coached at his alma mater from 1985-89, including two years as offensive coordinator.

A native of Stockton, Kan., Poore has also coached at Colorado School of Mines, the University of Chicago, Oklahoma Panhandle State and Iowa Wesleyan, where he was head coach in 1994 and posted an 8-3 record. Poore holds a master's degree from Fort Hays State.

Pat and his wife, Gwen, have two children, Trevor (20) and Taylor (18). Trevor is a member of SIU's track and field team.

ROB REEVES RUNNING BACKS

Saginaw Valley State (1996)
7th year at SIU
11th year overall

Rob Reeves has mentored some of the best running backs in school history -- Brandon Jacobs, Arkee Whitlock, Tom Koutsos, Muhammad Abdulqadir and Terry Jackson, -- just to name a handful. Jacobs is projected to start for the New York Giants this year. Whitlock, who signed a free agent contract with the Minnesota Vikings, was a Payton Award finalist and Hula Bowl participant.

Southern's rushing attack has been nothing short of dominant in the last five years under Reeves, averaging 5.3 yards per carry. In 2004, SIU piled up a school record 3,404 yards, and did so without a 1,000-yard rusher.

As a player, Reeves was an All-American quarterback at Saginaw Valley State, and the offense broke more than 90 school and conference records during his career. He personally set conference records for rushing yards and total TDs by a quarterback. A native of Saline, Mich., Reeves coached quarterbacks at his alma mater for three years while earning a master's degree. SVSU led the nation in rushing in 1997 and 1998 and the offense was second in the country in scoring in '98.

Rob and his wife, Angie, have three children, Riley (2) and twins Jackson and Addison (five months).

JAY SAWVEL SAFETIES

Mount Union, Ohio (1993)
7th year at SIU
12th year overall

Jay Sawvel coaches Southern's safeties and is also regarded as one of the best special teams coaches in the country. The Salukis have blocked a remarkable 23 punts in six years under Sawvel, and the punt coverage and return units continue to excel.

Sawvel guided SIU to national rankings in punt returns (11th with 13.29 ypr) and net punting (12th with 35.36 ypp) last season. Craig Turner, one of the nation's top return men in FCS football, was seventh among national leaders with 14.91 yards per punt return.

A 1993 All-Ohio Athletic Conference linebacker at Mount Union, Sawvel earned a master's degree in sports administration from Eastern Kentucky in 1995 and a master's in administration from Notre Dame in 1998.

He and his wife, Jeannine, reside in Murphysboro. They have two daughters, Mackenzie (2) and Miranda (five months).

BRYCE SAIA DEFENSIVE LINE

Fort Hays State (1995)
5th year at SIU
14th year overall

Bryce Saia joined the Saluki coaching staff after the 2003 season and has already helped seven different Saluki linemen earn All-Gateway Conference honors.

Saia was the defensive coordinator at Coffeyville Community College for five seasons (2000-04) and the defensive backs coach for three seasons (1998-2000). Coffeyville has produced numerous Division I football players including a host of current and former Salukis.

Saia's defense ranked #1 in the Jayhawk Conference in 2003 and among the top 10 defenses in the nation each of the past four years. Prior to Coffeyville, Saia coached running backs and linebackers at Butler County Community College (1997) and was assistant linebacker, defensive back and defensive end coach at his alma mater (1994-96).

Saia and his wife, Erin, have a 12-year old son, Nick.

TRAVIS STEPPS CORNERBACKS

Pittsburg State (2001)
4th year at SIU
6th year overall

Travis Stepps begins his fourth year on the coaching staff at Southern and is in his second year as a full-time assistant.

Stepps works with the team's cornerbacks and has mentored four all-conference players in his brief tenure, including All-American Alexis Moreland.

Stepps most recently coached Brandon Bruner, one of the top cover corners in the Gateway. Bruner earned second-team all-conference honors after leading the Salukis in interceptions a year ago.

Prior to SIU, Stepps spent two seasons on the staff at his alma mater, Pittsburg State. As a player, Stepps was a two-time All-American defensive back. The Fort Scott, Kan. native earned a bachelor's degree in social studies and education.

PRESIDENT GLENN POSHARD GUIDES UNIVERSITY SYSTEM

Glenn Poshard, who was inaugurated as President last September, brings more than 40 years of public service to Southern Illinois University.

The fifth of five children who grew up on a family farm, Poshard is a native of White County, Illinois. He graduated from Carmi Township High School in 1962 and after graduation served in the United States Army in Korea, where he received a commendation for outstanding service.

Dr. Poshard is a three-degree graduate of Southern Illinois University Carbondale, the first such graduate to serve on its Board of Trustees.

Entering on the G.I. Bill, he earned a bachelor's degree in secondary education in 1970, a master's degree in health education in 1974, and a Ph.D. in higher education administration in 1984. During this time he worked as both a student worker and a civil servant.

While working toward his master's degree, Dr. Poshard taught and coached at Galatia and Thompsonville high schools. Over the next 10 years, he served as Assistant Director of the Southern Illinois Regional Education Service Center and Director of the Area Service Center for Educators of the Gifted.

In August 1984, Dr. Poshard was appointed to the Illinois State Senate. He was successfully elected later that year and was re-elected in 1986.

Based on his success in the State Senate, the citizens of southern Illinois sent him to the United States Congress in 1989 to represent the 22nd Congressional District. He set a limit of ten years on his service in Congress and in 1998 won the Democratic nomination for Governor of the State of Illinois but lost in the general election.

During his years in the Illinois Legislature and in the U.S. Congress, he advocated for campaign finance reform, clean coal research, the Shawnee National Forest, tourism, economic development, transportation, and higher education.

Dr. Poshard limited individual donations to his campaign and refused to accept donations from political action committees.

In 1999, Dr. Poshard

and his wife, Jo, founded the Poshard Foundation, which raises money to fund care for abused, neglected, and abandoned children. The Foundation has been a leader in efforts to prevent child abuse throughout southern Illinois, including helping to build a new $600,000 women's shelter in Cairo in December 2003. Presently, the Foundation is building a new shelter in West Frankfort, Illinois.

In 1999, Dr. Poshard was appointed Vice Chancellor for Administration for the Carbondale campus of Southern Illinois University, a post he held until July 2003. Governor Rod Blagojevich appointed him to the Board of Trustees of Southern Illinois University in January 2004. Later that year, he was elected Chair of the Board of Trustees, a position he held until declaring his candidacy for President of the University system.

Dr. Poshard is a past recipient of the Lindell W. Sturgis Memorial Public Service Award (2003) and the SIU Distinguished Alumni Award (2003) and is a member of the SIUC College of Education and Human Services Hall of Fame (1992).

The Poshard family includes two adult children, Dennis and Kristen, a daughter-in-law, Diane, and five grandchildren, Lydia, Madeline, America, Tucker, and Harrison. Glenn and Jo, a retired public school teacher, live in rural Murphysboro.

THE DISTINGUISHED FERNANDO TREVIÑO IS SOUTHERN'S NEW CHANCELLOR

Southern Illinois University President Glenn Poshard introduced Fernando M. Treviño last May as his choice to become the next chancellor of the Carbondale campus.

Treviño replaced John M. Dunn, SIUC's provost and vice chancellor since 2002, who took over as interim chancellor in November. Dunn became president of Western Michigan University in Kalamazoo in July.

"Dr. Treviño will be an outstanding leader for the Carbondale campus and an effective ambassador for the University across the region, the state and the nation," Poshard said. "He has a substantial track record in higher education, in research, in community service and in working at the national and international levels."

Treviño, a native of Eagle Pass, Texas, said he looks forward to becoming part of the SIUC and Southern Illinois communities.

"My thanks to President Poshard and the search committee for the hospitality they have shown me during the interview process, and for their confidence in me," he said. "This is an institution with rich traditions and a reputation for excellence in teaching, research and service. I am excited to have the opportunity to participate in the University's continued growth and development."

Treviño emphasized the importance of "building better communication, building a sense of teamwork on campus and building enrollment."

Roger Tedrick, chair of the SIU Board of Trustees, is enthusiastic about Poshard's choice.

"Dr. Treviño brings with him not only a tremendous record of achievements, but a passion and commitment to moving the University forward," Tedrick said. "We feel this is a time of great opportunity for both Dr. Treviño and the Carbondale campus."

For the past eight years, the 57-year-old Treviño served as dean of the School of Public Health at the University of North Texas Health Science Center in Fort Worth. He also is a professor of health management and policy. Since 2002, he also served as director of the Texas Institute for Hispanic Health in the School of Public Health, and since 1999, he has served as director of the school's Institute for Public Health Research.

From 1996 to 2000, he served as professor and chairman of the Department of Public Health and Preventive Medicine in the Texas College of Osteopathic Medicine, part of the University of North Texas Health Science Center. From 1996 to 1999, Treviño was the executive director of the university's graduate program in public health in the Graduate School of Biomedical Sciences.

He is a past president of the World Federation of Public Health Associations in Geneva, Switzerland. From 1993 to 1996, Treviño was executive director of the American Public Health Association in Washington, D.C., and executive editor of "The Nation's Health." He was only the seventh person in 124 years to serve as the chief executive officer of the association, which is the oldest and largest society of public health workers in the world and the largest publisher of public health books and journals.

From 1991 to 1993, Treviño served as dean of the School of Health Professions and professor of health administration at Southwest Texas State University.

As dean, he was the chief academic officer of the nation's largest school of health professions, with 2,000 students majoring in one of 11 different health occupations.

Treviño earned a bachelor's degree in psychology in 1971 from the University of Houston. He earned his master's of public health degree in 1975 from the University of Texas School of Public Health (Health Services Administration) and his doctorate in 1979 from the University of Texas Medical Branch (Preventive Medicine and Community Health) in Galveston.

MARIO MOCCIA IS A RISING STAR IN ATHLETIC ADMINISTRATION

A rising star in the arena of athletic administration, Mario Moccia (pronounced Mo-chuh) was named director of athletics at SIU in August of 2006, with a mandate to build upon the department's recent success.

The results of Moccia's first year at SIU were impressive. Not only did four teams win conference championships, but the flagship men's basketball program advanced to the Sweet 16 and climbed to its highest national ranking in school history. Football made its fourth-straight NCAA Playoff appearance, beating Big Ten Indiana along the way. The women's basketball team won the Missouri Valley Conference for the first time in 20 years and qualified for the National Invitation Tournament, and the softball team extended its string of NCAA Tournament appearances to five.

Equally impressive were the marks Saluki student-athletes posted in the classroom. The average GPA in the spring semester was a department-record 3.01. The cumulative GPA of all student-athletes also rose to a school-best 3.00. Four programs (football, volleyball, softball and women's cross country) were nationally recognized for academic excellence.

Moccia has taken bold steps to ensure SIU's continued success.

Moccia has "locked up" the department's marquee head coaches by restructuring the contracts of men's basketball coach Chris Lowery and women's basketball coach Dana Eikenberg. Furthermore, he has made remarkable progress on the Saluki Way facilities plan, clearing a pathway for construction to begin on a new football stadium, renovated SIU Arena and administrative building in the near future.

Since arriving on campus, the energetic Moccia has "spread the Saluki gospel" by speaking to seemingly any and every area group and organization. He has met with donors big and small, explaining his vision for athletic programs and facilities that take a back seat to none.

Saluki fans have responded to Moccia's message with an outpouring of support. In addition to record-breaking ticket sales last season, the Saluki Athletic Scholarship Fund (SASF) reported its best year in school history. Prospects are lining up to contribute to Saluki Way, fans are stocking up on Saluki merchandise in record numbers and licensing revenues are at an all-time high.

Moccia has a proven track record when it comes to program building. In his previous position as Senior Associate AD for External Operations at the University of Missouri, he oversaw the largest fund raising effort in the history of Mizzou Athletics with the Champions For Life campaign. The external components of the athletics department at Missouri were routinely recognized as among the best in college athletics. During his tenure (1998-2006), Missouri posted record football season ticket sales, an increase of more than $3 million in annual giving over a five-year period, gross sales of more than $1.3 million at the Tiger Team Store in 2004 and a media relations department which produced award-winning media guides.

Prior to Missouri, Moccia was associate athletics director at Texas State University in San Marcos from 1997 to 1998, and he was director of sales and assistant director of the Lobo Club for the athletic department at the University of New Mexico from 1993 to 1997.

Moccia holds a bachelor's degree in psychology from New Mexico State University (1989), where he was the Most Valuable Player of the Aggie baseball team in 1988 and 1989. As a senior, he was a preseason All-American and was later drafted by the Detroit Tigers. He spent two years playing in the Tigers' organization before beginning his sports administration career.

Moccia earned a master's degree in sports administration from the University of New Mexico (1993). In 1998, he was named to the New Mexico State University Athletics Hall of Fame. Moccia is a member of the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA) and serves on several regional and national committees.

Mario and his wife, Heidi, reside in nearby Murphysboro.

2007 SALUKI FOOTBALL HARD HAT + LUNCH PAIL = CHAMPIONSHIPS

Southern Illinois 49 Lock Haven 0

Aug. 31, 2006
McAndrew Stadium
Attendance: 9,636

CARBONDALE, Ill. - Nick Hill and Arkee Whitlock became the first quarterback/running back combination to rush for more than 100 yards in a game in four years, as 17th-ranked Southern Illinois University shutout Lock Haven, 49-0, in its season-opener.

Whitlock piled up 134 yards on 15 carries, while Hill followed with 107 yards on 11 attempts. They are the first to accomplish the feat since Joel Sambursky (129) and Muhammad Abdulqaadir (312) combined for 441 yards at I-A Eastern Michigan on Sept. 28, 2002.

The Saluki running game accounted for 357 of SIU's 500 yards of total offense. SIU scored on all but two of its possessions, with four of its six touchdowns coming on the ground.

On SIU's first two possessions, Whitlock and Hill set the tone by breaking free for touchdown runs of 34 and 40 yards, respectively.

Whitlock's run came on a 4th-and-3 — SIU's sixth play from scrimmage and gave the Dawgs a 7-0 lead.

After LHU was forced to punt on its opening drive, SIU took over on its own 31-yard line. Five plays later, Hill turned a broken play into a 40-yard touchdown to push the lead to 14-0.

Craig Coffin's 34-yard field goal with seven seconds left in the second quarter gave SIU a 17-0 lead at intermission.

SIU began the second half much like it did the first.

Nearby Herrin, Ill., native, Kyle Walker, scored his first touchdown as a Saluki on a 16-yard reverse 4:58 into the third quarter.

"We've got a lot of good local football players on this team who were productive tonight," said Kill. "That's special for the people of southern Illinois."

SIU added 17 more points in the fourth quarter to finish off the shutout.

Jon Cairns came off the bench to hook up with Alan Turner for a 52-yard strike (9:36) and later completed a six-yard pass to true freshman fullback Rick Burgess for the final score of the game.

Hill had 85 passing yards to go along with his first career 100-yard rushing performance.

"It was the first game, a couple things broke down, and I had to make a couple gains with my feet," said Hill. "I had fun out there and this is what I've been waiting for, for a long time. It's been four years since I've been a starting quarterback."

Another Saluki running back who shined in the backfield was University of Kansas transfer John Randle. Randle had 66 yards on 10 carries in his Saluki debut.

"People label him as my backup, but he's not, because the most of time we're in the game, we are in at the same time," said Whitlock. "He's always focused, doesn't make many mistakes and works hard."

BLOOMINGTON, Ind.- Nick Hill threw for four touchdowns as No. 16 Southern Illinois University became the first Gateway Conference school to beat a Big Ten opponent, rallying to stun Indiana, 35-28.

Gateway schools were 0-18 all-time against Big Ten Conference teams until Southern Illinois knocked off the Hoosiers.

SIU trailed, 14-0, in the first quarter, but rallied behind a stifling defense and a rookie quarterback, who never lost his poise.

"This was a huge win for our program," said Saluki head coach Jerry Kill. "They had the momentum early, but our kids didn't let things get out of hand. Our coaches did an outstanding job of keeping this young team's composure."

Momentum shifted to SIU late in the first quarter when Saluki cornerback Craig Turner intercepted a Kellen Lewis pass at the Southern Illinois 2. That seemed to fire up a Saluki defense that limited IU to only 17 yards of total offense in the second quarter.

Meanwhile, the offense got untracked just before halftime when Braden Jones hauled in a five-yard touchdown pass from Hill. The TD capped a seven-play, 33-yard drive with 27 seconds in the second quarter.

The teams traded touchdown drives to start the third quarter. SIU's defense then came up big again when Micah King sacked Lewis and Lorenzo Wims recovered the loose ball at the IU 30.

Four plays later, Alan Turner caught an eight-yard touchdown pass from Hill to tie the game at 21-21 with 11 seconds left in the third quarter.

With 10 minutes left in the game, SIU's defense again rose to the occasion, stopping the Hoosiers on fourth down at the IU 48.

Hill then connected with Phil Goforth for a 29-yard touchdown pass to give SIU its first lead, 28-21, at the 10:17 mark.

After Indiana tied the game on a Demetrius McCray 12-yard touchdown run, the Salukis drove for their winning score. The key play was a dazzling, over-the-shoulder, 33-yard catch by Allen on a 3rd-and-11.

"Justin got jammed at the line, and I knew I had to hold on to the ball a little bit longer," explained Hill. "I knew they were going to blitz, so I just took a hit and put the ball up in the air. It was all Justin after that."

Two plays later, Whitlock sliced his way into the end zone from nine yards out to give SIU a 35-28 lead with 5:50 left.

Wims had two sacks on Indiana's final drive to end all hopes for the Hoosiers. Wims finished with five solo tackles, a pair of sacks and a fumble recovery.

"It was a great win for our University, alumni, fans and our kids," stated Kill. "We're certainly going to enjoy it."

HARD HAT + LUNCH PAIL = CHAMPIONSHIPS

Southern Illinois 48 Arkansas-Pine Bluff 16

Sept. 23, 2006

Golden Lion Stadium

Attendance: 3,910

PINE BLUFF, Ark. - Arkee Whitlock rushed for 140 yards and a touchdown, and No. 10 Southern Illinois overcame a sluggish start to roll past Arkansas-Pine Bluff, 48-16.

SIU, which at one time trailed, 10-7, scored 27 unanswered points to secure the victory. The Saluki defense blanked the Golden Lions during the last 25:43 of the game.

"We came into a different environment and got out of our routine a bit," said Saluki head coach Jerry Kill. "I was happy with the way our young team adapted, and that we're coming back to Carbondale at 3-0."

SIU jumped on Pine Bluff early, marching 61 yards on six plays to take a 7-0 lead just three minutes into the game. Alan Turner's career long 39-yard reception capped the Salukis' opening scoring drive.

The Golden Lions went three-and-out the first time they had the ball and began their next possession at their own 2-yard line following a 39-yard punt by Saluki freshman Scott Ravanesi.

On the next play, Golden Lions' quarterback Chris Wallace found a wide open Jason Jones for a 98-yard strike to tie the game, 7-7, with 6:20 remaining in the first quarter.

John Heflin's 20-yard field goal gave Pine Bluff its only lead of the game with 14:09 left in the second quarter.

SIU countered with 1-yard touchdown runs by John Randle and Whitlock to regain a 21-10 lead at the half.

The second half turned into a Saluki route.

Quarterback Nick Hill had a pair of rushing TDs in the third quarter. The Dawgs' other third quarter touchdown came via the defense when Devon Reese fell on Martell Mallet's fumble in the end zone.

Craig Coffin's two fourth quarter field goals then put the 48-16 win on ice.

Coffin scored 12 points on the night and moved two field goals away from becoming the school's all-time leader in career field goals.

Whitlock carried the ball 22 times en route to his third-straight 100-yard rushing performance.

Hill completed 9-of-14 passes for 155 yards and one touchdown. He also rushed for two other TDs.

"I'm proud of the way Nick is playing," said Kill. "He's getting better and better each week."

Turner returned three kickoffs for 82 yards and five punts for 94 yards to help give SIU excellent field position throughout the night.

Alan Turner also had a big game, hauling in three receptions for 71 yards and a touchdown.

Pine Bluff made it past the 50-yard line on two occasions against the Saluki defense in the second half. Three of the Golden Lions' second half drives started inside their own 20-yard line.

Southern Illinois 55
Indiana State 3
September 30, 2006
McAndrew Stadium
Attendance: 13,524

CARBONDALE, Ill. - Head Coach Jerry Kill became the school's all-time leader in winning percentage when No. 10 Southern Illinois University beat Indiana State, 55-3, at McAndrew Stadium.

Kill improved his record to 38-26 (.593) in five-plus seasons at the SIU helm. He surpassed Rey Dempsey's 54-37 mark, and did so in front of 13,524 people, the largest crowd of his Saluki coaching era.

"We're very fortunate here in Southern Illinois to have an outstanding coaching staff," stated Kill. "Everybody looks at the head coach, but we're winning because we have good assistant coaches, too."

Kyle Hooper's 47-yard field goal on the game's opening drive, was Indiana State's only scoring.

After that, SIU responded with 55 unanswered points en route to handing the Sycamores their 22nd-straight loss.

SIU countered Hooper's field goal with touchdowns on back-to-back possessions.

The Salukis ran the ball 10 times during a 12-play, 56-yard drive, which resulted in a 1-yard touchdown run by John Randle.

After Lorenzo Wims dropped Sycamores' quarterback Reilly Murphy for a loss of three yards on a 4th-and-1, SIU took over on downs, this time at its own 39-yard line.

Nick Hill then threw a 28-yard pass to Arkee Whitlock and delivered a 12-yard completion to Phil Goforth on a 4th-and-9 to put the Dawgs at the INS 30.

A 17-yard run by Justin Allen followed, setting up a Whitlock one-yard TD to give SIU a 14-3 lead.

Craig Coffin's 38-yard field goal extended the Dawgs' lead to 17-3 with 5:05 left in the first half. Coffin became SIU's all-time scoring leader on that kick.

"It feels pretty good. It was nice to get it over with this early," said Coffin. "It's a relief more than anything, and I'm sure it'll be nice a couple years down the road to look back and see something I've accomplished."

Whitlock's 12-yard touchdown run pushed SIU's lead to 24-3 at halftime.

SIU continued to dominate in the second half, putting up 21 points in the third quarter and 10 more in the fourth.

Braden Jones' 80-yard touchdown catch highlighted the third quarter scoring spree. It was the longest completion since Joel Sambursky threw an 84-yard touchdown to Brent Little against the Sycamores in 2004.

"I didn't know if they were coming behind me or not and I was just trying not to cramp up and fall down," said Jones. "It was exciting and one of those plays where you tell yourself, 'don't drop it.'"

Offensively, SIU had 527 yards of total offense, including 288 on the ground and 239 through the air.

Southern Illinois 31
Western Illinois 24

Attendance: 13,721

CARBONDALE, Ill. - Arkee Whitlock rushed for a career-high 216 yards and three touchdowns to lead No. 9 Southern Illinois to a 31-24 victory over Western Illinois in front of a Homecoming crowd of 13,721 at McAndrew Stadium.

SIU posted its fifth-straight win against WIU in a game that featured no turnovers, 466 rushing yards and two of the Gateway Conference's top running backs in Whitlock and Western's Herb Donaldson.

"We're doing a good job of playing with many young players, who continue to step up and make plays," said Saluki head coach Jerry Kill. "It's a long-distance race, and we're doing an excellent job of running it right now."

Whitlock diced up the Leatherneck defense for an average of 6.5 yards per carry on 33 attempts. He also had a pair of one-yard touchdown runs on back-to-back possessions just before the half, and scored the game-winning TD on a 10-yard scamper late in the fourth quarter.

"He's just a very patient runner," said WIU coach Don Patterson. "He picks his way and doesn't go into panic mode and decide to do something silly."

The first of Whitlock's two one-yard plunges came after Braden Jones blocked a punt early in the second quarter — SIU's first block of the season.

"It was just a good surge inside by Southern," said Patterson. "It was a big play, because with our offense, you don't get too many short fields."

WIU quarterback Steve LaFalce's 15-yard touchdown run capped a 10-play, 80-yard march on the Leathernecks' ensuing drive to make it a 14-10 game.

With the game tied 24-24 in the fourth quarter, a 47-yard completion from Nick Hill to Alan Turner set up the game-winning touchdown. Turner hauled in Hill's pass in double coverage to give the Dawgs a first down at the Leatherneck 17.

"At that point in the game we were tied up, and it was time to make a play," said Turner. "It was an excellent throw by Nick."

Whitlock did the rest, as his 10-yard touchdown run iced a five-play, 80-yard drive for SIU with 6:48 remaining.

In addition to his blocked punt, Jones caught four passes for 55 yards and one touchdown, a nine-yard pass from Hill on the game's opening drive. He has caught a touchdown pass in three of his last four games.

"The coaches always do a good job of preparing us," said Jones. "WIU is a good team. It came down to the last drive, we had to make big plays, and we did. That's why we won."

Hill completed 8-of-12 passes for 111 yards and a touchdown.

"Nick is a tremendous player," said Kill. "His throws are accurate and he doesn't make a lot of mistakes."

NORMAL, Ill. - Luke Drone threw for 280 yards and two touchdowns, while Pierre Jackson and Jason Horton each had over 100 receiving yards to lead No. 5 Illinois State to a 37-10 win over No. 7 Southern Illinois at Hancock Stadium.

The Redbirds trailed early, 10-7, but responded with 30 unanswered points en route to handing the Salukis their first loss of the season in front of a crowd of 17,237. It was ISU's largest single-game attendance in 30 years.

"Today was a team breakdown. I think that we got beat in all phases of the game," said Saluki head coach Jerry Kill. "We didn't play good team football."

Braden Jones' 9-yard touchdown catch gave SIU a three-point edge with 11:47 left in the second quarter, but after that, the Salukis didn't score again.

Rafael Rice's 17-yard touchdown run and Kevin Mazur's 20-yard field goal came on the next two Redbird possessions, as ISU took a 17-10 lead at the half.

Cameron Siskowic picked off a Nick Hill pass at SIU's 33-yard line to set up Mazur's field goal just before the intermission.

ISU continued to pour it on when Drone threw back-to-back touchdown passes on the the Redbirds' first two drives of the second half.

Drone hooked up with

Jackson for a 36-yard strike on the sixth play of the third quarter to cap a six-play, 62-yard march at the 12:22 mark.

He then found a wide open Horton for a 68-yard touchdown on ISU's next drive, following a Saluki punt. ISU went 93 yards in just three plays to extend its lead to 30-10.

One more touchdown, this time a 6-yard run by Rice put the finishing touches on the Redbirds' 37-10 victory.

Arkee Whitlock rushed for 140 yards on 27 carries to lead a Saluki rushing attack, which was held to under 200 yards for the first time all season. SIU had 191 yards on 42 rushing attempts.

Hill completed 9-of-17 passes for 88 yards and one touchdown. He also had one interception, his first in 91 attempts.

ISU nearly had 500 yards (499) of total offense, including 219 on the ground and 280 through the air.

Pierre Rembert rushed for 137 yards and one touchdown to lead the Redbird backfield.

Meanwhile, Jackson had five catches for 113 yards and Horton hauled in four receptions for 120 yards to key ISU's receiving corps.

The Redbirds went the entire day without turning the ball over.

"We worked well together in the first five games this season," said Kill. "Offense, defense and special teams complemented each other well and that didn't happen today. This one will hurt today, but we'll get right back to work on Sunday."

CARBONDALE, Ill. - Western Kentucky scored two touchdowns in the last seven minutes of the game to overcome a 14-point deficit and stun No. 13 Southern Illinois, 27-24, in Gateway Conference action.

WKU trailed, 24-10, at halftime after surrendering 17 points on special teams, but held the Salukis scoreless for the entire second half. The Hilltoppers also controlled the clock, holding a commanding 37:59 to 22:01 advantage in time of possession.

Lerron Moore scored the game-winning touchdown on a three-yard run with 2:20 left in the fourth quarter. A successful two-point conversion then gave the Hilltoppers a 27-24 lead.

SIU's final drive of the game was halted by Travis Watters, who intercepted Nick Hill's pass at the Dawgs' 47-yard line.

SIU returned two punts for touchdowns and Craig Coffin made a 47-yard field goal to key a 17-point special teams surge in the first half.

"We have to do a better job on offense, and at the same time have to get better on defense," said Saluki head coach Jerry Kill. "We haven't played together as a team the last two games. Each unit hasn't done their job of helping each other out. If you win, you win together. If you lose you lose together."

Ian Lundy blocked a punt at WKU's 29-yard line during the Hilltoppers' second drive of the game. Alan Turner scooped up the ball and returned it 12 yards into the end zone to give the Salukis a 7-0 lead with 5:26 left in the first quarter.

After John Randle's 9-yard touchdown run gave Southern Illinois a 14-7 lead early in the second quarter, the Salukis forced the Hilltoppers to punt from their own 49-yard line on the next possession.

Craig Turner fielded Tanner Siewert's 34-yard punt at the Saluki 17 and went 83 yards to extend SIU's lead to 21-7. Turner's 83-yard touchdown marked the third-longest punt return in school history.

"Craig did a great job and is a special football player," added Kill. "He's a great return guy, and that's why he was an All-American last year. He's doing everything he can to help us win."

But, it was gut-check time in the second half. WKU's offense kept the Saluki defense on the field for nearly 18 minutes in the second half, and executed in the process.

"Football is a game of momentum, and that's when things swung their way," said Kill. "I give them credit for executing and eating up the clock the way they did."

The Salukis were held to 200 yards of total offense (129 rush, 71 pass). SIU also snapped the ball just 43 times to WKU's 79.

With 66 yards, Arkee Whitlock was held below 100 for the first time on the year.

Missouri State 17

SPRINGFIELD, Mo. - A.J. Wallace's blocked punt rallied No. 19 Southern Illinois to an emotional 27-17 win at Missouri State.

Inspired by head coach Jerry Kill, who watched the game from the press box after he was hospitalized due to a seizure earlier in the week, SIU came up big again on special teams and never looked back.

"This win was huge coming off of two losses and it was huge that Coach Kill showed up," said Tracy Claeys, who assumed head coaching duties for Kill.

Sid Rone recovered a John Randle fumble and returned it 12 yards for a touchdown to give Missouri State a 10-3 lead with 10:37 left in the second quarter.

SIU forced MSU to punt on its next possession, where Wallace rushed the middle to block Nate Stokes' punt at the Bears' 39-yard line.

Nick Hill's 26-yard pass to Phil Goforth and a MSU face mask penalty gave the Salukis' a 1st-and-goal, before Arkee Whitlock scored on an 8-yard touchdown run to tie the game at 10-10.

Wallace's big play on special teams led to 24 unanswered points for the Dawgs.

"I was worried how we would react after the fumble," said Claeys. "We controlled the game from that point on."

Wallace became the third different Saluki to block a punt in four games.

Craig Coffin also kicked a 22-yard field goal, and Braden Jones hauled in a 9-yard touchdown pass from Hill to help SIU to a 17-10 halftime lead. Southern added another touchdown on its third possession of the second half.

The Salukis took over on downs at their own 4-yard line following a 51-yard punt by Stokes. SIU then went 96 yards in 10 plays.

Four plays into the drive, Hill broke free for a 43-yard run to give SIU a first down at the MSU 40. Hill also completed a 17-yard pass to Jones and ran for 11 more yards, before Whitlock capped the march with a 4-yard touchdown run at the 1:52 mark in the third quarter.

Another Coffin field goal, this time from 31 yards out, pushed SIU's lead to 27-10 with 8:47 left to play, before Tyler Horner's 1-yard touchdown run kept MSU from being shut out in the second half on the Bears' final drive of the game.

Whitlock rushed for 84 yards and two TDs. Hill completed 15-of-19 passes for 165 yards and a touchdown.

Chauncey Mixon led the Saluki defense with a career-high 11 tackles, including one sack and two for a loss. He also had three pass breakups.

Horner completed 24-of-40 passes for 221 yards to lead MSU. He also ran for one TD.

The Bears went without a third-down conversion in the first half and finished with only 42 yards of rushing offense.

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio - Marcus Mason rushed for 249 yards and scored the game-winning touchdown to lead Youngstown State to a 31-24 come-from-behind win over No. 12 Southern Illinois.

SIU led by 11 points early in the third quarter, but the Penguins scored 21 second-half points, including 14 in the last five minutes of the game, to hand the Salukis their third Gateway Conference loss of the season.

"We've lost a couple of tough games, but I think we're improving, and I think we're playing hard," said Saluki head coach Jerry Kill. "We're playing some very good teams. The Gateway is tougher than its ever been."

Arkee Whitlock's 23-yard touchdown run capped a 6-play, 57-yard drive to give SIU a 21-10 lead with 10:32 remaining in the third quarter.

YSU's next possession resulted in a Tom Zetts 7-yard touchdown run with 53 seconds left in the third quarter after the Penguins had marched 84 yards in eight plays.

YSU tried to catch SIU off-guard on the ensuing kickoff, but Braden Jones fell on Joe Bishop's onside kick, giving the Dawgs excellent field position at the 50-yard line.

SIU's ensuing drive stalled at the Youngstown 8, and the Salukis were forced to settle for a 27-yard field goal by Craig Coffin with 13:07 left to play.

Youngstown tied the game, 24-24, on Zetts' 18-yard touchdown pass to Irizarry Louis with 5:01 remaining.

Youngstown State's defense then delivered a big play when a Hill pass sailed through the hands of wide receiver Phil Goforth and into the arms of Codera Jackson. Jackson's interception gave YSU the ball at the Salukis' 30-yard line, and the Penguins scored five plays later on a 22-yard TD run by Mason with 1:33 on the clock.

Southern Illinois had one last chance, but simply ran out of time.

SIU drove to the YSU 11, where it faced a 4th-and-2. Whitlock gained six yards to give SIU a first down at the YSU 5 with 17 seconds left.

A YSU pass interference penalty followed, which put the ball the two. On a designed pass play, Hill rolled left, but spotted an opening and ran for the end zone. He was tackled shy of the goal line, as time expired.

"We did all the right things to win the game," said Kill. "We just didn't make the plays at the end to win it. We called a timeout with 17 seconds. We had four shots at it. We knew what we had to do to get four shots at it. We only got three."

"In dog-fights like this, it's who makes those three or four plays that ends up winning the game," stated Hill. "We're running out of games, and we really have to get these next two games to have a shot."

2007 SALUKI FOOTBALL

HARD HAT + LUNCH PAIL = CHAMPIONSHIPS

Southern Illinois 47
Northern Iowa 23

 Attendance: 7,422

CARBONDALE, Ill. - With playoff hopes hanging in the balance for both teams, No. 14 Southern Illinois University used a high-octane offense to steamroll No. 11 Northern Iowa, 47-23, at McAndrew Stadium.

SIU, which boasts the Gateway's number one scoring offense (33.7 ppg), went four-straight games with less than 30 points on the board, but erupted for 47, including 30 in the first half.

The Salukis also intercepted UNI quarterback and Payton Award candidate Eric Sanders three times, marking the first time SIU had three or more picks in a game since getting four against West Virginia Tech on Sept. 21, 2002. Previously, Sanders had thrown just three interceptions in nine games.

Arkee Whitlock rushed for 180 yards and set new career-highs with four touchdowns and 40 carries, while Nick Hill completed 12-of-15 passes for 172 yards and two TDs to key an explosive offensive attack that never let up.

"We have problems finishing games. That's been our main focus," said Whitlock. "We weren't able to come out in the second half and play like we did in the first half like we did today.

The Salukis used a good balance of rushing and passing plays to baffle a Panther defense, which entered the game ranked first in the league against the run (118.9 ypg).

"We're an aggressive football team. We came out here and knew our backs were against the wall and I'm proud of the players," said Saluki head coach Jerry Kill. "Our players did exactly what I asked them to do and they deserved to win."

SIU set the tone early by marching 83 yards on nine plays the first time it had the ball. Hill completed three passes for 19 or more yards, and hooked up with Braden Jones for a 20-yard touchdown to give SIU a quick 7-0 lead with 10:36 remaining in the first quarter.

Whitlock posted his eighth 100-yard game of the season, while Hill completed a perfect 10-of-10 passes for 158 of his 172 yards in the first half alone.

"Arkee is on a mission," stated Kill. "I continue to say he's the best running back in I-AA football."

And, about Hill's performance?

"As good as it gets," said Kill. "I couldn't be more proud of what the kid has accomplished with all the pressure that has been put on him."

Defensively, SIU pressured Sanders all day. Brandon Bruner, who posted his first career interceptions, led the way with eight tackles. The Salukis also sacked Sanders three times.

"I think it all starts with turnovers and the defense making plays," said Kill. "I think we got those plays because our kids were more aggressive."

2007 SALUKI FOOTBALL HARD HAT + LUNCH PAIL = CHAMPIONSHIPS

Southern Illinois 59
Southern Utah 0
November 18, 2006

Attendance: 5,535

CARBONDALE, Ill. - No. 11 Southern Illinois University's 20 seniors went out with a bang when the Salukis blanked Southern Utah, 59-0, at McAndrew Stadium.

Individually, Payton Award candidate Arkee Whitlock rushed for 170 yards and three touchdowns en route to breaking a pair of school records. John Randle rushed for 130 yards and caught two passes for 28 yards and a touchdown.

Quarterback Nick Hill completed 7-of-9 passes for 127 yards and three TDs. And, Braden Jones, Alan Turner and Naji Shinskia also scored for the Dawgs.

Team-wise, SIU put up 425 rushing yards and 571 yards of total offense. Those 425 yards tied for seventh-most in a single-game.

Pretty impressive numbers for a team which posted convincing victories in back-to-back must-win situations.

"We've had several people step up and our kids are doing everything we ask them to do," said Saluki head coach Jerry Kill. "I'm proud of them."

Whitlock became both SIU's all-time career leader in all-purpose yardage and all-time single-season leader in rushing touchdowns.

He returned the opening kickoff for 47 yards and rushed for 151 yards and three TDs on 20 carries in the first half alone.

Southern Illinois led 35-0 at haltime and was on cruise control for the rest of the game.

"It's definitely a great way to go out," said Whitlock. "We needed a victory and a convincing win. Everyone is getting better, and guys are hungry. I think we have a good chance to make the playoffs."

Whitlock also credited the offensive line after picking up his ninth 100-yard game of the season.

"I put every offensive lineman up there with me when any records are broken," he said. "They are overlooked and don't get a lot of credit. I don't think I tell them enough how much I appreciate all they do."

Randle posted the first 100-yard rushing game of his SIU career. He averaged 8.1 yards on 16 attempts.

"We felt comfortable out there and executed," said Randle. "Our offense and defense is playing really well right now."

SIU shutout its second opponent this season, marking the first time since 1985 that the Salukis have held two opponents scoreless.

"Our team is peaking at the right time," said Kill. "I think some people may be giving up on us, but these kids haven't given up on themselves."

With the win, SIU ended its 2006 regular-season at 8-3 overall, including a I-A win over Big Ten Conference foe Indiana. On Nov. 19, the Salukis were an at-large selection for the NCAA FCS Playoffs.

CARBONDALE, Ill. - Nick Hill threw a go-ahead 45-yard touchdown pass in the final minute, and Arkee Whitlock rushed for 207 yards and four touchdowns to lead No. 10 Southern Illinois University to a 36-30 come-from-behind victory over No. 12 Tennessee-Martin in the first round of the NCAA Division I Football Championship.

SIU trailed by 20 points early in the third quarter, but rallied behind Whitlock's three second half TDs.

"I can tell you this, I've been down 21, I've been down 28, and as long as the kids don't see you quit as a coach, they don't panic," said Saluki head coach Jerry Kill. "I thought the coaches did a great job of keeping their composure."

"We are a young team, and we almost fell apart a couple of times, but we kept fighting and never gave up."

Whitlock's 1-yard run gave the Salukis their first lead at 28-27 with 9:42 left in the game.

Taylor Brown's 34-yard field goal regained a 30-28 advantage for the Skyhawks, but the Salukis ended all UT-Martin playoff hopes on their last drive of the game.

SIU took over on downs at its own 20-yard line with 2:39 remaining and marched 80 yards in eight plays behind its first-year starting quarterback.

The winning touchdown saw Hill loft a pass over the head of UT-Martin defender Dante Harrold. Receiver Alan Turner adjusted to make the catch, as the ball was held up in a gusty wind out of the south. He then dashed down the sidelines for the winning score.

UT-Martin had one chance at the end, but Derrick Belton intercepted a Greg Preston pass on a second-and-six at the Skyhawks' 29-yard line.

UT-Martin had SIU on the ropes in the first half, but failed to deliver the knock-out punch in the second as they were outscored 29-3.

Whitlock's four rushing TDs tied a career-high, as he posted his third 200-yard game of the season. He also became SIU's all-time single-season leader in points scored (150 pts.), surpassing Muhammad Abdulqaadir's 128 points in 2002. Whitlock rushed for a total of 775 yards and 14 touchdowns in his last four games alone.

"Arkee's the best player in the country. Not the best running back, the best player," said Kill. "He's unbelievable and I've never seen anything like it in my life. It's fun to watch him."

Hill completed 8-of-14 passes for 129 yards and the game-winning touchdown. He also ran for 19 yards on nine carries.

"Nick never loses his composure," said Whitlock. "He makes mistakes, but can recuperate. He bends, but doesn't break."

SIU advanced to the quarterfinals for the second-straight year.

Montana 20
Southern Illinois 3
December 2, 2006
Grizzly Stadium
Attendance: 18,883

MISSOULA, Mont.- Montana held Southern Illinois to just 129 yards of total offense en route to a 20-3 victory in the NCAA Division I Championship Quarterfinals at Washington-Grizzly Stadium.

SIU played in front of a crowd of 18,883, its second-largest of the season. However, it was definitely the loudest, according to head coach Jerry Kill.

"It's a very difficult environment," said Kill. "You're not going to hear a snap count out there. There's no possible way. It's hard to communicate. Their fans are coached up."

SIU entered the day ranked second in the nation in scoring offense (37.08 ppg) and third in rushing offense (245.5 ypg). But, the crowd was too much of a factor and SIU struggled to find its rhythm.

SIU punted five times, rushed for 27 yards, had one first down and went 0-for-5 on third-down conversions, but still found itself in the game at the half, trailing 13-0.

SIU moved into Grizzly territory only twice in the game, and one of those drives netted a Craig Coffin 27-yard field goal to cut the deficit to 13-3 early in the fourth quarter.

Montana, however, answered with an 8-yard touch-down pass from Swogger to Chambers to put the finishing touches on its 20-3 win.

A swarming Grizzly

defense limited SIU to only 37 passing yards and 92 rushing yards on the day. The last time SIU was held to 129 or fewer yards of total offense was against Nicholls State on September 6, 1997. The Dawgs had 120 yards in that game.

"They're a team you can't make too many mistakes against," said Whitlock. "It's kinda hard to get back in the game when you have that type of crowd noise."

Defensively, SIU played well enough to win. Patrick Jordan paved the way with 17 tackles, while Craig Turner and Brandin Jordan followed with 11 apiece.

"Things just didn't go our way," said Patrick Jordan, who also played his last game in a Saluki uniform. "It's tough for us seniors, but we had a great year. I'll always be proud to be a Saluki."

Southern Illinois also had five sacks, including two by first-team all-Gateway Conference defensive end Lorenzo Wims.

SIU ends a season with nine or more wins for the fourth year in a row. The Salukis also made the post-season four-straight times, and they were eliminated in the quarterfinals their last two trips.

"We've knocked on the door four years in a row," said Kill. "We're going to work on knocking on the door a fifth time, and see if we can go a little farther."

"I know we'll learn a lot from this. We're all very competitive people, and we'll take this and learn from it. It will make us better."

SOUTHERN ILLINOIS HEAD COACHING HISTORY

William McAndrew
1913-16, 1921-38
Record: 83-79-20

Hired at SINU in 1913 to develop a physical education department "for boys," McAndrew organized the athletics program, which previously had "club teams" and occasionally an approved team.

He served as head coach, with the exception of years spent in the armed forces and while pursuing a second degree, until 1938. The stadium was built in 1938 and named in his honor in 1943, shortly after his death.

Sam Patterson
Record: 2-2

Sam Patterson was a volunteer coach for SINU, and he filled in for one season after William McAndrew joined the armed forces during World War I.

William Lodge

Like Patterson, Lodge was a fill-in for McAndrew. He also coached the basketball team and served as acting athletic director.

Glenn (Abe) Martin
1939-49
Record: 31-42-5

Abe Martin starred on the university's only unbeaten football team in 1930 and became the first alumnus to play professional football, competing for the Chicago Cardinals in 1932.

As coach at SINU, Martin's biggest milestone was guiding the 1947 team to a victory in the Corn Bowl.

In addition to coaching football, Martin was SINU's interim athletics director and head basketball coach in 1943 before eventually being named AD in 1945. He also revived the baseball program in 1947.

Bill Waller
1950-51
Record: 3-14-1

A Benton, Ill., native, Waller was an Illinois graduate who played professional football and baseball.

William O'Brien
1952-54
Record: 6-20

O'Brien lettered in football, baseball and track at SINU in the early 1940s.

After a stint in the Marine Corps, he returned to SIU in 1952 and was named head football coach at the age of 29. He coached until 1954, when he became director of SIU's Outdoor Recreation Department and embarked on a career in football officiating.

O'Brien had a long and productive career in the National Football League as a referee, and was an observer for the NFL until 1990.

Al Kawal
1955-58
Record: 20-15-2

Before arriving at SIU, Kawal had eight years of head coaching experience at Drake and Temple.

The native Chicagoan, had his best year in 1958, posting a 7-2 record, including a key, 32-31 win over Western Illinois. He was unbeaten in four seasons at SIU against Eastern Illinois and was 3-1 vs. Northern Illinois.

Carmen Piccone
1959-63
Record: 28-20

The 30-year old Piccone joined Southern Illinois' staff as an assistant coach in 1955 after serving under Al Kawal as an assistant at Temple.

Piccone had been a star quarterback at Temple and captained its 1952 team.

In five seasons at SIU, his teams never lost to Illinois State (4-0), Central Michigan (4-0) or Eastern Michigan (3-0).

His 1960 squad won the IIAC championship with a perfect 6-0 record.

Don Shroyer
1964-65
Record: 4-16

Shroyer joined SIU in 1964 after two seasons with the football St. Louis Cardinals.

His only wins at SIU were over Louisville, Drake, Northern Iowa and SW Missouri State.

He returned to the Cardinals and primarily helped develop former Saluki standout quarterback Jim Hart.

Ellis Rainsberger
1966
Record: 4-5-1

Rainsberger came to SIU after serving as an assistant at Kansas. He left the Salukis after one season to become an assistant at Illinois, where he spent six years. Rainsberger later moved on to the Canadian Football League.

HARD HAT + LUNCH PAIL = CHAMPIONSHIPS

Dick Towers
1967-73
Record: 30-37-2

Towers was promoted to head coach after just one year as an assistant at SIU.

His teams battled top competition including, Louisville, East Carolina and Oklahoma State. Towers' teams posted three seasons above .500, three below and one at 5-5. After leaving SIU, he returned to Kansas and later served as athletics director at Kansas State.

Doug Weaver
1974-75
Record: 3-18-1

Weaver was named athletics director at SIU in 1973 and added the head football coaching duties the following year.

Weaver had been an assistant at Michigan State, Missouri, Kansas and UCLA, and head coach at Kansas State prior to SIU.

He resigned at SIU following the 1975 season to become the athletics director at Michigan State, where he served until retiring in 1990.

Rey Dempsey
1976-83
Record: 54-37

Dempsey had a reputation for rebuilding programs and had turned around the football fortunes at Youngstown State immediately prior to taking over SIU.

The Salukis became a player at the national level during his eight-year stay, winning big games against Temple, East Carolina, Fresno State, Marshall, Tulsa, West Texas and New Mexico State.

His lone loss to Wichita State in 1983 cost the Salukis a Missouri Valley Conference championship, but better things were to come as the Salukis won the National Championship, and Dempsey was named Division I-AA "Coach of the Year."

Dempsey left Southern within a week of winning the national title and took over the football program at Memphis State.

He resigned after several years at Memphis to become a full-time minister in the Columbus, Ohio, area where he still resides.

Ray Dorr
1984-87
Record: 17-27

Dorr had the difficult task of succeeding Dempsey.

His 1986 team was a pleasant surprise as it was perfect against Ohio Valley teams. A one-point loss at Kansas, after taking a late lead, will be remembered as one of the toughest defeats in the school history. His teams were 3-1 against both Eastern Illinois and Illinois State.

Rick Rhodes
1988
Record: 4-7

Although credited with upgrading the program, the genial Rhodes resigned just two months after his first season ended.

He returned "home" to Alabama where he joined the Crimson Tide's staff. He later became an assistant at Kentucky, and in 1993 was named head coach at McNeese State.

Bob Smith
1989-93
Record: 17-38

In five seasons at SIU, Smith's teams and players established numerous offensive records.

One of the most remarkable accomplishments of his five-year tenure came in 1991 when the Salukis managed to post a 7-4 record by winning the first five games of the season, rising as high as #15 in the national polls. The 1991 team was adept at winning close games, as six of its seven wins came by a total of just 14 points. The club won three games by a single point.

Shawn Watson
1994-96
Record: 11-22

Watson took over at SIU after putting in impressive seasons as an assistant at Miami (Ohio). His first team avoided a winless season when it upset a good Western Kentucky club, 10-7. Following the 1-10 start, his teams recorded back-to-back 5-6 seasons in 1995 and 1996. His final club in 1996 got off to a 4-1 start before a five-game losing streak and 5-6 overall finish.

Jan Quarless
1997-2000
Record: 14-30

Quarless became SIU's 18th head coach in January, 1997. He had previously served as an assistant with the Salukis from 1977 through 1982 under Rey Dempsey.

Although his first team was 3-8, his 1999 club went 5-6 and set a new SIU scoring record.

Jerry Kill
2001-Present
Record: 43-30

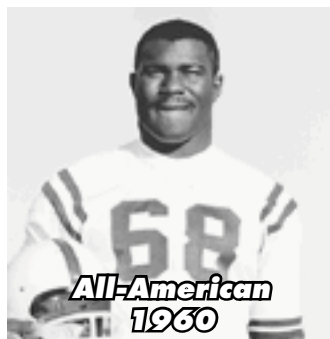

Jerry Kill became the Salukis' 19th head coach in December, 2000.

Now in his seventh year at the helm of SIU, Kill has guided the Salukis to three-straight Gateway Conference championships and four-straight Playoff appearances. In 2004, the Salukis spent 10 weeks atop the I-AA polls, and Kill won the Eddie Robinson Award for Coach of the Year in I-AA.

1983 NCAA FOOTBALL I-AA NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

Nineteen eighty-three. For many Southern Illinoisans, that year brings back more than just memories of Michael Jackson, Ronald Reagan and big hair.

It was the year that the Southern Illinois University football team put together a dominating and magical run to take the Division I-AA National Championship.

After just missing an undefeated regular-season with a loss to Division I-A Wichita State in the regular-season finale, the Dawgs marched through the playoffs, outscoring their three opponents by an average of 23 points, capped by a 43-7 thrashing of Western Carolina in the National Championship game.

The Salukis finished that campaign with a sparkling 13-1 record, by far the best mark in SIU history. Fans were inspired to record a song about the team and carry the goal posts from McAndrew Stadium to the Strip on two occasions.

But has it really been 20+ years? Believe it or not, more than two decades have passed since SIU won it all.

"Even though time is flying by," said then-SIU coach Rey Dempsey, "it's still amazing it's been 20 years."

"Sometimes it seems like 100 years ago," said that team's starting quarterback, Rick Johnson. "And sometimes it seems like yesterday. It's kind of weird."

The team celebrated the 20th anniversary of that magical season with a reunion at McAndrew Stadium on Sept. 27, 2003 when SIU played St. Joseph's. Approximately 50 players from that team attended the game and reminisced about what was indisputably the greatest football team in school history.

The '83 Salukis had it all

Rick Johnson

— chemistry, dedication, talent and a confidence that was there from the get-go.

"I recall friends saying 'I heard you are going to have a good team,'" Dempsey said of the weeks leading to the '83 season. "My reply was, 'I think we're going to win a I-AA championship.'"

"We thought we were that good coming in. In general, we agreed among ourselves we were going to do it."

That confidence was a direct result of the team's unparalleled unity and preparation. Dempsey and his staff set the tone.

"We were close knit as a team and staff," Dempsey said. "That looks easy to do, but that is a hard thing to do."

"The guy never slept," Johnson said of Dempsey.

"We felt nobody was going to outwork us as a staff," Dempsey said. "And our players worked very hard. It all starts from the top. If you work hard, they will work hard."

"You always had the sense that someone had your back," Johnson said. "We all hung out together. When you get that, everything starts to work together."

Ironically, despite being so dominant, the Salukis were not a team of superstars. There was no, one, star player, just a focused group of team-players with one common goal.

"You can name any player on the team," Dempsey told Greg Hardwig of the Southern Illinoisian in 1997, "and you can say 'Hey, he was very vital to us.'"

"You give credit to coach Dempsey," said tailback Sterling Haywood, "he kept us humble."

None of the players' individual stats jump out at you. But the only stat that really mattered

Terry Taylor

2007 SALUKI FOOTBALL

HARD HAT + LUNCH PAIL = CHAMPIONSHIPS

certainly does — SIU averaged 32.6 points per game that season and gave up just 14.3.

"I think 28 of those were scored by the defense," Johnson said, half-seriously. "Our defense was awesome. We just had studs."

Primarily in their secondary, which featured cornerbacks Terry Taylor and Donnell Daniel. Taylor went on to be a first-round NFL draft pick and have a, 11-year career.

"With Terry Taylor," Johnson said, "you could see the fear in the quarterback's eyes."

The duo were also dangerous on special teams, as Taylor specialized in blocking kicks, while Daniel was a threat on punt returns.

Safeties Greg Shipp and B.T. Thomas joined them in a secondary that picked off seven West Carolina passes in the National Championship game.

Linebackers Granville Butler, Fabray Collins, Dan Wetzel and Mike Brascia, plus linemen Ed Norman, Ken Foster and Haywood rounded out the unit.

SIU's offense was solid, but not spectacular, led by fifth-year senior Johnson. Their backfield featured tailback Derrick Taylor, fullback Corky Field and Terry Green. Wideouts James Stevenson and Cecil Ratliff were Johnson's primary targets, as were tight ends Cary Shephard and Carbondale native Mike O'Day.

"The defense was really good, but the offense put up a lot of points too," Haywood said.

Future NFL star Tom Baugh anchored a young offensive line at center, flanked by guards David Bock and Mark Banburry and tackles Ralph Van Dyke and John Cook.

The Salukis' success throughout the regular season can be attributed mostly to talent...and a little luck.

For the most part, SIU dominated. Wins over Western Illinois, Southeast Missouri State, Northern Iowa, Drake, Missouri

HARD HAT + LUNCH PAIL = CHAMPIONSHIPS

State, Indiana State and New Mexico State were all decided by at least two touchdowns.

But the second game of the year, a 17-14 win over defending Division II national champion Eastern Illinois, is considered by Johnson, Dempsey and Haywood as the flash point of the season.

A blocked punt by Frank Carr that was recovered in the end zone tied the game at 14 late, and freshman Ron Miller kicked a field goal to provide the margin of victory later.

"I think we were just a normal team until the Eastern game," Johnson said. "I think that was a turning point. It seemed like we could never beat them.

"That's when it was like 'That's it, there is no turning back. That's when our team got the swagger.'"

The Salukis pulled out two other close games during the regular season, coming back from a 28-21 halftime deficit to beat Arkansas State, and shocking Illinois State, 28-26.

The Redbirds held a 26-21 lead, and had the ball in Saluki territory late in the game.

The game appeared to be over. But a pair of bad snaps — thanks in large part to a noisy McAndrew Stadium crowd — forced the Redbirds to punt deep in their own territory. SIU then drove in for the game-winning touchdown on the ensuing series.

The only blemish of the season turned out to be a blessing. At 10-0 and ranked 20th overall in the country (I-A and I-AA) going into the regular-season finale, the Salukis were humbled.

Wichita State ruined SIU's perfect season with a 28-6 thumping, costing the Salukis the Missouri Valley Conference title.

Fortunately, the loss just made SIU stronger.

"They didn't panic after the Wichita State game," Dempsey said. "That made them angry.

"It was a wake-up call," Johnson said.

"We lost conference," Haywood said. "We blew that. We definitely didn't want to blow it in playoffs."

"I don't think it phased us one bit," Johnson said. "I think it missed us off."

Did it ever.

Despite the loss, the Salukis entered the playoffs as the No. 1 seed, getting a first round bye. With home field advantage, they rolled past Indiana State and Nevada-Reno by identical 23-7 scores to advance to the championship in Charleston, S.C.

The confidence displayed in the regular season only intensified before their showdown with West Carolina.

SIU was so ready for their opponent that coach Dempsey canceled a team meeting the night before the game.

"He said 'this game is over,'" Haywood said. "And he told us to go back to our hotel rooms."

The Salukis were so anxious the next morning that many of them skipped the pre-game meal.

"Some of the players asked if they could take their steak and put it in a bag," Dempsey said. "They were ready to play."

The Salukis were able to back up that swagger from the opening kickoff to the final seconds.

"To tell you the truth, it was total dominance," Haywood said.

The Salukis picked off seven

WCU passes in the game, and led 33-0 entering the fourth quarter. Johnson led the offense, completing 19-of-25 pass for 213 yards and three touchdowns in his final game at SIU.

"We thought it would be a very close game because they had tremendous speed and great coaching staff," Dempsey said. "But we never expected that big of a lead."

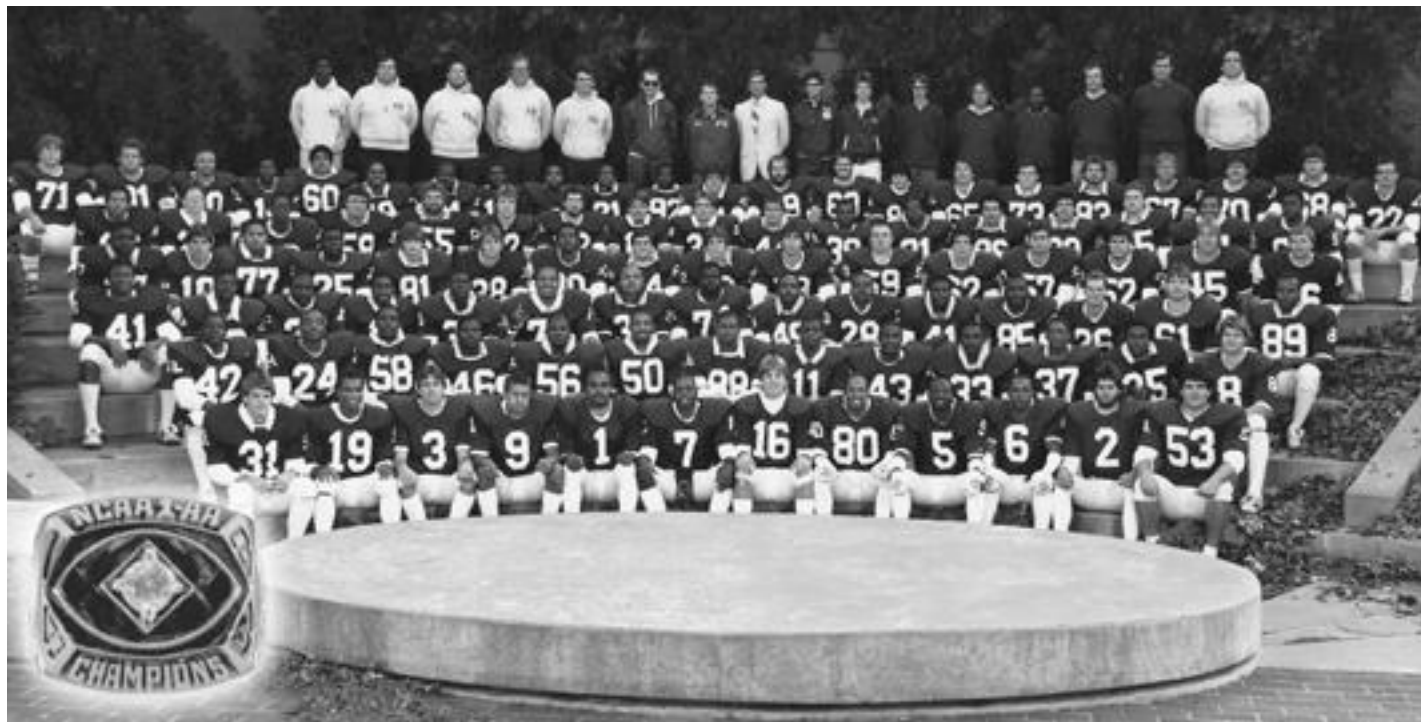

"They were determined they were going to win that game."

To listen to Dempsey and Johnson reflect on that season, one would guess it happened a few weeks ago. But it's been a while, and a lot has changed.

Johnson is now an actor, appearing in such films as Jerry Maguire, Any Given Sunday, and The Rock. Dempsey is a senior pastor at his church in Ohio.

But the Saluki program may be on the verge of going full circle.

Twenty-three years after winning the National Championship, the Salukis are among the preseason favorites to compete for a I-AA Playoff bid and the national title.

2003 I-AA PLAYOFFS

Delaware 48 Southern Illinois 7 November 29, 2003 McAndrew Stadium

NEWARK Del. — It was a nightmarish end to a dream of a season.

And in painfully ironic fashion, the very things that got the Southern Illinois University football team to the playoffs for the first time in 20 years were the things that led to its quick exit Saturday against eventual National Champion Delaware.

After giving up just 28 first quarter points through 11 regular-season games, the Salukis gave up 27 unanswered points in the first quarter alone.

And after turning the ball over 11 times all year, the Salukis coughed up the ball four times in the first half -- three of which led to touchdowns.

The result was a stunning 34-0 deficit midway through the second quarter.

The Salukis never recovered, as second-seeded Delaware went on to drub SIU, 48-7, in the first round of the I-AA tournament. SIU wound up turning the ball over six times in the game and also had a punt blocked which resulted in a touchdown.

"The strength of our football team all year was that we didn't turn the ball over," said SIU head coach Jerry Kill. "That didn't happen today. We've always been good in the kicking game. Those two things we didn't do well today."

"All the credit to Delaware," senior tailback Tom Koutsos said. "We got our butts kicked today, but we didn't help ourselves. All year we didn't have turnovers, blocked punts, stuff like that. Today, the ball didn't bounce our way. We made a lot of mistakes and shot ourselves in the foot more than anything."

SIU ended a memorable season in forgettable fashion, but things could have been much worse.

Trailing 41-7 late in the third quarter, quarterback Joel Sambursky was literally leveled by Delaware linebacker Brian McDermond.

Sambursky lay motionless on the ground for about 10 minutes, while his teammates convened on the sidelines for a prayer and the training staff tended to the injured Saluki. Sambursky had to be taken off the field on a stretcher and was taken to the hospital.

"I love the kid like a son, just like a I love all these kids like sons," Kill said. "Your heart just sinks, and the whole football team's heart sunk. But I also think Delaware's (heart) sunk. Nobody wants to see that."

"It was a very emotional, scary moment," said wide receiver Brent Little. "He's the leader of the team. To see him down like that was very scary."

Fortunately, Sambursky was fine, though he did not return.

The stat sheet would indicate a close game: Delaware had 340 yards of total offense to SIU's 303.

"The more physical football team won today," Kill said. "I think they put a lot of pressure on us. They were very physical and I thought they caused a lot of those turnovers."

Muhammad Abdulqaadir led the Salukis with 87 yards rushing, passing the 1,000-yard barrier for the season. Koutsos had 27 yards rushing in the final game of his record-breaking career.

As disappointing as the Salukis final two games were, they still finished with a 10-2 record and a Gateway Conference title -- unthinkable accomplishments coming into the season.

"It was a good season," said senior linebacker Eric Egan, fighting back tears. "We've made huge strides in this program and it's going to continue to get better and continue to improve."

"I look for us to be back and better in the future," Kill said. "We've come a long way. This is just part of our educational process."

"I guarantee you we'll learn a lot from this and we'll be back."

2004 I-AA Playoffs

Eastern Washington 35 Southern Illinois 31

November 27, 2004
McAndrew Stadium

CARBONDALE, Ill. — In the end - on a rain-soaked field at McAndrew Stadium - the Salukis simply ran out of time.

Eastern Washington quarterback Erik Meyer threw to Eric Kimble over the middle -- and the receiver outran the SIU secondary to the end zone with 1:49 left - as the Eagles upset top-seeded Southern Illinois 35-31 in the first round of the NCAA Division I-AA Playoffs.

The game went back and forth in the last quarter, and the Salukis' final drive ended as Joel Sambursky's pass was knocked down at the EWU 20-yard-line as time expired.

"We had enough time, but we just didn't execute," Sam-bursky said. "And, they're a great football team."

The Salukis, who had an outstanding regular season, found themselves in a disappointing first-round loss in the postseason.

"We played a very good football team today, and we knew that going in," said Southern Illinois head coach Jerry Kill. "We didn't take them lightly. We played as hard as we can play, and they played better than we did today."

Darius Washington ran seven yards for a TD and put the Eagles up 28-24 with 13:37 remaining in the game. But, late in the quarter, Brandon Jacobs continued his dominant performance for SIU (10-2).

The Salukis - trailing 28-24 - began from their own one-yard-line after Alexis Moreland forced the ball out of Meyer's hands as the QB was attempting to score.

The drive began with a 15-yard steamroll by Jacobs - who took half of the EWU defense along for the ride. Eight plays later, Jacobs capped the drive with his fourth rushing TD of the game, and the Salukis led, 31-28, with only 2:37 remaining.

The bruising tailback scored four touchdowns and rushed for 166 yards in the game.

Sambursky and company had just marched 99 yards in nine plays, but Eastern Washington kept its focus and returned the favor. Unfortunately for SIU, Meyer had just a little too much time remaining.

SIU led 17-7 and had the momentum at halftime, but EWU changed the direction of the contest within the first minute of the second half.

On second down at the SIU 22, EWU safety Nick Denbeigh slipped in front of SIU's Micah Turner and picked off Sambursky's pass. On the very next play, Washington ran 23 yards for a score - and EWU moved to within three points at 17-14.

Meyer - the nation's top-rated QB - threw for a remarkable 437 yards and three touchdowns. The junior threw 31-of-44 with just one interception for EWU (9-3). Kimble caught 11 passes for 195 yards and three touchdowns.

"Offensively, we haven't played anybody like that," Kill said. "And certainly with their quarterback, he's about as good as it gets."

Sambursky was 14-of-31 with one pick for 163 yards. The junior signal caller had several gutsy running plays that resulted in 51 rushing yards.

After the game, a visibly upset Moreland probably echoed the sentiments of many people around the Southern Illinois area.

"I want to take my hat off to Eastern Washington," Moreland said. "They came out and beat the best team in the country today."

Kill expressed how proud he was of all of his players but especially for those who will not be coming back next year.

"We're certainly down about today, but there's been a heck of a lot accomplished here in a short time," Kill said. "I don't feel bad for myself, but I feel bad for the seniors."

"They gave a lot to this program, and they put us where we're at."

2005 I-AA Playoffs

Southern Illinois 21,
Eastern Illinois 6

Nov. 26, 2005

O'Brien Stadium

CHARLESTON, Ill. — Southern Illinois won its first I-AA Playoff game in 22 years, beating Eastern Illinois, 21-6.

Saluki fans had been waiting a long time for a playoff victory, and it showed. Of the estimated 5,000 in attendance at O'Brien Stadium, at least half were rooting for Southern Illinois, and their collective voices frequently drowned out the home team's fans.

"If not for the people of Southern Illinois, we don't win the game," Saluki head coach Jerry Kill said afterward.

Well, that's not entirely true. The gang in maroon & white did its share.

Southern Illinois (9-3) did not dominate the game, but it clearly won every phase of the contest, including the all-important special teams. Consider these facts.

SIU's offense featured three rushing touchdowns by Arkee Whitlock, plus a masterful 15-of-21 passing performance by quarterback Joel Sambursky.

The defense held Eastern Illinois (9-3) to 2.9 yards per rush attempt and did not allow a touchdown in three Panther trips inside the Saluki 20.

And the special teams delivered one of the game's biggest plays -- a blocked field goal late in the first half that stemmed Eastern's momentum after it had recovered a Sambursky fumble at the SIU 12.

"If you play good defense and do well in the kicking game, you have a chance to win games," Kill observed.

Immediately after the game, Kill and his coaching staff waited outside the locker room, giving the players a few minutes to celebrate the victory among themselves.

"We've got 22 seniors who have put a lot into this program," Kill said. "And this is their day today."

Sambursky said he and his fellow seniors aren't ready for the season to end.

"Right now, we're playing for a championship, but we're also playing because we still want to be with each other one more week," he said. "That's probably more powerful than a championship. We're fighting like crazy because we love each other."

Whitlock came up shy of his ninth 100-yard rushing game of the season, but he scored all three Saluki touchdowns.

Appalachian State 38,
Southern Illinois 24

Dec. 3, 2005,

BOONE, N.C. — Appalachian State delivered an early knockout punch to Southern Illinois and cruised to a 38-24 win in the quarterfinals of the I-AA Playoffs Saturday.

The #4-ranked Mountaineers (10-3), who extended their home winning streak to 17 games, jumped out to a 24-0 lead midway through the second quarter.

Spreading the field with four wide receivers, Appalachian State quarterback Richie Williams executed a short-passing attack to perfection, completing 12-of-15 passes for 214 yards in the first half alone. He finished with 367 passing yards and 3 touchdowns.

"(The Mountaineers) do an excellent job with the scheme they use, and they have an excellent trigger man," Saluki head coach Jerry Kill said.

Appalachian State's quarterback was clearly the difference-maker in the game. Saluki cornerback Brad Brachear said Williams, who also ran for 36 yards and a touchdown, was especially tough to defend because of his scrambling ability.

"He would scramble around a lot, and it made it hard to cover receivers for that long," said Brachear. "They have a lot of team speed, and (their receivers) just got open."

The Salukis (9-4) looked shell-shocked in falling behind by 24 points, but they did regroup. SIU closed the deficit to 24-10 on a field goal by Craig Coffin just before halftime and a 93-yard kickoff return by Craig Turner to start the second half.

But the three-time Gateway Conference champions never came closer than two touchdowns thereafter. Besides not being able to stop Williams, the Salukis stopped themselves on two early drives.

Quarterback Joel Sambursky was intercepted twice in the first half, ending promising drives at the Appalachian State 25 and 29 yardlines.

"I recruited these guys on chasing a dream to try and compete for a national championship," Kill said. "They bought in, and they gave me everything they have."

2007 SALUKI FOOTBALL

HARD HAT + LUNCH PAIL = CHAMPIONSHIPS

The Gateway Football Conference enters its 23rd year of existence in 2007 and has proven to be one of the nation's premier NCAA Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) leagues.

There's not much that has eluded the Gateway Football Conference in its first two decades of existence. The league's first 22 years have included national championships, national players of the year, national coaches of the year, No. 1 national rankings, and countless All-Americans.

In November 2006, the Gateway received a blow as Western Kentucky announced it would be leaving the conference to join the Sun Belt. In March 2007, however, the league announced the addition of North Dakota State and South Dakota State for 2008, which will help establish the Gateway's position in the FCS universe. With the addition of the two schools, the Gateway will feature six teams that were ranked in the final Sports Network top-25 poll in 2006.

"One can justifiably argue the Gateway is the strongest, deepest, and most respected FCS conference in the nation," said Patty Viverito. "The decision to add North Dakota State and South Dakota State leaves no doubt."

Last year, Youngstown State became the 12th different Gateway team to reach the semifinals of the FCS playoffs while earning its second-straight league title. The Penguins were joined in the playoff field by Illinois State and Southern Illinois marking only the second time in league history that the league had more than two teams qualify for the 16-team playoff field. SIU's Arkee Whitlock was a national player of the year award winner (College Sporting News) and was third in the Walter Payton Award balloting.

In 2005, UNI became the fourth Gateway school to reach the FCS championship game since 1997, while Southern Illinois and Western Kentucky combined to hold the nation's No. 1 ranking in the top-25 polls for five weeks.

In 2004, Southern Illinois spent a league-record 11 weeks as the nation's top-ranked team, while all eight Gateway teams received votes for the Top 25 at some point in the season. LB Boomer Grigsby of Illinois State earned a National Defensive Player of the Year honor, while SIU's Jerry Kill was National Coach of the Year.

In 2003, four Gateway teams represented the league in the 16-team NCAA playoffs, marking the first time any league has sent that many to the playoffs in the same year. And in 2002, Western Kentucky won the FCS championship.

Strong coaching and great players have helped make the league a national force, but the stability and leadership of Commissioner Patty Viverito -- the only commissioner the league has ever known -- has helped make the Gateway Conference a standard bearer on the FCS scene. Indeed, all signs point to continued national prominence for the league as it enters its 23rd season.

The Gateway Conference has two recent national championships (Western Kentucky - 2002; Youngstown State - 1997), and Gateway members YSU (3) and Southern Illinois (1) own additional titles prior to their Gateway membership, meaning six FCS championship trophies are housed on Gateway campuses, in addition to three (Youngstown State twice and UNI in 2005) runner-up finishes. Only five FCS leagues possess more than a single FCS championship trophy, and the Gateway Conference is among that elite.

Last year, the league was an impressive 21-16 against non-conference teams, which included a 16-7 record against FCS teams.

Media Information

Credentials

Credentials are required for entrance to the press box or access to the field (for photographers). To request season or single-game credentials, please contact media services.

Photographers

Please observe NCAA regulations and shoot from the designated areas. Photographers must shoot from behind the white lines between the 25-yard line and the back of the end zone on either side of the field.

Game Day Parking

Media working on deadline will receive a priority parking pass for the lot adjacent to the west side of the stadium (press box side).

All other media should park in Lot 89 next to Lingle Hall. No pass is required for this lot.

Postgame Procedure

Postgame interviews will take place in the interview room located on the northwest concourse of the stadium. The press box is equipped with ethernet, wireless internet and phone lines.

Football E-Mail List

If you would like to be added to the Saluki football e-mail list to receive breaking news about the team, please e-mail Tom Weber or Jeff Honza.

Interviews During the Week

Players and coaches are available after practice on Tuesdays and Wednesdays. Please let the media services staff know if you plan to attend practice.

All Gateway Conference head coaches will participate in a weekly teleconference, which takes place on Wednesday mornings. Please contact Mike Kern, (314) 244-2326, at the conference office for further information.
