Series versus South Dakota State

The teams have met eight times since the series began in 2008. After winning the first two meetings, the Salukis have lost five of the last six to the Jackrabbits. They are 1-3 at home against South Dakota State, winning in 2008, 38-35, on a Kyle Dougherty 28-yard field goal with 2:59 to play, followed by an interception by James Wheeler that helped seal the victory.

Five Saluki losses by an average of four points

The Salukis have lost five games by an average margin of four points. They held second-half leads of a touchdown or more in four of those losses. Last week versus Western Illinois, SIU led by 17 points heading into the fourth quarter before losing by three points on a field goal with 12 seconds remaining.

Salukis on record pace for first downs

SIU's offense averages 25.2 first downs per game, which is on pace to break the school record of 24.8 first downs set by the 2015 team. Southern recorded 70 first downs in Weeks 3-4. The 37 versus SEMO was a school record and the 33 versus South Dakota ranked fourth all-time.

WR Raphael Leonard — MVFC Receptions leader

WR Raphael Leonard (6-2, 193, Sr.) leads the MVFC with 52 receptions, which ranks eighth all-time in school history and is the most by a Saluki wide receiver since Billy Reed caught 56 passes in 2015. He has caught at least one pass in all 20 games he has played at Southern. Prior to SIU, Leonard played at East Mississippi Community College in 2016, where he was part of Season 2 of the popular Netflix documentary Last Chance U.

QB Matt DeSomer takes over at QB

QB Matt DeSomer (6-0, 215, Sr.) took over the starting spot for the Salukis during Weeks 7-8 (He also started Week 5 at Youngstown State when Sam Straub was injured). He is 1-4 as a starting quarterback. In the last two weeks, DeSomer has completed 33-of-49 passes for 414 yards, setting new career passing highs in both games. He rallied SIU with four-unanswered touchdowns in a 49-35 win over Missouri State and also ran the ball 14 times for 92 yards.

DeSomer has played quarterback, wide receiver, safety and special teams during his 39-game career at SIU. His career stats include 892 rushing yards, 1,004 passing yards, 110 receiving yards, eight rushing touchdowns, nine passing touchdowns and seven tackles.

S Jeremy Chinn steps in at cornerback

Due to injuries in the secondary, S Jeremy Chinn (6-2, 211, Jr.) has started the last two games at cornerback, as the Salukis have played without their top four corners. In the last 21 games, Chinn has seven interceptions and six forced fumbles. A preseason All-MVFC pick, he is tied for second all-time at Southern in forced fumbles (6), trailing only Tyler Williamson (8, 2012-14).

RB D.J. Davis — second in MVFC All-Purpose Yardage

RB D.J. Davis (5-8, 168, Jr.) is a prolific rusher, receiver and return man, who is second in the league in All-Purpose yardage per game (136.3). He is fifth all-time at SIU with 3,828 career all-purpose yards (1,419 rushing, 709 receiving, 1,683 return). He opened the season with four-straight 100-yard rushing games and has five on the season. The last Saluki with five 100-yard games in a season was Malcolm Agnew in 2014.

Faith, Family, Football — The story of Withney Simon

OLB Withney Simon (5-11, 224, Sr.) is the son of Haitian immigrants who moved to Orlando when he was eight. Simon only spoke Creole at the time. In eighth grade, he pleaded with his parents to let him play football. His mom was supportive — his dad was opposed. They finally gave in, under the condition that God and family would still rank above football on his priority list. So while other kids would go home after practice, Simon took a bus downtown to his night job as a janitor that helped sustain the family of seven.

As a senior in high school, the highly rated Simon was expecting a scholarship offer from Conference USA member Florida Atlantic. When it didn't come, he went to church to pray about the situation. While he was sitting in the pew, a text message came through from SIU offensive coordinator Nick Hill. He believed it was a sign and immediately committed

ZeVeyon Furcron switches from D-line to O-line

G ZeVeyon Furcron (6-0, 308, So.) started eight games at defensive tackle in 2017, but switched to offense in the spring and has started every game at left guard this season. Furcron last started at offensive line at Joliet Catholic High School (IL). Head coach Nick Hill said he brings a "physicality" to the O-line.

Quick Facts

Carbondale is located in the southern tip of the state — about a five-hour drive south of Chicago and two hours southeast of St. Louis...Many of SIU's alums are concentrated in those two cities... The Southern Illinois region is informally known as "Little Egypt," hence the adoption of the Saluki (an Egyptian hunting dog) as the school mascot.

AD Jerry Kill

Athletic Director Jerry Kill was the head football coach at SIU from 2001 to 2007, leading the Salukis to five-straight appearances in the Football Championship Subdivision and winning three straight Gateway Football Conference Championships. While at SIU he also received the prestigious Eddie Robinson National Coach of the Year Award in 2004 and the Liberty Mutual Coach of the Year Award in 2007.

He left SIU to serve as head coach at Northern Illinois from 2008 to 2010, delivering three bowl-eligible teams. Kill went on to become head coach at Minnesota from 2011 to 2015. While there, he was named 2014 Big Ten Coach of the Year, sent three teams to bowl games and produced six NFL draft picks. He served as associate athletic director at Kansas State University in 2016 and offensive coordinator at Rutgers University in 2017, retiring from coaching in December due to health issues.

Kill inherited a program at SIU that had two winning seasons in its previous 15 years. His 2007 team, quarterbacked by Nick Hill, advanced to the semifinals in the playoffs, where SIU lost to Joe Flacco and Delaware. Hill played for Kill from 2005-07.

Coach Kill connections

Four assistant coaches on Southern's staff have direct ties to Coach Kill.

- ♦ Safeties coach Marty Rodgers played for Kill at SIU in his first two seasons, 2006 and 2007.
- ♦ Offensive line coach Trevor Olson played for Kill at Northern Illinois.
- ♦ Olson and running backs coach Nate Griffin were on the quality control staff under Kill at Minnesota before Hill hired them at SIU.
- ♦ Tight ends coach and co-special teams coordinator Pat Poore was an assistant coach under Kill at SIU, Northern Illinois and Minnesota.
- ♦ Defensive coordinator Kraig Paulson coached against Kill and Hill in 2006. Paulson was the defensive coordinator at Montana, leading it to a 20-3 win over the Salukis in the second round of the 2006 FCS Playoffs.

King Tut's Tomb

King Tut was the school's first live Saluki mascot after the nickname change from Maroons to Salukis in 1951. King Tut died in 1954 after being struck by a car, and a concrete pyramid marked his burial at McAndrew Stadium. The marker was moved to its current spot outside Saluki Stadium in 2010. Before each home game, the Salukis walk from their locker room and pat Tut's Tomb for good luck.

Walt Frazier — The Rest of the Story

Most people know that Southern's most famous basketball alum is Walt Frazier (1964-67). What they don't know is the story of how the Atlanta native ended up in Carbondale.

Basketball was Frazier's second-best sport in high school. He was offered a scholarship to play quarterback at Georgia Tech, but he didn't want to play football. Frazier went on a recruiting visit to SIU in 1963 and met with AD Donald Boydston, who was progressive about recruiting minorities during a time when southern schools rarely recruited them. According to Boydston, Frazier didn't say one word the whole trip, but called shortly after he took the train back to Atlanta to say he was enrolling at SIU.

Frazier was dismissed from the team for academic issues after his sophomore year. He went back to Atlanta and got a job doing manual labor. Frazier called in August of 1965 and asked if he could come back. He was not eligible for a scholarship, so he paid his own way and sat out his junior year, making the Dean's List. He played on the practice team, and sometimes they would beat the varsity. The 1966-67 storybook season saw Frazier lead the team to the NIT National Championship, beating Marquette in the finals. He turned pro after the season.

Basketball powerhouse, 2002-07

SIU's most successful run in college basketball took place from 2002-07 when it made six-straight NCAA Tournament appearances, including Sweet 16s in 2002 and 2007. Head coaches during that span were Bruce Weber, Matt Painter and Chris Lowery.

Entering his third season at the helm of Saluki Football, 33-year-old Nick Hill has brought the perfect balance of leadership, energy, and creativity needed to re-energize the program.

A native son of southern Illinois, Hill's journey to the top job at SIU started 15 years ago and just 20 miles north of campus, where he was a football and basketball icon at DuQuoin High School.

During his senior year of high school in 2002-03, Hill was the area's Player of the Year in both sports and guided the Indians to the Illinois High School Association 3A state championship football game.

The legend continued on the hardwood where Hill averaged 23 points as a senior at DuQuoin and chose Western Kentucky from a host of Division I offers. A broken hand prematurely ended his freshman season at Western but ultimately led him home.

In the spring of 2004, Hill transferred to SIU to switch sports and play football under head coach Jerry Kill, just as the program was beginning its rapid rise to the top of the league standings.

"I took a leap of faith with Coach Kill," Hill recalled. "Everyone needs someone who believes in him and for me, that someone was Coach Kill."

Hill initially sat behind league Player of the Year Joel Sambursky, before taking over the starting job in 2006. In two seasons as the starter, he went 21-6 and set the school record for passing yards in 2007. He still holds the best completion percentage (68.3) in school history.

Highlights of Hill's playing career include guiding Southern to a win at Indiana in 2006, in which he passed for four touchdowns as SIU became the league's first team to defeat a Big Ten opponent. Hill capped off his career in 2007 by leading the team to the Final Four of the playoffs, where the Salukis ultimately lost a 20-17 heartbreaker to Joe Flacco and Delaware. He was also a finalist for the Peyton Award in '07.

Hill played six seasons of professional football, mostly in the Arena Football League, where he played for head coach Jay Gruden, now the head coach of the NFL's Washington Redskins. Hill also had brief free-agent stints with the Chicago Bears in 2008 and Green Bay Packers in 2012.

Playing for Gruden, one of the game's top offensive minds, helped shape Hill's offensive philosophy. First as Southern's offensive coordinator and now as head coach, Hill has refined his own unique style of offense that combines elements of Air Raid, spread and up-tempo.

In his first season at SIU, Saluki quarterbacks broke a school record for single-season touchdown passes with 29. The following year in 2015, Southern's offense averaged 498 yards per game -- the second most in conference history. Quarterback Mark Iannotti led the nation in total offense per game.

In 2016, the Salukis set program records for passing completions, attempts and yards while only throwing seven interceptions. Southern Illinois ranked in the top-10 nationally for passing offense, total offense and scoring offense for nearly the entire year.

The offense was on its way to surpassing those marks in 2017 before starting quarterback Sam Straub was injured early in the eighth game and missed the remainder of the season.

First as Southern's offensive coordinator, and now as head coach, Hill has refined his own unique style of offense that combines elements of Air Raid, spread and up-tempo.

Hill has assembled a talented mix of veteran assistant coaches and young, up-and-comers. Defensive coordinator Kraig Paulson was the architect behind Montana's defense during a stretch from 2004-09 when the Grizzlies won six-straight conference championships and advanced to the national championship game three times. Tight ends and special teams coach Pat Poore is a former Kill assistant who was a key figure in Southern's initial rebuild.

"I know what the blueprint looks like for our program to be successful, going back to my playing days for Coach Kill, and I know we can get there," Hill said. "Coaching my alma mater is a dream come true. I love everything about this region and what it stands for, that blue-collar mentality. This is not my team. This is our team. Our program is going to invest in the community and make us proud on and off the field."

Hill and wife, Alicia, a former volleyball player at SIU, reside in Carbondale and have two daughters, Skylar and Charley. His brother, former Saluki quarterback A.J. Hill, is now the head coach at DuQuoin High School.
