Southern Illinois University's Charlotte West Stadium was completed in 2003, and has quickly earned a reputation as one of the finest softball facilities in the country, as well as being a tough venue for opponents.

Since its opening on March 1, 2003, the Salukis have recorded a .763 (213-79) winning percentage in their home facility.

The stadium is named after Dr. Charlotte West, who retired as SIU's associate athletics director in 1998 after serving the University for 42 years as a faculty member, coach and administrator.

She began her faculty career at SIU in 1957 as an instructor in the department of physical education. She became a full professor in 1973 and developed SIU's graduate program in sport management, which she directed until June 1991.

From 1960 until 1986, West was the director of intercollegiate athletics for women. She helped transform the department from its meager beginnings into a nationally-recognized program with a budget of more than $1 million for 11 sports.

After the 1986 merger of the men's and women's athletics departments, West served as associate athletics director for one year, interim director for a year and associate athletics director for 10 years.

The $1.7 million stadium was officially opened on March 15, 2003 with a 9-0 win over Bradley, in front of a crowd of 395 fans.

In 12 years of existence, Charlotte West Stadium has served as the host of the MVC Softball Championship four times (2004, 2008, 2012 and 2016). It also played host to the NCAA Regionals in 2007.

The state-of-the-art facility holds 502 fans and is one of the finest in the Midwest.

The stadium features chair back and bleacher seating, a concession area, restrooms, lights, large dugouts, a training room, full-size lockers in a carpeted locker room, a large electronic scoreboard, coaches' office, two batting cages, an irrigation system and a spacious, elevated press box with phone and ethernet connections.

The Stadium field consists of a four-way sports turf mix outfield with a Bermuda/rye mix primary and Crimson Stone Ultimate Series Infield, which is illuminated by a top-of-the-line lighting system for night games.

On May 1, 2016 Southern Illinois University honored long time softball coach Kay Brechtelsbauer by naming the field after her.

Coach B coached the Salukis for 32 years, compiling 633 wins, putting her in fourth place for most wins in MVC history. She is one of two coaches in the program's history and was named coach of the year in the conference in 1991 and in 1997. Brechtelsbauer took five teams to the College World Series.

KERRI BLAYLOCK

HEAD COACH • 22ND SEASON

The all-time winningest coach in Southern Illinois softball history, Kerri Blaylock enters her 22nd season at the helm of the Salukis. She also served as the Senior Woman Administrator for Saluki Athletics during 2020.

During her tenure, SIU has advanced to the NCAA postseason seven times, which includes being the only program in conference history to make five-straight trips from 2003-07. Southern earned an at-large bid to the 2019 NCAA Tournament, which marked the second time in the last three seasons that the Salukis have advanced to a NCAA Regional.

Blaylock's Salukis have posted 17 30-win seasons, including four 40-win seasons and a program-best 47 wins in 2005. The 2019 team won 17 conference games, the program's most since 2005, and posted a winning record in conference play for the 24th-straight season. SIU has compiled a 708-391-1 record under Blaylock and continues to reach new heights.

One of the winningest active Division I coaches in softball today, Blaylock has guided SIU to national prominence throughout her distinguished career. The 2003 team earned SIU's first-ever NFCA/USA Today Top-25 ranking, and the following season Southern opened and finished the 2004 season ranked in the NFCA Top-25 Coaches poll. All told, SIU has won five conference titles and made eight NCAA Tournament appearances with Blaylock on the staff.

As a head coach, Blaylock has led SIU to four MVC titles with seven NCAA Tournament appearances while producing 98 All-Conference selections. She holds a .671 winning percentage in MVC games (321-157) and has been a member of five MVC Coaching Staffs of the Year. She is the fastest coach in MVC history to reach 500 wins overall and 250 MVC wins. On Feb. 23, 2018, Blaylock became the program's all-time winningest coach with a 5-4, 10-inning win over UConn. The Salukis run-ruled Purdue Fort Wayne, 9-0 in six innings on Feb. 28, 2020 for Blaylock's 700th career win as head coach. The Herrin, Ill. native is the quickest to reach the 700-win milestone in Missouri Valley Conference history and is one of only three coaches in conference history to win 700-plus games.

SIU has led the Valley in team earned run average 11 times since 1993 and have finished in the top-3 in the league in the category in 15 of head coach Kerri Blaylock's 21 seasons at the helm. Southern led the league in strikeouts for five consecutive years from 1998 to 2002, setting an MVC record with 500 strikeouts in 2000. The Salukis have also produced four Missouri Valley Conference Pitchers of the Year in Erin Stremsterfer (2001), Amy Harre (2005), Cassidy Scoggins (2006) and Danielle Glosson (2010) during that stretch and Blaylock has been on the coaching staff at SIU for 30 no-hitters.

In addition to Southern's on-field success, Blaylock's teams have consistently ranked among the nation's best in the classroom as well. SIU has ranked among the top 20 nationally in team GPA every season since 2001 with seven top-five finishes. The Salukis ranked second nationally for team GPA in both 2007 and 2011. SIU players have earned 89 MVC Scholar-Athlete awards and 12 Academic All-America honors under Blaylock. The Salukis have also tallied 26 Academic All-Americans, second to only Nebraska for the most of any DI softball program. The NCAA began giving out Public Recognition Awards in 2003 for programs in the top-10 percent in their sport in APR over each four-year rolling period. SIU was the first MVC softball program to earn the distinction, and Blaylock's programs have earned the honor a league-best seven times.

YEAR-BY-YEAR AT SIU

Blaylock took the reins of the program in 2000 after the retirement of Kay Brechtelsbauer, who coached SIU for 32 years. Blaylock served nine seasons as an assistant under Brechtelsbauer, including five as the team's pitching coach.

Saluki softball didn't falter during the transition from Brechtelsbauer to Blaylock. As a first-year head coach in 2000, Blaylock led SIU to a 41-22 record, the first 40-win season since the Salukis went 41-16 in 1997. SIU has finished in the top half the MVC in each of the 16 seasons since.

SIU finished in the top three in the MVC each year from 2001-03 with Blaylock's staff earning MVC Coaching Staff of the Year in both 2002 and 2003. Individually, SIU had the MVC's Rookie of the Year in both 2002 (Amy Harre) and 2003 (Katie Louis). The 2003 Salukis went 39-14 and earned the program's first NCAA Tournament bid since 1991. SIU advanced to the Regional final in the 2003 NCAA Tournament for the program's first-ever Sweet 16 appearance.

Blaylock broke through with her first MVC championship as a head coach in 2004, setting a then-program record for wins with a 45-17 overall record with an 18-6 mark in the Valley. The Salukis followed up by setting a new MVC record for wins in 2005 that still stands today. SIU went 47-14 and set a program record for conference wins with a 24-3 mark in the Valley to win its second-consecutive MVC title. The 2004 and 2005 teams both advanced to the NCAA Tournament and Blaylock's staff also made it four-straight seasons by being named the MVC's Staff of the Year in 2004 and 2005.

SIU earned at-large bids to the NCAA Tournament in both 2006 and 2007, becoming the only program in MVC history to reach five-consecutive NCAA Tournaments. The 2007 squad spent a school-record 13-consecutive weeks ranked in the top 25 nationally, including a program-best No. 18 ranking.

SIU finished third in the MVC in 2008 with Lauren Haas earning the program's first Valley Player of the Year honor since 1997. In 2009, SIU had its best start in school history at 13-1 and went on to finish second in the MVC. The Salukis made it back into the national rankings again in 2009, tying a program-best by elevating as high as No. 18.

The 2010 season saw SIU climb back atop the MVC standings for the third Valley title of the Blaylock era, and the program was rewarded with its fifth MVC Coaching Staff of the Year honor under Blaylock. The Salukis followed up with a pair of 36-win seasons in 2011 and 2012 as Mallory Duran-Sellers became the second MVC Player of the Year under Blaylock in 2012.

The program won 74 games between 2013-15, including a third-place finish in the MVC in the 2014 campaign. Blaylock's 2016 team again led the MVC in ERA and won 33 games, including 15 in league play. The 2016 team swept Illinois State for the first time since 2005 and won the series over Northern Iowa for the first time since 2010.

In 2017, Blaylock led the Salukis to the Missouri Valley Conference Tournament Championship and the seventh NCAA Tournament appearance in school history. Southern posted a 33-24 record with wins over Missouri State, Illinois State and UNI on the way to the conference tournament title. The Salukis faced off against Ole Miss and North Carolina in the Oxford Regional of the NCAA Tournament. Blaylock also recorded her 600th career victory that season in a 4-2 victory over Michigan State.

In 2018, the Herrin, Ill. native led the Salukis to their third-straight 30-win season, and the 16th 30-win season in her 19 seasons as SIU's skipper. Southern also advanced to the MVC Championship game for the second-straight season and the Salukis led the Missouri Valley Conference in runs, home runs and runs batted in. It marked the first time since 2005 that Southern led the league in round-trippers.

The 2019 season was yet another banner year for the program. SIU reached the 30-win plateau for the 17th time in the last 20 seasons, posted their most conference wins (17) since 2005 and earned the program's 12th trip to the NCAA Tournament. Southern also posted the third-best fielding percentage in the nation and won a NCAA Regional game for the first time since 2007 with a walk-off win over Detroit Mercy.

Southern rebounded to win 15 of its final 16 games, which included nine-straight wins, to close out the 2020 season. The Salukis went 15-6 overall and were leading the Missouri Valley Conference in fielding percentage (.977), fewest runs allowed (66) and were second in earned run average (2.77) before the season was brought to a halt.

BACKGROUND

Blaylock had a stellar playing career in addition to her coaching successes. She was considered one of the top three pitchers in the state as a prep at nearby Herrin High School, according to the Chicago Tribune, compiling a record of 65-7 from 1980-84. She set marks for wins and strikeouts for Herrin High and became the first female athlete ever selected to the Herrin High School Hall of Fame in 1992.

Following her successful prep career, Blaylock attended the University of Evansville, where she developed into one of the Aces' all-time leading hurlers. During her career, she put together a record of 77-48 with a 1.54 ERA and struck out 365 hitters in 857.2 innings of work. Blaylock still holds virtually all of Evansville's pitching records.

Blaylock excelled as a student-athlete both on and off the field at UE. As a junior, she was named a GTE Academic All-American, and in 1988, she was named the Midwestern Collegiate Conference Player of the Year. Evansville recognized Blaylock's success on the diamond by inducting her into the school's Hall of Fame in 1995.

After graduating from Evansville in 1988 with a bachelor's degree in accounting, Blaylock attended Southeast Missouri State University where she began her coaching career as a graduate assistant. She later received a master's degree in 1991 in business administration.

JEN SEWELL

ASSOCIATE H.C. • 13TH SEASON

Jen Sewell enters her 13th year at Southern Illinois University and her 11th season as the associate head coach in 2021.

Sewell serves as the team's hitting coach while also working with infield and catchers. Additionally, Sewell works SIU camps and clinics and assists in recruiting and opponent scouting. Sewell serves as the team's hitting coach while also working with infield and catchers. Additionally, Sewell works SIU camps and clinics and assists in recruiting and opponent scouting.

Sewell has transformed SIU into one of the best hitting teams in the MVC. The Salukis went 15-6 overall in 2020 and were leading the Missouri Valley Conference in fielding percentage (.977), fewest runs allowed (66) and were second in earned run average (2.77) before the season was brought to a halt.

The 2019 season was yet another banner year for the program. SIU reached the 30-win plateau for the 17th time in the last 20 seasons, posted their most conference wins (17) since 2005 and earned the program's 12th trip to the NCAA Tournament. Southern also posted the third-best fielding percentage in the nation and won a NCAA Regional game for the first time since 2007 with a walk-off win over Detroit Mercy.

In 2018, the Salukis led the Missouri Valley Conference in runs, home runs and runs batted in and finished second in the league in walks and slugging percentage. It marked the first time since 2005 that Southern led the league in round-trippers while Southern's second place finish in slugging percentage was its highest since 2011. Under Sewell's tutelage, SIU has also finished in the top-half of the league in on-base percentage in nine of her 10 seasons on staff and have led the Valley in walks six times, including five-straight seasons from 2010-14.

In 2018, Southern's Maddy Vermejan

led the league in on-base percentage while Katelyn Massa became the fourth Saluki under Sewell to win the league's RBI crown, and the first to do so since Jayna Spivey in 2013.

During the 2018 offseason, Sewell was named the recipient of the NFCA's Donna Newberry 'Perseverance' award, which recognizes an NFCA member coach who has demonstrated extraordinary strength of will and character in the fight to overcome a physical, mental, or social adversity that presented an additional challenge to the already demanding job of a coach. Sewell's was diagnosed with primary sclerosing cholangitis (PSC) in 2011 and continues to overcome adversity and help SIU reach new heights. In 2020, Sewell was named the recipient of the MVC's Most Courageous Award, given to past or present student-athletes, coaches or university administrators who demonstrate unusual courage in the face of personal illness, adversity or tragedy and whose behavior reflects honor on the institution or the Conference.

Sewell's hitters have earned 21 first-team All-MVC selections, 21 second-team All-MVC selections and 20 MVC All-Tournament Team selections. In 2010, Sewell helped the Salukis win the regular-season MVC championship and was a member of the conference's Staff of the Year. In 2012, Sewell coached Mallory Duran-Sellers to MVC Most Valuable Player honors after the senior set an MVC record with 61 runs scored and posted a .363 batting average, .502 on-base percentage and .503 slugging percentage. In 2017, Sewell coached the Salukis to the MVC Tournament Championship and Southern advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the 11th time in program history.

The top three RBI producers in SIU history- Shaye Harre, Jayna Spivey and Katelyn Massa- all thrived with Sewell's guidance. All three players rank in the top-10 in MVC history for career RBIs. In 2015, Kalyn Harker led the conference with a .466 batting average against league competition and was named first-team All-MVC, first-team Academic All-America, and the MVC's Dr. Charlotte West Aware recipient, which goes to the female student-athlete in the MVC who best exemplifies excellence on the field, in the classroom and in the community. Southern led the league in on-base percentage for a sixth-straight year in 2014 and scored the second-most runs in the league. The squad broke a program record with 78 doubles on the season, and Spivey earned her fourth-straight All-MVC honor. Shaye Harre earned second-team All-MVC honors after hitting .329 and recording 43 RBIs, second-most among freshmen in SIU history.

In 2013, SIU finished first in the MVC in runs scored with 274 and RBIs with 252. Under Sewell's direction, Morgan Barchan was named first-team All-Conference after recording 62 hits to tie for first in the Valley, becoming the first-ever Saluki to lead the league in hits. Jayna Spivey was also named a first-team selection after a productive offensive season in which she tied the MVC lead with 44 RBI and ranked second in the league with 38 runs scored.

2012 was a banner year for the Saluki offense as SIU led the league in on-base percentage, runs, hits and walks and ranked second in batting average and RBI. SIU's 307 runs in 2012 broke a school record and ranks fourth in MVC history. The Salukis' .290 batting average in 2012 was the program's best since 1997.

SIU also had a solid year offensively in 2011 under Sewell, finishing second in the league in batting average, on-base percentage, runs scored and RBI. Duran-Sellers posted the third-most hits in SIU history (65), with the fifth-best batting average in school annals (.398) en route to being named an All-MVC First Team selection.

Sewell earned a championship ring in 2010 as the Salukis took the MVC regular season title and finished second at the conference tournament. The SIU coaching staff was recognized that season as the MVC Coaching Staff of the Year. Sewell helped mentor the battery of MVC Pitcher of the Year Danielle Glosson and second-team All-MVC catcher Cristina Trapani. Sewell served as a volunteer assistant during the 2009 season before joining the staff full-time in 2010.

Prior to SIU, Sewell spent five seasons at Kansas (2004-2008), as a hitting and infield coach. During her time on staff, Sewell helped KU win its first-ever Big 12 postseason championship and made back-to-back NCAA Regional appearances. She also guided the Jayhawk defense to a program-best .973 fielding percentage, which ranked 14th in the nation in 2005. That same year, Sewell coached the team to a single-season home run record and single-season fielding percentage record of .973 which ranked No. 14 in the nation. Sewell coached Big 12 Player of the Year and Second Team All-American Serena Settlemier to single-season marks for home runs and slugging percentage while becoming KU's fastest assistant coach to reach 100 wins.

Sewell got her start as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at Princeton for four seasons. During her four seasons at Princeton, Sewell coached seven All-Ivy League selections, an Ivy League Player of the Year and Rookie of the Year, as well as a two-time Ivy Pitcher of the Year. During the 2002 season, the Tigers set a program record for single season wins earning Speedline/National Fastpitch Coaches Association Coaching Staff of the Year (Northeast Region). Under Sewell's direction, Princeton won back-to-back Ivy League championships and made NCAA Tournament appearances in 2002 and 2003.

In addition to her softball background, Sewell was also the co-founder of the Women's Intersport Network (WIN) of Southern Illinois. She currently serves as president-elect and sits on the board of directors for WIN.

KENZI TATE-BENNETT

ASSISTANT COACH • 3RD YEAR

Kenzi Tate begins her third year as a full-time assistant coach at Southern Illinois University in 2021.

The Salukis went 15-6 overall during Tate's second season on staff and were leading the Missouri Valley Conference in fielding percentage (.977), fewest runs allowed (66) and were second in earned run average (2.77) before the season was brought to a halt.

Tate's first season as a full-time assistant was a banner year for the Salukis, as they reached the 30-win plateau for the 17th time in the last 20 seasons, posted their most conference wins (17) since 2005 and earned the program's 12th trip to the NCAA Tournament.

Tate came to SIU in 2015 as a graduate assistant with Southern's strength and conditioning staff. After receiving her master's degree in 2017, she joined Blaylock's staff as a volunteer assistant and helped with coaching the team's pitchers while also working with SIU's coaching staff to complete day-to-day practice responsibilities.

A native of Mount Vernon, Ill., Tate played her high school ball at Mount Vernon where she left as the program's all-time leader in most statistical categories including hits (157), doubles (43), home runs (22), RBIs (153), innings pitched (470), shutouts (28), strikeouts (689), wins (57) and ERA (.88). She ultimately chose to play collegiate softball at UT-Martin, where she played first base, third base and pitched from 2012-15.

She started all four years for the Skyhawks and led the Ohio Valley Conference in batting average, home runs and RBIs in 2013 while also going 20-6 as a pitcher. She was a two-time All-OVC selection and helped UT-Martin win both the OVC regular season and tournament titles in 2012.

Tate earned a bachelor's degree in human and health performance from UT-Martin in 2015 and went on to receive her master's of science in education from SIU in 2017.

SEASONPREVIEW

After a season in which the Southern Illinois University softball team had its promising start cut short due to the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic, the Salukis return 12 letter winners, including nine starters, from a squad that went 15-6 in 2020. The Salukis added seven talented newcomers that will push for playing time and will look to help Southern compete for a conference title and get back to the NCAA Tournament for a 13th time in 2021.

"Every year our expectation is to win a conference championship," longtime head coach Kerri Blaylock said. "I told the kids that we haven't played in 340 days so we just have to knock the rust off, get after it, see some different lineups and see some different kids in different situations."

Southern begins the 2021 season on Saturday, Feb. 13 at the Black and Gold Invitational, hosted by Southern Mississippi. It is the first of five-straight weekend tournaments that SIU is slated to play in before beginning Missouri Valley Conference play on March 20-21 with a three-game series against the back-to-back MVC champion Drake Bulldogs. The 2021 MVC Tournament will be hosted by Evansville, beginning May 12.

The Infield

The infield, which helped SIU rank No. 12 nationally last season in fielding percentage, returns four of its five everyday starters from a year ago. The returners are led by All-MVC selections Maddy Vermejan, Katelyn Massa and Jenny Jansen. Vermejan and Massa return for their super-senior seasons after productive 2020 seasons. Vermejan led the MVC in total walks (23) and finished fifth in the league in on-base percentage (.493) while Massa became the seventh player in program history to hit 25 career home runs. The reigning MVC Defensive Player of the Year, Massa tied for the conference lead in runners caught stealing (4), runners picked off (1) and fielding percentage (1.000). Jansen, meanwhile, won a Florida Gulf Coast League title with the Myakka City River Mocs over the summer and finished the 2020 season ranked in the top-six in the league in both doubles and runs batted in. The Warrenton, Mo. native shifts over to the other corner of the diamond, as she will play more first base and will see time in center field as well.

Sidney Sikes and Ashley Wood fortify Southern's left side of the infield. Sikes appeared in 20 of SIU's 21 games a year ago and had at least one hit in nine of them. The Kaufman, Texas native, who started five games at catcher, will split time at third as well as back up Massa behind the dish. The 2019 MVC Newcomer of the Year, Wood started 20 games at shortstop in 2020 and led the MVC with 47 assists. The Orland Park, Ill. native reached base in 12 of the 20 games she played in, which included hits in five of her last six games.

"I told Coach Sewell the other day that in this type of a season it has been wonderful to have such a veteran presence in our locker room," Blaylock said. "Massa and Maddy are teaching the people who they will share time with this season and who will eventually take their place. They've been doing such a great job with doing what we look for and knowing what our defensive setups are. We are so strong up the middle with Ashley Wood at shortstop and either Maris or Jenny in center."

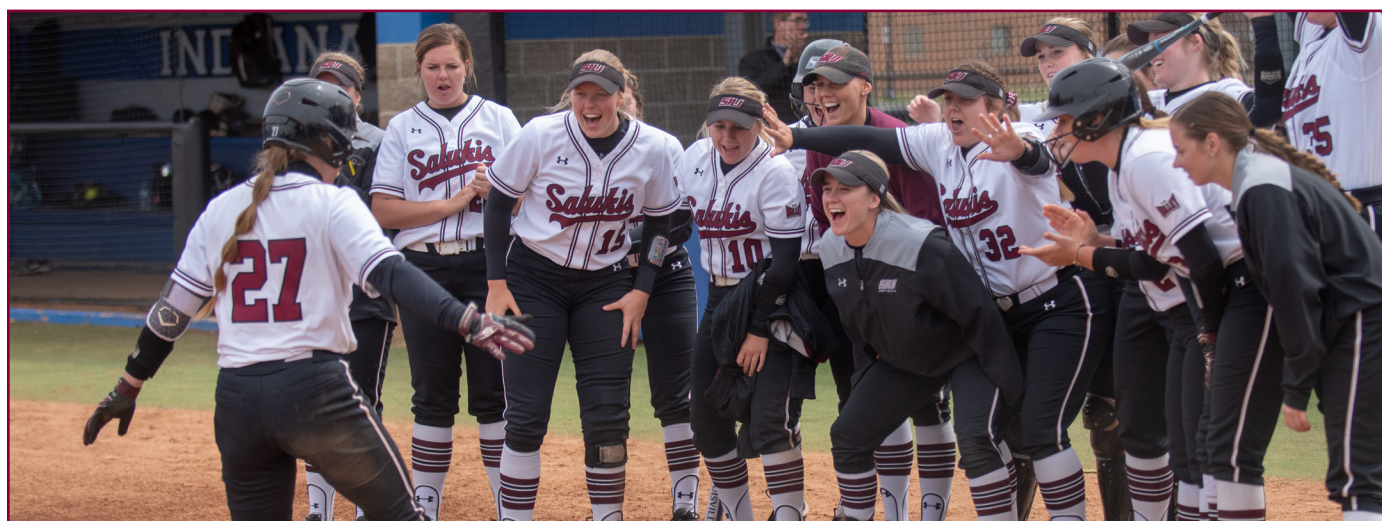

Meredith Wernig will vie for playing time at third and has been one of SIU's most prodigious courtesy runners during her career. She has appeared in 62 of a possible 70 games over the last two seasons and scored a run in nearly a third (19) of those games. Kerrigan Gamm will likely see time behind the plate as well as at first base, as she played first for the first time in her collegiate career in SIU's 2-1 win over Michigan State on Feb. 22.

Also in the mix in the infield are newcomers Rylie Hamilton, Elisabeth Huckleberry, Jenna Christeson and Danyelle Eilers. Hamilton played third during the fall and was a two-time all-state honoree for Cabot High School in Cabot, Ark. Huckleberry will back up Vermejan at second and comes to SIU by way of Spencer County, where she left as its all-time leader in nearly every offensive category. Christeson is from Bethalto, Ill. and will split time with Wood at shortstop. As a junior, Christeson hit a remarkable .513 with 16 extra base hits and was a three-sport athlete at Civic Memorial. Eilers, meanwhile, is a junior transfer by way of nearby John A. Logan College, where she hit .335 during her two seasons as the Vols' catcher.

"We have depth all over the diamond," Blaylock said. "There are freshmen in both the infield and the outfield that will get playing time. My job this season is to manage everything and to make sure we are getting people looks that need looks and to keep people happy. The one thing we have is that our kids are really unselfish. They understand the culture is built to share and if you don't understand that, you don't make it here very long."

In the Circle

Sophomores Sarah Harness and Carlee Jo Clark are back to anchor Southern's pitching staff. Harness was terrific in 2020, as she led the MVC in wins (9) and finished second in both innings pitched (71.0) and strikeouts (76). Nationally, her nine wins were the sixth-most among freshmen pitchers. The Bowling Green, Mo. native became the first MVC freshman in 14 years to repeat as the league's pitcher of the week after she extended her scoreless streak to 25.2 innings to close out the 2020 season. Clark went 3-1 with the third-lowest earned run average (3.28) amongst MVC freshmen in 2020. The Carol Stream, Ill. native also will get to take her hacks at the dish, as she recorded her first extra base hit - a double- in SIU's win over Northern Illinois on March 6.

Madi Eberle joins Harness and Clark on Southern's pitching staff. Eberle is a freshman from Gibson City, Ill. who racked up 867 strikeouts in the circle in three seasons at Gibson City-Melvin-Sibley High School. The right-handed hurler also raked at the dish during her sophomore and junior campaigns, as she hit a combined .498 with 14 home runs.

"Both Sarah and Carlee Jo are throwing really well," Blaylock said. "C.J.'s presence has come a long way already and she looks in command right now. Sarah has refined and developed a couple of new wrinkles that we will throw at people. Madi has come in and is such a competitor. She continues to get better and better and is learning not to force things and to throw with great confidence. We're going to have a good pitching staff."

In the outfield

Six players will fight for playing time in the outfield as Maris Boelens, Aubree DePron, Tori Schullian and Jansen return, joined by freshmen Bailey Caylor and Elizabeth Warwick.

A co-captain for the 2021 season, Boelens was in the midst of a breakout year at the plate before the pandemic shut down the season. The Aledo, Ill. native notched a .404 on-base percentage and hit her first collegiate home run in SIU's win over Purdue Fort Wayne on Feb. 28. One of SIU's fastest players, DePron appeared in 17 games a year ago and tied for the team lead in stolen bases (7). Schullian made seven starts in the outfield a year ago and will likely occupy a corner outfield spot for considerable stretches during the 2021 season. Jansen will again split her time between the infield and the outfield depending on SIU's opponent that given day.

Caylor and Warwick provide SIU with speed and are both strong defensively. Caylor was a three-time all-conference honoree at Tipton High School, where she led the Blue Devils to back-to-back regional championships. Warwick is a left-handed hitter who started in the outfield at Girls Preparatory in Chattanooga, Tenn. since the eighth grade and helped GPS win four-straight state titles.

The Missouri Valley Conference, the nation's second-oldest NCAA Division I conference, continues to be a leader in college athletics and is one of the nation's most progressive conferences, celebrating its 112th season in 2018-19.

Last season marked the beginning of the latest chapter for the Conference, as Valparaiso University became the league's 34th all-time member on July 1, 2017. Missouri State highlighted the 2017-18 campaign, as for just the fifth time since joining the Conference in 1990, MSU won the league's coveted All-Sports Championship Trophy. Missouri State earned a league-best five regular-season titles, and it also won post-season MVC tournament titles in women's soccer, women's tennis, volleyball and baseball. Southern Illinois was second, followed by Illinois State, Indiana State and UNI.

Notably, the MVC was well represented on CoSIDA (College Sports Information Directors) Academic All-America® teams throughout 2017-18, ranking fifth-best among all leagues with nearly 30 Academic All-Americans. Notably, two MVC student-athletes earned CoSIDA Academic All-America® of the Year in their respective sports (Lily Johnson of Missouri State in women's volleyball and Devlin Granberg of Dallas Baptist in baseball). That marks the third time in league history the MVC had multiple Academic All-America® of the Year selections during an academic calendar.

The Valley brand remains very strong, both regionally and nationally, and the great athletic tradition of The Valley remains a compelling force in recruiting student-athletes and in marketing all the MVC programs. League members have worked together to focus on common goals and objectives, placing a high value on league harmony, while continuing to invest in athletic programs to compete at the highest level.

Men's basketball continues to be the engine that drives Valley athletic programs. In 2018, Loyola Chicago represented the Conference in the NCAA Tournament, reaching the Final Four in San Antonio. The Conference has combined for 17 wins in the NCAA Tournament in the past six seasons, earning multiple bids four times since 2012. Recent success in resurrecting the challenge series with the Mountain West Conference, and the increased opportunities for MVC teams to participate in ESPN's early-season multi-team events and in other elite tournaments, have added strong opponents and more national television exposure to the non-conference scheduling mix.

The State Farm MVC Men's Basketball Championship

– affectionately known as Arch Madness – continues to be a spectacular showcase for the league, and the MVC has extended the tournament agreement with Enterprise Center (formerly known as Scottrade Center) that will keep Arch Madness in St. Louis through at least 2020. During the 2011 MVC Championship, the league surpassed 1 million in total attendance for the event, now in its 29th year in the Gateway City. The tournament, in 2016, celebrated its 40th anniversary overall.

The league made great strides in men's basketball, earning a No. 8 ranking as a league in the RPI, which was four spots better than 2016-17. Last year, the Valley joined the Big 12, the Big East and the SEC as the only leagues with all its teams rated 185 or better in the RPI. Loyola Chicago represented the MVC in the NCAA Tournament and was the national story of the tournament, becoming the second league team in six years to reach the Final Four. The Ramblers won 32 games (tied for third-best all-time in the MVC) and ended the year ranked No. 7 in the USA Today Coaches top-25 poll. Loyola Chicago defeated Miami (Fla.), Tennessee, Nevada and Kansas State to reach San Antonio. The win over Miami in the first round gave the MVC a perfect 9-0 record in first-round NCAA Tournament games since 2012.

While the success of men's basketball has received the greatest attention, the overall performance of league teams in virtually every sport continues to raise the national profile of the Conference.

In softball, Drake dominated. The Bulldogs finished the MVC regular-season race with a 24-1 record (a full seven games ahead of second-place Missouri State). After earning the league's tournament title, the Bulldogs won their first-ever NCAA Tournament games with two victories over BYU and set the program record for most overall wins with 45 and MVC wins with 24. Drake had a 24-game winning streak that started the final weekend before conference play and didn't end until the second-to-last league series.

Meanwhile, the success of The Valley television package is one of the great stories in the league. The MVC Television Network has blossomed into a revenue-generating vehicle and The Valley's most visible marketing tool. Also, The Valley continues to be proactive in upgrading the production and marketing of both institutionally-produced and Conference-produced events.

The summer of 2015 yielded two major announcements on the TV front, as ESPN and the Missouri Valley Conference announced a 10-year extension to their current media rights agreement that will provide increased coverage of Conference events across ESPN platforms through 2023-24. As part of the deal – which continues a business relationship that began in 1986 – ESPN, the Missouri Valley Conference and its 10 institutions will work jointly to develop in-house production capabilities at each campus that will provide significant national coverage for multiple sports on ESPN3 or ESPN+ and hands-on educational opportunities for students. As a result, ESPN3 or ESPN+ will showcase a minimum of 820 events a year (a minimum of 70 men's basketball) in the final six years of the agreement on the league's co-branded digital network (The Valley on ESPN3 or ESPN+).

Additionally, CBS Sports and the MVC are in a multi-year agreement to televise Valley basketball games on the CBS Television Network and CBS Sports Network. The deal, which began in 2015-16 and continues through 2023-24, is through a sublicense agreement with ESPN. CBS Sports has televised the men's basketball tournament final since 2006.

In 2010, The Valley took a major step toward ensuring current revenues in television media and tournament sponsorship sales would be guaranteed in future years when it announced a 10-year partnership with Learfield Sports. The Jefferson City, Missouri-based company has the exclusive sales and marketing rights to MVC assets that include championships and television advertising. In June 2016, the MVC and Learfield Sports extended

MISCELLANEOUS CAREER RECORDS

|--------------------------|--|
| Longest Hitting Streak | 27 games by Jen Feldmeier (3/29/97 - 5/9/97) |
| Consecutive Stolen Bases | 31 by Jami Koss (4/14/95 - 5/10/96) |

NO HITTERS

There have been 32 no-hitters in Saluki Softball history. 30 of those have come with Kerri Blaylock on the staff and 24 have come since she became head coach in 2000. Of note: SIU has five perfect games but has never had a seven-inning perfect game. Erin Stremsterfer is the only player in program history to throw a no-hitter and lose the game (2/20/00), and that happened in Blaylock's fourth-ever game as SIU's head coach. Stremsterfer is also the only pitcher who threw a no-hitter in an extra-inning game (2/24/01).

From Highway 51 in Carbondale, turn east onto Grand Avenue and the field is the first available right.

MEDIA POLICIES

Interviews with Southern Illinois coaches and student-athletes should be made through the SIU Media Services office. Contact Sports Information Director Will Becque by phone (cell is 618.559.2624) or email (william.becque@siu.edu) to set up a phone or in-person interview with anyone within the Saluki Softball program. To receive all press releases for Saluki Softball, email william.becque@siu.edu.

POSTGAME PROCEDURES

After home games at Charlotte West Stadium, head coach Kerri Blaylock and student-athletes will be available to the media approximately 10 minutes after the game. If SIU is playing two games, the coaches and student-athletes will be available after the conclusion of the final game. Any postgame interview requests from media that will not be present at the game must be made through SID Will Becque at least 24 hours before the game. In addition, game box scores and updated season statistics will be made available after the game.
