SPARTANS HONOR THREE SENIORS

Forward Brandon Mitchell and guards Isaac Thornton and Gary Williams, Jr., are competing in the final home game of their Spartan careers on Wednesday. Thornton and Mitchell were a pieces of head coach Dave Wojcik's first recruiting class at San José State, while Williams transferred in and has played two full seasons. All three players have contributed to the program in their unique ways and their careers will be celebrated with a short ceremony prior to tipoff against Nevada.

HOPING FOR A SENIOR NIGHT REPEAT FROM LAST YEAR

Last season on Senior Night, Boise State came into the Event Center with first place on the line and San José State beat the Broncos, 68-63. While the three seniors had an impact on the win, it was the freshman Brandon Clarke with 21 points and 10 rebounds who carried the Spartans to the victory. This year it's Nevada coming in to face the Spartans on Senior Night with first place still up for grabs.

FLASHBACK TO FIRST GAME WITH NEVADA

The Spartans and Wolf Pack met way back in December in the Mountain West opener for both teams and it ended in an 80-55 Nevada victory. Brandon Clarke scored 18 points and grabbed nine boards to lead SJSU and Gary Williams, Jr., added 12 points. But Nevada and the game's leading scorer Marcus Marshall with 25 points ran away with the win inside the Lawlor Event Center.

SINCE THE LOSS AT NEVADA

San José State has gone 7-8 in conference play since the Dec. 30 meeting with the Wolf Pack. SJSU blasted past last year's league wins total (4) when it went on a four-game winning streak with victories over UNLV (twice), New Mexico and San Diego State. A win over Air Force at home made it five wins in six games for the Spartans. The 18 points and nine rebounds for Brandon Clarke in the Nevada game was indicative of how he would play the rest of the season until this point. He's scored over 20 points against eight MW foes and comes into Wednesday with three straight double-doubles.

TOP SHOT BLOCKERS SQUARE OFF

The top two shot blockers in the Mountain West will be on the floor Wednesday when San José State and Nevada meet. Brandon Clarke has swatted 48 shots in 16 conference games to lead all players during league play. He's blocked 72 shots on the year which ranks 16th in the country. Oliver has 77 swats ranking 11th in the nation, and both players average 2.7 per game to lead the conference. Clarke rejected five shots in the last game at Boise State marking the eighth contest of the year with five or more blocks.

THREE STRAIGHT DOUBLE-DOUBLES FOR BC

Brandon Clarke scored 14 points and grabbed 14 rebounds last game against Boise State for his third consecutive – 10th overall – double-double. While he has dipped below 20.0 points per league game for the first time since Jan. 7, Clarke is up to third in rebounding at 9.2 per game. He is currently the only player in the league who is top-three in scoring (3rd), rebounding (3rd) and blocked shots (1st).

DOING IT THE OLD FASHION WAY

Brandon Clarke has been a top scorer in the Mountain West nearly all season long and he's doing it the old fashion way with all ones and twos. The 6-foot-8 forward hasn't made a three all year and has only attempted two from downtown. His 17.7 points per game ranks third among NCAA Division I scorers who haven't made a three-point basket. Clarke has made 203 baskets this season ranking 30th among all Division I players, and his .590 field goal percentage ranks 25th.

WILLIAMS COMES OFF THE BENCH HOT

Senior guard Gary Williams Jr., got off the bench for the first time with the Spartans in a 16-point hole and just under eight minutes to play at Boise State last Saturday. Then the microwave started cooking and Williams connected on a career-high seven baskets in just seven minutes of action. He hit four of his first five shots helping the Spartans climb all the way to within four points with under a minute to play. Cutting the deficit to four points would be as close as SJSU could get in the 85-78 loss, but if it weren't for Williams' team-leading seven baskets the gap might have been much wider.

SPARTANS TRY TO REVERSE NEVADA OWNAGE

San José State trails Nevada 50-56 in the all-time series dating back to 1911. But the series hasn't been that close recently, with the Wolf Pack taking 16 of the last 17, and 26 of the last 28 meetings. The last SJSU win in the series was February 18, 2014 in Reno when Jalen James hit a game-winning basket with 1.8 seconds remaining. The last Spartan win over Nevada at home was Jan. 10, 2008, by a score of 62-60.

CHASING WIN NUMBER 15

SJSU is looking to pick up regular season win number 15 which the program has accomplished just three times in the last 23 years. The 2010-11 Spartans were the most recent group to win 15 regular season games, and they advanced to the semifinal round of the Western Athletic Conference Tournament and later the College Basketball Invitational (CBI).

MOST CONFERENCE WINS SINCE 1995-96

San José State's comeback victory over Air Force on Feb. 18 was the seventh Mountain West win of the year. It gives SJSU the most conference wins since the 1995-96 season when the team went 9-9 in Big West play. That same team went on to win the Big West Tournament and make SJSU's most recent of three (1951, 1980, 1996) NCAA Tournament appearances.

SPARTANS RALLY FROM 13 DOWN TO BEAT AIR FORCE

San José State came back to win its fourth game of the season after trailing by double-digits when it erased a 13-point deficit to beat Air Force 83-78 in overtime. SJSU trailed 41-28 at halftime and 63-54 with 7:13 left in the second half. The comeback was fueled by career scoring highs for Isaac Thornton (17) and Brandon Mitchell (12). All of their points came after halftime, and Brandon Clarke added 22 points and 13 rebounds for his eighth double-double of the year.

MITCHELL AND THORNTON FUEL COMEBACK

Isaac Thornton and Brandon Mitchell combined for 29 points after halftime and provided the spark SJSU needed to comeback and beat Air Force. Both players converted traditional three-point plays down the stretch of the second half, and Mitchell drained the biggest 3-pointer of his career in overtime. The Falcons made consecutive baskets to start overtime while the Spartans missed their first four shots. Right when it looked like SJSU was out of it, Mitchell banged the three to make it 74-73 Air Force lead. Thornton came up with a steal on the next Air Force possession, leading to a Brandon Clarke dunk which gave the Spartans the lead for good.

TOP PERFORMERS

#15 BRANDON CLARKE, F

Notched his third straight double-double with 14 points and 14 boards.

#2 GARY WILLIAMS, JR., G

Provided instant offense off the bench, hitting seven shots in seven minutes ... Entered into the game with the Spartans down 16 points and brought them to within four, 80-76, with under a minute to play.

LATE SURGE COMES UP SHORT IN BOISE

Boise, Idaho --- Boise State had all the momentum and a 16-point lead with a shrinking clock in the second half. And then Gary Williams, Jr., came in.

The Spartans rushed all the way back to make it a four-point game with under a minute to play, but it ended up being just a scare as Boise State beat San José State, 85-78, in Mountain West play at Taco Bell Arena.

Gary Williams, Jr., entered the game with the Spartans trailing by 16 points and hit his first jumper with 7:12 remaining. Williams was an instant boost went on to hit 7-of-12 shots for 14 points in just seven minutes of action.

Suffering from pain in his knee the senior missed five straight games and then played just seven minutes combined in the Spartans' two previous games before the trip to Boise. But this looked like the Williams who started in three straight Spartan wins earlier in November and they guy who matched a career scoring high (18 points) in a win over Fresno State (1/7).

After three straight jumpers by Williams, Brandon Clarke nailed a pair of free throws to make it 74-67 with 3:31 remaining. Ryan Welage's only basket of the second half was a three from the right corner which made it 78-72 with 1:07 remaining.

Missed free throws on the other end helped the Spartans get even closer, and Terrell Brown's layup with 35 seconds left made it 80-76. But that would be as close as the Spartan could get.

Justinian Jessup scored the first eight points for Boise State out of the half before passing the torch to his teammates Paris Austin and Alex Hobbs. The two of them led Boise State on an 8-0 run that increased the Broncos lead to 55-41 with 14:03 remaining.

Every time the Spartans tried to cut into the lead Boise State had an answer. Isaac Thornton hit a three from the corner to make it a 10-point game, 61-51, but Nick Duncan answered right back with a layup for Boise State.

A few minutes later, Clarke hit an elbow jumper that made it a nine-point game with 10:10 to go, but another 7-0 Boise State run seemingly put SJSU's hopes to rest. Until Williams came in and ended up hitting the most shots on the team despite playing just seven minutes.

Clarke finished with his third consecutive double-double with 14 points and 14 rebounds. He was one of four Spartans in double-figure scoring alongside Brown with 15, Welage with 14 and Williams with 14. Clarke also had his eighth game of the year with at least five blocks, and his five swats against Boise State Saturday ties him for second all-time at SJSU with Chris Oaks (2008-10).

Austin scored a game-high 18 points for Boise State which had four others in double-figure scoring. Hobbs put in 16, Jessup had 14, Chandler Hutchison scored 11 and James Reid scored 10.

SPARTANS LOSE MW OPENER 80-55 AT NEVADA

Brandon Clarke finished with a team-high 18 points.

Reno, Nev. --- Brandon Clarke finished with a team-leading 18 points and nine rebounds, but a cold-shooting San José State men's basketball team suffered its largest loss of the season, 80-55, to Nevada in the Mountain West opener for both teams.

While Clarke hit 8-of-15 from the floor the Spartans (7-5, 0-1 MW) collectively finished the game shooting a season-low 29.2 percent (19-65) from the field.

Nevada (12-2, 1-0 MW) led by as many as 14 in the first half, and outscored SJSU 40-26 in the second period. Four Wolf Pack players finished in double-figure scoring, led by Marcus Marshall with 25 points.

It was a physical game with players from both teams combining for five technical fouls. Jalen James received two technical fouls and was ejected at the 14:49 mark in the second half. When the dust settled from the sequence, four techs were handed out - two to Nevada players and two to James.

Nevada held a 50-34 lead at the time of the technical, and from there grew the lead to as large as 26 points during two different points in the remainder of the second half.

Nevada's initial separation came when it built an eight-point advantage during a 6:25 Spartans scoring drought midway through the opening period.

Brandon Clarke hit a spinning layup to end the drought and keep Nevada's lead to single-digits, 20-12. From there Marshall and Jordan Caroline scored 12 straight points for the Wolf Pack which helped build a 37-23 advantage by the 1:47 mark.

SJSU came out of the halftime locker room trailing 40-29 and missed its first three shots.

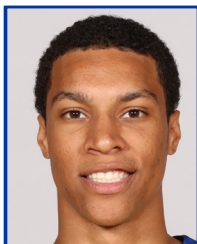

The Spartans were 0-for-9 in the first half from downtown, and finished the game just 2-for-21 from deep. Ryan Welage hit SJSU's first 3-point basket of the game at the 17:40 mark in the second half for his only points of the game.

Gary Williams, Jr., was in double-figure scoring with 14 points for the Spartans.

D.J. Fenner scored 14 points and Caroline and Leland King II each had 13 points for Nevada. Caroline grabbed 12 rebounds for his sixth double-double of the year.

SJSU finished with a season-low six turnovers, but was out-rebounded 50-35 by Nevada.

DAVE WOJCIK

HEAD COACH

FOURTH SEASON

LOYOLA UNIVERSITY, MARYLAND, 1991

Dave Wojcik (WOE-jick) enters his fourth season as San José State University's head men's basketball coach in 2016-17. He joined the Spartans in March of 2013 after six conference championships and 11 postseason appearances as an assistant coach.

The 2015-16 season, Wojcik's third at SJSU, was a turning point for the program. The team achieved its highest production in points, rebounds, blocks and steals since Wojcik's arrival. The squad's 449 assists were third-most in a single season, and the highest total since 1984-85.

Production on offense jumped up 16.8 points per game from the year before, leading to a 6.5-game turnaround which ranked 48th in the nation. The Spartans defeated three teams which won 20 or more games and reached the NCAA Tournament the previous season. One of the three was a signature 68-63 win on Senior Night against Boise State, where Wojcik was an assistant for three years before becoming a Spartan.

Fueling the surge was a group of four true freshmen that ended the season accounting for 43.4 percent of the team's points – ranking second only to Kentucky among Division I teams. Under Wojcik's guidance, forward Brandon Clarke became the first freshman at SJSU and in the Mountain West to win the Sixth Man of the Year award. The balanced recruiting class also featured the Mountain West's top two three-point shot makers in Cody Schwartz and Ryan Welage.

San José State didn't only see a production increase on the court in 2015-16. Wojcik's emphasis on academic success has helped the team raise its grade point average one full point in the last year. The Spartans earned a pair of Academic All-Mountain West awards, and Jalen James was named an Arthur Ashe, Jr. Sports Scholar.

Prior to accepting the head coaching position at San José State, Wojcik spent three seasons (2011-13) as the associate head coach at Boise State under head coach Leon Rice. The 2013 Broncos received an at-large bid to the NCAA Tournament and recorded a second 20-win season in three years.

Wojcik has an extensive resume as an assistant coach at building successful basketball programs. He started his coaching career in 1991-92 under Lefty Driesell at James Madison University. Coach Driesell amassed 786 wins over his coaching career and was inducted into the National Collegiate Basketball Hall of Fame in 2007. Wojcik then was hired the next season as an assistant at West Liberty State College.

Wojcik returned to his alma mater in 1993 as an assistant to the former Wake Forest head coach, the late Skip Prosser. Wojcik helped coach the Greyhounds to one of the top-15 turnarounds in NCAA Division I history at the time, the 1994 Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference Tournament title and Loyola's first NCAA Tournament appearance in its 105-year men's basketball history. Wojcik followed Prosser to Xavier where the duo reached the NCAA Tournament twice in three years.

Wojcik coached at the U.S. Naval Academy (2004) and Dayton (2005) before spending the next four seasons (2006-09) as the associate head coach at the University of Tulsa, working on the staff of his brother Doug Wojcik. The Golden Hurricane recorded an 81-53 overall record during that time, including three consecutive 20-win seasons. The team played in back-to-back Conference USA Tournament title games, won the inaugural College Basketball Invitational championship in 2008 and reached the second round of the 2009 NIT.

Wojcik also was successful as a collegiate player at Loyola. He is the only player in school history to record a triple-double with 14 points, 10 rebounds and 11 assists against St. Francis (Pa.) in 1989. Wojcik earned his bachelor's degree in education from Loyola in 1991. He and his wife, Heather, have one son, Jake.
