QUICK LOOK AT UNLV

The Rebels posted a 2-9 mark in non-conference play and have started the Mountain West portion of its schedule with a 2-2 record. They have back-to-back wins against New Mexico and Air Force in their last two games. UNLV is 0-6 on the road this season, but two of those losses came at Duke and Portland State. Away from home the Rebels are being outscored by its opponents by an average of 9.7 points, scoring an average of 50.3 points per game while surrendering 63.0.

Katie Powell's 14.7 points per game average paces the Rebels. In addition, Powell leads the team in rebounding (6.1/g) and blocks (0.9/g). Nikki Wheatley is dishing out 1.8 assists and forcing 1.4 steals per game, both team highs.

Kathy Olivier is in her 11th season as the head coach at UNLV, where she brought a 157-158 record into the 2018-19 season. In 25-years as a head coach she entered 2018-19 with a career record of 389-366.

WILSON IS STARTING TO ROLL

In the first six games in which she appeared this season, Mikaylah Wilson (So., F, Rancho Cucamonga, Calif.) was shooting just 28.3 percent (13-of-46), but starting five games ago, things have taken a dramatic turn. In the last five games, four of them starts, Wilson has gone 18-of-25 (72.0 percent) and averaged 3.4 rebounds. In addition, over that stretch, she has four steals and four blocks.

IT'S ALL ABOUT POSITIONING

This season, Fieme'a Hafoka (Jr. , G, Kihei, Maui) has returned to her natural position, a wing, after a year out of position at trail post. After 15 games the change is paying dividends. Hafoka's scoring average is up to 9.4 ppg from 6.1 per game last year and that is just the beginning. Her shooting percentages are all up...field goal percentage is up from .355-to-.434, three-point field goal percentage is .360 this year compared to .243 a year ago and the free throw shooting us up to .625 from .600. In addition, her assists and steals averages are up from 1.8-to-2.7 and 1.2-to-1.5, respectively.

Earlier this season, Hafoka set her career scoring-high with 117 points against Pacific (11/29) and then matched it against Santa Clara (12/15).

SETTLING IN NICELY

Raziya Potter (Fr., G, Tracy, Calif.) has scored in double figures in seven-of-15 games this season and has made ten starts. After sputtering in the previous two games, she shot 60% (6-of-10) from the field leading the team in scoring with 14 points, grabbed four rebounds and had an assist at Boise State (1/12).

CYD IS NO KID

Cydni Lewis (So., F, Long Beach, Calif.) has emerged as one of the Spartans most dangerous threats...inside and outside, on offense and defense. Lewis ranks first on the team in rebounds (4.9/g) and blocks (1.0/g), and is its leading scoring (9.5/g). She is the squads third best percentage shooter (.387) among those that have attempted at least nine shots per game, leads the team in three-point shooting accuracy (.483) and has gone to the line a team-high 51 times, knocking down 33 of them (.647).

IT'S A THREE THING

Offensively the Spartans are not shy when it comes to long distance shooting. Nationally, SJSU ranks 31st in three-point attempts, 53rd in three-pointers made, 36th in three-pointers per game and is third the Mountain West at 8.3 threes per game.

In the 2017-18 season, two Spartans set program records for making threes. Analyss Benally (Jr., G, Shiprock, N.M.) sank 60, which are the most by a sophomore in program history and the ninth most by a Spartan in a single season. Coming into the Utah State game, her 87 career three-pointers place her 14 away from the top-10 on the program's career list.

Megan Anderson (So., G, Fresno, Calif.) dropped in 46 treys in 2017-18, a freshman record for San José State women's basketball and the 18th most for a single-season in program history. In addition to her program record, Anderson led all Mountain West freshmen and was the fourth most accurate freshman three-point shooter in the nation last season at .438. Her .438 three-point shooting percentage is also a single-season record for the program. Her 72 career-threes entering the UNLV game rank 16th all-time and her career .393 three-point shooting percentage is the best in program history.

MORE CAREER-LIST FACTS

In addition to Benally and Anderson, who are firmly planted on the SJSU women's basketball all-time lists, three other Spartans appear in the career record book.

With a pair of three-pointers at Fresno State (1/3), Andrea Kohlhaas (Sr., F, Besigheim, Germany) moved into the top-25 on the program's three-point list. Entering the UNLV game she has 48 threes in her career and sits in 24th place on the career list and is one from equlaing Emily Vann (2014-16) for 23rd place.

With one blocked shot at Fresno State (1/3), Cydni Lewis (So., F, Long Beach, Calif.) tied Paris Baird (2017-19) and Teoma Taylor (2000-04) for 18th place on the career list giving her 48 in 45 games. If she continues on her career per game pace for this season (1.1/g), she would finish the regular season with 66 career blocks which would slot her into 10th place on the career list. In addition to her shot-blocking prowess, Lewis is among the best percentage shooters in program history. She ranks 20th at .449 (129-of-287).

Alexis Harris (Jr., C, Palo Alto, Calif.) has swatted 37 shots in 66 career games for an average of 0.6 blocks per game which slots her into 21st place on the blocked shots per game list.

MARQUEZ

Point guard Danae Marquez (So., PG, Fresno, Calif.), who had two starts last season, is making a big impact this year, getting starts in 13-of-14 games this season, but it goes well beyond that. Marquez has upped her scoring from 5.2-to-6.4 points per game as well as increasing her assists from 3.3-to-4.1 a game. Her steals are up to 1.7 per game from 1.2, but perhaps the biggest surprise is she is second on the team in rebounding. The 5-5 guard is grabbing 3.7/g.

FAST BREAKS

Fieme'a Hafoka (Jr., G, Kihei, Maui) Captain...equaled her career-high with 17 points vs. Santa Clara (12/15) and shooting a team-best .434 from the field.

Analyss Benally (Jr., G, Shiprock, N.M.) has hit 104 buckets in her career, 87 of which are three pointers. She shares the team lead with 26 threes this year.

Cydni Lewis (So., F, Long Beach, Calif.) leads the team in blocks (15), rebounds (4.9/g), eighth and 17th in the MW, respectively.

Danae Marquez (So., PG, Fresno, Calif.) leads the team with 57 assists (4.1/g) which ranks sixth in the Mountain West. Second on the team (3.7/g) and set a single-game best with eight rebounds against CSUB (11/24). Is 15-of-15 from the free throw line

Raziya Potter (Fr., G, Tracy, Calif.) at San Diego (12/21) led the team with 15 points (6-of-9 FG) and added four rebounds, two assists, two steals and two blocks. The team's third-leading scorer (8.7 ppg) and third in assists (2.1/g).

Megan Anderson (So., G, Fresno, Calif.) has made at least one three-pointer in 37-of-45 career-games. Hit a season-high three three-pointers at San Diego (12/21) and again at Utah State (1/16). Last season led team with a .438 three-point shooting percentage. Led all Mountain West freshmen and ranked fourth in the nation among freshman three-point percentage shooters. Program's best career three-point shooter (.393)

Alexis Harris (Jr., C, Palo Alto, Calif.) set career-highs with 9 rebounds & 4 blocks vs. Southern Oregon (12/20/17). Ranks 21st on the program's career shots blocked per game list (0.6/g).

Courtesy Clark (So., G, Sacramento, Calif.) equaled a career-high 8 pts against SFSU (11/6) and has already equaled or set new career bests in three-pointers, assists and steals.

Andrea Kohlhaas (Sr., F, Besigheim, Germany) Captain...returned to action against SFSU (11/6) after a year rehabbing a leg injury sustained in the fifth game of last season. Ranks 24th on program's career three-point list (48). This season 11-of-13 buckets have been 3-pointers.

Nefer León (Fr., G, Vitoria, Spain) scored a season-best five points at San Diego (12/21) and equaled it at Boise State (1/12).

Mikaylah Wilson (So., F, Rancho Cucamonga, Calif.) .737 shooting percentage in MW games is second in the league. In the last five games she is shooting .720 (18-of-25).

Spartans Overwhelmed In Third Quarter In 80-53 Loss

San Jose, Calif. - The San Jose State women's basketball trailed 33-30 off an Analyss Benally three-pointer eight seconds into the third quarter, but UNLV then went on a 26-to-2 run in just over six minutes and cruised to an 80-53 victory on Wednesday night in The Event Center.

Benally's three in the third established a new SJSU sophomore record for three-pointers in a season. It was her 48th of the year and moved her passed Kari Steele who converted 47 in her sophomore season of 1994-95. Benally finished the night with nine points on three buckets from beyond the arc and currently sits at 49.

The only Spartan in double figures scoring was freshman Megan Anderson, who was 3-of-7 from beyond the arc on her way to 12 points. Anderson has 31 threes through 21 games and is on pace to break the program's freshman three-point record of 43 set by Britta Hall in 2013-14.

SJSU saw UNLV jump out to a 10-0 lead in the first four minutes and didn't score until Alexis Harris grabbed an offensive rebound at the 5:48 mark and laid it back in to make it 10-2. They were the first two of 11 second-chance points the Spartans got on their way to outscoring the Rebels 11-to-10 in that category. It is the first time in the last five games that San José State has bettered a team in second-chance scoring.

Outscored 23-10 in the first quarter, SJSU battled back in the second. Trailing UNLV (12-8, 7-2 MW) by 14 with 4:18 to play before intermission, Anderson hit a three followed by a Benally triple and it was down to eight, 31-23, with a little over a minute and a half to go.

Anderson was fouled and made both free throws. And following a UNLV layup, Taylor Turney hit a pair of shots from the charity stripe to send the game to the half with the Rebels up 33-27.

Benally hit her three-pointer on the first possession of the third period, but then everything went south. SJSU committed six turnovers, and went 0-of-10 from the floor while UNLV went on a 26-to-2 run. A Myzhanique Ladd jumper with 3:31 to play in the period ended the UNLV run, but the damage was done. When the quarter ended the Rebels had outscored SJSU 30-11 and the score was 63-38 with 10 minutes to play. With the game in hand, the teams traded buckets in the fourth quarter and UNLV won 80-53.

The Spartans, who have struggled on the boards recently, lost the battle to the taller Rebels 44-to-39, but where they were really hurt was in the turnovers. San José State committed 20 turnovers, which turned into 21 points for the opposition.

The Rebels got 78-of-80 points from their starters, led by Katie Powell's 28. For the game, UNLV outshot the Spartans 45 percent to 30 percent and outscored them 50-to-18 in the paint.

Entering her sixth season leading the Spartans', Jamie Craighead's teams have set and then broken the program's record for points scored in a season, which currently stands at 2,511, and in 2014-15 set a San José State and Mountain West Conference single-game record when the Spartans scored 119 points in a win over Columbia.

Under Craighead's guidance the Spartans reached the semifinals of the 2015 Mountain West Championship Tournament. It marked just the second time in the 41-year history of the program that the team advanced that far in its conference championship tournament. In addition, the team's 15 wins were the most since the 2004-05 team won 18 games.

The 2013-14 squad established single-season marks for free throws attempted (726) and made (493) as well as three-pointers attempted (793) and made (245). In 2014-15, the Spartans set new marks for three-pointers attempted (872) and made (271), assists (501) and total field goal attempts (2,262).

In her five seasons, Craighead's players have earned nine conference post-season awards for their play on the court. In addition, they have earned 35 Academic All-Mountain West (3.0+ GPA) and nine Mountain West Scholar-Athlete honors (3.5+ GPA), five Dean's Scholar (3.65+ GPA) and three President's Scholar designation (4.0 GPA+) as well as nine Arthur Ashe, Jr. Sport-Scholar Award and a first-team Google Cloud Academic All-District VIII honor. Finally, Ta'Rea Cunnigan, the school's all-time leader in scoring, graduated Magna Cum Laude in 2015.

Craighead came to San José State after four seasons at Sacramento State (2010-to-2013), where she was the winningest women's head basketball coach in 20 years and the only coach to post a winning conference record at Sacramento State since entering the Big Sky Conference in the 1996-97 season. Under her guidance, the Hornets reached the conference tournament for just the fifth (2012) and sixth (2013) times in program history. The youngest head coach in Division I when she took over the Hornets, Craighead's teams led the Big Sky Conference in scoring in each of her four seasons.

Sacramento State set several program records in 2012-13 and the team's 19 wins equaled the program's single-season record. The Hornets led the Big Sky in points, three-pointers, and assists and on the defensive end, topped the league in steals and blocks.

Also in 2012-13, Craighead coached Kylie Kuhns and Megan Kritscher, two of the top post players in the Big Sky Conference. Kuhns, at only six feet tall, broke the school and Big Sky career rebounding records during the year, while also leading the team in scoring. For her efforts, Kuhns earned All-Big Sky first-team honors. Kritscher shattered the Big Sky single-season blocks record and ranked fourth in the NCAA in blocks per game for the season.

In four seasons, nine of her players garnered All-Big Sky honors. She coached 2011-12 Big Sky Freshman of the Year Fantasia Hilliard, and 23 of her athletes received Academic All-Big Sky Conference honors for their work in the classroom.

Prior to accepting the top job at Sacramento State, Craighead spent the 2007-08 season as an assistant for the Hornets before being promoted to Associate Head Coach the following year.

Craighead started her coaching career in 2002 under two-time NCAA Division II Coach of the Year Gordy Presnell at Seattle Pacific University. In her three years at SPU, the team posted an 89-5 record, won three PacWest Conference titles, qualified for the NCAA Division II Tournament each year and reached the championship game in 2005. After her success in Seattle, she spent two seasons as an assistant at Portland State University before taking a position at Sacramento State.

As a collegiate player at the University of Oregon, Craighead led the Ducks to the 2002 WNIT championship after three appearances in the NCAA Tournament. When she finished her career, her 182 3-point field goals made ranked second all-time in Ducks history.

Craighead earned honorable mention Academic All-Pac-10 honors as a senior and graduated from Oregon with a bachelor's degree in educational studies in 2002.
