UNDERSTANDING UNLV

Thursday's meeting will also serve as the 29th game of the season for UNLV. The team currently owns a 13-15 record and is coming off a 29-point loss at Boise State on Wednesday. The Lady Rebels are 9-8 in Mountain West play this season and sit in fifth place in the conference standings.

It's senior Rodjanae Wade who paces the UNLV offense with an average of 14.9 points per game. Wade also tops the team on the boards, pulling down an average of 11.1 rebounds per game.

The Lady Rebels are 9-6 at home this season. They are coming off a win in their last game at Cox Pavilion, a 72-67 victory over San Diego State.

SJSU VS. THE MOUNTAIN WEST

Overall, San José State is 122-226 against the current make up of schools in the Mountain West. The Spartans last conference victory came on Monday against Utah State.

Sophomore Ayzhiana Basallo led her team in the 76-38 victory at the Provident Credit Union Event Center, tallying 18 points while dishing out five assists. This will mark SJSU's final league game until the 2020-21 season.

THREE SEED UP FOR GRABS

Wins by San José State and Fresno State on Thursday night will give the Spartans the No. 3 seed for next month's Mountain West Tournament. The third spot would be the best seed ever earned by the program for a conference tournament (have been a No. 4 seed four times - 2016, 2006, 2003, 2002).

Losses by either the Spartans or Bulldogs on Thursday will hand SJSU the No. 4 seed for the Mountain West Tournament. Head coach Jamie Craighead's team became the third team in the conference to earn a first-round bye by virtue of its win over Colorado State on Saturday.

SEARCHING FOR SOME MARCH MADNESS

The Spartans are aiming to make their first postseason tournament in NCAA program history this year. The school's last trip to the postseason came prior to NCAA sponsorship as the 1980-81 Spartans faced USC in the first round of the AIAW Regionals.

BASALLO NAMED MID-MAJOR PLAYER OF THE YEAR SEMIFINALIST

Sophomore Ayzhiana Basallo has been named as one of 10 semifinalists for the Her Hoop Stats Becky Hammon Mid-Major Player of the Year award. The point guard is the youngest player on the list and the only representative from the Mountain West.

WHITE(HEAD) NOISE

Forward Tyra Whitehead ranks No. 13 in all of Division I and is second in the Mountain West with 282 rebounds. Her 12 double-doubles on the season (three of which have come in her last three games) slots her at second in the conference and 27th nationally in that category. Whitehead has made 170 field goals on the season and is 25 makes away from breaking into the program's top-10 list for made field goals in a season.

The Wake Forest transfer became just the second player in program history to join the 20/20 Club last month, tallying 22 points and 20 rebounds against first-place Fresno State. Whitehead was just the 13th player in all of Division I to accomplish the feat this season and is the first to do so at San José State since Lora Alexander (1989). It was an all-around strong month for the forward, who was named the Mountain West Player of the Week on Jan. 27 after recording back-to-back double-doubles in wins over New Mexico and Air Force.

MONDAY WAS FUN

There was no case of the Mondays this week for San José State as the team's 38-point victory over Utah State marked the program's largest conference victory since Jan. 11, 1980 (70-25 vs. Santa Clara). The 38 points allowed is the program's fewest in a game since Feb. 18, 2006 (58-35 vs. New Mexico State).

GOOD LUCK WHEN ENDING IN VEGAS

Finishing the regular season in Las Vegas has proved lucky in the past for the Spartans under head coach Jamie Craighead. SJSU ended the 2014-15 regular season with a 99-97 victory at UNLV, then won back-to-back games in the Mountain West Tournament to advance to the semifinals. It marked just the second time in school history that the program advanced to the semifinals of a conference tournament.

BASALLO BREAKDOWN

Ayzhiana Basallo has been one of the top guards in the country this season, ranking 24th nationally in points per game (19.0) and No. 48 in assists with 125 total dimes. She is also one of the nation's top free throw shooters, slotted third in Division I with a 92.5% clip at the charity stripe. Her 136 makes at the charity stripe has her at No. 6 on the program's list for made free throws in a single season (Ta'Rea Cunnigan is all-time leader at 178).

Basallo has scored in double figures in 23 of her 25 games against Division I opponents and has reached the 20-point plateau in 13 of those. In addition, the point guard tops the Mountain West in both scoring and free throw percentage as the month of February comes to a close.

CARDIAC SPARTANS

The Spartans have been one of the conference's top teams in the clutch this season, winning nine games decided by one or two possessions. Four of those nine victories have come by three points or less.

ON THE BENCH

In addition to being the youngest staff in the conference, the Spartans are one of just three schools in the Mountain West (Air Force and Nevada) with an all-female coaching staff. This is head coach Jamie Craighead's seventh season with the Spartans while associate head coach Alle Moreno is now in her fifth year. Assistant coaches Carlotta Kloppenburg and Arielle Wideman joined the staff in 2018.

A RELIABLE START

Forward Tyra Whitehead has scored the Spartans first points in seven of the team's last eight games. On the year, the junior has tallied SJSU's first points in 11 total contests.

Jamie Craighead was named the eighth head women's basketball coach at San José State University on September 16, 2013.

Entering 2019-20, her seventh season leading the Spartans, Craighead's teams have set and then broken the program's record for points scored in a season, and in 2014-15 set a San José State and Mountain West Conference single-game record when the Spartans scored 119 points in a win over Columbia.

Under Craighead's guidance the Spartans reached the semifinals of the 2015 Mountain West Championship Tournament. It marked just the second time in the 42-year history of the program that the team advanced that far in its conference championship tournament. In addition, the team's 15 wins were the most since the 2004-05 team won 18 games.

The 2013-14 squad established single-season marks for free throws attempted (726) and made (493) as well as three-pointers attempted (793) and made (245). In 2014-15, the Spartans set new marks for three-pointers attempted (872) and made (271), assists (501) and total field goal attempts (2,262).

In her six seasons, Craighead's players have earned nine conference post-season awards for their play on the court. In addition, they have earned 32 Academic All-Mountain West (3.0+ GPA), 13 Mountain West Scholar-Athlete honors (3.5+ GPA), five Dean's Scholar (3.65+ GPA) and three President's Scholar designation (4.0 GPA+) as well as nine Arthur Ashe, Jr. Sport-Scholar Award and a first-team Capital One Academic All-District VIII honor. Finally student athletes, Ta'Rea Cunnigan, the school's all-time leader in scoring, and Emily Vann graduated Magna Cum Laude in 2015 and 2016, respectively.

Craighead came to San José State after spending four seasons at Sacramento State (2010-13), where she was the winningest women's head basketball coach in 20 years and the only coach to post a winning conference record at Sacramento State since they entered the Big Sky Conference in the 1996-97 season. Under her guidance the Hornets reached the Big Sky Conference Tournament for just the fifth (2012) and sixth (2013) times in program history. In those appearances, Sacramento State earned its first tournament wins and reached the semi-final round both years.

The youngest head coach in Division I when she took over the Hornets, Craighead's teams, playing a fast-break type offense, led the Big Sky Conference in scoring in each of her four seasons. Sacramento State set several program records in 2012-13 including field goals made, assists, blocked shots and fewest turnovers committed. In addition, the team's 19 wins equaled the program's single-season record, which was set in the 1990-91 season. The Hornets led the Big Sky in points, 3-pointers, and assists and on the defensive end, topped the league in steals and blocks.

Also in 2012-13, Craighead coached Kylie Kuhns and Megan Kritscher, two of the top post players in the Big Sky Conference. Kuhns, at only six feet tall, broke the school and Big Sky career rebounding records during the year, while also leading the team in scoring.

In four seasons, nine of her players garnered All-Big Sky honors. She coached 2011-12 Big Sky Freshman of the Year Fantasia Hilliard, and 23 of her athletes received Academic All-Big Sky Conference honors for their work in the classroom.

Prior to accepting the top job at Sacramento State, Craighead spent the 2007-08 season as an assistant for the Hornets before being promoted to Associate Head Coach the following year.

Craighead started her coaching career in 2002 under two-time NCAA Division II Coach of the Year Gordy Presnell at Seattle Pacific University. In her three years at SPU, the team posted an 89-5 record, won three PacWest Conference titles, qualified for the NCAA Division II Tournament each year and reached the championship game in 2005. After her success in Seattle, she spent two seasons as an assistant at Portland State University before taking a position at Sacramento State.
