Brad Sanfilippo

*Head Coach
6th Season*

Brad Sanfilippo has coached six seasons for San Jose State baseball.

Sanfilippo was promoted to the position of head coach on June 12, 2018 after serving one season as the program's interim head coach. He has posted 47 wins in conference play and 88 wins total.

In 2022 under the leadership of Sanfilippo, the Spartans won 30 games for the first time since 2011, finishing third in the regular season with a 16-14 league record. San José State made its first trip to the Mountain West Championship Game, and finished with a winning record for the first time in over a decade (35-26 in 2011). Three Spartans were named to the All-Tournament team (Jonathan Clark, Theo Hardy and Jack Colette). The Spartans won two conference tournament games for the first time since the 2011 WAC tournament. San José State finished the year with a single-season school record 66 home runs.

In 2021, the Spartans earned back-to-back Mountain West Pitcher of the Week awards (Trevor Ernt, Jonathan Clark) under the guidance of Sanfilippo. After the season, the program saw its highest MLB Draft pick in 17 years when Ruben Ibarra was selected in the fourth round by the Cincinnati Reds.

Shortened by the COVID-19 pandemic, Sanfilippo coached the Spartans to five victories on the 2020 campaign. The highlight of the abbreviated season came in a series win over Creighton where the Spartans exploded for 17 runs in the final two contests of the weekend. Three of Sanfilippo's student-athletes - Jonathan Clark, Ruben Ibarra and Troy Viola were selected to the All-Mountain West team at season's end.

In 2019, Sanfilippo led the Spartans to a 20-34 record overall and a 13-17 mark in conference play. The Spartans fell just one game short of playing in their second-straight Mountain West Tournament. SJSU began the season with a 12-6 mark in conference play before injuries began to pile up and take its toll on the program. Senior Kellen Strahm was a First Team All-MW selection after leading the conference with a .382 batting average. Fellow senior Andrew Mitchel was the MW strikeout leader with 112.

In 2018, Sanfilippo coached the Spartans to their most wins in a single season since 2011, and their most conference wins in nearly a decade with 16. The team posted its highest batting average in nine seasons and lowest ERA since 2012. The Spartans finished the 2018 season in third place, their highest finish since joining the Mountain West in 2013. Sanfilippo coached four All-MW players including Mitchel, a first team selection and the MW Co-Pitcher of the Year. Brett Bautista also earned first team honors while Fineas Del Bonta-Smith and Shane Timmons earned second team honors.

Prior to his promotion to head coach, Sanfilippo was an assistant coach at San Jose State in 2013 and 2014. He also was an assistant coach at California for the 2010 through 2012 and the 2015 through 2017 seasons, reaching the College World Series with the Golden Bears in 2011.

He coached 21 Golden Bear players that were drafted by major league teams. Four of them are currently on Major League rosters - Mark Canha (Oakland Athletics), Marcus Semien (Oakland Athletics), Andrew Knapp (Philadelphia Phillies), and Trevor Hildenberger (Minnesota Twins).

Sanfilippo has seven seasons of high school head coaching experience leading Los Gatos (Calif.) High for six seasons and one at Willow Glen High in San Jose.

As a head coach, Los Gatos High won four El Camino League titles (2005, 2006, 2007, 2009) and the 2006 and 2009 Central Coast Section (CCS) Division II championships. The 2006 team was the first Los Gatos High team to win a CCS baseball title and finished the season ranked 12th in the state. The Wildcats were 139-51 during Sanfilippo's tenure.

Following the 2009 season, Sanfilippo was inducted into the Los Gatos High School Hall of Fame.

Sanfilippo is a 1998 UC Davis graduate. He was a three-year starter on the Aggies baseball team and a team captain in 1998. Sanfilippo and his wife, Colleen, have two daughters, Frances and Scarlett.

Retired Number

Gene Menges, Head Coach, 1970-86

The only number in San José State baseball history to have ever been retired - #22 - belongs to former Spartan head coach Gene Menges (1926-2016), the second-winningest coach in the school's 127-year baseball history. He led the team for 17 seasons and compiled a 467-434-4 record. In 1978 and 1979, he was named Coach of the Year by the Northern California Baseball Association.

Menges earned his degree from San José State in 1951 and his master's degree in 1957. The quarterback of the 1948-50 Spartan football teams, his career totals still rank among the best in Spartan history. He joined the Spartan coaching staff in 1952 as an assistant baseball coach before assuming the head coaching duties in 1970. He held the rank of professor emeritus in the human performance department at SJSU, and is also a member of the San José State University Sports Hall of Fame.

Former San Jose State baseball coach failed to promote atmosphere of compliance

The former San Jose State baseball coach did not promote an atmosphere of compliance when he directed and supervised student-athletes' participation in activities that exceeded NCAA countable activity rules, according to a Division I Committee on Infractions panel.

This case was resolved through the summary disposition process, a cooperative effort where the involved parties collectively submit the case to the Committee on Infractions in written form. The NCAA enforcement staff, university and participating individuals must agree to the facts and overall level of the case to use this process instead of a formal hearing.

During a two-year period, the head coach asked student-athletes if they would like to participate in voluntary activities before and after mandatory practice. He then listed the voluntary activities on the daily practice schedules. The student-athletes believed their presence at the activities was mandatory and, at times, members of the coaching staff were present and observed the activities. Additionally, sometimes the coach allowed the required practice and skill activities to run longer than their scheduled times.

In addition to directing and supervising the activities that exceeded the NCAA's countable activity rules, the former head coach did not monitor his program when he submitted inaccurate activity reports to the compliance office.

The panel used the Division I membership-approved infractions penalty guidelines to prescribe the following measures:

Two years of probation from Sept. 6, 2018, through Sept. 5, 2020.

A one-year show-cause order for the former head coach. During that period, any NCAA member school employing the former assistant coach must suspend him from all coaching duties for the first 10 games of the season.

A $5,000 fine (self-imposed by the university).

During the fall 2017 and January 2018 out-of-season segments, the baseball program reduced the number of weekly countable activity hours to a maximum of six hours per week, with no more than one hour of skill instruction per week (self-imposed by the university). NCAA rules allow up to eight hours per week with no more than two hours of skill instruction.

During the fall 2018 out-of-season segments, the baseball team will not engage in any countable activity for three weeks (self-imposed by the university). Additionally, all student-athletes must record voluntary hours of athletic activity and the compliance office must confirm the information.

During the spring 2018 and spring 2018 in-season segments, the program will reduce weekly countable hours to a maximum of 17 hours per week, from 20 hours allowed by NCAA rules (self-imposed by the university). Additionally, all student-athletes must record voluntary hours of athletic activity, and the compliance office must confirm the information.
