GAME STORIES

- The Hawks defeated George Mason, 84-80, in the first A-10 meeting of the teams. Halil Kanacevic scored 23 points and Langston Galloway had 20. DeAndre' Bemby added 17 and Papa Ndao had a career-high 13 while replacing the injured Ronald Roberts, Jr.
- Halil Kanacevic was named the Big 5 Player of the Week for the second time this year.
- Senior Ronald Roberts, Jr., who missed the George Mason game with back spasms, is questionable for tonight and his status will be determined on game day. Sophomore Isaiah Miles will be sidelined for the third consecutive game after he suffered a concussion in the win over Denver (Jan. 4).
- Langston Galloway is the team's leading scorer (17.2) while Ronald Roberts tops the Hawks in field goal percentage (.564). Halil Kanacevic leads the team in rebounding (8.1) as well as assists (4.1) and blocks (1.3).
- The Hawks play their final non-conference game of the year when they visit Penn at The Palestra on Saturday at 7 p.m.

PHIL MARTELLI Head Coach

Now in his 19th season as Saint Joseph's University head coach, Phil Martelli has built a program that is consistently one of the top in the conference, a perennial post-season participant and a key player on the national scene, while earning his place among the top coaches in the school's storied history. He has worked 29 years overall at SJU, including 10 seasons as an assistant coach.

Martelli is the Hawks' all-time leader in career victories with a mark of 348-242. He set the record with the victory over Morgan State on December 28, 2011, breaking the mark held by Bill Ferguson (309). Setting the school record for wins in a season (30) in 2004, Martelli has guided SJU to 20 or more victories seven times in the past 18 seasons, which is the most for any Hawks coach.

Martelli is the dean of Atlantic 10 coaches as the longest tenured coach currently in the league. He also ranks second all-time in the league in overall career victories, and with a 167-121 mark in Atlantic 10 play, owns the most conference wins for any active coach.

One of the more respected coaches in the game, he is currently the President of the NABC's Board of Directors and is a member of the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Ethics Coalition.

The 2012-13 season saw an experienced Saint Joseph's squad reach the Atlantic 10 Quarterfinals and earn a second consecutive NIT bid, for the 11th postseason berth in Martelli's career. Among the highlights of the season was a win over nationally-ranked Notre Dame in the Coaches vs. Cancer Classic, a victory over local rival Temple and two wins over conference foe Xavier.

In 2011-12, Martelli and the Hawks became one of nine teams in the nation to win 20 games after losing 20 the previous season, and also returned to the postseason with an NIT bid. Saint Joseph's boasted a young and exciting squad, and one of the most balanced in school history, as five different players received Atlantic 10 honors, the most ever for the Hawks. SJU also scored two wins over Top 25 teams (Creighton and Temple) and Martelli became SJU's all-time leader in victories.

In 2010-11, Martelli guided the youngest squad in his career, which included three freshman starters. The Hawks made an exciting late-season run, earning a berth in the A-10 Tournament with a win in the final regular-season game, and won two games in the tourney to reach the semifinals. He reached two milestones with his 300th career victory (March 11) and his 150th conference win (March 5), while also coaching his 500th game and 250th A-10 contest.

Martelli faced a challenge in 2009-10 with a young and inexperienced squad that went 11-20, coming off a 2008-09 season that saw the Hawks go 17-15 for his ninth consecutive winning season. Among the highlights of '08-09 was Ahmad Nivins earning AP Honorable Mention All-America honors and becoming the third Hawk in six years to garner the Atlantic 10's Player of the Year Award. Nivins was also chosen by the Dallas Mavericks in the 2009 NBA Draft, becoming the third player coached by Martelli to be drafted.

The 2007-08 Hawks reached the Atlantic 10 Championship game for the third time in four years and earned the program's 19th bid to the NCAA Tournament, and Martelli's fifth. The 11th-seeded Hawks fell to sixth-seeded Oklahoma in the NCAA First Round, while ending the year at 21-13.

Martelli has been at his best when it counts the most as his 17 postseason wins (6 NCAA, 11 NIT) are the most in school history, ahead of Ramsay's 12. Martelli ranks first among Hawk coaches with a .608 postseason winning percentage (.17-11) and has taken SJU to the postseason in nine of the last 13 years, and 11 times in his 18 seasons.

Martelli turned in another top-notch coaching performance in 2005-06, as the Hawks went from a 10-12 record to win eight consecutive games to reach the Atlantic 10 championship game for the second year in a row. SJU was rewarded with its sixth consecutive postseason bid, but saw the season come to an end in the NIT Second Round.

In 2004-05, Martelli turned in perhaps a more remarkable coaching job than in 2003-04 when he was the consensus National Coach of the Year. Faced with the loss of two NBA first-round draft picks, the 2004-05 Hawks struggled early on, but Martelli guided SJU to 21 wins in the calendar year of 2005 to finish 24-12. Saint Joseph's posted the conference's best record (14-2), won its fifth straight regular-season title to tie the league record, earned the A-10's top seed and reached the title game. He was named the Atlantic 10 Coach of the Year for the second straight season and the fourth time in his career. SJU made an exciting six-game run in the NIT, falling on a last-second shot in the championship game.

In 2003-04, Martelli guided a focused and unselfish squad that became the most com-

Honors: 2004 Consensus National Coach of the Year; Atlantic 10 Coach of the Year (2005, 2004, 2001, 1997); USBWA District Coach of the Year (2004, 1997); Philadelphia Big 5 Coach of the Year (2004, 1997, 1996); Honorary Doctorates - Widener University 2004, Cabrini College 2006, Immaculata University 2010.

elling story in college basketball. The Hawks went undefeated in the regular season, reached the pinnacle as the top-ranked team in the nation and earned the school's first-ever number-one seed in the NCAA Tournament, while advancing to the Elite Eight. Jameer Nelson was the consensus National Player of the Year and with teammate Delonte West, were both first-round selections in the NBA Draft. SJU opened the season ranked 12th in the polls and moved up throughout the year, taking the top spot on March 8, 2004, for the first time ever, while finishing fifth in the polls, for SJU's highest final ranking since 1966.

Martelli joined with Nelson to sweep the national coach and player awards, marking one of the few times in history that the top player and coach were from the same school. In addition to the national awards, he was the Atlantic 10 Coach of the Year for the third time and a repeat winner of the Big 5 Coach of the Year.

He served as head coach of the 2005 USA Under-21 World Championship Team, which finished in fifth place finish at the FIBA U21 World Championships.

A 1976 graduate of Widener, Martelli began his career on Hawk Hill with SJU's 1985-86 NCAA Tournament team. After 10 years as an assistant at Saint Joseph's, Martelli was named the 14th coach in school history on July 20, 1995, and just the third non-alumnus to follow in the storied tradition of SJU coaches.

Martelli burst onto the scene in his first season (1995-96) and took the squad to the NIT championship game. He followed that in 1996-97 with the Atlantic 10 regular season and tournament titles, along with a berth in the NCAA Sweet 16.

Prior to his arrival at SJU, Martelli spent seven years as head basketball coach at Bishop Kenrick High School and had a stint as assistant coach at Widener, helping guide the Pioneers to the 1978 NCAA Division III Final Four.

As a point guard at Widener, he was part of the NCAA Tournament teams in 1975 and 1976, and set the school's single season and career assist marks.

Martelli and his wife, Judy, a former basketball player with the national champion Immaculata College teams in the 1970s, have three children - Phil, Jr., Jimmy and Elizabeth. Phil, Jr. is an assistant basketball coach at the University of Delaware while he and Elizabeth are both Saint Joseph's graduates. The Martelli's have two young grandchildren, Philip Stephen, and Marra, who are the children of Phil, Jr., and wife Meghan.

LAST TIME OUT: Trailing by three points with 7:25 remaining in the game, seniors Halil Kanacevic and Langston Galloway put Saint Joseph's on their backs and led the Hawks to a gritty 84-80 win at George Mason in the first A-10 meeting of the teams. Kanacevic scored 23 points, Galloway had 20 and DeAndre' Bembry added 17, while Papa Ndao posted a career-high 13 points on 4-of-4 shooting in his first start of the season. The Hawks were without second-leading scorer Ronald Roberts, Jr., who missed his first career game due to back spasms, and Isaiah Miles who missed his second consecutive game due to a concussion. Trailing 45-40 at halftime, SJU opened the second half on a 10-2 run, culminating in a dunk and a layup by Kanacevic to put the Hawks on top, 53-47, with 16:26 remaining. The Patriots closed back to within 54-53 but a layup by Bembry restored a three-point lead a minute later. The Hawks took a 60-55 lead at the 12:28 mark, but GMU would answer with an 11-3 run to take a 66-63 lead with 7:25 left. Kanacevic answered with a layup and Ndao hit his third three-pointer of the game to put SJU ahead for good, 68-67, with 6:12 to go. That bucket kicked off a 9-0 run that featured four points from Galloway and left the Hawks with a 74-67 advantage with 3:16 to play. A pair of GMU free throws broke up the run, but the Hawks then scored six of the next seven points, punctuated by a fast break dunk from Bembry, to take an 80-70 lead at :45. Galloway and Kanacevic would each drain a pair of free throws to help seal the victory before GMU hit a desperation three-pointer at the buzzer to provide the final margin.

CITY'S FINEST: Halil Kanacevic was named the Big 5 Player of the Week for Jan. 13 and for the second time this year. The 6-8 forward averaged 21.0 points, 10.0 rebounds and 3.5 assists in the Hawks' 1-1 week. He connected on 62.5 percent from the field (15-for-24), 50 percent from three-point range (2-for-4) and 71.4 percent from the foul line (10-for-14). In the win at George Mason, Kanacevic scored a game-high 23 points while grabbing seven rebounds. The senior connected on 9-of-15 from the field and 5-of-6 from the foul line. Earlier in the week, he posted a team-high 19 points and 13 rebounds in the Hawks' 66-62 loss at #19 Massachusetts for his fourth double-double of the season. He shot 6-for-9 from the floor and made 2-of-3 three-pointers, while handing out a team-high six assists.

INJURY REPORT: Ronald Roberts, Jr., remains questionable for the game after he suffered back spasms at UMass and missed the George Mason game. His status will be determined on Wednesday. If he cannot play, junior Papa Ndao will make his second start, and seventh of his career. Sophomore Isaiah Miles will be sidelined for the third consecutive game after suffering a concussion in a collision with a Denver player on Jan. 4. He could return to practice as early as Thursday.

NOW'S THE TIME: Papa Ndao stepped up in a big way at George Mason, replacing Ronald Roberts in the starting lineup. The junior made the sixth start of his career and responded with a perfect shooting game to score a career-high 13 points. It marked his first time in double figures as he went 4-for-4 from the field, making three three-pointers, and hitting two free throws in the final minute. Ndao played a career-high 37 minutes - his previous high was 20 minutes.

DEPTH PERCEPTION: The injuries to starter Ronald Roberts and sixth man Isaiah Miles have emphasized the Hawks' lack of depth. At #19 UMass, SJU was without Miles because of a concussion suffered in the Denver win. Then Roberts suffered back spasms early in the second half (17:05), which sidelined him for the rest of the game. Phil Martelli used only seven players in the rotation and seniors Langston Galloway and Halil Kanacevic played all 40 minutes. It marked the first time in his career that Kanacevic played all 40 minutes - although he did play 44 in an overtime win over Notre Dame last season. The Hawks were without Roberts and Miles at George Mason, but Papa Ndao made the start and contributed a career-high 13 points, and Galloway and Kanacevic logged 40 minutes again. SJU's starters all average over 30 minutes per game on the season. The reserve with the most playing time is Daryus Quarles, who is averaging 14.9 minutes in 13 games.

NATION'S BEST: Langston Galloway ranks fifth in the nation among active career leaders for three-point field goals, with his career total of 280. He also ranks 22nd in threes made per game (2.46) and 24th in three-point percentage (44.2). The top five in three-pointers made are:

Name, School	G	3FGM
1. Travis Bader, Oakland	123	442
2. Akeem Richmond, E. Carolina	121	336
3. Sean Armand, Iona	119	299
4. Ethan Wragge, Creighton	130	285
5. Langston Galloway, SJU	114	280

BACK IN FORM: Langston Galloway has returned to the long-range shooting form from his sophomore season, when he was the top three-point shooter in the A-10 and ranked fourth in the nation with 46.6 percent. The senior is hitting 44.1 percent this year and ranks second in the A-10 with 3.0 threes made per game.

THE NUMBERS GAME: Halil Kanacevic recently went over 900 points for his career (counting one season at Hofstra) and now has 945. Kanacevic also has 852 career rebounds, counting the 250 he had during his freshman year at Hofstra, in addition to 319 assists.

LONG-DISTANCE SERVICE: Langston Galloway is 14 three-pointers behind the Hawks' all-time leader, Pat Carroll (2001-05), who connected on 294. Galloway's in fine company on the list, having surpassed Hawk greats Jameer Nelson and Marvin O'Connor.

CAREER 3-POINT FIELD GOALS

Name	Seasons	G	3FG
1. Pat Carroll	2001-05	98	294
2. Langston Galloway	2010-	114	280
3. Darrin Govens	2006-10	124	244
4. Marvin O'Connor	1999-02	89	231
5. Jameer Nelson	2000-04	125	229

ON THE LINE: The Hawks have been on a rollercoaster ride with their free-throw shooting this season and coach Phil Martelli has called it "disconcerting". After hitting just 45.5 percent (10-for-22) against Drexel, the Hawks then converted 80 percent in back-to-back games. At Loyola, SJU made 32-of-40, while making 15 straight, which was two shy of the school record set in 1993. In the win over Boston University, SJU went 20-for-25 from the line. They hit a new low point against Binghamton, converting just 5-of-14 in the game (35.7 percent) and followed that with back-to-back sub-50 percent efforts against Denver and UMass. On the season, Saint Joseph's is shooting 65.9 percent. Here's a look at the recent numbers.

	FT Pct.
Drexel (W)	45.5
Loyola (W)	80.0
Boston Univ. (W)	80.0
Binghamton (W)	35.7
Denver (W)	56.5
UMass (L)	58.8
George Mason (W)	73.1

MR. DEPENDABLE: Langston Galloway remains the most consistent shooter from the foul line for the Hawks, converting a team-high 82.3 percent. Galloway shoots at a clip of 81.9 percent for his career, which ranks eighth all-time.

THE HAWK WILL NEVER DIE: The Saint Joseph's Hawk mascot has been named the best college basketball tradition by NCAA.com in its rankings of the top five traditions. Ranking behind the Hawk are: 2- Kansas' "Rock Chalk, Jayhawk" chant; 3- the "Frisbee Cheer" at UCLA; 4- Duke's "Krzyszewski-Ville" when students camp out for the game with North Carolina; and 5- Wake Forest's "Rolling the Quad" with streamers of white tissue.

DOUBLE DUTY: Halil Kanacevic had his fourth double-double game of the year at UMass, with team-highs of 19 points and 15 rebounds. The senior scored 12 points in the second half as the Hawks fell short, 66-62.

UPS AND DOWNS: In the UMass game, the Hawks shot 45.5 percent in the first half and 52.0 percent in the second as they fell four points short of the upset bid. The Hawks were on target from beyond the arc (50%) and the foul line (100%) in the first half, but then struggled from both in the second, making just 1-of-8 three-point attempts and 4-of-11 from the line. Saint Joseph's was also hurt by a season-high 17 turnovers.

MOVING ON UP: Langston Galloway has 1,647 points in his career and ranks 14th on the all-time list. Here's the list of the former Hawks currently ahead of Galloway:

CAREER SCORING

Name	Seasons	G	POINTS
11. Bob Lojewski	1981-85	116	1,682
12. Rodney Blake	1984-88	116	1,679
13. Marvin O'Connor	1999-02	89	1,678
14. Langston Galloway	2010-	114	1,647

COMING BACK: The Denver win marked the second time in three games in which the Hawks fought back from an 11-point deficit to earn the victory. SJU trailed BU by 11 with 18:52 to play in the second half and earned a 73-67 win. Against Denver, the Hawks trailed by 11 points midway through the first half and picked up the 53-52 win.

GAME OF THREES: The Hawks put on a long-range shooting show against Binghamton, tying their season-high with 14 made on 26 attempts (53.6%). Langston Galloway tied his season-high with six made and Chris Wilson added a 3-for-6 effort. The Hawks rank third in the A-10 in three-pointers made with 6.9 per game.

NO WORRIES: Ronald Roberts, Jr. went scoreless in the first half against Denver, but ended up finishing the game with nine points and a game-high 15 rebounds. Phil Martelli was confident the senior would bounce back in the second half - "That's a matter of maturity, and the coaches get a lot of credit. You know who else? Halil [Kanacevic] because he'll whisper in Ron's ear."

BOUNCING BACK, PART 2: Similar to Ronald Roberts, DeAndre' Bemby also turned things around in the second half vs. Denver. After going 1-for-9 in the first half, the freshman connected on 4-of-5 shots to finish with 13 points and help the Hawks to the win.

WINNING WITH WILSON: Point guard Chris Wilson scored in double figures four times during the five-game winning streak. Wilson had 11 points against Drexel, 17 at Loyola and tied his career-high with 19 in the win over BU. He shot a career-best 7-for-14 from the field vs. BU, while making 3-of-6 three pointers. He then added 13 points vs. Binghamton.

DEE-FENSE: SJU relied on its defense to get it back into the BU game. The Hawks held the Terriers without a field goal for 9:30 of the second half as they erased an 11-point deficit in the 73-67 win. In the next win, Saint Joseph's shut down Binghamton, limiting them to just 44 points.

STREAK ENDER: Saint Joseph's saw its five-game winning streak come to an end at UMass. It was their longest of the season thus far and longest since a five-game streak in December, 2011.

TALE OF TWO HALVES: Saint Joseph's had two completely different halves at Loyola, and despite leading by as much as 37 points, held on for an 88-77 win. During the first half, the Hawks shot a blistering 64.5% (20-31) from the field, including 8-of-12 from three-point range, and hit on all 12 of their free throw attempts. The 60 points scored was short of the school record of 69 registered in 1971. In the second half, Loyola outscored SJU 53-28 and held the Hawks to just four field goals (4-of-21) and a season-low 28 points.

STREAK STATS: During the five-game winning streak, the Hawks outscored their opponents, 72-59. The Hawks hit 40.9 percent from three-point range, while holding the foes to 23.0 percent shooting. SJU also maintained a +10.6 rebounding margin.

ODD OCCURRENCE: Halil Kanacevic went without an assist against Denver. It was the first time since the Butler game on Jan. 9, 2013 that the Hawks' leader in assists did not register one. In the Denver game, however, the Hawks missed 21 shots in the first half.

JOIN THE CLUB: Ronald Roberts, Jr. became the 51st Hawk to score 1,000 points vs. LSU on November 28. He now has 1,141 points to rank 37th the Hawks' all-time list. Here's a look at the all-time scoring list and the names Roberts should surpass in future weeks:

CAREER SCORING

Name	Seasons	G	POINTS
34. Delonte West	2001-04	89	1,235
35. Mark Bass	1992-96	105	1,205
36. Reggie Townsend	1992-96	111	1,146
37. Ronald Roberts	2010-	113	1,141

RON'S REBOUNDS: Ronald Roberts has 727 rebounds in his career, to rank 19th in SJU history. Here's where he stands on SJU's all-time list:

CAREER REBOUNDING

Name	Seasons	G	REBOUNDS
17. John Connolly	1968-71	83	780
18. Bernard Blunt	1990-95	119	734
19. Ronald Roberts	2010-	113	727

AROUND THE A-10: Langston Galloway ranks second in the Atlantic 10 in three-pointers made (3.0) and is fifth in scoring (17.0) and second in three-point percentage (44.1). Halil Kanacevic is fourth in rebounding (8.2) and seventh in assists (4.1) while Roberts is eighth in field goal percentage (56.4)

ON THE MARK: Ronald Roberts ranks second in SJU history in career field goal percentage, converting 55.7 percent from the field. Ahmad Nivins, who was the 2009 A-10 Player of the Year, is the all-time leader with 62.7 percent.

FOUR FOR FOUR: Langston Galloway could become the first Hawk to lead the team for all four years in each of two categories - minutes played and three-point percentage. The senior is currently averaging a team-high 35.1 minutes played per game, and leads the squad in three-point percentage (.441). No Hawk has led either of those categories for all four years.

POMP AND CIRCUMSTANCE: Hawks Langston Galloway, Halil Kanacevic and Eric Kindler became Saint Joseph's graduates on December 17, which was the end of the first semester. All three players finished the coursework for their degrees. Kanacevic earned his bachelor's in communications, Galloway received his in sports marketing and Kindler earned a degree in theology. Coach Phil Martelli said it was the first time in his career that he had that many players graduate in December. Both Galloway and Kanacevic will both exhaust their eligibility at the end of this season. Kindler will have one year remaining as he transferred to Saint Joseph's in his sophomore year but did not play basketball.

HAPPY HOMECOMING: Isaiah Miles put together a career-best game vs. Loyola in his hometown of Baltimore. The sophomore scored 11 points in the first half en route to a career-high 17, in just 12 minutes of action.

He hit on 4-of-5 shots from the field and made all eight free throw attempts. He then had his second double-figure effort in three games when he scored 11 points in the win over Binghamton.

BACK-TO-BACK: SJU put together two season-best halves, in the second half against Drexel and the first half against Loyola. In those halves, the Hawks outscored their opponents, 112-52, while converting 60.9 percent (39-for-64) from the field and 61.9 percent (13-for-21) from three-point range.

DOING IT ALL: Halil Kanacevic fills the boxscore unlike any other player. He had a double-double against Creighton with 10 rebounds and 10 assists, which was the first of his career in those categories. That came after a 12-point, 11-rebound, 8-assist effort in the win over Marist. Then there was the career game - 27 points, 14 rebounds, 4 assists, 2 blocks - in the win over Drexel. Against #19 UMass, the senior had 19 points, 13 rebounds and six assists. Phil Martelli said of the senior, "He may not be our best player but he's our most indispensable player. I tried to get some different guys in (vs. Creighton), but then you realize you just have to put him back in."

DYNAMIC DUO: Halil Kanacevic and DeAndre' Bembry combined for 45 of the Hawks' 75 points in the win over Drexel, and had nearly as many as the Dragons scored in the game (55). The duo combined to shoot 19-for-24 from the field.

THE BIG THREE: Senior tri-captains Langston Galloway, Halil Kanacevic and Ronald Roberts, Jr., are the core of the Hawks' team and they currently account for 57 percent of SJU's scoring and 54 percent of the rebounding. There has only been one game thus far - Creighton - in which the Hawks' leading scorer was not one of those three players.

HAIL HALIL: Halil Kanacevic was named the Big 5 Co-Player of the Week for Dec. 23 after he had a career game to lead the Hawks to the win over Drexel. The senior had a career-high 27 points and added 14 rebounds for the 12th double-double of his career. He also led the team with four assists and two blocks while shooting a personal best 12-for-13 from the field. Kanacevic grabbed the offensive rebound of his only miss and scored on the putback. Phil Martelli said, "Halil was the way he had practiced and the way he had talked. He was really emphatic with his teammates about getting their heads up and moving on to the next challenge." It was the first Big 5 honor of his career.

THE DUNK CONNECTION: Halil Kanacevic, the team's leader in assists, has a knack for finding Ronald Roberts around the rim. Kanacevic assisted on three of Roberts' five dunks in the Washington State game and has a total of 13 assists on dunks this season, mostly to Roberts.

ROCK OF AGES: This year's squad is one of SJU's most experienced teams in recent years. The average age of the starting five is 21.2 years old and the top six are the same when you add in Daryus Quarles. Three Hawks - Langston Galloway, Ronald Roberts and Halil Kanacevic - have each played over 110 games in their college careers.

LOOK AT LANGSTON: Against Siena, Langston Galloway scored a season-high 27 points and connected on six three-pointers. Galloway's career-high of three-pointers is seven, which he achieved against Fordham in 2011-12. The senior has scored double figures in all but one game this year and tops the team with 17.2 ppg.

BIG IN THE BIG 5: Ronald Roberts was named the Big 5 Player of the Week for Dec. 30 after his 19-point performance in the Hawks' win over BU. It is his first Big 5 honor of the season and second time in his career.

FAB FROSH: DeAndre' Bembry has impressed with his play. The freshman scored 18 points, his second highest total of the year, against Drexel. He is averaging 11.3 points on the season and is shooting 48.1 percent from the field.

RAVING ABOUT RON: Phil Martelli had this to say about Ronald Roberts after the LSU game: "Ron has worked at his game. He's been the Most Improved Player as voted by the coaching staff for three years in a row.... And he'd even be a candidate for this year. But what Ron will probably tell you after tonight is that he had three turnovers. I'm happy for him, he's the product of a really great family. He and (asst. coach) Dave Duda have worked on his game every day to try to get better."

FIRST HONOR: DeAndre' Bembry was named the Atlantic 10 Rookie of the Week for Nov. 17. He averaged 14.0 points, 3.5 rebounds and 3.0 assists as the Hawks went 1-1 on the week, while connecting on 54.5 percent from the field and 55.6 percent from three-point range.

LONG-RANGE THREAT: Chris Wilson was one point shy of his career-high against Creighton when he tallied 18 points by converting 6-of-11 from three-point range. It marked the second time in his career that Wilson connected on six three-pointers in a game - the first was when he achieved a career-high 19 points against Notre Dame in 2012-13. He also had a 17-point game at Loyola, converting 4-of-5 from the field, and 3-of-4 from three-point range.

ABOUT BEMBRY: Phil Martelli likes what he has seen so far from freshman DeAndre' Bembry: "DeAndre' is a player beyond his age. He's got a really nice way about him and really takes in what you give him."

SEEING DOUBLE: Halil Kanacevic now has a team-high four double-doubles - including one in rebounds (10) and assists (10) vs. Creighton. Ronald Roberts led the Hawks last season with 13 double-doubles on the year and he has two so far, against Marist and Washington State.

ON THE REBOUND: Halil Kanacevic and Ronald Roberts provide the Hawks with a solid rebounding tandem. Kanacevic is averaging 8.1 boards and 6.1 defensive rebounds per game while Roberts is grabbing 7.4 boards and 4.5 defensive rebounds. SJU's team rebounding margin stands at +6.2.

SERVING THE COMMUNITY: Chris Wilson is one of 70 NCAA Men's Division I nominees for the Allstate NABC Good Works Team. The award, now in its second year, recognizes a select group of college basketball student-athletes who have made significant contributions to the greater good of their communities through volunteerism and civic service. Wilson has participated in numerous Saint Joseph's community service projects, has volunteered at his church in Philadelphia and at home in Fayetteville, N.C. Teammate Langston Galloway was named to the inaugural team last year and made a trip to the 2013 NCAA Final Four.

FROM THE START: Freshman DeAndre' Bembry was the first freshman in SJU's starting lineup on opening day since 2010-11 when the trio of Langston Galloway, Daryus Quarles and C.J. Aiken each started their first collegiate game.

RON'S WEEKEND: Ronald Roberts, Jr., was named the Atlantic 10 Co-Player of the Week for Dec. 2. It was the second time in his career that he received the conference's weekly award. He was also selected to the 2013 Old Spice Classic All-Tournament Team as he helped the Hawks to wins over Siena and Washington State by averaging 20 points, 7.0 rebounds and 1.7 blocks in SJU's three games in Orlando.

ENJOYING THE RIDE: On a number of occasions, Phil Martelli has said that he enjoys coaching this group. After the Creighton game, he elaborated, "I have a really great team. Now there are basketball pieces missing. But these guys, you can't wait to get to work with them in every aspect. The way they're perceived on campus and in recruiting is great."

VIVA ITALIA: Saint Joseph's got a jump on the season when it traveled to Italy in August for a 10-day, four-game tour. The Hawks visited Rome, Florence, Venice and Lake Como and posted a 4-0 record on the trip. It marked the second time that Phil Martelli took SJU to Italy, with the last trip coming in 1999.

DEAN OF COACHES: This is Phil Martelli's 19th season at the helm of the Hawks, and he is SJU's all-time leader in career victories with a 348-242 record. He is the longest tenured coach in the Atlantic 10 (19 years) and is now second on the conference's list for all-time career victories (348), behind John Chaney of Temple (516). Martelli is currently serving as the president of the National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC).

SIGN THEM UP: Saint Joseph's had four high school standouts - James Demery, Markell Lodge, Shavar Newkirk, and Obi Romeo - sign National Letters of Intent during the early signing period. Demery is a 6-6 wing player from Northside Christian Academy in Charlotte, N.C. He averaged 16.8 points and 4.2 steals last season as his team won its second straight Independent School 2A state title. Lodge, originally from Virginia, is a 6-7 wing at Pace Academy in Carrboro, N.C., who is known for his tremendous athleticism and leaping ability. Newkirk is a 6-0 point guard from Cardinal Hayes High School in Bronx, N.Y. Considered one of the top point guards in New York City, he helped Cardinal Hayes to the CHSAA Semifinals in 2012. Romeo, a 6-foot-10 forward with a 94-inch wingspan, is originally from Nigeria and has been in the United States for the past three years, attending Greenbrier East High School in West Virginia. He averaged 10 points and 13 rebounds last season for the team that went 20-5.

IN MEMORY: Halil Kanacevic changed his uniform number this year to 45 (from 21) in memory of his uncle, Rizo Popovic, who passed away during the 2012-13 season at the age of 45. Kanacevic explained, "It's one of the most selfish things you think of, as a player, when you're growing up. You get a certain number, you get infatuated with it...I've seen kids get into fights over a jersey number. My thing was, let me be unselfish about that and actually give meaning to it. I know what that number means, I know what it represents, I chose it for personal reasons, not a selfish reason. I felt like I needed to do it."

MEMBERS ONLY: The Hawks could have a trio of 1,000-point scorers on the team in Langston Galloway, Ronald Roberts, Jr. and Halil Kanacevic. Galloway already reached the plateau as a junior and currently has 1,647 points to rank 14th on the all-time scoring list. Roberts achieved it against LSU and now has 1,141 points while Kanacevic has 945 points counting his one season at Hofstra. The last time SJU had three 1,000-point scorers on the same squad was in 2007-08, with Pat Calathes, Rob Ferguson and Ahmad Nivins.

TEN YEARS AFTER: It's hard to believe but this season marks the 10th anniversary of Saint Joseph's memorable 2003-04 season, in which the Hawks went 27-0 during the regular season, and 30-2 overall, earned a number-one seed in the NCAA Tournament and reached the Elite Eight, while coming within two points of a Final Four berth. Jameer Nelson and Phil Martelli were the consensus National Player of the Year and National Coach of the Year, respectively, while creating a season on Hawk Hill for the record books.

HOME SWEET HOME: This marks the fifth season of Michael J. Hagan '85 Arena. The arena was dedicated in October 2009 after a two-year expansion and renovation of Alumni Memorial Fieldhouse, which was the home of the Hawks since 1949. Saint Joseph's owns a 37-22 record in the five seasons of Hagan Arena, but a 355-104 overall record in 63 years of Hagan Arena/Alumni Memorial Fieldhouse. SJU is 4-2 on its home court this season.

COMEBACK KID: Redshirt freshman Kyle Molock made his debut against Marist after recovering from surgery to repair the ACL of his right knee suffered in August 2012. It was the third knee injury for Molock, as he previously had two knee injuries which shortened his high school career. He was averaging 19.0 points through eight games as a senior at Dublin Coffman when he tore the ACL of his right knee in January 2012; in July of 2010, he suffered a severe injury to all of the major ligaments in his left knee, causing him to miss his junior year.

STRENGTH OF SCHEDULE: Saint Joseph's non-conference schedule is ranked as the second toughest in the A-10, behind VCU's. Other non-conference foes of note on the Hawks' schedule are Creighton, Villanova, Temple and Vermont.

THE POINT FORWARD: Halil Kanacevic's unique passing ability for a forward allows the Hawk offense to often run through him. He has been SJU's leader in assists for the past two seasons, tying with Chris Wilson last year with a 3.5 average.

CAPTAINS OF THE SHIP: Langston Galloway, Halil Kanacevic and Ronald Roberts, Jr., were voted as tri-captains by their teammates. Galloway served as the Hawks' lone captain last year.

WATCHING THE HAWKS: Saint Joseph's will have 21 games televised this season, including 13 national television appearances, which is the most ever for the Hawks. (full schedule on page 2)

VETERAN GROUP: The Hawks have a core group with four players who held starting roles last season - Langston Galloway, Ronald Roberts, Jr., Chris Wilson and Halil Kanacevic - along with another senior - Daryus Quarles - who has started 67 games in his career. Galloway and Roberts were the only two players to start all 32 games for the team in 2013. Wilson made 23 starts and led the team in assists with 112 and 3.5 per game while averaging 6.5 points. Kanacevic, who played in 26 games with 14 starts, averaged 8.5 points and 7.2 rebounds and also handed out 3.5 assists. Quarles was a starter his first two seasons in saw action in 29 games last year, mostly in a reserve role.

PRESEASON PICK: Saint Joseph's was voted to finish fifth in the Atlantic 10 Preseason Poll, as voted on by media and the league's coaches. The Hawks finished in a tie for eighth place last year with an 8-8 record.

A LOOK BACK: Last year's squad went 18-14 and earned its second consecutive NIT bid, for the 11th postseason berth under Phil Martelli.

WAITING IN THE WINGS: Freshman forward Jai Williams, from Philadelphia Electrical and Technical Charter School, earned All-Public League Fourth Team honors is expected to redshirt the season to further his development. Aaron Brown, a 6-5 guard, transferred to SJU from West Virginia this summer and will sit out the year due to NCAA transfer rules. He was the Delaware County Player of the Year in 2010 for nearby Penn Wood High School and will have two years with the Hawks beginning in 2014-15.

CRADLE OF COACHES: The Saint Joseph's coaching connection is an impressive one. A total of seven Saint Joseph's graduates have gone on to become head coaches in the NBA, and SJU is tied with Illinois for second on the list of universities with alums that have served as NBA head coaches. Indiana tops the list with 11 graduates that have coached in the league. Jim O'Brien was the most recent NBA head coach, and his last year with the Indiana Pacers was in 2010-11. Below is the list of former Hawks who have held positions as NBA head coaches:

Player (Class)	NBA Teams	W-L (yrs.)
Jack Ramsay ('49)	Phila., Buf., Port., Ind.	864-783 (21)
Jim Lynam ('63)	L.A. Clippers, Phila., Wash.	328-392 (10)
Matt Guokas ('67)	Phila., Orlando	230-305 (7)
Paul Westhead ('61)	L.A. Lakers, Chicago, Denver	183-224 (6)
Jack McKinney ('57)	L.A. Lakers, Indiana	135-205 (5)
George Senesky ('43)	Philadelphia	119-97 (3)
Jim O'Brien ('74)	Indiana, Phila., Boston	303-327 (8)

KEEPING IT IN THE FAMILY: Phil Martelli's staff consists of three former Hawk players. Assistant coach Mark Bass was a junior on Martelli's first team in 1995-96, and then was a senior on the squad that reached the NIT Final in 1997. Assistant coach Geoff Arnold played for the Hawks from 1982 to 1986, and was a member of the 1986 Atlantic 10 championship team. Arnold was a member of Martelli's coaching staff for one season in 1995-96, and then returned to Hawk Hill at the start of the 2008-09 season. Director of basketball operations Rob Sullivan was a member of the 2004 Elite Eight team.

LOOKING AHEAD: The Hawks play their final non-conference game of the year on Jan. 18 at The Palestra against city rival Penn. SJU then plays its third straight game in Philadelphia by hosting Rhode Island on Jan. 22.

THE HAWK

The Saint Joseph's Hawk mascot has been flapping its wings for 57 years.

One of the most famous mascots in college sports, the Hawk is best known for staying in constant motion by flapping its wings throughout every basketball game and representing the Saint Joseph's motto, "The Hawk Will Never Die".

The idea for the Hawk as a mascot was originated by Jim Brennan during the 1954-55 season. Brennan, an ex-Marine and SJU cheerleader, at first wanted to secure an actual hawk, but later switched to the costume idea. The student government raised the 120 dollars needed to buy the initial costume, which Brennan donned for three years. He made his debut as the Hawk on January 4, 1956, a 69-56 win over La Salle at the Palestra. The Hawk has not missed a men's basketball game since that first season.

In addition to the constant flapping, the Hawk is also recognized by its "flying" in figure eights around the court during timeouts. The constant motion, coupled with the scrappy play of the University's athletic teams, helped to spawn the school's familiar slogan "The Hawk Will Never Die!" A few years ago, ESPN used a "flap-o-meter" on the national telecast of a Saint Joseph's game to estimate that the Hawk flaps its wings 3,500 times during a regulation game.

The Hawk is unique because it is one of the few mascots in the nation that travels to every game, and the student who holds the position gains a tuition scholarship. The student, who is selected through an interview process during the previous spring semester, also serves as a team manager for the men's basketball team and travels with the squad.

Ian Klinger, the 35th student to wear the wings, is the Hawk mascot for the second consecutive season. He is a junior finance and accounting major from Millersburg, Pa.

SAINT JOSEPH'S

The corporate title of "Saint" Joseph's University, which has been in place since Saint Joseph's was granted university status by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in 1979, is now the public title of the institution for all aspects of its operations.

ON THE AIR

TV: Saint Joseph's will again have a strong presence on television in 2013-14, with a total of 21 games scheduled for coverage, including 13 national broadcasts. (Complete schedule on page 2)

RADIO: Saint Joseph's University and CBS Sports Radio 610 AM (WIP) are in the third year of the partnership to broadcast every Hawk game. The Saint Joseph's Sports Network team of Matt Martucci and Joe Lunardi will provide the play-by-play and color commentary. Martucci, a 2006 Syracuse University graduate, is in his fifth year as full-time play-by-play announcer. Lunardi, in his 24th year on the Hawks' radio broadcasts, is the associate vice president for marketing at Saint Joseph's, and is a college basketball analyst for ESPN.com with his popular "Bracketology" column. Games can also be heard via audio streaming free of charge on www.SJUHawks.com. CBS Sports Radio 610 will also be the home of Phil Martelli's "HawkTalk" radio show, which will air once a week from 6 to 7 p.m. beginning on January 6.

VIDEO STREAMING: This season, live video broadcasts of many SJU games will be broadcast through the new Atlantic 10 Digital Network as part of the Atlantic 10 Conference's partnership with NeuLion, Inc. with a subscription to Hawks' All-Access (SJUHawks.com). (See schedule on pg. 2)

The Atlantic 10 Conference has also formed a partnership with Campus Insiders (www.campusinsiders.com). Campus Insiders is the leading digital content syndication source and online destination for 190 million college sports fans. A total of four Saint Joseph's games will be streamed free of charge on CampusInsiders.com. They are: Nov. 16 vs. Creighton; Jan. 8 at Massachusetts; Feb. 5 vs. Saint Louis; and March 5 at George Washington.

INTERNET: Information for Saint Joseph's basketball is found at SJU's athletics website, www.SJUHawks.com with statistics, updated game notes, and live in-game statistics for all Hawk home games, and selected road games. Through Hawks All-Access, fans can follow every home game through audio streaming as well as video streaming for non-televized games. All road games are covered with audio streaming and video streaming also available for selected ones. Video features on the team will also be available on the site.

GAME RECAPS

Game 1: November 13, 2013 - Patrick Gym - Burlington, Vt.

SIJU 74 -Vermont 64

Langston Galloway and Ronald Roberts, Jr., scored 21 points apiece to lead Saint Joseph's to a 74-64 win at Vermont in the season opener for both teams, while freshman DeAndre' Bemby scored 11 points in his collegiate debut. The Hawks shot a blistering 65 percent from the field in the first half, but cooled off in the second as Vermont cut a 17-point deficit to just three points at the 10-minute mark of the second. But SIU's seniors – Galloway, Roberts, Daryus Quarles and Halil Kanacevic - pulled the Hawks through as the classmates scored all of the points in a 10-1 run to give them a more comfortable 64-53 lead with 4:21 to play. Roberts, who shot 8-for-13 from the field, added nine rebounds while Kanacevic had seven as the Hawks outrebounded the Catamounts, 41-28.

Game 2: November 13, 2013 - Hagan Arena

SIJU 81- Marist 62

Langston Galloway scored 20 points and Halil Kanacevic and Ronald Roberts, Jr., each posted a double-double as Saint Joseph's defeated Marist, 81-62, in the Hawks' home opener. Kanacevic just missed a triple-double with 12 points, 11 rebounds and eight assists, while Roberts had 16 points and 10 rebounds. Galloway shot 6-for-8 from the field, and 3-for-5 from three-point range, while also grabbing eight rebounds. SIJU scored the first 12 points of the game in the first four minutes and never trailed in the contest. With SIJU leading 12-0, Marist went on a 10-3 run to close to 15-10, but the Hawks would increase it to 20-10 by the midway point of the half. The Hawks closed the half with an 18-8 run to take a 40-25 lead at halftime. Both teams were cold from three-point range in the first half, with the Hawks going 1-for-6 and Marist going 0-for-11. That changed in the second as Saint Joseph's shot 60 percent (6-for-10) while Marist connected on 6-for-11 long-range shots. A three-pointer by Chris Wilson at 8:41 gave Saint Joseph's its biggest margin of the game, 71-47, and the Hawks maintained close to a 20-point lead for the rest of the way.

Marist (0-3)

Game 3: November 16, 2013 - Hagan Arena

Creighton 83 - SIJU 79

Saint Joseph's fell in the final seconds to Creighton, 83-79, as Doug McDermott converted a three-point play with 4.9 seconds to play in front of a sold-out crowd at Hagan Arena. Ronald Roberts, Jr. gave the Hawks a 79-78 lead with a pair of free throws with 27.5 seconds remaining. SIJU had two fouls to give and committed both to force Creighton to inbound with 13.3 seconds remaining. McDermott, who scored 20 points in the game, got the ball on the baseline and hit a jumper inside the arc and was fouled on the play. The Hawks had one more chance but the inbound pass at 4.9 seconds remaining was intercepted and two Creighton free throws provide the final margin. The loss ruined a team high 20-point effort by SIJU freshman DeAndre' Bemby, who scored 14 in the second half. Bemby shot 8-for-14 from the field and connected on 4-of-8 three-pointers. Chris Wilson scored 18 points, making 6-of-11 three-pointers, while Langston Galloway scored 14 and Roberts had 13. Halil Kanacevic had a double-double with 10 rebounds and 10 assists. SIJU led by as much as 13 in the game, and had a 45-40 lead at halftime before Creighton came back in the second half.

Game 4: November 28, 2013 - Old Spice Classic - Orlando, Fla.

LSU 82 - SJU 65

LSU defeated Saint Joseph's, 82-65, in the first round of the 2013 Old Spice Classic, held at ESPN's Wide World of Sports. Ronald Roberts led SJU with 21 points and in the first half, became the 51st Hawk to surpass 1,000 points in his career when he scored on a tip-in at 6:23. The senior connected on 9-of-13 from the field while grabbing a team-high seven rebounds. The Hawks suffered from a poor shooting night, from both the three-point arc (18.8 %) and the foul line (46.2%), as they made just 12-of-26 free throws. Saint Joseph's defense didn't have any answer for the Tigers' long-range shooting as LSU converted 8-of-13 three-point field goals in the opening period. After LSU went up, 51-30, in the first minute of the second half, the Hawks made a run and closed to 54-44. LSU stopped Saint Joseph's momentum with a three-pointer at 10:39 to extend its lead to 57-44. From there, Saint Joseph's fell behind by as many as 21 points, 74-53, with just over four minutes to play.

SJU 78 - Siena 66

Langston Galloway scored a season-high 27 points as Saint Joseph's defeated Siena, 78-66, in the second round of the 2013 Old Spice Classic at ESPN's Wide World of Sports. With his 6-for-10 effort from beyond the arc, Galloway moved into second place on the Hawks' all-time list with 249 three-pointers made. Ronald Roberts added 19 points for the Hawks, hitting 9-of-13 from the field, while Halil Kanacevic added 11 points and six rebounds. SJU scored the first nine points of the game and forced five Siena turnovers in the first four minutes. The Hawks kept Siena scoreless until a free throw at 15:47 and without a field goal until 13:45. SJU increased its lead to 25-11 on back-to-back baskets by Kanacevic and then doubled Siena's score, 32-16, on a dunk by Galloway at 6:47. The teams suffered through a foul-plagued second half, as 29 total fouls were called and the Saints cut the SJU lead to 68-56. But Galloway hit his sixth three-pointer of the game to put the Hawks back up by 15 points, 71-65, with over four minutes to play.

SJU 72 - Washington State 67

Ronald Roberts had 21 points and 10 rebounds to lead Saint Joseph's to a 72-67 win over Washington State in the fifth-place game of the 2013 Old Spice Classic at ESPN's Wide World of Sports. DeAndre Bembry and Langston Galloway each added 13 points. Roberts dominated inside, shooting 8-for-12 from the field, with five dunks on the day, en route to his second double-double of the year. Bembry sparked the Hawks in the second half with 11 points, including a pair of three-point plays. Trailing 56-55 with eight minutes to play, Saint Joseph's outscored the Cougars, 15-4, to take a 70-65 lead with just over a minute to play. WSU pulled to within 70-67 and after SJU missed two shots on its next possession, the Hawks forced a Washington State turnover. Galloway and Roberts each converted a free throw in the final 30 seconds and Bembry blocked a shot with six seconds left to preserve the win.

Game 7: December 4, 2013 - Liacouras Center - Philadelphia, Pa.

Temple 77 - SJU 69

Langston Galloway led four Hawks in double digits with a game-high 24 points, but Saint Joseph's fell to Temple, 77-69, in SJU's Big 5 opener at the Liacouras Center. Ronald Roberts, Jr. (13), DeAndre' Bembyry (12), and Halil Kanacevic (11) also reached double figures for the Crimson and Gray. As is typical of Big 5 battles, the game featured 14 ties and 17 lead changes. The final tie of the game came with 4:27 to play, when Galloway connected on his sixth three-pointer of the game to knot the score, 65-65. But the Hawks would go on to miss three straight three-point attempts and a layup by Anthony Lee at 2:09 gave the Owls the lead for good, 67-65. Next time down the court, Kanacevic missed on a three and Quenton Decosey made one of two free throws to increase the TU lead to 68-65. Roberts scored the Hawks' last basket of the game at :40, and then Temple took numerous trips to the foul line, making 7-of-8 to ice the victory.

Game 8: December 7, 2013 - Hagan Arena

#14/19 Villanova 98- SJU 68

Saint Joseph's fell to 14th-ranked and undefeated Villanova, 98-68, in Big 5 action in front of a standing-room only crowd at Hagan Arena. Langston Galloway scored 18 points to lead four Hawks in double digits while DeAndre' Bembyry scored 17, Ronald Roberts, Jr. had 12 points and Halil Kanacevic tallied 10 for the Hawks. Saint Joseph's held the lead in the early going as a drive by Bembyry gave the Hawks their biggest lead of the game, 30-23, with 5:20 in the first half. But the Wildcats went on a 7-0 run to tie it, 30-30. After Galloway put the Hawks up 33-32, Villanova scored another seven in a row to take a 39-33 lead. A jumper by Galloway at the buzzer cut SJU's halftime deficit to 39-35. Villanova took control of the game late in the first half and outscored the Hawks, 17-5, in the first six minutes of the second half to take a 59-40 lead. Saint Joseph's would come as close as 61-48 with 11:33 to play, but the Wildcats went up by 75-54 with 8:59 to play. The winning margin was their largest lead of the game.

Game 9: December 18, 2013 - Hagan Arena

SJU 75 - Drexel 55

Halil Kanacevic scored a career-high 27 points and had 14 rebounds, while shooting 12-for-13 from the field, to lead Saint Joseph's to a 75-55 win over Drexel. DeAndre' Bembyry scored 18 points and Langston Galloway and Chris Wilson each added 11 points. Kanacevic scored nine points in the first six minutes of the second half as the Hawks went on a 19-5 run to take its biggest lead at that point, 42-32. Drexel pulled to within 54-47 with 7:36 remaining but Saint Joseph's went on a 16-2 run to put the game to take a commanding 70-49 lead with 4:35 remaining. After scoring his first basket of the game at the 12:45 mark of the second half, Galloway netted six points in that spurt by the Hawks. The teams struggled through a sloppy first half in which neither team made a three-point field goal (combined 0-for-12) and Saint Joseph's committed 10 turnovers and went just 1-for-7 from the foul line. Drexel led for all but a minute of the first half and took its biggest lead, 21-12, with 5:13 remaining. Kanacevic and Bembyry led the Hawks back by combining for Saint Joseph's final 11 points of the half. Bembyry scored the last five straight to pull Saint Joseph's within 25-23 before a layup gave the Dragons a 27-23 lead at halftime.

GAME RECAPS

Game 10: December 21, 2013 - Reitz Arena - Baltimore, Md.

SJU 88 - Loyola 77

It was a tale of two halves, but Saint Joseph's held on for an 88-77 win over Loyola Maryland. Four Hawks scored in double figures during a 60-point first half as Ronald Roberts led Saint Joseph's with 20 points. SJU was led early by Langston Galloway, who hit on his first four three-point attempts and first five field goal attempts. After a 10-3 Hawk spurt, Loyola scored five straight to close within 13-12, which would be as close as the Greyhounds would get for the rest of the game. With SJU holding a 24-19 lead, a three-pointer from Isaiah Miles kicked off a 36-5 run to close out the half. Miles' three began a 17-0 spurt for the Hawks and was highlighted by a 9-of-10 shooting stretch for Saint Joseph's. SJU held a 60-24 lead at intermission. During the first half, the Hawks shot a blistering 64.5% (20-31) from the field, including 8-of-12 from three-point range, and hit on all 12 free throw attempts. In the middle of the second half, things turned around as Loyola outscored SJU 53-28 and held the Hawks to just four field goals. With SJU leading 72-42 with 9:30 left, Loyola raced to a 20-5 run, closing to 77-62 with 3:19 to play. Loyola then used an 8-1 spurt over a 40-second span to close to within 79-70 with 1:35 to go. Over the final 1:30, the Hawks hit 9-of-11 free throws to ice the game. Miles finished with a career-high 17 points in his hometown, Chris Wilson had 17 and Galloway scored 14 points.

SJU 73 - Boston University 67

Saint Joseph's fought back from an 11-point second-half deficit to defeat Boston University, 73-67. Chris Wilson tied his career high with 19 points to lead four Hawks in double figures while Ronald Roberts, Jr. had 19 as well, Langston Galloway scored 16 and freshman DeAndre Bembry added 11. Saint Joseph's trailed the Terriers, 35-28, at the break and BU opened the second half with two three-pointers to push the lead to 41-30 with 18:52 to go. But Galloway keyed a 13-2 run over the next five minutes, with seven points, including a jumper at 13:50 that tied the game at 43. After a 47-47 tie, BU went on a 7-0 spurt to take a 54-47 lead with 8:46 to go. From that point, the Hawk defense took over, holding the Terriers without a field goal over a span of 9:30. The defense keyed the offense, as Bembry scored nine of the Hawks' next 14 points during an 18-2 run that gave SJU a 67-58 lead at 1:02.

2013-14 SAINT JOSEPH'S BASKETBALL • 18

Game 13: January 4, 2014 - Hagan Arena

SJU 53 - Denver 52

Langston Galloway scored 14 points and DeAndre' Bembry added 13 as Saint Joseph's edged Denver, 53-52, for the Hawks' fifth win in a row. SJU led 51-49 with 2:06 to play and after two turnovers by Denver and one by SJU, Denver regained possession with 10 seconds to play. Marcus Byrd's three-pointer was off the mark and Halil Kanacevic blocked the follow-up. Bembry then grabbed the rebound and fed to Chris Wilson, who was fouled and made both free throws with six-tenths of a second to play to put the Hawks up, 53-49. Denver hit a three-pointer at the buzzer to provide the final margin. The teams traded leads in the early part of the second half, but Saint Joseph's went on a 9-0 run to take its biggest lead of the game, 45-37, at 8:07. The Hawks struggled offensively in the first half, shooting just 27.6 percent and had to come back from an 11-point deficit. SJU went without a point for close to five minutes as Denver jumped out to a 12-3 lead. Trailing 21-10 with 8:28 to play, Galloway started the Hawks' comeback, scoring seven consecutive points as SJU went on an 8-2 run. SJU closed to 23-21 on a layup by Kanacevic but Denver took a 25-23 lead into intermission. Ronald Roberts, Jr., grabbed 15 rebounds for the Hawks while Kanacevic had six rebounds and four blocks on the day.

Game 14: January 8, 2014 - Mullins Center - Amherst, Mass.

#19/19 Massachusetts 66 - SJU 62

A shorthanded Saint Joseph's team battled for 40 minutes, but a late run to end the game gave 19th-ranked Massachusetts a 66-62 victory at the Mullins Center in the A-10 opener. Halil Kanacevic led the Hawks with 19 points and 13 rebounds, while Langston Galloway and DeAndre' Bembry chipped in 18 and 16 points, respectively. Ronald Roberts, Jr. left the game early in the second half due to back spasms after an awkward fall and did not return. SJU was also without Isaiah Miles, who missed the game due to a concussion. Saint Joseph's held a 31-28 lead at halftime, but a 7-0 spurt by UMass put the Minutemen on top, 35-31, with 18:16 to go and then increased to 13-4 after a layup to put the home team ahead 41-35 with 14:05 remaining. A Galloway jumper at 13:48 kicked off a 7-0 run for the Hawks; a three-pointer by Kanacevic and a layup by Chris Wilson put SJU ahead by a point, 42-41, with 12:09 to go. With the score tied, 48-48, at 9:22, the Hawks would score the next nine points of the game, seven of them by Kanacevic, to take a 57-48 lead with 6:23 to go. But from that point forward, UMass outscored Saint Joseph's, 18-5, to secure the victory.

Game 15: January 11, 2014 - Patriot Center - Fairfax, Va.

SJU 84 - George Mason 80

Trailing by three points with 7:25 remaining in the game, seniors Halil Kanacevic and Langston Galloway put Saint Joseph's on their backs and led the Hawks to a gritty 84-80 win at George Mason in the first A-10 meeting of the teams. Kanacevic scored 23 points, Galloway had 20 and DeAndre' Bembry added 17, while Papa Ndao posted a career-high 13 points on 4-of-4 shooting in his first start of the season. The Hawks were without second-leading scorer Ronald Roberts, Jr., who missed his first career game due to back spasms, and Isaiah Miles who missed his second consecutive game due to a concussion. Trailing 45-40 at halftime, SJU opened the second half on a 10-2 run, culminating in a dunk and a layup by Kanacevic to put the Hawks on top, 53-47, with 16:26 remaining. The Patriots closed back to within 54-53 but a layup by Bembry restored a three-point lead a minute later. The Hawks took a 60-55 lead at the 12:28 mark, but GMU would answer with an 11-3 run to take a 66-63 lead with 7:25 left. Kanacevic answered with a layup and Ndao hit his third three-pointer of the game to put SJU ahead for good, 68-67, with 6:12 to go. That bucket kicked off a 9-0 run that featured four points from Galloway and left the Hawks with a 74-67 advantage with 3:16 to play. A pair of GMU free throws broke up the run, but the Hawks then scored six of the next seven points, punctuated by a fast break dunk from Bembry, to take an 80-70 lead at :45. Galloway and Kanacevic would each drain a pair of free throws to help seal the victory before GMU hit a desperation three-pointer at the buzzer to provide the final margin.
