GAME STORIES

- Saint Joseph's won its fifth straight in one of its most complete games of the season, defeating Dayton, 79-53. Ronald Roberts had 22 points and Chris Wilson had a career-high 20 points on a perfect shooting night.
- Saint Joseph's has gone 16-3 since a loss to #14 Villanova on Dec. 7 and has won five in a row and seven of the last eight. The five-game winning streak ties the longest of the season.
- Saint Joseph's RPI is 38, up from 43 last week, and is the fifth best in the Atlantic 10.
- The Hawks' 20 wins are the most since the 2007-08 team won 21 games and reached the NCAA Tournament. The 20-7 record is the highest winning percentage through 26 games since the 2003-04 team was 27-0. Saint Joseph's 10-3 A-10 record is the best since 2004-05 (14-2)
- Langston Galloway needs 12 points to move into 3rd place on SJU's all-time scoring list.
- SJU leads the A-10 in 3-point percentage in all games (39.0) and in field goal percentage (48.0) in conference games.
- The Hawks travel to GW on Wednesday and close out the regular season at home against La Salle on March 9.

PHIL MARTELLI Head Coach

Now in his 19th season as Saint Joseph's University head coach, Phil Martelli has built a program that is consistently one of the top in the conference, a perennial post-season participant and a key player on the national scene, while earning his place among the top coaches in the school's storied history. He has worked 29 years overall at SJU, including 10 seasons as an assistant coach.

Martelli is the Hawks' all-time leader in career victories with a mark of 358-244. He set the record with the victory over Morgan State on December 28, 2011, breaking the mark held by Bill Ferguson (309). Setting the school record for wins in a season (30) in 2004, Martelli has guided SJU to 20 or more victories eight times in his 19 seasons, which is the most for any Hawks coach.

Martelli is the dean of Atlantic 10 coaches as the longest tenured coach currently in the league. He also ranks second all-time in the league in overall career victories, and with a 177-124 mark in Atlantic 10 play, owns the most conference wins for any active coach.

One of the more respected coaches in the game, he is currently the President of the NABC's Board of Directors and is a member of the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Ethics Coalition.

The 2012-13 season saw an experienced Saint Joseph's squad reach the Atlantic 10 Quarterfinals and earn a second consecutive NIT bid, for the 11th postseason berth in Martelli's career. Among the highlights of the season was a win over nationally-ranked Notre Dame in the Coaches vs. Cancer Classic, a victory over local rival Temple and two wins over conference foe Xavier.

In 2011-12, Martelli and the Hawks became one of nine teams in the nation to win 20 games after losing 20 the previous season, and also returned to the postseason with an NIT bid. Saint Joseph's boasted a young and exciting squad, and one of the most balanced in school history, as five different players received Atlantic 10 honors, the most ever for the Hawks. SJU also scored two wins over Top 25 teams (Creighton and Temple) and Martelli became SJU's all-time leader in victories.

In 2010-11, Martelli guided the youngest squad in his career, which included three freshman starters. The Hawks made an exciting late-season run, earning a berth in the A-10 Tournament with a win in the final regular-season game, and won two games in the tourney to reach the semifinals. He reached two milestones with his 300th career victory (March 11) and his 150th conference win (March 5), while also coaching his 500th game and 250th A-10 contest.

Martelli faced a challenge in 2009-10 with a young and inexperienced squad that went 11-20, coming off a 2008-09 season that saw the Hawks go 17-15 for his ninth consecutive winning season. Among the highlights of '08-09 was Ahmad Nivins earning AP Honorable Mention All-America honors and becoming the third Hawk in six years to garner the Atlantic 10's Player of the Year Award. Nivins was also chosen by the Dallas Mavericks in the 2009 NBA Draft, becoming the third player coached by Martelli to be drafted.

The 2007-08 Hawks reached the Atlantic 10 Championship game for the third time in four years and earned the program's 19th bid to the NCAA Tournament, and Martelli's fifth. The 11th-seeded Hawks fell to sixth-seeded Oklahoma in the NCAA First Round, while ending the year at 21-13.

Martelli has been at his best when it counts the most as his 17 postseason wins (6 NCAA, 11 NIT) are the most in school history, ahead of Ramsay's 12. Martelli ranks first among Hawk coaches with a .608 postseason winning percentage (17-11) and has taken SJU to the postseason in nine of the last 13 years, and 11 times in his 18 seasons.

Martelli turned in another top-notch coaching performance in 2005-06, as the Hawks went from a 10-12 record to win eight consecutive games to reach the Atlantic 10 championship game for the second year in a row. SJU was rewarded with its sixth consecutive postseason bid, but saw the season come to an end in the NIT Second Round.

In 2004-05, Martelli turned in perhaps a more remarkable coaching job than in 2003-04 when he was the consensus National Coach of the Year. Faced with the loss of two NBA first-round draft picks, the 2004-05 Hawks struggled early on, but Martelli guided SJU to 21 wins in the calendar year of 2005 to finish 24-12. Saint Joseph's posted the conference's best record (14-2), won its fifth straight regular-season title to tie the league record, earned the A-10's top seed and reached the title game. He was named the Atlantic 10 Coach of the Year for the second straight season and the fourth time in his career. SJU made an exciting six-game run in the NIT, falling on a last-second shot in the championship game.

In 2003-04, Martelli guided a focused and unselfish squad that became the most com-

Honors: 2004 Consensus National Coach of the Year; Atlantic 10 Coach of the Year (2005, 2004, 2001, 1997); USBWA District Coach of the Year (2004, 1997); Philadelphia Big 5 Coach of the Year (2004, 1997, 1996); Honorary Doctorates - Widener University 2004, Cabrini College 2006, Immaculata University 2010.

elling story in college basketball. The Hawks went undefeated in the regular season, reached the pinnacle as the top-ranked team in the nation and earned the school's first-ever number-one seed in the NCAA Tournament, while advancing to the Elite Eight. Jameer Nelson was the consensus National Player of the Year and with teammate Delonte West, were both first-round selections in the NBA Draft. SJU opened the season ranked 12th in the polls and moved up throughout the year, taking the top spot on March 8, 2004, for the first time ever, while finishing fifth in the polls, for SJU's highest final ranking since 1966.

Martelli joined with Nelson to sweep the national coach and player awards, marking one of the few times in history that the top player and coach were from the same school. In addition to the national awards, he was the Atlantic 10 Coach of the Year for the third time and a repeat winner of the Big 5 Coach of the Year.

He served as head coach of the 2005 USA Under-21 World Championship Team, which finished in fifth place finish at the FIBA U21 World Championships.

A 1976 graduate of Widener, Martelli began his career on Hawk Hill with SJU's 1985-86 NCAA Tournament team. After 10 years as an assistant at Saint Joseph's, Martelli was named the 14th coach in school history on July 20, 1995, and just the third non-alumnus to follow in the storied tradition of SJU coaches.

Martelli burst onto the scene in his first season (1995-96) and took the squad to the NIT championship game. He followed that in 1996-97 with the Atlantic 10 regular season and tournament titles, along with a berth in the NCAA Sweet 16.

Prior to his arrival at SJU, Martelli spent seven years as head basketball coach at Bishop Kenrick High School and had a stint as assistant coach at Widener, helping guide the Pioneers to the 1978 NCAA Division III Final Four.

As a point guard at Widener, he was part of the NCAA Tournament teams in 1975 and 1976, and set the school's single season and career assist marks.

Martelli and his wife, Judy, a former basketball player with the national champion Immaculata College teams in the 1970s, have three children - Phil, Jr., Jimmy and Elizabeth. Phil, Jr. is an assistant basketball coach at the University of Delaware while he and Elizabeth are both Saint Joseph's graduates. The Martelli's have four young grandchildren, Philip Stephen, and Marra, who are the children of Phil, Jr., and wife Meghan, and newborn twins Brynley and Avery, who are the children of Jimmy and wife Julie.

LAST TIME OUT: Ronald Roberts, Jr. scored 22 points and Chris Wilson had a career-high 20 points as Saint Joseph's scored a convincing 79-53 win over Dayton at Hagan Arena. The win was the fifth in a row for Saint Joseph's while snapping Dayton's six-game winning streak, and handing the Flyers their worst loss of the season. It was the 20th win for SJU, marking the first 20-win season since 2007-08. Wilson shot a perfect 8-for-8 from the field, while Roberts hit 8-of-11 field goals. DeAndre' Bemby scored 12 points while Halil Kanacevic added 10 points, eight rebounds, eight assists and four blocked shots. Wilson and Roberts each scored 11 points in the first half as the Hawks quickly built up a double-digit lead. SJU scored the first eight points of the game and never looked back, taking a 10-1 lead in the first four minutes, and expanding it to 17-6 with seven straight points from Roberts. Back-to-back three-pointers from Papa Ndao built SJU's lead to its biggest of the half, 37-18, and the Hawks went into intermission holding a 39-20 lead. The Hawks kept rolling in the second half and maintained a 20-plus point lead most of the way. The Hawks took their largest margin of the game, 77-47, on a three-pointer by Bemby with 2:10 to play. Saint Joseph's made 58.3 percent from the field in the game and connected on 60 percent (9-of-15) from three-point range. Dayton hit just 31.7 percent and 22.7 percent from behind the arc.

ON A ROLL: Saint Joseph's has won 16 of its last 19 games, posting a 6-2 record in January and a 6-1 mark in February. SJU's current five-game winning streak matches the longest of the season, from December.

20-20: The Hawks are in the midst of their first 20-win season since 2007-08 when SJU went 21-13 and reached the NCAA Tournament. Phil Martelli has guided the Hawks to 20-plus wins eight times in his career.

A WIN TONIGHT... :

- would give the Hawks their most A-10 wins (11) since 2004-05 (14)
- would give the Hawks their most victories (21) since 2007-08 (21)
- would give the Hawks a 6-game winning streak, the longest of the year and the longest since a 7-game streak in 2008-09

CAN'T MISS CHRIS: Chris Wilson converted all eight field goal attempts, including three three-pointers, in the Hawks' dominating win over Dayton. The junior point guard scored 11 points in the first half on 5-for-5 shooting, and then finished the game with a career-high 20 points. It ranked up there with some of the other "perfect" shooting games in Hawk history - the last one prior to Wilson's effort was Delonte West's 12-for-12 performance at Xavier on Jan. 17, 2004.

DOMINATING DUO: Ronald Roberts and Chris Wilson combined for 42 points on 16-for-19 shooting against Dayton. The duo had the same amount of points as Dayton did with over four minutes to play - but the Flyers were shooting 16-for-56 from the field as a team.

THE COMPLETE GAME: The Hawks put together one of their most complete games in the 79-53 win over Dayton, snapping the Flyers' six-game winning streak. SJU jumped out to an 8-0 lead and was up by double digits with less than seven minutes gone by. Among the key stats of the game were:

- SJU FG%- 58.3; Dayton FG%- 31.7
- SJU 3FG%- 60.0; Dayton 3FG%- 22.7
- 8 turnovers by SJU; 11 by Dayton
- 19 assists on 28 field goals by SJU; 8 assists on 20 field goals by Dayton
- 39 first-half pts by SJU; 20 first-half pts by Dayton

RAINING THREES: Langston Galloway put on another long-range shooting exhibition vs. Fordham as he set the school record with 10 three-pointers en route to scoring a career-high 33 points. The senior made 3-of-5 in the first half and 7-of-10 in the second half, to hit 66.7 percent (10-of-15) in the game. The previous SJU record was nine by Brian Leahy vs. Duquesne on Jan. 17, 1988. Galloway scored 24 points in the second half, which matched his career best set earlier this season against Duquesne. In that game, the senior connected on 9-of-11 shots in the half, including 6-of-7 three-pointers to score 24 points in 19 minutes.

FOUR TO SCORE: Langston Galloway is just 11 points out of third place on SJU's all-time scoring list behind Carl Jones' total of 1,845. With 1,834 points, he averages 14.5 per game.

3. Carl Jones	2009-13	126	1,845
4. Langston Galloway	2010-	126	1,834
5. Ahmad Nivins	2005-09	127	1,789

ALL-AROUND GUY: Halil Kanacevic is the only player to wear the Saint Joseph's uniform and amass over 1,000 points, 900 rebounds, 300 assists and 200 blocks in his collegiate career. He currently has 1,078 points, 961 boards, 382 assists, and 203 blocks, totals which include his freshman year at Hofstra. In looking at where those numbers rank among SJU's career leaders, Kanacevic ranks 40th in points, fifth in rebounds; 10th in assists and fifth in blocks.

BOUNCING BACK: After a six-point effort at Rhode Island, Langston Galloway bounced back in a big way with 33 points and a school-record 10 three-pointers. The longest stretch of his career in which the senior has scored less than 10 points is a three-game streak in Jan. 2013. Phil Martelli said, "He's done it through his whole career. It's very rare that he has two or three games in a row where he's playing poorly. You know, Lang gets it. He's a senior. He's got three left in this building. And he wanted to leave people with a memory on this one." Earlier this year, Galloway rebounded from two straight single-digit games to score 24 in the win over VCU. He has tallied double figures in 92 of the 126 games of his career and in all but five games this season.

DOING IT ALL: Halil Kanacevic fills the boxscore unlike any other player. In the recent win over Dayton, he had 10 points, eight rebounds, eight assists and four blocked shots. He had a double-double against Creighton with 10 rebounds and 10 assists, which was the first of his career in those categories. That came after a 12-point, 11-rebound, 8-assist effort in the win over Marist. Then there was the career game - 27 points, 14 rebounds, 4 assists, 2 blocks - in the win over Drexel. Against #19 UMass, the senior had 19 points, 13 rebounds and six assists. Phil Martelli has called the senior the team's "most indispensable player".

STREAK STATS: The Hawks have put up some impressive numbers in the current five-game winning streak. Langston Galloway is averaging 17.6 ppg during the streak, while Ronald Roberts is averaging 15.4 points and 7.6 rebounds and DeAndre' Bemby is scoring 14.2 ppg. Here's the breakdown of team stats:

Category	SJU	Opp.
Scoring Avg.	73.4	61.0
FG Pct.	50.8	38.0
3-Pt. FG Pct.	41.8	32.3
FT Pct.	71.6	63.9
Reb. Avg.	32.2	35.6
Assist Avg.	14.6	12.4
Block Avg.	5.6	2.4
TO Avg.	10.4	10.0

LUCKY SEVENS: SJU outscored Fordham, 21-2, early in the second half. But what was more remarkable was that the Hawks scored three points on each of seven consecutive possessions. Langston Galloway knocked down five three-pointers in the four-minute stretch, while Chris Wilson also hit a three and Halil Kanacevic had a three-point play.

RALLY CAPS: The Hawks have won nine games in which they trailed at some point of the second half - Vermont, Washington State, Drexel, Boston University, Denver, George Mason, Rhode Island (two games) and Dayton. In three of those wins, Saint Joseph's trailed by double figures during the game. Those were:

Game	Biggest Deficit (Half)
Boston Univ.	12 (1st)
Denver	11 (1st)
Rhode Island	10 (2nd)

THE 600 CLUB: The win at Rhode Island was the 600th game of Phil Martelli's head coaching career. Martelli has posted a school-record 358 wins in 19 seasons at Saint Joseph's. The Fordham game was the 300th Atlantic 10 game of his career, and he owns 177 conference wins.

FOUL BALL: As one of the teams in the nation with the fewest personal fouls per game, the Hawks faced a different situation at Rhode Island on Feb. 19. DeAndre' Bembry picked up his second foul at 15:27 of the first half and sat the rest of the half. Halil Kanacevic was whistled for his second with over six minutes left in the first half and then he and Bembry picked up their third fouls in the first six minutes of the second half. Kanacevic got his fourth with over 10 minutes to play in the second half, but stayed in the rest of the game. Ronald Roberts had four fouls with over six minutes remaining, but finished the contest playing all 40 minutes. Bembry was whistled for his fourth at 5:32 of the second half, but finished out the game.

WINNING WITH WILSON: Chris Wilson's career-best game vs. Dayton was the 12th game in double figures this season for the junior. He had 18 points on 6-for-11 three-point shooting against Creighton and scored 17 points at Loyola, hitting 4-of-5 from the field and 3-of-4 from three-point range.

BALANCED ATTACK: A testament to the Hawks' balance came when SJU led #21 UMass by 16 points at halftime and leading scorer Langston Galloway didn't have a point. The senior played just 12 minutes in the first half as he was saddled with two fouls. That happened again at Rhode Island when Galloway went scoreless in the first half and finished the game with six points. Ronald Roberts picked up the slack, scoring 18 points, while DeAndre' Bembry and Halil Kanacevic scored 12 apiece. Four of five Saint Joseph's starters are now averaging double figures, led by Galloway at 16.8 ppg. The Hawks have had four players score in double figures in 14 of 27 games and all five starters score double figures once (at La Salle).

OTHER DUTIES AS ASSIGNED: DeAndre' Bembry has often been called on to guard the opponents' top scorer. Bembry drew the assignment of Tyreek Duren at La Salle and although Duren scored the Explorers' first eight points of the game, the Hawks' freshman shut him down the rest of the way, allowing the La Salle star just seven more points.

BIG-TIME BEMBRY: DeAndre' Bembry had a big-time game in the win over VCU. The Hawks used the freshman to bring the ball upcourt against VCU's pressure and he scored 18 points on 8-for-13 shooting while grabbing six rebounds. Among the plays on his highlight reel were a three-pointer near the end of the first half that gave SJU a 10-point lead, and a lob pass to Ronald Roberts for an alley-oop dunk that pushed the lead to 13 points with 5:56 to play. He also had a solid game at La Salle, scoring 16 second-half points after going scoreless in the first half.

ONE OF A KIND: Halil Kanacevic is a unique player and he's one of a few in the country to lead his team in rebounds (8.6), assists (4.6) and blocks (1.5). Stephen Madison of Idaho leads his team in those three categories as well as points and steals, while Jerrelle Benimon of Towson is his team's leader in rebounds, assists and blocks.

SENIOR MOMENTS: Phil Martelli has repeatedly praised this group of players for their character on and off the court. And he's singled out the seniors for leading the way. After the win over La Salle, Martelli said, "Seniors, seniors. They have been special since the summer when we were preparing for Italy. They were great on that trip and they've been great every practice. When I looked at the stat sheet at halftime, I thought that the seniors are taking us here."

AT THE LINE: Saint Joseph's has been consistent in its struggles from the foul line and Phil Martelli has tried everything to fix the problem - "We've done competitions. We've talked about it. We haven't talked about it. We shoot a lot of them. We don't shoot any. It's contagious, that's for sure." The Hawks are shooting 64.1 percent on the season and have shot under 60 percent 10 times, which includes a 40.0 percent effort at Richmond and a 35.7 percent performance at home against Duquesne. The win at La Salle did mark a bright spot - the Hawks shot a season-best 81.8 percent in the game. The trend might be reversing as Saint Joseph's has connected on over 70 percent in the past two games.

LONG-DISTANCE LEADER: Langston Galloway is Saint Joseph's all-time leader in career three-pointers with 316. Galloway hit three three-pointers at Richmond to break the record of 294 held by Big 5 Hall of Fame inductee Pat Carroll (2001-05). He also holds the school single-game record after he connected on 10 vs. Fordham while his total of 81 threes on the season is tied as the sixth best all-time.

THREE-HEADED MONSTER: Phil Martelli joked that in the UMass game, Halil Kanacevic served as player, coach and referee - referring to the senior's vocal nature and the "help" he provides during the game to the SJU coaching staff and the officials.

AVOIDING THE WHISTLE: The Hawks have done a good job limiting their fouls this season and actually rank third in the nation with the fewest fouls per game (15.2). SJU's total of 413 personal fouls also ranks as the third best. At La Salle, the Hawks went until 5:23 remained in the first half without being whistled for a foul. Phil Martelli pointed out that Halil Kanacevic has done a good job lately in limiting his fouls and that's allowed the senior to stay on the court. Kanacevic, who is averaging 3.6 fouls per game, has played all 40 minutes in six games this year.

IRON MEN: The Hawks' starters have logged a lot of minutes during A-10 play, with all five averaging over 34 minutes per game. Langston Galloway leads the way with 36.8 minutes and ranks second in the league in A-10 games only. Galloway leads the squad in overall minutes per game with 35.3, a number that ranks fourth in the Atlantic 10.

MOVING ON UP: Ronald Roberts, Jr. eclipsed the 1,300-point mark vs. Dayton (Feb. 25) and now ranks 29th on the all-time scoring list with 1,301 career points, an average of 10.5 per game.

LATE-GAME HEROICS: Langston Galloway banked in a three-pointer with 1.8 seconds to play to give the Hawks a 60-57 win at Dayton. It was the first game-winning shot of his SJU career.

SENSE OF BALANCE: The Hawks had their most balanced game of the year at La Salle as all five starters scored double figures for the first time this season. The Hawks also shot 49 percent from the field and went a season-best 81.8 percent from the foul line. SJU also committed just eight turnovers while forcing La Salle into 13 turnovers.

HEATING UP: Saint Joseph's shot 59.2 percent from the field vs. Fordham, tied as the second best number of the season, and made 15-of-29 from three-point range (51.7 percent). The Hawks also shot over 70 percent from the foul line (73.7 pct) for only the eighth time this year. Helping the team's field goal percentage were 4-for-4 efforts by both Ronald Roberts and Halil Kanacevic.

COMEBACK KIDS: The Hawks fought back from a 10-point deficit at Rhode Island to score the 57-54 win. Ronald Roberts helped pace the win with 11 of his 18 points in the second half. Trailing by 10 at 14:27, the Hawks went on a 9-0 run and tied the game on a three-point play by Roberts at 9:57. The Hawks went up by 53-48 on a three-pointer by Papa Ndao and eventually sealed the win on a layup by Halil Kanacevic with 34 seconds to go. After shooting just 35.7 percent from the field and making 1-of-10 from three-point range in the first half, the Hawks hit 12-of-21 shots and 3-of-6 three-point attempts in the second half. It was the second biggest deficit overcome for victory this season.

20-20: After just missing a triple-double at Penn, Halil Kanacevic was within one rebound of a 20-20 game at Richmond. The senior had 21 points and a career-high 19 rebounds in the loss. Classmate Langston Galloway has scored 20-plus points nine times this year, and in 32 games of his career, which is one of the best numbers in the A-10.

RIGHTING THE SHIP: After consecutive losses to city rivals Temple and Villanova (30-point loss) in early December, Saint Joseph's has gone 16-3 since then and Phil Martelli credits the players for the turnaround. "These guys looked at each other and decided that if they kept coming every day and kept themselves tight, then good things would happen. It was all of them. Not one guy wavered. I would say the strength of this group is the group and that's what they leaned on."

THEY'RE BACK: Ronald Roberts, Jr., made his return to the starting lineup at Penn after missing the George Mason and Duquesne games with back spasms suffered at UMass. They were the first games in his career that Roberts missed, ending a consecutive-game streak of 113. Isaiah Miles was also back in action at Penn after missing three games (UMass, George Mason, Duquesne) due to a concussion suffered in the Denver game on Jan. 4.

TOP ROOKIE: DeAndre' Bembry was named the Atlantic 10 Co-Rookie of the Week for Feb. 10, as he averaged 11.5 points and four rebounds per game in the Hawks' 1-1 week. Bembry scored 18 points and added six rebounds as the Hawks topped VCU, 69-62. He also added three assists and a game-high three steals in the win. It was the second weekly honor for Bembry as he was previously honored on Nov. 18.

REPEAT HONOREE: Halil Kanacevic was named the Philadelphia Big 5 Co-Player of the Week for February 3. It marked the third time this season that he's earned the Big 5 honor. The forward averaged 13.0 points, 8.5 rebounds and 4.0 assists and shot 55 percent from the field (11-for-20) from the field. Kanacevic had a team-high 18 points in the 73-68 upset of #21 Massachusetts, while adding six rebounds and five assists. He shot 7-for-11 from the field and went 3-for-3 from the foul line. In the Hawks' last-second 60-57 win at Dayton, Kanacevic had eight points along with a team-high 11 rebounds and two blocked shots, connecting on 4-of-9 field goal attempts. He also surpassed 1,000 points and 900 rebounds for his career in that game, a total which includes his freshman season at Hofstra.

TRIPLE PLAY: Halil Kanacevic just missed the rare triple-double against Penn, falling one point short. The senior had nine points, 15 rebounds and tied his career-high with 12 assists. The last time a Hawk achieved a triple-double was Dwayne Jones versus St. Bonaventure on Feb. 19, 2005, when he had 11 points, 11 rebounds and 10 blocks.

BACK IN FORM: Langston Galloway has returned to the long-range shooting form from his sophomore season, when he was the top three-point shooter in the A-10 and ranked fourth in the nation with 46.6 percent. The senior is currently second in the A-10 with 43.5 percent and first with 3.0 three-pointers made. He ranks 18th in the nation in three-point percentage and 22nd in threes made per game.

THE POINT FORWARD: Halil Kanacevic's unique passing ability for a forward allows the Hawk offense to often run through him. He has been SJU's leader in assists for the past two seasons and currently leads the team in rebounds (8.6) and assists (4.6), while ranking second in the A-10 in rebounds and fourth in assists.

FAB FROSH: DeAndre' Bembry is third on the team in scoring with 11.5 points per game. If he finishes the season averaging double figures, he will become the first freshman since Langston Galloway to do so. Galloway averaged 12.8 ppg in his rookie season (2010-11).

TAKING SHOTS: The Hawks scored 84 points on just 48 shots against Duquesne, with the point total obviously helped by a season-high 17 three-point field goals. But the amount of shots the Hawks have taken concerns Phil Martelli as he feels the team needs to take at least 60 shots per game. The Hawks got closer to Martelli's "magic number" at Penn, with 55 field goal attempts and then surpassed it in the loss at Richmond, with 70 attempts. Saint Joseph's averaged 50.6 field goal attempts and 18.5 three-point attempts in the eight games during the month of January.

GAME OF THREES: The Hawks have put on a few long-range shooting exhibitions this season, particularly a season-best 17-for-27 (63.0 percent) effort in the win over Duquesne. It marked the most three-pointers made since a school-record 20 by the Hawks against Temple in the 2003-04 season. SJU has also hit 14 three-pointers in a game twice this year, against Binghamton and Creighton, and then made 15 in wins over Penn and Fordham. Langston Galloway was responsible for a school-record 10 threes in the Fordham win. SJU averages 7.4 three-pointers made per game, a number which ranks as the third best in the A-10.

FACE THE NATION: At the start of this week, Langston Galloway was tied for fourth in the nation among Division I active career leaders for three-point field goals, with his career total of 316. He also ranks 18th in threes made per game (3.08) and 18th in three-point percentage (44.0). The top five players in career three-pointers made are:

Name, School	G	3FGM * stats as of 2/24
1. Travis Bader, Oakland	133	487
2. Akeem Richmond, E. Carolina	133	386
3. Sean Armand, Iona	131	330
4. Langston Galloway, SJU	126	316
Ethan Wragge, Creighton	141	315

AROUND THE A-10: Langston Galloway leads the Atlantic 10 in three-pointers made (3.0), ranks second in three-point percentage (43.5), and sixth in scoring (16.5). Halil Kanacevic is second in rebounding (8.6) and is fourth in assists (4.5) while Ronald Roberts is fifth in field goal percentage (57.6). In league games only, Kanacevic and Roberts are first and third, respectively, in field goal percentage. Kanacevic is converting 59.8 percent from the field in A-10 games, while Roberts is hitting 57.3 percent. As a team, Saint Joseph's leads in field goal percentage in both overall and conference games, and has the second best field goal percentage in A-10 contests.

BIG MAN ON CAMPUS: Saint Joseph's senior Langston Galloway was named the Philadelphia Big 5 Player of the Week for Feb. 17. It was the second time this season that he has earned the honor and the sixth time in his career. The guard led a balanced effort by Saint Joseph's in the 75-64 win over Atlantic 10 and city rival La Salle. He scored a game-high 18 points, with 10 in the first half, while hitting 5-of-12 from the field and grabbing four rebounds. Galloway went 6-for-6 from the foul line, with 4-of-4 in the last minute of play to seal the win.

DEPTH PERCEPTION: The injuries to starter Ronald Roberts and sixth man Isaiah Miles in early January emphasized the Hawks' lack of depth. At #19 UMass, SJU was without Miles because of a concussion suffered in the Denver win. Then Roberts suffered back spasms early in the second half (17:05), which sidelined him for the rest of the game. Phil Martelli used only seven players in the rotation and seniors Langston Galloway and Halil Kanacevic played all 40 minutes. It marked the first time in his career that Kanacevic played all 40 minutes - although he did play 44 in an overtime win over Notre Dame last season. The Hawks were without Roberts and Miles at George Mason, but Papa Ndao made the start and contributed a career-high 13 points, and Galloway and Kanacevic logged 40 minutes again. SJU's starters all average over 31 minutes per game.

THE BIG THREE: Senior tri-captains Langston Galloway, Halil Kanacevic and Ronald Roberts, Jr., are the core of the Hawks' team and they currently account for 57 percent of SJU's scoring and 55 percent of the rebounding. There have only been three games in which the Hawks' leading scorer was not one of those three players.

PAPA'S PLAY: Phil Martelli said Papa Ndao has earned the role of sixth man with his play as of late. In the three games prior to the Rhode Island win, the junior made his last 7-of-8 three-point attempts and 9-of-10 total shots. He is averaging 15 minutes played in the past four games and hit two crucial free throws with 12 seconds to play in the win over Massachusetts. He was unavailable for the VCU game because of the flu.

ON THE MARK: Ronald Roberts ranks second in SJU history in career field goal percentage, converting 56.1 percent from the field (502-894). Ahmad Nivins, who was the 2009 A-10 Player of the Year, is the all-time leader with 62.7 percent.

NOW'S THE TIME: Papa Ndao stepped up in a big way at George Mason, replacing Ronald Roberts in the starting lineup. The junior made the sixth start of his career and responded with a perfect shooting game to score a career-high 13 points. It marked his first time in double figures as he went 4-for-4 from the field, making three three-pointers, and hitting two free throws in the final minute. Ndao played a career-high 37 minutes - his previous high was 20 minutes. He also started the Duquesne game and grabbed a team-high seven rebounds.

CITY SLICKERS: With Halil Kanacevic and Ronald Roberts having already earned Big 5 Player of the Week honors this season, it was Langston Galloway's turn. The senior earned the honor for Jan. 20 which was his first city honor of the season and fifth of his career. Galloway averaged 23.0 pts, 4.0 rebounds and 2.0 assists as SJU defeated Duquesne and Penn. He had one of the best shooting weeks of his career as he hit 68 percent (17-for-25) from the field and a blistering 70.5 percent (12-for-17) from three-point range.

HOLDING ON: Against UMass on Feb. 1, Saint Joseph's shot 44.8 percent from the field and 62.5 percent from three-point range in the first half and held a 17-point lead with a minute to play. Up 41-25 at halftime, the Hawks cooled off and made just 1-of-5 from behind the arc and 36.4 percent from the field, allowing UMass to climb back into the game and tie it with 1:23 to play. Struggling from the foul line all year, the Hawks ironically won the game by making 6-of-8 free throws down the stretch, led by two from Chris Wilson and two from Papa Ndao.

FROZEN: Either the ice storm or the Saint Louis defense froze the Hawks' offense in the 65-49 loss to the Billikens. Saint Joseph's shot just 27.3 percent in the first half, and just 31.9 percent in the game. The Hawks had their worst effort of the season from the three-point line, going just 1-for-15.

ON THE SIDELINE: Kyle Molock is sidelined for the rest of the year. The redshirt freshman reinjured his right knee in practice earlier this month and had successful surgery on February 7 to again repair the ACL of that knee, of which he previously had surgery in August 2012. The injury to his right knee that took place in August 2012, was the second on that knee for Molock, and the third knee injury overall. He was averaging 19.0 points through eight games as a senior at Dublin Coffman when he tore the ACL of his right knee in January 2012; in July of 2010, he suffered a severe injury to all of the major ligaments in his left knee, causing him to miss his junior year.

THE HAWK WILL NEVER DIE: The Saint Joseph's Hawk mascot has been named the best college basketball tradition by NCAA.com in its rankings of the top five traditions. Ranking behind the Hawk are: 2- Kansas' "Rock Chalk, Jayhawk" chant; 3- the "Frisbee Cheer" at UCLA; 4- Duke's "Krzyszewski-Ville" when students camp out for the game with North Carolina; and 5- Wake Forest's "Rolling the Quad" with streamers of white tissue.

TEN YEARS AFTER: It's hard to believe but this season marks the 10th anniversary of Saint Joseph's memorable 2003-04 season, in which the Hawks went 27-0 during the regular season, and 30-2 overall, earned a number-one seed in the NCAA Tournament and reached the Elite Eight, while coming within two points of a Final Four berth. Jameer Nelson and Phil Martelli were the consensus National Player of the Year and National Coach of the Year, respectively, while creating a season on Hawk Hill for the record books.

EVERYBODY INTO THE ACT: All 12 players who were dressed for the game saw action vs. Duquesne. Redshirt freshman Javon Baumann notched career-highs of eight points and five rebounds; Daryus Quarles had a season-high nine points; and senior walk-on Colin Kelly scored his first career points.

COMING BACK: The Denver win marked the second time in three games in which the Hawks fought back from an 11-point deficit to earn the victory. SJU trailed BU by 11 with 18:52 to play in the second half and earned a 73-67 win. Against Denver, the Hawks trailed by 11 points mid-way through the first half and picked up the 53-52 win.

WINNING WITH WILSON: Point guard Chris Wilson scored in double figures four times during the five-game winning streak. Wilson had 11 points against Drexel, 17 at Loyola and tied his career-high with 19 in the win over BU. He shot a career-best 7-for-14 from the field vs. BU, while making 3-of-6 three pointers. He then added 13 points vs. Binghamton.

ODD OCCURRENCE: Halil Kanacevic went without an assist against Denver. It was the first time since the Butler game on Jan. 9, 2013 that the Hawks' leader in assists did not register one. In the Denver game, however, the Hawks missed 21 shots in the first half.

FOUR FOR FOUR: Langston Galloway could become the first Hawk to lead the team for all four years in each of two categories - minutes played and three-point percentage. The senior is currently averaging a team-high 35.3 minutes played per game, and leads the squad in three-point percentage (43.5). No Hawk has led either of those categories for all four years.

HAWKS VS. THE TOP 25: The win over #21 UMass was Saint Joseph's first win over a ranked opponent this season and the first since an overtime win over #20 Notre Dame on Nov. 16, 2012. It was the first Top 25 win at Hagan Arena since an 82-72 win over #22 Temple on Feb. 25, 2012. SJU now owns a 4-7 record against ranked teams in the last three years, counting this season.

POMP AND CIRCUMSTANCE: Langston Galloway, Halil Kanacevic and Eric Kindler became Saint Joseph's graduates on December 17, which was the end of the first semester. All three players finished the coursework for their degrees. Kanacevic earned his bachelor's in communications, Galloway received his in sports marketing and Kindler earned a degree in theology. Coach Phil Martelli said it was the first time in his career that he had that many players graduate in December. Both Galloway and Kanacevic will both exhaust their eligibility at the end of this season. Kindler will have one year remaining as he transferred to Saint Joseph's in his sophomore year but did not play basketball.

HAPPY HOMECOMING: Isaiah Miles put together a career-best game vs. Loyola in his hometown of Baltimore. The sophomore scored 11 points in the first half en route to a career-high 17, in just 12 minutes of action. He hit on 4-of-5 shots from the field and made all eight free throw attempts. He then had his second double-figure effort in three games when he scored 11 points in the win over Binghamton.

DYNAMIC DUO: Halil Kanacevic and DeAndre' Bembry combined for 45 of the Hawks' 75 points in the win over Drexel, and had nearly as many as the Dragons scored in the game (55). The duo combined to shoot 19-for-24 from the field.

HAIL HALIL: Halil Kanacevic was named the Big 5 Co-Player of the Week for Dec. 23 after he had a career game to lead the Hawks to the win over Drexel. The senior had a career-high 27 points and added 14 rebounds for the 12th double-double of his career. He also led the team with four assists and two blocks while shooting a personal best 12-for-13 from the field. Phil Martelli said, "Halil was the way he had practiced and the way he had talked. He was really emphatic with his teammates about getting their heads up and moving on to the next challenge." It was the first Big 5 honor of his career and he earned it again on Jan. 13 and Feb. 3.

THE DUNK CONNECTION: Halil Kanacevic, the team's leader in assists, has a knack for finding Ronald Roberts around the rim. Kanacevic assisted on three of Roberts' five dunks in the Washington State game and has a total of 23 assists on dunks this season, mostly to Roberts.

ROCK OF AGES: This year's squad is one of SJU's most experienced teams in recent years. The average age of the starting five is 21.2 years old and the top six are the same when you add in Daryus Quarles. Three Hawks - Langston Galloway, Ronald Roberts and Halil Kanacevic - have each played over 120 games in their college careers.

BIG IN THE BIG 5: Ronald Roberts was named the Big 5 Player of the Week for Dec. 30 after his 19-point performance in the Hawks' win over BU. It is his first Big 5 honor of the season and second time in his career.

FAB FROSH: DeAndre' Bembry has impressed with his play. The freshman scored 18 points, his second highest total of the year, against Drexel. He is averaging 10.9 points on the season and is shooting 45.9 percent from the field.

RAVING ABOUT RON: Phil Martelli had this to say about Ronald Roberts after the LSU game: "Ron has worked at his game. He's been the Most Improved Player as voted by the coaching staff for three years in a row.... And he'd even be a candidate for this year. But what Ron will probably tell you after tonight is that he had three turnovers. I'm happy for him, he's the product of a really great family. He and (asst. coach) Dave Duda have worked on his game every day to try to get better."

FIRST HONOR: DeAndre' Bembry was named the Atlantic 10 Rookie of the Week for Nov. 17. He averaged 14.0 points, 3.5 rebounds and 3.0 assists as the Hawks went 1-1 on the week, while connecting on 54.5 percent from the field and 55.6 percent from three-point range.

ABOUT BEMBRY: Phil Martelli likes what he has seen this season from freshman DeAndre' Bembry: "DeAndre' is a player beyond his age. He's got a really nice way about him and really takes in what you give him."

SEEING DOUBLE: Halil Kanacevic now has a team-high four double-doubles - including one in rebounds (10) and assists (10) vs. Creighton. Ronald Roberts led the Hawks last season with 13 double-doubles on the year and he has two so far, against Marist and Washington State.

ON THE REBOUND: Halil Kanacevic and Ronald Roberts provide the Hawks with a top-notch rebounding tandem. Kanacevic is averaging 8.6 boards and 6.5 defensive rebounds per game while Roberts is grabbing 7.2 boards and 4.6 defensive rebounds. Kanacevic has notched double figures in rebounds eight times this season. SJU's team rebounding margin stands at +3.0, which is the fifth best number in the A-10.

SERVING THE COMMUNITY: Chris Wilson was one of 70 NCAA Men's Division I nominees for the Allstate NABC Good Works Team. The award, now in its second year, recognizes a select group of college basketball student-athletes who have made significant contributions to the greater good of their communities through volunteerism and civic service. Wilson has participated in numerous Saint Joseph's community service projects, has volunteered at his church in Philadelphia and at home in Fayetteville, N.C. Teammate Langston Galloway was named to the inaugural team last year and made a trip to the 2013 NCAA Final Four.

FROM THE START: Freshman DeAndre' Bembry was the first freshman in SJU's starting lineup on opening day since 2010-11 when the trio of Langston Galloway, Daryus Quarles and C.J. Aiken each started their first collegiate game.

RON'S WEEKEND: Ronald Roberts, Jr., was named the Atlantic 10 Co-Player of the Week for Dec. 2. It was the second time in his career that he received the conference's weekly award. He was also selected to the 2013 Old Spice Classic All-Tournament Team as he helped the Hawks to wins over Siena and Washington State by averaging 20 points, 7.0 rebounds and 1.7 blocks in SJU's three games in Orlando.

ENJOYING THE RIDE: On a number of occasions, Phil Martelli has said that he enjoys coaching this group. After the Creighton game, he elaborated, "I have a really great team. Now there are basketball pieces missing. But these guys, you can't wait to get to work with them in every aspect. The way they're perceived on campus and in recruiting is great."

VIVA ITALIA: Saint Joseph's got a jump on the season when it traveled to Italy in August for a 10-day, four-game tour. The Hawks visited Rome, Florence, Venice and Lake Como and posted a 4-0 record on the trip. It marked the second time that Phil Martelli took SJU to Italy, with the last trip coming in 1999.

DEAN OF COACHES: This is Phil Martelli's 19th season at the helm of the Hawks, and he is SJU's all-time leader in career victories with a 358-244 record. He notched his 350th win on Jan. 18 vs. Penn. He is the longest tenured coach in the Atlantic 10 (19 years) and is now second on the conference's list for all-time career victories, behind John Chaney of Temple (516). Martelli is currently serving as the president of the National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC).

SIGN THEM UP: Saint Joseph's had four high school standouts - James Demery, Markell Lodge, Shavar Newkirk, and Obi Romeo - sign National Letters of Intent during the early signing period. Demery is a 6-6 wing player from Northside Christian Academy in Charlotte, N.C. He averaged 16.8 points and 4.2 steals last season as his team won its second straight Independent School 2A state title. Lodge, originally from Virginia, is a 6-7 wing at Pace Academy in Carrboro, N.C., who is known for his tremendous athleticism and leaping ability. Newkirk is a 6-0 point guard from Cardinal Hayes High School in Bronx, N.Y. Considered one of the top point guards in New York City, he helped Cardinal Hayes to the CHSAA Semifinals in 2012. Romeo, a 6-foot-10 forward with a 94-inch wingspan, is originally from Nigeria and has been in the United States for the past three years, attending Greenbrier East High School in West Virginia. He averaged 10 points and 13 rebounds last season for the team that went 20-5.

IN MEMORY: Halil Kanacevic changed his uniform number this year to 45 (from 21) in memory of his uncle, Rizo Popovic, who passed away during the 2012-13 season at the age of 45. Kanacevic explained, "It's one of the most selfish things you think of, as a player, when you're growing up. You get a certain number, you get infatuated with it...I've seen kids get into fights over a jersey number. My thing was, let me be unselfish about that and actually give meaning to it. I know what that number means, I know what it represents, I chose it for personal reasons, not a selfish reason. I felt like I needed to do it."

HOME SWEET HOME: This marks the fifth season of Michael J. Hagan '85 Arena. The arena was dedicated in October 2009 after a two-year expansion and renovation of Alumni Memorial Fieldhouse, which was the home of the Hawks since 1949. Saint Joseph's owns a 44-23 record in the five seasons of Hagan Arena, but a 363-105 overall record in 63 years of Hagan Arena/Alumni Memorial Fieldhouse. SJU is 11-3 on its home court this season, the best record since the Hawks went 11-4 in 2011-12.

STRENGTH OF SCHEDULE: Saint Joseph's non-conference schedule is ranked as the second toughest in the A-10, behind VCU's. Other non-conference foes of note on the Hawks' schedule are Creighton, Villanova, Temple and Vermont.

CAPTAINS OF THE SHIP: Langston Galloway, Halil Kanacevic and Ronald Roberts, Jr., are serving as tri-captains this season.

WATCHING THE HAWKS: Saint Joseph's will have 21 games televised this season, including 13 national television appearances, which is the most ever for the Hawks. (full schedule on page 2)

VETERAN GROUP: The Hawks have a core group with four players who held starting roles last season - Langston Galloway, Ronald Roberts, Jr.,

Chris Wilson and Halil Kanacevic - along with another senior - Daryus Quarles - who has started 67 games in his career. Galloway and Roberts were the only two players to start all 32 games for the team in 2013. Wilson made 23 starts and led the team in assists with 112 and 3.5 per game while averaging 6.5 points. Kanacevic, who played in 26 games with 14 starts, averaged 8.5 points and 7.2 rebounds and also handed out 3.5 assists. Quarles was a starter his first two seasons in saw action in 29 games last year, mostly in a reserve role.

WAITING IN THE WINGS: Freshman forward Jai Williams, from Philadelphia Electrical and Technical Charter School, earned All-Public League Fourth Team honors is redshirting the season. Aaron Brown, a 6-5 guard, transferred to SJU from West Virginia this summer and will sit out the year due to NCAA transfer rules. He was the Delaware County Player of the Year in 2010 for nearby Penn Wood High School and will have two years with the Hawks beginning in 2014-15.

CRADLE OF COACHES: The Saint Joseph's coaching connection is an impressive one. A total of seven Saint Joseph's graduates have gone on to become head coaches in the NBA, and SJU is tied with Illinois for second on the list of universities with alums that have served as NBA head coaches. Indiana tops the list with 11 graduates that have coached in the league. Jim O'Brien was the most recent NBA head coach, and his last year with the Indiana Pacers was in 2010-11. Below is the list of former Hawks who have held positions as NBA head coaches:

Player (Class)	NBA Teams	W-L (yrs.)
Jack Ramsay ('49)	Phila., Buf., Port., Ind.	864-783 (21)
Jim Lynam ('63)	L.A. Clippers, Phila., Wash.	328-392 (10)
Matt Guokas ('67)	Phila., Orlando	230-305 (7)
Paul Westhead ('61)	L.A. Lakers, Chicago, Denver	183-224 (6)
Jack McKinney ('57)	L.A. Lakers, Indiana	135-205 (5)
George Senesky ('43)	Philadelphia	119-97 (3)
Jim O'Brien ('74)	Indiana, Phila., Boston	303-327 (8)

PRESEASON PICK: Saint Joseph's was voted to finish fifth in the Atlantic 10 Preseason Poll, as voted on by media and the league's coaches. The Hawks finished in a tie for eighth place last year with an 8-8 record.

A LOOK BACK: Last year's squad went 18-14 and earned its second consecutive NIT bid, for the 11th postseason berth under Phil Martelli.

KEEPING IT IN THE FAMILY: Phil Martelli's staff consists of three former Hawk players. Assistant coach Mark Bass was a junior on Martelli's first team in 1995-96, and then was a senior on the squad that reached the NIT Final in 1997. Assistant coach Geoff Arnold played for the Hawks from 1982 to 1986, and was a member of the 1986 Atlantic 10 championship team. Arnold was a member of Martelli's coaching staff for one season in 1995-96, and then returned to Hawk Hill at the start of the 2008-09 season. Director of basketball operations Rob Sullivan was a member of the 2004 Elite Eight team.

NEW YORK, NEW YORK: The Atlantic 10 Championship will be held at the Barclays Center in Brooklyn from March 12 to 16. The championship game is set for March 16 at 1 p.m. with the telecast on CBS.

LOOKING AHEAD: The Hawks play their second straight road game when they visit George Washington on Wednesday, and then close out the regular season at home on March 9 against La Salle.

THE HAWK

The Saint Joseph's Hawk mascot has been flapping its wings for 57 years. One of the most famous mascots in college sports, the Hawk is best known for staying in constant motion by flapping its wings throughout every basketball game and representing the Saint Joseph's motto, "The Hawk Will Never Die".

The Hawk mascot was named the "Best College Basketball Tradition" by NCAA.com in 2014.

The idea for the Hawk as a mascot was originated by Jim Brennan during the 1954-55 season. Brennan, an ex-Marine and SJU cheerleader, at first wanted to secure an actual hawk, but later switched to the costume idea. The student government raised the 120 dollars needed to buy the initial costume, which Brennan donned for three years. He made his debut as the Hawk on January 4, 1956, a 69-56 win over La Salle at the Palestra. The Hawk has not missed a men's basketball game since that first season.

In addition to the constant flapping, the Hawk is also recognized by its "flying" in figure eights around the court during timeouts. The constant motion, coupled with the scrappy play of the University's athletic teams, helped to spawn the school's familiar slogan "The Hawk Will Never Die!" A few years ago, ESPN used a "flap-o-meter" on the national telecast of a Saint Joseph's game to estimate that the Hawk flaps its wings 3,500 times during a regulation game.

The Hawk is unique because it is one of the few mascots in the nation that travels to every game, and the student who holds the position gains a tuition scholarship. The student, who is selected through an interview process during the previous spring semester, also serves as a team manager for the men's basketball team and travels with the squad.

Ian Klinger, the 35th student to wear the wings, is the Hawk mascot for the second consecutive season. He is a senior finance and accounting major from Millersburg, Pa.

SAINT JOSEPH'S

The corporate title of "Saint" Joseph's University, which has been in place since Saint Joseph's was granted university status by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in 1979, is now the public title of the institution for all aspects of its operations.

ON THE AIR

TV: Saint Joseph's will again have a strong presence on television in 2013-14, with a total of 21 games scheduled for coverage, including 13 national broadcasts. (Complete schedule on page 2)

RADIO: Saint Joseph's University and CBS Sports Radio 610 AM (WIP) are in the third year of the partnership to broadcast every Hawk game. The Saint Joseph's Sports Network team of Matt Martucci and Joe Lunardi will provide the play-by-play and color commentary. Martucci, a 2006 Syracuse University graduate, is in his fifth year as full-time play-by-play announcer. Lunardi, in his 24th year on the Hawks' radio broadcasts, is the associate vice president for marketing at Saint Joseph's, and is a college basketball analyst for ESPN.com with his popular "Bracketology" column. Games can also be heard via audio streaming free of charge on www.SJUHawks.com. CBS Sports Radio 610 will also be the home of Phil Martelli's "HawkTalk" radio show, which will air once a week from 6 to 7 p.m. beginning on January 6.

VIDEO STREAMING: This season, live video broadcasts of many SJU games will be broadcast through the new Atlantic 10 Digital Network as part of the Atlantic 10 Conference's partnership with NeuLion, Inc. with a subscription to Hawks' All-Access (SJUHawks.com). (See schedule on pg. 2)

The Atlantic 10 Conference has also formed a partnership with Campus Insiders (www.campusinsiders.com). Campus Insiders is the leading digital content syndication source and online destination for 190 million college sports fans. A total of four Saint Joseph's games will be streamed free of charge on CampusInsiders.com. They are: Nov. 16 vs. Creighton; Jan. 8 at Massachusetts; Feb. 5 vs. Saint Louis; and March 5 at George Washington.

INTERNET: Information for Saint Joseph's basketball is found at SJU's athletics website, www.SJUHawks.com with statistics, updated game notes, and live in-game statistics for all Hawk home games, and selected road games. Through Hawks All-Access, fans can follow every home game through audio streaming as well as video streaming for non-televised games. All road games are covered with audio streaming and video streaming also available for selected ones. Video features on the team will also be available on the site.

A-10 COACHES' CONFERENCE CALL

Every Monday, from January 6 thru March 6, the A-10 will conduct a teleconference with each of its head men's basketball coaches. GAME RECAPS

Game 1: November 13, 2013 - Patrick Gym - Burlington, Vt.

SIJU 74 -Vermont 64

Langston Galloway and Ronald Roberts, Jr., scored 21 points apiece to lead Saint Joseph's to a 74-64 win at Vermont in the season opener for both teams, while freshman DeAndre' Bemby scored 11 points in his collegiate debut. The Hawks shot a blistering 65 percent from the field in the first half, but cooled off in the second as Vermont cut a 17-point deficit to just three points at the 10-minute mark of the second. But SIJU's seniors – Galloway, Roberts, Daryus Quarles and Halil Kanacevic - pulled the Hawks through as the classmates scored all of the points in a 10-1 run to give them a more comfortable 64-53 lead with 4:21 to play. Roberts, who shot 8-for-13 from the field, added nine rebounds while Kanacevic had seven as the Hawks outrebounded the Catamounts, 41-28.

SIJU 81- Marist 62

Langston Galloway scored 20 points and Halil Kanacevic and Ronald Roberts, Jr., each posted a double-double as Saint Joseph's defeated Marist, 81-62, in the Hawks' home opener. Kanacevic just missed a triple-double with 12 points, 11 rebounds and eight assists, while Roberts had 16 points and 10 rebounds. Galloway shot 6-for-8 from the field, and 3-for-5 from three-point range, while also grabbing eight rebounds. SIJU scored the first 12 points of the game in the first four minutes and never trailed in the contest. With SIJU leading 12-0, Marist went on a 10-3 run to close to 15-10, but the Hawks would increase it to 20-10 by the midway point of the half. The Hawks closed the half with an 18-8 run to take a 40-25 lead at halftime. Both teams were cold from three-point range in the first half, with the Hawks going 1-for-6 and Marist going 0-for-11. That changed in the second as Saint Joseph's shot 60 percent (6-for-10) while Marist connected on 6-for-11 long-range shots. A three-pointer by Chris Wilson at 8:41 gave Saint Joseph's its biggest margin of the game, 71-47, and the Hawks maintained close to a 20-point lead for the rest of the way.

Game 3: November 16, 2013 - Hagan Arena

Creighton 83 - SIJU 79

Saint Joseph's fell in the final seconds to Creighton, 83-79, as Doug McDermott converted a three-point play with 4.9 seconds to play in front of a sold-out crowd at Hagan Arena. Ronald Roberts, Jr. gave the Hawks a 79-78 lead with a pair of free throws with 27.5 seconds remaining. SIJU had two fouls to give and committed both to force Creighton to inbound with 13.3 seconds remaining. McDermott, who scored 20 points in the game, got the ball on the baseline and hit a jumper inside the arc and was fouled on the play. The Hawks had one more chance but the inbound pass at 4.9 seconds remaining was intercepted and two Creighton free throws provide the final margin. The loss ruined a team high 20-point effort by SIJU freshman DeAndre' Bemby, who scored 14 in the second half. Bemby shot 8-for-14 from the field and connected on 4-of-8 three-pointers. Chris Wilson scored 18 points, making 6-of-11 three-pointers, while Langston Galloway scored 14 and Roberts had 13. Halil Kanacevic had a double-double with 10 rebounds and 10 assists. SIJU led by as much as 13 in the game, and had a 45-40 lead at halftime before Creighton came back in the second half.

Creighton (3-0)

Game 4: November 28, 2013 - Old Spice Classic - Orlando, Fla.

LSU 82 - SJU 65

LSU defeated Saint Joseph's, 82-65, in the first round of the 2013 Old Spice Classic, held at ESPN's Wide World of Sports. Ronald Roberts led SJU with 21 points and in the first half, became the 51st Hawk to surpass 1,000 points in his career when he scored on a tip-in at 6:23. The senior connected on 9-of-13 from the field while grabbing a team-high seven rebounds. The Hawks suffered from a poor shooting night, from both the three-point arc (18.8 %) and the foul line (46.2%), as they made just 12-of-26 free throws. Saint Joseph's defense didn't have any answer for the Tigers' long-range shooting as LSU converted 8-of-13 three-point field goals in the opening period. After LSU went up, 51-30, in the first minute of the second half, the Hawks made a run and closed to 54-44. LSU stopped Saint Joseph's momentum with a three-pointer at 10:39 to extend its lead to 57-44. From there, Saint Joseph's fell behind by as many as 21 points, 74-53, with just over four minutes to play.

Game 5: November 29, 2013 - Old Spice Classic - Orlando, Fla.

SJU 78 - Siena 66

Langston Galloway scored a season-high 27 points as Saint Joseph's defeated Siena, 78-66, in the second round of the 2013 Old Spice Classic at ESPN's Wide World of Sports. With his 6-for-10 effort from beyond the arc, Galloway moved into second place on the Hawks' all-time list with 249 three-pointers made. Ronald Roberts added 19 points for the Hawks, hitting 9-of-13 from the field, while Halil Kanacevic added 11 points and six rebounds. SJU scored the first nine points of the game and forced five Siena turnovers in the first four minutes. The Hawks kept Siena scoreless until a free throw at 15:47 and without a field goal until 13:45. SJU increased its lead to 25-11 on back-to-back baskets by Kanacevic and then doubled Siena's score, 32-16, on a dunk by Galloway at 6:47. The teams suffered through a foul-plagued second half, as 29 total fouls were called and the Saints cut the SJU lead to 68-56. But Galloway hit his sixth three-pointer of the game to put the Hawks back up by 15 points, 71-56, with over four minutes to play.

SJU 72 - Washington State 67

Ronald Roberts had 21 points and 10 rebounds to lead Saint Joseph's to a 72-67 win over Washington State in the fifth-place game of the 2013 Old Spice Classic at ESPN's Wide World of Sports. DeAndre Bembry and Langston Galloway each added 13 points. Roberts dominated inside, shooting 8-for-12 from the field, with five dunks on the day, en route to his second double-double of the year. Bembry sparked the Hawks in the second half with 11 points, including a pair of three-point plays. Trailing 56-55 with eight minutes to play, Saint Joseph's outscored the Cougars, 15-4, to take a 70-65 lead with just over a minute to play. WSU pulled to within 70-67 and after SJU missed two shots on its next possession, the Hawks forced a Washington State turnover. Galloway and Roberts each converted a free throw in the final 30 seconds and Bembry blocked a shot with six seconds left to preserve the win.

Game 7: December 4, 2013 - Liacouras Center - Philadelphia, Pa.

Temple 77 - SJU 69

Langston Galloway led four Hawks in double digits with a game-high 24 points, but Saint Joseph's fell to Temple, 77-69, in SJU's Big 5 opener at the Liacouras Center. Ronald Roberts, Jr. (13), DeAndre' Bembry (12), and Halil Kanacevic (11) also reached double figures for the Crimson and Gray. As is typical of Big 5 battles, the game featured 14 ties and 17 lead changes. The final tie of the game came with 4:27 to play, when Galloway connected on his sixth three-pointer of the game to knot the score, 65-65. But the Hawks would go on to miss three straight three-point attempts and a layup by Anthony Lee at 2:09 gave the Owls the lead for good, 67-65. Next time down the court, Kanacevic missed on a three and Quenton Decosey made one of two free throws to increase the TU lead to 68-65. Roberts scored the Hawks' last basket of the game at :40, and then Temple took numerous trips to the foul line, making 7-of-8 to ice the victory.

#14/19 Villanova 98- SJU 68

Saint Joseph's fell to 14th-ranked and undefeated Villanova, 98-68, in Big 5 action in front of a standing-room only crowd at Hagan Arena. Langston Galloway scored 18 points to lead four Hawks in double digits while DeAndre' Bembry scored 17, Ronald Roberts, Jr. had 12 points and Halil Kanacevic tallied 10 for the Hawks. Saint Joseph's held the lead in the early going as a drive by Bembry gave the Hawks their biggest lead of the game, 30-23, with 5:20 in the first half. But the Wildcats went on a 7-0 run to tie it, 30-30. After Galloway put the Hawks up 33-32, Villanova scored another seven in a row to tie to take a 39-33 lead. A jumper by Galloway at the buzzer cut SJU's halftime deficit to 39-35. Villanova took control of the game late in the first half and outscored the Hawks, 17-5, in the first six minutes of the second half to take a 59-40 lead. Saint Joseph's would come as close as 61-48 with 11:33 to play, but the Wildcats went up by 75-54 with 8:59 to play. The winning margin was their largest lead of the game.

SJU 75 - Drexel 55

Halil Kanacevic scored a career-high 27 points and had 14 rebounds, while shooting 12-for-13 from the field, to lead Saint Joseph's to a 75-55 win over Drexel. DeAndre' Bemby scored 18 points and Langston Galloway and Chris Wilson each added 11 points. Kanacevic scored nine points in the first six minutes of the second half as the Hawks went on a 19-5 run to take its biggest lead at that point, 42-32. Drexel pulled to within 54-47 with 7:36 remaining but Saint Joseph's went on a 16-2 run to put the game to take a commanding 70-49 lead with 4:35 remaining. After scoring his first basket of the game at the 12:45 mark of the second half, Galloway netted six points in that spurt by the Hawks. The teams struggled through a sloppy first half in which neither team made a three-point field goal (combined 0-for-12) and Saint Joseph's committed 10 turnovers and went just 1-for-7 from the foul line. Drexel led for all but a minute of the first half and took its biggest lead, 21-12, with 5:13 remaining. Kanacevic and Bemby led the Hawks back by combining for Saint Joseph's final 11 points of the half. Bemby scored the last five straight to pull Saint Joseph's within 25-23 before a layup gave the Dragons a 27-23 lead at halftime.

GAME RECAPS

Game 10: December 21, 2013 - Reitz Arena - Baltimore, Md.

SJU 88 - Loyola 77

It was a tale of two halves, but Saint Joseph's held on for an 88-77 win over Loyola Maryland. Four Hawks scored in double figures during a 60-point first half as Ronald Roberts led Saint Joseph's with 20 points. SJU was led early by Langston Galloway, who hit on his first four three-point attempts and first five field goal attempts. After a 10-3 Hawk spurt, Loyola scored five straight to close within 13-12, which would be as close as the Greyhounds would get for the rest of the game. With SJU holding a 24-19 lead, a three-pointer from Isaiah Miles kicked off a 36-5 run to close out the half. Miles' three began a 17-0 spurt for the Hawks and was highlighted by a 9-of-10 shooting stretch for Saint Joseph's. SJU held a 60-24 lead at intermission. During the first half, the Hawks shot a blistering 64.5% (20-31) from the field, including 8-of-12 from three-point range, and hit on all 12 free throw attempts. In the middle of the second half, things turned around as Loyola outscored SJU 53-28 and held the Hawks to just four field goals. With SJU leading 72-42 with 9:30 left, Loyola raced to a 20-5 run, closing to 77-62 with 3:19 to play. Loyola then used an 8-1 spurt over a 40-second span to close to within 79-70 with 1:35 to go. Over the final 1:30, the Hawks hit 9-of-11 free throws to ice the game. Miles finished with a career-high 17 points in his hometown, Chris Wilson had 17 and Galloway scored 14 points.

Saint Joseph's (6-4)

SJU 73 - Boston University 67

Saint Joseph's fought back from an 11-point second-half deficit to defeat Boston University, 73-67. Chris Wilson tied his career high with 19 points to lead four Hawks in double figures while Ronald Roberts, Jr. had 19 as well, Langston Galloway scored 16 and freshman DeAndre Bembry added 11. Saint Joseph's trailed the Terriers, 35-28, at the break and BU opened the second half with two three-pointers to push the lead to 41-30 with 18:52 to go. But Galloway keyed a 13-2 run over the next five minutes, with seven points, including a jumper at 13:50 that tied the game at 43. After a 47-47 tie, BU went on a 7-0 spurt to take a 54-47 lead with 8:46 to go. From that point, the Hawk defense took over, holding the Terriers without a field goal over a span of 9:30. The defense keyed the offense, as Bembry scored nine of the Hawks' next 14 points during an 18-2 run that gave SJU a 67-58 lead at 1:02.

SJU 53 - Denver 52

Langston Galloway scored 14 points and DeAndre' Bembry added 13 as Saint Joseph's edged Denver, 53-52, for the Hawks' fifth win in a row. SJU led 51-49 with 2:06 to play and after two turnovers by Denver and one by SJU, Denver regained possession with 10 seconds to play. Marcus Byrd's three-pointer was off the mark and Halil Kanacevic blocked the follow-up. Bembry then grabbed the rebound and fed to Chris Wilson, who was fouled and made both free throws with six-tenths of a second to play to put the Hawks up, 53-49. Denver hit a three-pointer at the buzzer to provide the final margin. The teams traded leads in the early part of the second half, but Saint Joseph's went on a 9-0 run to take its biggest lead of the game, 45-37, at 8:07. The Hawks struggled offensively in the first half, shooting just 27.6 percent and had to come back from an 11-point deficit. SJU went without a point for close to five minutes as Denver jumped out to a 12-3 lead. Trailing 21-10 with 8:28 to play, Galloway started the Hawks' comeback, scoring seven consecutive points as SJU went on an 8-2 run. SJU closed to 23-21 on a layup by Kanacevic but Denver took a 25-23 lead into intermission. Ronald Roberts, Jr., grabbed 15 rebounds for the Hawks while Kanacevic had six rebounds and four blocks on the day.

Game 14: January 8, 2014 - Mullins Center - Amherst, Mass.

#19/19 Massachusetts 66 - SJU 62

A shorthanded Saint Joseph's team battled for 40 minutes, but a late run to end the game gave 19th-ranked Massachusetts a 66-62 victory at the Mullins Center in the A-10 opener. Halil Kanacevic led the Hawks with 19 points and 13 rebounds, while Langston Galloway and DeAndre' Bembry chipped in 18 and 16 points, respectively. Ronald Roberts, Jr. left the game early in the second half due to back spasms after an awkward fall and did not return. SJU was also without Isaiah Miles, who missed the game due to a concussion. Saint Joseph's held a 31-28 lead at halftime, but a 7-0 spurt by UMass put the Minutemen on top, 35-31, with 18:16 to go and then increased to 13-4 after a layup to put the home team ahead 41-35 with 14:05 remaining. A Galloway jumper at 13:48 kicked off a 7-0 run for the Hawks; a three-pointer by Kanacevic and a layup by Chris Wilson put SJU ahead by a point, 42-41, with 12:09 to go. With the score tied, 48-48, at 9:22, the Hawks would score the next nine points of the game, seven of them by Kanacevic, to take a 57-48 lead with 6:23 to go. But from that point forward, UMass outscored Saint Joseph's, 18-5, to secure the victory.

Game 15: January 11, 2014 - Patriot Center - Fairfax, Va.

SJU 84 - George Mason 80

Trailing by three points with 7:25 remaining in the game, seniors Halil Kanacevic and Langston Galloway put Saint Joseph's on their backs and led the Hawks to a gritty 84-80 win at George Mason in the first A-10 meeting of the teams. Kanacevic scored 23 points, Galloway had 20 and DeAndre' Bembry added 17, while Papa Ndao posted a career-high 13 points on 4-of-4 shooting in his first start of the season. The Hawks were without second-leading scorer Ronald Roberts, Jr., who missed his first career game due to back spasms, and Isaiah Miles who missed his second consecutive game due to a concussion. Trailing 45-40 at halftime, SJU opened the second half on a 10-2 run, culminating in a dunk and a layup by Kanacevic to put the Hawks on top, 53-47, with 16:26 remaining. The Patriots closed back to within 54-53 but a layup by Bembry restored a three-point lead a minute later. The Hawks took a 60-55 lead at the 12:28 mark, but GMU would answer with an 11-3 run to take a 66-63 lead with 7:25 left. Kanacevic answered with a layup and Ndao hit his third three-pointer of the game to put SJU ahead for good, 68-67, with 6:12 to go. That bucket kicked off a 9-0 run that featured four points from Galloway and left the Hawks with a 74-67 advantage with 3:16 to play. A pair of GMU free throws broke up the run, but the Hawks then scored six of the next seven points, punctuated by a fast break dunk from Bembry, to take an 80-70 lead at :45. Galloway and Kanacevic would each drain a pair of free throws to help seal the victory before GMU hit a desperation three-pointer at the buzzer to provide the final margin.

Game 16: January 15, 2014 - Hagan Arena SJU 84 - Duquesne 75

Langston Galloway scored 24 of his 26 points in the first half as Saint Joseph's staked a 30-point lead and cruised to an 84-75 win over Duquesne. The Hawks put on an offensive display in the first half, shooting 71.4 percent from the field (20-of-28), and making 12-of-18 three-pointers en route to a 52-20 halftime lead. Galloway connected on 9-of-11 from the field and made 6-of-7 from three-point range for the highest single-half point total of his career. Chris Wilson added 16 points in the contest, making 4-of-6 three-pointers, and handed out a team-high eight assists for the Hawks. Papa Ndao, who made his second straight start, grabbed a team-high seven rebounds. SJU scored the first 12 points of the game and never looked back, holding Duquesne scoreless for the first six minutes. By the 12:15 mark, Saint Joseph's owned a 20-5 lead and four minutes later, was up by a score of 34-9. Galloway's sixth three-pointer gave SJU its biggest lead of the game, 48-11, with 3:23 remaining. The Hawks cooled off a bit in the second half, shooting 55 percent, but still maintained a 30-plus point margin until the final four minutes. With SJU leading 82-50, Duquesne outscored the Hawks' reserves, 25-2, during that stretch to provide the final margin. The Hawks were without starter Ronald Roberts, Jr. (back spasms) for the second straight game and without sixth man Isaiah Miles (concussion) for the third game in a row.

Game 17: January 18, 2014 - The Palestra - Philadelphia, Pa. SJU 85 - Penn 68

Langston Galloway scored 20 points to lead four Hawks in double figures as Saint Joseph's cruised to an 85-68 win over Penn in Big 5 action at the soldout Palestra. Chris Wilson and DeAndre' Bembry scored 13 points apiece and Ronald Roberts had 10 points in his return to the starting lineup after missing two games with a back injury. Halil Kanacevic was one point shy of a triple-double as the senior had nine points, 15 rebounds and 11 assists. Galloway shot 7-for-10 from the field, which included a 6-for-7 performance from beyond the arc. For the second game in a row, the Hawks put on an impressive effort from three-point range, hitting 16-of-24, including 13-of-15 in the first half. SJU used two big runs and defensive efforts to secure the win in the first half, hitting 66.7 percent (20-for-30) from the field. Leading 19-14, the Hawks scored the next 12 points over a span of five minutes with consecutive threes by Papa Ndao, Galloway and Kanacevic to take a 31-14 lead. SJU followed by running off another 11 points and keeping Penn scoreless for the final 5:57 of the half until the Quakers hit a three as time expired, making SJU's halftime lead 57-23. It was more of the same in the second half and SJU took its biggest lead, 78-41, midway through the half. Penn outscored the Hawks, 19-3, in the final five minutes to provide the final margin.

Saint Joseph's (12-5, 1-2 Big 5)

Game 18: January 22, 2014 - Hagan Arena SJU 61 - Rhode Island 57

Ronald Roberts, Jr., scored a game-high 20 points and grabbed nine rebounds to lead Saint Joseph's to a 61-57 win over Rhode Island at Hagan Arena. Roberts connected on 7-for-9 from the field and blocked three shots in the win. Langston Galloway tallied 15 points, going 8-for-10 from the foul line, and Halil Kanacevic scored 11. Rhode Island took a 37-31 lead early in the second half but the Hawks went on a 15-2 run to regain the lead, 46-39. Included in that was a dunk by Roberts to tie it at 37-37, while another Roberts' dunk off a missed shot gave SJU a 44-39 lead. Galloway hit his only three-pointer of the game at 6:40 to give the Hawks their biggest lead, 49-39. URI cut the Hawks' lead to 52-47 with 3:13 remaining, but Roberts countered with a three-point play to give SJU a 55-47 edge. The Rams cut it again to 57-52 at 49:2, but Galloway made 3-of-4 free throws to give SJU a 60-52 cushion. Five straight points by the Rams cut Saint Joseph's lead to 60-57 at :09, but another free throw by Galloway at :06 provided the final margin. After shooting 57 percent from the field in the past two games combined, the Hawks were uncharacteristically cold in the first half, hitting just 11-of-27 from the field and 1-for-10 from the three-point arc, missing nine long-range shots in a row. SJU made just 2-of-14 from three-point range in the game.

Game 19: January 25, 2014 - Robins Center - Richmond, Va. Richmond 77 - SJU 62

Halil Kanacevic led all players with 21 points and a career-high 19 rebounds, but Saint Joseph's struggled from the floor in a 77-62 loss at Richmond. During the game, Langston Galloway broke the school's career record for three-point field goals (294) set by SJU Basketball Hall of Famer Pat Carroll from 2001-05. Galloway sank the 295th three-pointer of his career in the second half. Leading 35-28 at halftime, Richmond opened the second half with an 11-2 run to take a 46-30 lead with 15:41 to go. SJU would cut the deficit to 52-43 after five points each from Galloway and Chris Wilson during a 13-6 stretch. The Spiders responded with a 12-2 run, taking their biggest lead of the game when a dunk made it a 64-45 advantage with 4:34 to go. After a dunk by Ronald Roberts, Galloway hit his record-breaking three to cut the deficit to 64-50. A three-pointer from Kanacevic with 3:20 to play preceded a pair of UR free throws that left the score at 66-53, but a jumper from DeAndre' Bemby and another three from Galloway capped off a 13-2 run that got the Hawks back within 66-58 with 2:22 to go. The Hawks could not get closer, however, as the Spiders converted 9-of-10 free throws over the final 1:25 to seal the victory. Saint Joseph's enjoyed a 44-35 advantage on the boards and pulled down 21 offensive rebounds, but shot just 37.1% (26-of-70) from the floor. Richmond hit on 47.9% (23-of-48) of its shots; that mark included 10-of-22 (45.5%) from three-point range, well over their average of 31.6%. Galloway scored 11 of his 13 points in the second half, while Bemby (11) and Wilson (10) also reached double-digits for SJU.

Saint Joseph's (13-6, 3-2)

Game 20: January 29, 2014 - UD Arena - Dayton, Ohio SJU 60 - Dayton 57

Langston Galloway banked home a three-pointer with 1.8 seconds remaining to lead Saint Joseph's past Dayton, 60-57. Chris Wilson led the Hawks with 15 points on 5-of-9 shooting, while Halil Kanacevic scored the 1,000th point of his collegiate career and grabbed 11 rebounds. Ronald Roberts, Jr. added 12 points and DeAndre' Bemby had 11. With the Hawks leading 57-55, Dayton's Dyshawn Pierre tied the game with a layup with 11 seconds left. After a timeout, Galloway took the inbounds pass in the backcourt and dribbled around a pair of screens on his right. His shot hit the backboard and went through the net with 1.8 seconds on the clock. The Flyers missed a desperation attempt from halfcourt to give the Hawks the victory, their first in Dayton since Feb. 21, 2001, snapping an eight-game losing streak at UD Arena. The Hawks owned a 15-point lead in the second half, but almost let it slip away. With SJU leading 47-32 at the midway point of the half, Dayton made its comeback, outscoring the Hawks, 19-7, over the next eight minutes. After Dayton's Vee Sanford picked off an SJU pass, Bemby was whistled for a flagrant foul in trying to stop the break. Sanford hit both free throws to pull UD within 54-51 at 2:23, but Wilson intercepted a pass on Dayton's ensuing possession. Bemby then hit a pair of free throws to increase SJU's lead to 56-51. The Flyers came within 56-55, at :27, but Bemby connected on the front end of the one-and-one to give SJU a 57-55 cushion. The Flyers answered with a layup at :11 to tie the game at 57-57 and set the stage for Galloway's game-winner. SJU scored a season-low 20 points in the first half, and trailed 25-20 at halftime. The Hawks came out like a different team after intermission and opened the second with a 27-7 run, including 12 straight points to take a 47-32 lead.

Saint Joseph's (14-6, 4-2 A-10)

Game 21: February 1, 2014 - Hagan Arena SJU 73 - #21/19 Massachusetts 68

Chris Wilson hit a pair of free throws with :30 seconds to play to help Saint Joseph's hold on for a 73-68 win over #21/19 Massachusetts at Hagan Arena. Halil Kanacevic led the Hawks with 18 points and five assists while Ronald Roberts scored 17. DeAndre' Bemby had 13 points and Wilson scored 12. Massachusetts fought back from a 17-point first half deficit and tied the game 67-67 with 1:20 to play. SJU followed with a free throw from Langston Galloway at :56 to regain the 68-67 lead, but UMass tied it again on a foul shot at :39. Wilson's free throws at :30 gave Saint Joseph's a 70-68 lead, but UMass turned the ball over on its next possession and Papa Ndao came away with the ball. The junior hit both free throws at 12.6 seconds to give the Hawks a 72-68 lead. UMass missed a three-point attempt and Galloway was fouled with :06 remaining, and made one free throw to provide the final margin. Trailing 41-25 at halftime, UMass outscored the Hawks, 13-5, in the first five minutes of the second half to come within 46-38. Saint Joseph's maintained the lead and eventually built it back up to 64-51 but a 13-1 UMass run tied the game, 67-67, at 1:23. It was Saint Joseph's first win over a ranked team since November 16, 2012 when the Hawks defeated #20 Notre Dame.

Game 22: February 5, 2014 - Hagan Arena #13/15 Saint Louis 65 - SJU 49

Saint Louis held Saint Joseph's to its lowest point total of the year as the #13/15 Billikens scored a 65-49 win in Atlantic 10 action at Hagan Arena. Ronald Roberts, Jr. was the only Hawk in double figures with a game-high 19 points and nine rebounds while Halil Kanacevic had nine points and nine rebounds. Saint Joseph's fell victim to the Saint Louis defense that held them to 31.9 percent shooting and a 1-for-15 effort from three-point range. The Hawks also committed 17 turnovers in the loss. Trailing 35-22 at halftime, Saint Joseph's tried get back into the game in the second half, but every attempt was stifled by a turnover or a missed opportunity. Down 45-32, the Hawks scored six straight points, as a short jumper from Papa Ndao cut the deficit to 45-38 at 9:45. But Saint Louis answered right back to build the lead up to 47-38. A pair of free throws by DeAndre' Bembry again pulled the Hawks within nine points, 49-40, at 8:37. But Saint Louis then outscored the Hawks, 12-3, to take a 61-43 lead with 4:21 remaining.

Game 23: February 8, 2014 - Hagan Arena SJU 69 - VCU 62

Langston Galloway scored a game-high 24 points and DeAndre' Bembry added 18 as Saint Joseph's held off VCU, 69-62, at Hagan Arena. Galloway shot 8-for-14 from the field while Halil Kanacevic posted game-highs of 10 rebounds and seven assists. After a three by Kanacevic, Saint Joseph's took its biggest lead of the game, 63-50, on a dunk by Roberts off a lob from Bembry with 5:56 to play, VCU chipped away at the lead, running off 10 straight points to close to 63-60 with 2:56 to play. The teams then traded baskets, with Bembry hitting a layup at 1:28 to put SJU up 65-60, and then VCU scored with 1:15 left to cut the Rams' deficit to 65-62. After a Saint Joseph's miss, the Rams were stopped on the next possession as Kanacevic took a charge with 32.9 seconds to play. SJU then put the game away from the foul line with Galloway and Chris Wilson each hitting a pair in the final 25 seconds. Saint Joseph's, which was without sixth man Papa Ndao because of the flu, handled VCU's pressure defense from the start and the teams were close throughout the first half. With the game tied, 20-20, SJU scored six straight to take a 26-20 lead. The Hawks took their biggest lead of the first half, 34-24, on a three by Bembry at 1:29. VCU answered with a jumper from Johnson to cut SJU's lead to 34-26 at halftime.

VCU (19-5; 7-2 A-10)

Game 24: February 15, 2014 - Gola Arena - Philadelphia, Pa.

SJU 75 - La Salle 64

Playing at Tom Gola Arena for the first time in nearly 13 years, Saint Joseph's defeated 75-64 crosstown rival La Salle. All five SJU starters finished in double figures, led by Langston Galloway's 18 points. After going scoreless in the first half, DeAndre' Bemby made 5-of-7 from the floor in the second to finish with 16 points. Ronald Roberts added 15 points, while Halil Kanacevic and Chris Wilson chipped in with 10 points apiece. SJU led from the 15:08 mark of the first half, but La Salle pulled within 68-62 with 2:10 to play. Galloway then made a pair of free throws to give SJU a 70-62 lead with over a minute to go before Kanacevic added another at :55. La Salle answered right back to come within 71-64 with 49.2 to go but Galloway and Roberts sank a pair of free throws apiece to salt away the win. Kanacevic was whistled for his third foul early in the second half, but the Hawks built up their lead without their top assist man. A pair of three-point plays by Bemby, followed by a layup by Galloway, gave the Hawks their biggest lead, 46-30, at 15:33. After LSU cut it to 56-48 with 10:53 remaining, a drive by Bemby gave the Hawks' another 10-point cushion, 58-48, followed by a pair of Galloway free throws and a three from Bemby put SJU's lead back up to 63-48. The Explorers then went on a 14-5 run to get within two possessions late. Saint Joseph's shot 53.6 percent from the field in the first half and led for most of the period. La Salle came within three at 27-24 with 3:28 to go, but the Hawks ended the half with a 9-2 run. A three by Galloway at :14 put the Hawks ahead by double digits for the first time, 36-26, at intermission. Roberts led the way, making all five shots in the half and scoring 12 points, while Galloway added 10.

Saint Joseph's (17-7, 7-3 A-10)

Game 25: February 19, 2014 - Ryan Center - Kingston, R.I.

SJU 57 - Rhode Island 54

Ronald Roberts, Jr., tallied 11 of his game-high 18 points in the second half to lead Saint Joseph's back from a 10-point deficit to defeat Rhode Island, 57-54, at the Ryan Center. Halil Kanacevic and DeAndre' Bemby chipped in with 12 points apiece, while Roberts and Kanacevic each corralled nine rebounds. Trailing 38-28 with 14:27 to go in the game, Saint Joseph's went on a 9-0 run that featured five points from Bemby. A pair of URI free throws at 10:55 to go pushed its lead back to three, but Roberts hit 1-of-2 from the line and then converted a layup to tie the game, 40-40, at the 9:57 mark. The teams traded baskets over the next five minutes, with the Hawks taking their first lead since the 12:06 mark of the first half on a three-pointer by Langston Galloway that made it a 46-44 game with 7:21 to go. With 5:17 to play, Roberts hit a pair from the line to put SJU ahead, 50-48, before Papa Ndao drained a three with 4:37 on the clock to give the Hawks their largest lead of the game. Rhode Island got a pair of free throws to get back within three, but Kanacevic hit a layup to restore the five-point margin at 55-50 with 3:20 left. A pair of URI baskets pulled them to 55-54 with 2:21 left. After missed three-pointers by both teams, Kanacevic pulled down a key offensive rebound with a minute to go; he then found a seam and coasted to the basket for a layup to make it a 57-54 lead with 34 seconds left. The Rams were able to get off a pair of shots, but a three-pointer in the final seconds was offline, and Chris Wilson picked up the rebound and dribbled out the clock to seal the win. Rhode Island held a 33-25 lead at halftime. Bemby scored seven of the Hawks' first nine in the contest, but was whistled for his second foul of the game with 15:27 to go in the frame and only played six minutes in the first half.

Saint Joseph's (18-7, 8-3 A-10)

Game 26: February 22, 2014 - Hagan Arena

SJU 87 - Fordham 72

Langston Galloway hit a school-record 10 three-pointers and scored a career-high 33 points to lead Saint Joseph's to an 87-72 win over Fordham at Hagan Arena. Galloway made 10-of-15 from behind the arc to eclipse the record of nine three-pointers previously set by Brian Leahy vs. Duquesne on Jan. 17, 1988. The senior finished the game shooting 11-for-18 overall from the field. Ronald Roberts, Jr. had 13 points and a team-high 13 rebounds for the Hawks, while DeAndre' Bemby scored 13 and Halil Kanacevic added 10 points and five assists. The Hawks used their three-point shooting to go on a 21-2 run early in the second half, scoring three points on each of seven straight possessions. Galloway knocked down five three-pointers in the four-minute stretch, while Chris Wilson also hit a three and Kanacevic had a three-point play. At the end of the run, SJU held a 65-36 lead, its largest of the game. Galloway connected on the record-tying three-pointer with 10:40 to play and then hit the record-setting field goal just 31 seconds later at 10:09 to give SJU a 71-42 lead. The Hawks scored the first seven points of the game and built up a quick 18-7 lead, helped by two three-pointers from Galloway. Another three by Galloway and five points from Bemby pushed SJU's advantage to 37-15, their biggest of the half. Fordham would close out the half with a 13-3 run to cut the deficit to 42-30 at halftime. Although SJU shot 60 percent from the field in the first half, the Hawks committed nine turnovers, and followed that with 10 in the second half.

Ronald Roberts, Jr. scored 22 points and Chris Wilson had a career-high 20 points as Saint Joseph's scored a convincing 79-53 win over Dayton at Hagan Arena. The win was the fifth in a row for Saint Joseph's while snapping Dayton's six-game winning streak, and handing the Flyers their worst loss of the season. It was the 20th win for SJU, marking the first 20-win season since 2007-08. Wilson shot a perfect 8-for-8 from the field, while Roberts hit 8-of-11 field goals. DeAndre' Bembry scored 12 points while Halil Kanacevic added 10 points, eight rebounds, eight assists and four blocked shots. Wilson and Roberts each scored 11 points in the first half as the Hawks quickly built up a double-digit lead. SJU scored the first eight points of the game and never looked back, taking a 10-1 lead in the first four minutes, and expanding it to 17-6 with seven straight points from Roberts. Back-to-back three-pointers from Papa Ndao built SJU's lead to its biggest of the half, 37-18, and the Hawks went into intermission holding a 39-20 lead. The Hawks kept rolling in the second half and maintained a 20-plus point lead most of the way. The Hawks took their largest margin of the game, 77-47, on a three-pointer by Bembry with 2:10 to play. Saint Joseph's made 58.3 percent from the field in the game and connected on 60 percent (9-of-15) from three-point range. Dayton hit just 31.7 percent and 22.7 percent from behind the arc.
