GAME STORIES . . .

- Saint Joseph's is making its second straight, and 13th overall appearance, in the NCAA Tournament.
- The Hawks garnered one of 32 at-large bids into the 2014 NCAA Tournament, marking the first time since 2000 that they have earned a bid.
- Saint Joseph's earned the ninth seed in the Lincoln Region and will open against eighth seed Georgia on Sunday.
- Saturday's matchup with Georgia will be the first meeting between the Hawks and the Bulldogs.
- This year marks the second consecutive season that the Hawks have earned a ninth seed and play their first game at Gampel Pavilion. Saint Joseph's fell to eighth seed Vanderbilt, 60-54, in the First Round of last year's NCAA Tournament (boxscore and recap on page 7).
- The Hawks are playing in their second NCAA Tournament under head coach Cindy Griffin. Saint Joseph's has earned 10 postseason bids (two NCAA, eight WNIT) during her 13 seasons as head coach.
- Saint Joseph's is one of three Atlantic 10 teams in the NCAA Tournament field. Regular season champion Dayton is the six seed in the Stanford Region, while A-10 Tournament champions Fordham earned a 10th seed in the Notre Dame Region.
- This year marks the first time since 1997 that both Saint Joseph's women's and men's basketball team have advanced to the NCAA Tournament. The Hawks are one of just 25 schools this year to make the NCAA Tournament with both squads.

HAWKS VERSUS FIRST & SECOND ROUND OPPONENTS

SAINT JOSEPH'S VS. GEORGIA - FIRST ROUND, SUNDAY MARCH 23

Sunday's matchup is the first meeting between the Hawks and Georgia. Saint Joseph's is in similar territory though, facing fellow SEC member Vanderbilt in last year's First Round of the NCAA Tournament (L, 60-54, 3/23/13). Additionally, the Hawks dropped an 80-64 decision at LSU in the Second Round of the Preseason WNIT earlier this year. All-time, Saint Joseph's is 5-15 against SEC opponents - Alabama (1-3), Arkansas (1-0), Auburn (1-1), LSU (0-1), Mississippi (0-1), Mississippi State (1-0), South Carolina (0-2), Tennessee (0-5), Vanderbilt (1-2).

SAINT JOSEPH'S VS. CONNECTICUT - SECOND ROUND, TUESDAY MARCH 25

The Hawks are 2-4 all-time against Connecticut, but have lost four straight to in the series. Saint Joseph's won the first two meetings (67-56 on December 10, 1983 and 65-52 on December 28, 1987), but the Huskies have dominated the last four games, winning by an average of 29.5 points per game.

HAWKS EARN FIFTH STRAIGHT POSTSEASON BID

Saint Joseph's will make its fifth consecutive postseason this Sunday when the Hawks face Georgia in the First Round of the 2014 NCAA Tournament. Coming off its first NCAA Tournament appearance in 13 years in 2013, Saint Joseph's previously earned Post-season WNIT bids from 2009-10 to 2011-12. The five-year streak of appearances is now the second longest stretch in Hawk history, just one off the record of six that was set from 1984-85 to 1989-90.

SAINT JOSEPH'S VERSUS THE FIELD

The Hawks enter the 2014 NCAA Tournament having faced seven fellow participants. Saint Joseph's went a combined 4-4 versus those teams. Below is a breakdown of how the Hawks finished versus fellow NCAA Tournament teams.

Team (Seed - Region)	SJU Results
Dayton (6 - Stanford)	1-1 (W, 75-63, 1/26/14; L, 56-82, 2/23/14)
Florida Gulf Coast (12 - Notre Dame)	1-0 (W, 76-64, 12/29/13)
Fordham (10 - Notre Dame)	0-1 (L, 53-58, 3/2/14)
LSU (7 - Louisville)	0-1 (L, 64-80, 11/10/13)
Penn (12 - Louisville)	1-0 (W, 60-52, 1/17/14)
Syracuse (6 - Notre Dame)	0-1 (L, 62-64, 12/21/13)
Wichita State (14 -Stanford)	1-0 (W, 81-73 OT, 11/15/13)

HIGH-FLYING OFFENSE

This year's scoring average is one for the ages at Hawk Hill as Saint Joseph's enters the NCAA Tournament averaging 72.2 points per game. It has been 24 seasons since the Hawks averaged that much, posting 78.2 points per game in 1989-90. For perspective, SJU head coach Cindy Griffin and Director of Basketball Operations Katie Gardler were playing for the Hawks that season, while no current SJU student-athlete had been born.

TAKING CARE OF THE BALL

Ranking 12th nationally in turnovers per game at 12.39, the Hawks are on pace to set the single-season record for fewest turnovers. Currently at 384 turnovers this year, Saint Joseph's should challenge the record of 408 set by the 1993-94 Hawks.

CLOUD GARNERS ATLANTIC 10 AWARDS

Saint Joseph's junior guard Natasha Cloud was named Atlantic 10 Defensive Player of the Year, conference officials announced on Tuesday. Cloud, who headlined the A-10 All-Defensive Team, also was selected to the A-10 All-Conference Second Team. Cloud currently leads SJU in assists (233), rebounds (201), steals (61) and is averaging a career-best 11.5 points per game.

SHIELDS EARNS PAIR OF ATLANTIC 10 HONORS

One of the top student-athletes on the court and in the classroom, senior guard Erin Shields was named to the Atlantic 10 All-Conference Second Team and to the All-Academic Team. Leading the team in scoring (14.9 ppg) and tops in the A-10 in three-pointers (88), Shields is the 18th Hawk to earn multiple All-Conference honors (third team last season), and just the fifth to earn multiple All-Academic Team honors.

SHIELDS SETS CAREER GAMES PLAYED RECORD

Erin Shields will add to her record come Sunday as the senior guard owns Saint Joseph's all-time record for career games played with 128. Having played all 128 straight games dating back to her freshman campaign, Shields surpassed former teammates, Michelle Baker (2008-12) and Ashley Prim (2009-13), who held the previous record of 127.

SHIELD AMONG TOP SINGLE-SEASON SCORERS

Tallying 462 points so far this year, senior guard Erin Shields ranks among the top single-season scorers in Hawk history. She enters the NCAA Tournament tied for 21st alongside Wendy Brink and should pass Mary Sue Garrity (463), Angela Zampella (464), Audrey Codner (465) and Kim Foley (466) into 17th place.

CLOUD CANDIDATE FOR LIEBERMAN AWARD

Saint Joseph's junior guard Natasha Cloud was named one of 22 candidates for the 2014 Nancy Lieberman Award for top point guard in the nation. Despite not being selected one of the five finalists, the 6-foot-guard still leads the conference and is second nationally in assists per game (7.8), ranks first in the A-10 in assists-to-turnover ratio (2.4), sixth in minutes per game (34.8) and is averaging a career-high 11.5 points per contest.

INJURY REPORT

SHIELDS AND CLOUD AMONG ALL-TIME ASSIST LEADERS

The pair of junior guard Natasha Cloud and senior guard Erin Shields have formed arguably one of the most unselfish backcourts in Hawk history. In under two seasons, Cloud has climbed to ninth all-time in assists (375), while Shields is in 10th place with 362.

FAIRBANKS' STRONG SOPHOMORE CAMPAIGN

What a difference a season makes for sophomore forward Sarah Fairbanks. Earning playing time as a reserve last season, she tallied 49 points and grabbed 60 rebounds over 27 contests. Starting 22 games, Fairbanks blossomed this season having scored more than eight times her output of last year with 399 points as she leads posts in scoring. Also, she lead SJU post players in rebounds (186) and ranks fourth in the Atlantic 10 in both blocked shots per game (1.2) and field goal percentage (.512)

ANDREWS ADDS OFFENSIVE PUNCH

A key reserve this season, sophomore guard Ciara Andrews has proven to be a major piece to the Hawks' puzzle in 2013-14. Averaging 20.8 minutes per game Andrews has already surpassed almost all her statistical totals from a season ago, while averaging 14.7 points per game over the final six games of the season. Below is a comparison of Andrews' two seasons.

TRIO OF HAWKS SERVING AS CAPTAINS IN 2013-14

Senior Erin Shields, redshirt junior Ashley Robinson and junior Natasha Cloud are serving as team captains this season. Shields is serving as a team captain for the second straight year, while Robinson and Cloud are captains for the first time this season.

THE HAWK

The Saint Joseph's Hawk mascot has been flapping its wings for more than a half a century.

One of the most famous mascots in college sports, The Hawk is best known for staying in constant motion by flapping its wings throughout every basketball game and representing the Saint Joseph's motto, "The Hawk Will Never Die."

Saint Joseph's athletic teams have been recognized with the nickname "Hawks" since 1929. At that time, the school's yearbook editor initiated a contest among the student body for a symbol. More than 100 submissions were narrowed, with "Hawks" winning out over "Grenadiers" by a slim margin.

The name was appropriate because it typified "the fighting spirit of our crimson and gray athletes and it is suggestive of the aerial attack which has made our football team famous." Football, ironically, was discontinued at SJU following the 1939 season.

The idea for The Hawk as a mascot was originated by Jim Brennan during the 1954-55 season. Brennan, an ex-Marine and SJU cheerleader, at first wanted to secure an actual hawk, but later switched to the costume idea. The student government raised the $120 needed to buy the initial costume, which Brennan donned for three years. He made his debut as The Hawk on January 4, 1956, a 69-56 win over La Salle at The Palestra. The Hawk, who was present at most women's basketball games, became a mainstay in 1989. Since then, 12 SJU students have donned the costume, with Brian Lafferty serving as the Hawk this season.

The Hawk mascot has garnered numerous accolades in its 57-year history. It has been selected as the nation's top mascot by The Sporting News, Sports Illustrated, Sports Illustrated for Kids, Street & Smith's Basketball Yearbook and ESPN College Basketball magazine and was a nominee for the 2008 Mascot Hall of Fame.

CLOUD NEARING SINGLE-SEASON ASSISTS RECORD

Junior guard Natasha Cloud enters the NCAA Tournament second in Saint Joseph's single season history for assists with 233. Trailing Angela Zampella's mark of 241 set in 1999-00, Cloud has more assists this year than three teams in the nation (Wofford-220, Morgan St.-226 and Alcorn St.-192).

ROBINSON MAKING AN IMPACT

After missing the first eight games of the season recovering from a shoulder injury, redshirt junior forward Ashley Robinson quickly picked up from where she left off last year. Averaging 5.6 points per game, Robinson has been a major contributor on the boards, grabbing 5.2 per game. She also posted her second and third career double-double (16 points and 10 rebounds against George Washington; 14 points and 11 rebounds at George Mason) and has set new career-highs in rebounds (11 at VCU and George Mason) and blocks (four versus Penn).

HAWKS WIN 2013-14 BIG 5 TITLE

Saint Joseph's claimed its 16th Big 5 title, and first since 2008-09, with a 64-52 win at La Salle on January 19. The Hawks capped an undefeated season in the City Series to claim their first outright title since 2000-01. Additionally, SJU also topped Drexel, 70-52, on November 20, to complete a perfect season against all five Philadelphia schools.

SAINT JOSEPH'S TAKING ADVANTAGE OF CHARITY STRIPE

Saint Joseph's has taken advantage of its trips to the free throw line this season, hitting 450-of-561 for 80.2 percent, good for second among all Division I teams. Additionally, senior Erin Shields leads the A-10 in free throw percentage (94.9 percent), while sophomore guard Ciara Andrews is currently third in the A-10 and 44th nationally at 84.8 percent. Additionally, Shields, who doesn't qualify for the national rankings because she is averaging just under 2.5 makes per game, is SJU's all-time leader in free throw percentage, converting 91.0 percent (191-of-210) for her career.

GRIFFIN SECOND ALL-TIME IN WINS AT HAWK HILL

Now in her 13th season at her alma mater, Cindy Griffin is second all-time in victories, posting a 245-165 mark to date. Griffin, who has led SJU to a record nine postseason appearances, trails only Women's Basketball Hall of Famer Jim Foster (248) in career wins.

SHIELDS AMONG TOP MOTHER-DAUGHTER COMBOS

Senior Erin Shields and her mother, Renie (1978-82) have combined to form one of the best mother-daughter duos in any school history. Among mothers and daughters to have played at the same school, the Shields currently are second all-time in scoring with 2,222 combined points (932 for Renie, 1,313 for Erin), trailing Pittsburgh's Jennifer Bruce (Scott) and daughter Shayla (3,291 points). The Shields additionally have combined for 841 assists.

GOTFRIDA AMONGST SJU'S MOST EFFICIENT SCORERS

Senior forward Ilze Gotfrida has proven to be one of the more efficient scorers in Saint Joseph's history. A career 48.5 percent shooter from the floor (283-of-583), she is currently on pace to finish among the all-time leaders in efficiency in SJU history, while averaging a career-best 8.3 points per game this year.

HAWKS POST DOUBLE-DIGIT WINS AT HOME AND ON ROAD

This year's SJU squad became just the fourth team in program history to win 10 games at home and on the road, joining the 1977-78, 1986-87 and 1999-00 teams.

SHIELDS NEARING THREE-POINT RECORDS

Senior guard Erin Shields has established as one of the top three-point shooters in Saint Joseph's history. The Hawks returning leader in three pointers, she is currently second all-time in three-pointer made (248) and attempts (664) and sixth in three-point percentage (.373). Her 88 three-pointers this year are eight thee of the record of 91 set by Kristen Sullivan in 1995-96, while overall she is 13 shy of Amra Mehmedic's record of 256.

START ME UP

Through 14 games, the Hawks were consistent in its starting lineup, with the same five players opening the game every contest - seniors Kelsey Berger, Ilze Gotfrida and Erin Shields, junior Natasha Cloud and sophomore Sarah Fairbanks. Since then though, the Hawks have used six varied lineups as sophomore guard Ciara Andrews, freshman guard Geena Gomez and redshirt junior Ashley Robinson have all earned starts

Starters	SJU Record
Berger, Cloud, Fairbanks, Gotfrida, Shields	11-3
Andrews, Berger, Fairbanks, Gotfrida, Shields	1-0
Andrews, Cloud, Fairbanks, Gomez, Gotfrida	0-1
Andrews, Cloud, Gotfrida, Robinson, Shields	5-1
Berger, Cloud, Fairbanks, Robinson, Shields	1-0
Andrews, Cloud, Fairbanks, Robinson, Shields	3-3
Berger, Cloud, Gotfrida, Robinson, Shields	0-1

CLOUD AND SHIELDS AMONG NATION'S ELITE

The pairing of senior Erin Shields and junior Natasha Cloud comprise one of the top backcourts in both the Atlantic 10 and nationally. Currently, the two are averaging a combined 26.4 points and 11.1 assists per game to go with 34.5 minutes per contest.

SJU COLLECTS DONATIONS FOR CLOUD FAMILY FUND

Saint Joseph's collected donations at its game against George Washington to help support the family of junior Natasha Cloud. On the evening of December 18, Cloud's family home was destroyed by a fire. Fortunately everyone home at the time escaped without injury, however all the contents of the home were lost. With an outpouring of inquiries about how to help, SJU, in conjunction with the office of Community and Government Relations, collected donations for a fund set up to assist the Cloud family in purchasing food, clothing and other essential items. The Hawks graciously thank all those who donated to the Cloud Family Fund.

SHIELDS REACHES 1,000 POINT PLATEAU

Senior guard Erin Shields became the 22nd player in SJU history to reach 1,000 career points in the Hawks' win over Hofstra (12/10). Shields has tallied 1,313 points (10th all-time) over 128 games, averaging 10.3 points per game. Additionally, she passed her mother, Renie (932 points), on SJU's all-time scoring list with a three-pointer at 10:22 mark of the first half in the Hawks' victory at Princeton on November 26 and passed her sister Kerri, who scored 1,067 at Boston College (2009-13), for family bragging rights with a half-court buzzer beater to end the first period against George Washington.

THE HAWK AT WING BOWL

An annual Philadelphia tradition, Wing Bowl, had a Saint Joseph's flair this year as Brian Lafferty, The Hawk, qualified for this year's eating competition. Lafferty, in his first season as the SJU mascot for the women's team, qualified for Wing Bowl 22 by eating 30 Oreos and a drinking a half gallon of milk in 6 minutes 50 seconds. Wing Bowl 22 was held January 31 at the Wells Fargo Center.

HAWKS AMONG NCAA LEADERS

HAWK HILL ADVANTAGE

Saint Joseph's has always had a reputation of playing well at home. Over 41 seasons, the Hawks have boasted a 390-138 mark at Hawk Hill, including a 58-21 record at Hagan Arena. Last year, SJU went just 4-3 at home against nonconference opponents, but finished with a 12-4 home record overall.

HAWKS EXCEL IN NONCONFERENCE PLAY

Saint Joseph's has posted a winning record in nonconference play the past four seasons, including a 11-2 mark this year. The Hawks, who went 9-5 in nonconference games last year, have posted a combined 40-15 record during the nonconference portion of its schedule the last four years.

FOREIGN-BORN HAWKS

Saint Joseph's entered the season with two foreign-born players, making it the fifth straight year the Hawks have had multiple players from outside the United States. Freshman forward Lisanne de Jonge is the 15th foreign-born student-athlete to play for Saint Joseph's, joining senior Ilze Gotfrida. Below is a list of SJU's all-time roster of foreign-born players.

Years	Player	Country
1986-89	Alix Burns	England

HAWKS ADD TRANSFER AMANDA FIORAVANTI

Saint Joseph's announced freshman forward Amanda Fioravanti has transferred to the Hawk Hill for the Spring semester. Named the 2012-13 Gatorade Player of the Year for Maryland, Fioravanti comes to SJU after playing at the University of Virginia the first semester of this season. While with the Cavaliers, Fioravanti averaged 1.5 points and 1.1 rebounds per game over eight games. Named an 2012-13 All-American by Parade Magazine as a senior at Our Lady of Good Counsel High School, she will sit out a full academic year before playing for SJU per NCAA transfer regulations.

FOUR MORE HAWKS IN THE PROS

Saint Joseph's senior class was a remarkable one, joining only five other classes to make a postseason bid each year. On top of that, and leading the Hawks to the Atlantic 10 title for the first time since 1999, all four seniors - Ashley Prim, Shelby Smith, Chatilla van Grinsven and Mireia Vila - all have gone on to play professionally. Prim is currently playing in Puerto Rico, while Smith is competing in Ireland. van Grinsven, who earned a training camp invite from the WNBA's Connecticut Sun, is playing for Bourges Basket in France, while Vila is competing in her home country of Spain.

MEDIA INFORMATION

MEDIA CREDENTIALS

Credentials for media covering Saint Joseph's at Hagan Arena in 2013-14 should be made at least 24 hours in advance by contacting Jack Jumper at (610) 660-3389, by fax at (610) 660-1724, or by email (jjumper@sju.edu).

PHOTO CREDENTIALS

All photographers attending Saint Joseph's home basketball games must be credentialed. Requests for credentials should be made in at least 24 hours in advance to Jack Jumper. Due to space demands, access to freelance photographers is limited.

RADIO POLICY

Radio stations designated as the primary visiting outlet can have access to phone lines at a cost of $100 per line per game. ($200 for ISDN), unless a reciprocal usage agreement exists. Visiting radio stations wishing to broadcast the game should contact Jack Jumper at (610) 660-3389 or by email (jjumper@sju.edu) to arrange phone lines.

PRESS ROW

Only accredited members of the media and accredited scouts will be issued credentials to cover Saint Joseph's basketball, and only those with passes will be permitted to sit in press seating. HAWKS FINISH WITH 2-1 MARK IN PRESEASON WNIT

Playing in the Preseason WNIT for the second time in team history, Saint Joseph's began the season with a 2-1 mark as it posted wins against Mount St. Mary's (85-57) and Wichita State (81-73, OT) with a loss at #15/17 LSU (80-64). The Hawks won their opening game against Mount St. Mary's but fell in the Quarterfinal at LSU. SJU capped the tournament with a thrilling 81-73 overtime win at Wichita State as SJU came back from down 16 points in the second half.

HAWKS INKS FIVE TO NATIONAL LETTERS OF INTENT

Guards Avery Marz (Sinking Springs, Pa./Wilson Area), Sarah Veilleux (Hebron, Conn./RHAM) and Chelsea Woods (Philadelphia, Pa./Freire Charter) and post players Candace Belvedere (Merrick, N.Y./Kellenberg Memorial) and Adashia Franklyn (West Chester, Pa./West Chester Bayard Rustin) signed National Letters of Intent to attend SJU next year.

WHY S-A-I-N-T JOSEPHS UNIVERSITY?

The corporate title of "Saint" Joseph's University, which has been in place since Saint Joseph's was granted university status by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in 1979, is now the "public" title of the institution for all aspects of its operations. Previously, the abbreviation of "St." Joseph's University was permitted in a number of alumni and athletic contexts. According to the most recent edition of the Higher Education Directory, there are at least nine recognized "St. Joseph's" among the nation's colleges and universities. Only one of them-Saint Joseph's University, Philadelphia-is a university-level, Master's I, NCAA Division I institution. A complete spelling of S-A-I-N-T Joseph's University in all contexts will help eliminate any confusion among higher education and other public constituencies.

2013 NCAA TOURNAMENT RECAP

March 23, 2013 • Gampel Pavilion

Vanderbilt - 60, Saint Joseph's - 54

STORRS, Conn. - A historic season came to a close for Saint Joseph's, but not without the trademark "Hawk Will Never Die" spirit. Ninth seed Saint Joseph's fought back from a 10-point second half deficit to tie the game late, but eighth seed Vanderbilt got key baskets in the final minutes to top the Hawks, 60-54, in the First Round of the NCAA Tournament.

Making their first NCAA Tournament appearance since 2000, the Atlantic 10 champion Hawks (23-9) found themselves down 48-40 midway through the second half. Remaining calm, Saint Joseph's used a 8-0 run to tie the game at 48 all on a layup by Chatilla van Grinsven at 6:49.

Vanderbilt (21-11) scored the next two baskets, opening a 52-48 lead, but again SJU answered, making it 52-50 game following the last media timeout with 4:30 to play.

Saint Joseph's failed to convert on its next two possessions, while the Commodores opened a 54-50 lead on a pair of free throws with 2:40 left.

After trading baskets, van Grinsven's layup off an offensive rebound made it a 56-54 game in favor of Vanderbilt at 1:11.

The Commodores' Clarke hit a running layup with the shot clock expiring to push Vanderbilt's lead to 58-54 and the Hawks turned the ball over in their next possession, giving the higher seed the ball back with the lead with 28 seconds remaining.

Vanderbilt's Christina Foggie hit one of two free throws to make it 59-54, while SJU failed to score in its final possession, while Vanderbilt added a free throw to seal the game.

In a tight first half that had eight ties and three lead changes, Vanderbilt opened a 25-21 advantage with under five minutes to go. The Hawks answered back though as Ashley Prim, knocked down a pair of free throws, while a layup by Ilze Gotfrida tied the game at 25-25 with 4:13 left in the half.

The Commodores would close the half on an 8-2 run to take a 33-37 lead into halftime as the Hawks were without van Grinsven for much of the first half due to foul trouble.

A three-pointer by Shields to start the second half cut Saint Joseph's deficit to 33-30, but Vanderbilt answered with a 7-0 run to open a 40-30 lead on a three-pointer by Jasmine Lister at 16:06.

The Hawks answered though, cutting the deficit to two, 40-38, on a pair of free throws by van Grinsven. A layup by Robinson sparked the run as Erin Shields and van Grinsven followed with baskets before the pair of free throws made it a one-possession game.

The Commodores answered, going up 48-40, before the frantic comeback and final minutes.

Cindy Griffin - Head Coach

Saint Joseph's '91, MBA '93 - 13th Season

Leading Saint Joseph's to its third Atlantic 10 championship in team history in 2012-13, Cindy Griffin is in her 13th year as Saint Joseph's head coach. A 1991 and 1993 graduate of SJU, Griffin (nee Anderson) has compiled an overall record of 293-198 in 16 seasons as a head coach, and a 245-165 record over 13 years at Hawk Hill.

Only the eighth coach in NCAA Division I history to lead her alma mater to the NCAA Tournament as a player and a coach, Griffin's squads have posted five 20-win seasons, six victories over nationally-ranked teams and advanced to the postseason nine times, while her players have been honored as Atlantic 10 All-Conference performers 15 times.

Under Griffin's leadership, Saint Joseph's posted one of its most memorable seasons in team history in 2012-13 as the Hawks claimed the Atlantic 10 Championship for just the third time and earned the automatic bid in the NCAA Tournament. Led by a senior class that advanced to the postseason every year, the Hawks finished with a 23-9 record that included wins over #5 Maryland and #11 Dayton.

In addition to the team's success, a trio of Hawks were singled out for their performances, led by NCAA Woman of the Year nominee Chatilla van Grinsven. With Griffin's guidance, van Grinsven turned in one of the more dominant seasons in recent SJU history, becoming just the fifth player in SJU history to average a double-double for the year en route to being named to the A-10 All-Conference First Team and the Big 5 Player of the Year. The duo of backcourt mates Erin Shields and Natasha Cloud helped propel SJU to new heights, with Shields garnering A-10 and Big 5 Most Improved Player honors and I-AAA distinction, while Cloud was named the Most Outstanding Player of the 2013 A-10 Championship.

Backed by a veteran-laden team in 2011-12, the Hawks earned their third-straight WNIT berth and posted their most wins (22) since the 2003-04 season. Moving into second place in career victories at her alma mater, Griffin picked up her 200th win as the Hawks topped Boston University in the opening game of the WNIT on March 15, 2012. Leading the Hawks to a 15-4 mark at home, she helped Saint Joseph's become one of the more efficient teams in the nation, ranking fourth in fewest turnovers per game (12.5), 26th in three-point percentage (.348) and 39th in field goal percentage (.423).

Individually, senior Michelle Baker and Kelly Cavallo had breakout years, both garnering All-Big 5 honors. Behind Griffin's teaching, Baker went on to be named to the A-10 All-Conference Second Team and capped her career as SJU's all-time leader in games played (127) and ranking in the top 20 for scoring and field goals made. After seeing limited time as a freshman, Cavallo developed into one of the top post players in the A-10, leading SJU and finishing in the top five of the conference in rebounding, blocked shots and field goal percentage. With Griffin's aid, Cavallo finished her four-year career second all-time in blocks and 11th in rebounding at SJU.

Returning just one starter for the 2010-11 season, the Hawks quickly jelled under Griffin's guidance as they went on to win 20 games, earned the program's 700th victory, and advanced to the second round of the WNIT. Backed by All-Big 5 honorees Baker and Katie Kuester, Saint Joseph's had its most efficient offensive showing since 2002-03, as the Hawks finished 60th in the nation in field goal percentage (42.1).

Additionally, several Hawks were honored for outstanding seasons in 2010-11, headlined by sophomore Ashley Prim becoming the first SJU player to be named Atlantic 10 Sixth Player of the Year. Baker became just the second Hawk to be named to the A-10 All-Defensive Team, while freshman Erin Shields became the sixth player Griffin has coached to A-10 All-Rookie Team honors.

Earning a postseason berth for the first time in two years, the Hawks surpassed predictions in 2009-10 as they finished tied for fourth in the Atlantic 10 after being picked to finish ninth. After opening the season with a 3-7 mark, Griffin saw her team begin to click at the end of the non-conference schedule as SJU claimed the 19th Annual Hawk Classic title and worked its way to .500 by the second week of the Atlantic 10 slate.

Posting a 9-5 mark against conference opponents, Griffin hit two milestones during A-10 play, earning her 150th win at Saint Joseph's in a victory against Dayton and earning her 200th coaching win against George Washington. The Hawks would go on to earn the program's seventh WNIT bid, and play the first postseason game at Hagan Arena.

In 2008-09, Griffin undertook arguably her toughest season to date as Saint Joseph's played every contest away from Hawk Hill for the first time in program history. And in typical SJU fashion, Griffin got her team to respond as Saint Joseph's went on to post an 8-5 record at home venues and earn its first Big 5 title since 2000-01. Individually five Hawks posted career-bests in scoring, with Brittany Ford and Mariame Djouara both earning All-Big 5 Second Team honors.

Relying heavily on underclassmen in 2007-08, Griffin guided her Hawks to another winning season, including crowns at the Brown Basketball Classic and the Hilton Philadelphia Hawk Classic. Among the wins, Saint Joseph's posted its biggest win over a non-conference ranked opponent since the 1984-85, topping #15 Auburn for the Hawk Classic title.

Despite losing several experienced players prior to the 2006-07 season, Griffin had her team peaking at the right time. Playing Griffin's style of hard-nosed defense and persistent offense, the Hawks advanced to the Atlantic 10 Championship game, including the program's first win over a top 10 opponent (#8 George Washington) since 1992 along the way. Saint Joseph's capped the season with its fifth WNIT appearance in six years and tied the SJU record for games played in a season with 33.

Fueled by a collection of newcomers and a developed core of upperclassmen, Griffin led the Hawks back to national prominence in 2005-06. The Crimson and Gray engineered the nation's best turnaround (13 games) and received votes in the national polls for the first time since 2003-04. The Hawks advanced to the semifinals of the A-10 Championship and earned a berth in the WNIT.

With the loss of four 1,000-point scorers, the 2004-05 Hawks showed their true colors down the stretch, earning a hard-fought victory over La Salle in the opening round of the Atlantic 10 Championship and coming within 10 points of 16th-ranked, and eventual A-10 Champion, Temple.

Led by six seniors, the 2004 team went 22-11 and advanced to the WNIT Elite Eight. Saint Joseph's finished second in the A-10 East and dropped a heart-breaker in the Atlantic 10 Championship to Temple. Four Hawk seniors reached the 1,000-point plateau, marking just the eighth time in NCAA history that a quartet of players had reached the milestone in the same season. Erin Brady, Irina Krasnosniok, Stephanie (Graff) McCaffrey and Amra Mehmedic went on to sign professional contracts.

Following a memorable first year at the helm of her alma mater, Griffin upped the ante in her second season by capturing 2003 Atlantic 10 Coach of the Year honors after guiding the Hawks to a 19-11 record. The team sprinted to the conference's Eastern Division title and earned a berth in the WNIT for the second straight season, despite the departure of SJU's all-time leading scorer and a non-conference schedule that ranked fourth nationally.

Griffin helped to reinvigorate the SJU program in her first season, leading the squad to a 24-8 record and the second round of the WNIT. She capitalized on the team's tradition of scrappy play and rugged defense, while releasing the reins and allowing the team to play a more up-tempo style on the offensive end of the floor. The Hawks finished the year among the national leaders in nine different categories and paced the nation in free throw percentage for the second straight year.

Following her playing career, Griffin spent the 1992-93 season as a graduate assistant at her alma mater. She then accepted an assistant's spot at Vanderbilt University from 1993-95 under former Saint Joseph's head coach Jim Foster. Foster recruited Griffin to SJU and coached her during her playing career on Hawk Hill.

In her two years as an assistant at Vanderbilt, the Commodores finished 53-15 overall, won the 1995 SEC championship and reached the NCAA Sweet 16 both seasons. In addition to coaching responsibilities, she was the co-director of the Vanderbilt Basketball Camp and the director of the Black & Gold Club.

Griffin left Vanderbilt after the 1995 season to become an assistant coach at Loyola College (Md.). She spent three seasons as an assistant under Patty Coyle before being promoted to associate head coach in 1998. Griffin was promoted to the position of head women's basketball coach at Loyola midway through the 1998-99 season. She was the seventh-youngest head coach in Division I at the time. Griffin – who was named head coach five games into the season as Coyle left for an assistant coach position with the WNBA's New York Liberty – kept the Greyhounds' momentum going as Loyola won a team-record 21 games that year. Overall she compiled a record of 48-33 during her tenure at the Baltimore school, guiding the squad to the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference semifinals all three seasons.

One of the top playmakers in Saint Joseph's history, Griffin starred for the Hawks from 1987-88 through 1991-92 (missing the 1988-89 season due to injury). A three-time team captain, Griffin finished her career with 662 points, 278 rebounds, 510 assists and 197 steals. She currently ranks fourth on SJU's all-time assist list.

As a junior in 1990-91, she played in 1,178 out of a possible 1,200 minutes to set the school record for minutes played in a single season. The Hawks made three NCAA Tournament appearances and posted three straight 20-win seasons during her playing career. A two-time Second Team All-Big 5 choice, as well as a Third Team All-Atlantic 10 pick as a senior, she was inducted into the Saint Joseph's Women's Basketball Hall of Fame in 1998.

A native of Maple Glen, Pa., Griffin played her high school basketball for Bishop McDevitt, winning two Philadelphia Catholic League titles. A 1987 graduate of McDevitt, she was inducted into its Athletic Hall of Fame in 1997, and in 2002, received the Philadelphia Catholic League's alumni achievement award. She earned a bachelor's degree in accounting from Saint Joseph's in 1991 and completed her M.B.A. from SJU in 1993. She resides in Conshohocken, Pa., with her husband Curtis and children, Kaylie (10), Hannah (8) and Curtis Jr. (5).

Game 1 • November 8, 2013 • Hagan Arena Saint Joseph's - 85, Mount St. Mary's - 57

The reigning Atlantic 10 champion Saint Joseph's Hawks received their rings and raised a championship banner to the rafters, then picked up where last season left off as SJU downed Mount St. Mary's, 85-57, in the First Round of the Preseason WNIT.

Backed by a career-high 17 points from Sarah Fairbanks and 15 points from Erin Shields, Saint Joseph's took control from the start as it ran out to a 17-1 lead. The Hawks hit 6-of-8 from the field and 3-of-4 from the foul line, while holding the Mountaineers to 0-of-5 from the floor and caused four turnovers.

Shooting 55.6 percent (15-of-27) in the opening half, Saint Joseph's would allow Mount St. Mary's to get no closer in the half than 12 points, while expanding their lead to as many as 27 before taking a 51-28 lead into halftime.

The Hawks continued to hold Mount St. Mary's at a distance in the second half opening their lead to as many as 30 as they outscored the Mountaineers 34-29 in the final period for the 85-57 victory.

Game 2 • November 10, 2013 • Maravich Center #15/17 LSU - 80, Saint Joseph's - 64

A 17-5 run to close the first half was the difference as Saint Joseph's fell at #15 LSU, 80-64, in the Quarterfinals of the Preseason WNIT.

Falling behind 10 early, Saint Joseph's fought back to within a possession, 23-20, on a layup by Sarah Fairbanks at 5:35.

From there though, the Tiger opened up their lead to 15 points by halftime, using a 17-5 run to end the first period and take a 40-25 edge into the second stanza.

Saint Joseph's scored the first basket of the second half, but LSU answered with a 9-0 run to open its biggest lead, 49-27, on a Danielle Ballard layup at 17:51.

Despite the deficit, the Hawks continued to fight and chipped away at the Tigers' advantage. Behind a 17-6 run, Saint Joseph's cut LSU's lead to single digits as a Erin Shields' three-pointer made it a 55-46 game with 12:59 to play.

The Hawks would continue to hang around, trailing 64-54 with under seven minutes to play, but they'd get no closer as LSU held them at a distance over the final minutes.

2013-14 SAINT JOSEPH'S BASKETBALL NOTES - PAGE 17

Game 3 • November 15, 2013 • Koch Center Saint Joseph's - 81, Wichita State - 73 Overtime

Trailing by as many as 16 points in the second half, Saint Joseph's forced overtime in the final moment and went on to defeat Wichita State, 81-73, in overtime.

Down 47-31 at the 12 minute mark, the Hawks fought back to make it a 69-63 game in the final minute. A free throw by Natasha Cloud and a pair of missed free throws at the other end by Michaela Dapprich gave the Hawks the ball with 18 seconds remaining.

On the ensuing play, Erin Shields was fouled on a three-point attempt and calmly made all three free throws to bring the Hawks within a basket, 69-67, with 11 seconds remaining.

Off the inbound, the Hawks trapped Wichita State's Alex Harden at midcourt, allowing SJU's Lisanne de Jonge to steal the ball and pass to teammate Ciara Andrews. With the final seconds ticking away, Andrews drove up the left wing and laced in the game-tying basket with 1.5 seconds to go.

Tied at 69-69 to start overtime, Saint Joseph's fell behind early, 73-71, on a three-pointer by Marissa Preston less than two minutes in.

From there though, Saint Joseph's took control. A pair of Cloud free throws tied the game at 73-73, while a midcourt steal and layup by de Jonge gave the Hawks the lead for good, 75-73, at 2:35.

Andrews, Shields and Cloud would combine to go 6-for-6 from the foul line from there, while Saint Joseph's defense held the Shockers to 0-for-7 from the floor to close out the extra frame.

Game 5 • November 23, 2013 • Hagan Arena Saint Joseph's - 77, Liberty - 65

Backed by a 26-7 run midway through the second half, Saint Joseph's topped Liberty, 77-65.

Up 48-44 with 12:31 to play, Saint Joseph's asserted itself on both ends of the court over the next eight minutes as it took control of the game. Sparked by a Sarah Fairbanks layup off a pass from Jessica Pongonis, the Hawks would hit eight of its next 12 shots, and go 4-of-4 from the foul line as a pair of Pongonis free throws put SJU ahead 73-51 at 4:12.

Saint Joseph's defense, which created 24 turnovers and held the Lady Flames to just 31.7 percent shooting (20-of-63), forced five turnovers and held Liberty to 0-for-8 from the floor during its run, conceding all seven points from the foul line.

In a tight first half, the Hawks held a 29-21 advantage, but Liberty stormed back to finish the period, using an 11-6 run to make it just a 35-32 game.

The Lady Flames would tie the game at 36-36 early into the second half, but Saint Joseph's pushed the lead to a two-possession game before going on its run to pull away.

Backed by a career-high 21 points and 13 assists by Natasha Cloud, Saint Joseph's topped Big 5 rival Temple, 73-53.

Up 34-32 to start the second half, the Owls would tie the game at 36-36, but Saint Joseph's would grab momentum from there. Spearheaded by three-pointer by Erin Shields, the Hawks used a 12-2 run to open a 48-38 lead with 12:50 to go on a baseline jumper by Kelsey Berger at 12:50.

Temple would cut the Hawks' lead to six, 51-45, midway through the half, but Saint Joseph's would pull away from the Owls from that point. Led by five points from Cloud, the Hawks went on a 13-1 run over three minute span to make it a 66-48 contest.

Saint Joseph's allowed Temple to get no closer than 16 points from there as won on the road against the Owls for the first time since a 49-47 win on January 26, 2003.

In the first half, the Hawks gained control quickly, running out to a 17-5 lead on a three-pointer by Shields at 12:05. Saint Joseph's would push its lead to 14, 26-12, on a jumper by Ciara Andrews with just over eight minutes to play in the stanza.

Temple fought back behind a 19-2 run to take a 31-28 lead at 2:03 as the Owls caused six turnovers and held the Hawks to 1-of-6 from the field over a five minute span.

A layup by Jessica Pongonis at 1:31 broke SJU's scoring drought and spearheaded a 6-1 spurt to end the half as the Hawks took a 34-32 edge into the second period.

Game 9 • December 7, 2013 • The Pavilion Saint Joseph's - 63, Villanova - 60

Game 10 • December 10, 2013 • Hagan Arena Saint Joseph's - 73, Hofstra - 60

The Saint Joseph's women's basketball team put the Big 5 title hopes squarely in its own hands as the Hawks topped Villanova, 63-60, at The Pavilion.

Trailing 50-45, the Hawks used a 10-0 run to take a 55-50 lead on a fastbreak layup by Sarah Fairbanks at 4:40.

Villanova would fight back to take the lead, 60-59, but Ciara Andrews answered back with a driving layup to put the Hawks up 61-60 at 1:48.

Following a defensive stop, Saint Joseph's would up its lead to 63-60 on an athletic jumper in the lane by Natasha Cloud at 1:08 as she avoided an outstretched arm by the defender in midair.

After creating a turnover on defense, SJU ran off valuable seconds, but couldn't convert as the Wildcats got the ball back with just over 20 seconds to play. Villanova would miss a handful of shots, including a desperation three-pointer at the buzzer that fell short.

In the first half, the Hawks came out hot running out to a 15-2 lead, but Villanova countered soon after with a 17-4 stretch to tie the game at 19 all.

Coming out of a 28-28 at halftime, Villanova took control of the second half, using an 8-0 run to open a 36-28.

Saint Joseph's countered with an 11-2 run to gain its first lead of the half, 39-38 on a pair of free throws by Erin Shields at 14:28. The Hawks would give up the lead shortly after before rallying for the victory.

Erin Shields became the 22nd player in Saint Joseph's history to reach 1,000 points for her career as she helped the Hawks top Hofstra, 73-60.

Leading wire to wire, the Hawks took control from the tip running out to a 19-7 lead on a jumper by Shields at 11:18. Saint Joseph's defense caused fits for Hofstra early, holding the Pride to 3-of-14 from the field and causing four turnovers over the opening eight minutes.

Hofstra cut the Hawks' lead to eight, 25-17, but SJU built the edge back to double figures by halftime, taking a 33-23 advantage into the second half.

Saint Joseph's didn't allow Hofstra an opportunity to get momentum in the second half as it used a 14-2 run to begin the stanza, opening a 47-25 gap on a layup by Natasha Cloud at 15:54.

The Hawks would hold the Pride at a 20-point distance for much of second half, with Hofstra only finally cutting into the deficit with under three minutes to play.

2013-14 SAINT JOSEPH'S BASKETBALL NOTES - PAGE 21

Game 11 • December 21, 2013 • Carrier Dome #23/RV Syracuse - 64, Saint Joseph's - 62

Saint Joseph's had its eight-game win streak snapped a a layup by Syracuse' Brittney Sykes at the buzzer lifted the #23 Orange past the Hawks, 64-62

Tied at 60-60 with two minutes to play, Syracuse' Sykes hit a pair of free throws with 44 seconds remaining to put the Orange up 62-60.

On the following SJU possession, Natasha Cloud drove down the lane for a floating layup to tie the game at 62 all with 21 seconds to go.

After a Syracuse (11-1) timeout, the Orange worked the ball to Sykes at the top of the key. With seconds ticking down, Sykes drove down the right side, avoided a shot block by the Hawks' Sarah Fairbanks and released a layup as the clocked hit zero to give her team the win.

Up by as many as 14 in the first half, SJU found itself down 31-28 entering the second stanza. Saint Joseph's took momentum to start the half, using a 15-2 run to begin the second stanza to take a 45-35 lead at 15:46.

The Orange would not back down though, fighting back to regain the lead, on a three-pointer by Rachel Coffey with under four minutes to go.

Syracuse would push its lead to 60-57, but a three-pointer from the left wing by Shields tied the game at 2:20, leading to the frantic finish.

Game 12 • December 29, 2013 • Alico Arena Saint Joseph's - 76, Florida Gulf Coast - 64

Backed by four Hawks in double figures, Saint Joseph's downed Florida Gulf Coast University, 76-64.

In a back-and-forth opening 13 minutes, Florida Gulf Coast held a 24-23 edge, but the Hawks would soon take control of the final seven minutes. Using a 14-6 run to end the half, Saint Joseph's opened a 37-30 edge on a layup in the paint by Ilze Gotfrida off a feed from Erin Shields with seven seconds to go.

In the second half, the Hawks started quickly, opening a 44-34 lead on layup by Natasha Cloud at 17:34. Saint Joseph's continued to hold the Eagles (6-6) at a distance from there, allowing FGCU to come within eight three times, before pushing its lead to as many as 16, 71-55 on a pair of free throws by Shields.

Game 13 • January 2, 2014 • Robins Center Saint Joseph's - 85, Richmond - 80

Rallying back from a 12-point deficit, Saint Joseph's downed Richmond, 85-80, in both teams Atlantic 10 opener.

Down 49-37 at halftime, the Hawks quickly cut into the Spiders' lead as a three-pointer by Natasha Cloud brought her team within six, 51-45, at 17:28.

The Hawks would find themselves down 77-70 with 5:48 to go, but would use solid defense and key baskets to cut it to a 77-75 on a free throw by Cloud at 3:31.

Richmond pushed its lead to 79-75, but the Hawks would use an 8-0 run to take an 83-79 lead on a floater by Erin Shields with under a minute to go. Shields would hit a pair of free throws to seal the win in the final 15 seconds.

In the opening half, Richmond jumped out to a hot start off the tip as it grabbed a 7-0 lead.

Saint Joseph's answered back with a 12-4 run to take a one-point lead on a jumper by Ilze Gotfrida at 12:41.

The Hawks would push its lead to five at the midway point of the half, but the Spiders would quickly gain momentum to regain the lead. Down 25-23, Richmond used an 18-7 run to take a 41-32 lead.

A three-pointer by Shields would bring the Hawks back two possessions, 43-37, with 1:30 to play in the half, but the Spiders would score six-straight points to close the period and take a 49-37 lead into halftime.

Game 14 • January 5, 2014 • Hagan Arena George Washington - 74, Saint Joseph's - 67

Charging back from down 16 to tie the game with under three minutes to play, Saint Joseph's couldn't complete the come back as the Hawks fell to George Washington, 74-67.

Trailing 59-49 with under six minutes to play, the Hawks went on a 16-6 run over three minutes as a three-point play by Ciara Andrews tied the game at 65-65 with 2:49 remaining.

After both teams scored on their next possessions, the Colonials got a jumper by Danni Jackson off an inbound play at 1:44 as the shot clock expired to go up 69-67.

The Hawks would have their chance to answer back, but couldn't convert as George Washington hit 5-of-6 from the foul line to finish off the game for a 74-67 win.

The Colonials took control from the tip in the first half, running out to an 11-0 lead as the Hawks went 0-for-7 from the floor and turned the ball over twice in the opening five minutes.

George Washington would extend its lead to as many as 16, but SJU fought back to make it a 38-28 game as a half-court shot by Erin Shields at the buzzer brought her team back within 10 points.

Game 15 • January 8, 2014 • Hagan Arena Saint Joseph's - 72, Rhode Island - 35

Backed by a balanced attack, Saint Joseph's topped Rhode Island, 72-35.

Leading wire to wire, Saint Joseph's dominated the majority of the first half as it opened a 30-7 edge on a jumper by Jessica Pongonis at 6:12. The Hawks' defense flustered the Rams causing four turnovers and held them to just 3-of-17 from the field and 1-of-2 from the foul line to start the game.

Saint Joseph's, which had seven players score in the opening half, took a 38-15 lead into the half, and quickly pushed its advantage even further in the second. Up 47-21, the Hawks used an 8-2 run to open a 55-23 lead on a three-pointer by Ilze Gotfrida at 11:13.

The Hawks continued to hold Rhode Island at a distance until the final buzzer.

Game 16 • January 12, 2014 • Verizon Wireless Arena VCU - 73, Saint Joseph's - 69

Saint Joseph's dropped a hard-fought battle at VCU, 73-69.

Down by as many as 14 in the first half, the Hawks would rally to make it a six point game at halftime and were the aggressor to start the second as it used a 13-4 run to take a 50-47 edge on a pair of free throws by Ciara Andrews at 13:24.

The lead would trade hands three times from there as neither team would gain more than a three-point lead as it was tied at 69-69 with under three minutes to play.

A driving layup by Keira Robinson put the Rams ahead 71-69 with 1:20 to play, with a free throw by Zakia Williams pushing the lead to 72-69 with 24 seconds to play.

The Hawks had a chance to tie it, but missed on a three-pointer and Ryen Henry would go on to ice it on a free throw with four seconds to go.

Up 12-10 to start the contest, VCU quickly pushed its lead to 14 points on a three-pointer at 11:30. The Rams built their lead over the four-minute span as Saint Joseph's shot just 2-of-10 from the floor, allowing VCU to go on its 17-5 run.

The Hawks battled back, slowly chipping away at the Rams' lead. Down 40-32, Saint Joseph's got a free throw from Ashley Robinson and baskets by Geena Gomez and Sarah Fairbanks to make it 40-37 with under two minutes to play in the half.

VCU would get a three-pointer in the final minutes to give her team a 43-37 edge going into the second half.

Game 17 • January 17, 2014 • Hagan Arena Saint Joseph's - 60, Penn - 52

Saint Joseph's moved a step closer to its first outright Big 5 title in 13 years as the Hawks topped Penn, 60-52.

In true Big 5 spirit, the teams were knotted at 50-50 with under two minutes to play, when Ilze Gotfrida hit a jumper and followed up in the next possession with a great lead pass to Natasha Cloud on a baseline layup to make it a 54-50 advantage for SJU with 1:13 to play.

Penn would get a pair of free throws to make it a two point game, but Cloud would answer with a pair of free throws with 32 seconds to play to push the lead back to four points. Saint Joseph's would come up with two more stands on defense and hit 4-of-4 from the line to close out the tightly-fought contest with the win.

Down 35-27 early into the second half, Saint Joseph's used a 10-0 run over a 5:03 span to take a 37-35 edge on a running jumper by Shields at 11:58.

The lead would change hands five times from there as Penn held a 45-44 edge with 6:18 to play.

With possession and looking to add to the lead, the Quakers' Kara Bonenberger was called for a flagrant foul and a technical foul, giving SJU the opportunity to regain the lead. Follow a pair of free throws from Sarah Fairbanks and Erin Shields, the Hawks got a jumper from Gotfrida to up its lead to 50-45 in a 27 second span.

The Quakers fought back to tie the game at 50 all before the final minutes.

Game 19 • January 22, 2014 • Hagan Arena Saint Joseph's - 75, George Washington - 69

Scoring the final six points of the game, Saint Joseph's held off a late rally by George Washington to earn a 75-69 victory.

Up by as many as 16 points, the Hawks found themselves tied at 69-69 with under two minutes to play. Saint Joseph's kept its calm during the Colonials' push, as Ashley Robinson knocked down a jumper in the paint off a pass from Natasha Cloud at 1:13.

Back on defense, Erin Shields poked the ball away from the Colonials' Danni Jackson and followed with a pull-up jumper from the left wing to put the Hawks ahead, 73-69, with 34 seconds to play.

Saint Joseph's would get another defensive stop and Sarah Fairbanks would close the game out with a pair of free throws with 15 seconds to go.

Behind a strong defensive performance, the Hawks jumped out to a 31-15 advantage as they held the Colonials to just 17.2 percent shooting (5-of-29) over the opening 17 minutes.

George Washington would rally in the final moments of the half though, using a 13-3 run to make it a 34-28 at the half. The Colonials converted 4-of-8 from the field and converted 5-of-5 from the foul line during the run to make it a two-possession game entering the second stanza.

The Hawks held a 64-57 lead with under six minutes to play, but the Colonials used a 10-3 run over a three minute span to tie the game at 67-67. The teams would exchange baskets before the thrilling final minutes.

Game 20 • January 26, 2014 • Hagan Arena Saint Joseph's - 75, Dayton - 63

Backed by a 50 percent shooting second half, Saint Joseph's topped Dayton, 75-63.

Down 40-34 just over five minutes into the second half, Saint Joseph's went on a 10-0 run to open a 44-40 lead on a pair of Natasha Cloud free throws at 11:35. The Hawks, who went 4-of-7 from the field and 2-of-2 from the line during that stretch, held the Flyers to 0-for-3 from the field and caused three turnovers during that stretch.

Dayton would cut SJU's lead to one three times, but each time the Hawks answered back.

After having its lead cut to 62-58 with 3:31 to play, Saint Joseph's got a layup from Sarah Fairbanks at 2:32 to make it six-point game.

Following a Dayton missed three-pointer, Ciara Andrews put the game out of reach with a three-pointer from the right wing to put the Hawks up 67-58 at 1:51. Saint Joseph's would make sure Dayton would get no closer as it hit 8-of-8 from the foul line in the final minute to improve to 13-11 all-time against the Flyers.

The Flyers took command off the tip, running out to a 24-13 advantage midway through the half, but the Hawks would race back with an 11-0 run to tie the game at 24 all on a pair of free throws by Cloud at 4:17.

Dayton would hit a three-pointer to the Flyers up 32-29 at the break, despite both teams cold shooting performances as Dayton shot just 34.2 percent, while SJU was held to 31.4 percent.

Game 21 • January 29, 2014 • Hagan Arena Saint Louis - 69, Saint Joseph's - 65

Shooting just 32.2 percent from the field, Saint Joseph's had its four-game win streak snapped by Saint Louis, 69-65.

Up 29-22 at the half, the Hawks saw its lead slip away midway through the second half as a jumper by SLU's Erin Nelson put her team ahead 42-40 at 10:47.

Saint Joseph's rallied to take a 54-44 lead, but the Billikens hit timely shots to open a 60-53 edge with 2:33 to play.

Down by six with under a minute to play, the Hawks cut the deficit to 65-62 on a three-pointer by Erin Shields with 21 seconds to play.

On the ensuing inbounds, Saint Joseph's appeared to cause a five-second violation as the Billikens couldn't inbound the play. However, after the referees met, Saint Louis was awarded a time out as one referee called a timeout, while the other called a violation.

The Billikens' Jamesia Price would get fouled and hit two free throws to give her team a 67-62 edge with 16 seconds to play.

Shields again would answer, hitting her fourth three-pointer to bring the Hawks within 67-65.

However, Saint Louis' Price would hit a pair of free throws with seven seconds to go to seal the win for her team.

In the first half, SJU opened a 10-point edge on the Billikens behind a 10-2 run as it went from a 16-14 lead to a 26-16 advantage on a pair of free throws by Natasha Cloud.

Saint Louis would close the half with a 6-3 run as Saint Joseph's took a 29-22 lead into halftime.

Game 22 • February 1, 2014 • Hagan Arena Saint Joseph's - 69, VCU - 65

Saint Joseph's Erin Shields had a season-best 27 points as the Hawks' avenged an early-season loss to VCU with a 70-51 victory over the Rams.

Trailing by four at halftime, Saint Joseph's dominated the second half as it outscored the Rams 41-18.

The Hawks, who held the Rams to 20.6 percent shooting in the second half (7-of-34), used a 16-3 run to start the final period as a layup by Ilze Gotfrida put her team ahead 45-37.

VCU (17-5, 5-4 A-10) would score the next basket to cut the deficit to six, but that is as close as it would get over the remainder of the game. The Hawks held the Rams to just four points over a seven minute span as it opened a 62-43 lead on a layup by Ashley Robinson at 3:40.

Saint Joseph's defense held VCU to 1-of-9 from the field, 2-of-4 from the foul line and caused four turnovers during that stretch, and kept the Rams to just 29.2 percent shooting overall (21-of-72) and 16.7 percent from three-point range (3-of-18) for the game.

In a tight first half, VCU opened a 21-27 lead with under six minutes to play, but the Hawks fought back to make it a one-possession game, 31-29, on a Shields three-pointer with 50 seconds. The Rams would tally the final basket to take a 33-29 edge into the second half.

Game 23 • February 5, 2014 • Reilly Center St. Bonaventure - 73, Saint Joseph's - 67

A late rally by Saint Joseph's came up short as the Hawks fell to St. Bonaventure, 73-67

Down 55-42 with under eight minutes to play, Saint Joseph's went on a 14-3 run to cut the Bonnies' lead to 58-56 on a steal and layup by Ciara Andrews at 4:19.

Following a defensive stop, the Hawks would get the ball back with a chance to tie the game. Unfortunately for SJU, the shot never fell as St. Bonaventure scored the next five points to open a 63-56 lead on a free throw with 1:34 to play.

A layup by Natasha Cloud brought the Hawks within five, but the Bonnies closed the game out at the foul line, hitting 10-of-10 from the charity stripe in the final minute after going just 8-of-19 from there the rest of the game.

In the first half, the Bonnies came out hot and grabbed the lead early thanks to Chelsea Bowker 14 points. Connecting on 5-of-6 from the field, including four from behind the arc, Bowker helped give SBU a 34-24 edge at the half.

After shooting 32.3 percent in the first half, the Hawks rebounded to shoot 50 percent in the second stanza and finish at 40.7 percent overall (24-of-59). However, the Bonnies matched SJU's efficiency, going 23-of-46 from the floor for the contest, and hitting 9-of-13 from behind the arc (69.2 percent).

Game 24 • February 12, 2014 • Hagan Arena Saint Joseph's - 76, La Salle - 63

Backed by a combined 56 points from Erin Shields, Natasha Cloud and Ashley Robinson, Saint Joseph's topped La Salle, 76-63.

Leading by 11 early into the second half, the Hawks saw their lead cut to just four, 51-47, with 11:55 to play. From there, Saint Joseph's broke the game open using a 17-5 run to take a 68-52 lead on a layup by Cloud at 4:18. Cloud, Robinson and Shields totalled 15 of the Hawks points during their run, while the defense held La Salle to just 2-of-7 from the field and caused four turnovers.

La Salle would get no closer than 11 points as Saint Joseph's picked up its second win over the Explorers this season.

The Explorers jumped out of the gates to a 4-0 lead in the first half, but the Hawks quickly countered to take a 13-8 advantage on a pair of Robinson free throws at 13:48.

A 5-0 run by La Salle tied the game up, but Saint Joseph's went on a 15-6 run as a layup by Ilze Gotfrida put SJU up nine at 6:55. The Hawks would push its lead to 10 by halftime, 42-32, as they shot 50 percent from the floor (15-of-30).

Game 26 • February 18, 2014 • Hagan Arena Saint Joseph's - 61, Duquesne - 59

Led by Erin Shields' career-high 29 points, Saint Joseph's downed George Mason, 89-75.

Trailing 41-39 to start the second half, the Hawks used a 20-6 run to open the stanza as a Shields' jumper at 14:18 put her team ahead 59-47.

George Mason would fight back to make it a four-point game less than three minutes late, but Saint Joseph's answered as a three-pointer by Shields pushed the lead to nine, 68-59, at 10:19.

The Patriots had one last punch in them, cutting the gap to 70-68 on a Taylor Brown layup at 5:54.

The veteran SJU team answered, pushing the lead back to nine on a jumper by Ilze Gotfrida on an inbound pass from Natasha Cloud with 3:36 to play.

George Mason would get no closer than eight from there as the Hawks hit 8-of-8 from the foul line and added a layup in the final minutes for the win.

In a back-and-forth first half, George Mason jumped out to a 7-2 early lead, but the Hawks answered back with an 11-2 run to take a 13-9 edge on a three-pointer by Shields at 14:09.

The lead would change hands five times from there, with the scored tied six as the Patriots took a 41-39 lead into halftime.

Natasha Cloud's layup with 3.9 seconds to go lifted Saint Joseph's past Duquesne, 61-59.

Leading by six with under five minutes to play, Saint Joseph's saw its lead evaporate with 17 seconds remaining as a pair of free throws by Duquesne's Raegan Moore tied the game at 59-59.

With the final seconds ticking away, the Hawks worked the ball to Cloud on the right wing. Getting a step on her defender, Cloud drove the right wing and hit the go-ahead layup to put SJU up 61-59 with 3.9 seconds to go.

Duquesne had one final shot, but a desperation three-pointer by Moore was off the mark at the buzzer.

In a tight first half, Saint Joseph's used an 11-4 run to take a 30-24 lead into the half as Andrews scored her 14th point on a layup at the buzzer.

Saint Joseph's would push its lead to eight six times in the second period, but Duquesne pushed back each time leading to the thrilling final seconds.

Game 27 • February 23, 2014 • UD Arena Dayton - 82, Saint Joseph's - 56

Shooting just 31.9 percent from the field, Saint Joseph's fell at Dayton, 82-56, Sunday afternoon at UD Arena.

After a slow start to the first half, Saint Joseph's used an 8-2 run to open a 19-12 edge on a driving layup by Ciara Andrews at 7:16.

The Flyers (20-5, 13-1 A-10) would answer back with a 14-4 run, taking a 26-23 lead on a pair of free throws at 3:21.

Dayton would continue to push its lead, scoring 10 of the final 14 points of the half to take a 36-27 lead into the second half.

The Flyers would carry momentum into the second half, outscoring the Hawks 18-9 to start the half, taking a 54-36 with 13:20 to play.

Five-straight points by Andrews would bring Saint Joseph's to within 54-41 with 12:35 to play, but the Hawks got no closer from there.

Game 28 • February 27, 2014 • Mullins Center Saint Joseph's - 85, Massachusetts - 51

Saint Joseph's dominated from the start as the Hawks downed Massachusetts, 85-51.

The Hawks took control from the tip, jumping out to a 17-2 lead on a jumper by Erin Shields 5:35 into the game. Saint Joseph's defense smothered the Minutewomen, holding them to just 1-of-11 from the floor and causing two turnovers, while the Hawks hit eight of their first 14 shots.

Saint Joseph's, which held Massachusetts to 22.9 percent from the floor in the first half, built its lead to as many as 26 points before heading into halftime ahead 43-19.

Massachusetts would score four of the first six points in the second half to cut the deficit to 22, but that would be as close as it would get as Saint Joseph's pushed its lead to as many as 36 and outscore the Minutewomen 42-32 in the stanza for the 11th road win of the season for the Hawks.

Game 29 • March 2, 2014 • Hagan Arena Fordham - 58, Saint Joseph's - 53

Saint Joseph's dropped its regular season finale to Fordham, 58-53.

The Hawks fell behind by six to start, but battled back to take a 32-26 edge into halftime.

Saint Joseph's pushed its lead to nine, 40-31, in the early start of the second half on a jumper by Ciara Andrews at 15:35.

However, the Hawks' offense went cold from there as Fordham used a 14-2 run to take a 45-42 lead with 7:50 to play.

After a media timeout, Andrews hit a three-pointer for SJU to tie the game at 45 all at 6:14.

The Rams countered with seven straight points to open a 52-45 lead with under four minutes to play.

Fordham would push its lead to 56-48, but a three-pointer from Erin Shields and layup by Ilze Gotfrida brought SJU within a possession, 56-53, with 28 seconds to play.

Despite the frantic rally, the Hawks would get no closer as they hit a pair of free throws to close out the game.

Game 30 • March 6, 2014 • Richmond Coliseum Saint Joseph's - 89, George Mason - 55

Backed by strong defense and an unselfish offensive attack, Saint Joseph's downed George Mason, 89-55, in the Opening Round of the 2014 Atlantic 10 Championship.

Saint Joseph's quickly took control of the game as it ran out to a 10-2 lead on a three-pointer by Erin Shields at 14:41.

George Mason would cut the deficit to three, but the Hawks pushed back with a 7-0 run to open a 17-7 edge on a jumper by Ilze Gotfrida.

The Hawks would hold the Patriots at a distance from there as SJU held George Mason to just 26.5 percent from the field (9-of-34) in the half as it took a 38-25 lead into the second period.

Saint Joseph's continued to push the tempo in the second, not allowing the Patriots to counter as they were outscored 51-30 as 12 Hawks tallied a basket.

Game 31 • March 7, 2014 • Richmond Coliseum
George Washington - 82, Saint Joseph's - 79 Overtime

Battling back from a six-point deficit with under a minute to go in overtime, Saint Joseph's had a chance to force another extra frame versus George Washington in the final moments. Unfortunately for the Hawks, the final shot failed to connect as they fell, 82-79, to the Colonials in the Quarterfinals of the Atlantic 10 Championships.

Down 80-74 with 34 seconds to play in overtime, Saint Joseph's got a layup by Natasha Cloud to come within four with :29 remaining.

After George Washington went 1-for-2 from the line, Cloud again drove and got a layup, making it a 81-78 game.

The Hawks again fouled, and again the Colonials' Hannah Schaible hit 1-of-2, leading to a quick transition for the SJU offense and a foul by George Washington.

Redshirt Ashley Robinson hit the first of two free throws, but her second bounced out into the hands of SJU Erin Shields.

Following a timeout with 9.8 seconds to go, the Hawks worked the ball to Shields for a three-pointer. Despite a miss, Cloud got the offensive rebound and found Shields again. Unfortunately, the ball hit the front of the rim as the horn sounded.

In a tight game in which neither team led by more than seven, Saint Joseph's fought back from a four point hole with under five minutes to play to take a 58-57 lead on a layup by Robinson.

The Colonials would regain the lead, 61-60, but a free throws and layup by SJU's Cloud gave her team a 63-61 edge with 1:44 to play.

George Washington's Danni Jackson would hit a pair of free throws to tie the game with 50 second to play.

Each team would have a possession from there, but failed to score, leading to a half-court shot by Shields that hit just off the back of the iron at the buzzer.

WOMEN'S COLLEGE BASKETBALL PREVIEW

St. Joe's out to build on last year's A-10 success.

By Mel Greenberg
FOR THE INQUIRER

The success of last season was a long time coming for the St. Joseph's women's basketball team, which broke a 12-year drought by getting to the NCAA tournament and winning the Atlantic Ten tournament by upsetting nationally ranked Dayton in the semifinals.

Good omens loomed early with the upset on Hawk Hill of then fifth-ranked Maryland and a last-second win at Drexel.

Many of the achievements for veteran coach Cindy Griffin at her alma mater were built on the play of senior center Chattilla Van Grinsven, who averaged 14.9 points per game and 10.5 rebounds while blocking 47 shots. Van Grinsven went on to last until the final cuts as a free-agent signee with the WNBA Connecticut Sun.

While Van Grinsven's exit will be felt, the Hawks have enough talent to have merited a pick of second from the Atlantic Ten coaches behind Dayton, which is ranked 14th in the Associated Press pre-season women's media poll.

A big reason is the backcourt with senior sharpshooter Erin Shields, whose three-point prowess lit up the local NCAA summer league in the off-season, and Natasha Cloud, who was a top defender after the Cardinal O'Hara graduate became eligible last season following her transfer from Maryland.

"With those two — Shields and Cloud — you know what you are going to get every day and as for our returning post players, they did see a lot of playing time behind Chattilla," Griffin said.

That group includes Ashley Robinson, a 6-foot-2 redshirt junior from Archbishop Wood who missed her first two seasons with recurring knee injuries, and senior forward Ilze Gotfrida from Latvia. Geena Gomez, a 5-8 freshman guard from Huntington Beach, Calif., highlights the newcomers.

Two significant changes in the Atlantic Ten have occurred — one involving departures with one-year member Butler heading to the new Big East, perennial challenger Charlotte off to Conference USA, and closer to home, Big Five rival Temple leaving for what became the American Athletic Association out of the football portion of the old Big East.

As a result, the Hawks won't see much of the Owls, twice a season minimally, and they will see Temple much earlier on the schedule.

Meanwhile St. Joseph's, which hosted all of the A-10 tourney two years ago and most of it last season, will now have to play for the title the next three years in Richmond, Va., which is said to have tossed $10,000 to the league for the women as a reaction to losing the Colonial Athletic Association men's tourney to Baltimore.

Women's City Six Profiles

Denise Dillon
Drexel team expected to cor in the Associat

DREXEL

- Last year: 28-10, WNIT champs.
- Coach: Denise Dillon (179-135, 11th year).
- Outlook: Despite the graduation loss of Hollie Mershon, the Dragons, after winning the postseason WNIT, are looked upon as key contenders in the Colonial Athletic Association, especially now that Delaware superstar Elena Delle Donne graduated moved on to a sensational debut in the WNBA as of the year. The Dragons are strong in the backcourt with Meghan Creighton running the point guard side while Fiona Flanagan is another of Drexel's standouts. Sophomore Rachel Pearson, whose sister Megan is a standout senior at Villanova last season, can also play from the perimeter. Abby Redick, a 6-foot-1 senior guard-forward whose brother JJ played at Duke and now in the NBA with the Orlando Magic, has become a contributor.

LA SALLE

- Last year: 8-21.
- Coach: Jeff Williams (32-58, 4th year).
- Outlook: Injuries took their toll in Jeff Williams' third season. Although the Explorers are picked only 10th in the Atlantic Ten coaches in the 13-team league that also includes member additions and departures, the Explorers' outlook inside the squad is filled with optimism based on newcomers who include freshman 6-4 forward Lisa McManis from Cardinal O'Hara and freshman forward Micahya Owens from Willingboro High. Additionally, La Salle picked up transfers 5-9 Khristin Lee from Alabama, 5-7 guard Cropper from Providence, and 6-4 center Liza Burdige from Pittsburgh, who all become eligible. The Explorers now see St. Joseph's twice in the A-10, with one game counting in the City Series.

PENN

- Last year: 18-13.
- Coach: Mike McLaughlin (44-71, four seasons).
- Outlook: Though the first season in the McLaughlin era was dismal with a two-win record, the former Holy Family mentor has had Penn making great strides since then, nearly reaching the final of the postseason Women's Basketball Invitational. All five starters are back, including senior Alyssa Baron, a two-time Ivy League scoring champion who played in the Maccabiah games for the United States gold medalists last summer, and junior forward Kara Bonenberger. ## Cats, Cards cap strange week in Commonwealth

By Graham Hays | espnW.com

ESPN W TODAY

DELIVERED

Team of the Week

Saint Joseph's: Saint Joseph's was clearly the team of the week in Philadelphia, but road wins against Temple and Villanova resonate beyond just the City of Brotherly Love.

The Hawks lost their lone game of the season against a ranked team, falling in Baton Rouge against LSU on opening weekend, but they have since run off seven wins in a row without any real weak links among the opponents and with five of the seven games coming on the road. They remain an outstanding 2-point shooting team (51.7 percent), but the 3-point shot also started to drop over the past week. Including a win at Quinnipiac a week ago Sunday, Saint Joseph's hit 16-of-33 3-point attempts in its past three games, bumping its season average from 29.5 percent to 34.4 percent. Pair that with outstanding ball control, and it starts to look like the kind of team that might stick around.

If not included with her team here, Natasha Cloud would deserve a place at the table for weekly individual accolades. The redshirt junior guard totaled 21 points and 13 assists in the win against Temple. The assists matched a career high that she had established just three days earlier in that road win against Quinnipiac. She followed those two efforts by coming close to a triple-double with 14 points, eight assists and seven rebounds in the win against Villanova.

By Mike Jensen, Inquirer Columnist

POSTED: December 26, 2013

Natasha Cloud has always been about the assist. We're not just talking basketball here, although the St. Joseph's star currently is second in all of Division I women's hoops with 8.5 assists a game.

That statistic - and what it represents - extends to her life.

"Tash thinks of other people first; she always has," said St. Joseph's women's basketball coach Cindy Griffin, calling Cloud the team's emotional leader. "She has a real sense of her teammates and other people. She has a heart of gold. She plays like that."

This helps explain why in one of the toughest weeks she will experience, Cloud responded to a request for a newspaper interview.

Early Thursday morning, Cloud's family lost its Broomall home and everything in it, gutted by a fire.

"It's so hard to keep track of how many people are reaching out," Cloud said Sunday afternoon. "I don't think people will ever know how truly appreciative my family is. This is a way to thank them."

Even the details of what happened after the family discovered smoke coming from the dryer - after the dog had started barking, just wanting to go out, they had assumed - tell you more about Natasha Cloud.

Her family had been up late after visiting her older sister. When they saw smoke, her mother realized it was coming from the dryer, where she was drying some of Natasha's clothes. There was just smoke. Within about 21/2 minutes, they saw flames.

Cloud grabbed a fire extinguisher, she said, as her father ran to turn off the gas and her mother called 9-1-1. By this time, a smoke alarm was blaring. Her sister, asleep upstairs, already had come downstairs and got out safely.

As smoke took over the house, they all got out, but Cloud ran back in to get their dog, Maddie, and their bird. She tried to get their cat, Casper, but the cat had run under a couch, she said. The smoke got to be too much, the risk too great.

This all took about five minutes, she said.

"The firefighters told my parents afterward they'd never seen so much smoke," Cloud said.

When Griffin's phone rang at 1:30 in the morning, the coach had that sinking feeling.

"It's never good," she said.

Amid the first rush of information, Griffin said, she didn't know about Cloud's efforts to save the family's pets.

"I found that out after the fact," Griffin said. "I probably would have yelled at her. That is her."

A chain of concern formed quickly in those early-morning hours. A teammate arrived with her mother from Drexel Hill. A Hawks assistant got over there right after her.

Because most of her clothes are at school, Cloud said, she is in better shape than the rest of her family.

"My family lost everything," she said. "My mom had her work clothes on. My sister had pajamas on. That's all they have."

But that changed quickly, Cloud said, as word spread.

"We had gift cards before noon from Kohl's, Target, Giant, just to get, like, the basic necessities," she said.

The Cardinal O'Hara graduate quickly heard from all sorts of people through the local basketball community.

"The support we've gotten has been unbelievable," Cloud said. "Being from Delco, where basketball is a big deal, I never would have thought so many people would have reached out, texted, 'Hey, what does your family need?' "

Her conversation with her coach about practice that day went something like this:

"I can go to practice."

"You don't need to go to practice. Tash, you got an hour's sleep."

"I'm fine either way."

"You need to be with your family."

St. Joseph's, the defending Atlantic Ten Conference champion, is off to a great start. The Hawks had won nine of their first 10, losing only at 15th-ranked Louisiana State. The next game was against another ranked team, last Saturday at 23d-ranked Syracuse.

Cloud said that by the time she talked to her coach again about 7 a.m. Thursday, she already had decided she was going to make the trip.

"Being a captain, being a part of the team, I have another responsibility," Cloud said. "As much as they are my team, they are my family. I told her, 'I'm coming to Syracuse. I'm going to be there.' My parents both agreed."

Sitting around her grandparents' house while her team was playing a big game would have been torture anyway. Griffin told her that it was her choice, that if she wasn't up for the trip it was all right, but the bus was leaving at 5 p.m. Friday.

When she showed up, Cloud said, the men's coaches came out from practice and gave her hugs and then stopped the workout so the Hawks men's players could do the same.

"I was in tears," Cloud said. "And my teammates have been amazing."

She isn't saying it was easy to go away. Her mind, Cloud said, was also back with her family.

The Hollywood version of the trip may have had Cloud driving for the winning basket. The real-life version had Cloud driving the lane and scoring the tying basket with 21 seconds remaining at the Carrier Dome.

However, Syracuse nailed a layup at the buzzer for a 64-62 victory. Cloud scored seven points, and the 6-foot guard tied a career high with 13 assists.

"Her teammates rallied around her, and she rallied around them," Griffin said. "She's a people person. She wants to be strong, and be that person the others can depend on."

The help she has received - her family would do the same for anybody else if the roles were reversed, Cloud said. She gets it.

Still, she's grateful for all the assists.

"Honestly, I can't put it into words," she said.

Hawks happy to get an early call

By Matthew De George, Delaware County Daily Times

Monday, March 17, 2014

Saint Joseph's women's basketball coach Cindy Griffin described the week between her team's ouster from the Atlantic 10 Tournament and Selection Monday as "gut-wrenching."

At least the suspense didn't last long into the evening.

The Hawks got an at-large bid and were the fourth team to have their name called in the NCAA Tournament selection show, drawing the No. 9 seed in the Lincoln Regional and a first-round date with No. 8 Georgia Sunday night in Storrs, Conn. The reward for the winner is a chance to face the top overall seed, undefeated UConn.

The situation is essentially the same as last year in terms of seed, subregional location and even the opposing conference, the Hawks losing to Vanderbilt from the SEC.

But the waiting was entirely different after the Hawks had surged to win the Atlantic 10 title last year. This year, there were no guarantees that the Hawks would see their name pop up on the screen.

"This year, we had to rely on our good résumé and we knew we put together a great year, so we had the faith that we would get in," Griffin said. "In looking at all the experts and bracketologists, they never said we were a bubble team, but until you hear your name called, you just never know."

"It's a really great feeling," senior guard and Archbishop Carroll All-Delco Erin Shields said. "Just not knowing if you're in makes it so different. I was saying to someone that this was either going to be a really, really great night or a really sad night. ... My first two years here, I didn't get a chance to go to the tournament and I didn't really know what it felt like. And now to go two years in a row is a testament to all the team's hard work and all the coaches' hard work."

The berth in the tournament is the 13th for the Hawks (22-9). They have six wins in their previous trips, and this is the third time they start a Big Dance run in Storrs. It's the first time St. Joe's has made the tournament in consecutive years since 1999-2000; the latter season was the last tourney ticket prior to last year.

Coupled with the men's team winning the Atlantic 10 Tournament title to earn a 10 seed on Selection Sunday, this marks the first time since 1997 that both St. Joe's basketball teams made the tournament in the same year. Both teams won games that year, the women topping Kansas State to get to the round of 32 and the men making the Sweet 16 before being cut down by eventual national runner-up Kentucky.

Where last year's postseason experience was novel for everyone involved, this year's will be familiar for eight letterwinners, possibly right down to the hotel and meal choices.

The biggest change is a beneficial one. Last year, the Hawks were one of the first teams eliminated thanks to an 11 a.m.

Saturday tipoff. With a 5:30 tipoff Sunday, the Hawks have a day to settle in and savor the experience.

"We were in and out of the tournament so fast that it's like our girls didn't really know they were in the tournament," Griffin said. "Playing Sunday night, the girls are going to have a chance to sit at the hotel and watch some of the other games and really have the tournament experience and feel a part of it."

For some teams, the prospect of playing the 34-0 juggernaut UConn would be a bad draw. But for the Hawks, it's what they missed out on last year. And should it come to pass this season, it would mean that Hawks have learned from their past and risen to the challenge.

"I do think it'll be more familiar being in the same town as last year," Shields said. "It was an unbelievable experience, but now we can go back experienced with all the girls that were here before. It's a great place to play a game, and there's always tons of fans here for UConn. ... It was really cool to be here last year, but this year we want to get some wins."
