GAME STORIES . . .

- For the second consecutive year Saint Joseph's opens the season versus Rutgers as the two teams tip this Friday at Hagan Arena at 5 p.m.
- The Hawks return 11 letterwinners, including three starters, from last year's team that claimed a share of the Philadelphia Big 5 championship.
- Entering their 43rd season of NCAA Division I competition, the Hawks have posted a 28-14 all-time record in season opening games and are 35-7 in home openers.
- Friday's contest is just the fourth season opener at Michael J. Hagan Arena for the Hawks. In the previous three games, Saint Joseph's has posted a 2-1 record.
- Prior to playing at Hagan Arena, the Hawks went 18-4 in season openers at Alumni Memorial Fieldhouse.
- Friday's game is the 45th meeting between the Hawks and Scarlet Knights.
- Rutgers holds a 29-15 edge in the all-time series and has won the last three contests.
- Saint Joseph's fell at # 24 Rutgers, 76-52, in last year's season opener. Boxscore on page 2.
- The SJU women's basketball team is joining the student group Hawks for Heroes this Friday to help support and honor unsung heroes of our time: our first responders, military, veterans, and their families.
- Friday's game, along with next Saturday's home game versus Seton Hall, will be streamed for free on the Atlantic 10 Network.

INJURY REPORT

Redshirt freshmen Sarah Veilleux and Avery Marz are out Friday.

HAWK HILL ADVANTAGE

Saint Joseph's has always had a reputation of playing well at home. Over 42 seasons, the Hawks have boasted a 407-147 mark at Hawk Hill, including a 67-25 record at Hagan Arena. Last year, Saint Joseph's went 9-4 at home and was 3-2 in the nonconference.

FAIRBANKS RETURNS AS CAPTAIN

Senior forward Sarah Fairbanks is serving as team captain this season. Fairbanks previously served as a tri-captain alongside Natasha Cloud and Ashley Robinson in 2014-15.

HAWKS PICKED SEVENTH IN ATLANTIC 10 PRESEASON POLL

Saint Joseph's was picked to finish seventh in the Atlantic 10 race, according to a poll of the conference's head coaches. Returning three starters and 11 letterwinners overall from last year's squad, the Hawks garnered 116 points in the A-10 Preseason Poll. Receiving 12 first place votes, last year's conference champion George Washington was picked to repeat with 194 points. Dayton was selected second with 177 points, followed by Duquesne (154) third, Fordham (132) fourth, Saint Louis (126) fifth, Richmond (118) sixth, the Hawks, and Rhode Island (113) eighth. St. Bonaventure was picked to finish ninth with 90 points, followed by VCU (89), George Mason (57), La Salle (52), Massachusetts (34) and Davidson (18), respectively.

ANDREWS NAMED TO A-10 PRESEASON ALL-CONFERENCE TEAM

The Hawks' scoring leader a season ago, senior guard Ciara Andrews was recognized as one of the top players in the Atlantic 10 this season as she was named to the A-10's Preseason All-Conference Third Team. Posting a break-through season in 2014-15, Andrews proved to be the Hawks' top scoring threat as she averaged a career-best 13.0 points per game. Garnering All-Big 5 First Team honors, she appeared in all 30 games and made 28 starts for SJU, while averaging career-highs in rebounds (98) and assists (48).

SJU IN THE NATIONAL SPOTLIGHT

This season, the Hawks will have four nationally televised games. SJU will make three appearances on CBS Sports Network with games against George Washington (Jan. 3), Fordham (Jan. 17) and Dayton (Jan. 24), while their February 7 contest at George Mason will air on the American Sports Network.

HAWKS ON THE AIR

The Saint Joseph's Sports Network (SJSN) marks its 26th year of operation in 2015-16, as the first broadcasts of men's and women's basketball games took place in the fall of 1990. The first women's game aired on WCNZ-AM on November 23rd as the Hawks hosted Oregon. The 1990-91 season also marked the first in school history in which every SJU men's game aired on Philadelphia-area commercial radio.

Since its beginnings in 1990, SJSN's coverage of Hawk athletics has grown and included Saint Joseph's women's basketball television show Courtside, Phil Martelli's HawkTalk radio program and the nationally-renowned HawkTalk television show, which ran for 15 years.

Hawk fans everywhere will be able to hear the broadcast of every game through audio streaming at the Hawks' official athletics site, www.SJUHawks.com, which is provided free of charge. Fans can also take those broadcasts on-the-go, with the SJUHawks app for mobile devices.

HAWKS TO FACE TOUGH COMPETITION IN 2015-16

As is the standard for Saint Joseph's scheduling, facing strong opponents is the norm and 2015-16 is no different. This season, the Hawks will play 13 games against opponents that made a postseason tournament last year.

FAIRBANKS AMONG ALL-TIME LEADER

Senior forward Sarah Fairbanks enters her final season on Hawk Hill sixth all-time in program history in blocked shots. Having tallied 85 career rejections over her first three years, the 6-foot-1 forward is currently just seven blocks shy of tying Erica Pollock '07 for fifth at 92. Additionally, Fairbanks is closing in on the top-25 for career rebounds as she enters Friday with 427, just 16 shy of 25th place.

FIORAVANTI SET TO MAKE HAWK DEBUT

After sitting out the past 51 games, junior forward Amanda Fioravanti is set to make her Hawk debut this Friday. Coming to Saint Joseph's in January of 2014 after playing at Virginia the first semester, the 2012-13 Gatorade Player of the Year for Maryland averaged 1.5 points and 1.1 rebounds over eight games with the Cavaliers. Fioravanti has since sat out for SJU per her transfer situation.

GRIFFIN ENTERS 15TH SEASON AT ALMA MATER

Saint Joseph's Cindy Griffin enters her 15th season as head coach of her alma mater. The all-time leader in wins at Hawk Hill, she enters Friday with a 259-182 record over her first 14 seasons, and passed Women's Basketball Hall of Famer Jim Foster for career wins last year in a 58-54 victory over Villanova on December 7. During her tenure, the Hawks have made 10 postseason appearances and have had 16 Atlantic 10 All-Conference honorees.

THREE-POINT THREAT

Junior guard Kathleen Fitzpatrick had a breakout season in 2014-15 as she knocked down more than half of the Hawks three-points, hitting 53 of the team's 101. She enters Friday having connected on 60 of 195 for her career.

TAKING ADVANTAGE OF FREEBIES

The Hawks will have continually been one of the top free throw shooting teams in the Atlantic 10 and 2014-15 wasn't any different. As a team, Saint Joseph's hit 74 percent of their free throws (415 of 561) and finished 36th nationally in efficiency a season ago.

FOUR NEWCOMERS DON THE CRIMSON AND GRAY

Junior Jazmin Horne and freshmen Kristalyn Baisden, Michala Clay and Alyssa Monaghan will make their SJU debuts this Friday. The addition of the four newcomers helps bring the all-time number of players in program history to 184.

SJU ADDS THREE TO COACHING STAFF

Head coach Cindy Griffin has three new additions to her coaching staff this season with the hiring of assistant coach John Hampton, director of basketball operations Katie Kuester '12 and video coordinator Christina Foggie. Bringing over 20 years of coaching experience, Hampton comes to Hawk Hill after spending the previous season as an assistant at Rider. A 2012 graduate of Saint Joseph's, Kuester returns to her alma mater following a year with the Loyola Maryland staff. A prolific scorer who finished her career seventh all-time in points at Vanderbilt (1,743), Foggie joined the SJU staff after spending the previous year coaching for the Philadelphia Belles AAU team and working in the private sector.

CLOUD FINISHES AMONG WNBA'S TOP ROOKIES

Saint Joseph's 2015 graduate Natasha Cloud finished her first season in the WNBA this September as one of the top rookies in the league. Selected 15th overall by the Washington Mystics, Cloud led all newcomers in assists (3.4 apg) and ranked in the top-10 for rebounds (2.8 rpg), steals (0.85 spg) and minutes (19.3 mpg). Cloud, just the third Hawk to be selected in the WNBA Draft, is currently playing for Besiktas Women's Basketball Team in Turkey

TAKE CARE OF THE BALL

Ball control has been a staple for Saint Joseph's teams under head coach Cindy Griffin. During her tenure, the Hawks have ranked among the top-50 nationally in turnovers per game nine times, including the previous five seasons. Last year, SJU finished 23rd overall, coughing the ball up just 12.8 times per game.

NEED AN ASSIST

Saint Joseph's will have a different look at the point this season, with the graduation of Natasha Cloud in May. Over the past three seasons at point guard, Cloud accounted for 582 of the team's 1,389, or 41.9 percent. The Hawks will look to Ciara Andrews, Mackenzie Rule, Jazmin Horne, Alyssa Monaghan and Kristalyn Baisden to create from the point this year.

GAME IN, GAME OUT

Junior Ciara Andrews and sophomore Adashia Franklyn are the lone returning Hawks to have played in all 30 games last year. Andrews posted a career-best 13.0 points per game to lead SJU, while Franklyn paced the team in blocked shots with 32.

ODDS AND ENDS

- Senior guard Jordan Strobe is coming off a career year in which she averaged 2.6 points and 1.8 rebounds per contest.
- Sophomore guard/forward Chelsea Woods led all rookies in points (113) and rebounds (151) a season ago.
- Junior guard Mackenzie Rule played in a career-best 23 games in 2014-15 and averaged 1.0 points per contest.

WHY S-A-I-N-T JOSEPH'S UNIVERSITY?

The corporate title of "Saint" Joseph's University, which has been in place since Saint Joseph's was granted university status by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in 1979, is now the "public" title of the institution for all aspects of its operations. Previously, the abbreviation of "St." Joseph's University was permitted in a number of alumni and athletic contexts. According to the most recent edition of the Higher Education Directory, there are at least nine recognized "St. Joseph's" among the nation's colleges and universities. Only one of them-Saint Joseph's University, Philadelphia-is a university-level, Master's I, NCAA Division I institution. A complete spelling of S-A-I-N-T Joseph's University in all contexts will help eliminate any confusion among higher education and other public constituencies.

UP NEXT

The Hawks have just over a week off before returning to action versus Seton Hall on November 21. Game time is set for 2 p.m. at Hagan Arena.

All requests for interviews with Cindy Griffin and the Saint Joseph's student-athletes must be arranged through Jack Jumper. Advance notice of at least 24 hours is preferred, but every attempt will be made to accommodate all requests. Players will not be available for interviews on game day, except for post-game interviews.

PRESS ROW

Only accredited members of the media and accredited scouts will be issued credentials to cover Saint Joseph's basketball, and only those with passes will be permitted to sit in press seating. Members of the media are reminded that press row is a working area and cheering for either team will not be tolerated.

MEDIA SERVICES

Saint Joseph's and opponent's game notes, statistics, Atlantic 10 Conference notes and game programs will be available to working members of the media. Halftime statistics will be available in the media room at Hagan Arena and will also be distributed on press row. Final statistics will be distributed in the media room following completion of the game. Fax service is available at both locations.

Complete Saint Joseph's game notes will be available 24 hours prior to the game on SJUHawks.com.

MEDIA PARKING

Media parking is available at the ROTC Lot on 54th Street behind Hagan Arena. Media members desiring to be on the parking list must contact Jack Jumper at least 24 hours in advance of the game.

POST-GAME

Saint Joseph's head coach Cindy Griffin will be available in the interview room following a post-game cooling off period. The Saint Joseph's locker room is not open to the media.

THE HAWK

One of the most famous mascots in college sports, the Saint Joseph's Hawk celebrates its 60th anniversary in 2015-16. The Hawk is best known for staying in constant motion by flapping its wings throughout every basketball game and representing the Saint Joseph's motto, "The Hawk Will Never Die."

Jim Brennan originated the idea for a hawk as mascot during the 1954-55 season. Brennan, an ex-Marine and SJU cheerleader, at first wanted to secure an actual hawk, but later switched to the costume idea. The student government raised the 120 dollars needed to buy the initial costume, which Brennan donned for three years. He made his debut as the Hawk on January 4, 1956, a 69-56 win over La Salle at the Palestra. Since then, and including this season, a total of 31 SJU students have donned the costume. The Hawk has not missed a men's basketball game since that first season in 1955-56. The Hawk, who was present at most women's basketball games, became a mainstay in 1989. Since then, 12 SJU students have donned the costume, with Bobby Lattanzi serving as the Hawk for his first year in 2015-16.

In addition to the constant flapping, the Hawk is also recognized by its "flying" in figure eights around the court during timeouts. Years ago, ESPN used a "flap-o-meter" on the national telecast of a Saint Joseph's game to estimate that the Hawk flaps its wings 3,500 times during a regulation game.

The Hawk is unique because it is one of the few mascots in the nation that travels to every game, and the student who holds the position gains a tuition scholarship. The student, who is selected through an interview process during the previous spring semester, also serves as a team manager for the men's basketball team and travels with the squad.

The most decorated mascot in the country, The Hawk has garnered numerous accolades in its 59-year history. In 2013-14, NCAA.com named The Hawk as "College Basketball's Best Tradition". The Sporting News, Sports Illustrated, Sports Illustrated for Kids, Street & Smith's Basketball Yearbook and ESPN College Basketball magazine have selected it as the nation's top mascot. Eastern Basketball tabbed The Hawk as the Atlantic 10 Conference's best mascot, while The Hawk won a "Best of Philly" award from Philadelphia Magazine in 2003-04. The Hawk was selected as a 2008 nominee for the Mascot Hall of Fame.

Saint Joseph's athletic teams have been recognized with the nickname "Hawks" since 1929. At that time, the school's yearbook editor, Charlie Dunn, initiated a contest among the student body for a symbol. More than 100 submissions were narrowed to two, with "Hawks" winning out over "Grenadiers" (World War I soldiers who specialized in tossing grenades) by a slim margin in the final vote.

John Gallagher '31, a catcher on the Saint Joseph's baseball team, submitted the winning suggestion. He won a sweater with a special Saint Joseph's monogram for selecting the winning name. According to the Student Annual, the nickname was appropriate because it typified "the fighting spirit of our crimson and gray athletes and it is suggestive of the aerial attack which has made our football team famous." Ironically, football was discontinued at Saint Joseph's following the 1939 season.

But it has been the connection with the storied tradition of the Saint Joseph's men's and women's basketball programs that has given The Hawk mascot its prominence on the national level, making it one of the most recognized mascots in college athletics.

Cindy Griffin - Head Coach

Saint Joseph's '91, MBA '93 - 15th Season

The all-time leader in wins at Saint Joseph's, Cindy Griffin enters her 15th season as head coach of the Hawks. A 1991 and 1993 graduate of SJU, Griffin (nee Anderson) has compiled an overall record of 307-216 in 17 seasons as a head coach, and a 259-182 record over 14 years at Hawk Hill that has included 10 postseason appearances.

The eighth coach in NCAA Division I history to lead her alma mater to the NCAA Tournament as a player and a coach, Griffin's squads have posted six 20-win seasons and six victories over nationally-ranked teams, while her players have been honored as Atlantic 10 All-Conference performers 17 times and 12 have gone on to play professionally.

Backed by First Team All-Big 5 selection Natasha Cloud, the Hawks earned a share of the Big 5 title in 2014-15. Cloud, who also garnered A-10 All-Conference First Team and All-Defensive Team accolades, also became just the third SJU player to be selected in the WNBA Draft as she was picked by the Washington Mystics in the second round in April of 2015.

Following up their A-10 Championship the season prior, the 2013-14 Hawks continued to prove themselves as one of the top programs nationally as they earned an at-large bid to the NCAA Tournament and advanced to the Second Round for just the seventh time in team history. Led by Erin Shields and Cloud, Saint Joseph's earned its fifth straight postseason bid and claimed its first outright Philadelphia Big 5 title since 2000-01.

Under Griffin's leadership, Saint Joseph's posted one of its most memorable seasons in team history in 2012-13 as the Hawks claimed the Atlantic 10 Championship for just the third time and earned the automatic NCAA Tournament bid. Led by a senior class that had advanced to the postseason every year, the Hawks finished with a 23-9 record that included wins over #5 Maryland and #11 Dayton.

In addition to the team's success, a trio of Hawks were singled out for their performances, led by NCAA Woman of the Year nominee Chatilla van Grinsven. With Griffin's guidance, van Grinsven turned in one of the more dominant seasons in recent SJU history, becoming just the fifth player in SJU history to average a double-double for the year en route to being named to the A-10 All-Conference First Team and the Big 5 Player of the Year. The duo of backcourt mates Shields and Cloud helped propel SJU to new heights, with Shields garnering A-10 and Big 5 Most Improved Player honors and I-AAA distinction, while Cloud was named the Most Outstanding Player of the 2013 A-10 Championship.

Backed by a veteran-laden team in 2011-12, the Hawks earned their third-straight WNIT berth and posted their most wins (22) since the 2003-04 season. Moving into second place in career victories at her alma mater, Griffin picked up her 200th win as the Hawks topped Boston University in the opening game of the WNIT on March 15, 2012. Leading the Hawks to a 15-4 mark at home, she helped Saint Joseph's become one of the more efficient teams in the nation, ranking fourth in fewest turnovers per game (12.5), 26th in three-point percentage (.348) and 39th in field goal percentage (.423).

Individually, senior Michelle Baker and Kelly Cavallo had breakout years, both garnering All-Big 5 honors. Behind Griffin's teaching, Baker went on to be named to the A-10 All-Conference Second Team and capped her career as SJU's then all-time leader in games played (127) while ranking in the top 20 for scoring and field goals made. After seeing limited time as a freshman, Cavallo developed into one of the top post players in the A-10, leading SJU and finishing in the top five of the conference in rebounding, blocked shots and field goal percentage. With Griffin's aid, Cavallo finished her career second all-time in blocks and 11th in rebounding at SJU.

Returning just one starter for the 2010-11 season, the Hawks quickly jelled under Griffin's guidance as they went on to win 20 games, earned the program's 700th victory, and advanced to the second round of the WNIT. Backed by All-Big 5 honorees Baker and Katie Kuester, Saint Joseph's had its most efficient offensive showing since 2002-03, as the Hawks finished 60th in the nation in field goal percentage (42.1).

Additionally, several Hawks were honored for outstanding seasons in 2010-11, headlined by sophomore Ashley Prim becoming the first SJU player to be named Atlantic 10 Sixth Player of the Year. Baker became just the second Hawk to be named to the A-10 All-Defensive Team, while freshman Erin Shields became the sixth player Griffin has coached to A-10 All-Rookie Team honors.

Earning a postseason berth for the first time in two years, the Hawks surpassed predictions in 2009-10 as they finished tied for fourth in the Atlantic 10 after being picked to finish ninth. After opening the season with a 3-7 mark, Griffin saw her team begin to click at the end of the non-conference schedule as SJU claimed the 19th Annual Hawk Classic title and worked its way to .500 by the second week of the Atlantic 10 slate. Posting a 9-5 mark against conference opponents, Griffin hit two milestones during A-10 play, earning her 150th win at Saint Joseph's in a victory against Dayton and earning her 200th coaching win against George Washington. The Hawks would go on to earn the program's seventh WNIT bid, and play the first postseason game at Hagan Arena.

In 2008-09, Griffin undertook arguably her toughest season to date as Saint Joseph's played every contest away from Hawk Hill for the first time in program history. And in typical SJU fashion, Griffin got her team to respond as Saint Joseph's went on to post an 8-5 record at home venues and earn its first Big 5 title since 2000-01. Individually five Hawks posted career bests in scoring, with Brittany Ford and Mariame Djouara both earning All-Big 5 Second Team honors.

Relying heavily on underclassmen in 2007-08, Griffin guided her Hawks to another winning season, including crowns at the Brown Basketball Classic and the Hilton Philadelphia Hawk Classic. Among the wins, Saint Joseph's posted its biggest win over a non-conference ranked opponent since the 1984-85, topping #15 Auburn for the Hawk Classic title.

Despite losing several experienced players prior to the 2006-07 season, Griffin had her team peaking at the right time. Playing Griffin's style of hard-nosed defense and persistent offense, the Hawks advanced to the Atlantic 10 Championship game, including the program's first win over a top 10 opponent (#8 George Washington) since 1992 along the way. Saint Joseph's capped the season with its fifth WNIT appearance in six years and tied the SJU record for games played in a season with 33.

2015-16 SAINT JOSEPH'S BASKETBALL NOTES - PAGE 7

Fueled by a collection of newcomers and a developed core of upperclassmen, Griffin led the Hawks back to national prominence in 2005-06. The Crimson and Gray engineered the nation's best turnaround (13 games) and received votes in the national polls for the first time since 2003-04. The Hawks advanced to the semifinals of the A-10 Championship and earned a berth in the WNIT.

With the loss of four 1,000-point scorers, the 2004-05 Hawks showed their true colors down the stretch, earning a hard-fought victory over La Salle in the opening round of the Atlantic 10 Championship and coming within 10 points of 16th-ranked, and eventual A-10 Champion, Temple.

Led by six seniors, the 2004 team went 22-11 and advanced to the WNIT Elite Eight. Saint Joseph's finished second in the A-10 East and dropped a heart-breaker in the Atlantic 10 Championship to Temple. Four Hawk seniors reached the 1,000-point plateau, marking just the eighth time in NCAA history that a quartet of players had reached the milestone in the same season. Erin Brady, Irina Krasnoshiok, Stephanie (Graff) McCaffrey and Amra Mehmedic went on to sign professional contracts.

Following a memorable first year at the helm of her alma mater, Griffin upped the ante in her second season by capturing 2003 Atlantic 10 Coach of the Year honors after guiding the Hawks to a 19-11 record. The team sprinted to the conference's Eastern Division title and earned a berth in the WNIT for the second straight season, despite the departure of SJU's all-time leading scorer and a non-conference schedule that ranked fourth nationally.

Griffin helped to reinvigorate the SJU program in her first season, leading the squad to a 24-8 record and the second round of the WNIT. She capitalized on the team's tradition of scrappy play and rugged defense, while releasing the reins and allowing the team to play a more up-tempo style on the offensive end of the floor. The Hawks finished the year among the national leaders in nine different categories and paced the nation in free throw percentage for the second straight year.

Following her playing career, Griffin spent the 1992-93 season as a graduate assistant at her alma mater. She then accepted an assistant's spot at Vanderbilt University from 1993-95 under former Saint Joseph's head coach Jim Foster. Foster recruited Griffin to SJU and coached her during her playing career on Hawk Hill.

In her two years as an assistant at Vanderbilt, the Commodores finished 53-15 overall, won the 1995 SEC championship and reached the NCAA Sweet 16 both seasons. In addition to coaching responsibilities, she was the co-director of the Vanderbilt Basketball Camp and the director of the Black & Gold Club.

Griffin left Vanderbilt after the 1995 season to become an assistant coach at Loyola College (Md.). She spent three seasons as an assistant under Patty Coyle before being promoted to associate head coach in 1998. Griffin was promoted to the position of head women's basketball coach at Loyola midway through the 1998-99 season. She was the seventh-youngest head coach in Division I at the time. Griffin – who was named head coach five games into the season as Coyle left for an assistant coach position with the WNBA's New York Liberty – kept the Greyhounds' momentum going as Loyola won a team-record 21 games that year. Overall she compiled a record of 48-33 during her tenure at the Baltimore school, guiding the squad to the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference semifinals all three years.

One of the top playmakers in Saint Joseph's history, Griffin starred for the Hawks from 1987-88 through 1991-92 (missing the 1988-89 season due to injury). A three-time team captain, Griffin finished her career with 662 points, 278 rebounds, 510 assists and 197 steals. She currently ranks fourth on SJU's all-time assist list.

As a junior in 1990-91, she played in 1,178 out of a possible 1,200 minutes to set the school record for minutes played in a single season. The Hawks made three NCAA Tournament appearances and posted three straight 20-win seasons during her playing career. A two-time Second Team All-Big 5 choice, as well as a Third Team All-Atlantic 10 pick as a senior, she was inducted into the Saint Joseph's Women's Basketball Hall of Fame in 1998.

A native of Maple Glen, Pa., Griffin played her high school basketball for Bishop McDevitt, winning two Philadelphia Catholic League titles. A 1987 graduate of McDevitt, she was inducted into its Athletic Hall of Fame in 1997, and in 2002, received the Philadelphia Catholic League's alumni achievement award. She earned a bachelor's degree in accounting from Saint Joseph's in 1991 and completed her M.B.A. from SJU in 1993. She resides in Conshohocken, Pa., with her husband Curtis and children, Kaylie (11), Hannah (9) and Curtis Jr. (6).
