PHIL MARTELLI
Head Coach

In 22 seasons as head coach at Saint Joseph's, Phil Martelli has built a program that is consistently one of the top in the conference, a perennial postseason participant and a key player on the national scene. In doing so, he has earned his place among the top coaches in the school's storied history and has become one of the more respected coaches in the game.

Martelli is the Hawks' all-time leader in career victories with a mark of 411-282. Setting the school record for wins in a season (30) in 2004, Martelli has guided SJU to 20 or more victories nine times in the past 21 seasons, which is the most for any Hawks' coach. His record of 200-146 in Atlantic 10 play is the most conference wins for any active coach and ranks second all-time in the league.

Seven of Martelli's players have reached the NBA, with three First Round draft picks - DeAndre' Bembry (2016), Jameer Nelson (2004) and Delonte West (2004) - and a second-round selection Ahmad Nivins (2009). Dwayne Jones and Ronald Roberts, Jr. each had NBA stints while undrafted free agent Langston Galloway earned All-Rookie Second Team honors with the New York Knicks in 2014-15. Nelson (Denver), Galloway (New Orleans) and Bembry (Atlanta) are currently playing in the NBA.

Martelli has been at his best when it counts the most as his 18 postseason wins (7 NCAA, 11 NIT) are the most in school history. He has taken SJU to the postseason in four of the last five years, and 13 times in his 21 seasons at SJU.

Saint Joseph's 2015-16 team made its mark as one of the best in school history, compiling a 28-8 record for the second-most victories for a Hawk team. SJU won its second A-10 title in three seasons and advanced to the NCAA Second Round for the first time since 2004. Martelli, who recorded his 400th career win, earned Big 5 Coach of the Year honors as the Hawks were the third most improved team in the nation. He also had two of the best players in the league, as DeAndre' Bembry was the A-10 Player of the Year and Isaiah Miles was the Most Improved Player, with both earning All-Conference honors.

He has also served the game of basketball as a Past President of the NABC's Board of Directors and as member of the NCAA Division I Men's Ethics Coalition. In 2016, he was honored with the Gene Bartow Award by Collegians.com for outstanding achievement and contributions to the game.

The 2014-15 Hawks were challenged after losing three All-Conference players from the 2014 A-10 champion team, but saw the emergence of sophomore DeAndre' Bembry as he topped the A-10 in scoring and earned All-Conference First Team honors.

In 2013-14, Martelli and his veteran team turned in one of the more memorable seasons in school history, adding another A-10 Championship to his résumé. The Hawks, led by seniors Langston Galloway, Halil Kanacevic and Ronald Roberts, Jr., won 20 of 26 games from mid-December and captured the school's third conference title and its first since 1997. SJU went 24-10 and reached the NCAA Tournament for the sixth time under Martelli, falling to eventual champion Connecticut.

The 2012-13 season saw an experienced Saint Joseph's squad reach the Atlantic 10 Quarterfinals and earn a second consecutive NIT bid, for the 11th postseason berth in Martelli's career.

In 2011-12, Martelli and the Hawks became one of nine teams in the nation to win 20 games after losing 20 the previous season, and also returned to the postseason with an NIT bid. Five different players received Atlantic 10 honors, the most ever for the Hawks. SJU also scored two wins over Top 25 teams (Creighton and Temple) and Martelli became SJU's all-time leader in victories.

Martelli guided young squads in 2010-11 and 2009-10, after coming off a 2008-09 season that saw the Hawks go 17-15 for his ninth consecutive winning season. Among the highlights of '08-09 was Ahmad Nivins becoming the third Hawk in six years to garner the Atlantic 10's Player of the Year Award. Nivins was also chosen by the Dallas Mavericks in the 2009 NBA Draft, becoming the third Martelli player drafted.

The 2007-08 Hawks reached the Atlantic 10 Championship game for the third time in four years and earned the program's 19th bid to the NCAA Tournament, and Martelli's fifth. The 11th-seeded Hawks fell to sixth-seeded Oklahoma in the NCAA First Round, while ending the year at 21-13.

Martelli turned in another top-notch coaching performance in 2005-06, as the Hawks went from a 10-12 record to win eight consecutive games to reach the Atlantic 10 championship game for the second year in a row. SJU earned its sixth consecutive postseason bid to the NIT.

In 2004-05, Martelli turned in perhaps a more remarkable coaching job than in 2003-04 when he was the consensus

National Coach of the Year. Faced with the loss of two NBA first-round draft picks, Martelli guided SJU to 21 wins in the calendar year of 2005 to post a 24-12 record. Saint Joseph's posted the conference's best record (14-2), won its fifth straight regular-season title to tie the league record, earned the A-10's top seed and reached the title game. He was named the Atlantic 10 Coach of the Year for the second straight season and the fourth time in his career. SJU made an exciting six-game run in the NIT, falling in the title game.

In 2003-04, Martelli guided a focused and unselfish squad that became the most compelling story in college basketball. The Hawks went undefeated in the regular season, reached the pinnacle as the top-ranked team in the nation and earned the school's first-ever number-one seed in the NCAA Tournament, while advancing to the Elite Eight. Jameer Nelson was the consensus National Player of the Year and with teammate Delonte West, were both first-round selections in the NBA Draft. SJU opened the season ranked 12th in the polls and moved up throughout the year, taking the top spot on March 8, 2004, for the first time ever, while finishing fifth in the polls, for SJU's highest final ranking since 1966.

Martelli joined with Nelson to sweep the national coach and player awards, marking one of the few times in history that the top player and coach were from the same school. He was also the Atlantic 10 Coach of the Year for the third time and a repeat winner of the Big 5 Coach of the Year award.

A 1976 graduate of Widener, Martelli began his career on Hawk Hill with SJU's 1985-86 NCAA Tournament team. After 10 years as an assistant at Saint Joseph's, Martelli was named the 14th coach in school history on July 20, 1995, and just the third non-alumnus to guide SJU.

Martelli burst onto the scene in his first season (1995-96) and took the squad to the NIT championship game. He followed that in 1996-97 with the Atlantic 10 regular season and tournament titles, along with a berth in the NCAA Sweet 16.

Prior to his arrival at SJU, Martelli spent seven years as head basketball coach at Bishop Kenrick High School and had a stint as assistant coach at Widener, helping guide the Pioneers to the 1978 NCAA Division III Final Four.

As a point guard at Widener, he was part of the NCAA Tournament teams in 1975 and 1976, and set the school's single season and career assist marks.

Martelli and his wife, Judy, a former basketball player with the national champion Immaculata College teams in the 1970s, have three children - Phil, Jr., Jimmy and Elizabeth. Phil, Jr. and and Elizabeth are both Saint Joseph's graduates. The Martelli's have six grandchildren - Philip Stephen, Marra, Avery, Brynley, Madalyn and Nolan.

LAST TIME OUT: James Demery had 19 points and a career-high 11 rebounds for the first double-double of his career, but the Hawks fell to UMass, 62-57, at the Mullins Center. Markell Lodge scored a personal best 11 points while grabbing nine rebounds and Charlie Brown added 11 points. In a game where both teams struggled offensively, Rashaan Holloway started a 6-0 late run for UMass, breaking a 53-53 tie with a layup at 1:59, and ending with a dunk by C.J. Anderson at :26 to give the home team a 63-59 lead. Saint Joseph's jumped out to a 9-0 lead and led by as much as 20-10 in the first half. But UMass, which had been shooting just 1-of-12 from three-point range, caught fire and got back into the game with three-pointers. Trailing 24-12, the Minutemen made five of their next six three-pointers, to go on a 15-5 run and tie the game, 29-29, by halftime. The Hawks maintained the lead through the first part of the second half, but UMass took its first lead of the game, 43-42, at 11:05. The Minutemen increased it to hold their biggest margin of the game, 52-44, at 5:44. Demery helped SJU get back into it, scoring five points in an 8-1 run and tying it at 53-53 with a free throw at 2:30. The teams combined for 29 turnovers in the contest, with Saint Joseph's committing 16. The Hawks shot just 8-of-30 from the field in the second half. After its strong end to the first half from behind the arc, UMass went cold in the second half, going 0-for-9.

KEY TO THE CITY: This is the third Big 5 game for Saint Joseph's, as the Hawks have lost to Temple and Villanova thus far. Saint Joseph's has won 20 Big 5 titles (9 outright/11 shared), which is third all-time to Temple's 27 titles (6/21 shared). Last year, SJU went 3-1 in the Big 5, losing only to Villanova. The Hawks will visit La Salle on Feb. 18 to round out this year's City Series play.

CATHEDRAL OF BASKETBALL: This is 500th game that Saint Joseph's will be playing in the Palestra. SJU has compiled a 334-165 record in over 60 years of games played in this building.

FOR A GOOD CAUSE: Next week (Jan. 23-29) marks Coaches vs. Cancer "Suits and Sneakers" Week, where coaches wear sneakers with their game attire as a visible reminder about the importance of nutrition and physical activity in reducing cancer risk. Phil Martelli and staff will participate in the week, wearing sneakers with gold laces at the St. Bonaventure game on Tuesday and against La Salle on Saturday. The gold laces are in memory of 8-year-old Lacey Holsworth, an avid basketball fan who died in 2014. Martelli is the chair of the National Coaches vs. Cancer Council and is the co-chair of the Philadelphia group, which is one of the highest fundraising groups in the nation.

DOUBLE UP: James Demery recorded the first double-double of his career with 19 points and a career-high 11 rebounds at Massachusetts. It was the first SJU double-double since DeAndre' Bembry posted one against Oregon in the NCAA Tournament last March.

LOSING IT: SJU was up on Massachusetts early, and then led by as much as 12 points in the first half before the Minutemen went on a three-point shooting spree and tied the game by halftime. The Hawks were defeated, 62-57, to mark the largest winning margin lost this season. Prior to that, the largest lead lost was 11 points against NC State.

HE'S BACK: James Demery has been a welcome return to the court after missing 10 games with an injury. The junior had nine points, four rebounds and four assists off the bench in his return to action against GW and followed that with 17 points and eight rebounds at Rhode Island. Demery returned to the starting lineup at Fordham and responded with a career-high 27 points to go along with six rebounds, followed by a 16-point, six-rebound effort vs. George Mason. The junior notched the first double-double of his career in a losing cause as he had 19 points and a career-high 11 rebounds at UMass. Demery was a starter as a freshman and was the sixth man for the 2016 A-10 champion team, averaging 8.1 points per game. His return also gives SJU's defense a boost as he has been regarded as the team's best defender.

DEVASTATING BLOW: Junior Shavar Newkirk will miss the rest of the season after suffering a torn ACL in his left knee in the win over GW (Dec. 30) and will undergo surgery. Newkirk keyed the Hawks' comeback from 12 points down in the first half, and was about to score his sixth straight point on a fast break, when he went down with the non-contact injury. He finished the game with 10 points and SJU won, 68-63. Newkirk was the Hawks' leading scorer, averaging 20.3 points per game through 12 games. He scored 20-plus points in all but four games this season, reaching a new career-high of 28 points. Newkirk topped the Hawks in free-throw percentage (.847) and averaged 3.5 assists per game, while hitting 46.6 percent of his field goal attempts. His scoring average was 13 points more than last season's (8.0). "This is certainly disappointing to all of us in the Saint Joseph's basketball program. Our thoughts and concern go out to Shavar and his family," said Phil Martelli. "We're fully supportive of him, academically and socially, and as he makes his return to the basketball court, bigger, stronger and better than ever. His teammates have expressed the same level of support."

START IT UP: Sophomore Chris Clover has started five consecutive games in place of Shavar Newkirk. James Demery returned to the starting lineup at Fordham for Nick Robinson, who replaced Demery while he was sidelined. Here's a rundown of the Hawks' starting lineups this season with the number of games (current starting lineup in bold):

- Kimble, Newkirk, Brown, Demery, Lodge - 1 game
- Kimble, Newkirk, Brown, Robinson, Lodge - 11 games
- Kimble, Clover, Brown, Robinson, Lodge - 1 game
- Kimble, Clover, Brown, Demery, Lodge - 4 games

FROM THE ARC: There's a big disparity in the Hawks' three-point shooting and that of their opponents. SJU's foes have outscored the Hawks, 501-285, from the three-point line. Saint Joseph's is converting 31.3 percent of its three-point attempts while the opponents are hitting 37.1 percent. Saint Joseph's is averaging 17.9 three-point field goal attempts per game, while the opponents are taking 26.5 threes per game.

THIN RANKS: Saint Joseph's bench might look full with 17 players, but there are only 14 healthy enough to play.

LEAPING LODGE: Markell Lodge has been using his tremendous leaping ability to be an offensive weapon for the Hawks. The sophomore scored a career-high 11 points at UMass, on 5-of-6 shooting with either layups or dunks. He's converting 71.4 percent from the field this year.

THE GOOD GUY: Phil Martelli has been named the recipient of this year's "Good Guy Award" from the Philadelphia Sports Writers Association, which will be presented at the 113th annual PSWA banquet on Feb. 3 at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Cherry Hill. Martelli, always helpful and accessible to the media in good times and bad, capped off a strong 2015-16 season by storming through the Atlantic 10 Tournament, to win the Hawks' second title in three years and earn an eighth seed in the NCAA Tournament. The Hawks then defeated No. 9 Cincinnati for their first NCAA Tournament win since 2004 before bowing to Oregon in the second round, finishing at a stellar 28-8. The conference title was the second in the last three years for Martelli, who is also a four-time A-10 Coach of the Year.

INJURY BUG: The Hawks are certainly jinxed with significant injuries this year, with the latest setback being Shavar Newkirk's torn ACL. The streak of bad luck began this summer when sophomore Pierfrancesco Oliva, a starter in 2015-16, was diagnosed with a knee condition that is causing him to miss the year. James Demery suffered a stress fracture in the first game on Nov. 12 that forced him to miss 10 games. Freshman Lorenzo Edwards played in only one game this year and will undergo shoulder surgery which will sideline him for the rest of the year.

GIVEAWAYS: Coming off an impressive game against GW when they had only three turnovers, the tide turned quickly on the Hawks at Rhode Island as SJU gave the ball away a season-high 17 times. Saint Joseph's matched that number with 17 vs. Richmond and followed that with 16 at Massachusetts. In the last five games, SJU is averaging 16.0 turnovers per game. Despite those numbers, SJU ranks fifth in the league and 42nd in the nation in fewest turnovers (208).

MAGIC NUMBER: The victory over Fordham was the 200th Atlantic 10 win of Phil Martelli's career. Martelli owns the most conference wins of any active coach, and the second most all-time in the league behind Temple's John Chaney (296).

WORKING OVERTIME: Lamarr Kimble has played a lot of minutes already this year and now even more after Shavar Newkirk's injury. Prior to Newkirk being sidelined, the guards were seeing career-high numbers in minutes played, with Kimble averaging 35.5 and Newkirk at 35.1. Kimble is now playing 36.4 minutes per game, the second most in the Atlantic 10, and 16th most in the nation. Kimble has played all 40 minutes twice this year.

TAKING SHOTS: Lamarr Kimble is taking on a lot of responsibility this year, and especially after Shavar Newkirk's injury. The point guard is averaging a team-high 14.4 field goal attempts per game, and took a season-high of 18 shots in the George Mason game.

CHARLIE IN CHARGE: Freshman Charlie Brown was one of the catalysts in SJU's win over GW, as he scored 13 points on 6-for-9 shooting. His three-pointer at 2:25 gave the Hawks the lead for good. Brown scored 11 points at Rhode Island to give him five straight games in double figures. The freshman had a season-high 17 points in the George Mason loss and has reached double figures in 11 games this year.

BRENDAN'S BEST: Former walk-on Brendan Casper has contributed for the Hawks this year. At Fordham, he matched his career-high with 10 points and handed out a personal best five assists. He notched his second straight game of 10 points against George Mason.

FALLING SHORT: The Hawks fell behind late in the first half vs. Richmond as the Spiders took a 41-28 halftime lead. And after Richmond increased it to 18 points early in the second half, the Hawks made a comeback to come within 65-64 late in the second half. But SJU couldn't convert on the final possessions and lost, 70-66. Coach Phil Martelli didn't consider it as a moral victory, however, saying, "They didn't hear from me that they did a good job. I don't listen to it. I don't buy it. There are things that we can take out of that (comeback), but only if we're better on Monday. Seventeen turnovers. There's nothing about 'Nice effort.'"

NO "I" IN TEAM: The GW win was a team effort in the second half as the Hawks rallied without Shavar Newkirk as everyone chipped in. Among those contributing were Chris Clover, who scored seven points in 13 minutes of action in the second half, and Nick Robinson, who had a key steal and rebound in the final 30 seconds to preserve the win.

WELL-GUARDED: Prior to Shavar Newkirk's injury, Saint Joseph's backcourt of Newkirk and Lamarr "Fresh" Kimble had combined to score 49 percent of the Hawks' 641 points and both exceeded their career-highs this year. Newkirk had a career-high 28 points in the opener vs. Toledo, with Kimble bettering his career-high by scoring 16 points. Kimble then increased his personal best vs. Columbia with 19 points, and again with 26 points against Loyola Chicago. Newkirk recorded 20-plus points in eight of 12 games this year.

DERAILED: The loss of a team's leading scorer to injury is devastating enough, but Shavar Newkirk's is even more disappointing as was having an All-League season, with career-best numbers. His performance was reminiscent of Isaiah Miles' from last season, when he was one of the most improved players in the nation. Miles had increased his scoring average by seven points up to 18.1 per game and became one of the Hawks' go-to players. Newkirk had an even bigger increase in his scoring average, from 8.0 points to 21.2 per game.

LID ON THE BASKET: Free-throw shooting is a glaring weakness as the team is hitting just 65.0 percent from the line and shot below 60 percent in three consecutive games (47% vs. GW; 48% at URI; 52% at Fordham). In conference games, the Hawks are converting 60.2 percent from the line. Unfortunately for the Hawks, their best free-throw shooter (Shavar Newkirk at 84.7%) is on the sidelines. Charlie Brown is the only other SJU starter hitting over 80 percent, at 82.1. The team ranks 293rd in the nation in free throw percentage.

FRESH APPROACH: Sophomore tri-captain Lamarr Kimble started the season bettering his career-high for the third time in three games with 26 points vs. Loyola Chicago. Kimble shot 10-for-17 from the field and made a personal best five three-pointers. It marked the first 20-plus point game of his career. He has two on the season after scoring 22 points against Lafayette.

HANDS OFF: As they have in the past few years, the Hawks are limiting their personal fouls and now average 16.2 per game. They lead the A-10 and rank 17th in the nation in fewest fouls with 276. At one point last year, SJU led the nation in fewest fouls and only had 10 disqualifications all season.

BOOST FROM BRENDAN: Senior Brendan Casper scored a career-high 10 points in the win at Drexel, including a stretch of six straight during an 8-0 run in the first half. The former walk-on is now in the rotation and saw a personal-best 23 minutes of action against both Drexel and Columbia. After the Columbia game, Phil Martelli said, "Brendan's three charges and activity, energy, and confidence. He doesn't just 'have a scholarship.' He's a scholarship player now, and he approached it like that. He has approached every day in practice like that."

SO CLOSE: Lamarr Kimble just missed a triple-double at Princeton as he scored 17 points, grabbed a career-high eight rebounds and tied his personal best with nine assists. At Fordham, the sophomore had 12 points, a career-high nine rebounds and six assists.

BAUMANN'S BOARDS: Graduate student Javon Baumann came up big for the Hawks in the win at Drexel. He was 3-for-3 from the field and recorded a new career-high of nine rebounds while playing a season-high 22 minutes. Baumann also had a block on one of Drexel's final attempts with two seconds to go.

BY THE NUMBERS: The win over Drexel ended a four-game losing skid for SJU, which was the longest since 2014-15.

WHAT CAN BROWN DO FOR YOU: Freshman Charlie Brown has scored double figures in nine games this year. His career-high is 17 points against George Mason. The freshman is hitting a team-best 38.8 percent of this three-point field goal attempts.

MARKELL'S MARK: Redshirt sophomore Markell Lodge has been solid in his first season of significant playing time. He recorded a new career-high with 10 points on 5-for-7 shooting at Rhode Island and matched that in the next game at Fordham. Against Temple, he scored nine points and grabbed five rebounds, while playing a personal best 24 minutes. He reached a new career-high with 10 rebounds at Villanova and then had nine rebounds and a career-high three blocks at Princeton.

RALLY CAPS: The win over George Washington marked the largest deficit overcome by the Hawks for a victory this season. SJU trailed by 12 points in the first half but cut it to six at halftime, before taking their first lead in the second half. The previous best was overcoming an 11-point deficit at Drexel.

RAINING THREES: Against Temple, the Hawks connected on a season-best from behind the arc, going 12-for-23. Shavar Newkirk led the way with 4-of-6, while Charlie Brown and Lamarr Kimble each had three. It was the most three-pointers for the Hawks since they had 10 at Massachusetts on Feb. 24, 2016.

SLOW STARTERS: A slow start doomed the Hawks at Illinois State, as they fell behind by 14 points at the half. SJU committed 12 turnovers and shot just 36 percent, while Illinois made 50 percent of its shots, and went 6-for-11 from behind the arc. The Hawks picked it up in the second half, but couldn't overcome the deficit, losing 81-72.

BIG BOARDS: Saint Joseph's dominated the boards at Princeton, outrebounding the Tigers, 58-34, in total rebounds and 19-7 on the offensive glass. It was the most total rebounds for SJU since the Hawks had 50 at St. Bonaventure on Jan. 14, 2009.

CHARGE IT: Senior Brendan Casper has a knack this year for taking charges and has taken them in multiple games. Casper took three in the first half against Columbia and had two in the win over Drexel.

NICK OF TIME: Freshman Nick Robinson bettered his season-highs with 14 points and eight rebounds against Richmond. Robinson replaced James Demery in the starting lineup beginning with the second game, after Demery was diagnosed with a stress fracture.

A-10 ACCOLADES: Junior Shavar Newkirk was named the Atlantic 10 Co-Player of the Week for Nov. 14, marking his first conference honor. Newkirk scored a career-high 28 points and grabbed a personal best seven rebounds in the Hawks' season-opening win over Toledo. He made a career-high 9-of-16 from the field while also hitting 7-of-9 from the foul line. Newkirk connected on a short jumper at :46 that gave the Hawks the lead for good. He also made two free throws with :25 left to help seal the win.

STARRING SHAVAR: Shavar Newkirk earned Big 5 Co-Player of the Week honors for Dec. 12, marking the first Big 5 honor of his career. Newkirk scored the Hawks' final 11 points of the game, and his three-point play with 10.7 seconds left proved to be the deciding points. It was the second game-winning shot of his career as he hit a short jumper with one second left to give SJU a 66-64 win over Old Dominion in 2015-16. .

AN OLDER PRESENCE: Phil Martelli also cited the play of graduate student Javon Baumann in the Columbia win. Baumann played 16 minutes and topped the team with six rebounds. "I thought Javon (Baumann) was very good with six rebounds in 16 minutes. He guards like an older guy," said Martelli.

CALLING ON CHRIS: Sophomore Chris Clover is expected to make an impact this year after seeing limited action in 2015-16. After a scoreless first game, Clover rebounded with a career-high 11 points against Columbia, shooting 5-for-8 from the field. He notched his second double-figure game with 10 points versus Lafayette.

YOUNG GUNS: With freshmen Charlie Brown and Nick Robinson in the starting lineup, it was the youngest group of starters under Phil Martelli since 2010-11 when Langston Galloway, C.J. Aiken and Daryus Quarles started as freshmen. Because of the injury to James Demery, the Hawks have started two freshmen, two sophomores and a junior, beginning with the Columbia game. The average age of SJU's starting lineup in 10 games without Demery was 19.6 years old.

BANNER YEAR: The Hawks are coming off of one of the best seasons in school history, which saw them go 28-8 and win their third Atlantic 10 Championship in two seasons. SJU was led by A-10 and Big 5 Player of the Year DeAndre' Bembry, and Isaiah Miles, the Most Improved Player in the A-10 and Big 5. Saint Joseph's was the third most improved team in the nation and the 28 victories were the second best in school history, behind only the 2003-04 NCAA Elite Eight squad, which went 30-2. SJU raised its newest championship banner in Hagan Arena in a pre-game ceremony at the season opener vs. Toledo.

DEAN OF COACHES: Now in his 22nd season as Saint Joseph's head coach, Phil Martelli is the dean of A-10 coaches. He's the Hawks' leader in wins with a 411-282 record, and has a 200-146 record in Atlantic 10 play for the most conference wins of any active coach, and the second most all-time.

THEY'RE BACK: Although Saint Joseph's returned 12 players from last year's A-10 champion team, only four of them averaged double-figure minutes during that season. Shavar Newkirk was the lone starter returning while James Demery and Lamarr Kimble were the other two players seeing significant playing time, making key contributions off the bench.

DOUBLE DOWN: This marks the first time in Phil Martelli's career that he entered the season without a returning double figure scorer. The Hawks lost Isaiah Miles (18.1), DeAndre' Bembry (17.4) and Aaron Brown (10.4) from last year's 28-8 team. SJU's leading returning scorers were James Demery (8.1) and Shavar Newkirk (8.0).

RARING TO GO: Redshirt sophomore Markell Lodge made his first career start vs. Toledo. He saw limited action last season in his first year after sitting out 2014-15 to concentrate on academics. A 6-8 forward from Pace Academy (N.C.), Lodge owns a vertical leap of 39 inches, which is the highest in the program's history.

FROM THE START: Charlie Brown became the fourth freshman in four years to be in the starting lineup on opening day. Pierfrancesco Oliva was a starter in 30 games last year. Previous freshman starters were DeAndre' Bembry with all 34 games in 2013-14 and James Demery with 29 games in 2014-15.

HARD WORK PAYS OFF: Senior tri-captain Brendan Casper was awarded a scholarship for the 2016-17 academic year. Casper joined the Hawks as a walk-on as a freshman in 2013-14 and previously earned a scholarship for the Spring 2016 semester. Entering this year he played in 42 career games, including a personal best 23 as a sophomore, and has been a member of the Hawks' two A-10 champion teams. Casper was selected to the 2016 NABC Honors Court, which recognizes academic excellence.

WELCOME TO HAWK HILL: The Hawks have welcomed five newcomers this season - Charlie Brown (Philadelphia), Gerald Blount (Suwanee, Ga.), Lorenzo Edwards (Lake Forest, Ill.), Nick Robinson (Chicago, Ill.) and walk-on Toliver Freeman (Baton Rouge, La.).

ON THE SIDELINES: The Hawks suffered a blow over the summer when Pierfrancesco Oliva had surgery in late June to repair an osteochondral defect in his right knee, a chronic condition that was aggravated in post-season workouts. After post-surgery evaluation throughout the summer, it was determined that he will need close to a year of rehabilitation. The 6-8 forward from Taranto, Italy, was a starter in 30 games for the 2016 Atlantic 10 Champion Hawks. He averaged 4.0 points and 3.7 rebounds while scoring double figures twice.

HAWK CAPTAINS: Graduate student Javon Baumann, senior Brendan Casper and sophomore Lamarr Kimble were voted as tri-captains by their teammates. Kimble is the second sophomore in the past three seasons to earn the distinction, and is the third sophomore in school history to serve as a captain. The first sophomore captain was Joe Oakes, who captained the famed "Mighty Mites" team in 1936-37.

A NEW MAN: Jai Williams has lost close to 60 pounds since coming to campus in 2013-14. He redshirted that season to further his development and has seen limited action in the past two years. Williams was down to 240 pounds entering this season. He's seen playing time in four games thus far, and had six points against NC State.

PRESEASON PICK: Saint Joseph's was picked to finish ninth in the Atlantic 10 Preseason Poll, as voted on by media and the league's coaches. Last year the Hawks were picked seventh and finished fourth in the league standings before winning the A-10 Championship.

HOME SWEET HOME: This marks the eighth season of Michael J. Hagan '85 Arena. The arena was dedicated in October 2009 after a two-year expansion and renovation of Alumni Memorial Fieldhouse, which was the home of the Hawks since 1949. Saint Joseph's owns a 70-35 record in the seven seasons of Hagan Arena, but a 389-117 overall record in 66 years of Hagan Arena/Alumni Memorial Fieldhouse. SJU went 12-4 on its home court last season and is currently 4-3.

SIGN THEM UP: Phil Martelli announced that Taylor Funk and Anthony Longpre signed National Letters of Intent during the early-signing period, and will attend SJU beginning next Fall. Funk is a 6-8 forward from Manheim Central High School (Pa.), who averaged 21.3 points per game as a junior. Longpre, a 6-10 forward, is originally from Canada but attends Glenelg Country School (Md.), where he averaged 12.7 points and 10.0 rebounds last year.

NBA HAWKS: Saint Joseph's is well-represented in the NBA with three current players. Last season's A-10 Player of the Year DeAndre' Bembry is in his first year in the league, having been drafted 21st overall by the Atlanta Hawks. Langston Galloway is in his second year in the NBA and is now with the New Orleans Pelicans after starting his career in 2014-15 with the New York Knicks. Jameer Nelson marks his 13th year in the NBA this season as a member of the Denver Nuggets.

CRADLE OF COACHES: The Saint Joseph's coaching connection is an impressive one. A total of seven Saint Joseph's graduates have gone on to become head coaches in the NBA, and SJU is tied with Illinois for second on the list of universities with alums that have served as NBA head coaches. Indiana tops the list with 11 graduates that have coached in the league. Jim O'Brien was the most recent NBA head coach, and his last year with the Indiana Pacers was in 2010-11. He has since returned to the NBA as an assistant coach with the Philadelphia 76ers. Below is the list of former Hawks who have held positions as NBA head coaches:

Player (Class)	NBA Teams	W-L (yrs.)
Jack Ramsay ('49)	Phila., Buf., Port., Ind.	864-783 (21)
Jim Lynam ('63)	L.A. Clippers, Phila., Wash.	328-392 (10)
Matt Guokas ('67)	Phila., Orlando	230-305 (7)
Paul Westhead ('61)	L.A. Lakers, Chicago, Denver	183-224 (6)
Jack McKinney ('57)	L.A. Lakers, Indiana	135-205 (5)
George Senesky ('43)	Philadelphia	119-97 (3)
Jim O'Brien ('74)	Indiana, Phila., Boston	303-327 (8)

KEEPING IT IN THE FAMILY: Phil Martelli's staff consists of three former Hawk players. Assistant coach Mark Bass, now in his 18th year, was a junior on Martelli's first team in 1995-96, and as a senior, helped the Hawks reach the NIT Final in 1997. Assistant coach Geoff Arnold played for the Hawks from 1982 to 1986, and was a member of the 1986 Atlantic 10 championship team. Arnold was a member of Martelli's coaching staff for one season in 1995-96, and then returned to Hawk Hill at the start of the 2008-09 season.

LOOKING AHEAD: The Hawks resume A-10 play on Jan. 24 at St. Bonaventure and then return home to host La Salle on Jan. 28.

THE HAWK

One of the most famous mascots in college sports, the Saint Joseph's Hawk celebrates its 60th anniversary in 2015-16.

The Hawk is best known for staying in constant motion by flapping its wings throughout every basketball game and representing the Saint Joseph's motto, "The Hawk Will Never Die".

The idea for the Hawk as a mascot was originated by Jim Brennan during the 1954-55 season. Brennan, an ex-Marine and SJU cheerleader, at first wanted to secure an actual hawk, but later switched to the costume idea. The student government raised the 120 dollars needed to buy the initial costume, which Brennan donned for three years. He made his debut as the Hawk on January 4, 1956, a 69-56 win over La Salle at the Palestra. The Hawk has not missed a men's basketball game since that first season.

In addition to the constant flapping, the Hawk is also recognized by its "flying" in figure eights around the court during timeouts. The constant motion, coupled with the scrappy play of the University's athletic teams, helped to spawn the school's familiar slogan "The Hawk Will Never Die!" A few years ago, ESPN used a "flap-o-meter" on the national telecast of a Saint Joseph's game to estimate that the Hawk flaps its wings 3,500 times during a regulation game.

The Hawk is unique because it is one of the few mascots in the nation that travels to every game, and the student who holds the position gains a tuition scholarship. The student, who is selected through an interview process during the previous spring semester, also serves as a team manager for the men's basketball team and travels with the squad.

Timmy Parks becomes the 37th student to wear the wings in 2015-16. He is a junior accounting major from Wilmington, Del.

Game 4: Paradise Jam - November 20, 2016 Univ. of Virgin Islands Arena - St. Thomas, USVI Ole Miss 81 - SJU 68

Ole Miss defeated Saint Joseph's, 81-68, in the semifinals of the 2016 Paradise Jam. Shavar Newkirk had 21 points and six assists for the Hawks, hitting 7-of-11 from the field and 6-of-10 from the foul line. Charlie Brown scored 13 points and Lamarr Kimble had 10 points and a team-high seven rebounds for SJU. The Hawks didn't help themselves at the foul line, shooting just 10-for-22 in the game, while Ole Miss shot 15-for-19. Leading 41-37 at halftime, Ole Miss opened the half with a 12-5 run to take its biggest lead at that point, 53-42, at 16:15. The Hawks chipped away and after a putback by Javon Baumann, and a layup and then a free throw by Kimble, cut the deficit to 54-49. But Ole Miss had an answer every time, as the Rebels built their lead back to 57-49. After falling behind by double digits again, 60-50, the Hawks cut it to eight, 60-52, on free throws by Newkirk, but that would be the closest SJU would come the rest of the way. Ole Miss went on a 13-5 run to take its biggest lead of the game, 73-57, with 5:23 remaining. In the first half, after SJU had a 10-8 lead, Ole Miss went on an 11-4 run to go up 17-12. SJU had an early 28-24 lead but the Rebels regained the lead 29-28 and increased it to 32-28. Trailing 35-30, the Hawks closed to 35-33 on a three by Nick Robinson. The Rebels then took their biggest lead of the half, 39-33, on a three with under four minutes to play. SJU closed within 39-37 on a three by Brown before Ole Miss ended the half with a basket at the buzzer.

Game 9: December 14, 2016 - Jadwin Gym - Princeton, N.J. SIU 76 - Princeton 68

Lamarr Kimble scored 17 points, grabbed a career-high eight rebounds, and added nine assists as Saint Joseph's came back from a late deficit to beat Princeton, 76-68, at Jadwin Gym. Shavar Newkirk scored a game-high 19 points - including 10-of-11 from the line - and pulled in a career-high eight boards of his own, while Charlie Brown scored 12 points. Markell Lodge added eight points and nine rebounds. SJU led most of the way, pushing a five-point halftime lead to its high-water mark of 11 just a minute into the second half after back-to-back three-pointers by Kimble and Brown. SJU led by 10, 59-49, with 10:41 to play before Princeton clawed back into the game. Steven Cook scored five points in eight seconds to cut the lead in half, and a Tiger three tied the game at 59 at 8:38. After a pair of free throws by Brendan Casper, another three gave the Tigers their first lead of the night, 62-61, with over six minutes to play. Both teams went nearly three minutes without a point before a pair of free throws at 3:58 put the Tigers up by three. It was all Saint Joseph's from there, as consecutive buckets from Newkirk and Brown ended a seven-minute field goal drought and put the Hawks ahead for good at 65-64 with three minutes to go. Nick Robinson came through with his only four points of the night with under a minute to go before Kimble and Newkirk put the game away at the free throw line. The Hawks totalled 58 rebounds in the game - the most since they had 50 at St. Bonaventure on January 14, 2009.

Game 12: December 30, 2016 - Hagan Arena SJU 68 - George Washington 63

Late three-pointers by Charlie Brown and Lamarr Kimble gave Saint Joseph's the lead for good as the Hawks rallied for a 68-63 win over George Washington in the Atlantic 10 opener. Trailing 63-61 with 2:45 to play, Brown hit one at 2:25 to give the Hawks a 64-63 lead. After consecutive stops on defense, Kimble hit a step-back three with two seconds left on the shot clock, to give SJU a 67-63 lead with 31.9 seconds to play. Nick Robinson picked up a steal on the next GW possession and grabbed a rebound on a Colonials' miss with :04 remaining. He hit 1-of-2 free throws at :03 to provide the final margin. Brown and Kimble each finished with 13 points for the Hawks, who rallied from a 12-point first-half deficit. The Hawks suffered a huge blow at the end of the first half when leading scorer Shavar Newkirk went down with a knee injury on a fast break attempt. Saint Joseph's just saw James Demery make his return to action after missing 10 games with a stress fracture in his foot. The Colonials took their biggest lead, 33-21, with 4:09 to play, but SJU closed out the half on an 8-2 run with four straight from Newkirk. It looked to be a 10-2 run but Newkirk was injured as he attempted that last shot. The Hawks kept the momentum of that run going at the start of the second half, scoring the first six points to close within 35-34. SJU forced the first of five ties of the half, 39-39, when Chris Clover connected on a three at 14:34. Saint Joseph's took its first lead of the game, 49-48, at 10:39 as Kimble converted a three-point play. The Hawks' biggest lead of the contest was the final margin.

Game 13: January 3, 2017 - Ryan Center - Kingston, R.I. Rhode Island 88 - SJU 58

Rhode Island made 16 three-point field goals as the Rams defeated Saint Joseph's, 88-58, at the Ryan Center. The contest was the first for SJU without leading scorer Shavar Newkirk, who suffered a season-ending knee injury in the win over GW. James Demery, who returned last week after a 10-game absence because of injury, led the Hawks with 17 points and eight rebounds. Charlie Brown scored 11 points and Markell Lodge notched his first game in double figures with 10 points. Rhode Island led in the early going, 16-9, but the Hawks went on a 7-0 run, tying the game on a dunk from Javon Baumann at 9:50. SJU took a brief 18-17 lead after a pair of free throws by Chris Clover, but it would be all Rhode Island the rest of the half, and the game. The Rams outscored Saint Joseph's, 29-8, over the final eight minutes of the period, raining down eight three pointers in that span, taking a 46-26 lead at the break. URI went 9-for-17 from three-point range in the first half, while SJU managed just 1-of-4 from beyond the arc. Saint Joseph's came within 18 points at the start of the second half, but that would be the smallest margin the rest of the way. The Rams kept it going, increasing its lead to 66-39 at 11:13. SJU made just 25 percent from three-point range (2-for-8) and hit 12-of-25 from the foul line while committing a season-high 17 turnovers.

Game 16: January 14, 2017 - Hagan Arena Richmond 70 - SJU 66

Saint Joseph's fought back from a 14-point halftime deficit but couldn't overcome Richmond, falling 70-66. Lamarr Kimble led Saint Joseph's in scoring with 17 points while freshman Nick Robinson recorded season-highs of 14 points and eight rebounds. Charlie Brown tallied 13 points, all coming in the second half. Saint Joseph's trailed 41-28 at the half, and by 18 points early in the second, but closed to 65-64 with 1:52 to play. The Hawks came up empty on the next two possessions and a pair of free throws with 28 seconds left put the Spiders up 67-64. After the Hawks failed to score on the next possession, Richmond converted two more free throws, but Chris Clover scored on a layup at :04 to pull SJU within, 69-66. With Clover intentionally missing the ensuing free throw, SJU couldn't control the rebound and Richmond got the ball back, as a free throw at :02 provided the final margin. Brown scored eight points in the first six minutes of the second half to help SJU cut the deficit to 48-40. Kimble hit a jumper to bring SJU within 48-42 and then a three-pointer by Robinson at 12:23 cut the Richmond lead to 51-47. Consecutive jumpers helped the Spiders increase their margin to nine, 63-54, but the Hawks went on a 7-0 run, ending in a dunk by Javon Baumann to cut the deficit to 63-61 at 3:15.
