FRANKLYN SETS SINGLE-GAME REBOUNTING RECORD

Saint Joseph's junior forward Adashia Franklyn set a new single-game rebounding record for the Hawks at Richmond as she tallied 25 boards. She passed the previous mark of 21 rebounds set by Chatilla van Grinsven, Dale Hodges and Trish Brown and set a new Big 5 record for rebounds in a game. Franklyn, who was named Big 5 Player of the Week for her effort, currently has the second most rebounds in all Division I this year.

FROM DEEP STRUGGLES TO AMONG A-10 LEADERS

Saint Joseph's is coming off one of its down years from behind the arc as it finished the season just 116-of-374 for 31 percent. The percentage was the lowest for a Hawk team since 2004-05 when they shot just 29.6 percent from the perimeter. This year, SJU has bounced back and is hitting 35.1 percent (113-of-322) to rank third in the Atlantic 10.

WOODS' DOUBLE VISION

Junior guard/forward Chelsea Woods has been the Hawks' most consistent player on the offensive end as she has scored in double figures in the first eight straight games. Her run, which was snapped against NJIT, was the longest SJU run since Michelle Baker's nine game run of double digits to start the 2010-11 season. Woods bounced back versus Drexel the next game with 14 points and currently has notched double digits in 17 contests this year.

HAWKS AMONG TOP HELPERS IN A-10

Averaging 14.2 assists per game, Saint Joseph's has proven to be one of the most unselfish teams in the Atlantic 10 this season. The Hawks currently ranks third in the conference in assists, with three players (Alyssa Monaghan, Mackenzie Rule and Chelsea Woods) averaging 2.0 assists per game or better.

HAWK HILL ADVANTAGE

Saint Joseph's has always had a reputation of playing well at home. Over 43 seasons, the Hawks have boasted a 421-158 mark at Hawk Hill, including a 81-37 record at Hagan Arena. This year, SJU has won five straight at home and are 6-5 at Hagan Arena after starting the season 1-5.

HAWKS ON THE AIR

The Saint Joseph's Sports Network (SJSN) marks its 271th year of operation in 2016-17, as the first broadcasts of men's and women's basketball games took place in the fall of 1990. The first women's game aired on WCZN-AM on November 23rd as the Hawks hosted Oregon. The 1990-91 season also marked the first in school history in which every SJU men's game aired on Philadelphia-area commercial radio.

Since its beginnings in 1990, SJSN's coverage of Hawk athletics has grown and included Saint Joseph's women's basketball television show Courtside, Phil Martelli's HawkTalk radio program and the nationally-renowned HawkTalk television show, which ran for 15 years.

Hawk fans everywhere will be able to hear the broadcast of every game through audio streaming at the Hawks' official athletics site, SJUHawks.com, which is provided free of charge. Fans can also take those broadcasts on-the-go, with the SJUHawks app for mobile devices.

RULE MAKES MOST OF START

Senior Mackenzie Rule made her first career starts at Penn, and has been a staple since. Finishing with four points in a win over the Quakers, Rule has gone on to average 2.3 points, 2.0 rebounds and 2.3 assists per contest. On the year, she has tallied more points, rebounds, assists, steals and minutes than the previous three years combined

	2013-16	2016-17
Points	40	44
Rebounds	22	37
Assists	16	55
Steals	9	17
Minutes	270	517

HAWKS' TOUGH NON-CONFERENCE SLATE

As is the standard for Saint Joseph's scheduling, facing strong opponents is the norm and 2016-17 is no different. This season, the Hawks played 11 games against opponents that made a postseason tournament last year. With the Atlantic 10 schedule, SJU will play 16 games versus teams that were in postseason tournaments last year.

HAWKS PICKED EIGHTH IN ATLANTIC 10 PRESEASON POLL

Saint Joseph's was picked to finish eighth in the Atlantic 10 race, according to a poll of the conference's head coaches. Returning two starters and 11 letterwinners overall from last year's, the Hawks garnered 94 points in the A-10 Preseason Poll. Receiving nine first place votes, Saint Louis was picked to finish first in the conference standings with 191 points. Dayton and Duquesne were tied for second with 166 points, while the Dukes received three first place votes. Reigning A-10 champion George Washington garnered two first place votes and was picked to finish fourth with 157 points, followed by VCU (148) fifth, Fordham (117) sixth, Richmond (108) seventh and the Hawks eighth. Rhode Island was picked to finish ninth with 78 points, followed by St. Bonaventure (68), George Mason (64), La Salle (49), Davidson (42) and Massachusetts (22), respectively.

GRIFFIN IN 16TH SEASON AT ALMA MATER

Saint Joseph's Cindy Griffin is in her 16th season as head coach of her alma mater. The all-time leader in wins at Hawk Hill, she enters Wednesday with a 282-210 record, and passed Women's Basketball Hall of Famer Jim Foster for career wins last year in a 58-54 victory over Villanova last season. During her tenure, the Hawks have had 10 postseason bids and 16 Atlantic 10 All-Conference honorees.

WOODS AND FRANKLYN CLIMBING IN RECORD BOOKS

Junior Chelsea Woods enters Sunday in 21st place all-time in career rebounds (485), just six behind Audrey Codner '94 in 21st (481). Likewise, classmate Adashia Franklyn is in seventh place for all-time leaders in blocked shots with 86, just six rejections behind Erica Pollock '07 (92) in sixth place.

SJU IN THE NATIONAL SPOTLIGHT

Sunday is the the second of two nationally televised games for the Hawks. Along with Sunday's matchup with Saint Louis on CBS Sports Network, last Sunday's game against the Bonnies on the American Sports Network.

VEILLEUX BACK IN ACTION

Sophomore guard/forward Sarah Veilleux returned to the Hawks' lineup versus VCU. Playing 14 minutes versus the Rams after missing the previous three contests, Veilleux finished with nine points, three rebounds and two assists. She followed with a perfect 7-of-7 shooting performance at La Salle, posting a game-high 18 points.

OPPORTUNITIES ON OFFENSE

The Hawks will be looking for players to step forward this season and fill bigger roles on the offensive end. With the roster transitions during the offseason, SJU lost 50.3 percent of its scoring (917 points of 1,822 total points). Through 19 contests, the Hawks have had four players score in double figures seven times, an occurrence that happened only seven times last season, with three players scoring in double figures in 16 of 22 contests. Additionally, six different Hawks have led the team in scoring in games.

81 AND COUNTING

One certainty the past three years for Saint Joseph's has been junior forward Adashia Franklyn earning playing time. The Hawks' co-captain has appeared in every game for SJU, 81 straight, dating back to the her freshman debut at Rutgers on November 14, 2014.

WOODS NAMED TO A-10 PRESEASON ALL-CONFERENCE TEAM

The Hawks' returning scoring leader, junior guard/forward Chelsea Woods was recognized as one of the top players in the Atlantic 10 this season as she was named to the A-10's Preseason All-Conference Third Team. Woods is coming off a break-through seasons in which she averaged career-highs in scoring (9.6 ppg) and rebounding (6.9 rpg). This season, Woods has picked up where she left off, averaging a team-best 13.8 points per game to rank 11th in the A-10.

HAWKS AMONG A-10 ATTENDANCE LEADERS

Saint Joseph's continues to be one of the top draws in the Atlantic 10. Averaging 1,351 fans per home game in 2015-16, the Hawks ranked third in the conference in attendance and currently rank third among the A-10 leaders at 1,2146 fans per home game. SJU is had 1,342 fans at its 70-53 victory over St. Bonaventure last Sunday.

BLACK NAMED TO A-10 LEGENDS CLASS OF 2017

Former Saint Joseph's basketball standout Debbie Black '88 has been named to represent the Hawks in the 2017 Atlantic 10 Legends Class.

Arguably one of the top all-around athletes in the history of Saint Joseph's University, Black helped the Hawks to four consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances from 1985-88. A scrappy fireplug on the hardwood, Black led the Hawks to the first round of the NCAA Tournament in 1985, the second round of the NCAA Tournament in 1986, 1987 and 1988 and captured three Big 5 crowns. Highly decorated during her Hawk career, she was named an Atlantic 10 All-Conference selection three times, earned Atlantic 10 All-Rookie accolades as a freshman, selected to the Atlantic 10 All-Tournament Team twice and was a three-time All-Big 5 honoree, capturing MVP honors as a senior. The first player in Saint Joseph's history to capture All-District honors, she led the nation in steals in 1985-86 (153) and remains the Hawks' all-time leader with 572.

In addition to her accomplishments on Hawk Hill, Black competed for the East Squad at the 1986 U.S. Olympic Festival and won the gold medal at the 1985 R. William Jones Cup as a member of the U.S. Select team. She went on to have a highly successful professional career playing in Australia, the American Basketball League and the WNBA. Black was enshrined in the Saint Joseph's Basketball Hall of Fame in 1994, the Philadelphia Big 5 Hall of Fame in 1995, the Saint Joseph's Athletics Hall of Fame in 2000 and the Philadelphia Sports Hall of Fame in 2012. A native of Philadelphia, Black currently is in her fourth season as head coach at Eastern Illinois University.

FRANKLYN'S STRONG CAMPAIGN

Junior Adashia Franklyn has been arguably SJU's more consistent player, averaging a career-best 12.4 points and 8.3 rebounds per game, while scoring in double figures a team-best 17 times. Averaging 11.2 rebounds per game in conference games, Franklyn's previous career-highs were 4.3 points per game last year and 4.3 rebounds per game as a rookie.

GARNER ADDING DEPTH AT GUARD

Senior guard Jaryn Garner scored four points in her Saint Joseph's debut versus Temple and has kept making an impact hitting the game-winning jumper versus Duquesne.

NEW-LOOK A-10 CHAMPIONSHIP

The 2017 A-10 Championship will feature a new, enhanced format, with six first-round games being played on campus sites before heading to Richmond, Friday through Sunday, for the quarterfinals, semifinals and championship final games.

FISHER TO SIT OUT 2016-17 SEASON

Transferring to Saint Joseph's this season is sophomore forward Whisper Fisher. Coming to the Hawks after spending last year with Loyola Chicago, Fisher will sit out the 2016-17 season per NCAA transfer rules.

MARZ BACK IN ACTION

Redshirt guard Avery Marz will make her SJU debut this season after missing the past two years recovering from a stroke she suffered on moving-in day in 2014.

FAIRBANKS AND ANDREWS PURSUE PRO CAREERS

Recent Saint Joseph's graduates Sarah Fairbanks '16 and Ciara Andrews '16 are continuing their basketball careers in professional leagues this year. One of just two Hawks to ever record 1,000 career points, 500 rebounds and 100 blocked shots, Fairbanks is playing for Dublin City University.

WHY S-A-I-N-T JOSEPHS UNIVERSITY?

The corporate title of "Saint" Joseph's University, which has been in place since Saint Joseph's was granted university status by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in 1979, is now the "public" title of the institution for all aspects of its operations.

UP NEXT

Saint Joseph's remains on the road as it heads to Fordham on Thursday. Game time is set for 7 p.m. at Rose Hill Gym.

HAWKS INK JEKOT AND SHEEHAN TO NLIS

Saint Joseph's head coach Cindy Griffin announced this week that guard Katie Jekot (Enola, Pa./Cumberland Valley) and Mary Sheehan (Drexel Hill, Pa./Cardinal O'Hara) have signed National Letters of Intent to attend Saint Joseph's University next year.

A four-year letterwinner, Jekot entered her senior season having guided Cumberland Valley to three straight PIAA-AAAA State titles. A two-time Patriot News First Team All-Conference selection, the 5-foot-9 guard was named a finalist for Miss Pennsylvania Basketball as a junior after averaging 10.5 points, 5.3 assists and 2.8 steals per game.

Averaging 13.0 points and 9.0 rebounds per game as a junior, Sheehan led Cardinal O'Hara to the 2015-16 District 12 title and the PIAA-AAAA finals. Named MVP of both the 2015-16 Blue Chip Super Showcase and Play by Play Classic Showcase, the 5-foot-11 guard has twice garnered All-State, First Team All-Catholic and First Team All-DelCo honors.

Additionally, Jekot and Sheehan will be reunited as teammates at Saint Joseph's as the duo previously led the Comets AAU to Orlando Super Showcase titles in 2014 and 2015, as well as the Boo Williams Nike championship in 2015.

Saint Joseph's will lose seniors Amanda Fioravanti, Jaryn Garner, Jazmin Horne and Mackenzie Rule to graduation in May.

MEDIA INFORMATION

MEDIA CREDENTIALS

Credentials for media covering Saint Joseph's at Hagan Arena in 2016-17 should be made at least 24 hours in advance by contacting Jack Jumper.

Priority is given to daily newspapers, radio/TV stations and other media who cover Saint Joseph's and its opponents on a regular basis. Internet sites and agencies that will be considered for credentials include those of national cable networks or established publications. Internet sites representing local or regional media outlets will be provided credentials on a space-available basis. Websites that sponsor "message boards" or "chat rooms" where people are able to post anonymous information are ineligible for consideration of credentials. Credentials will only be issued to those 18 years of age and older.

PHOTO CREDENTIALS

All photographers attending Saint Joseph's home basketball games must be credentialed. Requests for credentials should be made in at least 24 hours in advance to Jack Jumper. Due to space demands, access to freelance photographers is limited.

SCOUT CREDENTIALS

Credentials for WNBA scouts must be requested in advance of the game by contacting Jack Jumper.

RADIO POLICY

Radio stations designated as the primary visiting outlet can have access to phone lines at a cost of $100 per line per game. ($200 for ISDN), unless a reciprocal usage agreement exists. Visiting radio stations wishing to broadcast the game should contact Jack Jumper at (610) 660-3389 or by email (jjumper@sju.edu) to arrange phone lines.

INTERVIEWS

All requests for interviews with Cindy Griffin and the Saint Joseph's student-athletes must be arranged through Jack Jumper. Advance notice of at least 24 hours is preferred, but every attempt will be made to accommodate all requests. Players will not be available for interviews on game day, except for post-game interviews.

PRESS ROW

Only accredited members of the media and accredited scouts will be issued credentials to cover Saint Joseph's basketball, and only those with passes will be permitted to sit in press seating. Members of the media are reminded that press row is a working area and cheering for either team will not be tolerated.

MEDIA SERVICES

Saint Joseph's and opponent's game notes, statistics, Atlantic 10 Conference notes and game programs will be available to working members of the media. Halftime statistics will be available in the media room at Hagan Arena and will also be distributed on press row. Final statistics will be distributed in the media room following completion of the game. Fax service is available at both locations.

Complete Saint Joseph's game notes will be available 24 hours prior to the game on SJUHawks.com.

MEDIA PARKING

Media parking is available at the ROTC Lot on 54th Street behind Hagan Arena. Media members desiring to be on the parking list must contact Jack Jumper at least 24 hours in advance of the game.

POST-GAME

Saint Joseph's head coach Cindy Griffin will be available in the interview room following a post-game cooling off period. The Saint Joseph's locker room is not open to the media.

THE HAWK

One of the most famous mascots in college sports, the Saint Joseph's Hawk celebrates its 61st anniversary in 2016-17. The Hawk is best known for staying in constant motion by flapping its wings throughout every basketball game and representing the Saint Joseph's motto, "The Hawk Will Never Die."

Jim Brennan originated the idea for a hawk as mascot during the 1954-55 season. Brennan, an ex-Marine and SJU cheerleader, at first wanted to secure an actual hawk, but later switched to the costume idea. The student government raised the 120 dollars needed to buy the initial costume, which Brennan donned for three years. He made his debut as the Hawk on January 4, 1956, a 69-56 win over La Salle at the Palestra. Since then, and including this season, a total of 31 SJU students have donned the costume. The Hawk has not missed a men's basketball game since that first season in 1955-56. The Hawk, who was present at most women's basketball games, became a mainstay in 1989. Since then, 15 SJU students have donned the costume.

In addition to the constant flapping, the Hawk is also recognized by its "flying" in figure eights around the court during timeouts. Years ago, ESPN used a "flap-o-meter" on the national telecast of a Saint Joseph's game to estimate that the Hawk flaps its wings 3,500 times during a regulation game.

The Hawk is unique because it is one of the few mascots in the nation that travels to every game, and the student who holds the position gains a tuition scholarship. The student, who is selected through an interview process during the previous spring semester, also serves as a team manager for the men's basketball team and travels with the squad.

The most decorated mascot in the country, The Hawk has garnered numerous accolades in its 59-year history. In 2013-14, NCAA.com named The Hawk as "College Basketball's Best Tradition". The Sporting News, Sports Illustrated, Sports Illustrated for Kids, Street & Smith's Basketball Yearbook and ESPN College Basketball magazine have selected it as the nation's top mascot. Eastern Basketball tabbed The Hawk as the Atlantic 10 Conference's best mascot, while The Hawk won a "Best of Philly" award from Philadelphia Magazine in 2003-04. The Hawk was selected as a 2008 nominee for the Mascot Hall of Fame.

Saint Joseph's athletic teams have been recognized with the nickname "Hawks" since 1929. At that time, the school's yearbook editor, Charlie Dunn, initiated a contest among the student body for a symbol. More than 100 submissions were narrowed to two, with "Hawks" winning out over "Grenadiers" (World War I soldiers who specialized in tossing grenades) by a slim margin in the final vote.

John Gallagher '31, a catcher on the Saint Joseph's baseball team, submitted the winning suggestion. He won a sweater with a special Saint Joseph's monogram for selecting the winning name. According to the Student Annual, the nickname was appropriate because it typified "the fighting spirit of our crimson and gray athletes and it is suggestive of the aerial attack which has made our football team famous." Ironically, football was discontinued at Saint Joseph's following the 1939 season.

But it has been the connection with the storied tradition of the Saint Joseph's men's and women's basketball programs that has given The Hawk mascot its prominence on the national level, making it one of the most recognized mascots in college athletics

Cindy Griffin - Head Coach

Saint Joseph's '91, MBA '93 - 16th Season

The all-time leader in wins at Saint Joseph's, Cindy Griffin enters her 16th season as head coach of the Hawks. A 1991 and 1993 graduate of SJU, Griffin (nee Anderson) has compiled an overall record of 331-243 in 19 seasons as a head coach, and a 283-210 record in 16 years at Hawk Hill that has included 10 postseason appearances.

The eighth coach in NCAA Division I history to lead her alma mater to the NCAA Tournament as a player and a coach, Griffin's squads have posted six 20-win seasons and six victories over nationally-ranked teams, while her players have been honored as Atlantic 10 All-Conference performers 17 times and 14 have gone on to play professionally.

Behind a pair of 1,000-point scorers in seniors Sarah Fairbanks and Ciara Andrews in 2015-16, Saint Joseph's finished tied for sixth in the A-10 behind a strong finish to the regular season. Finishing among the attendance leaders in the conference, the Hawks added to their mantle as they claimed the Hawk Classic title. Additionally, Fairbanks was named the Big 5's Scholar-Athlete, while sophomore Chelsea Woods was selected the Big 5's Most Improved Player.

Backed by First Team All-Big 5 selection Natasha Cloud, the Hawks earned a share of the Big 5 title in 2014-15. Cloud, who garnered A-10 All-Conference First Team and All-Defensive Team accolades, also became just the third SJU player to be selected in the WNBA Draft as she was picked by the Washington Mystics in the second round in April of 2015.

Following up their A-10 Championship the season prior, the 2013-14 Hawks continued to prove themselves as one of the top programs nationally as they earned an at-large bid to the NCAA Tournament and advanced to the Second Round for just the seventh time in team history. Led by Erin Shields and Cloud, Saint Joseph's earned its fifth straight postseason bid and claimed its first outright Philadelphia Big 5 title since 2000-01.

Under Griffin's leadership, Saint Joseph's posted one of its most memorable seasons in team history in 2012-13 as the Hawks claimed the Atlantic 10 Championship for just the third time and earned the automatic NCAA Tournament bid. Led by a senior class that had advanced to the postseason every year, the Hawks finished with a 23-9 record that included wins over #5 Maryland and #11 Dayton.

In addition to the team's success, a trio of Hawks were singled out for their performances, led by NCAA Woman of the Year nominee Chatilla van Grinsven. With Griffin's guidance, van Grinsven turned in one of the more dominant seasons in recent SJU history, becoming just the fifth player in SJU history to average a double-double for the year en route to being named to the A-10 All-Conference First Team and the Big 5 Player of the Year. The duo of backcourt mates Shields and Cloud helped propel SJU to new heights, with Shields garnering A-10 and Big 5 Most Improved Player honors and I-AAA distinction, while Cloud was named the Most Outstanding Player of the 2013 A-10 Championship.

Backed by a veteran-laden team in 2011-12, the Hawks earned their third-straight WNIT berth and posted their most wins (22) since the 2003-04 season. Moving into second place in career victories at her alma mater, Griffin picked up her 200th win as the Hawks topped Boston University in the opening game of the WNIT on March 15, 2012. Leading the Hawks to a 15-4 mark at home, she helped Saint Joseph's become one of the more efficient teams in the nation, ranking fourth in fewest turnovers per game (12.5), 26th in three-point percentage (.348) and 39th in field goal percentage (.423).

Individually, senior Michelle Baker and Kelly Cavallo had breakout years, both garnering All-Big 5 honors. Behind Griffin's teaching, Baker went on to be named to the A-10 All-Conference Second Team and capped her career as SJU's then all-time leader in games played (127) while ranking in the top 20 for scoring and field goals made. After seeing limited time as a freshman, Cavallo developed into one of the top post players in the A-10, leading SJU and finishing in the top five of the conference in rebounding, blocked shots and field goal percentage. With Griffin's aid, Cavallo finished her career second all-time in blocks and 11th in rebounding at SJU.

Returning just one starter for the 2010-11 season, the Hawks quickly jelled under Griffin's guidance as they went on to win 20 games, earned the program's 700th victory, and advanced to the second round of the WNIT. Led by All-Big 5 honorees Baker and Katie Kuester, Saint Joseph's had its most efficient offensive showing since 2002-03, as the Hawks finished 60th in the nation in field goal percentage (42.1). Additionally, several Hawks were honored for outstanding seasons in 2010-11, headlined by sophomore Ashley Prim becoming the first SJU player to be named Atlantic 10 Sixth Player of the Year. Baker became just the second Hawk to be named to the A-10 All-Defensive Team, while freshman Erin Shields became the sixth player Griffin has coached to A-10 All-Rookie Team honors.

Earning a postseason berth for the first time in two years, the Hawks surpassed predictions in 2009-10 as they finished tied for fourth in the Atlantic 10 after being picked to finish ninth. After opening the season with a 3-7 mark, Griffin saw her team begin to click at the end of the non-conference schedule as SJU claimed the 19th Annual Hawk Classic title and worked its way to .500 by the second week of the Atlantic 10 slate. Posting a 9-5 mark against conference opponents, Griffin hit two milestones during A-10 play, earning her 150th win at Saint Joseph's in a victory against Dayton and earning her 200th coaching win against George Washington. The Hawks would go on to earn the program's seventh WNIT bid, and play the first postseason game at Hagan Arena.

In 2008-09, Griffin undertook arguably her toughest season to date as Saint Joseph's played every contest away from Hawk Hill for the first time in program history. And in typical SJU fashion, Griffin got her team to respond as Saint Joseph's went on to post an 8-5 record at home venues and earn its first Big 5 title since 2000-01. Individually five Hawks posted career bests in scoring, with Brittany Ford and Mariame Djouara both earning All-Big 5 Second Team honors.

Relying heavily on underclassmen in 2007-08, Griffin guided her Hawks to another winning season, including crowns at the Brown Basketball Classic and the Hilton Philadelphia Hawk Classic. Among the wins, Saint Joseph's posted its biggest win over a non-conference ranked opponent since the 1984-85, topping #15 Auburn for the Hawk Classic title.

Despite losing several experienced players prior to the 2006-07 season, Griffin had her team peaking at the right time. Playing Griffin's style of hard-nosed defense and persistent offense, the Hawks advanced to the Atlantic 10 Championship game, including the program's first win over a top 10 opponent (#8 George Washington) since 1992 along the way. Saint Joseph's capped the season with its fifth WNIT appearance in six years and tied the SJU record for games played in a season with 33.

Fueled by a collection of newcomers and a developed core of upperclassmen, Griffin led the Hawks back to national prominence in 2005-06. The Crimmon and Gray engineered the nation's best turnaround (13 games) and received votes in the national polls for the first time since 2003-04. The Hawks advanced to the semifinals of the A-10 Championship and earned a berth in the WNIT.

With the loss of four 1,000-point scorers, the 2004-05 Hawks showed their true colors down the stretch, earning a hard-fought victory over La Salle in the opening round of the Atlantic 10 Championship and coming within 10 points of 16th-ranked, and eventual A-10 Champion, Temple.

Led by six seniors, the 2004 team went 22-11 and advanced to the WNIT Elite Eight. Saint Joseph's finished second in the A-10 East and dropped a heartbreaker in the Atlantic 10 Championship to Temple. Four Hawk seniors reached the 1,000-point plateau, marking just the eighth time in NCAA history that a quartet of players had reached the milestone in the same season. Erin Brady, Irina Krasnoshiok, Stephanie (Graff) McCaffrey and Amra Mehmedic went on to sign professional contracts.

Following a memorable first year at the helm of her alma mater, Griffin upped the ante in her second season by capturing 2003 Atlantic 10 Coach of the Year honors after guiding the Hawks to a 19-11 record. The team sprinted to the conference's Eastern Division title and earned a berth in the WNIT for the second straight season, despite the departure of SJU's all-time leading scorer and a non-conference schedule that ranked fourth nationally.

Griffin helped to reinvigorate the SJU program in her first season, leading the squad to a 24-8 record and the second round of the WNIT. She capitalized on the team's tradition of scrappy play and rugged defense, while releasing the reins and allowing the team to play a more up-tempo style on the offensive end of the floor. The Hawks finished the year among the national leaders in nine different categories and paced the nation in free throw percentage for the second straight year.

Following her playing career, Griffin spent the 1992-93 season as a graduate assistant at her alma mater. She then accepted an assistant's spot at Vanderbilt University from 1993-95 under former Saint Joseph's head coach Jim Foster. Foster recruited Griffin to SJU and coached her during her playing career on Hawk Hill.

In her two years as an assistant at Vanderbilt, the Commodores finished 53-15 overall, won the 1995 SEC championship and reached the NCAA Sweet 16 both seasons. In addition to coaching responsibilities, she was the co-director of the Vanderbilt Basketball Camp and the director of the Black & Gold Club.

Griffin left Vanderbilt after the 1995 season to become an assistant coach at Loyola Maryland. She spent three seasons as an assistant under Patty Coyle before being promoted to associate head coach in 1998. Griffin was promoted to the position of head women's basketball coach at Loyola Maryland midway through the 1998-99 season. She was the seventh-youngest head coach in Division I at the time. Griffin – who was named head coach five games into the season as Coyle left for an assistant coach position with the WNBA's New York Liberty – kept the Greyhounds' momentum going as Loyola Maryland won a team-record 21 games that year. Overall she compiled a record of 48-33 during her tenure at the Baltimore school, guiding the squad to the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference semifinals all three years.

One of the top playmakers in Saint Joseph's history, Griffin starred for the Hawks from 1987-88 through 1991-92 (missing the 1988-89 season due to injury). A three-time team captain, Griffin finished her career with 662 points, 278 rebounds, 510 assists and 197 steals. She currently ranks fourth on SJU's all-time assist list.

As a junior in 1990-91, she played in 1,178 out of a possible 1,200 minutes to set the school record for minutes played in a single season. The Hawks made three NCAA Tournament appearances and posted three straight 20-win seasons during her playing career. A two-time Second Team All-Big 5 choice, as well as a Third Team All-Atlantic 10 pick as a senior, she was inducted into the Saint Joseph's Women's Basketball Hall of Fame in 1998.

A native of Maple Glen, Pa., Griffin played her high school basketball for Bishop McDevitt, winning two Philadelphia Catholic League titles. A 1987 graduate of McDevitt, she was inducted into its Athletic Hall of Fame in 1997, and in 2002, received the Philadelphia Catholic League's alumni achievement award. She earned a bachelor's degree in accounting from Saint Joseph's in 1991 and completed her M.B.A. from SJU in 1993. She resides in Conshohocken, Pa., with her husband, Curtis, and children, Kaylie, Hannah and Curtis Jr.

Game 1 • November 11, 2016 • Hagan Arena Temple - 86, Saint Joseph's - 70

Game 2 • November 13, 2016 • Hagan Arena Bucknell - 64, Saint Joseph's - 61

Saint Joseph's fell to Big 5 rival Temple, 86-70, at Hagan Arena in a season-opening matchup. Sophomore guard Alyssa Monaghan led four Hawks in double figures with 15 points.

Saint Joseph's junior Adashia Franklyn had a career-high 18 points, but the Hawks fell to Bucknell, 64-61, at Hagan Arena.

The Hawks jumped out to an early lead as newcomer Jaryn Garner opened the scoring and senior classmate Amanda Fioravanti converted a three-point play to make it 5-2 in favor of the hosts.

Leading by as many as 15 points in the first half, Saint Joseph's saw its lead chipped away by the Bison. Down 59-58 with under 90 seconds, Bucknell used a 6-2 run to end the game and earn the win.

Temple answered as the veteran squad put together a 17-4 run over a five minute span to take a 19-9 advantage on a steal and layup by Feynonda Fitzgerald with 2:43 to go in the quarter.

Junior guard/forward Chelsea Woods put the Hawks ahead 59-57 with 1:40 to play, but Claire DeBoer, Sune Swart and Kyi English combined to go 5-of-6 from the foul line over the next 1:23 to give Bucknell its biggest lead, 62-59.

Behind gritty play at both ends of the court, Saint Joseph's cut the Owls lead to 25-20 early in the second quarter on pair of free throws from junior Adashia Franklyn.

Woods cut the deficit to one, 62-61, with six seconds to go, but Kaitlyn Slagus buried a pair of free throws and the Bison's defense thwarted a game-tying three-pointer opportunity by the Hawks in the final seconds.

Using a 10-2 run, Temple countered to open a 35-22 lead and eventually pushed its lead to 50-35 at halftime.

Saint Joseph's would get no closer in the second half, despite outscoring the Owls 21-15 in the fourth quarter and holding them to just 3-of-15 shooting in the period.

2016-17 SAINT JOSEPH'S BASKETBALL NOTES - PAGE 26

Game 3 • November 16, 2016 • Hynes Center Iona - 58, Saint Joseph's - 57

Game 4 • November 22, 2016 • The Palestra Penn - 58, Saint Joseph's - 57

Battling back from a 21-point deficit to start the fourth quarter, aint Joseph's rally came up just short as the Hawks fell, 58-57, at Iona.

Saint Joseph's held off a late charge from Big 5 rival Penn to earn a 57-53 victory at the Palestra.

Down 48-27 to start the final period, the Hawks furiously fought back and had a chance to tie in their final possession as Alyssa Monaghan was fouled as she made a three-pointer with 2.6 seconds to bring the Hawks to within one, 58-57.

Leading by eight with under 90 seconds to play, the Hawks saw their lead chipped away as the Quakers used a 9-3 run to make it a 53-51 game with 35 seconds to play.

On the ensuing free throw, Monaghan's shot rolled in and out as Iona's Alexis Lewis secured the rebound. But the final seconds would be reviewed as the referees appeared to make a delayed call. After meeting, the referees confirmed the buzzer had sounded to end the game.

Following a made free throw by Penn, SJU's Amanda Fioravanti was fouled and calmly made a pair of free throws to push the lead to 55-51.

Iona jumped out to a 10-2 lead and controlled the pace for the opening 30 minutes as the Hawks struggled to connect from the field. The Gaels built up a 48-27 lead after three quarters as they shot 19-of-45 (42.2 percent), while holding SJU to just 11-of-44.

Off a missed jumper, Penn's Anna Ross was fouled on the rebound and connected on a pair for free throws to bring her team back to within two points.

Staying aggressive in the final 10 minutes, Saint Joseph's hit 9-of-19 from the floor, including four three-pointers, in the final quarter and limited Iona to just 3-of-6 shooting, leading to the thrilling final moments.

Saint Joseph's Jaryn Garner would hit a pair of clutch free throws with 13 seconds to play, while Hawks' defense sealed the victory as it suffocated the Quakers in the final moments.

2016-17 SAINT JOSEPH'S BASKETBALL NOTES - PAGE 27

Game 5 • November 25, 2016 • The Pit BYU - 71, Saint Joseph's - 56

Game 6 • November 26, 2016 • The Pit Saint Joseph's - 79, New Mexico - 67

In a game of runs, it was BYU who had the most critical one as the Cougars used a 24-4 run that spanned the final two quarters en route to topping Saint Joseph's, 71-56, in the opening game of the University of New Mexico Thanksgiving Tournament.

After falling down by 17 in the third period, the Hawks battled back to take their first lead of the game in the quarter's final minute. Trailing 40-23, Saint Joseph's went on a 24-6 run over a seven minute period as Jaryn Garner gave her team a 47-46 advantage on a jumper in the paint with 36 seconds to go in the quarter.

Despite seeing their lead evaporate, BYU calmly responded as Cassie Broadhead closed out the period with a pair of free throws and helped start a 24-4 run that saw the Cougars open a 70-51 lead with just over two minutes to play.

The Hawks, who shot 10-of-17 in the third quarter, were held to just 2-of-11 from the floor in the fourth, while BYU knocked down 8-of-12 to advance to the tournament's title game.

Led by Chelsea Woods' career-high 24 points, Saint Joseph's topped host New Mexico, 79-67, in the consolation game of the University of New Mexico Thanksgiving Tournament.

Woods, who was named to the All-Tournament Team, finished with a 24-point, 10-rebound double-double as she went 9-of-12 from the field and 6-of-6 from the foul line.

Down by 17 early and 11 at the half, Saint Joseph's took momentum out of the halftime lockerroom and never looked back.

Using a 16-4 run to start the third quarter, the Hawks erased an 11-point deficit to take their first lead of the game, 44-43, on a floater by Alyssa Monaghan with 5:22 to go in the period.

New Mexico fought back with a 6-0 run to take a 49-44 lead just a minute later, but Saint Joseph's ended the quarter on a 10-0 spurt as Woods scored four of her game-high 24 points in the final moments.

Saint Joseph's saw its lead cut to three three times, but would not allow the Lobos to get any closer. Ahead 61-58, the Hawks used a 12-1 run midway through the final quarter to help seal the victory.

2016-17 SAINT JOSEPH'S BASKETBALL NOTES - PAGE 28

Game 7 • December 3, 2016 • Hagan Arena Villanova - 62, Saint Joseph's - 54

Game 8 • December 9, 2016 • McGuirk Arena Central Michigan - 73, Saint Joseph's - 71 OT

A 7-0 run by Villanova midway through the fourth quarter proved to be the difference as Saint Joseph's fell to the Wildcats, 62-54, in a Big 5 matchup at Hagan Arena.

In a back-and-forth contest that had 14 lead changes and 12 ties, the Hawks and Wildcats entered the fourth quarter knotted at 42-42.

Villanova opened a 51-48 advantage with 6:17 to play, but SJU's Chelsea Woods brought her team within one on a jumper with 4:27 to play.

That would be as close as the Hawks would come though as Villanova used a 7-0 run over the next 3:55 to take a 58-50 lead on a free throw by Kelly Jekot with 32 seconds to go.

Central Michigan's Presley Hudson hit a driving layup at the over-time buzzer to lift the Chippewas past the Saint Joseph's 73-71.

Ahead by 12 with just under four minutes to play, the Hawks saw their lead erased as Hudson knocked down a three-pointer with 2.0 seconds to go to tie the game at 63 all.

In the overtime session, Central Michigan clung to a 70-69 lead with 19 seconds to play and Amani Corley at the foul line. After missing the first shot, Corley's second shot bounced off the rim into the corner as SJU's Chelsea Woods reached for the rebound, while being pursued by the Chippewas' Reyna Frost. Inexplicably, the far-side referee blew the whistle as Woods gathered the ball, and after meeting, the referees gave the ball on the alternate possession back to Central Michigan.

Fouled off the inbound, Frost would make one of two free throws to push the lead to 71-69.

Out of a timeout, the Hawks' Woods was fouled on a layup and went to the foul line. Woods, who would have put her team ahead by one, made both free throws to tie the game at 71 apiece.

Presley would come through though for CMU in the final moments though, driving down the left side through traffic and hitting a floater off glass as the buzzer sounded to hand the Chippewas the game.

2016-17 SAINT JOSEPH'S BASKETBALL NOTES - PAGE 29

Game 9 • December 13, 2016 • Hagan Arena Saint Joseph's - 75, NJIT - 36

Led by a career-high 19 points from Sarah Veilleux, Saint Joseph's earned a 75-36 win over NJIT.

Using a 15-0 run to open the game, including eight from Veilleux, the Hawks quickly took control of the game.

Hitting 8-of-12 from the field and holding the Highlanders to just 2-of-16, Saint Joseph's built a 27-4 lead after the first quarter and extended its advantage to 45-17 by halftime.

The Hawks continued to pull away in the second half, pushing their lead to as many as 42 as they improved to 2-0 all-time versus the Highlanders.

Game 10 • December 18, 2016 • Daskalakis Center Drexel - 60, Saint Joseph's - 49

Tied at 38 after three quarters, Drexel outscored Saint Joseph's 22-11 in the final period to earn a 60-49 victory.

In a tight contest in which neither team led by more than seven points over the opening 30 minutes, the Hawks held a 42-41 lead with 6:54 to play on a layup by Chelsea Woods.

From there the Dragons took control of the game at both ends of the court as they used a 9-1 run over the next 3:03 to take a 50-43 edge. Drexel held Saint Joseph's to just 1-of-2 from the foul line and caused a pair of turnovers, while on the offensive end went 3-of-6 from the field, including four second-chance points, to start to pull away.

Saint Joseph's cut the Dragons' lead to five twice, but Drexel closed out the game hitting 4-of-4 from the foul line and causing three Hawks turnovers in the final two minutes.

2016-17 SAINT JOSEPH'S BASKETBALL NOTES - PAGE 30

Game 11 • December 22, 2016 • Hagan Arena Hofstra - 75, Saint Joseph's - 64

Saint Joseph's fell to Hofstra, 75-64, Thursday evening at Hagan Arena.

The Hawks, who were led by Chelsea Woods' team-high 20 points and eight rebounds, entered the fourth quarter of a tightly-fought game down just 48-45. But that would be as close as SJU would get as the Pride quickly took control.

Behind a 12-3 run to open the final period, Hofstra opened a 60-48 lead on a steal and layup by Krystal Luciano with 6:21 to play.

The Pride would pull away by as many as 18 from there as they took advantage of seven fourth-quarter turnovers by the Hawks, turning them into 12 point, and finished going 11-of-12 from the field in the last 10 minutes.

Over the opening 30 minutes, neither team led by more than eight minutes with four lead changes and three ties.

Game 12 • December 28, 2016 • Hagan Arena James Madison - 85, Saint Joseph's - 72

A strong second half by James Madison lifted the Dukes past Saint Joseph's, 85-72.

Led by 12 of Adashia Franklyn's career-high 20 points, the Hawks took a 49-40 lead into the second half. But the Dukes quickly took control of the game in the third quarter.

Outscoring Saint Joseph's 15-4 for the quarter, James Madison's Precious Hall knocked down a three-pointer to give her team its first lead, 55-53, with 14 seconds left in the third period.

The Dukes, who held the Hawks to just 2-of-15 from the field in the third, traded buckets with SJU over the opening few minutes of the fourth as it continued to hold a one-possession game.

Ahead 63-61, James Madison used an 8-2 lead over a two-minute span to open a 71-63 advantage with 4:23 to play.

Saint Joseph's would get no closer than five points from there as James Madison moved to 3-1 all-time versus the Hawks.

2016-17 SAINT JOSEPH'S BASKETBALL NOTES - PAGE 31

Game 13 • December 31, 2016 • Robins Center Richmond - 70, Saint Joseph's - 52

Saint Joseph's dropped its Atlantic 10 opener at Richmond, 70-52, despite forward Adashia Franklyn setting a new program record for rebounds in a game with 25.

Franklyn, who finished with 12 offensive rebounds and 13 defensive boards, surpassed the Hawks' previous single-game mark of 21 held by Trish Brown, Dale Hodges and Chatilla van Grinsven.

Saint Joseph's jumped out to a 7-2 lead, but Richmond quickly answered back to take control of the game.

Using an 11-0 run, the Spiders opened a 13-7 edge and finished with a 15-12 lead at the end of the first quarter.

Ahead 32-26 in the second quarter, Richmond ended the half on a 9-0 run to build a 41-26 lead as the Spiders finished the period shooting 14-of-25 from the field (56 percent), while holding the Hawks to just 9-of-37 (24.3 percent).

Down by as many as 19 in the third quarter, Saint Joseph's battled back to make it a nine-point game, 56-47, on a three-point play by Franklyn with 5:32 to play.

That would be as close as the Hawks would get though as Richmond closed out the game with a 14-5 run.

Game 14 • January 4, 2017 • Charles E. Smith Center George Washington - 53, Saint Joseph's - 44

In a tight battle throughout, George Washington used an 11-2 run to close out the game and top Saint Joseph's, 53-44.

Down 39-33 to start the fourth quarter, the Hawks used a 7-0 run to start the period and take their first lead of the game, 40-39, on a layup by Jaryn Garner with 7:34 to play.

The Colonials answered back with a three-point play by Lexi Martins, but Garner followed with a jumper to tie the game at 42 all with 6:19 to play

From there though George Washington would take control. Behind seven straight points, the Colonials opened a 49-42 game.

Saint Joseph's cut it to 49-44 on a layup by Katie Armstrong. However that would be as close as the visiting Hawks would get as Martins connected on four free throws to close out the game.

2016-17 SAINT JOSEPH'S BASKETBALL NOTES - PAGE 32

Game 15 • January 7, 2017 • Hagan Arena Saint Joseph's - 81, Massachusetts - 50

Game 16 • January 11, 2017 • Hagan Arena Saint Joseph's - 64, VCU - 58

Behind a season-best 52.5 percent shooting, Saint Joseph's topped Massachusetts, 81-50.

Saint Joseph's picked up its second straight win as the Hawks held off VCU, 64-58.

Led by a career-high 18 points from Kristalyn Baisden and an 18-point, 11-rebound double-double from Adashia Franklyn, the Hawks took control from the tip as they ran out to a 19-11 lead after the opening quarter.

Playing in front of a raucous 1,462 fans as part of SJU's annual Fieldtrip to the Fieldhouse promotion for area school children, the Hawks held a slight, 36-35 edge midway through the third quarter.

The Minutewomen cut their deficit to just four, 21-17, with 7:29 to play in the second quarter, but Saint Joseph's answered back with a 13-2 run as Baisden capped the spurt with one of her game-high six three-pointers.

From there, Saint Joseph's got timely buckets from Kristalyn Baisden and Amanda Fioravanti as the Hawks extended their lead to 45-39 entering the fourth quarter.

Massachusetts cut the Hawks' lead to nine, 34-25, with under a minute to play in the half, however Saint Joseph's got back-to-back three-pointers from rookie Katie Armstrong and sophomore Alyssa Monaghan to give the hosts a 40-25 lead after 20 minutes.

Falling behind by eight with under five minutes to play, VCU rallied to make it a one-possession game, 56-54, on a Curteeona Brelove layup with 1:53 to play.

Coming off a hot end to the stanza, the Hawks carried the momentum into the third quarter as they scored the first 14 points. A pair of free throws by Franklyn capped a 20-0 run that spanned two quarters to give SJU a 54-25 lead.

Off an offensive rebound by Fioravanti, Chelsea Woods connected on a three-point play with under a minute to go to put SJU up 59-54.

The Hawks went on to outscore UMass 31-6 in the third quarter and pushed ahead by as many as 46 in the fourth en route to picking up their first conference win of the year.

Alyssa Monaghan and Sarah Veilleux combined to go 5-of-6 from the foul line to close out the victory.

2016-17 SAINT JOSEPH'S BASKETBALL NOTES - PAGE 33

Game 17 • January 14, 2017 • Tom Gola Arena Saint Joseph's - 75, La Salle - 55

Game 18 • January 18, 2017 • Hagan Arena Saint Joseph's - 47, Fordham - 44

Saint Joseph's extended its win streak to three games as the Hawks topped rival La Salle, 75-55.

Saint Joseph's held off a late push by Atlantic 10 leading Fordham to pick up its fourth straight win with a 47-44 victory.

Falling behind early, SJU battled back with a strong end to the first quarter and carried momentum into the second to take control of the game. Behind a 21-4 run that spanned both quarters, the Hawks went from losing 12-8 to taking a 29-16 lead on a steal and layup by Chelsea Woods with 5:57 to go in the second quarter.

In a game in which no team led by more than seven, the game came down to a thrilling final few minutes of action.

Ahead by as many as 14 in the third period, the Hawks had their lead cut to five, 54-49, on a layup by Amy Griffin with 8:42 left in the fourth quarter.

Leading 45-38 with 1:30 to play, Saint Joseph's saw its lead cut to two, 46-44, on a three-point play by the Rams' G'mrice Davis.

After trading baskets, Saint Joseph's began to pull away from the Explorers for good. Using a 9-0 run, the Hawks opened a 65-51 edge on a pair of free throws by Alyssa Monaghan. Saint Joseph's defense held La Salle to 0-for-5 from the floor and caused one turnover during the near three minute stretch.

After a foul sent them to the line, the Hawk failed to connect on a pair of free throws, giving the ball back to Fordham with 26 seconds to go.

La Salle got no closer than 65-55 from there as SJU scored the final 10 points of the game to improve to 43-10 all-time versus the Explorers.

Hustling back on defense, Saint Joseph's came up with a big stop as it forced a turnover with 7.8 seconds left.

A free throw by Adashia Franklyn pushed the lead to 47-44, while the Hawks' defense came up with one final stand, forcing an off-banced shot by Fordham at the buzzer that didn't hit the mark.

2016-17 SAINT JOSEPH'S BASKETBALL NOTES - PAGE 34

Game 19 • January 21, 2017 • UD Arena Dayton - 64, Saint Joseph's - 59 OT

Saint Joseph's had its four game win streak snapped by Dayton, 64-59, in overtime.

In a tight game throughout, the Hawks battled back to force extra time as Chelsea Woods knocked down a free throw to tie the game at 50-50 with five seconds to play.

Off a timeout, Saint Joseph's got a defensive stop on Dayton as Adashia Franklyn blocked the Flyers' game-winning attempt to lead to overtime.

In the extra frame, the Hawks held a slim 57-55 lead with just under two minutes to play. From there though, Dayton would score the next eight points to open a 63-57 lead.

With the game knotted at 57, Dayton's Jenna Burdette knocked down her team's only three-pointer of the game to put the host Flyers ahead 60-57 with 1:14 to play.

Saint Joseph's failed to convert on its next two possessions as Dayton went 3-of-4 from the line to push its lead to six.

The Hawks cut the lead to four twice in the final moments, but would get no closer as their win streak came to a halt.

Game 20 • January 25, 2017 • Ryan Center Saint Joseph's - 75, Rhode Island - 49

Backed by a combined 37 points from Chelsea Woods and Amanda Fioravanti, Saint Joseph's downed Rhode Island, 75-49.

Taking control from the tip, the Hawks jumped out to a 17-12 edge after the first quarter.

Up by five to start the second period, Saint Joseph's used a 14-0 run over the opening 5:19 as a jumper by Sarah Veilleux put her team ahead 31-12. The Hawks continued to pull away from there as they outscored the Rams, 30-11, to take a 47-23 lead into halftime.

Rhode Island would get no closer than 19 points in the second half as Saint Joseph's held the Rams to just 34.6 percent shooting (18-of-52), while knocking down 52.8 percent 28-of-53) at the other end.

Saint Joseph's 59 - 7-12, 4-3 A-10

2016-17 SAINT JOSEPH'S BASKETBALL NOTES - PAGE 35

Game 21 • January 29, 2017 • Hagan Arena Saint Joseph's - 70, St. Bonaventure - 53

Game 22 • February 1, 2017 • Hagan Arena Saint Joseph's - 60, Duquesne - 58

Led by Alyssa Monaghan's career-high 21 points, Saint Joseph's downed St. Bonaventure, 70-53.

The Hawks jumped out to a 15-8 lead after the first quarter and quickly built upon their advantage in the second. Outscoring the Bonnies 12-4 over the opening three minutes of the period, SJU built up a 27-12 lead as Chelsea Woods scored a running layup off a feed by Monaghan.

In a game in which the Hawks led for only 48 seconds, it turned out that they came at the most important time.

Saint Joseph's maintained a 14-point edge going into the third quarter, but St. Bonaventure began to chip away at the deficit.

With the game knotted at 58-58, the Hawks got a key defensive stop on the Dukes and called timeout with 35 seconds to play.

Behind an 8-4 run that spanned the final two quarters, the Bonnies made it a nine-point game, 56-47, on a layup by Jalisha Terry with 6:03 to play.

Off the inbound, Saint Joseph's worked the ball around the perimeter as Garner received a pass on the right wing. As the shot clock counting down, Garner drove right and knocked down a jumper from the right baseline to put the Hawks ahead, 60-58, with 11.2 seconds left.

That would be as close as Saint Joseph's would allow St. Bonaventure to get though. From there, the Hawks held the Bonnies to just two points over the final three minutes and closed out the game at the other end going 9-of-10 from the foul line.

Duquesne went for the win on the ensuing possession as Julijana Vojinovic pulled up from the top of the arch for a contested three-point shot. The Hawks' pressure forced the shot to come up as Alyssa Monaghan grabbed the rebound to preserve the win.
