2013-14 Season Outlook with Coach Phillips

Being named Scenic West Athletic Conference (SWAC) Coach-of-the-Year, winning both the outright SWAC and Region 18 championships, earning a trip to NJCAA Nationals and making a 'Sweet Sixteen' appearance would be enough for many college coaches to hang their hats on, but that's not the case for third-year SLCC Men's Basketball Head Coach Todd Phillips.

This year's Bruins will have a bit of a different look than the high-flying, athletic squad that Phillips sent out between the lines last season.

"I don't know if we're more athletic than we were last year—but we have some good size. We've got big-bodied guys that are a little taller inside," he said. "We've still got great athletes—Gary Payton II returns and we've definitely got some players who can get after it and play exciting basketball."

The Bruins return just three players that saw time on the floor from last year's group and will have the services of a redshirt freshman as well. Sophomore guards Gary Payton II and Jaden Jackson will join sophomore forward Kurtis Toolson as second-year Bruins.

"I have high expectations for the sophomores we've got coming back," said Phillips. "We need Gary to continue to get better—we'll definitely put more on his plate this year and have him pick up some of the scoring for us. All of our sophomores are expected to step up right away as it takes time for our freshmen to do so, get involved and learn what they're capable of."

"I've been really happy with our freshmen," he said. "They've got great attitudes and they're working hard both in the classroom and on the floor. They just don't know what they don't know yet but they're definitely eager to learn."

With the Bruins competing in perhaps the toughest junior college basketball conference in the nation, the young faces on the roster will need to get ready quickly. With storied programs like North Idaho College (NIC) and the College of Southern Idaho (CSI) in the SWAC, the margin for error in conference play is slim.

"Our league is kind of the same every year. CSI is going to be really talented, NIC is loaded and I'd probably say they're the early front runner," Phillips said. "Snow College is young, but they've brought in some good talent and are more athletic than they were last year. USU-Eastern has some good players coming back and brought in some great foreign recruits, so this year will be a battle in the conference schedule as always."

A tough test awaits the Bruins again in 2013-2014, but that doesn't do much to deter the Bruin coaching staff and the team from holding high expectations.

"I put it on our guys and on ourselves as coaches—if we don't have high expectations than we're in the wrong business. The program that's been built here and hopefully we're carrying forward is year in and year out to play for that conference, region and national championship," said Phillips. "We don't want to just be competing every fourth year or so for a trip to nationals, we want to be putting ourselves in a position every year to do that."

Head Coach Todd Phillips begins his third full season as SLCC Men's Basketball sideline general. Last year, Phillips led the Bruins to an amazing season, with the SLCC Men's team earning a trip to the NJCAA National Tournament in Hutchinson, KS and advancing for a 'Sweet Sixteen' appearance.

Under the watchful eye of Coach Phillips, the Bruins turned in a 29-5 overall record and finished 14-1 in the hotly contested Scenic West Athletic Conference (SWAC). The Bruins won their first outright SWAC championship since 2009, and earned the Region 18 Championship for the first time since the '09 year as well.

SLCC finished the year ranked at No. 5 in the final NJCAA Top 25 poll, and Coach Phillips was named SWAC Coach-of-the-Year with a unanimous vote.

Todd and the Bruin staff coached a pair of NJCAA All-Americans last year, with sophomore guard Skyler Halford earning First Team All-American honors and talented forward Sai Tummala receiving Third Team All-American nods. Halford moved on to play for highly-touted Head Coach Dave Rose at Brigham Young University, and Tummala is now playing for the Sun Devils of Arizona State University.

In just two full seasons leading the program, Phillips and his staff have moved 13 players on to compete and study at four-year schools. Todd became head coach at SLCC after serving as an assistant coach on the Bruin staff under legendary Head Coach Norm Parrish (now the Director of Basketball Operations at the University of Utah).

Phillips spent eight seasons as an assistant coach for the Griffins at Westminster College beginning in 2000. In his time at Westminster, he helped coach the Griffins to eight 20-plus win seasons, six conference titles and six NAIA National Tournament berths.

As a coach, Todd has seen his career come full circle. Before getting into the profession, Phillips played basketball in the SWAC at one of SLCC's in-state rivals, Snow College. After graduating from Snow College, Phillips continued his playing career at Lewis-Clark State College from 1997-1999.

He received his Bachelor's Degree in Education and Kinesiology, and earned a Master's Degree in Education Administration from the University of Utah. Todd and his wife Bobbi are both originally from Boise, Idaho. They've been married for 11 years and have a 7 year old daughter, Kinzi.

Assistant Coach Paul Marble

Assistant Coach Paul Marble enters his 10th season on the SLCC Men's Basketball coaching staff for the 2013-2014 year. Last season, Marble helped guide the Bruins to a fantastic season, with SLCC finishing the year ranked No. 5 in the final NJCAA Top 25 poll.

Marble and the Bruins turned in a 29-5 overall record with a 14-1 mark in the hotly contested Scenic West Athletic Conference (SWAC). SLCC won its first outright SWAC championship since 2009 and earned its first Region 18 championship since the '09 year as well.

Under the guidance of Coach 'Marbs' and the SLCC staff, the Bruins advanced all the way to the NJCAA National Tournament in Hutchinson, KS and made a 'Sweet Sixteen' appearance.

In Paul's time at SLCC, the Bruins have a remarkable overall record of 240-61 with a pair of NJCAA National Championship Game appearances. A renowned academic advisor as well, Paul helped move seven players from last year's team on to compete and study at four-year institutions including NJCAA First Team All-American Skyler Halford (now at BYU) and Third Team All-American Sai Tummala (now at Arizona St. University).

In addition to coaching, Paul is a highly-revered academic advisor for the student-athletes of Bruin Baseball and Men's Basketball.

Marble began his basketball coaching career as an assistant to the late Lynn Archibald at the University of Utah. He worked with the Utes from 1986-1989 and also coached for two years at the junior high school level with his team playing for the district championship in his first season.

Paul earned his Bachelor's Degree from the University of Utah. He and his wife Wendy are parents of three daughters and have two sons-in-law with two grandchildren. When not coaching the Bruins, Marble enjoys spending all the time he can with his family.

SLCC President Cynthia Bioteau PhD

Dr. Cynthia A. Bioteau is the seventh president and CEO of Salt Lake Community College, a 60,000-student strong community college accessible at 13 sites throughout the Salt Lake Valley and through SLCC Online.

With over 35 years in the education, mental health and business fields, she has converged the expertise and attributes of all three into her passion for accessible and critical education for all community members.

Dr. Bioteau has positioned the College as a core of economic and workforce development, leading the recent development of the National Institute for Advanced Energy Training, located at the College, and situating the College as Utah's national training partner for the Goldman-Sachs 10,000 Small Business program.

Under her leadership, the College has spearheaded long-range master planning to address Utah's expanding population with higher education and workforce training needs.

She has been honored with the 2010 Athena Award, YWCA's Exemplary Leader in Education Award, 2012 Titan Award from the Sandy Chamber, Utah Business Magazine's 30 Women to Watch, and 100 most influential people of Utah.

Dedicated to community service and collaboration, she currently serves on the Salt Lake Chamber of Commerce Board of Governors, EDCUtah Executive Committee, and the Salt Lake Convention and Visitors Bureau Board of Trustees.

Nationally, she serves on the Manufacturing Institute of the National Association of Manufacturing, the Board of Directors for Cambia/Regence Blue Cross and Blue Shield, and a presidential advisor for the Community College Research Center at Columbia Teacher's College.

Vice President of Student Services Deneece Huftalin PhD

Dr. Huftalin serves as Vice President for Student Services at Salt Lake Community College and has worked in the student affairs field for twenty-six years. In addition to working with student services, she has been very involved in student leadership development, learning communities on campus, and strategic planning and assessment initiatives. Deneece earned a bachelor's degree at the University of Utah, a master's degree at University of California, Los Angeles and a doctorate at the University of Utah.

Deneece has been at the College since 1992, serving first as the Director of Academic and Career Advising and then as the Dean of Students. In her roles, she strives to strengthen the student experience at SLCC by providing opportunities for students to get involved on campus, connect with faculty, and achieve their educational goals. Prior to SLCC, Deneece worked in student affairs at Harper Community College, Northwestern University and the University of Utah. She serves on the faculty for Leadershape, Inc. a non-profit organization focused on college student leadership development and currently serves as the Region V Director on the NASPA national board. She also teaches in the Educational Leadership and Policy program at the U of U.

SLCC Athletic Staff

Norma Carr - Athletic Director

Norma Carr is a renowned sports icon in the State of Utah. She was the only woman considered in the Top 25 Most Influential People in Utah Sports. As the first woman in Utah to serve as athletic director for both men's and women's sports programs and the first to officiate in boy's high school basketball games, she has been recognized as a standard-bearer among Utah sports figures.

Norma graduated as a five-sport athlete from Brigham Young University (BYU) in 1969 and went on to receive her Master's Degree at the University of Utah. She started her coaching career at Davis High School and in 1975 went on to coach multiple sports at the University of Utah. During her 14 years at the U of U, Norma was head volleyball coach for five years and assisted with women's basketball and softball for one season.

Since joining the Bruins in 1989, Norma has been at the helm of building both the SLCC athletic program and its facilities. Norma took a struggling athletic program that consisted of only two sports (Men's and Women's Basketball) and turned it into a successful and nationally competitive five-sport program. She oversaw the construction of the state-of-the-art Lifetime Activities Center and Bruin Arena, as well as Bruin Baseball's Cate Field and SLCC Softball's Bruin Softball Field.

Norma was awarded the Pioneers of Progress Award by the Days of '47 Board of Directors in 2013 and was inducted into the U of U's Crimson Club Hall of Fame in 2012. Director Carr was also awarded the Young Women's Christian Association Leadership Award in 2012.
