Head Coach Dave Rice

Dave Rice, a longtime college coaching fixture in the Western U.S., has agreed to lead the SLCC men's basketball program. A former head coach at UNLV, Rice most recently served as an assistant coach with Cal Baptist. He has also been an assistant coach at Washington, Nevada, BYU, Utah State, and UNLV. His first full-time college coaching opportunity came at Chaffey College, a community college in Rancho Cucamonga, California.

"Dave has decades of experience at the highest level of college basketball, is a relentless recruiter, understands what it takes to win, and is extremely well-connected nationally," SLCC Director of Athletics Kevin Dustin said of the hire. "During the search process, the positive feedback I received was extraordinary. I am grateful Coach Rice agreed to join our terrific staff, where winning, academics, and student-athlete welfare are part of our culture. Coach Rice will be a great fit for Salt Lake Community College, and we are excited for Dave, his wife, Mindy, and their sons, Travis and Dylan, to join our team."

Rice has become synonymous with tremendous success as a player and a coach, winning the 1990 NCAA championship while playing for the UNLV Runnin' Rebels under Jerry Tarkanian. In addition, he played on two NCAA Final Fours teams. Overall, Rice has been part of 16 Division 1 conference championships and 20 Division 1 postseason tournaments, including 14 NCAA Tournaments. A Rhodes Scholar candidate as a student-athlete, Rice quickly moved into coaching after graduating from UNLV, eventually serving under three UNLV coaches (Tim Grgurich, Bill Bayno, and Charlie Spoonhour). During that time, he helped the Runnin' Rebels make two NCAA tournament appearances and five NIT appearances.

Rice's time as the head coach at UNLV resulted in two NCAA tournament appearances, including a victory over top-ranked North Carolina in his first year coaching the Runnin' Rebels. UNLV spent 25 weeks in the AP Top 25, with Rice winning ten games against ranked teams. He also recruited and coached several notable NBA prospects at UNLV, including the 2013 No. 1 NBA Draft pick, Anthony Bennett, and the 2015 No. 17 pick, Rashad Vaughn. During his head coaching tenure at UNLV, he had eight players move on to the NBA, including 4 four players who were selected in the NBA Draft. Rice has played with or coached 31 players who went on to the NBA and is third all-time in head coaching wins at UNLV, behind only Tarkanian and Lon Kruger.

Rice served as an assistant coach at two Utah programs: Utah State under Stew Morrill and BYU under Dave Rose. Utah State qualified for the NCAA tournament in Rice's lone season with the Aggies in 2005.

While at BYU, he helped lead the Cougars to the Sweet 16 in 2011 while contributing to five NCAA berths for BYU. Rice coached National Player of the Year Jimmer Fredette and SLCC alum Logan Magnusson.

Throughout Dr. Peterson's tenure in higher education, he has demonstrated his commitment to the community college mission — aspiring to provide all students with access to and success in higher education and in life.

A first-generation community college student himself, Dr. Peterson has launched many initiatives focused on student learning and success. He led college promise programs at several two-year institutions and pioneered the nation's first Artificial Intelligence and Machine Learning associate's degree. Dr. Peterson also has a strong track record of establishing partnerships with community and industry leaders to strengthen workforce pipelines, enabling students to translate their education into family-sustaining careers. Additionally, Dr. Peterson has led efforts in improving transfer rates among community college students. In 2024, the U.S. Department of Education recognized his work in this area. Most notably, at one institution Dr. Peterson oversaw a 45% increase in transfers for Native American students, a 39% increase for Black students, and a 13% increase for Latinx students.

Before taking the helm at SLCC, Dr. Peterson was the President of Chandler-Gilbert Community College in Arizona. He holds a doctorate in educational administration with an emphasis in community college leadership from the University of Texas at Austin; a master's degree in postsecondary, adult, and continuing education from Portland State University; and a bachelor's degree in English from Brigham Young University.
