- Instruction by Head Coach Katie Shields and staff
- Play at Hermann Stadium
- Participate in a college recruiting presentation
- See what it's like to 'Be a Billiken'

Saturday, August 3
9:00am-7:00pm

You are invited to our Saint Louis University Elite Prospect Camp hosted by the SLU soccer team.

This Elite Camp is intended for serious female soccer players ages 14-18 driven to compete at the college level. Attending will allow you to gain an inside perspective into SLU soccer's competitive environment.

As a camper, you will train in sessions led by Head Coach Katie Shields, interact with current SLU soccer players, become familiar with the SLU campus, and participate in a recruiting Q/A session.

Come see what it's like to be a SLU Soccer player!

Location:

Hermann Soccer Stadium & Chaifetz Arena

What to bring:

A soccer ball, water bottle, shin guards, soccer and running shoes, proper soccer clothing, sun screen, lunch money (or a lunch), and a "light bite" snack.

Payment:

Cash or check for $150 to "Saint Louis Elite Soccer Camp LLC"
Each camper will receive a numbered SLU soccer t-shirt.
Enrollment can be secured by mailing a registration, copy of insurance and full payment. Space is limited!

Health/Safety:

Each participant must submit a Medical Information Release & Waiver form signed by a parent or guardian prior to participation. Also, participants must have individual medical coverage to participate AND provide a copy of an insurance card. A form will be sent with your confirmation packet.

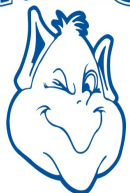

Meals:

Meals will not be provided, however, camp staff will accompany campers walking to buy lunch. Please bring a light bite to eat before the evening session.

Rules and Regulations:

All participants must abide by the rules and regulations of Saint Louis University and SLU Soccer Camps. Participants failing to comply will be dismissed from camp without refund.
