FIRST WHISTLE

• Atlantic 10 Conference regular-season and tournament champion Saint Louis begins its NCAA Championship journey this afternoon in a rematch with Notre Dame.

• In the first-ever meeting of the teams, the Fighting Irish edged the Billikens 1-0 in the season opener Aug. 22 at Alumni Stadium. Box score on page 6

• The Billikens are making a second consecutive and fourth overall NCAA Championship appearance. SLU is 2-3 in tournament play.

• The Billikens bring a school-record 16-game unbeaten streak (14-0-2) into the NCAA Championship. SLU allowed just five goals in those 16 games.

• This is the second straight year that Saint Louis' first-round opponent is a team the Billikens met in the regular season. SLU played a 2018 opening-round game at Kansas after facing the Jayhawks earlier.

• With appearances in today's contest, Alli Klug and Evie Lavelle will tie the Saint Louis career record for games played (86). In addition, the Bills will equal the school mark of 23 games in a season set last year while seeking their 18th victory, which would match the SLU record also established last season.

• Saint Louis has tied its school record of 13 shutouts thanks in large part to Alli Klug. Earlier this month, Klug became the first player in A-10 women's soccer history to win a major postseason award three times when she was named Defensive Player of the Year for a third straight season. See page 4 for a complete All-Conference rundown.

• Courtney Reimer also made history by becoming the first Billiken to garner the A-10 Midfielder of the Year award.

• Saint Louis' top two scorers have caught fire at the right time. Hannah Friedrich has 13 points (4G, 5A) over the last five games, while Courtney Reimer has four goals over the last four contests.

• Friedrich is SLU's top point scorer for a second straight season. She has 28 points on 11 goals (team high) and six assists (ties team high). Reimer is second in goals (seven) and points (16). Evie Lavelle (2G, 6A) and Annabelle Copeland (5G) have 10 points apiece.

• Saint Louis is No. 38 in this week's RPI, its highest ranking of the season. SLU has played three teams in the RPI top 40 – Oklahoma State (No. 11), Louisville (No. 28) and Notre Dame (No. 34).

BILLIKENS STRIKE EARLY, BEAT GW IN A-10 FINAL

• Saint Louis scored on penalty kicks by Hannah Friedrich and Alli Klug in the first eight minutes and went on to defeat George Washington 3-1 in the A-10 Championship final Nov. 10 at SLU's Hermann Stadium.

• Emily Groark, assisted by Friedrich, made it 3-0 in the 18th minute with her first goal of the season.

FIVE CAPTURE ALL-TOURNAMENT HONORS

• Led by Most Outstanding Player Courtney Reimer, five Billikens made the A-10 Championship All-Tournament team.

• Joining Reimer were Emma Farley, Hannah Friedrich, Alli Klug and Mary Niehaus.

BILLIKENS NO. 4 IN EAST REGION

• Saint Louis remained at No. 4 in this week's United Soccer Coaches East Region poll, trailing Brown, Xavier and Georgetown.

• Following the Billikens are Hofstra, Harvard, Villanova, Butler, George Washington and Yale.

KLUG A FINALIST FOR SENIOR CLASS AWARD

• Alli Klug is one of 10 finalists for the 2019 Senior CLASS Award in collegiate women's soccer.

• The award program is designed exclusively for NCAA Division I seniors. To be eligible, a student-athlete must have notable achievements in community, classroom, character and competition.

SAINT LOUIS TOUGH TO BEAT AT HOME

• The Billikens are 37-1-5 in their last 43 games on the home pitch of Robert R. Hermann Stadium, a stretch that dates to the final home game of the 2015 campaign.

• Saint Louis is 11-0-1 at home this season – tying the school record for home wins – after going 10-0-1 in 2018, 7-1-2 in 2017 and 9-0-0 in 2016.

SENIORS ARE SLU'S WINNINGEST CLASS

• The 2019 Saint Louis seniors comprise the winningest class in Billiken women's soccer history with 64 victories. The 2006 seniors held the previous mark of 60.

• The 64 wins also are the most of any Atlantic 10 Conference team over the past four years.

• The Oct. 24 win over Richmond allowed this year's seniors to finish undefeated at home (19-0-1) in A-10 regular-season games.

FRIEDRICH SETS GAME-WINNING GOALS SCHOOL MARK

• Hannah Friedrich's game-winning goal vs. George Washington (regular season) was her seventh of the year, breaking the previous SLU single-season record of six held by Kelly Ferguson (2005) and Julia Bradenberg (2006).

• Two of Friedrich's game-winners were golden goals vs. Saint Joseph's and Iowa State. In addition to those and the game-winner at George Washington, she tallied the decisive goal in a 2-1 victory over Indiana State.

HEAD COACH KATIE SHIELDS

• Now in her seventh season leading the Billikens, 2018 and 2019 A-10 Coach of the Year Katie Shields owns an 86-43-12 career record (all at Saint Louis) for a .652 winning percentage.

• Shields, who spent one season as a SLU assistant before taking the head-coaching reins, has guided the Billikens to a conference-best 64-14-7 (.794) mark since 2016. That record includes a 33-3-4 (.875) ledger in A-10 regular-season play.

SEASON RECORD WATCH

• Mary Niehaus owns the Saint Louis season record for lowest goals against average, recording a 0.52 mark in 2017. Niehaus is on pace to shatter the record. She owns a 0.30 GAA, allowing only six goals overall and just two in regular-season league play.

• Niehaus has two other records in sight. With 16 wins, she needs just one victory to match the mark set by Olivia Silverman in 2018. She also has 11 shutouts, one shy of Meghann Burke's Billiken record set in 2002.

• Hannah Friedrich's 28 points are just two away from equaling the school standard she established a year ago. With 11 goals, she is two away from tying the record held by Maddie Pokorny (2018) and Jamie Perry (2002).

KLUG NAMED TO HERMANN TROPHY WATCH LIST

• For a second consecutive year, senior defender Alli Klug was named to the MAC Hermann Trophy Watch List.

• Klug is one of 31 returning All-Americans, and the only Atlantic 10 Conference player, on this year's list. Last year, she became the first Saint Louis women's soccer player to be included on the list.

QUARTET OF BILLIKENS EARN WEEKLY HONORS

• Mary Niehaus was the A-10 Defensive Player of the Week and honorable mention on TopDrawerSoccer's national Team of the Week for Sept. 9-15. Niehaus repeated as A-10 Defensive Player of the Week for Oct. 21-27.

• Hannah Friedrich was the A-10 co-Offensive Player of the Week and a TopDrawerSoccer national Team of the Week selection for Oct. 21-27.

• Courtney Reimer was named to TopDrawerSoccer's national Team of the Week for Sept. 23-29 and Nov. 4-10.

• Isabel Burke was the A-10 Defensive Player of the Week for Sept. 30-Oct. 6.

KEEPING THEM AT HOME

• Saint Louis traditionally has featured a large number of players from its back yard, and this season is no exception.

• Nineteen of the 29 players on the Billikens' roster are from the St. Louis area. Of those 19 players, 16 hail from the Missouri side of the Mississippi River, three from the Illinois side.

SAINT LOUIS TAKES ON CHALLENGING SCHEDULE

• SLU's 2019 schedule was perhaps its toughest in recent seasons.

• Five of the nine nonconference opponents on the slate were Power 5 conference teams – Notre Dame and Louisville of the ACC, Oklahoma State and Iowa State of the Big 12, and Purdue of the Big Ten. Oklahoma State and Louisville own the United Soccer Coaches No. 13 and No. 23 rankings, respectively, this week.

• Six of Saint Louis' 10 A-10 opponents were among the seven teams besides the Bills who qualified for last year's A-10 tournament.

FOUR BILLIKENS NAMED PRESEASON ALL-CONFERENCE

•Saint Louis placed four players – one at each position – on the Atlantic 10 preseason All-Conference team.

•The players selected were senior defender Alli Klug, senior goalkeeper Mary Niehaus, senior midfielder Courtney Reimer and sophomore forward Hannah Friedrich.

17 RETURN FROM RECORD-SETTING 2018 TEAM

•Seven starters and 10 additional players returned from the 2018 Saint Louis team that won Atlantic 10 Conference regular-season and tournament titles; advanced to the NCAA Championship; set school records of 18 total wins (18-4-1), 10 conference wins (10-0-0) and 52 goals; and finished No. 43 in the final RPI.

•The returning starters are senior defenders Alli Klug and Emma Farley, senior midfielders Courtney Reimer and Evie Lavelle, senior forward Alyssa Seitzer, sophomore midfielder Hannah Friedrich and sophomore defender Isabel Burke.

•Last year, Klug garnered United Soccer Coaches All-America (second team) plaudits for a second straight season (third team in 2017), repeated on the United Soccer Coaches All-East Region and A-10 All-Conference first teams, and earned a second consecutive A-10 Defensive Player of the Year award.

•Reimer joined Klug on the All-Conference first team, while Friedrich was selected to the A-10 second team. Reimer and Friedrich collected second-team All-Region honors.

•Burke joined Friedrich on the A-10 All-Rookie team.

•Seitzer may have been on her way to postseason honors before suffering a season-ending injury. She scored nine goals in 15 games, including a hat trick vs. Richmond.

•Also back are 6th-year senior goalkeeper Mary Niehaus and junior defender Brionna Halverson, both of whom missed the 2018 campaign due to injury.

•Niehaus is believed to be the only 6th-year player in Division I women's soccer this season. She is a two-time All-Region and first-team All-Conference performer who posted a school-record 0.52 GAA in 2017. Halverson made the 2017 A-10 All-Rookie squad.

SLU SETS STATE OF MISSOURI ATTENDANCE MARK

•Saint Louis' 2017 game vs. Kansas set an attendance record for a collegiate women's soccer match in the state of Missouri.

•The Billikens and Jayhawks played to a 1-1 draw in front of 5,205 fans at Robert R. Hermann Stadium.

DEPTH AND BALANCE FUEL RECENT SUCCESS

•Saint Louis has featured deep, balanced teams in recent seasons, lifting the Billikens to the top of the Atlantic 10.

•Eleven different Billikens combined to earn 18 A-10 weekly awards during the 2017 and 2018 campaigns. SLU players garnered at least five awards in each category – Offensive, Defensive and Rookie – over those two seasons.

•There were 27 different player combinations that accounted for the Bills' 37 assisted goals in 2018, following 24 unique combinations on 33 assisted tallies in 2017. That trend has continued and expanded in 2019, with 30 different combos scoring the team's 34 assisted goals.

•Fifteen different players notched at least one goal or one assist in 2018, one more than the 14 in 2017. This year's team has surpassed those numbers as 17 different Billikens have at least one point.

BILLIKENS ADD TO LEAGUE TITLE, NCAA TOTALS

•Winning the 2019 A-10 regular-season and tournament championships increased Saint Louis' conference title count to nine (five regular-season, four tournament).

•The double win of 2019 regular-season and tournament championships marked the third time the Billikens have brought home both crowns. The 2005 team won regular-season and tournament titles in SLU's first season in the A-10, and the 2018 team matched that accomplishment.

•The 2006 Billikens won the A-10 tournament, while the 1999 and 2004 teams topped the Conference USA regular-season standings.

RECORDS TUMBLE IN 2018

•The 2018 Billikens set or tied school records in 13 categories – wins (18), regular-season wins (15), conference wins (10), longest winning streak (14), longest unbeaten streak (14), games (23), goals (52), points (144), shutouts (13), consecutive shutouts (six), consecutive shutout minutes (664:46), shots (444) and fewest shots allowed (123).

•The 14-game winning streak was the longest active winning streak in NCAA Division I women's soccer when Saint Louis carried it into the NCAA Championship.

•Hannah Friedrich registered a school-record 30 points (11G, 8A), surpassing Jamie Perry's previous SLU standard of 29 (2002, 2003).

SAINT LOUIS GAME NOTES VS. NOTRE DAME

SLU WELL-REPRESENTED ON ALL-CONFERENCE TEAMS

•Eight Saint Louis University women's soccer student-athletes, including five first-team selections, earned Atlantic 10 Conference postseason honors.

•In addition, seventh-year head coach Katie Shields was chosen Coach of the Year for a second consecutive season.

•Senior Alli Klug earned a third consecutive Defensive Player of the Year award, giving Saint Louis four recipients in a row after Kacey Bright claimed the honor in 2016. Klug is the first player in A-10 women's soccer history to claim a major postseason award (Defensive Player, Offensive Player or Midfielder of the Year) three times.

•Senior Courtney Reimer was selected Midfielder of the Year, becoming the first Billiken to earn the award.

•Senior goalkeeper Mary Niehaus, senior midfielder Evie Lavelle and sophomore forward Hannah Friedrich joined Klug and Reimer on the All-Conference first team. SLU tied a school record by placing five players on the top unit.

•Niehaus' selection marks a fourth consecutive season that a Billiken goalkeeper has made the first team; Olivia Silverman was the honoree a year ago after Niehaus was tabbed in 2016 and 2017. Reimer garnered a fourth A-10 postseason honor after making the 2018 first team, the 2017 second team and the 2016 All-Rookie team.

•Junior defender Brionna Halverson earned second-team All-Conference plaudits. The Billikens matched another school mark – set in 2017 and tied last season – with six players on the first and second teams combined.

•Redshirt-freshman midfielder Anna Lawler landed on the All-Rookie team, giving SLU at least one player on the list for a fourth straight year.

•Senior forward Alyssa Seitzer (nursing major, 3.874 grade point average), Klug (physical therapy, 3.663) and Reimer (occupational sciences, 3.685) were selected to the 11-member All-Academic team by the league's women's soccer sports information representatives. Seitzer collected the honor for a third time – making her just the second Billiken women's soccer student-athlete to do so – and SLU's three selections equaled a program record.

BILLIKENS SIGN EIGHT TO LETTERS OF INTENT

HEAD COACH KATIE SHIELDS

7th season at Saint Louis • 86-43-12 • Harvard, 2006

The ascent of Saint Louis University women's soccer under the direction of Katie Shields kicked into high gear in 2018.

After posting the second perfect league record (10-0-0) in program history to win the Atlantic 10 Conference regular-season title, Saint Louis outscored its three opponents 11-2 to capture the A-10 Championship crown and the program's third NCAA Championship bid. Shields was rewarded by being named A-10 Coach of the Year and recipient of the Carl O. Bauer Award, presented annually by the Missouri Athletic Club to the top amateur sports figure in the St. Louis area.

Now in her seventh season at the controls, Shields' 86-43-12 record includes a 64-14-7 mark since 2016. SLU's conference-best 64 wins since 2016 are the most of any four-year period in program history. Shields' Billikens have made Robert R. Hermann Stadium one of the nation's toughest venues for visiting teams, going 37-1-5 on their home pitch – including 21-0-2 the past two seasons – dating to the final home game of the 2015 season.

The 2018 Billikens set or tied 13 school records – 18 wins, 15 regular-season wins, 10 conference wins, 14-game winning streak, 14-game unbeaten streak, 23 games, 52 goals, 144 points, 13 shutouts, six consecutive shutouts, 664:46 consecutive shutout minutes, 444 shots and 123 shots allowed (fewest). The 14-game winning streak was the longest active winning streak in NCAA Division I women's soccer when Saint Louis carried it into the NCAA Championship. In 13 games (including the conference tournament) against A-10 opponents, SLU allowed just five goals.

Alli Klug collected All-America plaudits (second team) for a second consecutive season and was one of a school-record four players (two first-team, two second-team) to garner All-Region recognition. SLU's 10 All-Region selections from 2016-18 are the most of any three-year period in team history. Saint Louis matched the program mark it set in 2017 with six players (three first-team, three second-team) earning All-Conference accolades. Klug secured a second straight A-10 Defensive Player of the Year nod.

The 2017 Billikens set a program record for best regular-season winning percentage (.842), placed second (7-2-1) in the A-10 standings for a second consecutive season and finished with a 15-3-2 overall mark. In addition, SLU set a program standard for fewest goals allowed (10) and equaled the team record for shutouts (13).

Saint Louis also set a team mark for longest home undefeated streak (19) in 2017 when the Billikens blanked Massachusetts 3-0. One of the 19 games was a 1-1 draw vs. 19th-ranked Kansas, a match that drew a state of Missouri women's college soccer record crowd of 5,205.

A team-record six players (three first-team, three second-team) earned All-Conference laurels in 2017, including Defensive Player of the Year Klug and Rookie of the Year Olivia Petit. First-team picks Klug, Petit and Mary Niehaus also were selected to the All-Region first team, marking the first time in program history that three players landed on the top unit. Klug went on to collect third-team All-America accolades.

Strong classroom performances were recognized as well. A team-record three players – Niehaus, Lauren Tondl and Alyssa Seitzer – made the A-10 All-Academic team.

Depth and balance are hallmarks of Saint Louis women's soccer in Shields' system. Eleven different Billikens combined to earn 18

A-10 weekly awards during the 2017 and 2018 campaigns, and SLU players garnered at least five awards in each category – Offensive, Defensive and Rookie. There were an astounding 27 different player combinations that accounted for the Bills' 37 assisted goals in 2018, following 24 unique combinations on 33 assisted tallies in 2017. Fifteen different players notched at least one goal or one assist in 2018, one more than the 14 in the previous season.

The 2016 Billikens were 14-4-2 overall and 7-1-2 in conference play. SLU shared the A-10 lead with nine shutouts and ranked second in the league with a 0.82 GAA. Individual honors were plentiful for Shields' squad as five student-athletes were selected to the All-Conference first and second teams combined, including Defensive Player of the Year Kacey Bright. Niehaus and Danielle Tolmais joined Bright on the All-Region list.

Shields directed one of the A-10's toughest defensive units in 2015. The Billikens posted a 1.07 goals against average in all games and a 0.95 GAA in 10 conference contests. In fact, only one A-10 opponent scored more than one goal against Saint Louis.

The 2014 Billikens won eight games, an increase of two victories over the previous season. Shields' squad was highly competitive against the A-10's best, falling by just one goal to NCAA Championship qualifiers Dayton (overtime) and La Salle. The SLU offense also was more prolific under Shields' guidance; the Billikens tallied 31 goals and 31 assists, significant increases over their 2013 totals of 19 goals and 15 assists.

In her first season at the controls, Shields led Saint Louis to a second-place tie in the 2013 A-10 regular-season standings, an improvement of 10 spots from the previous year. The Billikens, who were 5-2-1 in conference play, qualified for the A-10 Championship for the first time since 2009. In addition, four players earned A-10 postseason accolades, the most since 2009.

Shields, who served as a Billiken assistant coach in 2012, was named the third head coach in program history on Jan. 15, 2013.

Prior to her arrival at SLU, Shields spent two seasons as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at Northwestern. She served three years in the same capacities at her alma mater, Harvard, where she worked with head coach Ray Leone (now head coach at Maryland) and assistant coach Tracey Leone, who went on to serve six seasons as head coach at Northeastern. Shields began her coaching career with a one-year stint as an assistant at UC Irvine under head coach April Heinrichs, who recently completed an eight-year stint as Technical Director for the U.S. Women's National Teams.

In addition to her collegiate coaching experience, Shields is an assistant with the U.S. Youth National Teams staff at various training camps and international competitions. She also serves as the liaison for the state of Missouri's U.S. Soccer Training Center. Additionally, Shields was assistant goalkeeping coach for the Boston Breakers of Women's Professional Soccer under head coach Tony DiCicco in 2009; head coach of the Boston Bolts F.C. girls' youth clubs for two years; and camp director/senior staff member of Soccerplus Goalkeeper School from 2006-11.

Shields helped guide Harvard to the Ivy League title and an NCAA berth in 2008 and 2009. She coached two Ivy League Rookies of the Year, 16 All-Conference selections and six All-Region choices.

A goalkeeper, Shields enjoyed a distinguished playing career (2002-05) at Harvard. She garnered All-Ivy accolades all four seasons and was an All-Region honoree and team captain her senior campaign. Shields ranked fourth nationally in save percentage in 2005, set a school record for shutouts in a season and helped lead the 2004 Crimson to the NCAA Championship.

Shields is a 2006 graduate of Harvard with a Bachelor of Arts degree in government.

WHAT'S A BILLIKEN?

The Billiken was born Oct. 8, 1908, when Kansas City art teacher and illustrator Florence Pretz patented a design for an elflike creature with pixie ears, a mischievous smile and a tuft of hair on his pointed head. Reportedly, the image came to her in a dream.

Although it didn't appear on the actual patent, some believe Pretz found the Billiken name in a fanciful work entitled, "Mr. Moon: A Song of the Little People," by Canadian poets Bliss Carman and Richard Hovey.

Within a short time, Pretz sold her patented image to the Billiken Company of Chicago. Initially manufactured as a bank and statuette, and later as a doll, this good luck charm soon became a national craze. By 1911, the Billiken's likeness adorned everything from marshmallow candies to hood ornaments.

In his heyday, the Billiken enjoyed worldwide fame. Artisans in Alaska began carving his image into ivory, and in Japan, he appeared in shrines, amusement parks and even a movie.

Like many other fads, the Billiken might have faded into obscurity if it were not for Saint Louis University law student John Bender, who also happened to be the coach of SLU's football team during the height of Billikenmania.

One story claims that nearby drugstore owner Billy Gunn called Bender a Billiken when the coach walked into his establishment one day. Supposedly, legendary sportswriter William O'Connor was within earshot of the remark and took up the moniker not only for Bender but also for SLU's sports teams.

Another tale claims O'Connor himself dubbed the coach a Billiken after a particularly good practice left Bender beaming with a big smile. After practice, Bender's fellow law student Charles Z. McNamara, a local cartoonist, sketched Bender as a Billiken, posted it in Gunn's drugstore window and tabbed the football team "Bender's Billikens."

Yet another yarn reports that the druggist asked McNamara to decorate his store window the night before a homecoming game. Supposedly, McNamara drew a Billiken, a popular good luck charm, causing one of his fellow students to exclaim, "That looks like coach Bender!"

Whatever the case, O'Connor is generally credited for popularizing the name throughout the city, but one fact flies in the face of this legend and lore. O'Connor did not join the St. Louis Post-Dispatch until Nov. 26, 1911, one full month after the newspaper first mentioned "Bender's Billikens."

Regardless of how the story is told or whether his mysterious origins are ever finally resolved, the Billiken remains a good luck charm for Saint Louis University's sports teams and always brings smiles to the faces of SLU fans.

Legend has it that the Billiken has three kinds of luck – good, better and best. Buying a Billiken gives the buyer good luck. To have one given to you is better luck. The best luck comes if the Billiken is stolen.
