Lisa Stone arrived at Saint Louis University in May 2012 with a vision to build Billiken women's basketball into a championship-caliber program.

Stone's vision has come into clear focus in recent seasons. Saint Louis captured 102 victories – third most among Atlantic 10 Conference women's basketball programs – tied for the 2015-16 A-10 regular-season championship and made three Women's National Invitation Tournament appearances during the past five seasons.

The 2019-20 Billikens reached the semifinals of the Atlantic 10 Women's Basketball Championship, finishing just one win shy of 20 on the season. Sophomore guard Cijaja Harbison was named to the All-Conference first team, while Kendra Wilken was selected the A-10 Most Improved Player, in addition to garnering third-team honors. Freshman Rachel Kent earned spot on the All-Rookie team.

Under Stone's watch, the Billikens collected an impressive array of individual honors in 2018-19. Cijaja Harbison was selected A-10 Rookie of the Year and, along with Jordyn Frantz, landed on the All-Conference second team. Kerri McMahan was named the league's Defensive Player of the Year and earned a spot on the All-Academic list, while Brooke Flowers joined Harbison on the All-Rookie team and McMahan on the All-Defensive squad.

Harbison is the first Billiken to be named A-10 Rookie of the Year, while McMahan is Saint Louis' first Defensive Player of the Year in any of the four conferences in which the program has held membership. SLU placed two players on the All-Rookie team for the first time and two players on the All-Defensive team for the first time. McMahan's selection to the All-Academic team marked a fourth consecutive year a Billiken has earned inclusion in the five-player group.
