FIRST WHISTLE

•Following a dramatic first-round victory at Ole Miss last Friday, Saint Louis challenges fifth-ranked Rutgers this evening in the second round of the 2021 NCAA Women's Soccer Championship.

•Saint Louis and Rutgers are meeting for the first time.

•Hannah Friedrich's goal in the 89th minute lifted SLU over Ole Miss 2-1. It was Friedrich's 15th career game-winning goal – adding to her school record – and her sixth game-winner in the 84th minute or later. She assisted on the Billikens' first goal. The win was SLU's fourth straight and ninth in 10 games.

•The Billikens earned the Atlantic 10 Conference's automatic NCAA bid by defeating Rhode Island 2-1 (2 OT) in the quarterfinals, Dayton 4-2 in the semifinals and Massachusetts 4-1 in the title game of the A-10 Championship. Saint Louis became the first women's soccer team in league history to capture four straight conference tournament titles.

•The Billikens are playing their 23rd game of the season tonight, tying the school record set in 2018 and matched in 2019.

•SLU is facing its third Big Ten Conference opponent this season. The Billikens fell 1-0 to Iowa at home and 2-1 at Purdue. Saint Louis also took on Power 5 conference teams Kansas (L, 2-0) and Louisville (L, 1-0) in the regular season.

•The Billikens have won two of their last three games against nationally ranked opponents. Prior to beating No. 17 Ole Miss last week, SLU won 3-1 at No. 7 Arkansas and fell 1-0 on an overtime penalty kick to No. 16 Oklahoma State last season.

•The Billikens have 169 corner kicks and have allowed only 53. They lead the A-10 and rank fourth nationally with 7.68 corners per game. In league matches, Saint Louis averaged 9.1 corners and posted a 91-16 advantage over its opponents. The Billikens have held five opponents without a corner kick this season.

•SLU also tops the A-10 in goals against average (0.76, 33rd nationally) and shutout percentage (.455, 10 shutouts in 21 games).

*A-10 game | #A-10 Championship | $NCAA Championship

•Over the past 16 games, SLU has outshot its opponents 287-121 overall (17.9-7.6 average) and 136-45 in shots on goal (8.5-2.8 average). During that stretch, Billiken opponents have just four double-digit total-shot efforts and have been limited to four or fewer shots on goal 12 times.

•In four postseason games, the Billikens have outscored their opponents 8-2 in the second half/overtime.

•Hannah Friedrich and Mattyn Summers have become an effective one-two punch for the Billikens in postseason play. In four tournament games (three A-10, one NCAA), Friedrich (2G, 3A) and Summers (2G, 2A) have combined for 13 of the 31 points tallied by SLU players (team point total excludes two own goals).

•Emily Gaebe leads the Billikens with seven goals, 17 points and 49 shots (tied). Gaebe had team highs of nine points, three assists (tied), 24 shots and 15 shots on goal in A-10 regular-season matches.

•Abbie Miller (5G, 4A) is second on the team with 14 points, followed by Hannah Friedrich (3G, team-high 7A) in third with 13 points.

•Caroline Kelly (5G, 2A), who has a team-high 28 shots on goal and is tied with Gaebe for the team lead with 49 total shots, has 12 points. Kelly scored a team-high four goals in conference play.

SEVEN BILLIKENS EARN A-10 POSTSEASON HONORS

Seven Saint Louis University women's soccer student-athletes, including four first-team selections and a major award winner, earned 2021 Atlantic 10 Conference postseason honors.

Freshman forward Emily Gaebe was named A-10 Rookie of the Year. Gaebe is the fifth Billiken women's soccer player (three in the A-10, two in Conference USA) to garner recognition as the league's top freshman.

Each of SLU's first-team honorees is a repeat selection from the A-10's 2020 top unit. Senior defender Brionna Halverson, junior midfielder Abbie Miller, sophomore defender Lyndsey Heckel and sophomore goalkeeper Emily Puricelli comprise that quartet.

Gaebe and sophomore defender Sophia Stram earned inclusion on the All-Conference second team, while freshman forward Hannah Sawyer joined Gaebe on the All-Rookie team. Saint Louis is the only A-10 women's soccer team to place at least one player on the All-Rookie squad in each of the past six years.

Puricelli's selection to the first team marked the sixth straight season that a Saint Louis goalkeeper has earned that distinction. Mary Niehaus (2016, 2017, 2019) and Olivia Silverman (2018) preceded Puricelli as first-team honorees.

Halverson collected an A-10 postseason honor for a fourth time. She was a second-team choice in 2019 and an All-Rookie performer in 2017 prior to her 2020 and 2021 first-team nods. The fifth-year senior has a goal and two assists on the season; her goal was the equalizer in the 86th minute of SLU's 2-1 double-overtime victory over Rhode Island in the A-10 Championship quarterfinals.

Miller is the Billikens' second-leading scorer with 11 points (4G, 3A), and her four goals are tied for second on the team. She leads Saint Louis and is tied for third in the A-10 with three game-winning goals.

Heckel also has four goals, two of which were game-winners including the decisive tally vs. Rhode Island in the A-10 quarterfinals. She leads the team with 1,712 minutes, playing all but 33 minutes.

Puricelli leads the A-10 with eight shutouts (21st nationally) and a 0.69 goals against average (26th nationally), and she ranks second in the league and 41st nationally in goalkeeper minutes (1689:34). She also carries a .794 save percentage.

Stram, who has started 18 of SLU's 19 games, picked up an A-10 postseason honor for a second straight season. She has one assist.

Halverson, Heckel, Puricelli and Stram are components of a backline that has played a major role in continuing Saint Louis' long tradition of defensive excellence. The Billikens lead the conference with a 0.67 goals against average and a .526 shutout percentage (10 shutouts in 19 games), ranking 25th and 31st in the nation, respectively, and have allowed just 8.9 shots, 3.3 shots on goal and 2.4 corner kicks per game. SLU yielded fewer than 10 goals (five) in A-10 regular-season play for a sixth consecutive season.

Gaebe leads the Billikens in goals (six), points (15), shots (42) and shots on goal (24), and she ranks among the league's top 10 in goals per game and shots on goal per game. She had team highs of nine points (3G, 3A), 24 shots and 15 shots on goal in conference play. One of Gaebe's two game-winning goals came in a 1-0 A-10 victory over Richmond.

Sawyer has two goals and an assist and ranks third on the team in shots (38) and shots on goal (19). She scored the game-winning goal vs. Indiana State.

SAINT LOUIS GAME NOTES at RUTGERS

BILLIKENS ADVANCE WITH THRILLING 2-1 WIN AT OLE MISS

• Saint Louis captured its first NCAA Championship victory in 15 years last Friday, defeating No. 17 Ole Miss 2-1 in Oxford, Miss.

• Mattyn Summers' third goal of the season (Hannah Friedrich assist) put the Billikens on top at the 22:16 mark. Ole Miss tallied the equalizer just 13 seconds later.

• Friedrich buried her third goal of the season inside the left post with just 1:25 remaining.

• Friedrich was selected to the Top Drawer Soccer Team of the Week for her three-point performance and game-winning goal.

• SLU earned slight advantages in total shots (14-12) and shots on goal (6-5). The Billikens had three corner kicks while holding the Rebels without a corner.

SAINT LOUIS' NCAA CHAMPIONSHIP HISTORY

• Saint Louis is making its sixth appearance (fourth consecutive) in the NCAA Championship. The Billikens have a 3-4-1 record in the national tournament.

• 2021 – Defeated No. 17 Ole Miss 2-1.

• 2020 – Tied Washington 0-0; Washington advanced on PKs.

• 2019 – Lost to Notre Dame 1-0.

• 2018 – Lost to Kansas 2-1 (2 OT).

• 2006 – Defeated Drake 2-0; lost to No. 15 Illinois 4-1.

• 2005 – Defeated No. 18 Stanford 2-0; lost to No. 5 Santa Clara 4-0.

BILLIKENS vs. RANKED TEAMS

• The Billikens have a 5-17-4 record vs. nationally ranked teams but have won two of their last three vs. ranked opponents.

• SLU's 3-1 victory at No. 7 Arkansas last season was its first win in six tries vs. a top-10 team.

• Tonight's game vs. Rutgers is the Billikens' fourth vs. a top-5 foe. SLU's highest-ranked opponent was No. 3 Maryland in 2011.

• Saint Louis is playing back-to-back games vs. nationally ranked opponents for a third time in program history (2002, 2005).

BILLIKENS SHARING THE WEALTH IN THE POSTSEASON

• Saint Louis has been known for a balanced attack in recent seasons, and that balance has been on full display in the A-10 Championship and NCAA Championship.

• The Billikens have scored 12 goals in four postseason games, including two own goals. The 10 goals credited to SLU players have been scored by seven different individuals. Two additional players have an assist, making it nine players with at least one point.

A-10 CHAMPIONSHIP RECAP

• Third-seeded Saint Louis' three victories in the Atlantic 10 Conference Championship occurred in distinctly different ways.

• Quarterfinals: SLU 2, Rhode Island 1 (2 OT) – Playing at home, the Billikens trailed Rhode Island 1-0 with time winding down. In the 86th minute, Brionna Halverson took a cross from the right flank that eluded a Rhode Island defender and buried it from close range for a 1-1 tie. In the second extra session, Lyndsey Heckel headed Hannah Friedrich's corner kick into the net for a dramatic golden goal.

• Semifinals: SLU 4, Dayton 2 – The Billikens had a 1-0 lead just 25 seconds into the game following a Dayton own goal. The homestanding Flyers pulled even twice in the first half, first answering their early miscue and again following Caroline Kelly's

28th-minute tally. Mattyn Summers scored what proved to be the game-winner just five minutes into the second half, and a second Dayton own goal provided insurance.

• Final: SLU 4, Massachusetts 1 – The Billikens led 1-0 at halftime on a goal by Hannah Friedrich. After UMass scored the equalizer in the 54th minute, Lyndsey Heckel, Emily Gaebel and Abbie Miller found the back of the net in a span of 13:28 to put the game away.

SLU PLACES SIX ON A-10 ALL-TOURNAMENT TEAM

• Mattyn Summers was selected the Most Outstanding Player of the Atlantic 10 Championship.

• Summers was joined on the All-Tournament team by Hannah Friedrich, Brionna Halverson, Lyndsey Heckel, Caroline Kelly and Emily Puricelli.

HEAD COACH KATIE SHIELDS

• Now in her ninth season leading the Billikens, 2018 and 2019 Atlantic 10 Conference Coach of the Year Katie Shields owns a 114-53-14 career record (all at Saint Louis) for a .669 winning percentage.

• Shields, who spent one season as a SLU assistant before taking the head-coaching reins, has guided the Billikens to a conference-best 92-24-9 (.772) mark since the beginning of the 2016 season. That record includes a 48-6-4 (.862) ledger in A-10 regular-season play.

• Shields' Billikens are playing in the NCAA Championship for a fourth straight season after becoming the first team in A-10 women's soccer history to win four consecutive conference tournament crowns.

• The Billikens also made history a season ago when they became the first A-10 women's soccer team to capture both regular-season and tournament titles in three consecutive years. Shields and her staff were selected East Region Coaching Staff of the Year by the United Soccer Coaches.

• Shields' players have earned All-America honors twice, All-Region plaudits 19 times and Atlantic 10 accolades (first team, second team, All-Rookie) 53 times. In addition, Billikens have been selected A-10 Defensive Player of the Year five times (five of the past six seasons), Midfielder of the Year and Rookie of the Year twice each, and Offensive Player of the Year once.

• Shields began the 2021 campaign ranked 27th in winning percentage among active NCAA Division I head coaches.

BILLIKENS IN THE A-10 STATISTICAL RANKINGS

• Saint Louis leads the Atlantic 10 Conference in corner kicks (7.68/game, No. 4 nationally), goals against average (0.76, No. 33 nationally) and shutout percentage (.455, 10 shutouts in 22 games).

• Emily Puricelli tops the league in goalkeeper minutes played (1959:34, No. 8 nationally), shutouts (eight, No. 31 nationally) and goals against average (0.78, No. 36 nationally).

• Abbie Miller and Lyndsey Heckel are tied for third in game-winning goals (three).

• Hannah Friedrich is tied for third in assists per game (0.37).

SAINT LOUIS GAME NOTES at RUTGERS

FRIEDRICH CLIMBING CAREER LISTS

- Hannah Friedrich ranks among the top 10 on eight Saint Louis career statistical lists.

- Friedrich owns the school record of 15 game-winning goals. Six of those clinchers have come in the 84th minute or later, including two golden goals.

- She is second in points (93), assists (35) and game-winning assists (17), tied for second in goals (29), fourth in shots (216), tied for third in starts (81) and tied for ninth in games played (82) on SLU's career lists.

- A season ago, Friedrich's 14 assists tied for the national lead and were just one shy of matching the school record.

- In her freshman season (2018), Friedrich scored a school-record 30 points (11G, 8A); her 11 goals were good for a third-place tie on SLU's all-time single-season chart.

- She followed with another 11-goal output in 2019, and her 28 points (11G, 6A) tied for fourth on the Billikens' single-season list.

- Friedrich scored a school-record seven game-winning goals in 2019, including a pair of golden goals.

- Her game-winning goals (15) and game-winning assists (17) total of 32 is the highest in Billiken women's soccer history.

FRIEDRICH MAKES HERMANN TROPHY WATCH LIST

- Senior Hannah Friedrich was one of 59 NCAA Division I women's soccer student-athletes named to the 2021 MAC Hermann Trophy Watch List.

- Friedrich is the second player from Saint Louis to earn inclusion on the list, joining Alli Klug (2018, 2019).

FRESHMEN AND SOPHOMORES MAKING BIG IMPACT

- Saint Louis' underclassmen have contributed to the Billikens' attack in a significant way.

- Of the 31 goals scored by SLU (not including two own goals), freshmen and sophomores have tallied 22. In A-10 regular-season play, they netted 11 of 15.

- Freshman Emily Gaebe leads the underclassmen with a team-high seven goals, followed by sophomores Caroline Kelly and Lyndsey Heckel with five apiece. Freshmen Mattyn Summers and Hannah Sawyer have three and two goals, respectively.

CLEAN SHEET TOTAL HITS DOUBLE DIGITS AGAIN

- Saint Louis' 1-0 win over Richmond was the Billikens' 10th shutout of the season.

- SLU has posted 10 or more shutouts in 11 of its 26 seasons of women's soccer. The school record for clean sheets is 13, first accomplished in 2003 and repeated in 2004, 2017, 2018 and 2019.

- Nine of SLU's 13 wins this season have been shutouts. A 10th clean sheet came in a 0-0 draw vs. Missouri State.

... AND SOME MORE DEFENSE

- For a sixth consecutive season, the Billikens allowed fewer than 10 goals (five) in A-10 regular-season play.

- Since the streak began in 2016, SLU has yielded just 27 goals to conference opponents in 58 regular-season games.

THREE CURRENT BILLIKENS MAKE 25TH ANNIVERSARY TEAM

- As part of the celebration of the 25th anniversary of the beginning of its women's soccer program in 1996, Saint Louis University announced a 25th Anniversary Team Oct. 3.

- Three current players were among the 20 selected – Hannah Friedrich, Brionna Halverson and Abbie Miller.

SLU DOMINANT IN THE ATLANTIC 10

- Including A-10 Championship games, the Billikens are 45-3-1 vs. conference opponents since the beginning of 2018.

- Saint Louis was undefeated and untied in regular-season league play in 2018 (10-0-0) and 2020 (8-0-0), and undefeated in 2019 (9-0-1).

KEEPING THEM AT HOME

- Saint Louis traditionally has featured a large number of players from its back yard, and this season is no exception.

- Of the 27 players on the Billikens' roster, 15 are from the St. Louis area – 11 from the Missouri side of the Mississippi River, four from the Illinois side.

19 RETURN FROM 2020

- SLU returned all 11 starters and eight additional players from its 2020 squad that posted records of 15-1-1 overall and 8-0-0 in the Atlantic 10 Conference; captured A-10 regular-season and conference tournament titles and advanced to the NCAA Championship for a third consecutive year; and finished the season with the No. 20 ranking in the United Soccer Coaches national poll.

- Among the Billikens' returning starters are three players who earned A-10 major postseason awards last spring. Senior forward Hannah Friedrich was the league's Offensive Player of the Year, sophomore goalkeeper Emily Puricelli collected Defensive Player of the Year accolades, and junior midfielder Abbie Miller garnered Midfielder of the Year plaudits.

- Joining that trio on the All-Conference first team were senior defender Brionna Halverson, sophomore midfielder Hannah Larson, and sophomore defenders Lyndsey Heckel and Sophia Stram. Senior forward Emily Groark was a second-team choice. Friedrich, Miller and Halverson were first-team All-Region selections, while Puricelli and Larson made the second team.

- Also returning from the Billikens' 2020 first 11 are junior defender Sydney Beach, junior midfielder Karsen Kohl and sophomore midfielder Jess Preusser. They are joined by senior midfielder Brianna Hatfield, junior forward/midfielder Brianna Arthur, junior midfielder Jaime DeBerardinis, junior defender Sophia Denison, junior midfielder Anna Lawler, junior midfielder Anna Walsh, sophomore forward/midfielder Gracie English and sophomore forward Caroline Kelly.

SAINT LOUIS IN 26TH SEASON OF WOMEN'S SOCCER

- The 2021 season is the 26th in the history of Saint Louis University women's soccer.

- The Billikens are 295-169-57 overall, a .621 winning percentage.

- In conference play (Conference USA 1996-2004, Atlantic 10 since 2005), SLU is 155-71-26 (.667).

- The 2021 campaign is Saint Louis' 17th winning season.

- Last spring, the Billikens posted a 10th season with a winning percentage of .700 or better and the best winning percentage in program history (.912).

- Saint Louis has captured 12 conference championships (six regular-season, six tournament) and has made six NCAA Championship appearances (2005, 2006, 2018, 2019, 2020, 2021). The 2005, 2006 and 2021 teams reached the second round with first-round wins; the 2020 Billikens were seeded into the second round in an abbreviated 48-team tournament field.

WHAT'S A BILLIKEN?

The Billiken was born Oct. 8, 1908, when Kansas City art teacher and illustrator Florence Pretz patented a design for an elflike creature with pixie ears, a mischievous smile and a tuft of hair on his pointed head. Reportedly, the image came to her in a dream.

Although it didn't appear on the actual patent, some believe Pretz found the Billiken name in a fanciful work entitled, "Mr. Moon: A Song of the Little People," by Canadian poets Bliss Carman and Richard Hovey.

Within a short time, Pretz sold her patented image to the Billiken Company of Chicago. Initially manufactured as a bank and statuette, and later as a doll, this good luck charm soon became a national craze. By 1911, the Billiken's likeness adorned everything from marshmallow candies to hood ornaments.

In his heyday, the Billiken enjoyed worldwide fame. Artisans in Alaska began carving his image into ivory, and in Japan, he appeared in shrines, amusement parks and even a movie.

Like many other fads, the Billiken might have faded into obscurity if it were not for Saint Louis University law student John Bender, who also happened to be the coach of SLU's football team during the height of Billikenmania.

One story claims that nearby drugstore owner Billy Gunn called Bender a Billiken when the coach walked into his establishment one day. Supposedly, legendary sportswriter William O'Connor was within earshot of the remark and took up the moniker not only for Bender but also for SLU's sports teams.

Another tale claims O'Connor himself dubbed the coach a Billiken after a particularly good practice left Bender beaming with a big smile. After practice, Bender's fellow law student Charles Z. McNamara, a local cartoonist, sketched Bender as a Billiken, posted it in Gunn's drugstore window and tabbed the football team "Bender's Billikens."

Yet another yarn reports that the druggist asked McNamara to decorate his store window the night before a homecoming game. Supposedly, McNamara drew a Billiken, a popular good luck charm, causing one of his fellow students to exclaim, "That looks like coach Bender!"

Whatever the case, O'Connor is generally credited for popularizing the name throughout the city, but one fact flies in the face of this legend and lore. O'Connor did not join the St. Louis Post-Dispatch until Nov. 26, 1911, one full month after the newspaper first mentioned "Bender's Billikens."

Regardless of how the story is told or whether his mysterious origins are ever finally resolved, the Billiken remains a good luck charm for Saint Louis University's sports teams and always brings smiles to the faces of SLU fans.

Legend has it that the Billiken has three kinds of luck – good, better and best. Buying a Billiken gives the buyer good luck. To have one given to you is better luck. The best luck comes if the Billiken is stolen.
