LEADING OFF

Loyola Chicago (9-3-6, 4-2-4 A-10) claimed the No. 7 seed in the Atlantic 10 Tournament and faces No. 2 Saint Louis (13-3-2, 8-1-1 A-10) in the quarterfinals on Saturday, Nov. 1 at 2 p.m. at Hermann Stadium in Saint Louis, Mo.

QUICK KICKS

- The Ramblers make their third conference tournament appearance in four years as an A-10 school.
- Goalkeeper Allison Deardorff was named the final A-10 Defensive Player of the Week after combining for 13 saves and a .929 save percentage against Rhode Island (Oct. 23) and at Saint Louis (Oct. 26), where she secured her ninth shutout of the season.
- Deardorff enters the postseason sitting at second in saves percentage (.859) and in saves per game (4.72), and ranks third in goals against average (.778) and in shutouts (9).
- Junior forward Zoe Hevey leads Loyola in points (16) with five goals and six assists, in shots (67) and in shots on goal (27), placing her at eighth, fifth and sixth in the conference, respectively.
- The Ramblers rank ninth in the eastern region of the United Soccer Coaches (USC) Top 10 Regional Rankings.
- Loyola welcomed 10 newcomers to their 2025 roster, including five true freshmen and five transfers while 18 Ramblers returned.
- At the helm of the program is head coach Jon Sandoval in his first season at Loyola.

SCOUTING THE SAINT LOUIS BILLIKENS

At the No. 2 seed, Saint Louis tallied five shutouts in A-10 play and had six goals allowed against conference opponents. The Billikens' only league loss was a 2-0 shutout by the Dayton Flyers in Saint Louis (Oct. 16).

The defending A-10 Tournament champions have 13 different goal scorers, led by red-shirt senior Julia Simon with six; sophomore Kim Hope paces the team in shots behind 38. Starting goalkeeper Emma Parker has 36 total saves and a 0.78 GAA through 18 games played.

SERIES HISTORY

Saint Louis leads the series, 5-0-2, with Loyola and the Billikens are 3-0 at Hermann Stadium against the Ramblers. In the most recent matchup, Loyola and Saint Louis played to a scoreless draw for the second tie in the all-time series. Deardorff made eight saves between the posts, and the Ramblers got three shots off compared to the Billikens' 15.

The Ramblers and Billikens met in the A-10 tournament for the first time in the 2023 quarterfinals round in Saint Louis where Loyola fell 3-0 to SLU.

THE SANDOVAL ERA

INTRODUCING HEAD COACH JON SANDOVAL

Jon Sandoval was hired as the new head coach of the Ramblers' women's soccer program in December 2024. Sandoval brings an impressive track record of success and leadership to Loyola, having spent the last five years elevating the Northern Michigan University (NMU) women's soccer team to national prominence.

Sandoval arrived to Rogers Park following a standout career at NMU where he transformed the Wildcats into a perennial powerhouse. In 2024, the program won back-to-back Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (GLIAC) regular season and tournament titles and made its third consecutive NCAA Division II Tournament appearance. Sandoval was named GLIAC Coach of the Year for the second straight season while three Wildcats collected Offensive Player of the Year, Defensive Player of the Year and Freshman of the Year postseason accolades.

In 2023, Sandoval guided NMU to its first-ever GLIAC regular season and tournament championship titles. His accomplishments earned him GLIAC Coach of the Year for the first time, and under Sandoval's leadership the Wildcats finished the season ranked eighth in the United Soccer Coaches Division II Women's Soccer Poll, garnering the program national recognition.

Over his tenure at NMU, Sandoval posted a 62-20-15 career record and an overall .716 winning percentage after five seasons – the best of any head coach to lead the program. Prior to his arrival, NMU had not had a winning season since 2011. Sandoval has coached five Players of the Year, five All-Americans, two Freshmen of the Year and 22 all-conference awardees and eight All-Region players.

Prior to his head coaching position at NMU, Sandoval was the assistant coach for the Wildcats men's soccer team from 2018-2020. Before that, he served as an assistant coach at St. Ambrose University, helping the team reach the Chicagoland Collegiate Athletic Conference semifinals. Sandoval held the head coach position at Davenport West High School in Iowa, where he guided the program to its first-ever tournament championship.

Sandoval had his first coaching position at his alma mater, Western Illinois University, as an assistant coach and director of operations for three seasons. As a student-athlete, Sandoval helped the Fighting Leathernecks to an appearance in the 2010 NCAA Tournament and was awarded captain status for his senior campaign.

A native of East Moline, Ill., Sandoval earned his bachelor's degree in psychology in 2012 before attaining two master's degrees from Western Illinois University (MA) and St. Ambrose University (MBA).

FRESH SLATE OF ASSISTANTS

Natalie Stampfly, Brady Moody and Sean Palacios joined the program in January and March 2025 to complete Sandoval's coaching staff.

Stampfly joined the Ramblers after a successful 2024 season as an assistant coach with NMU's women's soccer team, where she was also a five-year letterwinner. With the Wildcats and Sandoval, Stampfly helped guide the program to the GLIAC regular season and tournament championships, and an appearance in the NCAA D-II tournament.

A Bolingbrook, Ill. native, Moody previously served as an assistant coach specializing in goalkeeping at the United States Air Force Academy and the University of Tulsa, where he was also a four-year letterwinner. At Tulsa, Moody coached the 2022 American Athletic Conference Goalkeeper of the Year.

Chicago local Palacios has coached eight club teams to an Illinois State Championship and currently serves as the Senior Girls Director at Chicago FC United Soccer Club. He played collegiately at Western Illinois and competed in the 2005 and 2006 NCAA tournament, winning the Mid-Con Tournament both of those years.
