GAME 20

RHODE ISLAND (12-5-2, 5-3-2 A-10)

at Saint Louis (14-3-2, 8-1-1 A-10)

Nov. 5, 2025 • Hermann Stadium • Saint Louis, Mo.

RHODE ISLAND VS. SAINT LOUIS - SERIES NOTES

- Rhode Island makes the trip to Saint Louis for the semifinal round of the 2025 Atlantic 10 women's soccer championship.
- A win Wednesday would snap a four-game winning streak in the all-time series.
- The last Rhody win against the Billikens was a 1-0 win on Oct. 24, 2021. The victory helped the Rams secure a spot in the 2021 A-10 playoffs, falling to SLU 2-1 in the Quarterfinal round.
- It's the first trip to Saint Louis for Rhody since a 6-0 shutout on Oct. 13, 2022.
- In the meeting earlier this season, the Rams fell 4-1 in Kingston.
- Rhode Island is 6-1-2 on the road this season, while SLU is 7-1-2 at Hermann Stadium.
- The game will feature the No. 4 and No. 2 seeds of the A-10.
- Wednesday's other semifinal match features top-seeded Dayton vs. sixth-seeded Fordham.

SCOUTING THE BILLIKENS

- Saint Louis enters Wednesday's match with a record of 14-3-2, most recently defeating Loyola Chicago 6-0 in a dominant Quarterfinal win.
- The six goals came from six different players, and were the most goals scored in an Atlantic 10 conference tournament game.
- The shutout was the Billikens' 11th of the season. Keeper Emma Parker recorded her ninth clean sheet with three saves on the match.
- Saint Louis is led by Izzy Luebbert's 15 points on seven assists and four goals.
- Freshman Caroline Chier was named the A-10 Co-Rookie of the Year, it was announced Tuesday.

THREE RAMS COLLECT POSTSEASON ACCOLADES

- Rhode Island women's soccer had three Rams earn Atlantic 10 postseason honors, the league announced.
- Junior Lauren MacDonald was named to the All-Conference Second Team for the second straight year, becoming the first Ram to earn back-to-back A-10 postseason honors since Kaylen Shimoda in 2009 and 2010.
- Additionally, McKenna Sylvester and Mie Carstensen were both selected to the All-Academic Team, marking Rhode Island's first All-Academic recognition since 2016.
- The Rams, who face Saint Louis on Wednesday in their first semifinal appearance since 2006, picked up their 12th win of the season last time out — the most under head coach Megan Jessee and matching the program's highest total since 2002.
- MacDonald leads Rhode Island's offense with 21 points on eight goals and five assists, starting all 19 games this season. Her standout junior campaign has moved her up the program's all-time scoring list, entering Wednesday's match with 43 career points. She's the only Ram in the past decade to surpass 40.
- Carstensen, a marketing major, leads the team with seven assists and has tallied 15 points this season, becoming the third player to reach double figures in scoring.
- Sylvester, an electrical engineering major, has scored all eight of her career goals this season and ranks second on the team with 20 points.

Megan Jessee enters her ninth season as head coach of the Rhode Island women's soccer program in 2025. Jessee led the Rams to their best league slate of her tenure in 2021, going 5-4-1. It was the best conference record for the Rams since 2007, and Jessee led URI to its first A-10 postseason appearance since 2016. In her first year at the helm, Jessee led the Rams to wins over Vermont, Vanderbilt, and Albany. Jessee's first career conference victory came in a win over Richmond during the 2019 season. Also highlighted in the 2019 schedule was a four-game unbeaten streak featuring a 1-1 draw at Pittsburgh (ACC).

RAMS AT THE ATLANTIC 10 CHAMPIONSHIP

- Rhode Island beat VCU 2-1 in the Atlantic 10 Quarterfinal last time out, securing its first postseason victory since 2006.
- The Rams move to 5-10 all-time at the A-10 Championship.
- URI made its last appearance in 2023, falling to La Salle 2-0.
- It's the third postseason appearance for the Rams under head coach Megan Jessee.
- The last win at the Atlantic 10 Championship came in 2006, when Rhode Island beat Dayton 3-2 in the Quarterfinal round.
- The Rams have never won an Atlantic 10 Championship title.
- The winner of the Atlantic 10 Championship will earn the league's automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament.

HOW 'BOUT THOSE RHODY RAMS

- Rhode Island dominated its final stretch of the regular season, outscoring opponents 16-8 over the last 10 matches.
- The Rams were 6-1-2 on the road this season, their best road record since 2007.
- At home in Kingston, Rhody has secured six victories, establishing a strong home field advantage at the URI Soccer Complex.
- A win on Wednesday would mark Rhode Island's 13th victory of the season, the program's most since its 16-win campaign in 2002 under head coach Geoff Bennett.
- The program record for wins in a single season is 16, set in 2002, the year Rhode Island earned an at-large bid to the NCAA Tournament and picked up a postseason victory.

TRIPLE THREAT

- This season, Rhode Island has three players that have reached double digits in points.
- Junior Lauren MacDonald (21), senior McKenna Sylvester (20) and grad student Mie Carstensen (15) all have reached double digits for points for the first time since 2012.
- It's the first time Rhody has had three players with 10 or more points in the same year since Jennifer Barrientos (15 points), Ashley Evangelista (12) and Ellie Bailes (10) all did in 2012.
- Sylvester and MacDonald pace the Rams in goals with eight a piece, while Carstensen leads Rhode Island with her seven assists.

MACDONALD MOVIN' ON UP

- Junior forward Lauren MacDonald scored her eighth goal of the season last time out, striking first to help the Rams defeat VCU and pick up their first postseason victory since 2006.
- With 43 career points, MacDonald moved into a tie with Gina Rosen (1999-02) for 13th all-time on URI's career scoring list, passing former Ram Nicole Brennan (2013-16) who had 40 career points in 75 games.
- The all-time program record for points is held by Sue Rocchio (1984-87), who totaled 125 career points on 56 goals and 13 assists in just 61 games.
- MacDonald has been a consistent producer this fall, posting 21 points through 19 games and recording at least one point in 10 matches.
- She leads the Rams with 73 total shots, including 38 shots on goal.

SYLVESTER STAYS HOT

- In the match against Saint Louis, senior McKenna Sylvester scored her team-high eighth goal of the season.
- In addition to her finding the back of the net, Sylvester has handed out three assists.
- Her eight goals rank third in the Atlantic 10, behind Fordham's Liina Tervo (10) and Duquesne's Maya Matesa (17). Tervo (27) and Matesa (39) are also ahead of her in the A-10 standings in points.
- Sylvester is having herself a breakout senior season, starting the year with her first career goal in Rhody's win over Le Moyne.
- Before the score, Sylvester had one point during her three years in Kingston - an assist a season ago at UMass Lowell.

ASSISTS ALL AROUND

- Rhode Island's offense has been a team effort, with 10 different players recording at least one assist this season.
- The Rams are led by Mie Carstensen, who has handed out seven assists this season after dishing out an assist against VCU last time out.
- Lauren MacDonald and Jill Rosenfeld have five assists a piece.
- In the win over Davidson, Kaia Rice and Nika Jacobs added their first assists of the season on Sarah Yee's first career goal.
- In the win over the Wildcats, Courtney Poon assisted on MacDonald's score for her second handout of the year.

EDEN SETS PROGRAM RECORD

- In URI's 5-0 win at George Washington, keeper Dani Eden recorded her 10th shutout of the season.
- Her ninth shutout, a 2-0 win over Davidson, broke Jamie Epperlein's record of eight in 2001.
- Dayton's Batoul Reda leads the Atlantic 10 and the country with 13 shutouts. Eden sits just behind her with her 10 clean sheets.
- Eden has allowed 14 goals through 19 games.
- Last season, Eden made her Rhode Island debut after transferring from Drexel.
- She had just one appearance between the posts against Richmond before suffering a season-ending injury.
- She made eight saves against the Spiders, keeping the net empty and shutting out the visitors 6-0.

STEINBACH STRIKES FOR HER FIRST

- Rhode Island junior Megan Steinbach scored her first career goal at George Washington.
- In the scoring spree, Steinbach added the fifth goal of the day to secure the win.
- She's one of 10 different players to find the back of the net this season.

CARSTENSEN COOKING

- Rhode Island grad student Mie Carstensen was credited with a pair of assists at George Washington, her first multi-assist game of her career.
- With her handout last time out against VCU, Carstensen leads the team with seven assists, moving past teammate Lauren MacDonald for the top spot.
- Carstensen has also added four goals on the year, bringing her season total to 15 points.
- She currently ranks third on the team in scoring and is the third Ram to reach double-digit points this season.
