Jackie Kempf – 1,894 (2014-18)

Kempf's ability to drive to the bucket, hit from beyond the arc and get to the foul line made her a multi-dimensional scoring threat. She also set SLU career records for assists, free throws made, games played and games started.

2. Cjaia Harbison - 1,688 (2018-2022)

Harbison's notorious pull-up jumper led her to the second spot on SLU's all-time scoring chart, while her average of 15.9 points were third. She also finished her career ranked third in free throws made, fourth in assists and fifth in steals.

3. Sadie Stipanovich – 1,585 (2013-17)

Stipanovich's finishing ability at the rim and excellent touch at the foul line allowed her to enter the 1,000-point club during her junior season. She scored a career-high 496 points in her senior campaign and held the SLU career record for one year before Kempf eclipsed it.

4. Shatoya Likely – 1,545 (1994-98)

Likely was the Billikens' leading scorer in three of her four seasons and scored at least 346 points in all four campaigns. She ranks fifth on SLU's career 3-pointers list and is among the top 10 in four other categories.

5. Peyton Kennedy – 1,504 (2020-25)

Kennedy made her way into the 1,000-point club during her fourth season at SLU which saw her set the program's single-season scoring record (677) and lead the Billikens to their first-ever WNIT crown.

6. Julie Hacker-Buehne – 1,479 (1985-90)

Hacker-Buehne was a force inside for the Billikens in the late 1980s. She burst onto the SLU scene with a career-best 385 points as a freshman. An injury cut short her sophomore year, but she bounced back with three strong seasons.

7. Jamie Cavaness – 1,412 (1995-99)

Cavaness teamed with Shatoya Likely to form a potent inside-outside tandem. She ranks second at SLU in career shooting percentage at .517 and is among the top 10 in four other categories.

8. Mandy Lueking – 1,392 (1996-2000)

Perhaps the best pure outside shooter in Billiken history, Lueking is still fourth on the career chart with a .370 accuracy rate from beyond the arc. She was deadly from the foul line, hitting 84.3 percent of her attempts.

9. Theresa Lisch – 1,363 (2006-09)

Lisch decided to forgo her fourth year of eligibility after graduating early. She produced six school marks in three seasons, including an .869 career free throw percentage as well as a season-record 574 points in 2008-09. Lisch's 17.0 scoring average is second on SLU's career chart.

10. Lynette Pestel – 1,340 (1992-96)

Pestel is unmatched in Billiken history in launching from 3-point land. More than half of her field goals came from 3-point range, and her 480 points in 1993-94 are SLU's eighth-best season total.

11. Angie Lewis – 1,300 (2000-04)

Lewis finished her career ranked sixth in career scoring at SLU. She set the school record of 15 field goals made in a game during the 2003-04 season. Lewis became the first Billiken to sign a pro contract when she inked with Bensberg, Germany, in 2004.

12. Brooke Flowers – 1,284 (2018-23)

Flowers was a two-time Atlantic 10 Defensive Player of the Year. She is one of two players in Billiken history with at least 1,000 points and 1,000 rebounds.

11. Kelly George – 1,282 (1995-99)

George was fearless in driving to the basket. She tied what was then the Bills' single-game record of 35 points against Valparaiso in 1998.

12. Arlene Lampe – 1,271 (1982-86)

Lampe was the first player in Billiken history to tally at least 1,000 points and 1,000 rebounds in her career. A dominating center, she is the school's all-time leader in field-goal percentage (.552).

13. Kyla McMakin – 1,268 (2022-24)

McMakin played only two seasons at Saint Louis but her impact was immensely felt. A key component of the team's first-ever NCAA berth and WNIT title, McMakin set the program's single-season scoring record in 2022.

T-14. Amanda Kemezys – 1,244 (2005-10)

Kemezys became only the second player in program history to score 1,000 points, collect 800 rebounds and shoot better than 50 percent from the floor during her career, joining Arlene Lampe.

T-14. Katie Paganelli – 1,244 (2006-10)

Paganelli's prolific 3-point shooting and high accuracy rate from the foul line lifted her to the 1,000-point plateau. She ranks fourth in Billiken history in treys (168) and sixth in free throw percentage (.780).

15. Jordyn Frantz – 1,239 (2015-19)

Frantz scored more than half of her points from beyond the arc, finishing second on SLU's career list with 216 3-pointers and posting two of the program's top four single-season totals. She also helped her cause at the foul line, shooting 76.4 percent to rank 10th on the Billikens' career chart.

16. Missy Meinberg – 1,211 (1986-90)

Meinberg was a consistent scorer during her Billiken career. She averaged double digits in scoring in all four of her seasons and topped 300 points in a campaign three times.

17. Donna Luechtefeld – 1,200 (1990-94)

Donna was one of five Luechtefelds to play basketball at Saint Louis. She twice led the team in scoring and rebounding. Luechtefeld used her size to her advantage and was an accurate mid-range shooter.

18. Kate Hart – 1,173 (1979-82)

Like Lisch, Hart played only three seasons at Saint Louis. A key component of a successful early era of SLU hoops, she holds the Bills' career scoring average record of 18.0.

20. Nancy Mueller – 1,064 (1978-82)

Mueller teamed with Hart to form a strong offensive attack in the early 1980s. Her 21.7 scoring average in 1981-82 is the best in school history, and her career shooting percentage was just under .500.

21. Lauren Woods – 1,057 (2007-11)

Woods was adept at getting to the foul line and finished her career third in program history with 344 free throws. She enjoyed her best season as a junior, averaging 14.1 points.

22. Desirae Ball – 1,036 (2011-15)

After redshirting her first year due to injury, Ball bounced back to score more than 560 points in her first two campaigns. She produced her best season as a junior, posting a 12.3 scoring average, hitting 35 3-pointers and connecting at an 83-percent clip at the free throw line.

23. Jenny Vliet – 1,016 (2014-18)

Vliet, who tied Kempf for SLU's career games played record, concluded her career second on the Billikens' 3-point field goals list (199) and seventh on the 3-point percentage chart (.345). She also was fourth in blocks and ninth in rebounds.
