BILLIKENS SEEK 3-0 RECORD VS. 2025 INTRASTATE RIVALS

• Saint Louis (3-2) tries to maintain its unblemished 2025 record vs. intrastate opponents when the Billikens and Missouri State (2-3-1) square off tonight at Hermann Stadium.

• The Bills are 2-0 vs. state-of-Missouri teams this season, defeating Kansas City 4-0 and Missouri 1-0.

• Missouri State, in its first year in Conference USA after exiting the Missouri Valley Conference, is 1-2 in intrastate battles this year. The Bears topped Southeast Missouri State 3-0 and suffered losses to Kansas City (1-0) and, in their most recent outing on Sunday, Missouri (2-0).

• Saint Louis owns a 13-2-6 series lead over Missouri State, the most frequent non-conference opponent in Billiken women's soccer history. SLU is 5-0-4 vs. the Bears in St. Louis, including a 0-0 draw in the most recent meeting at Hermann Stadium (2021).

• Since Saint Louis last fell to Missouri State (1-0 in 2011), the Billikens are 5-0-1 vs. the Bears and have not allowed a goal. The last two meetings have occurred in Springfield, with SLU winning 4-0 in 2024 and 7-0 in 2022.

• Julia Simon and Audrey Smith scored a goal apiece and Hannah Larson and Nina Preusser each tallied an assist in last year's game.

SAINT LOUIS IN 30TH SEASON OF WOMEN'S SOCCER

• The 2025 season is the 30th in SLU women's soccer history.

• The Billikens are 352-179-65 for a .645 winning percentage.

• In conference play (Conference USA 1996-2004, Atlantic 10 since 2005), SLU is 181-71-30 (.695).

• Saint Louis has captured 18 conference championships (nine regular-season, nine tournament) and has made nine NCAA Championship appearances (2005, 2006, 2018, 2019, 2020, 2021, 2022, 2023, 2024).

• The 2023 team became the first in program history to reach the round of 16. The 2005, 2006 and 2021 teams reached the second round with first-round wins; the 2020 Billikens (season played in spring 2021) were seeded into the second round in an abbreviated 48-team tournament field.

• The 2024 Billikens produced a 20th winning season (ninth consecutive) for the program and was the 11th team in program history to have a .750 or higher winning percentage (including three straight and eight of the past nine years). With 15 victories, the 2024 Bills became the 10th SLU women's soccer team (including three straight and seven of the past eight years) to win 15 or more games.

HEAD COACH KATIE SHIELDS

• Now in her 13th season leading the Billikens, 2018, 2019 and 2022 Atlantic 10 Conference Coach of the Year Katie Shields owns a 171-63-22 career record (all at Saint Louis). Shields' .711 career winning percentage ranks ninth among active NCAA Division I women's soccer coaches with a minimum of five seasons.

• In addition to the 2022 A-10 coaching honor, Shields and her staff were selected the United Soccer Coaches 2022 East Region Coaching Staff of the Year, the second such honor for SLU (2020).

• Shields, who spent one year as a SLU assistant before becoming head coach, has guided the Bills to a league-best 149-34-17 mark since the start of the 2016 season. Her .788 winning percentage during that span ranks second among all active Division I women's soccer coaches (minimum five seasons) and is tops among active female Division I women's soccer coaches.

• Shields' record since 2016 includes a 94-8-8 (.891) ledger vs. A-10 opponents (including conference tournament games).

• Shields' Billikens played in a seventh straight NCAA Tournament last year after extending the A-10 women's soccer record for consecutive league tournament championships to seven.

• The Billikens also made history five seasons ago when they became the first A-10 women's soccer team to capture both regular-season and tournament titles in three consecutive years (2018-20). They repeated the feat from 2022-24.

• Shields' players have earned All-America honors seven times, All-Region plaudits 29 times and Atlantic 10 accolades (first team, second team, All-Rookie) 77 times. In addition, Billikens have been selected A-10 Defensive Player of the Year eight times (eight of the past nine seasons), Offensive Player of the Year four times (including each of the past three seasons), Midfielder of the Year three times, Rookie of the Year twice and Goalkeeper of the Year once (award was initiated in 2023).

SAINT LOUIS GAME NOTES vs. MISSOURI STATE

BILLIKENS IN THE A-10, NATIONAL STATISTICS

- Saint Louis is tied for second in the Atlantic 10 Conference and tied for 28th nationally in shutout percentage (.600, three shutouts in five games). The Billikens also are second in the A-10 (60th nationally) in assists per game (2.00).
- SLU is fourth in the league in points per game (4.80) and corner kicks per game (5.80, 74th nationally).

SMITH ON A HOT STREAK

- After scoring the game-winner in SLU's 1-0 win over Indiana, Audrey Smith has tallied three of Saint Louis' last four goals.
- Smith leads the team with three goals and six points. She is tied for fifth in the Atlantic 10 Conference in goals per game (0.60).

BILLIKENS SPREADING THE WEALTH OFFENSIVELY

- When Eva Schreiber assisted on SLU's goal in the Indiana game, she became the 10th Billiken to register a point this season.
- Through five games, four different Billikens have netted at least one goal, and seven different Billikens have recorded at least one assist.

BACK-TO-BACK 1-0 SHUTOUTS FIRST FOR SLU IN SEVEN YEARS

- Although Saint Louis has been among the nation's leaders in shutouts in recent seasons, the Billikens did something in their games vs. Missouri and Indiana that they hadn't done in seven years.
- SLU's wins over the Tigers and Hoosiers were 1-0 decisions. It marked the first time the Billikens posted consecutive 1-0 victories since 2018 when they blanked Duquesne and Fordham on Oct. 7 and Oct. 11, respectively.

WIN OVER MISSOURI FEATURED PAIR OF FIRSTS

- SLU's 1-0 win over Missouri Aug. 24 included two individual "firsts."
- Rylee Howard's goal in the fifth minute held up and became the first game-winning tally of her collegiate career.
- Goalkeeper Emma Parker went the distance between the posts and notched the first solo shutout of her collegiate career.

ATTENDANCE FOR MISSOURI GAME IS NATION'S 8TH HIGHEST

- Hermann Stadium was alive Aug. 24 as 4,097 fans attended Saint Louis' 1-0 victory over Missouri.
- The attendance is the eighth highest this season in NCAA Division I women's soccer; the 16th highest this season in NCAA Division I soccer, women or men; and the third highest in history for a Billiken women's soccer game at Hermann Stadium.

OFFENSE AT KANSAS CITY ONE OF SLU'S BEST IN AN OPENER

- Saint Louis' four-goal victory margin at Kansas City was its second largest in a season opener played on the road. The Billikens won 6-1 at Tennessee Tech in the 1997 season opener.
- Also, the four-goal margin was the largest for Saint Louis in any season opener since 2015, when the Bills blanked SMU 5-0 in St. Louis.

BILLIKENS SET TEAM RECORD FOR FASTEST GOAL IN AN OPENER

- When Lucie Schwartz found the back of the net just 39 seconds into SLU's match at Kansas City, it marked the fastest goal in a season opener in program history.
- The previous mark was 1:16 in 2011 and again in 2014.

LUEBBERT GARNERS TOP DRAWER SOCCER RECOGNITION

- Izzy Luebbert earned Top Drawer Soccer Team of the Week honorable mention for her performance in the Billikens' 4-0 season-opening victory at Kansas City Aug. 14.
- Luebbert had three assists vs. the Roos, all on corners. The three helpers and three points are her career single-game highs.

SCHWARTZ DELIVERS CAREER-HIGH POINT TOTAL VS. KC

- Lucie Schwartz tallied a career-high three points to help Saint Louis defeat Kansas City 4-0 in the season opener.
- Schwartz scored the Billikens' first goal of the year off a corner kick just 39 seconds into the game and recorded an assist on SLU's third goal.

BILLIKENS SELECTED A-10 PRESEASON FAVORITE

- In their preseason poll, Atlantic 10 Conference head coaches made Saint Louis the favorite to capture the 2025 league title.
- The Billikens received 11 of 14 first-place votes and totaled 192 points. Dayton, which garnered two first-place nods and tallied 173 points, finished second in the balloting.
- Fordham (149 points) was third, followed by Loyola Chicago (145), Saint Joseph's (140), Rhode Island (111), La Salle (106), VCU (97, one first-place vote), Davidson (91), Duquesne (79), George Mason (64), Richmond (59), George Washington (50) and St. Bonaventure (14).
- The 11-member preseason All-Conference team included five Billikens – Hope Kim, Hannah Larson, Izzy Luebbert, Eva Schreiber and Julia Simon.

SCHEDULE FEATURES FOUR "POWER 4" OPPONENTS

- Saint Louis continued its recent trend of assembling a challenging non-conference schedule as the 2025 Billikens faced four teams – in succession – from "Power 4" conferences.
- The first big test happened at Penn State, which defeated the Bills 4-1. Consecutive 1-0 shutouts of Missouri and Indiana at home followed, and a 3-0 loss at Iowa concluded the gauntlet.
- Saint Louis' 10-game A-10 schedule includes six of the other seven teams that qualified for the 2024 A-10 Championship – Dayton, Fordham, Saint Joseph's, Loyola Chicago, VCU and Davidson. Dayton claimed the No. 52 final RPI ranking in 2024.

SAINT LOUIS GAME NOTES vs. MISSOURI STATE

SIXTH-YEAR PLAYER LARSON LEADS BILLIKENS

•Granted a medical hardship after missing the 2021 season due to injury, plus utilizing the extra year of eligibility allowed by the NCAA due to the COVID-19 pandemic, Hannah Larson is in her sixth year as a Billiken.

•Larson garnered second-team All-Region and first-team All-Conference honors in 2020 (played in spring 2021), and she was a 2023 second-team All-Conference pick. She is a four-time A-10 Championship All-Tournament selection.

•In 17 career postseason games (A-10 and NCAA combined), Larson has six goals and eight assists for 20 points. She has been especially clutch the past two postseasons, recording four goals and seven assists for 15 points in 11 games.

•Larson is tied for fifth in assists (22), 10th in points (66) and tied for ninth in games started (83) on the Saint Louis career charts, and she is closing in on the top 10 in four other SLU career categories. She needs one game-winning assist (currently has five), two goals (currently has 22), two game-winning goals (currently has seven) and three games played (currently has 83).

LARSON HIGH AMONG ACTIVE NCAA PLAYERS

•Hannah Larson ranks among the top 10 active NCAA women's soccer players (includes all three divisions) in two categories.

•Larson's 83 games played rank second, while her 22 assists rank 16th.

17 RETURN FROM 2024 TEAM

•Five starters and 12 additional players return from the 2024 Billikens.

•Returning starters are midfielder/forward Hannah Larson, forward/midfielder Julia Simon, defender Izzy Luebbert, forward Hope Kim and forward/midfielder Lucie Schwartz. Simon was named to the All-Conference second team and Kim was an A-10 All-Rookie selection in 2024.

•Also back are forwards Audrey Smith, Rylee Howard, Emily Fox and Sarah Sarnowski; midfielders Ashley Miller, Nina Preusser and Ellie Paloucek; defenders Eva Schreiber, Camille Welker and Jordan Gary; forward/defender Caigan Leonard; and goalkeeper Nimu Karani.

BILLIKENS WELCOME 11 NEWCOMERS

•One transfer and 10 freshmen joined the SLU program this season.

•Goalkeeper Emma Parker transferred to Saint Louis following one season at Arkansas.

•The freshmen are forward Addison Stanciak; midfielders Sydney Dulak, Summer Fishel and Ava Rademeyer; defenders Blakely Hockett and Ava Scorfina; goalkeeper Kate Lewis; midfielder/forward Caroline Chier; forward/defender Adee Broesder; and forward/midfielder Avery Fitzgerald.

QUINTET ACCOUNTS FOR BULK OF RETURNING OFFENSE

•Returning players for the 2025 Billikens accounted for 22 goals and 24 assists a season ago, and five players combined to produce a large portion of that offensive output.

•Julia Simon, Hope Kim and Audrey Smith scored four goals apiece, Lucie Schwartz had three and Hannah Larson added two.

•Larson led the 2024 Bills with eight assists, while Simon and Kim contributed three helpers apiece.

BILLIKEN DEFENSE SHINES AGAIN IN 2024

•Saint Louis continued its tradition of strong defense last year, ranking among the nation's top 25 in four categories.

•The Billikens' 0.61 goals against average was 11th best among Division I teams. SLU allowed just 14 goals in 23 games.

•Saint Louis registered 14 shutouts – just one shy of the school record – to tie for the third-highest total in the nation. The Bills' .609 shutout percentage ranked 11th.

•The Billikens' .844 save percentage was good for 21st nationally.

FACING TOP TEAMS BECOMING ROUTINE FOR BILLIKENS

•Since the 2020 season, Saint Louis has played, either during the regular season or in the NCAA Tournament, 14 opponents who were ranked among the top 50 in the final 2024 NCAA RPI.

•The 14 opponents are Arkansas, BYU, Georgetown, Iowa, Kansas, Massachusetts, Notre Dame, Oklahoma State, Penn State, Rutgers, USC, Utah State, Washington and Xavier.

•Penn State (Aug. 21) and Iowa (Aug. 31) are on SLU's 2025 schedule.

BILLIKENS CONTINUE IMPRESSIVE CONFERENCE STREAK

•Saint Louis' 3-1 win over Massachusetts in the 2024 A-10 Championship final extended a remarkable conference streak for the Billikens.

•Including regular-season and conference tournament competition, Saint Louis is unbeaten in 42 consecutive games vs. A-10 opponents.

BILLS MAKE HERMANN STADIUM A SOCCER FORTRESS

•Saint Louis is 81-9-11 (.856) in its last 101 games on the home pitch of Robert R. Hermann Stadium, a stretch that dates to the final home game of the 2015 campaign.

•In those 101 games, SLU outscored opponents 231-39, posted 65 shutouts, and allowed more than one goal just three times.

•Against A-10 opponents during the 101-game stretch, Saint Louis is 55-1-4 (40-0-4 regular season, 15-1-0 A-10 tournament) at Hermann Stadium.

•SLU's last home loss to a conference foe occurred Oct. 28, 2017, vs. Saint Joseph's in the A-10 Championship first round. The Bills' last A-10 regular-season home loss was Oct. 22, 2015, also vs. Saint Joseph's. SLU is unbeaten in 45 regular-season league matches at home since then.

HOME-GROWN TALENT PROMINENT ON BILLIKEN ROSTER

•Seven different states – Missouri, Illinois, Indiana, Kansas, New York, Tennessee and Wisconsin – are represented on the 2025 Saint Louis roster, but the Billikens' team is composed largely of local and state-of-Missouri players.

•Of SLU's 28 players, 14 are from the St. Louis area (including two from just across the Mississippi River in Illinois), and 15 are from Missouri.

SAINT LOUIS GAME NOTES vs. MISSOURI STATE

THE BILLIKENS IN 2024 ...

- Made a seventh consecutive NCAA Tournament appearance and defeated Kansas in the opening round. SLU narrowly missed making a second consecutive trip to the NCAA Tournament "Sweet 16," falling to USC – a No. 1 seed – 4-3 in overtime in the second round;

- Landed at No. 22 in the final RPI and the final United Soccer Coaches rankings;

- Captured a seventh straight A-10 Championship title, extending the league record for consecutive women's soccer tournament championships won;

- Won the A-10 regular-season title for a sixth time in seven seasons;

- Went 15-2-6 overall and 7-0-3 in conference play;

- Finished among the nation's top 25 in nine categories – eighth in goal differential (plus-38), eighth in corner kicks (7.09/game), 11th in goals against average (0.61), 11th in shutout percentage (.609), 13th in winning percentage (.783), 18th in shots on goal (8.35/game), 19th in total shots (18.04/game), 20th in goals (2.26/game) and 21st in save percentage (.844).

WHAT'S A BILLIKEN?

The Billiken was born Oct. 8, 1908, when Kansas City art teacher and illustrator Florence Pretz patented a design for an elflike creature with pixie ears, a mischievous smile and a tuft of hair on his pointed head. Reportedly, the image came to her in a dream.

Although it didn't appear on the actual patent, some believe Pretz found the Billiken name in a fanciful work entitled, "Mr. Moon: A Song of the Little People," by Canadian poets Bliss Carman and Richard Hovey.

Within a short time, Pretz sold her patented image to the Billiken Company of Chicago. Initially manufactured as a bank and statuette, and later as a doll, this good luck charm soon became a national craze. By 1911, the Billiken's likeness adorned everything from marshmallow candies to hood ornaments.

In his heyday, the Billiken enjoyed worldwide fame. Artisans in Alaska began carving his image into ivory, and in Japan, he appeared in shrines, amusement parks and even a movie.

Like many other fads, the Billiken might have faded into obscurity if it were not for Saint Louis University law student John Bender, who also happened to be the coach of SLU's football team during the height of Billikenmania.

One story claims that nearby drugstore owner Billy Gunn called Bender a Billiken when the coach walked into his establishment one day. Supposedly, legendary sportswriter William O'Connor was within earshot of the remark and took up the moniker not only for Bender but also for SLU's sports teams.

Another tale claims O'Connor himself dubbed the coach a Billiken after a particularly good practice left Bender beaming with a big smile. After practice, Bender's fellow law student Charles Z. McNamara, a local cartoonist, sketched Bender as a Billiken, posted it in Gunn's drugstore window and tabbed the football team "Bender's Billikens."

Yet another yarn reports that the druggist asked McNamara to decorate his store window the night before a homecoming game. Supposedly, McNamara drew a Billiken, a popular good luck charm, causing one of his fellow students to exclaim, "That looks like coach Bender!"

Whatever the case, O'Connor is generally credited for popularizing the name throughout the city, but one fact flies in the face of this legend and lore. O'Connor did not join the St. Louis Post-Dispatch until Nov. 26, 1911, one full month after the newspaper first mentioned "Bender's Billikens."

Regardless of how the story is told or whether his mysterious origins are ever finally resolved, the Billiken remains a good luck charm for Saint Louis University's sports teams and always brings smiles to the faces of SLU fans.

Legend has it that the Billiken has three kinds of luck – good, better and best. Buying a Billiken gives the buyer good luck. To have one given to you is better luck. The best luck comes if the Billiken is stolen.

2025 GAME RECAPS

#10 IOWA 3, RV SAINT LOUIS 0

Sunday, Aug. 31 – Iowa City, Iowa

Iowa scored a goal in the fifth minute and went on to defeat Saint Louis 3-0.

A goal in the 34th minute gave the Hawkeyes a 2-0 lead they would carry into intermission. Iowa netted its third and final goal in the 50th minute.

RV SAINT LOUIS 1, INDIANA 0

Thursday, Aug. 28 – Hermann Stadium

Audrey Smith scored her team-leading third goal of the season in the 78th minute to lift Saint Louis to a hard-fought 1-0 victory.

Eva Schreiber and Caroline Chier assisted on Smith's goal. Schreiber dribbled from the backfield to about 10 yards from the midfield stripe and sent a pass down the left side that Chier chased down. Chier worked her way deep into the penalty area and crossed to Smith, who avoided traffic at the doorstep to beat Indiana goalkeeper Sally Rainey.

#23 SAINT LOUIS 1, MISSOURI 0

Sunday, Aug. 24 – Hermann Stadium

Rylee Howard's second goal of the season in the fifth minute held up as 23rd-ranked Saint Louis defeated Missouri 1-0 in the Billikens' 2025 home opener.

The crowd of 4,097 was the third largest for a SLU women's soccer game at Hermann Stadium.

Fighting a Missouri defender for possession deep on the left wing, Howard won the battle and sent the ball over the head of Tigers goalkeeper Kate Phillips and inside the far post.

#14 PENN STATE 4, #23 SAINT LOUIS 1

Thursday, Aug. 21 – University Park, Pa.

Audrey Smith scored her second goal of the season early in the second half to cut Penn State's lead in half, but the 14th-ranked Nittany Lions answered with two tallies and went on to defeat the 23rd-ranked Billikens 4-1.

Caroline Chier's assist on Smith's goal was her first point as a Billiken.

Penn State grabbed the lead in the 17th minute and made it 2-0 in the 34th minute. Smith found the back of the net at the 52:00 mark to give the Billikens a chance, but goals in the 61st and 64th minutes put the Nittany Lions in firm command.

RV SAINT LOUIS 4, KANSAS CITY 0

Thursday, Aug. 14 – Kansas City, Mo.

Saint Louis scored just 39 seconds into the game and never looked back in a convincing 4-0 season-opening victory.

Lucie Schwartz converted a corner kick from Izzy Luebbert to give the Billikens the only goal they would need in the first minute. It was the first of three consecutive corner-kick tallies for SLU and the first of a career-high three assists and three points for Luebbert.

Emily Fox (Luebbert, Hope Kim) scored in the 32nd minute to give Saint Louis a 2-0 lead it would take into intermission.

Luebbert's third corner-kick helper led to Rylee Howard's goal in the 59th minute. Schwartz also assisted, giving her a career-high three points.

Audrey Smith (Addison Stanciak, Adee Broesder) concluded the scoring in the 84th minute.

Emma Parker and Nimu Karani played the first half and second half, respectively, in goal. Karani stopped Kansas City's only shot on goal.
