COACHES

MATT DOHERTY
HEAD COACH
NORTH CAROLINA 1984
OVERALL: 10TH
SMU: FIFTH

Head Coach Matt Doherty is entering his 20th season of coaching, 10th as a head coach, with eight NCAA Tournament berths, seven conference titles, a Final Four appearance and the 2001 Associated Press National Coach of the Year award. He has also coached 22 players that have gone on to the NBA. The 2010-11 campaign is his fifth season with the Mustangs.

Doherty was named the head men's basketball coach at SMU by Director of Athletics Steve Orsini on April 24, 2006. He is the 18th head coach in SMU history and is one of most heralded coaches ever to come to the Hilltop.

Doherty's fourth season saw the Mustangs finish with their most league wins (7), best finish (tied for 7th) and best seed (No. 8) since joining Conference USA for the 2005-06 season. SMU finished 7-9 in Conference USA including the Mustangs' first wins over Memphis and Houston since becoming C-USA foes. SMU also finished second in the league in scoring defense in conference play, allowing just 61.0 points per game. The Mustangs held league opponents 11.9 points off their scoring average with thirteen of the league foes scoring below their average. Three C-USA opponents did not reach 50 points, marking the first time SMU held three league opponents below 50 points since the 1957-58 season. The scoring defense in league play was the best for SMU since holding opponents to 60.9 per Southwest Conference game in 1958-59. Papa Dia and Derek Williams were selected to the 2010 All-Conference USA Third Team. It is the first time SMU had multiple All-Conference selections since the 2001-02 season. Williams was also named to the NABC All-District Second Team.

Doherty's first season on the Hilltop (2006-07) energized the program. The Mustangs broke ground on the $13-million, 43,000 square-foot Crum Basketball Center, unveiled a million-dollar scoreboard/video board, played on national television a program record six times, and signed a recruiting class ranked as high as 24th nationally. On the floor, the Mustangs improved their RPI rank by more than 60 spots from the previous season while finishing with a 14-17 record. The squad allowed the opponents just 62.7 points per game, which was the third-best scoring defense in SMU history. The season also included a seven-game winning streak which was the longest since 1999-2000 and an 11-3 start that was the best since 2000-01.

In his second season (2007-08), the Mustangs finished 10-20 with coach Doherty's first full recruiting class. The squad went 8-5 in the final 13 home games with three of those losses in the final second of the game. The squad also made 192 3-point field goals, which is tied for the fourth most in a season at SMU; and recorded 122 blocked shots, seventh-best ever at SMU. Jon Killen was named All-Conference USA third team and Academic All-Conference. Freshman Papa Dia was named to the Conference USA All-Freshman Team. In league play, Dia finished seventh in rebounding (6.4) and 26th in scoring (10.9). Among freshmen, those ranks were first in rebounding and third in scoring.

In his third season (2008-09), the Mustangs continued to build toward the future as a first-year player led the team in scoring in 27 of 30 games, which was the highest percentage in the nation. Freshman Paul McCoy led 12 times, tying the team record for a freshman. Junior Derek Williams led in scoring 10 times, junior Mouhammad Faye three times, and redshirt freshman Robert Nyakundi twice. The Mustangs improved in 13 of 19 statistical categories ranked by Conference USA, including scoring, scoring defense, overall and 3-point field goal percentage, overall and 3-point field goal percentage defense, and rebounding margin. SMU made 589 three-pointers in Doherty's first three seasons. That is the best mark for any 3-year period in SMU history. McCoy was named to the C-USA All-Freshman team and grabbed two league Rookie of the Week honors. Lone senior Bamba Fall made the C-USA All-Defensive squad.

Doherty came to the Hilltop after spending the 2005-06 campaign as the head coach at Florida Atlantic, where he led the Owls to a 15-13 season that included a 14-6 record in Atlantic Sun play, the best in school history. The 15 wins were also five more than FAU had managed in the year prior to his arrival.

Doherty possesses a dynamic basketball background that includes coaching at the highest levels as well as affiliations with some of the best teams, coaches and players in the game's history.

As a player, Doherty earned national recognition as a collegian at North Carolina, where he played in 129 games from 1980-84 under legendary coach Dean Smith. Doherty was a starter as a sophomore on UNC's 1982 National Championship team that went 32-2, playing alongside Michael Jordan and James Worthy. In all, North Carolina won at least 28 games in each of the four seasons Doherty starred as small forward and garnered three ACC regular season and two ACC Tournament titles, as well as four NCAA Tournament appearances. Doherty became only the second player in ACC history to post 1,000 points, 400 rebounds and 400 assists in a career. In his four years, North Carolina went 117-21 (.848).

As a senior, Doherty received the Jim Tatum Award, which is given to the UNC student-athlete with the most outstanding achievements in his or her sport while constructively participating in the community. He graduated in four years and received a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration in 1984.

He began his coaching career in 1989 with a three-year stint as an assistant at Davidson College. He then moved on to Kansas, where he spent seven years as an assistant with Roy Williams and one of the nation's top programs. During his time in Lawrence, the Jayhawks went 202-42 (.828), posting an average of 29 wins per season. Doherty recruited eight McDonald's All-Americans and coached five All-Americans and eight future NBA players. Those recruits included Jacque Vaughn, Raef LaFrentz, Paul Pierce, Drew Gooden, Kirk Hinrich and Nick Collison. Kansas would win six conference championships and play in the NCAA Tournament in each of Doherty's seasons, reaching the 1993 Final Four.

In 1999, he was named head coach of Notre Dame, and guided the Fighting Irish to their best season in a decade. In just one season, he turned around a team that was without a 20-win season since 1988-89. By the time the year ended, the Fighting Irish had finished with a 22-15 record, defeated five ranked opponents and played in the championship game of the NIT. That season, Doherty led Notre Dame to a pair of victories over defending national champion Connecticut. He also coached future NBA players Troy Murphy, Ryan Humphrey and Matt Carroll.

Following his extraordinary season in South Bend, Doherty was named the head coach at North Carolina, his alma mater, in 2000. In his first season at UNC, Doherty led the Tar Heels to a 26-7 record and was named Associated Press National Coach of the Year. The team won the Atlantic Coast Conference regular season co-championship and advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament. UNC earned a No. 1 ranking during the season and two Tar Heels, Brendan Haywood and Joe Forte, were tabbed All-Americans and became first-round NBA draft choices. Doherty capped off his first year by putting together one of the top-five recruiting classes in the nation.

Doherty's reputation as one of the nation's top recruiters continued in his second season at North Carolina, when he signed Raymond Felton, Sean May and Rashad McCants, all of whom would play instrumental roles on North Carolina's 2005 National Championship team. In his final year at North Carolina, Doherty's team won the Preseason National Invitation Tournament and was ranked as high as No. 12 in the nation before advancing to the NIT following the season.

After his time in Chapel Hill, his basketball success made him a natural as an analyst, a role he has served for ESPN-plus and CSTV in various capacities since 2003. Doherty has also worked as a scout for the NBA's New York Knicks.

He was born Matthew Francis Doherty on Feb. 25, 1962 in East Meadow, N.Y. He and his wife, the former Kelly Propst of Concord, N.C., are the parents of Tucker (June 1997) and a daughter, Hattie (September 1999).

1999-00 Notre Dame: Doherty was named head coach of Notre Dame, and guided the Fighting Irish to their best season in a decade. In just one season, he turned around a team that was without a 20-win season since 1988-89. By the time the year ended, the Fighting Irish had finished with a 22-15 record, defeated five ranked opponents and played in the championship game of the NIT. That season, Doherty led Notre Dame to a pair of victories over defending national champion Connecticut. He also coached future NBA players Troy Murphy, Ryan Humphrey and Matt Carroll.

2001-02 UNC: Even though the victories on the floor were limited, Doherty's reputation as one of the nation's top recruiters continued in his second season at UNC. He signed Raymond Felton, Sean May and Rashad McCants, all of whom would play instrumental roles on UNC's 2005 National Championship team. The team's biggest win was a 92-76 over 15th-ranked St. Joseph's on Dec. 22.

Jerry Hobbie was named assistant men's basketball coach at SMU by head coach Matt Doherty on August 9, 2010. Hobbie came to SMU following three consecutive post-season campaigns as an assistant coach at Houston, including the 2010 NCAA Tournament. Hobbie previously spent eight years at Fairfield and a season at Fordham, his alma mater. His teams have made the postseason in eight of his 16 seasons at the collegiate level as a player and coach.

"Jerry brings a wealth of experience," says Doherty. "He has won everywhere he has been as a player and a coach. His familiarity with Conference USA along with his talents as a shooting coach will benefit our program greatly. Lastly, Jerry is a good friend of 20-plus years and I am excited to be working with him."

In 2009-10, Hobbie helped the Cougars win the Conference USA Tournament Championship, including an 81-73 win against No. 25/21 UTEP in the title game. With that, the Cougars advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the first time in nearly two decades. In 2008-09, the Cougars finished fourth in C-USA and earned a second straight College Basketball Invitational berth. The Cougars also finished second nationally in fewest turnovers per game.

During his first season with the UH program in 2007-08, Hobbie helped the Cougars to a 24-10 record, the team's highest single-season win total in nearly two decades. The Cougars also advanced to the semifinals of the inaugural CBI. The Cougars shot 77 percent on free throws that season to lead Conference USA and rank sixth nationally. In 2006-07, he served as an assistant coach for Wilmington of the American Basketball League. That season, he helped lead the Sea Dawgs to a 22-9 record and the Central Division championship of the Blue Conference. The Sea Dawgs advanced to the semifinals of the ABA Championship before falling at Vermont, the eventual champion.

Prior to Wilmington, Hobbie served eight seasons on the basketball staff at Fairfield University. He served three seasons as an associate head coach and was an assistant coach for five seasons before his promotion in 2003-04.

The Stags posted back-to-back winning seasons for the first time since 1978 and went 78-66 in the MAAC after the school had gone 88-152 in league play in the previous 17 years. Fairfield's best season during his tenure came in 2002-03, when Fairfield finished with a 19-12 record and earned a NIT berth. The Stags featured four MAAC Defensive Players of the Year, while Darren Phillip was the national rebounding leader in 2000 and Deng Gai led the nation in blocked shots in 2005 before he played with the Philadelphia 76ers.

After his collegiate and professional playing days, he began his coaching career as an assistant coach at Fordham in 1986-87.

From there, he headed to Wall Street, working as a U.S. government securities bond broker for 10 years in New York City.

During his last four seasons in private business, he also served as an assistant coach at St. Patrick's High in Elizabeth, N.J. In 1998, Hobbie helped the team to a top-five national ranking by USA Today and the New Jersey state championship. While there, he worked with current NBA players Al Harrington and Samuel Dalembert.

REVIEW

2009-10 SEASON IN REVIEW

2009-10: The Mustangs went 7-9 in Conference USA, recording their most wins (7), best finish (tied for 7th) and best seed (No. 8) since joining Conference USA for the 2005-06 season. Papa Dia and Derek Williams were selected to the 2010 All-Conference USA Third Team. It is the first time SMU has had multiple All-Conference selections since the 2001-02 season. Williams was selected NABC All-District second team.

The Ponies finished second in C-USA in scoring defense in league play, allowing just 61.0 points per game. In C-USA games, the Mustangs held opponents 11.9 points off their scoring average with 13 of the league opponents below their average. Three C-USA opponents did not reach 50 points; marking the first time SMU held three league opponents below 50 points since the 1957-58 season. HONOLULU (AP) -- Donovan Monroe's baseline jumper with 1.1 seconds left rallied the College of Charleston to a 72-71 victory over SMU in the Diamond Head Classic on Wednesday night. Mustangs coach Matt Doherty screamed for a traveling call as Monroe fumbled the dribble before making his winning basket, but no call was made and the Cougars (6-5) celebrated at mid-court. Monroe's jumper followed a frenetic last-minute flurry when SMU (4-5) came back from a 70-66 deficit to take a brief lead. After the Mustangs' Mouhammad Faye hit a 3-pointer with 48.9 seconds left, teammate Paul McCoy made a layup off an offensive rebound with 6.6 seconds remaining to give SMU a 71-70 lead. However, the last of Monroe's 15 points gave Charleston the win. Jeremy Simmons led the Cougars with 18 points. Faye scored 17 for the Mustangs and Papa Dia had 14 points and 11 rebounds.

S.M.U. GYMNASIUM BUILDING, BASKET BALL COURT AND SWIMMING POOL

COST: $24,000
CAPACITY: 902

SMU Gym opened for the 1919-20 season and was the first "home" for SMU basketball. The Mustangs played their first two seasons at the Dallas Y.M.C.A. It was originally scheduled to open for the 1918-19 season, but was pushed back due to WWI. The building was expanded before the 1922-23 school year to make room for more physical education classes.

Plans for the SMU Basketball Pavilion were announced in 1924 and the building opened for the 1926-27 season. The gym also housed the university's physical education classes.

The Pavilion featured a full-size wood floor and sufficient lighting. Construction was initiated after some Southwest Conference teams threatened not to play at SMU due to a small court and inadequate facilities.

The new facility also made viewing available to the general public for the first time. SMU Gym's seating capacity limited spectating to students and a few friends.

The Texas Longhorn basketball players raised $50 and presented it to the University for the first cash contribution toward the facility. The Longhorns agreed to later shingle the roof of the new Gym while they were in Dallas as SMU's guests to watch SMU's undefeated football team play on New Year's Day.

The Pavilion was later used for indoor tennis matches after Perkins Gym was built.

PERKINS GYM
COST: $167,000
CAPACITY: 4,000

Perkins Gym opened for the 1942-43 season and was the home for the Mustangs until Moody Coliseum opened in 1956.

The facility was named for Mr. and Mrs. J.J. Perkins of Wichita Falls based upon their generous donation. It was also the last SMU building built before the conclusion of WWII.

After basketball moved to Moody Coliseum, it became Perkins Natatorium and is still used for SMU men's and women's swimming and diving.

NEW FLOOR

Moody Coliseum has been the home of SMU basketball since Dec. 3, 1956, when the Mustangs defeated McMurry, 113-36. When the building opened in 1956, it was known simply as SMU Coliseum. In 1965, the arena was named Moody Coliseum in honor of W.L. Moody, Jr.

The Coliseum has undergone several changes over the years to modernize the facility. A new playing surface with a new floor design was installed before the 2007-08 basketball season. That followed a new scoreboard/video board that was installed in Dec. 2006.

In 1980-81, the newly remodeled E.O. (Doc) Hayes Memorial Dressing Room was opened. In 1984, a new scoreboard was installed over the center circle and new chairback seats were built at floor level on the north side. In 1985, more chairback seats were added, this time in the west end. The original wood floor of Moody Coliseum was replaced with a new wood surface and new lighting was installed in August of 1986. In 1996, the court was redesigned to mark SMU's entry into the Western Athletic Conference. Shortly thereafter, significant improvements were made to the men's basketball locker room and players' lounge to help make Moody Coliseum one of the most attractive arenas in the nation.

Moody Coliseum was the site of the SWC Post-Season Classic in 1976 and hosted NCAA Regional tournament games, the World Championship of Tennis Finals, the Virginia Slims of Dallas Tennis Championship, the Rolex National Indoor Intercollegiate Tennis Championships, the McDonald's High School All-American All-Star Game and the NABC College Basketball All-Star Game during the 1986 Final Four held in Dallas.

The Coliseum is used for a myriad of events, including cheerleader, drill team, and basketball camps throughout the summer. Several concerts and other sporting events have been held at Moody Coliseum in recent years. In the spring of 1992, President George Bush addressed SMU's seniors during their graduation ceremony at Moody Coliseum.

The largest crowds ever at Moody Coliseum have been 10,276 vs. Texas A&M and 10,091 vs. Texas, both in 1979. Changes in the seating arrangement in recent years have reduced the seating capacity to 9,007 and as of the 1995-96 season, to 8,998.

Construction began with a ground breaking ceremony on Dec. 8, 2006, and officially opened with a dedication on Feb. 21, 2008. The first practice in the CBC was Dec. 4, 2007, a day before the Mustangs defeated rival TCU 71-65 in Moody Coliseum.

MATT DOHERTY
4 YEARS: 2006-PRES.
ALL: 47-75
C-USA: 14-47

Doherty was named the head men's basketball coach at SMU by Director of Athletics Steve Orsini on April 24, 2006. He is the 18th head coach in SMU history and is one of most heralded coaches ever to come to the Hilltop.

SMU finished 7-9 in Conference USA that included the Mustangs' first wins over Memphis and Houston since becoming C-USA foes. SMU also finished second in the league in scoring defense in conference play, allowing just 61.0 points per game. In C-USA games, the Mustangs held opponents 11.9 points off their scoring average. Thirteen of the league opponents were held below their average. Three C-USA opponents did not reach 50 points, marking the first time SMU held three league opponents below 50 points since the 1957-58 season. The scoring defense in league play was the best for SMU since holding opponents to 60.9 per Southwest Conference game in 1958-59. Papa Dia and Derek Williams were selected to the 2010 All-Conference USA Third Team. It is the first time SMU had multiple All-Conference selections since the 2001-02 season. Williams was also named to the NABC All-District Second Team.

Doherty's first season on the Hilltop energized the program. The Mustangs broke ground on the $13-million, 43,000 square-foot Crum Basketball Center, unveiled a million-dollar scoreboard/video board, played on national television a program record six times, and signed a recruiting class ranked as high as 24th nationally. On the floor, the Mustangs improved their RPI rank by more than 60 spots from the previous season while finishing with a 14-17 record. The squad allowed the opponents just 62.7 points per game, which was the third-best scoring defense in SMU history. The season also included a seven-game winning streak which was the longest since 1999-2000 and an 11-3 start that was the best since 2000-01.

In his second season, the Mustangs finished 10-20 with coach Doherty's first full recruiting class. The squad went 8-5 in the final 13 home games with three of those losses in the final second of the game. The squad also made 192 3-point field goals, which is tied for the fourth most in a season at SMU; and recorded 122 blocked shots, seventh-best ever at SMU. Killen was named All-Conference USA third team and Academic All-Conference. Freshman Papa Dia was named to the Conference USA All-Freshman Team. In league play, Dia finished seventh in rebounding (6.4) and 26th in scoring (10.9). Those ranks for freshman were first in rebounding and third in scoring.

In his third season, the Mustangs continued to build toward the future as a first-year player led the team in scoring in 27 of 30 games, which was the highest percentage in the nation. Freshman Paul McCoy led 12 times, tying the team record for a freshman. Junior Derek Williams led in scoring 10 times, junior Mouhammad Faye three times, and redshirt freshman Robert Nyakundi twice. The Mustangs improved in 13 of 19 statistical categories ranked by Conference USA, including scoring, scoring defense, overall and 3-point field goal percentage, overall and 3-point field goal percentage defense, and rebounding margin. SMU made 589 three-pointers in Doherty's first three seasons. That is the best mark for any 3-year period in SMU history.

McCoy was named to the C-USA All-Freshman team and grabbed two league Rookie of the Week honors. Lone senior Bamba Fall made the C-USA All-Defensive squad.

Doherty came to the Hilltop after spending the 2005-06 campaign as the head coach at Florida Atlantic, where he led the Owls to a 15-13 season that included a 14-6 record in Atlantic Sun play, the best in school history. The 15 wins were five more than FAU had managed the year before his arrival.

Doherty possesses a dynamic basketball background that includes coaching at the highest levels as well as affiliations with some of the best teams, coaches and players in the game's history.

As a player, Doherty earned national recognition as a collegian at North Carolina, where he played in 129 games from 1980-84 under legendary coach Dean Smith. Doherty was a starter as a sophomore on UNC's 1982 National Championship team that went 32-2, playing alongside Michael Jordan and James Worthy. In all, North Carolina won at least 28 games in each of the four seasons Doherty starred as small forward and garnered three ACC regular season and two ACC Tournament titles, as well as four NCAA Tournament appearances. Doherty became only the second player in ACC history to post 1,000 points, 400 rebounds and 400 assists in a career. In his four years, North Carolina went 117-21 (.848).

As a senior, Doherty received the Jim Tatum Award, which is given to the UNC student-athlete with the most outstanding achievements in his or her sport while constructively participating in the community. He graduated in four years and received a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration in 1984.

He began his coaching career in 1989 with a three-year stint as an assistant at Davidson College. He then moved on to Kansas, where he spent seven years as an assistant with Roy Williams and one of the nation's top programs. During his time in Lawrence, the Jayhawks went 202-42 (.828), posting an average of 29 wins per season. Doherty recruited eight McDonald's All-Americans and coached five All-Americans and eight future NBA players. Those recruits included Jacque Vaughn, Raef LaFrentz, Paul Pierce, Drew Gooden, Kirk Hinrich and Nick Collison. Kansas would win six conference championships and play in the NCAA Tournament in each of Doherty's seasons, reaching the 1993 Final Four.

In 1999, he was named head coach of Notre Dame, and guided the Fighting Irish to their best season in a decade. In just one season, he turned around a team that was without a 20-win season since 1988-89. The Fighting Irish finished with a 22-15 record, defeated five ranked opponents and played in the championship game of the NIT. That season, Doherty led Notre Dame to a pair of victories over defending national champion Connecticut. He also coached future NBA players Troy Murphy, Ryan Humphrey and Matt Carroll.

Following his extraordinary season in South Bend, Doherty was named the head coach at North Carolina, his alma mater, in 2000. In his first season at UNC, Doherty led the Tar Heels to a 26-7 record and was named Associated Press National Coach of the Year. The team won the Atlantic Coast Conference regular season co-championship and advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament. UNC earned a No. 1 ranking during the season and Brendan Haywood and Joe Forte were tabbed All-Americans and became first-round NBA draft choices. Doherty capped off his first year by putting together one of the top-five recruiting classes in the nation.

Doherty's reputation as one of the nation's top recruiters continued in his second season at North Carolina, when he signed Raymond Felton, Sean May and Rashad McCants, all of whom would play instrumental roles on North Carolina's 2005 National Championship team. In his final year at North Carolina, Doherty's team won the Preseason National Invitation Tournament and was ranked as high as No. 12 in the nation before advancing to the NIT following the season.

After his time in Chapel Hill, his basketball success made him a natural as an analyst, a role he has served for ESPN-plus and CSTV in various capacities since 2003. Doherty has also worked as a scout for the NBA's New York Knicks.

He was born Matthew Francis Doherty on Feb. 25, 1962 in East Meadow, N.Y. He and his wife, the former Kelly Propst of Concord, N.C., are the parents of Tucker (June 1997) and a daughter, Hattie (Sept. 1999).

HOMETOWN (LAST SCHOOL)

2006-07: SMU broke ground on the $13-million, 43,000 sq.-foot Cramer Basketball Center, unveiled the million-dollar video/scoreboard in Moody Coliseum, and signed five freshmen in the early period that ranked as high as 24th nationally. Two late signings made it seven in Doherty's inaugural recruiting class. SMU had a team-record 6 regular-season games on national TV. On the floor, the RPI improved more than 60 spots from 2005-06, a 7-game win-streak which was the best since 1999-00, and the 11-3 start was the best since 2000-01. The team allowed 62.7 pts/gm, which was the 3rd-best at SMU. Ofoegbu was named All-C-USA 3rd-team (led team 14.5 pts, 7.6 rebs), C-USA high 10 double-doubles and shot a league-best	51.3 percent on 3FG in C-USA play. Fall earned C-USA All-defensive honors (led C-USA with 2.48 blocks/gm). Fall set SMU soph. record with 62 blocks, breaking Jon Koncak's 54 (1982-83). Killen led SMU with 4.87 asts/gm (most at SMU in 14 seasons). Rackauskas made ESPN The Magazine Academic All-District 6. He and Killen were C-USA All-Defensive. Those two plus Norton made C-USA Commissioner's Honor Roll. SMU Team Awards: Captains - Killen, Ofoegbu, Rackauskas, Roberts; Most Improved - Fall; Rebounder - Ofoegbu; Defensive Award - Killen; Charges Taken - Killen; Assists Leader - Killen; FT Pct - Willingham; Coaches Award - Roberts; Screener - Ofoegbu; Academic Award - Rackauskas; MVP - Ofoegbu

In 2008, the SMU basketball program embarked on a basketball, cultural, and educational tour of Senegal and South Africa. The journey started with eight days of class and practice. The Mustangs practiced each day and also spent 25 hours in a Peoples of Africa class taught by Dr. Joci-Caldwell Ryan.

On May 25, the team started the 12-day journey to the continent of Africa. The first five days were in Senegal, where they met the families of teammates Bamba Fall, Papa Dia, and Mouhammad Faye. After a travel day to South Africa, the Mustangs spent five full days there.

The itinerary on the left lists the basketball and cultural events that were part of the journey. The Mustangs played three games, performed basketball clinics, visited cultural and historical sites, and took a class in which they journaled each day.

The trip is completely chronicled on-line with photos, blogs, journals, reflections, and videos as well as educational links to the locations visited. Visit SMUMustangs.com and go to the men's basketball page to find the Tour d' Africa or go directly to smumustangs.cstv.com/sports/m-baskbl/spec-rel/08-mbb-africa-trip.html.

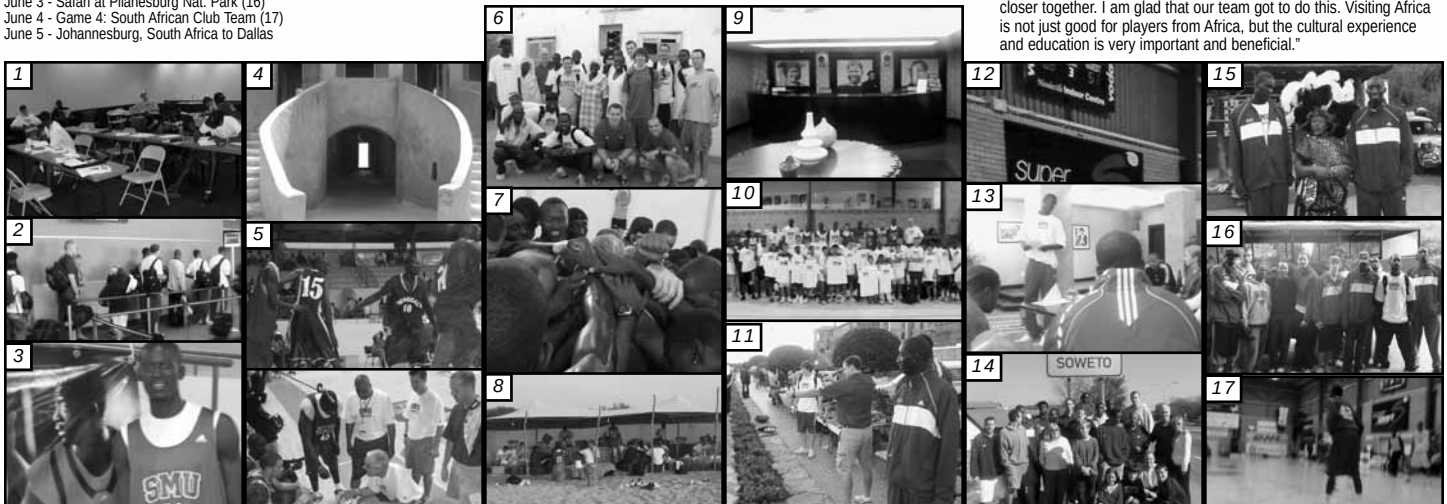

Matt Doherty (Head Coach)

"We bonded through our travels as we had every meal together, we were on buses together, we visited the families of our Senegalese players, and we had fun together. On the floor, we got better; winning our last game 107 - 87. It was a terrific way to finish the trip. I was also proud of the way our travel party handled themselves in Africa. The players acted with the class every SMU alum and administrator would be proud of. It made me feel good when I would hear someone say something nice about how our guys carried themselves. We certainly created memories that will last us for the rest of our lives!"

Malcolm Farmer (Assistant Coach & Trip Organizer)

"College basketball is about a lot of things - good, bad, and indifferent. However, this tour represented everything that college basketball should be about: basketball, education, bridging the cultural gap, and marketing for the University as a whole. I am not sure that it is possible for a foreign tour to accomplish more."

Bamba Fall (Native of St. Louis, Senegal)
 "To me, this is what college basketball should be about. I have a basketball family, and now they have met my real family. This will bring our team closer together as a group, but also bring my two families closer together. I am glad that our team got to do this. Visiting Africa is not just good for players from Africa, but the cultural experience and education is very important and beneficial."

The Mustang Legend

Legend has it that when Ford Motor Company was preparing to introduce the sports car that would gain fame as the Mustang, it was considering other names such as Cougar, Bronco, Cheetah and Colt.

But during the 1963 football season, SMU took an undersized, but quick team to Ann Arbor to play a massive Michigan Wolverine squad. Michigan gained the early advantage, but had to fight off the feisty Ponies for a 27-16 win.

After the game, Ford's Lee Iacocca entered the SMU locker room and addressed the disappointed Mustangs.

"Today," Iacocca said, "After watching the SMU Mustangs play with such flair, we reached a decision. We will call our new car the Mustang. Because it will be light, like your team. It will be quick, like your team. And it will be sporty, like your team."

Ford's new car got its name, and the rest, as they say, is history.

SMU ADMINISTRATION

PRESIDENT

As the president of Southern Methodist University since 1995, R. Gerald Turner is leading an era of unprecedented progress at the University. The Campaign for SMU: A Time to Lead raised more than $542 million for academic programs, scholarships, professorships, and student life programs. A new strategic plan is guiding the University's advancement, and the Centennial Master Plan is the physical profile of the campus, including development of a new East Quad.

Beyond the campus, Gerald Turner serves on the boards of the United Way of Dallas, the Methodist Hospital Foundation, the Salvation Army of Dallas, and three publicly traded companies.

President Turner holds leadership positions in several higher education associations. He is co-chair of the Knight Commission on Intercollegiate Athletics and chair of the NCAA Subcommittee on Presidential Leadership of Internal and External Constituencies. He is the winner of the Henry Cohn Humanitarian Award of the Anti-Defamation League of Dallas and the Chief Executive Leadership Award from District Four of the Council for Advancement and Support of Education.

Before joining SMU, President Turner was the chancellor of the University of Mississippi. A native of New Boston, Texas, he earned a B.S. degree in psychology from Abilene Christian University and M.A. and Ph.D. degrees in psychology from the University of Texas at Austin. He and his wife, Gail, a native of Graham, Texas, have two daughters, both of whom live with their husbands in Dallas. Angela is a professional opera singer and the mother of Luke; Jessica, an SMU alumna, is a professional actress.

PAUL ROGERS
FACULTY ATHLETIC REPRESENTATIVE

Paul Rogers, professor of law and the former dean of the SMU School of Law, is the university's faculty athletic representative and represents the university with Conference USA and the NCAA. Rogers formerly served as president of the Southwest Conference and was more recently on the NCAA Division I Academics/Eligibility/Compliance Cabinet. He was recently appointed to the National Advisory Committee for the National Football Foundation's Honor Society and also is a member of the Executive Committee of the Division I-A Faculty Athletics Representative Association.

In 1988, Rogers was the principal drafter of the University's Manual of Governance for SMU Athletics and became the first chair of the SMU Athletic Council, which establishes academic and administrative policies for student-athletes at SMU. He continues to serve as a member of the council.

Prior to joining the SMU law faculty in 1980, he served on the law faculty at Loyola University of Chicago. He previously practiced law in Pennsylvania. Dean Rogers has earned two degrees (B.A., J.D.) from the University of Texas and an LL.M. from Columbia University.

Rogers served as dean of the School of Law from 1988-97. Earlier he served as associate dean for academic affairs at the Law School from 1982-86. He has co-authored a leading casebook on antitrust law, now in its fourth edition, and has written numerous articles on antitrust, regulated industries, contracts, commercial law and legal history. An avid baseball historian, he has published three books and a number of articles dealing with the history of baseball.

He is a member of the board of directors of Dispute Mediation Services and the Committee for a Qualified Judiciary and is a former Trustee of the Dallas Bar Foundation. Dean Rogers is a fellow of the Dallas Bar, Texas Bar, and the American Bar Foundations. A member of the American Law Institute, he also served as chair of the Ethics Oversight Committee for Dallas 2012 and is president of the Hall-Ruggles Chapter (Dallas-Fort Worth) of the Society of American Baseball Research.

Rogers has three daughters, Heather, Jillian, and Ruthie, and two grandsons, Baer Heck and Jonathan Van Auken, and a granddaughter, Bozlie Kate Heck.

SMU ADMINISTRATION

STEVE ORSINI

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

Arriving on the Hilltop with over 25 years of experience in athletic administration, Steve Orsini began his tenure as the Director of Athletics at SMU on June 1, 2006. Just over three years into his tenure, Orsini has created a tremendous sense of excitement for SMU fans.

In January 2008, Orsini brought a new spark to the SMU football program, hiring former National Coach of the Year June Jones to lead the Mustangs, and that spark turned into a fire in 2009, as Jones and the Mustangs snapped a 25-year bowl drought and claimed a Sheraton Hawaii Bowl Championship and a share of the Conference USA Western Division Championship. SMU finished the season 8-5, making the largest turnaround in the nation in 2009 (+7 wins) and national media took note.

Jeremy Crabtree of Rivals.com wrote, "SMU is definitely back."

ESPN.com said, "SMU will become the next BCS buster... SMU will become king of Conference USA and play in a BCS bowl before the end of the decade."

The Sporting News posted, "SMU is the next heavyweight in Conference USA."

Success under Orsini has not been limited to the gridiron, however. Mustang teams won five conference championships in 2008-09, and, in addition to their successes on the field, SMU student-athletes also succeeded in the classroom. SMU continues to boast a remarkable 96 percent refined graduation rate and 209 student-athletes were named to the Conference USA Commissioner's Honor Roll.

SMU is also seeing a construction boom under Orsini. SMU has embarked on a $60 million plan to build new facilities and improve existing ones. The $13-million, 43,000 square-foot Crum Basketball Center, a basketball-only practice facility adjacent to Moody Coliseum, opened in February 2008 and the Turpin Tennis Stadium opened in April 2008. Ground has been broken for the SMU Payne Stewart Golf Learning Center and renovations to Moody Coliseum, which began in 2008 with the installation of a new $900,000 videoboard and redesigned court, continue.

These facility projects and the hiring of June Jones have been made possible through Orsini's fundraising prowess. 2008-09 was SMU's best fundraising year to date, as the Mustangs added over $4.5 million to the coffers in annual gifts, and SMU also set a record in royalties received. To land Jones, Orsini convinced over 20 donors to join his creation, "The Circle of Champions," and commit $100,000 a year for five years, giving SMU the ability to compete financially with top-25 institutions.

Orsini even made an immediate impact by hiring 2001 Associated Press National Coach of the Year Matt Doherty to lead the Mustang men's basketball program even before his first "official" day on the job. With Jones at Doherty, SMU is one of just seven schools nationally to have National Coaches of the Year at the helms of both its football and men's basketball programs.

"I am here because SMU has a very successful program and is committed to providing all of the ingredients to build upon that success into greater success," said Orsini. "We can be successful on a national level. My philosophy on how to have fun in athletics is spelled W-I-N. Our goal in every sport is to be in the top 25 in the nation - and for the ones that already are, I want them to be in the top 10. Collegiate athletics can excite the whole community, build school spirit and really create a sense of community."

Orsini came to SMU from the University of Central Florida, where he served as A.D. since June 2002. At UCF, he helped transform UCF into a top athletic program. He guided the Knights to Conference USA membership and established the UCF Athletics Association, Inc., a private, non-profit, direct-support organization of the University of Central Florida.

As part of a 70 percent increase in the department's budget during his tenure, Orsini increased funding for all sports while at UCF and the Knights achieved immediate success under his leadership. During the 2004-05 academic year, six UCF teams advanced to NCAA play, including the men's basketball squad, which made its second consecutive trip to the NCAA Tournament. Competing in their last season in the Atlantic Sun Conference, the Knights swept the league's all-sports awards, given to the top program in the conference, for the third straight year. UCF followed that up by advancing to the inaugural Conference USA Football Championship Game and its first-ever bowl appearance in the fall of 2005 after winning the C-USA Eastern Division crown. In all, 25 teams competed in postseason play during his time at UCF, and the Knights posted their highest-ever NACDA Cup finishes in 2003-04 and 2004-05.

Orsini's tenure at UCF was marked by growth. He oversaw major facility additions and renovations at UCF, including the completion of the Wayne Densch Sports Center and the Nicholson Fieldhouse, two of the top athletic facilities in the nation. He also initiated plans and secured financing for a new on-campus football stadium, a softball stadium complex, a rowing boathouse and a convocation center and arena as part of a $270 million mixed-use development - all of which opened in 2007.

Orsini expanded the Golden Knight fan base, with UCF setting all-time records in football season ticket sales and in revenues generated through ticket sales, corporate sponsorships and fundraising. He also saw UCF set attendance records for football and men's and women's basketball contests.

Prior to his appointment at UCF, Orsini spent three years as senior associate director of athletics for the Georgia Tech Athletic Association. In that capacity he was responsible for administration and business affairs for the Yellow Jackets. He played a pivotal role in the expansion of the football and baseball stadiums and also served as the tournament manager for the 2002 NCAA Final Four in the Georgia Dome.

Orsini joined the Georgia Tech staff after five years as the Associate Athletics Director and Treasurer at the U.S. Naval Academy Athletic Association. Previously, he spent 10 years in administration with the Dallas Cowboys of the National Football League.

A native of Hummelstown, Pa., Orsini graduated from the University of Notre Dame in 1978 with a degree in Business Administration, majoring in accounting. He was a three-time letter winner at fullback on the Fighting Irish football team and was one of four team captains on the 1977 national championship squad.

After graduation, he spent three years as Senior Assistant Accountant and became a Certified Public Accountant (CPA) in the New York office of the national accounting firm Deloitte, Haskins and Sells.

He began his career in athletics administration in 1981 as Assistant Business Manager and Ticket Manager at Notre Dame and remained in that capacity for three years until leaving to join the Dallas Cowboys as ticket manager in 1984. He became Director of Administration for the Cowboys in 1989, serving in that capacity until 1993 when he went back into private business as the Sales Controller for Fujitsu-ICL Systems, Inc. in Dallas. He resumed his career in athletics administration at the Naval Academy in 1994.

During his time at Navy, Orsini was responsible for all business and legal affairs and helped increase the Athletic Association's revenue by 70 percent. Responsible for the development of the department of External Affairs while at Navy, the program set all-time records at the school for season ticket sales, marketing and sponsorship revenues and fan attendance during his tenure.

Born April 16, 1956, Orsini is married to the former Amy Kertesz of South Bend, Ind., and the couple has a daughter, Angela.
