STORYLINES

The SMU volleyball team begins its second straight American Athletic Conference championship defense Friday night in Moody Coliseum against Tulane at 7 p.m. The Mustangs also host Houston Sunday at 1 p.m. on the first weekend of conference action. SMU went 18-2 in The American in 2016 to win its second league title after going 17-3 against conference opponents in 2015.

ABOUT SMU

The Mustangs are 6-5 this season, winning three straight at the Texas State tournament before losing two close matches at home, including a five-set loss to Arkansas in the final non-conference match of the regular season. Despite the results, SMU boasts one of the top statistical defenses in The American, leading the league with 17.49 digs per set and ranking third with 2.28 blocks per set. Offensively, SMU is fourth in hitting percentage, .216, and sixth in kills, averaging 13.40 per set.

Lauren Mills leads the team and is sixth in the conference with 3.56 kills per set, and Brittany Adams is second on the squad with 3.09 kills per set. Katie Hegarty was averaging 3.67 through 12 sets, but the senior has missed the last three weeks with an injury. Sophomore Montana Watts anchors the defense, averaging 4.70 digs per set, seventh in the league. Mills is 11th in The American with 3.42 per set as a six-rotation player. Freshman Lexi Nordmann leads the team with 37 blocks, tied for fourth with 1.19 per set, and redshirt-freshman Meryn Kennedy is 13th, just shy of one per set with 30 on the season.

SCOUTING TULANE

The Green Wave is 11-2 on the season, winning six straight at home after a neutral-site loss against Stephen F. Austin. With an 8-0 home record, Tulane is just 3-2 away from New Orleans. Lexie Douglas leads the team with 115 kills, and is one of five attackers with at least 100 kills this season, all averaging at least two per set. As a team, Tulane is second in the league with 13.47 kills per set. Defensively, Tulane is third in opponent hitting percentage, .156, despite ranking eighth in blocks, 1.94, and digs, 15.21.

Series History: SMU is 11-13 all-time against Tulane in a series that dates back to 2001. Tulane won the first meeting at home 3-0 on Sept. 7, 2001. The Mustangs have won all six matches since Tulane joined The American in 2014, the league's second year of existence. SMU is 6-6 at home against the Green Wave, winning the last five matches played in Dallas.

SCOUTING HOUSTON

The Cougars are 4-4 overall, playing just three of the first four weekends due to Hurricane Harvey. Houston is 0-2 on its opponent's home court, losing at UT Arlington and at LSU. The Cougars lead the league in opponent hitting percentage, holding opponents to a .145 attack percentage with 10.25 kills per set. Offensively, Houston is hitting .166 with 12.72 kills. Brianna Lynch leads the team with 95 kills, averaging 2.97 per set, and is one of four attackers averaging at least two kills per set. Katie Karbo is second in The American with 5.50 digs per set.

Series History: SMU is 17-12 all-time against Houston. The Cougars won the first meeting, 3-0, in Houston on Sept. 23, 1998, and won the first seven matches in the series until SMU picked up a 3-2 road win on Oct. 29, 2006. The Mustangs have won eight of the last nine, and are 7-1 against the Cougars in AAC matches.

LISA SEIFERT

HEAD COACH
WINONA STATE, '83
22ND SEASON

Lisa Seifert is the first and only volleyball coach in SMU history. Under her tutelage, the Mustangs have moved into the national spotlight with team and individual regional and national rankings. She has coached players to All-Conference honors 55 times and 10 All-America awards. Mustang athletes have not only excelled on the court under Seifert, but also in the classroom, where 80 student-athletes have been awarded Academic All-Conference honors.

She led the Mustangs to the American Athletic Conference championship in 2015 with a 17-3 mark and a program-record 27 wins overall with six losses. Avery Acker was named conference Player and Setter of the Year, as the Mustangs set a school record, hitting .245 as a team. Three players earned All-America status, with five being named to the all-conference team. Seifert won her second conference Coach of the Year honor, and was named region Coach of the Year.

SMU won a second straight American Athletic Conference championship in 2016, winning a program-record 18 conference matches with two losses. The Mustangs went 25-7 overall during the regular season, advancing to the NCAA Tournament for a second consecutive season. Five players earned all-conference awards with Morgan Heise being named Libero of the Year for a third straight season. Kendall Patterson was named conference Freshman of the Year.

Building a program from the ground up is an arduous process, but Seifert has put in the foundation for the Mustangs more recent successes. As the veritable architect of the SMU Volleyball program, coach Seifert has overseen the Mustangs rise from the beginning struggles to a team that is capable of competing with any team in the nation.

In 2005, SMU saw a transition into another conference. As the Mustangs joined Conference USA, they depended on the combination of a consistent returning class and strong newcomers to guide them through the season. The Mustangs went 13-16 overall and 8-7 in their inaugural season of C-USA. The team notched the nation's 23rd-highest number of digs per game while freshman Natalie Peters posted the 34th best number of blocks per game in the nation.

In 2006, the Seifert-led Mustangs compiled an overall record of 17-15. SMU hosted its first nationally-televised match and the first volleyball action televised from Moody Coliseum on Nov. 10, when the Mustangs hosted Houston. With a win over UTA on Sept. 1, the Mustangs and Seifert recorded the program's 150th win. Junior outside hitter Rachel Giubilato led the Mustangs and was ranked nationally in kills per game.

The 2007 season saw the best start in program history, with the Mustangs winning its first six matches, including SMU's first win over Texas Tech. The Ponies were 10-3 heading into the championship match at the New Hampshire Invitational, when outside hitter and team captain Giubilato went down with a career-ending knee injury. The Mustangs were forced to rely heavily on All-Freshman outside hitter Kathryn Wilkerson and senior co-captain Caitlin Rainbird, finishing with a 16-15 overall record.

The 2009 season saw a Seifert-led squad produce a 19-12 record behind the program's first All-American Honorable Mentions in sophomore Dana Powell and senior Kendra Kahanek. As a whole, the Mustangs' defense set a SMU single-season record with 317.5 blocks in just 121 games, while holding its opponents to 223.5 team blocks. The Mustangs were particularly tough at home winning 12 of 14 games in Moody Coliseum.

Seifert led the Mustangs to 25 wins in 2010, a school record at the time, with Powell repeating as an All-America Honorable Mention and highlighting a cast of five all-conference selections. Caroline Young became the program's third All-American in 2012, and in 2013, Avery Acker was an All-America Honorable Mention and earned Setter of the Year honors during the inaugural season of the American Athletic Conference. SMU finished 22-9 in 2013, winning at least 20 matches for the third time in program history.

The Mustangs won 26 matches in 2014, breaking the record of 25 set in 2010, and won a program-record 11 consecutive matches. SMU earned its first victory over an AVCA Top 25 team, beating then-No. 24 Oklahoma. Morgan Heise was named Libero of the Year, and Acker became the program's first Academic All-American. She was also an All-American Honorable Mention award winner for the second straight season.

Seifert joined SMU after six years as assistant coach at Texas Tech. The Lady Raiders compiled an overall record of 128-62 during Seifert's tenure, with NCAA tournament appearances from 1990-92 and regional semifinal berths in 1990 and 1991. A 1978 graduate of Saint Francis (Minn.) High School, Seifert held volleyball, softball, track and basketball coaching jobs at several different colleges and high schools in Colorado, Wisconsin and Minnesota from 1982-86.

Seifert earned her B.S. in physical education in 1983 from Winona State (Minn.) University, where she played volleyball and softball, and added a master's degree in P.E. from Wisconsin-LaCrosse in 1987.

RALLY FOR HURRICANE RELIEF

The SMU volleyball program is asking fans to bring items to donate to victims of Hurricane Harvey to each of its next eight home matches. The Mustangs will donate the items to a distribution center in Houston prior to SMU's match at Houston Nov. 3. Requested items include, but are not limited to, new clothes, baby diapers and formula, toiletries, water and non-perishable food items.

BACK-TO-BACK CHAMPS

SMU successfully defended its American Athletic Conference championship, going 18-2 against league opponents. After going 17-3 in 2015 for the program's first title, the Mustangs won 11 of their first 12 conference matches in 2016 and never dropped below at least tied for first all season. For the second straight season, SMU clinched sole possession of the championship with a win at Connecticut (3-1), this time in the last match of the regular season.

AMERICAN SUCCESS

SMU is 64-14 in American Athletic Conference matches since the league's inception four seasons ago. The Mustangs finished runner-up behind champions Louisville and UCF in the first two years before winning back-to-back championships. SMU players have earned 19 all-conference awards, one conference Player of the Year award, one Freshman of the Year award and five yearly awards for position. Lisa Seifert was also named conference Coach of the Year in 2015. With 18 conference wins in 2016, SMU matched the conference record for league wins.

NCAA VICTORY

The Mustangs advanced to the NCAA Tournament, playing in the first round at Texas for the second straight year. SMU swept Texas A&M (25-23, 25-23, 25-18) for its first NCAA victory in the program's first match against the Aggies. Katie Hegarty scored a match-high 14 kills, and Kendall Patterson posted her 12th double-double of the season with 36 assists and 10 digs. The SMU defense held Texas A&M to a .177 attack percentage, recording 10 blocks and 51 digs. SMU was eliminated in the second round by national runner-up No. 4 Texas.

POSTSEASON AWARDS

Five Mustangs earned All-American Athletic Conference honors, with Katie Hegarty, Janelle Giordano and Morgan Heise named to the first team, while Kendall Patterson and Kristen Stehling earned second-team accolades. Heise earned her third straight conference Libero of the Year award and a selection on the AVCA All-America Honorable Mention list for the second straight season. Hegarty, Heise and Giordano also earned selections to the AVCA All-Region team. Patterson was tabbed as The American's Freshman of the Year.

MOODY MAGIC

The Mustangs are 184-102 all-time in home matches and 174-100 in matches played at Moody Coliseum. Since the renovation to Moody Coliseum in 2014, SMU is 42-11 in home matches over four seasons, including a program-best 15-1 record in Moody in 2014. SMU clinched what at the time was at least a share of its first conference championship with a 3-1 win against Houston in front of its home fans on Nov. 15, 2015. SMU won 12 straight home matches during the 2015 season.

PROGRAM NOTES

TEAM CAPTAINS

Katie Hegarty and Kendall Patterson were selected as team captains for the 2017 season. Team captains are elected by the players. Both players earned all-conference accolades in 2016, and led the team in their respective stat category (kills and assists).

KATIE HEGARTY

Katie Hegarty scored 461 kills last season, the most by an SMU player since Rachel Giubilato finished with a program-record 568 during the 2006 season. Hegarty's 461 kills ranked fifth in the conference last season and is fifth in a season all-time at SMU. She posted the league's first triple-double and the sixth in program history with 22 kills, 12 digs and a career-high 10 blocks against Tulane. The Aztec, N.M., native had four other double-doubles, finishing the season with 197 digs and 97 blocks. The senior started the 2017 season with 21 kills against Mississippi State, and was averaging 3.67 per set before suffering an injury.

KENDALL PATTERSON

Kendall Patterson led the American Athletic Conference with 1,325 assists, averaging 10.95 per set, during her first season on the Hilltop. The league's Freshman of the Year recorded 12 double-doubles, including a career-high 26 digs and 49 assists against Tulane. She finished the year with 308 digs and 42 blocks. Patterson recorded a career-high 54 assists against Cincinnati, and eclipsed 50 three times. She also led the team with 38 service aces. Patterson posted her first double-double of the 2017 campaign with 46 assists and 10 digs in a 3-0 win against Texas A&M-Corpus Christi, and had 58 assists in a five-set loss against Mississippi State. The sophomore is third in The American with 9.28 assists per set, and has four double-doubles this season.

LAUREN MILLS

Lauren Mills leads the team and ranks sixth in the conference with 3.56 kills per set this season. The senior scored a career-high 27 kills in a 3-1 win against UTSA, matching the SMU single-match record for a four-set match. Her 27 kills is tied for fifth all-time in a match at SMU, and the record is 33, set by Rachel Giubilato on Oct. 3, 2006 against Stephen F. Austin. Mills also had double-doubles against UTSA (27 kills, 13 digs) and Texas State (15 kills, 19 digs), earning tournament MVP honors at Texas State. She has a team-best seven double-doubles this season, and is averaging 3.42 digs per set, 11th in the league.

BRITTANY ADAMS

Brittany Adams is second on the team with 102 kills, ranking eighth in the conference with 3.09 per set. She earned her first all-tournament honor at Texas State, matching her career-high with 18 kills against Texas State. She also had 17 digs in one of two double-doubles at the tournament. Adams has four double-doubles this season, and has scored at least 10 kills six times.

BUILDING BLOCKS

SMU features new faces in the middle of the net after the graduation of all-conference middle blockers Janelle Giordano and Kristen Stehling. Giordano finished her career as the all-time leader at SMU with 623 blocks, and Stehling had 89 during her senior season. Junior Kelly Brunstein played in nine sets last year with four blocks. Freshmen Meryn Kennedy and Lexi Nordmann will also compete for playing time. Kennedy was redshirted last season after scoring 194 kills with 135 blocks as a senior at Allen High School. Nordmann was an Under Armour All-America second-team selection as a senior at Dewitt High School in Dewitt, Mich.

FRESHMEN MIDDLES

Freshman Lexi Nordmann earned her first all-tournament honor hitting .429 with 21 kills and 10 blocks at the SMU DoubleTree Classic. She leads the team with 37 blocks this season, fourth in The American, and has a .229 attack percentage with 60 kills overall. Nordmann scored 14 kills in a win against Ole Miss, and had 13 kills in three sets against TCU. Meryn Kennedy is 13th in The American with just under one block per set, posting 30 on the season. She has a .277 attack percentage, with 66 kills.
