LEVIAS BREAKS DOWN WALLS

Jerry LeVias has overcome many obstacles in his life to achieve his success. At the age of 12, LeVias suffered a stroke which left him unable to walk for five years, but he rebounded to become a barrier-breaker in college football.

The turbulent 1960s saw a huge change in the SMU football program when LeVias accepted the Mustangs' offer to become the first African-American football player to earn an athletic scholarship in the Southwest Conference.

LeVias, who chose SMU largely because of its accounting program, eventually was named All-America, Academic All-America and Southwest Conference Player of the Year in 1968 when he set the SMU record for receiving yards in a season (1,131).

A coach of a high school all-star team of which LeVias was a member said of the wide receiver, "He'll make a good coach out of someone." That coach's name was Doak Walker, the same man who would see many of his own collegiate records broken by LeVias.

The Houston native was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in December 2003.

Starting in 2009, a deserving student-athlete on the SMU football team is chosen annually to wear the number "23" on his jersey to honor LeVias for his contributions to America, the sport of football and SMU.

LeVias earned All-America and All-SWC honors while on the Hilltop and was later honored for his induction into the College Football Hall of Fame.

THE MUSTANG LEGEND

Legend has it that when Ford Motor Company was preparing to introduce the sports car that would gain fame as the Mustang, it was considering other names such as Cougar, Bronco, Cheetah and Colt.

But during the 1963 football season, SMU took an undersized but quick team to Ann Arbor to play a massive Michigan Wolverine squad. Michigan gained the early advantage, but had to fight off the feisty Ponies for a 27-16 win. After the game, Ford's Lee Iacocca entered the SMU locker room and addressed the disappointed Mustangs.

Iacocca said, "After watching the SMU Mustangs play with such flair, we reached a decision. We will call our new car the Mustang. Because it will be light, like your team. It will be quick, like your team. And it will be sporty, like your team."

Ford's new car got its name, and the rest, as they say, is history.

Legend has it that Ford's signature car, the Mustang, got its nickname via the SMU football team following this 1963 game at Michigan.

THE 1915 MUSTANGS

On the morning of Sept. 14, 1915, coach Ray Morrison held his first practice, thus marking the birth of the SMU football program.

A former All-Southern quarterback at Vanderbilt, Morrison immediately installed the passing game at SMU. Morrison came to be known as "the father of the forward pass" because of his use of the passing game on first and second downs instead of as a last resort.

A local sportswriter nicknamed the team "the Parsons" because the squad was composed primarily of theological students. SMU was a member of the Texas Intercollegiate Athletic Association, which ruled that neither graduate nor transfer students were eligible to play. Therefore, the first SMU team consisted entirely of freshmen.

The Mustangs played their first game Oct. 10, 1915, dropping a 43-0 decision to TCU in Fort Worth. SMU bounced back in its next game, its first at home, to defeat Hendrix College, 13-2. During the 1915 season, the Mustangs posted a record of 2-5 and scored just three touchdowns while giving up 131 points.

THE IRON SKILLET

During the post-World War II college football boom, the SMU and TCU student bodies created a traveling trophy called the Iron Skillet that was presented to the winner of the annual football game between the archrivals. The tradition eventually died, and the skillet was lost.

In 1993, however, the tradition was revived as the president of the SMU student body painted the face of the TCU student body president red and blue following the Mustangs' 21-15 victory in Fort Worth. The engraved skillet is presented to the winning team after each game.
