COACHES

TIM JANKOVICH

Head Coach

Kansas State, 1982

Overall: 37th

SMU: 8th (4th as HC)

Tim Jankovich was named head coach at SMU on July 8, 2016, after four years as associate head coach. He is in his 37th season as a collegiate coach and 13th season as a Division I head coach (228-159). He is 71-38 at SMU entering his fourth season (2019-20) leading the Mustangs. In three seasons at the helm, SMU has won the 2016-17 American Athletic Conference regular season and tournament championships, made the 2017 NCAA Tournament and has five wins over AP top-15 ranked teams. Under Jankovich, SMU is 48-13 at Moody Coliseum.

He previously was head coach at Illinois State (2007-12) and North Texas (1993-97), and as an assistant or head coach, his teams have won seven regular season conference championships and five league tournament titles, made 10 NCAA appearances and have earned eight NIT berths. His career includes serving as an assistant coach for Lon Kruger, Jack Hartman, Eddie Sutton, Kevin Stallings, Bill Self, Larry Brown, Boyd Grant, Gene Iba and Bob Weltlich.

In his seven seasons at SMU, the Mustangs have won The American regular season twice (2014-15, 2016-17), the AAC Tournament twice (2015, 2017) and made the NCAA tournament two times (2015, 2017). SMU also reached the NIT title game in 2014. The Mustangs have garnered three American Athletic Conference Player of the Year honors (Nic Moore 2014-15, 2015-16; Semi Ojeleye in 2016-17) and three AAC Sixth Man of the Year awards (Markus Kennedy 2014-15, 2015-16; Ben Emelogu II 2016-17). In the six seasons in The American, SMU has 12 All-AAC selections. The Mustangs won their first 36 games at Moody Coliseum with Jankovich as the head coach, which is the second-best home start in NCAA history. The program has been in the Associated Press Top 25 in four of the seasons, being ranked as high as No. 8. The Mustangs have four players in the NBA (Semi Ojeleye, Sterling Brown, Ben Moore, Shake Milton), three were selected in the NBA Draft (Semi Ojeleye, Sterling Brown in 2017; Shake Milton in 2018). Nic Moore, Markus Kennedy, Yanick Moreira and Jordan Tolbert are all playing professionally in Europe.

In 2018-19, the Mustangs played just 13 games with 10 scholarship student-athletes available, going 9-4 in those games including two wins over Tulsa and a road win at Georgetown. Senior Jahmal McMurray was named All-AAC second team after finishing fifth in the league in scoring (18.1) and setting the SMU season record with 101 threes made. Jarrey Foster was preseason All-AAC, but played just 16 games due to injury, helping the Mustangs to a 10-6 mark in those games. The team finished 15-17 with three of the top five scorers and three of the top four rebounders as freshmen (Feron Hunt) or sophomores (Ethan Chargois, Isiah Mike). Foster, McMurray, Mike and Jimmy Whitt Jr. all earned conference honors throughout the season.

The 2017-18 Mustangs started 13-6 with three wins over ranked opponents, topping No. 2 Arizona in the Battle 4 Atlantis tournament, No. 14 USC at Moody Coliseum and No. 7 Wichita State on the road. Shake Milton was named All-AAC Second Team, NABC All-District Second Team and USBWA All-District. During the season, Milton was on the Naismith Trophy, Wooden Award, Lute Olson and Bob Cousy watch lists. Freshman Ethan Chargois was named to the AAC All-Rookie Team. Ben Emelogu II led The American in 3-point percentage (.470). The Mustangs eventually finished 17-16 after leading scorers Jarrey Foster and Shake Milton missed February and March due to injuries.

In his first full season as head coach (2016-17), SMU won The American regular-season and tournament titles en route to the NCAA Tournament and a program-record 30 victories (30-5). SMU went 18-0 at home, 17-1 in the AAC and had winning streaks of 10 games and 16 games in a stretch that saw wins in 26 of 27 outings. The Ponies finished No. 11 in the AP and No. 23 in the USA Today Coaches Poll. Jankovich was named the AAC Coach of the Year, the USBWA District VII Coach of the Year, NABC All-District 25 Coach and a Naismith Coach of the Year semifinalist. Five Mustangs garnered league awards with Semi Ojeleye being named The American Player of the Year and Scholar-Athlete of the Year. Ojeleye was also All-AAC First Team, AP All-America Honorable Mention and CoSIDA Academic All-America Second Team. Ben Moore, Sterling Brown and Shake Milton made the All-AAC Second Team. Ben Emelogu II was named AAC Co-Sixth Man of the Year. After winning the conference tournament, Moore and Brown were named All-Tournament with Ojeleye selected as the Most Outstanding Player. Moore and Brown were selected to play in the NABC All-Star game at the Final Four in Phoenix.

In 2015-16, Jankovich led the team during Larry Brown's NCAA-mandated suspension, going 9-0, with wins over Stanford, TCU and Michigan among others. SMU finished 25-5 with a 16-1 record at Moody Coliseum. SMU was second in The American at 13-5. The Ponies were No. 24 in the final AP Top 25 after reaching as high as No. 8 during the season after a program-best 18-0 start. SMU claimed the Las Vegas Classic title during the 18-game win streak; eventually becoming the last undefeated team in NCAA Division I. Nic Moore was selected AAC Player of the Year and AP All-America Honorable Mention for the second straight season. He was named All-AAC First Team for the third straight season. Moore was also a finalist for the Bob Cousy Award, a member of the Wooden Award Late Season Top 20, on the Naismith Midseason Watch List and on the Oscar Robertson Trophy Watch List. Markus Kennedy was on the Karl Malone Award Watch List and earned his second straight AAC Sixth Man of the Year honor. Shake Milton was a pick for the AAC All-Rookie team. Ben Moore was named to the NABC All-District Second Team.

In 2014-15, SMU claimed The American regular season and tournament titles en route to reaching the NCAA Tournament. SMU finished the season 27-7 overall. The Mustangs went 15-3 in league play, clinching the outright league title (first since 1993). The Mustangs spent nine weeks in the AP and USA Today Top 25 and set home attendance records for a season (124,986) and average (6,944) while going 16-2 in Moody Coliseum. Nic Moore was named AP All-America Honorable Mention and AAC Player of the Year, Markus Kennedy was AAC Sixth Man of the Year and Most Outstanding Player of the Championship, and Yanick Moreira was named the AAC's Most Improved Player.

In 2013-14, he helped lead the Mustangs into the national spotlight as SMU earned a No. 1 seed in the NIT and eventually reached the title game at Madison Square Garden. SMU was in the top 25 in four of the last five regular season polls, being ranked for the first time since 1984-85.

Prior to SMU, he spent five seasons (2007-12) as the head coach at Illinois State, where his teams went 105-64, and made four NIT appearances (2008, 2009, 2010, 2012). He also won at least 20 games and finished in the top-three in the Missouri Valley in each of the NIT seasons. They advanced to the MVC tournament title game three times (2008, 2009, 2012), twice falling in overtime. In his five years at ISU, Jankovich was named IBCA District Coach of the Year four times (2008, 2009, 2010, 2012).

Before arriving at Illinois State, he spent five years as an assistant for Kansas coach Bill Self (one at Illinois and four at Kansas). During that stretch, their teams made five straight NCAA Tournaments, two trips to the Elite Eight and laid the foundation for Kansas' National Title in 2008.

In Jankovich's four years at Kansas, the Jayhawks compiled a 105-29 (.784) record, won three Big 12 regular season titles (2005, 2006, 2007), a pair of Big 12 tournaments (2006, 2007) and advanced to the NCAA Tournament in each campaign. In his final season at Kansas (2006-07), the Jayhawks went 33-5, and advanced to the Elite Eight for the second time in four years. The Jayhawks finished the season ranked No. 2 in both the final Associated Press and ESPN/USA Today polls. KU finished each season of his tenure ranked No. 16 or better.

In his one year as an assistant at Illinois (2002-03), the team finished 25-7, won the Big Ten Tournament and advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament. Illinois was No. 11 in the final AP poll.

For the past 30-plus years, Jankovich has played a key role in recruiting and player development. He is responsible for having attracted and coached some of the most accomplished recruiting classes in college basketball and has coached 27 current or former NBA players.

In addition to working under Self, Jankovich has served as an assistant coach for Eddie Sutton, Jack Hartman, Lon Kruger, Boyd Grant, Gene Iba, Bob Weltlich and Kevin Stallings. Other than Kansas and Illinois, he also served on the coaching staffs at UTPA, Kansas State, Texas, Colorado State, Baylor, Oklahoma State and Vanderbilt. In addition, he served as a head coach for four years at the University of North Texas (1993-97) and two seasons at Hutchinson Community College (1997-99).

Jankovich guided Hutchinson Community College from 1997-99, going 50-14, posting back-to-back 20-win campaigns and national rankings both seasons. At Vanderbilt (1999-2002), he played a key role that helped lead the Commodores to two NIT appearances in three years (2000, 2002). The core of Jankovich's recruited players at Vanderbilt advanced to the NCAA Sweet 16 in 2004.

One of the winningest players in Kansas State history, he was a four-year starter at point guard (one at Washington State and three years for legendary coach Jack Hartman at KSU). In each of his seasons at KSU, the Wildcats ranked in the top-20 and advanced to the NCAA Tournament. Jankovich played in nine NCAA Tournament games, advancing to the 1981 Elite Eight and the 1982 Sweet 16.

A three-time academic All-American and honorable mention All-Big Eight player, he finished at Kansas State in the school's top-10 in nine categories, including first in season FT pct. (.917) and eighth in career FG pct. (.510). He set the Big Eight Tournament record for single-game assists (14).

Jankovich graduated from Kansas State cum laude in 1982 with a 3.63 GPA in business finance and received his master's degree in radio/television in 1985. He and his wife, Cindy, have a son, Michael.

K.T. TURNER

Associate Head Coach

Oklahoma City, 2003

Overall: 15th

SMU: 7th

K.T. Turner is in his seventh season at SMU (2019-20), his third as associate head coach.

In his six seasons at SMU, the Mustangs have won The American regular season twice, the AAC Tournament twice and made the NCAA tournament two times. SMU also reached the NIT title game in 2014. The Mustangs have garnered three American Athletic Conference Player of the Year honors and three AAC Sixth Man of the Year awards. SMU has a total of 12 All-AAC selections. The program has been in the Associated Press Top 25 in four of the seasons, being ranked as high as No. 8. The Mustangs have four players in the NBA (Semi Ojeleye, Sterling Brown, Ben Moore, Shake Milton) with Nic Moore, Markus Kennedy, Yanick Moreira and Jordan Tolbert all playing professionally in Europe.

In 2018-19, the Mustangs played just 13 games with 10 scholarship student-athletes available, going 9-4 in those games including two wins over Tulsa and a road win at Georgetown. Senior Jahmal McMurray was named All-AAC second team after finishing fifth in the league in scoring (18.1) and setting the SMU season record with 101 threes made. Jarrey Foster was preseason All-AAC, but played just 16 games due to injury, helping the Mustangs to a 10-6 mark in those games. The team finished 15-17 with three of the top five scorers and three of the top four rebounders as freshmen (Feron Hunt) or sophomores (Ethan Chargois, Isiaha Mike). Foster, McMurray, Mike and Jimmy Whitt Jr. all earned conference honors throughout the season.

The 2017-18 Mustangs started 13-6 with three wins over ranked opponents, topping No. 2 Arizona in the Battle 4 Atlantis tournament, No. 14 USC at Moody Coliseum and No. 7 Wichita State on the road. Shake Milton was named All-AAC Second Team, NABC All-District Second Team and USBWA All-District. During the season, Milton was on the Naismith Trophy, Wooden Award, Lute Olson and Bob Cousy watch lists. Freshman Ethan Chargois was named to the AAC All-Rookie Team. Ben Emelogu led The American in 3-point percentage (.470). The Mustangs eventually finished 17-16 after leading scorers Jarrey Foster and Shake Milton missed February and March due to injuries.

In his first season as associate head coach (2016-17), the Mustangs won The American season and tournament titles en route to the NCAA Tournament and a program-record 30 victories (30-5). SMU went 18-0 at home, 17-1 in the AAC and had winning streaks of 10 games and 16 games in a stretch that saw wins in 26 of 27 outings. The Ponies were ranked in the Associated Press top 25 for the last six weeks of the season, finishing No. 11 in the AP and No. 23 in the USA Today Coaches Poll. Five Mustangs garnered league awards with Semi Ojeleye being named The American Player of the Year and Scholar-Athlete of the Year. Ojeleye was also All-AAC First Team, AP All-America Honorable Mention and CoSIDA Academic All-America Second Team. Ben Moore, Sterling Brown and Shake Milton made the All-AAC Second Team. Ben Emelogu II was named AAC Co-Sixth Man of the Year. After winning the conference tournament, Moore and Brown were named All-Tournament with Ojeleye selected as the Most Outstanding Player. Moore and Brown were selected to play in the NABC All-Star game at the Final Four in Phoenix.

In 2015-16, the Mustangs finished 25-5 with a 16-1 record at Moody Coliseum. SMU was second in the American Athletic Conference at 13-5. The Ponies were No. 24 in the final AP Top 25 after reaching as high as No. 8 during the season. The final poll was the 17th straight week in the AP Top 25. The Mustangs won the Las Vegas Classic en route to a program-best 18-0 start; eventually becoming the last undefeated team in NCAA Division I. SMU led The American in 8 of 21 statistical rankings and ranked in the top 10 of 7 NCAA stat categories. Nic Moore was selected AAC Player of the Year and AP All-America Honorable Mention for the second straight season. He was named All-AAC First Team for the third straight season. Nic Moore was a finalist for the Bob Cousy Award, a member of the Wooden Award Late Season Top 20, on the Naismith Midseason Watch List and on the Oscar Robertson Trophy Watch List. Markus Kennedy was on the Karl Malone Award Watch List and earned his second straight AAC Sixth Man of the Year honor. Shake Milton was a unanimous pick for the AAC All-Rookie team. Ben Moore was named to the NABC All-District Second Team.

In his second season (2014-15), SMU claimed the American Athletic Conference regular season and tournament titles en route to reaching the NCAA Tournament. SMU finished the season 27-7 overall. The Mustangs went 15-3 in league play, clinching the outright league title (first since 1993) with a 67-62 win against Tulsa in a sold out Moody Coliseum on March 8. The team followed that by winning the AAC tournament title 62-54 over Connecticut. The Mustangs spent nine weeks in the AP and USA Today Top 25 and set home attendance records for a season (124,986) and average (6,944) while going 16-2 in Moody Coliseum. Nic Moore was named AP All-American Honorable Mention and AAC Player of the Year, Markus Kennedy was AAC Sixth Man of the Year and Most Outstanding Player of the Championship, and Yanick Moreira was named the AAC's Most Improved Player.

In his first season (2013-14), he helped lead the Mustangs into the national spotlight as SMU earned a No. 1 seed in the NIT and eventually reaching the title game at Madison Square Garden. SMU was in the top 25 in four of the last five regular season polls, being ranked for the first time since 1984-85. The Mustangs led the AAC and finished in the top 20 nationally in field goal percentage (48.3%, 18th NCAA) and field goal percentage defense (38.5%, 7th NCAA).

Turner came to the Hilltop after a Final Four run at Wichita State (2013) as a member of coach Gregg Marshall's staff. The Shockers went 30-9, finishing second in the Missouri Valley and reaching the final of the MVC Tournament.

Prior to joining the staff at Wichita State, Turner worked one season as an assistant at Texas A&M-Corpus Christi, serving as the program's primary recruiter. He spent the previous two seasons as an assistant at Hutchinson (Kan.) Community College. Turner helped lead the Blue Dragons to a 52-12 record in two seasons and advanced to the Region VI semifinals in both years, marking the first time since the 2003-04 season that Hutchinson advanced that far in the playoffs.

After stints at Redlands Community College and Panola (Texas) Junior College, Turner joined the staff at Northern Arizona for the 2007-08 season. He helped coach the Lumberjacks to a 21-11 season with a 12-4 record in Big Sky play. After a season at Northern Arizona, he served as an assistant at Cowley College, helping guide the team to a 29-5 mark and a trip to the Region VI title game.

Turner began his collegiate playing career at Hutchinson C.C., where he was an all-conference player in 1997-98 and 1998-99. He led the Blue Dragons to a 50-14 record in two seasons, advancing to the Region VI semifinals once. After a season at UT-Arlington, Turner finished his collegiate career at Oklahoma City University, where he later earned a bachelor's degree in criminal justice in 2003. He helped the Stars reach the quarterfinals of the NAIA National Basketball Tournament and then played professionally for Benneton Treviso in Treviso, Italy, before joining the coaching ranks.

He and his wife, Cassandra, have two children, Kelis and Kenneth III (Kenny).

Yaphett King
Assistant Coach
Cal State Fullerton, 2005
Overall: 14th
SMU: 1st

Yaphett King was named an assistant coach by Head Coach Tim Jankovich. King came to SMU after three seasons at Louisiana Tech, where the Bulldogs had two 20-win seasons.

"We are excited to have Yaphett joining our program," said Jankovich. "He was an outstanding player, and has been a very successful assistant as well as head coach. We think he is a great fit for SMU."

"I would like to thank Coach Jankovich for giving me the opportunity to join his staff," says King. "My family and I are super excited about coming to SMU, and can't wait to get started."

At Louisiana Tech, the team registered two 20-win seasons with a high of 23 victories. His time with the Bulldogs included winning the 2017-18 Cancun Challenge and the New Orleans Shootout. Five players earned C-USA postseason awards during his time in Ruston.

Prior to Louisiana Tech, King was an assistant coach at Texas A&M--Corpus Christi for four seasons (2012-16). The team improved dramatically during his time, winning 20 games in 2014-15 and 25 games in 2015-16. The Islanders earned a CIT bid in each of his last three seasons.

Prior to joining the Islanders, King spent four years (2008-12) as head coach at Redlands Community College where he led the squad to 72 wins during his tenure, highlighted by a 21-win season and a trip to the National Junior College Athletic Association Tournament in 2010-11.

King started his coaching career as an assistant coach at Redlands in 2006-07, when the team went 31-2 en route to the regional final.

The following year (2007-08) he joined Cowley College as an assistant coach, assisting the team to a 31-2 overall mark and an appearance in the regional championship game.

On the court, King was an All-American as a freshman at Redlands in 2001-02 while leading the team to the NJCAA Division II national title. He went on to play at Cal State Fullerton where he helped the Titans to postseason play for the first time in 15 years, advancing to the Round of 16 in the National Invitation Tournament.

He went on to play professionally in Austria for two years.

King is a native of St. Petersburg, Florida. He and his wife, Charlena, have two kids, Caydance and Yarrah.

JAY DUNCAN

Assistant Coach Villanova, 2012 SMU: 8th

Jay Duncan is entering his 10th season in coaching (2019-20), his eighth season on staff at SMU and his fourth year as an assistant coach for the Mustangs.

During his time at SMU, the Mustangs have won The American regular season twice, the AAC Tournament twice and made the NCAA tournament two times. SMU also reached the NIT title game in 2014. The Mustangs have garnered three American Athletic Conference Player of the Year honors and three AAC Sixth Man of the Year awards. SMU has a total of 12 All-AAC selections. The program has been in the Associated Press Top 25 in four of the seasons, being ranked as high as No. 8. The Mustangs have four players in the NBA (Semi Ojeleye, Sterling Brown, Ben Moore, Shake Milton) with Nic Moore, Markus Kennedy, Yanick Moreira and Jordan Tolbert all playing professionally in Europe.

Before being named an assistant coach by Tim Jankovich, Duncan had already learned from some of the biggest names in college basketball, including three different NCAA National Championship winning head coaches. He played for Rollie Massimino before working for Jay Wright and Larry Brown.

In 2018-19, the Mustangs played just 13 games with 10 scholarship student-athletes available, going 9-4 in those games including two wins over Tulsa and a road win at Georgetown. Senior Jahmal McMurray was named All-AAC second team after finishing fifth in the league in scoring (18.1) and setting the SMU season record with 101 threes made. Jarrey Foster was preseason All-AAC, but played just 16 games due to injury, helping the Mustangs to a 10-6 mark in those games. The team finished 15-17 with three of the top five scorers and three of the top four rebounders as freshmen (Feron Hunt) or sophomores (Ethan Chargois, Isiaha Mike). Foster, McMurray, Mike and Jimmy Whitt Jr. all earned conference honors throughout the season.

The 2017-18 Mustangs started 13-6 with three wins over ranked opponents, topping No. 2 Arizona in the Battle 4 Atlantis tournament, No. 14 USC at Moody Coliseum and No. 7 Wichita State on the road. Shake Milton was named All-AAC Second Team, NABC All-District Second Team and USBWA All-District. During the season, Milton was on the Naismith Trophy, Wooden Award, Lute Olson and Bob Cousy watch lists. Freshman Ethan Chargois was named to the AAC All-Rookie Team. Ben Emelogu led The American in 3-point percentage (.470). The Mustangs eventually finished 17-16 after leading scorers Jarrey Foster and Shake Milton missed February and March due to injuries.

In 2016-17, the Mustangs won The American regular season and tournament titles en route to the NCAA Tournament and a program-record 30 victories (30-5). SMU went 18-0 at home, 17-1 in the AAC and had winning streaks of 10 games and 16 games in a stretch that saw wins in 26 of 27 outings. The Ponies were ranked in the Associated Press top 25 for the last six weeks of the season, finishing No. 11 in the AP Poll. Five Mustangs garnered league awards with Semi Ojeleye being named The American Player of the Year and Scholar-Athlete of the Year. Ojeleye was also All-AAC First Team and AP All-America Honorable Mention. Ben Moore, Sterling Brown and Shake Milton made the All-AAC Second Team. Ben Emelogu II was named AAC Co-Sixth Man of the Year. Moore and Brown were also selected to play in the NABC All-Star game at the Final Four in Phoenix.

In 2015-16, the Mustangs finished 25-5 with a 16-1 record at Moody Coliseum. SMU was second in the American Athletic Conference at 13-5. The Ponies were No. 24 in the final AP Top 25 after reaching as high as No. 8 during the season. The final poll was the 17th straight week in the AP Top 25. The Mustangs won the Las Vegas Classic en route to a program-best 18-0 start; eventually becoming the last undefeated team in NCAA Division I. Nic Moore was selected AAC Player of the Year and AP All-America Honorable Mention for the second straight season. He was named All-AAC First Team for the third straight season and was a finalist for the Bob Cousy Award. Markus Kennedy was on the Karl Malone Award Watch List and earned his second straight AAC Sixth Man of the Year honor. Shake Milton was a unanimous pick for the AAC All-Rookie team. Ben Moore was named to the NABC All-District Second Team.

In the summer of 2015, Duncan was the head coach for a Global Sports Academy U.S. team. The squad went 5-0 on the tour with games in Belgium, Germany, England and the Netherlands.

Prior to SMU, Duncan spent two seasons (2010-12) on Jay Wright's staff at Villanova. During his time at Villanova, he was part of a 21-win season and a trip to the NCAA Tournament.

Before beginning his coaching career, Duncan spent two seasons (2008-10) as a starter and team captain for legendary Coach Rollie Massimino at Northwood University in West Palm Beach, Fla. His teams posted a 54-13 record in two years, making consecutive NAIA National Tournaments. In 2009-10, Duncan was selected as Student-Athlete of the Year after leading the Sun Conference in 3-point shooting percentage and finishing second in three-point field goals made. He was also a two-time NAIA Champion of Character honoree.

He played his first two collegiate seasons at Southeast Community College in Nebraska, where he was a two-year starter. Duncan was selected All-Region IX 1st team and was named an NJCAA Academic All-American, while leading his team to the NJCAA National Tournament.

Duncan graduated from Northwood University cum laude in 2010 with a bachelor's degree in business. He also received a master's in education from Villanova in 2012; graduating with distinction while earning a 3.8 GPA. In 2015, Duncan was admitted to the SMU Cox School of Business and is working toward an MBA.

"Jay has an impressive background, and has been an incredibly valuable part of our program. Before arriving at SMU with Coach (Larry) Brown and myself, he played for Rollie Massimino and worked for Jay Wright. I am excited for him and for us that he is in this position with our team." --- SMU Head Coach Tim Jankovich

"Jay Duncan is one of the most passionate and loyal assistants we have worked with at Villanova. His knowledge of the game is second to none. We're proud that Coach Jankovich is giving Jay this opportunity." --- Villanova Head Coach Jay Wright

"We knew Jay was special as soon as he arrived on our campus. His work ethic, burning desire to excel and knowledge of the game of basketball was exceptional. He led us to two consecutive National Tournament appearances with his unselfish, team-oriented play; leading by the example he set. Jay is a wonderful young man with a great personality and tremendous character. He has the innate gift of developing a rapport with all types of people. Jay has worked extremely hard to climb the ranks of his basketball profession, and I'm sure he will continue that same diligence in his new position at SMU." --- Rollie Massimino (1985 NCAA Championship Head Coach at Villanova, 2013 College Basketball Hall of Fame)

Director of Player Development

Belgrade, 2009

SMU: 5th

Nemanja Jovanovic is in his fifth season (2019-20) at SMU, his second as the Director of Player Development. He served as the Special Assistant to the Head Coach (2016-18) for two seasons after a season as the Director of Video Services (2015-16). Originally from Serbia, Jovanovic began his coaching career in 2002 as the player development coach for BC Zeleznicar Lajkovac. He then went on to work as an assistant coach for one of the top European teams in Red Star Belgrade.

In his four seasons at SMU, the Mustangs have won The American regular season, the AAC Tournament and made the NCAA tournament. The Mustangs have garnered two American Athletic Conference Player of the Year honors and two AAC Sixth Man of the Year awards. SMU has a total of seven All-AAC selections. The program has been in the Associated Press Top 25, being ranked as high as No. 8. The Mustangs have four players in the NBA (Semi Ojeleye, Sterling Brown, Ben Moore, Shake Milton) with Nic Moore, Markus Kennedy, Yanick Moreira and Jordan Tolbert all playing professionally in Europe.

In 2018-19, the Mustangs played just 13 games with 10 scholarship student-athletes available, going 9-4 in those games including two wins over Tulsa and a road win at Georgetown. Senior Jahmal McMurray was named All-AAC second team after finishing fifth in the league in scoring (18.1) and setting the SMU season record with 101 threes made. Jarrey Foster was preseason All-AAC, but played just 16 games due to injury, helping the Mustangs to a 10-6 mark in those games. The team finished 15-17 with three of the top five scorers and three of the top four rebounders as freshmen (Feron Hunt) or sophomores (Ethan Chargois, Isiah Mike). Foster, McMurray, Mike and Jimmy Whitt Jr. all earned conference honors throughout the season.

The 2017-18 Mustangs started 13-6 with three wins over ranked opponents, topping No. 2 Arizona in the Battle 4 Atlantis tournament, No. 14 USC at Moody Coliseum and No. 7 Wichita State on the road. Shake Milton was named All-AAC Second Team, NABC All-District Second Team and USBWA All-District. During the season, Milton was on the Naismith Trophy, Wooden Award, Lute Olson and Bob Cousy watch lists. Freshman Ethan Chargois was named to the AAC All-Rookie Team. Ben Emelogu led the AAC in 3-point percentage (.470). The Mustangs eventually finished 17-16 after leading scorers Jarrey Foster and Shake Milton missed February and March due to injuries.

In 2016-17, the Mustangs won The American season and tournament titles en route to the NCAA Tournament and a program-record 30 victories (30-5). SMU went 18-0 at home, 17-1 in the AAC and had winning streaks of 10 games and 16 games in a stretch that saw wins in 26 of 27 outings. The Ponies were ranked in the Associated Press top 25 for the last six weeks of the season, finishing No. 11 in the AP and No. 23 in the USA Today Coaches Poll. Five Mustangs garnered league awards with Semi Ojeleye being named the AAC Player of the Year and Scholar-Athlete of the Year. Ojeleye was also All-AAC First Team, AP All-America Honorable Mention and CoSIDA Academic All-America Second Team. Ben Moore, Sterling Brown and Shake Milton made the All-AAC Second Team. Ben Emelogu II was named AAC Co-Sixth Man of the Year. After winning the AAC tournament, Moore and Brown were named All-Tournament with Ojeleye selected as the Most Outstanding Player. Moore and Brown were selected to play in the NABC All-Star game at the Final Four in Phoenix.

In his first season (2015-16), the Mustangs finished 25-5 with a 16-1 record at Moody Coliseum. SMU was second in The American at 13-5. The Ponies were No. 24 in the final AP Top 25 after reaching as high as No. 8 during the season. The final poll was the 17th straight week in the AP Top 25. The Mustangs won the Las Vegas Classic en route to a program-best 18-0 start; eventually becoming the last undefeated team in NCAA Division I. Nic Moore was selected AAC Player of the Year and AP All-America Honorable Mention for the second straight season. He was named All-AAC First Team for the third straight season. Nic Moore was a finalist for the Bob Cousy Award, a member of the Wooden Award Late Season Top 20, on the Naismith Midseason Watch List and on the Oscar Robertson Trophy Watch List. Markus Kennedy was on the Karl Malone Award Watch List and earned his second straight AAC Sixth Man of the Year honor. Shake Milton was a unanimous pick for the AAC All-Rookie team. Ben Moore was named to the NABC All-District Second Team.

He joined the Mustangs after stints as the Head Coach for the Nassjo Basket basketball team in Sweden (2015) and the Danish Horsholm 79ers (2012-14). During his two seasons in Denmark, he was also involved with the National Team program as the coach for individual player development. Through 12 seasons of coaching in Europe, he held coaching positions in Serbia, Spain, Denmark and Sweden.

In Serbia, he coached NBA Draft picks Nemanja Bjelica (2010, Round 2, 35th overall to Washington Wizards), who is currently playing for Minnesota Timberwolves; and Nemanja Nedovic (2013, Round 1 / 30th to Phoenix Suns).

Jovanovic holds a FIBA coaching license and has basketball coaching certifications from the Basketball Academy Belgrade (Serbia) and the Basketball Academy Madrid (Spain). In 2009, he completed a bachelor's degree in sport/basketball from the University of Belgrade.

In the summer of 2016, he served as a member of the Utah Jazz coaching staff during NBA Summer League.

He and his wife, Nada, have two children, Stefan and Aleksandar.
