No. 10 OU Ready for Big 12 Championships

Ranked No. 10 in the latest GymInfo poll, the University of Oklahoma women's gymnastics team heads to Columbia, Mo., for the 2007 Big 12 Championship on March 31.

The meet is scheduled for a 7 p.m. (CT) start from the Hearnes Center on the campus of the University of Missouri. Live scores will be available on the Live Stats page on SoonerSports.com, as well as at MUTigers.com.

Fox Sports Net will also be filming the meet and will air it on tape delay in early April. A complete list of broadcast dates for the FSN regional networks is available on SoonerSports.com. FSN Southwest (Cox Channel 37) will air the event at 12:30 p.m. (CT) on Saturday, April 7.

This year's squad is poised to make a serious run at the program's second Big 12 crown. The 2007 Sooners were the first team in program history to sweep their regular season match ups with Big 12 opponents.

OU also closed out the regular season in fine fashion on March 24, posting a season best team score of 197.175 in a victory over Pittsburgh.

Oklahoma owns six conference titles, including the program's first Big 12 win in 2004. OU finished third at last season's Big 12 meet with a 195.350 total. The Sooners' Brittney Koncak-Schumann claimed the all-around title, while Stephanie LoPiccolo finished in a four-way tie for first on the uneven bars.

Standing in the Sooners' way are a trio of teams ranked in the GymInfo top 20, including No. 7 Nebraska. The Huskers are led by four-time Big 12 Gymnast of the Week Emily Parsons. OU defeated Nebraska in Lincoln on Feb. 2, ending a 15-year drought at the Bob Devaney Center.

Iowa State comes into Saturday's meet ranked in a tied for 15th nationally. The Cyclones' Janet Anson is ranked No. 1 in the all-around in the Big 12 Conference and is fifth in the country. The Sooners also beat ISU 196.250-194.425 on Feb. 16 in Ames, Iowa.

Missouri is ranked No. 18 in the national polls. The Tigers' Adrienne Perry is a two-time Big 12 Gymnast of the Week and the conference's second-ranked vaulter.

BIG 12 CHAMPIONSHIP SUCCESS

Oklahoma owns six conference titles in its history, including the 2004 Big 12 crown. The Sooners finished third at last season's competition, and Brittney Koncak-Schumann claimed the conference all-around title.

OU head coach K.J. Kindler is also no stranger to Big 12 success. As the head coach at Iowa State last season, Kindler led the Cyclones to their first Big 12 championship since 2000.

OU LANDS FIVE ON ACADEMIC ALL-BIG 12 TEAM

Five University of Oklahoma student-athletes were named to the 2007 Academic All-Big 12 Gymnastics Team. Seniors Brittney Koncak-Schumann and Lori Winn each earned first team honors, as did junior Caitlin Hinkis and sophomore Haley DeProspero. Sophomore Ashley Jackson was named to the second team. Oklahoma's four first team honorees were the second most in the conference behind Missouri's six.

WOMEN SCORE SEASON HIGH IN FINAL TUNE UP

Oklahoma posted a season-high 197.175 in its final regular season dual, defeating Pittsburgh (194.075) on Senior Night at the Howard McCasland Field House.

The Sooners also recorded team season highs on vault (49.350) and floor exercise (49.375) and tied their season best with a 49.325 on the balance beam.

SOONERS HOST SPECIAL SPECTATORS

In addition to the Senior Night festivities on March 24, OU's meet with Pittsburgh was special for a different reason. The team welcomed three superfans from the Everest Childrens Cancer Center. The children were carried out by members of the team and introduced during pre-meet introductions. They also hung around with the Sooners during stretching and warmups and even donned some OU face tattoos like the gymnasts.

The squad has made numerous visits to the Everest Cancer Center throughout the years. The gymnasts hang out with the kids, sign autographs and even help with arts and crafts.

REDMOND MAKES IT THREE IN A ROW

With her all-around victory at Stanford on March 9, junior Kiara Redmond won at least a share of the all-around title in three straight meets. The Los Angeles, Calif., native has five all-around crowns this season after winning just one in 2006.

NEARLY PERFECT

Brittney Koncak-Schumann came just 0.025 points away from recording the Sooners' second perfect vault of the season against Stanford on March 9. One judge gave the senior a perfect score, while the second awarded a 9.95. Koncak-Schumann's 9.975 marked a career high on the apparatus and earned her second vault title of the year.

THE DYNAMIC DUO

The Sooners proved they have quite a one-two punch against Texas Woman's University on March 3. Senior Brittney Koncak-Schumann and junior Kiara Redmond each scored a 39.575 to share the all-around title against the Pioneers. The score was also a career best for Redmond and just 0.025 off of Koncak-Schumann's career mark of 39.600.

The win was Koncak-Schumann's 15th event title of the season and fourth in the all-around, while Redmond notched her third all-around crown to give her 10 event wins on the year.

ACTION JACKSON

Sophomore Ashley Jackson continues to impress. The Hudsonville, Mich., native won her fourth vault title of the season with a career-high 9.9 against TWU in Norman. She also matched her career high on floor exercise with a 9.875 to tie for second place with Koncak-Schumann. Jackson has notched at least one event win in the Sooners' last four competitions.

RECORD START

With their 11-1 start to the 2007 season, this year's OU squad matched the record set by the 2000 team. The Sooners won 11 in-a-row after a near-upset of then-No. 4 Alabama in their season opener in Tuscaloosa on Jan. 12.

END OF THE ROAD

OU's March 9 matchup with No. 3 Stanford marked the end of a grueling 2007 road schedule. Seven of the Sooners' first nine events of the season were away from the Howard McCasland Field House. Oklahoma finished 5-2 on the road, including an upset of No. 8 Nebraska in Lincoln and wins at No. 13 Iowa State, No. 21 Arizona State and No. 27 Iowa.

SOONERS SWEEP BIG 12 FOES

For the first time since the conference's inception in 1996, OU defeated all three Big 12 rivals in the regular season. The Sooners defeated Missouri in Norman on Jan. 19 and beat Nebraska (Feb. 2) and Iowa State (Feb. 16) on the road. The last time an Oklahoma team swept its conference foes in the regular season was 1991 in the Big Eight.

WE'RE NO. 1

After road wins at Iowa State (Feb. 16) and Iowa (Feb. 18), OU rose to No. 7 in the GymInfo rankings released on Feb. 19. It marked the Sooners' highest national ranking since coming in at No. 6 on March 27, 2006. Oklahoma was also the top-rated team in the Big 12, a distinction they had not held since Feb. 20, 2006.

KEEP TAKING IT HIGHER

In addition to the personal bests set by Oklahoma gymnasts at the Arizona State tri-meet, OU also recorded three team scores that constituted season bests.

The Sooners' 196.400 was the team's highest score to date and the second-highest total recorded by a Big 12 team this year (Nebraska, 196.800).

OU also set season benchmarks on the uneven bars (49.100) and floor exercise (49.075).

CLUTCH PERFORMER

For two consecutive weeks (Feb. 2 and Feb. 9), OU's senior leader Brittney Koncak-Schumann came up with solid performances on the final rotation to seal an OU road win against a ranked opponent.

With a slight lead over then-No. 21 Arizona State in Tempe on Feb. 9, Koncak-Schumann scored a meet high 9.875 on the uneven bars to cap a 196.400 - 196.275 win over the Sun Devils.

Clinging to a narrow lead on the last rotation against No. 6 Nebraska on Feb. 2, OU head coach K.J. Kindler needed a near perfect beam performance from Koncak-Schumann to seal the win. The 2006 Big 12 all-around champion delivered under pressure, scoring a 9.9 on the apparatus to seal the upset.

WISE MAKES OU DEBUT

Freshman Hollie Vise made her collegiate debut against Arizona State and Cal on Feb. 9. The Dallas native competed on the balance beam for the Sooners, scoring a solid 9.8. Vise is a two-time junior national champion on the apparatus and also was the 2003 world champion on bars, helping the U.S. Team to the World Championship title.

SHINING BRIGHT IN THE VALLEY OF THE SUN

Three OU gymnasts set career highs in the tri-meet at Arizona State. Junior Kiara Redmond scored a 9.85 on bars to best her previous high of 9.825. Sophomore Haley DeProspero improved her career mark on beam from 9.9 to 9.925, while freshman Mary Mantle set a new mark in her short career with a 9.825 on vault.

Redmond and DeProspero, along with Brittney Koncak-Schumann also set season highs in Tempe. Koncak-Schumann's 39.475 all-around score was her best of 2007, as was her 9.875 on floor. Redmond tied her season best with a 9.875 on floor, while DeProspero's 9.8 on the apparatus was her best of the year.

A HISTORIC WIN

The Sooners' upset of the Cornhuskers was more than just a big conference win. The last time OU beat Nebraska was at the 2004 Big 12 Championships where the Sooners claimed their only Big 12 title.

Ending that two-year losing streak to the Huskers paled in comparison, however, to OU's struggles in Lincoln. With the victory, Oklahoma defeated Nebraska in a dual meet in Lincoln for the first time since 1991 -- a span of over 15 years.

OU WELL-REPRESENTED IN BIG 12 AWARDS

OU gymnasts have won six of the 24 weekly awards handed out by the conference so far this season. Brittney Koncak-Schumann's has earned three Gymnast of the Week honors, while Lori Winn, Kiara Redmond and Ashley Jackson have each earned Event Specialist of the Week awards.

SHE'S SO PERFECT

Junior Kiara Redmond recorded a perfect 10.0 on the vault in OU's Jan. 27 quad meet victory over Texas Woman's, George Washington and Centenary. Redmond's 10 was the first recorded by a Big 12 gymnast in 2007. Redmond joins Leah Mueller (2002) and Amber McCracken in the OU vaulting record books.

TEN NAMED TO BIG 12 HONOR ROLL

Ten members of the OU women's gymnastics team were selected to the Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll for the Fall 2006 semester. Senior Brittney Koncak-Schumann and sophomore Gina Lesko were two of the 39 OU athletes to earn perfect 4.0 grade point averages.

The other Sooner honorees were Haley DeProspero, Caitlin Hinkis, Ashley Jackson, Jessica Kinder, Kiara Redmond and Kristin Smith. Seniors Coral Borda and Tara Anderson, whose gymnastics eligibility expired at the end of last season, were also on the list.

MANTLE STEPS UP TO THE PLATE

Freshman Mary Mantle proved to be a valuable contributor for head coach K.J. Kindler through the first six meets of the season. After competing as a vault specialist in the Sooners' first two events, Mantle was thrust into the lineup on bars and floor in the TWU quad meet on Jan. 27. The Bellvue, Colo. native responded, turning in scores of 9.725 on both events in helping No. 8 OU improve its record to 5-1 on the season.

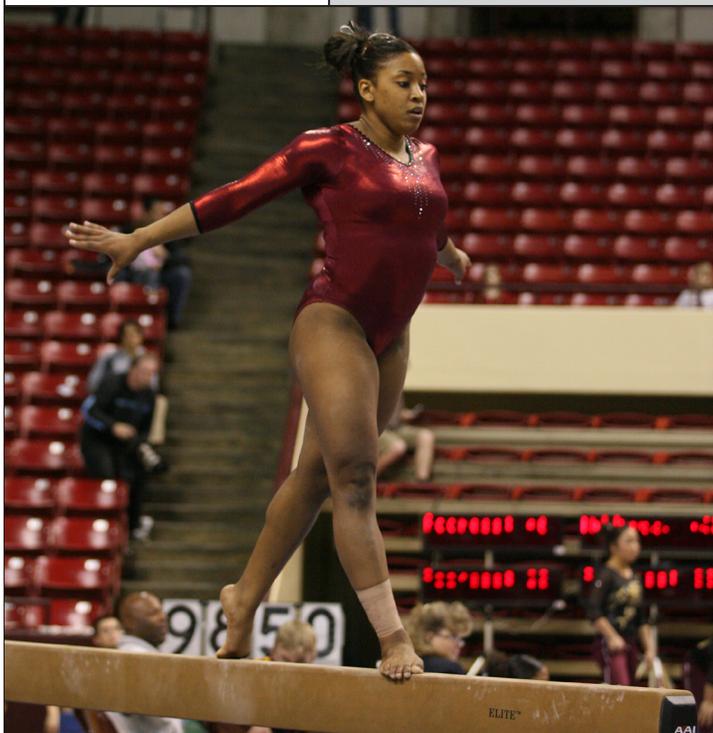

KONCAK-SCHUMANN GOES BACK-TO-BACK

Oklahoma's Brittney Koncak-Schumann was named the Big 12 Gymnast of the Week for the second week in a row on Jan. 23. The honor was the sixth of her career.

The 2006 Big 12 all-around champion won the all-around (39.325), uneven bars (9.875) and balance beam (9.95) titles in the Sooners' home-opening win over Central Michigan and No. 22 Missouri. Her balance beam score was a career-high. She also finished fourth on vault (9.85).

Koncak-Schumann won three Big 12 weekly honors in 2006, and she is the first to win back-to-back honors this season. Nebraska's Emily Parsons and Iowa State's Janet Anson took home consecutive honors last season.

RECORD BREAKERS

Five OU gymnasts recorded career highs against Missouri and Central Michigan on Jan. 19. Senior Brittney Koncak-Schumann scored a near perfect 9.95 on beam, while junior Stephanie LoPiccolo was right behind her with a 9.925.

Sophomore Ashley Jackson topped her previous best with a 9.875 on vault, and a pair of freshmen, Jacqueline Flanery (9.825/FX) and Kristin Smith (9.675/FX) also set new benchmarks in their short OU careers.

SOONER SENIORS EARN BIG 12 HONORS

Oklahoma's two senior gymnasts, Brittney Koncak-Schumann and Lori Winn, swept the Big 12 Conference's weekly honors for Jan. 16 after leading OU to a near upset of No. 4 Alabama on Jan. 12.

Koncak-Schumann, from McQueeney, Texas, was named the conference Gymnast of the Week after taking second in the all-around against the Crimson Tide with a score of 39.350, just 0.025 points behind Alabama's Kassi Price. She also shared the balance beam title (9.85), was third on uneven bars (9.85), sixth on floor exercise (9.85) and tied for seventh on vault (9.80).

Winn, an Oklahoma City native, earned the first conference honor of her career. The Event Specialist of the Week is a new award for this season to recognize those who do not compete in the all-around.

Winn competed on three events for the Sooners at Alabama. She shared the balance beam title (9.85) with Koncak-Schumann while placing fourth on uneven bars (9.825). She also competed on floor exercise (9.75).

STARTING FRESH(MEN)

Three Oklahoma freshmen saw the first action of their collegiate careers against the fourth-ranked Alabama Crimson Tide. Jacqueline Flanery, from Plattsburg, Mo., recorded a 9.775 on both the vault and floor exercise. Mary Mantle, a Bellvue, Colo. native, scored a 9.8 on the vault, the Sooners' second-highest score on the apparatus against the Tide. Oklahoma City native Kristin Smith scored a 9.0 on the floor in her debut.

SOONERS DEBUT AT NO. 10

The University of Oklahoma women's gymnastics team is ranked No. 10 in the 2007 preseason GymInfo Coaches Poll. The top-10 ranking ties the Sooners' highest preseason poll position of the last 10 years. OU was also ranked 10th in the 2006 preseason poll.

"OU is honored to be placed amongst the top 10 teams in the country," Kindler said. "We have strong leadership in our two seniors and will rely heavily on their guidance of a fairly young squad."

Oklahoma finished the 2006 season ranked 10th nationally, tying for the second-best final poll position in school history.

KINDLER SIGNS THREE FOR 2008

First-year head coach K.J. Kindler announced her first Oklahoma recruiting class Friday, signing three gymnasts to National Letters of Intent. Taylor Zondervan, Natalie Ratcliff and Melanie Root will join the Sooners for the 2008 season.

Zondervan, a Level 10 from Schoolcraft High School in Kalamazoo, Mich., trains at Gedder's Twisters, the former club of current OU gymnast Ashley Jackson. Zondervan was a member of the 2006 Junior Olympic National Team and finished fifth in the all-around, third on bars, fifth on beam and sixth on floor in the Senior B Division at the 2006 J.O. Nationals. She also captured the bars and floor titles at the 2006 Region 5 Regionals in Senior B and took 10th in the all-around at the 2005 J.O. Nationals. Zondervan plans on majoring in Zoology/Pre-Med at OU.

A native of Overland Park, Kan., Ratcliff is a member of Great American Gymnastics Express where she is coached by Al and Armine Fong and Rodney Gust. The Blue Valley Northwest High School senior and Level 10 gymnast is an eight-time Missouri State Champion and a former member of the U.S. National Team. An honor roll student at Blue Valley, Ratcliff intends to major in Elementary Education.

Root attends Cartersville High School in Cartersville, Ga., and trains at Cartersville Twisters. She is a three-time State Champion (2003, 2004 and 2006) and finished 15th in the all-around and 10th on beam at the 2006 Junior Olympic Nationals. She also qualified for Nationals in 2005 and was an alternate in 2003 and 2004. A Level 10, Root went pre-elite for a year in 2004. She plans to major in Management at OU.

FRESHMAN JACKIE FLANERY

PITTSBURGH • MARCH 24, 2007

NORMAN, Okla. – Tenth-ranked Oklahoma posted a season-high 197.175 in its final regular season dual, defeating Pittsburgh (194.075) on Senior Night at the Howard McCasland Field House. The meet was the home finale for OU's Brittney Koncak-Schumann and Lori Winn.

Koncak-Schumann and junior Kiara Redmond shared the all-around title with matching scores of 39.550. Sophomore Haley DeProspero was third with a season-high 39.350 total, while Winn was fourth with a 38.900.

The Sooners swept top honors on each team and individual event and recorded team season highs on vault (49.350) and floor exercise (49.375) and tied their season best with a 49.325 on the balance beam.

In addition to their tie atop the all-around standings, Koncak-Schumann and Redmond also split the vault (9.9) and bars (9.875) crowns. Koncak-Schumann also shared the event title on beam with DeProspero and Winn with a trio of 9.875s.

Redmond also took first on the floor exercise, tying her career high with a 9.925.

Winn turned in a sparkling performance in her last action at the Field House. In addition to her beam title, the Oklahoma City native set a career high with a 9.85 on vault and tied for third on bars with the Panthers' Andrea Arlotta (9.8).

Freshman Hollie Vise also scored a career-best 9.85 to tie Redmond for third on beam.

IOWA • MARCH 17, 2007

NORMAN, Okla. – The ninth-ranked Oklahoma women's gymnastics team defeated Iowa 195.475-193.825 Saturday night at the Howard McCasland Field House. It was the Sooners' second win this season over the Hawkeyes, having won in Iowa City on Feb. 18.

Senior Brittney Koncak-Schumann took her fifth all-around title of the season with a 39.325. Junior Kiara Redmond (39.125) was second, while sophomore Haley DeProspero was third (39.000).

Oklahoma claimed at least a share of every team and individual event title against the Hawkeyes.

Freshman Jackie Flanery and sophomore Ashley Jackson tied for first on vault (9.825). Koncak-Schumann won the bars (9.875) and beam (9.875) crowns, and shared the floor title with Jackson (9.85).

Redmond and senior Lori Winn also tied for third on floor with matching 9.825s. Redmond also finished third on beam with a 9.775, while Winn scored a 9.85 to earn second place on bars.

STANFORD • MARCH 9, 2007

NORMAN, Okla. – No. 3 Stanford ended Oklahoma's 11-match win streak Friday night in Palo Alto, Calif., edging the ninth-ranked Sooners 196.475-196.175 at Burnham Pavilion. Oklahoma had won 11 straight contests since dropping its season opener at No. 4 Alabama on Jan. 12.

OU's Kiara Redmond claimed the all-around title, her fourth of the season, with a 39.500 to best the Cardinal's Carly Janiga's 39.325. The Sooners' Haley DeProspero was third with a 39.200.

Redmond, a junior from Los Angeles, Calif., also claimed the floor exercise title with a 9.925 that tied her career high set last weekend in Norman against Texas Woman's University. She also finished second on vault with a 9.925 and tied for fourth on beam (9.825).

DeProspero, a sophomore, tied for first on beam (9.9) with Stanford's Tabitha Yim to record her first event title of the season.

Senior Brittney Koncak-Schumann scored a career-best 9.975 to take her second vault crown of the year and also finished second on bars (9.9) and third on beam (9.875).

TEXAS WOMAN'S • MARCH 3, 2007

NORMAN, Okla. – The ninth-ranked Oklahoma women's gymnastics team scored a season-high 196.725 to defeat Texas Woman's University (192.425) Saturday night at the McCasland Field House. OU beat TWU for the second time this year, having previously defeated the Pioneers on Jan. 27 in Denton, Texas.

OU's Brittney Koncak-Schumann and Kiara Redmond shared the all-around title with matching scores of 39.575, a season high for both and a career high for Redmond.

The Sooners swept top honors on every event. In addition to their all-around honors, Koncak-Schumann took the bars (9.925) and beam (9.9) crowns, while Redmond was first on floor with a career-high 9.925. Sophomore Ashley Jackson won the vault with a career-high 9.8.

Oklahoma started strong on vault with three gymnasts recording career bests. In addition to Jackson's 9.8 mark, freshman Jackie Flanery (9.825) and senior Lori Winn (9.825) also had superlative scores.

The Sooners also dominated on the uneven bars with a team season-high of 49.35. Redmond had a career-best 9.9 on the apparatus, while Winn (9.875) and Koncak-Schumann (9.925) each tied their career marks. Junior Stephanie LoPiccolo also chipped in with a season-high 9.85 for OU.

IOWA • FEB. 18, 2007

NORMAN, Okla. – Eighth-ranked Oklahoma completed its Iowa sweep Sunday, defeating the University of Iowa 195.650-194.525 at the UI Field House in Iowa City. The Sooners also defeated No. 10 Iowa State in Ames on Friday night.

Junior Kiara Redmond took her second all-around title of the season with a 39.250 total. Teammate Brittney Koncak-Schumann was second with a 39.000.

Sooner gymnasts had the top three scores on all four events and OU scored a team season-best 49.150 on the floor exercise.

Redmond and Koncak-Schumann tied for first with Iowa's Katie Turcotte on vault with scores of 9.875, while sophomore Ashley Jackson, who won the event against ISU on Friday, was fourth with a 9.8.

Koncak-Schumann, a senior from McQueeney, Texas, also took the floor (9.875) and uneven bars title with a career and team season-high 9.925.

In addition to her all-around and vault titles, Redmond tied for second on floor (9.85), and finished third on beam (9.750) and bars (9.775).

Junior Caitlin Hinkis had her best finish of the year on bars, scoring a 9.8, while freshman Hollie Vise, in just her third start for the Sooners, put up a 9.775 on the balance beam to earn runner-up honors.

IOWA STATE • FEB. 16, 2007

NORMAN, Okla. – For the third time in as many weeks, the Oklahoma women's gymnastics team went on the road and beat a ranked team. Friday's victim – tenth-ranked Iowa State. The Sooners recorded a team score of 196.250, besting the Cyclones' 194.425.

Once again the competition came down to the final event. After an uncharacteristic fall by 2006 All-America Kiara Redmond to lead off the beam, OU needed five solid performances to come away with a win. The Sooners delivered thanks to what head coach K.J. Kindler called "the best beam routine of the year" by senior Lori Winn. The Oklahoma City native tied her career high with a 9.9 to clinch the OU victory.

Winn shared the beam title with Iowa State's Janet Anson and also took her first bars crown of the year, tying her career high with a 9.875.

Kindler also lauded her team's vault performance as the best of the year so far. Sophomore Ashley Jackson claimed her third event title of the year, tying her career high with a 9.875. Sophomore Haley DeProspero scored a season-high 9.85 to tie for second place with teammate Kiara Redmond and ISU's Megan Barnes. Freshman Mary Mantle also finished in the top five on the event with a career-best-tying 9.825.

ARIZONA STATE & CALIFORNIA • FEB. 9, 2007

TEMPE, Ariz. – For the second straight week, the Oklahoma women's gymnastics team defeated a ranked team on the road. The ninth-ranked Sooners finished first in the Arizona State tri-meet, defeating No. 21 Arizona State and California in front of 896 fans at Wells Fargo Arena. OU beat No. 6 Nebraska in Lincoln on Feb. 2.

OU finished with a season high 196.400 team score. The host Sun Devils were second with a 196.275, while Cal finished third at 190.900.

Senior Brittney Koncak-Schumann won her third all-around title of the season with a season-high 39.475. The McQueeney, Texas, native also finished fourth on beam with a 9.9, tied for third on vault (9.825) and tied for second on floor with a season-high 9.875. Koncak-Schumann once again clinched a Sooner win with a clutch 9.875 on the uneven bars in OU's final rotation, taking the event title.

Sophomore Ashley Jackson took her second event title of the season on vault, sharing first place with ASU's April Boone (9.85).

Junior Kiara Redmond set a career high with a 9.85 on bars to tie for second, and also finished second on floor with a season-high 9.875.

Several other Sooners set or tied career or season highs against the Sun Devils and Golden Bears. Freshman Mary Mantle scored a career-best 9.825 to tie Koncak-Schumann for second on vault, while sophomore Haley DeProspero tied for second on beam with a career-high 9.925. DeProspero also set a season high on floor with a 9.8.

Jackson and Redmond also tied their season highs on the floor exercise with a 9.85 and 9.875, respectively.

As a team, Oklahoma scored season event highs on floor (49.075) and bars (49.100).

NEBRASKA • FEB. 2, 2007

LINCOLN, Neb. – Senior Brittney Koncak-Schumann claimed her second all-around title of the season, and the No. 8 OU women's gymnastics team upset sixth-ranked Nebraska, 195.075-195.050, Friday night in the Bob Devaney Sports Center.

The Sooners had not defeated their Big 12 conference rivals since the 2004 Big 12 Championships.

OU trailed by 0.4 after two rotations, but cut the Nebraska lead to 0.1 on the floor exercise. The Sooners grabbed the lead on their last event, balance beam, with a 48.575 total, while the Huskers turned in their lowest event score of the night with a 48.450.

Koncak-Schumann tied for second (9.85) on the uneven bars, and finished fourth (9.825) on the floor, but clinched her all-around win with a 9.9 on the beam. She shared the beam title with Nebraska's Tricia Woo and Emily Parsons.

Oklahoma started on the uneven bars, posting a team total of 48.875 led by Koncak-Schumann's 9.85 and a 9.825 by classmate Lori Winn.

The Cornhuskers extended their lead on the second rotation, posting a 49.050 on the bars. OU's Kiara Redmond, who posted a perfect 10.0 on the apparatus against Texas Woman's University last week, led the Sooners with a 9.875 to finish second.

OU closed the gap with a meet-high 48.800 on floor and captured the win with the clutch performances on beam. In addition to Koncak-Schumann's 9.825, Redmond recorded a 9.8 and sophomore Ashley Jackson scored a 9.7.

TWU QUAD MEET • JAN. 27, 2007

NORMAN, Okla. – Junior Kiara Redmond scored a perfect 10 on vault and the eighth-ranked Oklahoma women's gymnastics team took the team title in Saturday's quad meet against Texas Woman's University, Centenary and George Washington in Denton, Texas.

OU finished with a team total of 195.600, besting runner-up TWU by over four points. GW was third (190.050), while Centenary came in fourth with a 187.950.

Redmond took the all-around title with a 39.350, her first of the year, but her perfect vault was easily the highlight of the evening. Redmond's score tied the OU vault record and was the first perfect score recorded in the Big 12 this season.

The Sooners swept every event in the team competition and also had the individual champion on each apparatus. In addition to her all-around and vault titles, Redmond also finished first on the floor exercise with a 9.875. Senior Lori Winn took the balance beam (9.875) and classmate Brittney Koncak-Schumann won the uneven bars, tying her career high with a 9.9.

Koncak-Schumann finished second in the all-around, despite being limited by a minor knee injury sustained in OU's Jan. 19 home-opening win over Missouri and Central Michigan.

The Sooners were also without bars specialist Caitlin Hinkis, who missed the meet due to a death in the family, and freshman Kristin Smith who was out with a groin pull.

Freshman Mary Mantle stepped in for Smith on the floor, scoring a career-high 9.8 and took Hinkis' spot on bars, posting a 9.725. Winn also competed on the vault for the first time this season.

MISSOURI & C. MICHIGAN • JAN. 19, 2007

NORMAN, Okla. – The No. 13 OU women's gymnastics team improved to 2-1 with a pair of victories on Friday night inside the McCasland Field House. The Sooners topped visiting Missouri and Central Michigan during the home opener in front of 729 fans in head coach K.J. Kindler's home debut.

After dropping a heartbreaking loss at No. 4 Alabama last weekend, OU rebounded to post a team total of 196.125 to best Missouri (193.825) and Central Michigan (191.025).

Brittney Koncak-Schumann led the Sooners with a career-high 9.95 on the beam and a 39.325 all-around score, both meet highs.

The Sooners swept every event and had the top three finishers on every apparatus. Redmond took the vault (9.875) and floor (9.875) titles, while Koncak-Schumann swept the bars (9.875) and balance beam with a career high 9.95.

The Sooners stuck their landings on all six routines on the uneven bars for the second consecutive meet, earning a team total of 48.70.

Despite forecasts of more wintery weather in Norman, the Sooners performed for a lively crowd that included several Oklahoma gymnastics dignitaries. Former OU gymnastics coaches Paul Ziert and Becky Switzer were on hand, as was two-time Olympic gold medalist Bart Conner. Switzer's husband, OU football coaching legend Barry Switzer was also in attendance.

ALABAMA • JAN. 12, 2007

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. – Oklahoma nearly pulled off the upset in head coach K.J. Kindler's debut. The Sooners led after three rotations before falling 195.700-194.500 in front of 11,996 at Coleman Coliseum – the 12th-largest home crowd in Alabama history.

The Crimson Tide have never lost a non-conference home dual under 29th-year head coach Sarah Patterson.

The Sooners started strong, scoring a 49.050 on vault and winning the uneven bars by a 48.875-48.200 count. Oklahoma held a slim 146.475-146.250 lead after the third rotation, but falls on the floor exercise and balance beam, the team's final two events, proved costly.

Senior Brittney Koncak-Schumann (39.350) finished second in the all-around, just 0.025 points behind Alabama freshman Kassi Price (39.375).

Kiara Redmond, a junior from Los Angeles, Calif., tied for first place on the vault with a score of 9.85 and seniors Lori Winn and Brittney Koncak-Schumann shared the beam title, posting a pair of 9.85s.

Sophomore Ashley Jackson posted a 9.825 on vault to tie for fourth place. Koncak-Schumann (9.85) and Winn (9.825) also posted top five finishes on the uneven bars, finishing third and fourth, respectively. Sophomore Haley DeProspero scored a 9.775 to tie for fifth on the balance beam.

Oklahoma also got solid contributions from a pair of newcomers. Jacqueline Flanery, from Plattsburg, Mo., recorded a 9.775s on both the vault and floor exercise. Mary Mantle, a Bellvue, Colo. native, scored a 9.8 on the vault, the Sooners' second-highest score on the apparatus.

The 2006 season was filled with many highlights for the Oklahoma women's gymnastics team. The Sooners compiled a 17-17 overall record and earned a sixth place finish in the first preliminary session of the NCAA National Championships. Three gymnasts earned All-American honors including, Brittney Koncak-Schumann, Kiara Redmond and Stephanie LoPiccolo.

Redmond and Koncak-Schumann were named to the second team in both the all-around and floor exercise, while LoPiccolo earned first team honors on bars after finishing in a tie for fourth and moving on to the individual finals on April 22.

OU made its third consecutive trip to the NCAA National Championships and sixth in program history. The Sooners finished the season ranked No. 10 in the nation, which tied for the second best final ranking in program history.

As a team, OU earned 27 event titles, including six on vault, seven on bars, seven on beam and seven on floor. Oklahoma posted a 196.000 or better final team score in seven different meets, including a team season high 197.050 in a win over Texas Woman's University on March 3. It marked the highest team score since the 2004 season.

While the team showed success in the gym, the squad's success in the classroom also drew attention. OU received an overall GPA of 3.42 during the fall term, marking the second highest single-term GPA under former head coach Steve Nunno. The GPA put the Sooners No. 1 on campus among women's sports for the fall term and second among all sports. Four Sooner gymnasts finished the fall with a 4.0 GPA.

On top of that, the team placed four members on the 2006 Academic All-Big 12 team. Kristen Cox, Tara Anderson and Koncak-Schumann were all named to the first team. Anderson and Koncak-Schumann were both nominated with a 4.00 grade point average. Junior Tiffany Willin of Fort Myers, Fla., was named to the second team.

Four Sooner gymnasts had standout performances for OU in 2006, including two newcomers. LoPiccolo, Redmond, Koncak-Schumann and Haley DeProspero all had a tremendous season for Oklahoma.

Koncak-Schumann, of McQueeney, Texas, competed in the all-around at every meet and won 24 individual titles. During regular season meets she hit 37 of 40 routines and won the all-around competition in each of her last five meets including the Big 12 Championships and the NCAA Central Regional. She was named Big 12 Gymnast of the Week three times and set team individual highs in three events and in the all-around.

DeProspero also competed in the all-around at every meet, winning six individual titles. Redmond finished with five individual titles and posted the team's best all-around score at the NCAA Championships to finish in seventh. LoPiccolo was the only Sooner gymnast to make it to the individual finals where she finished 11th and earned first team All-America honors. She became only the fourth gymnast in program history to be named All-American on bars.

HEAD COACH K.J. KINDLER

K.J. Kindler, the 2005 National Association of Collegiate Gymnastics Coaches/Women (NACGCW) Coach of the Year and three-time Big 12 Coach of the Year, enters her first season as the head women's gymnastics coach at the University of Oklahoma.

Kindler spent the last six seasons as the head coach at Iowa State.

"We are dedicated to filling our staff with the best and brightest minds in coaching," said OU Athletics Director Joe Castiglione. "K.J. Kindler brings a reputation of great achievement in all aspects of leading a program. She impressed us not only with her accomplishment to this point, but with her lofty goals for the future and her plan for reaching those goals. We are anxious to work with K.J. and her staff as we pursue championships."

Kindler's 2006 season culminated with Iowa State's third trip to the NCAA National Championships and its first appearance among the Super Six (teams that qualify from the preliminaries to compete for the national title).

The 24-10 Cyclones produced three All-Americans for a second consecutive season, while posting an undefeated mark at home, a 10-1 dual record and an 8-1 standard in duals against ranked opponents. The team also snapped Nebraska's 60-meet home winning streak.

The 2006 squad won its first Big 12 Championship since 2000, and three Cyclone gymnasts earned either an outright or a share of individual titles at the meet.

Since she took over head coaching duties at ISU in 2001, Kindler coached eight regional event champions, 11 NCAA individual championship qualifiers and 18 Big 12 champions (three all-arounders).

Kindler, an Iowa State graduate, joined the Cyclone staff as an assistant coach in 1992. As an ISU gymnast, she was a three-time MVP for the Cyclones and runner-up in the all-around at the 1992 Big Eight Conference Championship. She was the school's first individual NCAA Regional qualifier, competing three times in the postseason meet.

Kindler hails from Lake Elmo, Minn., and trained under Mary Jane Olsen at Hamline University in St. Paul. In high school, she moved to Connecticut and trained under Frank and Laurie DeFrancesco at Arena Academy in Stamford and Walter Hawkes at Wilton High School. In Connecticut, she won many conference and state titles.

The eldest of five siblings, Kindler hails from a gymnastics family. One sister, Lori, competed at Minnesota. She and her husband own and operate Flips Gymnastics in the Twin Cities area. Kindler's niece, Sydney Kleinhuizen, is a level 6 gymnast, while another of Kindler's sisters, Meghan, coaches recreational gymnastics.

Kindler will serve as the primary coach for the balance beam and will choreograph the beam and floor exercise routines.

Kindler is married to OU assistant coach Lou Ball. The couple recently welcomed their first child, Maggie Grace, in September.
