Identifying and recruiting prospects, coaching talent to play at its peak and preparing players for life after college, whether it be football or in the business world, are just some of the areas where head coach Lincoln Riley and the Oklahoma coaching staff thrive.

94

PLAYER BIOS

Among the players returning are a group of 21 offensive lettermen, 19 defensive lettermen and two specialist lettermen. Five of OU's 13 All-Big 12 honorees from 2017 return as the team seeks its 12th Big 12 title and a spot in the College Football Playoff for the third time in four years.

2017 REVIEW

Oklahoma finished the 2017 season with a 12-2 overall record and a No. 3 ranking in the AP and Amway Coaches Polls. It also claimed its third straight and 11th overall Big 12 title, and was the No. 2 seed in the College Football Playoff. Four Sooners earned first-team All-America honors for the first time since 2008.

144

SOONER RECORDS

History is one tough customer at Oklahoma. The tradition, so rich and so long-standing, is as daunting as it is impressive. To be among the best at Oklahoma is to be among the best in college football. Review award winners, player honors, letterwinners, bowl game tradition, Sooners in the NFL and more.

197

SEASON BY SEASON

The 2018 season will mark the 124th campaign of intercollegiate football at OU. The Sooners were playing football 12 years before Oklahoma even became a state. Rarely has a football program and commonwealth enjoyed a more harmonious relationship than what exists in the Sooner state.

OU Honored by FWAA

The Oklahoma Athletics Communications Office received the Football Writers Association of America Super 11 Award for 2017, given annually to the best performing sports information departments in the Football Bowl Subdivision.

"This is one of the most important honors that the FWAA as an organization awards," said Tim Griffin, the FWAA's longtime chairman of the Super 11 committee. "There are many strong sports information departments around the nation. We are grateful for all of them. But this award is meant to honor the best of the best. It's for those SIDs who provide strong media services and go the extra mile to provide help above and beyond the call of duty."

Criteria employed in determining the winners not only included how press boxes and media operations were operated, but also the quality and timeliness of information provided, the amount of information presented and appropriately updated on websites, and personal responsiveness to media inquiries as well as the accessibility of a program's players, coaches and assistant coaches. The ratings considered those departments that went the extra mile in servicing the media.

Media Credentials

Requests for media credentials for University of Oklahoma home games should be made online at SoonerSportsMedia.com. Only those requests submitted by the sports editor of a newspaper or the sports director of a radio or television station will be considered.

Priority is given to daily newspapers (by circulation), television stations and radio stations that program sports for more than half of their daily broadcast schedules. A credential does not guarantee a seat and access to the team bench area is prohibited at all times. Credentials include:

Press Box: Primary recipients are newspaper/Internet writers, television reporters and radio personnel. This pass gains access to the press box. Sideline access is only permitted for the last five minutes of the game.

Sideline: Primary recipients are photographers/videographers. Only photographers/videographers on assignment for accredited outlets will be afforded credentials. Pass only gains access to the sideline (not the press box).

Combination: These are only for those individuals who require access to the press box and the sideline. Few are issued.

Season Credentials
Requests should be made at SoonerSportsMedia.com. Only media members who routinely cover OU games, practices and media conferences are eligible for season credentials.

Any media member who loses a season credential will be under review to be moved to the single-game list for the following season. Media outlets who cannot provide names for passes for an entire season will be placed on the single-game list and should provide names on a weekly basis.

Single-Game Credentials
Requests must be made at least one week in advance of the contest. Any organization that requests a single-game credential then does not use it will not be granted another pass for the remainder of the season. No credentials will be granted after Thursday of game week.

OU-Texas Credentials
Those interested in covering the annual Oklahoma-Texas game at Dallas will need to make a separate request for credentials. Each school handles the requests from its regular pool of media. Aside from national media, only season credential holders are eligible.

Because OU will serve as the host school this year, credential requests should be made at SoonerSportsMedia.com. OU-Texas credentials will be distributed to local media at the Monday media luncheon in Norman. Any credentials not claimed that day will be available the Friday before the game at a pickup location in Dallas (times and exact location TBA).

Credential Pickup (OU Home Games)
Credentials may be picked up from the Oklahoma Athletics Communications Office during the week or from media will call (Gate 2) at Gaylord Family – Oklahoma Memorial Stadium on game day beginning three hours before kickoff (see map on page 9). Each media representative must claim his or her pass. No group pickups are allowed on the day of the game.

Parking Passes
Parking passes are in limited supply and will be prioritized similar to the way credentials are issued.

Media Availability

Monday: Lincoln Riley participates on the Big 12's weekly teleconference at 10:10 a.m. OU's media luncheon starts at approximately 11:15 a.m. at the stadium. Coach Riley's session begins at noon. A few players also are available (those players are not available after practice Monday or Tuesday).

Offensive coaches and select players* are available following practice (late afternoon).

Tuesday: Defensive coaches and select players* are available following practice (late afternoon).

Saturday: Postgame availability only. Members of the OU Athletics Communications staff will escort media representatives to the appropriate postgame interview areas with seven minutes remaining in the game. The Oklahoma locker room, home or away, is closed to the media at all times.

Head coach Lincoln Riley and several Sooner players will be brought to the team's Red Room for news conferences and breakout interviews.

Interview requests will be collected at the beginning of the fourth quarter.

For games in Norman, the opposing head coach will meet with the media inside the opponent interview room in the SoonerVision studio (southwest corner, under the stadium grandstands). A representative from the OU Athletics Communications Office will be on hand to assist the media in finding this area. Interviews with the head coach and players from the visiting team will be based on the postgame policy of that institution.

* Some players have evening classes that could preclude them from post-practice interviews.

MEMORIAL STADIUM

Gaylord Family - Oklahoma Memorial Stadium

Gaylord Family – Oklahoma Memorial Stadium is one of America's most recognized college football cathedrals. Situated on the east side of the Norman campus, this historical facility is the largest sports arena in the state and, following its expansion last offseason, now ranks among the 15 largest college football stadiums in the nation.

With the expansion of Oklahoma Memorial Stadium to an official capacity of 82,112 in 2004 (it increased to 83,489 in 2016) and with every home game exceeding that capacity, Oklahoma set numerous attendance records the past few years. In fact, the 10 largest crowds in stadium history have occurred in the past two seasons.

Oklahoma's average attendance in 2017 for six home games was 86,520, ranking OU second in the Big 12 and No. 12 in the nation in average attendance.

The largest crowd ever to watch a game in the history of the state of Oklahoma jammed Memorial Stadium on Nov. 11, 2017. The No. 5 Sooners cruised to a 38-20 win over No. 8 TCU in front of 88,308 fans.

OU has compiled a 106-10 record at home (.914) the last 19 seasons (the first 18 of those under coach Bob Stoops). Not coincidentally, those 19 seasons all rank at the top of the list for average home attendance.

CHAMPIONSHIP TRADITION

Great college football and the Oklahoma Sooners. For as long as anyone can remember, the two have been one and the same.

Unlike some schools where tradition represents ancient history, or others where it harkens back only a few years, Oklahoma's tradition is a constant accomplishment unfettered by eras or time.

The Sooners were playing football before Oklahoma became a state and have achieved a legacy so successful that more than contributing to the history of this great game, it defines it.

The Modern Era's Most Successful Program

Oklahoma is king in the modern era of college football (1946-2017). Since the end of World War II, the Sooners are the nation's No. 1 team, with more victories (640) than any other school and the best winning percentage (.766).

CHAMPIONSHIP TRADITION

A Legacy of Winning

Oklahoma has played in four national championship games and two College Football Playoffs over the last 18 seasons and owns 11 Big 12 championships. OU also has turned out a list of award winners and draft picks so long that it taxes even the best memory to name them all.

Greatness begets greatness and there has been plenty of that in Norman for generations. Now, from all corners of the country, the best players come to join a program of traditional success that is riding one of its biggest waves.

Statistics prove that Oklahoma is more likely to hit the 10-win mark than any other program in the nation with 38 10-win seasons, including 15 of the last 18 campaigns. In fact, among teams playing in Power Five conferences since the start of the new millennium, Oklahoma's 15 10-win campaigns are also more than any other program.

The Sooners also lead the nation with 24 seasons of at least 11 wins.

Oklahoma is Championship Football

Nothing defines the competitive success of a college athletics program like a national championship. Oklahoma, with seven football national titles sprinkled over four decades, is one of the very few programs that sets out each fall with the expectation and legitimate goal of pursuing the national crown.

That pursuit rates as a lot more than just talk around Norman.

The aura is unmistakable, and it radiates from real and repeated success on college football's biggest stage.

Oklahoma has claimed more national championships than any other Big 12 program.

The Sooners, under Bob Stoops, earned the program's most recent title in 2000 with an Orange Bowl victory over Florida State to cap an undefeated season at 13-0. OU's other championships came under Barry Switzer in 1974, 1975 and 1985, and Bud Wilkinson in 1950, 1955 and 1956.

Oklahoma played for the national title four times during Stoops' tenure (2000, 2002, 2004, 2008). During the BCS era, the Sooners were the only team to play in all five BCS bowl games and played in nine total. OU was ranked No. 1 in 20 BCS rankings — the most nationally.

The Sooners are also the only Big 12 program to appear in the College Football Playoff, playing in the 2016 Orange Bowl under Stoops and the 2018 Rose Bowl under Lincoln Riley.

In the words of Switzer: "People don't know what it means to be champions. Oklahoma invented it."

OU Captures 11th Big 12 Crown, Eight More Than Next Closest Program

The Sooners secured their third straight conference title with their 41-17 Big 12 Championship Game win over 11th-ranked TCU on Dec. 2, 2017, in Arlington, Texas. OU's 41 points were the most against TCU last season, and the Horned Frogs' 17 points were their second fewest of the year.

Baker Mayfield, the game's most outstanding player, tied a Big 12 Championship Game record with four touchdown passes, finishing 15-for-23 for 243 yards and no interceptions. Mayfield also registered 65 rushing yards and became the only Sooner since at least 1996 to record at least one rush of 50-plus yards and at least one pass of 50-plus in a game (had a career-long 54-yard run and passes of 55 and 52).

Two of Mayfield's TD throws went to eventual Mackey Award winner Mark Andrews. Andrews caught a team-high seven passes for 58 yards. Mayfield also connected with Mykel Jones on a 55-yard score (the first TD of Jones' career) and with Marquise Brown on a 52-yard TD (Brown's sixth of the year).

OU's defense also produced a score as Kenneth Murray forced a fumble on TCU's first play from scrimmage that Caleb Kelly returned 18 yards for a TD and a 10-0 lead. Will Johnson also picked off TCU quarterback Kenny Hill in the third quarter to set up a field goal. OU held the Frogs to 317 yards.

Eleven Big 12 Conference Championships

Since the formation of the Big 12 Conference in 1996, no team has won as many league titles as Oklahoma's 11. In fact, no other school has won more than three, and four of the league members have yet to win their first. The Sooners grabbed their most recent championship in 2017 by winning the Big 12 Championship game over TCU.

The Sooners' other Big 12 crowns came in 2016 (9-0 conference record), 2015 (8-1), 2012 (8-1), 2010 (23-20 win over Nebraska in league championship game in Dallas), 2008 (62-21 win over Missouri in Kansas City), 2007 (38-17 win over Missouri in San Antonio), 2006 (21-7 win over Nebraska in Kansas City), 2004 (42-3 win over Colorado in Kansas City), 2002 (29-7 win over Colorado in Houston) and 2000 (27-24 win over Kansas State in Kansas City).

Making Them Count

Eight of Oklahoma's 11 Big 12 titles have come via a league championship game. In those eight Big 12 Championship Game victories, the Sooners have outscored their opponents 283-116. That's an average of 35-15. OU's lone Big 12 Championship Game loss came to Kansas State in 2003, but the Sooners still advanced to the BCS Championship Game that year thanks to their dominant regular season performance.

Most Conference Titles Among Power 5 Programs

Oklahoma won its first conference championship in 1915 and has since tacked on another 46. In other words, the Sooners average a conference title just about every two seasons. That pace has actually improved since 2000 with 11 league crowns in 19 years.

19 STRAIGHT BOWLS

2015 & 2017 COLLEGE FOOTBALL PLAYOFF PARTICIPANT

Fifty-one bowl appearances and 29 bowl victories have firmly entrenched Oklahoma among the most tradition-rich schools in America.

The Sooners have become synonymous with postseason play at the highest level. At a school where the bowl history is laced with games of historical significance, the last few years have represented another fabulous roll for the Schooner.

OU enjoys favored status among the bowl community, mostly for its tradition, but also for its robust fan following. Regardless of the location, Sooner fans flock to follow a bowl tradition that is as fresh as it is historic.

The Sooners have made 19 consecutive bowl appearances, the third-longest active streak in the nation as recognized by the NCAA. Of those 19 showings, four were national championship bouts, nine were BCS bowl games, two were College Football Playoff semifinals contests and 13 were in January.

The Sooners and their fans have enjoyed trips to Phoenix, San Diego, Miami, Pasadena, New Orleans and Dallas while playing in the most prestigious bowls in college football.

OU has appeared in a bowl game in each of the last 19 seasons, a run that ranks as the best streak in the Big 12 and the third-longest in the nation behind Virginia Tech (25) and Georgia (21).

Oklahoma also ranks fourth among all schools in total bowl wins with 29 in its 51 bowl games, and is one of just 15 programs with 40 or more bowl appearances.

SIX HEISMAN WINNERS

Third Most Heisman Trophies in the Nation

For many years, college football has paused at the end of each season to recognize its finest players. The award names like Heisman, Outland, Thorpe, Mackey and Butkus are woven into the fabric of the game as a tribute to the past and a beacon for the present.

The awards ceremonies attract the greatest names in the game, and of course, they attract and honor Oklahoma Sooners.

The road to the bright lights, podium and acceptance speech starts with great talent and hard work, common staples at OU. The Sooner program then provides the national stage on which players can be seen. The result has been an impressive collection of hardware.

SIX HEISMAN WINNERS

Most Heisman Finalists Since 2000

Not only have the Sooners won the Heisman Trophy six times, OU's players have constantly appeared on Heisman voters' ballots.

Oklahoma has sent eight finalists to New York City since 2000, the most of any program in the country: Josh Heupel (2000), Jason White (2003 and 2004), Adrian Peterson (2004), Sam Bradford (2008), Baker Mayfield (2016 and 2017) and Dede Westbrook (2016).

The Sooners have also had multiple players invited to the Heisman ceremony on two different occasions — the only program in the country to accomplish the feat since 1982.

162 FIRST-TEAM ALL-AMERICANS

If it's a college football season, the likelihood is that more than one Sooner ranks among the best players in the land. That was true in 1913 when OU produced its first All-American and it's true today when the rate of additions is so rapid that the total now well outnumbers the age of the program itself.

One of college football's greatest programs has been built by some of college football's finest players. That's the natural result when talent meets coaching at a program with eye-popping facilities and great visibility.

Big 12's Consensus All-Americans

University of Oklahoma players have earned consensus All-America honors 80 times in the program's history. No other school in the Big 12 Conference has produced near that number.

What is a consensus All-American? The NCAA officially recognizes selections from five All-America teams: AP, AFCA, FWAA, Sporting News and Walter Camp.

A player is designated a consensus All-American if he is a first-team selection on at least three of the five teams.

In 2017 alone, Mark Andrews, Orlando Brown and Baker Mayfield added their names to the prestigious list as they earned first-team All-America honors from all five official bodies, leading the nation.

Elite Program Prepares Players for Next Level

The league. Pro ball. The next level. It is the dream of every college football player. It is reality for many Oklahoma Sooners. Few programs in the country attract talent and prepare it to move on better than Oklahoma. Four Sooners were tabbed in the 2018 NFL Draft alone, extending the program's tally to 87 selections since the start of the 21st century.

OU plays pro schemes and employs a rigorous strength and conditioning program that is so effective that many of those who have gone on to professional careers come back to Norman in the offseason to continue their training.

Oklahoma is one of only two programs that has had at least four players drafted into the NFL each of the last 11 years. Players with the ability and drive to make the NFL flourish at OU and leave here equipped to play beyond their college days.

Sooners at Center of College Football

Oklahoma is a household name due to the overwhelming media attention that hovers around the Sooners. Writers and broadcasters representing the nation's most recognized media outlets regularly interact with OU players and coaches, and routinely spend time in Norman.

When they can't come to campus, those same observers keep tabs on OU thanks to extensive television coverage. In 2017, all 14 Oklahoma games appeared on live TV, including 13 that were carried nationally or regionally on the ABC, ESPN or FOX family of networks.

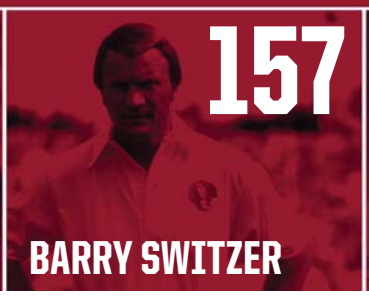

LEGENDARY COACHES

OKLAHOMA'S HEAD COACHING 100-WIN CLUB

Only Program With Four 100-Win Head Coaches

Bob Stoops, Barry Switzer, Bud Wilkinson and Bennie Owen — Oklahoma's four winningest head coaches — have a lot in common. All four started at OU in their 30s. All four went on to have tremendous success, coming to Norman and combining to win 614 games and seven national championships.

The quartet established and cemented Oklahoma as one of the greatest college football programs of all-time.

Second-year head coach Lincoln Riley fits that mold. The youngest FBS head coach in the nation (33) at the time of his hiring, Riley was named the program's 22nd head man on June 7, 2017, and quickly set the school record for wins by a first-year head coach (12). In his three years on OU's staff, Riley has presided over the nation's top offense, helping the Sooners to the 2015 and 2017 College Football Playoff, a 2016 Sugar Bowl title and three Big 12 Championships.

RILEY'S FAST START

The Future Is Now

No one in recent memory has climbed the coaching ladder more quickly than Lincoln Riley. Once the youngest assistant coach and coordinator in the country, Riley now has ascended to the helm of one of the nation's most-storied college football programs.

His rise has featured perhaps one of the most balanced and explosive offenses in the nation. In his seven seasons as a play caller, the Muleshoe, Texas, native has consistenly led units that have broken school records, produced All-Americans, Heisman Trophy finalists and high NFL Draft picks.

His ability to develop players is epitomized by quarterback Baker Mayfield, who finished in the top four of Heisman voting the last three years and won the award in 2017.

Since Riley arrived in Norman in 2015, OU leads the nation in the following categories:

Leader of the Nation's Top Scoring Attack

With Riley at the controls, Oklahoma's offense has been one of the best statistical units in the country over the last three seasons. The Sooners rank first among Power Five programs in total touchdowns (233) since the start of the 2015 campaign.

EXPLOSIVE OFFENSE

Big Names, Big Results

Pass oriented? You could make that case. Loads of passing and receiving records have fallen over the last few years. Run oriented? Maybe. After all, the Sooners rushed for more than 2,000 yards in 13 of the last 15 seasons. Well, which is it, passing or running?

At Oklahoma, the answer is both. While most schools dream of balance, OU is balance. While it's true that the 2,000-yard rushing mark has been exceeded in 10 straight seasons, including the last three under the direction of Lincoln Riley, it's also true that OU has been one of the nation's best passing teams, throwing for over 13,000 yards since Riley took the helm of the Sooners' offense.

Riley's balanced system has continued to catch the eyes of those around the country, including opposing defensive coordinators. In 2017, the Sooners set an FBS record for passing efficiency rating (for the second straight year), and led the country in total offense and first downs.

Since 2000, Oklahoma has produced:

QB — FIVE ALL-AMERICANS, SIX HEISMAN FINALISTS, THREE HEISMAN TROPY WINNERS AND EVERY RECORD HOLDER IN THE OU PASSING GAME DEPARTMENT

RB — ONE HEISMAN FINALIST, ONE ALL-AMERICAN, 12 1,000-YARD RUSHERS, OU'S SINGLE-SEASON AND CAREER RUSHING YARDS RECORD HOLDER AND OU'S NO. 1, 4, 6 AND 7 CAREER RUSHERS

WR — ONE HEISMAN FINALIST, ONE BILETNIKOFF WINNER, FOUR ALL-AMERICANS AND OU'S RECORD HOLDERS IN GAME, SEASON AND CAREER RECEPTIONS, RECEIVING YARDS AND TOUCHDOWN CATCHES

TE — THREE MACKEY AWARD FINALISTS, ONE MACKEY AWARD WINNER, TWO ALL-AMERICANS AND OU'S RECORD HOLDER FOR TD RECEPTIONS IN A GAME

In 2017, Oklahoma became the first program in college football history to break the 35,000-mark in all-time points scored. The Sooners were also the first team to reach 30,000 points, 31,000 points, 32,000, 33,000 and 34,000 points.

OU is the highest scoring program in college football history. In 1,266 games, the Sooners have scored 35,116 points. Nebraska is next at 33,193 points in 1,313 games.

Attacking Defense Built on Speed

Oklahoma's defense suffers from a bit of an identity crisis.

With a takeaway in 203 of 239 games since 2000, and 57 defensive touchdowns during that time, the defense has a reputation of, well, being a little offensive.

The Sooners' attack-style defense, long appreciated for its speed and aggressive attitude, is perhaps best known for its consistency. OU has ranked among the top 16 teams in the nation in total defense for eight of the last 17 years.

Outstanding players have dominated the landscape. Twice in the last 16 years, a Sooner has been named the best defensive player in the nation.

Championship Strength & Conditioning

In his first year as OU's director of sports performance for football, Bennie Wylie has earned the reputation as one of the top strength and conditioning coaches in the country after holding similar positions at Texas and Tennessee, as well as at Texas Tech, where he worked with OU head coach Lincoln Riley. Also an assistant strength and conditioning coach for the Dallas Cowboys for four years, Wylie is known as a great motivator and as someone who inspires others.

"There's nobody in the business I respect more than Bennie Wylie," said Riley, "I knew that if I ever had a strength and conditioning opening that I'd love to reunite with him. We had a lot of years together at Texas Tech, and during that time I was able to watch his work and see the impact he had on our players both physically and on their lives overall.

"This is certainly an important position, and I think we just hired the best person in the country."

TIFFANY BYRD

Staying on Top of the Nutrition Game

A former NCAA gymnast, Tiffany Byrd is on a daily mission to take her job far beyond its title in her work with OU student-athletes. As Director of Sports Nutrition, Byrd recognizes that food is very personal to individuals. Her goal is to have a positive impact and influence on the lives of student-athletes across all sports.

"We're working on every aspect to ensure that our athletes are able to get the nutrition — the right quality and quantity at the right times through their meals and snacks — that they require to meet the demands of their sport," says Byrd. "At the end of the day, it's about performance. You come to the University of Oklahoma to win championships, and that's exactly what we are trying to help them do. Every detail matters…including the fuel that you put in your body throughout the day."

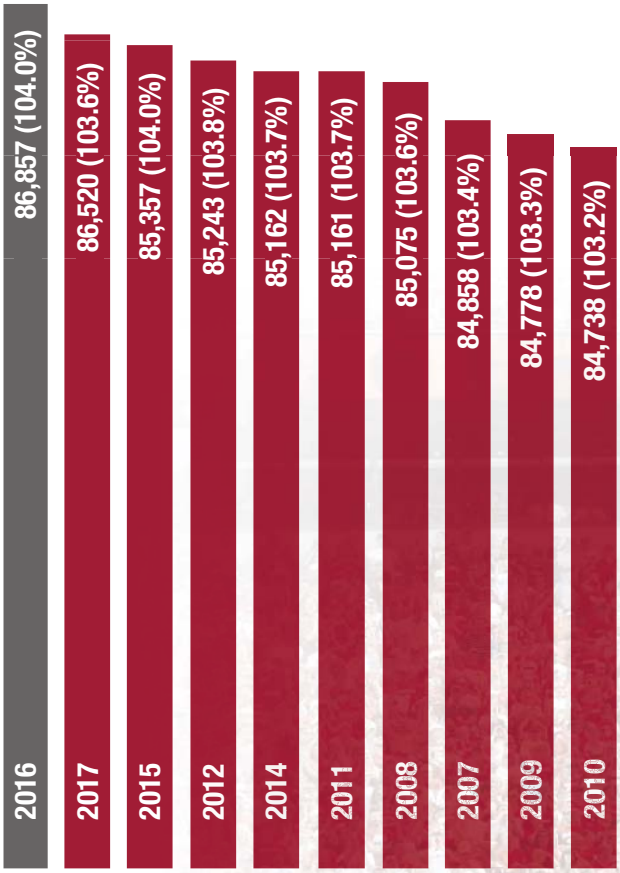

Among her biggest education tools is the acronym "BOOMER," developed by Byrd to help her athletes remember the six most important facets of a balanced diet. A student-athlete following a solid nutritional plan might see increased energy, less fatigue and higher levels of performance. As Byrd says, their goal is to "get the body to ultimately do what they need it to do."

Fan support is guaranteed at Oklahoma. Since 1999, the Sooners have drawn 9,110,806 fans to Gaylord Family – Oklahoma Memorial Stadium with all 116 of those games sellouts.

OU has nearly been unbeatable at home, yielding 106 victories in those 116 contests. Those thrilling victories have stoked Sooner Nation and helped lead to the expansion of OU's stadium by more than 11,000 seats. Even so, attendance has exceeded the listed capacity in 83 consecutive games.

In 2016, Oklahoma fans set a record for average season attendance (86,857) and broke the single-game mark with 87,979 fans against Ohio State on Sept 17. The number is typical of what has happened in recent years. The top 14 seasons for OU home attendance have taken place since the start of the 21st century.

OU-TEXAS WEEKEND

October Rivalry in Dallas

The Oklahoma-Texas game, played each season at the Cotton Bowl in Dallas, a location approximately halfway between the two campuses, is one of the country's most spectacular sporting events.

Staged during the State Fair of Texas, the contest is witnessed by a crowd perfectly defined by color — half crimson, half burnt orange — in an atmosphere that is arguably more unique than that found at any other game. This rivalry is one that marks time and gives players and fans alike experiences for a lifetime.

Red River Showdown to Stay in Cotton Bowl

In June 2014, the City of Dallas announced that the Cotton Bowl would remain the site of the Red River Showdown through 2025.

"Generations of Sooners and Longhorns will proudly attest that the Red River Showdown is played amidst the most unique atmosphere in all of college football. Two of football's greatest programs and their legions of passionate fans are diametrically situated in the historic Cotton Bowl, surrounded by revelry of the State Fair of Texas.

"The University of Oklahoma is thrilled about preserving the rich tradition of this game in the City of Dallas (and)...we are looking forward more future student-athletes and fans enjoying the spectacle of this renowned football rivalry for many years to come."

– OU Vice President for Intercollegiate Athletics, Joe Castiglione

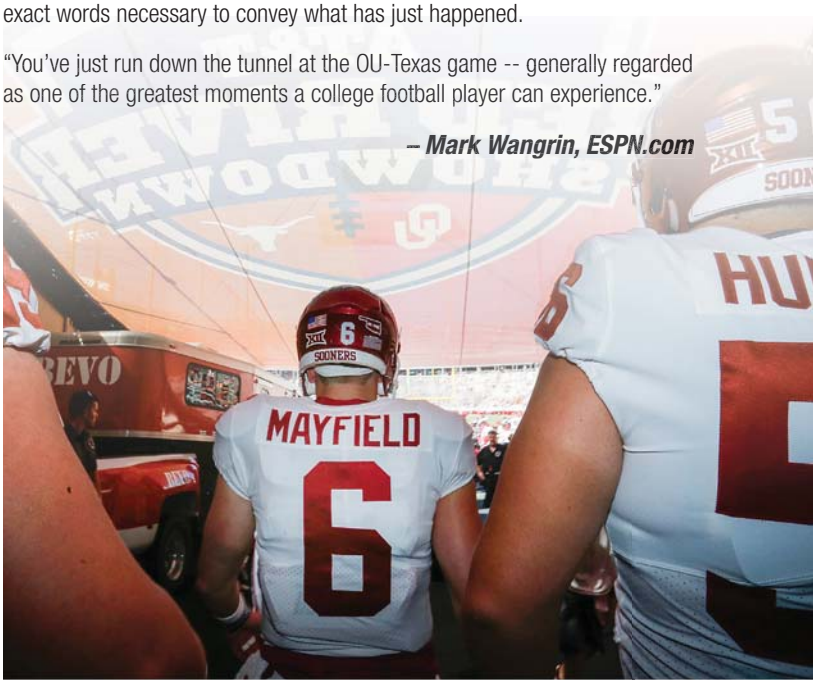

The Tunnel Experience

"From the top of The Tunnel that leads into the floor of the Cotton Bowl it looks like no big deal. All you can see is end zone. Then you start running and the world explodes around you. Your eardrums are pounded by the screams of 75,587 people and the blasts of the modified 12-gauge shotguns that the OU Ruf/Nek spirit group carries...

"You feel the world shake and start to understand why every Longhorn or Sooner who has taken these steps before you can never seem to find the exact words necessary to convey what has just happened.

"You've just run down the tunnel at the OU-Texas game -- generally regarded as one of the greatest moments a college football player can experience."

RENOVATED STADIUM

The Palace on the Prairie

The University of Oklahoma Board of Regents approved a proposal from OU Athletics on June 25, 2014, to proceed with the development of plans and projects for a major renovation and modernization of Gaylord Family – Oklahoma Memorial Stadium.

The first phase of the building project was completed prior to the 2016 season and focused on the south end zone.

The most visible aspect was the completion of the south end zone seating bowl, a feature that has initially increased stadium capacity to more than 83,000. The facility is also home to the nation's second-largest video board (50 by 170 feet).

The seating bowl features an expanded concourse, additional restrooms and concessions, and other amenities. The new structure also houses 22 suites, 60 open-air loge boxes and 1,976 club seats, and includes two fresh club options for patrons.

The renovated team portion of the facility allows for all student-athlete services to be moved to the ground floor. That space includes a new locker room, strength and conditioning room, training room, nutrition center, meeting rooms and the equipment room.

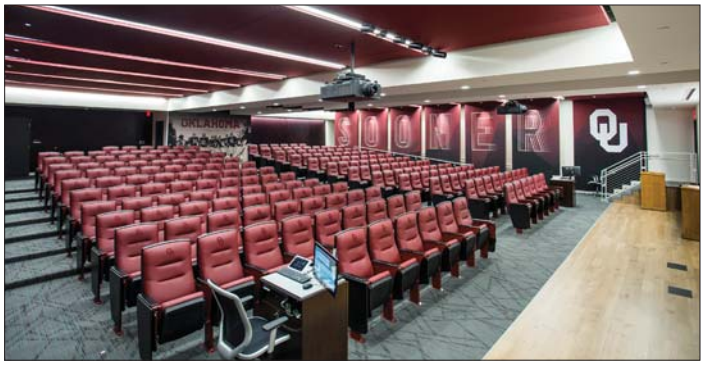

The weight room nearly tripled in size to 26,600 square feet and features a 70-yard indoor turfed speed and agility training area. The state-of-the-art athletic training room also grew substantially to nearly 10,000 square feet.

RENOVATED STADIUM

New Features Include:

A bowled in south end zone, new fan seating and options, including club seating, loge boxes and suites, as well as a fan plaza, and additional concession and restroom areas.

A 132,000-square-foot football complex featuring a new locker room, training room, nutrition area, coaches offices and player meeting rooms.

A 32,582-square-foot strength and conditioning facility that is triple the size of the previous weight room and features a 70-yard indoor turfed speed and agility training area.

STADIUM HISTORY

Gaylord Family – Oklahoma Memorial Stadium

Gaylord Family – Oklahoma Memorial Stadium is one of America's most recognized college football cathedrals. Situated on the east side of the Norman campus, this historical facility is the largest sports arena in the state and, following its recent expansion, now ranks among the 15 largest on-campus facilities in the nation.

Memorial Stadium's rich heritage has not hindered its evolution, a never-ending growth fueled by the football program's overwhelming popularity. Almost since its inception, the stadium has been a work in progress. That fact holds true today. Using bond money and generous contributions, the stadium has recently undergone a number of changes (see pages 42-43 for information on the latest renovations).

Prior to the 2009 season, additions and renovations were completed in Barry Switzer Center. The players locker room was expanded and remodeled while a 950-square foot hydrotherapy area and a new 4,000-square foot Red Room with seating for 211 was built.

The most major of those was a $4.5 million venture that added a state of the art 3,689 square feet HD video board atop the south end zone in 2008.

The summer of 2003 saw a venture that added 8,000 seats, including 27 suites on the stadium's east side, bringing the total number of suites to 63. At the same time, the press box was remodeled and outfitted with several state of the art features. Another phase of that project stretched into 2004 when renovations to the Santee Lounge, restroom and concessions facilities and a new brick facade on the west side were completed.

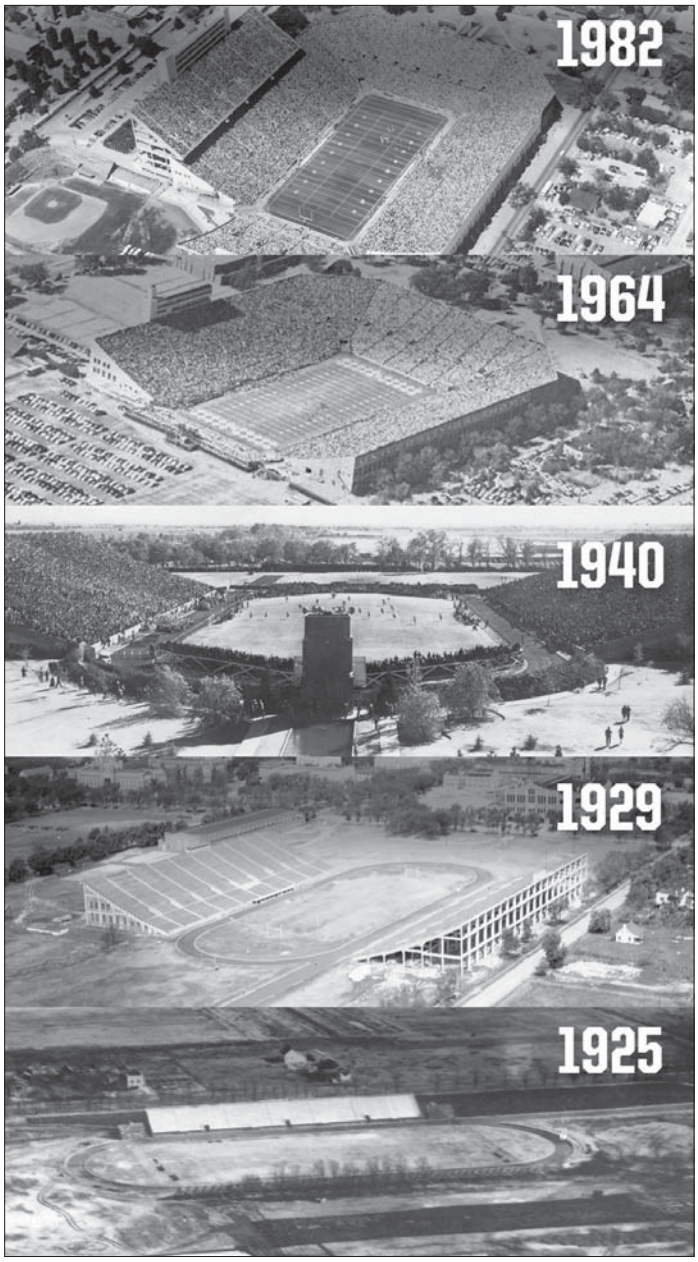

In the two years prior to the stadium upgrade and expansion, renovations were completed in the coaches' offices, locker rooms, sports medicine and weight training facilities.

In 1921, University of Oklahoma students started a movement for construction of a student union. By 1925, the idea had grown to include a combined football stadium/student union.

In the original architect's drawings, the north end of the proposed structure was strikingly similar to the present Oklahoma Memorial Union, which eventually was constructed separately when head coach Bennie Owen suggested it would be best to raise funds for a union and a stadium.

The first game played at the site took place Oct. 20,1923 (a 63-7 win over Washington, Mo.), before the stadium/union plan got under way. The field was named Owen Field after Owen, who became a charter member of the National Football Hall of Fame.

In 1925, the first contest was played in front of the new stands on the west side of the field. The 16,000-seat Oklahoma Memorial Stadium, named in honor of University personnel who died in World War I, was erected at a cost of approximately $293,000.

Stands on the east side of the stadium were added prior to the 1929 season. That addition increased the seating capacity to 32,000, where it stood for 20 years.

In 1949, OU president George L. Cross pushed for expansion and the result was a six-foot lowering of the old playing surface and the elimination of a running track that surrounded the playing area.

The changes produced 7,000 new ringside seats and brought capacity to 55,000. The north end of the stadium also was enclosed. In 1957, green grandstand bleachers were added to the south end of the field, enabling the stadium to hold 61,836 fans.

Eighteen years later came the addition of the upper deck and new press box. Another 8,436 seats were added at a cost of $5,726,345. Capacity for the 1975 National Championship season was 71,187. Before the 1980 season, the old green bleachers were replaced with the new south end zone facility.

STADIUM HISTORY

In addition to improved seating, the complex included coaches' offices, the weight room, meeting rooms, a training room, the equipment room and two locker rooms. The addition brought the stadium capacity to 75,004. Capacity was decreased to 72,765 in 1998 to provide more wheelchair seating.

In July, 1970 the original natural grass surface was removed and artificial turf was installed. That tartan turf was replaced with super turf before the 1981 season. Owen Field returned to grass in 1994.

A Stadium Master Plan was approved by the OU Board of Regents in June 1994. Construction of nine west side suites began in April 1995.

Subsequent improvements included the installation of stadium lights to allow night games, a new scoreboard and a video screen.

Entertainment Not Limited to Football

Gaylord Family – Oklahoma Memorial Stadium has hosted numerous major non-sporting events over the years, including concerts by The Rolling Stones (1997), U2 (2009) and the Oklahoma Twister Relief Concert headlined by Toby Keith (2013). That benefit concert attracted more than 60,000 fans, marking the biggest known single-day concert attendance figure ever recorded in the state of Oklahoma.

Game-Changing Student Housing Facility

Opened in July of 2013, Headington Hall houses 380 OU students, including 180 student-athletes. The facility is named in honor of former OU tennis player Tim Headington, one of many OU alumni who gave generously to the project.

Located on the corner of Jenkins Avenue and Lindsey Street, southeast and across the street from Gaylord Family – Oklahoma Memorial Stadium, it boasts apartment-style accommodations in two and four-bedroom units. The building includes central dining, computer labs and study rooms, as well as a faculty-in-residence unit.

The $75 million facility, which replaced Bud Wilkinson Hall, was funded by the University of Oklahoma Department of Intercollegiate Athletics.

The first floor features Einstein's Bagels and Qdoba locations, with room for future development.

The facility is six stories tall and approximately 230,000 square feet, giving it a significant campus presence. It is designed in the style of the University's historic buildings, as well as modern additions.

Former Sooners Adrian Peterson and Sam Bradford made substantial donations to Headington Hall. The Sam Bradford Training Table is a state-of-the-art dining facility that fulfills the dietary and nutritional needs of all OU student-athletes, not just the residents of Headington Hall, in a vastly expanded modern space.

ACADEMIC SUCCESS

Preparing Leaders for Tomorrow

The Gaylord Family – Oklahoma Memorial Stadium includes office space in the facility's north end. The largest piece of that project is the Prentice Gautt Academic Center. Some 30,000 square feet are dedicated to the academic pursuits of Sooner student-athletes.

There is considerable emphasis on classroom performance at OU. The center staff has achievement as its focus, a fact that is reflected in the student-athletes' record performance this past academic year. In addition to its academic support, the staff assists in several life skills areas designed to enrich students in a broad range of tasks.

PRENTICE GAUTT

The Legacy of Prentice Gautt

The OU Academic Center that today's student-athletes use every day bears the name of the man who left an indelible legacy for Sooner Athletics and helped change a society in the process.

"It is appropriate that this center be named after Prentice Gautt," University of Oklahoma President David L. Boren said. "His personal values and character, along with his leadership as associate commissioner of the Big 12 Conference, continue to bring pride to his alma mater.

"His personal example of quiet courage, grace under pressure, and dedication to the University helped open the doors of opportunity for countless African-American and minority student-athletes who have followed him into collegiate athletics."

Sooners Excel Both On and Off Field

Recent numbers from the NCAA Academic Progress Rate (APR) show the OU football program is a prime example of accomplishing excellence both on and off the field.

OU has ranked fifth or better in the Big 12 in each of the last 10 years in the academic ranking, which is used as a real-time assessment on how student-athletes perform in regards to eligibility, retention and graduation.

In 2008, along with leading the Oklahoma offense to the NCAA record for most points scored in a single season, quarterback Sam Bradford and running back DeMarco Murray were named CoSIDA Academic All-Americans. Brian Lepak became the third Sooner in as many years to garner the honor when he was named to the team in 2010. Gabe Ikard followed as a three-time Academic All-American in 2011, 2012 and 2013.

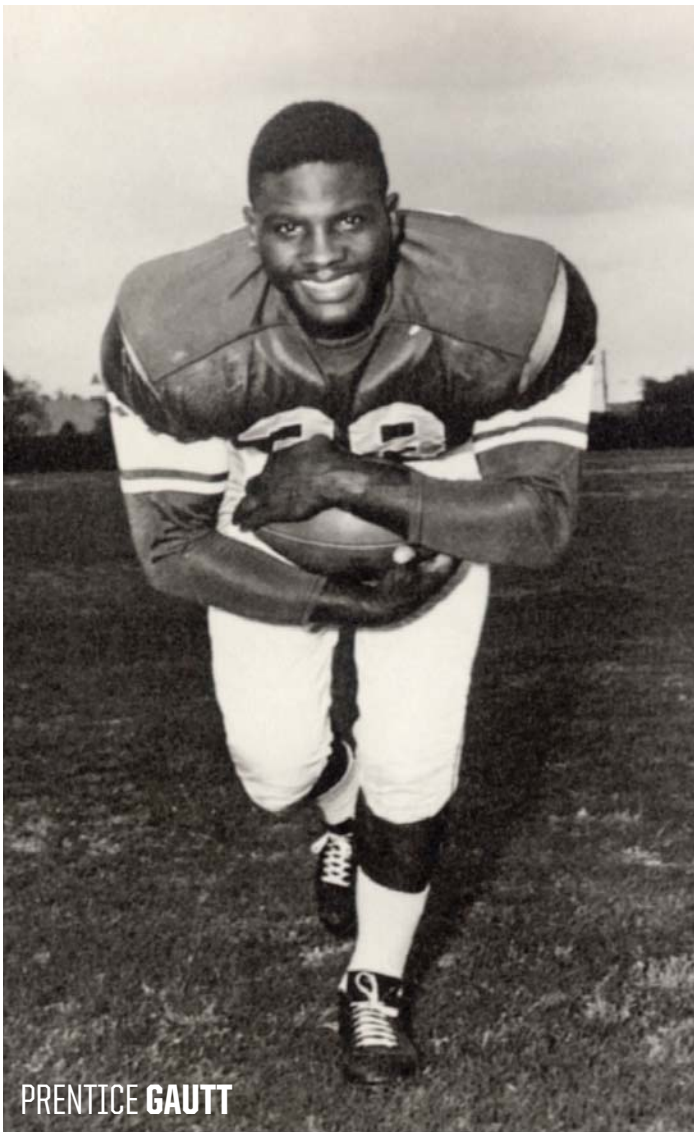

Ty Darlington continued OU's recent streak of Academic All-Americans in 2014 and 2015 when he became the 18th student-athlete at the University of Oklahoma to earn Academic All-America honors twice in a career.

He also became OU's first recipient of the Willlam V. Campbell Trophy, given to the absolute best football scholar-athlete in the nation.

Eighteen student-athletes from the OU football program were Academic All-Big12 honorees in 2017, including seven with first-team designation.

Study Abroad - Sooners Around the Globe

Over the past six years, 120 OU student-athletes have studied abroad. This includes a record 31 students in 2018 from 10 different sports who are participating in study abroad opportunities around the world. They are traveling to 14 countries: Argentina, Brazil, Chile, China, France, Ireland, Italy, Mexico, Myanmar, Norway, Peru, Scotland, Spain and Thailand.

SOONERS SERVE

Sooners in Haiti

After an earthquake ravaged the already impoverished Caribbean country of Haiti in 2010, the island nation was left struggling for help and nourishment.

The past six summers have seen a group of University of Oklahoma student-athletes and staff members travel to Haiti on mission trips to provide any help possible.

Working through Mission of Hope Haiti, a group of Oklahoma football players have painted houses, helped construct buildings and provide relief and happiness to Haitians.

After a group of nine players helped comprise an overall group of 40 individuals in 2011, the Sooners have been back every subsequent year. In May 2018, 30 OU student-athletes, including 15 members of the football team, traveled to Haiti.

While the work performed during each mission trips is arduous, the most difficult aspect each year is saying goodbye to the Haitian citizens when it's time to return home.

Sooners Take an Active Role

OU lives by a clear and strong motto as it interacts with its student-athletes…Inspiring Champions for Today, Preparing Leaders for Tomorrow. As part of that promise, the Athletics Department and the football program take an active role in a number of community service projects.

Oklahoma's student-athletes recognize that wearing the Crimson and Cream means representing a popular sports program and themselves as individuals. They are encouraged to respond to a public that adores them, while learning important lessons about making a positive impact in the lives of others in and around the community in which they live.

One WITH OU You

During the 2017-18 school year alone, OU student-athletes, coaches and spirit squads spent more than 4,000 combined hours volunteering in the community.

Sooners Regularly Recognized for Work in Community

Oklahoma's student-athletes are as visible off the field as they are when competing for the Sooners. Their significant efforts in the area of community service have been recognized not only on the local scene where they have the most impact, but also from national organizations who recognize the scope of OU's outreach.

No player embodied the Sooner spirit better than Quinton Carter, who was named the recipient of the seventh annual Wooden Citizenship Cup. The award is presented annually by the Atlanta-based Athletes For a Better World.

The award honored Carter who started his own foundation, the SOUL Foundation, while at OU. The Las Vegas native also adopted a class at Norman's KinderCare while volunteering for a multitude of other causes.

Players from Oklahoma's football team have also been named to the American Football Coaches Association's Good Works Team, an honor reserved for individuals who excel in their service to others. Jacob Gutierrez was named to the team in 2006, Nic Harris in 2007, Gerald McCoy in 2008 and Carter in 2010.

Gutierrez, who in 2005 was named the Norman Youth Citizen Volunteer of the Year, also was named a finalist for the Wooden Cup. Then, in 2006, Carl Pendleton was tabbed a finalist for the honor, as was Ty Darlington in 2015.

Subsequently, Pendleton received postgraduate scholarships from the NCAA and the National Football Foundation, while also being named Big 12 Conference Sportsman of the Year. In addition, Pendleton won the Bobby Bowden Award, the highest student-athlete honor presented by the Fellowship of Christian Athletes.

Darlington also won the Bowden Award and the Wuerffel Trophy in 2015. The Wuerffel Trophy is awarded to the FBS player who best exhibits exemplary community service. Fellow OU center Gabe Ikard also won the national honor in 2013.

NORMAN

3 NORMAN WAS RANKED NO. 3 ON BLOOMBERG/BUSINESSWEEK'S BEST PLACES TO LIVE LIST. OU, ENTERTAINMENT, WORLD-CLASS MUSEUMS AND AFFORDABILITY WERE ALL REASONS LISTED

18 LOCATED JUST 18 MILES NORTH OF NORMAN, OKLAHOMA CITY OFFERS ALL THE TRAPPINGS OF A LARGE METROPOLITAN AREA WITHIN AN EASY DRIVE

70 THE AVERAGE ANNUAL TEMPERATURE IN NORMAN. THE AREA HAS A TEMPERATE CLIMATE WITH MILD WINTERS

196 NORMAN IS A QUICK 196-MILE DRIVE FROM DALLAS. ROUGHLY 20 PERCENT OF OU'S STUDENTS ARE FROM TEXAS AND CHOOSE TO COME NORTH

Norman – Home of the Sooners

Norman is an ever-changing city of more than 110,000 residents. Located in the heart of the state, it has grown to become the third-largest city in Oklahoma. Despite its continuous growth, it has maintained the spirit and serenity of a small, close-knit community.

Since the Oklahoma Land Rush of 1889, Norman has grown into a popular and well-educated city. The spirit of Norman and its citizens is unwavering and uncompromising. While other towns were clamoring to become the state capital, Norman residents wanted to have the first state university. When the first OU president got off the train and saw a prairie, he saw opportunity.

As home to the state's premier educational institution, Norman boasts an excellent quality of life and is a city that thrives on and celebrates the diversity of its community.

Legendary University of Oklahoma football coach Barry Switzer called Norman "a university town with a championship spirit."

Norman continually exhibits its love for sports by hosting numerous local and national athletics events.

OKLAHOMA CITY

Oklahoma City – Incredible Spirit

Oklahoma City, the state's capital, is located just 18 miles north of the Norman Campus. It was the first city settled in the Land Run of 1889 because of its position at the center of the state.

Oklahoma City offers a variety of attractions and activities different from any other place in the country. Sprawling across 625 square miles of America's heartland, the city's metro population numbers more than one million — a third of the entire state's population.

Oklahoma City has become a haven for exciting sports action. It's NBA franchise, the Thunder, played in the NBA Finals in just its fourth season in Oklahoma City and has produced two league MVPs in the past five years. The city is also home to three minor league teams and is the host of the NCAA Women's College World Series.

Located just southeast of downtown, Bricktown is OKC's entertainment and dining district. Restaurants with a total capacity of more than 4,000 seats, shopping, and a generous helping of turn-of-the-century charm has turned Bricktown into a hotspot for Oklahoma City nights.

BIG 12 CONFERENCE

Prominence on a National Stage

The Big 12 is in its 23rd year in 2018-19 as it continues to promote the strength and success of one of the nation's premier athletics conferences under the direction of seventh-year commissioner Bob Bowlsby.

TCU and West Virginia joined the league on July 1, 2012, and became the Big 12's first additions since inception, joining Baylor, Iowa State, Kansas, Kansas State, Oklahoma, Oklahoma State, Texas and Texas Tech.

With 10 members, the Big 12 remains as the only autonomy conference to determine its champions in all sports directly on the field of play with a full round-robin schedule. The Conference's hard work ethic and strong values have translated to enormous success in its first 22 years. Since it began competition in 1996-97, the league can boast of 60 NCAA team titles and 654 individual national championships.

The Big 12 has been at the forefront in college athletics reform, specifically with student-athlete welfare issues to include cost of attendance, student-athlete time demands and strengthening its policy for concussion diagnosis and management. In 2014-15, the Big 12 introduced and hosted three "State of Collegiate Athletics" forums to examine the issues facing college athletics. Two were conducted in Washington, D.C and one in New York City. Panelists included respected authorities from intercollegiate athletics, university leadership and sports journalism. The third forum featured a special session comprised of student-athletes. The Big 12 has continued the "State of Collegiate Athletics" forums the past four seasons with Dallas serving as the host site for three events and one staged in Atlanta.

NOTING THE SOONERS

RECAPPING A STELLAR 2017

Lincoln Riley's debut year as Oklahoma head coach was a banner one, as the Sooners posted a 12-2 record, went 8-1 in Big 12 play, won a third straight conference title (beat TCU 41-17 in the Big 12 Championship Game), qualified for their second College Football Playoff in three years (were the No. 2 seed), finished No. 3 in both major national polls, set multiple school offensive records and produced four first-team All-Americans in tight end Mark Andrews (unanimous), offensive tackle Orlando Brown (unanimous), quarterback Baker Mayfield (unanimous) and defensive end/linebacker Ogbonnia Okoronkwo. Mayfield, in a landslide vote, also became OU's sixth Heisman Trophy winner and was the No. 1 overall pick in the NFL Draft by the Cleveland Browns.

Here are some more 2017 accomplishments:

▶ Oklahoma set single-season school records for total offense (579.6 ypg; led FBS), yards per play (8.3; second all-time in FBS), passing yards per game (361.8) and completion percentage (.714; led FBS), and led the FBS in passing efficiency rating (202.7) and first downs (361). OU also ranked third nationally in scoring offense (45.1 ppg) and passing offense (361.8 ypg), and paced the Big 12 in rushing offense (217.8 ypg).

▶ Riley set the OU record for wins by a first-year head coach (previous record was 10 by Chuck Fairbanks and Barry Switzer). The Sooners' 12 wins were tied for the second most in program history.

▶ OU became the first school to ever produce three unanimous offensive All-Americans in one season (Andrews, Brown and Mayfield).

▶ In addition to delivering OU's sixth Heisman Trophy to Norman, Mayfield won the Maxwell Award, Davey O'Brien Award, Manning Award, Walter Camp Player of the Year Award and Earl Campbell Tyler Rose Award. He was also named the AP and Sporting News Player of the Year. Andrews won OU's first Mackey Award.

▶ Joining Mayfield as NFL Draft picks were Brown (third round, 83rd overall to Baltimore), Andrews (third round, 86th overall to Baltimore) and Okoronkwo (fifth round, 160th overall to Los Angeles Rams). OU and LSU are the only programs with at least four players selected in each of the last 11 NFL Drafts.

▶ The Sooners led the league with six first-team All-Big 12 selections, and four OU players earned individual all-league awards. Mayfield was Big 12 Offensive Player of the Year, Brown was Big 12 Offensive Lineman of the Year, Okoronkwo was Co-Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year and Kenneth Murray was Co-Big 12 Defensive Freshman of the Year.

▶ Murray was named a freshman All-American by the Football Writers Association of America and USA Today, while CeeDee Lamb picked up the same honor from ESPN.

▶ Co-offensive coordinator and offensive line coach Bill Bedenbaugh was a finalist for the Frank Broyles Award (presented to the nation's best assistant coach).

WHO'S BACK

Oklahoma returns 12 players (not including specialists) who started at least five games last year (six on each side of the ball). Eleven of those 12 started at least seven games and 10 started at least eight contests. OU also welcomes back Austin Seibert, who handled all of the Sooners' placekicking, punting and kickoff duties in 2017.

TOP-10 RECRUITING CLASS

Lincoln Riley's first recruiting class as OU head coach was a consensus top-10 one. The Sooners signed 22 players, 18 of them ranked as four- or five-star prospects by 247Sports, ESPN or Rivals. The class is comprised of 13 defensive players, nine offensive players and a kicker. Eight of them enrolled at OU for the spring semester: defensive backs Starrland Baldwin, Miguel Edwards, Patrick Fields and Brendan Radley-Hiles, defensive end Ronnie Perkins, defensive end/outside linebacker Jalen Redmond, receiver Jaquayln Crawford and running back T.J. Pledger.

NEW STAFF MEMBERS

Lincoln Riley introduced new staff members Shane Beamer and Bennie Wylie in January. Beamer became OU's 10th assistant coach and has the title of assistant head coach for offense. He coaches tight ends and H-backs, and will play a prominent role in overseeing the Sooners' special teams. Beamer spent the last two seasons at Georgia, and was also an assistant at Virginia Tech, South Carolina and Mississippi State. He is the son of former Virginia Tech head coach Frank Beamer. Wylie is no stranger to Riley, as the pair was together at Texas Tech when Wylie was the Red Raiders' football head strength and conditioning coach from 2003 through 2009. Wylie served in the same capacity at Tennessee (2010) and Texas (2011-13).

Riley also hired Bob Diaco as a defensive specialist in March to replace Chris Woods, who was hired as defensive coordinator at Texas State. Diaco arrived at OU after serving as defensive coordinator at Nebraska last year. He was head coach at Connecticut (2014-16) and defensive coordinator at Notre Dame (2010-13) and Cincinnati (2009).

Clarke Stroud also joined Riley's staff in July as director of football operations after an 18-year run as OU's vice president of student affairs and dean of students. Stroud replaced Matt McMillen, who arrived with former head coach Bob Stoops in 1999 and spent 19 years with the Sooners.

previous record for wins by a first-year OU head coach was 10 by Chuck Fairbanks in 1967 and Barry Switzer in 1973. Switzer holds the Sooners' record for most wins in his first two seasons as head coach (21 in 1973-74). Riley needs nine wins in 2018 to tie the mark.

STRONG NON-CONFERENCE SLATE

The Sooners' 2018 non-conference schedule figures to be a challenging one despite the fact that all three games will be played in Norman. Florida Atlantic (11-3), UCLA (6-7) and Army (10-3) combined for a 27-13 (.675) record last season, and all three played in a bowl game (Florida Atlantic and Army won). UCLA will be under the direction of first-year head coach Chip Kelly, who led Oregon to a 46-7 record (33-3 in conference play) and three Pac-10/12 titles (2009-11) before coaching four years in the NFL with the Philadelphia Eagles and San Francisco 49ers.

RARE SEVEN HOME GAMES

Oklahoma will play seven home games this year for the first time since 2007, as all three of its non-conference contests will be held at Gaylord Family – Oklahoma Memorial Stadium. The Sooners have played six home games each of the past 10 years and in 13 of the last 14. OU will be the visiting team just four times in 2017, as it will be the designated home squad for the Red River Showdown against Texas at the Cotton Bowl in Dallas on Oct. 6.

NO PLACE LIKE NORMAN

Oklahoma has won more Big 12 championships over the last 19 years (11) than it has lost home games. OU is 106-10 (.914) at Gaylord Family – Oklahoma Memorial Stadium since the start of the 1999 season, with all 116 of those games sellouts. It is the best home winning percentage among Power Five schools over the last 19 seasons (Ohio State is next at .881). OU has outscored its opponents by an average of 42-16 in those games.

ROAD RULE

The Sooners have won 16 straight true road games, good for the longest active streak in the country and the second longest in school history (OU won 24 in a row from 1953 to 1958). Wisconsin (eight) is the only other program that owns an active streak longer than seven games. The Sooners' last true road loss came more than three years ago (37-33 at TCU on Oct. 4, 2014). During the 16-game streak, the Sooners have outscored opponents 784-436 (49-27 average) and have outgained them 9,267 yards to 6,611 (587-413 average). Seven of the 16 wins have come against top-25 teams.

OU has also won a record 14 straight Big 12 road games, breaking the previous league mark of 13 consecutive road wins by Texas from 2003 to 2006. Since Lincoln Riley's arrival in Norman prior to the 2015 season, the Sooners are 14-0 in true road games (12-0 in true Big 12 road contests).

BIG 12 BELL COW

Since the first year of the Big 12 in 1996, OU has claimed 11 league titles and is followed by Texas (three), Baylor, Kansas State and Nebraska (two each), and Colorado, Oklahoma State, TCU and Texas A&M (one each). All 11 of the Sooners' titles have come since the start of the 2000 campaign, with no other program during that span winning more than two. OU is 124-27 (.821) in regular season Big 12 play since the start of the 2000 season. That's 21 more wins than the program with the next most victories during that period (Texas; 103-48) and 38 more than the program with the third most (Oklahoma State; 86-65).

GOING FOR BIG 12 FOUR-PEAT

If Oklahoma wins the 2018 Big 12 title, it will mark the program's fourth straight league crown. The last time the Sooners won four consecutive conference championships was 1984-87 under head coach Barry Switzer. OU is the only program to win three straight Big 12 titles, and it has done so twice (also from 2006-08). Baylor (2013-14) is the only other program to win two Big 12 championships in a row.

EXTRA POINTS

▶ No program has more all-time 10-win seasons than Oklahoma, which has 38. In addition, OU's 24 seasons with at least 11 wins are the most in college football history. The Sooners also lead the nation with 15 double-digit-win seasons since 2000.

▶ Oklahoma has scored at least 30 points in 23 of its last 24 games. It has won 22 of those 24.

▶ OU committed just 13 turnovers last year (six interceptions and seven fumbles lost). That's the second-lowest total in program history (11 in 2008).

▶ The Sooners have won 25 of their last 26 games against Big 12 Conference opponents. Fifteen of those 25 victories have been by at least 15 points (seven by at least 35 points).

▶ Oklahoma is 25-2 (.926) the last three years in regular season Big 12 play, which coincides with Lincoln Riley's OU tenure. Oklahoma State ranks second during that period (20-7; .741), TCU third (18-9; .667), West Virginia fourth (16-11; .593) and Kansas State fifth (14-13; .519).

▶ Since Riley arrived in Norman three seasons ago, the Sooners rank first nationally in scoring offense (44.2; next best average is 41.5), total offense (555.5 ypg), passing efficiency rating (187.7; next best mark is 163.7) and completion percentage (.694).

▶ Oklahoma, Alabama and Clemson have all finished in the final AP top 5 each of the past three seasons.

FOUR IN STORE?

Sooners looking to become first Power Five program since Florida (1993-96) to win four straight outright league titles

OFFENSE

Oklahoma lost five starters, including 2017 Heisman Trophy-winning quarterback Baker Mayfield, from last season's offense that averaged school records of 579.6 yards per game, 361.8 passing yards per game and 8.3 yards per play. Few will predict the Sooners to be as effective in 2018, but then again nobody envisioned Lincoln Riley's offense would be as potent last year as it was in 2016 after losing standout skill players Joe Mixon, Samaje Perine and Dede Westbrook to the NFL. If recent history has proved anything, it's that Riley's schemes and playcalling leave nothing to the imagination and usually result in offensive performances that confound the opposition no matter who's on the field for OU.

Primarily due to the loss of Mayfield, the Sooners return just 31.5 percent of their total offense and only 8.3 percent of their passing offense from last season. But they do welcome back 70.1 percent of their rushing yards, 58.5 percent of their receiving yards and 68.4 percent of their scoring.

SUMMARY:

Led by position coach Bill Bedenbaugh (a finalist for the 2017 Frank Broyles Award, [nation's top assistant coach]) and unanimous first-team All-America left tackle Orlando Brown, OU's 2017 offensive line was consistently regarded as one of the top units in the country and factored heavily in the Sooners setting single-season school records for total offense (579.6 ypg; led FBS), yards per play (8.3; second all-time in FBS), passing yards per game (361.8) and completion percentage (.714; led FBS), and in leading the FBS in passing efficiency rating (202.7) and first downs (361). The unit also paved the way for a ground attack that paced the Big 12 by averaging 217.8 rushing yards per contest. Even with the departure of Brown and first-team All-Big 12 center Erick Wren, returning OU linemen have combined for 103 career starts. And with Bedenbaugh's strong recruiting efforts (he was named one of Rivals.com's top 25 recruiters in 2017 and '18), plenty of talented youngsters are eager for a shot to showcase their ability.

DEFENSE

Oklahoma's defense ranked fourth in the Big 12 last year by allowing 394.9 yards per game, a total that was 37 fewer yards per contest than the Sooners surrendered in 2016. They ranked third in the league by giving up 238.4 passing yards per game (down from 269.4 in 2016) and sixth by allowing 156.5 rushing yards per outing (down from 162.6). Despite the across-the-board improvement from the year before, Riley and defensive coordinator Mike Stoops know more strides need to be made. According to Riley, they think they have the personnel and leadership — albeit young — to do it.

"We've got some pretty specific defensive goals internally that we feel our guys are ready to make in some areas that we know we can and need to improve," said Riley. "I'm excited about the potential of this defense. It's going to be young. We've got some really young leaders. A lot of the leaders on this defense are going to be sophomores and juniors. There aren't many seniors on it. So it's going to be a young but very hungry defense. I'm excited to see how it all works together."

The Sooners return six defenders who were starting at the end of last season, including two linemen, two linebackers and two defensive backs. Only one of those six (tackle Marquise Overton) is a senior. OU brings back 54.4 percent of its tackle production from last year, 42.3 percent of its sack production and 50 percent of its interceptions.

DEFENSIVE LINE

LETTERMEN RETURNING (7):

• Marquise Overton (Sr.) – Tackle who played in all 14 games last year and made nine starts (each of last seven) ... led OU defensive linemen with 43 tackles and logged 3.0 tackles for loss.

• Dillon Faamatau (R-Jr.) – Tackle who played in all 14 games in a reserve role and made 10 tackles (2.0 for loss).

• Neville Gallimore (R-Jr.) – Saw action in 12 games and started season's first five contests ... finished year with 28 tackles.

• Kenneth Mann (R-Jr.) – End who played in 13 of 14 contests, all in a reserve role ... registered 6.0 tackles for a loss of 41 yards and 5.0 sacks for a loss of 38 yards ... forced two fumbles.

• Arthur McGinnis (R-Jr.) – Lone collegiate appearance came in third game of 2017.

• Amani Bledsoe (Jr.) – End who played in 10 games in 2017 and made eight starts (each of the final six contests) ... logged 19 tackles and 3.0 for loss (2.0 sacks).

• Tyreece Lott (So.) – Played in five games in 2017 but missed last six due to injury ... finished season with five tackles.

NON-LETTERMEN RETURNING (3):

• Troy James (R-Fr.) – Redshirted in 2017 ... a consensus three-star recruit in the 2017 class ... rated by Scout as the No. 77 defensive tackle prospect in the country.

• Zacchaeus McKinney (R-Fr.) – Redshirted last year ... a consensus three-star 2017 recruit ... rated by Rivals as the nation's No. 39 defensive tackle.

2018 OUTLOOK

• Isaiah Thomas (R-Fr.) – A U.S. Army All-American who redshirted in 2017 ... a four-star recruit by 247Sports, Rivals and Scout ... rated by Rivals as the nation's No. 13 weakside defensive end prospect.

NEWCOMERS (5):

• Caden Blanchard (Fr.)

• Jordan Kelley (Fr.) – A four-star recruit by 247Sports ... rated by 247Sports as the nation's No. 265 overall recruit and the No. 23 defensive tackle.

• Ronnie Perkins (Fr.) – An early enrollee ... U.S. Army All-American and consensus four-star prospect ... rated by 247Sports as the country's No. 57 overall recruit and No. 5 weakside defensive end ... ranked by ESPN as the top signee from Missouri.

• Michael Thompson (Fr.) – A U.S. Army All-American and consensus four-star prospect ... ranked in the top 100 nationally by 247Sports (No. 76) and Rivals (No. 96) ... rated by 247Sports and Rivals as the nation's No. 5 defensive tackle ... had surgery in June to repair a torn ACL and will miss the 2018 season.

SUMMARY:

Oklahoma only has to replace two regular players from its 2017 defensive line in end D.J. Ward (senior who started all 14 games and made 36 tackles and 7.5 tackles for loss) and noseguard Du'Vonta Lampkin (redshirt sophomore who started two of his 12 games and logged 23 tackles and 5.0 TFLs). Plenty of help is on the way with three highly regarded members of the 2017 recruiting class redshirting last season. And perhaps no OU position group will be bolstered by the 2018 signing class as much as the defensive line with a quartet of four-star recruits (three of them U.S. Army All-Americans).

LINEBACKERS

LETTERMEN RETURNING (6):

• Curtis Bolton (R-Sr.) – Played in four games and made five tackles in 2017 before sustaining season-ending injury at Baylor on Sept. 23.

• Jalen Redmond (Fr.) – A five-star prospect by 247Sports.com who enrolled at OU in January ... rated by 247Sports as the nation's No. 16 overall recruit and the No. 3 weakside defensive end.

• DaShaun White (Fr.) – A U.S. Army All-American and consensus four-star recruit ... rated by 247Sports as the country's No. 116 overall prospect and No. 9 outside linebacker.

SUMMARY:

The Sooners didn't boast the deepest linebacking corps heading into 2017, and some early season injuries didn't help the situation. The 2018 group figures to be much deeper despite the loss of leading tackler Emmanuel Beal (95 tackles, 7.0 tackles for loss) at the Will position and leading pass rusher Ogbonnia Okoronkwo (76 tackles, 17.5 TFLs and 8.0 sacks) at the Jack. Similar to the defensive line, OU looks forward to the contributions of a bevy of highly regarded true and redshirt freshmen. Sophomore Kenneth Murray is back at the Mike after earning Co-Big 12 Defensive Freshman of the Year honors and junior Caleb Kelly has moved from the Sam to the Will.

• Jordan Parker (R-So.) – Sustained an injury in 2017 opener and missed rest of the season ... started eight of his 10 games as a freshman cornerback in 2016 and registered 36 tackles and three pass breakups.

NON-LETTERMEN RETURNING (3):

• Delarrin Turner-Yell (Fr.) – A three-star recruit ... ranked by 247Sports as the country's No. 314 overall recruit and No. 24 safety.

SUMMARY:
No OU position group is as young as the defensive backfield. Of the 13 scholarship players on the roster, only two are seniors and just two more are juniors. Seven of the other nine were at least four-star recruits before signing with the Sooners. That's good no matter the circumstance, but especially this year with OU looking to replace a trio of seniors (safeties Will Johnson and Steven Parker, and cornerback Jordan Thomas) who combined for 133 career games played and 98 starts. Four of the team's five 2018 defensive back signees enrolled in January and went through spring ball, including versatile five-star prospect Brendan Radley-Hiles.

SPECIAL TEAMS

Outside of veteran long snapper Wesley Horky, the Sooners return all of their primary special teams specialists for 2018.

Holder Connor McGinnis was named the 2017 Mortell Holder of the Year, and CeeDee Lamb and Marcelias Sutton are back after leading the team in punt and kickoff returns, respectively. Redshirt freshman Kasey Kelleher is the lone long snapper who was on last year's team.

Running backs coach Jay Boulware has served as special teams coordinator the past five seasons, and Riley indicated in the spring that new assistant head coach for offense Shane Beamer will also play a prominent role with some of OU's special teams in 2018.

After presiding over two of the most prolific offenses in OU history as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach in 2015 and 2016, Lincoln Riley took over the program's head coaching reins on June 7, 2017, following the retirement of one of the most accomplished coaches of the last quarter century in Bob Stoops. OU's 22nd head coach, all Riley did in his first year at the helm was lead the Sooners to their 11th Big 12 title, a No. 2 seed in the College Football Playoff and a No. 3 final ranking in the AP and coaches polls.

The Football Bowl Subdivision's youngest head coach (33) at the time of his hiring, Riley became just the fifth mentor in FBS history with no previous head-coaching experience at a four-year college to win at least 12 games in his debut season. The previous record for wins by a first-year OU head coach was 10 by Chuck Fairbanks in 1967 and Barry Switzer in 1973. The next highest figure is eight.

Originally from the 5,000-person West Texas town of Muleshoe, Riley, who continues to call Oklahoma's offensive plays as head coach, has made his name as perhaps the best up-and-coming star in college football by overseeing a balanced — and explosive — OU offense the last three seasons.

Since the start of the 2015 campaign, OU ranks first nationally in passing efficiency rating (187.7; next closest mark is 163.7), completion percentage (69.4), points per game (44.2) and total offense (555.5), and ranks sixth in passing offense (330.1; fifth in Power 5) and 18th in rushing offense (225.4; ninth in Power 5). With that kind of offensive production, it's no surprise the Sooners have posted a 34-6 (.850) record since Riley arrived in Norman (25-2 in Big 12 play). OU's overall mark since 2015 is fourth best nationally, with only Alabama (41-3), Clemson (40-4) and Ohio State (35-5) having better records during that span.

Individual player honors and accomplishments have been abundant under Riley's tutelage. Quarterback Baker Mayfield became OU's sixth Heisman Trophy winner in 2017 after finishing third in 2016 voting and fourth in 2015. Mayfield also won the Maxwell Award, Davey O'Brien Award, Manning Award and Walter Camp Player of the Year Award, and was named AP Player of the Year. All-America wide receiver Dede Westbrook finished fourth in Heisman voting in 2016 and became OU's first winner of the Biletnikoff Award, while tight end Mark Andrews claimed the school's first Mackey Award in 2017. Four Sooners earned first-team All-America honors in 2017: Mayfield, Andrews, left tackle Orlando Brown and defensive end/linebacker Ogbonnia Okoronkwo. Running back Joe Mixon finished second nationally and set the OU single-season record with 2,331 all-purpose yards in 2016, while backfield mate Samaje Perine set the school career rushing record with 4,122 yards in only three seasons.

Oklahoma's newest head man joined the Sooners in January 2015 after he caught the eye of Stoops during a highly successful five-year stint as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach under Ruffin McNeill at East Carolina from 2010-14. With OU looking for a new play caller and wanting to get back to the up-tempo attack it helped make mainstream, Riley's numbers at ECU made him the perfect hire.

At East Carolina, Riley installed and directed a spread offensive scheme that made an immediate impact as the Pirates set more than 50 team or individual school offensive records in his five seasons with the program. His squads recorded the top five passing seasons in school history and the top four marks for total offense in a season.

He spent his final season with the Pirates serving in the role of assistant head coach/offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach in 2014 as the team ranked third in the nation in passing offense (371.9 ypg) and was fifth in total offense (533.0 ypg). With Riley calling the shots, the Pirates set a single-season school record with 6,929 yards of total offense.

Riley's East Carolina offensive units routinely earned national top-10 rankings in major statistical categories such as passing offense (third in 2014, eighth in 2010), scoring offense (fifth in 2014, eighth in 2013), third-down conversion percentage (seventh in 2013) and red zone scoring efficiency (third in 2012, fifth in 2010).

Among his notable pupils, Riley helped transform a pair of East Carolina wide receivers into the most productive pass catchers in FBS history. He guided walk-on Justin Hardy to 387 career catches, breaking the NCAA record previously held by OU's Ryan Broyles (349). Hardy's 4,541 career receiving yards rank third all-time in FBS annals as he flourished in Riley's offense, registering three 1,000-yard seasons at ECU that culminated with a 121-catch, 1,494-yard year as a senior in 2014. Riley also coached recent second-round NFL draft selection Zay Jones for the first two years of his career. Jones went on to break Hardy's record and is the NCAA's leader in career receptions (399) and receptions in a season (158 in 2016).

Already overseeing Mayfield's record-setting career, Riley also developed dynamic quarterbacks Dominique Davis and Shane Carden at ECU. Conference USA's 2010 Newcomer of the Year, Davis set ECU career marks for completions and TD passes despite playing just two seasons. Davis ranked second among FBS signal callers with 393 completions and 46 total touchdowns in 2010. He set an NCAA record with 36 straight completions in 2011.

Carden took over the job in 2012 and went on to break the majority of Davis' records, becoming the first 4,000-yard passer in program history and setting single-season standards for completion percentage (70.5 in 2013) and passing yards (4,736 in 2014). Carden earned Conference USA MVP honors in 2013 and was the American Conference's Offensive Player of the Year in 2014. He led all FBS passers with 392 completions in 2014.

Prior to East Carolina, Riley spent seven seasons on the staff at Texas Tech, where he was part of seven bowl teams and five bowl wins. During that span, Red Raiders quarterbacks won NCAA passing titles in 2003, 2004, 2005 and 2007. A walk-on quarterback at Tech during the spring and summer of 2003 who then became a student coach, Riley immersed himself in head coach Mike Leach's offense and worked his way into a full-time position as wide receivers coach in 2007. He served as inside receivers coach in 2008 and '09, and eventually called plays as interim offensive coordinator in the 2010 Alamo Bowl, where the Red Raiders racked up 579 yards in a 41-31 victory over Michigan State to cap the 2009 season.

Under Riley's guidance in 2007, wide receiver Michael Crabtree won the Biletnikoff Award after smashing Big 12 records and NCAA freshman standards with 134 receptions for 1,962 yards. Crabtree also accumulated 22 touchdown catches his first season. In fact, wide receiver Danny Amendola joined Crabtree that year as Texas Tech receivers who each ammassed 100-catch, 1,000-yard efforts.

A 2006 Texas Tech graduate who earned a Bachelor of Science degree in exercise and sport sciences, Riley and his wife, Caitlin, have two daughters, Sloan and Stella.

Coaching Notes and Accomplishments

• Named Oklahoma's assistant head coach and defensive tackles coach on June 14, 2017.

• In first year with the Sooners, helped 2017 OU defense improve by 37 yards per game from 2016. OU allowed 394.9 yards per contest (432.0 in 2016) to rank fourth in Big 12, 238.4 passing yards per game (269.4 in 2016) to rank third and 156.5 rushing yards per game (162.6 in 2016) to rank sixth. The Sooners also held opponents to a 38.0-percent conversion rate on third downs (42.6 percent in 2016) to rank fourth in the league.

• Came to Norman from Virginia, where he served the 2016 season as assistant head coach and defensive line coach.

• Named the 20th head coach at East Carolina, his alma mater, on Jan. 21, 2010, and served in that capacity for six seasons (2010-15). Riley was his offensive coordinator for the first five of those seasons before he was hired at OU.

• Posted a 42-34 record at ECU. His teams played in four bowl games and beat Ohio 37-20 in the 2013 Beef O'Brady's Bowl.

• In 2014, East Carolina began the season with a 6-1 record and resided in the Associated Press Top 25 Poll for six weeks. ECU used an explosive offensive unit that rated among the nation's top five in passing (third), first downs (fourth) and total yards (fifth). Defensively, only 10 FBS teams were better against the run, as the Pirates allowed just 111.8 yards per game.

• East Carolina recorded 10 victories in 2013, which ranks as the second-highest single-season win total in school history. That squad also broke or matched 52 individual and team single-game, single-season and all-time standards, while both sides of the ball combined to rank among the top 15 nationally in 12 statistical categories. The Pirates finished 7-1 in Conference USA that year.

• Under his watch, East Carolina walk-on wide receiver Justin Hardy became the most productive pass catcher in FBS history with 387 career catches, breaking the NCAA record previously held by OU's Ryan Broyles (349). Hardy's record was broken by Zay Jones, who played for McNeill for three seasons (2013-15). Jones finished with 399 catches.

• Prior to East Carolina, spent 10 seasons at Texas Tech, where he first worked with Riley. During his time with the Red Raiders, McNeill coached linebackers (2000-02), special teams (2003-06) and defensive tackles (2007).

• Served as Texas Tech's interim defensive coordinator in 2007 before being promoted to the spot full-time for the 2008 and 2009 seasons. Concluded the 2009 campaign as the Red Raiders' interim head coach by rallying No. 21 Texas Tech to a 41-31 victory over Michigan State at the Valero Alamo Bowl with Riley making his debut as offensive play caller.

• Coaching career began at Lumberton High School (1980-84) and he went on to work at Clemson (1985-86), Austin Peay (1987), North Alabama (1988), Appalachian State (1989-91, 1993-96), East Carolina (1992), UNLV (1997-98) and Fresno State (1999). He also spent time with the Miami Dolphins as a summer intern in 1996.

• McNeill and his wife, Erlene, have two daughters and a granddaughter. Renata McNeill Petrekin resides in Coral Gables, Fla., with her daughter Isabella, while Olivia McNeill works at Brown University in Providence, R.I.

Accomplishments as a Player

• Four-year letterwinner at East Carolina from 1976-80 under legendary head coach Pat Dye.
• Three-year starter at defensive back and team captain for two years.
• Helped lead ECU to the Southern Conference Championship in 1976 and an Independence Bowl berth in 1978.

SHANE BEAMER

ASSISTANT HEAD COACH FOR OFFENSE/TIGHT ENDS AND H-BACKS • FIRST SEASON

Coaching Notes and Accomplishments

• Hired at Oklahoma in January 2018 after serving the 2016 and '17 seasons as special teams coordinator and tight ends coach at Georgia.

• In addition to his offensive coaching responsibilities, he will also play a role in overseeing OU's special teams.

• Georgia posted a 21-7 combined record the last two seasons with Beamer on staff, including a 13-2 mark in 2017 when the Bulldogs won the SEC Championship Game, beat OU 54-48 in overtime in the College Football Playoff Semifinal at the Rose Bowl and lost 26-23 to Alabama in overtime in the CFP National Championship.

• Beamer also served as associate head coach and running backs coach at Virginia Tech for five years (2011-15) and was an assistant coach at South Carolina (2007-10) and Mississippi State (2004-06).

• In 2017, Georgia ranked eighth nationally in net punting average (41.7 yards) after ranking 112th in 2016, and 20th nationally in kickoff return average (23.5 yards). The Bulldogs also improved 76 spots from 2016 in kickoff return defense, allowing 19.5 yards per return to rank 40th.

• Georgia blocked four kicks in 2017, and its three blocked field goals ranked as third most in school history. Rodrigo Blankenship made 21 of his 24 field goal attempts (87.5 percent) and led the SEC in PAT percentage, while Cameron Nizalek's 42.0-yard net punting average was the second-best mark in school history. Returner Mecole Hardman led the SEC in punt return average (11.8 yards) and ranked second in kickoff return average (25.3 yards).

• In 2016 (his first season at Georgia), two of his players earned SEC All-Freshman honors (tight end Isaac Nauta, kicker Rodrigo Blankenship).

• Beamer's 2013 Virginia Tech running backs didn't fumble the ball in 350 combined attempts, marking the first time in his father Frank's head coaching tenure for the feat. His 2014 group suffered through several injuries that hampered production, but tailback J.C. Coleman stepped up late in the season and earned Military Bowl MVP honors, a game in which Beamer served as the acting head coach while his father watched from the press box following throat surgery.

• In his first year as an assistant coach at Virginia Tech, he provided mentorship to David Wilson, who broke the school's single-season rushing record and was named an AP All-American and ACC Player of the Year, and was picked in the NFL Draft first round by the New York Giants.

• At South Carolina, he coordinated the special teams and coached outside linebackers, and in his final two years there served as recruiting coordinator. He was nominated for the 2009 Frank Broyles Award, which goes to the assistant coach of the year. That season, his special teams units recorded five blocked kicks, tying for the SEC lead and tying for the eighth-highest total in the nation. He also helped coach a defensive unit that ranked third in the SEC and 15th in the country in total defense, and second in the league and eighth in the country in passing defense.

• Beamer joined the South Carolina staff in 2007, coaching outside linebackers and serving as special teams co-coordinator in his first season. He worked with the cornerbacks in his second campaign, helping the defense finish the regular season ranked second in the nation in pass defense and 13th in total defense.

• Beamer's first class as South Carolina's recruiting coordinator (2009) was ranked as the nation's 12th-best by both Rivals and Scout, and the 2010 and 2011 recruiting classes were again ranked in the top 25.

• He was hired by Mississippi State in January 2004 to coach the Bulldog cornerbacks. In his first two seasons at MSU, he guided three defensive backs to SEC All-Freshman Team accolades. He made the move to running backs coach in the spring of 2006 and coached running back Anthony Dixon to SEC All-Freshman honors. He also served as the program's recruiting coordinator.

• Beamer spent three seasons (2001-03) as a graduate assistant at Tennessee, helping with the cornerbacks, coaching the placekickers, punters and long snappers, and assisting in all special teams areas. He also oversaw game opponent scouting and earned a master's degree in sport management in December 2003.

• Before joining the staff at Tennessee, he worked one season (2000) as a graduate assistant at Georgia Tech, helping with the Yellow Jacket quarterbacks and wide receivers.

Accomplishments as a Player

• Was a member of five bowl teams at Virginia Tech (1995-99 seasons) and three Big East Conference championship squads. He served as the starting long snapper for three seasons while also contributing as a wide receiver for one year.

• Concluded his college playing career by helping the 1999 Hokies to a No. 2 final regular-season ranking and a berth in the national championship game against Florida State in the Sugar Bowl.

Coaching Notes and Accomplishments

• Rejoined the Oklahoma staff in 2012 after an eight-year stint as head coach at the University of Arizona.

• Coordinated a 2017 OU defense that improved by 37 yards per game from 2016. The Sooners allowed 394.9 yards per contest to rank fourth in the Big 12 and 238.4 passing yards per game to rank third. Outside linebacker/defensive end Ogbonnia Okoronkwo was a Walter Camp First-Team All-American and Co-Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year.

• Presided over a 2015 OU defense that led the Big 12 in total defense (364.5 ypg), scoring defense (22.0 ppg), passing defense (202.8 ypg), pass efficiency defense (108.5) and sacks (3.08 per game). The Sooners also finished second in the league in rushing defense (161.7 ypg) and interceptions (1.5 per game).

• ESPN.com named him the Big 12's top assistant coach in February 2014 and Rivals.com named him the league's top recruiter in 2013.

• Has coached 29 NFL Draft picks while players under his direction have combined for 11 national awards, 13 All-America honors, 41 all-conference honors and 48 academic all-conference accolades.

• The Sooners led the Big 12 in run defense (106.4 ypg) under his direction in 2014 and did not permit an individual 100-yard rusher.

• Revamped the Oklahoma defensive scheme in 2013, giving the Sooners more multiple looks. That move paid immediate dividends as OU led the Big 12 in total defense (350.2 ypg) for the first time since 2006. The Sooners also led the Big 12 in pass defense (212.5 ypg).

• In total, the Sooners saw marked improvement in 10 major defensive categories in 2013 under Stoops. OU ranked second in the Big 12 in both rushing defense (137.6 ypg) and scoring defense (22.1 ppg) – a decrease of 55.4 ypg and 3.4 ppg compared to 2012.

• Perhaps two of the biggest areas of improvement for the Sooners in 2013 came in term of takeaways (24) and third-down defense (60-178, 33.7%). OU forced eight more turnovers compared to 2012, while the club led the Big 12 and tied for 10th in the nation in terms of third-down conversions permitted. Oklahoma also allowed a league-low 17.9 first downs per game in 2013.

• Oklahoma's pass rush returned to roots of creating havoc in 2013, as well. The Sooners racked up 33.0 sacks, up from 24.0 a year earlier. OU registered 7.0 of those sacks in a 45-31 Sugar Bowl win vs. Alabama.

• Making OU's 2013 defensive accomplishments even more impressive were the host of young players who made immediate contributions, including LB Dominique Alexander and CB Zack Sanchez, who both earned Freshman All-America honors.

• The two most prolific rushing seasons under head coach Bob Stoops came in 2013 and 2014 under Gundy's direction. OU led the Big 12 and ranked 10th in the FBS, averaging 261.2 rushing ypg in 2014 after registering 223.9 ypg on the ground in 2013.

• Gundy's star pupil in 2014 was true freshman RB Samaje Perine, who led the Big 12 in rushing (131.8 ypg) and set the FBS single-game rushing record with 427 yards vs. Kansas (11/22/14).

Coaching Notes and Accomplishments

• Has established himself as one of the country's top developers of offensive line talent since joining OU in 2013. He was named one of Rivals.com's top 25 recruiters of 2017 and 2018, and was a finalist for the 2017 Broyles Award, given to the nation's top assistant coach.

• Led by unanimous first-team All-America left tackle Orlando Brown, Bedenbaugh's 2017 line was regarded as one of the top units in the country and factored heavily in OU setting single-season school records in total offense (579.6 ypg; led FBS), yards per play (8.3; second all-time in FBS), passing yards per game (361.8) and completion percentage (.714; led FBS), and in leading the FBS in passing efficiency rating (202.7) and first downs (361). His unit also paved the way for a ground attack that paced the Big 12 with 217.8 rushing yards per contest.

• OU's 2016 offensive line overcame early season shuffling due to injuries to help Sooners to one of most productive offensive years in school history, ranking first nationally in passing efficiency rating (mark of 193.8 was then an FBS record) and pass completion percentage (.706), second in total offense (554.8 ypg) and third in scoring offense (43.9 ppg). OU also led the Big 12 by allowing just 1.6 sacks per game. Brown was the Big 12 Offensive Lineman of the Year.

• Coached a 2015 offensive line unit that featured first-team All-Big 12 honorees Ty Darlington and Nila Kasitati. Darlington also won the Campbell Trophy, Wuerffel Trophy and Bowden Award for his efforts on and off the field. OU started a pair of freshmen at the tackle positions, including left tackle Orlando Brown, who was named a Freshman All-American by the Sporting News. The line led the way for an offense that ranked No. 4 in scoring, No. 17 in passing and No. 22 in rushing.

• Sent three offensive linemen (Daryl Williams, Adam Shead and Tyrus Thompson) to the NFL Scouting Combine in 2015, a total topped by only two other FBS programs. Williams was a first-team All-Big 12 pick, while Shead and Thompson were second-team selections.

• Oklahoma led the nation in 2014 by permitting a mere 9.0 sacks.

• The Sooners led the Big 12 and ranked 10th in the nation in rushing in 2014. The 261.2 average was the highest produced during the Bob Stoops era.

• Running behind Bedenbaugh's blocking unit, freshman RB Samaje Perine led the Big 12 in rushing (131.8 ypg) in 2014 and set the FBS single-game rushing record with 427 yards vs. Kansas (11/22/14).

• OU's 223.9 ypg rushing average in 2013 was the second-best mark accumulated under Stoops and ranked second in the Big 12 as the Sooners topped the 200-yard rushing plateau eight times.

• Center Gabe Ikard captained the Oklahoma offense in 2013, earning consensus All-America honors. He also became the first OU player to win the prestigious Wuerffel Trophy.

• Helped coach a 2012 West Virginia offense that ranked fifth in the nation in pass efficiency (161.97), ninth in scoring (39.5 ppg), 10th in total offense (502.0 ypg) and 10th in passing offense (330.2 ypg).

• Thanks to the protection of his offensive front, the Mountaineers set single-season school records for total offense (6,526 yards in 2012) and passing yards (4,509) in 2011.

• In 2011, his line helped West Virginia average 37.6 ppg, while ranking sixth in the nation in passing (346.8 ypg).

• Was part of an Arizona offensive unit that led the Pac-10 and ranked ninth in the nation in passing (307.7 ypg) in 2010.

• Coordinated an Arizona rushing game that ranked second in the Pac-10 in 2008 (158.4 ypg) as the Wildcats averaged 402.4 ypg of total offense, the fifth-highest seasonal mark in school history.

• Part of an offensive staff that helped Texas Tech lead the Big 12 in total offense and rank sixth in the nation at 448.8 ypg in 2006. Texas Tech also ranked 13th among FBS teams in scoring at 32.5 ppg.

• Was named NCAA Division II Coordinator of the Year after helping lead Ferris State to a division-best 534 ypg in 1999.

• Began his collegiate coaching career at Oklahoma Pandhandle State in Goodwell, Okla. His wife, Maryde, is a native of Tahlequah, Okla.

Oklahoma Athletics Sports Medicine

The University of Oklahoma has a rich five-decade history of setting a standard for sports medicine care, a tradition that continues today.

Jim Hillis has worked with athletes at all levels of competition – USA Basketball, Pan American Games, the United States Olympic Center, college and high school. He is a past president, vice president and secretary of the Oklahoma Athletic Trainers Association Hall of Fame. Brock Schnebel, M.D., Head Team Physician for the 2000 United States Olympic Team, directs OU's physician staff. Don McGinnis, M.D., serves an Olympic Team assignment in addition to his responsibilities with the Oklahoma Athletics Department. Ted Boehm, M.D., completes the Sooners' primary physician staff.

The Sports Medicine Staff provides consistent service on a daily basis, which includes injury prevention and acute care, post-injury rehabilitation, X-ray, and physician assessment. Hillis, a Registered Physical Therapist and Certified/Licensed Athletic Trainer, coordinates all rehabilitation protocols.

The combination of the staff and facility provide the care that is vital to a championship program. OU's facility is equipped with HydroWorx aquatic therapy, isokinetic rehabilitation and testing equipment, along with cardiovascular and exercise equipment that offers the ability to manage the multi-level needs of OU's student-athletes.

STELLAR RECRUITING CONTINUES UNDER RILEY

Not taking over as Oklahoma's head coach until June 2017 didn't have a negative impact on Lincoln Riley's debut Sooners recruiting class. The first-year head man assembled a 23-member class that gave OU a second consecutive top-10 group nationally.

Of the 23 signees, 18 were ranked at least a four-star prospect on a five-star scale by recruiting services ESPN, 247Sports or Rivals. Four others were consensus three-star recruits, while kicker Gabe Brkic was rated as a five-star prospect by Kohl's Kicking.

"It's a great foundation of players from all over the country," said Riley. "We signed some very strong players out of our home state, which we're very proud of. Texas was again, and always will be, a big target for us. And we got several other guys from across the country. Great class. We hit a lot of the targets and needs that we had, and we're excited to get a lot of these guys in here."

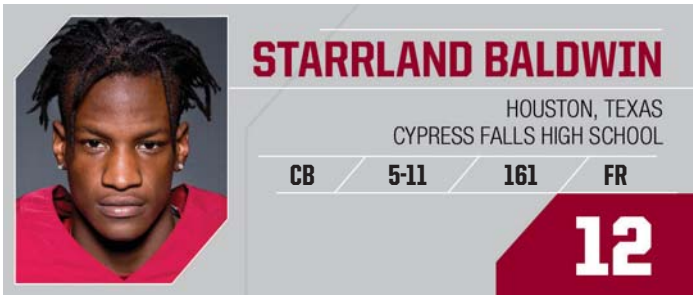

The state of Texas produced the most OU signees with eight, followed by Oklahoma (six), California, Florida, Missouri and Ohio (two each), and Tennessee (one).

The class is comprised of 13 defensive players, nine offensive players and a kicker. Four Sooners earned five-star status by at least one recruiting service. Defensive back Brendan Radley-Hiles is rated as a five-star prospect by Rivals, while defensive end Jalen Redmond and offensive tackle Brey Walker are regarded as five-star recruits by 247Sports, and Brkic by Kohl's.

Eight of the Sooners' signees enrolled at OU for the spring semester and participated in team activities. They are defensive backs Radley-Hiles, Starrland Baldwin, Miguel Edwards and Patrick Fields, receiver Jaquayln Crawford, defensive ends Redmond and Ronnie Perkins, and running back T.J. Pledger.

#7 OKLAHOMA	56

NORMAN — Oklahoma ushered in the Lincoln Riley era with a commanding 56-7 home win over UTEP. OU racked up 676 total yards of offense and eight different Sooners scored a touchdown.

Making his 27th straight start, quarterback Baker Mayfield opened the season by completing his first 16 passes – the most consecutive completions to start a game in program history. Only playing in the first half, Mayfield finished 19-for-20 through the air for 329 yards and three TDs. His passing yardage pushed Mayfield past Jason White (7,922) into third place on OU's career passing yards list (7,994).

Junior tight end Mark Andrews hauled in career highs of seven catches (one touchdown) and 134 yards while only playing the first half. Fourteen Sooners caught at least one pass, the same number who made at least one reception in all of 2016.

#5 OKLAHOMA	31
#2 OHIO STATE	16

COLUMBUS, Ohio — Baker Mayfield threw for 386 yards and three touchdowns as No. 5 Oklahoma pulled ahead in the second half to knock off No. 2 Ohio State 31-16 to give first-year head coach Lincoln Riley an early signature victory.

Mayfield lived up to his billing as a Heisman Trophy candidate in shifting the Sooners (2-0) into overdrive and piling up the yards in the second half as the Buckeyes' offense sputtered. Trailing 13-10 midway through the third quarter, OU scored 21 straight points to take command. It was the Buckeyes' largest margin of defeat at home since 1999. Mayfield completed 27-of-35 passes, including his last 14. OU's 490 yards were the most surrendered by OSU in 34 games and most in Columbus in five years.

ARLINGTON, Texas — Baker Mayfield threw four touchdowns and No. 2 Oklahoma staked claim to a playoff spot with a 41-17 win over No. 10 TCU in the return of the Big 12 Championship Game.

Oklahoma jumped out to a quick 17-0 lead thanks in part to Caleb Kelly's 18-yard fumble return for a touchdown on running back Kyle Hicks' turnover on the first offensive play by TCU.

Kenny Hill threw two TD passes to get the Horned Frogs within 24-17 at halftime, but Oklahoma scored twice on its first three offensive plays after the break.

Mayfield finished 15-of-23 passing for 243 yards and take game MVP honors. The first two touchdowns were to tight end Mark Andrews, and were followed by a 55-yard catch-and-run score by Mykel Jones and a 52-yard bomb to Marquise Brown for another TD.

The Sooners held TCU to 95 second-half yards on 24 plays (4.0 per snap).

GAME SUMMARY

This was the first Orange Bowl that featured two national powers as both teams were undefeated and untied. To lure the Sooners to Miami, the Orange Bowl director circled the Norman campus, leaving chalk messages that promoted the game. Tennessee's powerful ground attack was too much for the Sooners, winners of 14 straight, as the Volunteers raced to a 17-0 victory in the fifth annual Orange Bowl. The victory was the 13th straight for the Vols, who were coached by Major Bob Neyland. The game was considered to be the roughest of all bowl games played that year as both teams combined for more than 200 yards in penalties.

GAME SUMMARY

In a game that featured two of the marquee names in college football at the time, Oklahoma blasted North Carolina State, 34-13, before an overflowing crowd of 10,000 in the second annual Gator Bowl. The Sooners did not take long to get on the scoreboard, two minutes to be exact, on an Eddie Davis one-yard plunge. N.C. State roared back to even the score, but OU put the game out of reach by scoring 20 second-quarter points and coasted from there. The marquee matchup was made possible because of the Tournament of Roses committee decision to match representatives of the Western Athletic Conference (now the Pac-12) and the Big Nine, (now the Big Ten). This agreement made it possible for teams not waiting for a possible Rose Bowl berth to be picked by the Gator Bowl committee.

GAME SUMMARY

It was legendary Coach Bud Wilkinson's first bowl game as the fifth-ranked and underdog Sooners took on the third-ranked and unbeaten North Carolina Tar Heels accompanied by their All-America tailback Charlie "Choo Choo" Justice. Oklahoma upset the 'Heels with the big play coming in the first quarter as linebacker Myrle Greathouse intercepted a pass and returned it 70 yards to set up Jack Mitchell's one-yard run. The Sooners never trailed after that.

GAME SUMMARY

Bud Wilkinson's team was rated second in the nation and it was the first one of his squads to post an undefeated record, 10-0. The game was one-sided and still stands as the largest margin of victory in OU bowl history. One of the many Sooner big plays was Leon Heath's OU bowl record-breaking 86-yard TD run. The game was marred by an early-week incident where a former LSU player was caught spying on Sooner practices. It was the only time in Wilkinson's career that he publicly blasted an opponent.

OU lost a bowl-record five fumbles in falling behind 13-0. A fourth quarter 17-yard TD pass by Billy Vessels narrowed the margin, but a come-from-behind effort was foiled by an interception in the final minute of play.

It was the first game of the contract that pitted the Big Seven champion against the Atlantic Coast Conference champ. Maryland came into the game as the regular season national champion with OU rated fourth. Twice, the Terrapins had first down with the ball inside the 10-yard line, and both times the Sooner defense refused to allow any points on the scoreboard. Sooner tailback Larry Grigg scored the only TD of the game with a 25-yard scamper in the second period. The 1954 bowl game was the first bowl game in which the players had to play both ways. Sooner hero Grigg also played defensive back.

GAME SUMMARY

The 47-game winning streak had been broken earlier in the season, but the Sooners still came into the game ranked No. 4. Duke, the ACC winner, was unranked. Oklahoma got only six first downs, lost the total offense battle (328 yards to 279) and picked up an OU-bowl-record 165 yards in penalties, but used two interception returns for TDs, including an OU-bowl-record 94-yarder from David Baker, two fumble recoveries, a blocked punt and a bad snap from center to win going away. The 48 points marked an all-time OU bowl record that stood until matched by the '91 Gator Bowl team.

GAME SUMMARY

Waiving the "no repeat rule" because of a new bowl contract, the Sooners played in their second consecutive Orange Bowl, defeating the Syracuse Orangemen 21-6. Oklahoma was led by Prentice Gautt, who scored the game's first TD on the second play of the game with a 42-yard run. Gautt averaged an OU-bowl-record 15.7 yards every time he touched the ball. It was the Sooners' fourth straight Orange Bowl victory. OU ended the season ranked fifth in the nation, its only loss a one-pointer to Texas.

GAME SUMMARY

It was Bud Wilkinson's last bowl game. Paul "Bear" Bryant, coaching his alma mater, repeated his victory as the coach at Kentucky in the 1951 Sugar Bowl with a 17-0 triumph. LB Lee Roy Jordan, the MVP, and QB Joe Namath led the Crimson Tide to the victory. The Sooners had first and goal twice in the first half, but fumbles ended OU's chances and the Sooners never really threatened again. The lone highlight for Oklahoma was a visit by President John F. Kennedy to the Sooners' locker room. Although President Kennedy claimed neutrality, it was obvious by the grimace on his face he was backing OU.

Four Oklahoma players had been found ineligible the night before the game because they had signed pro contracts which was in violation of NCAA rules. FSU wide receiver Fred Biletnikoff finished the game with 13 receptions for 192 yards and four TDs.

Tennessee came back to narrow the Sooner lead to 19-17 before Oklahoma defensive back Bob Stephenson picked off a pass and raced 24 yards to give OU an all important insurance TD. The Sooners desperately needed the insurance when Dewey Warren plowed in from a yard out. The Vols then missed a potential game-winning field goal as the gun went off.

OU, without injured QB Bob Warmack, narrowed the margin to one on a pass from Mickey Ripley to Johnny Barr, but missed a two-point conversion that would have put it ahead. The Sooners had one last chance after recovering an onside kick, but a field goal attempt from inside the SMU 30-yard line went wide as time expired.

The emergence of the wishbone and Greg Pruitt were late-season developments that propelled OU to four wins in its last five games and a postseason invitation. The Sooners had switched to the wishbone, and they were running it to perfection by the time the bowl game rolled around. The "bone" produced 349 yards rushing and touchdown runs of 58 and 25 yards by All-American Greg Pruitt, but the Sooners still needed a late field goal by Bruce Derr to forge the tie with the Crimson Tide.

The Sooners roared to a 31-0 halftime lead and amassed 439 yards rushing by game's end to set Oklahoma and Sugar Bowl records. QB Jack Mildren, playing in the final game of his brilliant college career, scored a Sugar Bowl-record three times. OU finished second in the polls to Nebraska with another Big Eight team, Colorado, finishing third.

The Sooner defense posted a shutout while allowing only 11 first downs and 49 yards rushing the entire game. It was the first year that freshmen were eligible and Sooner wide receiver Tinker Owens celebrated with five catches, good for 132 yards and one touchdown. It was also the last game for Sooner head coach Chuck Fairbanks who left for the NFL the following spring.

Ohio State, the No. 1-ranked team in the country, had lost in the Rose Bowl earlier in the afternoon. The upset gave the Sooners an opportunity to win the national championship if they could beat the Michigan Wolverines coached by Bo Schembechler. A 39-yard end around by Billy Brooks and a nine-yard keeper by Steve Davis were enough for a 14-6 victory and a fifth national championship.

Called by Barry Switzer, "the most disappointing loss of my career," OU was a victim of one of the biggest upsets in bowl history. When Notre Dame downed Texas in the Cotton Bowl, OU was in the running for a national championship. A big win over Arkansas might impress the voters and secure the crown for the Sooners. As a result, Switzer went against his own strategy by choosing to receive the opening kickoff rather than play defense. OU fumbled inside its own 10 on the third play of the game and Arkansas immediately scored for a lead it never relinquished.

GAME SUMMARY

A truly amazing turn of events produced a rematch after Nebraska's victory in November. The Sooners, ranked No. 1 with one loss, had lost a heartbreaker to the Cornhuskers, 17-14, on a late fumble at the NU three-yard line. When the Huskers were upset the following week by Missouri, producing a Big Eight Championship tie, the Orange Bowl officials came up with the idea of a rematch, much to the Sooners' joy and the Huskers' shock. It went as predicted: an Oklahoma victory.

The Big Eight Champion Sooners met an undefeated Florida State team on New Year's night. After the Seminoles took a 7-0 first-quarter lead, OU unleashed 17 second-quarter points to take the lead for good. J.C. Watts was named Orange Bowl MVP on offense. He scored on a 61-yard option play and rushed for more than 100 yards. Bud Hebert, who recorded three interceptions, earned the award on defense. Billy Sims wrapped up his brilliant collegiate career scoring on a 22-yard pitch from Watts. Oklahoma finished third in the country and won the Orange Bowl for the third time in five tries under Switzer. The Seminoles crossed midfield only two times after the first quarter and never passed the 35-yard line.

GAME SUMMARY

This contest featured a rematch with a great deal more excitement as OU turned to a foreign weapon, the pass, to notch its third straight Orange Bowl win. QB J.C. Watts was chosen MVP and with good reason. The Seminoles used a fourth-quarter TD to break a 10-10 tie and seemingly gain control. OU was forced to start deep in its own territory after the kickoff with little time left. Watts went to work and passed the Sooners to the 11-yard line where he hit Steve Rhodes with a TD strike to pull the Sooners to within one with less than a minute to go. Watts then proceeded to hit tight end Forrest Valora for the two-point conversion that gave the Sooners their ninth Orange Bowl victory, including three in the last four years. Oklahoma finished ranked No. 3 in the nation.

GAME SUMMARY

Brigham Young was No. 1 in the polls, but Sooner head coach Barry Switzer had argued that the Sooners should be No. 1 because of a tougher schedule. A win over a fine Husky team would solidify that claim. However, Washington refused to cooperate and turned a 17-14 fourth quarter deficit into a 28-17 triumph. The game was marked by a bizarre incident when, after thinking an Oklahoma field goal was good, the Sooner Schooner raced onto the field as called for by tradition. A penalty negated the field goal, but the Schooner became stuck in the muddy field in front of UW's bench, resulting in a 15-yard penalty. The following 42-yard try was no good.

Butkus Award winner Brian Bosworth had 13 solo tackles and the Oklahoma secondary picked off four Penn State passes to thwart any rallies. Tim Lashar booted an Orange Bowl record four field goals to give the Sooners an early lead. Lydell Carr and Keith Jackson then provided big plays, a 61-yard jaunt by Carr and a 71-yard pass play from Jamelle Holieway to Jackson.

The Sooner offense, which led the nation in six categories, was held to only 179 rushing yards and 255 overall. Late in the fourth quarter, the Sooners scored on a 29-yard fumblerooski which gave the Oklahoma faithful a flicker of hope. The Hurricane defenders blew it out when they sacked quarterback Charles Thompson and caused a fumble to ensure the victory.

On the Sooners' last possession, OU took the ball over on its own 20 with 2:59 left on the clock. QB Jamelle Holieway, playing in his final game, scampered 11 yards on a fourth down to keep the drive alive. Holieway then completed passes of five, seven, four, 12, seven, 12 and 13 yards, to get OU inside the Tiger 14 with 12 seconds remaining. Two desperation heaves by Holieway dropped incomplete to end all Oklahoma hopes.

GAME SUMMARY

Top-ranked Oklahoma used a smothering defense to shut down the third-ranked Seminoles and Josh Heupel generated enough offense to lead OU to a perfect season. As the nation's only unbeaten team, the Sooners were the unanimous winners of the AP media poll. They were automatically crowned national champions in the coaches' poll under the Bowl Championship Series format. Led by Orange Bowl MVP Torrance Marshall, the Sooners time and again forced Florida State's Chris Weinke into bad decisions. Tim Duncan kicked two field goals and Quentin Griffin scored the clinching touchdown on a 10-yard run up the middle with 8:30 to play. Florida State avoided its first shutout in 12 seasons when Stanford Samuels tackled OU punter Jeff Ferguson in the end zone for a safety with 55 seconds remaining.

GAME SUMMARY

Arkansas' defense played well, but few will remember. Oklahoma's defense was that much better. The final statistics were as chilling and stark as the weather. The Razorbacks, who reached OU territory just two times the entire game, could muster only 13 passing yards on two completions while their rushing attempts (42) outnumbered their rushing yards (37). Sooner defenders tied a school and Cotton Bowl record with a whopping nine sacks. Late in the first quarter, Oklahoma set sail on a 13-play, 63-yard scoring drive that culminated in a one-yard sneak by quarterback Nate Hybl. Along the way, the Sooners converted two third downs and one fourth. The resulting touchdown and PAT made the rest of the afternoon academic. OU added a 32-yard field goal by Tim Duncan in the third frame to build a 10-0 advantage that felt like twice that given the play of the defense. Arkansas, aided by penalties, finally scratched out a field goal, but no serious threat to the outcome was ever mounted.

GAME SUMMARY

Riding its defense, LSU won the BCS title, 21-14. Oklahoma entered the game as the nation's top scoring offense, but struggled against the Tigers. The OU defense gave a good account too, surrendering 64 of LSU's 312 total yards on a non-scoring run on the Tigers' first snap. Still, it was the LSU defenders who stole the show. DE Marcus Spears returned an interception 20 yards for a TD on the first series of the second half and seemingly opened the floodgates. But OU stiffened and got its running game untracked. After pulling within seven at 21-14, the Sooners made another push to the LSU 12, but missed on four straight pass attempts, the last one with just 2:46 left. The crowd was the largest ever to see a sporting event in the Louisiana Superdome.

HEISMAN TROPHY WINNERS

1952 • HEISMAN TROPHY WINNER • BILLY VESSELS

Billy "Curly" Vessels was the man who started it all. The first Sooner to win college football's most prestigious individual achievement award, Vessels led the Sooners to a 26-4-1 record during his tenure.

The 1950 Sooners, under the direction of head coach Bud Wilkinson, went 10-1 to give the Sooners their first of seven national championships. As a sophomore, Vessels started on the 1950 squad, scoring 15 touchdowns.

But Vessels' most successful individual season came during his senior campaign when he won the Heisman Trophy. Vessels rushed for 1,072 yards on 167 carries and scored 17 touchdowns.

Creating a new meaning for the word "versatile," the Cleveland, Okla., slasher was part of every phase of the Sooner offensive attack. Vessels was even a threat from above. "Curly" connected on seven passes for two touchdowns in 1952.

The 1952 Sooners went 8-1-1, finishing fourth in the nation, and won Oklahoma's ninth conference title. OU opened with a 21-21 tie against Colorado and then reeled off five straight wins, averaging 46 points a game. OU dropped a 27-21 decision to Notre Dame and then finished strong by sweeping the last three games.

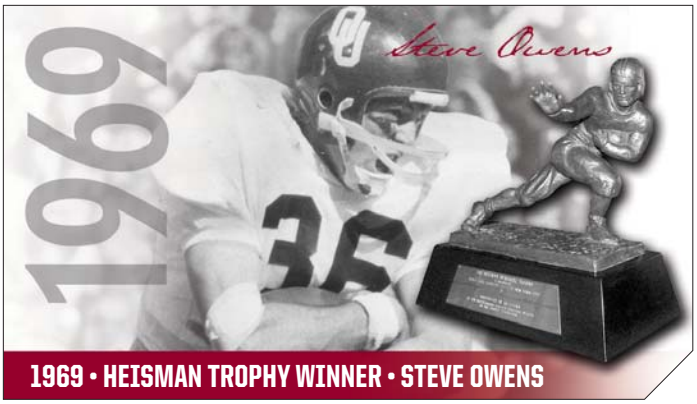

In 1953, Vessels turned pro for the Edmonton Eskimos and won the Schenley Award as the top player in Canada. He then served as an officer in the U.S. Army. Vessels was elected to the National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame in 1974.

1969 • HEISMAN TROPHY WINNER • STEVE OWENS

Oklahoma's Steve Owens was a 6-2, 215-pound powerhouse from Miami, Okla., who ravaged defenses from 1967-69, setting four conference records of the day.

OU's workhorse carried the ball 358 times in 1969 for 1,523 yards while scoring 23 touchdowns (another school record). Playing on a 1969 squad that had been hurt badly by graduation in 1968, Owens carried the load for the Sooner offense.

Owens had two 200-plus-yard games while leading the Sooners to a 6-4 season. Spurred by Owens' effort, Oklahoma averaged 28.5 points a game in 1969.

Owens' great career left a mark on the OU records book, and he still has several school standards to his credit. He is the school's all-time leading scorer with 57 career touchdowns, and he holds the records for the most carries in a game (55) and career (958). Owens finished his three-year career with 4,041 rushing yards, the fifth most in school history.

Detroit selected Owens in the NFL Draft first round. He was the first Lion to gain over 1,000 yards in a season and was an All-Pro selection in 1971 and 1972.

In 1991, Owens was named to the Oklahoma Sports Hall of Fame and was the Walter Camp Foundation Alumnus of the Year. Owens was inducted into the Orange Bowl Hall of Honor in 1992.

HEISMAN TROPHY WINNERS

1978 • HEISMAN TROPHY WINNER • BILLY SIMS

Billy Sims, a 6-0, 205-pound running back from Hooks, Texas, swept through defenses like a tornado flying across the Oklahoma landscape.

He set a Big Eight single-season rushing record in 1978 with 1,896 yards on 256 carries. Sims led the nation in rushing, averaging more than 7.0 yards per carry. He topped the 200-yard mark in a school-best four different games during the 1978 season.

Sims led the Sooners to an 11-1 record, Orange Bowl championship and third-place finish in the final poll. OU opened with a 35-29 win over Stanford and then crushed West Virginia and Rice by a combined score of 118-17.

The Sooners rolled over Texas and the first five games of the conference schedule heading into the Nebraska game. Sims ran for 153 yards, but it was not enough as the Sooners fell, 17-14.

OU responded by clubbing Oklahoma State 62-7 and was rematched with the Cornhuskers in the Orange Bowl. The Sooners edged Nebraska 31-24 in the second meeting between the top-10 schools.

Sims ranks first in the OU records book for 200-yard rushing games in a season (4) and a career (7), and ranks second in rushing yards in a season (1,896). He was first on OU's all-time rushing list with 4,118 yards until Samaje Perine (4,122) passed him in 2016.

2003 • HEISMAN TROPHY WINNER • JASON WHITE

OU quarterback Jason White became the trigger man for the country's most potent offensive attack in 2003. At a school where the points have flowed like an Oklahoma gusher, White led the OU team that outscored all of its predecessors (601 total points).

He did so with uncanny accuracy, especially on deep throws, and a touchdown to interception ratio (four to one) so gaudy that it read like a typographical error.

White set school records for touchdown passes in a season (40) and game (5, twice). His season passing total ranked No. 2 at OU. He was No. 4 nationally in touchdown percentage (8.87), No. 7 in passing efficiency (158.11), No. 18 in interception percentage (2.22) and No. 22 in total offense (264.0).

The outpouring of recognition was impressive. White captured player of the year honors from the Associated Press, Sports Illustrated, The Sporting News and CNNSI.com. He also won the Davey O'Brien Award and the Jim Thorpe Courage Award.

White returned for another season after his Heisman campaign and finished third in the voting. It was an unprecedented finish by one school when his teammate Adrian Peterson finished second.

HEISMAN TROPHY WINNERS

2008 • HEISMAN TROPHY WINNER • SAM BRADFORD

As the leader of the most potent and highest scoring offense in NCAA history (716 points), Sam Bradford rewrote the Oklahoma record books on a continual basis throughout the 2008 season while lighting up scoreboards.

Known for his poise in the pocket and pinpoint accuracy, Bradford posted one of best ever touchdown-to-interception ratios, 6.25-to-1, in the history of college football.

When the dust had settled on the 2008 season, Bradford led the nation in passing efficiency and touchdowns, was No. 3 nationally in passing yards, set the Oklahoma season records for yards, touchdowns, passing efficiency, 200-yard games, 300-yard games, and 400-yard games, along with breaking the career record for TD passes.

Bradford threw for at least four touchdown passes in eight games, tossing five scoring strikes in four different games. In addition, Bradford surpassed Florida's Rex Grossman with the most touchdowns through the freshman and sophomore years with 82.

In one of the closest Heisman races in recent history, Bradford held off fellow quarterbacks Colt McCoy and Tim Tebow to become the fifth winner in program history.

Bradford also brought home the Associated Press Player of the Year, Davey O'Brien, Sammy Baugh and Chic Harley awards while being named the Big 12 Offensive Player of the Year by the league coaches. The AP and The Sporting News named Bradford a first-team All-American.

2017 • HEISMAN TROPHY WINNER • BAKER MAYFIELD

Baker Mayfield arrived at Oklahoma unannounced as a walk-on. He left as the most decorated player in program history.

The quarterback, who grew up an OU fan in Austin, Texas, finished his career with a season for the ages in 2017, leading the Sooners to their third straight Big 12 title and a second College Football Playoff appearance in three years, while being named Big 12 Offensive Player of the Year, a unanimous All-American and OU's sixth Heisman Trophy winner.

Mayfield led the FBS in completion percentage in 2017 (.705), points responsible for (296) and yards per pass attempt (11.5), and broke his own FBS single-season record for passing efficiency rating (198.9). He also set the OU single-season record for total offense (4,938 yards) and finished second in school single-season history in completion percentage and touchdown passes (43). All told, he accounted for 49 TDs and just six turnovers.

The landslide Heisman winner did all he could to cement the honor in a Nov. 4 contest at Oklahoma State in which he set OU records with 598 passing yards (387 in the first half to also set an OU standard) and 589 yards of total offense in a 62-52 win. He was 24 of 36 through the air, threw for five touchdowns and ran for a score.

Setting a league record by being named Big 12 Offensive Player of the Week four times in one season, Mayfield also won the 2017 Maxwell Award, Davey O'Brien Award, Manning Award, Earl Campbell Tyler Rose Award and Walter Camp Player of the Year Award. He was also named AP and Sporting News Player of the Year, and went on to become the No. 1 overall pick in the 2018 NFL Draft.

FIRST-TEAM ALL-AMERICANS

FIRST-TEAM ALL-AMERICANS (SINCE 2000)

Oklahoma players have earned first-team All-America honors 41 times since 2000. The total includes 21 players from the offense, 18 players on defense and two from the special teams. Showing versatility, players at OU the last 18 years have earned All-America honors at 14 different positions. During that span, 21 Sooners have been named consensus All-Americans on 26 occasions.

2017 • MARK ANDREWS • TE

Mark Andrews excelled as a freshman and was even better as a sophomore. And he dominated as a junior en route to becoming a unanimous first-team All-American and Oklahoma's first recipient of the Mackey Award (nation's top tight end) before leaving early for the NFL Draft.

Helping the Sooners to the College Football Playoff his first and last years in Norman, the big and athletic Andrews led OU with 62 catches and eight touchdown receptions as a junior. He was a nightmare to cover for both slower linebackers and smaller defensive backs, and he finished his career as OU's all-time leader in receiving yards among tight ends (1,765) while ranking sixth among all Sooners in touchdown catches (22).

The three-time Academic All-Big 12 honoree, who battled type 1 diabetes and monitored his blood sugar levels several times each game, excelled after the catch and scored a touchdown on 20 percent of his career receptions (22 of 112).

2017 • ORLANDO BROWN • OT

He only played three years at Oklahoma, but Orlando Brown was one of the most effective — and decorated — offensive linemen in school history. Known for his ultra-competitive nature and nasty demeanor on the field, he showcased an ability to shut down bull-rushes in pass protection and be a mauler in the run game.

Brown started at left tackle in all 40 of the Sooners' games from 2015 through 2017, and was the 2016 and '17 Big 12 Offensive Lineman of the Year. He was a Sporting News freshman All-American in 2015, an AP and FWAA second-team All-American in 2016, and a unanimous All-American and Outland Trophy finalist in 2017.

Protecting quarterback Baker Mayfield's blind side, it's no surprise the Sooners won Big 12 Championships each of their three years together and made a pair of College Football Playoff appearances.

2015 & 2017 • BAKER MAYFIELD • QB

From walk-on transfer to All-American to Heisman Trophy winner to No. 1 pick in the NFL Draft, Baker Mayfield was a revelation for Oklahoma in 2015 and simply got better with each season thereafter. He directed the Sooners to three consecutive Big 12 titles and the program's first two College Football Playoff appearances, and as a result left Norman as the most decorated player in program history.

With his gunslinger mentality and catch-me-if-you-can scrambling ability, Mayfield registered 4,105 total yards and 43 total touchdowns in his first year at OU, and was named Sporting News Player of the Year and a first-team All-American from Sporting News and the Walter Camp Football Foundation.

Statistically he was even better in 2016 when he accounted for 4,142 yards and 46 more scores in leading OU to a second straight Big 12 title and a Sugar Bowl win. A Heisman finalist, he also set the FBS single-season passing efficiency record with a 196.4 rating.

And in 2017, Mayfield led the FBS in completion percentage (.705), points responsible for (296) and yards per pass attempt (11.5), and broke his own FBS single-season record for passing efficiency rating (198.9). He also set the OU single-season record for total offense (4,938 yards). All told that year, he accounted for 49 TDs and just six turnovers as he earned his second Big 12 Offensive Player of the Year award and was a unanimous All-American.

2017 • OGBONNIA OKORONKWO • LB/DE

Ogbonnia Okoronkwo's career at Oklahoma didn't start with a bang, but boy did it end with one. The defensive end/outside linebacker totaled just 17 tackles over his first two seasons. Then over his junior and senior campaigns he racked up 147, and spent ample time in opponent backfields.

An elite pass rusher who could beat offensive tackles with his speed on the edge but also had the power to win inside, Okoronkwo registered 17.0 sacks and 29.5 tackles for loss as a junior and senior to help the Sooners to a 23-4 record during that time.

Okoronkwo, whose parents emigrated from Nigeria, finished his career with 21.0 sacks to rank second in school history among linebackers, and in 2017 registered 8.0 sacks and 17.5 TFLs to earn first-team All-America honors by the Walter Camp Football Foundation and be named Co-Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year.

FIRST-TEAM ALL-AMERICANS

2016 • DEDE WESTBROOK • WR

Dede Westbrook did things in 2016 no Oklahoma receiver had ever done, and as a result became the Sooners' first unanimous All-American since 2004.

OU's first winner of the Biletnikoff Award and one of five Heisman Trophy finalists (he finished fourth), Westbrook set a single-season school record with his 17 receiving TDs as a senior, all of them coming in the final 10 games. They averaged a stunning 46.3 yards. His 12 TDs of at least 40 yards were the most in a season by an FBS player since at least 1996, and he recorded at least 100 receiving yards in eight of OU's nine Big 12 games (88 in the other).

Westbrook, who registered four straight games of multiple touchdowns to start October, led all Power 5 players in receiving yards (1,524) and receiving TDs per game (1.31) on the year. His 17 receiving scores over the last 10 games were more than 43 teams had the entire season. He averaged 145.7 receiving yards in Big 12 play, 50.0 more than the next closest player.

2015 • ERIC STRIKER • LB

The unquestioned heartbeat of the team, Eric Striker led the Sooners both on and off the field during his four years in Norman. The outspoken linebacker used his relentless motor and lightning-quick first step to rack up 23.0 career sacks, the most ever by an OU linebacker, 7.5 of which came in his senior season. Striker also logged 19.0 tackles for loss in leading OU's much improved defense to the 2015 Big 12 championship and a berth in the College Football Playoff.

Striker was named the winner of the 2015 Bob Kalsu Award, given annually to the Sooner who personifies Oklahoma legend Bob Kalsu's spirit of leadership and serving as a motivator and role model for his teammates. He took home All-America honors from Sporting News and Sports Illustrated and was also named first-team All-Big 12 by the league's coaches, AP and ESPN.com.

OU'S CONSENSUS AND UNANIMOUS ALL-AMERICANS

• Oklahoma has produced 80 consensus All-Americans, a number that trails only Yale (100; all before 1945), Notre Dame (99), Harvard (88; all before 1942), Ohio State (83), Michigan (81) and USC (81).

• According to the NCAA Records Book, to be named a consensus All-American, a player has to be listed on the first team for more than half the All-America teams used in the compilation. If no player meets this criterion at a position, a player can be selected if named first team on at least two of the All-America teams. Second and third teams are used to break ties. In the case of a true tie, all players are listed. Since 2002, the following organizations have been used to compile the consensus team: American Football Coaches Association, Associated Press, Football Writers Association of America, Sporting News and Walter Camp Foundation.

• OU has produced more unanimous All-Americans than any other program. The Sooners lead the way with 35 such honorees, two more than second-place Notre Dame and Ohio State. Next are Alabama (32), USC (27) and Michigan (26). Unanimous All-Americans are those who earn first-team All-America status by every official selector (American Football Coaches Association, Associated Press, Football Writers Association of America, Sporting News and Walter Camp Foundation since 2002).

• In 2017, OU became the first program to produce three unanimous All-Americans on offense in one season: tight end Mark Andrews, tackle Orlando Brown and quarterback Baker Mayfield.

FIRST-TEAM ALL-AMERICANS

2013 • GABE IKARD • C

This Oklahoma City native always dreamed of starring for the Sooners. Originally recruited as a tight end, he cracked the lineup at left guard as a redshirt freshman before eventually finding his home at center as a sophomore in 2011. Ikard would start 50 games during his OU tenure, including 32 games at center.

A two-time team captain, Ikard anchored a blocking unit that helped pave the way for a rushing offense that averaged 223.9 ypg in 2013, the best total of the Stoops era. During his four-year tenure, Oklahoma won two Big 12 titles and a pair of BCS bowl games while registering 43 victories, the best total of any Big 12 team over that span.

The inaugural OU player to win both the Wuerffel Trophy and the Selmon Spirit Award, Ikard was also named a Capital One Academic All-American of the Year as a finalist for the Campbell Trophy.

2010 & 2011 • RYAN BROYLES • WR

A hometown product from Norman, Ryan Broyles rewrote the receiving section of the Oklahoma record books in his career. When the dust had settled on the season, Broyles held eight of the nine major receiving records in Oklahoma history, spanning from game records to career standards.

As a junior, he became just the third NCAA statistical champion in Oklahoma history as he led the nation with 9.36 receptions per game. He was also tops in total receptions with 131, 20 more than the next closest player.

Broyles' senior year saw the local receiver change the NCAA record books as he became the all-time receptions leader in college football history with his 349th reception, fittingly on a 57-yard touchdown play at Kansas.

2010 • QUINTON CARTER • S

One of the nicest guys off the field, Quinton Carter was anything but friendly on the field to opposing offensive players. The safety from Las Vegas was known for his ability to patrol passing lanes while delivering punishing hits to ballcarriers.

As much as he was known on the field, Carter was also well known off the field and in the community. Having started a foundation during his collegiate playing career, Carter was awarded the Wooden Citizenship Cup and was named to the American Football Coaches Association 11-member Good Works Team.

Despite only starting for two seasons, Carter is one of just two defensive backs in Oklahoma history with two seasons of at least 88 tackles and the only player to accomplish the feat in back-to-back seasons.

2009 • TRENT WILLIAMS • OT

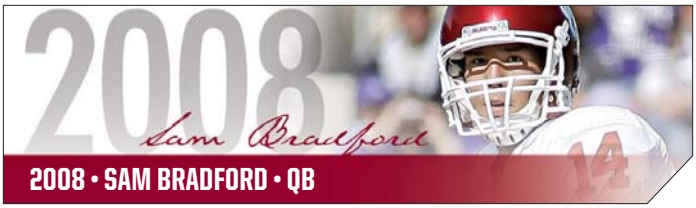

A consensus All-American in 2009, Trent Williams earned the reputation as one of the most versatile offensive linemen to play on Owen Field.

Named to the All-American First Team by the Associated Press, American Football Coaches Association and the Walter Camp Foundation and first-team All-Big 12 by six organizations, Williams was the ringleader of the OU offensive line in 2009.

After starting at right tackle for the better part of his first three collegiate years, Williams slid across the line his final year to protect the blind side of Sam Bradford and Landry Jones.

When injuries left the Sooners with no available centers in the Sun Bowl against Stanford, Williams answered the call in the middle as the Oklahoma offensive line gave up no sacks in a win against the Cardinal.

FIRST-TEAM ALL-AMERICANS

2008 • SAM BRADFORD • QB

As the leader of the most potent and highest-scoring offense in NCAA history (716 points), Sam Bradford rewrote the Oklahoma record books on a continual basis throughout the 2008 season while lighting up scoreboards like an employee of General Electric.

Known for his poise in the pocket and pinpoint accuracy, Bradford posted one of best ever touchdown-to-interception ratios (6.25-to-1) in the history of college football.

When the dust had settled on the 2008 season, Bradford led the nation in passing efficiency and touchdowns, was No. 3 nationally in passing yards, set the OU season records for yards, touchdowns, passing efficiency, 200-yard games, 300-yard games and 400-yard games, along with breaking the career record for TD passes.

2008 • JERMAINE GRESHAM • TE

The first tight end to earn All-America honors under Bob Stoops, Jermaine Gresham turned in a record-setting season in 2008 when he was a finalist for the Mackey Award and a member of The Sporting News All-America team.

A matchup nightmare for opposing defensive coordinators, Gresham had more TDs (14) and receiving yards (950) in a season than any other tight end in OU history.

Named first team All-Big 12 by the conference coaches, Gresham exceeded 90 yards in five games and five receptions in eight games. When the team needed it the most, Gresham performed, racking up 25 catches, 302 yards and four touchdowns in the final three games of the season.

2008 & 2009 • GERALD McCOY • DT

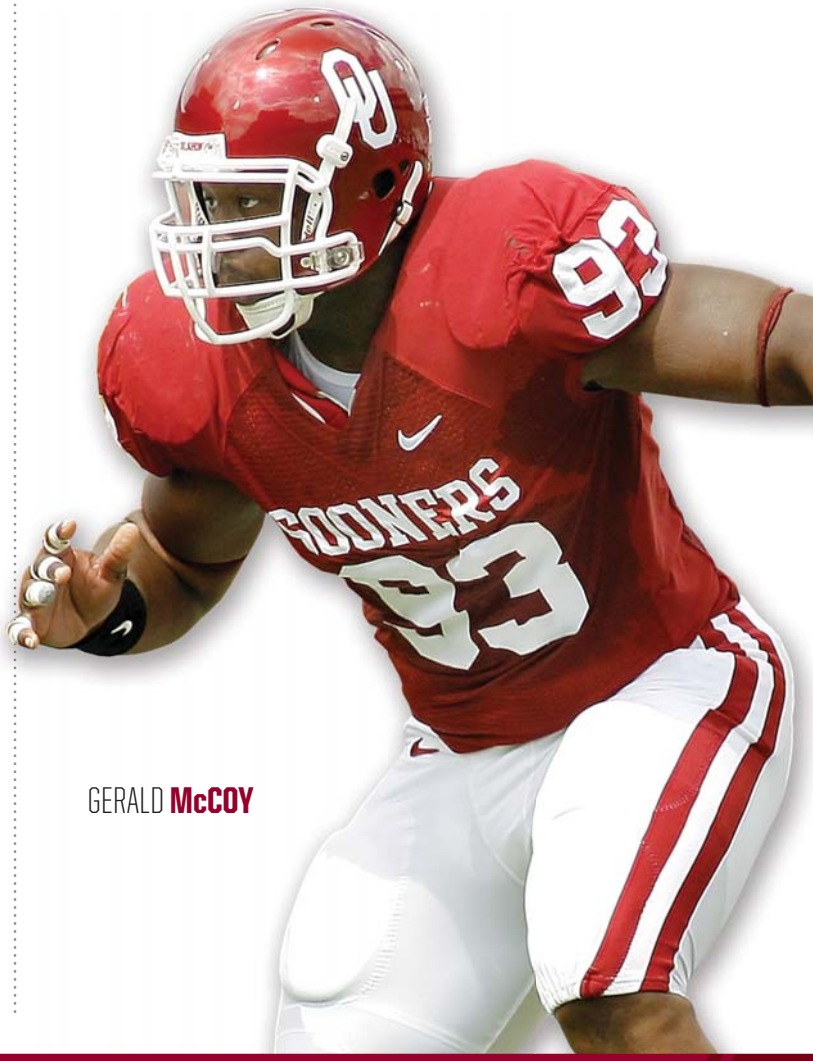

With the habit of collapsing the opposing team's pocket attacking through the interior of the line, it was no surprise that Gerald McCoy was named an All-American in 2008 by both The Sporting News and Sports Illustrated.

One year later the Oklahoma City native followed up the performance by becoming Oklahoma's latest consensus All-American and the 35th two-time All-American in OU history.

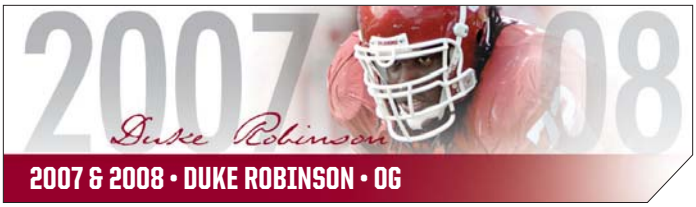

Both years saw McCoy as the top anchor of the Sooners' defensive tackle rotation, leading the group and finishing second on the team each year in sacks.

McCoy's presence was never more felt than in the 2009 FedEx BCS National Championship game where he constantly harassed the Florida offense while grabbing his first career interception.

FIRST-TEAM ALL-AMERICANS

2007 & 2008 • DUKE ROBINSON • OG

A consensus All-American in both 2007 and 2008, Duke Robinson built a reputation as one of the best offensive linemen to pass through Norman.

A 2008 Outland Award finalist, Robinson became a two-time consensus All-American by being named a first-team member to four All-America teams (Associated Press, Football Writers Association of America, The Sporting News and the Walter Camp Foundation) and earned first-team All-Big 12 honors from five outlets.

Robinson was a first-team member of four All-America teams in 2007 (AP, American Football Coaches' Association, The Sporting News and Sports Illustrated), and earned first-team All-Big 12 honors from eight different outlets.

The Atlanta, Ga., native took to the field early, playing in 10 games as a true freshman. From blowing open holes for Adrian Peterson to giving Sam Bradford time in the pocket, the versatile Robinson proved his worth as a member of three consecutive Big 12 Championship teams.

2007 • CURTIS LOFTON • LB

For a definition of a breakout season, see Curtis Lofton, 2007.

In his first season atop the depth chart, the junior from Kingfisher, Okla., put together one of the top seasons ever for an Oklahoma linebacker and was rewarded with a consensus All-American tag.

Lofton led Oklahoma with 156 tackles, sixth-best in program history, and established a school record with nine double-digit tackles including a career-high 18 tackles in the team's first meeting against Missouri.

The 2007 Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year, Lofton had a knack for forcing critical turnovers against big time opponents, never more evident than his interception of Missouri's Chase Daniel in the Big 12 Championship.

The one season of stardom paid off for Lofton, as the linebacker was OU's first selection in the 2008 NFL Draft, going in the third round to the Atlanta Falcons.

2006 • RUFUS ALEXANDER • LB

Linebacker Rufus Alexander was named first team All-America by the American Football Coaches' Association at the conclusion of the 2006 season.

The Baton Rouge, La., native led the Sooner defense in 2006 with 118 tackles (75 solo), including 12 for loss (-43 yards). Alexander was also credited with 3.5 quarterback sacks, four forced fumbles (two recoveries) and an interception.

Alexander had 36 starts in his career, including every game of the 2006 and 2005 seasons. He played in 39 total games for the Sooners from 2003-06 after redshirting in 2002. The 2006 Big 12 Conference Defensive Player of the Year, Alexander became the first OU player to lead the team in tackles in back-to-back seasons since Rocky Calmus did so in three consecutive seasons from 1999-2001.

2004 • ADRIAN PETERSON • RB

Adrian Peterson set an NCAA freshman rushing record for most rushing yards with the third-highest figure in the nation for the season. He also eclipsed the OU standard for most rushing yards in a season.

Peterson had what was then the highest finish ever by a freshman in the Heisman voting (second) and was the first freshman to be named a finalist for the Doak Walker Award. He was a consensus All-American.

Peterson broke three NCAA freshman rushing records: most consecutive 100-yard rushing games (9), most total 100-yard rushing games (11) and most rushing attempts by a freshman with 314.

FIRST-TEAM ALL-AMERICANS

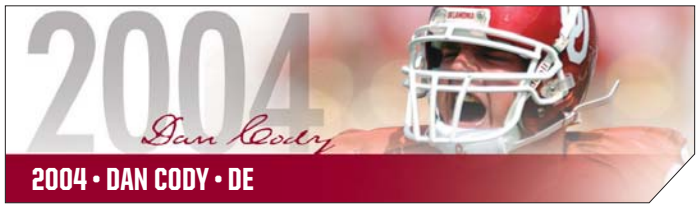

2004 • VINCE CARTER • C

A two-time finalist for the Rimington Award as the nation's top center, Vince Carter was a four-year fixture at Oklahoma. He was rewarded as a senior when he was named to the prestigious Walter Camp All-America team.

The Waco, Texas, native stepped in as a freshman when Josh Smith went out with an injury in 2001 and went on to start at center for the Sooners for four seasons.

He earned first-team All-Big 12 Conference honors in 2003 and 2004.

As a senior in 2004, Carter helped pave the way for running back Adrian Peterson and protected quarterback Jason White — both Heisman Trophy finalists — as the Sooners completed a second consecutive undefeated regular season and won the 2004 Big 12 Conference Championship.

2004 • DAN CODY • DE

Dan Cody was so destructive as a senior that OU coaches devised a special position for him. Cody, at times, stood up from his defensive end spot to play a spinner role. In that capacity, he roamed the defensive front and menaced opposing offenses. At season's end, he had the top sack total in the Big 12 with 10 and a spot on the FWAA's All-America team. Cody was a two-time finalist for the Hendricks Award who was noted for his all-out effort.

2003 & 2004 • JAMMAL BROWN • OT

A dominating senior season led to Jammal Brown earning Oklahoma's fourth Outland Trophy. He followed that up as a first-round pick (No. 13) by the New Orleans Saints.

He did not allow a sack or hurry during the regular season while logging a team-best 130 knockdown blocks. At season's end Brown was a consensus All-American.

As a junior, Brown had the highest line grade in a year when the offense had one of the most productive seasons in school history. The performance landed the Lawton native on the American Football Coaches Association's first team All-America squad.

Brown had 127 knockdowns and ran his string of consecutive starts to 28 during the season.

2003 & 2004 • MARK CLAYTON • WR

Noted as one of the great stories of progress in OU history, Mark Clayton went from struggling to bench press 135 pounds in his first workout to twice being named an All-American. By the time his career was over, he held virtually every Sooner receiving record and was widely regarded as the best to ever play the position at the school.

After a wildly successful junior year, Clayton's numbers dipped somewhat as a senior, but that was attributable to an improved running game and a deeper receiving corps. He still led OU in receptions and yards and was named to the AFCA All-America team. Moreover, when punt returner Antonio Perkins was injured, Clayton added that role and took back one for a touchdown at Oklahoma State. As a junior, Clayton built a reputation as perhaps the most elusive receiver in the nation with 533 yards after catch. He set OU standards with 83 receptions for 1,425 yards and broke the school mark for receiving yards in a game with 190 against Texas.

FIRST-TEAM ALL-AMERICANS

2003 • DERRICK STRAIT • CB

Derrick Strait duplicated former OU great Roy Williams by winning the Nagurski (best defensive player) and Thorpe (best defensive back) Awards in 2003. Strait earned consensus All-American and All-Big 12 honors as a senior. He was named AP Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year.

Strait set school records for starts (53), career interception return yards (397) and passes broken up (53). The Austin native ignited Oklahoma's 65-13 win over Texas in 2003 with a season-high 11 tackles, an interception, a 30-yard return, two fumble recoveries and three pass deflections against the Longhorns. Strait was a Thorpe Award semifinalist and consensus first team All-Big 12 selection in 2002.

He started every game at corner and tied for the OU lead with six interceptions. He contributed immediately as a redshirt freshman and was named Big 12 Conference Defensive Newcomer of the Year in OU's 2000 national championship season.

2003 • ANTONIO PERKINS • RS

Antonio Perkins became the nation's most feared punt returner by re-writing the NCAA record book during his junior season. He set an NCAA mark with four returns for touchdowns on the season, including an NCAA record three against UCLA.

He also set an NCAA mark with 277 punt return yards against the Bruins. His other touchdown return, which tied the NCAA career mark at seven, came against Missouri. The returns were spectacular too, with lengths of 84, 74 and 65 against UCLA and 65 against Missouri.

Perkins, who also started every game at cornerback and had two interceptions on the season, finished No. 20 in the nation in return average, but that figure was diluted by the fact that his 53 attempts out-distanced the rest of the country's returners by at least eight.

2003 • JASON WHITE • QB

From two reconstructive knee surgeries in successive years to consensus All-American. That was the out-of-the-blue story for Jason White, who wasn't even announced as the team's starter until the summer before the 2003 season. He posted mind-boggling numbers, the most impressive of which were the 40 touchdowns and just 10 interceptions.

White proved particularly adept at completing the long ball and set a school season record with 17 hookups of 40 or more yards. He completed 50 percent or more of his passes in all but two games and was over 60 percent nine times, including 16-of-21 against Texas and 16-of-18 vs. Texas A&M. He fired five TD strikes against both Iowa State and A&M and had a career-high 394 passing yards against Texas Tech.

2002 & 2003 • TOMMIE HARRIS • DT

Tommie Harris rose to the pinnacle of his position in his junior season, which would be his last at OU. He departed for the NFL after just three years in Norman. As a junior, he continued to rocket into opposing backfields with his uncanny quickness. Harris had 10 tackles for loss and 19 quarterback hurries.

After finishing as a finalist for the Lombardi Award one year earlier, he won the coveted piece of hardware in his final Sooner season. He also was one of four finalists for the Nagurski Award, which went to teammate Derrick Strait. Harris' sophomore season was impressive despite an injury. Slowed all by a groin pull suffered in August, he still faced regular double teams.

Harris was named to three All-America squads and was named a finalist for the Bednarik Award. He was the 14th overall selection in the 2004 draft by the Chicago Bears.

2002 • BRANDON EVERAGE • FS

Free safety Brandon Everage earned All-America honors after a stellar junior campaign in 2002.

Six interceptions, with 107 yards in returns, would indicate that Everage understood the centerfield nature of his position. The 94 tackles, third-highest on the team, speak to the linebacker-like mentality with which the Oklahoma free safety played. It was that combination of abilities that landed Everage on the All-America rolls.

Everage recorded 60 tackles in 2003 (44 solo) including four for loss and one sack. He also nabbed one interception with four passes broken up.

2002 & 2003 • TEDDY LEHMAN • LB

Determining the greatest linebacker in OU history is a tough chore. With Teddy Lehman in the mix, determining the fastest is much easier. That speed, which made him an outstanding high school sprinter, set the Sooner backer apart from his peers. He capped a brilliant career by winning the Butkus and Bednarik Awards after finishing as a finalist for each just one year earlier. His ability to get from sideline to sideline caught a lot of attention...and ball carriers. As a senior, he had 117 tackles, including 19 for 47 yards in losses.

As a junior, Lehman logged 112 tackles, including 17 for loss. He also had two interceptions, which went for 51 yards in returns, including one that set up the go-ahead touchdown against Texas. His one-yard return against Texas as a sophomore, the one that came on the back end of a play that saw Roy Williams leap a blocker to disrupt Longhorn QB Chris Simms, is one of the most memorable plays in school history. He was picked in the second round of the 2004 draft by the Detroit Lions.

2001 • JEFF FERGUSON • P

Most punters are known for the length and/or the accuracy of their kicks. Jeff Ferguson was outstanding in both areas. But Ferguson separated himself with athletic ability and intelligent play that made him the complete player at his position. He ended his career as the school record holder for punting average in a career and became just the second player in school history to average more than 40 yards in each of his four seasons. The length of the kicks did not come at the expense of accuracy. Twenty-one of his 71 senior season punts were downed inside the 20-yard line. The thunderous punts and the balls that trickled dead deep in enemy territory will be secondary as time remembers Ferguson's career, though. In his junior season, he made a brilliant play in the national championship game against Florida State, turning a bad snap into a safety rather than an opportunity for the Seminoles to get back into the game.

2001 • ROY WILLIAMS • SS

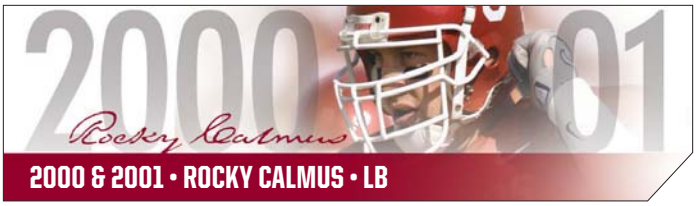

By the time his career was over, Roy Williams was more feared by offensive opponents and more respected by his defensive peers than any player in the country.

In his final season at Oklahoma, he won the Nagurski Award as the nation's top defender and the Thorpe Award as the nation's top defensive back. He was No. 7 in the Heisman Trophy voting, the highest finish of the year by a non-quarterback.

Williams bypassed his senior season of eligibility to enter the NFL draft, but still left his mark on the OU record book. He was drafted in the first round (No. 8 pick overall) in the 2002 NFL Draft by the Dallas Cowboys.

2000 & 2001 • ROCKY CALMUS • LB

Only a few players define their position, but that is precisely what Rocky Calmus meant to college football. As a senior, he won the Dick Butkus Award as the nation's top linebacker, but also was a finalist for the Nagurski and Bednarik Awards as the nation's best defender and the Lombardi Award as the country's top interior player. His senior year total of 117 tackles vaulted him into Oklahoma's top five career tacklers and capped an incredible career.

As a junior, he was named the toughest player in college football by The Sporting News during the Sooners' 2000 national championship season. OU's all-time leader in tackles for a loss by a linebacker, Calmus was named Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year by the Associated Press and was a finalist for the Butkus Award. A first-team All-Big 12 selection in each of his last three seasons, Calmus led the squad in tackles in each of those years. He was drafted in the third round of the 2002 draft by the Tennessee Titans.

2000 • JOSH HEUPEL • QB

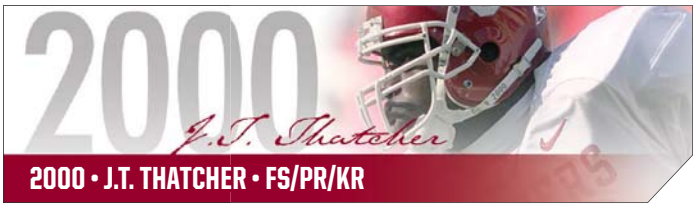

The runner-up for the 2000 Heisman Trophy, Josh Heupel became Oklahoma's first consensus All-America quarterback and the first Sooner QB to earn All-America honors since Jack Mildren in 1971.

As team captain his two years with the Sooners, Heupel is largely credited with turning an offense that statistically ranked as one of the worst in the nation before his arrival into one of the most explosive in the country.

Heupel was named Associated Press Player of the Year, Walter Camp Player of the Year, The Sporting News Player of the Year, CBS Sports Player of the Year, Big 12 Player of the Year and Big 12 Offensive Player of the Year in 2000.

The first-team all-conference selection guided OU to a school-record 13 wins and its seventh national championship. Heupel left with virtually every OU and numerous Big 12 passing records.

2000 • J.T. THATCHER • FS/PR/KR

A standout on both defense and special teams, J.T. Thatcher was named an All-American as both a defensive back and returner. The Mosi Tatupu Special Teams Player of the Year Award winner, Thatcher was one of only seven players to return two or more punts for a touchdown in 2000 and ranked ninth nationally in punt return average.

A four-time Big 12 Special Teams Player of the Week selection, Thatcher set OU's single-game (160) and single-season (599) records for punt return yards. He also posted the second-highest single-game kickoff return yard total with 150, including a 93-yard return to set up OU's go-ahead touchdown against second-ranked Kansas State.

Thatcher was a semifinalist for the Jim Thorpe Award and tied school records for interceptions in a game (3) and season (8).

NOTING OU'S ALL-AMERICANS

- Since the year 2000, Oklahoma has produced 41 first-team All-Americans. Of the 41, 26 were consensus picks. Before 2000, the Sooners had not produced a consensus All-American since 1988.
- The most total All-Americans in one season came in 1974 and 1975 when eight Sooners were so honored. There were seven during the 2003 season.
- In 2003, OU set a record when six Sooners were named to the FWAA All-America team.
- Oklahoma had at least one All-American in 18 consecutive seasons from 1971 to 1988. There was also a 14-year stretch from 1946 to 1959.
- Three sets of brothers have been All-Americans at OU: Lee Roy, Dewey and Lucious Selmon all earned the honor, as did Steve and Tinker Owens and Buddy and Kurt Burris.
- Eight Sooner All-Americans went on to serve as assistant coaches at OU: Leon Cross, Eddie Crowder, Frank "Pop" Ivy, Claude Reeds, J.D. Roberts, Lucious Selmon, Jackie Shipp and Josh Heupel.

UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT

JAMES L. GALLOGLY

14TH PRESIDENT, UNIVERSITY OF OKLAHOMA

The University of Oklahoma Board of Regents announced on March 26 the selection of James L. "Jim" Gallogly, 65, a leading American business executive and OU alumnus, as the University's 14th president. Gallogly succeeded David L. Boren, who retired on June 30.

"Jim Gallogly is a world-class, in-demand transformative leader, and we're honored to have him as our new president," said Clayton I. Bennett, chairman of OU's Board of Regents. "Throughout his career, he's been incredibly successful. He is a builder known for having strategic vision, for managing large and complex organizations, and for mentoring and inspiring great teams to achieve results — leadership qualities we value for the future. Jim's skill set is a perfect match for this unique time in our history."

"I'm here because I love the University of Oklahoma," said President Gallogly. "It's a privilege to be part of the University, and I will work tirelessly with our outstanding students, faculty and administration as we achieve new standards of academic excellence."

Boren, who was among America's longest-serving university presidents, stepped down after leading OU for 23 years. His retirement came after completing 51 years of public service in the Oklahoma Legislature, as governor of Oklahoma, U.S. senator and OU's president. Under Boren's leadership, the University emerged as a "pacesetter university in American public higher education," with 31 major new programs initiated during his tenure.

"I have known Jim Gallogly for many years," said Boren. "He is a person of exceptional ability and has been a committed supporter of the University. He truly loves the University and our students. He and his wife Janet will be worthy leaders of our University family. Molly and I both wish them well and will do all that we can to help them and the University that means so much to all of us."

Bennett added that Gallogly impressed the Board of Regents as a charismatic and inspirational leader. "It's impressive to know that many leaders he's mentored and developed during his career have ascended to become CEOs," Bennett said. "He'll lead from the front, working with teams at every level and teaching in the classroom as he takes on his next major career challenge. While Jim may not come from the academy, we know he'll draw skillfully on OU's world-class faculty, who will be critical in assisting him during this transition."

Bennett said OU's search process was led by a recognized national search firm and a representative search committee composed of 17 faculty, students, staff professionals and community members. David Rainbolt and Dr. Gregg A. Garn, Dean of the Jeannine Rainbolt College of Education, served as chair and vice-chair, respectively, of the search. The committee initiated its work on Nov. 13, 2017. It met six times, reviewed a broad pool of applicants and ultimately selected 13 candidates for interviews. After robust debate, the committee presented seven finalists for the Board of Regents to review. The board conducted in-depth interviews with all seven candidates who were a mix of traditional and non-traditional candidates, both internal and external to the University. Following this thorough evaluation process, Regents unanimously selected Gallogly to become president.

Gallogly was former chairman and chief executive officer of LyondellBasell, a company he joined while it was in Chapter 11 bankruptcy. He and his team guided the company out of bankruptcy in record time and successfully repositioned it as one of the world's largest petrochemical, polymers and refining companies, with 2014 revenues of $45.6 billion and earnings of $4.1 billion (the year preceding his retirement).

In addition to LyondellBasell, Gallogly also served for 29 years in executive roles with ConocoPhillips, Chevron Phillips Chemical Company and Phillips Petroleum Company, beginning his career in the energy business in northeast Oklahoma with Phillips in 1980. Prior to that, Gallogly practiced law with a private firm in Denver, Colo.

Gallogly received a Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of Colorado at Colorado Springs, Colo., in 1974 and a J.D. degree from the OU College of Law in 1977. Gallogly also completed the Advanced Executive Program at the J.L. Kellogg Graduate School of Management at Northwestern University in 1998.

He is a member of the OU Gallogly College of Engineering Board of Visitors and the University of Colorado Engineering Advisory Council, as well as an executive committee member of the MD Anderson Cancer Center Board of Visitors in Houston, Texas. Healthcare industry experience he's gained through the private sector and his board service to the MD Anderson Cancer Center will be integral to his work as president with OU's Health Sciences Center.

THE GALLOGLYS

Gallogly was born in St. John's, Newfoundland, on Sept. 1, 1952. He is one of 10 children of Tom and Margery Gallogly. He and his wife, Janet, have been married 43 years and have three daughters (Kelly Gray, Kasey DeLuke and Kim Gallogly), as well as four grandchildren (Ella and Vivian Gray, and Tony and Benny DeLuke).

JOE CASTIGLIONE

VICE PRESIDENT FOR INTERCOLLEGIATE ATHLETICS PROGRAMS AND DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

When Joe Castiglione was hired to be director of athletics for the University of Oklahoma, he knew all about the success that was part of OU's history. He also knew that the OU program was seeking stability and direction. In his 20 years at Oklahoma, he has led the efforts that have produced 18 national championships, nearly half of the all-time total. He has celebrated 88 conference titles, record GPAs and graduation rates. The success enjoyed in his tenure has ensured the Sooner legacy will continue to grow.

Castiglione inherited one of the most storied programs in college athletics and he went to work by creating a positive culture that emphasized core values, a dynamic mission and a collaborative spirit. The goal has been to create the "destination of choice" and a world-class experience for student-athlete development.

The 2017-18 school year yielded another accomplished campaign in school history with one national championship after a school record of four the previous year. That school record in 2016-17, combined with three national titles in 2015-16, gave OU a nation-leading seven in two years. Seventeen of 21 sports sent the full team or individuals to an NCAA championship.

Men's gymnastics won its fourth consecutive national title and the women's gymnastics team finished as the NCAA runner-up by the slimmest of margins. The football team finished third while the Sooner softball team also finished fifth. The men's golf team added a fifth-place finish. The title won by the men's gymnastics team continued a streak of at least one national title for a sixth consecutive year.

The Learfield Director's Cup recognizes overall program excellence. Evidence of OU's commitment to program excellence since Castiglione's arrival is that in 17 of his 20 years, the Sooners have ranked in the top 25.

As dominant as the commitment to excellence in competition is, an even more impressive set of numbers was being posted in the classroom. Sooner student-athletes had a 13th consecutive semester of a cumulative GPA at 3.0 or higher at the close of the academic year. The 3.13 cumulative GPA for the spring 2018 semester was a record for OU. That productivity in the classroom has translated into an 85-percent graduation rate for the Sooners.

A place where competitive dreams come true and academic excellence are the expectations, not the exceptions, is part of a values-focused culture driven at OU by Castiglione with the full support of OU's Board of Regents and University administration.

Upon his arrival, the 11th and second longest serving director of athletics at OU, Castiglione made a number of changes, and, in the process, created a team of administrators, 10 of whom have gone on to other Division I athletics director posts, coaches and support staff who pursue and achieve lofty goals under the banner of ethical integrity.

That extends into the department's finances. OU Athletics, one of the few remaining self-sustaining departments nationally, has closed the books in the black each of the last 20 years.Castiglione's responsible approach has benefitted the general campus, as well. Through direct and indirect support, the athletics department provides more than $9 million annually to OU's academics budget. It also established an endowment at Bizzell Library and partnered with the president's office to eliminate the admission fee at OU's internationally known Fred Jones Jr. Museum of Art.

Facility improvement and construction of athletics facilities have been carried out at a record pace and Castiglione takes pride in the fact that those improvements have been funded with private donations. Gaylord Family Oklahoma Memorial Stadium underwent a $160 million renovation that included filling in the bowl and creating new seating options for Sooner fans and new team facilities, including locker room, training room, strength and training center and offices. Other improvements are planned throughout the historic facility in the Stadium Master Plan that includes multiple phases. A $7 million dollar improvement to the men's and women's basketball facilities at Lloyd Noble Center has been completed and a $22 million plan to build a new softball stadium was recently approved. A master plan for $10 million in renovations at baseball is also on the books. These projects follow the completion of the $75 million Headington Hall, which provides housing for the general student population as well as student-athletes. The state-of-the-art building, which has won the President's Trophy as the outstanding housing unit four of the last five years, opened in August 2013 and makes OU the leader in providing an engaging community living option for OU students.

Castiglione is quick to give full credit to the student-athletes and coaches, the staff, the OU Board of Regents, University administration, the donors and the fans for the success experienced during his tenure. It's a team approach that he has embraced throughout his successful career in athletics.

In recognition of the many achievements of his OU tenure, Castiglione was named Co-National Athletic Director of the Year in May 2018 by Sports Business Journal. He had been a finalist for that award in 2016 and also had won the award in May 2009. A survey conducted by Sports Illustrated in the summer of 2017 named him the best athletics director in the country. He received the 2018 Katha Quinn Award from the U.S. Basketball Writers of America for exceptional service to the media. He will be inducted into the Oklahoma Sports Hall of Fame as a member of the Class of 2018. The National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame named him the 2013 recipient of the John L. Toner Award. In April 2014, Castiglione received the Abe Lemons/Paul Hansen Award for Sports Excellence from Oklahoma City University.

THE CASTIGLIONE FAMILY

His peers have honored him as well. In November 2012, the United States Sports Academy named him the winner of the Carl Maddox Sports Management Award. In October 2004, the Bobby Dodd Foundation named him Athletics Director of the Year. In 2003, he was inducted into the National Association of Collegiate Marketing Administrators Hall of Fame. In June 2001, he received the General Robert R. Neyland Athletic Director Award for lifetime achievement from the All-American Football Foundation. The National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA) named him Central Region AD of the Year in 2000.

The achievement that may bring him the most pride came in May 2007 when he completed a master's of education degree from OU. Subsequently, he became an adjunct professor in the Jeannine Rainbolt College of Education, teaching graduate classes in Marketing, Development and Leadership in Higher Education. He serves on the College's Board of Advocates. He was recently recognized for his distinguished service by OU's College of Arts & Sciences.

Castiglione was instrumental in the athletics department's major campaign, Great Expectations: The Campaign for Sooner Sports. The then largest fund-raising effort in OU athletics history included projects that impacted each of OU's 21 sports and has become a national model for intercollegiate athletics. The campaign ended three years later with more than $125 million raised and that figure has now grown to over $500 million as funds continue to be raised for facility improvements and scholarship endowments.

Hired on April 30, 1998, Castiglione joined the Sooner family after serving as athletics director at Missouri. In his 17-year career with the Tigers, Castiglione, who was named MU athletics director on Dec. 15, 1993, was credited with rebuilding sports programs, hiring outstanding coaches, implementing an innovative master plan for facilities, inspiring record-setting increases in fund-raising and balancing the budget in each of his five years as AD.

A 1979 Maryland graduate, Castiglione received the University's Distinguished Alumnus Award in April 2007 and he was inducted into the State of Missouri's Sports Hall of Fame in November 2015. His career journey began as the sports promotions director at Rice. He then worked a year as director of athletic fund-raising at Georgetown before being hired in 1981 at Missouri as director of communications and marketing. He will mark his 26th year of serving student-athletes as an athletics director at two different institutions in the 2018-19 academic year.

His commitment to the success of student-athletes has gone beyond the Norman campus and he has served at the national and conference level. He was named to the College Football Playoff Committee in January 2018, making him the only person to serve on that committee as well as the men's basketball and baseball committees. He is currently serving on the NCAA's Board of Governor's Commission to Combat Sexual Violence on Campus. He served as chairman of the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Committee for the 2015-16 academic year. He served a four-year term on the NCAA Championship/Competition Cabinet and the NCAA Baseball Committee. He also chaired the NCAA's Football Academic Progress Rate (APR) Working Group and completed service on the NCAA Working Group on Collegiate Model-Rules Committee. He also serves on the Gatorade Collegiate Advisory Board and the National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame Board of Directors.

He served three terms as the chair of the Big 12 Board of Athletics Directors and is a past president of both the Division I-A Athletic Directors Association and NACDA. He was also a member on the NCAA Diversity Leadership Strategic Planning Committee, the NCAA Division I Women's Basketball Discussion Group, the United States Olympic Committee Athlete Career and Education Strategic Working Group and the NCAA Football Issues Committee, which he chaired. In November 2011, his hometown recognized him by selecting him for the Broward County (Fla.) Sports Hall of Fame.

His involvement in the local community has led to service with civic clubs, churches and charities, including the United Way of Norman, recently serving his third term as OU's campus co-chair, which resulted in the highest recorded contributions ever by faculty, staff and students to the United Way of Norman's annual campaign. He encourages student-athletes and athletics staff to participate in those efforts as well.

A native of Fort Lauderdale, Fla., Castiglione and his wife, Kristen, are the parents of two sons. Joseph, Jr. is a redshirt junior at OU, and Jonathan is a senior in high school.

PRENTICE GAUTT ACADEMIC CENTER

The Prentice Gautt Academic Center provides student-athletes with a modern, state-of-the-art academic support facility that promotes excellence. The environment encourages a collaboration between staff members and student-athletes. In addition, it is highly conducive to learning in all areas of students' academic endeavors and features a variety of learning centers.

Located on the second and third floors in the north end of Gaylord Family – Oklahoma Memorial Stadium, the Academic Center houses academic advising offices, a computer center and learning and skill development centers for reading, study skills, math, foreign languages and career preparation.

ACADEMIC ADVISING

Athletics Academic Advising is considered a campus-advising unit. It is conveniently located within the Academic Center. The athletics department employs seven professional, full-time advisors who support student-athletes through the educational process.

It is important that student-athletes utilize these services. Advisors assist student-athletes with planning their class schedules and deciding on a degree program that will suit their needs. In addition, they help student-athletes with career planning, setting academic goals, academic support strategies and personal counseling.

KERR SOONER CAREER CENTER

Whether student-athletes are freshmen, sophomores, juniors, seniors or alumni, they will benefit from the services of the Kerr Sooner Career Center. It provides a system of services that educates and guides students through the career development process.

The Career Center is dedicated to helping student-athletes make the transition from college to career by developing an individualized career plan. Opportunities are provided for student-athletes to gain the knowledge and skills necessary for resume writing and interviewing techniques. The center is also linked to OU Career Services on campus, which offers effective job-hunting skills, online resume services, training and career resources.

KERR FOUNDATION COMPUTER CENTER

Computers are an integral part of the learning experience. The Computer Center meets the technological needs of each student-athlete, while supplying state-of-the-art equipment along with the support necessary to succeed.

The Computer Center provides student-athletes with access to desktop and laptop machines that include a complete array of educational software to help them excel in the classroom. The same resources are available through the laptop program, and are available for check-out for weekends, holidays, team travel and other academic needs.

KERR FOUNDATION FOREIGN LANGUAGE CENTER

The Foreign Language Center offers a multi-media environment designed to enhance the learning experience in all foreign languages offered at OU, including Native American languages and English as a second language. Tutors are available during lab hours to clarify grammatical concepts and to engage in conversation practice in the target language. In addition to learning a second language in the Foreign Language Center, student-athletes can gather information and prepare to participate in one of the university's study abroad programs.

ACADEMIC MENTORING AND LEARNING SPECIALIST PROGRAM

Academic mentors and learning specialists works with student-athletes in individualized sessions on different skills that are important in developing the whole student. One of the most essential skills that is encouraged and practiced in a mentor session is time management. Student-athletes have a steep learning curve when trying to balance academics and athletics, so it is pertinent to learn this skill to become successful students and athletes.

Mentors and learning specialists also help students learn useful study techniques such as note-taking and test-taking strategies as well as improve problem solving strategies. They teach students how to utilize their unique learning style to maximize the time spent studying for their classes.

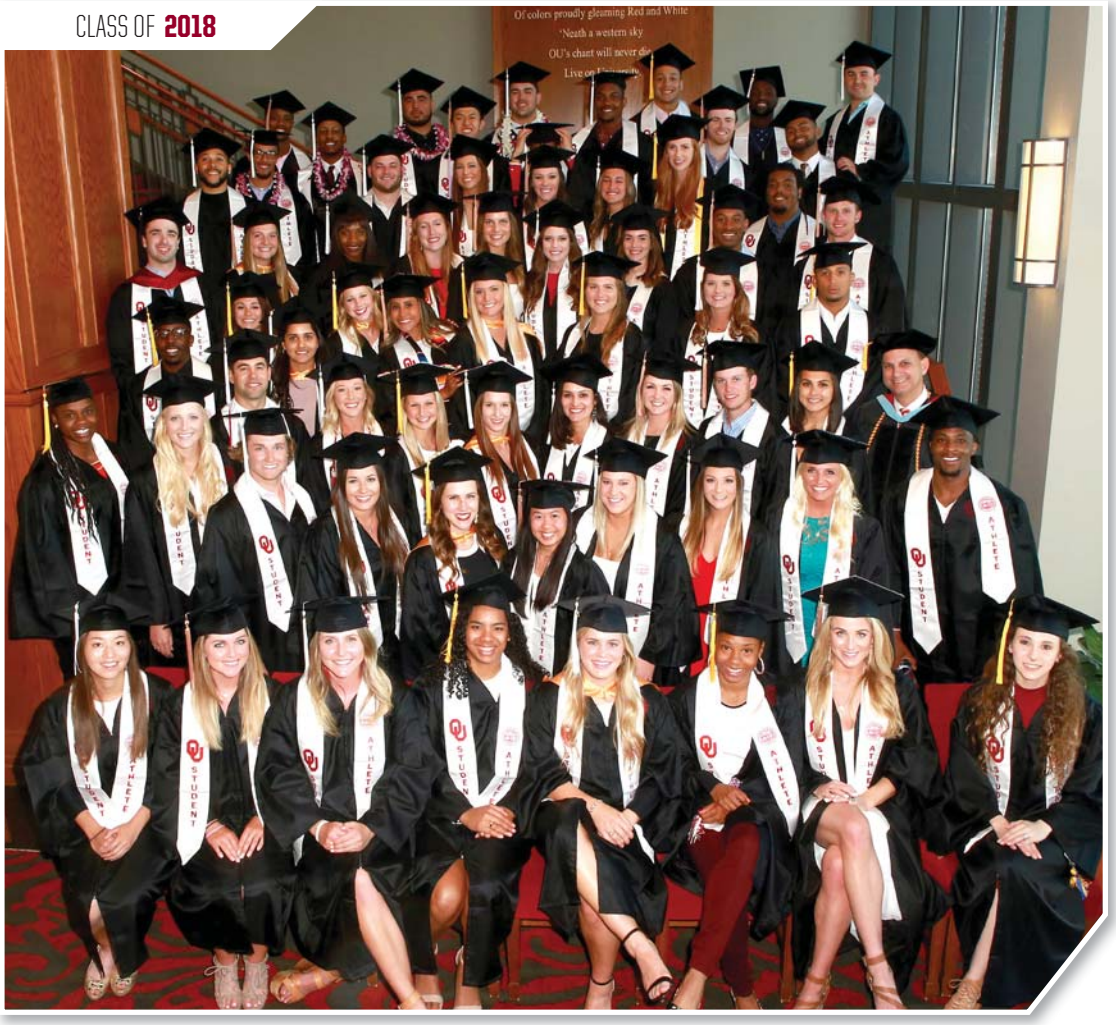

MATH AND TUTORING CENTER

The tutoring program provides support to student-athletes in both lower- and upper-division classes in order to ensure successful completion of courses. Tutors are available to assist student-athletes in all subject areas, for individual or small group sessions. As a supplement to class instruction, the center provides support with all levels of math concepts and problems to help review course material, and offers personal and group tutoring sessions to reinforce math concepts.

THOMPSON WRITING CENTER

The Writing Center offers one-on-one conferences focused on writing for all disciplines, and can assist with the organization, style, and clarity of papers. Writing consultants can help review basic writing strategies, develop proofreading skills and help students become better writers. The goal is to help student-athletes develop the strategies they need to be successful by encouraging the use of the center for all facets of the learning and writing processes encountered in college.

SOONER TRADITIONS

OKLAHOMA SOONERS

While many people know the nickname Oklahoma Sooners is uniquely linked to the University of Oklahoma and has become synonymous with excellence, some aren't aware of the roots, which reach to our state's Indian Territory origins. Originally the home of several tribal nations of the Southern Plains, Congress set aside Indian Territory in 1830 as part of its forcible relocation of numerous tribal nations from their ancestral homelands via the Trail of Tears. Following the U.S. Civil War, some tribal nations lost portions of their new land in Indian Territory due to renegotiated treaties, which became known as the Unassigned Lands.

Pioneers, known as Boomers, vigorously campaigned to settle the Unassigned Lands, which were later incorporated into Oklahoma Territory. Oklahoma Territory and Indian Territory became known as the Twin Territories. Famously, Oklahoma Territory was opened for settlement through land claims races, or Land Runs, and in 1889, thousands made their way to the Twin Territories to participate in the first of these dramatic events. Each race began with a pistol shot, and those who jumped the gun were called Sooners. Later, Indian Territory was opened for non-native settlement, and in 1907 the Twin Territories were merged into one state – Oklahoma – which is the joining of two Choctaw words, "okla" and "homma," meaning "red people" or American Indian.

Due to the enthusiasm of many pioneers and their descendants, Sooner came to denote energetic, "can-do" individuals. The university embraces the complexity of our heritage. OU athletics teams were called either Rough Riders or Boomers for 10 years before the current Oklahoma Sooner nickname emerged in 1908. Taken together, Oklahoma Sooners reflects our state's American Indian and pioneer heritage and, today, symbolizes a special university spirit that values resilience and perseverance as well as the inclusivity that unites all who are a part of the University of Oklahoma family.

CRIMSON AND CREAM

In the fall of 1895, Miss May Overstreet was asked to chair a committee to select the colors of the university. The committee decided the colors should be crimson and cream and an elaborate display of the colors was draped above a platform before the student body. The students approved with great enthusiasm and immediately pennants, banners and decorations of every description appeared on the streets, in the windows, at chapel, in classrooms and all public places around campus.

SOONER SCHOONER

The Sooner Schooner is a Conestoga, or covered wagon, reminiscent of the mode of travel used by pioneers who settled Oklahoma. The Schooner is powered by matching white ponies named Boomer and Sooner, and it ventures onto Owen Field in a triumphant victory ride after OU scores. Although the Schooner was introduced in 1964, it did not become the official mascot until 1980. The Schooner is well-recognized by college athletics fans across the country and makes regular appearances at university functions.

BOOMER SOONER!

In 1905, Arthur M. Alden, a student in history and physiology whose father was a Norman jeweler, wrote the lyrics to the fight song, borrowing the tune from Yale University's 'Boola Boola' but improvising the words. A year later, an addition was made to it from North Carolina's 'I'm a Tarheel Born' and the two combined to form the university's fight song today. Though the tune was first made known by Yale, the everlasting success of Sooner squads has taken the melody of 'Boomer Sooner' to national popularity.

OKLAHOMA!

The Pride of Oklahoma plays perhaps the most popular and recognizable state song in history. Oklahoma! is the final rousing chorus of Rodgers and Hammerstein's epic musical. Breaking all Broadway box office records when it opened in 1943, Oklahoma! was the first collaboration between the legendary pair who were awarded a Pulitzer Prize for their seminal work.

THE OU CHANT

Every fan who wears the official colors, each current student and student-athlete and all OU alumni are encouraged to stand and raise one finger in the air during the playing of the Chant – a symbolic gesture that shows the greatness of the university and the unity between all Sooners. The Chant was written in 1936 by Jessie Lone Clarkson Gilkey, who directed the OU girl's glee club from 1936 to 1938 and was voted Outstanding Faculty Woman in 1937.

O-K-L-A-H-O-M-A
Our chant rolls on and on!
Thousands strong
Join heart and song
In alma mater's praise
Of campus beautiful by day and night
Of colors proudly gleaming Red and White
'Neath a western sky
OU's chant will never die.
Live on University!
