In 1895, 12 years before Oklahoma achieved statehood, a gentleman named John Harts was holding court in a downtown Norman barber shop when he voiced six immortal words. "Let's get up a football team!" he exclaimed. Little did Harts know that the sport of football would eventually impact the lives of so many Oklahomans.

On an early November day in Norman later that year, Harts captained the University of Oklahoma football squad in its first-ever game. Though the Oklahoma City town team opponent dominated that initial contest, the foundation was laid for one of the most successful collegiate athletics programs of all-time in any sport.

The 2019 Oklahoma football campaign marks the 125th in the program's illustrious history, and the Sooners will celebrate that colorful and accomplished past throughout the fall. The "125" logo will be featured on the backs of helmets and on Owen Field during the 2019 season, as well as on various fan merchandise and apparel. The OU Athletics Department is also planning a variety of content, collectibles and activities that will honor the Sooners' storied past.

COACHING STAFF

Identifying and recruiting prospects, coaching talent to play at its peak and preparing players for life after college, whether it be football or in the business world, are just some of the areas where head coach Lincoln Riley and the Oklahoma coaching staff thrive.

90

PLAYER BIOS

Among the players returning are a group of 16 offensive lettermen, 26 defensive lettermen and four specialist lettermen. Three of OU's 2018 All-Big 12 honorees return this year as the program seeks its 13th Big 12 title and a spot in the College Football Playoff for the fourth time in five years.

120

2018 REVIEW

Oklahoma finished the 2018 season with a 12-2 overall record and a No. 4 ranking in the AP and Amway Coaches Polls. It also claimed its fourth straight and 12th overall Big 12 title, and was the No. 4 seed in the College Football Playoff. Kyler Murray won the program's second straight and seventh overall Heisman Trophy.

140

SOONER RECORDS

History is one tough customer at Oklahoma. The tradition, so rich and so long-standing, is as daunting as it is impressive. To be among the best at Oklahoma is to be among the best in college football. Review award winners, player honors, letterwinners, bowl game tradition, Sooners in the NFL and more.

196

SEASON BY SEASON

The 2019 season will mark the 125th campaign of intercollegiate football at OU. The Sooners were playing football 12 years before Oklahoma even became a state. Rarely has a football program and commonwealth enjoyed a more harmonious relationship than what exists in the Sooner state.

MEDIA CREDENTIALS

Requests for media credentials for University of Oklahoma home games should be made online at SoonerSportsMedia.com. Only those requests submitted by the sports editor of a newspaper or the sports director of a radio or television station will be considered.

Priority is given to daily newspapers (by circulation), television stations and radio stations that program sports for more than half of their daily broadcast schedules. A credential does not guarantee a seat and access to the team bench area is prohibited at all times. Credentials include:

Press Box: Primary recipients are newspaper/Internet writers, television reporters and radio personnel. This pass gains access to the press box. Sideline access is only permitted for the last five minutes of the game.

Sideline: Primary recipients are photographers/videographers. Only photographers/videographers on assignment for accredited outlets will be afforded credentials. Pass only gains access to the sideline (not the press box).

Combination: These are only for those individuals who require access to the press box and the sideline. Few are issued.

Season Credentials
Requests should be made at SoonerSportsMedia.com. Only media members who routinely cover OU games, practices and media conferences are eligible for season credentials.

Any media member who loses a season credential will be under review to be moved to the single-game list for the following season. Media outlets who cannot provide names for passes for an entire season will be placed on the single-game list and should provide names on a weekly basis.

Single-Game Credentials
Requests must be made at least one week in advance of the contest. Any organization that requests a single-game credential then does not use it will not be granted another pass for the remainder of the season. No credentials will be granted after Thursday of game week.

OU-Texas Credentials
Those interested in covering the annual Oklahoma-Texas game at Dallas will need to make a separate request for credentials. Aside from national media, only season credential holders are eligible.

Because Texas will serve as the host school this year, credential requests should be made to the UT media relations staff. OU-based media credentials will be distributed at the Monday media luncheon in Norman. Any credentials not claimed that day will be available the Friday before the game at a pickup location in Dallas (times and exact location TBA).

Credential Pickup (OU Home Games)
Credentials may be picked up from the Oklahoma Athletics Communications Office during the week or from media will call (Gate 2) at Gaylord Family – Oklahoma Memorial Stadium on game day beginning three hours before kickoff (see map on page 9). Each media representative must claim his or her pass. No group pickups are allowed on the day of the game.

Parking Passes
Parking passes are in limited supply and prioritized similar to the way credentials are issued.

MEDIA AVAILABILITY

Monday: Lincoln Riley participates on the Big 12's weekly teleconference at 10:10 a.m. CT. OU's media luncheon starts with select player access at approximately 11:15 a.m. at the stadium. Coach Riley's session begins at noon. Players who attend the media luncheon are not available after practice Monday or Tuesday.

Co-offensive coordinators and select players* are available following practice (late afternoon).

Tuesday: The defensive coordinator and select players* are available following practice (late afternoon).

Game Day: Postgame availability only. Interview requests will be collected at the beginning of the fourth quarter. Members of the OU Athletics Communications staff will escort media representatives to the appropriate postgame interview areas with seven minutes remaining in the game. The Oklahoma locker room, home or away, is closed to the media at all times.

For games in Norman, head coach Lincoln Riley and several OU players will be brought to the team's Red Room for news conferences and breakout interviews, while the opposing head coach will meet with the media inside the opponent interview room in the SoonerVision studio (southwest corner, under the stadium grandstands). A representative from the OU Athletics Communications Office will be on hand to assist the media in finding these areas. Interviews with players from the visiting team will be based on the postgame policy of that institution.

 Some players have evening classes that could preclude them from post-practice interviews.*

GAYLORD FAMILY – OKLAHOMA MEMORIAL STADIUM

Gaylord Family – Oklahoma Memorial Stadium is one of America's most recognized college football cathedrals. Situated on the east side of the Norman campus, this historical facility is the largest sports arena in the state and, following its expansion before the 2016 season, ranks among the 15 largest college football stadiums in the nation.

With the expansion of Oklahoma Memorial Stadium to an official capacity of 82,112 in 2004 (it increased to 83,489 in 2016) and with every home game exceeding that capacity, Oklahoma set numerous attendance records the past few years. In fact, the 10 largest crowds in stadium history have occurred in the past three seasons.

Oklahoma's average attendance in 2018 for seven home games was 86,735, ranking OU No. 12 in the nation in average attendance.

The largest crowd ever to watch a game in the history of the state of Oklahoma jammed Memorial Stadium on Nov. 11, 2017. The No. 5 Sooners cruised to a 38-20 win over No. 8 TCU in front of 88,308 fans.

OU has compiled a 113-10 record at home (.919) the last 20 seasons (the first 18 of those under coach Bob Stoops). Not coincidentally, those 20 seasons all rank at the top of the list for average home attendance.

CHAMPIONSHIP TRADITION

Great college football and the Oklahoma Sooners. For as long as anyone can remember, the two have been one and the same.

Unlike some schools where tradition represents ancient history, or others where it harkens back only a few years, Oklahoma's tradition is a constant accomplishment unfettered by eras or time.

The Sooners were playing football before Oklahoma became a state and have achieved a legacy so successful that more than contributing to the history of this great game, it defines it.

A LEGACY OF WINNING

Oklahoma has played in four national championship games and three College Football Playoffs over the last 19 seasons and owns 12 Big 12 championships. OU also has turned out a list of award winners and draft picks so long that it taxes even the best memory to name them all.

Greatness begets greatness and there has been plenty of that in Norman for generations. Now, from all corners of the country, the best players come to join a program of traditional success that is riding one of its biggest waves.

Statistics prove that Oklahoma is more likely to hit the 10-win mark than any other program in the nation with 39 double-digit-win seasons, including 16 of the last 19 campaigns. In fact, among teams playing in Power Five conferences since the start of the new millennium, Oklahoma's 16 10-win campaigns are also more than any other program.

The Sooners also lead the nation with 25 seasons of at least 11 wins.

Oklahoma is Championship Football

Nothing defines the competitive success of a college athletics program like a national championship. Oklahoma, with seven football national titles sprinkled over four decades, is one of the very few programs that sets out each fall with the expectation and legitimate goal of pursuing the national crown.

That pursuit rates as a lot more than just talk around Norman. The aura is unmistakable, and it radiates from real and repeated success on college football's biggest stage.

Oklahoma has claimed more national championships than any other Big 12 program.

The Sooners, under Bob Stoops, earned the program's most recent title in 2000 with an Orange Bowl victory over Florida State to cap a 13-0 season. OU's other championships came under Barry Switzer in 1974, 1975 and 1985, and Bud Wilkinson in 1950, 1955 and 1956.

Oklahoma played for the national title four times during Stoops' tenure (2000, 2002, 2004, 2008). During the BCS era, the Sooners were the only team to play in all five BCS bowl games and played in nine total. OU was ranked No. 1 in 20 BCS rankings — the most nationally.

The Sooners are also the only Big 12 program to appear in the College Football Playoff, playing in the Orange Bowl (2015 season) under Stoops along with the Rose Bowl and Orange Bowl (2017 and '18 seasons) under Lincoln Riley.

In the words of Switzer: "People don't know what it means to be champions. Oklahoma invented it."

OU Captures 12th Big 12 Crown, Nine More Than Next Closest Program

The Sooners secured their fourth straight conference title with their 39-27 Big 12 Championship Game win over ninth-ranked Texas on Dec. 1, 2018, in Arlington, Texas. OU avenged its early season loss to the Longhorns in the first-ever meeting between the two teams in the Big 12 title game. The Sooners became the first Power Five team to win four consecutive outright conference titles since Florida accomplished the feat from 1993-96.

Kyler Murray, the game's most outstanding player, tossed three touchdown passes, finishing 25 for 34 for 379 yards and no interceptions. The eventual Heisman Trophy winner, Murray also registered 39 rushing yards and set the OU single-season record for total offense during the game.

Grant Calcaterra caught two of Murray's touchdown passes, sealing the game late in the fourth quarter with a spectacular one-handed end-zone grab with 2:00 remaining. CeeDee Lamb tallied a career-high 167 yards and a touchdown on six catches, while Trey Sermon led the Sooners with 65 yards on 18 carries and a score.

OU's defense held Texas scoreless in the fourth quarter and came up with several momentum-changing plays down the stretch. Tre Brown's fourth-quarter sack off of a corner blitz resulted in a safety for the Sooners, and Tre Norwood iced the game with a late interception.

TWELVE BIG 12 CONFERENCE CHAMPIONSHIPS

Since the formation of the Big 12 Conference in 1996, no team has won as many league titles as Oklahoma's 12. In fact, no other school has won more than three, and four of the league members have yet to win their first. The Sooners grabbed their most recent crown in 2018 by winning the Big 12 Championship Game over Texas.

The Sooners' other Big 12 crowns came in 2017 (41-17 win over TCU in league championship game in Dallas), 2016 (9-0 conference record), 2015 (8-1), 2012 (8-1), 2010 (23-20 win over Nebraska in Dallas), 2008 (62-21 win over Missouri in Kansas City), 2007 (38-17 win over Missouri in San Antonio), 2006 (21-7 win over Nebraska in Kansas City), 2004 (42-3 win over Colorado in Kansas City), 2002 (29-7 win over Colorado in Houston) and 2000 (27-24 win over Kansas State in Kansas City).

Making Them Count

Nine of Oklahoma's 12 Big 12 titles have come via a league championship game. In those nine Big 12 Championship Game victories, the Sooners have outscored their opponents 322-143. That's an average of 37-16. OU's lone Big 12 Championship Game loss came to Kansas State in 2003, but the Sooners still advanced to the BCS Championship Game that year thanks to their dominant regular season performance.

Most Conference Titles Among Power 5 Programs

Oklahoma won its first conference championship in 1915 and has since tacked on another 47. In other words, the Sooners average a conference title just about every two seasons. That pace has actually improved since 2000 with 12 league crowns in 20 years.

Fast Fact

Since 2000, Oklahoma has won more Big 12 titles (12) than it has lost home games (10).

Fifty-two bowl appearances and 29 bowl victories have firmly entrenched Oklahoma among the most tradition-rich schools in America.

The Sooners have become synonymous with postseason play at the highest level. At a school where the bowl history is laced with games of historical significance, the last several years have represented another fabulous roll for the Schooner.

OU enjoys favored status among the bowl community, mostly for its tradition, but also for its robust fan following. Regardless of the location, Sooner fans flock to follow a bowl tradition that is as fresh as it is historic.

The Sooners have made 20 consecutive bowl appearances, the third-longest active streak in the nation as recognized by the NCAA. Of those 20 showings, four were national championship bouts, nine were BCS bowl games, three were College Football Playoff semifinals contests and 13 were in January.

The Sooners and their fans have enjoyed trips to Phoenix, San Diego, Miami, Pasadena, New Orleans and Dallas while playing in the most prestigious bowls in college football.

Most Heisman Trophies in the Nation

For many years, college football has paused at the end of each season to recognize its finest players. The award names like Heisman, Outland, Thorpe, Mackey and Butkus are woven into the fabric of the game as a tribute to the past and a beacon for the present.

The awards ceremonies attract the greatest names in the game, and of course, they attract and honor Oklahoma Sooners.

The road to the bright lights, podium and acceptance speech starts with great talent and hard work, common staples at OU. The Sooner program then provides the national stage on which players can be seen. The result has been an impressive collection of hardware.

Oklahoma has produced four Heisman Trophy winners in the last 15 years. Only three other programs have produced four winners ever.

After Baker Mayfield (2017) and Kyler Murray (2018) gave OU back-to-back Heisman winners, the Sooners became the only program in college football history to have different quarterbacks win the Heisman Trophy in consecutive seasons.

Not only have Sooners won the Heisman Trophy a nation-high-tying seven times, they have constantly appeared on Heisman voters' ballots.

Oklahoma has sent nine finalists to New York City since 2000, the most of any program in the country: Josh Heupel (2000), Jason White (2003 and 2004), Adrian Peterson (2004), Sam Bradford (2008), Dede Westbrook (2016), Baker Mayfield (2016 and 2017) and Kyler Murray (2018). It is the only program to ever produce four finalists over a three-year span (2016-18).

The Sooners have also had multiple players invited to the Heisman ceremony on two different occasions — the only program in the country to accomplish the feat since 1982.

If it's a college football season, the likelihood is that more than one Sooner ranks among the best players in the land. That was true in 1913 when OU produced its first All-American and it's true today when the rate of additions is so rapid that the total now well outnumbers the age of the program itself.

One of college football's greatest programs has been built by some of college football's finest players. That's the natural result when talent meets coaching at a program with eye-popping facilities and great visibility.

Big 12's Consensus All-Americans

University of Oklahoma players have earned consensus All-America honors 81 times in the program's history. That's 21 more than the Big 12 school with the next most.

What is a consensus All-American? The NCAA officially recognizes selections from five All-America teams: AP, AFCA, FWAA, Sporting News and Walter Camp.

A player is designated a consensus All-American if he is a first-team selection on at least three of the five teams.

In 2017 alone, Mark Andrews, Orlando Brown and Baker Mayfield added their names to the prestigious list as they earned first-team All-America honors from all five official bodies, leading the nation. Ben Powers joined the list in 2018.

Elite Program Prepares Players for Next Level

The league. Pro ball. The next level. It is the dream of every college football player. It is reality for many Oklahoma Sooners. Few programs in the country attract talent and prepare it to move on better than OU. Eight Sooners were tabbed in the 2019 NFL Draft alone, extending the program's tally to 95 selections since 2000.

OU plays pro schemes and employs a rigorous strength and conditioning program that is so effective that many of those who have gone on to professional careers come back to Norman in the offseason to continue their training.

Oklahoma is the only program that has had at least four players drafted into the NFL each of the last 12 years. Players with the ability and drive to make the NFL flourish at OU and leave campus equipped to play beyond their college days.

Sooners at Center of College Football

Oklahoma is a household name due to the overwhelming media attention that hovers around the Sooners. Writers and broadcasters representing the nation's most recognized media outlets regularly interact with OU players and coaches, and routinely spend time in Norman.

When they can't come to campus, those same observers keep tabs on OU thanks to extensive television coverage. In 2018, all 14 Oklahoma games appeared on live TV, including 13 that were carried nationally or regionally on the ABC, ESPN or FOX family of networks.

Only Program With Four 100-Win Head Coaches

Bob Stoops, Barry Switzer, Bud Wilkinson and Bennie Owen — Oklahoma's four winningest head coaches — have a lot in common. All four started at OU in their 30s. All four went on to have tremendous success, coming to Norman and combining to win 614 games and seven national championships.

The quartet established and cemented Oklahoma as one of the greatest college football programs of all-time.

Third-year head coach Lincoln Riley fits that mold. The youngest FBS head coach in the nation (33) at the time of his hiring, Riley was named the program's 22nd head man on June 7, 2017, and quickly set school records for wins by a first-year head coach (12) and victories in his first two seasons (24). No one at any school in the last 125 years (since 1892-93) has won more games in his first two seasons as a college head coach. In addition to his 24-4 record, Riley has won two Big 12 titles, participated in two College Football Playoffs and has produced seven first-team All-Americans, two Heisman Trophy winners and two No. 1 overall NFL Draft picks in his two years as OU's head coach.

The Future Is Now

No one in recent memory has climbed the coaching ladder more quickly than Lincoln Riley. Once the youngest assistant coach and coordinator in the country, Riley now has ascended to the helm of one of the nation's most-storied college football programs.

His rise has featured perhaps one of the most balanced and explosive offenses in the nation. In his nine seasons as a play caller, the Muleshoe, Texas, native has consistently led units that have broken school records, produced All-Americans, Heisman Trophy finalists and high NFL Draft picks.

His ability to develop players is epitomized by quarterbacks Baker Mayfield and Kyler Murray, who each won the Heisman Trophy and were No. 1 overall NFL Draft selections.

Since Riley arrived in Norman in 2015, OU leads the nation in the following categories:

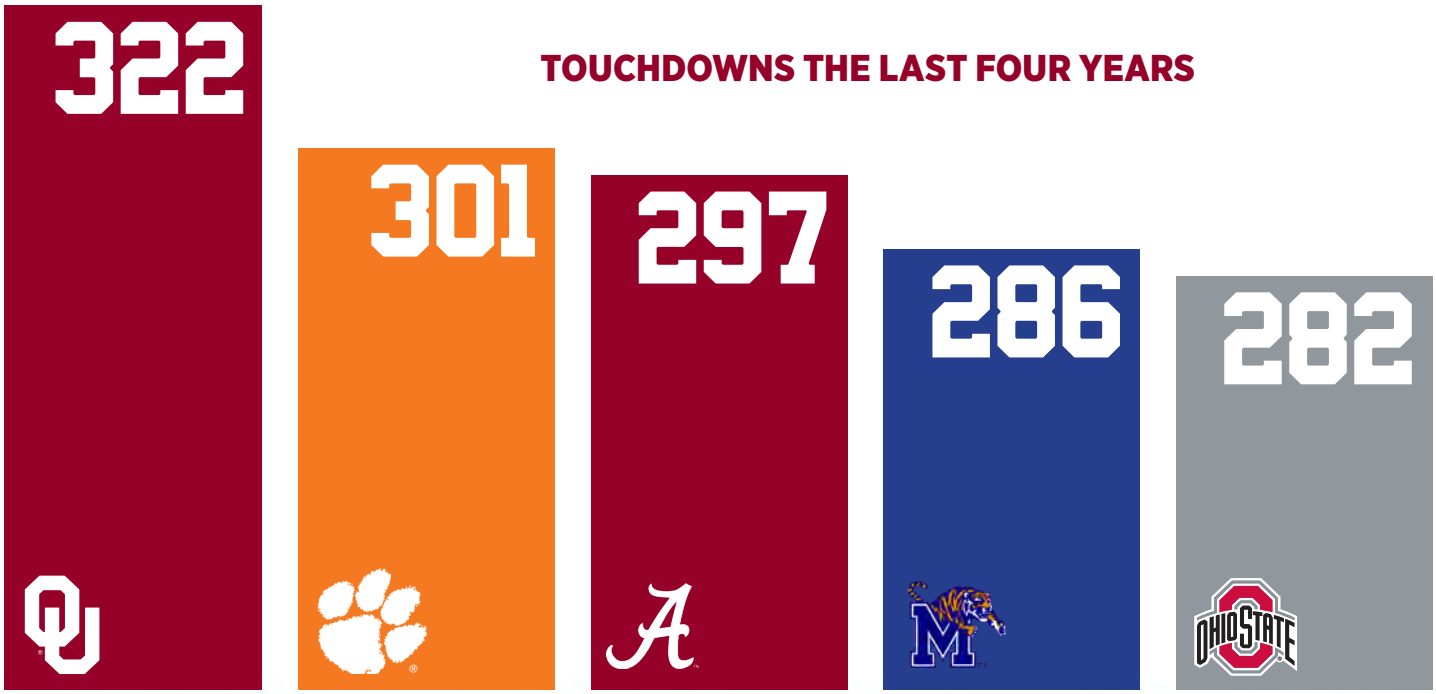

Leader of the Nation's Top Scoring Attack

With Riley at the controls, Oklahoma's offense has been the best overall statistical unit in the country over the last four seasons. The Sooners rank first nationally in total touchdowns (322) since the start of the 2015 campaign.

Championship Strength & Conditioning

In his second year as OU's director of sports performance for football, Bennie Wylie has earned the reputation as one of the top strength and conditioning coaches in the country after holding similar positions at Texas and Tennessee, as well as at Texas Tech, where he worked with OU head coach Lincoln Riley. Also an assistant strength and conditioning coach for the Dallas Cowboys for four years, Wylie is known as a great motivator and as someone who inspires others.

"There's nobody in the business I respect more than Bennie Wylie," said Riley, "I knew that if I ever had a strength and conditioning opening that I'd love to reunite with him. We had a lot of years together at Texas Tech, and during that time I was able to watch his work and see the impact he had on our players both physically and on their lives overall.

"This is certainly an important position, and I think we hired the best person in the country."

Staying on Top of the Nutrition Game

A former NCAA gymnast, Tiffany Byrd is on a daily mission to take her job far beyond its title in her work with OU student-athletes. As Director of Sports Nutrition, Byrd recognizes that food is very personal to individuals. Her goal is to have a positive impact and influence on the lives of student-athletes across all sports.

"We're working on every aspect to ensure that our athletes are able to get the nutrition — the right quality and quantity at the right times through their meals and snacks — that they require to meet the demands of their sport," says Byrd. "At the end of the day, it's about performance. You come to the University of Oklahoma to win championships, and that's exactly what we are trying to help them do. Every detail matters...including the fuel that you put in your body throughout the day."

Among her biggest education tools is the acronym "BOOMER," developed by Byrd to help her athletes remember the six most important facets of a balanced diet. A student-athlete following a solid nutritional plan might see increased energy, less fatigue and higher levels of performance. As Byrd says, their goal is to "get the body to ultimately do what they need it to do."

123 Consecutive Home Sellouts

Fan support is guaranteed at Oklahoma. Since 1999, the Sooners have drawn 9,110,806 fans to Gaylord Family – Oklahoma Memorial Stadium, with all 123 of those games sellouts.

OU has nearly been unbeatable at home, yielding 113 wins in those 123 contests. Those thrilling victories have stoked Sooner Nation and helped lead to the expansion of OU's stadium by more than 11,000 seats. Even so, attendance has exceeded the listed capacity in 90 consecutive games.

In 2016, Oklahoma fans set a record for average season attendance (86,857) and broke the single-game mark with 87,979 fans against Ohio State. That mark was topped in 2017 versus TCU (88,308). The top 15 seasons for OU home attendance have taken place since the start of the 21st century.

October Rivalry in Dallas

The Oklahoma-Texas game, played each season at the Cotton Bowl in Dallas, a location approximately halfway between the two campuses, is one of the country's most spectacular sporting events.

Staged during the State Fair of Texas, the contest is witnessed by a crowd perfectly defined by color — half crimson, half burnt orange — in an atmosphere that is arguably more unique than that found at any other game. This rivalry is one that marks time and gives players and fans alike experiences for a lifetime.

Red River Showdown Staying at Cotton Bowl at Least Through 2025

In June 2014, the City of Dallas announced that the Cotton Bowl would remain the site of the Red River Showdown through 2025.

"Generations of Sooners and Longhorns will proudly attest that the Red River Showdown is played amidst the most unique atmosphere in all of college football. Two of football's greatest programs and their legions of passionate fans are diametrically situated in the historic Cotton Bowl, surrounded by revelry of the State Fair of Texas.

"The University of Oklahoma is thrilled about preserving the rich tradition of this game in the City of Dallas (and)...we are looking forward more future student-athletes and fans enjoying the spectacle of this renowned football rivalry for many years to come."

– OU Vice President for Intercollegiate Athletics, Joe Castiglione

The Tunnel Experience

"From the top of The Tunnel that leads into the floor of the Cotton Bowl it looks like no big deal. All you can see is end zone. Then you start running and the world explodes around you. Your eardrums are pounded by the screams of 75,587 people and the blasts of the modified 12-gauge shotguns that the OU Ruf/Nek spirit group carries...

"You feel the world shake and start to understand why every Longhorn or Sooner who has taken these steps before you can never seem to find the exact words necessary to convey what has just happened.

"You've just run down the tunnel at the OU-Texas game — generally regarded as one of the greatest moments a college football player can experience."

NEW FOR 2019

Stadium improvements fans will notice in 2019 include the latest Wi-Fi technology (Wi-Fi 6), additional handrails and the widening of aisles and some seats.

Palace on the Prairie

The University of Oklahoma Board of Regents approved a proposal from OU Athletics on June 25, 2014, to proceed with the development of plans and projects for a major renovation and modernization of Gaylord Family – Oklahoma Memorial Stadium.

The first phase of the building project was completed prior to the 2016 season and focused on the south end zone.

The most visible aspect was the completion of the south end zone seating bowl, a feature that has initially increased stadium capacity to more than 83,000. The facility is also home to the nation's second-largest video board (50 by 170 feet).

The seating bowl features an expanded concourse, additional restrooms and concessions, and other amenities. The new structure also houses 22 suites, 60 open-air loge boxes and 1,976 club seats, and includes two fresh club options for patrons.

The renovated team portion of the facility allows for all student-athlete services to be moved to the ground floor. That space includes a new locker room, strength and conditioning room, training room, nutrition center, meeting rooms and the equipment room.

The weight room nearly tripled in size to 26,600 square feet and features a 70-yard indoor turfed speed and agility training area. The athletic training room also grew substantially to nearly 10,000 square feet. A 2,356-square-foot north video board was added in 2018.

New Features Include:

A bowled in south end zone, new fan seating and options, including club seating, loge boxes and suites, as well as a fan plaza, and additional concession and restroom areas.

A 132,000-square-foot football complex featuring a new locker room, training room, nutrition area, coaches offices and player meeting rooms.

A 32,582-square-foot strength and conditioning facility that is triple the size of the previous weight room and features a 70-yard indoor turfed speed and agility training area.

Gaylord Family – Oklahoma Memorial Stadium

Gaylord Family – Oklahoma Memorial Stadium is one of America's most recognized college football cathedrals. Situated on the east side of the Norman campus, this historical facility is the largest sports arena in the state and, following its recent expansion, now ranks among the 15 largest on-campus facilities in the nation.

Memorial Stadium's rich heritage has not hindered its evolution, a never-ending growth fueled by the football program's overwhelming popularity. Almost since its inception, the stadium has been a work in progress. That fact holds true today. Using bond money and generous contributions, the stadium has recently undergone a number of changes (see pages 38-39 for information on the latest renovations).

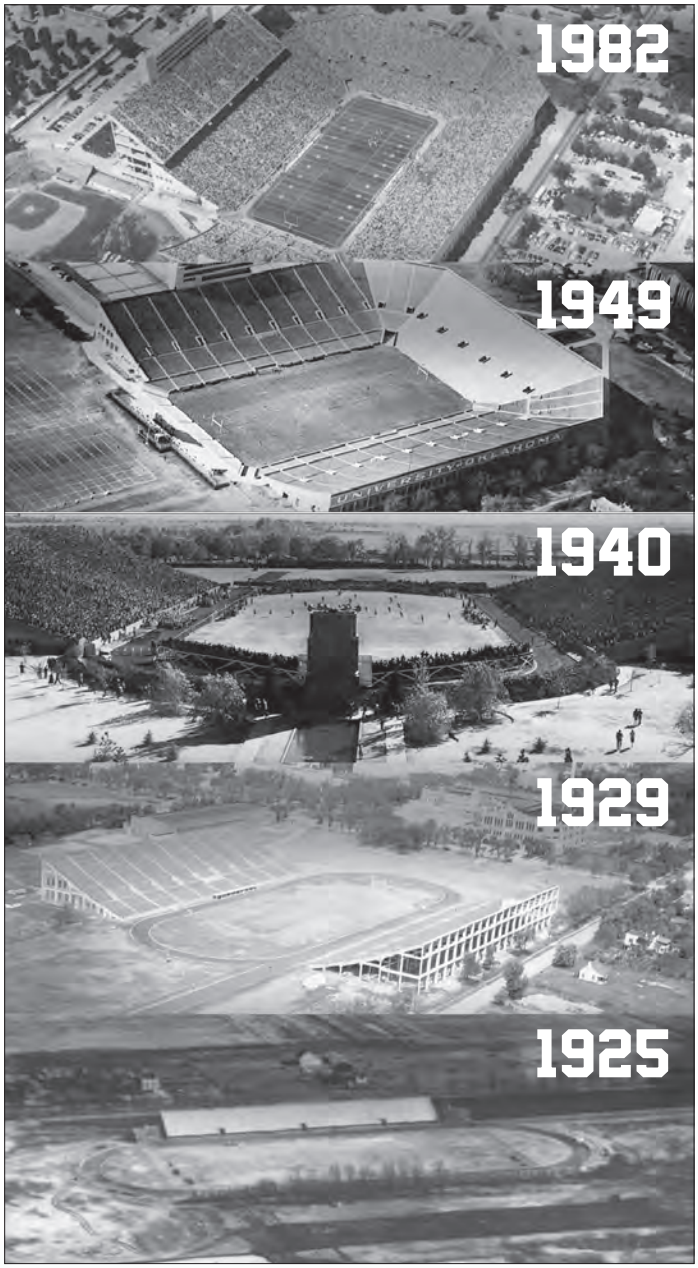

Prior to the 2009 season, additions and renovations were completed in Barry Switzer Center. The players locker room was expanded and remodeled while a 950-square foot hydrotherapy area and a new 4,000-square foot Red Room with seating for 211 was built.

The most major of those was a $4.5 million venture that added a state-of-the-art 3,689-square-foot HD video board atop the south end zone in 2008.

The summer of 2003 saw a venture that added 8,000 seats, including 27 suites on the stadium's east side, bringing the total number of suites to 63. At the same time, the press box was remodeled and outfitted with several state-of-the-art features. Another phase of that project stretched into 2004 when renovations to the Santee Lounge, restroom and concessions facilities and a new brick facade on the west side were completed.

In the two years prior to the stadium upgrade and expansion, renovations were completed in the coaches' offices, locker rooms, sports medicine and weight training facilities.

In 1921, University of Oklahoma students started a movement for construction of a student union. By 1925, the idea had grown to include a combined football stadium/student union.

In the original architect's drawings, the north end of the proposed structure was strikingly similar to the present Oklahoma Memorial Union, which eventually was constructed separately when head coach Bennie Owen suggested it would be best to raise funds for a union and a stadium.

The first game played at the site took place Oct. 20,1923 (a 63-7 win over Washington, Mo.), before the stadium/union plan got under way. The field was named Owen Field after Owen, who became a charter member of the National Football Hall of Fame.

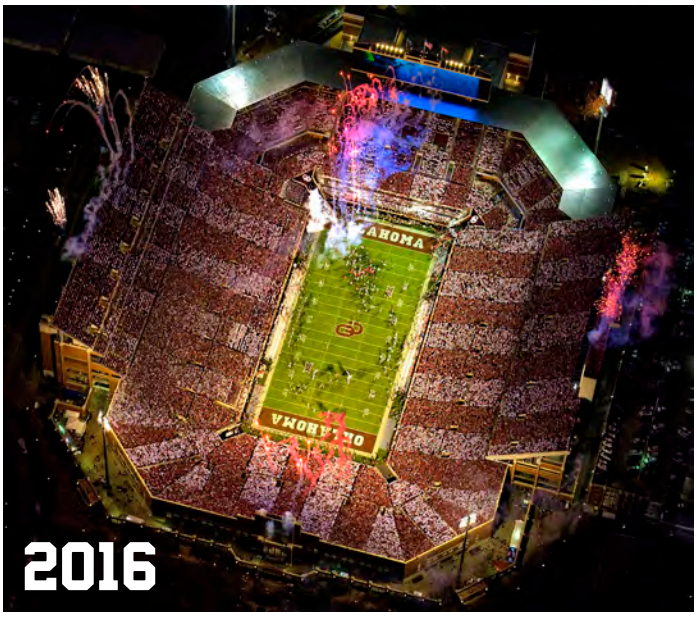

In 1925, the first contest was played in front of the new stands on the west side of the field. The 16,000-seat Oklahoma Memorial Stadium, named in honor of University personnel who died in World War I, was erected at a cost of approximately $293,000.

Stands on the east side of the stadium were added prior to the 1929 season. That addition increased the seating capacity to 32,000, where it stood for 20 years.

In 1949, OU president George L. Cross pushed for expansion and the result was a six-foot lowering of the old playing surface and the elimination of a running track that surrounded the playing area.

The changes produced 7,000 new ringside seats and brought capacity to 55,000. The north end of the stadium also was enclosed. In 1957, green grandstand bleachers were added to the south end of the field, enabling the stadium to hold 61,836 fans.

Eighteen years later came the addition of the upper deck and new press box. Another 8,436 seats were added at a cost of $5,726,345. Capacity for the 1975 national championship season was 71,187. Before the 1980 campaign, the old green bleachers were replaced with the new south end zone facility.

In addition to improved seating, the complex included coaches' offices, the weight room, meeting rooms, a training room, the equipment room and two locker rooms. The addition brought the stadium capacity to 75,004. Capacity was decreased to 72,765 in 1998 to provide more wheelchair seating.

In July, 1970 the original natural grass surface was removed and artificial turf was installed. That tartan turf was replaced with super turf before the 1981 season. Owen Field returned to grass in 1994.

A Stadium Master Plan was approved by the OU Board of Regents in June 1994. Construction of nine west side suites began in April 1995.

Subsequent improvements included the installation of stadium lights to allow night games, a new scoreboard and a video screen.

Live Like a Champion

Opened in July of 2013, Headington Hall houses 380 OU students, including 180 student-athletes. The facility is named in honor of former OU tennis player Tim Headington, one of many OU alumni who gave generously to the project.

Located on the corner of Jenkins Avenue and Lindsey Street, southeast and across the street from Gaylord Family – Oklahoma Memorial Stadium, the facility boasts apartment-style accommodations in two and four-bedroom units. Each suite features at least two bedrooms, two bathrooms, a kitchenette and a living room. Suites come prefurnished with modular couches and ottomans so students can set-up their new home just how they want it. The building also includes central dining, computer labs and study rooms, as well as a faculty-in-residence unit.

The $75 million facility, which replaced Bud Wilkinson Hall, was funded by the University of Oklahoma Department of Intercollegiate Athletics.

The first floor features Einstein's Bagels and Qdoba locations, with room for future development.

The facility is six stories tall and approximately 230,000 square feet, giving it a significant campus presence. It is designed in the style of the University's historic buildings, as well as modern additions.

Former Sooners Adrian Peterson and Sam Bradford made substantial donations to Headington Hall. The Sam Bradford Training Table is a state-of-the-art dining facility that fulfills the dietary and nutritional needs of all OU student-athletes, not just the residents of Headington Hall, in a vastly expanded modern space.

Multiple cooking stations give our talented chefs every opportunity to dazzle your taste buds. Many of the tasty dishes at Wagner Dining Hall come from a menu prepared by OU Athletics' own nutritionist, and are especially designed for athletic performance needs. Fresh vegetables, salad bars and fresh fruit are plentiful. To ensure proper hydration, the drink station includes numerous options.

Gaylord Family – Oklahoma Memorial Stadium includes office space in the facility's north end. The largest piece of that area houses the Prentice Gautt Academic Center. Some 30,000 square feet are dedicated to the academic pursuits of Sooner student-athletes.

There is considerable emphasis on classroom performance at OU. The center staff has achievement as its focus, a fact that is reflected in the student-athletes' record performance the past few academic years. In addition to its academic support, the staff assists in several life skills areas designed to enrich students in a broad range of tasks.

Sooners Excel On and Off Field

Recent numbers from the NCAA Academic Progress Rate (APR) show the OU football program is a prime example of accomplishing excellence both on and off the field. OU has ranked fifth or better in the Big 12 in each of the last 11 years in the academic ranking, which is used as a real-time assessment on how student-athletes perform in regards to eligibility, retention and graduation.

In 2008, along with leading the Oklahoma offense to the NCAA record for most points scored in a single season, quarterback Sam Bradford and running back DeMarco Murray were named CoSIDA Academic All-Americans. Brian Lepak became the third Sooner in as many years to garner the honor when he was named to the team in 2010. Gabe Ikard followed as a three-time Academic All-American in 2011, 2012 and 2013.

Ty Darlington continued the Sooners' recent streak of Academic All-Americans in 2014 and 2015 when he became the 18th OU student-athlete to earn Academic All-America honors twice in a career. He also became OU's first recipient of the Willlam V. Campbell Trophy, given to the absolute best football scholar-athlete in the nation.

Eighteen student-athletes from the OU football program were Academic All-Big 12 honorees in 2018, including 12 with first-team distinction.

Study Abroad – Sooners Around the Globe

Over the past seven years, more than 160 OU student-athletes have studied abroad in 23 countries. In 2019, a record 41 student-athletes studied in eight countries with two of them participating in semester-long programs in Windsor, England, and Rio de Janeiro, Brazil. Student-athletes earn up to six credit hours during short-term programs and up to 15 credit hours during semester-long programs. For fall 2019 and spring/summer 2020 terms, eight new study abroad programs that accommodate the time restraints of student-athletes will be available. These new study abroad programs, in addition to over 30 well-established programs, offer relevant coursework that keeps student-athletes on track toward graduation, and more importantly, gives them first-hand experience learning more clearly how the world operates as they navigate through daily life in a foreign culture.

Taking an Active Community Role

OU lives by a clear and strong motto as it interacts with its student-athletes...Inspiring Champions for Today, Preparing Leaders for Tomorrow. As part of that promise, the Athletics Department and the football program take an active role in a number of community service projects.

Oklahoma's student-athletes recognize that wearing the Crimson and Cream means representing a popular sports program and themselves as individuals. They are encouraged to respond to a public that adores them, while learning important lessons about making a positive impact in the lives of others in and around the community in which they live.

One WITH OU You

During the 2018-19 school year alone, OU student-athletes, coaches and spirit squads spent more than 4,000 combined hours volunteering in the community.

Sooners in Haiti

After an earthquake ravaged the already impoverished Caribbean country of Haiti in 2010, the island nation was left struggling for help and nourishment.

Since the earthquake, a group of University of Oklahoma student-athletes and staff members have regularly traveled to Haiti on mission trips to provide any help possible.

Working through Mission of Hope Haiti, a group of Oklahoma football players have painted houses, helped construct buildings and provide relief and happiness to Haitians.

After a group of nine players helped comprise an overall group of 40 individuals in 2011, the Sooners have been back almost every year. In May 2018, 30 OU student-athletes, including 15 members of the football team, traveled to Haiti.

While the work performed during each mission trips is arduous, the most difficult aspect each year is saying goodbye to the Haitian citizens when it's time to return home.

Sooners Regularly Recognized for Service

Oklahoma's student-athletes are as visible off the field as they are when competing for the Sooners. Their significant efforts in the area of community service have been recognized not only on the local scene where they have the most impact, but also from national organizations who recognize the scope of OU's outreach.

No player embodied the Sooner spirit better than Quinton Carter, who was named the recipient of the seventh annual Wooden Citizenship Cup. The award is presented annually by the Atlanta-based Athletes For a Better World.

The award honored Carter who started his own foundation, the SOUL Foundation, while at OU. The Las Vegas native also adopted a class at Norman's KinderCare while volunteering for a multitude of other causes.

Players from Oklahoma's football team have also been named to the American Football Coaches Association's Good Works Team, an honor reserved for individuals who excel in their service to others. Jacob Gutierrez was named to the team in 2006, Nic Harris in 2007, Gerald McCoy in 2008, Carter in 2010 and Caleb Kelly in 2018.

Gutierrez, who in 2005 was named the Norman Youth Citizen Volunteer of the Year, also was named a finalist for the Wooden Cup. Then, in 2006, Carl Pendleton was tabbed a finalist for the honor, as was Ty Darlington in 2015.

Subsequently, Pendleton received postgraduate scholarships from the NCAA and the National Football Foundation, while also being named Big 12 Conference Sportsman of the Year. In addition, Pendleton won the Bobby Bowden Award, the highest student-athlete honor presented by the Fellowship of Christian Athletes.

Darlington also won the Bowden Award and the Wuerffel Trophy in 2015. The Wuerffel Trophy is awarded to the FBS player who best exhibits exemplary community service. Fellow OU center Gabe Ikard also won the national honor in 2013.

GROWU PLAYER DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM

Launched by Lincoln Riley soon after he was named OU head coach in June 2017, GrowU is a comprehensive player development program for Sooner football players that focuses on leadership, professional development, personal growth, social connection and community service. The OU football staff invests in each of these areas on a regular basis.

Community service initiatives have included a marrow/stem cell donor registration drive with Be the Match (76 football players and staff members registered), a project in which players made soap to be donated to charity through Shayne's Hope, and a continued relationship with OU Children's Hospital, the Children's Center Rehabilitation Hospital, the JD McCarty Center and the Norman Veteran's Center, among others.

Professional development initiatives have included a CEO panel of speakers, resume and mock interview workshops hosted by OU Career Services, and one-on-one resume-completion sessions with the GrowU staff.

Personal growth initiatives have featured a number of visits from renowned professionals such as retired U.S. Navy Seal Marcus Luttrell, AT&T Chairman and CEO Randall Stephenson and retired U.S. Marine Colonel BP McCoy. Players also learned from a number of OU professors and completed a financial literacy workshop led by representatives from Morgan Stanley.

Flagship Educational Institution of the Sooner State

Established in 1890, the University of Oklahoma is a doctoral degree-granting university and leader in research, health care and academic activity impacting the state of Oklahoma and global community. The Norman campus enrolls more than 28,000 undergraduate and graduate students, the Health Sciences Center in Oklahoma City enrolls more than 3,000 students and the OU-Tulsa campus enrolls more than 1,000. The average ACT score among the 4,385 incoming freshmen in 2018 was 26.2. It marked one of the most diverse and inclusive groups of incoming students in university history. OU began a new focus in 2018 to double research efforts in the next five years, promote OU Medicine as the health care provider of choice in the State of Oklahoma and grow the university in northeastern Oklahoma.

What Do You Know About OU?

- As of March 31, 2019, the university's goal to double research has already resulted in 1,061 grants for more than $235 million since July 1, 2018. OU researchers are partnering with the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration, National Science Foundation, Department of Defense, Health Resources and Services Administration, U.S. Department of Education, National Institute of Health, Department of Energy and many other funding agencies and organizations.

- OU achieved the Carnegie Foundation's highest tier of research activity classification for the third time this year, designating it among the nation's top 130 doctoral-degree-granting institutions. OU's Research Campus is anchored by the Stephenson Research and Technology Center, where cutting-edge research into life science fields ranging from robotics to genomic studies is taking place, and the National Weather Center, which houses OU's academic and research programs in meteorology and the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration's Norman-based weather, research and operations programs.

- OU has three campuses in Oklahoma as well as centers in Arezzo, Italy, Puebla, Mexico, and Rio de Janeiro, Brazil. Many of OU's degree programs are ranked best in the nation and provide real-world experiences for students. In fact, not only is OU home to the National Weather Center and world-renowned research, but students are able to begin working with researchers as early as their freshman year.

- OU faculty, staff and students continue to give back to the university through community service and giving. Generous OU community donors pledged more than $475,000 on OU Giving Day in 2018 that went directly toward scholarships and OU programs.

NORMAN IS A QUICK 196-MILE DRIVE FROM DALLAS. ROUGHLY 20 PERCENT OF OU'S STUDENTS ARE FROM TEXAS AND CHOOSE TO COME NORTH

Norman — Home of the Sooners

Norman is an ever-changing city of more than 110,000 residents. Located in the heart of the state, it has grown to become the third-largest city in Oklahoma.

Despite its continuous growth, it has maintained the spirit and serenity of a small, close-knit community.

Since the Oklahoma Land Rush of 1889, Norman has grown into a popular and well-educated city. The spirit of Norman and its citizens is unwavering and uncompromising. While other towns were clamoring to become the state capital, Norman residents wanted to have the first state university. When the first OU president got off the train and saw a prairie, he saw opportunity.

As home to the state's premier educational institution, Norman boasts an excellent quality of life and is a city that thrives on and celebrates the diversity of its community.

Legendary University of Oklahoma football coach Barry Switzer called Norman "a university town with a championship spirit."

Norman continually exhibits its love for sports by hosting numerous local and national athletics events.

Oklahoma City — Incredible Spirit

Oklahoma City, the state's capital, is located just 18 miles north of the Norman Campus. It was the first city settled in the Land Run of 1889 because of its position at the center of the state.

Oklahoma City offers a variety of attractions and activities different from any other place in the country. Sprawling across 625 square miles of America's heartland, the city's metro population numbers more than one million — a third of the entire state's population.

Oklahoma City has become a haven for exciting sports action. It's NBA franchise, the Thunder, played in the NBA Finals in just its fourth season in Oklahoma City and has produced two league MVPs in the past six years. The city is also home to three minor league teams and is the host of the NCAA Women's College World Series.

Located just southeast of downtown, Bricktown is OKC's entertainment and dining district. Restaurants with a total capacity of more than 4,000 seats, shopping, and a generous helping of turn-of-the-century charm has turned Bricktown into a hotspot for Oklahoma City nights.

Prominence on a National Stage

The Big 12 is nearing its silver anniversary as it begins its 24th year in 2019-20 as one of the nation's premier athletic conferences under the direction of eighth-year commissioner Bob Bowlsby.

TCU and West Virginia joined the league on July 1, 2012, and became the Big 12's first additions since inception, joining Baylor, Iowa State, Kansas, Kansas State, Oklahoma, Oklahoma State, Texas and Texas Tech.

With 10 members, the Big 12 remains the only autonomy conference to determine its champions in all sports directly on the field of play with a full round-robin schedule. The Conference's hard work ethic and strong values have translated to enormous success in its first 23 years. Since it began competition in 1996-97, the league can boast 63 NCAA team titles and 664 individual national championships.

The Big 12 has been at the forefront in college athletics reform, specifically with student-athlete welfare issues to include cost of attendance, student-athlete time demands and strengthening its policy for concussion diagnosis and management. In 2014-15, the Big 12 introduced and hosted three "State of Collegiate Athletics" forums to examine the issues facing college athletics. Two were conducted in Washington, D.C., and one in New York City. Panelists included respected authorities from intercollegiate athletics, university leadership and sports journalism. The third forum featured a special session comprised of student-athletes. The Big 12 has continued the "State of Collegiate Athletics" forums with Dallas serving as the host site for three events and Atlanta for another.

The award-winning Big 12 Champions for Life, an initiative of the Conference, begins its fifth year in 2019-20. It features student-athletes, selected by league institutions, in a series of public service announcements highlighting the positive impact an athletics scholarship has had on their lives leading to stories of personal growth and success.

The Big 12 was the only conference to place a team in the Final Four and CFP semifinals in both 2017-18 and 2018-19. Texas Tech played in the 2019 national championship game while Kansas competed in the 2018 Final Four. Oklahoma was in the CFP semifinals in both seasons. Additionally, the Big 12 was the lone conference that had teams play in the 2019 men's (Texas Tech) and women's (Baylor) Final Fours and the NIT (Texas, TCU) and WNIT (TCU) semifinals. Baylor won the women's basketball national title while Texas was the NIT champion.

In addition to Baylor's women's basketball crown, national championships were won by Oklahoma women's gymnastics, Texas Tech men's outdoor track & field and Texas men's tennis, while Iowa State claimed the National Invitation Volleyball Tournament.

The Big 12 placed 70% of its teams in 2018 bowl games highlighted by No. 4 Oklahoma competing in the CFP Semifinal at the Orange Bowl. The Big 12 has made eight appearances in a CFP News Year's Bowl in the five years of the structure, including OU and Texas in 2018. The Sooners made their second straight CFP semifinal appearance and third in four years.

Additionally, the Big 12 added its seventh Heisman Trophy winner since 1996 when Oklahoma's Kyler Murray took home the award, following former Sooner QB Baker Mayfield in 2017. The Conference has had a finalist in 15 of its seasons for a total of 20 with two finalists in five seasons. Thirty-nine major individual awards have been won by Big 12 student-athletes in football over the past nine campaigns. Overall, more than 4,800 student-athletes have earned All-America recognition.

The Big 12 sponsors 23 sports. Men's squads include baseball, basketball, cross country, football, golf, indoor track & field, outdoor track & field, swimming & diving, tennis and wrestling. Women's teams are fielded in basketball, cross country, equestrian, golf, gymnastics, indoor track & field, outdoor track & field, rowing, soccer, softball, swimming & diving, tennis and volleyball. The Conference currently conducts postseason championships for 21 of its 23 sports with the Football Championship Game returning in 2017 after a six-year absence.

RECAPPING ANOTHER STANDOUT SEASON

Lincoln Riley's second season as Oklahoma head coach was another highly accomplished one, as the Sooners won a fourth straight Big 12 title (beat Texas 39-27 in the conference championship) and, for the second straight year, went 12-2 overall, 8-1 in league play and qualified for the College Football Playoff. At No. 4, OU also finished in the AP top five for the fourth straight year, a first for the program since the 1971-76 seasons. The Sooners produced three first-team All-Americans in receiver Marquise Brown, quarterback Kyler Murray (also won OU's second straight and seventh Heisman Trophy) and offensive lineman Ben Powers (consensus).

The Sooners led the nation in 2019 in total offense (570.3 ypg), scoring offense (48.4 ppg), yards per play (FBS-record 8.6), yards per rush (6.6), yards per pass attempt (11.3), touchdowns per game (6.4) and plays of 20-plus yards (111), and ranked second in passing efficiency rating (194.9) and third in first downs (369). They were the only team last season (and just the eighth since at least 1996) with at least 40 passing touchdowns (43) and at least 40 rushing TDs (42), and rushed for at least 300 yards and passed for at least 300 in a game a school-record five times (the feat had only been accomplished six times in school history entering the season).

OU also became the first FBS team to ever produce a 4,000-yard passer (Murray had 4,361), at least two 1,000-yard rushers (Kennedy Brooks had 1,056 and Murray 1,001) and at least two 1,000-yard receivers (Brown had 1,318 and CeeDee Lamb 1,158).

Here are some more 2018 accomplishments:

▶ Riley was named Big 12 Co-Coach of the Year, Kyler Murray was Big 12 Offensive Player of the Year, Dru Samia was Big 12 Tri-Offensive Lineman of the Year and Austin Seibert became OU's first-ever Big 12 Special Teams Player of the Year.

▶ The Sooners made their 20th consecutive bowl appearance, by far the longest streak in school history. The previous record was eight straight (1975-82).

▶ In addition to delivering OU's seventh Heisman Trophy (tied for the most by any school), Murray won the Davey O'Brien Award, Manning Award and Earl Campbell Tyler Rose Award. He was also named the AP Player of the Year.

▶ The Sooners led the league with seven first-team All-Big 12 selections in Brown, Murray, Powers, Samia, Seibert, tight end Grant Calcaterra and offensive lineman Cody Ford.

 FBS single-season record*

▶ Three Sooners earned freshman All-America honors. They were running back Kennedy Brooks (USA Today), center Creed Humphrey (FWAA and The Athletic) and defensive end Ronnie Perkins (ESPN).

▶ Eighteen Sooners were named to the Academic All-Big 12 Team, including quarterback/holder Connor McGinnis and linebacker Bryan Mead, who were among the 11 league players with a 4.0 GPA.

▶ Co-offensive coordinator and offensive line coach Bill Bedenbaugh was a semifinalist for the Frank Broyles Award (presented to the nation's best assistant coach).

▶ Oklahoma rushed for at least 300 yards and passed for at least 300 in a game a school-record five times (the previous record was two times in 2012), including in four of the last seven contests. Entering last season, the feat had only been accomplished six times in school history. OU recorded five of the eight occurrences last year by Power Five teams (one each by Ole Miss, Ohio State and Oklahoma State).

▶ Brooks averaged 8.87 yards per rush, second most in school history (Greg Pruitt averaged 8.98 in 1971) and second most in Big 12 history (West Virginia's Tavon Austin averaged 8.93 in 2012).

▶ Last year marked the first season in school history in which five players scored at least 10 touchdowns. Running back Trey Sermon led the way with 13 touchdowns (all rushing) and was followed by Brooks and Murray (12 rushing each), Lamb (11 receiving) and Brown (10 receiving). Hawaii in 2006 is the only other team since at least 1996 that has had five players score 10 TDs each. OU's Lee Morris also has eight receiving TDs.

▶ Brown and Lamb represent the first OU duo to ever record at least 1,000 receiving yards each in a season.

▶ OU's eight-game streak (Sept. 29-Nov. 23) of scoring at least 45 points tied for the longest among FBS teams since at least 1980 (Baylor also did it across the 2011 and '12 seasons) and was the longest same-season streak in at least the last 39 years.

▶ The Sooners became the first team in FBS history to record at least 500 yards of offense in nine regular season conference games (also did it in Big 12 Championship vs. Texas).

EIGHT SOONERS DRAFTED

Oklahoma had eight players selected in the 2019 NFL Draft, a number exceeded by only Alabama (10) and Ohio State (nine). The eight draftees were the Sooners' most since 2005. The draft marked the first since 1988 (31 years) that OU had seven offensive players and four offensive linemen selected. Quarterback Kyler Murray became the Sooners' second straight No. 1 overall pick (Baker Mayfield in 2018), making OU the only school to ever produce first-round quarterback selections in consecutive years. Murray was followed in the draft by wide receiver Marquise Brown (first round; Baltimore), offensive linemen Cody Ford (second round; Buffalo), Bobby Evans (third round; Los Angeles Rams), Dru Samia (fourth round; Minnesota) and Ben Powers (fourth round; Baltimore), kicker Austin Seibert (fifth round; Cleveland) and running back Rodney Anderson (sixth round; Cincinnati).

QUICK LOOK AT 2019

Oklahoma returns 16 players (not including specialists) who started at least five games last year (12 on defense and four on offense). Fourteen of those 16 started at least seven games and nine started at least 10 contests (five on defense and four on offense). OU also welcomes back long snapper Kasey Kelleher and holder Connor McGinnis.

SOONERS CELEBRATE 125TH SEASON

The 2019 season will mark the 125th of varsity football at Oklahoma. In their first 124 years, the Sooners own an 896-325-53 (.724) record, good for the fifth-best winning percentage nationally during the period, and have posted only 13 losing seasons. OU's 39 seasons of at least 10 wins are the most in college football history.

SUNDAY SEASON OPENER

The 2019 season will mark the first time that OU will play a regular season game on a Sunday. The Sooners' Sept. 1 opener against Houston will kick off at 6:30 p.m. CT in Norman and will air on ABC. When it was announced in late April, it was the only FBS game scheduled for that day. Oklahoma's three previous Sunday football games occurred in bowls. OU beat Penn State in the Sugar Bowl on Dec. 31, 1972, and handled Virginia 48-14 in the Gator Bowl on Dec. 29, 1991. It lost 21-14 to LSU in the Sugar Bowl on Jan. 4, 2004.

ANOTHER TOP-10 RECRUITING CLASS

Lincoln Riley's 2018 recruiting class — his first as head coach at OU — was a consensus top-10 one. His 2019 class was ranked even higher. The Sooners' "New Wave 19" class was rated No. 4 nationally by ESPN, No. 5 by Rivals and No. 6 by 247Sports.

The Sooners signed 23 players, 19 of them ranked as four- or five-star prospects by 247Sports, ESPN or Rivals. Four players were ranked as five-star prospects by at least one service in quarterback Spencer Rattler and receivers Trejan Bridges, Jadon Haselwood and Theo Wease. The class is comprised of 12 defensive players and 11 offensive players. Eight of them enrolled at OU in January and participated in spring practice (Bridges, Haselwood and Wease, tight end Austin Stogner, offensive lineman Finley Felix, defensive lineman LaRon Stokes, linebacker Jonathan Perkins and defensive back Jamal Morris).

THREE NEW DEFENSIVE COACHES

Lincoln Riley announced in January the addition of three defensive coaches to his staff in Alex Grinch (coordinator and safeties), Roy Manning (cornerbacks) and Brian Odom (inside linebackers). Grinch arrived at OU after serving the 2018 season as co-defensive coordinator and safeties coach at Ohio State. He made his mark in three years (2015-17) as defensive coordinator and secondary coach at Washington State when he took the Cougars from a 99th-ranked unit in total defense the year before he arrived (442.3 ypg) to a 16th-ranked unit in his third season (323.3 ypg). WSU also improved from 127th in pass defense (296.6 ypg) to ninth (170.9 ypg).

Both Manning and Odom were on staff at Washington State with Grinch. Manning served the 2018 season as outside linebackers and special teams coach at UCLA, while Odom spent the last two seasons as outside linebackers coach at Missouri. Odom was an OU running back and special teams player in 2000 (redshirted when Sooners won a national championship) and '01.

Ruffin McNeill, who served as OU's defensive tackles coach last season before being named interim defensive coordinator in early October, will coach outside linebackers in 2019, while Calvin Thibodeaux will coach the defensive line.

RILEY'S FAST START

The Football Bowl Subdivision's youngest head coach (33) at the time of his hiring, Lincoln Riley became just the fifth mentor in FBS history with no previous head-coaching experience at a four-year college to win at least 12 games in his debut season. The previous record for wins by a first-year OU head coach was 10 by Chuck Fairbanks in 1967 and Barry Switzer in 1973. Now, Riley owns the OU record for wins in his first two years as head coach with a 24-4 mark (the previous record was 21 by Switzer). In fact, no college head coach has won more games than Riley in his first two seasons since 1892 and '93 (125 years ago).

HOME DOMINANCE

Oklahoma has won more Big 12 championships over the last 20 years (12) than it has lost home games. OU is 113-10 (.919) at Gaylord Family – Oklahoma Memorial Stadium since the start of the 1999 season, with all 123 of those games sellouts. It is the best home winning percentage among Power Five schools over the last 20 seasons (Ohio State is next at .887). OU has outscored its opponents by an average of 43-17 in those games.

BIG 12'S STANDARD-BEARER

Since the first year of the Big 12 in 1996, OU has claimed 12 league titles and is followed by Texas (three), Baylor, Kansas State and Nebraska (two each), and Colorado, Oklahoma State, TCU and Texas A&M (one each). All 12 of the Sooners' titles have come since the start of the 2000 campaign, with no other program during that span winning more than two. OU is 132-28 (.825) in regular season Big 12 play since the start of the 2000 season. That's 22 more wins than the program with the next most victories during that period (Texas; 110-50) and 43 more than the program with the third most (Oklahoma State; 89-71).

OU EYEING FIFTH STRAIGHT BIG 12 TITLE

If Oklahoma wins the 2019 Big 12 title it will mark the program's fifth straight league crown. The last time the Sooners won at least five consecutive conference championships was 1972-80 under head coaches Chuck Fairbanks (1972) and Barry Switzer. OU is the only program to win three straight Big 12 titles, and it has done so twice (also from 2006-08). Baylor (2013-14) is the only other program to win two Big 12 championships in a row.

EXTRA POINTS

- No program has more all-time 10-win seasons than Oklahoma, which has 39. In addition, OU's 25 seasons with at least 11 wins are the most in college football history. The Sooners also lead the nation with 16 double-digit-win seasons since 2000.
- Oklahoma has scored at least 30 points in 36 of its last 40 games. It has won 33 of those 36.
- OU committed just 13 turnovers each of the last two years. That's the second-lowest total in program history (11 in 2008).
- The Sooners have won 34 of their last 36 games against Big 12 opponents. Nineteen of those 34 victories have been by at least 15 points (eight by at least 35 points).
- Oklahoma is 33-3 (.917) in regular season Big 12 play the last four years, which coincides with Lincoln Riley's arrival at OU. Oklahoma State ranks second during that period (23-13; .639), TCU and West Virginia third (22-14; .611) and Texas fifth (19-17; .528).
- Since Riley arrived in Norman prior to the 2015 campaign, OU ranks first nationally in points per game (45.3; next most is 41.9), total offense (559.3; next most is 526.5), touchdowns from scrimmage (308; next most is 287), pass efficiency rating (189.5; next best is 160.3), completion percentage (69.2; tied) and yards per pass attempt (10.7), and is fifth in passing offense (328.2) and 11th in rushing offense (231.1).
- Oklahoma, Alabama and Clemson have all finished in the final AP top five each of the past four seasons.
- OU is the only program that has produced at least four NFL Draft picks each of the last 12 years.

CEEDEE LAMB

▶ Has 111 catches for 1,965 yards and 18 TDs in his first two years as a Sooner. He also ranked eighth nationally in 2018 with his 8.2 yards per punt return.

THE DRIVE FOR FIVE

With 14 starters returning in 2019, Oklahoma will look to win its fifth straight Big 12 championship

OFFENSE

Oklahoma lost seven starters, including Heisman Trophy-winning quarterback Kyler Murray and four linemen, from last season's offense that averaged an FBS single-season-record 8.6 yards per play. But thanks to several key returning skill players, offensive line coach Bill Bedenbaugh's track record of producing hugely effective units (his 2018 group won the Joe Moore Award) and head coach Lincoln Riley's history of fielding incredibly potent ground and aerial attacks (OU ranked second in total offense in 2016 and first in 2017 and '18), the Sooners are projected to again be overwhelming on that side of the ball. Of potential help is the fact they landed the biggest graduate transfer catch of the offseason in former Alabama quarterback Jalen Hurts.

Largely due to the loss of Murray, the Sooners return just 28.2 percent of their total offense from last season. But they do welcome back 64.2 percent of their rushing yards, 60.0 percent of their receiving production and 66.5 percent of their all-purpose yards.

OU's Three Scholarship Quarterbacks

Jalen Hurts (Sr.)

Tanner Mordecai (R-Fr.)

Spencer Rattler (Fr.)

SUMMARY:
For the second straight year, the Sooners are replacing a Heisman Trophy-winning quarterback. Murray in 2018 became the first FBS player to ever average at least 300.0 passing yards (311.5) and at least 60.0 rushing yards (71.5) per game for a full season, and he led the nation in total yards (school-record 5,362), points responsible for (324; tied), yards per completion (16.8) and yards per pass attempt (single-season FBS record of 11.6). Hurts arrived in January after playing in three College Football Playoff Championships. Redshirt freshman Mordecai will battle Hurts for the starting spot, and the ballyhooed Rattler will look to turn heads.

RUNNING BACKS

LETTERMEN RETURNING (3):

• Trey Sermon (Jr.) – A 2018 honorable mention All-Big 12 pick who started final 12 contests and led team with 13 touchdowns (all rushing) while ranking third with 947 rushing yards ... has 1,691 career rushing yards and 18 rushing TDs.

Brooks (1,056 rushing yards, 12 TDs), Sermon (947 yards, 13 TDs) and Pledger (179 yards) were OU's top three rushers not named Kyler Murray last season and are all back in 2019. Bobby Evans (second-team All-Big 12), Cody Ford (third-team AP All-American), Ben Powers (consensus All-American) and Dru Samia (Big 12 Tri-Offensive Lineman of the Year), who were all selected in the NFL Draft, totaled 159 games played and 144 starts in their Sooner careers. DEFENSE

Oklahoma ranked last in the Big 12 in 2018 in total defense and passing defense, and sixth in rushing defense. So in January, head coach Lincoln Riley announced the hiring of three new defensive coaches, including coordinator Alex Grinch. Regarded as one of the game's best young defensive minds, the 38-year-old Grinch served the 2015-17 seasons as Washington State's defensive coordinator and secondary coach, leading an extraordinary turnaround for head coach Mike Leach's defense. He was Ohio State's co-defensive coordinator and safeties coach for the 2018 season, and will oversee safeties at OU as well.

"We kind of use the phrase 'downhill approach' and really what we mean by that is being less reactionary," Grinch said of his defensive philosophy at his introductory news conference. "Obviously we've got to react to where the ball is. That's football. But trying the best you can to put our guys in a situation where an offense has to react to you to a certain extent."

Cornerbacks coach Roy Manning and inside linebackers coach Brian Odom also joined the OU staff in January, and were with Grinch during Washington State's reversal of defensive fortunes. Ruffin McNeill, who was OU's interim defensive coordinator the last eight games of 2018, will preside over outside linebackers this season, while Calvin Thibodeaux will serve as the defensive line coach. The Sooners, who return 78.0 percent of their tackle production, only lost two starters in defensive end Amani Bledsoe and weakside linebacker Curtis Bolton.

SUMMARY:

The OU secondary returns virtually intact from 2018, with 11 of the 12 members who saw the field back for 2019 (they combined for 55 starts last year). The only departure was safety Kahlil Haughton (seven starts and 50 tackles). The Sooners' defensive backfield produced only five interceptions and forced just one fumble last season, stats that Grinch and Manning will look to increase dramatically. Several highly regarded newcomers could help in that regard.

SPECIAL TEAMS

For the first time since 2014, the Sooners will have a punter and placekicker not named Austin Seibert. All Seibert did in his four years in Norman is become OU's and the Big 12's all-time leading scorer, and the FBS' all-time leading scorer among kickers with 499 points. He also ranks second in school history in PAT percentage (.984) and in career field goals made (63), fourth in career field goal percentage (.797) and fifth in career punting average (41.7). The leading candidate to fill his placekicking duties is redshirt freshman Gabe Brkic, a scholarship player who was rated among the top 10 kickers coming out of high school two years ago. Redshirt sophomore Reeves Mundschau could have the inside track at the punting job. He was regarded by Kohl's kicking as the nation's second-best punter as a high school senior in 2016.

OU is in great shape elsewhere, with the return of long snapper Kasey Kelleher and longtime holder Connor McGinnis. The Sooners also welcome back primary kick returner Tre Brown and punt returner CeeDee Lamb, both of whom ranked among the Big 12 leaders at those responsibilities.

After presiding over two of the most prolific offenses in OU history as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach in 2015 and 2016, Lincoln Riley took over the program's head coaching reins on June 7, 2017, following the retirement of one of the most accomplished coaches of the last quarter century in Bob Stoops. OU's 22nd head coach, all Riley has done in his first two years at the helm is lead the Sooners to their 11th and 12th Big 12 titles and to a pair of College Football Playoff berths. He was also named the 2018 Co-Big 12 Coach of the Year.

The Football Bowl Subdivision's youngest head coach (33) at the time of his hiring, Riley became just the fifth mentor in FBS history with no previous head-coaching experience at a four-year college to win at least 12 games in his debut season. At 24-4, he also holds the OU record for most wins by a head coach in his first two seasons (Barry Switzer held the previous mark with 21 over the 1973 and '74 seasons). No one has won more games in his first two seasons as a college head coach since Penn's George Woodruff in 1892 and '93.

Originally from the 5,000-person West Texas town of Muleshoe, Riley, who continues to call Oklahoma's offensive plays as head coach, has made his name as perhaps the best up-and-coming star in college football by overseeing an explosive — and balanced — OU offense the last four seasons.

Since the start of the 2015 campaign, OU ranks first nationally in points per game (45.3; next most is 41.9), total offense (559.3; next most is 526.5), touchdowns from scrimmage (308; next most is 287), pass efficiency rating (189.5; next best is 160.3), completion percentage (69.2; tied) and yards per pass attempt (10.7), and is fifth in passing offense (328.2) and 11th in rushing offense (231.1). With that kind of offensive production, it's no surprise the Sooners have posted a 46-8 (.852) record since his arrival (33-3 in Big 12 play). OU's overall mark since 2015 is fourth best nationally, with only Alabama (55-4), Clemson (55-4) and Ohio State (48-6) having better records.

Individual player honors and accomplishments have poured in under Riley, highlighted by quarterbacks Baker Mayfield and Kyler Murray becoming OU's sixth and seventh Heisman Trophy winners in 2017 and 2018. Mayfield also won the Maxwell, Davey O'Brien, Manning and Walter Camp Player of the Year Awards, was named AP Player of the Year and was the No. 1 overall pick in the 2018 NFL Draft. Murray also won the O'Brien and Manning Awards and was named AP Player of the Year. Receiver Dede Westbrook finished fourth in Heisman voting in 2016 and became OU's first winner of the Biletnikoff Award, while tight end Mark Andrews claimed the school's first Mackey Award in 2017. Seven Sooners have earned first-team All-America honors the last two years. Running back Joe Mixon set the OU single-season record with 2,331 all-purpose yards in 2016, while backfield mate Samaje Perine set the school career rushing record with 4,122 yards in only three seasons.

Oklahoma's newest head man joined the Sooners in January 2015 after he caught the eye of Stoops during a highly successful five-year stint as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach under Ruffin McNeill at East Carolina from 2010-14. With OU looking for a new play caller and wanting to get back to the up-tempo attack it helped make mainstream, Riley's numbers at ECU made him the perfect hire.

At East Carolina, Riley installed and directed a spread offensive scheme that made an immediate impact as the Pirates set more than 50 team or individual school offensive records in his five seasons with the program. His squads recorded the top five passing seasons in school history and the top four marks for total offense in a season.

He spent his final season with the Pirates serving in the role of assistant head coach/offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach in 2014 as the team ranked third in the nation in passing offense (371.9 ypg) and was fifth in total offense (533.0 ypg). With Riley calling the shots, the Pirates set a single-season school record with 6,929 yards of total offense.

Riley's East Carolina offensive units routinely earned national top-10 rankings in major statistical categories such as passing offense (third in 2014, eighth in 2010), scoring offense (fifth in 2014, eighth in 2013), third-down conversion percentage (seventh in 2013) and red zone scoring efficiency (third in 2012, fifth in 2010).

Among his notable pupils, Riley helped transform a pair of East Carolina wide receivers into the most productive pass catchers in FBS history. He guided walk-on Justin Hardy to 387 career catches, breaking the NCAA record previously held by OU's Ryan Broyles (349). Hardy's 4,541 career receiving yards rank third all-time in FBS annals as he flourished in Riley's offense, registering three 1,000-yard seasons at ECU that culminated with a 121-catch, 1,494-yard year as a senior in 2014. Riley also coached recent second-round NFL draft selection Zay Jones for the first two years of his career. Jones went on to break Hardy's record and is the NCAA's leader in career receptions (399) and receptions in a season (158 in 2016).

In addition to overseeing Mayfield's and Murray's record-setting careers, Riley also developed dynamic quarterbacks Dominique Davis and Shane Carden at ECU. Conference USA's 2010 Newcomer of the Year, Davis set ECU career marks for completions and TD passes despite playing just two seasons. Davis ranked second among FBS signal callers with 393 completions and 46 total touchdowns in 2010. He set an NCAA record with 36 straight completions in 2011.

Carden took over the job in 2012 and went on to break the majority of Davis' records, becoming the first 4,000-yard passer in program history and setting single-season standards for completion percentage (70.5 in 2013) and passing yards (4,736 in 2014). Carden earned Conference USA MVP honors in 2013 and was the American Conference's Offensive Player of the Year in 2014. He led all FBS passers with 392 completions in 2014.

Prior to East Carolina, Riley spent seven seasons on the staff at Texas Tech, where he was part of seven bowl teams and five bowl wins. During that span, Red Raiders quarterbacks won NCAA passing titles in 2003, 2004, 2005 and 2007. A walk-on quarterback at Tech during the spring and summer of 2003 who then became a student coach, Riley immersed himself in head coach Mike Leach's offense and worked his way into a full-time position as wide receivers coach in 2007. He served as inside receivers coach in 2008 and '09, and eventually called plays as interim offensive coordinator in the 2010 Alamo Bowl, where the Red Raiders racked up 579 yards in a 41-31 victory over Michigan State to cap the 2009 season.

Under Riley's guidance in 2007, wide receiver Michael Crabtree won the Biletnikoff Award after smashing Big 12 records and NCAA freshman standards with 134 receptions for 1,962 yards. Crabtree also accumulated 22 touchdown catches his first season. In fact, wide receiver Danny Amendola joined Crabtree that year as Texas Tech receivers who each amassed 100-catch, 1,000-yard efforts.

A 2006 Texas Tech graduate who earned a Bachelor of Science degree in exercise and sport sciences, Riley and his wife, Caitlin, have two daughters, Sloan and Stella.

Coaching Notes and Accomplishments

• Hired at Oklahoma in January 2019 after spending the 2018 season as co-defensive coordinator and safeties coach for Ohio State's 13-1 squad that won the Big Ten and Rose Bowl and finished No. 3 nationally.

• A three-time nominee and 2017 semifinalist for the Broyles Award (given to the nation's top assistant coach).

• A full-time collegiate coach for 14 seasons, and for 16 when counting two years as a defensive graduate assistant at Missouri, Grinch has coached in the secondary at all five of his full-time coaching stops.

• Presided over safeties at Ohio State (2018), defensive backs at Washington State (2015-17), safeties at Missouri (2012-14), defensive backs at Wyoming (2009-11) and cornerbacks at New Hampshire (2005-08).

• Served the 2015-17 seasons as Washington State's defensive coordinator and secondary coach, leading an extraordinary turnaround for head coach Mike Leach's defense.

• In 2014, the year before Grinch's arrival at Washington State, the Cougars ranked 99th nationally in total defense (442.3 ypg), 127th in pass defense (296.6 ypg) and 127th in turnovers gained (8). In 2017, he presided over a WSU unit that ranked 16th in total defense (323.3 ypg), ninth in passing defense (170.9 ypg) and ninth in turnovers gained (28). Washington State also allowed only 11 touchdown passes in 2017, tied for fifth-fewest in the country. And its 103 tackles for loss were tied for eighth-fewest nationally.

• Helped Missouri to a 23-5 record over the 2013 and 2014 seasons, two SEC East Division titles, a Citrus Bowl victory over Minnesota in 2013 and a Cotton Bowl win over Oklahoma State in 2014. His safeties played a key role in the Tigers' defensive improvement in 2014, as they combined to grab six of the team's 12 interceptions on the year. Strong safety Braylon Webb recorded a team-high four picks and earned second-team All-SEC honors.

• In Grinch's final year at Wyoming (2011), three of his Cowboy defensive backs earned postseason honors. Wyoming concluded the regular season ranked No. 34 in the nation in pass defense (202.2 ypg) and ranked No. 1 in the Mountain West and tied for No. 5 nationally in turnovers gained (31).

• Two of Grinch's Wyoming safeties — Chris Prosinski and Tashaun Gipson — went on to play in the NFL. Prosinski was a fourth-round selection by Jacksonville in 2011 and remained in the league until 2017. Gipson, who is with the Jaguars, spent four seasons with Cleveland, earning a Pro Bowl selection in 2014 with the Cleveland Browns. He has started 90 of his 98 career games and has 20 interceptions.

• In his first two seasons at New Hampshire, Grinch coached cornerbacks before being promoted to secondary coach and recruiting coordinator before the 2007 season. The Wildcats reached the FCS playoffs all four seasons Grinch was on staff, made three quarterfinals appearances and earned a No. 7 ranking in the final 2008 FCS Coaches Poll. He coached four players to a total of six all-conference honors, including cornerback Corey Graham, who was a fifth-round pick of the Chicago Bears in the 2007 NFL Draft and was a 2012 NFL Pro Bowl selection.

• Served as recruiting coordinator for a combined five years at Wyoming and New Hampshire.

• Prior to New Hampshire, Grinch was the defensive graduate assistant coach at Missouri for the 2003 and 2004 campaigns, and was an MU administrative graduate assistant during the 2002 season.

Coaching Notes and Accomplishments

• Has established himself as one of the country's top developers of offensive line talent since joining OU in 2013. He was named one of Rivals.com's top 25 recruiters of 2017 and 2018, and was a finalist in 2017 and a semifinalist in 2018 for the Broyles Award, given to the nation's top assistant coach.

• Presided over a 2018 OU offensive line unit that was recognized as the nation's best with the reception of the Joe Moore Award. The Sooners led the country in total offense (570.3 ypg), scoring offense (48.4 ppg), rushing yards per carry (6.6) and yards per play (FBS-record 8.6), and ranked second in passing efficiency rating (194.9). Right guard Dru Samia was named Tri-Big 12 Offensive Lineman of the Year and was joined by left guard Ben Powers (consensus first-team) and right tackle Cody Ford (third-team) in earning All-America honors (Samia was a second-team selection).

• Led by unanimous first-team All-America left tackle Orlando Brown, Bedenbaugh's 2017 line was regarded as one of the top units in the country and factored heavily in OU setting single-season school records in total offense (579.6 ypg; led FBS), yards per play (8.3; second all-time in FBS), passing yards per game (361.8) and completion percentage (.714; led FBS), and in leading the FBS in passing efficiency rating (202.7) and first downs (361). His unit also paved the way for a ground attack that paced the Big 12 with 217.8 rushing yards per contest.

• OU's 2016 offensive line overcame early season shuffling due to injuries to help Sooners to one of most productive offensive years in school history, ranking first nationally in passing efficiency rating (mark of 193.8 was then an FBS record) and pass completion percentage (.706), second in total offense (554.8 ypg) and third in scoring offense (43.9 ppg). OU also led the Big 12 by allowing just 1.6 sacks per game. Brown was the Big 12 Offensive Lineman of the Year.

• Coached a 2015 offensive line unit that featured first-team All-Big 12 honorees Ty Darlington and Nila Kasitati. Darlington also won the Campbell Trophy, Wuerffel Trophy and Bowden Award for his efforts on and off the field. OU started a pair of freshmen at the tackle positions, including left tackle Orlando Brown, who was named a Freshman All-American by the Sporting News. The line led the way for an offense that ranked No. 4 in scoring, No. 17 in passing and No. 22 in rushing.

• Sent three offensive linemen (Daryl Williams, Adam Shead and Tyrus Thompson) to the NFL Scouting Combine in 2015, a total topped by only two other FBS programs. Williams was a first-team All-Big 12 pick, while Shead and Thompson were second-team selections.

• Oklahoma led the nation in 2014 by permitting a mere nine sacks.

• The Sooners paced the Big 12 and ranked 10th in the nation in rushing in 2014. The 261.2 average was the highest produced during the Bob Stoops era.

• Running behind Bedenbaugh's blocking unit, freshman RB Samaje Perine led the Big 12 in rushing (131.8 ypg) in 2014 and set the FBS single-game rushing record with 427 yards vs. Kansas (11/22/14).

• OU's 223.9 ypg rushing average in 2013 was the second-best mark accumulated under Stoops and ranked second in the Big 12 as the Sooners topped the 200-yard rushing plateau eight times.

• Center Gabe Ikard captained the Oklahoma offense in 2013, earning consensus All-America honors. He also became the first OU player to win the prestigious Wuerffel Trophy.

• Helped coach a 2012 West Virginia offense that ranked fifth in the nation in pass efficiency (161.97), ninth in scoring (39.5 ppg), 10th in total offense (502.0 ypg) and 10th in passing offense (330.2 ypg).

• Thanks to the protection of his offensive front, the Mountaineers set single-season school records for total offense (6,526 yards in 2012) and passing yards (4,509) in 2011.

• In 2011, his line helped West Virginia average 37.6 ppg, while ranking sixth in the nation in passing (346.8 ypg).

• Was part of an Arizona offensive unit that led the Pac-10 and ranked ninth in the nation in passing (307.7 ypg) in 2010.

• Coordinated an Arizona rushing game that ranked second in the Pac-10 in 2008 (158.4 ypg) as the Wildcats averaged 402.4 ypg of total offense, the fifth-highest single-season mark in school history.

• Part of an offensive staff that helped Texas Tech lead the Big 12 in total offense and rank sixth in the nation at 448.8 ypg in 2006. Texas Tech also ranked 13th among FBS teams in scoring at 32.5 ppg.

• Was named NCAA Division II Coordinator of the Year after helping lead Ferris State to a division-best 534 ypg in 1999.

Coaching Notes and Accomplishments

• Hired at Oklahoma in January 2018 as assistant head coach for offense (coaching tight ends and H-backs) after serving the 2016 and '17 seasons as special teams coordinator and tight ends coach at Georgia. In addition to his OU offensive coaching responsibilities, also plays a role in overseeing special teams.

• Part of an offensive staff that saw the Sooners lead the nation in 2018 in total offense (570.3 ypg), scoring offense (48.4 ppg) and yards per play (FBS-record 8.6), and rank second in passing efficiency rating (194.9). Senior H-back pupil Carson Meier earned second-team All-Big 12 honors after catching 19 passes for 327 yards and four touchdowns.

• OU ranked 14th nationally in punt return average in 2018 with a 14.5-yard mark (up from 97th in 2017 before Beamer's arrival [5.6 average]) and 31st in kickoff return average with a 22.7-yard figure (up from 98th in 2017 [19.3 average]). Also, the Sooners hadn't blocked a punt that was returned for a TD since 2002 but registered two in 2018.

• Georgia posted a 21-7 combined record with Beamer on staff, including a 13-2 mark in 2017 when the Bulldogs won the SEC Championship Game, beat OU 54-48 in overtime in the College Football Playoff Semifinal at the Rose Bowl and lost 26-23 to Alabama in overtime in the CFP National Championship.

• Served as associate head coach and running backs coach at Virginia Tech for five years (2011-15) and was an assistant coach at South Carolina (2007-10) and Mississippi State (2004-06).

• In 2017, Georgia ranked eighth nationally in net punting average (41.7 yards) after ranking 112th in 2016, and 20th nationally in kickoff return average (23.5 yards). The Bulldogs also improved 76 spots from 2016 in kickoff return defense, allowing 19.5 yards per return to rank 40th.

• Georgia blocked four kicks in 2017, and its three blocked field goals ranked as third most in school history. Rodrigo Blankenship made 21 of his 24 field goal attempts (87.5 percent) to lead the SEC in FG percentage, while Cameron Nizalek's 42.0-yard net punting average was the second-best mark in school history. Returner Mecole Hardman led the SEC in punt return average (11.8 yards) and ranked second in kickoff return average (25.3 yards).

• Beamer's 2013 Virginia Tech running backs didn't fumble the ball in 350 combined attempts, marking the first time in his father Frank's head coaching tenure for the feat. His 2014 group suffered through several injuries that hampered production, but tailback J.C. Coleman stepped up late in the season and earned Military Bowl MVP honors, a game in which Beamer served as the acting head coach while his father watched from the press box following throat surgery.

• In his first year as an assistant coach at Virginia Tech, he provided mentorship to David Wilson, who broke the school's single-season rushing record and was named an AP All-American and ACC Player of the Year. Wilson was a first-round NFL Draft pick by the New York Giants.

• At South Carolina, Beamer coordinated the special teams and coached outside linebackers, and in his final two years served as recruiting coordinator. He was nominated for the 2009 Frank Broyles Award, which goes to the assistant coach of the year. His special teams units recorded five blocked kicks that season, tying for the SEC lead and tying for the eighth-highest total in the nation. He also helped coach a defensive unit that ranked third in the SEC and 15th in the country in total defense, and second in the league and eighth in the country in passing defense.

• Beamer joined the South Carolina staff in 2007, coaching outside linebackers and serving as special teams co-coordinator in his first season. He worked with the cornerbacks in his second campaign, helping the defense finish the regular season ranked second in the nation in pass defense and 13th in total defense.

• Beamer's first class as South Carolina's recruiting coordinator (2009) was ranked as the nation's 12th-best by both Rivals and Scout, and the 2010 and 2011 recruiting classes were again ranked in the top 25.

He made the move to running backs coach in the spring of 2006 and coached running back Anthony Dixon to SEC All-Freshman honors. He also served as the program's recruiting coordinator.

• Beamer spent three seasons (2001-03) as a graduate assistant at Tennessee, helping with the cornerbacks, coaching the placekickers, punters and long snappers, and assisting in all special teams areas. He also oversaw game opponent scouting and earned a master's degree in sport management in December 2003.

• Before joining the staff at Tennessee, he worked one season (2000) as a graduate assistant at Georgia Tech, helping with the Yellow Jacket quarterbacks and wide receivers.

Accomplishments as a Player

Coaching Notes and Accomplishments

• Joined the Oklahoma staff in January 2019 as inside linebackers coach.

• An Oklahoma native and member of the Sooners' 2000 national championship team.

• Spent the last two seasons at Missouri as the Tigers' outside linebackers coach.

• Missouri's 2018 season saw Odom's linebackers play a big role in the defensive improvement that helped pave the way to an eight-win season and a berth in the 2018 AutoZone Liberty Bowl.

• Helped the Missouri defense make huge strides from 2017 in a handful of statistical categories. Mizzou jumped from 58th nationally in rushing defense in 2017 (159.6 ypg) to 22nd in 2018 (122.9), from 97th in scoring defense (31.8 ppg) to 43rd (24.4), and from 82nd in total defense (414.1 ypg) to 54th (379.0).

• Under Odom's guidance, senior linebacker Terez Hall had 69 tackles and led the team with a career-high 5.0 quarterback sacks in a season where his impact on ball games went well above the stats he produced. Fellow senior linebacker Brandon Lee also was a key contributor, ranking fourth on the team with 40 tackles despite missing time with an elbow injury.

• Odom's influence in 2017 was also important as Hall and Brandon Lee both turned in career years for the Tiger defense. Hall finished second on the team with 85 tackles and with his 12.5 tackles for loss (eighth most in the SEC). Lee established himself as a starter and turned into a big-play contributor, logging 42 tackles, four pass breakups and two quarterback pressures, while also notching his first career interception at Vanderbilt which he returned 42 yards for a touchdown to key Mizzou's 45-17 win that clinched bowl eligibility.

• Served as defensive quality control assistant at Washington State for the 2015 and 2016 seasons. He was instrumental in WSU's defensive turnaround, working under defensive coordinator Alex Grinch, who assumed the same title at OU in January 2019.

• Joined Grinch's Washington State defensive staff prior to the 2015 season, a year after the Cougars went just 3-9 overall and ranked 97th or worse out of 124 FBS schools in six different major statistical categories. In the short span of two seasons, the WSU defense went from last in the NCAA in 2014 in turnovers gained (eight) to 34th in 2015 (24) and 38th in 2016 (23). It also went from allowing 38.6 points per game in 2014 (ranking 114th in the NCAA) to allowing 26.4 points in 2016 (ranking 50th). Despite winning just three games in 2014, the Cougars strung together 9-4 and 8-5 seasons in 2015 and 2016, respectively, while playing in bowl games in consecutive seasons (2015 Sun Bowl, 2016 Holiday Bowl) for only the third time in school history.

• Odom spent three years (2012-14) running the football strength and conditioning program at Houston.

• Also spent seven years (2005-11) working with the football performance program at Arizona (2005-11). Additionally, for five seasons (2006-10), he assisted UA's football operations director by coordinating advance travel arrangements for all away games.

• Began his career in athletics as an administrative and defensive graduate assistant on Gary Pinkel's 2005 Missouri staff.

Accomplishments as a Player

• Attended OU for two years and was a redshirt on OU's 2000 national championship team that went 13-0 and beat Florida State in the Orange Bowl. That same year, he won the team's Iron Man Award for his performance in the weight room.

• Lettered for the Sooners in 2001 on special teams.

• Transferred to Southeastern Oklahoma State, where he was a three-year starter at tailback (2002-04), earning first-team Lone Star All-Conference honors as a senior in 2004.

Jim Hillis has worked with athletes at all levels of competition — USA Basketball, Pan American Games, the United States Olympic Center, college and high school. He is a past president, vice president and secretary of the Oklahoma Athletic Trainers Association Hall of Fame.

Brock Schnebel, M.D., Head Team Physician for the 2000 United States Olympic Team, directs OU's physician staff. Don McGinnis, M.D., serves an Olympic Team assignment in addition to his responsibilities with the Oklahoma Athletics Department.

Ted Boehm, M.D., and Matt Dumigan, M.D., complete OU's primary physician staff.

The Sports Medicine Staff provides consistent service on a daily basis, which includes injury prevention and acute care, post-injury rehabilitation, X-ray, and physician assessment. Hillis, a Registered Physical Therapist and Certified/Licensed Athletic Trainer, coordinates all rehabilitation protocols.

The combination of the staff and facility provide the care that is vital to a championship program. OU's facility is equipped with SwimEx aquatic therapy, isokinetic rehabilitation and testing equipment, along with cardiovascular and exercise equipment that offers the ability to manage the multi-level needs of OU's student-athletes.

SOONERS SIGN THIRD STRAIGHT TOP-10 CLASS

On paper, Oklahoma's 2019 recruiting class was the program's best since 2003. Head coach Lincoln Riley assembled a 23-member class that ranked No. 4 by ESPN, No. 5 by Rivals and No. 6 by 247Sports. It also gave the Sooners a third consecutive top-10 group nationally.

Of the 23 signees, 19 were ranked at least a four-star prospect on a five-star scale by 247Sports, ESPN or Rivals. Four players were ranked as five-star prospects by at least one service in quarterback Spencer Rattler and receivers Trejan Bridges, Jadon Haselwood and Theo Wease.

"I'm really excited about the class; it's been a long time coming," said Riley. "Some of these great players from across the country have stuck with us for a long time. And there's been a great unselfishness about this class. They're great players who want to accomplish individual things, but they're coming here with the team in mind and a having a chance to win championships. They've recruited themselves and they've shown great energy and great passion for Oklahoma. This is a tremendous group of guys."

The class is comprised of 12 defensive players and 11 offensive players. The state of Texas produced the most OU signees with 10, while Oklahoma, California and Florida each produced two. The Sooners also signed one player each from Arkansas, Arizona, Georgia, Kansas, Nevada, Tennessee and Washington, D.C.

Eight signees enrolled at OU for the spring semester and participated in team activities. They were Bridges, Haselwood and Wease, tight end Austin Stogner, offensive lineman Finley Felix, defensive lineman LaRon Stokes, linebacker Jonathan Perkins and safety Jamal Morris.

FLORIDA ATLANTIC	14
#7 OKLAHOMA	63

NORMAN — Oklahoma registered its largest margin of victory in a season opener since 2008 by beating Florida Atlantic by 49 points. The Sooners, who led 42-0 at halftime, and 56-0, outgained the AP's 30th-ranked team 650 yards to 324 (10.5 yards per play to 4.4).

Kyler Murray was 9-for-11 through the air for 209 yards and two touchdowns for a gaudy 301.4 passing efficiency rating before exiting the game for good late in the second quarter. Murray's TD throws both went for 65 yards to Lee Morris and Marquise Brown.

Running back Rodney Anderson led a potent ground charge that finished with 316 yards on 39 carries (8.1 average). Anderson carried just five times but amassed 100 yards and scored on jaunts of 30 and 65 yards.

OU's defense didn't allow a point until 55 seconds were left in the third quarter. The first-half shutout was the Sooners' first since 2015. On special teams, Morris registered OU's first blocked punt since 2013 in the first quarter. Curtis Bolton fell on the ball in the end zone for the program's first TD on a blocked punt since 2002.

LUBBOCK, Texas — Quarterback Kyler Murray recovered from a pair of early interceptions that led to a two-touchdown deficit, throwing for 360 yards and three touchdowns and running for 100 yards and another score to rally No. 7 Oklahoma to a 51-46 victory over Texas Tech. #9 TEXAS	27

ARLINGTON, Texas — In the first-ever Big 12 Championship between Oklahoma and Texas, Kyler Murray threw for 379 yards and three touchdowns without a turnover to help lead the Sooners their 12th Big 12 title in the 23-year history of the league. OU, which with the win beat every team on its 2018 schedule, became the first program to win four consecutive outright conference championships since Florida (SEC) from 1993 to '96.

Murray was 25 for 34 through the air and added 39 rushing yards to earn the game's Most Outstanding Player honor. He threw touchdown passes to CeeDee Lamb (28 yards) and Grant Calcaterra (6 and 18 yards). Calcaterra's one-handed second TD grab came with 2:00 left in the fourth quarter and represented the final score of the game. Lamb finished with six catches for a career-high 167 yards.

Sophomore cornerback Tre Brown registered a key safety with a sack of Texas quarterback Sam Ehlinger with 8:27 to go that put the Sooners up 32-27. He was part of an OU defense that held the Longhorns to 88 rushing yards on 32 carries (2.8 average).

OU's Austin Seibert was 3 for 3 on field goals, and his 13 points on the day moved him into second place on the FBS career kick-scoring list (489 points).

MIAMI GARDENS, Fla. — No. 4 Oklahoma outscored No. 1 Alabama 34-17 over the final 43 minutes (and outgained it 447-289), but couldn't fully dig itself out of a 28-0 hole in a 45-34 defeat in the College Football Playoff Semifinal at the Capital One Orange Bowl. The Sooners scored the most points against the Crimson Tide since the 2016 campaign and set season highs by an Alabama opponent in multiple other categories: total yards (471), yards per play (6.8), passing yards (308) and first downs (26).

Kyler Murray threw for 308 yards and two TDs while rushing for the most yards (109) by a QB against a Nick Saban-coached Alabama team. He also had an 8-yard TD run.

Sophomore CeeDee Lamb posted game highs of eight receptions and 109 yards while recording his 11th receiving touchdown of the year. Redshirt freshman Charleston Rambo posted career highs of three catches and 74 receiving yards. One of his grabs was a 49-yard bomb for a TD.

Senior kicker Austin Seibert finished the night with 10 points (two field goals and four extra points), giving him the NCAA career record for points by a kicker (499). He also broke his own school single-season record for points (138).

OU also became the first FBS program to ever produce a 4,000-yard passer (Murray with 4,361), two 1,000-yard rushers (Kennedy Brooks with 1,060 and Murray 1,001) and two 1,000-yard receivers (Marquise Brown with 1,318 and Lamb 1,158) in a season.

GAME SUMMARY

This was the first Orange Bowl that featured two national powers as both teams were undefeated and untied. To lure the Sooners to Miami, the Orange Bowl director circled the Norman campus, leaving chalk messages that promoted the game. Tennessee's powerful ground attack was too much for the Sooners, winners of 14 straight, as the Volunteers raced to a 17-0 victory in the fifth annual Orange Bowl. The victory was the 13th straight for the Vols, who were coached by Major Bob Neyland. The game was considered to be the roughest of all bowl games played that year as both teams combined for more than 200 yards in penalties.

GAME SUMMARY

In a game that featured two of the marquee names in college football at the time, Oklahoma blasted North Carolina State, 34-13, before an overflowing crowd of 10,000 in the second annual Gator Bowl. The Sooners did not take long to get on the scoreboard, two minutes to be exact, on an Eddie Davis one-yard plunge. N.C. State roared back to even the score, but OU put the game out of reach by scoring 20 second-quarter points and coasted from there. The marquee matchup was made possible because of the Tournament of Roses committee decision to match representatives of the Western Athletic Conference (now the Pac-12) and the Big Nine, (now the Big Ten). This agreement made it possible for teams not waiting for a possible Rose Bowl berth to be picked by the Gator Bowl committee.

Oklahoma upset the 'Heels with the big play coming in the first quarter as linebacker Myrle Greathouse intercepted a pass and returned it 70 yards to set up Jack Mitchell's one-yard run. The Sooners never trailed after that.

GAME SUMMARY

Bud Wilkinson's team was rated second in the nation and it was the first one of his squads to post an undefeated record, 10-0. The game was one-sided and still stands as the largest margin of victory in OU bowl history. One of the many Sooner big plays was Leon Heath's OU bowl record-breaking 86-yard TD run. The game was marred by an early-week incident where a former LSU player was caught spying on Sooner practices. It was the only time in Wilkinson's career that he publicly blasted an opponent.

OU lost a bowl-record five fumbles in falling behind 13-0. A fourth quarter 17-yard TD pass by Billy Vessels narrowed the margin, but a come-from-behind effort was foiled by an interception in the final minute of play.

Maryland came into the game as the regular season national champion with OU rated fourth. Twice, the Terrapins had first down with the ball inside the 10-yard line, and both times the Sooner defense refused to allow any points on the scoreboard. Sooner tailback Larry Grigg scored the only TD of the game with a 25-yard scamper in the second period. The 1954 bowl game was the first bowl game in which the players had to play both ways. Sooner hero Grigg also played defensive back.

Oklahoma got only six first downs, lost the total offense battle (328 yards to 279) and picked up an OU-bowl-record 165 yards in penalties, but used two interception returns for TDs, including an OU-bowl-record 94-yarder from David Baker, two fumble recoveries, a blocked punt and a bad snap from center to win going away. The 48 points marked an all-time OU bowl record that stood until matched by the '91 Gator Bowl team.

LB Lee Roy Jordan, the MVP, and QB Joe Namath led the Crimson Tide to the victory.The Sooners had first and goal twice in the first half, but fumbles ended OU's chances and the Sooners never really threatened again. The lone highlight for Oklahoma was a visit by President John F. Kennedy to the Sooners' locker room. Although President Kennedy claimed neutrality, it was obvious by the grimace on his face he was backing OU.

FSU wide receiver Fred Biletnikoff finished the game with 13 receptions for 192 yards and four TDs.

Tennessee came back to narrow the Sooner lead to 19-17 before Oklahoma defensive back Bob Stephenson picked off a pass and raced 24 yards to give OU an all important insurance TD. The Sooners desperately needed the insurance when Dewey Warren plowed in from a yard out. The Vols then missed a potential game-winning field goal as the gun went off.

The Sooners had switched to the wishbone, and they were running it to perfection by the time the bowl game rolled around. The "bone" produced 349 yards rushing and touchdown runs of 58 and 25 yards by All-American Greg Pruitt, but the Sooners still needed a late field goal by Bruce Derr to forge the tie with the Crimson Tide.

GAME SUMMARY

OU had lost only one game, the "Game of the Century" to Nebraska on Thanksgiving Day. Auburn featured Heisman Trophy winner Pat Sullivan. It was run versus pass, with OU's runners prevailing. The Sooners roared to a 31-0 halftime lead and amassed 439 yards rushing by game's end to set Oklahoma and Sugar Bowl records. QB Jack Mildren, playing in the final game of his brilliant college career, scored a Sugar Bowl-record three times. OU finished second in the polls to Nebraska with another Big Eight team, Colorado, finishing third.

GAME SUMMARY

Played for the first time on New Year's Eve, the Sugar Bowl brought the Big Eight Champion Sooners to do battle with Joe Paterno's fifth-ranked Nittany Lions. The Sooner defense posted a shutout while allowing only 11 first downs and 49 yards rushing the entire game. It was the first year that freshmen were eligible and Sooner wide receiver Tinker Owens celebrated with five catches, good for 132 yards and one touchdown. It was also the last game for Sooner head coach Chuck Fairbanks who left for the NFL the following spring.

GAME SUMMARY

It was Oklahoma's first bowl trip under legendary head coach Barry Switzer and a storybook setting. Ohio State, the No. 1-ranked team in the country, had lost in the Rose Bowl earlier in the afternoon. The upset gave the Sooners an opportunity to win the national championship if they could beat the Michigan Wolverines coached by Bo Schembechler. A 39-yard end around by Billy Brooks and a nine-yard keeper by Steve Davis were enough for a 14-6 victory and a fifth national championship.

OU did not punt the entire game, the only time in Sooner bowl history that had happened.

GAME SUMMARY

Called by Barry Switzer, "the most disappointing loss of my career," OU was a victim of one of the biggest upsets in bowl history. When Notre Dame downed Texas in the Cotton Bowl, OU was in the running for a national championship. A big win over Arkansas might impress the voters and secure the crown for the Sooners. As a result, Switzer went against his own strategy by choosing to receive the opening kickoff rather than play defense. OU fumbled inside its own 10 on the third play of the game and Arkansas immediately scored for a lead it never relinquished.

GAME SUMMARY

A truly amazing turn of events produced a rematch after Nebraska's victory in November. The Sooners, ranked No. 1 with one loss, had lost a heartbreaker to the Cornhuskers, 17-14, on a late fumble at the NU three-yard line. When the Huskers were upset the following week by Missouri, producing a Big Eight Championship tie, the Orange Bowl officials came up with the idea of a rematch, much to the Sooners' joy and the Huskers' shock. It went as predicted: an Oklahoma victory.

GAME SUMMARY

The Big Eight Champion Sooners met an undefeated Florida State team on New Year's night. After the Seminoles took a 7-0 first-quarter lead, OU unleashed 17 second-quarter points to take the lead for good. J.C. Watts was named Orange Bowl MVP on offense. He scored on a 61-yard option play and rushed for more than 100 yards. Bud Hebert, who recorded three interceptions, earned the award on defense. Billy Sims wrapped up his brilliant collegiate career scoring on a 22-yard pitch from Watts. Oklahoma finished third in the country and won the Orange Bowl for the third time in five tries under Switzer. The Seminoles crossed midfield only two times after the first quarter and never passed the 35-yard line.

GAME SUMMARY

This contest featured a rematch with a great deal more excitement as OU turned to a foreign weapon, the pass, to notch its third straight Orange Bowl win. QB J.C. Watts was chosen MVP and with good reason. The Seminoles used a fourth-quarter TD to break a 10-10 tie and seemingly gain control. OU was forced to start deep in its own territory after the kickoff with little time left. Watts went to work and passed the Sooners to the 11-yard line where he hit Steve Rhodes with a TD strike to pull the Sooners to within one with less than a minute to go. Watts then proceeded to hit tight end Forrest Valora for the two-point conversion that gave the Sooners their ninth Orange Bowl victory, including three in the last four years. Oklahoma finished ranked No. 3 in the nation.

The turning point came when Oklahoma punter Michael Keeling could not get his punt away and was forced to throw an illegal pass. GAME SUMMARY

Brigham Young was No. 1 in the polls, but Sooner head coach Barry Switzer had argued that the Sooners should be No. 1 because of a tougher schedule. A win over a fine Husky team would solidify that claim. However, Washington refused to cooperate and turned a 17-14 fourth-quarter deficit into a 28-17 triumph. The game was marked by a bizarre incident when, after thinking an Oklahoma field goal was good, the Sooner Schooner raced onto the field as called for by tradition. A penalty negated the field goal, but the Schooner became stuck in the muddy field in front of UW's bench, resulting in a 15-yard penalty. The following 42-yard try was no good.

Tim Lashar booted an Orange Bowl-record four field goals to give the Sooners an early lead. GAME SUMMARY

The Sooners' hopes of winning their seventh national championship were put to rest by Miami, 20-14. The Hurricanes took the opening kickoff and moved 65 yards in eight plays for a 7-0 lead, then never looked back. The Sooner offense, which led the nation in six categories, was held to only 179 rushing yards and 255 overall. Late in the fourth quarter, the Sooners scored on a 29-yard fumblerooski which gave the Oklahoma faithful a flicker of hope. The Hurricane defenders blew it out when they sacked quarterback Charles Thompson and caused a fumble to ensure the victory.

After a dry three quarters and the score deadlocked at 6-6, Clemson held off a late Sooner rally to post a 13-6 victory and give the ACC its first victory over Oklahoma in 16 tries. On the Sooners' last possession, OU took over possession on its own 20 with 2:59 left on the clock. QB Jamelle Holieway, playing in his final game, scampered 11 yards on a fourth down to keep the drive alive. Holieway then completed passes of five, seven, four, 12, seven, 12 and 13 yards, to get OU inside the Tiger 14 with 12 seconds remaining. But two desperation heaves by Holieway dropped incomplete to end all Oklahoma hopes.

OU's defense surrendered 485 yards and four touchdowns through the air. BYU's John Walsh set Copper Bowl records for completions (31) and TD passes (4). Sooner linebacker Broderick Simpson was defensive player of the game with 13 tackles, a sack and a pass breakup.

GAME SUMMARY

Top-ranked Oklahoma used a smothering defense to shut down the third-ranked Seminoles and Josh Heupel generated enough offense to lead OU to a perfect season. As the nation's only unbeaten team, the Sooners were the unanimous winners of the AP media poll. They were automatically crowned national champions in the coaches' poll under the Bowl Championship Series format. Led by Orange Bowl MVP Torrance Marshall, the Sooners time and again forced Florida State quarterback Chris Weinke into bad decisions. Tim Duncan kicked two field goals and Quentin Griffin scored the clinching touchdown on a 10-yard run up the middle with 8:30 to play. Florida State avoided its first shutout in 12 seasons when Stanford Samuels tackled OU punter Jeff Ferguson in the end zone for a safety with 55 seconds remaining after the snap sailed over his head.

GAME SUMMARY

Arkansas' defense played well, but few will remember. Oklahoma's defense was that much better. The final statistics were as chilling and stark as the weather. The Razorbacks, who reached OU territory just two times the entire game, could muster only 13 passing yards on two completions while their rushing attempts (42) outnumbered their rushing yards (37). Sooner defenders tied a school and Cotton Bowl record with a whopping nine sacks. Late in the first quarter, Oklahoma set sail on a 13-play, 63-yard scoring drive that culminated in a one-yard sneak by quarterback Nate Hybl. Along the way, the Sooners converted two third downs and one fourth. The resulting touchdown and PAT made the rest of the afternoon academic. OU added a 32-yard field goal by Tim Duncan in the third frame to build a 10-0 advantage that felt like twice that given the play of the defense. Arkansas, aided by penalties, finally scratched out a field goal, but no serious threat to the outcome was ever mounted.

GAME SUMMARY

Riding its defense, LSU won the BCS title, 21-14. Oklahoma entered the game as the nation's top scoring offense, but struggled against the Tigers. The OU defense gave a good account too, surrendering 64 of LSU's 312 total yards on a non-scoring run on the Tigers' first snap. Still, it was the LSU defenders who stole the show. DE Marcus Spears returned an interception 20 yards for a TD on the first series of the second half and seemingly opened the floodgates. But OU stiffened and got its running game untracked. After pulling within seven at 21-14, the Sooners made another push to the LSU 12, but missed on four straight pass attempts, the last one with just 2:46 left. The crowd was the largest ever to see a sporting event in the Louisiana Superdome.

GAME SUMMARY

Oklahoma registered its 10th straight win and gave Bob Stoops his second Sugar Bowl triumph in his final game as head coach. Samaje Perine rushed for 88 yards, pushing him past Billy Sims and into first on OU's career rushing yards list (4,122), while Baker Mayfield threw for 296 yards and a pair of TDs. Joe Mixon led the Sooners with 91 rushing yards and two scores and logged five catches for a game-high 89 yards. Oklahoma held Auburn to 339 total yards. Freshman Caleb Kelly made a career-high 12 tackles and Jordan Thomas recorded the game's only interception midway through the fourth quarter to end Auburn's hopes of a comeback. OU outscored the Tigers 21-0 in the second half until Auburn found the end zone on the game's final play.

GAME SUMMARY

Fourth-seeded Oklahoma made its third College Football Playoff appearance in four years and outscored No. 1 Alabama 34-17 over the final 43 minutes in Miami. But the Sooners' 28-0 deficit to start the game proved too much to overcome. Kyler Murray threw for 308 yards and two touchdowns while rushing for the most yards (109) by a quarterback against a Nick Saban-coached Alabama team. CeeDee Lamb caught eight passes for 109 yards and a TD while Charleston Rambo posted career highs of three catches and 74 receiving yards, including a 49-yard TD. OU's 34 points, 471 total yards, 308 passing yards, 26 first downs and 6.8 yards per play were Alabama opponent season highs.

HEISMAN TROPHY WINNERS

7 NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIPS • 12 BIG 12 CHAMPIONSHIPS • 52 BOWL APPEARANCES

1952 • HEISMAN WINNER • BILLY VESSELS

Billy "Curly" Vessels was the man who started it all. The first Sooner to win college football's most prestigious individual achievement award, Vessels led the Sooners to a 26-4-1 record during his career.

The 1950 Sooners, under the direction of head coach Bud Wilkinson, went 10-1 to give Oklahoma its first of seven national championships. As a sophomore, Vessels started on the 1950 squad, scoring 15 touchdowns.

But Vessels' most successful individual season came during his senior campaign when he won the Heisman Trophy. Vessels rushed for 1,072 yards on 167 carries and scored 17 touchdowns.

Creating a new meaning for the word "versatile," the Cleveland, Okla., slasher was part of every phase of the Sooner offensive attack. Vessels was even a threat from above. "Curly" connected on seven passes for two touchdowns in 1952.

The 1952 Sooners went 8-1-1, finishing fourth in the nation, and won Oklahoma's ninth conference title. OU opened with a 21-21 tie against Colorado and then reeled off five straight wins, averaging 46 points per contest. OU dropped a 27-21 decision to Notre Dame and then finished strong by sweeping the last three games.

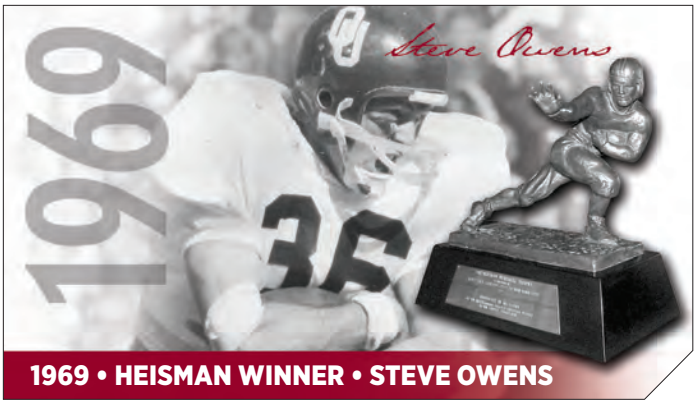

In 1953, Vessels turned pro with the Edmonton Eskimos and won the Schenley Award as the top player in Canada. He then served as an officer in the U.S. Army. Vessels was elected to the National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame in 1974.

1969 • HEISMAN WINNER • STEVE OWENS

Steve Owens was a 6-2, 215-pound powerhouse from Miami, Okla., who ravaged defenses from 1967-69, setting four conference records of the day.

Playing on a 1969 squad that had been hurt badly by graduation in 1968, Owens carried the load for the Sooner offense. OU's workhorse carried the ball 358 times that year for 1,523 yards while scoring a school-record 23 touchdowns.

Owens had two 200-plus-yard games while leading the Sooners to a 6-4 season. Spurred by Owens' effort, Oklahoma averaged 28.5 points a game in 1969.

Owens' great career left a mark on the OU records book, and he still has several school standards to his credit. He is the school's all-time leading scorer with 57 career touchdowns, and he holds the records for the most carries in a game (55) and career (958). Owens finished his three-year career with 4,041 rushing yards, the fifth most in school history.

Detroit selected Owens in the NFL Draft first round. He was the first Lion to gain over 1,000 yards in a season and was an All-Pro selection in 1971 and 1972.

In 1991, Owens was named to the Oklahoma Sports Hall of Fame and was the Walter Camp Foundation Alumnus of the Year. Owens was inducted into the National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame in 1991 and into the Orange Bowl Hall of Honor in 1992.

HEISMAN TROPHY WINNERS

1978 • HEISMAN WINNER • BILLY SIMS

Billy Sims, a 6-0, 205-pound running back from Hooks, Texas, swept through defenses like a tornado flying across the Oklahoma landscape.

He set a Big Eight single-season rushing record in 1978 with 1,896 yards on 256 carries and led the nation in rushing by averaging more than 7.0 yards per carry. He topped the 200-yard mark in a school-best four different games that season.

Sims led the Sooners to an 11-1 record, Orange Bowl championship and third-place finish in the final poll. OU opened with a 35-29 win over Stanford and then crushed West Virginia and Rice by a combined score of 118-17.

The Sooners rolled over Texas and won the first five games of the conference schedule heading into the Nebraska contest. Sims ran for 153 yards against the Cornhuskers, but it was not enough as the Sooners fell, 17-14.

OU responded by clubbing Oklahoma State 62-7 and was rematched with the Cornhuskers in the Orange Bowl. The Sooners edged Nebraska 31-24 in the second meeting between the top-10 schools.

Sims ranks first in the OU records book for 200-yard rushing games in a season (4) and a career (7), and ranks second in rushing yards in a season (1,896). He was first on OU's all-time rushing list with 4,118 yards until Samaje Perine (4,122) passed him in 2016.

2003 • HEISMAN WINNER • JASON WHITE

OU quarterback Jason White became the trigger man for the country's most potent offensive attack in 2003. At a school where the points can flow like an Oklahoma gusher, White led the OU team that outscored all of its predecessors (601 total points).

He did so with uncanny accuracy, especially on deep throws, and a touchdown to interception ratio (four to one) so gaudy that it read like a typographical error.

White set school records for touchdown passes in a season (40) and game (5, twice). His season passing total ranked No. 2 at OU. He was No. 4 nationally in touchdown percentage (8.87), No. 7 in passing efficiency (158.11), No. 18 in interception percentage (2.22) and No. 22 in total offense (264.0).

The outpouring of recognition was impressive. White captured player of the year honors from the Associated Press, Sports Illustrated, The Sporting News and CNNSI.com. He also won the Davey O'Brien Award and the Jim Thorpe Courage Award.

White returned for another season after his Heisman campaign and finished third in the voting. It was an unprecedented finish by one school when his teammate Adrian Peterson finished second.

HEISMAN TROPHY WINNERS

7 NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIPS • 12 BIG 12 CHAMPIONSHIPS • 52 BOWL APPEARANCES

2008 • HEISMAN WINNER • SAM BRADFORD

As the leader of the most potent and highest-scoring offense in NCAA history (716 points), Sam Bradford rewrote the Oklahoma record books on a continual basis throughout the 2008 season while lighting up scoreboards.

Known for his poise in the pocket and pinpoint accuracy, Bradford posted one of best ever touchdown-to-interception ratios, 6.25-to-1, in the history of college football.

When the dust had settled on the 2008 season, Bradford led the nation in passing efficiency and touchdowns, was No. 3 nationally in passing yards, set the Oklahoma season records for yards, touchdowns, passing efficiency, 200-yard games, 300-yard games, and 400-yard games, along with the career record for TD passes.

Bradford threw for at least four touchdown passes in eight games, tossing five scoring strikes in four different contests. In addition, Bradford surpassed Florida's Rex Grossman with the most touchdowns through the freshman and sophomore years with 82.

In one of the closest Heisman races in recent history, Bradford held off fellow quarterbacks Colt McCoy and Tim Tebow to become the fifth winner in program history.

Bradford also brought home the Associated Press Player of the Year, Davey O'Brien, Sammy Baugh and Chic Harley awards while being named the Big 12 Offensive Player of the Year by the league coaches. The AP and The Sporting News named Bradford a first-team All-American.

2017 • HEISMAN WINNER • BAKER MAYFIELD

Baker Mayfield arrived at Oklahoma unannounced as a walk-on. He left as the most decorated player in program history.

The quarterback, who grew up an OU fan in Austin, Texas, finished his career with a season for the ages in 2017, leading the Sooners to their third straight Big 12 title and a second College Football Playoff appearance in three years, while being named Big 12 Offensive Player of the Year, a unanimous All-American and OU's sixth Heisman Trophy winner.

Mayfield led the FBS in completion percentage in 2017 (.705), points responsible for (296) and yards per pass attempt (11.5), and broke his own FBS single-season record for passing efficiency rating (198.9). He also set the OU single-season record for total offense (4,938 yards) and finished second in school single-season history in completion percentage and touchdown passes (43). All told, he accounted for 49 TDs and just six turnovers.

The landslide Heisman winner did all he could to cement the honor in a Nov. 4 contest at Oklahoma State in which he set OU records with 598 passing yards (387 in the first half to also set a school standard) and 589 yards of total offense in a 62-52 win. He was 24 of 36 through the air, threw for five touchdowns and ran for a score.

Named Big 12 Offensive Player of the Week four times in 2017, Mayfield also won that season's Maxwell Award, Davey O'Brien Award, Manning Award, Earl Campbell Tyler Rose Award and Walter Camp Player of the Year Award. He was also named AP and Sporting News Player of the Year, and went on to become the No. 1 overall pick in the 2018 NFL Draft.

92 NATIONAL AWARD WINNERS • 166 ALL-AMERICANS • 7 HEISMAN WINNERS

2018 • HEISMAN WINNER • KYLER MURRAY

Kyler Murray played full-time only one season as a collegian, but it was one for the history books.

After a consensus-national-player-of-the-year honor capped a legendary Texas high school career, the quarterback started three games as a Texas A&M freshman in 2015, transferred to Oklahoma that December, sat out the 2016 season and was Heisman winner Baker Mayfield's backup in 2017.

All Murray did in his lone season as a full-time starter was lead the Sooners to the 2018 Big 12 championship and the College Football Playoff, be named Big 12 Offensive Player of the Year, earn All-America honors and claim OU's seventh Heisman Trophy.

Murray, who tied the record by being named Big 12 Offensive Player of the Week five times, became the first FBS player to ever average at least 300.0 passing yards (311.5) and at least 60.0 rushing yards (71.5) per game for a full season. And he became just the second player to ever record at least 4,000 passing yards and at least 1,000 rushing yards in a campaign.

The speedy Murray led the nation in total offense (school-record 5,362 yards), points responsible for (324), yards per completion (16.8) and yards per pass attempt (single-season FBS record of 11.6). He also ranked second in passing efficiency rating (199.2; second best in FBS history).

Murray, who also won the 2018 Davey O'Brien Award, Manning Award and Earl Campbell Tyler Rose Award and was named AP Player of the Year, went on to become OU's second straight No. 1 overall pick in the NFL Draft, less than one year after being selected No. 9 overall by the Oakland A's in the Major League Baseball Draft. He became the first person ever selected in the first round of both drafts.

FIRST-TEAM ALL-AMERICANS (SINCE 2000)

Oklahoma players have earned first-team All-America honors 45 times since 2000. The total includes 25 players from the offense, 18 players on defense and two from special teams. Showing versatility, players at OU the last 18 years have earned All-America honors at 14 different positions. During that span, 21 Sooners have been named consensus All-Americans on 26 occasions.

He was small in stature but huge when it came to on-field performance. Marquise Brown, who arrived at OU after one year of junior college standing 5-10 and weighing 148 pounds, eventually bulked up to 168 as a junior when he was named a first-team All-American by the Associated Press. One of the country's fastest players at any position, he had a penchant for making highlight-reel plays.

Brown's 2018 season was one of the best ever recorded by an OU receiver. The Biletnikoff Award semifinalist overcame multiple injuries to make 75 receptions for 1,318 yards (17.6 per catch) and 10 touchdowns. His receiving yardage total was the fourth-highest in school single-season history and he tied for the national lead in catches of 40-plus yards (11), 50-plus yards (seven) and 60-plus yards (four).

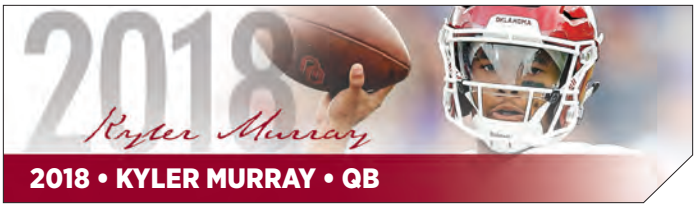

Nicknamed "Hollywood" (his hometown is Hollywood, Fla.), Brown holds the top two receiving performances in OU history, racking up 265 yards at Oklahoma State in 2017 and 243 yards at West Virginia in 2018. He also produced a 191-yard effort at Iowa State in 2018. He was a first-round selection (No. 25 overall) by the Baltimore Ravens in the 2019 NFL Draft.

▶ Led the nation with 14 catches of at least 50 yards over the 2017 and '18 seasons.

Blending lightning-quick feet with a strong and uncannily accurate arm, Kyler Murray delivered to college football viewers in 2018 things rarely observed prior to that season. His lone year as a full-time starter culminated with a Big 12 championship, a College Football Playoff appearance, a Heisman Trophy and first-team All-America honors from the AP and FWAA, as well as multiple school and NCAA records.

After being selected by the Oakland A's with the ninth overall pick in the 2018 Major League Baseball Draft, the two-sport star established the OU single-season record with 5,362 yards of total offense and set an FBS single-season standard with his 11.6 yards per pass attempt. He also became the first player in major college football history to average at least 300.0 passing yards (311.5) and at least 60.0 rushing yards (71.5) per game for a full season.

Murray presided over an OU offense that set the FBS single-season record for yards per play (8.6) and he became just the second player to ever record at least 4,000 passing yards (4,361) and at least 1,000 rushing yards (1,001) in a campaign.

The eventual No. 1 overall pick by the Arizona Cardinals, Murray is the only person ever selected in the first round of both the NFL and MLB Drafts.

Ben Powers got an opportunity in his rookie year at OU as a sophomore and never looked back. An offensive guard who was barely recruited out of high school or junior college, Powers was inserted into the lineup when a teammate was injured in the third game of the 2016 season. Thirty-five starts later, Powers etched his name as one of the most accomplished OU offensive linemen of the 21st century. He was crowned a 2018 first-team All-American by the AFCA, FWAA, Sporting News and Walter Camp Foundation, becoming the Sooners' 81st consensus All-American.

Blocking for a pair of Heisman Trophy winners (quarterbacks Baker Mayfield in 2017 and Kyler Murray in 2018), Powers helped OU to Big 12 titles in each of his three seasons in Norman and to College Football Playoff appearances in his last two. As a senior, he played 829 snaps without giving up a sack, and was part of an offensive line that won the Joe Moore Award as the nation's top O-line unit. The two-time Academic All-Big 12 First Team member was selected in the fifth round of the 2019 NFL Draft by the Baltimore Ravens.

2017 • MARK ANDREWS • TE

Mark Andrews excelled as a freshman and was even better as a sophomore. And he dominated as a junior en route to becoming a unanimous first-team All-American and Oklahoma's first recipient of the Mackey Award (nation's top tight end) before leaving early for the NFL Draft.

Helping the Sooners to the College Football Playoff his first and last years in Norman, the big and athletic Andrews led OU with 62 catches and eight touchdown receptions as a junior. He was a nightmare to cover for both slower linebackers and smaller defensive backs, and he finished his career as OU's all-time leader in receiving yards among tight ends (1,765) while ranking sixth among all Sooners in touchdown catches (22).

The three-time Academic All-Big 12 honoree, who battled type 1 diabetes and monitored his blood sugar levels several times each game, excelled after the catch and scored a touchdown on 20 percent of his career receptions (22 of 112).

2017 • ORLANDO BROWN • OT

He only played three years at Oklahoma, but Orlando Brown was one of the most effective — and decorated — offensive linemen in school history. Known for his ultra-competitive nature and nasty demeanor on the field, he showcased an ability to shut down bull-rushes in pass protection and be a mauler in the run game.

Brown started at left tackle in all 40 of the Sooners' games from 2015 through 2017, and was the 2016 and '17 Big 12 Offensive Lineman of the Year. He was a Sporting News freshman All-American in 2015, an AP and FWAA second-team All-American in 2016, and a unanimous All-American and Outland Trophy finalist in 2017.

Protecting quarterback Baker Mayfield's blind side, it's no surprise the Sooners won Big 12 Championships each of their three years together and made a pair of College Football Playoff appearances.

2015 & 2017 • BAKER MAYFIELD • QB

From walk-on transfer to All-American to Heisman Trophy winner to No. 1 pick in the NFL Draft, Baker Mayfield was a revelation for Oklahoma in 2015 and simply got better with each season thereafter. He directed the Sooners to three consecutive Big 12 titles and the program's first two College Football Playoff appearances, and as a result left Norman as the most decorated player in program history.

With his gunslinger mentality and catch-me-if-you-can scrambling ability, Mayfield registered 4,105 total yards and 43 total touchdowns in his first year at OU, and was named Sporting News Player of the Year and a Sporting News and Walter Camp first-team All-American.

Statistically he was even better in 2016 when he accounted for 4,142 yards and 46 more scores in leading OU to a second straight Big 12 title and a Sugar Bowl win. A Heisman finalist, he also set the FBS single-season passing efficiency record with a 196.4 rating.

And in 2017, Mayfield led the FBS in completion percentage (.705), points responsible for (296) and yards per pass attempt (11.5), and broke his own FBS single-season record for pass efficiency rating (198.9). He also set the OU record for total offense (4,938 yards). All told that year, he accounted for 49 TDs and just six turnovers as he won the Heisman Trophy, earned his second Big 12 Offensive Player of the Year award and was a unanimous All-American.

2017 • OGBONNIA OKORONKWO • DE/LB

Ogbonnia Okoronkwo's career at Oklahoma didn't start with a bang, but boy did it end with one. The defensive end/outside linebacker totaled just 17 tackles over his first two seasons, then over his junior and senior campaigns racked up 147, spending ample time in opponent backfields.

An elite pass rusher who could beat offensive tackles with his speed on the edge but also had the power to win inside, Okoronkwo registered 17.0 sacks and 29.5 tackles for loss as a junior and senior to help the Sooners to a 23-4 record during that time.

Okoronkwo, whose parents emigrated from Nigeria, finished his career with 21.0 sacks to rank second in school history among linebackers, and in 2017 registered 8.0 sacks and 17.5 TFLs to earn first-team All-America honors by the Walter Camp Football Foundation and be named Co-Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year.

2016 • DEDE WESTBROOK • WR

Dede Westbrook did things in 2016 no Oklahoma receiver had ever done, and as a result became the Sooners' first unanimous All-American since 2004.

OU's first winner of the Biletnikoff Award and one of five Heisman Trophy finalists (he finished fourth), Westbrook set a single-season school record with his 17 receiving TDs as a senior, all of them coming in the final 10 games. They averaged a stunning 46.3 yards. His 12 TDs of at least 40 yards were the most in a season by an FBS player since at least 1996, and he recorded at least 100 receiving yards in eight of OU's nine Big 12 games (88 in the other).

Westbrook, who registered four straight games of multiple touchdowns to start October, led all Power 5 players in receiving yards (1,524) and receiving TDs per game (1.31) on the year. His 17 receiving scores over the last 10 games were more than 43 teams had the entire season. He averaged 145.7 receiving yards in Big 12 play, 50.0 more than the next closest player.

2015 • ERIC STRIKER • LB

The unquestioned heartbeat of the team, Eric Striker led the Sooners both on and off the field during his four years in Norman. The outspoken linebacker used his relentless motor and lightning-quick first step to rack up 23.0 career sacks, the most ever by an OU linebacker, 7.5 of which came in his senior season. Striker also logged 19.0 tackles for loss in leading OU's much improved defense to the 2015 Big 12 championship and a berth in the College Football Playoff.

Striker was named the winner of the 2015 Bob Kalsu Award, given annually to the Sooner who personifies Oklahoma legend Bob Kalsu's spirit of leadership and serving as a motivator and role model for his teammates. He took home All-America honors from Sporting News and Sports Illustrated and was also named first-team All-Big 12 by the league's coaches, AP and ESPN.com.

2013 • GABE IKARD • C

This Oklahoma City native always dreamed of starring for the Sooners. Originally recruited as a tight end, he cracked the lineup at left guard as a redshirt freshman before eventually finding his home at center as a sophomore in 2011. Ikard would start 50 games during his OU tenure, including 32 games at center.

A two-time team captain, Ikard anchored a blocking unit that helped pave the way for a rushing offense that averaged 223.9 ypg in 2013, the best total of the Stoops era. During his four-year tenure, Oklahoma won two Big 12 titles and a pair of BCS bowl games while registering 43 victories, the best total of any Big 12 team over that span.

The inaugural OU player to win both the Wuerffel Trophy and the Selmon Spirit Award, Ikard was also named a Capital One Academic All-American of the Year and a finalist for the Campbell Trophy.

2010 & 2011 • RYAN BROYLES • WR

A hometown product from Norman, Ryan Broyles rewrote the receiving section of the Oklahoma record books in his career. When the dust had settled on the season, Broyles held eight of the nine major receiving records in Oklahoma history, spanning from game records to career standards.

As a junior, he became just the third NCAA statistical champion in Oklahoma history as he led the nation with 9.36 receptions per game. He was also tops in total receptions with 131, 20 more than the next closest player.

Broyles' senior year saw the local receiver change the NCAA record books as he became the all-time receptions leader in college football history with his 349th reception, fittingly on a 57-yard touchdown play at Kansas.

2010 • QUINTON CARTER • S

One of the nicest guys off the field, Quinton Carter was anything but friendly on the field to opposing offensive players. The safety from Las Vegas was known for his ability to patrol passing lanes while delivering punishing hits to ballcarriers.

As much as he was known on the field, Carter was also well known off the field and in the community. Having started a foundation during his collegiate playing career, Carter was awarded the Wooden Citizenship Cup and was named to the American Football Coaches Association 11-member Good Works Team.

Despite only starting for two seasons, Carter is one of just two defensive backs in Oklahoma history with two seasons of at least 88 tackles and the only player to accomplish the feat in back-to-back seasons.

2009 • TRENT WILLIAMS • OT

A consensus All-American in 2009, Trent Williams earned the reputation as one of the most versatile offensive linemen to play on Owen Field.

Named to the All-American First Team by the Associated Press, American Football Coaches Association and the Walter Camp Foundation and first-team All-Big 12 by six organizations, Williams was the ringleader of the OU offensive line in 2009.

After starting at right tackle for the better part of his first three collegiate years, Williams slid across the line his final year to protect the blind side of Sam Bradford and Landry Jones.

When injuries left the Sooners with no available centers in the Sun Bowl against Stanford, Williams answered the call in the middle as the Oklahoma offensive line gave up no sacks in a win against the Cardinal.

OU'S CONSENSUS AND UNANIMOUS ALL-AMERICANS

• Oklahoma has produced 81 consensus All-Americans, a number that trails only Notre Dame (102), Yale (100; all before 1945), Harvard (88; all before 1942), Ohio State (85) and Michigan (83).

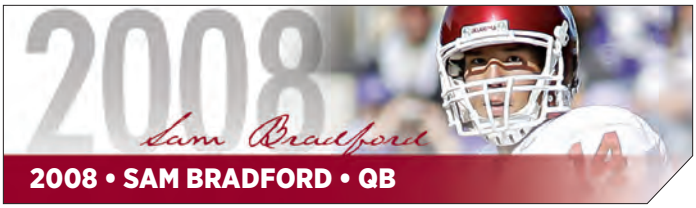

• According to the NCAA Records Book, to be named a consensus All-American, a player has to be listed on the first team for more than half the All-America teams used in the compilation. If no player meets this criterion at a position, a player can be selected if named first team on at least two of the All-America teams. Second and third teams are used to break ties. In the case of a true tie, all players are listed. Since 2002, the following organizations have been used to compile the consensus team: American Football Coaches Association, Associated Press, Football Writers Association of America, Sporting News and Walter Camp Foundation.

• OU has produced more unanimous All-Americans than any other program. The Sooners lead the way with 35 such honorees and are followed by Alabama (34), Notre Dame (33), Ohio State (33), USC (27) and Michigan (26). Unanimous All-Americans are those who earn first-team All-America status by every official selector (American Football Coaches Association, Associated Press, Football Writers Association of America, Sporting News and Walter Camp Foundation since 2002).

• In 2017, OU became the first program to produce three unanimous All-Americans on offense in one season: tight end Mark Andrews, tackle Orlando Brown and quarterback Baker Mayfield.

2008 • SAM BRADFORD • QB

As the leader of the most potent and highest-scoring offense in NCAA history (716 points), Sam Bradford rewrote the Oklahoma record books on a continual basis throughout the 2008 season while lighting up scoreboards like an employee of General Electric.

Known for his poise in the pocket and pinpoint accuracy, Bradford posted one of best ever touchdown-to-interception ratios (6.25-to-1) in the history of college football.

When the dust had settled on the 2008 season, Bradford led the nation in passing efficiency and touchdowns, was No. 3 nationally in passing yards, set the OU season records for yards, touchdowns, passing efficiency, 200-yard games, 300-yard games and 400-yard games, along with breaking the career record for TD passes.

2008 • JERMAINE GRESHAM • TE

The first tight end to earn All-America honors under Bob Stoops, Jermaine Gresham turned in a record-setting season in 2008 when he was a finalist for the Mackey Award and a member of The Sporting News All-America team.

A matchup nightmare for opposing defensive coordinators, Gresham had more TDs (14) and receiving yards (950) in a season than any other tight end in OU history.

Named first team All-Big 12 by the conference coaches, Gresham exceeded 90 yards in five games and five receptions in eight games. When the team needed it the most, Gresham performed, racking up 25 catches, 302 yards and four touchdowns in the final three games of the season.

2008 & 2009 • GERALD McCOY • DT

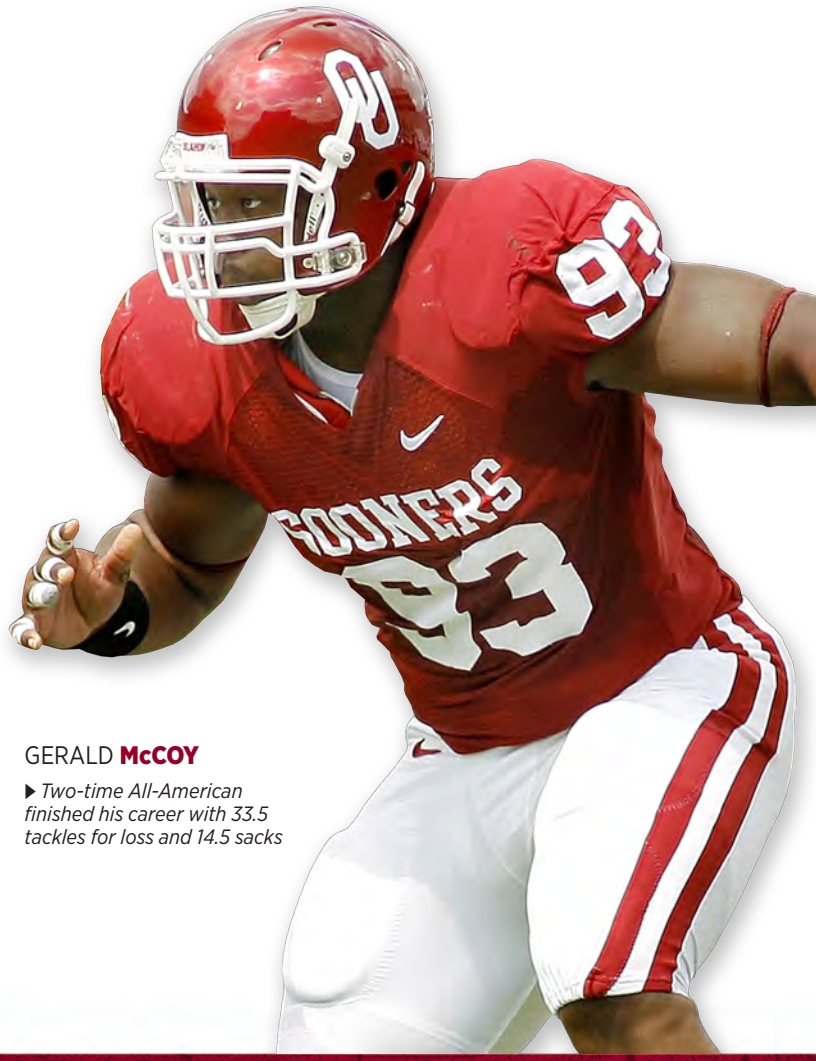

With the habit of collapsing the opposing team's pocket by attacking through the interior of the line, it was no surprise that Gerald McCoy was named an All-American in 2008 by both The Sporting News and Sports Illustrated.

One year later the Oklahoma City native followed up the performance by becoming Oklahoma's latest consensus All-American and the 35th two-time All-American in OU history.

Both years saw McCoy as the anchor of the Sooners' defensive tackle rotation, leading the group and finishing second on the team each year in sacks.

McCoy's presence was never more felt than in the 2009 FedEx BCS National Championship game where he constantly harassed the Florida offense while grabbing his first career interception.

2007 & 2008 • DUKE ROBINSON • OG

A consensus All-American in both 2007 and 2008, Duke Robinson built a reputation as one of the best offensive linemen to pass through Norman.

A 2008 Outland Award finalist, Robinson became a two-time consensus All-American by being named a first-team member to four All-America teams (Associated Press, Football Writers Association of America, The Sporting News and the Walter Camp Foundation) and earned first-team All-Big 12 honors from five outlets.

Robinson was a first-team member of four All-America teams in 2007 (AP, American Football Coaches' Association, The Sporting News and Sports Illustrated), and earned first-team All-Big 12 honors from eight different outlets.

The Atlanta, Ga., native took to the field early, playing in 10 games as a true freshman. From blowing open holes for Adrian Peterson to giving Sam Bradford time in the pocket, the versatile Robinson proved his worth as a member of three consecutive Big 12 Championship teams.

2007 • CURTIS LOFTON • LB

For a definition of a breakout season, see Curtis Lofton, 2007.

In his first season atop the depth chart, the junior from Kingfisher, Okla., put together one of the top seasons ever for an Oklahoma linebacker and was rewarded with a consensus All-American tag.

Lofton led Oklahoma with 156 tackles, sixth-best in program history, and established a school record with nine double-digit tackles including a career-high 18 tackles in the team's first meeting against Missouri.

The 2007 Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year, Lofton had a knack for forcing critical turnovers against big time opponents, never more evident than his interception of Missouri's Chase Daniel in the Big 12 Championship.

The one season of stardom paid off for Lofton, as the linebacker was OU's first selection in the 2008 NFL Draft, going in the third round to the Atlanta Falcons.

2006 • RUFUS ALEXANDER • LB

Linebacker Rufus Alexander was named first team All-America by the American Football Coaches' Association at the conclusion of the 2006 season.

The Baton Rouge, La., native led the Sooner defense in 2006 with 118 tackles (75 solo), including 12 for loss (-43 yards). Alexander was also credited with 3.5 quarterback sacks, four forced fumbles (two recoveries) and an interception.

Alexander had 36 starts in his career, including every game of the 2006 and 2005 seasons. He played in 39 total games for the Sooners from 2003-06 after redshirting in 2002. The 2006 Big 12 Conference Defensive Player of the Year, Alexander became the first OU player to lead the team in tackles in back-to-back seasons since Rocky Calmus did so in three consecutive seasons from 1999-2001.

2004 • ADRIAN PETERSON • RB

Adrian Peterson set an NCAA freshman rushing record for most rushing yards with the third-highest figure in the nation for the season. He also eclipsed the OU standard for most rushing yards in a season.

Peterson had what was then the highest finish ever by a freshman in the Heisman voting (second) and was the first freshman to be named a finalist for the Doak Walker Award. He was a consensus All-American.

Peterson broke three NCAA freshman rushing records: most consecutive 100-yard rushing games (9), most total 100-yard rushing games (11) and most rushing attempts by a freshman with 314.

2004 • VINCE CARTER • C

A two-time finalist for the Rimington Award as the nation's top center, Vince Carter was a four-year fixture at Oklahoma. He was rewarded as a senior when he was named to the prestigious Walter Camp All-America team.

The Waco, Texas, native stepped in as a freshman when Josh Smith went out with an injury in 2001 and went on to start at center for the Sooners for four seasons.

He earned first-team All-Big 12 Conference honors in 2003 and 2004.

As a senior in 2004, Carter helped pave the way for running back Adrian Peterson and protected quarterback Jason White — both Heisman Trophy finalists — as the Sooners completed a second consecutive undefeated regular season and won the 2004 Big 12 Conference Championship.

2004 • DAN CODY • DE

Dan Cody was so destructive as a senior that OU coaches devised a special position for him. Cody, at times, stood up from his defensive end spot to play a spinner role. In that capacity, he roamed the defensive front and menaced opposing offenses. At season's end, he had the top sack total in the Big 12 with 10 and a spot on the FWAA's All-America team. Cody was a two-time finalist for the Hendricks Award who was noted for his all-out effort.

2003 & 2004 • JAMMAL BROWN • OT

A dominating senior season led to Jammal Brown earning Oklahoma's fourth Outland Trophy. He followed that up as a first-round pick (No. 13) by the New Orleans Saints.

He did not allow a sack or hurry during the regular season while logging a team-best 130 knockdown blocks. At season's end Brown was a consensus All-American.

As a junior, Brown had the highest line grade in a year when the offense had one of the most productive seasons in school history. The performance landed the Lawton native on the American Football Coaches Association's first team All-America squad.

Brown had 127 knockdowns and ran his string of consecutive starts to 28 during the season.

2003 & 2004 • MARK CLAYTON • WR

Noted as one of the great stories of progress in OU history, Mark Clayton went from struggling to bench press 135 pounds in his first workout to twice being named an All-American. By the time his career was over, he held virtually every Sooner receiving record and was widely regarded as the best to ever play the position at the school.

After a wildly successful junior year, Clayton's numbers dipped somewhat as a senior, but that was attributable to an improved running game and a deeper receiving corps. He still led OU in receptions and yards and was named to the AFCA All-America team. Moreover, when punt returner Antonio Perkins was injured, Clayton added that role and took back one for a touchdown at Oklahoma State. As a junior, Clayton built a reputation as perhaps the most elusive receiver in the nation with 533 yards after catch. He set OU standards with 83 receptions for 1,425 yards and broke the school mark for receiving yards in a game with 190 against Texas.

2003 • DERRICK STRAIT • CB

Derrick Strait duplicated former OU great Roy Williams by winning the Nagurski (best defensive player) and Thorpe (best defensive back) Awards in 2003. Strait earned consensus All-American and All-Big 12 honors as a senior. He was named AP Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year.

Strait set school records for starts (53), career interception return yards (397) and passes broken up (53). The Austin native ignited Oklahoma's 65-13 win over Texas in 2003 with a season-high 11 tackles, an interception, a 30-yard return, two fumble recoveries and three pass deflections against the Longhorns. Strait was a Thorpe Award semifinalist and consensus first team All-Big 12 selection in 2002.

He started every game at corner and tied for the OU lead with six interceptions. He contributed immediately as a redshirt freshman and was named Big 12 Conference Defensive Newcomer of the Year in OU's 2000 national championship season.

2003 • JASON WHITE • QB

From two reconstructive knee surgeries in successive years to consensus All-American. That was the out-of-the-blue story for Jason White, who wasn't even announced as the team's starter until the summer before the 2003 season. He posted mind-boggling numbers, the most impressive of which were the 40 touchdowns and just 10 interceptions.

White proved particularly adept at completing the long ball and set a school season record with 17 hookups of 40 or more yards. He completed 50 percent or more of his passes in all but two games and was over 60 percent nine times, including 16-of-21 against Texas and 16-of-18 vs. Texas A&M. He fired five TD strikes against both Iowa State and A&M and had a career-high 394 passing yards against Texas Tech.

2003 • ANTONIO PERKINS • RS

Antonio Perkins became the nation's most feared punt returner by re-writing the NCAA record book during his junior season. He set an NCAA mark with four returns for touchdowns on the season, including an NCAA-record three against UCLA.

He also set an NCAA mark with 277 punt return yards against the Bruins. His other touchdown return, which tied the NCAA career mark at seven, came against Missouri. The returns were spectacular too, with lengths of 84, 74 and 65 against UCLA and 65 against Missouri.

Perkins, who also started every game at cornerback and had two interceptions on the season, finished No. 20 in the nation in return average, but that figure was diluted by the fact that his 53 attempts out-distanced the rest of the country's returners by at least eight.

2002 & 2003 • TOMMIE HARRIS • DT

Tommie Harris rose to the pinnacle of his position in his junior season, which would be his last at OU. He departed for the NFL after just three years in Norman. As a junior, he continued to rocket into opposing backfields with his uncanny quickness. Harris had 10 tackles for loss and 19 quarterback hurries.

After finishing as a finalist for the Lombardi Award one year earlier, he won the coveted piece of hardware in his final Sooner season. He also was one of four finalists for the Nagurski Award, which went to teammate Derrick Strait. Harris' sophomore season was impressive despite an injury. Slowed by a groin pull suffered in August, he still faced regular double teams.

Harris was named to three All-America squads and was named a finalist for the Bednarik Award. He was the 14th overall selection in the 2004 draft by the Chicago Bears.

2002 • BRANDON EVERAGE • FS

Free safety Brandon Everage earned All-America honors after a stellar junior campaign in 2002.

Six interceptions, with 107 yards in returns, would indicate that Everage understood the centerfield nature of his position. The 94 tackles, third-most on the team, speak to the linebacker-like mentality with which the Oklahoma free safety played. It was that combination of abilities that landed Everage on the All-America rolls.

Everage recorded 60 tackles in 2003 (44 solo) including four for loss and one sack. He also nabbed one interception with four passes broken up.

2002 & 2003 • TEDDY LEHMAN • LB

Determining the greatest linebacker in OU history is a tough chore. With Teddy Lehman in the mix, determining the fastest is much easier. That speed, which made him an outstanding high school sprinter, set the Sooner backer apart from his peers. He capped a brilliant career by winning the Butkus and Bednarik Awards after finishing as a finalist for each just one year earlier. His ability to get from sideline to sideline caught a lot of attention...and ball carriers. As a senior, he had 117 tackles, including 19 for 47 yards in losses.

As a junior, Lehman logged 112 tackles, including 17 for loss. He also had two interceptions, which went for 51 yards in returns, including one that set up the go-ahead touchdown against Texas. His one-yard return against Texas as a sophomore, the one that came on the back end of a play that saw Roy Williams leap a blocker to disrupt Longhorn QB Chris Simms, is one of the most memorable plays in school history. He was picked in the second round of the 2004 draft by the Detroit Lions.

2001 • JEFF FERGUSON • P

Most punters are known for the length and/or the accuracy of their kicks. Jeff Ferguson was outstanding in both areas. But Ferguson separated himself with athletic ability and intelligent play that made him the complete player at his position. He ended his career as the school record holder for punting average in a career and became just the second player in school history to average more than 40 yards in each of his four seasons. The length of the kicks did not come at the expense of accuracy. Twenty-one of his 71 senior season punts were downed inside the 20-yard line.

The thunderous punts and the balls that trickled dead deep in enemy territory will be secondary as time remembers Ferguson's career, though. In his junior season, he made a brilliant play in the national championship game against Florida State, turning a bad snap into a safety rather than an opportunity for the Seminoles to get back into the game by recovering the ball in the end zone.

2001 • FRANK ROMERO • OT

Frank Romero didn't take the conventional path to All-America status.

A tight end and defensive lineman in high school, he never played on the offensive line until his sophomore year at OU. He started the team's final four games that season (Bob Stoops' first as head coach) before starting all 13 games at left tackle in 2000 as the Sooners went undefeated and claimed their seventh national title. As a senior in 2001, he again started all 13 games and earned All-America honors from CNNSI as OU went 11-2 and won the Cotton Bowl.

Romero, who played on the defensive line and made 19 tackles as a freshman in 1998 under head coach John Blake, switched to the other side of the ball during 1999 training camp due to a lack of depth on the offensive line. By the time he finished his collegiate career he had racked up a string of 30 consecutive starts under coordinators Mike Leach and Mark Mangino, helping the Sooners to a 26-4 record in those contests.

The Moore, Okla., product was a two-time first-team All-Big 12 pick (2000 and '01), and protected 2000 AP Player of the Year and Heisman Trophy runner-up Josh Heupel.

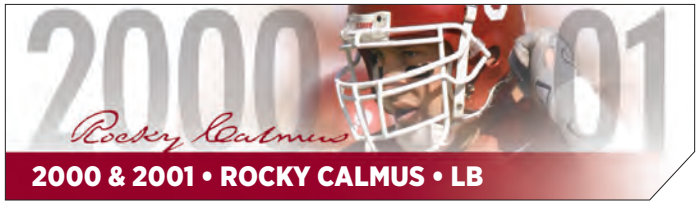

2001 • ROY WILLIAMS • SS

By the time his career was over, Roy Williams was more feared by offensive opponents and more respected by his defensive peers than any player in the country.

In his final season at Oklahoma, he won the Nagurski Award as the nation's top defender and the Thorpe Award as the nation's top defensive back. He was No. 7 in the Heisman Trophy voting, the highest finish of the year by a non-quarterback.

Williams bypassed his senior season of eligibility to enter the NFL draft, but still left his mark on the OU record book. He was drafted in the first round (No. 8 pick overall) in the 2002 NFL Draft by the Dallas Cowboys.

2000 & 2001 • ROCKY CALMUS • LB

Only a few players define their position, but that is precisely what Rocky Calmus meant to college football. As a senior, he won the Dick Butkus Award as the nation's top linebacker, but also was a finalist for the Nagurski and Bednarik Awards as the nation's best defender and the Lombardi Award as the country's top interior player. His senior year total of 117 tackles vaulted him into Oklahoma's top five career tacklers and capped an incredible career.

As a junior, he was named the toughest player in college football by The Sporting News during the Sooners' 2000 national championship season. OU's all-time leader in tackles for a loss by a linebacker, Calmus was named Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year by the Associated Press and was a finalist for the Butkus Award. A first-team All-Big 12 selection in each of his last three seasons, Calmus led the squad in tackles in each of those years. He was drafted in the third round of the 2002 draft by the Tennessee Titans.

2000 • JOSH HEUPEL • QB

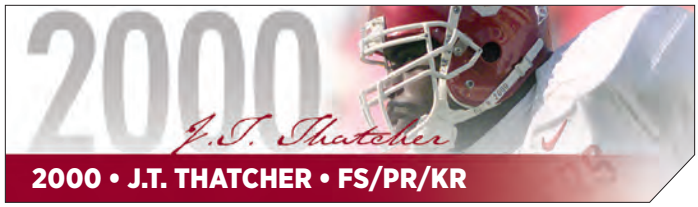

The runner-up for the 2000 Heisman Trophy, Josh Heupel became Oklahoma's first consensus All-America quarterback and the first Sooner QB to earn All-America honors since Jack Mildren in 1971.

As team captain his two years with the Sooners, Heupel is largely credited with turning an offense that statistically ranked as one of the worst in the nation before his arrival into one of the country's most explosive.

Heupel was named Associated Press Player of the Year, Walter Camp Player of the Year, The Sporting News Player of the Year, CBS Sports Player of the Year, Big 12 Player of the Year and Big 12 Offensive Player of the Year in 2000.

The first-team all-conference selection guided OU to a school-record 13 wins and its seventh national championship. Heupel left with virtually every OU and numerous Big 12 passing records.

2000 • J.T. THATCHER • FS/PR/KR

A standout on both defense and special teams, J.T. Thatcher was named an All-American as both a defensive back and returner. The Mosi Tatupu Special Teams Player of the Year Award winner, Thatcher was one of only seven players to return two or more punts for a touchdown in 2000 and ranked ninth nationally in punt return average.

A four-time Big 12 Special Teams Player of the Week selection, Thatcher set OU's single-game (160) and single-season (599) records for punt return yards. He also posted the second-highest single-game kickoff return yard total with 150, including a 93-yard return to set up OU's go-ahead touchdown against second-ranked Kansas State.

Thatcher was a semifinalist for the Jim Thorpe Award and tied school records for interceptions in a game (3) and season (8).

 Consensus All-American*

NOTING OU'S ALL-AMERICANS

- Since the year 2000, Oklahoma has produced 45 first-team All-Americans. Of the 45, 27 were consensus picks. Before 2000, the Sooners had not produced a consensus All-American since 1988.
- The most total All-Americans in one season came in 1974 and 1975 when eight Sooners were so honored. There were seven during the 2003 season.
- In 2003, OU set a record when six Sooners were named to the FWAA All-America team.
- Oklahoma had at least one All-American in 18 consecutive seasons from 1971 to 1988. There was also a 14-year stretch from 1946 to 1959.
- Three sets of brothers have been All-Americans at OU: Lee Roy, Dewey and Lucious Selmon all earned the honor, as did Steve and Tinker Owens and Buddy and Kurt Burris.
- Eight Sooner All-Americans went on to serve as assistant coaches at OU: Leon Cross, Eddie Crowder, Frank "Pop" Ivy, Claude Reeds, J.D. Roberts, Lucious Selmon, Jackie Shipp and Josh Heupel.

JOSEPH HARROZ JR.

INTERIM PRESIDENT, UNIVERSITY OF OKLAHOMA

Joseph Harroz Jr. became interim president of the University of Oklahoma on May 17, 2019. For the past nine years he has served as Dean and professor of Law at the OU College of Law.

Harroz is a 1989 Phi Beta Kappa graduate of the University of Oklahoma where he majored in economics with distinction and minored in zoology. He received his Juris Doctor in 1992 from Georgetown University Law Center. He began his legal career as a legislative director and legal counsel in the United States Senate and then practiced law with the firm of Crowe & Dunlevy in Oklahoma City.

Harroz began working at OU in 1994, serving as the vice president for executive affairs. In 1996, he began his service as general counsel to the Board of Regents of the University of Oklahoma and served in that role for 12 years, longer than anyone before him. In 2008, he became the president of a publicly traded health care company, growing its market capitalization to more than $80 million, before returning to OU in 2010 as the dean and director of the OU Law Center and Fenelon Boesche Chair of Law. In addition, Harroz has taught for more than 22 years, including courses in employment, sports and health care law.

Under his leadership, the OU College of Law has received record national recognition, including the highest U.S. News & World Report ranking by any Oklahoma law school in history and the first law school in the nation to achieve Apple Distinguished School status (Apple, Inc.). In addition, his fundraising efforts have more than doubled the overall endowment of the College and more than tripled the scholarship endowment. Most recently, the College of Law has become one of the top three law schools in the nation in on-line legal education.

JOE CASTIGLIONE

VICE PRESIDENT FOR INTERCOLLEGIATE ATHLETICS PROGRAMS AND DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

As you look across the landscape of intercollegiate athletics, you would be hard pressed to find an athletics administrator who has experienced the long-term success at a legendary program that Joe Castiglione has had at the University of Oklahoma.

He knew the success of the Sooners first hand because his time at another Big Eight/Big 12 program. That success might have kept others from stepping into the job. The efforts to find stability and direction at OU would have kept others away. Castiglione, in his standard style, welcomed both — the decades of excellence and the challenge to return to that success. After 21 years, few have experienced the success Castiglione and the Sooners have enjoyed together.

The OU Athletics Department he leads today hardly resembles the one that welcomed him in July of 1998. OU has won 19 national championships, half of the all-time university total. He has celebrated 92 conference titles in that same time period. It's more than success that sets his tenure apart — it is the consistency of that success that makes the department stand apart from others.

Castiglione inherited one of the most storied programs in college athletics but there had been some challenges to that reputation. He went to work by creating a positive culture that emphasized core values, a dynamic mission and a collaborative spirit. The goal has been to create the "destination of choice" and a world-class experience for student-athlete development.

The 2018-19 school year yielded another accomplished campaign in school history with one national championship, four conference titles, a Heisman Trophy winner, three NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship honorees, a Nissen Emery men's gymnastics award winner as well as the honorees for the 2019 NCAA Inspiration Award, two Wilma Rudolph Awards from the N4A and a CoSIDA Academic All-American, keeping alive an 18-year streak. The year also saw all-time program best numbers for the IA FAR Academic Excellence Award and Dr. Gerald Lage Award, the Big 12's highest academic honor.

Women's gymnastics won its fourth national title and the Sooner softball team joined the OU men gymnastics squad as a national runner-up. The football team finished fourth while the men's golf team added a fifth-place finish. The title won by the women's gymnastics team extended OU's streak of at least one national title to seven years.

The Learfield Director's Cup recognizes overall program excellence. Evidence of OU's commitment to program excellence since Castiglione's arrival is that in 17 of his 21 years, the Sooners have ranked in the top 25. A total of 14 of the 21 sport teams in 2018-19 sent the full team or individuals to an NCAA postseason event.

GPA numbers and graduation rates continue to set program records. The 2019 spring semester marked the 15th consecutive that the student-athletes as a group recorded a 3.00 or better GPA, and graduation rates continue to be among the country's best.

The 11th and second longest serving director of athletics at OU joined the staff in July 1998. Castiglione created a team of administrators, coaches and support staff who pursue and achieve lofty goals under the banner of ethical integrity. The student-athlete is the daily priority for department staff and that focus is reflected in the program's success.

A place where competitive dreams come true and overall excellence is the expectation, not the exception, is part of a values-focused culture led by Castiglione with the full support of OU's Board of Regents and University administration.

OU Athletics, one of the few remaining self-sustaining departments nationally, has closed the books in the black in each of the last 20 years. Castiglione's responsible approach has benefitted the general campus. Through direct and indirect support, the athletics department provides more than $9 million annually to OU's academics budget. It also established an endowment at Bizzell Library and partnered with the president's office to eliminate the admission fee at OU's internationally known Fred Jones Jr. Museum of Art.

Facility improvement and construction of athletics facilities have been carried out at a record pace and Castiglione takes pride in the fact that those improvements have been funded with private donations. Castiglione was instrumental in the athletics department's major campaign, Great Expectations: The Campaign for Sooner Sports, that impacted each of OU's 21 sports and became a national model for intercollegiate athletics.

Gaylord Family Oklahoma Memorial Stadium underwent a $160 million renovation that included filling in the bowl and creating new seating options for Sooner fans and new team facilities. Other improvements completed and/or planned included the opening of the Griffin Family Performance Center for men's and women's basketball at Lloyd Noble; a $25 million plan to build a new softball stadium; $15 million in renovations at baseball; and new team facilities for gymnastics and tennis. The $75 million Headington Hall provides housing for the general student population as well as student-athletes. The state-of-the-art building opened in August 2013 and won the President's Trophy as the outstanding housing unit four times. It makes OU the leader in providing an engaging community living option for OU students.

THE CASTIGLIONE FAMILY

Castiglione was named Co-National Athletic Director of the Year in May 2018 by Sports Business Journal. He had won the award in 2009 and been a finalist in 2016. A survey conducted by Sports Illustrated in the summer of 2017 named him the best athletics director in the country. Other awards he has received include the 2018 Katha Quinn Award (U.S. Basketball Writers of America); 2018 induction into the Oklahoma Sports Hall of Fame; the 2013 John L. Toner Award (National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame); Carl Maddox Sports Management Award (United States Sports Academy); Athletics Director of the Year (Bobby Dodd Foundation); National Association of Collegiate Marketing Administrators Hall of Fame; and the General Robert R. Neyland Athletic Director Award (All-American Football Foundation).

He completed a master's of education degree in May 2007 and subsequently became an adjunct professor in the Jeannine Rainbolt College of Education, teaching graduate classes in marketing, development and leadership in higher education. He serves on the College's Board of Advocates and received the "Award of Distinction" given by the college in 2019. He was recognized for his distinguished service by OU's College of Arts and Sciences and was named a Price College Distinguished Partner in 2018.

Hired on April 30, 1998, Castiglione joined the Sooner family after serving as athletics director at Missouri for more than five years. His career began as the sports promotions director at Rice. Other stops included director of athletics fund-raising at Georgetown, then director of communications and marketing at Missouri. He marked his 25th year of serving student-athletes as an athletics director with the 2018-19 academic year.

A 1979 Maryland graduate, Castiglione received the University's Distinguished Alumnus Award in April 2007 and he was inducted into the State of Missouri's Sports Hall of Fame in November 2015.

He was named to the College Football Playoff Committee in January 2018, making him the only person to serve on that committee as well as the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball and Baseball committees. He has served on multiple NCAA committees and commissions including the NCAA's Board of Governor's Commission to Combat Sexual Violence on Campus, NCAA Championship/Competition Cabinet, the NCAA Division I Women's Basketball Discussion Group and the United States Olympic Committee Athlete Career and Education Strategic Working Group. He also serves on the Gatorade Collegiate Advisory Board and the National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame Board of Directors.

He is a past president of both the Division I-A Athletic Directors Association and NACDA. He also served three terms as the chair of the Big 12 Board of Athletics Directors. A former member of the Phi Delta Theta Foundation Board of Trustees, he is a highly requested speaker at annual conventions and continuing education institutes. In November 2011, his hometown recognized him by selecting him for the Broward County (Fla.) Sports Hall of Fame.

Locally, he served the United Way of Norman, among others. His third term as OU's campus co-chair resulted in the highest recorded contributions ever by faculty, staff and students to the United Way of Norman's annual campaign. He encourages student-athletes and athletics staff to participate in those efforts as well, and in 2018-19, OU Athletics representatives logged more than 5,000 hours of community service.

A native of Fort Lauderdale, Fla., Castiglione is married to the former Kristen Bartel, a 1990 graduate of the University of Missouri. They are the parents of two sons, Joseph Jr., who graduated from OU in May, and Jonathan, who is an incoming OU freshman.

GAUTT ACADEMIC CENTER

92 NATIONAL AWARD WINNERS • 166 ALL-AMERICANS • 7 HEISMAN WINNERS

The Prentice Gautt Academic Center provides student-athletes with a modern, state-of-the-art academic support facility that promotes excellence. The environment encourages a collaboration between staff members and student-athletes. In addition, it is highly conducive to learning in all areas of students' academic endeavors and features a variety of learning centers.

Located on the second and third floors in the north end of Gaylord Family – Oklahoma Memorial Stadium, the Academic Center houses academic advising offices, a computer center and learning and skill development centers for reading, study skills, math, foreign languages and career preparation.

ACADEMIC ADVISING

Athletics Academic Advising is considered a campus-advising unit. It is conveniently located within the Academic Center. The athletics department employs seven professional, full-time advisors who support student-athletes through the educational process.

It is important that student-athletes utilize these services. Advisors assist student-athletes with planning their class schedules and deciding on a degree program that will suit their needs. In addition, they help student-athletes with career planning, setting academic goals, academic support strategies and personal counseling.

KERR SOONER CAREER CENTER

Whether student-athletes are freshmen, sophomores, juniors, seniors or alumni, they will benefit from the services of the Kerr Sooner Career Center. It provides a system of services that educates and guides students through the career development process.

The Career Center is dedicated to helping student-athletes make the transition from college to career by developing an individualized career plan. Opportunities are provided for student-athletes to gain the knowledge and skills necessary for resume writing and interviewing techniques. The center is also linked to OU Career Services on campus, which offers effective job-hunting skills, online resume services, training and career resources.

MATH AND TUTORING CENTER

The tutoring program provides support to student-athletes in both lower- and upper-division classes in order to ensure successful completion of courses. Tutors are available to assist student-athletes in all subject areas, for individual or small group sessions. As a supplement to class instruction, the center provides support with all levels of math concepts and problems to help review course material, and offers personal and group tutoring sessions to reinforce math concepts.

KERR FOUNDATION FOREIGN LANGUAGE CENTER

The Foreign Language Center offers a multi-media environment designed to enhance the learning experience in all foreign languages offered at OU, including Native American languages and English as a second language. Tutors are available during lab hours to clarify grammatical concepts and to engage in conversation practice in the target language. In addition to learning a second language in the Foreign Language Center, student-athletes can gather information and prepare to participate in one of the university's study abroad programs.

KERR FOUNDATION COMPUTER CENTER

Computers are an integral part of the learning experience. The Computer Center meets the technological needs of each student-athlete, while supplying state-of-the-art equipment along with the support necessary to succeed.

The Computer Center provides student-athletes with access to desktop and laptop machines that include a complete array of educational software to help them excel in the classroom. The same resources are available through the laptop program, and are available for check-out for weekends, holidays, team travel and other academic needs.

ACADEMIC MENTORING AND LEARNING SPECIALIST PROGRAM

Academic mentors and learning specialists works with student-athletes in individualized sessions on different skills that are important in developing the whole student. One of the most essential skills that is encouraged and practiced in a mentor session is time management. Student-athletes have a steep learning curve when trying to balance academics and athletics, so it is pertinent to learn this skill to become successful students and athletes.

Mentors and learning specialists also help students learn useful study techniques such as note-taking and test-taking strategies as well as improve problem solving strategies. They teach students how to utilize their unique learning style to maximize the time spent studying for their classes.

THOMPSON WRITING CENTER

The Writing Center offers one-on-one conferences focused on writing for all disciplines, and can assist with the organization, style, and clarity of papers. Writing consultants can help review basic writing strategies, develop proofreading skills and help students become better writers. The goal is to help student-athletes develop the strategies they need to be successful by encouraging the use of the center for all facets of the learning and writing processes encountered in college.

OKLAHOMA SOONERS

While many people know the nickname Oklahoma Sooners is uniquely linked to the University of Oklahoma and has become synonymous with excellence, some aren't aware of the roots, which reach to our state's Indian Territory origins. Originally the home of several tribal nations of the Southern Plains, Congress set aside Indian Territory in 1830 as part of its forcible relocation of numerous tribal nations from their ancestral homelands via the Trail of Tears. Following the U.S. Civil War, some tribal nations lost portions of their new land in Indian Territory due to renegotiated treaties, which became known as the Unassigned Lands.

Pioneers, known as Boomers, vigorously campaigned to settle the Unassigned Lands, which were later incorporated into Oklahoma Territory. Oklahoma Territory and Indian Territory became known as the Twin Territories. Famously, Oklahoma Territory was opened for settlement through land claims races, or Land Runs, and in 1889, thousands made their way to the Twin Territories to participate in the first of these dramatic events. Each race began with a pistol shot, and those who jumped the gun were called Sooners. Later, Indian Territory was opened for non-native settlement, and in 1907 the Twin Territories were merged into one state – Oklahoma – which is the joining of two Choctaw words, "okla" and "homma," meaning "red people" or American Indian.

Due to the enthusiasm of many pioneers and their descendants, Sooner came to denote energetic, "can-do" individuals. The university embraces the complexity of our heritage. OU athletics teams were called either Rough Riders or Boomers for 10 years before the current Oklahoma Sooner nickname emerged in 1908. Taken together, Oklahoma Sooners reflects our state's American Indian and pioneer heritage and, today, symbolizes a special university spirit that values resilience and perseverance as well as the inclusivity that unites all who are a part of the University of Oklahoma family.

CRIMSON AND CREAM

In the fall of 1895, Miss May Overstreet was asked to chair a committee to select the colors of the university. The committee decided the colors should be crimson and cream and an elaborate display of the colors was draped above a platform before the student body. The students approved with great enthusiasm and immediately pennants, banners and decorations of every description appeared on the streets, in the windows, at chapel, in classrooms and all public places around campus.

SOONER SCHOONER

The Sooner Schooner is a Conestoga, or covered wagon, reminiscent of the mode of travel used by pioneers who settled Oklahoma. The Schooner is powered by matching white ponies named Boomer and Sooner, and it ventures onto Owen Field in a triumphant victory ride after OU scores. Although the Schooner was introduced in 1964, it did not become the official mascot until 1980. The Schooner is well-recognized by college athletics fans across the country and makes regular appearances at university functions.

BOOMER SOONER!

In 1905, Arthur M. Alden, a student in history and physiology whose father was a Norman jeweler, wrote the lyrics to the fight song, borrowing the tune from Yale University's 'Boola Boola' but improvising the words. A year later, an addition was made to it from North Carolina's 'I'm a Tarheel Born' and the two combined to form the university's fight song today. Though the tune was first made known by Yale, the everlasting success of Sooner squads has taken the melody of 'Boomer Sooner' to national popularity.

OKLAHOMA!

The Pride of Oklahoma plays perhaps the most popular and recognizable state song in history. Oklahoma! is the final rousing chorus of Rodgers and Hammerstein's epic musical. Breaking all Broadway box office records when it opened in 1943, Oklahoma! was the first collaboration between the legendary pair who were awarded a Pulitzer Prize for their seminal work.

THE OU CHANT

Every fan who wears the official colors, each current student and student-athlete and all OU alumni are encouraged to stand and raise one finger in the air during the playing of the Chant – a symbolic gesture that shows the greatness of the university and the unity between all Sooners. The Chant was written in 1936 by Jessie Lone Clarkson Gilkey, who directed the OU girl's glee club from 1936 to 1938 and was voted Outstanding Faculty Woman in 1937.

O-K-L-A-H-O-M-A
Our chant rolls on and on!
Thousands strong
Join heart and song
In alma mater's praise
Of campus beautiful by day and night
Of colors proudly gleaming Red and White
'Neath a western sky
OU's chant will never die.
Live on University!
