FIVE POSTSEASON APPEARANCES • 2018 NCAA FINAL FOUR
2021 NCAA SWEET SIXTEEN • 12 ALL-CONFERENCE SELECTIONS
TWO AP HONORABLE MENTION ALL-AMERICANS

Praised for his ability to create culture and his never-tiring energy, University of Oklahoma head men's basketball coach Porter Moser enters his second season at the helm in 2022-23. Moser, who is the 15th coach in program history, was hired by Vice President and Director of Athletics Joe Castiglione on April 3, 2021.

Moser led the Sooners to a 19-16 mark and a postseason berth during the 2021-22 campaign. The 18-year Division I head coach amassed five victories over teams ranked in the top 25 at the time of competition and the Sooners received a No. 1 seed in the National Invitational Tournament. Oklahoma earned a victory over Missouri State in the opening round of the NIT.

Four Sooners earned All-Big 12 honorable mention honors under Moser at the conclusion of last season and C.J. Noland was named to the Big 12 All-Freshman Team. In addition to the on-court success, Tanner Groves was named a Senior CLASS Award Finalist and selected to the CoSIDA Academic All-America First Team.

Moser received the keys to the Oklahoma men's basketball program as one of the most successful coaches of the past half-decade. He has been entrenched in creating and developing team culture at all his stops.

Prior to his time in Norman, Moser led the Loyola Ramblers to remarkable success during his 10-year run as head coach, including a run to the Final Four in 2018 and Sweet Sixteen in 2021. He amassed 188 wins (188-141, .571), including five seasons with 20-plus victories. He led Loyola to the postseason every year it was available from 2017-21, winning the CBI title in 2017 and qualifying for the NIT in 2019. The 2020 postseason was canceled due to COVID-19.

In addition to his team success, he coached 12 all-conference selections, two Missouri Valley Player of the Year honorees, two Associated Press Honorable Mentions All-Americans, two Academic All-Americans, a MVC Defensive Player of the Year, two MVC, Sixth Man of the Year honorees and a pair of MVC Freshman of the Year selections.

Moser was one of three coaches in Loyola's history to record 150-plus wins and posted the most wins in a single season in school history during the 2017-18 season (32).

His most successful season at Loyola occurred during the 2017-18 season. Moser led the Ramblers to the Final Four – Loyola's first appearance since winning the NCAA Championship in 1963.

After assembling a 25-5 regular season record (15-3 in MVC play), Moser guided Loyola to seven straight postseason wins, claiming the 2018 Missouri Valley tournament title and making a historic run to the pinnacle event of college basketball as a No. 11 seed. The Ramblers were just the fourth No. 11 seed ever to advance to the Final Four, earning wins over Miami, Tennessee, Nevada and Kansas State.

Loyola finished the 2017-18 season ranked No. 7 in the final USA Today Coaches Poll. Moser was named the Missouri Valley Conference Coach of the Year and was selected as the National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) District 16 Coach of the Year.

The 2017-18 squad ranked second in the nation in fewest personal fouls per game (13.9), third in field goal percentage (.507) and sixth in scoring defense (62.6 ppg).

During the 2017-18 season, Rambler guard Clayton Custer became the first player in Loyola history to be named MVC Player of the Year and earn Associated Press Honorable Mention All-America honors. Cameron Krutwig earned MVC Freshman of the Year honors and Ben Richardson was named MVC Defensive Player of the Year. In addition to his on-court success, Custer was named CoSIDA Academic All-District. He is in his second-year working with Moser as the director of video operations and player development.

Moser boasts six NCAA Tournament wins from 2018-21 – tied for the seventh most nationally in that time frame. Loyola, Gonzaga and Houston were the only teams outside of major conferences to reach two Sweet 16s during the three-year run.

In his final season at Loyola, Moser led the Ramblers to a 26-5 record and Missouri Valley Conference regular season and tournament titles in the 2020-21 season. As an eight seed in the NCAA Tournament, his squad upset No. 1-seed Illinois in the second round to advance to the Sweet 16 for the second time since 2018.

The 2020-21 Rambler squad ranked second in adjusted defensive efficiency (KenPom.com), allowing only 87.0 points per 100 possessions. Loyola's 16-2 record in MVC play set a program record for most wins in conference action.

After 19 wins during the 2014-15 season, the Ramblers earned a bid to the College Basketball Invitational (CBI), advancing to Loyola's first postseason appearance since the 1985 season. Loyola made the most of its chance at postseason play, winning the CBI Championship over Louisiana-Monroe with back-to-back victories in the best-of-three championship series.

After rebuilding during the 2013-14 season, Moser led the Ramblers to a 24-13 mark next season. The 24 victories were the most by a Moser led team and the most for Loyola since 1985.

In the early stages of building Loyola to a mid-major powerhouse, Moser led the Ramblers to an eight-game improvement in the win column from his first season at the helm to his second in 2012-13. The improvement was the most by a coach from his first year to his second in program history.

Owner of a 312-258 (.547) career record, Moser was hired for his first head coaching job in 2000 at Arkansas-Little Rock. In three seasons with the Trojans, Moser took over a program that went 4-24 during the season prior to his hiring and went 18-11 just one year later.

The Trojans ranked last in the conference in several defensive categories prior to his tenure, but Moser turned the program around in just one season to finish with the Sun Belt's best field goal percentage defense and second-best scoring defense.

He steered the Trojans to a 54-34 overall record before heading to Illinois State in 2003. After his 2003-04 squad notched a 10-19 record, Moser improved to 17-13 in 2004-05 despite being picked to finish last in the league in the preseason poll.

Following four years at Illinois State, Moser worked under legendary coach Rick Majerus at Saint Louis as an assistant coach from 2007 through 2011.

He then returned to a head coaching role by being named Loyola's head coach prior to the 2011-12 season.

A Chicago area native, Moser grew up in Naperville, Ill. He was a two-year starter at Creighton and helped lead the Jays to the 1989 Missouri Valley Conference title and a berth in the NCAA Tournament. He graduated in 1990 with a degree in business management.

Immediately following his collegiate playing career, Moser began his path in coaching at his alma mater as a graduate assistant. He left Creighton for an assistant coach role at Texas A&M for four seasons followed by a year at Wisconsin-Milwaukee. Moser returned to Texas A&M for two more seasons (1996-98) on the Aggies' bench, then served as an assistant coach at Little Rock for two years before his promotion to head coach.

Moser and his wife, Megan, have four children – Jordan, a member of OU's women's basketball team, Jake, a member of the Sooners' men's basketball team, and Max and Ben.
