REMEMBERING RYAN MINOR

» Ryan Minor, a former two-sport standout at the University of Oklahoma in baseball and men's basketball, passed away Friday, Dec. 22, 2023, from cancer.

» Minor, an All-American in basketball and a pitcher and first baseman who helped the OU baseball team to the 1994 national title, was drafted professionally in both sports. He arrived at OU in the fall of 1992 as a member of Billy Tubbs' men's basketball team and Larry Cochell's baseball squad. He played his final two seasons of basketball under former head coach Kelvin Sampson.

» Outside of the Sooner State, Minor, who was named last month as a member of the Oklahoma Sports Hall of Fame 2024 class, is perhaps best known as the player who replaced Baltimore Oriole Cal Ripken Jr. in the lineup Sept. 20, 1998, ending Ripken's Major League Baseball record of 2,632 consecutive games played.

» In basketball, Minor, who hailed from the small western Oklahoma town of Hammon, was named 1994-95 Big Eight Conference Player of the Year as a junior by the Associated Press and the U.S. Basketball Writers Association, and co-player of the year by the league's head coaches. The unanimous first-team all-conference performer also earned third-team All-America honors by UPI and Basketball Times, averaging a career-high 23.6 points, 8.4 rebounds and 2.2 steals per game and helping the Sooners to a 23-9 record and a No. 4 seed in the NCAA Tournament. He scored in double figures in every game and turned in seven 30-point efforts and 24 performances of at least 20 points.

» Minor again earned first-team All-Big Eight honors on the hardwood as a senior, and was named an AP honorable mention All-American. He led OU in points in 21 of 30 games that year, averaging a Big Eight-best 21.3 points as well as 7.6 rebounds and 2.6 assists per contest. He set the OU record that season by making 30 consecutive free throws and became the first Sooner to register 1,800 points, 700 rebounds and 150 steals in a career. He finished as the Sooners' sixth-leading all-time scorer (1,946 points) and ranked in the top 10 of 14 different OU career categories.

» Minor played baseball his first three years at OU, joining that squad late each season due to basketball. Playing alongside twin brother Damon Minor, Ryan hit .266 in 203 career at-bats with 11 home runs, 15 doubles, 43 RBIs and 44 runs scored. During OU's 1994 run to the national title, he was named to the Big Eight Tournament, NCAA Regional and College World Series all-tournament teams.

» The 6-foot-6 Minor was selected by the Philadelphia 76ers with the third pick in the second round (32nd overall) of the 1996 NBA Draft. He was picked out of high school by the Orioles in the 15th round of the MLB Draft before choosing to attend OU. He was chosen in the seventh round of the 1995 MLB Draft by the New York Mets but returned to school for his senior year. The Orioles selected him again in 1996 in the 33rd round, and he played four MLB seasons (1998-00 with Baltimore and 2001 with the Montreal Expos). In 142 career games and 317 at-bats, Minor registered 56 hits, five home runs, 27 RBIs and 30 runs.

» Minor spent most of his post-playing career coaching baseball on the East Coast. This past summer, the Delmarva Shorebirds, Minor's former minor league team in Salisbury, Md., retired his No. 44 jersey. It was the first jersey number in the history of the organization to be retired. Minor played for Delmarva after college and later served two stints as its manager (2010-12, 2014-17).

The four new staffers joined assistant coach Ryan Humphrey, who is in his second season on the sidelines in Norman after six seasons at Notre Dame.

» Custer returns to the Sooners after a brief stint as an assistant coach at his alma mater Loyola Chicago. The Overland Park, Kan., native spent two seasons as the director of video operations and player development at OU from 2021-23 and one season on Moser's staff at Loyola as director of player development in 2020-21.

FIVE POSTSEASON APPEARANCES • 2018 NCAA FINAL FOUR

2021 NCAA SWEET SIXTEEN • 12 ALL-CONFERENCE SELECTIONS

TWO AP HONORABLE MENTION ALL-AMERICANS

Praised for his ability to create culture and his never-tiring energy, University of Oklahoma head men's basketball coach Porter Moser enters his third season leading the Sooners in 2023-24. Moser, who is the 15th coach in program history, was hired April 3, 2021.

Moser completed his second season in Norman in 2022-23, recording four AP Top-25 victories and winning the 2022 ESPN Events Invitational. Forward Tanner Groves became only the second two-time College Sports Communicators (formerly CoSIDA) Academic All-American in program history, receiving third-team honors in 2023 and first-team accolades in 2022. In addition to the Sooners' success in the classroom, Milos Uzan was named to the Big 12 All-Freshman Team. Grant Sherfield and Jalen Hill received All-Big 12 Honorable Mention acclaim.

Moser led the Sooners to a 19-16 mark and a postseason berth in his first season with the Crimson and Cream in 2021-22. The 19-year Division I head coach amassed five victories over teams ranked in the top 25 at the time of competition and the Sooners received a No. 1 seed in the National Invitation Tournament. Oklahoma earned a victory over Missouri State in the opening round of the NIT.

Four Sooners earned 2021-22 All-Big 12 honorable mention honors and one was selected to the Big 12 All-Freshman Team. In addition to the on-court success, Groves was named a Senior CLASS Award Finalist and selected to the CoSIDA Academic All-America First Team.

Moser received the keys to the Oklahoma men's basketball program as one of the most successful coaches of the prior half-decade. He has been entrenched in creating and developing team culture at all his stops.

Prior to his time in Norman, Moser led the Loyola Ramblers to remarkable success during his 10-year run as head coach, including a run to the Final Four in 2018 and Sweet Sixteen in 2021.

He amassed 188 wins (188-141, .571), including five seasons with 20-plus victories. He led Loyola to the postseason every year it was available from 2017-21, winning the CBI title in 2017 and qualifying for the NIT in 2019. The 2020 postseason was canceled due to COVID-19.

In addition to his team success, he coached 12 all-conference selections, two Missouri Valley Player of the Year honorees, two Associated Press Honorable Mentions All-Americans, two Academic All-Americans, a MVC Defensive Player of the Year, two MVC, Sixth Man of the Year honorees and a pair of MVC Freshman of the Year selections.

Moser was one of three coaches in Loyola's history to record 150-plus wins and posted the most wins in a single season in school history during the 2017-18 season (32).

His most successful season at Loyola occurred during the 2017-18 season. Moser led the Ramblers to the Final Four – Loyola's first appearance since winning the NCAA Championship in 1963.

After assembling a 25-5 regular season record (15-3 in MVC play), Moser guided Loyola to seven straight postseason wins, claiming the 2018 Missouri Valley tournament title and making a historic run to the pinnacle event of college basketball as a No. 11 seed.

The Ramblers were just the fourth No. 11 seed ever to advance to the Final Four, earning wins over Miami, Tennessee, Nevada and Kansas State.

Loyola finished the 2017-18 season ranked No. 7 in the final USA Today Coaches Poll. Moser was named the Missouri Valley Conference Coach of the Year and was selected as the National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) District 16 Coach of the Year.

The 2017-18 squad ranked second in the nation in fewest personal fouls per game (13.9), third in field goal percentage (.507) and sixth in scoring defense (62.6 ppg).

During the 2017-18 season, Rambler guard Clayton Custer became the first player in Loyola history to be named MVC Player of the Year and earned Associated Press Honorable Mention All-America honors. Cameron Krutwig earned MVC Freshman of the Year honors and Ben Richardson was named MVC Defensive Player of the Year. In addition to his on-court success, Custer was named CoSIDA Academic All-District. He is in his third year working with Moser, starting his first season as assistant coach in 2023-24 after two seasons as the director of video operations and player development from 2021-23.

Moser boasts six NCAA Tournament wins from 2018-21 – tied for the seventh most nationally in that time frame. Loyola, Gonzaga and Houston were the only teams outside of major conferences to reach two Sweet 16s during the three-year run.

In his final season at Loyola, Moser led the Ramblers to a 26-5 record and Missouri Valley Conference regular season and tournament titles in the 2020-21 season. As an eight seed in the NCAA Tournament, his squad upset No. 1-seed Illinois in the second round to advance to the Sweet 16 for the second time since 2018.

The 2020-21 Rambler squad ranked second in adjusted defensive efficiency (KenPom.com), allowing only 87.0 points per 100 possessions. Loyola's 16-2 record in MVC play set a program record for most wins in conference action.

After 19 wins during the 2014-15 season, the Ramblers earned a bid to the College Basketball Invitational (CBI), advancing to Loyola's first postseason appearance since the 1985 season. Loyola made the most of its chance at postseason play, winning the CBI Championship over Louisiana-Monroe with back-to-back victories in the best-of-three championship series.

After rebuilding during the 2013-14 season, Moser led the Ramblers to a 24-13 mark next season. The 24 victories were the most by a Moser led team and the most for Loyola since 1985.

In the early stages of building Loyola to a mid-major powerhouse, Moser led the Ramblers to an eight-game improvement in the win column from his first season at the helm to his second in 2012-13. The improvement was the most by a coach from his first year to his second in program history.

Owner of a 327-275 (.543) career record, Moser was hired for his first head coaching job in 2000 at Arkansas-Little Rock. In three seasons with the Trojans, Moser took over a program that went 4-24 during the season prior to his hiring and went 18-11 just one year later.

The Trojans ranked last in the conference in several defensive categories prior to his tenure, but Moser turned the program around in just one season to finish with the Sun Belt's best field goal percentage defense and second-best scoring defense.

He steered the Trojans to a 54-34 overall record before heading to Illinois State in 2003.

After his 2003-04 squad notched a 10-19 record, Moser improved to 17-13 in 2004-05 despite being picked to finish last in the league in the preseason poll.

Following four years at Illinois State, Moser worked under legendary coach Rick Majerus at Saint Louis as an assistant coach from 2007 through 2011.

He then returned to a head coaching role by being named Loyola's head coach prior to the 2011-12 season.

A Chicago area native, Moser grew up in Naperville, Ill. He was a two-year starter at Creighton and helped lead the Jays to the 1989 Missouri Valley Conference title and a berth in the NCAA Tournament. He graduated in 1990 with a degree in business management.

Immediately following his collegiate playing career, Moser began his path in coaching at his alma mater as a graduate assistant. He left Creighton for an assistant coach role at Texas A&M for four seasons followed by a year at Wisconsin-Milwaukee. Moser returned to Texas A&M for two more seasons (1996-98) on the Aggies' bench, then served as an assistant coach at Little Rock for two years before his promotion to head coach.

Moser and his wife, Megan, have four children – Jordan, a member of OU's women's basketball team, Jake, a member of the Sooners' men's basketball team, and Max and Ben.
