OU POSTGAME NOTES

OKLAHOMA 24, NO. 19/19/16 OLE MISS 17 • NOV. 15, 2026

GENERAL NOTES

• Attendance for Sunday's game was 83,226, marking OU's 172nd straight sellout of an originally scheduled home contest, dating back to the start of the 1999 season. It is the nation's second-longest current streak.

• This was just the second Sunday regular season game in Oklahoma history (also beat Houston 49-31 in the 2019 season opener). OU has played in three Sunday bowl games.

• Entering today, Ole Miss was the only SEC program OU had played at least three times and not beaten, and one of just four programs the Sooners had played at least once and not beaten (the remaining three are Georgia [0-2], Navy [0-2] and George Washington [0-1-1]).

• Oklahoma improved to 461-3-1 (.992) since 1937 when leading by 14 points or more entering the fourth quarter (led 21-7 today).

• OU improved to 48-3 (.941) in its last 51 November home games, going back to 1998. The three losses were to Oklahoma State in 2001, Baylor in 2014 and Baylor in 2022.

• The Sooners registered a season-high 188 rushing yards (on a season-high 49 attempts; averaged 3.8 yards per rush). OU's last game with more rushing yards was at Tennessee last season (192) and its last contest with more rushing attempts was in 2024 vs. Alabama (50 rushes for 257 yards).

• OU limited Ole Miss to 127 passing yards, which were its fewest in three seasons. OU also held the Rebels to to 306 total offensive yards, which was their second-lowest total this season.

• Oklahoma held a 36:31 to 23:29 advantage in time of possession today. It was the second straight game in which OU registered a time of possession of at least 36:00 (37:50 last week at Florida).

• All three of Oklahoma's offensive scoring drives today took at least 12 plays. Of OU's last 10 scoring drives, eight have been 10 plays or longer, dating back to the Oct. 31 South Carolina game. The Sooners scored today on touchdown drives of 13 plays (74 yards, 7:40 TOP) and 12 plays (70 yards, 6:33 TOP), and a field goal drive of 12 plays (51 yards, 6:53 TOP).

• Oklahoma had four possessions of 12-plus plays today (two touchdown drives, one field goal drive and one that ended in a missed 39-yard field goal attempt). The last time OU had four drives of 12-plus plays in a game was Nov. 16, 2019 (34-31 win at Baylor).

• Both of OU's touchdowns were rushing (an 8-yarder by QB John Mateer and a 5-yarder by RB Jonathan Hatton Jr.). This was the second game this season in which OU scored two rushing touchdowns (also had two in the season opener vs. UTEP).

• Neither team committed a turnover today. This was Oklahoma's third straight game with no giveaways. The Sooners have a minus-2 turnover margin for the season, but are plus-6 over their last four games (plus-1 at Mississippi State, plus-3 vs. South Carolina, plus-2 at Florida and even today). OU has only committed one turnover in that span (a fumble at Mississippi State).

• The Sooners converted nine third downs today (9 of 16). OU has converted at least seven third downs in five straight games and six times this season (was 8 of 17 vs. Kentucky, 7 of 16 at Mississippi State, 7 of 16 vs. South Carolina and 10 of 18 at Florida; also 7 of 15 vs. New Mexico).

• Ole Miss entered the week ranked 17th nationally by converting 48.8% of its third-down attempts, but Sooners limited the Rebels to 4 of 12 (33%) on third downs. OU entered today's game ranked third nationally (first in SEC) in third down defense by allowing a 27.7% conversion rate.
