MEDIA SERVICES

The Oklahoma Athletics Communications Department provides complete services for media covering the Sooners throughout the year. View contact information, media instructions and policies, information on credentials and media availability for coaches and student-athletes.

10

BOOMER SOONER

An overview of the Oklahoma football tradition, including seven national championships, 50 conference titles, 31 bowl victories, seven Heisman winners, 93 major award winners, 169 All-Americans, player honors, Sooners in the NFL, OU-Texas, facilities, the university, academics, the SEC and more.

THE STADIUM

Celebrating its 102nd year, Gaylord Family – Oklahoma Memorial Stadium is one of America's most recognized college football cathedrals. Situated on the east side of the Norman campus, this historical facility is the largest sports arena in the state and ranks among the nation's 20 largest on-campus facilities.

ROSTERS

A total of 16 fifth- and sixth-year players, 15 seniors, 31 juniors, 23 sophomores and 25 freshmen make up the 2026 OU roster, as the Sooners embark on their second year in the Southeastern Conference. Thirty-five players have spent at least two years at Oklahoma, while 43 are new to the program this season.

SEASON OUTLOOK

OU will face Georgia, Kentucky, Mississippi State, Florida and Texas A&M for the first time in SEC play. Kentucky, South Carolina, Ole Miss and Texas A&M visit Norman, while the Sooners will play at Georgia, Mississippi State, Florida and Missouri. The non-conference slate includes home contests vs. UTEP and New Mexico around a road test at Michigan.

FOOTBALL STAFF

Coupled with OU's new scouting department, identifying and recruiting prospects, coaching talent to play at its peak and preparing players for life after college, whether it be in our out of sport, are just some of the areas where head coach Brent Venables and the Oklahoma football staff thrive.

PLAYER PROFILES

Among the Sooners returning are a group of 19 offensive lettermen, 17 defensive lettermen and five specialist lettermen. Fourteen starters are back (eight on offense, six on defense) as the program plays its third season in the SEC and seeks its sixth trip to the College Football Playoff.

126

2025 REVIEW

Oklahoma registered its second 10-win season under head coach Brent Venables in 2025 and reached the College Football Playoff behind one of the country's stingiest defenses. OU led the nation in sacks and tackles for loss, and ranked among the top 10 in points and yards allowed. Tate Sandell also won the Lou Groza Award.

146

SOONER RECORDS

History is one tough customer at Oklahoma. The tradition, so rich and so long-standing, is as daunting as it is impressive. To be among the best at Oklahoma is to be among the best in college football. Review award winners, player honors, letterwinners, bowl game tradition, Sooners in the NFL and more.

SEASON BY SEASON

The 2026 season will mark the 132nd campaign of intercollegiate football at OU. The Sooners were playing football 12 years before Oklahoma even became a state. Rarely has a football program and commonwealth enjoyed a more harmonious relationship than what exists in the Sooner state.

2026 MEDIA COVERAGE POLICIES

The following media policies are subject to change at any time.

Credentials
Requests for media credentials for University of Oklahoma home games should be made online at SoonerSports.com/fbcredentials. Only those requests submitted by the sports editor of a print or digital publication, or the sports director of a radio or television station will be considered.

Priority is given to daily newspapers (by circulation), television stations and radio stations that program sports for more than half of their daily broadcast schedules. A credential does not guarantee a seat and access to the team bench area is prohibited at all times.

Credential requests should be made no later than one week before each game. Any organization that requests a single-game credential then does not use it might be prohibited from receiving another pass the remainder of the season. No credential requests will be granted after Wednesday of game week.

Red River Rivalry Credentials
Those interested in covering the annual Oklahoma-Texas game at Dallas will need to make a separate request for credentials. Aside from national media, only season credential holders are eligible.

Because Oklahoma will serve as the host school this year, credential requests should be made at SoonerSports.com/rrrcredentials. OU-based media credentials will be distributed at the Tuesday media luncheon in Norman. Any credentials not claimed that day will be available the Friday before the game at a pickup location in Dallas (time and location TBA).

Credential Pickup (OU Home Games)
Credentials may be picked up at media will call at the OU Athletics Ticket Office (west side of Gaylord Family — Oklahoma Memorial Stadium) beginning 2.5 hours before kickoff. Each media representative must claim his or her pass by showing official ID. No group pickups are allowed on game day.

Parking Passes
Parking passes will be available to credentialed media on a game-by-game basis. OU will utilize digital parking passes for the 2026 season. More information will be shared directly with media members who request parking.

MEDIA AVAILABILITY

Practices: Oklahoma's practices during the regular season are closed to media. Media are not permitted to observe practices or workouts from any location without approval from the OU Athletics Communications Office. Reporters will be permitted to view/record portions of Sooner practices in Norman during preseason camp, ahead of bowl play and in spring.

Tuesday: Weekly press conferences for head coach Brent Venables and offensive coordinator Ben Arbuckle will be held Tuesdays in person at 11 a.m. CT (Arbuckle) and 11:30 (Venables).

Select Wednesdays: Head coach Brent Venables will participate in the SEC's football coaches' teleconference, to be held on select Wednesdays, from 10:40-10:50 a.m. CT. Contact the SEC Communications Office for access.

Player Availability: Player availability during the season will occur following Monday practice, which will conclude early evening. The schedule will be communicated to local media each week. Some players have Monday evening class that could preclude them from interviews. Media are not permitted to directly contact OU players, coaches or staff. All interview requests must be directed to the OU Athletics Communications Office.

Game Day: Postgame availability only. Members of the OU Athletics Communications staff will escort media representatives to the appropriate postgame interview areas with seven minutes remaining in the game. The Oklahoma locker room, home or away, is closed to media at all times.

For games in Norman, head coach Brent Venables, OU offensive coordinator Ben Arbuckle and several OU players will be brought to the team's Red Room for press conferences and breakout interviews, while the opposing head coach will meet with the media inside the opponent interview room in the SoonerVision studio (southwest corner, under the stadium grandstands). An OU Athletics Communications Office representative will be on hand to assist media in finding these areas. Contact the visiting team SID for postgame player availability.

GAYLORD FAMILY — OKLAHOMA MEMORIAL STADIUM

One of America's most recognized college football cathedrals, Gaylord Family — Oklahoma Memorial Stadium celebrates its 102nd season in 2026. Situated on the east side of the Norman campus, this historical facility is the largest sports venue in the state and ranks among the 20 largest college football stadiums in the nation.

With the expansion of Oklahoma Memorial Stadium to an official capacity of 83,489 in 2016 (it was reduced to 80,126 in 2019 due to aisle and seat widening) and with every home game exceeding that capacity, Oklahoma set numerous attendance records the past few years. In fact, the 18 largest crowds in stadium history have occurred in the past 10 seasons.

Oklahoma's average attendance in 2025 for eight home games was 83,534, ranking OU No. 13 in the nation.

The largest crowd ever to watch a game in the history of the state of Oklahoma jammed Memorial Stadium on Nov. 11, 2017. The No. 5 Sooners cruised to a 38-20 win over No. 8 TCU in front of 88,308 spectators.

OU has compiled a 151-17 home record the last 27 seasons, good for the second-best winning percentage (.899) in the nation during that period (Boise State enters the 2026 season with a .906 mark at 155-16).

Great college football and the Oklahoma Sooners. For as long as anyone can remember, the two have been one and the same.

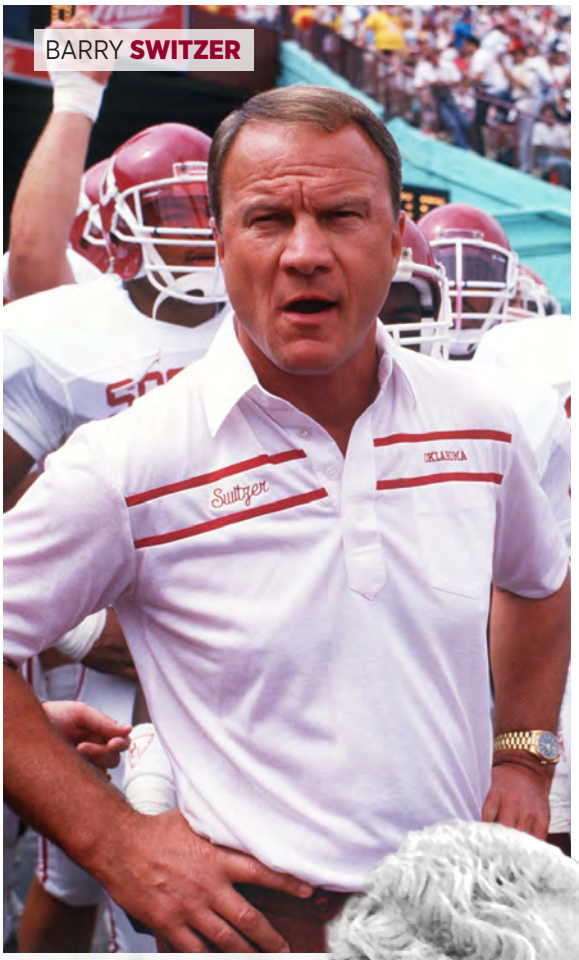

Unlike some schools where tradition represents ancient history, or others where it harkens back only a few years, Oklahoma's tradition is a constant accomplishment unfettered by eras or time.

The Sooners were playing football before Oklahoma became a state and have achieved a legacy so successful that more than contributing to the history of this great game, it defines it.

MODERN ERA'S MOST SUCCESSFUL PROGRAM

Oklahoma is king in the modern era of college football (1946-2025). Since the end of World War II, the Sooners are the nation's No. 1 team, with more victories (716) than any other school. It also owns the second-best winning percentage (.762) among Power Four programs (Ohio State; .773).

A LEGACY OF WINNING

Oklahoma has played in four national championship games and five College Football Playoffs over the last 26 seasons and won 14 Big 12 championships. OU also has turned out a list of award winners and draft picks so long that it taxes even the best memory to name them all.

Greatness begets greatness and there has been plenty of that in Norman for generations. Now, from all corners of the country, the best players come to join a program of traditional success that is riding one of its biggest waves.

Statistics prove that Oklahoma is likely to hit the 11-win mark about as much as any program in the nation, as the Sooners rank second nationally with 27 seasons of at least 11 victories (one behind Alabama's 28). And over the past 26 years (since the start of the 2000 season), OU has registered 20 campaigns of at least 10 wins, second behind Ohio State for the most nationally. The Sooners' 43 all-time seasons of at least 10 wins rank second nationally (one behind Alabama).

AP NATIONAL CHAMPIONS: 1950, 1955, 1956, 1974, 1975, 1985, 2000

Oklahoma is Championship Football

Nothing defines the competitive success of a college athletics program like a national championship. Oklahoma, with seven football national titles sprinkled over five decades, is one of the very few programs that sets out each fall with the expectation and legitimate goal of pursuing the national crown.

That pursuit rates as a lot more than just talk around Norman. The aura is unmistakable, and it radiates from real and repeated success on college football's biggest stage.

Oklahoma's seven AP national championships rank as third most nationally, behind only Alabama (12) and Notre Dame (8).

The Sooners, under Bob Stoops, earned the program's most recent title in 2000 with an Orange Bowl victory over Florida State to cap a 13-0 season. OU's other championships came under Barry Switzer in 1974, 1975 and 1985, and Bud Wilkinson in 1950, 1955 and 1956.

Oklahoma played for the national title four times during Stoops' tenure (2000, 2003, 2004, 2008). During the BCS era, the Sooners were the only team to play in all five BCS bowl games and played in nine total. OU was ranked No. 1 in 20 BCS rankings — the most nationally.

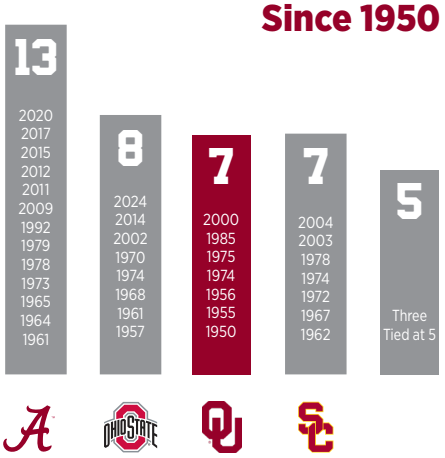

Until 2022, the Sooners were also the only Big 12 program to appear in the College Football Playoff, playing in the Orange Bowl (2015 season) along with the Rose Bowl, Orange Bowl and Peach Bowl (2017, '18 and '19 seasons, respectively). OU also hosted a 2025 CFP game.

In the words of Switzer: "People don't know what it means to be champions. Oklahoma invented it."

OU WON 14 BIG 12 CHAMPIONSHIPS; SCHOOL WITH NEXT MOST WON FOUR

As a member of the Big 12 Conference since its inception in 1996 through 2023, Oklahoma won 14 Big 12 championships, or 10 more than the program with the second most titles (Texas). On average, the Sooners won a Big 12 championship every other year.

OU earned its most recent crown in 2020 by winning the Big 12 Championship game over Iowa State, 27-21. The Sooners' other Big 12 titles came in 2019 (30-23 in overtime over Baylor in the league championship game in Arlington, Texas), 2018 (39-27 win over Texas in Arlington), 2017 (41-17 win over TCU in Arlington), 2016 (9-0 conference record), 2015 (8-1), 2012 (8-1), 2010 (23-20 win over Nebraska in Arlington), 2008 (62-21 win over Missouri in Kansas City, Mo.), 2007 (38-17 win over Missouri in San Antonio), 2006 (21-7 win over Nebraska in Kansas City), 2004 (42-3 win over Colorado in Kansas City), 2002 (29-7 win over Colorado in Houston) and 2000 (27-24 win over Kansas State in Kansas City).

Sooners Lead Nation in Conference Titles

Oklahoma won its first conference championship in 1915 and has since tacked on another 49. In other words, the Sooners average a conference title just about every two seasons. That pace has actually improved since 2000 with 14 league crowns in 26 years.

Fast Facts

- Oklahoma's 14 conference championships since the 2000 season are three more titles than the Power Four program with the next most (Ohio State; 11). The programs with the third most (Alabama, Clemson and Oregon) have won nine.
- Since 2000, OU has won just three fewer conference championship (14) than it has lost home games (17).

LAST 11 YEARS: 5 COLLEGE FOOTBALL PLAYOFF APPEARANCES, PLUS SUGAR, COTTON AND MORE

Fifty-nine bowl appearances and 31 bowl victories have firmly entrenched Oklahoma among the most tradition-rich schools in America.

The Sooners have become synonymous with postseason play at the highest level. At a school where the bowl history is laced with games of historical significance, the last several years have represented another fabulous roll for the Schooner.

OU enjoys favored status among the bowl community, mostly for its tradition, but also for its robust fan following. Regardless of the location, Sooner fans flock to follow a bowl tradition that is as fresh as it is historic.

The Sooners have made 27 consecutive bowl appearances, the second-longest active streak in the nation as recognized by the NCAA. Of those 27 showings, four were national championship bouts, nine were BCS bowl games, five were College Football Playoff semifinals contests and 13 were in January.

The Sooners and their fans have enjoyed trips to Phoenix, San Diego, Miami, Pasadena, New Orleans, Atlanta, Dallas, San Antonio and Orlando while playing in the most prestigious bowls in college football.

Fast Fact

▶ Thirty-nine of OU's 59 bowl appearances have come in games that comprise the current College Football Playoff: Orange (20), Sugar (8), Fiesta (5), Cotton (3), Rose (2) and Peach (1). OU also hosted a 2025 CFP game.

The Sooners have been a mainstay in college football's bowl tradition since their first trip to Miami in 1939.

OU has appeared in a bowl game in each of the last 27 seasons, a run that ranks as the second-longest in the nation behind Georgia (28).

Oklahoma ranks sixth among all schools in total bowl wins with 31, and is one of just five programs with at least 59 bowl appearances.

OU's Seven Heisman Trophy Winners Are Nation's Second Most

For many years, college football has paused at the end of each season to recognize its finest players. The award names like Heisman, Outland, Thorpe, Mackey and Butkus are woven into the fabric of the game as a tribute to the past and a beacon for the present.

The awards ceremonies attract the greatest names in the game, and of course, they attract and honor Oklahoma Sooners.

The road to the bright lights, podium and acceptance speech starts with great talent and hard work, common staples at OU. The Sooner program then provides the national stage on which players can be seen. The result has been an impressive collection of hardware.

Oklahoma has produced four Heisman Trophy winners in the last 23 years. Only four other programs have produced four winners ever.

When Baker Mayfield (2017) and Kyler Murray (2018) gave OU back-to-back Heisman winners, the Sooners became the only program in college football history to have different quarterbacks win the Heisman Trophy in consecutive seasons.

Nation-Leading 10 Heisman Finalists Since 2000

Not only do the Sooners rank second with seven Heisman Trophy winners, they have constantly appeared on Heisman voters' ballots.

Oklahoma has sent a nation-leading 10 finalists to New York City since 2000 (Alabama is next with nine): Josh Heupel (2000), Jason White (2003 and 2004), Adrian Peterson (2004), Sam Bradford (2008), Dede Westbrook (2016), Baker Mayfield (2016 and 2017), Kyler Murray (2018) and Jalen Hurts (2019). It is the only program to ever produce five finalists over a four-year span (2016-19).

The Sooners have also had multiple players invited to the Heisman ceremony on two different occasions — the only program in the country to accomplish the feat since 1982.

169 FIRST-TEAM ALL-AMERICANS

7 NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIPS • 50 CONFERENCE CHAMPIONSHIPS • 59 BOWL APPEARANCES

If it's a college football season, the likelihood is that more than one Sooner ranks among the best players in the land. That was true in 1913 when OU produced its first All-American and it's true today when the rate of additions is so rapid that the total now well outnumbers the age of the program itself.

One of college football's greatest programs has been built by some of college football's finest players. That's the natural result when talent meets coaching at a program with eye-popping facilities and great visibility.

SEC's Consensus All-America Leaders

University of Oklahoma players have earned consensus All-America honors 83 times in the program's history. That's second most among SEC programs (Alabama; 87).

What is a consensus All-American? The NCAA officially recognizes selections from five All-America teams: AP, AFCA, FWAA, Sporting News and Walter Camp. A player is designated a consensus All-American if he is a first-team selection on at least three of the five teams.

In 2017 alone, Mark Andrews, Orlando Brown and Baker Mayfield added their names to the prestigious list as they earned first-team All-America honors from all five official bodies, leading the nation.

Elite Program Prepares Players for Next Level

The league. Pro ball. The next level. It is the dream of every college football player. It is reality for many Oklahoma Sooners. Few programs in the country attract talent and prepare it to move on better than OU. Seven Sooners were tabbed in the 2026 NFL Draft to extend the program's tally to 128 selections since 2000.

Oklahoma employs a rigorous strength and conditioning program that is so effective that many of those who have gone on to professional careers come back to Norman in the offseason to continue their training.

OU is one of only five programs that has produced at least four NFL Draft picks in at least 17 of the last 19 years. Players with the ability and drive to make the NFL flourish at OU and leave campus equipped to play beyond their college days.

Sooners at Center of College Football

Oklahoma is a household name due to the overwhelming media attention that hovers around the Sooners. Writers and broadcasters representing the nation's most recognized media outlets regularly interact with OU players and coaches, and routinely spend time in Norman.

When they can't come to campus, those same observers keep tabs on OU thanks to extensive television coverage. In 2025, all 13 Oklahoma games were carried live nationally on the ABC/ESPN family of networks.

167 Consecutive Home Sellouts

Fan support is guaranteed at Oklahoma. Since 1999, the Sooners have drawn 12,526,730 fans to Gaylord Family – Oklahoma Memorial Stadium, with all 167 of their regularly scheduled home games resulting in sellouts (an additional game in 2021 vs. Tulane was moved to Norman due to Hurricane Ida). It is the second-longest current home sellout streak in the nation, trailing only Nebraska.

OU has nearly been unbeatable at home, yielding 150 wins in those 167 contests. The thrilling victories have stoked Sooner Nation and helped lead to the expansion of OU's stadium by more than 11,000 seats. Even so, attendance exceeded the listed capacity in 90 consecutive games prior to 2020 when capacity was limited to 22,700 due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

In 2016, Oklahoma fans set a record for average season attendance (86,857) and broke the single-game mark with 87,979 fans against Ohio State. That mark was topped in 2017 versus TCU (88,308). The top 20 seasons for OU home attendance have taken place since the start of the 21st century.

Oklahoma has sold out every home game since the start of the 1999 season. During that span, OU has won just three fewer conference championships (14) than it has lost home contests (17).

Annual October Matchup in Dallas

The Oklahoma-Texas game, played each season at the Cotton Bowl in Dallas, a location approximately halfway between the two campuses, is one of the country's most spectacular sporting events.

Staged during the State Fair of Texas, the contest is witnessed by a crowd perfectly defined by color — half crimson, half burnt orange — in an atmosphere that is arguably more unique than that found at any other game. This rivalry is one that marks time and gives players and fans alike experiences for a lifetime.

Red River Rivalry Staying at Cotton Bowl Through 2036

In December 2023, the universities of Oklahoma and Texas agreed to a contract extension that will keep the historic Allstate Red River Rivalry football game at the Cotton Bowl through 2036.

In addition to the Dallas Sports Commission and Dallas Tourism Public Improvement District increasing the game fees paid to each school, as part of the agreement, the City of Dallas agreed to make the single largest investment in the Cotton Bowl Stadium's history; an estimated $140-million, two-year renovation project that honors the Cotton Bowl Stadium's celebrated legacy and distinctive architecture with sweeping enhancements, elevating the fan experience.

"The relationship between the storied Allstate Red River Rivalry and the venerable Cotton Bowl is one-of-kind regardless of sport," said OU Vice President and Director of Athletics Joe Castiglione at the time of the announcement. "Our new agreement guarantees this historic legacy of the University of Oklahoma and the University of Texas at the State Fair of Texas will stretch into a second century. Millions of fans throughout the years have cheered, in-person, for the Sooners or Longhorns on what's become almost sacred ground. It only makes sense for us to do all we can with our partners to keep that tradition alive but also continue to improve upon the experience and access for our fans. The stadium renovations will be extensive, and we can't wait for our fans to experience the enhancements."

The Tunnel Experience

"From the top of The Tunnel that leads into the floor of the Cotton Bowl it looks like no big deal. All you can see is end zone. Then you start running and the world explodes around you. Your eardrums are pounded by the screams of 75,587 people and the blasts of the modified 12-gauge shotguns that the OU Ruf/Nek spirit group carries...

"You feel the world shake and start to understand why every Longhorn or Sooner who has taken these steps before you can never seem to find the exact words necessary to convey what has just happened.

"You've just run down the tunnel at the OU-Texas game — generally regarded as one of the greatest moments a college football player can experience."

Palace on the Prairie

The University of Oklahoma Board of Regents approved a proposal from OU Athletics on June 25, 2014, to proceed with the development of plans and projects for a major renovation and modernization of Gaylord Family — Oklahoma Memorial Stadium.

The first phase of the building project was completed prior to the 2016 season and focused on the south end zone.

The most visible aspect was the completion of the south end zone seating bowl, a feature that initially increased stadium capacity to more than 83,000. A new 50-by-170-foot video board — the nation's second largest — was also installed.

The seating bowl features an expanded concourse, additional restrooms and concessions, and other amenities. The structure also houses 22 suites, 60 open-air loge boxes and 1,976 club seats, and includes two fresh club options for patrons.

The renovated team portion of the facility allows for all student-athlete services to be moved to the ground floor. That space includes a locker room, large strength and conditioning area, training room, nutrition center, meeting rooms and an elite recovery area.

The weight room nearly tripled in size to 26,600 square feet and features a 70-yard indoor turfed speed and agility training area. The athletic training room also grew substantially to nearly 10,000 square feet. A 2,356-square-foot north video board was added in 2018.

Features Include:

A bowled in south end zone, new fan seating and options, including club seating, loge boxes and suites, as well as a fan plaza, and additional concession and restroom areas.

A 132,000-square-foot football complex featuring a new locker room, training room, nutrition area, coaches offices and player meeting rooms.

A 32,582-square-foot strength and conditioning facility that is triple the size of the previous weight room and features a 70-yard indoor turfed speed and agility training area.

Gaylord Family – Oklahoma Memorial Stadium Turned 100 in 2024

Gaylord Family — Oklahoma Memorial Stadium, one of America's most recognized college football cathedrals, celebrated its 100th season in 2024. Situated on the east side of the Norman campus, this historical facility is the largest sports arena in the state and ranks among the 20 largest on-campus facilities in the nation.

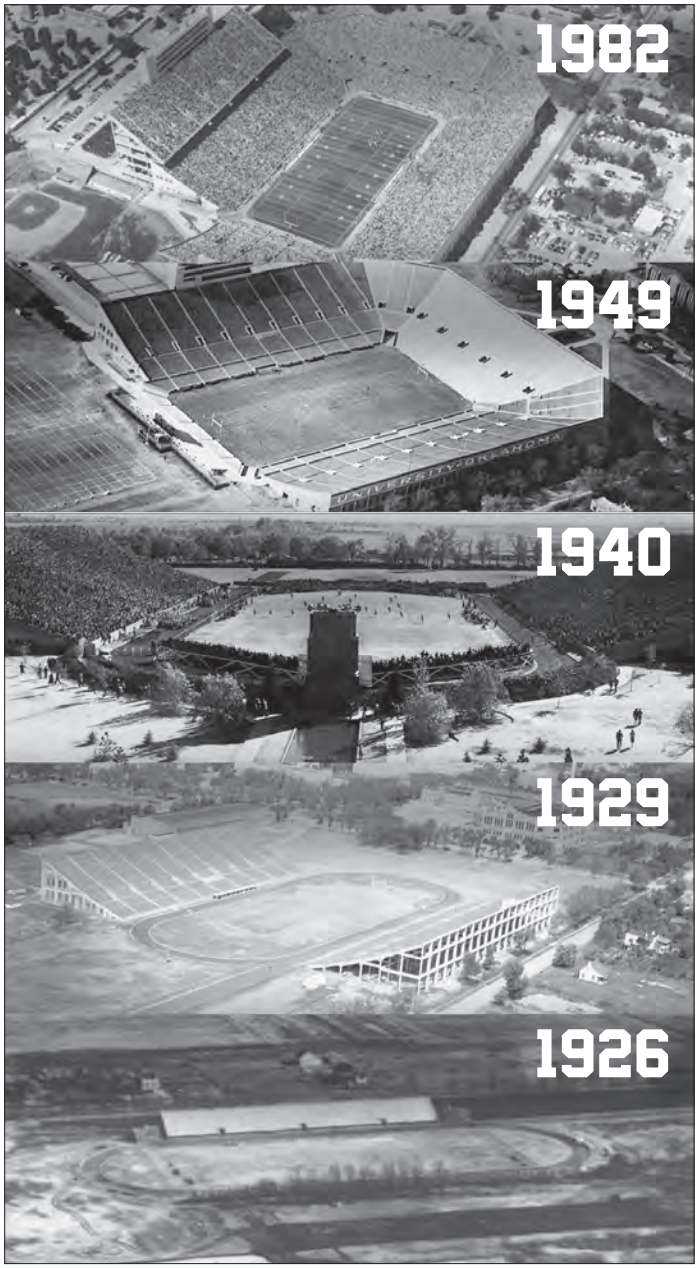

Memorial Stadium's rich heritage has not hindered its evolution, a never-ending growth fueled by the football program's overwhelming popularity. Almost since its inception, the stadium has been a work in progress. That fact holds true today. Using bond money and generous contributions, the stadium has recently undergone a number of changes (see pages 34-35 for information on the latest renovations).

Capacity for the "Palace on the Prairie" peaked at 83,489 from 2016-18 following the enclosing of the south end zone stands and addition of premium seating in that area. Due to the widening of stadium aisles and addition of handrails, capacity dropped to its current 80,126 figure prior to the 2019 season.

In 1921, OU students started a movement for construction of a student union, and soon the idea had grown to feature a combined football stadium/union. In the original architect's drawings, the north end of the proposed structure was strikingly similar to the present Oklahoma Memorial Union, but the stadium and union were eventually built separately.

The first game played at the current stadium site, called Owen Field and named after former head coach and athletics director Bennie Owen, took place Oct. 20, 1923 (a 63-7 win over Washington, Mo.), before stadium construction began. On Oct. 17, 1925, the first contest was played in front of the new 16,000-seat stands on the west side of the field, a 7-0 victory over Drake in which Roy "Goat" Lamb scored the game's only touchdown on a 2-yard run in muddy conditions. Oklahoma Memorial Stadium, named in honor of University personnel who died in World War I, was erected at a cost of approximately $293,000 and dedicated on Nov. 7, 1925, during OU's game against Kansas.

East-side stadium stands were added prior to the 1929 season. That addition increased seating capacity to 32,000, where it stood for 20 years.

In 1949, OU president George L. Cross pushed for expansion and the result was a six-foot lowering of the old playing surface and the elimination of a running track that surrounded the playing area.

The changes produced 7,000 new ringside seats and brought capacity to 55,000. The north end of the stadium also was enclosed. In 1957, green grandstand bleachers were added to the south end of the field, enabling the stadium to hold 61,836 fans.

In July, 1970 the original natural grass surface was removed and artificial turf was installed. That tartan turf was replaced with super turf before the 1981 season. Owen Field returned to grass in 1994.

1975 brought the addition of a west upper deck and new press box. Another 8,436 seats were added at a cost of $5,726,345, upping capacity during that national championship season to 71,187.

Before the 1980 campaign, the old green south end zone bleachers were replaced with a new facility. In addition to improved seating, the complex included coaches' offices, weight room, meeting rooms, a training room, equipment room and two locker rooms. The addition brought stadium capacity to 75,004.

A Stadium Master Plan was approved by the OU Board of Regents in June 1994, and construction of nine west-side suites began in April 1995. Subsequent improvements included the installation of stadium lights to allow night games, a new scoreboard and a video screen. Capacity was decreased to 72,765 in 1998 to provide more wheelchair seating.

The summer of 2003 saw a venture that added 8,000 seats thanks to an upper deck and 27 suites on the east side, bringing the total number of suites to 63. Another phase of that project stretched into 2004 when renovations to the Santee Lounge, restroom and concessions facilities and a new brick facade on the west side were completed.

Barry Switzer Center renovations were completed prior to the 2009 season. The players' locker room was expanded and remodeled while a 950-square foot hydrotherapy area and a new 4,000-square-foot Red Room with seating for 211 was built. A$4.5 million, 3,689-square-foot HD video board was added atop the south end zone in 2008.

OU owns a sparkling 429-90-15 (.817) all-time record at Gaylord Family – Oklahoma Memorial Stadium and has faced 101 opponents there.

Preparing Leaders for Tomorrow

Gaylord Family — Oklahoma Memorial Stadium includes office space in the facility's north end. The largest piece of that area houses the Prentice Gautt Academic Center. Some 30,000 square feet are dedicated to the academic pursuits of Sooner student-athletes.

Major emphasis is placed on classroom performance at OU. The center's staff has achievement as its focus, a fact that is reflected in the student-athletes' record performance the past many academic years. In addition to its academic support, the staff assists in several life skills areas designed to enrich students in a broad range of tasks.

Sooners Excel On and Off Field

Oklahoma Football exemplifies a commitment to excellence both on and off the field. The team earned a 3.03 cumulative GPA during the fall 2025 semester and followed with a 3.05 mark in spring 2026. During the spring term, 13 football student-athletes earned a perfect 4.0 GPA, 32 earned a 3.5 or higher and 68 earned at least a 3.0.

In 2008, along with leading the Oklahoma offense to the NCAA record for most points scored in a single season, quarterback Sam Bradford and running back DeMarco Murray were named CoSIDA Academic All-Americans. Brian Lepak became the third Sooner in as many years to garner the honor when he was named to the team in 2010. Gabe Ikard followed as a three-time Academic All-American in 2011, 2012 and 2013.

Ty Darlington continued the Sooners' recent streak of Academic All-Americans in 2014 and 2015 when he became the 18th OU student-athlete to earn Academic All-America honors twice in a career. He also became OU's first recipient of the William V. Campbell Trophy, given to the absolute best football scholar-athlete in the nation. Quarterback Connor McGinnis (2019) and safety Pat Fields (2020 and '21) were also named Academic All-Americans.

Study Abroad – Sooners Around the Globe

Since 2003, OU Athletics has expanded international education opportunities designed around the unique schedules of student-athletes. The first two dedicated programs launched in 2011, and since then more than 450 OU student-athletes have studied or interned abroad in 12 countries. OU Football offers annual study abroad opportunities during March and May, with destinations including Brazil, South Africa, Spain, Italy and Mexico, and plans for continued expansion. Designed for student-athletes, these programs provide an innovative way to earn academic credit while experiencing the world beyond the classroom and playing field. Through service, community engagement and cultural immersion, players explore intercultural relations, international politics, human rights, health and exercise science, history and artistic expression, broadening student-athletes' worldviews, deepening their sense of purpose and developing the cultural awareness, confidence and leadership skills needed to thrive in an increasingly interconnected world.

Taking an Active Community Role

OU lives by a clear and strong motto as it interacts with its student-athletes...Inspiring Champions for Today, Preparing Leaders for Tomorrow. As part of that promise, the Athletics Department and the football program take an active role in a number of community service projects.

Oklahoma's student-athletes recognize that wearing the Crimson and Cream means representing a popular sports program and themselves as individuals. They are encouraged to respond to a public that adores them, while learning important lessons about making a positive impact in the lives of others in and around the community in which they live.

Sooners Regularly Recognized for Service

Oklahoma's student-athletes are as visible off the field as they are when competing for the Sooners. Their significant community service efforts have been recognized not only on the local scene where they have the most impact, but also by national organizations that recognize the scope of OU's outreach.

No player embodied the Sooner spirit better than Quinton Carter, who was named the recipient of the seventh annual Wooden Citizenship Cup in 2011. The award is presented annually by the Atlanta-based Athletes For a Better World.

The award honored Carter who started his own foundation, the SOUL Foundation, while at OU. The Las Vegas native also adopted a class at Norman's KinderCare while volunteering for a multitude of other causes.

Players from Oklahoma's football team have also been named to the American Football Coaches Association's Good Works Team, an honor reserved for individuals who excel in their service to others. Jacob Gutierrez was named to the team in 2006, Nic Harris in 2007, Gerald McCoy in 2008, Carter in 2010, Caleb Kelly in 2018, Chanse Sylvie in 2020, Ethan Downs in 2023 and Gavin Sawchuk in 2024. In 2025, Brent Venables became OU's first honorary head coach named to the squad.

Gutierrez, who in 2005 was named the Norman Youth Citizen Volunteer of the Year, also was named a finalist for the Wooden Cup. Then, in 2006, Carl Pendleton was tabbed a finalist for the Wooden Cup, as was Ty Darlington in 2015.

Subsequently, Pendleton received postgraduate scholarships from the NCAA and the National Football Foundation, while also being named Big 12 Conference Sportsman of the Year. In addition, Pendleton won the Bobby Bowden Award, the highest student-athlete honor presented by the Fellowship of Christian Athletes.

Darlington also won the Bowden Award and the Wuerffel Trophy in 2015. The Wuerffel Trophy is awarded to the FBS player who best exhibits exemplary community service. Fellow OU center Gabe Ikard also won the national honor in 2013, while safety Pat Fields was one of three 2021 finalists. Fields was also a 2021 finalist for the Jason Witten Collegiate Man of the Year award, presented to the student-athlete who exhibits exemplary leadership on and off the field.

"SERVE OUR UNCOMMON LEGACY"

Almost immediately after being hired as Oklahoma's 23rd head coach in December 2021, Brent Venables went to work on formulating SOUL Mission, a comprehensive in-house player development program.

The "SOUL" in SOUL Mission stands for "Serve Our Uncommon Legacy." The program's goal is to create first-class, impactful student-athletes and prepare them to be servant leaders and sustain a lifestyle of winning.

Five SOUL Mission pillars target every facet of off-the-field enhancement of OU's football student-athletes: personal finance, community engagement, life skills development, career and professional development, and former player relations.

"For me, I was like 'That's got to be the backbone of the program,'" Venables said upon revealing the program. "Because if you make it all about winning and chasing championships, that's going to be a very empty, unfulfilling journey. We have an opportunity to have some generational change if we can keep the main thing the main thing. That's equipping these young people and pouring life into them; making sure that we're not just asking the right questions but putting the right resources and people where they need to be."

SOUL Mission is led by senior director Josh Norman, director Vince Carter and assistant director Lorenda Holston. Norman (running back/receiver) and Carter (All-America center) are former OU football players, while Holston was a Mountain West Conference track-and-field champion at Colorado State.

An impactful component of SOUL Mission is an annual service trip. The inaugural five-day version took place in May 2022, as 24 student-athletes traveled to Miami Gardens, Fla., for a "Social Change Process" human relations remote study course. OU's contingent explored the challenges faced by communities and the positive and proactive action being taken by educators, administrators and community leaders to build a stronger and safer environment for students. The Sooners also took part in a full-service Scott Lake Elementary School beautification project that included painting, landscaping and renovating the science lab.

JOSH NORMAN

In May 2023, as part of the university's HR 4170 course "Reflection of Apartheid in South Africa," 17 members of the OU football team traveled to South Africa to gain firsthand knowledge of the history of apartheid and the process of a country healing. During the in-country experience, the players visited historic sites related to apartheid, worked with experts in the field of creating social cohesion and conducted service-learning projects to help meet the physical needs of the communities.

VINCE CARTER

In spring 2024, a group of OU student-athletes returned to South Africa and two other SOUL Mission player contingents participated in service trips in Brazil and Hawaii. In 2025, members of the Sooner football and volleyball programs traveled to Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, participating in the OU international course "Human Relations in Developing Countries" and pouring themselves into the local community. And in 2026, players participated in spring and summer service trips to Brazil and Spain.

There's Only ONE Oklahoma

Since well before statehood, the University of Oklahoma has pursued excellence in academics, research and service for the betterment of people and places around the world. Driven by a boundless determination to change lives, OU has inspired generations of students to find purpose and meaning through their OU education, and our state and society have long benefited from OU's innovative spirit. For more than a century, OU has turned excellence into action — creating opportunity, advancing discovery and demonstrating what ONE can do.

How OU is Bringing That Vision to Life

- Guided by the aspirations of its "Lead On, University" Strategic Plan, OU continues to build on a bold trajectory of excellence — advancing academic distinction, research innovation, student success, patient care and service to Oklahoma and beyond. Learn more at ou.edu/leadon.
- OU continues to lead the state by attracting students in record numbers. The university is on track for a fourth straight year of record Oklahoma freshman enrollment and a sixth consecutive record total freshman class. Today, 27% of OU students — and 36% of Oklahoma students — are first-generation college students, underscoring the life-changing power of access to higher education.
- OU remains one of the strongest affordability stories in higher education. A degree from OU is more affordable today for Oklahoma students than it was seven years ago. Over that time, need-based aid has increased 39%, annual scholarship support for resident undergraduates has grown 38%, and the average annual net tuition and fee cost for resident undergraduates has declined 20%.
- As the state's leading research enterprise and largest engine of discovery, OU is advancing an impact-focused vision for research that strengthens Oklahoma and changes lives. Grounded in a commitment to public service and collaboration, OU prioritizes interdisciplinary research that addresses pressing challenges in health, national security, secure energy and extreme weather. Through strong partnerships with industry, government, tribal nations and community organizations, OU ensures that research translates into practical solutions, economic growth and improved quality of life for Oklahoma and beyond.

Discover Norman!

In 1870, the United States Land Office contracted with a professional engineer to survey much of Oklahoma territory. Abner E. Norman, a young surveyor, became chainman of the central survey area in Indian Territory. The surveyor's crew burned the words "Norman's Camp" into an elm tree near a watering hole to taunt their younger supervisor. When the "Sooners" (those who headed west before the official Land Run date, April 22, 1889) and the other settlers arrived in the heart of Oklahoma, they kept the name "Norman." Today, with 130,000 residents, Norman is the third largest city in the state.

Despite its continuous growth, it has maintained the spirit and serenity of a small, close-knit community.

Since the Oklahoma Land Rush of 1889, Norman has grown into a popular and well-educated city. The spirit of Norman and its citizens is unwavering and uncompromising.

As home to the state's premier educational institution, Norman boasts an excellent quality of life and is a city that thrives on and celebrates the diversity of its community.

Norman was recently acknowledged as one of the most progressive cities in Oklahoma and the Norman Public School system was recognized as the top school system in the state.

Oklahoma City — The Modern Frontier

Oklahoma City, the state's capital, is located just 18 miles north of the OU campus. Named one of the Best Places to Visit by Atlas Obscura and Southern Living, Oklahoma City offers all of the culture, cuisine, attractions and amenities you'd expect in a modern metropolis.

The city features 21 unique districts and offers a variety of attractions and activities different from any other place in the country. Sprawling across 625 square miles of America's heartland, making it the nation's third-largest city by land area, the city's metro population numbers 1.5 million — more than one-third of the entire state's population.

Oklahoma City embodies the Modern Frontier and defines its own future. A young city steeped in Native American and Western culture, OKC embraces its roots and continues to pave the way as a center of innovation and entrepreneurship where anything is possible.

OKC is also a haven for exciting sports action. The Thunder won the 2024-25 NBA championship and the city is home to three minor league teams. It also annually hosts the NCAA Women's College World Series and will host canoe slalom and softball as part of the 2028 Olympics.

2026-27 MARKS OKLAHOMA'S THIRD YEAR IN SEC

A pioneer in the integration of higher education and athletics competition, the Southeastern Conference is a leader on the national landscape for intercollegiate athletics in the 21st century.

Since its formation in 1933, the SEC has achieved stature and stability by designating governing/voting power to the presidents of the member institutions. These university leaders determine the policies of the conference and through the years this involvement has been the principal source of strength in the evolution of the SEC. Throughout its 93-year history, the SEC has provided leadership on the vital issues facing intercollegiate competition.

Alabama, Auburn, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, LSU, Mississippi, Mississippi State, Tennessee and Vanderbilt have been in the SEC since its formation in 1933. The league has expanded three times, adding Arkansas and South Carolina in 1991, then Missouri and Texas A&M in 2012, then Oklahoma and Texas on July 1, 2024.

SEC schools began athletic competition with one another more than 120 years ago as members of the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association. Seven institutions (Alabama, Auburn, Georgia, Georgia Tech, North Carolina, Sewanee and Vanderbilt) attended the SIAA organizational meeting of faculty representatives, called by Dr. William L. Dudley of Vanderbilt, in Atlanta Dec. 22, 1894.

The first SEC champions were crowned in 1933 in baseball, basketball, football and outdoor track. The league's inaugural championship event was a basketball tournament in Atlanta, Feb. 24-28, 1933. Records show the first men's team title for cross country was awarded in 1935, while golf and swimming were added in 1937. The league later began hosting championships in tennis (1938) and indoor track (1957).

In the 1979-80 academic year SEC championships for women were recognized in basketball, tennis and volleyball. The following year golf, gymnastics, swimming and track & field were added. Soccer was added in 1993 and softball began SEC play in 1997. The administration of women's athletics officially came under the auspices of the conference office on Sept. 1, 1984.

In 1993, the member institutions adopted The Principles of Gender Equity. Committed to increasing the quantity and quality of women's athletics opportunities, each school provides at least two more women's intercollegiate programs than the number of men's teams on each campus.

The conference approved women's rowing as its 22nd sponsored sport for the 2024-25 academic year. The SEC currently regulates nine men's sports and 13 women's sports.

Men's sports: baseball, basketball, cross country, football, golf, swimming, tennis, and indoor and outdoor track and field;

Women's sports: basketball, cross country, equestrian, golf, gymnastics, soccer, softball, swimming, tennis, indoor and outdoor track and field, rowing and volleyball.

Sooner Football Radio

The Sooner Sports Radio Network with Toby Rowland, Teddy Lehman, Chris Plank and Gabe Ikard blankets the state of Oklahoma and also delivers Sooner football games to fans and alumni in neighboring states. Fans around the world can catch the action via The Varsity Network and SiriusXM.

The flagship station for the network is KRXO-FM 107.7 in Oklahoma City. In Tulsa, the Sooner Sports Radio Network broadcasts may be heard on 100,000-watt KMOD-FM 97.5 and KTBZ-AM 1430.

These stations, along with nearly 40 regional affiliates, also carry multiple weekly shows and the Sooner Sports Podcast.

Sooner Sports Podcast
Hosted by Chris Plank, the official Oklahoma Sooners podcast has interviews with coaches, game breakdowns and analysis from the Sooner Radio Network and Sooner Sports TV crews. The comprehensive coverage is updated regularly and can be found on all major platforms or at SoonerSports.com/podcast.

Game Broadcasts
Network broadcasts for all OU football games begin three hours prior to kickoff with the "Sooner Tailgate Show," which features assistant coach and player interviews, plus a pre-game conversation with head coach Brent Venables. The "Sooner Postgame Show" features game highlights, player comments and postgame interviews with Venables and assistant coaches.

"Sooner Sports Talk With Brent Venables"
Each Monday throughout the season, "Sooner Sports Talk" provides fans with the opportunity to hear from OU head coach Brent Venables. The broadcasts air live from 7-8 p.m. CT on the Sooner Radio Network, and can also be seen on SEC Network+ and locally on Griffin Media stations. Hosted by Chris Plank, the show takes place at Rudy's Country Store & Bar-B-Q in Norman.

"Coaches' Corner"
Each Thursday during the season, "Coaches' Corner" features OU assistant coaches giving insight into their schemes, players and the competition. The broadcast can be heard from 7-8 p.m. CT and can also be viewed on SEC Network+ and Griffin Media stations.

SoonerVision on SEC Network+

"Sooner Football with Brent Venables"
Broadcast each week following OU football games, the show features the dramatic plays and highlights of the previous game with analysis and comments from head coach Brent Venables. Toby Rowland serves as host, and fans can watch on SEC Network + and locally on Griffin Media stations, including Channel 9 in OKC and Channel 6 in Tulsa.

"The Huddle" and "Sooner Sports Talk"
Go inside OU Football live every Monday night from Rudy's Country Store & Bar-B-Q. Host Chris Plank is joined by former Sooners at 6 p.m. CT to discuss all things college football on "The Huddle," while head coach Brent Venables sits down on the set at 7 for the 60-minute "Sooner Sports Talk." The shows air live on the Sooner Radio Network, and can also be seen on SEC Network+ and locally on Griffin Media stations.

"Sooner Sports Game Day"
Airing each weekend from the SoonerVision studios in Norman, OU's pre-game show includes an interview with Brent Venables, player features, team reports and analysis from a panel of former Sooner greats. The first half of the show can be seen locally on Channel 9 in OKC and Channel 6 in Tulsa, with the full show available on SEC Network+.

"Sooners Live"
Streaming live on game day, home or away, this on-location coverage provides fans an up-close look from the sidelines with all the sights and sounds, including analysis and interviews with different guests each week. Watch live on the SoonerSports.com YouTube channel and SEC Network+.

SoonerVision programming airs nightly in Oklahoma via Griffin Media (News 9 and/or KSBI in the Oklahoma City market and News On 6 and/or KQCW in the Tulsa area).

FOCUSED AND TOGETHER

Sooners ready to build on 2025 College Football Playoff appearance with experienced units in all three phases

OFFENSE

As Oklahoma looks to build on its 2025 success that produced its first College Football Playoff appearance in six years, the Sooners are poised to make further strides on offense in 2026. Second-year offensive coordinator Ben Arbuckle is assisted by longtime offensive line coach Bill Bedenbaugh, in his 14th season with the Sooners, fourth-year wide receivers coach Emmett Jones and new hires in accomplished running backs coach Deland McCullough and tight ends coach Jason Witten, a former 17-year NFL tight end and 11-time Pro Bowler. Former OU offensive analysts Kevin Wilson, a longtime college offensive coordinator and former head coach, and John Kuceyeski, who was quarterbacks coach at Washington State in 2024, were promoted to assistant head coach for offense and quarterbacks coach, respectively, in the offseason.

Quarterback John Mateer, who completed 62% of his passes for 2,885 yards and totaled 22 touchdowns (14 passing and eight rushing) in 12 games last year, returns for his final season. OU looks to make particular improvement in the running game and should be helped by the return of junior Xavier Robinson and sophomore Tory Blaylock, who accounted for 902 of the team's 1,540 rushing yards last season. Counting Mateer's 431 rushing yards, the trio combined for 1,333 yards on the ground in 2025. Primary wide receiver target Isaiah Sategna III, who registered 67 receptions for 965 yards and eight touchdowns (ranked third in the SEC in yards and touchdowns), was a first-team AP All-SEC selection. He is the only returning wide receiver with at least 10 catches last season, but proven newcomers Trell Harris (Virginia) and Parker Livingstone (Texas) are expected to help immediately. Five newcomers at tight end look to help bolster the blocking and pass-catching at the position. On the offensive line, the Sooners must replace two-year starter Febechi Nwaiwu at right guard (26 starts over two seasons) and Derek Simmons at right tackle (eight starts last year), but return five players who have combined to make 62 career starts, including 39 starts last season. That group includes center Jake Maikkula (26 career starts), guards Heath Ozaeta (15 starts) and Eddy Pierre-Louis (six starts), guard/tackle Ryan Fodje (six starts) and tackle Michael Fasusi (10 starts).

QUARTERBACKS (4)

LETTERMEN RETURNING (1)

• John Mateer (5th) — Completed 247 of 397 passes for 2,885 yards and 14 touchdowns and rushed 149 times for 431 yards and eight TDs in 12 games last season ... missed the Kent State game due to a thumb injury that required surgery ... transferred to OU from Washington State following the 2024 season ... has played in 36 career games and made 24 starts ... has completed 486 of 761 passes (64%) for 6,291 yards and 46 touchdowns (19 interceptions) and rushed 352 times for 1,408 yards and 26 TDs in his career.

DEFENSE

Oklahoma boasted one of the absolute best defensive units in the country last season on its way to the College Football Playoff. The Sooners ranked first nationally in sacks (3.5 per game) and tackles for loss (9.4 per contest), third in rushing defense (77.3 yards per game) and opponent third-down conversion rate (28.2%), sixth in total defense (272.5 yards per game), seventh in scoring defense (15.5 points per game) and 32nd in passing defense (195.2 yards per game). OU also ranked 10th nationally with its three defensive touchdowns. The performance further cemented head coach Brent Venables as one of the premier defensive play-callers in the nation. Associate head coach and co-defensive coordinator Todd Bates (defensive tackles, run defense), defensive ends coach Miguel Chavis and safeties coach Brandon Hall are in their fifth seasons at OU, providing coaching consistency on the front and back lines of the defense. Inside linebackers coach Nate Dreiling and assistant linebackers/outside linebackers coach Wes Goodwin return for their second seasons on staff, while new cornerbacks coach LaMar Morgan is in his first year after joining the staff in February from Michigan and former four-year analyst Xavier Brewer is in his first season as assistant secondary coach.

Even with the loss of All-America and All-SEC First Team defensive end R Mason Thomas, All-SEC Second Team defensive tackle Gracen Halton, linebacker Kendal Daniels and safety Robert Spears-Jennings to the NFL, Oklahoma figures to be stout on defense again in 2026. The Sooners return 10 of their top 17 tacklers from last season, including linebackers Kip Lewis (30 career starts) and Owen Heinecke (five starts), who ranked first and second on the team in tackles last year. Including defensive backs Peyton Bowen (20 career starts), Eli Bowen (17 career starts), Courtland Guillory

SPECIAL TEAMS

Oklahoma returns all four major players in the kicking game from last season, including reigning Lou Groza Award winner Tate Sandell and first-team All-SEC punter Grayson Miller. Three-year standout long snapper Ben Anderson and holder Jacob Ulrich are also back, providing valuable consistency for the special teams units. Sandell's record-setting 2025 campaign featured prominently in Oklahoma's 10 wins and College Football Playoff appearance, and most significantly in November road wins at Tennessee, in which he made four field goals (three more than 50 yards), and Alabama, as he converted both field goal attempts in a two-point victory. Miller set a school record for punts of longer than 50 yards last season, while Anderson was named a semifinalist for the Patrick Mannelly Award for best long snapper in the nation.

Isaiah Sategna III handled all of OU's punt returns in 2025, averaging 13.3 yards on 24 returns (long of 43 yards) to rank 10th nationally. OU only returned two kickoffs, including one for 15 yards by Peyton Bowen. Bowen was OU's primary punt returner in 2024, ranking 21st nationally and fourth in the SEC by averaging 8.4 yards on 25 returns. Transfer running back Lloyd Avant has returned 25 career kickoffs for 660 yards, including a 100-yard touchdown in his first ever return while a freshman at Tulsa in 2024.

Under the direction of special teams coordinator Doug Deakin, the Sooners ranked 41st in 2024 and 10th in 2025 in ESPN's special teams efficiency ratings after ranking 127th the year before his arrival.

WELCOME TO THE TEAM

After adding 63 new players in 2023, 52 newcomers in 2024, and 45 in 2025, Oklahoma welcomes 43 newcomers for 2026, Brent Venables' fifth season as head coach. Entering 2026, 39% of OU's roster is comprised of first-year Sooners, down from 40% in 2025, 43% in 2024 and 51% in 2023. That means the Sooners have more players with OU experience than in the previous three campaigns. Thirty-five of the Sooners' 110 players have spent at least two years at Oklahoma, while another 32 are entering their second season in Norman.

QUICK LOOK AT 2026

Oklahoma returns more than 90% of its offensive production from 2025 in rushing yards (90%), passing yards (96%) and total offense (93%), while 78% of its scoring is back for this season. Conversely, OU returns just 43% of its receiving yards from last season. On the offensive line, five returners made at least six starts in 2025 and have made 63 career starts among them. Between returning players and transfers, six offensive linemen have combined for 71 career starts.

Defensively, the Sooners return at least half of their production in tackles (58%), tackles for loss (55%), sacks (59%), interceptions (78%), pass breakups (67%), QB hurries (54%) and forced fumbles (50%). Six defensive players started at least six games last season and those players have compiled 102 career starts, all at OU.

Oklahoma also returns its four key players in the kicking game: 2025 Lou Groza Award winner Tate Sandell at kicker, punter Grayson Miller, long snapper Ben Anderson and holder/punter Jacob Ulrich.

RETURNING ALL-CONFERENCE HONOREES

The Sooners return eight of their 12 players who earned 2025 All-SEC honors from the coaches and/or AP. Placekicker Tate Sandell was a first-team All-SEC selection and All-American who became OU's first-ever winner of the Lou Groza Award. Punter Grayson Miller also earned first-team All-SEC recognition by setting a single-season school record with his 24 punts of 50 or more yards. Wide receiver Isaiah Sategna III was a first-team All-SEC selection by the AP and second-team pick as both a wide receiver and all-purpose player by the coaches. Long snapper Ben Anderson, defensive back Peyton Bowen and defensive lineman Taylor Wein were second-team All-SEC selections by the coaches, while linebacker Owen Heinecke was named a second-team all-league player by the AP. Cornerback Eli Bowen earned third-team All-SEC recognition from coaches.

NEW COACHES

The 2026 Oklahoma coaching staff features five new assistant coaches, four on offense and one on defense. In January, the Sooners brought in former All-Pro and 17-year NFL tight end Jason Witten as tight ends coach, and in February hired Deland McCullough as running backs coach and LaMar Morgan as cornerbacks coach, filling open positions on the staff. OU also promoted former offensive analyst John Kuceyeski to quarterbacks coach and longtime college offensive coordinator and former head coach Kevin Wilson to assistant head coach for offense. An OU offensive analyst last season, Wilson served as the Sooners' offensive coordinator from 2002-10 under former head coach Bob Stoops. Former defensive analyst Xavier Brewer was also promoted to assistant secondary coach.

ANOTHER SCHEDULE GAUNTLET

Oklahoma will play the second-toughest schedule in college football during the 2026 season, according to ESPN's College Football Power Index rankings (only Arkansas' schedule is rated as more difficult). Last summer, OU's schedule was rated as the most difficult in the nation entering the 2025 campaign.

The Sooners will host six games at Gaylord Family – Oklahoma Memorial Stadium, play five true road games and the annual Red River Rivalry clash against Texas at Cotton Bowl Stadium in Dallas. Six of OU's 2026 opponents are in the preseason AP Top 25 (No. 3 Georgia, No. 5 Texas, No. 8 Texas A&M, No. 9 Ole Miss, No. 16 Michigan and No. 25 Missouri), and three more received votes (Florida, South Carolina and New Mexico).

OU's three non-conference games will be Sept. 4 vs. UTEP (Friday night), Sept. 12 at Michigan and Sept. 19 vs. New Mexico. For the first time in its three seasons as a member of the SEC, Oklahoma will open conference play on the road, traveling to Georgia on Sept. 26. Following an open week, OU will travel to Dallas to meet Texas on Oct. 10. The Sooners will alternate road and home games the next five weeks, hosting Kentucky on Oct. 17, traveling to Mississippi State on Oct. 24, hosting South Carolina on Oct. 31, visiting Florida on Nov. 7 and hosting Ole Miss for the second straight year on Nov. 14. OU will close the regular season by hosting Texas A&M on No. 21 and visiting Missouri on Nov. 28. Oklahoma has a 169-121-13 all-time record against the league's current member schools.

HOME IS WHERE THE "W" IS

Oklahoma has won nearly as many conference championships over the last 27 years (14) as it has lost home games. The Sooners are 151-17 (.899) at Gaylord Family — Oklahoma Memorial Stadium since the start of the 1999 season. It is the nation's second-best home winning percentage over the last 27 seasons (Boise State; .906). OU has outscored its opponents by an average of 42-18 in those games. The Sooners have posted 167 straight sellouts of originally scheduled home games dating back to the start of the 1999 season. Only Nebraska has a longer current streak nationally.

SEVEN PLAYERS SELECTED IN NFL DRAFT

For the 31st straight year and 56th time in the last 57 years, OU had at least two players selected in the NFL Draft. Seven Sooners were picked in April, led by defensive lineman R Mason Thomas, who was the second round choice of the Kansas City Chiefs. Offensive lineman Febechi Nwaiwu (Houston Texans), defensive lineman Gracen Halton (San Francisco 49ers) and linebacker Kendal Daniels (Atlanta Falcons) were selected in the fourth round. Defensive back Robert Spears-Jennings (Pittsburgh Steelers), tight end Jaren Kanak (Tennessee Titans) and wide receiver Deion Burks (Indianapolis Colts) were picked in the seventh round.

Oklahoma's seven overall selections in this year's draft tied for the program's most since 2019. OU has produced at least three NFL draftees 23 times in the last 24 years (only LSU and Ohio State have produced three or more picks in each of the last 24 drafts).

EXTRA POINTS

▶ Oklahoma led the SEC in 2026 in points allowed (15.5 ppg), yards allowed (272.5 ypg), rushing yards allowed (77.3 ypg), passing defense efficiency rating (115.8), sacks per game (3.5; led nation), tackles for loss per game (9.4; led nation) and first downs allowed (194).

▶ Oklahoma won six straight Big 12 championships from 2015-20, giving it a nation-leading 50 conference titles. Nebraska ranks second with 46 and Michigan third with 45. OU's 14 league titles since 2000 are three more than the Power Five program with the next most (Ohio State has 11 while Alabama, Clemson and Oregon have nine).

▶ Oklahoma has appeared in a bowl game in 27 consecutive seasons. It is the second-longest streak in the nation (Georgia; 29). The last time OU did not appear in a bowl contest was 1998.

▶ Since the start of the 1999 season (Bob Stoops' first as head coach), the Sooners rank fourth among all Power Four programs in wins (278; 13 fewer than Ohio State, four fewer than Alabama and one fewer than Georgia). During the same span, OU leads the nation in points per game (37.7).

THREE NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIPS (ONE WITH OKLAHOMA, TWO WITH CLEMSON)
EIGHT NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME APPEARANCES • COACHED IN 36 BOWL/CFP GAMES
13 CONFERENCE CHAMPIONSHIPS • THREE-TIME BROYLES AWARD FINALIST (2016 WINNER)

A former 13-year University of Oklahoma assistant coach who won a national championship with the Sooners and two more with Clemson University during an ultra-successful 10-year stint as defensive coordinator, Brent Venables was named OU's 23rd head football coach on Dec. 5, 2021, and has directed the Sooners to a 32-20 record in his four seasons.

The 2025 Sooners finished 10-3 overall — their second 10-win campaign under Venables — and advanced to the program's fifth College Football Playoff (first since 2019), earning the No. 8 seed and first-round hosting honors. OU's defense, under the direction of Venables as play-caller, was one of the nation's best. The Sooners ranked sixth in the country in yards allowed per game (272.5) and seventh in points allowed per outing (15.5). They also led the nation in tackles for loss per game (9.4) and sacks per contest (3.5). Additionally, Tate Sandell became the first OU recipient of the Lou Groza Award as the nation's top placekicker.

Venables also led the 2023 team to a 10-3 mark and second-place Big 12 finish (7-2). OU ranked first nationally in defense interceptions per game (1.5), third in total offense (507.0 ypg) and fourth in scoring offense (41.7 ppg).

The 55-year-old Venables has produced 17 NFL Draft picks since becoming Oklahoma's head coach, including 10 offensive players. OU's seven draft selections in 2026 were tied for the program's most since 2019.

Venables served as co-defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Oklahoma from 1999-2003 and as associate head coach, defensive coordinator and linebackers coach from 2004-11 under former head coach Bob Stoops. Venables has coached in eight national championship games between his time at OU and Clemson, winning titles with the Sooners in 2000 and Tigers in 2016 and 2018. In 26 years as a full-time assistant coach, Venables' teams produced 26 winning seasons, won 13 conference titles, went to 30 bowl games (including four College Football Playoff National Championship games) and won at least 10 games 22 times.

After joining Clemson prior to the 2012 season, Venables constructed one of the nation's top defenses. From 2012-2021, the Tigers ranked first nationally in sacks (445; next most was 392) and opponent third-down conversion percentage (30.2), second in opponent pass efficiency rating (111.1) and takeaways (244; tied), third in scoring defense (17.8 ppg) and opponent completion percentage (53.3), fourth in total defense (311.4 ypg) and pass defense (190.5 ypg), fifth in interceptions (148) and sixth in rushing defense (120.9 ypg). They won league titles each year from 2015-20.

Since 2000, Venables has coached nine national award winners and 17 consensus All-Americans. In that time, 67 defensive players under his guidance have been selected in the NFL Draft (12 first-rounders), including 20 linebackers, two of whom were first-round picks.

THE VENABLES FAMILY

As a defensive coordinator and linebackers coach, Venables produced winners of three Butkus Awards (OU's Rocky Calmus in 2001 and Teddy Lehman in 2003, and CU's Isaiah Simmons in 2019), two Nagurski Awards (OU's Roy Williams in 2001 and Derrick Strait in 2003), two Thorpe Awards (Williams in 2001 and Strait in 2003) and one Bednarik Award (Lehman in 2003). And in 2018, Clemson defensive tackle Christian Wilkins became the school's first winner of William V. Campbell Trophy, also known as the "Academic Heisman."

Venables has received national accolades for his coaching and recruiting, including the Frank Broyles Award in 2016 as the nation's top assistant coach after being a finalist in 2015. He was FootballScoop's Defensive Coordinator of the Year in 2014 and Rivals.com's Recruiter of the Year in 2015.

Venables' defensive units were remarkably consistent during his 10 years with the Tigers. Each of his last eight Clemson defenses ranked in the top 15 nationally in yards allowed and seven of the last eight ranked in the top 20 in points allowed. Over his last eight years there, his units ranked first (in 2014), 10th, eighth, fourth, fifth, sixth, 15th and ninth (in 2021) in total defense. Additionally, his units ranked first or second in the ACC in total defense each of his last eight years (ranked first in six of those seasons).

Under Venables' tutelage in 2021, Clemson ranked second nationally in scoring defense (15.0 ppg) and red zone defense (62.1 conversion percentage), fourth in sacks (3.4 per game), eighth in rushing defense (98.8 ypg) and ninth in total defense (308.4 ypg).

Venables' 2020 Clemson defense tied for the national lead with 46 sacks, despite no player producing more than 4.5 individually. His 2019 unit allowed fewer than 300 yards of total offense in each of its first 12 games, the first defense nationally since at least 1996 to accomplish that feat. Clemson held 16 straight foes to 20 or fewer points across the 2018-19 seasons, the school's longest streak since the 1937-40 campaigns.

Clemson's 2018 squad led the nation in scoring defense (13.1 ppg) for the first time in school history and set a program record by recording 54 sacks.

Venables' Clemson defenses ranked among the top 10 nationally in sacks each year from 2014-21 and ranked in the top 10 in tackles for loss from 2013-20. The units led the nation in TFLs every year from 2013-16.

From 1999-2011, Venables helped OU to the 2000 national championship, three other national championship game appearances (2003, '04 and '08) and seven Big 12 titles. He was a finalist for the Broyles Award in 2006 when the Sooners led the Big 12 in total defense and scoring defense.

Oklahoma linebackers under Venables earned three Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year awards, five Big 12 Defensive Newcomer of the Year accolades and six first-team All-America honors. Ten of his OU linebackers — and 31 defensive players overall — were taken in the 2000-12 NFL Drafts.

While Venables was an Oklahoma assistant, the Sooners ranked among the top 16 nationally in total defense eight times (including each year from 2000-06) and among the top 20 in scoring defense eight times. OU led the Big 12 in scoring defense on four occasions (2000, '04, '06 and '11) and topped the conference in total defense three times (2003, '04, and '06).

Prior to joining Stoops' first staff at OU, Venables coached linebackers at Kansas State (1996-98), serving as defensive running game coordinator in 1998, and was a graduate assistant at K-State under Bill Snyder from 1993-95.

As a player at Kansas State (1991-92), Venables earned honorable mention All-Big Eight honors in 1992 after registering 124 tackles. He began his collegiate playing career at Garden City (Kan.) Community College (1989-90), where he earned All-America honors after recording 276 tackles and was inducted into the school's athletics hall of fame in April 2023.

A native of Salina, Kan., Venables, who exhibits a strong commitment to serving the community and was named the 2025 Allstate AFCA Good Works Team Honorary Head Coach, received his bachelor's degree in political science from Kansas State in 1992. He and his wife Julie have four children: sons Jake and Tyler and daughters Laney and Addie.

Key OU Responsibilities

• Lead the strategic and operational functions of Oklahoma's football roster construction and operations.

• Work as a peer partner to the head coach to assemble a team that reflects the program's identity, values, goals and style of play, and translates the head coach's vision into actionable roster-building strategies.

• Design and oversee financial strategies to allocate revenue-sharing and NIL assets and opportunities effectively to support roster building and player compensation.

• Oversee a specialized and professionalized scouting department with distinct roles for high school and transfer portal recruiting.

• Lead player evaluation processes, ensuring an objective and accurate talent assessment to fit the program's needs.

• Monitor emerging trends and innovations in player evaluation to maintain a competitive edge regarding technology and data collection.

• Manage the day-to-day operations of the football program, including budgeting, resource allocation and compliance with NCAA and SEC rules and bylaws, University policy and all other governing bodies and regulations.

• Serve as the liaison between the football program and other university departments (compliance, academics, facilities, etc.).

• Collaborate with university leadership to align football operations with the institution's athletics department and its academic goals.

• Establish relationships with key stakeholders, including boosters, alumni and other external partners.

Professional Notes and Accomplishments

• Was named Oklahoma General Manager for Football in March 2025 and built a front office staff that worked with OU coaches to secure a top-15 2026 recruiting class. The Sooners also earned the No. 8 seed in the College Football Playoff his first year in Norman.

• From 2018-25, Nagy served as executive director of the Senior Bowl, the nation's most prestigious college all-star game that showcases draft-eligible college football players, and was responsible for the identification, evaluation, recruitment and selection of the top NFL prospects to be invited to the game.

• Oversaw unprecedented growth of the Senior Bowl in all areas, including tripling sponsorship revenue, adding community service events (such as the Thanksgiving Turkey Bowl), creating a true football operation staffed with former NFL scouts and increasing draftable numbers from the game by an average of 30 players per year (compared to five-year span prior to his arrival).

• In his role with the Senior Bowl, he cultivated relationships across college football, the agent community and all 32 NFL front offices. In the past five game cycles, the Senior Bowl produced more than 100 drafted players each year, representing more than 40% of those NFL Draft classes. In the 2024 draft, the Senior Bowl had a record 110 total selections, including 45 of the top 100 players and 10 first-round picks.

• Nagy's Senior Bowl media responsibilities included serving as an NFL Draft analyst for ESPN (2019-22) and regular appearances on NFL Network, including "Good Morning Football" and stand-alone Senior Bowl shows "Roster Reveal" and "Game Week Recap Show."

• For 17 years prior to directing the Senior Bowl, Nagy served in various scouting capacities with the then-Washington Redskins, New England Patriots, Kansas City Chiefs and Seattle Seahawks.

• During his time in the NFL, Nagy's teams played in six Super Bowls and won four of them. The six appearances came with the Green Bay Packers (won in 1996 season; intern), New England Patriots (won in 2003 and '04 seasons, lost in 2007 season) and Seattle Seahawks (won in 2013 season and lost in 2014 season).

• Graduated from the University of Michigan in 1996 with a bachelor's degree in sports management and communications. He was named a UM Distinguished Alumnus in 2019.

Coaching Notes and Accomplishments

• In his second season at Oklahoma as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach. Hired at OU on Dec. 2, 2024, after serving the 2023 and 2024 seasons in the same capacity at Washington State University.

• Part of an Oklahoma staff in 2025 that coached the Sooners to a 10-2 regular season record and program's first College Football Playoff appearance since 2019.

• Presided over a 2024 Cougars offense that ranked 12th nationally in the regular season with its 36.8 points per game and ranks sixth out of 130 FBS teams in passing touchdowns (30), eighth in yards per pass attempt (9.1), ninth in passing efficiency rating (165.2), 12th in yards per completion (13.9), 14th in yards per play (6.7), 22nd in total offense (440.4 ypg), 24th in passing offense (268.8 ypg) and rushing touchdowns (27), 27th in turnovers lost (12), 28th in completion percentage (.652), 31st in interceptions thrown (7) and 55th in rushing offense (171.6 ypg). WSU rushed for over 100 yards in 11 games (its most since 2005) and 89 yards in the other regular season contest.

• In 2024 at Washington State, quarterback John Mateer was one of only two QBs nationally to register at least 20 passing touchdowns (29; fifth nationally) and at least 10 rushing touchdowns (15; 13th nationally), and the only QB with at least 25 passing touchdowns and 15 rushing TDs. His 15 rushing touchdowns were the second most in WSU history and the most ever by a quarterback, while his 826 rushing yards set a school single-season record by a QB. He led the country in points responsible for per game (22.3), and ranked second nationally in points responsible for (268), fifth in total offense (330.4 yards per game), seventh in yards per pass attempt (9.1), eighth in passing efficiency (164.1), 10th in yards per pass completion (14.0), 17th in passing yards per game (261.6) and 22nd in passing yards (3,139). He notched a rushing TD and a passing TD in 10 of 12 contests and was responsible for at least five TDs in five games.

• In his first year at Washington State in 2023, the Cougars ranked fourth nationally in passing offense at 336.8 ypg (up from 44th and 253.8 ypg the year before his arrival), 35th in total offense at 421.7 ypg (up from 93rd and 360.7 ypg), 36th with its 147.2 passing efficiency rating (up from 71st and 132.3 figure) and 37th in scoring offense at 31.7 ppg (up from 79th and 26.1 ppg).

• WSU quarterback Cam Ward ranked third in the country in 2023 in completions per game (26.9), fourth in passing offense (311.3 ypg) and sixth in total offense (323.3 ypg). The Cougars posted 400-plus yards of total offense in seven games, including a season-high 718 in a win over Northern Colorado and 528 in a victory over No. 14 Oregon State. Against the Beavers, Ward completed 29 of 35 passes for 422 yards and four touchdowns en route to being named national player of the week. He and wide receiver Lincoln Victor were named 2023 All-Pac-12 performers.

• Combined over his two seasons at Washington State, the Cougars rank 10th nationally in passing yards per game (302.7) and in passing touchdowns (57), 12th in touchdown/interception ratio (3.56), 13th in passing efficiency rating (154.5), 20th in scoring offense (34.2 ppg) and 22nd in touchdowns from scrimmage (101).

• The 29-year-old has quickly ascended the coaching ranks. He began his coaching career in a quality control role at Houston Baptist University for two years (2018-19), working mainly with the offensive line his first season and the quarterbacks his second.

• After spending the 2020 season as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Seminole High School in Seminole, Texas, he landed at Western Kentucky University as an offensive quality control staffer and contributed to a 2021 offense that led the nation in passing (433.7 ypg) and ranked second in total offense (536.2 ypg) and scoring (44.2 ppg). He helped mentor quarterback Bailey Zappe, who broke single-season FBS records for passing yards (5,967) and passing touchdowns (62).

• Was promoted to co-offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach for WKU's 2022 season. In his first year as a full-time coach, he served as primary play-caller and promptly helped the Hilltoppers finish second nationally in passing yards (339.0 ypg), seventh in total offense (497.1 ypg) and 15th in scoring offense (36.4 ppg), and guided quarterback Austin Reed to a nation-leading 4,746 passing yards and respective No. 3 and 4 rankings in passing touchdowns (40) and total offense (355.0 ypg).

• The 2022 season culminated with a 44-23 win over South Alabama in the New Orleans Bowl, resulting in a 9-5 overall record. In that game, WKU racked up 677 yards of total offense, including a New Orleans Bowl-record 522 passing yards. Arbuckle was named to 247Sports' 30-Under-30 list of rising college football coaching stars that season.

As a Player

• A Canadian, Texas, native, he played quarterback at West Texas A&M University. He graduated in 2018 with a dual degree in finance and economics.

Coaching Notes and Accomplishments

• One of the most accomplished recruiters and developers of defensive line talent in the country over the last decade, is in his fifth season at Oklahoma. He coaches OU's defensive tackles.

• Part of a defensive staff that helped the Sooners lead the nation in sacks (3.5 per game) and tackles for loss (9.4 per contest) in 2025. OU also ranked third nationally in rushing defense (77.3 ypg; led SEC) and third-down defense (28.2%), sixth in total defense (272.5 ypg) and seventh in scoring defense (15.5 ppg).

• His defensive tackles helped OU tie for fourth nationally in tackles for loss (104) in 2022, 11th (98) in 2023 and 14th (96) in 2024. In 2024, OU ranked sixth in the country in fumbles recovered (12), 19th in total defense (318.2 ypg), 24th in rushing defense (115.1 ypg), 29th in scoring defense (21.5 ppg) and 36th in takeaways (21).

• The only DL coach nationally since 2019 to produce at least three NFL Draft picks in each of three drafts (2019, '23, '24).

• Rivals' 2019 Recruiter of the Year who helped Clemson win a national title in 2018, Bates coached with Brent Venables and the Tigers from 2017-21. Bates' units were a major factor in Clemson leading the nation in sacks (235) and tackles for loss (565) during his five seasons.

• Coached all four defensive line positions in 2017 (first Clemson coach to do so since 2004) before shifting focus to the defensive tackles in 2018. He added the title of recruiting coordinator following the 2019 campaign.

• Mentored three first-round draft picks and nine All-Americans during his time at Clemson and Jacksonville State (2014-16). Every primary starter under his tutelage at those two schools earned all-conference honors.

• Helped Clemson sign classes that ranked in Rivals' top 10 four straight years: eighth in 2018, ninth in 2019, second in 2020 and seventh in 2021. The 2020 class was ranked No. 1 by ESPN.

• Clemson's 2021 defensive unit ranked second nationally in scoring defense (15.0 ppg), sixth in sacks (41.0; tied) and eighth in rushing defense (98.8 ypg).

• His 2020 interior group helped the Tigers tie for the national lead in sacks (46) and rank second in tackles for loss (109). He coached Bryan Bresee to freshman All-America and first-team All-ACC status in 2020.

• Part a duo that was one of four finalists for 2020 FootballScoop Defensive Line Coach of the Year award.

• In 2019, accelerated the development of a young defensive line that helped the Tigers hold each of their first 12 opponents under 300 total yards. Clemson was the first FBS program since at least 1996 to accomplish the feat.

• Both of his primary 2019 starters — true freshman Tyler Davis (second-team) and Nyles Pinckney (third-team) — earned All-ACC selections. Davis made 13 starts, the most by a true freshman defensive lineman in Clemson history.

• Clemson boasted one of the nation's best defensive lines in 2017 and '18. Comprised of tackles Christian Wilkins and Dexter Lawrence and ends Clelin Ferrell and Austin Bryant, the Tigers' unit anchored a 2018 defense that led the nation in points allowed (13.1 ppg) and ranked fifth in total defense (285.9 ypg). Ferrell (fourth), Wilkins (13th) and Lawrence (17th) were all selected among the first 17 picks of the 2019 NFL Draft.

• Helped Wilkins collect Outland, Nagurski, Bednarik and Lott IMPACT finalist selections in 2018 in addition to winning the William V. Campbell Trophy. Wilkins became the fifth unanimous All-American in Clemson history in 2018.

• In his three years at Jacksonville State, the Gamecocks compiled a 33-6 overall record and a 23-0 conference mark, won three Ohio Valley Conference titles and reached the 2015 FCS National Championship game.

• Produced multiple All-OVC selections in each of his three years at Jacksonville State. All four primary D-line starters in those seasons (Caleb Lawrence, Devaunte Sigler, Randy Robinson and Esmond Owing) earned all-conference honors.

• Helped the 2016 JSU squad to a 10-2 record and No. 6 final FCS ranking with the nation's fourth-ranked defense (275.0 ypg). In 2014, the Gamecocks led the league in rushing defense (127.7 ypg).

• Began his coaching career at Talladega (Ala.) High School in 2007 and Oxford (Ala.) High School from 2008-11.

• Spent time as an assistant coach at Idaho State from 2011-12 and at East Central (Miss.) Junior College in 2013.

As a Player

• A native of Heflin, Ala., played at Alabama from 2001-04, earning three letters and serving as a team captain in 2004.

• Spent the 2005 and '06 seasons with the Tennessee Titans before injuries ended his playing career.

Coaching Notes and Accomplishments

• Has established himself as one of the country's top developers of offensive line talent since joining Oklahoma's staff in 2013.

• Has produced 14 NFL Draft picks in his 13 seasons at OU, including a nation-leading nine offensive tackles over the last 12 years (tied). Tackles Anton Harrison (Jacksonville in 2023) and Tyler Guyton (Dallas in 2024) were first-round selections.

• Was named one of Rivals.com's top 25 recruiters of 2017, '18 and '19, and was a finalist in 2017 and a semifinalist in 2018 for the Broyles Award, given to the nation's top assistant coach.

• With Bedenbaugh (BEE-din-bo) on staff over the last 13 years, OU ranks third nationally in total offense (483.7 ypg), second in yards per pass attempt (9.0), third in pass efficiency rating (161.7) and scoring offense (38.5 ppg), fourth in yards per rush (5.2; tied), fifth in yards per completion (13.7) and sixth in completion percentage (65.5). It is one of only two programs in the country to rank in the top 15 in passing offense (ninth at 275.8 ypg) and rushing offense (15th at 207.9 ypg) during that span.

• Coached a 2023 line that helped OU lead the Big 12 with 41.7 points (ranked fourth nationally), 507.0 total yards (third) and 324.8 passing yards (sixth) per contest, and pace the league with its 167.5 passing efficiency rating (sixth). Tackles Tyler Guyton (first round by Dallas) and Walter Rouse (sixth round by Minnesota) were NFL Draft picks.

• Produced the Big 12 Offensive Lineman of the Year in five of OU's last eight seasons in the league (Orlando Brown in 2016-17, Dru Samia in 2018 and Creed Humphrey in 2019-20).

• Part of a 2019 offensive staff that saw OU lead the country in yards per play (8.0) and rank third in total offense (537.6 ypg). Center Creed Humphrey was a second-team All-American.

• Presided over a 2018 OU offensive line that was recognized as the nation's best with the reception of the Joe Moore Award. The Sooners led the country in total offense (570.3 ypg), scoring offense (48.4 ppg), rushing yards per carry (6.6) and yards per play (FBS-record 8.6). Ben Powers (consensus first team), right guard Dru Samia (second team) and right tackle Cody Ford (third team) were All-Americans.

• Led by unanimous first-team All-America left tackle Orlando Brown, Bedenbaugh's 2017 line helped OU set single-season school records for total offense (579.6 ypg; led FBS), yards per play (8.3; second all-time in FBS), passing yards per game (361.8) and completion percentage (.714; led FBS).

• His 2016 offensive line helped OU rank first nationally in passing efficiency rating (mark of 193.8 was then an FBS record) and pass completion percentage (.706), second in total offense (554.8 ypg) and third in scoring offense (43.9 ppg). Brown won his first of two Big 12 Offensive Lineman of the Year honors.

• Coached a 2015 offensive line unit that featured first-team All-Big 12 honorees Ty Darlington and Nila Kasitati. Darlington also won the Campbell Trophy, Wuerffel Trophy and Bowden Award for his efforts on and off the field. OU started a pair of freshmen at the tackle positions, including left tackle Orlando Brown, who was named a Freshman All-American by Sporting News.

• Sent three offensive linemen (Daryl Williams, Adam Shead and Tyrus Thompson) to the NFL Scouting Combine in 2015, a total topped by only two other FBS programs. Williams was a first-team All-Big 12 pick, while Shead and Thompson were second-team selections.

• OU led the nation in 2014 by permitting a mere nine sacks.

• The Sooners led the Big 12 and ranked 10th nationally in rushing in 2014 (261.2 average was the highest of the Bob Stoops era).

• Running behind Bedenbaugh's blocking unit, freshman Samaje Perine led the Big 12 in rushing (131.8 ypg) in 2014 and set the FBS single-game rushing record with 427 yards vs. Kansas on Nov. 22, 2014. Perine eventually became OU's all-time leading rusher (4,122 yards).

• Center Gabe Ikard captained the Oklahoma offense in 2013, earning consensus All-America honors. He also became the first OU player to win the prestigious Wuerffel Trophy.

• Helped coach a 2012 West Virginia offense that ranked fifth nationally in pass efficiency (161.97), ninth in scoring (39.5 ppg) and 10th in total offense (502.0 ypg) and pass offense (330.2 ypg).

• Thanks to the protection of his offensive front, the Mountaineers set single-season school records for total offense (6,526 yards in 2012) and passing yards (4,509) in 2011.

• Part of an Arizona offensive unit that led the Pac-10 and ranked ninth in the nation in passing (307.7 ypg) in 2010.

• Part of a staff that helped Texas Tech lead the Big 12 in total offense and rank sixth in the nation at 448.8 ypg in 2006.

• Was named NCAA Division II Coordinator of the Year after helping lead Ferris State to a division-best 534 ypg in 1999.

• Began his collegiate coaching career at Oklahoma Panhandle State in Goodwell, Okla.

Accomplishments as a Player

• Was a four-year starter at Iowa Wesleyan as a lineman for Mike Leach, who Bedenbaugh later worked for at Texas Tech.

Coaching Notes and Accomplishments

• Named Oklahoma's defensive ends coach on Dec. 17, 2021.

• Chavis (CHAY-viss) was part of a 2025 defensive staff that helped the Sooners lead the nation in sacks (3.5 per game) and tackles for loss (9.4 per contest) in 2025. OU also ranked third nationally in rushing defense (77.3 ypg; led SEC) and third-down defense (28.2%), sixth in total defense (272.5 ypg) and seventh in scoring defense (15.5 ppg). Senior R Mason Thomas, a first-team All-SEC pick and second-team All-American who racked up 6.5 sacks and 9.5 TFLs in his 10 games, became OU's highest defensive end selection in the NFL Draft since 1996 when he went to Kansas City in the 2026 second round. Fellow end Taylor Wein led the Sooners with 7.0 sacks and 15.0 tackles for loss to earn second-team All-SEC honors as a redshirt sophomore.

• In 2024, his defensive ends helped OU rank 19th nationally in total defense (318.2 ypg), 24th in rushing defense (115.1 ypg), 29th in scoring defense (21.5 ppg), 36th in takeaways (21) and sixth in fumbles recovered (12). Thomas earned second-team All-SEC recognition after leading the team with 9.0 sacks (tied for fifth in SEC) and 12.5 tackles for loss.

• Part of a 2023 Oklahoma defensive staff that helped the Sooners rank second in interceptions (20) and seventh in tackles for loss per game (7.5). Junior defensive end Ethan Downs earned second-team All-Big 12 honors after leading the team with 4.5 sacks for the second straight year.

• Part of a 2022 Oklahoma defensive staff that helped the Sooners tie for fourth nationally in tackles for loss (104) and seventh in interceptions (17). Downs earned second-team All-Big 12 honors after ranking fourth in the Big 12 Conference with 13.5 tackles for loss and tying for the team lead with 4.5 sacks.

• Spent five years (2017-21) at Clemson (under current OU head coach and then-Tigers defensive coordinator Brent Venables) in a defensive player development role. In that position, he contributed on defensive staffs that helped Clemson reach four College Football Playoffs and win the 2018 national championship.

• Working with Clemson's defensive line, assisted in the off-field development of 2019 NFL Draft picks Clelin Ferrell, Christian Wilkins, Dexter Lawrence and Austin Bryant. Ferrell (No. 4 overall), Wilkins (No. 13 overall) and Lawrence (No. 17 overall) were each selected in the first round while Bryant was a fourth-round pick.

As a Player

• A Fayetteville, N.C., native, he was a defensive tackle at Clemson from 2007-10 and totaled 71 tackles in 47 games.

• Helped the Tigers to four bowl games and the 2009 ACC Atlantic Division title before spending two years in pro football.

• Signed a free-agent contract with the Pittsburgh Steelers in 2011 before spending 2012 with the UFL's Las Vegas Locos and the 2013 offseason with the Kansas City Chiefs.

• Received his bachelor's degree from Clemson in 2014 and went into the seminary before joining Clemson's football staff.

Coaching Notes and Accomplishments

• Named Oklahoma's inside linebackers coach on Feb. 1, 2025.

• Part of a 2025 defensive staff that helped OU lead the nation in sacks (3.5 per game) and tackles for loss (9.4 per game), rank third in rushing defense (77.3 ypg; led SEC) and third-down defense (28.2%), sixth in total defense (272.5 ypg) and seventh in scoring defense (15.5 ppg).

• Spent the 2024 season at Utah State as defensive coordinator and interim head coach. Dreiling was briefly hired as defensive coordinator at Arkansas State before coming to Oklahoma.

• Brings 10 years of collegiate coaching experience, including five as a defensive coordinator. In addition to his season at Utah State, he coordinated defenses at New Mexico State (2022-23) and Pittsburg State (2018-19).

• Was elevated to interim head coach at Utah State on July 2 and guided the Aggies to a strong finish with wins in three of their last four Mountain West Conference games. Throughout the 2024 season he continued to serve as defensive coordinator and defensive ends coach. Utah State ranked among the top 50 nationally in sacks (2.33 per game; 44th) and interceptions (13; 36th), and eight players earned All-Mountain West honors.

• Prior to Utah State, Dreiling spent two seasons as the defensive coordinator at New Mexico State. He helped guide the Aggies to a 17-11 overall record and consecutive bowl games, along with an appearance in the 2023 Conference USA championship game in their first year in the league.

• His 2023 NMSU defense ranked 44th nationally in scoring defense (22.4 points per game), 48th in rushing defense (143.7 rushing yards per game) and fifth in red zone defense (72.6%).

• In Dreiling's first season at New Mexico State, the Aggies improved from 127th to 29th nationally in total defense (336.3 yards per game allowed in '22) and ranked 16th in passing defense (186.8 yards per game).

• Dreiling spent 2021 at Southeast Missouri State (FCS) as the defensive run game coordinator and inside linebackers coach. The Redhawks ended their season with a 31-14 win over No. 8 UT Martin, limiting the Skyhawks to their lowest scoring output in more than a year.

• Previously served as a defensive analyst on Mario Cristobal's staff at Oregon for the 2020 season. The Ducks won the Pac-12 title and played in the Fiesta Bowl, and hauled in the sixth-ranked recruiting class during the 2021 cycle.

• Dreiling's first full-time coaching job was at his alma mater, Pittsburg State. He coached safeties in 2017 and served as the program's defensive coordinator in 2018 and '19.

• In his first season at Pittsburg State, Dreiling helped guide a Gorillas defense that forced 25 turnovers and ranked second nationally in fourth down conversion percentage (.200) and 19th in fumble recoveries (12).

• Over Dreiling's two seasons as Pittsburg State defensive coordinator, the Gorillas produced 17 all-conference performers, including safety Morgran Selenaea, who earned honorable mention All-America in 2018. His defenses ranked first or second in 11 different statistical categories in 2018 and '19.

• Began his coaching career as a graduate assistant under at Kansas (2015-16), working with the Jayhawks' linebackers and then defensive line. He assisted in the development of three All-Big 12 performers, including Dorance Armstrong, who was a fourth-round NFL Draft pick by the Dallas Cowboys in 2018.

As a Player

• Dreiling was a four-time All-American at Pittsburg State (2010-13) and led the Gorillas to the NCAA Division II National Championship in 2011, the same year he was named the national defensive player of the year by the Don Hansen Football Committee and the Mid-America Intercollegiate Athletics Association (MIAA) Defensive Player of the Year.

• Was a three-time team captain at Pittsburg State, and finished his career with a school- and MIAA-record 491 tackles and was named a CoSIDA Academic All-American in 2013.

• Signed as an undrafted free agent with the Green Bay Packers in 2014 and spent time on the Kansas City Chiefs practice squad that same year. He signed on with the Omaha Mammoths of the Fall Experimental Football League for the remainder of the 2014 season.

• Earned his bachelor's degree from Pittsburg State in 2013.

Coaching Notes and Accomplishments

• Named Oklahoma's assistant linebackers/outside linebackers coach on Feb. 1, 2025.

• Part of a 2025 defensive staff that helped the Sooners lead the nation in sacks (3.5 per game) and tackles for loss (9.4 per game), rank third in rushing defense (77.3 ypg; led SEC) and third-down defense (28.2%), sixth in total defense (272.5 ypg) and seventh in scoring defense (15.5 ppg).

• Spent a total of 13 seasons across two stints at Clemson. He was promoted to defensive coordinator in 2021 at Clemson after Brent Venables was named head coach at Oklahoma. He previously served as a graduate assistant from 2009-11, and under Venables as a defensive analyst from 2012-14 and senior defensive analyst from 2018-21. He also spent three years with the Arizona Cardinals as an assistant to head coach Bruce Arians from 2015-17.

• Helped guide Clemson to the 2024 ACC Championship and an appearance in the College Football Playoff. The Tigers ranked 10th nationally in takeaways (26), 14th in interceptions (16), 19th in fumbles recovered (10), 24th in tackles for loss (6.9 per game), 37th in sacks (2.5 per game) and 42nd in scoring defense (23.0 points per game).

• In 2023, Clemson ranked eighth nationally in total defense (287.8 yards allowed per game), eighth in passing defense (173.2 yards allowed per game), 24th in rushing defense (114.6 yards allowed per game) and 30th in scoring defense (21.1 points allowed per game). The Tigers tied for the national lead in takeaways (28), defensive touchdowns (five) and pick-sixes (four), tying school records set in 1990 for defensive touchdowns and interceptions returned for a TD. Clemson also ranked in the Top 10 nationally in first downs allowed per game (14.2; third) and interceptions (16; tied for 10th) in 2023.

• In his first full season as defensive coordinator in 2022, Clemson ranked among the top 25 nationally in scoring defense (20.9 points allowed per game; 22nd), rushing defense (102.7 yards allowed per game; 13th), yards allowed per carry (3.25; ninth), sacks (44; tied for fourth) and tackles for loss (111; second).

• Goodwin tutored Jeremiah Trotter Jr., a 2023 Butkus Award finalist and a two-time All-America linebacker (2022 and '23), who became a fifth-round pick in the NFL Draft and plays for the Philadelphia Eagles. Trotter and linebacker Barrett Carter were among the five Clemson defensive players to earn All-ACC recognition in 2023. Carter also earned All-America honors in 2022 and was a first-team All-ACC selection in 2024. Linebacker Trenton Simpson was a top-100 pick in the 2023 NFL Draft.

• During Goodwin's three years with the Arizona Cardinals (2015-17), the teams compiled a 28-19-1 overall record. In 2015, the Cardinals went 13-3 to win the NFC West division and reached the NFC Championship Game.

• As a defensive analyst (2012-14) and senior defensive assistant (2018-21), Goodwin oversaw defensive breakdowns and opponent scouting, assisted with on-campus recruiting and served as one of the program's primary liaisons to NFL scouting personnel and coaches.

• In 2014, the Tigers finished as the nation's top-ranked unit in total defense, third down percentage, first downs allowed and tackles for loss, while ranking in the top 5 in several other statistical categories.

• Goodwin first arrived at Clemson in 2009, serving as a graduate assistant from 2009-11. He joined the staff on a full-time basis in 2012 and oversaw the team's secondary for its 2012 Chick-fil-A Bowl win against LSU.

As a Player

• The Grove Hill, Ala., product began his coaching career as a baseball manager at Mississippi State under legendary coach Ron Polk before transitioning to football.

• Served as a student assistant and graduate assistant for the Bulldogs' football program, working alongside head coach Sylvester Croom, defensive coordinator Ellis Johnson and offensive coordinator Woody McCorvey.

• Earned his bachelor's degree from Mississippi State in 2007 and his master's degree in 2009.

Coaching Notes and Accomplishments

• Named Oklahoma's safeties coach on Dec. 17, 2021.

• A 24-year coaching veteran and an OU alumnus, he has been in charge of tutoring linebackers, outside linebackers, safeties and special teams units during his career.

• Part of a 2025 defensive staff that helped the Sooners lead the nation in sacks (3.5 per game) and tackles for loss (9.4 per game), rank third in rushing defense (77.3 ypg; led SEC) and third-down defense (28.2%), sixth in total defense (272.5 ypg) and seventh in scoring defense (15.5 ppg).

• Helped OU rank sixth nationally in 2024 in fumbles recovered (12), 19th in total defense (318.2 ypg), 24th in rushing defense (115.1 ypg), 29th in scoring defense (21.5 ppg) and 43rd in passing defense (203.2 ypg). Safety pupil Billy Bowman Jr. was selected in the NFL Draft fourth round by the Atlanta Falcons.

• In 2023, helped OU rank second nationally in interceptions (20) and seventh in tackles for loss per game (7.5). Bowman led the Big 12 and ranked third nationally with his seven interceptions, and paced the country with his three interception returns for TD and school-record 238 interception return yards en route to first-team All-America honors from CBS Sports/247Sports.

• In 2022, helped the Sooners tie for fourth nationally in tackles for loss (104) and seventh in interceptions (17).

• Led Troy's defense from 2019-21 after spending one year as its outside linebackers coach and special teams coordinator.

• His 2021 unit ranked 24th nationally in total defense (337.8 ypg).

• The Trojans posted one of the best turnarounds in the nation in 2020, improving 63 spots in scoring defense and 38 spots in total defense from 2019. Troy led the country with four defensive scores, held four of its final six opponents to 20 or fewer points and finished as PFF's No. 15 defense nationally.

• In his first season at Troy (2018), the Trojans ranked third nationally in takeaways, 10th in sacks, 16th in tackles for loss. They also ranked fourth in net punting and ninth in kickoff returns. A league-high 12 defensive players were named to the All-Sun Belt Team (three first-teamers) as Troy posted a 10-3 record and beat Buffalo in the Dollar General Bowl.

• Served as co-defensive coordinator and safeties coach at Jacksonville State from 2014-17. His four JSU teams went 31-0 in Ohio Valley Conference play (43-8 overall) and won four league titles, with no regular season losses to FCS opponents.

• Jacksonville State's defense ranked among the top 20 nationally in each of his four seasons (top five in 2016 and '17).

• In 2017, Jacksonville State finished second nationally by allowing just 239.6 yards per game and led the country by permitting only 3.84 yards per play. In 2016, JSU ranked fourth nationally by allowing 274.9 yards per game.

• The Gamecocks earned a top-three seed in the FCS Playoffs in each of Hall's four seasons and was the No. 1 seed in 2015.

• Two-time Jacksonville State All-America defensive end Darius Jackson received the Buck Buchanan Award (top defensive honor for an FCS player) following the 2017 season. Jackson was twice named the Ohio Valley Conference Defensive Player of the Year. Safety Marlon Bridges was named the 2016 OVC Freshman of the Year and earned All-America honors in each of his first two seasons.

• Served as Arkansas State safeties coach in 2012 and as a defensive quality control assistant at Auburn in 2013 (Tigers reached the BCS National Championship Game vs. Florida State).

• While at Arkansas State in 2012, the Red Wolves won the season's final eight games and earned the Sun Belt Conference Championship for the second straight year.

• Prior to his year at Arkansas State, completed his second stint as defensive assistant at Oklahoma, serving in a quality control position for the 2011 season.

• Spent three years at Central Oklahoma (2008-10), serving as linebackers coach for one year and then as co-defensive coordinator, linebackers coach and recruiting coordinator.

• Hall went to UCO after spending the 2007 season as an assistant coach at Broken Arrow (Okla.) HS, where he was in charge of linebackers and helped the Tigers to the state playoffs.

• Coached linebackers at Northern Iowa in 2006.

• Started his coaching career as a student assistant at Oklahoma from 1998-2000. He then served for two seasons as a graduate assistant working with the linebackers. He shifted to a full-time role as defensive assistant for quality control in 2003 and served in that capacity for an additional three years.

• During his first stint at Oklahoma, the Sooners won the 2000 national championship with a perfect 13-0 record and played in two additional national championship games. Oklahoma posted a 90-25 record during Hall's nine total seasons as a student assistant, graduate assistant and quality control staffer (1998-05, '11), and claimed victories in the Orange Bowl, Cotton Bowl, Rose Bowl, Holiday Bowl and Insight.com Bowl.

Coaching Notes and Accomplishments

• Named Oklahoma's passing game coordinator and wide receivers coach on Jan. 10, 2023.

• Has guided OU's wide receivers for the last three seasons. In 2025, Isaiah Sategna III earned first-team AP All-SEC recognition after ranking second in the league in touchdown receptions (9), fourth in receiving yards (965) and receiving yards per game (74.2) and fifth in receptions per game (5.2).

• Coached a 2023 wide receivers group that helped Oklahoma lead the Big 12 with its 41.7 points (ranked fourth nationally), 507.0 total yards (third) and 324.8 passing yards (sixth) per contest and lead the Big 12 with its 167.5 passing efficiency (sixth). Receiver Drake Stoops finished with 84 catches for 962 yards and 10 touchdowns and was named first-team All-Big 12, while Nic Anderson set an OU freshman record with 10 TD receptions and was a freshman All-American by The Athletic.

• Spent the 2022 season at Texas Tech as wide receivers coach and passing game coordinator. From 2019-21, Jones served as wide receivers coach at Kansas and added the title of passing game coordinator his final two years there. He also served as KU's interim head coach in spring 2021 until Lance Leipold was hired as head coach.

• In 2022, Texas Tech led the Big 12 and ranked 12th nationally in passing offense (302.0 yards per game) and 13th nationally in passing yards (3,926). Eight receivers under his tutelage registered at least 20 receptions and five of those averaged at least 12.0 yards per catch.

• In each of Jones' three seasons at Kansas, the Jayhawks produced a top-11 receiver in the Big 12. In 2019, Andrew Parchment ranked fourth in the league by averaging 69.3 receiving yards per game, becoming the first KU player to rank among the top-five Big 12 receivers in the category since 2009. In 2020 and '21, Kwamie Lassiter II ranked 11th (50.9 yards per game) and eighth (54.4 ypg) in the Big 12, respectively.

• Jones's background is firmly rooted in the state of Texas. A highly respected figure from his time as head coach at South Oak Cliff High School in Dallas from 2012-14, he made the jump to the collegiate ranks in 2015 when then-Texas Tech head coach Kliff Kingsbury hired him as director of player development. He was promoted the next year to outside receivers coach and spent three seasons in that role.

• Regarded as a top developer of wide receivers in the college game, he helped build one of the nation's most productive offenses in his first stint at Texas Tech. In 2016, the Red Raiders led the nation in total offense (566.6 ypg) and passing offense (463.0 ypg), and ranked fifth in the country in scoring offense (43.7 ppg).

• In 2018 under Jones' tutelage, Tech receiver Antoine Wesley earned first-team All-America honors from the Football Writers Association of America after catching 88 passes for 1,410 yards and nine touchdowns. His receiving yard total ranked as the third-best in Tech history, behind only a pair of two other eventual NFL players in Michael Crabtree and Keke Coutee. Wesley ranked second nationally that season in receiving yards per game (117.5), third in total receiving yards and eighth in receptions per contest (7.3). He led the Big 12 in receiving yards and catches per game.

• A Biletnikoff Award semifinalist, Wesley was one of four Red Raider outside receivers who made it to the NFL under Jones. The others were Dylan Cantrell (drafted by the Los Angeles Chargers and also played for the Arizona Cardinals, New England Patriots and the now-Washington Commanders), Derrick Willies (Cleveland Browns) and T.J. Vasher (Dallas Cowboys).

• Led South Oak Cliff High School to a 30-8 record in his three seasons as head coach. The Golden Bears advanced deep into the Class 4A and 5A playoffs each of those three years. The school produced several FBS signees under Jones, including five players in the 2014 class alone.

• Prior to his time at South Oak Cliff, Jones served as an assistant coach at multiple Dallas-area high schools. He spent seven seasons at Dallas Skyline, starting there as wide receivers coach before being promoted to offensive coordinator. He served on the Dallas Lincoln staff for the 2004 season. He began his coaching career at Seagoville, spending the 2001-03 seasons at his alma mater.

As a Player

• Was a walk-on quarterback at Texas Tech during the 1994 season before transferring to North Texas.

Coaching Notes and Accomplishments

• Joined the Oklahoma staff as senior offensive analyst prior to the 2025 season and was promoted to quarterbacks coach in the spring of 2026.

• Spent two seasons at Washington State, serving in an offensive quality control role in 2023 and as quarterbacks coach in 2024.

• As Washington State quarterbacks coach in 2024, tutored redshirt sophomore John Mateer as he threw for 3,139 yards and 29 touchdowns on 224-of-347 (65%) passing and rushed for 1,057 yards and 15 TDs on 178 carries. The Cougars ranked sixth nationally in scoring offense (36.6 ppg) and passing efficiency rating (164.3), 16th in passing offense (276.1 ypg) and 17th in completion percentage (65.9) and yards per completion (13.7).

• Spent the 2022 season at Western Kentucky as director of player personnel, as the Hilltoppers posted a 9-5 record and defeated South Alabama in the New Orleans Bowl. They finished second nationally in passing offense and seventh in total offense.

• Served as the offensive coordinator and tight ends coach at Eastern Illinois for three seasons from 2019-21. Coached three All-OVC newcomers, two all-conference honorees and one freshman All-American.

• Spent three seasons as an assistant coach at Cornell, presiding over running backs and tight ends (2016) and the offensive line (2017-18). Helped develop first-team All-Ivy League selection Chris Walker as he led the conference in yards per carry and posted three 100-yard games. In his first year as offensive line coach in 2017, Kuceyeski led a rejuvenated unit that helped increase the team's rushing average by 25.0 yards per game over the previous season.

• Served as director of scouting at Iowa State in 2016 after working in football operations and high school relations at Toledo (2013-15), all under head coach Matt Campbell. Toledo was 25-11 with a pair of MAC West Division titles and two bowl appearances in Kuceyeski's three seasons with the program.

• Spent his first season at Toledo as director of football operations and as a defensive assistant, then moved into the role of director of high school operations in his last two years there. Along with creating and maintaining the program's recruiting database, he was in charge of charting opponent defensive and in-game special teams schemes. He directed all summer camps and created the opponent personnel advanced scout in 2015. Had a brief stint as the director of player personnel and on-campus recruiting coordinator at Western Michigan before joining the Rockets in 2013.

• Served as the offensive and special teams quality control intern at Northwestern during the 2010 season and was promoted to director of offensive quality control in 2011. Became the offensive graduate assistant for the Wildcats in March of 2012, working with the wide receivers in the spring before moving back to the offensive line for fall camp. Also worked with all four phases of special teams during the 2012 season. He helped the Wildcats to a 10-win season in 2012, culminating in the program's first bowl win since 1949. He assisted in all phases of the program at Northwestern, including scouting, self-scouting, video breakdown, strength and conditioning and recruiting.

• Began his career as a student manager and then undergraduate assistant coach at Penn State (2006-09), helping with the defensive linemen. During that period, five Penn State defensive linemen were first-round NFL Draft picks, and the Nittany Lions won the 2008 Big Ten championship.

• A product of Libertyville, Ill., Kuceyeski graduated from Penn State in 2009 with a bachelor's degree in finance. He and his wife Rossana have a son named Matthew.

Coaching Notes and Accomplishments

• Hired as Oklahoma running backs coach on Feb. 22, 2026. One of the most respected developers of running back talent in college and professional football, McCullough brings championship experience, proven production and national recruiting reach to Oklahoma. A Super Bowl champion with the Kansas City Chiefs and a veteran of both the NFL and major college football, he has built his reputation on consistent results and disciplined player development.

• Since becoming a full-time running backs coach in 2011, McCullough has mentored backs who have produced 17 seasons of 1,000 or more yards from scrimmage. His units have excelled at every level — from record-setting college rushing attacks to championship-caliber NFL offenses.

• Spent the 2025 season with the Las Vegas Raiders, where rookie Ashton Jeanty totaled 1,321 yards from scrimmage and 10 touchdowns, setting a franchise rookie record. McCullough's ability to transition players from college systems into productive professional contributors has been a hallmark of his career.

• Prior to his time in the NFL, served three seasons at Notre Dame (2022-24), where his running backs room became one of the nation's most productive. In 2023, Audric Estimé rushed for 1,341 yards and a program-record 18 touchdowns to earn second-team All-America honors and become Notre Dame's first AP All-America running back since 1998. In 2024, Jeremiyah Love followed with 1,125 rushing yards and 17 touchdowns, averaging 6.9 yards per carry and ranking among the national leaders in both touchdowns and yards per carry.

• In his first season with the Irish, McCullough immediately elevated the group as Estimé racked up 1,071 scrimmage yards, Logan Diggs 1,031 and Chris Tyree 582. Each averaged at least 4.4 yards per carry. Notre Dame rushed for 2,457 yards that season, the program's sixth-highest total since 1996.

• Prior to his stint at Notre Dame, served as running backs coach at Indiana in 2021, helping Stephen Carr to a career year with 600 rushing yards and six touchdowns in nine games for the Hoosiers.

• His title also included "associate head coach" during his time at both Notre Dame and Indiana, bringing leadership experience that extends beyond his position room.

• During three seasons with the NFL's Chiefs (2018-20), McCullough helped guide the franchise to three consecutive AFC Championship Games, back-to-back Super Bowl appearances and a victory in Super Bowl LIV. His running backs consistently ranked among league leaders in yards after contact, yards after catch and pass protection efficiency. Over three seasons, the group surrendered just four sacks, including zero in 2020. After the 2019 season, he was recognized as NFL Running Backs Coach of the Year at the NFL Scouting Combine.

• Coached multiple Pro Bowl and high-level performers in Kansas City, including Anthony Sherman, Kareem Hunt, Damien Williams, LeSean McCoy, Le'Veon Bell and Clyde Edwards-Helaire, who surpassed 1,000 yards from scrimmage as a rookie in 2020.

• Before making the jump to the NFL, spent the 2017 season as run game coordinator and running backs coach at USC, helping the Trojans capture a Pac-12 championship. Under his guidance, Ronald Jones registered 1,737 scrimmage yards and 20 touchdowns to earn All-America honors. He was selected in the second round of the 2018 NFL Draft.

• His first stint at Indiana was from 2011-16 under head coach Kevin Wilson, who now serves as OU's assistant head coach for offense. Those six seasons remain one of the most productive rushing eras in program history, as the Hoosiers set 19 school rushing records during the stretch. McCullough tutored Tevin Coleman (2015) and Jordan Howard (2016), who became the first IU running backs drafted in consecutive years since 1990-92. Coleman rushed for a school-record 2,036 yards in 2014 and earned unanimous All-America honors. In 2015, Howard (1,213 yards) and Devine Redding (1,012 yards) became the first Indiana running back duo to eclipse 1,000 yards in the same season. McCullough was named BTN.com Running Backs Coach of the Year in 2014.

• Began his collegiate coaching career at Miami (Ohio) in 2010, helping the RedHawks win a MAC Championship.

As a Player

• The Youngstown, Ohio, native was a standout running back at Miami (Ohio), earning three All-MAC selections and becoming the program's first MAC Freshman of the Year. He rushed for more than 4,300 career yards, led the team in rushing four consecutive seasons and was later inducted into the Miami Athletics Hall of Fame.

• Following his college career, McCullough played professionally with the Cincinnati Bengals, Philadelphia Eagles and Winnipeg Blue Bombers of the CFL. His career was cut short as the result of three ACL reconstructions in four seasons.

• Earned his degree in sociology from Miami (Ohio) in 1996.

Coaching Notes and Accomplishments

• Hired as Oklahoma cornerbacks coach on Feb. 22, 2026. A 14-year college assistant coach who coordinated defenses for two years at Louisiana-Lafayette from 2022-23, Morgan spent the 2024-25 seasons at Michigan, where he served as defensive pass game coordinator and defensive backs coach.

• In 2025, helped guide the Michigan defense as it registered 13 interceptions and ranked 21st nationally in total defense and 16th in scoring defense through the regular season. Mentored cornerback Zeke Berry to second-team All-Big Ten honors, while cornerback Jyaire Hill, safety Brandyn Hillman and safety TJ Metcalf all received honorable mention all-league acclaim.

• In his first season with the Wolverines in 2024, oversaw a unit that allowed fewer than 260 passing yards to 10 of 13 opponents and contributed to an overall defense that ranked 10th nationally in yards allowed (307.0 per game) and 19th in points allowed (19.9 per contest). Tutored cornerback Will Johnson, who earned second-team All-America and All-Big Ten honors after registering two interceptions returned for a touchdown and five pass breakups in just six games.

• As defensive coordinator and secondary coach at Louisiana-Lafayette from 2022-23, guided a Ragin' Cajuns unit that ranked 49th nationally in total defense (361.7 yards per game), 36th in scoring defense (22.8 points per game), 50th in rushing defense (141.6 yards per game) and 19th in takeaways (23) in 2022 and ranked 26th in takeaways (22) in 2023.

• Also served as cornerbacks coach at ULL from 2019-20. In all four of his seasons on staff, the Ragin' Cajun secondary registered double-digit interceptions (10, 16, 15, 13). He helped improve a defensive unit that ranked 55th in passing yards allowed, 110th in pass efficiency defense, 105th in scoring, and 97th in total defense before his arrival to sixth in passing defense, second in passing efficiency, 31st in scoring defense, and 33rd in total defense by the end of the 2020 campaign.

• Between his stints at ULL, Morgan spent one year as cornerbacks coach at Vanderbilt (2021), returning to the school where he began his career as a graduate assistant. The Commodores improved from six interceptions in the 2019 and '20 seasons combined to 13 interceptions in 2021 and posted a top-30 red zone defense.

• Coached safeties from 2016-18 at Louisiana-Monroe (2016-17) and Houston (2018). During his time at ULM, the Warhawks ranked 16th nationally in passing defense in 2016 and 20th in interceptions in 2017. In 2018, Houston ranked 20th in the country with its 24 takeaways, a figure that included 14 interceptions (ranked 24th).

• His first full-time job was as the secondary coach at Western Carolina from 2014-15. The Catamounts ranked fifth in the FCS in pass defense with 11 interceptions in 2014, the program's most in five years.

• Began his coaching career as a graduate assistant for two seasons at Vanderbilt (2012-13). He worked with the Sam linebackers and nickelbacks, helping guide the team to consecutive 9-4 records and bowl game appearances. In 2012, the Commodores finished 19th nationally in total defense, 15th in scoring defense, 14th in passing defense, 13th in interceptions, and sixth in pass efficiency defense. The following year in 2013, the unit ranked 23rd in total defense, passing defense and pass efficiency defense, and 13th in interceptions.

As a Player

• A product of Copperas Cove, Texas, Morgan played four years at ULL (2003, '05-'07) and appeared in 40 games at safety. A four-year letterwinner and starter for the Ragin' Cajuns, he totaled 111 career tackles, including four for loss, four interceptions and six pass breakups.

• Was a semifinalist for the William V. Campbell Trophy and a two-time member of the Sun Belt Commissioner's List and a five-time member of the Sun Belt Conference Honor Roll.

Coaching Notes and Accomplishments

• Served as Oklahoma's offensive coordinator from 2002-10 and rejoined the staff as special assistant to the head coach/offensive analyst in the spring of 2025. He was promoted to assistant head coach for offense in the spring of 2026.

• Has more than 40 years of coaching experience, including eight as a head coach and 16 as an offensive coordinator. Was head coach at Tulsa from 2023-24 following six seasons as offensive coordinator and tight ends coach at Ohio State (2017-22). Was also head coach for six seasons at Indiana.

• Has won 10 or more games 14 times as a coach and has coached in four national championship games, including three with Oklahoma and one with Ohio State. He helped guide the Buckeyes to a 67-8 record in his six years on staff and before that won 26 games at Indiana.

• Ohio State featured one of the nation's top offenses under Wilson's guidance. The Buckeyes ranked among the top seven in total offense all six of his seasons, and among the top eight for scoring offense five times. In the pandemic-shortened 2020 season, Ohio State was also eighth in rushing offense and 11th in scoring offense.

• In his six seasons at Ohio State, the Buckeyes averaged 524.1 yards and 43.6 points per game, topped 500 yards of total offense 47 times and 600 yards 18 times, scored 410 touchdowns (second most nationally), threw 242 touchdown passes (No. 1 nationally), produced three Heisman Trophy finalists (Dwayne Haskins in 2018, Justin Fields in 2019 and C.J. Stroud in 2022), produced the first 2,000-yard rusher in school annals (J.K. Dobbins), produced two 1,000-yard receivers in back-to-back seasons (Jaxon Smith-Njigba and Garrett Wilson in 2021; Marvin Harrison Jr. and Emeka Egbuka in 2022) and produced eight first-round NFL Draft selections on offense (Haskins, Fields, Wilson, Stroud, Smith-Njigba, C Billy Price, WR Chris Olave and OT Paris Johnson Jr.)

• Has twice been part of an offensive staff — at Oklahoma in 2008 and Indiana in 2015 — that produced a 3,500-yard passer, two 1,000-yard rushers and a 1,000-yard receiver in the same year. In 2021, his Ohio State offensive unit had a 4,000-yard passer, two 1,000-yard receivers and one 1,000-yard rusher.

• During his Ohio State tenure, the Buckeyes won four consecutive Big Ten championships and claimed a Cotton Bowl victory over USC in 2018, a Rose Bowl win over Washington in 2019, advanced to the College Football Playoff in 2020 and defeated Clemson in the 2021 CFP Semifinals to earn a spot in the CFP Championship.

• In 2022, Wilson was selected as one of the inaugural recipients of the GRAPHITE Award, recognizing excellence in offensive play-calling efficiency, presented by RII Sports Technology. His play-calling efficiency rating (PCER) of 80.2% during the 2022 campaign was the highest in the Big Ten Conference and ranked in the 96th percentile among all FBS programs.

• Wilson spent six seasons as Indiana's head coach and led IU to consecutive bowl games (2015 and '16) for the first time in 25 years. His teams led the Big Ten in passing three times (2012, '13 and '15) and finished second in 2016. His 2015 offense led the Big Ten in passing, total offense and scoring.

• An offensive coordinator to the late Randy Walker for seven years at Miami (Ohio) (1992-98) and then for three years at Northwestern (1999-2001), Wilson and Walker led the RedHawks to a 59-36-5 record before devising a power-spread offense at NU that carried the Wildcats to a Big Ten co-championship in 2000. That season, Northwestern led the Big Ten in rushing for the first time in 54 years.

• Wilson then coached under Bob Stoops for nine years at Oklahoma, serving as co-offensive coordinator from 2002-05 and offensive coordinator from 2006-10. During his tenure, the Sooners won six Big 12 championships and played in three national championship games (2003, '04 and '08). Wilson's 2008 offense scored a then-NCAA-record 716 points (still ranks second in FBS history).

• Wilson was selected as the Frank Broyles Award Winner in 2008 as the nation's top assistant coach and was twice a finalist. In addition to Ohio State's eight first-round draft selections, Wilson also had four first-round draft picks at Oklahoma in QB Sam Bradford (No. 1), RB Adrian Peterson (No. 7), OT Trent Williams (No. 4) and TE Jermaine Gresham (No. 17). Twenty-three of his Hoosiers moved on to the NFL.

• A native of Maiden, N.C., Wilson is a 1984 graduate of North Carolina, where he was an offensive lineman and received his bachelor's degree in education (1984) and master's degree in physical education (1987). After three seasons as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, Wilson's full-time coaching career began in 1987 at Winston Salem State and included stops at North Carolina A&T (1988) and Foard (N.C.) High School (1989) prior to his tenure at Miami.

2021-25: Liberty Christian School (Texas)
Head Coach

BOWLS AS PLAYER (3)

2002 ..... Peach ..... Tennessee
2001 ..... Citrus ..... Tennessee
2000 ..... Cotton ..... Tennessee

Coaching Notes and Accomplishments

• Hired as Oklahoma's tight ends coach in January 2026. A former All-Pro tight end who played 17 seasons in the NFL and guided two state championship teams in his five-year tenure as a high school head football coach in Texas.

• After retiring from the NFL following the 2020 season, served as head coach at Liberty Christian School in Argyle, Texas, where he led the Warriors to consecutive Texas Association of Private and Parochial Schools state championships in 2023 and '24. The titles were the school's first back-to-back football state championships and the '24 crown was its first in TAPPS Division I. In his five seasons at Liberty Christian, Witten tutored players who earned TAPPS All-State recognition 53 times.

As a Player

• Over his 17-year NFL career, Witten compiled 1,228 receptions for 13,046 yards and 74 touchdowns. A two-time first-team All-Pro and 11-time Pro Bowler, he ranks fourth all-time in NFL receptions and 22nd in yards among all receivers (second among tight ends in both categories).

• Was one of 15 finalists — and one of four in his first year of eligibility — in the Modern-Era Players category for the Pro Football Hall of Fame Class of 2026.

• A third-round draft pick by the Dallas Cowboys in 2003, Witten played 15 seasons before initially retiring following the 2017 campaign. He returned to action in 2019 with the Cowboys before playing his final season with the Las Vegas Raiders in 2020. A modern football iron man, he played in 271 out of 272 regular season contests (252 starts) and missed only one game out of 280 (including playoffs) over his career. He retired for good as the NFL career record holder for games played among tight ends.

• Registered four seasons with at least 1,000 receiving yards and seven seasons with at least 900 yards. In his second year, he caught 87 passes for 980 yards and six touchdowns, earning the first of seven straight Pro Bowl nods.

• Received first-team All-Pro honors in 2007 when he totaled 1,145 yards and seven touchdowns on 96 receptions and again in 2010 after catching 94 passes for 1,002 yards and nine scores. He also earned second-team All-Pro status in 2008 and 2012. He was named to the Pro Bowl in 10 of 11 seasons between 2004-2014, as well as in 2017.

• The 2012 Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year honoree, Witten established the Jason Witten Collegiate Man of the Year award through his SCORE Foundation, which was first presented following the 2017 season. Was also the recipient of the 2013 Bart Starr Award and the 2015 Pat Summitt Ignite Greatness Award, as well as Pro Football Weekly's Humanitarian of the Year Award, the Home Depot NFL Neighborhood MVP and the Bob Lilly Award, recognizing his community service work, achievements on the field and dedication to teammates and family.

• Was inducted into the Texas Sports Hall of Fame in 2019.

• A product of Elizabethton, Tenn., Witten played three seasons at the University of Tennessee, where he was a first-team All-SEC selection and a John Mackey Award semifinalist, as well as a member of the SEC Good Works Team and SEC Academic Honor Roll, in 2002. That season, he led the Volunteers in receptions (39), receiving yards (493) and touchdown receptions (five), and established a single-season school record for receiving yards among tight ends. He totaled 68 catches for 797 yards and eight touchdowns in his college career.

• Graduated from Tennessee in 2008 with a degree in sports management.

2010.....Poinsettia ..... San Diego State

Coaching Notes and Accomplishments

• Hired as Oklahoma's senior special teams analyst prior to the 2024 season, Doug Deakin was promoted to special teams coordinator in the spring of 2025.

• Under Deakin's direction, the Sooners ranked 41st in 2024 and 10th in 2025 in ESPN's special teams efficiency ratings after ranking 127th the year before his arrival.

• Coached first-team All-America placekicker Tate Sandell, who became OU's first winner of the Lou Groza Award in 2025. Sandell set or tied eight career or single-season school, conference, FBS or stadium records during the 2025 campaign. Additionally, the Sooners ranked 22nd nationally in punt return average (12.5 yards per return) and 27th in kickoff return defense (17.6 yards per return) and blocked two kicks (22nd nationally). Punter Grayson Miller (first-team All-SEC) led the SEC and ranked 13th nationally in punting average (45.8 yards) and punt returner Isaiah Sategna III (second-team All-SEC) ranked 10th nationally by averaging 13.3 yards per punt return.

• Guided OU's 2024 special teams that ranked 12th nationally in net punting (42.3 average) and 26th in punt return defense (4.9 yards per return). Punter Luke Elzinga ranked 15th nationally in yards per punt (44.8).

• Joined the Oklahoma staff after spending 17 seasons at San Diego State between his time as a student-athlete and a coach. He was San Diego State's special teams coordinator from 2018-23 and also served as tight ends coach during the 2018 campaign.

• Oversaw some of the nation's best special teams units and individual performers in the country in his time at San Diego State. Four of his six units ranked in the top 10 nationally in ESPN's special teams efficiency rating. SDSU ranked 10th in 2019, fifth in 2021, second in 2022 and ninth in 2023 (and 55th in 2018 and 2020).

• Tutored Ray Guy Award winner Matt Araiza, who earned unanimous All-America honors and was named the Mountain West Special Teams Player of the Year in 2021. Araiza set FBS records for punt average (51.2), 60-yard punts (18) and 50-yard punts (39), and booted six punts of at least 70 yards. SDSU blocked three punts during the 2021 season.

• Under Deakin's guidance, Jack Browning earned Mountain West Special Teams Player of the Year and first-team all-conference honors in 2022 after averaging 46.3 yards per punt to rank fourth nationally. Additionally, Jordan Byrd ranked seventh in the country with his 689 combined kick return yards and was the only player in the nation to return both a kickoff and a punt for a touchdown. He earned first-team All-Mountain West honors as both a kickoff and punt returner.

• In 2023, Browning ranked 17th nationally in punting average (43.4 average) and was a Ray Guy Award semifinalist. Kenan Christon averaged 22.1 yards per kickoff return to tie for 37th nationally and punt returner Mekhi Shaw ranked 37th nationally by averaging 7.2 yards per punt return.

• Under Deakin's leadership, San Diego State's team punting average rose from 125th in the season before he moved into the special team coordinator role to 51st in 2018. In 2019, he oversaw a punting unit that ranked 14th nationally by averaging 45.2 yards per punt. In 2020, the punting unit ranked ninth in the nation by averaging 45.95 yards per punt, and in 2021 led the nation with its 49.95 average.

• In 2019, San Diego State ranked 29th nationally in kickoff returns (22.9 average), and in 2020 ranked 12th in kickoff returns (26.7 average) and 26th in punt returns (10.7 average). Punter Tanner Kuljian led the Mountain West and ranked eighth nationally in 2020 by averaging 45.4 yards per punt while Jordan Byrd led the Mountain West and ranked seventh in the nation in kickoff return average (31.9 yards per return). Brandon Heicklen ranked 15th nationally in punting in 2019 (45.2 average) while Araiza ranked 24th in the nation in field goal percentage, making 22 of 26 attempts (84.6%).

• Deakin was a football operations assistant at SDSU from 2015-17 and began his coaching career as a graduate assistant from 2011-14 working with the defense and special teams.

Accomplishments as a Player

• Was a walk-on student-athlete at San Diego State who played in 24 games over his last two collegiate seasons (2009-10), serving as the team's holder on placekicks. He was selected as a team captain by his teammates for his senior season. Earned Mountain West Conference all-academic honors in 2009 and in 2008 was awarded the SDSU President's Award for highest standards of academic and athletic excellence.

• A native of Oak Park, Calif., he received his undergraduate degree in business management from San Diego State in 2010 and his master's in educational leadership in 2014.

OU'S 2026 RECRUITING CLASS RANKED 15TH NATIONALLY

Head coach Brent Venables and general manager Jim Nagy and their staffs signed 24 scholarship players for the 2026 season during the December early period and added one during the February signing period. The class of 25 ranked No. 15 nationally by Rivals, No. 16 by 247Sports and No. 17 by ESPN.

Of the 25 signees, 13 were ranked as four- or five-star prospects on a five-star scale by 247Sports, ESPN, Rivals or Kohl's Kicking, while 12 others received three-star ratings.

"Really excited about the depth of this class," Venables said. "We really hit all of the targets we set out to. Several of them we've been recruiting for a couple cycles now, and we really landed in a great space. We were able to get the guys we needed to come in and not only fit our locker room from a cultural and fit standpoint but also have a chance to come in and impact us right away."

All 25 signees were high school seniors, and 22 of them enrolled at OU in mid-January. Eleven of them are offensive players (one quarterback, two running backs, four wide receivers, two tight ends and two offensive linemen), 13 are defensive players (five defensive linemen/ends, four linebackers and four defensive backs) and one is a specialist (kicker).

Four players were rated as top-100 overall recruits nationally by at least one outlet (quarterback Bowe Bentley, running back Jonathan Hatton Jr., defensive end Jake Kreul and wide receiver Jayden Petit).

The state of Texas produced the most OU signees with six, while Florida produced five, California three, Arizona and Indiana two each and Alabama, Arkansas, Colorado, Delaware, Kansas, Missouri and Oklahoma one each.

"(During) my past with the Seattle Seahawks, we were really big on collecting alphas," Nagy said. "So that's something I was really dialed into during the recruiting process — guys who were ready to come in and play. This is a developmental program and the coaches do a great job with it, but the guys have to be wired right to come in right away and be developed. We feel like we did that. We really like this group."

NORMAN — John Mateer set a record for passing yards in an Oklahoma debut and the defense allowed its fewest yards in five seasons as No. 18 OU opened the season with a 35-5 win over Illinois State at Gaylord Family — Oklahoma Memorial Stadium.

Mateer completed 30 of 37 passes (81%) for 392 yards and three touchdowns, breaking the previous debut-passing-yardage record of 388 set by Baker Mayfield in 2015. Mateer was only the third quarterback to attempt at least 30 passes in his OU debut, and his completion rate was the highest among that group.

Mateer scored the first points of the season on a 7-yard rush near the end of the first quarter. He finished the game with 24 rushing yards on seven carries.

Two of his touchdown passes went to redshirt senior transfer wide receiver Keontez Lewis, who registered a game- and career-high nine catches for 119 yards and had TD receptions of 28 and 20 yards in the fourth quarter. His nine receptions tied the school record for a player in his OU debut.

Redshirt senior receiver Deion Burks caught seven passes for 88 yards and a 27-yard TD.

Freshman running back Tory Blaylock rushed for a team-high 42 yards on eight carries and scored a touchdown on a 5-yard rush in the second quarter.

Senior tight end Jaren Kanak, who moved from linebacker in the offseason, had five catches for 90 yards, including a 48-yarder that was the longest play of the game.

Freshman defensive back Courtland Guillory became only the second OU true freshman to start at cornerback in a season opener and notched a tackle and a pass breakup. Junior linebacker Sammy Omosigho registered a team-high eight tackles and recorded his first career sack, and redshirt junior linebacker Owen Heinecke made a career-high four tackles, including his first career tackle for loss.

NORMAN — John Mateer rushed for two touchdowns and threw another and Deion Burks caught seven passes for 101 yards and a score against his home-state team to lead No. 18/24 Oklahoma to a 24-13 home win over No. 15/13 Michigan. It was just the second meeting between the storied programs (OU beat UM 14-6 in the 1976 Orange Bowl to claim the 1975 national title).

Mateer completed 21 of 34 passes for 270 yards and rushed for 74 more on 19 carries. The redshirt junior tossed a 9-yard TD pass to Burks on the game's opening possession, then scored on a 2-yard run with 22 seconds left in the half. He added a 10-yard rushing score in the third quarter to extend the lead to 21-7. Burks, a redshirt senior from Inkster, Mich., had his first 100-yard receiving game at OU.

The Sooners limited the Wolverines to 288 yards of total offense, including just 142 passing. Michigan's only touchdown came on a 75-yard rush by Justice Haynes on the first scrimmage play of the second half. OU held UM quarterback Bryce Underwood to 9-of-24 passing (37.5%) and the Wolverines offense to 3 of 14 on third downs.

With Oklahoma leading 21-13 in the fourth quarter, Mateer led a 16-play, 78-yard drive that consumed 8:27 and resulted in a 21-yard field goal by Tate Sandell to push the lead to 11 points with 1:44 remaining.

Senior tight end Jaren Kanak notched five receptions for the second straight game and ended with 69 receiving yards.

Redshirt junior linebacker Owen Heinecke led the Sooners with seven tackles (one for loss) and added a pass breakup. Redshirt senior linebacker Kendal Daniels finished with four tackles, 2.5 of which went for lost yardage. Redshirt sophomore defensive lineman Taylor Wein made his first career start and tallied three tackles, while Michael Fasusi became the first freshman in program history to start at left tackle in his first career game.

PHILADELPHIA — Quarterback John Mateer accounted for 345 total yards and two touchdowns and freshman running back Tory Blaylock rushed for 100 yards and two TDs to lead No. 13/16 Oklahoma to a 42-3 win over Temple at Lincoln Financial Field, home of the Philadelphia Eagles.

Mateer completed 20 of 34 passes for 282 yards and a TD and rushed for 63 yards and another score. The redshirt junior tossed a 6-yard TD pass to running back Xavier Robinson in the third quarter and on the following possession scored on a 51-yard run.

Blaylock averaged 7.1 yards on his 14 carries and scored on runs of 6 and 18 yards in the second quarter. Redshirt junior wide receiver Isaiah Sategna III hauled in seven receptions for 97 yards and senior tight end Jaren Kanak made four catches for 86 yards. Senior running back Jovantae Barnes scored on a 3-yard rush on OU's opening possession. Redshirt junior Tate Sandell was 2 for 2 on field goals, making kicks from 52 and 29 yards.

The OU defense was stellar all day. The Sooners allowed just 104 total yards (their fewest since 2014) and seven first downs (fewest allowed since 2015), and forced the Owls to punt 12 times (the most by an opponent since 2015 and most in a road game since 2000). The defense also season highs of four sacks and 11 tackles for loss, and limited Temple to a 19% third-down conversion rate.

Redshirt senior defensive back Kendel Dolby, playing in his first game in nearly a year after recovering from injury, logged a team-high-tying four tackles (one for loss). Sophomore Reggie Powers III and redshirt sophomore Taylor Heim also had four stops each.

NORMAN — Oklahoma quarterback John Mateer accounted for two touchdowns and the OU defense registered a school-record-tying nine sacks in a 24-17 win over No. 22 Auburn in the SEC opener for both teams.

Mateer completed 24 of 36 passes for 271 yards and rushed for 29 yards and a score. He completed 16 of his last 17 attempts and each of his final 11, including all four on OU's game-winning touchdown drive. After Auburn took a 17-16 lead, Mateer led a 6-play, 75-yard drive and scored a 9-yard rushing TD to give the Sooners a 22-17 lead with 4:54 left.

The defensive line was the story of the day, accounting for 7.5 of the team's 9.0 sacks. Senior R Mason Thomas, who had to sit out the first half due to a penalty in the previous game, recorded two sacks, including one for a safety with 1:06 left in the contest. Sophomore Jayden Jackson registered a career-high 2.5 sacks, senior Gracen Halton, sophomore David Stone and redshirt sophomore Taylor Wein each recorded one sack and redshirt junior linebacker Owen Heinecke notched his first career sack.

Redshirt junior wide receiver Isaiah Sategna III registered career highs of nine receptions and 127 yards, and scored OU's first touchdown on a 24-yard second-quarter catch to give OU a 10-3 lead. The game was tied at 10 at halftime, but Oklahoma scored on a field goal in the third quarter and added another early in the fourth to go ahead 16-10.

Redshirt junior kicker Tate Sandell made all three of his field goal attempts, converting from 49, 32 and 28 yards. Redshirt junior punter Grayson Miller averaged 54.4 yards on five punts. His average was the third best in single-game school history (min. five punts).

Redshirt junior linebacker Kip Lewis led the Sooners with a season-high 10 tackles.

NORMAN — Quarterback Michael Hawkins Jr. accounted for four touchdowns, wide receiver Isaiah Sategna III totaled 172 all-purpose yards and two TDs and No. 5 Oklahoma registered its first shutout in two seasons in a 44-0 home win over Kent State.

Hawkins Jr. passed for 162 yards and three touchdowns — doubling his career total — and rushed nine times for 33 yards and a score in three quarters of work in place of injured starter John Mateer. Sategna III scored his two touchdowns on receptions of 30 yards in the first quarter and 9 yards in the third quarter. He caught four passes for 75 yards and totaled 97 yards on his five punt returns, OU's most punt return yards since 2012. Running back Tory Blaylock rushed 15 times for a team-high 78 yards.

The Sooners scored on their first five possessions and seven of their first eight. Hawkins Jr. also connected with tight end Kaden Helms for a 3-yard touchdown. It was Helms' first reception of the season. Kicker Tate Sandell made all five of his PAT attempts and was 3 for 3 on field goals, converting from 49, 39 and 55 yards (career long).

In the third quarter, defensive end R Mason Thomas forced a fumble on a sack and defensive tackle Gracen Halton returned it four yards for a TD. Two possessions later, defensive back Jaydan Hardy notched OU's first interception of the season.

Oklahoma recorded five sacks and 13 tackles for loss and limited Kent State to 17 rushing yards and 135 total yards. Thomas and defensive lineman David Stone each logged a career- and team-high six tackles. Seven defensive linemen contributed on 11 tackles for loss and defensive linemen registered all five sacks. The shutout was OU's first since the 2023 season opener vs. Arkansas State.

DALLAS — No. 6/6 Oklahoma kicked two first-half field goals and led 6-3 at halftime, but was held scoreless in the second half in a 23-6 loss to No. RV/19 Texas in the Allstate Red River Rivalry at Cotton Bowl Stadium.

Redshirt junior kicker Tate Sandell made both of his field goal attempts, from 42 yards on OU's opening possession and from 41 yards in the second quarter, to give the Sooners a 6-0 lead.

Redshirt junior quarterback John Mateer, who was playing in his first game since undergoing surgery on his right (throwing) hand 17 days earlier, completed 20 of 38 passes for 202 yards but threw three interceptions. Redshirt senior Deion Burks notched five receptions for a game-high 64 yards and redshirt junior Isaiah Sategna III made four catches for 61 yards.

Texas scored the first touchdown of the game with just under eight minutes to play in the third quarter, returned a punt 75 yards for a touchdown in the middle of the fourth quarter and made 3 of 5 field goal attempts in the game. The Longhorns totaled 302 offensive yards, marking the first time of the season OU allowed more than 300 yards of total offense.

OU redshirt senior linebacker Kendal Daniels logged a team-high six tackles, including 2.0 for loss, and a QB hurry. Redshirt sophomore defensive lineman Taylor Wein recorded four tackles, including a career-high 3.0 for lost yardage, and senior defensive lineman R Mason Thomas finished with three tackles, including OU's only sack. Redshirt junior linebacker Kobie McKinzie had 2.0 tackles for loss and four total stops.

COLUMBIA, S.C. — Tory Blaylock rushed for 101 yards and a touchdown, John Mateer passed for 150 yards and a score and the Oklahoma defense registered 13 tackles for loss, six sacks, two interceptions and a safety in a 26-7 win at South Carolina.

Blaylock scored the game's first touchdown with an 18-yard run on OU's opening possession. The freshman running back finished the game with 19 carries and averaged 5.3 yards per rush, good for his second SEC Freshman of the Week honor.

Mateer completed 18 of 26 passes with no interceptions and connected with redshirt junior wide receiver Isaiah Sategna III for a third-quarter, 20-yard score. Mateer led the Sooners on first-half scoring drives of 75 and 92 yards, which both ended in rushing touchdowns. Sophomore running back Xavier Robinson capped the 92-yard drive with a 10-yard TD burst. He finished with 58 yards on 11 carries (5.3 per rush). Redshirt junior Javonnie Gibson notched season highs of five receptions and 24 yards.

Redshirt sophomore Taylor Wein registered his first career interception on a third-quarter fake punt attempt and totaled four solo tackles, including 2.0 for loss. Senior R Mason Thomas and junior Adepoju Adebawore each notched 1.5 sacks. OU's six sacks were its second most on the season, and the Sooners recorded double-digit tackles for loss for the fifth straight game.

Redshirt junior kicker Tate Sandell tied his career long with a 55-yard field goal in the third quarter to extend OU's lead to 17-7.

Following a 40-yard quick-pooch punt by Mateer that pinned the Gamecocks at their own 1-yard line late in the fourth quarter, redshirt sophomore Markus Strong tackled running back Matt Fuller in the end zone for a safety and the game's final points.

NORMAN — Despite career days from wide receiver Isaiah Sategna III and running back Xavier Robinson, No. 13 Oklahoma fell to No. 8 Ole Miss 34-26 on Homecoming.

OU erased a 12-point halftime deficit behind a Tate Sandell field goal and two rushing touchdowns from Robinson to surge ahead 26-25 late in the third quarter, but the Rebels controlled the fourth period, retaking the lead with a touchdown and adding a field goal.

Robinson totaled a career-high 109 rushing yards on nine carries, including scoring runs of 65 and 9 yards, while Sategna posted a personal-best 131 receiving yards, highlighted by a 76-yard TD reception from John Mateer early in the second quarter that knotted the score at 10-10.

Mateer completed 17 of 31 passes for 223 yards and one TD. Deion Burks added four catches for 32 yards. Sandell connected on both of his field goal tries from 42 yards out.

The defense kept the Sooners within reach, forcing a turnover on downs early in the third quarter and limiting Ole Miss to 116 rushing yards on 41 attempts. Linebacker Kip Lewis had a game-high 12 tackles, while safety Robert Spears-Jennings tallied 11 stops and a forced fumble. The Sooners registered 14 tackles for loss, their most since 2023, led by linebacker Kendal Daniels' 2.5. Owen Heinecke and David Stone had 2.0 each.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. — Quarterback John Mateer passed for 159 yards and rushed for 80 and a touchdown and kicker Tate Sandell made four field goals, including three from more than 50 yards, to lead No. 18 Oklahoma to a 33-27 win at No. 14 Tennessee.

Sandell connected from 55, 51, 40 and 55 yards, tying a school record with his four made field goals, matching an FBS record with three made field goals of 50-plus yards and tying a Neyland Stadium record with his 55-yard makes.

Mateer completed 19 of 29 passes, including six each to wide receivers Isaiah Sategna III (for 68 yards) and Deion Burks (for 45 yards). His 80 rushing yards were a season high.

Running back Xavier Robinson turned in his second straight 100-yard rushing game, going for a career-high 115 yards and a 4-yard touchdown on 16 carries.

Linebacker Owen Heinecke made his first career start and led the team with a career-high 13 tackles. His strip-sack in the first quarter was recovered by defensive lineman R Mason Thomas and returned 71 yards for OU's first touchdown of the game. It was the longest fumble return in school history. Defensive backs Peyton Bowen and Robert Spears-Jennings each registered second-quarter interceptions they returned 37 yards.

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. — No. 11 Oklahoma scored 17 points off of three turnovers, including seven on an 87-yard interception return by sophomore cornerback Eli Bowen, and redshirt junior kicker Tate Sandell made three field goals as OU defeated No. 4 Alabama 23-21 at Bryant-Denny Stadium.

The Sooners snapped Alabama's 17-game home winning streak, which was the longest active FBS streak, and posted the program's highest-ranked road victory since winning at No. 2 Ohio State in 2017. The crowd of 100,077 was the fourth largest in OU football history and the second straight over 100,000.

Bowen picked off Alabama's Ty Simpson at the OU 13-yard line late in the first quarter and returned it for a TD to give the Sooners a 10-0 lead. John Mateer passed for 138 yards and rushed for 23, including a 20-yard, second-quarter score that put OU up 17-7.

Sandell made field goals of 25, 52 and 24 yards. The 52-yarder extended OU's lead to 20-14 with 10:38 left in the third quarter. His 24-yarder put OU ahead 23-21 with 13:41 to go after the Crimson Tide took its only lead of the day midway though the third period.

Alabama cut Oklahoma's lead to 10-7 and 17-14 in the second quarter, and had a 36-yard field goal attempt blocked by redshirt sophomore defensive lineman Taylor Wein at the end of the first half.

Late in the third, Wein sacked Simpson and knocked the ball loose. Redshirt senior linebacker Kendal Daniels recovered it at the UA 28, leading to Sandell's game-winner.

Sophomore defensive back Jaydan Hardy also forced a fumble on a second-quarter punt return that was recovered by junior linebacker Sammy Omosigho and led to Mateer's rushing touchdown two plays later.

Linebacker Kip Lewis led the Sooners with a game-high seven tackles (all solo) and a career-high 2.0 sacks. He was also credited with a QB hurry on Bowen's interception.

NORMAN — John Mateer passed for 173 yards and two touchdowns and the Oklahoma defense limited the nation's sixth-ranked rushing offense to 70 ground yards, as the Sooners defeated No. 23 Missouri 17-6 at Gaylord Family — Oklahoma Memorial Stadium.

OU extended its winning streak against Missouri in Norman to 19 games, dating back to 1968, and gained its nation-leading fifth win of the season against a ranked opponent.

Redshirt junior wide receiver Isaiah Sategna III caught three passes for 109 yards, including an 87-yard touchdown to give OU a 7-3 lead in the second quarter. The 87-yard pass play was the third-longest in stadium history. Mateer also found redshirt junior wide receiver Javonnie Gibson for an 8-yard TD in the second quarter, as the Sooners took a 14-6 lead at halftime. It was Gibson's first touchdown reception at OU.

The Sategna TD came three plays after junior safety Peyton Bowen blocked a Missouri 35-yard field goal attempt. It was OU's second straight game with a field goal block.

Redshirt junior kicker Tate Sandell made a 45-yard field goal on OU's opening possession of the second half, which served as the game's final points. The Sooners held the Tigers to zero net rushing yards on nine attempts in the second half.

MU entered the day averaging 241.7 rushing yards per game and running back Ahmad Hardy came in averaging a nation-leading 134.6 per outing. He had just 57 vs. OU.

Redshirt sophomore defensive lineman Taylor Wein registered two tackles for loss (career-high 1.5 sacks) and senior defensive lineman Gracen Halton added 2.0 TFLs. Defensive linemen accounted for all four of OU's sacks and six of eight TFLs. Redshirt junior linebacker Owen Heinecke led the team with 10 tackles (one for loss).

Junior cornerback Jacobe Johnson and sophomore corner Eli Bowen each notched their second interception of the season. It was Bowen's second straight game with a pick. The Sooners, who had a minus-7 turnover margin through six games, did not commit a turnover against Missouri and pulled even in the category for the season with their seventh and eighth takeaways over the last five contests.

Redshirt junior punter Grayson Miller had five 50-yard boots, tied for the second most in a game in school history.

The 23 combined points were the fewest in a game involving OU since it beat West Virginia 16-7 in Norman in the second contest of the 2013 season..

NORMAN — John Mateer passed for 318 yards and two touchdowns, including a 58-yard TD pass to redshirt junior wide receiver Isaiah Sategna III to give Oklahoma the lead with 4:16 remaining, and the Sooners closed the regular season with a 17-13 home victory over LSU to secure their 43rd 10-win season in program history.

The Sooners gained 393 yards of total offense — their most in SEC play on the season — and held the Tigers to just 198 total offensive yards, the fewest OU allowed to a power conference opponent since 2017.

Mateer completed 23 passes for 318 yards and two TDs and rushed for 27 yards. His 318 passing yards were his most since throwing for 392 yards in the season opener vs. Illinois State. Sategna registered nine catches for 121 yards and the game-winning touchdown. He also had a 35-yard punt return that set up OU's first touchdown of the game, a 45-yard pass from Mateer to redshirt senior wide receiver Deion Burks with 1:47 left in the third quarter.

Burks finished with four catches for 61 yards and senior tight end Jaren Kanak had six for 54 yards. Freshman running back Tory Blaylock rushed for 42 yards on 11 carries.

Junior defensive back Peyton Bowen logged seven tackles and an interception, and broke up a pass on 4th and 2 from the OU 29-yard line on LSU's final play of the game. Redshirt senior linebacker Kendal Daniels and redshirt junior linebacker Owen Heinecke also each had team highs of seven tackles to lead the Sooners.

Redshirt junior Grayson Miller punted seven times. His two punts of 50-plus yards gave him 23 on the year, a single-season school record. Redshirt junior kicker Tate Sandell kicked a 38-yard field goal for the game's first points, extending his OU-record streak of made field goals to 23, also the longest single-season streak in SEC history.

NORMAN — Oklahoma led 17-0 in the first 20 minutes but was outscored 27-0 over the remainder of the second and third quarters in a 34-24 loss in the College Football Playoff first round game at Gaylord Family — Oklahoma Memorial Stadium. The game marked OU's fifth CFP appearance and its first since the 2019 season.

The Sooners outgained the Crimson Tide 362 to 260 in total yardage and 307 to 232 in passing yards. Quarterback John Mateer threw for 307 yards and two touchdowns on 26-for-41 passing and rushed for another score. Deion Burks registered seven receptions for 107 yards and a 37-yard TD, while Isaiah Sategna III scored on a 7-yard catch.

Oklahoma scored on its second, third and fourth possessions to take a 17-0 lead early in the second quarter. Mateer rushed for an 8-yard touchdown at 5:29 mark of the first quarter and found Sategna for a 7-yard score with 10:51 left before halftime. The two touchdowns were sandwiched around a 51-yard field goal from Lou Groza Award winner Tate Sandell. The make was his 24th straight and fifth of 50-plus yards, extending his school records.

Alabama tied the score at 17-all just before halftime on a 10-yard touchdown pass from Ty Simpson to Lotzeir Brooks, a 35-yard field goal and a 50-yard interception return. The Crimson Tide took a 27-17 lead in the third quarter on a 30-yard TD pass to Brooks and a 40-yard field goal.

The Sooners cut it to 27-24 on the second play of the fourth quarter as Mateer hit Burks, who raced 37 yards to the end zone. But the Tide added a 6-yard TD rush by Daniel Hill for the game's final points with 7:24 on the clock.

GAME SUMMARY

This was the first Orange Bowl that featured two national powers as both teams were undefeated and untied. To lure the Sooners to Miami, the Orange Bowl director circled the Norman campus, leaving chalk messages that promoted the game. Tennessee's powerful ground attack was too much for the Sooners, winners of 14 straight, as the Volunteers raced to a 17-0 victory in the fifth annual Orange Bowl. The victory was the 13th straight for the Vols, who were coached by Major Bob Neyland. The game was considered to be the roughest of all bowl games played that year as both teams combined for more than 200 yards in penalties.

GAME SUMMARY

In a game that featured two of the marquee names in college football at the time, Oklahoma blasted North Carolina State, 34-13, before an overflowing crowd of 10,000 in the second annual Gator Bowl. The Sooners did not take long to get on the scoreboard, two minutes to be exact, on an Eddie Davis one-yard plunge. N.C. State roared back to even the score, but OU put the game out of reach by scoring 20 second-quarter points and coasted from there. The marquee matchup was made possible because of the Tournament of Roses committee decision to match representatives of the Western Athletic Conference (now the Pac-12) and the Big Nine, (now the Big Ten). This agreement made it possible for teams not waiting for a possible Rose Bowl berth to be picked by the Gator Bowl committee.

GAME SUMMARY

It was legendary Coach Bud Wilkinson's first bowl game as the fifth-ranked and underdog Sooners took on the third-ranked and unbeaten North Carolina Tar Heels accompanied by their All-America tailback Charlie "Choo Choo" Justice. Oklahoma upset the 'Heels with the big play coming in the first quarter as linebacker Myrle Greathouse intercepted a pass and returned it 70 yards to set up Jack Mitchell's one-yard run. The Sooners never trailed after that.

GAME SUMMARY

Bud Wilkinson's team was rated second in the nation and it was the first one of his squads to post an undefeated record, 10-0. The game was one-sided and still stands as the largest margin of victory in OU bowl history. One of the many Sooner big plays was Leon Heath's OU bowl record-breaking 86-yard TD run. The game was marred by an early-week incident where a former LSU player was caught spying on Sooner practices. It was the only time in Wilkinson's career that he publicly blasted an opponent.

GAME SUMMARY

OU won its first national championship by going a perfect 10-0 in the regular season. However, Kentucky, coached by Paul "Bear" Bryant, upset the Sooners and broke a 31-game OU winning streak. OU lost a bowl-record five fumbles in falling behind 13-0. A fourth quarter 17-yard TD pass by Billy Vessels narrowed the margin, but a come-from-behind effort was foiled by an interception in the final minute of play.

GAME SUMMARY

It was the first game of the contract that pitted the Big Seven champion against the Atlantic Coast Conference champ. Maryland came into the game as the regular season national champion with OU rated fourth. Twice, the Terrapins had first down with the ball inside the 10-yard line, and both times the Sooner defense refused to allow any points on the scoreboard. Sooner tailback Larry Grigg scored the only TD of the game with a 25-yard scamper in the second period. The 1954 bowl game was the first bowl game in which the players had to play both ways. Sooner hero Grigg also played defensive back.

GAME SUMMARY

The 47-game winning streak had been broken earlier in the season, but the Sooners still came into the game ranked No. 4. Duke, the ACC winner, was unranked. Oklahoma got only six first downs, lost the total offense battle (328 yards to 279) and picked up an OU-bowl-record 165 yards in penalties, but used two interception returns for TDs, including an OU-bowl-record 94-yarder from David Baker, two fumble recoveries, a blocked punt and a bad snap from center to win going away. The 48 points marked an all-time OU bowl record that stood until matched by the '91 Gator Bowl team.

GAME SUMMARY

Waiving the "no repeat rule" because of a new bowl contract, the Sooners played in their second consecutive Orange Bowl, defeating the Syracuse Orangemen 21-6. Oklahoma was led by Prentice Gautt, who scored the game's first TD on the second play of the game with a 42-yard run. Gautt averaged an OU-bowl-record 15.7 yards every time he touched the ball. It was the Sooners' fourth straight Orange Bowl victory. OU ended the season ranked fifth in the nation, its only loss a one-pointer to Texas.

GAME SUMMARY

It was Bud Wilkinson's last bowl game. Paul "Bear" Bryant, coaching his alma mater, repeated his victory as the coach at Kentucky in the 1951 Sugar Bowl with a 17-0 triumph. LB Lee Roy Jordan, the MVP, and QB Joe Namath led the Crimson Tide to the victory.The Sooners had first and goal twice in the first half, but fumbles ended OU's chances and the Sooners never really threatened again. The lone highlight for Oklahoma was a visit by President John F. Kennedy to the Sooners' locker room. Although President Kennedy claimed neutrality, it was obvious by the grimace on his face he was backing OU.

FSU – Tensi, 36-23-4-303
Receiving: OU – Hart, 6-165
FSU – Biletnikoff, 13-192

GAME SUMMARY

Florida State used a sophisticated passing attack to win easily. To add insult to injury, four of the Seminoles' TD passes were thrown on fourth-down plays. Four Oklahoma players had been found ineligible the night before the game because they had signed pro contracts which was in violation of NCAA rules. FSU wide receiver Fred Biletnikoff finished the game with 13 receptions for 192 yards and four TDs.

GAME SUMMARY

Oklahoma had won the Big Eight title in Chuck Fairbanks' first year as head coach. Although a slight underdog to the Vols, OU broke out to a 19-0 halftime lead. Tennessee came back to narrow the Sooner lead to 19-17 before Oklahoma defensive back Bob Stephenson picked off a pass and raced 24 yards to give OU an all important insurance TD. The Sooners desperately needed the insurance when Dewey Warren plowed in from a yard out. The Vols then missed a potential game-winning field goal as the gun went off.

GAME SUMMARY

OU led 20-6 entering the fourth quarter, but SMU's Chuck Hixson, passing for 281 yards, led a comeback that produced a 28-21 lead. OU, without injured QB Bob Warmack, narrowed the margin to one on a pass from Mickey Ripley to Johnny Barr, but missed a two-point conversion that would have put it ahead. The Sooners had one last chance after recovering an onside kick, but a field goal attempt from inside the SMU 30-yard line went wide as time expired.

GAME SUMMARY

The emergence of the wishbone and Greg Pruitt were late-season developments that propelled OU to four wins in its last five games and a postseason invitation. The Sooners had switched to the wishbone, and they were running it to perfection by the time the bowl game rolled around. The "bone" produced 349 yards rushing and touchdown runs of 58 and 25 yards by All-American Greg Pruitt, but the Sooners still needed a late field goal by Bruce Derr to forge the tie with the Crimson Tide.

GAME SUMMARY

OU had lost only one game, the "Game of the Century" to Nebraska on Thanksgiving Day. Auburn featured Heisman Trophy winner Pat Sullivan. It was run versus pass, with OU's runners prevailing. The Sooners roared to a 31-0 halftime lead and amassed 439 yards rushing by game's end to set Oklahoma and Sugar Bowl records. QB Jack Mildren, playing in the final game of his brilliant college career, scored a Sugar Bowl-record three times. OU finished second in the polls to Nebraska with another Big Eight team, Colorado, finishing third.

GAME SUMMARY

Played for the first time on New Year's Eve, the Sugar Bowl brought the Big Eight Champion Sooners to do battle with Joe Paterno's fifth-ranked Nittany Lions. The Sooner defense posted a shutout while allowing only 11 first downs and 49 yards rushing the entire game. It was the first year that freshmen were eligible and Sooner wide receiver Tinker Owens celebrated with five catches, good for 132 yards and one touchdown. It was also the last game for Sooner head coach Chuck Fairbanks who left for the NFL the following spring.

GAME SUMMARY

It was Oklahoma's first bowl trip under legendary head coach Barry Switzer and a storybook setting. Ohio State, the No. 1-ranked team in the country, had lost in the Rose Bowl earlier in the afternoon. The upset gave the Sooners an opportunity to win the national championship if they could beat the Michigan Wolverines coached by Bo Schembechler. A 39-yard end around by Billy Brooks and a nine-yard keeper by Steve Davis were enough for a 14-6 victory and a fifth national championship.

This was a mismatch that was decided early on as Oklahoma rolled up almost 500 yards in total offense and cruised to an easy victory. The Sooners led 27-0 at the third quarter mark before the reserves added two more scores in the fourth period. OU did not punt the entire game, the only time in Sooner bowl history that had happened.

GAME SUMMARY

Called by Barry Switzer, "the most disappointing loss of my career," OU was a victim of one of the biggest upsets in bowl history. When Notre Dame downed Texas in the Cotton Bowl, OU was in the running for a national championship. A big win over Arkansas might impress the voters and secure the crown for the Sooners. As a result, Switzer went against his own strategy by choosing to receive the opening kickoff rather than play defense. OU fumbled inside its own 10 on the third play of the game and Arkansas immediately scored for a lead it never relinquished.

A truly amazing turn of events produced a rematch after Nebraska's victory in November. The Sooners, ranked No. 1 with one loss, had lost a heartbreaker to the Cornhuskers, 17-14, on a late fumble at the NU three-yard line. When the Huskers were upset the following week by Missouri, producing a Big Eight Championship tie, the Orange Bowl officials came up with the idea of a rematch, much to the Sooners' joy and the Huskers' shock. It went as predicted: an Oklahoma victory.

GAME SUMMARY

The Big Eight Champion Sooners met an undefeated Florida State team on New Year's night. After the Seminoles took a 7-0 first-quarter lead, OU unleashed 17 second-quarter points to take the lead for good. J.C. Watts was named Orange Bowl MVP on offense. He scored on a 61-yard option play and rushed for more than 100 yards. Bud Hebert, who recorded three interceptions, earned the award on defense. Billy Sims wrapped up his brilliant collegiate career scoring on a 22-yard pitch from Watts. Oklahoma finished third in the country and won the Orange Bowl for the third time in five tries under Switzer. The Seminoles crossed midfield only two times after the first quarter and never passed the 35-yard line.

GAME SUMMARY

This contest featured a rematch with a great deal more excitement as OU turned to a foreign weapon, the pass, to notch its third straight Orange Bowl win. QB J.C. Watts was chosen MVP and with good reason. The Seminoles used a fourth-quarter TD to break a 10-10 tie and seemingly gain control. OU was forced to start deep in its own territory after the kickoff with little time left. Watts went to work and passed the Sooners to the 11-yard line where he hit Steve Rhodes with a TD strike to pull the Sooners to within one with less than a minute to go. Watts then proceeded to hit tight end Forrest Valora for the two-point conversion that gave the Sooners their ninth Orange Bowl victory, including three in the last four years. Oklahoma finished ranked No. 3 in the nation.

GAME SUMMARY

The magic of Marcus Dupree ran out as the Sun Devils rallied for 14 fourth-quarter points to win the first meeting between the two. Dupree ran wild early, amassing 239 yards before recurrent leg injuries forced him out in the third quarter. The turning point came when Oklahoma punter Michael Keeling could not get his punt away and was forced to throw an illegal pass. The Devils took over at the OU 43 and later scored when Darryl Clark raced 15 yards for a touchdown.

GAME SUMMARY

Brigham Young was No. 1 in the polls, but Sooner head coach Barry Switzer had argued that the Sooners should be No. 1 because of a tougher schedule. A win over a fine Husky team would solidify that claim. However, Washington refused to cooperate and turned a 17-14 fourth-quarter deficit into a 28-17 triumph. The game was marked by a bizarre incident when, after thinking an Oklahoma field goal was good, the Sooner Schooner raced onto the field as called for by tradition. A penalty negated the field goal, but the Schooner became stuck in the muddy field in front of UW's bench, resulting in a 15-yard penalty. The following 42-yard try was no good.

GAME SUMMARY

A swarming defense, a record field goal performance and two big plays helped Oklahoma defeat Penn State to capture the program's sixth national championship. Butkus Award winner Brian Bosworth had 13 solo tackles and the Oklahoma secondary picked off four Penn State passes to thwart any rallies. Tim Lashar booted an Orange Bowl-record four field goals to give the Sooners an early lead. Lydell Carr and Keith Jackson then provided big plays: a 61-yard jaunt by Carr and a 71-yard pass play from Jamelle Holieway to Jackson.

GAME SUMMARY

After nine years, Barry Switzer avenged his most embarrassing loss, coaching Oklahoma to a 42-8 rout of Arkansas. LB Danté Jones, playing in place of All-American Brian Bosworth, led the defense, which held the Hogs to just 48 rushing yards. Spencer Tillman gained 109 yards rushing on just seven carries. His totals included a 77-yard TD to give OU the early 7-0 lead. Todd Thomsen set an Orange Bowl record with five punts for a 47.6-yard average.

GAME SUMMARY

The Sooners' hopes of winning their seventh national championship were put to rest by Miami, 20-14. The Hurricanes took the opening kickoff and moved 65 yards in eight plays for a 7-0 lead, then never looked back. The Sooner offense, which led the nation in six categories, was held to only 179 rushing yards and 255 overall. Late in the fourth quarter, the Sooners scored on a 29-yard fumblerooski which gave the Oklahoma faithful a flicker of hope. The Hurricane defenders blew it out when they sacked quarterback Charles Thompson and caused a fumble to ensure the victory.

GAME SUMMARY

After a dry three quarters and the score deadlocked at 6-6, Clemson held off a late Sooner rally to post a 13-6 victory and give the ACC its first victory over Oklahoma in 16 tries. On the Sooners' last possession, OU took over possession on its own 20 with 2:59 left on the clock. QB Jamelle Holieway, playing in his final game, scampered 11 yards on a fourth down to keep the drive alive. Holieway then completed passes of five, seven, four, 12, seven, 12 and 13 yards, to get OU inside the Tiger 14 with 12 seconds remaining. But two desperation heaves by Holieway dropped incomplete to end all Oklahoma hopes.

GAME SUMMARY

After completing its worst regular season in 30 years, and playing under a head coach who had resigned, Oklahoma ended its season with a dismal 31-6 loss. The Sooners started reserve QB Terence Brown, who had completed one of three passes during the regular season. Usual starter Garrick McGee had contracted spinal meningitis and was unable to play. OU's defense surrendered 485 yards and four touchdowns through the air. BYU's John Walsh set Copper Bowl records for completions (31) and TD passes (4). Sooner linebacker Broderick Simpson was defensive player of the game with 13 tackles, a sack and a pass breakup.

GAME SUMMARY

In the final college game of the 20th century, Ole Miss topped Oklahoma in a thriller, 27-25. OU quarterback and game offensive MVP Josh Heupel set school and Independence Bowl records for attempts (53), completions (39) and yards (390), and tied the record for touchdowns (3). Jarrail Jackson tied the Independence Bowl record for receptions with 10. Ole Miss' Les Binkley kicked a 39-yard field goal for the win on the last play of the game.

GAME SUMMARY

Top-ranked Oklahoma used a smothering defense to shut down the third-ranked Seminoles and Josh Heupel generated enough offense to lead OU to a perfect season. As the nation's only unbeaten team, the Sooners were the unanimous winners of the AP media poll. They were automatically crowned national champions in the coaches' poll under the Bowl Championship Series format. Led by Orange Bowl MVP Torrance Marshall, the Sooners time and again forced Florida State quarterback Chris Weinke into bad decisions. Tim Duncan kicked two field goals and Quentin Griffin scored the clinching touchdown on a 10-yard run up the middle with 8:30 to play. Florida State avoided its first shutout in 12 seasons when Stanford Samuels tackled OU punter Jeff Ferguson in the end zone for a safety with 55 seconds remaining after the snap sailed over his head.

GAME SUMMARY

Arkansas' defense played well, but few will remember. Oklahoma's defense was that much better. The final statistics were as chilling and stark as the weather. The Razorbacks, who reached OU territory just two times the entire game, could muster only 13 passing yards on two completions while their rushing attempts (42) outnumbered their rushing yards (37). Sooner defenders tied a school and Cotton Bowl record with a whopping nine sacks. Late in the first quarter, Oklahoma set sail on a 13-play, 63-yard scoring drive that culminated in a one-yard sneak by quarterback Nate Hybl. Along the way, the Sooners converted two third downs and one fourth. The resulting touchdown and PAT made the rest of the afternoon academic. OU added a 32-yard field goal by Tim Duncan in the third frame to build a 10-0 advantage that felt like twice that given the play of the defense. Arkansas, aided by penalties, finally scratched out a field goal, but no serious threat to the outcome was ever mounted.

GAME SUMMARY

Oklahoma dominated the Pac 10 champs in the Sooners' first trip to the Rose Bowl. OU's defense logged six sacks and two interceptions to set the tone. Rose Bowl MVP Nate Hybl tossed two TD passes and Quentin Griffin rushed for 144 yards as the OU offense wore down the Cougars. Oklahoma became just the fourth school in college football history to win the four BCS games and the Cotton Bowl.

GAME SUMMARY

Riding its defense, LSU won the BCS title, 21-14. Oklahoma entered the game as the nation's top scoring offense, but struggled against the Tigers. The OU defense gave a good account too, surrendering 64 of LSU's 312 total yards on a non-scoring run on the Tigers' first snap. Still, it was the LSU defenders who stole the show. DE Marcus Spears returned an interception 20 yards for a TD on the first series of the second half and seemingly opened the floodgates. But OU stiffened and got its running game untracked. After pulling within seven at 21-14, the Sooners made another push to the LSU 12, but missed on four straight pass attempts, the last one with just 2:46 left. The crowd was the largest ever to see a sporting event in the Louisiana Superdome.

Oklahoma linebacker Clint Ingram made a leaping interception of Oregon quarterback Brady Leaf's pass at the 10-yard line with 33 seconds left to preserve the Sooners' 17-14 upset of the No. 6 Oregon Ducks. Rhett Bomar threw a 17-yard touchdown pass to fullback J.D. Runnels for a 10-7 Oklahoma lead with 9:20 to play in the third quarter. Late in the third, Adrian Peterson's backup, Kejuan Jones, scored on an 8-yard run to make it 17-7. Peterson softened the Ducks with three bruising carries on the drive for 36 yards, including a 20-yard gain when he leveled safety J.D. Nelson.

GAME SUMMARY

Fourth-seeded Oklahoma made its third College Football Playoff appearance in four years and outscored No. 1 Alabama 34-17 over the final 43 minutes in Miami. But the Sooners' 28-0 deficit to start the game proved too much to overcome. Kyler Murray threw for 308 yards and two touchdowns while rushing for the most yards (109) by a quarterback against a Nick Saban-coached Alabama team. CeeDee Lamb caught eight passes for 109 yards and a TD while Charleston Rambo posted career highs of three catches and 74 receiving yards, including a 49-yard TD. OU's 34 points, 471 total yards, 308 passing yards, 26 first downs and 6.8 yards per play were Alabama opponent season highs.

The Tigers went on to win the national title. Jalen Hurts rushed for a pair of touchdowns to tie the OU single-season quarterback record with 20 rushing TDs and his 43 rushing yards helped him set the single-season rushing record by a Sooner quarterback, bringing his total to 1,298. CeeDee Lamb caught four passes for 119 yards and moved into third place on OU's all-time receiving yards list with 3,292. Lamb's 51-yard first-quarter reception gave him a school-record 24 career catches of at least 40 yards.

GAME SUMMARY

Oklahoma set bowl game program records for points and total yards, tied its record for bowl game margin of victory and set a Cotton Bowl standard for yards per rush in a 55-20 win over No. 10 Florida. The Sooners compiled 684 yards of total offense and their 10.9 yards per carry represented the second-highest figure in any game in school history. They gained 409 total yards (307 rushing) in the second half alone. Rhamondre Stevenson (186) and Marcus Major (110) each ran for over 100 yards and Spencer Rattler completed 14 of 23 passes for 247 yards and three touchdowns and ran for a score. OU intercepted Heisman Trophy finalist Kyle Trask three times in the first quarter.

OU led 17-0 in the first 20 minutes of the game but was outscored 27-0 over the remainder of the second and third quarters. John Mateer passed for 307 yards and two touchdowns and rushed for another score. Deion Burks finished with 107 yards and a 37-yard TD on seven catches and Isaiah Sategna III scored on a 7-yard reception. Lou Groza Award winner Tate Sandell made a 51-yard field goal attempt, which was his 24th straight make and fifth of 50-plus yards, extending his school records. He missed his final two tries. The Sooners outgained the Crimson Tide 362 to 260 in overall yards and 307 to 232 in passing yards. The contest marked Oklahoma's fifth CFP appearance and its first since the 2019 season.

HEISMAN TROPHY WINNERS

93 NATIONAL AWARD WINNERS • 169 ALL-AMERICANS • 7 HEISMAN TROPHY WINNERS

1952 • HEISMAN WINNER • BILLY VESSELS

Billy "Curly" Vessels was the man who started it all. The first Sooner to win college football's most prestigious individual achievement award, Vessels led the Sooners to a 26-4-1 record during his career.

The 1950 Sooners, under the direction of head coach Bud Wilkinson, went 10-1 to give Oklahoma its first of seven national championships. As a sophomore, Vessels started on the 1950 squad, scoring 15 touchdowns.

But Vessels' most successful individual season came during his senior campaign when he won the Heisman Trophy. Vessels rushed for 1,072 yards on 167 carries and scored 17 touchdowns.

Creating a new meaning for the word "versatile," the Cleveland, Okla., slasher was part of every phase of the Sooner offensive attack. Vessels was even a threat from above. "Curly" connected on seven passes for two touchdowns in 1952.

The 1952 Sooners went 8-1-1, finishing fourth in the nation, and won Oklahoma's ninth conference title. OU opened with a 21-21 tie against Colorado and then reeled off five straight wins, averaging 46 points per contest. OU dropped a 27-21 decision to Notre Dame and then finished strong by sweeping the last three games.

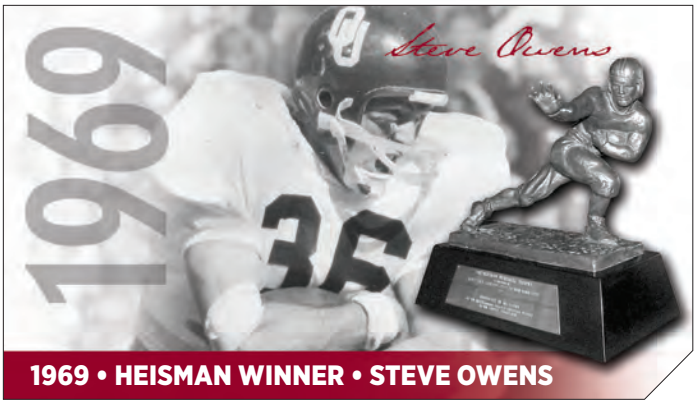

In 1953, Vessels turned pro with the Edmonton Eskimos and won the Schenley Award as the top player in Canada. He then served as an officer in the U.S. Army. Vessels was elected to the National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame in 1974.

1969 • HEISMAN WINNER • STEVE OWENS

Steve Owens was a 6-2, 215-pound powerhouse from Miami, Okla., who ravaged defenses from 1967-69, setting four conference records of the day.

Playing on a 1969 squad that had been hurt badly by graduation in 1968, Owens carried the load for the Sooner offense. OU's workhorse carried the ball 358 times that year for 1,523 yards while scoring a school-record 23 touchdowns.

Owens had two 200-plus-yard games while leading the Sooners to a 6-4 season. Spurred by Owens' effort, Oklahoma averaged 28.5 points a game in 1969.

Owens' great career left a mark on the OU records book, and he still has several school standards to his credit. He is the school's all-time leading scorer with 57 career touchdowns, and he holds the records for the most carries in a game (55) and career (958). Owens finished his three-year career with 4,041 rushing yards, the fifth most in school history.

Detroit selected Owens in the NFL Draft first round. He was the first Lion to gain over 1,000 yards in a season and was an All-Pro selection in 1971 and 1972.

In 1991, Owens was named to the Oklahoma Sports Hall of Fame and was the Walter Camp Foundation Alumnus of the Year. Owens was inducted into the National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame in 1991 and into the Orange Bowl Hall of Honor in 1992.

1978 • HEISMAN WINNER • BILLY SIMS

Billy Sims, a 6-0, 205-pound running back from Hooks, Texas, swept through defenses like a tornado flying across the Oklahoma landscape.

He set a Big Eight single-season rushing record in 1978 with 1,896 yards on 256 carries and led the nation in rushing by averaging more than 7.0 yards per carry. He topped the 200-yard mark in a school-best four different games that season.

Sims led the Sooners to an 11-1 record, Orange Bowl championship and third-place finish in the final poll. OU opened with a 35-29 win over Stanford and then crushed West Virginia and Rice by a combined score of 118-17.

The Sooners rolled over Texas and won the first five games of the conference schedule heading into the Nebraska contest. Sims ran for 153 yards against the Cornhuskers, but it was not enough as the Sooners fell, 17-14.

OU responded by clubbing Oklahoma State 62-7 and was rematched with the Cornhuskers in the Orange Bowl. The Sooners edged Nebraska 31-24 in the second meeting between the top-10 schools.

Sims ranks first in the OU records book for 200-yard rushing games in a season (4) and a career (7), and ranks second in rushing yards in a season (1,896). He was first on OU's all-time rushing list with 4,118 yards until Samaje Perine (4,122) passed him in 2016.

2003 • HEISMAN WINNER • JASON WHITE

OU quarterback Jason White became the trigger man for the country's most potent offensive attack in 2003. At a school where the points can flow like an Oklahoma gusher, White led the OU team that outscored all of its predecessors (601 total points).

He did so with uncanny accuracy, especially on deep throws, and a touchdown to interception ratio (four to one) so gaudy that it read like a typographical error.

White set school records for touchdown passes in a season (40) and game (5, twice). His season passing total ranked No. 2 at OU. He was No. 4 nationally in touchdown percentage (8.87), No. 7 in passing efficiency (158.11), No. 18 in interception percentage (2.22) and No. 22 in total offense (264.0).

The outpouring of recognition was impressive. White captured player of the year honors from the Associated Press, Sports Illustrated, The Sporting News and CNNSI.com. He also won the Davey O'Brien Award and the Jim Thorpe Courage Award.

White returned for another season after his Heisman campaign and finished third in the voting. It was an unprecedented finish by one school when his teammate Adrian Peterson finished second.

2008 • HEISMAN WINNER • SAM BRADFORD

As the leader of the most potent and highest-scoring offense in NCAA history (716 points), Sam Bradford rewrote the Oklahoma record books on a continual basis throughout the 2008 season while lighting up scoreboards.

Known for his poise in the pocket and pinpoint accuracy, Bradford posted one of best ever touchdown-to-interception ratios, 6.25-to-1, in the history of college football.

When the dust had settled on the 2008 season, Bradford led the nation in passing efficiency and touchdowns, was No. 3 nationally in passing yards, set the Oklahoma season records for yards, touchdowns, passing efficiency, 200-yard games, 300-yard games, and 400-yard games, along with the career record for TD passes.

Bradford threw for at least four touchdown passes in eight games, tossing five scoring strikes in four different contests. In addition, Bradford surpassed Florida's Rex Grossman with the most touchdowns through the freshman and sophomore years with 82.

In one of the closest Heisman races in recent history, Bradford held off fellow quarterbacks Colt McCoy and Tim Tebow to become the fifth winner in program history.

Bradford also brought home the Associated Press Player of the Year, Davey O'Brien, Sammy Baugh and Chic Harley awards while being named the Big 12 Offensive Player of the Year by the league coaches. The AP and The Sporting News named Bradford a first-team All-American.

2017 • HEISMAN WINNER • BAKER MAYFIELD

Baker Mayfield arrived at Oklahoma unannounced as a walk-on. He left as the most decorated player in program history.

The quarterback, who grew up an OU fan in Austin, Texas, finished his career with a season for the ages in 2017, leading the Sooners to their third straight Big 12 title and a second College Football Playoff appearance in three years, while being named Big 12 Offensive Player of the Year, a unanimous All-American and OU's sixth Heisman Trophy winner.

Mayfield led the FBS in completion percentage in 2017 (.705), points responsible for (296) and yards per pass attempt (11.5), and broke his own FBS single-season record for passing efficiency rating (198.9). He also set the OU single-season record for total offense (4,938 yards) and finished second in school single-season history in completion percentage and touchdown passes (43). All told, he accounted for 49 TDs and just six turnovers.

The landslide Heisman winner did all he could to cement the honor in a Nov. 4 contest at Oklahoma State in which he set OU records with 598 passing yards (387 in the first half to also set a school standard) and 589 yards of total offense in a 62-52 win. He was 24 of 36 through the air, threw for five touchdowns and ran for a score.

Named Big 12 Offensive Player of the Week four times in 2017, Mayfield also won that season's Maxwell Award, Davey O'Brien Award, Manning Award, Earl Campbell Tyler Rose Award and Walter Camp Player of the Year Award. He was also named AP and Sporting News Player of the Year, and went on to become the No. 1 overall pick in the 2018 NFL Draft.

2018 • HEISMAN WINNER • KYLER MURRAY

Kyler Murray played full-time only one season as a collegian, but it was one for the history books.

After a consensus-national-player-of-the-year honor capped a legendary Texas high school career, the quarterback started three games as a Texas A&M freshman in 2015, transferred to Oklahoma that December, sat out the 2016 season and was Heisman winner Baker Mayfield's backup in 2017.

All Murray did in his lone season as a full-time starter was lead the Sooners to the 2018 Big 12 championship and the College Football Playoff, be named Big 12 Offensive Player of the Year, earn All-America honors and claim OU's seventh Heisman Trophy.

Murray, who tied the record by being named Big 12 Offensive Player of the Week five times, became the first FBS player to ever average at least 300.0 passing yards (311.5) and at least 60.0 rushing yards (71.5) per game for a full season. And he became just the second player to ever record at least 4,000 passing yards and at least 1,000 rushing yards in a campaign.

The speedy Murray led the nation in total offense (school-record 5,362 yards), points responsible for (324), yards per completion (16.8) and yards per pass attempt (single-season FBS record of 11.6). He also ranked second in passing efficiency rating (199.2; second best in FBS history).

Murray, who also won the 2018 Davey O'Brien Award, Manning Award and Earl Campbell Tyler Rose Award and was named AP Player of the Year, went on to become OU's second straight No. 1 overall pick in the NFL Draft, less than one year after being selected No. 9 overall by the Oakland A's in the Major League Baseball Draft. He became the first person ever selected in the first round of both drafts.

FIRST-TEAM ALL-AMERICANS (SINCE 2000)

Oklahoma players have earned first-team All-America honors 48 times since 2000. The total includes 26 players from the offense, 19 players on defense and three from special teams. Showing versatility, players at OU the last 26 years have earned All-America honors at 15 different positions. During that span, 23 Sooners have been named consensus All-Americans on 29 occasions.

2025 • TATE SANDELL • K

In his first year at OU after transferring from UTSA, Tate Sandell turned in perhaps the greatest kicking season in Sooners history. He became Oklahoma's first winner of the Lou Groza Award for best collegiate placekicker, and earned first-team All-America status from the FWAA and Sporting News.

During the 2025 season, Sandell set or tied 10 career or single-season school, conference, FBS or stadium records. He was named the SEC Special Teams Player of the Year and an All-SEC First Team selection.

After missing his first field goal attempt of the season, Sandell made 24 straight, including eight of 50-plus yards and 16 of 40-plus yards, tying FBS records. His four conversions of 55-plus yards were a school career record and led the nation. He ended the season making 24 of his 27 field goal attempts and all 35 of his PAT tries.

Sandell scored 107 of the team's 341 points (31%) and made at least one field goal in each the season's last 12 games.

One of the best OU linebackers of the 2000s, senior Danny Stutsman earned consensus All-America status in 2024 after picking up first-team honors from the AFCA and Walter Camp Foundation. He finished the season with a team-high 109 tackles, including 8.0 tackles for loss and a sack.

The Butkus Award finalist became the first Sooner since 2010 to register three straight 100-tackle seasons, finishing with 109 as a senior. He wrapped up his career with 376 tackles to rank ninth in OU history, and his 36.0 career tackles for loss tied him for fifth in school annals among inside linebackers.

Stutsman, who played in 47 career games and started all 37 of his contests over his last three seasons, served as a game captain 10 times over those final three campaigns, including six times in 2024, the same year he was named a winner of OU's prestigious Don Key Award.

2019 • CEEDEE LAMB • WR

After recording a gaudy 2,032 receiving yards and 33 receiving scores as a high school senior, CeeDee Lamb spent his three years in Norman validating his status as one of the country's top prep wideouts. And then some.

Lamb capped his incredibly productive collegiate career with a 2019 junior campaign that saw him earn consensus All-America honors (AP, FWAA, Sporting News and Walter Camp Foundation) and lead the Big 12 with his 21.4 yards per catch (ranked third nationally) and his 14 receiving touchdowns (fifth nationally). He also ranked 10th in the country with 102.1 receiving yards per game despite ranking 71st with 4.8 catches per contest. His six games of at least 135 receiving yards were the nation's second most.

The Most Outstanding Player of the 2019 Big 12 Championship, Lamb left OU ranked second in career receiving TDs (32) and third in career receiving yards (3,292) and career 100-yard receiving games (14) despite playing just three seasons (the Sooners won Big 12 titles and played in the College Football Playoff all three years). He was the first Big 12 player taken in the 2020 NFL Draft, going to the Dallas Cowboys in the first round (17th overall).

2018 • MARQUISE BROWN • WR

He was small in stature but huge when it came to on-field performance. Marquise Brown, who arrived at OU after one year of junior college standing 5-10 and weighing 148 pounds, eventually bulked up to 168 as a junior when he was named a first-team All-American by the Associated Press. One of the country's fastest players at any position, he had a penchant for making highlight-reel plays.

Brown's 2018 season was one of the best ever recorded by an OU receiver. The Biletnikoff Award semifinalist overcame multiple injuries to make 75 receptions for 1,318 yards (17.6 per catch) and 10 touchdowns. His receiving yardage total was the fourth-highest in school single-season history and he tied for the national lead in catches of 40-plus yards (11), 50-plus yards (seven) and 60-plus yards (four).

Nicknamed "Hollywood" (his hometown is Hollywood, Fla.), Brown holds the top two receiving performances in OU history, racking up 265 yards at Oklahoma State in 2017 and 243 yards at West Virginia in 2018. He also produced a 191-yard effort at Iowa State in 2018. He was a first-round selection (No. 25 overall) by the Baltimore Ravens in the 2019 NFL Draft.

2018 • KYLER MURRAY • QB

Blending lightning-quick feet with a strong and uncannily accurate arm, Kyler Murray delivered to college football viewers in 2018 things rarely observed prior to that season. His lone year as a full-time starter culminated with a Big 12 championship, a College Football Playoff appearance, a Heisman Trophy and first-team All-America honors from the AP and FWAA, as well as multiple school and NCAA records.

After being selected by the Oakland A's with the ninth overall pick in the 2018 Major League Baseball Draft, the two-sport star established the OU single-season record with 5,362 yards of total offense and set an FBS single-season standard with his 11.6 yards per pass attempt. He also became the first player in major college football history to average at least 300.0 passing yards (311.5) and at least 60.0 rushing yards (71.5) per game for a full season.

Murray led an OU offense that set the FBS single-season record for yards per play (8.6) and he became just the second player to ever record at least 4,000 passing yards (4,361) and at least 1,000 rushing yards (1,001) in a campaign.

The eventual No. 1 overall pick by the Arizona Cardinals, Murray is the only person ever selected in the first round of both the NFL and MLB Drafts.

2018 • BEN POWERS • OG

Ben Powers got an opportunity in his rookie year at OU as a sophomore and never looked back. An offensive guard who was barely recruited out of high school or junior college, Powers was inserted into the lineup when a teammate was injured in the third game of the 2016 season. Thirty-five starts later, Powers etched his name as one of the most accomplished OU offensive linemen of the 21st century. He was crowned a 2018 first-team All-American by the AFCA, FWAA, Sporting News and Walter Camp Foundation, becoming the Sooners' 81st consensus All-American.

Blocking for a pair of Heisman Trophy winners (quarterbacks Baker Mayfield in 2017 and Kyler Murray in 2018), Powers helped OU to Big 12 titles in each of his three seasons in Norman and to College Football Playoff appearances in his last two. As a senior, he played 829 snaps without giving up a sack, and was part of an offensive line that won the Joe Moore Award as the nation's top O-line unit. The two-time Academic All-Big 12 First Team member was selected in the fifth round of the 2019 NFL Draft by the Baltimore Ravens.

2017 • MARK ANDREWS • TE

Mark Andrews excelled as a freshman and was even better as a sophomore. And he dominated as a junior en route to becoming a unanimous first-team All-American and Oklahoma's first recipient of the Mackey Award (nation's top tight end) before leaving early for the NFL Draft.

Helping the Sooners to the College Football Playoff his first and last years in Norman, the big and athletic Andrews led OU with 62 catches and eight touchdown receptions as a junior. He was a nightmare to cover for both slower linebackers and smaller defensive backs, and he finished his career as OU's all-time leader in receiving yards among tight ends (1,765) while ranking sixth among all Sooners in touchdown catches (22).

The three-time Academic All-Big 12 honoree, who battled type 1 diabetes and monitored his blood sugar levels several times each game, excelled after the catch and scored a touchdown on 20 percent of his career receptions (22 of 112).

2017 • ORLANDO BROWN • OT

He only played three years at Oklahoma, but Orlando Brown was one of the most effective — and decorated — offensive linemen in school history. Known for his ultra-competitive nature and nasty demeanor on the field, he showcased an ability to shut down bull-rushes in pass protection and be a mauler in the run game.

Brown started at left tackle in all 40 of the Sooners' games from 2015 through 2017, and was the 2016 and '17 Big 12 Offensive Lineman of the Year. He was a Sporting News freshman All-American in 2015, an AP and FWAA second-team All-American in 2016, and a unanimous All-American and Outland Trophy finalist in 2017.

Protecting quarterback Baker Mayfield's blind side, it's no surprise the Sooners won Big 12 Championships each of their three years together and made a pair of College Football Playoff appearances.

2015 & 2017 • BAKER MAYFIELD • QB

From walk-on transfer to All-American to Heisman Trophy winner to No. 1 pick in the NFL Draft, Baker Mayfield was a revelation for Oklahoma in 2015 and simply got better with each season thereafter. He directed the Sooners to three consecutive Big 12 titles and the program's first two College Football Playoff appearances, and as a result left Norman as the most decorated player in program history.

With his gunslinger mentality and catch-me-if-you-can scrambling ability, Mayfield registered 4,105 total yards and 43 total touchdowns in his first year at OU, and was named Sporting News Player of the Year and a Sporting News and Walter Camp first-team All-American.

Statistically he was even better in 2016 when he accounted for 4,142 yards and 46 more scores in leading OU to a second straight Big 12 title and a Sugar Bowl win. A Heisman finalist, he also set the FBS single-season passing efficiency record with a 196.4 rating.

And in 2017, Mayfield led the FBS in completion percentage (.705), points responsible for (296) and yards per pass attempt (11.5), and broke his own FBS single-season record for pass efficiency rating (198.9). He also set the OU record for total offense (4,938 yards). All told that year, he accounted for 49 TDs and just six turnovers as he won the Heisman Trophy, earned his second Big 12 Offensive Player of the Year award and was a unanimous All-American.

2017 • OGBONNIA OKORONKWO • DE/LB

Ogbonnia Okoronkwo's career at Oklahoma didn't start with a bang, but boy did it end with one. The defensive end/outside linebacker totaled just 17 tackles over his first two seasons, then over his junior and senior campaigns racked up 147, spending ample time in opponent backfields.

An elite pass rusher who could beat offensive tackles with his speed on the edge but also had the power to win inside, Okoronkwo registered 17.0 sacks and 29.5 tackles for loss as a junior and senior to help the Sooners to a 23-4 record during that time.

Okoronkwo, whose parents emigrated from Nigeria, finished his career with 21.0 sacks to rank second in school history among linebackers, and in 2017 registered 8.0 sacks and 17.5 TFLs to earn first-team All-America honors by the Walter Camp Football Foundation and be named Co-Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year.

2016 • DEDE WESTBROOK • WR

Dede Westbrook did things in 2016 no Oklahoma receiver had ever done, and as a result became the Sooners' first unanimous All-American since 2004.

OU's first winner of the Biletnikoff Award and one of five Heisman Trophy finalists (he finished fourth), Westbrook set a single-season school record with his 17 receiving TDs as a senior, all of them coming in the final 10 games. They averaged a stunning 46.3 yards. His 12 TDs of at least 40 yards were the most in a season by an FBS player since at least 1996, and he recorded at least 100 receiving yards in eight of OU's nine Big 12 games (88 in the other).

Westbrook, who registered four straight games of multiple touchdowns to start October, led all Power 5 players in receiving yards (1,524) and receiving TDs per game (1.31) on the year. His 17 receiving scores over the last 10 games were more than 43 teams had the entire season. He averaged 145.7 receiving yards in Big 12 play, 50.0 more than the next closest player.

2015 • ERIC STRIKER • LB

The unquestioned heartbeat of the team, Eric Striker led the Sooners both on and off the field during his four years in Norman. The outspoken linebacker used his relentless motor and lightning-quick first step to rack up 23.0 career sacks, the most ever by an OU linebacker, 7.5 of which came in his senior season. Striker also logged 19.0 tackles for loss in leading OU's much improved defense to the 2015 Big 12 championship and a berth in the College Football Playoff.

Striker was named the winner of the 2015 Bob Kalsu Award, given annually to the Sooner who personifies Oklahoma legend Bob Kalsu's spirit of leadership and serving as a motivator and role model for his teammates. He took home All-America honors from Sporting News and Sports Illustrated and was also named first-team All-Big 12 by the league's coaches, AP and ESPN.com.

2013 • GABE IKARD • C

This Oklahoma City native always dreamed of starring for the Sooners. Originally recruited as a tight end, he cracked the lineup at left guard as a redshirt freshman before eventually finding his home at center as a sophomore in 2011. Ikard would start 50 games during his OU tenure, including 32 games at center.

A two-time team captain, Ikard anchored a blocking unit that helped pave the way for a rushing offense that averaged 223.9 ypg in 2013, the best total of the Stoops era. During his four-year tenure, Oklahoma won two Big 12 titles and a pair of BCS bowl games while registering 43 victories, the best total of any Big 12 team over that span.

The inaugural OU player to win both the Wuerffel Trophy and the Selmon Spirit Award, Ikard was also named a Capital One Academic All-American of the Year and a finalist for the Campbell Trophy.

2010 & 2011 • RYAN BROYLES • WR

A hometown product from Norman, Ryan Broyles rewrote the receiving section of the Oklahoma record books in his career. When the dust had settled on the season, Broyles held eight of the nine major receiving records in Oklahoma history, spanning from game records to career standards.

As a junior, he became just the third NCAA statistical champion in Oklahoma history as he led the nation with 9.36 receptions per game. He was also tops in total receptions with 131, 20 more than the next closest player.

Broyles' senior year saw the local receiver change the NCAA record books as he became the all-time receptions leader in college football history with his 349th reception, fittingly on a 57-yard touchdown play at Kansas.

2010 • QUINTON CARTER • S

One of the nicest guys off the field, Quinton Carter was anything but friendly on the field to opposing offensive players. The safety from Las Vegas was known for his ability to patrol passing lanes while delivering punishing hits to ballcarriers.

As much as he was known on the field, Carter was also well known off the field and in the community. Having started a foundation during his collegiate playing career, Carter was awarded the Wooden Citizenship Cup and was named to the American Football Coaches Association 11-member Good Works Team.

Despite only starting for two seasons, Carter is one of just two defensive backs in Oklahoma history with two seasons of at least 88 tackles and the only player to accomplish the feat in back-to-back seasons.

2009 • TRENT WILLIAMS • OT

A consensus All-American in 2009, Trent Williams earned the reputation as one of the most versatile offensive linemen to play on Owen Field.

Named to the All-American First Team by the Associated Press, American Football Coaches Association and the Walter Camp Foundation and first-team All-Big 12 by six organizations, Williams was the ringleader of the OU offensive line in 2009.

After starting at right tackle for the better part of his first three collegiate years, Williams slid across the line his final year to protect the blind side of Sam Bradford and Landry Jones.

When injuries left the Sooners with no available centers in the Sun Bowl against Stanford, Williams answered the call in the middle as the Oklahoma offensive line gave up no sacks in a win against the Cardinal.

2008 • SAM BRADFORD • QB

As the leader of the most potent and highest-scoring offense in NCAA history (716 points), Sam Bradford rewrote the Oklahoma record books on a continual basis throughout the 2008 season while lighting up scoreboards like an employee of General Electric.

Known for his poise in the pocket and pinpoint accuracy, Bradford posted one of best ever touchdown-to-interception ratios (6.25-to-1) in the history of college football.

When the dust had settled on the 2008 season, Bradford led the nation in passing efficiency and touchdowns, was No. 3 nationally in passing yards, set the OU season records for yards, touchdowns, passing efficiency, 200-yard games, 300-yard games and 400-yard games, along with breaking the career record for TD passes.

OU'S CONSENSUS AND UNANIMOUS ALL-AMERICANS

• Oklahoma has produced 83 consensus All-Americans, a number that trails only Notre Dame (113), Yale (100; all before 1945), Ohio State (99), Harvard (89; all before 1942), Michigan (89), Alabama (87) and USC (86).

• According to the NCAA Records Book, to be named a consensus All-American, a player has to be listed on the first team for more than half the All-America teams used in the compilation. If not enough players meet this criterion at a position, a player can be selected if named first team on at least two of the All-America teams. Second and third teams are used to break ties. In the case of a true tie, all players are listed. Since 2002, the following organizations have been used to compile the consensus team: American Football Coaches Association, Associated Press, Football Writers Association of America, Sporting News and Walter Camp Foundation.

• OU has produced 35 unanimous All-Americans, trailing only Ohio State (42), Alabama (41) and Notre Dame (38). The Sooners are followed by USC (32) and Michigan (30). Unanimous All-Americans are those who earn first-team All-America status by every official selector (American Football Coaches Association, Associated Press, Football Writers Association of America, Sporting News and Walter Camp Foundation since 2002).

• In 2017, OU became the first program to produce three unanimous All-Americans on offense in one season: tight end Mark Andrews, tackle Orlando Brown and quarterback Baker Mayfield.

2008 • JERMAINE GRESHAM • TE

The first tight end to earn All-America honors under Bob Stoops, Jermaine Gresham turned in a record-setting season in 2008 when he was a finalist for the Mackey Award and a member of The Sporting News All-America team.

A matchup nightmare for opposing defensive coordinators, Gresham had more TDs (14) and receiving yards (950) in a season than any other tight end in OU history.

Named first team All-Big 12 by the conference coaches, Gresham exceeded 90 yards in five games and five receptions in eight games. When the team needed it the most, Gresham performed, racking up 25 catches, 302 yards and four touchdowns in the final three games of the season.

2008 & 2009 • GERALD McCOY • DT

With the habit of collapsing the opposing team's pocket by attacking through the interior of the line, it was no surprise that Gerald McCoy was named an All-American in 2008 by both The Sporting News and Sports Illustrated.

One year later the Oklahoma City native followed up the performance by becoming Oklahoma's latest consensus All-American and the 35th two-time All-American in OU history.

Both years saw McCoy as the anchor of the Sooners' defensive tackle rotation, leading the group and finishing second on the team each year in sacks.

McCoy's presence was never more felt than in the 2009 FedEx BCS National Championship game where he constantly harassed the Florida offense while grabbing his first career interception.

2007 & 2008 • DUKE ROBINSON • OG

A consensus All-American in both 2007 and 2008, Duke Robinson built a reputation as one of the best offensive linemen to pass through Norman.

A 2008 Outland Award finalist, Robinson became a two-time consensus All-American by being named a first-team member to four All-America teams (Associated Press, Football Writers Association of America, The Sporting News and the Walter Camp Foundation) and earned first-team All-Big 12 honors from five outlets.

Robinson was a first-team member of four All-America teams in 2007 (AP, American Football Coaches' Association, The Sporting News and Sports Illustrated), and earned first-team All-Big 12 honors from eight different outlets.

The Atlanta, Ga., native took to the field early, playing in 10 games as a true freshman. From blowing open holes for Adrian Peterson to giving Sam Bradford time in the pocket, the versatile Robinson proved his worth as a member of three consecutive Big 12 Championship teams.

2007 • CURTIS LOFTON • LB

For a definition of a breakout season, see Curtis Lofton, 2007.

In his first season atop the depth chart, the junior from Kingfisher, Okla., put together one of the top seasons ever for an Oklahoma linebacker and was rewarded with a consensus All-American tag.

Lofton led Oklahoma with 156 tackles, sixth-best in program history, and established a school record with nine double-digit tackles including a career-high 18 tackles in the team's first meeting against Missouri.

The 2007 Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year, Lofton had a knack for forcing critical turnovers against big time opponents, never more evident than his interception of Missouri's Chase Daniel in the Big 12 Championship.

The one season of stardom paid off for Lofton, as the linebacker was OU's first selection in the 2008 NFL Draft, going in the third round to the Atlanta Falcons.

2006 • RUFUS ALEXANDER • LB

Linebacker Rufus Alexander was named first team All-America by the American Football Coaches' Association at the conclusion of the 2006 season.

The Baton Rouge, La., native led the Sooner defense in 2006 with 118 tackles (75 solo), including 12 for loss (-43 yards). Alexander was also credited with 3.5 quarterback sacks, four forced fumbles (two recoveries) and an interception.

Alexander had 36 starts in his career, including every game of the 2006 and 2005 seasons. He played in 39 total games for the Sooners from 2003-06 after redshirting in 2002. The 2006 Big 12 Conference Defensive Player of the Year, Alexander became the first OU player to lead the team in tackles in back-to-back seasons since Rocky Calmus did so in three consecutive seasons from 1999-2001.

2004 • ADRIAN PETERSON • RB

Adrian Peterson set an NCAA freshman rushing record for most rushing yards with the third-highest figure in the nation for the season. He also eclipsed the OU standard for most rushing yards in a season.

Peterson had what was then the highest finish ever by a freshman in the Heisman voting (second) and was the first freshman to be named a finalist for the Doak Walker Award. He was a consensus All-American.

Peterson broke three NCAA freshman rushing records: most consecutive 100-yard rushing games (9), most total 100-yard rushing games (11) and most rushing attempts by a freshman with 314.

2004 • VINCE CARTER • C

A two-time finalist for the Rimington Award as the nation's top center, Vince Carter was a four-year fixture at Oklahoma. He was rewarded as a senior when he was named to the prestigious Walter Camp All-America team.

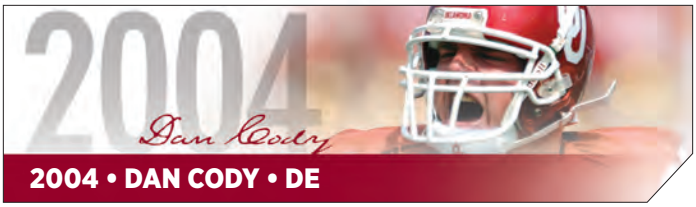

The Waco, Texas, native stepped in as a freshman when Josh Smith went out with an injury in 2001 and went on to start at center for the Sooners for four seasons.

He earned first-team All-Big 12 Conference honors in 2003 and 2004.

As a senior in 2004, Carter helped pave the way for running back Adrian Peterson and protected quarterback Jason White — both Heisman Trophy finalists — as the Sooners completed a second consecutive undefeated regular season and won the 2004 Big 12 Conference Championship.

ADRIAN PETERSON

▶ A consensus first-team All-American in 2004, he set NCAA freshman records that season for rushing yards (1,925), 100-yard rushing games (11) and consecutive 100-yard rushing games (nine). He was also the Heisman Trophy runner-up.

2004 • DAN CODY • DE

Dan Cody was so destructive as a senior that OU coaches devised a special position for him. Cody, at times, stood up from his defensive end spot to play a spinner role. In that capacity, he roamed the defensive front and menaced opposing offenses. At season's end, he had the top sack total in the Big 12 with 10 and a spot on the FWAA's All-America team. Cody was a two-time finalist for the Hendricks Award who was noted for his all-out effort.

2003 & 2004 • JAMMAL BROWN • OT

A dominating senior season led to Jammal Brown earning Oklahoma's fourth Outland Trophy. He followed that up as a first-round pick (No. 13) by the New Orleans Saints.

He did not allow a sack or hurry during the regular season while logging a team-best 130 knockdown blocks. At season's end Brown was a consensus All-American.

As a junior, Brown had the highest line grade in a year when the offense had one of the most productive seasons in school history. The performance landed the Lawton native on the American Football Coaches Association's first team All-America squad.

Brown had 127 knockdowns and ran his string of consecutive starts to 28 during the season.

2003 & 2004 • MARK CLAYTON • WR

Noted as one of the great stories of progress in OU history, Mark Clayton went from struggling to bench press 135 pounds in his first workout to twice being named an All-American. By the time his career was over, he held virtually every Sooner receiving record and was widely regarded as the best to ever play the position at the school.

After a wildly successful junior year, Clayton's numbers dipped somewhat as a senior, but that was attributable to an improved running game and a deeper receiving corps. He still led OU in receptions and yards and was named to the AFCA All-America team. Moreover, when punt returner Antonio Perkins was injured, Clayton added that role and took back one for a touchdown at Oklahoma State. As a junior, Clayton built a reputation as perhaps the most elusive receiver in the nation with 533 yards after catch. He set OU standards with 83 receptions for 1,425 yards and broke the school mark for receiving yards in a game with 190 against Texas.

2003 • DERRICK STRAIT • CB

Derrick Strait duplicated former OU great Roy Williams by winning the Nagurski (best defensive player) and Thorpe (best defensive back) Awards in 2003. Strait earned consensus All-American and All-Big 12 honors as a senior. He was named AP Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year.

Strait set school records for starts (53), career interception return yards (397) and passes broken up (53). The Austin native ignited Oklahoma's 65-13 win over Texas in 2003 with a season-high 11 tackles, an interception, a 30-yard return, two fumble recoveries and three pass deflections against the Longhorns. Strait was a Thorpe Award semifinalist and consensus first team All-Big 12 selection in 2002.

He started every game at corner and tied for the OU lead with six interceptions. He contributed immediately as a redshirt freshman and was named Big 12 Conference Defensive Newcomer of the Year in OU's 2000 national championship season.

2003 • ANTONIO PERKINS • RS

Antonio Perkins became the nation's most feared punt returner by re-writing the NCAA record book during his junior season. He set an NCAA mark with four returns for touchdowns on the season, including an NCAA-record three against UCLA.

He also set an NCAA mark with 277 punt return yards against the Bruins. His other touchdown return, which tied the NCAA career mark at seven, came against Missouri. The returns were spectacular too, with lengths of 84, 74 and 65 against UCLA and 65 against Missouri.

Perkins, who also started every game at cornerback and had two interceptions on the season, finished No. 20 in the nation in return average, but that figure was diluted by the fact that his 53 attempts out-distanced the rest of the country's returners by at least eight.

2003 • JASON WHITE • QB

From two reconstructive knee surgeries in successive years to consensus All-American. That was the out-of-the-blue story for Jason White, who wasn't even announced as the team's starter until the summer before the 2003 season. He posted mind-boggling numbers, the most impressive of which were the 40 touchdowns and just 10 interceptions.

White proved particularly adept at completing the long ball and set a school season record with 17 hookups of 40 or more yards. He completed 50 percent or more of his passes in all but two games and was over 60 percent nine times, including 16-of-21 against Texas and 16-of-18 vs. Texas A&M. He fired five TD strikes against both Iowa State and A&M and had a career-high 394 passing yards against Texas Tech.

2002 & 2003 • TOMMIE HARRIS • DT

Tommie Harris rose to the pinnacle of his position in his junior season, which would be his last at OU. He departed for the NFL after just three years in Norman. As a junior, he continued to rocket into opposing backfields with his uncanny quickness. Harris had 10 tackles for loss and 19 quarterback hurries.

After finishing as a finalist for the Lombardi Award one year earlier, he won the coveted piece of hardware in his final Sooner season. He also was one of four finalists for the Nagurski Award, which went to teammate Derrick Strait. Harris' sophomore season was impressive despite an injury. Slowed by a groin pull suffered in August, he still faced regular double teams.

Harris was named to three All-America squads and was named a finalist for the Bednarik Award. He was the 14th overall selection in the 2004 draft by the Chicago Bears.

2002 • BRANDON EVERAGE • FS

Free safety Brandon Everage earned All-America honors after a stellar junior campaign in 2002.

Six interceptions, with 107 yards in returns, would indicate that Everage understood the centerfield nature of his position. The 94 tackles, third-most on the team, speak to the linebacker-like mentality with which the Oklahoma free safety played. It was that combination of abilities that landed Everage on the All-America rolls.

Everage recorded 60 tackles in 2003 (44 solo) including four for loss and one sack. He also nabbed one interception with four passes broken up.

2002 & 2003 • TEDDY LEHMAN • LB

Determining the greatest linebacker in OU history is a tough chore. With Teddy Lehman in the mix, determining the fastest is much easier. That speed, which made him an outstanding high school sprinter, set the Sooner backer apart from his peers. He capped a brilliant career by winning the Butkus and Bednarik Awards after finishing as a finalist for each just one year earlier. His ability to get from sideline to sideline caught a lot of attention...and ball carriers. As a senior, he had 117 tackles, including 19 for 47 yards in losses.

As a junior, Lehman logged 112 tackles, including 17 for loss. He also had two interceptions, which went for 51 yards in returns, including one that set up the go-ahead touchdown against Texas. His one-yard return against Texas as a sophomore, the one that came on the back end of a play that saw Roy Williams leap a blocker to disrupt Longhorn QB Chris Simms, is one of the most memorable plays in school history. He was picked in the second round of the 2004 draft by the Detroit Lions.

2001 • JEFF FERGUSON • P

Most punters are known for the length and/or the accuracy of their kicks. Jeff Ferguson was outstanding in both areas. But Ferguson separated himself with athletic ability and intelligent play that made him the complete player at his position. He ended his career as the school record holder for punting average in a career and became just the second player in school history to average more than 40 yards in each of his four seasons. The length of the kicks did not come at the expense of accuracy. Twenty-one of his 71 senior season punts were downed inside the 20-yard line.

The thunderous punts and the balls that trickled dead deep in enemy territory will be secondary as time remembers Ferguson's career, though. In his junior season, he made a brilliant play in the national championship game against Florida State, turning a bad snap into a safety rather than an opportunity for the Seminoles to get back into the game by recovering the ball in the end zone.

2001 • FRANK ROMERO • OT

Frank Romero didn't take the conventional path to All-America status.

A tight end and defensive lineman in high school, he never played on the offensive line until his sophomore year at OU. He started the team's final four games that season (Bob Stoops' first as head coach) before starting all 13 games at left tackle in 2000 as the Sooners went undefeated and claimed their seventh national title. As a senior in 2001, he again started all 13 games and earned All-America honors from CNNSI as OU went 11-2 and won the Cotton Bowl.

Romero, who played on the defensive line and made 19 tackles as a freshman in 1998 under head coach John Blake, switched to the other side of the ball during 1999 training camp due to a lack of depth on the offensive line. By the time he finished his collegiate career he had racked up a string of 30 consecutive starts under coordinators Mike Leach and Mark Mangino, helping the Sooners to a 26-4 record in those contests.

The Moore, Okla., product was a two-time first-team All-Big 12 pick (2000 and '01), and protected 2000 AP Player of the Year and Heisman Trophy runner-up Josh Heupel.

2001 • ROY WILLIAMS • SS

By the time his career was over, Roy Williams was more feared by offensive opponents and more respected by his defensive peers than any player in the country.

In his final season at Oklahoma, he won the Nagurski Award as the nation's top defender and the Thorpe Award as the nation's top defensive back. He was No. 7 in the Heisman Trophy voting, the highest finish of the year by a non-quarterback.

Williams bypassed his senior season of eligibility to enter the NFL draft, but still left his mark on the OU record book. He was drafted in the first round (No. 8 pick overall) in the 2002 NFL Draft by the Dallas Cowboys.

2000 & 2001 • ROCKY CALMUS • LB

Only a few players define their position, but that is precisely what Rocky Calmus meant to college football. As a senior, he won the Dick Butkus Award as the nation's top linebacker, but also was a finalist for the Nagurski and Bednarik Awards as the nation's best defender and the Lombardi Award as the country's top interior player. His senior year total of 117 tackles vaulted him into Oklahoma's top five career tacklers and capped an incredible career.

As a junior, he was named the toughest player in college football by The Sporting News during the Sooners' 2000 national championship season. OU's all-time leader in tackles for a loss by a linebacker, Calmus was named Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year by the Associated Press and was a finalist for the Butkus Award. A first-team All-Big 12 selection in each of his last three seasons, Calmus led the squad in tackles in each of those years. He was drafted in the third round of the 2002 draft by the Tennessee Titans.

2000 • JOSH HEUPEL • QB

The runner-up for the 2000 Heisman Trophy, Josh Heupel became Oklahoma's first consensus All-America quarterback and the first Sooner QB to earn All-America honors since Jack Mildren in 1971.

As team captain his two years with the Sooners, Heupel is largely credited with turning an offense that statistically ranked as one of the worst in the nation before his arrival into one of the country's most explosive.

Heupel was named Associated Press Player of the Year, Walter Camp Player of the Year, The Sporting News Player of the Year, CBS Sports Player of the Year, Big 12 Player of the Year and Big 12 Offensive Player of the Year in 2000.

The first-team all-conference selection guided OU to a school-record 13 wins and its seventh national championship. Heupel left with virtually every OU and numerous Big 12 passing records.

2000 • J.T. THATCHER • FS/PR/KR

A standout on both defense and special teams, J.T. Thatcher was named an All-American as both a defensive back and returner. The Mosi Tatupu Special Teams Player of the Year Award winner, Thatcher was one of only seven players to return two or more punts for a touchdown in 2000 and ranked ninth nationally in punt return average.

A four-time Big 12 Special Teams Player of the Week selection, Thatcher set OU's single-game (160) and single-season (599) records for punt return yards. He also posted the second-highest single-game kickoff return yard total with 150, including a 93-yard return to set up OU's go-ahead touchdown against second-ranked Kansas State.

Thatcher was a semifinalist for the Jim Thorpe Award and tied school records for interceptions in a game (3) and season (8).

 Consensus All-American*

NOTING OU'S ALL-AMERICANS

- Since the year 2000, Oklahoma has produced 48 first-team All-Americans. Of the 48, 29 were consensus picks. Before 2000, the Sooners had not produced a consensus All-American since 1988.
- The most total All-Americans in one season came in 1974 and 1975 when eight Sooners were so honored. There were seven during the 2003 season.
- In 2003, OU set a record when six Sooners were named to the FWAA All-America team.
- Oklahoma had at least one All-American in 18 consecutive seasons from 1971 to 1988. There was also a 14-year stretch from 1946 to 1959.
- Three sets of brothers have been All-Americans at OU: Lee Roy, Dewey and Lucious Selmon all earned the honor, as did Steve and Tinker Owens and Buddy and Kurt Burris.
- Eight Sooner All-Americans went on to serve as assistant coaches at OU: Leon Cross, Eddie Crowder, Frank "Pop" Ivy, Claude Reeds, J.D. Roberts, Lucious Selmon, Jackie Shipp and Josh Heupel.

JOSEPH HARROZ JR.

PRESIDENT, UNIVERSITY OF OKLAHOMA

Serving the University of Oklahoma for over 30 years in various leadership roles, Joseph Harroz Jr. was named the 15th president of OU on May 9, 2020. Harroz's previous service to the university includes a one-year term as interim president, nine years as dean of the College of Law, 12 years as general counsel and two years as vice president for executive affairs.

Under Harroz's leadership, OU has ambitiously pursued the fulfillment of its "Lead On, University" Strategic Plan, sparking an era of excellence and elevating OU's position as a top-tier public research university. Continuing this bold trajectory, the next phase of the Strategic Plan embraces transformative new aspirations that reaffirm OU's commitment to the highest levels of academic excellence, research innovation, student success, patient care and service to our state and beyond. Learn more at ou.edu/leadon.

OU continues to lead the state by attracting students in record numbers. The university is on track for a fourth straight year of record Oklahoma freshman enrollment and a sixth consecutive record total freshman class. Across all OU campuses, Fall 2025 enrollment increased 5.8% over the previous year — the university's fastest growth in half a century. This unprecedented growth reflects what students and families see in OU: a place where excellence, opportunity, and affordability converge.

As the state's leading research enterprise and largest engine of discovery, OU is advancing an impact-focused vision for research that strengthens Oklahoma and changes lives. Research at OU has grown more than 70% in six years, making OU one of the fastest-growing research universities in the nation.

THE HARROZ FAMILY

OU Health has emerged as a national model for transformation, delivering world-class health care, training tomorrow's health professionals and driving discoveries that redefine medicine.

An abundance of other successes have come to life since the Strategic Plan's introduction — the announcement of a historic $2 billion fundraising campaign, a continued focus on balancing excellence with affordability, the addition of premier freshman housing, entering the SEC and more.

A native Oklahoman, Harroz graduated Phi Beta Kappa from OU in 1989 with a Bachelor of Arts degree in economics and a minor in zoology. He earned his J.D. in 1992 from Georgetown University Law Center.

Harroz, a grandson of Lebanese immigrants to Oklahoma, is father to Joseph, Zara and Jude, and is married to Ashley Harroz.

ROGER DENNY

VICE PRESIDENT FOR INTERCOLLEGIATE ATHLETICS PROGRAMS AND DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

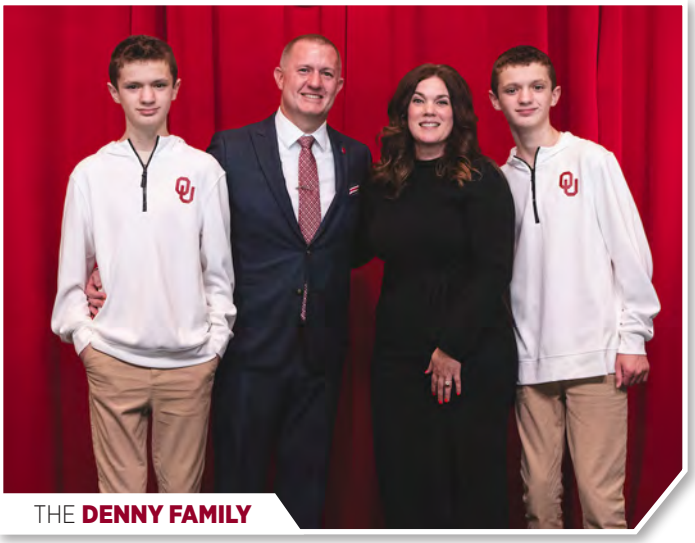

A key appointment at a defining moment in college sports, Roger Denny was announced as the University of Oklahoma's Vice President for Intercollegiate Athletics Programs and Director of Athletics on Jan. 23, 2026. He began his term Feb. 15, 2026.

Oklahoma's 12th athletics director, Denny experienced immediate competitive success upon his arrival in Norman, as OU earned four conference championships (men's and women's gymnastics, softball and women's tennis) and two national titles (women's gymnastics and baseball). Additionally, OU student-athletes registered a program-record 3.33 cumulative GPA during the spring semester, with each of the Sooners' 19 sports programs posting better than a 3.00 cumulative GPA.

Denny was a successful corporate attorney for nearly 15 years before transitioning to college sports administration. He came to OU from the University of Illinois, where he was hired as Chief Operating Officer and Executive Senior Associate Athletics Director, and later earned the title of Deputy Director of Athletics. From the time he arrived in Champaign-Urbana in 2021, he oversaw business strategy and department operations and was a key player in one of the most dramatic turnaround stories in college athletics.

At Illinois, Denny served as sport administrator for football, which set a two-year program record by winning 19 games over the 2024 and '25 seasons. The school's four-year growth in season ticket sales, student season tickets and average attendance over his term was among the best in the country. The Fighting Illini men's basketball program was also highly successful during Denny's U of I tenure, winning a regular season Big Ten championship and two conference tournament titles, and the women's basketball program experienced a national resurgence by averaging over 20 wins from the 2022-23 through 2024-25 seasons (it averaged nine victories the previous seven years) and making two NCAA Tournament appearances.

Denny oversaw all athletics business operations at Illinois, including a budget that approached $200 million, and played a central role in the department's name-image-likeness strategy, which expanded opportunities for U of I student-athletes. He became increasingly involved in fundraising and was a key member of the team that secured a $100 million gift announced in fall 2025, the largest in school history. He also led Illinois' facilities planning, highlighted by extensive upgrades to Gies Memorial Stadium, and served as the athletics department's primary representative in all head coach contract negotiations.

Also in his role as Chief Operating Officer, Denny supervised the department's internal operations. Additional areas of oversight included human resources, data and business intelligence and sports technology. He also oversaw revenue operations roles, including corporate sponsorships and licensing, as well as public facilities, housing, parking and athletics camps and clinics.

A tax lawyer by training, Denny's expansive law practice included representation of clients in labor and employment negotiations, executive compensation structuring, corporate finance matters, mergers and acquisitions and licensing transactions. Immediately before joining the Illini, he was a partner at Spencer Fane LLP in St. Louis. His legal experience includes the representation of college athletics departments and sports businesses in a wide variety of complex transactions. Additionally, in collective bargaining matters, he performed management-side work with non-sports clients and talent-side work with athletes and entertainers.

Denny earned a bachelor's degree from Southeast Missouri State University, a law degree from St. Louis University and an LLM in tax law from Washington University in St. Louis.

A North Carolina native who moved to Missouri as a youth, Denny and his wife, Alecia, have twin sons, Trey and Michael.

GAUTT ACADEMIC CENTER

7 NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIPS • 50 CONFERENCE CHAMPIONSHIPS • 59 BOWL APPEARANCES

The Prentice Gautt Academic Center provides student-athletes with comprehensive academic support services that promote excellence. The environment encourages a collaboration between staff members and student-athletes. In addition, it is highly conducive to learning in all areas of students' academic endeavors and features a variety of learning centers.

Located on the second and third floors in the north end of Gaylord Family – Oklahoma Memorial Stadium, the Academic Center houses academic advising offices, a computer center and learning and skill development centers for writing, study skills, math, foreign languages and career preparation.

ACADEMIC ADVISING

Athletics Academic Advising is considered a campus-advising unit. It is conveniently located within the Academic Center. The athletics department employs six professional, full-time advisors who support student-athletes through the educational process.

It is important that student-athletes utilize these services. Advisors assist student-athletes with planning their class schedules and choosing a degree program that will suit their educational and professional interests. In addition, they help student-athletes with career planning, setting academic goals, academic support strategies and personal counseling.

KERR SOONER CAREER CENTER

Whether student-athletes are new to OU, preparing to graduate or are proud alumni, they will benefit from the services of the Kerr Sooner Career Center. It provides a system of services that educates and guides students through the career development process.

The Career Center is dedicated to helping student-athletes make the transition from college to career by developing an individualized career plan. Opportunities are provided for student-athletes to gain the knowledge and skills necessary for resume writing and interviewing techniques. Additionally, staff provide guidance for student-athletes preparing to take graduate program entrance examinations including the GMAT, GRE, LSAT and MCAT. The center is also linked to OU Career Services on campus, which offers effective job-hunting skills, online resume services, training and career resources.

MATH AND TUTORING CENTER

The tutoring program provides support to student-athletes in both lower- and upper-division classes in order to ensure successful completion of courses. Tutors are available to assist in a wide array of subject areas, for individual or small group sessions. As a supplement to class instruction, the center provides support with all levels of math concepts and problems to help review course material and offers personal and group tutoring sessions to reinforce math concepts.

KERR FOUNDATION FOREIGN LANGUAGE CENTER

The Foreign Language Center offers a multi-media environment designed to enhance the learning experience in all foreign languages offered at OU, including Native American languages and English as a second language. Tutors are available during lab hours to clarify grammatical concepts and to engage in conversation practice in the target language. In addition to learning a second language in the Foreign Language Center, student-athletes can gather information and prepare to participate in one of OU's study abroad programs.

KERR FOUNDATION COMPUTER CENTER

Computers are an integral part of the learning experience. The Computer Center meets the technological needs of each student-athlete, while supplying state-of-the-art equipment along with the support necessary to succeed.

The Computer Center provides student-athletes with access to desktop and laptop machines that include a complete array of educational software to help them excel in the classroom. The same resources are available through the laptop program, which maintains an inventory available for check-out throughout each semester.

ASSISTANT ACADEMIC ADVISORS AND LEARNING SPECIALIST PROGRAM

Assistant academic advisors and learning specialists work with student-athletes in individualized sessions on key skills that are important in developing the whole student. One of the most essential skills that is encouraged and practiced in a session is time management. Student-athletes often experience a steep learning curve when trying to balance academics and athletics, so it is pertinent to learn this skill to become successful students and athletes.

Assistant academic advisors and learning specialists also help students learn useful study techniques such as note-taking and test-taking strategies as well as improve problem solving strategies. They teach students how to utilize their unique learning style to maximize time spent studying for their classes.

GRIT PROGRAM

GRIT (Growing Resilient Innovative Thinkers) is a program for all incoming freshmen. Student-athletes are teamed with a GRIT mentor who is focused on high-impact learning strategies to empower student-athletes to feel and find success in reading, math, study skills, and writing. The program builds on the student-athlete's voice, learning style and academic foundation in the individualized sessions to allow ownership in the educational process as we celebrate a lifelong journey full of growth, resilience, innovation and thinking.

THOMPSON WRITING CENTER

The Writing Center offers one-on-one conferences focused on writing for all disciplines, and can assist with the organization, style, and clarity of papers. Writing consultants can help review basic writing strategies, develop proofreading skills and help students become better writers. The goal is to help student-athletes develop the strategies they need to be successful by encouraging the use of the center for all facets of the learning and writing processes encountered in college.

'Neath a western sky
OU's chant will never die.
Live on University!

OKLAHOMA SOONERS

While many people know the nickname Oklahoma Sooners is uniquely linked to the University of Oklahoma and has become synonymous with excellence, some aren't aware of the roots, which reach to our state's Indian Territory origins. Originally the home of several tribal nations of the Southern Plains, Congress set aside Indian Territory in 1830 as part of its forcible relocation of numerous tribal nations from their ancestral homelands via the Trail of Tears. Following the U.S. Civil War, some tribal nations lost portions of their new land in Indian Territory due to renegotiated treaties, which became known as the Unassigned Lands.

Pioneers, known as Boomers, vigorously campaigned to settle the Unassigned Lands, which were later incorporated into Oklahoma Territory. Oklahoma Territory and Indian Territory became known as the Twin Territories. Famously, Oklahoma Territory was opened for settlement through land claims races, or Land Runs, and in 1889, thousands made their way to the Twin Territories to participate in the first of these dramatic events. Each race began with a pistol shot, and those who jumped the gun were called Sooners. Later, Indian Territory was opened for non-native settlement, and in 1907 the Twin Territories were merged into one state – Oklahoma – which is the joining of two Choctaw words, "okla" and "homma," meaning "red people" or American Indian.

Due to the enthusiasm of many pioneers and their descendants, Sooner came to denote energetic, "can-do" individuals. The university embraces the complexity of our heritage. OU athletics teams were called either Rough Riders or Boomers for 10 years before the current Oklahoma Sooner nickname emerged in 1908. Taken together, Oklahoma Sooners reflects our state's American Indian and pioneer heritage and, today, symbolizes a special university spirit that values resilience and perseverance as well as the inclusivity that unites all who are a part of the University of Oklahoma family.

CRIMSON AND CREAM

In the fall of 1895, Miss May Overstreet was asked to chair a committee to select the colors of the university. The committee decided the colors should be crimson and cream and an elaborate display of the colors was draped above a platform before the student body. The students approved with great enthusiasm and immediately pennants, banners and decorations of every description appeared on the streets, in the windows, at chapel, in classrooms and all public places around campus.

SOONER SCHOONER

The Sooner Schooner is a Conestoga, or covered wagon, reminiscent of the mode of travel used by pioneers who settled Oklahoma. The Schooner is powered by matching white ponies named Boomer and Sooner, and it ventures onto Owen Field in a triumphant victory ride after OU scores. Although the Schooner was introduced in 1964, it did not become the official mascot until 1980. The Schooner is well-recognized by college athletics fans across the country and makes regular appearances at university functions.

BOOMER SOONER!

In 1905, Arthur M. Alden, a student in history and physiology whose father was a Norman jeweler, wrote the lyrics to the fight song, borrowing the tune from Yale University's 'Boola Boola' but improvising the words. A year later, an addition was made to it from North Carolina's 'I'm a Tarheel Born' and the two combined to form the university's fight song today. Though the tune was first made known by Yale, the everlasting success of Sooner squads has taken the melody of 'Boomer Sooner' to national popularity.

OKLAHOMA!

The Pride of Oklahoma plays perhaps the most popular and recognizable state song in history. Oklahoma! is the final rousing chorus of Rodgers and Hammerstein's epic musical. Breaking all Broadway box office records when it opened in 1943, Oklahoma! was the first collaboration between the legendary pair who were awarded a Pulitzer Prize for their seminal work.

THE OU CHANT

Every fan who wears the official colors, each current student and student-athlete and all OU alumni are encouraged to stand and raise one finger in the air during the playing of the Chant – a symbolic gesture that shows the greatness of the university and the unity between all Sooners. The Chant was written in 1936 by Jessie Lone Clarkson Gilkey, who directed the OU girl's glee club from 1936 to 1938 and was voted Outstanding Faculty Woman in 1937.
