John Cox

Director of Sports Broadcasting
"Voice of the Golden Eagles"

Veteran sportscaster John Cox, Director of Sports Broadcasting, is in his 42nd season at the University of Southern Mississippi.

Among his many duties at Southern Miss, Cox handles the play-by-play broadcasts of Golden Eagle football, basketball and baseball. He has also hosts the former Southern Miss Sports Today television show, pregame radio shows and Golden Eagle Hotline radio call-in shows.

Prior to moving to the radio booth, Cox called the play-by-play on delayed telecasts of Southern Miss basketball from 1978 to 1981. In 1982, he handled the radio play-by-play duties for Golden Eagle football and switched back to the delayed television broadcasts of Southern Miss football for three years before assuming his current radio responsibilities.

In 1982, Cox began broadcasting Southern Miss baseball games and over the years, he also has handled broadcasts of Southern Miss women's basketball and has worked on the Fox Sports Net South and Comcast Sports Southeast (CSS) telecasts of Southern Miss baseball.

Six times he has been selected as Mississippi's Sportscaster of the Year, most recently in 2012.

A native of Middletown, Ohio, Cox received his bachelor's degree in radio, television and film from Southern Miss in 1978. He has two daughters, Joye, a graduate of Millsaps College, and Erin, a student at Southern Miss.

Miss campus and works closely with the Southern Miss athletics staff to develop, produce, and sell all sponsorship and promotional activities surrounding Golden Eagle Athletics.

The sales team, which has enjoyed great success and was cited by the organization as having the highest percentage growth of its corporate sponsorship production of any of the athletic programs represented in the company in 2005, is headed by Jamie Martin, Assistant Vice President/General Manager, who has been with the IMG team since 2003 and who also was graduated at Southern Miss. In 2005, she was the recipient of the "President's Cup" as the outstanding sales representative in the company. Recently, Hunter White joined the staff as an Account Executive, succeeding Jeremy Ward who became (now-Senior) Account Executive in June of 2012. Broadcasts of Southern Miss athletics can be heard throughout the state of Mississippi and into parts of Louisiana, Alabama, Arkansas, and the Florida panhandle. The baseball program enjoyed unprecedented coverage in its 2009 postseason with its largest ever network, which included five stations during its College World Series run.

Partnered with Blakeney communications, WXRR-FM "Rock 104" (104.5) in Hattiesburg-Laurel, boasting a powerful 100,000 watt signal, will again serve as the flagship station for the network broadcasting football, basketball, and select baseball games. Another Blakeney Communications station, WXHB-FM (96.5), will be the home for both women's basketball and baseball.

In addition to producing the Southern Miss radio network, IMG markets the official Internet site (SouthernMiss.com), the weekly coaches' radio call-in show (Golden Eagle Hotline), coaches' television shows (Southern Miss Sports Today), venue signage, video board advertising, venue promotional opportunities, game programs, the official athletic newspaper (The Screamin' Eagle) and corporate hospitality. In addition, IMG made it possible for the purchase of a new state-of-the-art videoboard at M.M. Roberts Stadium, as well as a marquee on 4th Street by Green Coliseum.

IMG was founded in 1992 by current company president Ben Sutton and is the rights holder for more than 200 other major collegiate athletics entities including several other schools in Conference USA.

Season Outlook

The 2018-19 season was undoubtedly a wild one. The Golden Eagles realized their growth and potential from NCAA sanctions for penalties from 2012-14 and earned their first postseason appearance since the 2012 NCAA Tournament. Head coach Doc Sadler stepped down in the spring, and new athletics director Jeremy McClain welcomed back two-time Southern Miss grad and former baseball and basketball letterwinner Jay Ladner back home.

Ladner, a Hattiesburg native, was a member of the 1987 NIT championship team. His first addition to the staff was Kyle Roane, a longtime high school and collegiate coach who has deep roots to South Mississippi. Roane, a 1995 Southern Miss grad, has now worked under three of the program's last five coaches, previously from 1996-03 with James Green and for the 2016-17 season under Sadler. Clarence Weatherspoon, the most decorated player in program history, remained on staff after three years alongside Sadler, and nationally-known Dalonte Hill was also brought in to fill out the staff.

There will be plenty of reloading on the horizon as Southern Miss looks to replace arguably the most impactful senior class in decades. Tyree Griffin finished No. 5 in the nation with 7.2 assists per game and, in addition to posting a school-record 229 dimes last season, finished No. 3 in school history for that category despite just three years in the Black and Gold. Cortez Edwards produced 1,401 points in his career and worked his way up from being a lightly-used freshman reserve to breaking the school's steals record and becoming the fourth player at the school with 1,000 points, 500 rebounds and 200 assists. The dynamic Dominic Magee also finished his eligibility, and two-time graduate Kevin Holland ended his illustrious academic and athletic career in the top-10 for games started and as a 45.6 percent three-point shooter in C-USA play over the past two years.

As a whole, Southern Miss ended as one of four teams nationally to perfectly improve its league-win total over a five-year span in consecutive fashion. Included in its victories from start to finish were on the road at SMU and Old Dominion, as well as a 50-point win over Marshall that it defended in the C-USA quarterfinals. In fact, Southern Miss was the third team since 2010 to earn a bye after starting 0-3.

Southern Miss returns just six players from last season, with Leonard Harper-Baker and LaDavius Draine as the two largest factors. Harper-Baker earned Player of the Week honors in January for averaging 16.5 points and 14.5 rebounds against WKU and Marshall, and the Golden Eagles will look for even more efficiency on both fronts this season. An often-overlooked aspect of his game was his free-throw shooting, where he began the year at 41.9 percent but went 73.7 the rest of the way.

Draine, the reigning C-USA Co-Sixth Man of the Year, could have made the case as one of the more lethal shooters in not just C-USA, but the nation. His 46.4-percent mark from beyond the arc broke the school record, and it included a 48.6 percent clip in league play.

The other returners are Gabe Watson, who showed flashes of his athletic and shooting abilities, namely against FIU and Longwood, as well as Boban Jaconomi, Tyler Stevenson and Clay Weatherspoon (who redshirted as a junior last season).

The loss of Tyree Griffin leaves a major hole, but also large room for opportunity, at the point guard spot. Watson will be expected to battle sophomore SW Mississippi CC transfer Jay Malone for that spot, but Watson could also switch the two-spot if needed.

The post will have a slightly newer-look after the loss of Tim Rowe. Harper-Baker will remain primarily as the four, but freshman Hunter Dean has showcased quickness and a high basketball IQ to go with his 6-foot-10 frame. Isaiah Jones brings a diverse level of experience from playing at the NAIA and junior college level, earning conference Freshman of the Year honors at Biola University in Los Angeles. Another player who can play a significant role in the 3-4 range would be Denijay Harris, a junior college teammate of Malone's, who took a medical redshirt last season, enrolled at Southern Miss in January and attended practices and home games on the bench.

Other players to watch include Auston Leslie, last year's Alabama 3A Player of the Year and a track state champion for multiple jumping events. Angel Smith was also ranked as high as No. 25 in Florida with several significant collegiate offers before deciding on the Golden Eagles. Jeffery Armstrong finished his successful high school career and headed to Massanutten Military Academy in Virginia, which has earned a reputation for producing several college and NBA players. Artur Konontsuk has also turned heads early for being a highly-advanced freshman thanks to quality training at the Get Better Academy in Prague.

Southern Miss returns only 37.5 percent of its scoring from one year ago, and the young team will grow up quickly with a daunting non-conference schedule. In addition to road games at South Alabama and North Florida, the Golden Eagles will also play at Iowa State and defending national runner-up Texas Tech. There is also the three-game Battle 4 Atlantis, where the Black and Gold will go toe-to-toe with national power Gonzaga, then either Oregon or Seton Hall, followed by a third contest versus Alabama, North Carolina, Michigan or Iowa State.

Conference USA is also retaining its unorthodox league schedule format for a second-straight year, where each team will play the rest of the league once, as well as their travel partner twice (Louisiana Tech, in Southern Miss' case). From there, the teams will be seeded in Pods 1-5, 6-10 and 11-14. There are five TBD dates from Feb. 22 to March 7, with sites and opponents up in the air. The Golden Eagles will play on three or four of those dates, based on their seeding. The way the system also works is that once you are assigned to your pod range, you cannot finish in a higher or lower pod heading into the conference tournament.

Southern Miss has a lot to gain out of the upcoming season. Ladner brings a unique level of passion that, as he described at his opening press conference, "it's one thing to coach at a job, but another to coach at a place that's home." The Golden Eagles have a lot to look forward to in the 2019-20 campaign.

Former Southern Miss student-athlete and 1988 graduate Jay Ladner was announced as the school's new head men's basketball coach on April 18, 2019. Ladner, a member of the 1987 NIT championship team, previously served five years at the helm for Southeastern Louisiana, guiding the team to the 2017-18 Southland Conference regular-season title.

"This all happened so fast," Ladner said. "What I can say is that dreams can come true. It's so humbling to know the support we have on the journey we are about to embark on, laying a foundation that has pride, dignity and is destined for success. To be able to come home and coach where you're from, it's exciting. There's no way I can properly thank all the people who have supported me throughout this process."

Under Ladner's leadership, Southeastern improved from nine wins his first year to win 12, 16 and 22 contests in succeeding years. It was the school's first 20-win season since reaching the 2005 NCAA Tournament and the third in its Division I era. The 2018-19 squad featured two First-Team, All-Southland performers in Marlain Veal and Moses Greenwood, just the third time in school history that two Lions earned that distinction. Overall, Ladner mentored eight All-Conference performers in his five years.

"We are thrilled to welcome Jay Ladner and his family back to Hattiesburg and Southern Miss," Jeremy McClain, Director of Athletics said. "Jay has proven throughout his career that he is a winner, elevating every basketball program with which he has been associated. We look forward to him leading and developing our student-athletes and taking our program to new heights."

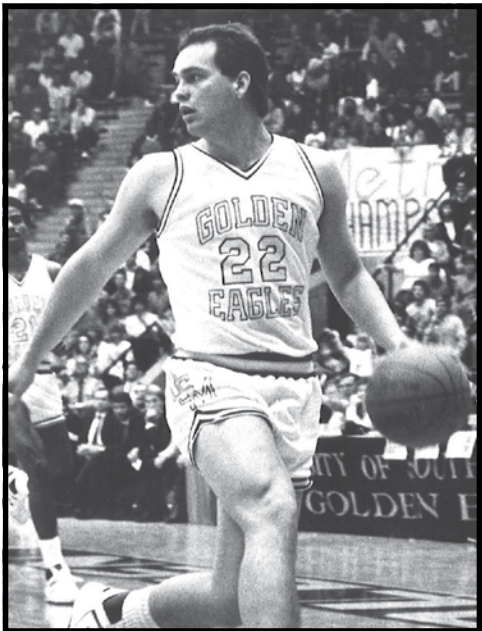

The famed NIT championship team defeated Ole Miss, Saint Louis, Vanderbilt, Nebraska and La Salle en route to the title in Madison Square Garden under legendary coach M.K. Turk.

Ladner's coaching credentials feature a 511-189 record in the high school ranks, from St. Stanislaus in Bay St. Louis to his alma mater, Oak Grove. He led St. Stanislaus to 10 state tournament appearances, including the 2011 title for which he was named the Mississippi Association of Coaches (MAC) Coach of the Year.

Ladner then took his talents to the collegiate ranks, spending the 2012-14 seasons as head coach at Jones County Junior College. The Bobcats were 17-8 in his first season, finishing second in the MACJC's South Division, and during the 2013-14 season became the first Mississippi junior college to win a national title. JCJC set a school record for wins at 28-5 and became the lowest-seeded school to win a NJCAA basketball title in any division, as well as the first school in tournament history to win five games in five days for the title.

The Hattiesburg native received his bachelor's degree in pre-medicine/biology, with a minor in chemistry, from Southern Miss in 1988, while also playing baseball for two years. He received his master's degree in educational administration from Southern Miss in 1999. Ladner has two children, Chelsea and Luke. Chelsea is an attorney in Jackson, Miss. and Luke currently plays basketball for Loyola in New Orleans.

Southern Miss head men's basketball coach Jay Ladner announced Kyle Roane as the first hire on his inaugural Golden Eagle staff. Roane, a 1995 graduate of the school, will serve as the associate head coach. This marks his third stint at Southern Miss, each under a different coach.

"I can't be more excited that Coach Roane has agreed to join our staff here," Ladner said. "In my opinion, he's one of the top Division I assistants. He's someone whose name resonates throughout our southern Mississippi footprint. He was a high school and junior college coach with vast Division I experience before he joined our staff at Southeastern Louisiana. He was instrumental in building our program there."

Roane, a native of Brooklyn, Miss., was an assistant at Southeastern Louisiana under Ladner during the 2014-15 and 2017-19 seasons, including helping the team to the 2018 Southland Conference regular-season title. It stands as the Lions' third, 20-win season in its Division I tenure (beginning in 1980). This past year's team featured two First-Team All-SLC performers in Marlain Veal and Moses Greenwood, just the third time in program history that two Lions earned that distinction.

"I'm super excited to join Coach Ladner at Southern Miss," Roane said. "This place is very unique to me in terms of being a graduate here. I've had unique situations to be employed prior to this tenure. It's a special time at Southern Miss because of the enthusiasm that Coach Ladner's hire has brought to the program."

Roane was an assistant coach from 1996-2000

under James Green before being named the associate head coach until 2003. During that time, Southern Miss had two, 22-win seasons, advancing to the NIT each year and winning the 2001 Conference USA regular-season championship. He also served as the Director of Operations under Doc Sadler for the 2016-17 season.

"I think Hattiesburg is a great place and city and that Southern Miss is a great school with a strong community," Roane said. "Our men's basketball program is on the verge of growing into something really special. I know how excited Coach Ladner is about being the head coach here, and it's going to be great to share the passion he has for this place."

Roane's Pine Belt roots run deep. He has served at the helm at Forrest County Agricultural High School (2003-05, 2010-11), Pearl River Community College (2005-06), Jones County Junior College (2006-08), before rejoining Green at Jacksonville State from 2008-10 and returning to the high school ranks where he led Petal from 2011-14.

That first head coaching stint saw back-to-back postseason appearances before helping the PRCC Wildcats to the South State Championship. His first foray into the coaching world was as an assistant for PRCC before and after he earned his degree in coaching and sport administration.

Roane earned his Bachelor's degree from Southern Miss in 1995 after earning his Associate's from Pearl River Community College in 1993.

Roane is married to the former Brooke Dykes, and the couple has two children, Spencer and Shelby.

2017-19	Assistant Coach Austin Peay

Dalonte Hill became a part of the men's basketball program at Southern Miss under the leadership of Head Coach Jay Ladner in 2019. He serves as an Assistant Coach for the Golden Eagles.

Hill came to Southern Miss after spending two seasons at Austin Peay under Matt Figger, in which the Governors won 41 games. The Governors were 41-25 overall and 25-11 in the Ohio Valley Conference in Hill's time there. He had worked previously with Figger when he was on staff at Kansas State.

Prior to his time in Tennessee, he coached three years at Maryland (2011-13) helping the Terrapins rebuild with back-to-back top-25 signing classes in 2012 and 2013. He had luck in pulling in local standouts such as Melo Trimble to help Mark Turgeon bring the Terrapins back to prominence.

Hill spent six years at Kansas State (2006-11) where he recruited future NBA player Michael Beasley. Hill served on staff at Kansas State for Bob Huggins and Frank Martin, aiding Martin as he built the Wildcats from a lightly-regarded squad to a Big 12 power; after Huggins left following Hill's first season, Martin promoted him to associate head coach. During Hill's time on campus, Kansas State won 20 games in four of five seasons. Hill helped land a pair of national top-10 recruits in Michael Beasley and Bill Walker in 2006, earning the nation's top-rated signing class by Scout.com and Rivals.com. During his time at Kansas State, Hill brought four McDonald's All-Americans to Manhattan.

Over the course of his career, Hill has had the privilege of coaching several other NBA players, such as Jake Layman and Alex Len (Maryland) and Rodney McGruder (Kansas State), in addition to the aforementioned Beasley.

He joined the collegiate coaching ranks in 2003 at his alma mater Charlotte after two seasons as head coach for highly-regarded AAU program DC Assault. Under Bobby Lutz, Hill helped guide Charlotte to a 61-30 mark and three consecutive postseason appearances, including back-to-back NCAA Tournament trips (2004-05). Hill coached two All-Americans and a Conference USA Player of the Year during his time in Charlotte.

As a player, Hill helped Charlotte to three postseason appearances—the 49ers advanced to the NCAA Tournament Round of 32 during Hill's freshman season. He played his senior season at Bowie State before returning to Charlotte to complete his bachelor's degree in sociology in 2001.

The Washington, D.C. native has three daughters: Danae, Dakotah and Daeja.

Then-head coach Doc Sadler announced the addition of Golden Eagle legend Clarence Weatherspoon to his staff in Aug. 2016.

Weatherspoon's No. 35 jersey is the only one retired in program history. His 2,130 points are the second all-time at the school and inspired the Philadelphia 76ers to make him the ninth overall pick in the 1992 draft. Weatherspoon set a franchise rookie record with 1,290 points and evaded the sophomore slump with 45 double-doubles, the seventh-most in NBA history.

He averaged 11.5 points and 7.5 rebounds per game throughout his 13-year NBA career. That stretch included stops in Philadelphia (1992-98), Golden State (1998), Miami (1999-00), Cleveland (2000-01), New York (2001-03) and Houston (2003-05).

Weatherspoon's dunks and iron-man abilities were the most distinguishable factors of his playing days. He played in 231 consecutive games for one stretch in his Philly years and also competed in the 1993 Slam Dunk Contest.

He spent five seasons as a volunteer assistant coach at Ridgeland High School, where his son and now-junior Clay Weatherspoon played.

Weatherspoon has also had plenty of professional success in the private sector. As CEO of 3535 Entertainment, his responsibilities included contract negotiations, artist development, management and tour support. As a result, he negotiated label contracts with Asylum Records and Warner Music Group.

He has also been a speaker at schools, camps and banquets and presented on numerous occasions including TV and radio as a former athlete. His hardwood and business success also helped him organize basketball camps in Brazil and Germany for 12 years.

Weatherspoon is a native of Crawford, Miss. and earned his degree from Southern Miss as well in 1993. He and his wife, Hazel, have two sons, Clay (a junior on the team) and Bryant, and a daughter named Simone.

Garland Wilson was named the Director of Basketball Operations for Jay Ladner's inaugural Golden Eagle staff in May 2019.

As the Director of Operations, Wilson is in charge of organization and administration of the basketball program.

Wilson served the last three seasons as the director of basketball operations at Southeastern, where he supervised team travel, player personnel, basketball camps and other facets of the program.

"Garland Wilson is a coach with a lot of experience in operations," Ladner said. "He's my right-hand man and keeps me organized. I was honored to work with him at Southeastern Louisiana. Having someone with his experience not just from operations but from working with me personally shortens our learning curve here."

Wilson previously served as director basketball operations at Jacksonville State University in Jacksonville, Ala. from 2012-16. He was also a graduate assistant coach at Jacksonville State from January to May 2012 and the program's head equipment manager from 2004-09.

"I'm excited to be here," Wilson said. "I've worked with Coach Ladner in the past, and he had enough confidence to bring me here with him. It's great to be at a higher level and continue to learn more things and help our program anyway I can."

Wilson received a Bachelor of Science degree with a concentration in business marketing from Jacksonville State in 2009.

Reed Green Coliseum

The Golden Eagles play home games in the beautiful and spacious 8,095 seat Reed Green Coliseum, named fittingly for a man who for 44 years was a player, coach and athletic director, served the cause of inter-collegiate athletics at his alma mater – Reed Green.

The History

The first game played in Green Coliseum was December 6, 1965, when the Golden Eagles defeated Southeastern Louisiana, 71-69. The building was formally dedicated on December 11, 1965, during a game against Alabama.

The Golden Eagles have been tough in their home arena, posting a 457-206* mark since the 1965-66 season for a .689 winning percentage. The longest home winning streak is 23 games, which has happened twice, the latest beginning Nov. 12, 2011 against Spring Hill and ending on Feb. 9, 2013 versus Memphis.#

The Golden Eagles' first Metro Conference game and victory was in Reed Green Coliseum against Tulane, when Southern Miss defeated the Green Wave 50-48 on December 6, 1982. The program's first Conference USA game also was played at Reed Green Coliseum, a 75-70 loss to Cincinnati on Jan. 11, 1996. The first C-USA win at the arena occurred against USF, when the team won 59-51 on Feb. 24, 1996.

The Golden Eagles went undefeated at home in both the 2011-12 (15-0) and 1967-68 (11-0) seasons. The most victories to be posted in Green Coliseum were 16 during the 2006-07 campaign.

Green Coliseum is also the home of Lady Eagle basketball and volleyball, and the facility is used for other campus functions such as graduation, concerts, and civic events.

The Future

The Southern Miss Department of Athletics unveiled a new vision recently. It's a vision unlike any other that Golden Eagle followers have seen in the history of the school. It's a vision that will help move Southern Miss to the forefront of Conference USA and beyond.

When the grand-scale expansion and improvements plan was laid out in April 2003, Southern Miss began to take its first steps in becoming one of the most competitive overall programs in the nation. The comprehensive facilities initiative seeks marked improvements in every sporting venue including Reed Green Coliseum.

Green Coliseum recently underwent an internal change, with the upgrade of the heating and cooling systems. That phase of the comprehensive renovation plan was completed in the summer of 2004. In the summer of 2009, brand new coaches' offices, player locker rooms, training areas and a weight room were finished and added on to the Coliseum.

The Department of Athletics has also updated the floor seating, auxiliary support facilities and improvements in concessions, restrooms and the concourse area, as well as the exterior facade of the building.

All of these changes were done in an effort to improve every venue at Southern Miss, enabling each to become more fan-friendly and provide a better atmosphere and game day experience that is sure to increase excitement and support for the various sports teams.

Great Moments at Reed Green Coliseum

Reed Green Coliseum (Capacity: 8,095) has been the home of Southern Miss basketball since the 1965-66 season and has been the site of the greatest moments in the history of Golden Eagle basketball. Here is a look at some of the greatest games in the history of the building. — By John Cox, Voice of the Golden Eagles

Southern Miss	71
Louisiana-Lafayette	69

Dec. 6, 1965 – Before a crowd estimated at close to 4,000, Southern Miss played the first ever game in the brand new Reed Green Coliseum. Sophomores Steve Campbell and Brice Thornsby and junior college transfer Pat Murphy sparked a second half Southern comeback that pulled the Golden Eagles from a 50-38 deficit with 16:58 left to a 58-52 lead with 11:40 remaining. Murphy led the way with 16 points, while Campbell added 15. Green Coliseum was officially dedicated on December 11 against Alabama.

Southern Miss	109
Samford	90

Feb. 21, 1968 – Senior forward Berlin Ladner scored 45 points in the season's final game to set a single-game record that still stands today and became the ninth player in school history to score 1,000 points in his career. Brother Wendell Ladner added 20 rebounds in the season-ending victory and consistently fed the ball to Berlin to help him set the record. Berlin had 24 points and four fouls at halftime, but Coach Lee Floyd adjusted his defense to use Berlin's teammates as much as possible to lessen the risk of losing him before his possible records came.

Southern Miss	103
Pan American	78

Feb. 9, 1970 – Wendell Ladner set a school record that still stands today when he snatched 32 rebounds, breaking his old record of 31 set earlier in the year. Ladner had left the game with three minutes to go, but a quick check of the stats showed the big senior was only two short of a new single-game rebounding record and Coach Lee Floyd consented to the wishes of the fans and sent Ladner back in. Within 30 seconds Ladner had grabbed the two rebounds necessary to break the mark and then came back out of the game.

Southern Miss	50
Tulane	48

Dec. 6, 1982 – After becoming a member of the prestigious Metro Conference the previous summer, the Golden Eagles played their first conference game against rival Tulane. In a closely-contested game all the way, it came down to the game's final possession and Southern guard Curtis Green drilled an 18-foot jumper with three seconds left to seal the Metro Conference win. Green, normally one of the team's best shooters, had suffered through a poor shooting night before canning the game-winner, making just five-of-15 field goals in the game. Green finished the night with just 11 points, while center Carl Mitchell had 13 points and forward Kenny Dailey had 12.

Southern Miss	55
Mississippi State	48

Dec. 6, 1983 – In the Bulldogs' first trip to Hattiesburg since the 1966-67 season, the Golden Eagles defeated their in-state rivals in a fierce defensive battle. The Golden Eagles grabbed a slim 28-23 lead at halftime and then held off the Bulldogs down the stretch for the win. The difference was on the boards where the Eagles outrebounded MSU 35-24. Forward James Williams led the Southern attack with 20 points and 11 rebounds, while forward Ken Suttles added 11 points and eight rebounds.

Southern Miss	127
Virginia Tech	102

Jan. 16, 1987 – In the greatest offensive shootout in the history of Green Coliseum, and the Metro Conference, the Golden Eagles rolled over the Hokies. Six Golden Eagles scored in double figures, led by center Randolph Keys with 31. Forwards Derek Hamilton and John White added 23 and 22, respectively. The Eagles outscored the Hokies' potent duo of Bimbo Coles and Wally Lancaster, who combined for 51 points that day. The two teams would meet a few weeks later in Blacksburg, Virginia, where the Hokies won 141-133 in double overtime. In the two games the schools played that year a total of 503 points was scored.

Ole Miss	75

Mar. 13, 1987 – When it was announced that the Golden Eagles and Ole Miss would meet in the opening round of the NIT, all tickets to the game were sold out in just 13 hours. The game also featured a matchup of Southern Miss coach M.K. Turk and Ole Miss coach Ed Murphy, who had been college roommates at Livingston. The Golden Eagles roared out to a 52-34 halftime lead by making 21 of the first 31 shots they took that night and led by as many as 30 in the second half before Turk began to empty the bench. Forward John White led the Eagle attack with 21 points, while center Randolph Keys poured in 20 points and 16 rebounds. Southern Miss would go on to win the 50th NIT championship that season.

Southern Miss	91
Kansas State (overtime)	89

Jan. 11, 1988 – After the Golden Eagles had defeated the Wildcats 71-69 in Manhattan, Kan., earlier in the year, K-State came to Green Coliseum for a return match. The Wildcats, led by future NBA star Mitch Richmond, saw the Golden Eagles battle to a 40-34 halftime lead. Although Southern Miss led throughout much of the second half, the Wildcats rallied to tie the game at 80 in the final seconds of regulation and had a chance to win it at the buzzer, when Golden Eagle forward Derek Hamilton was called for a dead ball technical foul. But when the Wildcats missed a shot at the buzzer, the game went into overtime and the Eagles went on to win the game. Forward John White led the Eagle attack with 25 points, while center Randolph Keys had 17 points and 12 rebounds. Richmond had 20 points for the Wildcats but made just 6 of 23 field goal attempts.

Southern Miss	95
Louisville	92

Jan. 28, 1988 – Before a sellout crowd and a national television audience on ESPN, the 25th-ranked Golden Eagles defeated Louisville in one of the great shootouts in the history of Green Coliseum. The victory was Southern Miss' ninth in a row and improved the Eagles' record to 15-2. The Golden Eagles rallied from a 47-45 halftime deficit behind the play of "The Fab Four," Casey Fisher, John White, Derek Hamilton and Randolph Keys. Fisher scored 22 points that night, including six three-pointers, while White added 21. The Golden Eagles fired up 26 three-pointers that night, making 11, to offset a 28-point performance by Cardinal star center Pervis Ellison and 25 points from forward Herbert Crook.

Southern Miss	54
Holy Cross	56

March 12, 1981 – Before a sellout crowd at Green Coliseum, Southern Miss made its first ever appearance in post-season play, when the Eagles battled the Holy Cross Crusaders in the opening round of the NIT. In a nip and tuck battle, the Crusaders took a 31-29 halftime lead, but the Golden Eagles were forced to play a large portion of the opening half without 6-9 center Ronald Jackson, who suffered a stress fracture of his foot. With forward Joe "Awesome" Dawson picking up the slack with 17 points and forward Eddie Jiles scoring nine, Southern stayed close all the way to the final buzzer, before the Crusaders won 56-54.

Memphis	82

Feb. 10, 1990 – Golden Eagle star Clarence Weatherspoon and Memphis forward Ben Spiva were involved in a scuffle late in the first half and after official Danny Hooker reviewed the replay on the television monitor, both players were ejected from the game. The Golden Eagles grabbed a 49-37 lead at halftime with Weatherspoon on the bench during the final two minutes of the first half. In the second half with Spoon gone, the Eagles, led by guard Russell Johnson and center Daron Jenkins, held off the Tigers to win. Johnson had 19 points and 10 assists, while Jenkins had 17 points and seven rebounds.

USF	77

March 3, 2001 – The Golden Eagles won their first-ever Conference USA regular season championship when they defeated the USF Bulls, 83-77. Behind the aggressive play of senior center Vandarel Jones, the league's defensive player-of-the-year, the Eagles led nearly the entire game and fought off several rallies by the Bulls. Jones scored 19 points, pulled down 15 rebounds and blocked eight shots to lead the Eagles, while senior guard David Wall added 16 points and senior point guard Mel Cauthen chipped in 13 points and had seven assists. The victory gave the Golden Eagles a 21-7 regular season record and an 11-5 mark in Conference USA.

Memphis	67

January 11, 2003 – After falling behind 35-29 to the 10-2 Memphis Tigers and Coach John Calipari, Southern Miss put together one of the most dominating second halves in school history, outscoring the Tigers 55-32 and winning the game 84-67. Junior Greg Johnson led the Golden Eagle attack scoring 22 points and pulled down 10 rebounds. Three other Southern Miss players, freshman Jasper Johnson (17), sophomore David Haywood (13) and junior Charles Gaines (12) also scored in double figures as James Green's team improved to 9-4 on the year and 2-0 in Conference USA.

Legends Club

Wendell Ladner 1967-70

There are very few players in the history of Southern Miss athletics who were true legends. These were players who were so good at their sports that they transformed that sport by their impact on the game.

One of those players was Wendell Ladner, who, in the three short years of his basketball career at Southern Miss, carved himself a niche in the history books of the school that few will ever equal.

When you first think of Ladner, you think of great rebounders and he certainly was that. In his career, he was able to haul down 1,256 rebounds in just 76 games, an average of 16.5 per game, a mark no one has come close to since. The three seasons that he played at Southern Miss remain the three highest totals by a player for rebounds in a season.

But he also was an incredible scorer. He averaging 20.5 points per game, a plateau that no one else in school history has ever reached in their career, and he finished as the 11th all-time scorer in school history.

Ladner had been a high school All-American at Hancock North Central High School and hailed from the town of Nacaise Crossing, Miss. He followed his brother, Berlin, and came to Southern Miss. After leading the freshmen team in scoring and rebounding in 1966-67, he was ready to move to the varsity the following year.

In his first season with the varsity in 1967-68, Ladner immediately became the star of the team. He led the team in scoring and rebounding that season with averages of 21.4 and 16.4, respectively. His 409 rebounds and rebounding average were both school records. Ladner scored what would prove to be his career high, 38 points in just the fourth game of his collegiate career against Northwestern Louisiana. He then followed that with 36 points a few games later against West Virginia Tech. Four times that year he recorded 24 or more rebounds in a game, including a career high 29 against Northwestern Louisiana.

The 6-5, 240-pound Ladner led the team again in scoring and rebounding during the 1968-69 season, averaging 22.4 points and 16.4 rebounds. The 411 rebounds that season set another school record.

As a senior in 1969-70, Ladner led the team in scoring and rebounding for a third straight year, averaging 17.9 points and a school record 16.8 rebounds a game. His 436 rebounds that season produced a third straight school record.

Fourteen of the top 16 rebounding performances in a game by a Southern Miss player are owned by Ladner, including a school-record 32 vs. Pan American during the 1969-70 season. Three times in his career, all during the 1969-70 season, Ladner grabbed 30 or more rebounds in a game.

He was selected by the New Orleans Bucs in the second round of the 1970 American Basketball Association Draft and played several years in the ABA for New Orleans, the Kentucky Colonels and the New Jersey Nets.

Ladner was killed in a tragic plane crash in New York, N.Y., while still in the prime of his playing career, but he was and remains a true legend at Southern Miss, and a Golden Eagle Hall of Famer unlike any other.

Nick “The Cat” Revon 1951-54

The 1953-54 basketball brochure at Southern Miss simply said, “One of the greatest is the best way to describe the marvelous Nick Revon, pride of New Orleans.”

Few who saw “The Cat” play during his awesome career would argue that.

Southern Miss fans today who saw him play still talk about his brilliant shooting touch, his ball handling wizardry and his passing that was far ahead of his time. How good was Nick Revon? Good enough to become the school’s all-time scorer during the 1953-54 season, and he still holds that record today. He scored 2,136 points in his career, and only one other player has ever cracked the 2,000-point mark in his career (Clarence Weatherspoon).

Revon rolled up a record at St. Aloysius High School in New Orleans that people at the time thought might never be broken and, in fact, many of his records weren’t broken for many, many years. He was one of the best performers to ever compete in the strong Mississippi Junior College league at Hinds Junior College, where he was twice named to the all-state team.

He made his debut with Southern Miss during the 1950-51 season and although he missed nearly half the season with a broken foot still managed to average 13.7 points as the team finished 21-14. Already though, USM Head Coach Lee Floyd and the Southern Miss fans knew they had something special in Revon.

Revon really started to blossom during the 1951-52 season, leading the team in scoring with a 16.9 average and his driving, slashing style sent him to the foul line more than anyone else on the team. He went to the line 182 times that year and made 147 (80.8 percent). He would be the leader of a Southern Miss team that went 29-8, won the Gulf States Conference regular season and postseason tournament championships and advanced, for the first time, to the NAIA National Tournament.

He would lead the team back to the NAIA national tournament in 1952-53, finishing second on the team in scoring with a 14.6 average. Again, he went to the foul line more than anyone else on the team, 179 times, and made 131 (73.2 percent). That team finished the year 27-8 and went to the “Elite 8” of the NAIA tourney before being beaten.

Revon would go on a rampage in 1953-54. Not only would he take the team to the NAIA nationals for a third-straight year, but he would average an amazing 23.8 points per game, while leading the team to a 23-8 record. In 31 games. He would earn 267 trips to the foul line, making 205 (76.8 percent).

He still holds the school record for most points in a season with the 737 he scored that year and holds numerous other records including the most free throws made in a career, 538.

He was also a star baseball player for Southern Miss and track and field athlete, excelling in both the high jump and the broad jump.

He was selected in the 1954 NBA Draft by the Minneapolis Lakers.

Revon passed away in June 2008 following a series of heart problems at the age of 79.

M.K. Turk 1976-96

M.K. Turk spent 20 seasons as the head basketball coach at the University of Southern Mississippi and finished his career as the all-time winningest coach in school history with 301 Golden Eagle victories, one NIT championship, two NCAA appearances, six NIT appearances.

After a successful stint as athletic director and head basketball coach at Copiah-Lincoln Junior College in Wesson, Miss., and a couple of seasons as an assistant coach at the University of Memphis, Turk took over as coach of the Golden Eagles for the 1976-77 and immediately began building the program into one of the most competitive in the nation.

Turk accomplished what no other Southern Miss coach has ever been able to achieve—back to back trips to the NCAA Tournament and winning the National Invitation Tournament.

Turk took the Golden Eagles to eight post-season appearances starting with the 1980-81 season when they made their first ever appearance in the NIT, following a 20-7 season.

After taking the team to the NIT again in 1985-86, Turk and the Golden Eagles captured the 50th championship of the event with an 84-80 win over LaSalle in New York's Madison Square Garden. The championship was a first ever national title for a Mississippi Division I school.

His 1989-90 squad finished 20-12 and finished second in the regular season of the Metro Conference and then received the school's first-ever NCAA bid.

The 1990-91 squad followed with a 21-8 mark, won the Metro Conference regular season championship and again earned a berth to the NCAA regionals. That team graced the Associated Press Top 25 pre-season poll and went to the NCAA Tournament ranked as one of the nation's top 25.

After Turk led the Golden Eagles to the top of the independent ranks, he then guided their entry into the Metro Conference in 1982, lending further stature to the program. Then in 1995-96, Turk guided the Golden Eagles into Conference USA as a charter member.

Many players from Turk's program have gone on to successful careers in both professional basketball and business. Former Golden Eagle Clarence Weatherspoon was the 9th pick in the 1992 NBA draft by the Philadelphia 76ers. Teammate Joe Courtney had stints with several NBA clubs and Randolph Keys was a former number one pick by the Cleveland Cavaliers. A number of other former players played in both the CBA and overseas. He has also turned out several assistant coaches and players who are currently continuing their careers coaching at both the high school and collegiate levels.

Among the many honors Turk has received are being named the 1986-87 NIT Coach of the Year and the 1985-86 Metro Conference Coach of the Year.

Turk also served as an assistant athletic director under Athletic Director Bill McLellan during his final few years with the Golden Eagles.

Turk passed away in December of 2013 following a series of health problems at the age of 71.

Clarence Weatherspoon 1989-92

Perhaps no other player has made the impact on Southern Miss basketball as Clarence Weatherspoon. Weatherspoon started for the Eagles from the 1988-89 season through the 1991-92 season. His number "35" was retired during the final home game of the 1991-92 season on Mar. 7, 1992.

During the Weatherspoon era, the Golden Eagles posted back-to-back 20-win seasons and played in the NCAA Tournament twice. The Crawford, Miss., native was named the Metro Conference Player-of-the-Year a record three-consecutive years.

Weatherspoon finished as Southern Miss' second all-time leading scorer and as the ninth all-time leading scorer in Metro Conference history, with 2,130 points. In addition, Weatherspoon finished as USM's all-time leading rebounder with 1,317 rebounds, and ranks as the Metro Conference's all-time leading rebounder with an 11.3 per-game average.

Weatherspoon went on to be selected in the first round (9th pick overall) by the Philadelphia 76ers where, in his rookie season, he set a franchise record for most points in a season by a rookie, with 1,290. Disproving the "Sophomore Jinx" theory, "Spoon" went out the next year to record 45 double-doubles, which was the seventh-highest single-season total in the NBA that season.

The Golden Eagle standout also has proven to be an iron horse in the NBA as he started 213-consecutive games before suffering a sprained ankle against the Minnesota Timberwolves on Feb. 15, 1995.

During the 1996-97 Philadelphia 76er campaign, "Spoon" was the only Sixer to start all 82 games, and scored a season-high that year of 34 points and 10 rebounds, against his future team, Golden State. Heading into the current season, he has played in 875 games out of a possible 984.

On Feb. 17, 1998, Weatherspoon was traded to the Golden State Warriors. A month later against Toronto, Weatherspoon totaled 18 points and pulled down a season-high 20 boards.

Weatherspoon's NBA career spanned 13 seasons with Philadelphia (1992-98), Golden State (1997-98), two Miami (1998-00), Cleveland (2000-01), New York (2001-04) and Houston (2003-05). Weatherspoon scored 10,483 points and pulled down 6,846 rebounds.

He also started 611 of 915 games, averaging 30.3 minutes a game, 11.5 points a game, 7.5 rebounds a game while totaling 1,346 assists, 880 steals and 794 blocked shots.

Illustrating just how versatile he is, he recorded his 1,000th career assist during the 1999 season.

Some of Weatherspoon's other career highlights include

- Scored a career-high 35 points and grabbed 14 rebounds against the Toronto Raptors on 4/21/96.
- Recorded his 1,000th assist against Golden State on 11/14/99.
- Participated in the slam-dunk competition during the 1993 NBA All-Star Weekend in Salt Lake City, Utah.
- In his Golden State Warrior debut, he scored 11 points and had seven rebounds in a 95-88 win over the Denver Nuggets.
- In his 11th NBA season, he started 41-of-56 games, averaged 30.9 minutes a game, along with 8.2 rebounds and 8.8 points a game.

Southern Miss Legends Club

Over the years there have been many standouts to don Southern Miss Golden Eagle jerseys. There have been countless all-conference and All-American players. There have been members of conference championship and NCAA postseason teams. There have been those who made their mark on Golden Eagle athletics, excelling in different sports and eras, all giving their heart and soul for Southern Miss.

While the standouts to grace the fields and courts have been many, there's been a select few who truly carved a niche in their respective sports. Over the past few years, the Southern Miss Department of Athletics created an organization to honor these heroes – the Southern Miss Legends Club.

An idea inspired by former football great Sammy Winder, the Legends Club recognizes former university athletic standouts who made prominent contributions in their individual sports, while participating as student-athletes.

The players' athletic feats are enough to deserve the highest honor in the world of sports – having their respective jerseys retired. But with the Legends Club, Southern Miss' standouts do not have their jerseys retired. Instead, the players are honored by being recognized with membership in this prestigious club. Their names and numbers will be displayed prominently in the athletic facilities in which they played.

There are 21 such members in the Legends Club, four of which are associated with the men's basketball program. Included in this group are all-star players Wendell Ladner, Nick Revon and Clarence Weatherspoon and legendary coach M.K. Turk. Ladner, Revon and Weatherspoon all rank among the best in points and rebounds, while Turk is the winningest coach in the program's history.

The remaining makeup of the Legends Club includes 13 football players, including Reggie Collier, Fred Cook, Hanford Dixon, Brett Favre, Ray Guy, Bucky McElroy, Derrick Nix, Hugh Laurin Pepper, Bubba Phillips, Adalius Thomas and Sammy Winder, as well as the 1958 and 1962 National Championship teams; women's basketball standout Janice Felder and women's softball stars Courtney Blades and Amy Berman. Only one other coach has been inducted into the select group -- women's basketball coach Kay James.
