Robert H. "Ace" Cleveland Press Box

The press box at M. M. Roberts Stadium is named after former University of Southern Mississippi Sports Information Director Robert H. "Ace" Cleveland. Cleveland joined the University staff in September 1955 and retired in 1986. He passed away on April 17, 1995, at the age of 68.

The Hattiesburg native and Southern Miss graduate began his career at the University as Assistant Director of Public Relations and Sports Information. He was appointed Director two years later and worked in that capacity until Public Relations and Sports Information were split in 1970. He then began concentrating solely on athletics.

During his career, Ace witnessed 325 consecutive Golden Eagle football games, the third-longest streak at that time among sports information directors in the country. His support of the Golden Eagles continued until his death.

Prior to joining the University staff, he was a news reporter/sports editor for the Hattiesburg American for just over eight years and a sportswriter for the Jackson Daily News for one year.

Ace, and his wife, Carrie, who passed away in July 1996, had two sons, both sportswriters. Rick is the former director of the Mississippi Sports Hall of Fame, and Bobby covers outdoor sports for various outlets.

In 1980, Ace was inducted into the Mississippi Sportswriters (MSWA) Hall of Fame as one of five charter members. He was inducted into The University of Southern Mississippi Sports Hall of Fame in 1985 and into the Mississippi Sports Hall of Fame in 1998.

Head Coach Jay Hopson

Fifth-year Southern Miss football coach Jay Hopson holds the distinction with two other former Golden Eagle coaches, Reed Green and Larry Fedora, to compile winning seasons over their respective first four seasons.

The 28-year coaching veteran on the collegiate level and twice previously a member of the Golden Eagle coaching staff, Hopson said he would hit the ground running when he took over the Golden Eagle program. And he did.

Hopson was named the school's 21st head football coach prior to the school's 100th season of football in 2016.

In his first year directing the program, Hopson started the season by leading the Golden Eagles to their first victory over an opponent in the Southeastern Conference since the 2000 campaign, rallying for a 44-35 win at Kentucky, and leading the team to its second-straight bowl appearance. The Golden Eagles went on to earn a berth in the R+L Carriers New Orleans Bowl, capturing a 28-21 victory over the Ragin' Cajuns of Louisiana-Lafayette.

In his second year, Hopson led the Golden Eagles to eight victories, marking the second time in three seasons that the program had reached at least eight victories as well as the 25th overall time to reach a bowl game.

His third year saw the Golden Eagles win six games and finish the year by winning three of their final four contests. Southern Miss ended the year with a winning record at 6-5. The program had a canceled road non-conference game at Appalachian State due to Hurricane Florence.

Last season, Southern Miss again battled for the Conference USA West Division title, beating eventual divisional champ UAB, 37-2. The squad returned to the postseason, earning its third bowl trip in four seasons under Hopson and fourth time in the last five years.

In his first four seasons, Hopson has overseen 11 Conference USA first-team selections and he mentored four former Golden Eagles that have been National Football League draft, including Quez Watkins, who was a sixth-round selection by the Philadelphia Eagles last April.

As far as the national statistics, the Golden Eagles collected Top 25 showings in both total offense (21st/472.8 ypg) and total defense (15th/324.8) in his first year and the Nasty Bunch defense ranked No. 20 in in total yards allowed in 2017 (331.9 ypg).

That string of national ranked defenses continued in 2018 in which that squad enjoyed its highest ranking under Hopson at No. 3, giving up 278.4 yards per contest. It was the highest finish for a Golden Eagle defense since 2000.

Last season, the Golden Eagles enjoyed one of their better special teams seasons that included a school-record three kickoff returns for touchdowns and one more punt return for a score.

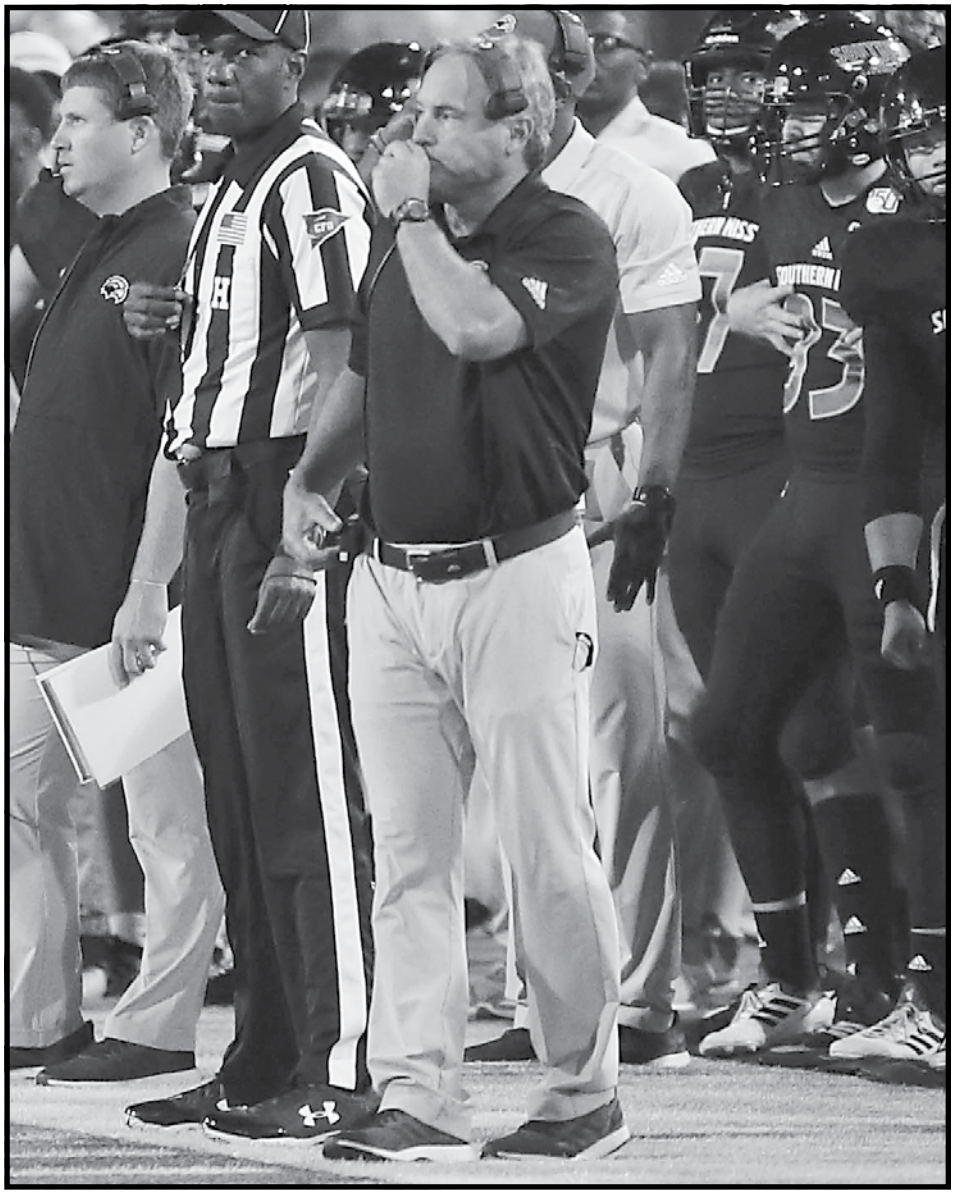

A native of Vicksburg, Miss., Hopson returned to Southern Miss after a successful four-year stint as the head coach at Alcorn State. During his tenure there, Hopson led the Braves to a 32-17 record and consecutive Southwestern Athletic Conference championships the last two seasons. Alcorn State also recorded at least nine victories in each of the last three seasons, including a 10-3 mark in 2014 and following this season, Hopson led the Braves to the inaugural Celebration Bowl, a postseason football bowl featuring two standout programs from Historically Black Colleges and Universities (HBCU).

His team also captured the SBN Black College Championship in 2014.

Prior to his arrival at Lorman, Hopson worked as linebackers coach for two seasons at Michigan (2008-09) and worked as defensive coordinator at Memphis during the 2010 and 2011 campaigns.

His first two stints at Southern Miss as an assistant coach came from 2001-03 (defensive backs) and then again from 2005-07 (linebackers, defensive coordinator).

Hopson's defensive units led Conference USA in scoring defense each of his three seasons as defensive coordinator. In 2006, the Golden Eagles led C-USA in third down defense and red zone defense while his 2005 unit led the league in turnovers forced per game as well as led the nation in fumbles gained.

During his first stint with the Golden Eagles, the defensive unit led the nation in fewest passing touchdowns allowed and finished fourth nationally in pass efficiency defense in 2002. Southern Miss led C-USA and finished fifth nationally in pass defense during the 2003 season and each year during that stretch, Southern Miss ranked in the Top 15 nationally in scoring defense.

Hopson spent 2004 at his alma mater, the University of Mississippi, as defensive backs coach and was the program's recruiting coordinator. The Rebels' pass defense improved from 109th nationally in 2003 to 49th during the 2004 campaign.

Hopson's coaching experience also includes positions at Marshall (1996-2000) and Delta State (1993) as defensive backs coach. He was a member of the Herds' 1996 NCAA I-AA National Championship staff and coached the team to four straight Mid-American Conference championships. Hopson also held defensive graduate assistant positions at Florida (1995), LSU (1994) and Tulane (1992). He helped the Gators to the Southeastern Conference championship and played for the national championship in the Fiesta Bowl.

He earned four-year letters and received the 1991 John Howard Vaught Award as a player at Ole Miss. A CoSIDA Academic All-American, Hopson graduated from Ole Miss with a bachelor's degree in business administration (1992) and received a master's of health in physical education and recreation from Delta State (1994).

Hopson and his wife, Michelle, have two daughters, Hyde and Hannah.

Coaching Staff

Tim Billings (Fifth Season)
Assistant Head Coach / Tight Ends

Tim Billings returns for his fifth season as part of the Golden Eagle football staff, while also beginning his fifth decade of coaching that has seen him excel on both the high school and collegiate level.

His last stop before heading to Hattiesburg was as athletic director/football coach at North Lamar High School in Paris, Texas, from April 2014-2016.

Since his arrival for the Golden Eagles, he has been a part of three squads that have ranked Top 25 nationally in total defense, including its highest ranking since 2000 with a No. 3 showing (278.4) in his first season as defensive coordinator in 2018.

Billings was promoted to defensive coordinator following the 2017 season when the team finished No. 20 in total defense (331.9) and also oversaw the safeties.

During his time at Southern Miss, Billings has enjoyed three All-Conference USA performers in Racheem Boothe, who was a All-Freshman selection in 2017 at linebacker and first-team pick Ky'el Hemby, who tied for the league lead in interceptions in 2018, as well as DQ Thomas, who garnered first-team honors in 2019.

As outside linebackers coach in 2016, the Golden Eagles' defense limited opponents to under 300 yards of total offense five times. The defense held its opposition to 11 yards or fewer on the ground twice during the year.

This season sees Billings switch to the offensive side of the ball as he will oversee the tight ends position. It will be the first time Billings has coached offense at the level since handling the wide receivers at Wake Forest from 2006-07 and the first time mentoring tight ends since he was at Missouri from 1987-89.

Prior to North Lamar, he spent 34 years in the college ranks as a head coach, coordinator and position coach on both sides of the ball.

Billings joined the Memphis defensive staff in 2012. In his first season at Memphis, Billings coached the defensive line. In 2012, Memphis led the league in total defense in conference games, and in 2013, Memphis was ranked in the top 20 nationally in rush defense.

Prior to Memphis, Billings oversaw the Wake Forest wide receivers during the 2006-2007 seasons, then supervised the secondary in 2008-09. He worked with defensive ends in 2010 and coached outside linebackers while co-defensive coordinator in 2011.

Billings was head coach at Southeast Missouri in Cape Girardeau, Mo., for six years (2000-05). In 2002, he was named Ohio Valley Conference (OVC) Coach of the Year and American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) Region 3 Coach of the Year.

Before taking over at Southeast Missouri, Billings spent 10 years (1990-99) as an assistant coach at Marshall. During his tenure, Marshall was the winningest program in college football, compiling a 114-25 record. Billings served as the Thundering Herd's defensive coordinator during his final season in 1999. That year, Marshall completed a perfect 13-0 campaign and was ranked No. 10 in the final national polls. The Herd won Mid-American Conference (MAC) titles in each of Billings' final three seasons at Marshall.

Prior to taking the defensive coordinator role, Billings worked primarily with the Thundering Herd special teams.

Billings began his collegiate coaching career as a Missouri graduate assistant under Warren Powers in 1983-84. The 1984 Tigers played in the Holiday Bowl.

He moved on to Oklahoma as a graduate assistant coach under Barry Switzer for the 1985-86 seasons. The Sooners played in the 1985 and 1986 Orange Bowls, winning the 1985 national championship. Billings returned to Missouri for the 1987-89 seasons.

A native of Honey Grove, Texas, Billings began his coaching career as a secondary coach in Duncan (Okla.) High School in 1980. He served as head coach at Prairieland High School in Pattonville, Texas, in 1981 and was secondary coach at Norman (Okla.) High School in 1982-83.

A 1980 Southeastern Oklahoma State University graduate with a degree in physical education, Billings was an all-conference defensive back for the Savage Storm. Billings also played basketball for one season at Grayson County Junior College in Sherman, Texas. He and his wife, Lisa, have two children, Taylor Kay and Trenton Wade.

During his time at UT-Martin, Boone helped the Skyhawks post their best five-season record (32-25) in school history. He coached two All-American linebackers in 2007 and 2008, and a 2006 Buck Buchanan Award nominee. Two of his defenses (2010, 2006) ranked in the top 12 nationally in total defense. Coaching Staff

Paul Gonnella (Fourth Season)
Assistant Coach

Paul Gonnella plays a pivotal role on Coach Jay Hopson's staff. While serving as an assistant coach, Gonnella's duties take him all over the country finding the next great talents for the Golden Eagle football program.

Hired on April 1, 2017, as the Executive to The Head Coach, Gonnella now holds the title of assistant coach, after receiving the promotion prior to the 2018 campaign. Gonnella brings a wealth of experience in coaching and recruiting to the Southern Miss staff.

During the 2015 and the 2016 seasons, Gonnella went to the private sector to be a CEO of a recruiting company. In March of 2017 he resigned as CEO, which prompted the move to Southern Miss.

During the 2014 and 2015 classes, Gonnella helped guide the USF Bulls, under Willie Taggart, to two top-40 recruiting classes as the Director of Player Personnel, which has propelled USF to being a national contender. Taggart has since been named head coach at the University of Oregon. Both classes at USF were ranked in the top-five classes in school history. Thus far, the classes produced RB Marlon Mack, 4th round draft pick of the Indianapolis Colts. Marlon made the jump to the NFL after three years.

In the 2012 season, Gonnella was the Director of Player Personnel at the University of Alabama under Nick Saban. The 2012 campaign saw the Tide not only win the national championship but also collect the No. 1 recruiting class in the country (2013) in all the major recruiting service rankings. The 2012 class produced NFL players, A'Shawn Robinson, Alvin Kamara, Reuben Foster, Eddie Jackson, Tim Williams, Derrick Henry, Jonathan Allen, and O.J. Howard.

Gonnella was the director of Player Personnel for the class of 2012 at Purdue University under Danny Hope. In the class of 2012 Purdue ranked No. 33 in the nation. The second best ranking in school history. They also ranked fourth in the Big Ten, beating out Michigan State, Wisconsin, Penn State and others. That class produced NFL players, Jordan Roos, Anthony Brown, Cameron Posey and Jason King. The 26 signed recruits came from an impressive 17 states.

For the class of 2011, Gonnella was the Director of Player Personnel under Larry Porter. The team suffered through a 1-11 season but posted the No. 65 ranked recruiting class. That class produced NFL players Bobby McCain and Jordan Devey. The class also anchored the turnaround for Memphis and Justin Fuentes, as fifth-year seniors.

Making the jump to The University of Miami, under Randy Shannon, Gonnella assisted Miami with producing the 16th-ranked class in the nation. The class included NFL players Asante Cleveland, Brandon Linder, Chase Ford, Storm Johnson, Malcom Bunche, Clive Walford, Johnathan Feleciano, and Shane McDermott.

For the class of 2009, Gonnella had his fingerprint on two top-10 classes. When taking over at UNC as the Director of Player Personnel in March of 2008, UNC was ranked in the 50s. Nine months later, UNC held the No. 6 recruiting class in the nation. In January of 2009 Paul Gonnella was hired at the University of Tennessee as the Director of Player Personnel under Lane Kiffin. When it was all said and done, Tennessee jumped from No. 32 in the rankings to No. 9 in one month. Both classes produced multiple NFL football players including, Travis Bond, Brennan Williams, A.J. Blue, Kevin Reddick, and Bryce Brown.

From 2005-2007, Gonnella was the head coach at Cambridge Rindge & Latin School in Cambridge, Mass. In the 2004-2005 season, he was a Graduate Assistant at Mississippi State under Jackie Sherrill and Sylvester Croom. Prior to Mississippi State, Gonnella was a high school coach at Lovejoy High School (GA) and Somerville High School (MA). Lovejoy produced a ton of college football players during his time there, including NFL football players Tashard Choice, Chris Scott and Mario Fannin.

Gonnella played football at Springfield College (Mass.) and earned degrees from Salem State College (Mass.) and Mississippi State University. He attended Wakefield High School (Mass.) where he earned all-state as a football player and was a two-time All-League selection on the basketball court, earning him Wakefield High School Athletic Hall of Fame honors in 2002.

Gonnella is married to Amanda Gonnella. Gonnella also has a son named Paul Angelo Gonnella who is 25-years-old.

The Warhawks also ranked among the NCAA Football Bowl Subdivision leaders in total offense (No. 21), passing offense (No. 24), scoring offense (No. 25) and passing efficiency (No. 29 with a 146.2 rating).

The Warhawks amassed 500 yards total offense or more in five games in 2017, while also producing five 200-yard rushing games, including a season-high 307 yards at South Alabama (41 rushing attempts).

Kubik came to ULM after a two-year stint as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Stephen F. Austin (2014-15). During his tenure in Nacogdoches, Texas, a total of nine offensive players earned All-Southland Conference accolades, including a pair of specialty awards.

In 2015, the Lumberjacks averaged 427.9 yards total offense and 28.7 points per game. SFA put 55 points on the scoreboard twice during the 2015 campaign: against Incarnate Word and Houston Baptist. Following the regular season, offensive guard Byron Williams was named Second-Team All-Southland Conference while quarterback Zach Conque earned all-conference honorable mention.

In his first season in charge of the Lumberjack offense, SFA averaged 32.7 points and 460.8 yards total offense while scoring at least 30 points in eight games in 2014. Under Kubik's tutelage, Conque earned Southland Conference Newcomer of the Year honors after finishing with 3,359 yards total offense (2,733 passing and 626 rushing) and 29 total touchdowns (15 passing, 13 rushing and 1 receiving). Running back Gus Johnson was named the league's Player of the Year after rushing for 1,683 yards and 23 TDs.

Kubik previously served as the wide receivers coach at Central Arkansas from 2011-13 where he helped the Bears to back-to-back playoff appearances in the NCAA Football Championship Subdivision (2011 and 2012).

His first collegiate coaching position came at Northwestern State in Natchitoches, Louisiana, where he worked four seasons, serving as both the wide receivers coach and recruiting coordinator from 2009-10 and running backs coach from 2007-08.

He began his coaching career at Catholic High School in Baton Rouge in 2006, working with the wide receivers.

Kubik, a three-year letterman and a two-year starter at quarterback at Louisiana Tech (2002, 2004-05) threw for 4,020 career yards and 28 career touchdowns. He was named the team's Offensive MVP as a senior after completing 171-of-312 passes for 2,202 yards and 18 TDs. Kubik recorded two career 300-yard passing games: 303 yards at SMU in 2004 and a career-best 329 yards against San Jose State in 2005.

He earned his bachelor's degree in finance from Louisiana Tech in 2005. Kubik received his master's degree in public administration from ULM in 2018. He has also been a member of the Manning Passing Academy, the annual quarterback camp hosted by the Manning family.

A native of Youngstown, Ohio, and a 2001 graduate of Cardinal Mooney High School, Kubik and his wife Hannah have two daughters, Susannah and Georgia, and a son John Miller.

Reed Stringer (Third Season)
Nickels

Reed Stringer enters his third season at Southern Miss, enjoying a different role in each of his first three seasons.

After starting his Southern Miss career as a offensive quality control coach in 2018, Stringer moved to tight ends last season. This past spring, he was transferred to nickels for Coach Jay Hopson.

In his lone year in coaching tight ends, he saw his group make big blocks all throughout the year and his guys caught a collective six passes as a group, including two for touchdowns - both coming from Ray Ladner.

Before coming to USM, Stringer spent the previous seven seasons as assistant head coach, recruiting coordinator and tight ends coach at Louisiana-Lafayette where he assisted head coach Mark Hudspeth with the daily operations of the football program.

Stringer helped the Ragin' Cajun offense set multiple school records during his seven years at Louisiana. The Cajuns set school records for total offense (5,914 yards) and points (461) in 2012 as well set program records for total first downs (283) and total plays from scrimmage (883) in 2013. In 2014, the Tight End group was instrumental in helping the offense finish 22nd in the nation in rushing averaging 225.9 yards per game and finishing 10th in the nation in red zone scoring offense, converting at a 91.2 percent success rate.

Stringer also developed and mentored one of the most consistent and high achieving units on the Ragin Cajun squad with five different tight ends earning all-conference honors in 7 years. Beginning in 2011, Stringer assisted Ladarius Green in finishing off his career as a three-time All-Sun Belt Conference performer and working his way into a fourth-round draft pick for the NFL's San Diego Chargers. In 2013, senior Jacob Maxwell earned All-Sun Belt Conference honors and along with Ian Thompson, the duo both received opportunities to play in the National Football League. Followed in 2014, Larry Pettis' career came to an end on a high note as he also garnered all-conference recognition as well. In 2017, Stringer helped develop converted offensive lineman Raynard Ford into an all-conference player, joining true freshman Chase Rogers on the prestigious unit.

Known for being a great evaluator and a relentless recruiter, Stringer's recruiting efforts have led the way in Louisiana posting four consecutive nine-win seasons for the first time in school history. The Ragin' Cajun recruiting classes consistently finished at the top of the Sun Belt conference and among the group of 5 institutions.

Stringer, the 2012 Sun Belt Conference Recruiter of the Year by Scout.com, was also recognized in 2009 as one of the SEC's "Top 10 Recruiters" by Rivals.com for his contributions to Mississippi State's nationally-ranked class which produced 12 players who signed NFL contracts and included MLB centerfielder Billy Hamilton, Thorpe Award winner Jonthan Banks, and the Philadelphia Eagles defensive lineman Fletcher Cox. Before spending the 2010 season on Dabo Swinney's staff at Clemson, Stringer spent seven seasons at Mississippi State in a variety of roles. At 25, he became the youngest full-time coach in the SEC when was promoted to tight ends coach on Sylvester Croom's staff in 2005 and added special teams duties to his resume in 2007. He was also the Director of Recruiting for Dan Mullen's 2009 staff.

A four-year letterman on the Statesmen's offensive line, he helped DSU claim the 2000 NCAA Division II national championship. Stringer concluded his career with a string of 35 consecutive starting assignments at offensive left tackle. In addition to the 2000 national title, he was also instrumental in helping Delta State win the 1998 and 2000 Gulf South Conference championships.

He earned a bachelor's degree in business management from Delta State in 2001 and completed a master's in business administration from DSU in 2003.

Stringer is married to the former Emily Howell and they have three sons, Smith, Banks, and John Reed.

Director of Player Personnel/Football Operations

Wes Turner came to Southern Miss in 2016 after spending four years with Jay Hopson at Alcorn State.

At Southern Miss, Turner oversees all of the operations of the football program that includes travel as well as the day-to-day operations of the program, in addition to overseeing the program's players.

During his tenure with Alcorn State, he helped Hopson lead the Braves to a 32-17 record and consecutive Southwestern Athletic Conference championships in 2014 and 2015. Alcorn State also recorded at least nine victories in each of his last three seasons, including a 10-3 mark in 2014. In 2015, the Braves played in the inaugural Celebration Bowl, a postseason football bowl featuring two standout programs from historically black colleges and universities.

Turner served in multiple capacities, including linebackers coach, nickels coach, director of operations, videographer and recruiting coordinator.

Prior to joining the Braves staff, he worked on the University of Memphis football staff as a defensive graduate assistant after spending the previous three years on the coaching staff at Georgia Southern.

At Georgia Southern, Turner served as a defensive assistant coach working with the defensive backs. In 2009, the Eagles' defense averaged 6.2 tackles for loss and nearly two sacks per game. The defense had two players named to the SoCon All-Freshman Team and one to the All-Conference first team. In 2008, Turner worked on a defensive staff that, playing as many as nine true-freshmen on a consistent basis, saved its best performance for last in a 17-10 win at No. 14 Furman to close out the season with a winning record. The 10 points allowed were the fewest by an opponent since October 2005. The defense saw a league-best four rookies named to the inaugural SoCon All-Freshman Team in 2008. As a defensive unit, the Eagles ranked 22nd in TFL per game (7.0) and 26th in sacks per game (2.4) in the nation.

During the 2007 season, the Eagles' defense ranked 14th nationally in turnover margin, a +1.09 per game average. That impressive average was a result of the team's rank of 56th in passes intercepted, 17th in fumbles recovered, and 37th in turnovers gained. Overall, the defensive unit recorded 65 TFL, 19 sacks, 11 interceptions and 56 pass break ups.

Turner lettered three years and spent five years in all with the Georgia Southern football program. The one-time walk-on joined the team in the fall of 2002. He redshirted that year and then saw action in six games his redshirt-freshman year. As a sophomore in 2004, he played in nine games, becoming a valuable member of the special teams unit and helping the Eagles qualify for the playoffs. He recorded three tackles on special teams that season. After missing the 2005 campaign, Turner returned the following season and played in eight games. Again, he provided senior leadership on special teams, ranking among the leaders in tackles in 2006 and earning the Special Teams Captain Award.

Turner joined the Eagles after a standout career at Collins Hill High School. He earned Gwinnett County Player of the Month honors during his junior year. He also lettered three times in baseball, being named to the All-Atlanta team and played with Team Georgia.

Turner graduated in December 2006 with a bachelor's degree in general studies from Georgia Southern. He is married to Stephanie Turner. The couple have three children, Taylor, Peyton and Mack.

Game Recaps

Game 1

at Southern Miss 38, Alcorn State 10 (Aug. 31, 2019)

HATTIESBURG, Miss. - Jaylond Adams certainly put the special in special teams Saturday night at M.M. Roberts Stadium against Alcorn State.

The Southern Miss sophomore returned a kickoff and punt for touchdowns in the Golden Eagles' season-opening 38-10 victory over the Braves.

Adams took the season's opening kickoff 89 yards for a touchdown. The last time a Golden Eagle had run back a kickoff was Jalen Richard against Charlotte in 2015.

With Southern Miss up 28-10 early in the fourth quarter, Adams fielded an Alcorn State punt at his 20-yard line and went 80 yards as the majority of the announced 31,706 roared their approval of Adams for a second time.

The last time a Golden Eagle returned a punt for a touchdown was Quez Watkins in the 2018 season opener with Jackson State.

Adams' kickoff return and two short field goals by freshman signee Andrew Stein gave the Golden Eagles (1-0) a 13-0 halftime lead.

ASU (0-1) pulled within 13-7 early in the third quarter on De'Shawn Waller's 15-yard run to get the Braves within 13-7.

But Southern Miss answered immediately when quarterback Jack Abraham found Neil McLaurin for a 55-yard score. Holder Zac Everett ran in the 2-point conversion and Southern Miss led 21-7.

ASU got within 21-10 on Corey McCullough's 46-yard field goal, but Abraham squeezed through the left side of a collapsing pocket to score on a 14-yard run, and after ASU was forced to punt away its ensuing possession, ripped through the middle of the field and the Braves' coverage to leave Southern Miss up 35-10.

Stein wrapped up the scoring with his longest field goal of the night, a 24-yarder.

Abraham came through with an 18-of-28 performance, throwing for 293 yards and a touchdown. His favorite target, Jordan Mitchell, had seven catches for 133 yards.

Tim Jones finished with 68 yards on five catches.

Alcorn senior quarterback Noah Johnson finished 17-of-31 for 143 yards against a Southern Miss defense that sacked him four times and banged him around on another dozen occasions.

The Braves were limited to 219 total yards.

Game 2

at Mississippi State 38, Southern Miss 15 (Sept. 7, 2019)

STARKVILLE, Miss. - Southern Miss did a pretty good job of moving the football between the 20-yard lines Saturday afternoon at Davis Wade Stadium.

The Golden Eagles just had a dickens of a time getting the ball into the end zone against Mississippi State University.

The Bulldogs had no such issues, breaking off a 28-0 lead before collecting a 38-15 victory before an announced 55,143.

So did the Bulldogs, who lost starting quarterback Tommy Stevens and starting running back Kylin Hill late in the first half.

Stevens did not return. Hill did, and Mississippi State (2-0) just turned to the next man up to finish off the game and the Golden Eagles.

The Bulldogs led 7-0 after one quarter, 21-0 at halftime and 28-0 more than 10 minutes into the third quarter.

Southern Miss (1-1) scored late in the third quarter on the first of Jack Abraham's two touchdown passes, a 28-yarder to Jaylond Adams, then got within 31-15 on his second TD toss, a 65-yarder to Jordan Mitchell.

But Abraham, who also turned the ball over three times, ended any slim hopes the Golden Eagles might have harbored with his second interception of the fourth quarter.

The pick and 45-yard return by Martin Emerson set up a door-slamming, 22-yard touchdown run by freshman Lee Witherspoon with 2 minutes, 20 seconds, left in the game.

It was State's fifth consecutive victory in the series with its intrastate rival, as the Bulldogs became the first in 13 games to score at least 30 points against the Golden Eagles.

Hill became the first in 16 games to rush for more than 100 yards against the Golden Eagles. The junior ran for 123 yards and a touchdown.

Southern Miss actually moved the football fairly effectively, picking up 344 total yards to the Bulldogs' 386. Southern Miss had 53 offensive snaps to State's 62, 17 first downs to 21.

Both teams were rough on third down (Southern Miss just 2-of-9; State 3-of-9), but State scored on every one of its four trips into the red zone while Southern Miss failed on its lone visit when freshman Andrew Stein missed on a 36-yard effort in the first quarter.

Stevens hit Osirus Mitchell for a game-opening touchdown for a second consecutive game. Saturday, he found Mitchell from 28 yards out for a 7-0 lead.

Stevens started the game 9-for-9, an effort that included another scoring pass, this one an 11-yarder to Stephen Guidry for a 14-0 lead.

Game 3

Southern Miss 47, at Troy 42 (Sept. 14, 2019)

TROY, Ala. - Southern Miss football coach Jay Hopson summed up Saturday's slugfest between the Golden Eagles and Troy quite well.

"I'll tell you, that was a fun game to watch," Hopson said in the wake of his Golden Eagles' 47-42 victory over the Trojans before 27,108 at Veterans Memorial Stadium.

"You don't get an opportunity to coach in too many of those."

Not when each team surpassed 500 yards in the passing game, and the two teams combined for more than 1,100 yards total offense.

And most definitely nerve-wracking, with the final result still in the balance until a 6-yard run by Southern Miss quarterback Jack Abraham on fourth-and-2 from the Troy 33 with less than 20 seconds left in the game.

Abraham rewrote his own record by completing his first 17 passes of the game, on his way to completing 28-of-36 passes for 463 yards, the third-highest passing yardage in a game in program history.

With senior Neil McLaurin throwing a 51-yard touchdown pass to senior Jordan Mitchell, USM finished 514 yards passing.

Add in another 112 yards rushing, and the Golden Eagles' uneven offense roared to life Saturday afternoon under Abraham's tutelage.

While the yards themselves were eye-catching, so were the circumstances in many cases.

Through three quarters, the Golden Eagles were 10-of-14 on third downs (71.4 percent). Southern Miss finished the game converting 11-of-17 third-down opportunities (64.7 percent).

Troy senior quarterback Kaleb Barker completed 29-of-43 passes for a program-record 504 yards and four touchdowns.

Barker became only the fourth quarterback to throw for 500 yards against the Golden Eagles, joining Houston's Case Keenum (559 yards, 1999); Georgia's Eric Zeier (544 yards, 1993); and San Diego State's Dennis Shaw (524 yards, 1968).

Barker also became the first quarterback to throw for 500 yards against Southern Miss in a losing effort.

Four different Troy receivers topped 100 yards, including junior Tray Eafford (110 yards, seven catches, one touchdown); junior Kaylon Geiger (118 yards, six catches, on touchdown); sophomore Luke Whittemore (110 yards, five catches); and junior Khalil McClain (104 yards, four catches, two touchdowns).

Game 4

at No. 2 Alabama 49, Southern Miss 7 (Sept. 21, 2019)

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. - Alabama quarterback Tua Tagovailoa threw for five touchdowns as the second-ranked Crimson Tide overwhelmed Southern Miss 49-7 Saturday at Bryant-Denny Stadium.

The Golden Eagles (2-2) simply could not keep pace with a quarterback who completed 81 percent of his passes to fuel an offense that hit 504 total yards.

Alabama (4-0) jumped out to a 28-0 lead in the second quarter before the Golden Eagles scored with 62 seconds left in the first half.

The Tide answered on the opening possession of the second half with Tagovailoa throwing his fifth touchdown pass of the game before being pulled along with a number of other starters.

Alabama then turned to its ground game for its final two touchdowns.

Southern Miss was held to less than 10 points for only the second time in the Hopson era, matched only by a 30-7 loss at the University of North Texas in 2018.

Alabama, which has scored at least 42 points a game this season, stretched its winning streak over USM to seven consecutive games.

The Tide jumped out quickly, needing just six plays in its first two possessions to take a 14-0 lead on Tagovailoa touchdown passes of 45 yards and 74 yards to Henry Ruggs III.

Tagovailoa, who threw for 293 yards, connected on touchdown passes in the second quarter with running back Najee Harris (5 yards) and Jerry Jeudy (17 yards).

Southern Miss got a 4-yard touchdown pass from Jack Abraham to running back DeMichael Harris with 1:02 left in the first half to get within 28-7.

But that was as far as the Golden Eagles got.

Tagovaila capped a 77-yard drive to open the second half with his second touchdown strike of the game to Jeudy (20 yards).

The Tide tacked on a 6-yard scoring run by Brian Robinson Jr. in the third quarter and 5-yard run by Jerome Ford in the fourth quarter.

Abraham completed 17-of-26 passes for 174 yards and a touchdown with an interception. He was sacked twice.

DeMichael Harris led Southern Miss with 34 yards rushing and 50 yards receiving. Jaylond Adams led the Golden Eagles with five catches, but for only 17 yards.

Ruggs finished with four catches for 148 yards and two touchdowns. Jeudy had a game-high six catches for 96 yards and two scores.

Game 5

at Southern Miss 31, UTEP 13 (Sept. 28, 2019)

HATTIESBURG, Miss. - Southern Miss did exactly what needed to be done Saturday evening in its Conference USA opener with UTEP at M.M. Roberts Stadium.

Quarterback Jack Abraham guided a Golden Eagles' offense that cracked the 500 yards total offense, while Southern Miss' defense limited the Miners to less than 300 yards on the way to a 31-13 victory before a crowd of 23,337.

Abraham completed 19-of-238 passes for 351 yards and a season-high three touchdowns.

Abraham found De'Michael Harris out of the backfield with a feathery, 12-yard toss that turned into a 74-yard touchdown pass and a 7-0 lead for the Golden Eagles (3-2, 1-0 C-USA).

After the defense halted UTEP, Jordan Mitchell came in from the left side to block Mitchell Crawford's punt, with the ball rolling out of bounds at the Miners' 2-yard line.

Two plays later, Abraham rolled left after s fake handoff, then pitched to Harris, who slipped into the end zone for a 2-yard touchdown run and a 14-0 Southern Miss lead less than six minutes into the game.

For Harris, it was his third touchdown in the past two games.

Abraham would later throw touchdown passes of 22 yards to Mitchell in the second quarter and 6 yards to Jaylond Adams.

Andrew Stein booted a 38-yard field goal to round out the Southern Miss scoring.

UTEP (1-3, 0-1) got field goals of 28 yards and 46 yards from Gavin Baechle before quarterback Kai Locksley popped a 63-yard run through the middle of the Southern Miss defense on the Miners' first offensive snap of the second half.

Locksley, who netted a game-high 114 yards rushing, pulled UTEP within 24-13 just 1:05 into the third quarter.

But Abraham led Southern Miss on a 10-play, 92-yard drive that culminated in the scoring toss to Adams and shifted the momentum back to the Golden Eagles.

Those also turned out to be the final points of the gamer scored by either team.

But Southern Miss' defense limited UTEP to 74 yards over the final quarter-and-a-half, including just 23 yards offense on 11 snaps in the fourth quarter.

Adams finished with a game-high five catches and a score. Mitchell had four catches for 47 yards and a touchdown.

Quez Watkins had two catches for 97 yards, including a 61-yard grab. Tim Jones had two catches for 29 yards, including a 29-yarder that set up Stein's field goal on the last play of the first half.

Harris not only had two catches for 80 yards, he netted 62 yards and a touchdown. Kevin Perkins led the Golden Eagles with 65 yards rushing on 11 carries.

Abraham, who hit three of his first seven passes (42.9 percent), finished by completing 16 of his last 21 (76.2 percent).

Game 6

at Southern Miss 45, North Texas 27 (Oct. 12, 2019)

HATTIESBURG, Miss. - Unlike a year ago, when Southern Miss couldn't seem to finish off a drive at North Texas, the Golden Eagles celebrated the 2019 homecoming by scoring and scoring and scoring.

Quarterback Jack Abraham threw for 421 yards and three touchdowns as the Golden Eagles topped the Mean Green 45-27 before 25,225 at M.M. Roberts Stadium.

Southern Miss snapped a three-game losing streak to the Mean Green by winning consecutive games for the first time this season.

Abraham's passing yards marked only the seventh, 400-yard-plus passing game in program history. Abraham, who threw for a career-high 463 yards at Troy, has three of the top seven passing performances in school history.

His effort Saturday helped the Golden Eagles top the 500-yard mark in total offense (563 yards) for the third time this season, including the first two games of C-USA play.

Southern Miss' defense more than chipped in, holding a high-octane North Texas offense to less than 400 yards total yards. The Mean Green came in averaging 451 yards per game; it got just 378 yards Saturday.

USM also came up with two interceptions in a game for the first time this season, with Rachuan Mitchell and Ky'el Hemby coming up with their first interceptions of the season.

Running back D'Michael Harris became the first Golden Eagle this season to score three times in a game, rush for two touchdowns in a single game and run for 100 yards.

Harris, who has three of the seven-longest plays from scrimmage by a Golden Eagle this season, ran for 103 yards on 13 carries, including scoring runs of 60 yards and 13 yards.

Harris also caught five passes for 79 yards, including a 59-yard touchdown reception.

Quez Watkins finished with eight catches for 198 yards, including a 14-yard touchdown catch and a 72-yard gain that set up another score.

North Texas quarterback Mason Fine threw for 217 yards and three touchdowns before exiting with six minutes left in the third quarter.

Fine appeared to have hurt his left shoulder when he was sacked the previous series by USM end Terry Whittington. Three downs later, Fine was on the turf after being sacked by Whittington and linebacker Darius Kennedy before being helped up and guided to the sideline.

Jason Bean replaced Fine, and led North Texas to a late score, but threw for just 39 yards and a touchdown with an interception.

North Texas running back DeAndre Torrey, who ran for 95 yards and three touchdowns in 2018 against the Golden Eagles, was limited to 61 yards Saturday.

Southern Miss broke on top 6-0 when Harris turned a flanker screen into a 59-yard touchdown on the opening possession of the game.

But Torrey returned the kickoff 45 yards to midfield and then ran for 5 yards before Fine found Jyaire Shorter for a 45-yard touchdown for a 7-6 lead.

Harris popped through a hole in the middle and ran away from would-be tacklers for 60 yards to give Southern Miss a short-lived 13-7 lead.

Fine answered with 53-yard touchdown pass to Jaelon Darden, who was wide open after a play-action apparently caused USM coverage.

But Mitchell's interception set up Southern Miss at the North Texas 12-yard line, and Abraham immediately found tight end Ray Ladner for his first career reception, which also became his first career touchdown.

When Jaylond Adams fought his way into the end zone with a 2-point Abraham pass, the Golden Eagles led 21-14.

Fine and Darden hooked up for second time, scoring on a 2-yard pass, but North Texas missed the extra point and trailed 21-20.

Abraham capped the first half scoring with his team-high third touchdown run of the season, a 1-yard smash that put Southern Miss up 28-20 at halftime.

Southern Miss then grabbed the game by the throat, scoring on Andrew Stein's 35-yard field goal, Watkins' 14-yard touchdown catch and Harris' 13-yard run.

A wide-open Darden hauled in his third score of the game on a 20-yard pass from Bean with 2:34 to play when a Southern Miss defender fell down.

Game 7

at Louisiana Tech 45, Southern Miss 30 (Oct. 19, 2019)

RUSTON, La. (AP) - In a high-scoring offensive shootout, it was defense that made the difference.

Louisiana Tech held the Golden Eagles to three points in the second half and took over sole possession of first place in Conference USA's West Division.

Louisiana Tech quarterback J'Mar Smith threw for 325 yards, with 212 of those going to Malik Stanley.

Smith completed 14 of 21 passes with one touchdown — a 56-yarder to Stanley — and an interception. Smith also scored on a quarterback sneak early in the fourth quarter to give Louisiana Tech the lead for good.

Justin Henderson had 111 rushing yards and two touchdowns for the Bulldogs.

Southern Miss quarterback Jack Abraham was 26-of-40 passing for 327 yards and one touchdown, and also ran for a 37-yard touchdown, but threw four interceptions.

DeMichael Harris returned the opening kickoff 100 yards for the Golden Eagles.

Almost all of the highlights for Southern Miss came in the first half, though. After taking a 27-17 lead late in the first half, they were outscored 28-3 the rest of the way.

Abraham threw threw of his four interceptions in the fourth quarter. One of them was by Robertson in the end zone and led to a 1-yard rushing touchdown by Bobby Holly that put Louisiana Tech ahead 38-27 with 6:28 remaining.

Another was returned 30 yards by Barnett to make it 45-30 with 1:27 left. Robertson got one final pick on Southern Miss' last drive, with just over a minute to go.

Game 8

Southern Miss 20, at Rice 6 (Oct. 26, 2019)

HOUSTON, Texas - On a day when the Southern Miss offense struggled to get points on the scoreboard, the Golden Eagles' defense rode to the rescue.

Southern Miss' defense limited Rice to just 139 yards total offense Saturday afternoon, including a net 8 yards rushing, as the Golden Eagles pulled out a 20-6 C-USA victory at Rice Stadium.

The Golden Eagles sacked Rice quarterbacks Wiley Green and Evan Marshman eight times, including three consecutive times in the fourth quarter with USM clinging to a 13-6 lead.

Junior running back Kevin Perkins scored the first two touchdowns of his Southern Miss career. Perkins, who finished with a career-high 86 yards on 13 carries, scored on a 2-yard run in the second quarter and a 38-yard run with 32 seconds to play.

Southern Miss (got a pair of field goals from freshman Andrew Stein to round out a stingy day where points were hard to find for both teams.

Junior quarterback Jack Abraham completed 23-of-36 passes for 207 yards with an interception. Abraham did not throw a touchdown pass in a game for the first time this season and only the second time in his USM career.

Junior receiver Tim Jones grabbed a career-best 10 passes for 96 yards and junior Quez Watkins added six catches for 67 yards.

A scoreless first quarter set the game's tone before the Golden Eagles jumped out to a 10-0 halftime lead on Stein's 24-yard field goal and the shorter of Perkins' scoring runs.

Southern Miss had to settle for a second Stein field goal, a 34-yarder, early in the third quarter before the momentum shifted.

Aided by two Southern Miss penalties, Rice drove 70 yards on seven plays, with Wiley Green finding Austin Trammel for a 15-yard touchdown. After the extra point was botched, Southern Miss led 13-6.

Late in the third quarter, Rice intercepted an Abraham pass at the Southern Miss 29-yard line, and drove to the 2. But Green was picked off at the end zone by junior safety Ky'el Hemby.

The Golden Eagles then marched the length of the field, reaching first-and-goal at the Rice 4. But Southern Miss was denied by the Owls, and Stein missed a 27-yard field goal.

The teams traded punts until Perkins' run in the final seconds.

Game 9

at Southern Miss 37, UAB 2 (Nov. 9, 2019)

HATTIESBURG, Miss. - Southern Miss snapped a three-game losing streak against UAB, winning 37-2 and reached postseason eligibility in the process before 23,819 at M.M. Roberts Stadium.

Quarterback Jack Abraham threw a pair of touchdowns and the Golden Eagles defense held the Blazers' offense without a point.

The win was just Southern Miss' second win over the Blazers in the past nine seasons, but gave the Golden Eagles bowl eligibility for the fourth consecutive season under Coach Jay Hopson.

Saturday marked the earliest calendar date (Nov. 9) as well as the earliest in the schedule (ninth game) Southern Miss had gained postseason eligibility in Hopson's four seasons

Abraham threw touchdown passes of 20 yards to Quez Watkins and 9 yards to Tim Jones. Abraham, who was sacked four times and passing under pressure another half dozen times, completed 17-of-22 passes for 164 yards.

Andrew Stein connected on field goals of 25 yards, 35 yards and 44 yards.

Running back Steven Anderson scored on a 6-yard run and safety D.Q. Thomas became the first Golden Eagle to turn an interception into a touchdown this season, returning a mistake by UAB quarterback Dylan Hopkins 55 yards for a score.

Hopkins completed 15-of-25 passes for 103 yards with two interceptions.

All told, UAB (6-3, 3-2) managed just 173 yards against the Golden Eagles, the second consecutive game Southern Miss had held an opponent to less than 200 yards total offense and less than 10 points.

The only points the Blazers managed came on a third-quarter sack of Abraham in the end zone, with offensive lineman Drake Dorbeck swatting the fumble through the back of the end zone.

Kevin Perkins led the Southern Miss ground game with 94 yards on just six carries, including a 79-yard jaunt in the fourth quarter that set up Jones' first TD catch of the season.

Jones had a game-high six catches for 67 yards, while Watkins had five catches for 87 yards.

Game 10

Southern Miss 36, at UTSA 17 (Nov. 16, 2019)

SAN ANTONIO, Texas - De'Michael Harris ran for a career-high 121 yards and two touchdowns and Quez Watkins topped the 100-yard receiving mark for the fourth time this season as Southern Miss topped UTSA 36-17 at the Alamodome.

The Golden Eagles logged their third consecutive win.

Southern Miss never trailed Saturday, but UTSA (4-6, 3-3) twice tied the game in the first half and trailed by only six points with less than five minutes left in the third quarter. The Golden Eagles outscored the Roadrunners 16-0 over the final 19 minutes, 54 seconds, to put up their most points on the road since a 467-41 win at Troy University on Sept. 14. Southern Miss used big a quartet of big plays from Harris, Watkins and running back Kevin Perkins to first seize control of the game and then put UTSA away. The Golden Eagles took a 7-0 lead on a 2-yard scoring pass from Jack Abraham to Tim Jones. After being held out of the end zone through the first eight games, Jones has caught TD passes in each of his last two. He hauled in eight passes for 97 yards and a score.

UTSA wasted no time in tying the game. On the first play from scrimmage, Lowell Narcisse found Joshua Cephus with a 75-yard touchdown pass and the teams exited the first quarter tied 7-7.

Andrew Stein gave Southern Miss a 10-7 lead in the second quarter with a 27-yard field goal before UTSA's Hunter Duplessis tied the game with a 25-yarder.

Enter Harris.

The Roadrunners had limited Harris to 14 yards rushing and two catches for 7 yards through the first quarter-and-a-half.

Then, Harris found a crease in the middle, brought one defender to his knees with a shimmy to the right and split two more Roadrunners, blazing his way to a 56-yard touchdown and a 16-10 halftime lead.

It was Watkins' turn early in the second half, turning a slant route into a 77-yard touchdown and a 23-10 lead. Watkins would finish with seven catches for 137 yards.

UTSA came up with another big play to pull back within a score when Narcisse found Carlos Strickland with a 51-yard touchdown.

But Harris ripped off a 33-yard run for a touchdown late in the third quarter and Perkins rambled 39 yards for a game-sealing score in the fourth quarter.

Southern Miss has had two games where a back has gone for 100 yards, and Harris has them both. Saturday, he logged a career-high 121 yards and two touchdowns 16 carries.

Perkins provided 65 yards and a score on just eight carries as the Golden Eagles netted 203 yards rushing.

It marked the first 200-yard rushing game of the season and the first since gaining 252 yards in the 2018 regular-season finale against UTEP. Southern Miss averaged a season-high 5.2 yards per carry.

The ground game provided a nice balance for a passing game that produced 290 yards. Abraham hit 22-of-34 passes with two touchdowns and an interception.

The Golden Eagles gave up some big plays through the air, but held the Roadrunners to 97 yards rushing. It marked the fifth time an opponent had run for less than 100 yards against Southern Miss.

The defense also came up with three takeaways and sacked Narcisse five times. Narcisse completed 21-of-40 passes for 325 yards and two touchdowns with an interception.

Zakhari Franklin caught seven passes for 97 yards, Strickland had five grabs for 79 yards and a touchdown and Cephus had three catches for 95 yards and a score.

Game 11

WKU 28, at Southern Miss 10 (Nov. 23, 2019)

HATTIESBURG, Miss. - As a first-time visitor to M.M. Roberts Stadium, Western Kentucky proved to be downright rude guests.

The Hilltoppers not only snapped Southern Miss' three-game winning streak, but ruined its bid to remain unbeaten at home by handing the Golden Eagles' a 28-10 loss before 20,369.

The Golden Eagles (7-4, 5-2 Conference USA) missed an opportunity to move into sole possession of first place in C-USA's West Division.

Southern Miss remains in a first-place tie atop the division with Louisiana Tech and UAB. All three schools wrap up the regular season Saturday, with the Golden Eagles on the road at Florida Atlantic at 2:30 p.m. CT

But Southern Miss may have lost more than a ballgame Saturday.

WKU (7-4, 5-2), which snapped a two-game losing streak, took the opening possession of the game and went 75 yards for a touchdown, scoring on 21-yard run by receiver Jacquez Sloan

Southern Miss answered on a 68-yard pass from Abraham to receiver Tim Jones. It marked the third consecutive week the pair had hooked up for a touchdown.

WKU took the lead for good on a 64-yard pass from Ty Storey to Jahcour Pearson less than 3 minutes into the second quarter.

The lead grew to 21-7 at halftime on Storey's 21-yard pass to Quin Jernighan.

After a scoreless third quarter, WKU made it 28-7 when Abraham was sacked by WKU defensive tackle Jeremy Darden, causing a fumble that was scooped up by DeAngelo Malone and returned 5 yards for a touchdown.

Abraham completed 16-of-31 passes for 223 yards and a touchdown. Tim Jones caught seven passes for a game-high 159 yards.

Watkins caught eight passes for 90 yards, becoming just the eighth Golden Eagle in program history to reach 1,000 yards receiving in a single season.

Storey completed 20-of-30 passes for 225 yards and two touchdowns. Pearson (88 yards) and Lucky Jackson (36 yards) each had seven catches.

Game 12

at Florida Atlantic 34, Southern Miss 17 (Nov. 30, 2019)

BOCA RATON, Fla. - Five turnovers by quarterback Jack Abraham, including four interceptions, helped doom the Southern Miss to a 34-17 defeat at Florida Atlantic in the regular-season finale for both teams.

The win clinched Conference USA's East Division for the Owls and locked a host spot for them in the C-USA championship game, where they will take on UAB.

The Golden Eagles held the football for more than 38 minutes, running 76 plays on offense. But Southern Miss managed just 258 yards total offense, its worst output against conference competition and second-lowest on the season only to the 228 yards at Alabama.

The five turnovers led directly to 14 FAU points.

FAU managed just 300 yards total yards, but had two touchdown drives of two plays and a third consisting of one.

FAU quarterback Chris Robison completed just eight passes, but three went for touchdowns to Harrison Bryant. Robison was intercepted by Malik Shorts in the second quarter, leading to Southern Miss' first touchdown.

Trailing 17-0, the Golden Eagles scored on a 23-yard field goal by Andrew Stein and an 8-yard run by Steven Anderson (54 yards rushing) to get within 17-10 at halftime.

But FAU went back up by two scores when Abraham was sacked and fumbled, with the Owls returning the ball to the 3-yard line.

FAU running back B.J. Emmons (71 yards rushing) scored on the next play for a 24-10 lead.

Abraham, who completed 25-of-39 passes for 182 yards, capped a 70-yard drive with a 2-yard TD run to pull Southern Miss within 24-17 later in the third quarter.

But Abraham was intercepted twice in a fourth quarter that saw the Owls outscore the Golden Eagles 10-0 to lock up the win.

Game 13

Tulane 30, Southern Miss 13 (Jan. 4, 2020)

FORT WORTH, Texas (AP) - Justin McMillan threw three touchdown passes in the third quarter as Tulane rallied for a 30-13 win while renewing a rivalry against Southern Miss in the Armed Forces Bowl on Saturday.

The Golden Eagles took a 13-0 lead after Jack Abraham threw a touchdown pass and ran for a score on their first drives, but the quarterback took a hard shot on his last snap before halftime and didn't play again. They also lost top running back De'Michael Harris to a hamstring injury in the first half.

Tulane tied the game at 13-all on its first possession after halftime, when McMillan threw a 52-yard TD pass to Jalen McCleskey.

McMillan had a high-stepping 18-yard run to set up Merek Glover's third field goal, a tiebreaking 36-yarder, before TD passes to Jacob Robertson (7 yards) and a wide-open Amare Jones (20 yards) on the next two drives.

McMillan had only 22 yards passing at halftime, but was 9-of-10 for 193 yards after that in his final game. The former transfer from LSU won two Texas state championships playing at Cedar Hill High School, which is about 35 miles from the TCU campus where the bowl was played.

Abraham, only the third Golden Eagles quarterback with a 3,000-yard passing season, threw 44-yard touchdown pass to Quez Watkins and ran 3 yards for another score for the 13-0 lead.

But Abraham took a shot on a blitz by linebacker Lawrence Graham and fell hard on his shoulder on a third-down incompletion in the final minute of the first half. Abraham never returned, though he was still in uniform on the sideline after halftime.

COLLEGE FOOTBALL PLAYOFF

The Playoff

During the 2014-15 season, college football entered a new era when postseason playoffs began. The format is simple: top four teams, two semifinals played in bowl games, and a national championship game played in a different city each year. Each semifinal will be played during the New Year's holiday with the national championship game in prime time on a Monday night at least a week later.

The Selection Committee

A selection committee will choose the four teams for the playoff based on their performance during the regular season, including, strength of schedule, head-to-head results, championships won, and other factors. The teams will be seeded so that #1 will play #4 in one semifinal and #2 will meet #3 in the other, with the winners advancing to the national championship game.

The Rotation

The semifinals will rotate among six different bowls, extending the experience to more fans. In the years when the bowls are not hosting semifinals, the bowls will feature eight other teams in four compelling matchups.

For the 2020-21 season, the Goodyear Cotton Bowl (Dec. 30), Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl (Jan. 1), PlayStation Fiesta Bowl (Jan. 2) and Capital One Orange Bowl (Jan. 2), will host its regular bowl games, while the Rose Bowl Game presented by Northwestern Mutual (Jan. 1) and Allstate Sugar Bowl (Jan. 1) will host semifinals. The College Football Championship will be held on Monday, Jan. 11 in Miami, Florida.

C-USA and the College Football Playoff

As a member of the College Football Playoff, Conference USA will be a part of one of the College Football Playoff bowls if it has the highest rated champion from among the American Athletic, C-USA, Mid-American, Mountain West and Sun Belt Conferences.

Thad "Pie" Vann

20 Seasons | 1949-1968
Record: 139-59-2

When Green finished his coaching career, there was no question about who would replace him. Thad Vann stepped into the shoes of head coach in 1949 and led the fortunes of Mississippi Southern through the 1968 season. Vann's club would win two National College Division Championships, was later inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame and, Vann Hall, the former athletic dorm, is named in his honor.

Southern Miss Legends Club

Over the years there have been many standouts to don Southern Miss Golden Eagle jerseys. There have been countless all-conference and All-America players. There have been members of conference championship and NCAA postseason teams. There have been those who made their mark on Golden Eagle athletics, excelling in different sports and eras, all giving their heart and soul for Southern Miss.

While the standouts to grace the fields and courts have been many, there's been a select few who truly carved a niche in their respective sports. The Southern Miss Department of Athletics created an organization to honor these heroes – the Southern Miss Legends Club.

An idea inspired by former football great Sammy Winder, the Legends Club recognizes former university athletic standouts who made prominent contributions in their individual sports.

The players' athletic feats are enough to deserve the highest honor in the world of sports – having their respective jerseys retired. But with the Legends Club, Southern Miss' standouts do not have their jerseys retired. Instead, the players are honored by being recognized with membership in this prestigious club. Their names and numbers will be displayed prominently in the athletic facilities in which they played.

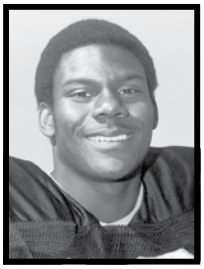

There are 23 such members in the Legends Club, 15 of which are associated with the football program. Those individuals include Reggie Collier, Fred Cook, Hanford Dixon, Brett Favre, Ray Guy, Bucky McElroy, Derrick Nix, Hugh Laurin Pepper, Bubba Phillips, Adalius Thomas and Sammy Winder, along with the 1958 and 1962 National Championship teams and former coaches Jeff Bower and Thad "Pie" Vann.

The remaining makeup of the Legends Club includes four associated with the men's basketball program. This group consists of all-star players Wendell Ladner, Nick Revon, Clarence Weatherspoon and legendary coach M.K. Turk, the winningest coach in the program's history. Also represented are women's basketball standout Janice Felder and women's softball stars Courtney Blades and Amy Berman. Only one other coach has been inducted into the group – former women's basketball coach Kay James.

Bowl History

1953 Sun Bowl Pacific 26, Southern Miss 7

EL PASO, Texas - Mississippi Southern made its first bowl appearance here in El Paso, Texas, but it would be the College of the Pacific who would leave Texas as the winner, 26-7. Pacific scored the first points of the game and never looked back. Trailing 13-0 at the half, MSC received the kickoff and then fumbled the ball on the very next play, resulting in a Tiger touchdown. Coach Pie Vann's squad would lose four fumbles on the day. Mississippi Southern's only score came on a 73-yard march with little time remaining. Hugh Laurin Pepper scored on a two-yard run, and Peanuts Davenport kicked the extra point. Newspaper reports from the day after the game indicate that defensive tackle J. T. Shepard was the defensive standout for the Southerners. He blocked a punt and recovered it, as well as making some key tackles.

1954 Sun Bowl UTEP 37, Southern Miss 14

EL PASO, Texas - Although it was the second consecutive trip to the Sun Bowl for the Southerners, the result was the same as the UTEP quarterback and Sun Bowl MVP Dick Shinaut threw for two touchdowns, booted a 14-yard field goal, and led the Miners to a 47-20 victory over the Southerners. The Miners struck early, recovering a fumble in the MSC end zone for the first score. UTEP built up a 30-7 halftime lead. The MSC first score came on a Billy Jarrell 13-yard pass to Tommie Wood. The other MSC score came on a 13-yard run by Fred Smallwood in the third quarter.

1957 Tangerine Bowl West Texas A&M 20, Southern Miss 13

ORLANDO, Fla. - Mississippi Southern Coach Pie Vann called this 20-13 loss to West Texas State "my toughest loss ever," although Vann would go on to coach 11 years. The Southerners jumped out to an early 13-0 lead at halftime and were threatening early in the third quarter when the Buffaloes' defensive back Ron Mills returned an interception 75 yards for a touchdown to ignite West Texas State. J. C. Arban scored MSC's first touchdown on a 51-yard Statue of Liberty play, and Bobby Hughes threw a 53-yard bomb to Jerry Taylor for Mississippi Southern's other score. But it was not enough, as Mills scored on a two-yard romp, and quarterback Bubba Hillman scampered 19 yards for the other score, stealing victory away from Mississippi Southern. The following day the Orlando Sentinel called the game the "best in 11 years."

1958 Tangerine Bowl Texas A&M Commerce 10, Southern Miss 9

ORLANDO, Fla. - Mississippi Southern had every opportunity in the world to win the 12th Annual Tangerine Bowl, but East Texas State found a way to postpone an MSC Bowl victory, defeating the Southerners 10-9. The Lions scored the first touchdown of the game when Garry Berry went in from the three-yard line. MSC quarterback George Sekul then engineered a drive that resulted in his scoring on a one-yard plunge. Before the half ended, the Lions center snapped the ball over the punter's head and out of the end zone, giving Coach Pie Vann's club a 9-7 halftime lead. With 7:47 left in the game, East Texas State's Neal Hinson connected on a 31-yard field goal that was the eventual winning score. Southern's Curry Juneau was cited for his outstanding defensive play.

1980 Independence Bowl Southern Miss 16, McNeese State 14

SHREVEPORT, La. - Golden Eagle fans would have to wait until USM's fifth bowl appearance before they could claim a victory. The Eagles' Winston Walker hit a 36-yard field goal, and Clemon Terrell scored on a 14-yard run in the first quarter to give USM the early advantage. USM, though, fell behind 14-10 late in the third quarter. With just 1:17 remaining, USM's Mike Woodard scored on a one-yard plunge to ensure a 16-14 Golden Eagle victory. For his stellar play, Jerald Baylis was named the defensive MVP.

SHREVEPORT, La. - This game could be renamed "The James Henry Show." The USM defensive back/punt returner scored two second half touchdowns on punt returns of 65- and 45-yards. For his efforts, he took home both the offensive and defensive game MVP honors. USM's Shelton Gandy also turned in a solid performance, scoring two touchdowns and putting UTEP completely out of the game. For the Golden Eagles it was only the second bowl win in school history.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. - The Golden Eagles made the trip to nearby Birmingham, Alabama, for their first appearance in the All American Bowl. Just two weeks earlier, USM hired former Golden Eagle quarterback Jeff Bower to direct the program. USM quarterback Brett Favre threw for 341 yards and two touchdowns, but it would not be enough, as North Carolina State went on to a 31-27 victory. For the Eagles, freshman receiver Mark Montgomery caught two Favre passes for touchdowns, while running backs Michael Welch and Tony Smith added touchdowns on the ground.

1997 Liberty Bowl Southern Miss 41, Pittsburgh 7

MEMPHIS, Tenn. - Southern Miss capped off an amazing season by claiming a 41-7 victory over Big East opponent Pittsburgh in the Liberty Bowl before a crowd of 50,209 mostly Golden Eagle fans. The win ended USM's season at 9-3, which capped off a season that saw the Golden Eagles earn a second consecutive Conference USA championship. The game was a showcase for both the USM offense and defense. Sherrod Gideon was named the game's Most Valuable Player after hauling in three touchdown passes from the arm of quarterback Lee Roberts. No. 22 Southern Miss combined the passing of Roberts to Gideon for three touchdowns with three defensive TDs for the 41-7 win. On a mission after being shut out of the bowl picture last year despite an 8-3 record, the Eagles capped it off with the Liberty Bowl victory and a perfect season in Conference USA. The 34-point margin of victory was the widest in the bowl's history, surpassing a pair of 30-point differences from the 1976 and 1994 contests.

1998 Humanitarian Bowl Idaho 42, Southern Miss 35

BOISE, Idaho - Leading 21-7 with a 1st and 10 at the Idaho 38 yard line and 8:13 left in the first half, Southern Miss appeared well on its way to a second straight bowl victory. However, the Golden Eagles did not convert that scoring opportunity, and, before the first half ended, the Vandals scored three times to take a 28-21 lead into the locker room before a crowd of 19,664 at the Humanitarian Bowl. The two teams fought to a 14-14 standoff in the second half, though Southern Miss did tie the score at 35 with 6:37 left in the game, and, after Idaho scored to take a 42-35 lead, the Golden Eagles had one final opportunity to tie the game but moved as far as their own 40 yard line before losing a fumble that allowed the Vandals to run out the clock. Several Golden Eagle players had big games, including freshman running back Derrick Nix, who capped his first season with a 29-carry, 122-yard performance; quarterback Lee Roberts, who ended his college career with a 30-of-51 passing performance that netted 342 yards and a pair of touchdowns; and, junior wideout Sherrod Gideon, who caught both Roberts TDs and finished with 12 catches for 117 yards. Roberts earned game MVP honors for his performance. Southern Miss won the rushing and passing yardage battles with a 170-153 edge in rushing and a solid 362-291 margin in passing. However, the Golden Eagles also lost five of six fumbles, while managing to force three Idaho fumbles, all recovered by USM.

1999 Liberty Bowl Southern Miss 23, Colorado State 17

MEMPHIS, Tenn. - The Southern Miss defense, which had been regarded as one of the best in school history all season long, made a strong argument for that case as it held Colorado State to only 268 total yards, its second-lowest of the season, in a hard-fought 23-17 win. The win was the second Liberty Bowl championship for the Golden Eagles in three years. In 1997, Southern Miss defeated Pittsburgh 41-7. Unlike 1997, when the Golden Eagle offense put on an offensive clinic, the Southern Miss offense struggled, but was rescued by the stingy play of the Golden Eagle defense. Southern Miss managed only 187 yards, but the Golden Eagle defense held when it counted most. In the second half, USM held Colorado State scoreless despite being on the field for 19 minutes. After the game, a jubilant Jeff Bower praised his defense. "I'm officially declaring this the best Southern Miss defense ever," said Bower.

2003 Liberty Bowl Utah 17, Southern Miss 0

MEMPHIS, Tenn. - The 2003 AXA Liberty Bowl was deemed the battle of champions, and in the end, it was just that - at least on the defensive side of the ball. Utah did just enough on offense to take a 17-0 victory over Southern Miss in a tough, defensive clash at Liberty Bowl Memorial Stadium.

The defenses were so good that the two teams managed to convert only 4-of-31 third down attempts, two by each team. Utah was averaging 381 yards a game coming in but netted only 228 against the Golden Eagle defense, and Southern Miss had just 213 yards, as compared to the 334 yards per game prior to the game. The game also marked the first time that Southern Miss had been shut out since the 1995 season, when the team fell 42-0 to Tennessee.

The Utes' offensive total included 104 yards on the ground. Running back Brandon Warfield paced Utah with a game-high 91 yards and one touchdown.

The Golden Eagles had a chance to get on the board first in the opening quarter, but Darren McCaleb's 47-yard field goal attempt fell short, keeping the game scoreless at the 9:40 mark.

Running back Anthony Harris led Southern Miss with 70 yards on 14 carries, while Dustin Almond finished with 122 yards on 11-of-13 passing. Senior All-American linebacker Rod Davis ended his decorated Southern Miss career with a game-high 16 tackles, including eight solos, and was named the Golden Eagles' Defensive Player of the Game. He became the school's all-time leader in total tackles, notching 526 in his career.

Bowl History

2007 GMAC Bowl Southern Miss 28, Ohio 7

Southern Miss scored three second-quarter touchdowns to defeat Mid-American Conference foe Ohio, 28-7, in the Eighth Annual GMAC Bowl at Ladd-Peebles Stadium.

After a scoreless opening quarter, true freshman Tory Harrison got the Golden Eagles on the scoreboard with a 43-yard rushing touchdown with 8:33 left in the period. It was the longest rushing touchdown of the year for Southern Miss as his score ended an eight-play, 90-yard drive.

Fellow freshman Damion Fletcher added a two-yard run for a score with 3:03 remaining before halftime to give the Golden Eagles an insurmountable advantage. Fletcher, the game's most valuable player, finished the contest with 58 yards on 20 carries to go along with three receptions for 28 yards.

Then it was the defense's turn to get in the on the scoring barrage right before the half.

The game's defensive most valuable player, James Denley, picked off a Brad Bower pass and returned it 18 yards for a score to complete the Golden Eagles second-quarter scoring with 1:13 to play. The 21 points tied a season-high for a quarter with which they did two other times during the year. It also marked the seventh non-offensive touchdown for Southern Miss during the campaign - the most in a season in the Jeff Bower era.

The offense then put the game out of reach to start the third quarter as the Golden Eagles took the opening kickoff and put together a drive that spanned 80 yards and 17 plays. More importantly, the drive consumed 9:55 of the game clock. Fletcher then ended the drive with a nine-yard scoring run for his second score of the game.

Junior quarterback Jeremy Young helped keep the drive alive with a 17-yard pass to Anthony Perine on a 3rd-and-10. Young ended the game as the offensive most valuable player, as he finished the day with 160 yards passing on 14-of-22 attempts and an interception.

2007 Papajohns.com Bowl Cincinnati 31, Southern Miss 21

Ben Mauk completed 30-of-52 passes for 334 yards and four scores as 20th-ranked Cincinnati collected a 31-21 victory over Southern Miss in the 2nd annual Papajohns.com Bowl at Legion Field in Birmingham.

DeAngelo Smith led an opportunistic Bearcats defense, intercepting Southern Miss quarterback Jeremy Young three times.

Dominick Goodman hauled in seven passes - including two touchdowns - for 95 yards and Connor Barwin and Antwuan Giddens also finished with seven receptions each. Mauk was intercepted three times, but also rushed for 41 yards.

Young was 18-for-32 for 122 yards passing with a pair of touchdowns in addition to the three picks. The senior also rushed for 55 yards and a score in his final collegiate outing.

Damion Fletcher carried 29 times for 155 yards, but the Golden Eagles were unable to generate any offense on their final two scoring opportunities and had a two-game win streak snapped in their last game under longtime head coach Jeff Bower.

Down 31-14 following a pair of Cincinnati scores late in the third quarter, Southern Miss didn't go away, driving 76 yards to pull back within 10 points. Young hit Chris Johnson over the middle for a five-yard TD to complete the drive with 9:37 remaining.

The Eagles then attempted an onside kick, and momentarily appeared to have recovered, but Barwin emerged with the ball, positioning the Bearcats in USM territory. The Southern Miss defense held, but on the following series Fletcher was stopped short of converting a 4th-and-1 from the 14, seemingly killing the team's comeback chances.

Mauk threw an interception in the end zone, giving the Eagles one final opportunity, but on 4th-and-22 from the 32, Young was intercepted by Smith for the third time on the day, stifling the final threat.

The Trojans went three-and-out on the next drive, and Fletcher's 22-yard dash helped set up Barefoot's 46-yard attempt with 2:50 to play.

The Trojans took an early advantage less than a minute into the contest, as Jorrick Calvin picked up a Davis fumble and rolled 17 yards into the end zone.

Davis then took to the air to tie the game on the next series, finding Baptiste for a 64-yard pass only 48 seconds later.

Hrapmann hit a 38-yard field goal to cut the Blue Raiders lead to 28-20 at the end of three quarters.

Southern Miss had a chance to tie it early in the fourth, making it 28-26 on Brown's 7-yard TD reception, but the 2-point conversion failed.

2011 Hawai'i Bowl Southern Miss 24, Nevada 17

HONOLULU (AP) - Austin Davis threw two touchdowns, including a 4-yarder late in the game, and No. 22 Southern Miss earned a school-record 12th victory by holding off Nevada 24-17 in the Sheraton Hawai'i Bowl.

On the winning drive, Davis was 3-of-4 for 66 yards, including a 43-yard completion to Dominique Sullivan down the right sideline and a 19-yarder to a crossing William Spight. Sullivan had five catches for 75 yards.

With Davis held in check, the Golden Eagles relied on their defense, stopping Lampford Mark on fourth-and-1 at midfield with 3:56 left. Mark had 183 yards rushing for the Wolf Pack but was held to just 21 yards in the second half after scoring twice in the second quarter.

Nevada tied the game 17-17 late in the third quarter on a 37-yard field goal by Allen Hardison, taking advantage of a miscue by Southern Miss. Lampley waved for a fair catch on a punt and was run into by teammate Alex Smith. The ball bounced off Lampley's left leg and Nevada's Brandon Marshall recovered on the Southern Miss 14, leading to the field goal.

Just as Nevada seemed to take control of the game, Southern Miss scored 10 points in the final 1 1/2 minutes of the first half to take a 17-14 lead into the break.

Danny Hrapmann kicked a 48-yard field goal by Hrapmann with 1:21 left in the half. to cut the gap to 14-10.

Bowl History

On the ensuing kickoff, Wooten fumbled and Southern Miss's Emmanuel Johnson recovered at the Nevada 24. Seven plays later, Davis threw a 2-yard pass to Lampley in the back of the end zone for the go-ahead score.

With both teams struggling to get going, special teams got the Golden Eagles on the scoreboard from a blocked punt by Tim Green early in the second quarter.

Green burst through the middle and leaped in the air, getting his hand on the ball as he flipped over a blocker. Tray Becton-Martin then dropped on the ball in the end zone, giving the Golden Eagles a 7-0 lead. Tray Becton-Martin was the 25th different player to score for the Golden Eagles this year, which led the nation.

Cordarro Law was named the USM Most Valuable Player by registering seven tackles, including a pair of sacks for 12 yards and 4.5 tackles for loss for 15.

2015 Heart of Dallas Bowl Washington 44, Southern Miss 31

DALLAS (AP) - Myles Gaskin broke a third-quarter tie with an 86-yard run and finished with a season-high 181 yards and four touchdowns to help Washington beat Southern Mississippi 44-31 in the Heart of Dallas Bowl.

Gaskin's other scores came on 2- and 1-yard runs in the first quarter and a 13-yarder in the fourth. On the 86-yarder, the freshman took a handoff inside, broke to the left sideline and shook off one final defender at the Southern Miss 35.

Gaskin, the game's most valuable player, gained 170 yards in the second half on 17 carries after being held to 11 yards on nine rushes in the first half. His previous high was 155 yards against Oregon.

They played without rushing leader Jalen Richard, who was held because of an injury.

Nick Mullens threw touchdowns passes of 56 and 27 yards by Michael Thomas for the Eagles, and Ito Smith added 1- and 2-yard scoring runs.

The Golden Eagles averaged 519.8 yards during the regular season, including their 45-28 loss to WKU in the Conference USA championship game. They gained 375 in this game. They were held to 22 net rushing yards with Smith, who gained 1,088 during the season, leading the way with 40.

Thomas set a Southern Miss record with 14 touchdown catches this season.

Receiver Jaydon Mickens scored Washington's other touchdown on a 29-yard run in the second quarter. Mickens took a handoff on what appeared to be an end around following a fake inside, then cut inside and was virtually untouched. The five-play, 65-yard drive included a 20-yard pass to Mickens that was upheld after a challenge from Southern Miss.

Smith's 1-yard touchdown plunge through the middle followed a 36-yard catch by Thomas along the left sideline just short of the pylon.

That 80-yard drive was kept alive by punter Tyler Sarrazin's 22-yard pass to Curtis Mikell on fourth-and-5 at the Golden Eagles 25. In Southern Miss' win at Rice in mid-November, Sarrazin threw for a touchdown off a fake field-goal attempt.

2016 New Orleans Bowl Southern Miss 28, Louisiana-Lafayette 21

NEW ORLEANS (AP) - Allenzae Staggers set records for receptions and receiving yards as Southern Miss outlasted Louisiana-Lafayette 28-21 in the 16th annual R+L Carriers New Orleans Bowl at the Mercedes-Benz Superdome.

Staggers, who was named Southern Miss' Most Valuable Player, caught a career-high 11 passes for 230 yards and a touchdown before the fourth-largest crowd (35,601) in the bowl's history.

Staggers became the only Golden Eagle to ever log two, 200-yard receiving games, having a six-catch, school-record, 292-yard effort against Rice on Oct. 1.

Running back Ito Smith rushed for 138 yards and two touchdowns and caught a pass for a third, as the Golden Eagles won in the postseason for the first time since 2011.

Smith gained 105 yards and scored on a 1-yard run on 19 carries over the final two quarters as the Golden Eagles scored on a pair of lengthy, drives that ground off a third of the second half clock.

The Cajuns struggled to find any offensive consistency against the Golden Eagles. Two of UL-Lafayette's three touchdowns came on drives of 29 yards and 19 yards after USM turnovers. All told, Louisiana-Lafayette managed just 252 total yards, including 95 yards passing.

Mullens and Staggers combined on a 55-yard pass down to the Ragin' Cajuns' 12-yard line on the Golden Eagles' first offensive snap. The strike set up Smith's bronco-ride-of-an-11-yard run for a 7-0 Southern Miss lead with 9:39 left in the first quarter.

After forcing a three-and-out, Mullens hit Staggers with a quick slant that turned into a 66-yard gain down to UL-Lafayette's 9-yard line. Two plays later, Mullens found Smith on a 6-yard touchdown pass for a 14-0 lead with 7:17 left in the quarter.

UL Lafayette responded with a nine-play, 66-yard drive, capped by quarterback Anthony Jennings' 4- yard run with 3:15 left in the first period, to pull within 14-7, and momentum continued to shift UL-Lafayette's way through the first half of the second quarter.

Parker Shaunfield, in his first action since being sidelined in late October with a pulled thigh muscle, missed a 38-yard field, and on Southern Miss' next possession, Mullens was sacked and stripped of the ball by UL-Lafayette linebacker Tre'maine Lightfoot.

Peters recovered and returned the ball 15 yards to USM's 29-yard line. Two plays later, backup quarterback Dion Ray took a direct snap and weaved his way 12 yards to tie the game 14-14 with 7:28 left in the second quarter.

The Golden Eagles drove 75 yards in 11 plays to take a 21-14 lead in the third quarter with Mullens finding Staggers in the back of the end zone off play-action.

Mullens completed 25 of 40 passes for 346 yards and two touchdowns with an interception in his final game.

Smith's 1-yard run capped a 14-play, 83-yard drive that straddled the third and fourth quarters and put Southern Miss up by two scores with 12:26 to play in the game.

But Travis Crawford's 53-yard interception return set up the Cajuns at Southern Miss' 19-yard line and Jennings scored his second touchdown on a 3-yard run as UL-Lafayette pulled within 28-21 with 5:10 to play.

2017 Walk-On's Independence Bowl Florida St. 42, Southern Miss 13

SHREVEPORT, La. (AP) - James Blackman threw for 233 yards and an Independence Bowl-record four touchdowns, including three to receiver Auden Tate, while Cam Akers led the Seminoles with 94 yards rushing and also caught a 14-yard touchdown pass in a 42-13 bowl victory over Southern Miss.

Southern Miss took a 6-0 lead in the first quarter after a 63-yard touchdown drive that was aided by two 15-yard Florida State penalties, one for unsportsmanlike conduct and the other for roughing the kicker.

But the Golden Eagles couldn't keep the momentum, mainly because of their own mistakes, including four defensive offside penalties on FSU's opening drive.

Blackman matched an Independence Bowl record with three touchdown passes in the first half to help Florida State take a 23-6 lead.

The Seminoles pushed the advantage to 33-6 late in the third quarter before Southern Miss finally responded with a touchdown. By then, the game was essentially out of reach.

Southern Miss was led by Ito Smith, who ran for 92 yards. Kwadra Griggs completed 13 of 25 passes for just 86 yards and a touchdown.

2020 Lockheed Martin Armed Forces Bowl

Tulane 30, Southern Miss 13

FORT WORTH (AP), Texas -- Justin McMillan threw three touchdown passes in the third quarter as Tulane rallied for a 30-13 win while renewing a rivalry against Southern Miss in the Armed Forces Bowl on Saturday.

The Golden Eagles took a 13-0 lead after Jack Abraham threw a touchdown pass and ran for a score on their first drives, but the quarterback took a hard shot on his last snap before halftime and didn't play again. They also lost top running back De'Michael Harris to a hamstring injury in the first half.

Tulane tied the game at 13-all on its first possession after halftime, when McMillan threw a 52-yard TD pass to Jalen McCleskey.

McMillan had a high-stepping 18-yard run to set up Merek Glover's third field goal, a tiebreaking 36-yarder, before TD passes to Jacob Robertson (7 yards) and a wide-open Amare Jones (20 yards) on the next two drives.

McMillan had only 22 yards passing at halftime, but was 9-of-10 for 193 yards after that in his final game. The former transfer from LSU won two Texas state championships playing at Cedar Hill High School, which is about 35 miles from the TCU campus where the bowl was played.

Abraham, only the third Golden Eagles quarterback with a 3,000-yard passing season, threw 44-yard touchdown pass to Quez Watkins and ran 3 yards for another score for the 13-0 lead.

But Abraham took a shot on a blitz by linebacker Lawrence Graham and fell hard on his shoulder on a third-down incompletion in the final minute of the first half. Abraham never returned, though he was still in uniform on the sideline after halftime.
