BLIZZARD'S BULLETS

- ENTERING THE WEEKEND: No. 7 St. Cloud State Volleyball returns to Halenbeck Hall this week for three matches, hosting No. 6 Minnesota Duluth on Tuesday before tilts with Upper Iowa and Winona State on Friday and Saturday. Tuesday's match will begin at 6:00 p.m. CT with the weekend contests scheduled for 6:00 and 2:00 p.m. CT respectively.
- LET'S GO POLLING: SCSU dropped three spots to No. 7 in this week's AVCA Top-25 poll, remaining in the Top-10 for the seventh straight week. This week's rank marks the 13th time SCSU has appeared in the top-10 of an AVCA poll in the Braegelmann era.
- LAST TIME OUT: No. 4 St. Cloud State Volleyball dropped a five-set heartbreaker to No. 7 Southwest Minnesota State on Saturday evening in Marshall, losing a 2-1 lead in the match and a 14-11 advantage in the fifth set. Phebie Rossi delivered a career day for SCSU, terminating a career-high 27 kills on .458 hitting to go with two aces and four blocks. The senior middle blocker scored 32.0 points, leading all players. Kenzie Foley added 14 kills, four blocks and four digs while fellow outside Linsey Rachel kicked in 11 kills and five digs. Sam Zimmerman provided 10 kills on .318 hitting, leading SCSU with five blocks including three solo stuffs. Emma Berran directed the offense to 71 kills, dishing out a career-best 58 assists and adding eight digs. Keely Kurschner led the Huskies with 10 digs.
- LEADING THE PACK: Huskies can be found all over the NSIC leaderboards entering week seven. Kenzie Foley is second in the conference in points (5.07) and kills per set (4.34), ranks ninth in hitting percentage (.325) and 20th in aces/set (0.34). Emma Berran is third in the league in assists per set (11.12). Phebie Rossi is third in hitting percentage (.370) and ranks fourth in blocks/set (1.18) while landing sixth in points/set (3.88) and 13th in kills/set (3.10). Linsey Rachel lands 14th in kills/set (3.08), 16th in points/set (3.48) and hitting percentage (.280) while slotting in 19th in digs/set (3.19). Keely Kurschner is second in the NSIC in aces/set (0.52) - just one spot ahead of Emily Kern (0.46) - and ranks 10th in digs/set (3.90). Makena Hollman ranks 13th in the conference with a .291 hitting percentage; Sam Zimmerman is 13th in blocks/set (0.90) while Rachel Houle is 14th in aces with 0.37 a set.

- ▼ FEAR FOLEY: Junior outside Kenzie Foley ranks eighth in the NCAA in points/set (5.07) and is 16th in kills/set (4.34). She is second in the NSIC in both categories and is hitting .325, seventh in the nation among outside hitters and ninth overall in the Northern Sun. Foley has put away double-digit kills in 14 of 16 matches and has nine double-doubles this season.
- ▼ SCOUTING NO. 6 MINNESOTA DULUTH: Minnesota Duluth is 15-1 this season with a 7-1 mark in conference play, taking their lone loss to Wayne State. The Bulldogs have terminated 14.6 kills/set on .264 hitting, relying on a balanced attack to fuel their success. Each of their five hitters – Cianna Selbitschka (3.18), Sydney Lanoue (3.05), Samantha Paulsen (2.84), Grace Daak (2.44) and Hope Schjenken (2.35) each have put away north of 2.0 kills/set while the latter three are each hitting .306 or better. Madison Gordon (11.19 A/S) directs the offense while libero Kaylyn Madison (4.21 digs/set) anchors the Bulldog defense.
- ▼ SCOUTING UPPER IOWA: Upper Iowa has leaned on a stingy defense to open 2022 with a 10-5 mark, going 4-4 in NSIC play. The Peacocks average 17.0 digs/set while holding teams to hit just .151, allowing only 11.0 kills per set. Zoe Semelroth (2.91 K/S, .258) and Maggie Streightiff (2.32 K/S, .245) lead the offense while Kaci Beesecker (4.39 D/S) and Madelyn Rettler (3.57 D/S) quarterback the Upper Iowa defense. Both Beesecker and Rettler have posted .970 serve receive marks this season.
- ▼ SCOUTING WINONA STATE: 2021 NSIC runner-up Winona State has bounced back from a shaky start to the 2022 season, winning four straight matches to enter the week 8-7, 4-4 in Northern Sun action. The Warrior defense averages 17.0 digs and 2.0 blocks per set, holding opponents to a .168 hitting percentage. Madison Larson (3.57 K/S, .259) and Sidney Paulson (3.21 K/S, .203) are the featured hitters for setter Jaci Winchell (9/98 A/S). Casey Volkmann (4.25 D/S) is the Winona State defensive anchor as the libero while Mikenna Joerger (1.27 B/S) leads the block.

- ▼ OFFENSIVE ONSLAUGHT: St. Cloud State's offense is third in the NCAA in hitting percentage at .298. The Huskies rank fifth nationally in kills/set and are seventh in assists/set, leaning on their terminal offense to take 44 of 52 sets this season.
- ▼ DYNAMIC DEFENSE: The Huskies own the third-best defense in the Northern Sun entering the weekend, holding opponents to a .147 hitting percentage and have allowed the second-lowest kills/set mark at 10.19. SCSU has allowed the fewest kills in the league at 530 and are third in blocks/set with 2.17. Only two Huskies opponents have hit .200 or better in a match this fall.
- ▼ SERVING ACES: SCSU leads the NSIC with 2.12 aces per set and have the second-most points scored at the service line with 110.
- ▼ RACHEL'S RECORD WATCH: Graduate student outside hitter Linsey Rachel enters the weekend ranked third on the Huskies' all-time kills list with 1399 and sixth in digs with 1351. She is 97 kills away from passing Kathy Davis (88') for second all-time in program history and just 15 digs away from passing Leah Herboldt (11') for fourth all-time. Rachel is the program's only two-time All-American honoree and is within striking distance of becoming the Huskies' first member of the 1500x1500 club (kills and digs).

CAREER SCSU KILL LEADERS

1 Cami Selbitschka (1993-96)	1567
2 Kathy Davis (1985-88)	1495
3 Linsey Rachel (2018-present)	1399

CAREER SCSU DIG LEADERS

1 Clara Krenz (2016-2019)	2227
2 Brianna Stamer (2012-15)	1929
3 Andrea Pieper (2005-08)	1885
4 Leah Herboldt (2001-04)	1365
5 Linsey Rachel (2018-present)	1351

- ▼ HISTORY MADE: The Huskies established a new program mark for their best start to a season at 12-0, passing the previous best starts of 11-0 set in 1985 and 2019.
- ▼ MS. CONSISTENT: Rachel Houle has missed just two sets dating back to September 22, 2018 – appearing in 337 of the Huskies' last 339 sets played.
- ▼ BERRAN GOES TO NEW HEIGHTS: True freshman setter Emma Berran has directed the Huskies offense brilliantly in her debut season, ranking seventh nationally in assists/set with 11.35. Her offense ranks among the NCAA leaders in nearly every category. Incredibly, four of Berran's five hitters rank among the NSIC's top-20 in hitting percentage. With 35 assists on Opening Night, Berran posted the most in a Huskies debut since Marissa Kline had 36 back in 2013.
- ▼ HOME SWEET HALENBECK: St. Cloud State has gone 30-4 at Halenbeck Hall since 2019 and has won 33 of their last 37 home matches dating back to the end of 2018.
- ▼ NO LONGER THE UNDERDOG: The Huskies are a combined 32-11 against AVCA Top-25 opponents and opponents receiving votes in the AVCA poll since 2019. Last season St. Cloud State was 8-3 against Top-25 foes including three NSIC Tournament wins over ranked opponents.
- ▼ A SEASON TO REMEMBER: SCSU earned their first NSIC regular season title since 1982 and won the program's first NSIC Tournament Championship last season, going 27-5 with a 19-1 mark in NSIC play to finish alone atop the conference standings. The Huskies earned the No. 2 seed at the Central Regional in Warrensburg, Missouri, closed the season ranked No. 10 in the final AVCA top-25 poll and set new program standards for fewest losses and best single-season winning percentage.

Chad Braegelmann enters his eighth season as head coach of the St. Cloud State University volleyball program and 22nd season overall in 2022. A two-time NSIC Coach of the Year honoree, Braegelmann has built Huskies Volleyball into a national power. Under his guidance SCSU has earned both a NSIC Tournament and Regular Season Championship, two NCAA Central Region Tournament appearances, two NSIC Tournament berths and multiple AVCA Top-25 rankings. He enters the 2022 season with a 386-248 collegiate head coaching record, 11 20-win seasons, six Conference Coach of the Year honors and has led his teams to five conference championships.

Since 2019, the Huskies are a combined 25-9 against AVCA Top-25 opponents and opponents receiving votes in the AVCA poll. In that same span, SCSU is 23-3 at Halenbeck Hall.

Throughout his 22-year collegiate coaching career, Braegelmann has coached six American Volleyball Coaches Association (AVCA) All-Americans, 10 All-Region players, seven conference Freshmen of the Year, three conference Players of the Year, six Libero/Defensive Players of the Year and 58 All-Conference athletes.

Braegelmann repeated as the NSIC Coach of the Year last season, leading the Huskies to their first NSIC regular season title since 1982 and earning the program's first NSIC Tournament Championship. St. Cloud State went 27-5 with a 19-1 mark in NSIC play to finish alone atop the conference standings. The Huskies earned the No. 2 seed at the Central Regional in Warrensburg, Missouri, closed the season ranked No. 10 in the final AVCA top-25 poll and set new program standards for fewest losses and best single-season winning percentage. Braegelmann's offense was one of the most terminal units in the Nation, ranking seventh in hitting percentage (.270), 10th in assists (1576), 13th in kills (1682), 15th in assists per set (13.0) and 17th in kills per set (13.9). The Huskies' fearsome block ranked seventh in total blocks (305.0) and ninth in blocks per set (2.5) at the conclusion of the season.

Multiple AVCA Top-25 teams fell at the hands of St. Cloud State throughout 2021 as the Huskies were 8-3 against ranked opponents. SCSU dispatched the No. 5 (2x), 8, 9, 14, 15 (2x) and 16 teams in the country over the course of their historic season, including three ranked wins in their NSIC Tournament Championship run. The Huskies swept No. 16 SMSU in the Quarterfinal, took down No. 15 Wayne State in a five-set Semifinal thriller then defeated No. 8 Winona State in four sets to earn the conference crown.

Several student-athletes received recognition during 2021 headlined by Kenzie Foley, who was named the AVCA Division II National Freshman of the Year, AVCA Central Region Freshman of the Year and NSIC Freshman of the Year while earning First Team All-America, All-Region and All-Conference recognition after a breakout season with St. Cloud State. Maddy Torve graduated as one of the most successful setters in program history, earning First Team All-America (AVCA, D2CCA), All-Region (AVCA, D2CCA), All-NSIC, Academic All-District (CoSIDA) and Academic All-America (CoSIDA) honors while being named the NSIC Outstanding Senior of the Year. Linsey Rachel became the program's first two-time All-American, adding AVCA All-America Honorable Mention, First Team AVCA All-Region and

First Team All-NSIC honors to an already-stacked trophy case. Phemie Rossi ranked sixth in the nation in blocks at the conclusion of the season and earned First Team All-NSIC, AVCA All-Region Honorable Mention and AVCA All-America Honorable Mention honors.

Braegelmann led the Huskies to new heights in 2019, earning NSIC Coach of the Year after helping St. Cloud State record its best season in over 20 years. Under Braegelmann's guidance, the Huskies posted an overall record of 25-7 and a 15-5 mark in NSIC play, landing them fourth place in the NSIC rankings and earning their first-ever trip to the NSIC Tournament. St. Cloud State earned its first AVCA top-25 ranking since 1997, cracked the organization's top-10 for the first time since 1996, finished No. 10 in the final AVCA top-25 poll and earned an at-large berth to the NCAA Regional for the first time since 2004. St. Cloud State defeated 14 nationally and regionally ranked opponents during the season, going 10-5 against AVCA Top-25 opponents and finished runner-up in the NSIC Tournament.

St. Cloud State's defense closed 2019 as one of the top units in the nation, leading the NSIC in digs and digs/set. The Huskies broke the program record for single-season digs, compiling 2213 over the course of 31 matches. Senior libero Clara Krenz became the program's all-time dig leader, concluding her impressive career with 2227. Braegelmann saw three student-athletes earn All-NSIC honors as Krenz was named the conference's Libero of the Year for the second consecutive season and earned First Team All-NSIC, AVCA First Team All-Central Region, D2CCA Second Team All-Region and AVCA All-America Honorable Mention nods. Sophomore outside Linsey Rachel earned First Team All-Conference, AVCA First Team All-Region and AVCA All-America Honorable Mention honors while junior setter Maddy Torve earned Second Team All-NSIC honors and ranked top-five nationally in assists and assists/set. Finally, a program-record 11 student-athletes earned Academic All-NSIC honors in 2019.

2018 saw the Huskies continue to build, posting a 15-11 overall record with an 11-9 mark in NSIC play and a seventh-place finish in the conference standings. St. Cloud State defeated two top-10 nationally-ranked opponents while several individuals find success during the 2018 season. Freshman outside Linsey Rachel and junior libero Clara Krenz received Second Team All-NSIC honors in 2018 and were named the conference Freshman and Libero of the Year. Both also earned NSIC Player of the Week honors at least once during the season while seven student-athletes earned Academic All-Conference honors in Braegelmann's fourth season with the program.

In 2017, Braegelmann led the Huskies to a 16-14 record and an 8-12 mark in NSIC play. The 16 wins were the most for the program since 2004, when St. Cloud State posted an overall record of 19-12, and marked just the third time in the last 20 years the Huskies won more than 15 matches in a season. Sophomore libero Clara Krenz led the Northern Sun with a whopping 5.92 digs per set and earned Second Team All-NSIC honors at the end of the season, becoming Braegelmann's second All-NSIC libero in three years with the program. The Huskies defense ascended to third in the NSIC with 17.26 digs a set, limiting opponents to the sixth-fewest kills per set in the league.

Year two at St. Cloud State served as a rebuilding year for the program as the Huskies were 8-21 overall, 3-17 in the NSIC. Four student-athletes earned Academic All-NSIC notice in 2016. The Huskies showed vast improvement at the service line, leaping to fifth in the NSIC with 1.52 aces per set. SCSU's serve receive was seventh in the conference, allowing just 123 aces. Nicole Miller led the Northern Sun with 76 aces - 24 more than the next-best serve specialist - and averaged just over half an ace per set. Freshman libero Clara Krenz opened her collegiate career with 4.30 digs per set, landing her seventh in the NSIC.

In his first season with the Huskies, Braegelmann posted a 9-19 overall record with a 5-15 NSIC mark in NSIC play. St. Cloud State's defense ranked fifth in the NSIC with 16.50 digs per set, led by All-NSIC libero Brianne Stamer's conference-leading 5.46 digs a set. Stamer was one of six Huskies on the Academic All-NSIC squad while Macy Weller ranked top-20 in the conference with 0.83 blocks per set.

Chad Braegelmann was named the fifth head coach in St. Cloud State Volleyball history on July 6, 2015.

Prior to his move to SCSU, Braegelmann was the head women's volleyball coach at the University of Minnesota-Morris where he also served as the Sports Studies and Athletics Discipline Coordinator and an Assistant Athletic Director. In seven seasons at Minnesota-Morris, Braegelmann posted a 130-91 record while earning UMAC Coach of the Year honors in 2010 and 2013. His team won a share of the Upper Midwest Athletic Conference title in 2013 before closing his Minnesota-Morris career with a 23-12 (12-2 UMAC) showing in 2014.

At Colby-Sawyer, Braegelmann departed as the all-time winningest coach in program history with a 156-80 record over seven seasons spanning from 2001-07. He guided the Chargers to Commonwealth Coast Conference Championships in 2003 and 2005 while twice advancing to the NCAA Division III National Tournament. Braegelmann led Colby-Sawyer to six conference championship match appearances with double-digit wins in all seven seasons, attaining the most single-season wins in school history in any sport. Volleyball athletes were successful off the court as well, earning the top team academic grade point average of Colby-Sawyer's athletic programs multiple times.

A graduate of the University of Minnesota-Morris, Braegelmann received his master's degree in education from Northern State University.

A native of Richmond, Minn. and graduate of nearby ROCORI H.S., Braegelmann and his wife Natalie have four sons.

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH MARCI TAUMALOLO

Taumalolo at a Glance

Education

- ▼ University of Minnesota, 2007 | B.S. in Business & Marketing
- ▼ Ball State University, 2010 | M.S. in Physical Education and Sports Administration

St. Cloud State associate head volleyball coach Marci Taumalolo enters her 13th season with Huskies Volleyball in 2022. At the conclusion of the 2019 season, Taumalolo was promoted from top assistant to associate head coach. Honored as part of the American Volleyball Coaches Association (AVCA) Thirty Under 30 in February of 2011, Taumalolo has helped shape St. Cloud State Volleyball into a national power.

In 12 years with the program, Marci has recruited and coached six AVCA All-Americans, eight AVCA All-Region honorees, 13 All-NSIC selections, two NSIC Libero and Freshmen of the Year recipients, two AVCA Central Region Freshmen of the Year honorees and an AVCA DII National Freshman of the Year. 64 student-athletes have earned Academic All-NSIC honors under Taumalolo's watch.

The Huskies defense has developed into one of the top units in the NSIC during Taumalolo's time with SCSU, ranking top-six across the Northern Sun in digs per set in five of the past six seasons. St. Cloud State led the NSIC in both digs and digs/set in 2019, holding opponents to the fifth-lowest hitting percentage across the league.

Throughout her career at St. Cloud State, liberos have flourished as Taumalolo has recruited and coached back-to-back record-setters. Of the top-10 single-season dig leaders in program history, seven performances have been overseen by Taumalolo. Four of the Huskies' top-six career dig leaders have played for Taumalolo: Clara Krenz (2016-19), Brianne Stamer (2012-15), Chelsea Nagle (2008-11) and Linsey Rachel (2018-22). Krenz established herself as one of the all-time St. Cloud State greats in her time with the program, racking up a Huskies-record 2227 digs and becoming the program's first-ever 2000 Dig Club member. She was named an All-American, a two-time NSIC Libero of the Year and garnered All-NSIC honors three times while leading the Northern Sun in digs per set during the 2017, 2018 and 2019 seasons. Stamer preceded Krenz as the program's all-time dig leader, posting 1929 digs in her illustrious career and earning All-NSIC honors during the 2015 campaign with a conference-leading 5.46 digs per set. Rachel paced all NSIC outside hitters in digs and digs per set during the 2021 campaign, developing into one of the best six-rotation players in the nation under Taumalolo's watch. Nagle provided the third-most single-season digs with 481 in Marci's first season with the Huskies, going on to finish third all-time in digs at the time of her graduation.

Taumalolo helped guide the Huskies to their first NSIC regular season title since 1982 and earning the program's first NSIC Tournament Championship in 2021. St. Cloud State went 27-5 with a 19-1 mark in NSIC play to finish alone atop the conference standings. The Huskies earned the No. 2 seed at the Central Regional in Warrensburg, Missouri, closed the season ranked No. 10 in the final AVCA top-25 poll and set new program standards for fewest losses and best single-season winning percentage. St. Cloud State's offense was one of the most terminal units in the Nation, ranking seventh in hitting percentage (.270), 10th in assists (1576), 13th in kills (1682), 15th in assists per set (13.0) and 17th in kills per set (13.9). The Huskies' fearsome block ranked seventh in total blocks (305.0) and ninth in blocks per set (2.5) at the conclusion of the season.

Prior to her appointment at St. Cloud State in July of 2010, Taumalolo spent the previous three seasons (2007-09) as the assistant coach at Ball State. In her three seasons with the Cardinals, she helped lead the Ball State back court to top-five rankings in the final Mid-American Conference dig rankings each season. In 2007, the Cardinals finished fifth with 14.57 digs per set, while the back court improved two spots in 2008, ranking third with 15.43 digs per set.

Before her tenure with the Cardinals, Taumalolo was a four-year member of the University of Minnesota Golden Gophers women's volleyball team. She finished her career at Minnesota (2003-06) ranked second on the school's all-time career digs list at 1,401. After leading the Big Ten with a 5.22 digs per set her senior season, Taumalolo earned American Volleyball Coaches Association All-America Honorable Mention accolades, was named the Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year and was a First-Team All-Big Ten honoree. She was also a four-time Scholar Athlete and garnered the Big Ten Defensive Player of the Week accolades three times during her collegiate stint.

Prior to her collegiate career, Taumalolo was a two-time AAU All-American (2001 & 2002) for the Kaepa Northern Lights Club, while being named an All-American at the 2000 Junior National Championships (16-Open) and picking up the "Best Setter" award at the 2002 National Junior Championships.

During her prep career at Armstrong High School in Plymouth, Minnesota, Taumalolo was an All-American and All-State player as a junior and senior. During her senior campaign, she led her team to an undefeated (29-0) record, while collecting 31 kills and 28 digs in the team's state championship victory over Eagan High School. As a junior, she collected a school-record 53 kills in one match.

Taumalolo has earned a Master's Degree in Physical Education and Sports Administration (Ball State) along with a Bachelor's Degree in Business & Marketing (Minnesota, 2007). A native of Plymouth, Minn., Taumalolo is married with five children. She has nine siblings, including three older sisters and one younger sister who all played collegiate volleyball, along with five brothers.

ASSISTANT COACH JACOB VOSS

Assistant coach Jacob Voss enters his second season with Huskies Volleyball in 2022.

Voss brings a wealth of knowledge to the St. Cloud State coaching staff and helped the Huskies take home the NSIC regular season and tournament titles in 2021. Prior to 2021, Voss served as a student-assistant at Gustavus Adolphus College, guiding the Gusties to their first Minnesota Intercollegiate Conference (MIAC) Tournament appearance since the late 2000s. He also served as head coach of Upsala High School from 2017 to 2020.

GRAD. ASSISTANT COACH MORGAN PENNER

Morgan (Baufield) Penner joined the Huskies coaching staff in the spring of 2022.

Penner brings an impressive resume to her position at St. Cloud State, as she joined the Huskies roster in 2021 after an impressive playing career at Northern State. A 5'10" middle blocker from Wayzata, Minnesota, Penner earned Second Team All-Conference honors from the Northern Sun Intercollegiate Conference (NSIC) after tallying 195 kills in 31 matches for the Wolves. In her three years at Northern State, Penner appeared in 92 matches with 577 kills, 257 blocks and 141 digs before joining St. Cloud State in 2021. In her single season with the Huskies, Penner appeared in 11 matches and recorded 18 kills and 12.0 blocks.
