BLIZZARD'S BULLETS

- THE MATCHUP: No. 14 St. Cloud State Women's Hockey prepares for a key conference home-and-home with No. 4/6 Minnesota this weekend in their final series of the first half. Game one will begin at 6:00 p.m. CT on Friday at Ridder while the Huskies host the Gophers at 3:00 p.m. CT on Saturday at the Herb Brooks National Hockey Center.
- THE SERIES: The Huskies 1-3-0 this season against the Gophers with a nonconference win after being swept in a conference series back in October. St. Cloud State made a statement in Andover in early November, upsetting No. 1 Minnesota 4-1 in the U.S. Hockey Hall of Fame Face-off Classic. SCSU earned their first win over a No. 1-ranked team since 2007, playing their patented style of hard-nosed, aggressive hockey to take down Minnesota for the first time since 2010. St. Cloud State hasn't earned a point against Minnesota since February 2, 2018 - a game that saw the Huskies erase a 3-1 deficit entering the third and secure the additional WCHA point with a Kayla Friesen shootout win.
- HUSKIES PRIMER: SCSU enters the series 11-8-0 with a 6-8-0 mark in WCHA action, winners of seven of their last nine games. Jenniina Nylund (11-13-24), Klára Hymlárová (12-5-17) and Emma Gentry (11-3-14) headline a dangerous Huskies top-six while Dayle Ross (0-8-8, +4, 34 BLK), Grace Wolfe (1-11-12, +1, 35 BLK), Regan Bulger (0-3-3, 39 BLK) and Taytum Geier (1-3-4, +4, 33 BLK) have anchored the defensive corps. JoJo Chobak (5-3-0, .923 SV%, 2.19 GAA) and Sanni Ahola (6-5-0, .922 SV%, 2.46 GAA) have become one of the top goaltending duos in the league.
- LAST TIME OUT: Huskies senior forward Klára Hymlárová delivered her first collegiate hat trick to lead SCSU to a weekend and season series sweep of St. Thomas, 6-3 at the St. Thomas Ice Arena on Saturday evening. With six conference points secured, the Huskies will enter the final week of the first half alone in fourth place with a three-point lead over (RV) Minnesota State. Hymlárová scored twice on the power play and added a huge go-ahead - and eventual game-winning - shorthanded goal late in the second period. Grace Wolfe provided a three-assist night, Jenniina Nylund added three points on a goal and two assists while Olivia Cvar scored a goal and provided an apple for four multi-point Huskies. Emma Gentry added the final strike, scoring her third of the series late in the third.
- STANDINGS & SUCH: With the league winding down to the end of the first half, the Huskies find themselves sixth in a hotly-contested fight for fourth place. SCSU enters the weekend fourth in the league with 19 points - just two ahead of No. 7/8 Minnesota Duluth and three ahead of (RV) Minnesota State. The Bulldogs host basement-dwelling St. Thomas this weekend while Minnesota State welcomes No. 2 Wisconsin to Mankato. None of the three teams play conference games next weekend as SCSU and UMD are both off while the Mavericks travel to Long Island, meaning this is the final opportunity for movement in the first half.
- GETTING GRITTY: Remaining true to the team's newfound identity, the grind-and-grit Huskies have four players found among the WCHA's top five leaders in blocked shots. True freshman Regan Bulger leads the league with 39 blocks while Dayle Ross is second with 35, one ahead of Grace Wolfe's 34. Taytum Geier is tied for fourth with 33 blocks of her own. As a team, St. Cloud State has 264 blocks - good for 13.89 per game - which lands them second in both categories across the WCHA.

Brian Idalski was named the sixth head coach in the history of St. Cloud State Women's Hockey on May 19, 2022. The 2022-23 campaign marks his 16th as a collegiate head coach, carrying a 277-177-50 record into his first season leading the Huskies. He has coached 10 Olympians, 26 national team members from eight countries, three All-Americans, three Academic All-Americans, four Patty Kazmaier Top-10 finalists, two NCAA Great Eight Award winners and 62 WCHA Scholar Athletes throughout his career.

Idalski was chosen to serve as the head coach for China at the 2022 Winter Olympics in Beijing. His team earned two wins in pool play and operated as the top penalty kill in the Olympics at 90.0% with nine kills on 10 chances. Under his guidance, goaltender Jiaying Zhou posted the best save percentage at .955 with 85 stops on 89 shots.

Prior to joining St. Cloud State, Idalski spent three seasons as the head coach of the Shenzhen KRS Vanke Rays in the Zhenskaya Hockey League. He guided the Rays to a 77-17 record, two regular season championships and the 2020 ZhHL Cup - becoming the first non-Russian team to win the league's championship. Idalski was named ZhHL Coach of the Year in 2020 and 2022 along with being selected to coach in the 2019-20 ZhHL All-Star Game.

Idalski spent the 2018-19 season as the Director of Hockey Activities at Culver Academy in Culver, Indiana, leading the program to its first USAH Tier-I Nationals appearance.

Introduced as the University of North Dakota Women's Hockey head coach in April of 2007, Idalski was the architect of a major turnaround. He compiled five 20-win seasons while leading the Fighting Hawks to NCAA Tournament appearances in 2012 and 2013, inheriting a team that went 3-31-2 prior to his arrival and rebuilding UND as a national power. His teams were consistently ranked in the Nation's Top-10 while producing a record of 169-156-39 in 10 seasons.

With Idalski at the helm, UND saw the program's first-ever Olympian in Susanne Fellner (2006 Olympics, German National Team), first-ever active student-athlete Olympians in Jocelyne and Monique Lamoureux (2010 Olympics, U.S. National Team) and first-ever recruited Olympian in Michelle Karvinen (2010 Olympics, Finnish National Team). During his time in Grand Forks, Idalski served as the Vice President of the American Women's Hockey Coaches Association and the Governor of the American Hockey Coaches Association.

Idalski led UND to back-to-back NCAA Tournament berths in 2011-12 and 2012-13, finishing runner-up in the WCHA Tournament in 2013 and 2014. North Dakota finished fourth or higher in each of their final seven campaigns, with Idalski directing a .500 record in WCHA play through his 10 seasons leading the program.

In 2006-07 Idalski served as an assistant coach on the St. Cloud State bench - a season in which the Huskies went 12-18-7, one of only 10 campaigns with double-digit wins in the program's 24-year history. He led the defenders, coordinated advance scouting and oversaw the Huskies' recruiting efforts. His recruiting class was headlined by legendary SCSU goaltender Ashley Nixon, who graduated second all-time in saves, fourth in save percentage and fifth in goals against.

Before his first stint at St. Cloud State, Idalski enjoyed a highly successful five-year tenure as head women's hockey coach at the University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point, where he amassed a 108-21-11 (.811) record and was a four-time finalist as American Hockey Coaches Association (AHCA) National Coach of the Year.

Idalski guided UW-Stevens Point to an NCAA Division III runner-up finish in 2003-04, a third-place national finish in 2005-06 and a national quarterfinal finish in 2004-05. He led the Pointers to three Northern Collegiate Hockey Association (NCHA) regular season championships (2002, 2005, 2006), four NCHA playoff titles (2002, 2004, 2005, 2006) and was twice named NCHA Coach of the Year (2002, 2005). During his time at UW-Stevens Point, Idalski tutored three All-Americans, six Academic All-Americans and 17 All-NCHA selections.

UW-Stevens Point appeared in two DIII Frozen Fours under Idalski and became the first team to finish the NCHA regular season undefeated in 2004-05.

A four-year letterwinner at UW-Stevens Point from 1991-1995, Idalski was a member of the Pointers' NCAA Division III runner-up team in 1992 and was a sophomore on the 1993 Division III national championship team. In 97 career games as a defenseman, he tallied five goals and 20 assists.

Following his Pointer playing days, Idalski went on to play professional hockey for two years with the Madison Monsters of the United Hockey League from 1995-1997. He then played two seasons with the Columbus Cottonmouths of the Central Hockey League from 1997-1999, and won the 1998 CHL regular season and playoff championship. After his professional playing days, Idalski spent the 1999-2000 season as the full-time assistant coach with the Cottonmouths.

Idalski has also been involved for several years as an instructor at the USA Hockey National Development Camps and other instructional hockey camps throughout North America.

A Warren, Michigan native, Idalski and his wife Nicole, have four sons - Beau, Jason, David and Mitchel.

▼ Why Ahola chose SCSU: "Right after the first chats and emails I got the feeling that they care about the people there and that I am more than welcomed there. All the people seem to be so nice and kind. And the place itself looks awesome and kind of homey. I just think that St. Cloud is the best place for me to study and play hockey."

▼ Why Bourgerie chose SCSU: "I loved how the campus isn't right in the middle of a busy city, but it's also not in the middle of nowhere. The size of the school was what I was looking for. It's also close to home which allows my parents and grandparents to make it to games."

▼ Personal: Daughter of Natalie and Wesley Gentry... majoring in Community Health with a minor in Psychology...

▼ Why Gentry chose SCSU: "After visiting St. Cloud, it reminded me a lot of home. I loved the rink and campus, it has many programs that I am interested in studying as well. I was able to stay at St. Cloud throughout my summers at National Camp. Being able to stay in the dorm, eat at the cafeteria, and play on the rink all made me realize that St. Cloud was where I wanted to attend and play hockey."
