BLIZZARD'S BULLETS

ENTERING THE WEEKEND: No. 9 St. Cloud State Volleyball begins their 2022 season with four matches at Halenbeck Hall as they play host to the St. Cloud State Invite. Opening Night features the Huskies colliding with RV Oklahoma Baptist at 6:00 p.m. CT on August 25 followed by a 5:30 p.m. CT match against Drury on Friday evening. SCSU closes out their weekend with a pair of matches against Seattle Pacific and RV Ashland on Saturday. Saturday's tilts are set for noon and 5:30 p.m. CT.

PRESEASON POLLING: SCSU enters 2022 with the second-highest AVCA preseason rank in program history and was picked to finish second in the NSIC Preseason Coaches Poll. Highly-decorated outside hitter Linsey Rachel was named the Huskies' preseason Player to Watch by the NSIC.

A SEASON TO REMEMBER: SCSU earned their first NSIC regular season title since 1982 and won the program's first NSIC Tournament Championship last season, going 27-5 with a 19-1 mark in NSIC play to finish alone atop the conference standings. The Huskies earned the No. 2 seed at the Central Regional in Warrensburg, Missouri, closed the season ranked No. 10 in the final AVCA top-25 poll and set new program standards for fewest losses and best single-season winning percentage.

OFFENSIVE OBLITERATION: The 2021 Huskies offense was one of the most terminal units in the Nation, ranking seventh in hitting percentage (.270), 10th in assists (1576), 13th in kills (1682), 15th in assists per set (13.0) and 17th in kills per set (13.9). Their 13.9 kills per set ranked second among NSIC opponents.

DOMINATING DEFENSE: The Huskies' fearsome block ranked seventh in total blocks (305.0) and ninth in blocks per set at the conclusion of the season. St. Cloud State paced the NSIC with 2.52 blocks/set and boasted a serve receive that allowed the second-fewest aces in the league.

LAST TIME OUT: The Huskies' historic 2021 campaign was cut short in the opening round of the NCAA Central Region Tournament as SCSU fell in four sets to Concordia-St. Paul. After a thrilling 31-29 win in the first, St. Cloud State combined to hit just .090 in the final three sets as their offense struggled to stay in system. AVCA DII Freshman of the Year Kenzie Foley led the Huskies with 20 kills on .275 hitting, adding 11 digs for a double-double, while Linsey Rachel and Phebie Rossi kicked in nine kills each.

- SCOUTING OKLAHOMA BAPTIST: Picked to win the Great American Conference in the 2022 Preseason Coaches Poll, Oklahoma Baptist enters the new season coming off a 23-4 campaign that saw them fall in a five-set heartbreaker to Arkansas Tech in the GAC Tournament Championship. The Bison have won 69 of their last 79 matches but have a great deal of offense to replace after graduating three of their top-five point-getters from a season ago. Right side Taneyah Brown (2.66 K/S, .287) anchors the returners while OBU brings back both middles – Audrey Poupard, who led the GAC in blocks with 110, and Avery Hellman (2.46 K/S, .297). Each of the three earned All-GAC honors in 2021.
- SCOUTING DRURY: Drury earned a first-place vote in the GLVC Preseason Coaches Poll and was picked to finish sixth, returning nine letterwinners but looking to replace nearly their entire offense. All-GLVC setter Chloe Rear (8.36 A/S, 1.53 K/S) creatively quarterbacked the Panther offense, having recorded 16 triple-doubles throughout her collegiate career. The Panthers finished the 2021 season third in the West Division of the GLVC and tied for seventh overall.
- SCOUTING SEATTLE PACIFIC: Seattle Pacific begins a new era under first-year head coach Jason Rhine this weekend, picked to finish fifth in the GNAC. Preseason All-GNAC middle blocker Hannah Hair earned All-American honors after hitting .333 with 1.35 blocks per set, placing her second in the conference. The Huskies will be looking for revenge after falling in straight sets last season to the Falcons – a match in which Hair hit .632 and put down 14 kills while adding six blocks.
- SCOUTING ASHLAND: Earning 12 of 13 first-place votes in the GMAC Preseason Coaches Poll, Ashland was picked to repeat as South Division champions after going 18-13 and reaching the GMAC Tournament Championship game last season. The Eagles return six starters headlined by GMAC Player of the Year and Third-Team All-American Erin Krupar (4.58 K/S, .240). Krupar ranked third in DII with 5.09 points per set, landed second in kills with 504 and finished fifth in kills per set. Libero Katie Thompson garnered D2CCA Second Team All-Region honors after posting a ridiculous 6.20 digs per set and adding 17 aces.

- RACHEL'S RECORD WATCH: Synonymous with St. Cloud State's rise to national prominence, two-time All-American outside hitter Linsey Rachel enters her fourth collegiate season ranked fifth on the Huskies all-time kills list with 1251 and sixth in digs with 1198. She is the program's only two-time All-American honoree and is within striking distance of becoming the Huskies' first member of the 1500x1500 club (kills and digs).

CAREER SCSU KILL LEADERS

1 Cami Selbitschka (1993-96)	1567
2 Kathy Davis (1985-88)	1495
3 Kim Pellmann (1996-99)	1322
4 Lisette Hayden (1990-93)	1292
5 Linsey Rachel (2018-present)	1251

CAREER SCSU DIG LEADERS

1 Clara Krenz (2016-2019)	2227
2 Brianna Stamer (2012-15)	1929
3 Andreana Pieper (2005-08)	1885
4 Leah Herrboldt (2001-04)	1365
5 Chelsea Nagle (2008-2011)	1342
6 Linsey Rachel (2018-present)	1198

- HERE COMES KENZIE: 2021 served as collegiate volleyball's introduction to star Huskies outside hitter Kenzie Foley, who was named AVCA DII National Freshman of the Year as she finished fourth in the NSIC with 3.92 kills per set and hit .295, leading SCSU in kills with a first-year record 451. Foley earned AVCA First Team All-American honors along with Central Region and NSIC Freshman of the Year accolades, posting 19 double-doubles and putting down 20+ kills in eight matches. She picked up NSIC Offensive Player of the Week laurels twice while forming a formidable duo with Linsey Rachel on the outside.
- RESPECT ROSSI: All-American middle blocker Phebie Rossi anchored one of the best blocks in the country by leading the NSIC – and finishing sixth across all of DII – in blocks (160) while ranking fifth in hitting percentage at a .340 mark last season. She also led the NSIC in blocks per set (1.38) and was the only student-athlete to earn both NSIC Offensive and Defensive Player of the Week honors throughout the season.
- ANCHORING THE OPPOSITE: Versatile right side Rachel Houle rounds out the Huskies' experienced core, having appeared in every single match dating back to 2019. Houle has played in 89 of 90 possible matches throughout her career, routinely ranking among the conference leader in aces while occupying a critical role in one of the league's top defenses.
- HOME SWEET HALENBECK: St. Cloud State has gone 23-2 at Halenbeck Hall since 2019 and has won 26 of their last 28 home matches dating back to the end of 2018.
- NO LONGER THE UNDERDOG: The Huskies are a combined 25-9 against AVCA Top-25 opponents and opponents receiving votes in the AVCA poll since 2019. Last season St. Cloud State was 8-3 against Top-25 foes including three NSIC Tournament wins over ranked opponents.
- MEET MAKENA: Junior middle blocker Makena Hollman is expected to take an expanded role in the Huskies lineup this season after missing most of her first collegiate season due to injury. Playing in five matches last year, Hollman flashed incredible efficiency by hitting .545 with seven kills on 11 swings (1 E). The 6'1" middle was an All-State honoree at Osceola HS in Wisconsin and led the program to a conference championship.
- SOLVING THE SETTING: The setter position figures to be a critical factor in the early stages of the 2022 Huskies season. Junior Allena Shimon and sophomore Natalie Tesch return while freshman Emma Berran joins the position group this fall. Shimon served as the backup to highly-decorated senior Maddy Torve last season, recording 27 assists over eight matches. She was a 2000-assist club member at Dowling Catholic and earned two All-Conference nods as a prepster. A two-time All-State honoree at Wisconsin Lutheran, Tesch played in four matches as a true freshman last year and posted 15 assists. Berran picked up All-Metro and All-Conference accolades at Eagan High School while guiding the program to a runner-up finish at the MSHSL State Tournament.
- SECOND-YEAR SPOTLIGHT: Second-year Huskies Keely Kurschner, Natalie Tesch, Elle Scarborough and Sam Zimmerman (RS-Fr.) provide excellent depth as the rising underclassmen look to build off a promising first campaign with the program. Kurschner projects to take over as the SCSU libero, Tesch provides versatility at both right side and setter, Scarborough earned the Huskies' Most Improved Player award last season while Zimmerman was named Practice Player of the Year.
- WELCOME TO THE PACK: Huskies Volleyball welcomes six freshmen to the fold in 2022: middle blockers Emilie Planert and Halle Hustad; outside hitters Maddie MacTaggart and Ella Unterweger, libero/DS Emily Kern and setter Emma Berran.

Chad Braegelmann enters his eighth season as head coach of the St. Cloud State University volleyball program and 22nd season overall in 2022. A two-time NSIC Coach of the Year honoree, Braegelmann has built Huskies Volleyball into a national power. Under his guidance SCSU has earned both a NSIC Tournament and Regular Season Championship, two NCAA Central Region Tournament appearances, two NSIC Tournament berths and multiple AVCA Top-25 rankings. He enters the 2022 season with a 386-248 collegiate head coaching record, 11 20-win seasons, six Conference Coach of the Year honors and has led his teams to five conference championships.

Since 2019, the Huskies are a combined 25-9 against AVCA Top-25 opponents and opponents receiving votes in the AVCA poll. In that same span, SCSU is 23-2 at Halenbeck Hall.

Throughout his 22-year collegiate coaching career, Braegelmann has coached six American Volleyball Coaches Association (AVCA) All-Americans, 10 All-Region players, seven conference Freshmen of the Year, three conference Players of the Year, six Libero/Defensive Players of the Year and 58 All-Conference athletes.

Braegelmann repeated as the NSIC Coach of the Year last season, leading the Huskies to their first NSIC regular season title since 1982 and earning the program's first NSIC Tournament Championship. St. Cloud State went 27-5 with a 19-1 mark in NSIC play to finish alone atop the conference standings. The Huskies earned the No. 2 seed at the Central Regional in Warrensburg, Missouri, closed the season ranked No. 10 in the final AVCA top-25 poll and set new program standards for fewest losses and best single-season winning percentage. Braegelmann's offense was one of the most terminal units in the Nation, ranking seventh in hitting percentage (.270), 10th in assists (1576), 13th in kills (1682), 15th in assists per set (13.0) and 17th in kills per set (13.9). The Huskies' fearsome block ranked seventh in total blocks (305.0) and ninth in blocks per set (2.5) at the conclusion of the season.

Multiple AVCA Top-25 teams fell at the hands of St. Cloud State throughout 2021 as the Huskies were 8-3 against ranked opponents. SCSU dispatched the No. 5 (2x), 8, 9, 14, 15 (2x) and 16 teams in the country over the course of their historic season, including three ranked wins in their NSIC Tournament Championship run. The Huskies swept No. 16 SMSU in the Quarterfinal, took down No. 15 Wayne State in a five-set Semifinal thriller then defeated No. 8 Winona State in four sets to earn the conference crown.

Several student-athletes received recognition during 2021 headlined by Kenzie Foley, who was named the AVCA Division II National Freshman of the Year, AVCA Central Region Freshman of the Year and NSIC Freshman of the Year while earning First Team All-America, All-Region and All-Conference recognition after a breakout season with St. Cloud State. Maddy Torve graduated as one of the most successful setters in program history, earning First Team All-America (AVCA, D2CCA), All-Region (AVCA, D2CCA), All-NSIC, Academic All-District (CoSIDA) and Academic All-America (CoSIDA) honors while being named the NSIC Outstanding Senior of the Year. Linsey Rachel became the program's first two-time All-American, adding AVCA All-America Honorable Mention, First Team AVCA All-Region and

First Team All-NSIC honors to an already-stacked trophy case. Phemie Rossi ranked sixth in the nation in blocks at the conclusion of the season and earned First Team All-NSIC, AVCA All-Region Honorable Mention and AVCA All-America Honorable Mention honors.

Braegelmann led the Huskies to new heights in 2019, earning NSIC Coach of the Year after helping St. Cloud State record its best season in over 20 years. Under Braegelmann's guidance, the Huskies posted an overall record of 25-7 and a 15-5 mark in NSIC play, landing them fourth place in the NSIC rankings and earning their first-ever trip to the NSIC Tournament. St. Cloud State earned its first AVCA top-25 ranking since 1997, cracked the organization's top-10 for the first time since 1996, finished No. 10 in the final AVCA top-25 poll and earned an at-large berth to the NCAA Regional for the first time since 2004. St. Cloud State defeated 14 nationally and regionally ranked opponents during the season, going 10-5 against AVCA Top-25 opponents and finished runner-up in the NSIC Tournament.

St. Cloud State's defense closed 2019 as one of the top units in the nation, leading the NSIC in digs and digs/set. The Huskies broke the program record for single-season digs, compiling 2213 over the course of 31 matches. Senior libero Clara Krenz became the program's all-time dig leader, concluding her impressive career with 2227. Braegelmann saw three student-athletes earn All-NSIC honors as Krenz was named the conference's Libero of the Year for the second consecutive season and earned First Team All-NSIC, AVCA First Team All-Central Region, D2CCA Second Team All-Region and AVCA All-America Honorable Mention nods. Sophomore outside Linsey Rachel earned First Team All-Conference, AVCA First Team All-Region and AVCA All-America Honorable Mention honors while junior setter Maddy Torve earned Second Team All-NSIC honors and ranked top-five nationally in assists and assists/set. Finally, a program-record 11 student-athletes earned Academic All-NSIC honors in 2019.

2018 saw the Huskies continue to build, posting a 15-11 overall record with an 11-9 mark in NSIC play and a seventh-place finish in the conference standings. St. Cloud State defeated two top-10 nationally-ranked opponents while several individuals find success during the 2018 season. Freshman outside Linsey Rachel and junior libero Clara Krenz received Second Team All-NSIC honors in 2018 and were named the conference Freshman and Libero of the Year. Both also earned NSIC Player of the Week honors at least once during the season while seven student-athletes earned Academic All-Conference honors in Braegelmann's fourth season with the program.

In 2017, Braegelmann led the Huskies to a 16-14 record and an 8-12 mark in NSIC play. The 16 wins were the most for the program since 2004, when St. Cloud State posted an overall record of 19-12, and marked just the third time in the last 20 years the Huskies won more than 15 matches in a season. Sophomore libero Clara Krenz led the Northern Sun with a whopping 5.92 digs per set and earned Second Team All-NSIC honors at the end of the season, becoming Braegelmann's second All-NSIC libero in three years with the program. The Huskies defense ascended to third in the NSIC with 17.26 digs a set, limiting opponents to the sixth-fewest kills per set in the league.

Year two at St. Cloud State served as a rebuilding year for the program as the Huskies were 8-21 overall, 3-17 in the NSIC. Four student-athletes earned Academic All-NSIC notice in 2016. The Huskies showed vast improvement at the service line, leaping to fifth in the NSIC with 1.52 aces per set. SCSU's serve receive was seventh in the conference, allowing just 123 aces. Nicole Miller led the Northern Sun with 76 aces - 24 more than the next-best serve specialist - and averaged just over half an ace per set. Freshman libero Clara Krenz opened her collegiate career with 4.30 digs per set, landing her seventh in the NSIC.

In his first season with the Huskies, Braegelmann posted a 9-19 overall record with a 5-15 NSIC mark in NSIC play. St. Cloud State's defense ranked fifth in the NSIC with 16.50 digs per set, led by All-NSIC libero Brianne Stamer's conference-leading 5.46 digs a set. Stamer was one of six Huskies on the Academic All-NSIC squad while Macy Weller ranked top-20 in the conference with 0.83 blocks per set.

Chad Braegelmann was named the fifth head coach in St. Cloud State Volleyball history on July 6, 2015.

Prior to his move to SCSU, Braegelmann was the head women's volleyball coach at the University of Minnesota-Morris where he also served as the Sports Studies and Athletics Discipline Coordinator and an Assistant Athletic Director. In seven seasons at Minnesota-Morris, Braegelmann posted a 130-91 record while earning UMAC Coach of the Year honors in 2010 and 2013. His team won a share of the Upper Midwest Athletic Conference title in 2013 before closing his Minnesota-Morris career with a 23-12 (12-2 UMAC) showing in 2014.

At Colby-Sawyer, Braegelmann departed as the all-time winningest coach in program history with a 156-80 record over seven seasons spanning from 2001-07. He guided the Chargers to Commonwealth Coast Conference Championships in 2003 and 2005 while twice advancing to the NCAA Division III National Tournament. Braegelmann led Colby-Sawyer to six conference championship match appearances with double-digit wins in all seven seasons, attaining the most single-season wins in school history in any sport. Volleyball athletes were successful off the court as well, earning the top team academic grade point average of Colby-Sawyer's athletic programs multiple times.

A graduate of the University of Minnesota-Morris, Braegelmann received his master's degree in education from Northern State University.

A native of Richmond, Minn. and graduate of nearby ROCORI H.S., Braegelmann and his wife Natalie have four sons.

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH MARCI TAUMALOLO

Taumalolo at a Glance*Education

- ▼ University of Minnesota, 2007 | B.S. in Business & Marketing
- ▼ Ball State University, 2010 | M.S. in Physical Education and Sports Administration

St. Cloud State associate head volleyball coach Marci Taumalolo enters her 13th season with Huskies Volleyball in 2022. At the conclusion of the 2019 season, Taumalolo was promoted from top assistant to associate head coach. Honored as part of the American Volleyball Coaches Association (AVCA) Thirty Under 30 in February of 2011, Taumalolo has helped shape St. Cloud State Volleyball into a national power.

In 12 years with the program, Marci has recruited and coached six AVCA All-Americans, eight AVCA All-Region honorees, 13 All-NSIC selections, two NSIC Libero and Freshmen of the Year recipients, two AVCA Central Region Freshmen of the Year honorees and an AVCA DII National Freshman of the Year. 64 student-athletes have earned Academic All-NSIC honors under Taumalolo's watch.

The Huskies defense has developed into one of the top units in the NSIC during Taumalolo's time with SCSU, ranking top-six across the Northern Sun in digs per set in five of the past six seasons. St. Cloud State led the NSIC in both digs and digs/set in 2019, holding opponents to the fifth-lowest hitting percentage across the league.

Throughout her career at St. Cloud State, liberos have flourished as Taumalolo has recruited and coached back-to-back record-setters. Of the top-10 single-season dig leaders in program history, seven performances have been overseen by Taumalolo. Four of the Huskies' top-six career dig leaders have played for Taumalolo: Clara Krenz (2016-19), Brianne Stamer (2012-15), Chelsea Nagle (2008-11) and Linsey Rachel (2018-22). Krenz established herself as one of the all-time St. Cloud State greats in her time with the program, racking up a Huskies-record 2227 digs and becoming the program's first-ever 2000 Dig Club member. She was named an All-American, a two-time NSIC Libero of the Year and garnered All-NSIC honors three times while leading the Northern Sun in digs per set during the 2017, 2018 and 2019 seasons. Stamer preceded Krenz as the program's all-time dig leader, posting 1929 digs in her illustrious career and earning All-NSIC honors during the 2015 campaign with a conference-leading 5.46 digs per set. Rachel paced all NSIC outside hitters in digs and digs per set during the 2021 campaign, developing into one of the best six-rotation players in the nation under Taumalolo's watch. Nagle provided the third-most single-season digs with 481 in Marci's first season with the Huskies, going on to finish third all-time in digs at the time of her graduation.

Taumalolo helped guide the Huskies to their first NSIC regular season title since 1982 and earning the program's first NSIC Tournament Championship in 2021. St. Cloud State went 27-5 with a 19-1 mark in NSIC play to finish alone atop the conference standings. The Huskies earned the No. 2 seed at the Central Regional in Warrensburg, Missouri, closed the season ranked No. 10 in the final AVCA top-25 poll and set new program standards for fewest losses and best single-season winning percentage. St. Cloud State's offense was one of the most terminal units in the Nation, ranking seventh in hitting percentage (.270), 10th in assists (1576), 13th in kills (1682), 15th in assists per set (13.0) and 17th in kills per set (13.9). The Huskies' fearsome block ranked seventh in total blocks (305.0) and ninth in blocks per set (2.5) at the conclusion of the season.

Prior to her appointment at St. Cloud State in July of 2010, Taumalolo spent the previous three seasons (2007-09) as the assistant coach at Ball State. In her three seasons with the Cardinals, she helped lead the Ball State back court to top-five rankings in the final Mid-American Conference dig rankings each season. In 2007, the Cardinals finished fifth with 14.57 digs per set, while the back court improved two spots in 2008, ranking third with 15.43 digs per set.

Before her tenure with the Cardinals, Taumalolo was a four-year member of the University of Minnesota Golden Gophers women's volleyball team. She finished her career at Minnesota (2003-06) ranked second on the school's all-time career digs list at 1,401. After leading the Big Ten with a 5.22 digs per set her senior season, Taumalolo earned American Volleyball Coaches Association All-America Honorable Mention accolades, was named the Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year and was a First-Team All-Big Ten honoree. She was also a four-time Scholar Athlete and garnered the Big Ten Defensive Player of the Week accolades three times during her collegiate stint.

Prior to her collegiate career, Taumalolo was a two-time AAU All-American (2001 & 2002) for the Kaepa Northern Lights Club, while being named an All-American at the 2000 Junior National Championships (16-Open) and picking up the "Best Setter" award at the 2002 National Junior Championships.

During her prep career at Armstrong High School in Plymouth, Minnesota, Taumalolo was an All-American and All-State player as a junior and senior. During her senior campaign, she led her team to an undefeated (29-0) record, while collecting 31 kills and 28 digs in the team's state championship victory over Eagan High School. As a junior, she collected a school-record 53 kills in one match.

Taumalolo has earned a Master's Degree in Physical Education and Sports Administration (Ball State) along with a Bachelor's Degree in Business & Marketing (Minnesota, 2007). A native of Plymouth, Minn., Taumalolo is married with five children. She has nine siblings, including three older sisters and one younger sister who all played collegiate volleyball, along with five brothers.

ASSISTANT COACH JACOB VOSS

Assistant coach Jacob Voss enters his second season with Huskies Volleyball in 2022.

Voss brings a wealth of knowledge to the St. Cloud State coaching staff and helped the Huskies take home the NSIC regular season and tournament titles in 2021. Prior to 2021, Voss served as a student-assistant at Gustavus Adolphus College, guiding the Gusties to their first Minnesota Intercollegiate Conference (MIAC) Tournament appearance since the late 2000s. He also served as head coach of Upsala High School from 2017 to 2020.

GRAD. ASSISTANT COACH MORGAN PENNER

Morgan (Baufield) Penner joined the Huskies coaching staff in the spring of 2022.

Penner brings an impressive resume to her position at St. Cloud State, as she joined the Huskies roster in 2021 after an impressive playing career at Northern State. A 5'10" middle blocker from Wayzata, Minnesota, Penner earned Second Team All-Conference honors from the Northern Sun Intercollegiate Conference (NSIC) after tallying 195 kills in 31 matches for the Wolves. In her three years at Northern State, Penner appeared in 92 matches with 577 kills, 257 blocks and 141 digs before joining St. Cloud State in 2021. In her single season with the Huskies, Penner appeared in 11 matches and recorded 18 kills and 12.0 blocks.
