BLIZZARD'S BULLETS

- THE MATCHUP: (RV) St. Cloud State Women's Hockey returns home this weekend to host No. 1 Ohio State in a conference series at the Herb Brooks National Hockey Center. The Huskies and Buckeyes will drop the puck at 3:00 p.m. CT on Friday with a 2:00 p.m. CT start on Saturday.
- THE SERIES: St. Cloud State trails the all-time series 31-56-11 with a 17-28-3 mark against the Buckeyes at the HBNHC. Their last win against Ohio State came in Columbus on February 3, 2017 as goals by Lauren Hepsenheide, Christia Moody and Kayla Friesen led the Huskies to a 3-1 final. Janine Alder stopped 33 of 34 shots including 17-of-17 in a pivotal third period that saw Moody and Friesen both score in the first four minutes of the frame. The Huskies are on their longest losing skid of the current series, having dropped 15 straight games to Ohio State including a WCHA Quarterfinals sweep last season.
- HUSKIES PRIMER: SCSU enters the series 13-12-0 with a 6-12-0 mark in WCHA action and 11-6-0 over their last 17 games. Jenniina Nylund (11-14-25), Klára Hymálová (15-5-20) and Emma Gentry (11-4-15) headline a dangerous Huskies top-six while Dayle Ross (0-8-8, 55 BLK), Grace Wolfe (1-12-13, 46 BLK), Regan Bulger (0-3-3, 51 BLK) and Taytum Geier (1-4-5, +7, 43 BLK) have anchored the defensive corps. JoJo Chobak (6-5-0, .910 SV%, 2.68 GAA) and Sanni Ahola (7-7-0, .916 SV%, 2.65 GAA) have formed one of the top goaltending duos in the league.
- LAST TIME OUT: Then-No. 14 St. Cloud State fell 4-1 in their series finale on Saturday evening against Minnesota State, suffering a road sweep at the Mayo Clinic HSEC in Mankato. The Huskies were outshot 41-18 and won just 20 of 49 draws on the night. After falling behind 2-0 midway through the first period, the Huskies took their first of four penalties on a delay of game call and sent Avery Myers to serve the minor. SCSU killed off the Maverick power play and forced a poor cycling pass to flutter into neutral just as Myers jumped out of the box. The Huskies junior forward collected the puck in the high slot and wristed it through five-hole to cut the deficit to one. A scoreless second period preceded a wild pendulum shift of momentum in the early stages of the third. Moments after St. Cloud State missed a grade A chance in the crease, Minnesota State scored twice in the span of a minute to take a 4-1 lead. The Huskies found themselves on the kill three times following the goals and were successful each time, but the six minutes spent shorthanded sealed their fate. Emma Gentry led the Huskies with four shots on goal while Dayle Ross skated to a plus-one with three blocks.
- STANDINGS & SUCH: With the second half freshly underway, the Huskies find themselves standing sixth in a hotly-contested fight for fifth place. SCSU enters the weekend sixth in the league with 19 points – just two behind (RV) Minnesota State. St. Cloud State hosts No. 1 Ohio State this weekend, (RV) Minnesota State travels to No. 8 Wisconsin and St. Thomas hosts No. 6 Minnesota Duluth while No. 3/4 Minnesota visits Bemidji State.
- HOCKEY HUMANITARIAN NOTICE: Senior forward Addi Scribner has been named a 2023 Hockey Humanitarian Award nominee, joining Men's Hockey defenseman Spencer Meier to make SCSU the only school to feature a nominee from both their men's and women's program. The Hockey Humanitarian Award, which is celebrating its 28th season, is presented annually to college hockey's finest citizen – a student-athlete who makes significant contributions not only to his or her team but also to the community-at-large through leadership in volunteerism.

BLIZZARD'S BULLETS

▼ A FIRST HALF TO REMEMBER: Closing the first half at 11-10-0, the Huskies recorded their winningest first half in program history and just their second double-digit win mark at the break. SCSU's first half winning percentage of .524 trails only 2007-08 (.556) and marks the second time the program has entered the break at .500 or better.

▼ FAMILIAR FACES, PART I: This weekend marks the first collegiate game featuring St. Cloud State head coach Brian Idalski and Ohio State associate head coach Peter Elander on opposite benches. Elander served as Idalski's associate head coach for seven seasons at North Dakota from 2010-17, guiding the Fighting Hawks to two NCAA Tournament appearances. The two icons both served as head coaches in the 2022 Olympics - Idalski leading China and Elander leading Denmark - with Idalski winning their Group B matchup, 3-1 on February 4.

▼ FAMILIAR FACES, PART II: Another notable first collegiate coaching meeting will be marked this weekend as Huskies assistant coach Mira Jalosuo and Ohio State head coach Nadine Muzerall match up. Muzerall served as an assistant coach on the Minnesota bench during Jalosuo's junior and senior seasons as the Gophers won the 2012 and 2013 NCAA Championships.

▼ GETTING GRITTY: Remaining true to the team's newfound identity, the grind-and-grit Huskies boast the top four shot-blockers in the WCHA. Dayle Ross leads the league with 55, Regan Bulger is second with 51 while Grace Wolfe and Taytum Geier go three-four with 46 and 43 respectively. No other skater in the league has more than 41 blocked shots. As a team, St. Cloud State has 350 blocks - good for 14.00 per game - which lands them second in both categories across the WCHA behind only Bemidji State's 354 and 14.75.

▼ SPECIAL TEAMS STONEWALLERS: St. Cloud State's penalty kill has been stellar this season, ranking second across the league and 10th nationally at 88.4%. The Huskies lead the WCHA with 105 penalties taken - 24 more than any other club - and pace the league in penalties taken per game, hitting the box more than four times per night.

▼ POWERING UP: The Huskies complement their strong PK with a dynamic power play that presently ranks fourth in the league and sixth in the country at 22.5%. Klára Hymálová has scored eight power play goals, sharing the lead in both the WCHA and NCAA with Ohio State's Sophie Jaques. When SCSU scores on the power play they are 10-1-0 compared to a 3-11-0 record when they do not score on the advantage.

▼ LOOKING AT THE LEADERBOARDS: Many Huskies can be found across the WCHA statistical leaders entering the second half. Klára Hymálová is fourth in the league with 15 goals and leads the league in power play goals. Nylund has the seventh-most faceoff wins with 205 while Hymálová is ninth with 182.

▼ STELLAR STOPPERS: Goaltenders JoJo Chobak and Sanni Ahola have combined to provide SCSU with a phenomenal pairing, currently standing as one of just three pairs in the league to both have at least a .900 save percentage.

▼ NYLUND'S CLIMB: Jenniina Nylund's assist at the East/West Showcase moved her out of a tie for ninth in the program's all-time scoring list as she now stands alone with 86 points. This season, Nylund has 11 goals and 14 assists for 25 points.

The Huskies reached double-digit wins the earliest in a season since 2008-09 and are five wins away from matching the program's all-time mark in a season.

▼ FIVE NATIONS FANATICS: Five Huskies enjoyed strong performances at the Five Nations Tournament in Ångelholm in mid-December, highlighted by Sanni Ahola and Jenniina Nylund helping Finland to a tournament Championship as the lone nation to go 4-0. Nylund scored two goals and provided three assists for five points, leading Suomi by skating to a team-best plus-five with 23 draws won at a 52.3% clip. Ahola was one of just three goalies at the tournament to go 2-0-0, stopping shots at a .909 clip while leading the entire tournament with a 1.00 goals against average. She closed out her debut tournament by blanking Germany with 13 saves, clinching Finland the championship. Klára Hymálová led Czechia in goals and points, skating to a team-best plus-three with three goals and two apples for five points. She scored once on the power play and put a total of eight shots on goal. Laura Zimmermann scored three goals for Switzerland and put nine shots on, skating to a plus-one as

A native of Helsinki, Finland, Ahola led the WCHA in wins by going 3-1-0 while helping the Huskies to a 5-2-0 record on the month. She recorded a 1.80 goals against average while playing the third-most minutes of all league tenders, stopping shots at a .929 clip. Ahola became the first Husky to earn a monthly honor from the WCHA since January 2020 and becomes just the fourth player to be recognized as a conference Player of the Month in program history.

He led the defenders, coordinated advance scouting and oversaw the Huskies' recruiting efforts. His recruiting class was headlined by legendary SCSU goaltender Ashley Nixon, who graduated second all-time in saves, fourth in save percentage and fifth in goals against.

Brian Idalski was named the sixth head coach in the history of St. Cloud State Women's Hockey on May 19, 2022. The 2022-23 campaign marks his 16th as a collegiate head coach, carrying a 277-177-50 record into his first season leading the Huskies. He has coached 10 Olympians, 26 national team members from eight countries, three All-Americans, three Academic All-Americans, four Patty Kazmaier Top-10 finalists, two NCAA Great Eight Award winners and 62 WCHA Scholar Athletes throughout his career.

Idalski was chosen to serve as the head coach for China at the 2022 Winter Olympics in Beijing. His team earned two wins in pool play and operated as the top penalty kill in the Olympics at 90.0% with nine kills on 10 chances. Under his guidance, goaltender Jiaying Zhou posted the best save percentage at .955 with 85 stops on 89 shots.

Prior to joining St. Cloud State, Idalski spent three seasons as the head coach of the Shenzhen KRS Vanke Rays in the Zhenskaya Hockey League. He guided the Rays to a 77-17 record, two regular season championships and the 2020 ZhHL Cup - becoming the first non-Russian team to win the league's championship. Idalski was named ZhHL Coach of the Year in 2020 and 2022 along with being selected to coach in the 2019-20 ZhHL All-Star Game.

Idalski spent the 2018-19 season as the Director of Hockey Activities at Culver Academy in Culver, Indiana, leading the program to its first USAH Tier-I Nationals appearance.

Introduced as the University of North Dakota Women's Hockey head coach in April of 2007, Idalski was the architect of a major turnaround. He compiled five 20-win seasons while leading the Fighting Hawks to NCAA Tournament appearances in 2012 and 2013, inheriting a team that went 3-31-2 prior to his arrival and rebuilding UND as a national power. His teams were consistently ranked in the Nation's Top-10 while producing a record of 169-156-39 in 10 seasons.

With Idalski at the helm, UND saw the program's first-ever Olympian in Susanne Fellner (2006 Olympics, German National Team), first-ever active student-athlete Olympians in Jocelyne and Monique Lamoureux (2010 Olympics, U.S. National Team) and first-ever recruited Olympian in Michelle Karvinen (2010 Olympics, Finnish National Team). During his time in Grand Forks, Idalski served as the Vice President of the American Women's Hockey Coaches Association and the Governor of the American Hockey Coaches Association.

Idalski led UND to back-to-back NCAA Tournament berths in 2011-12 and 2012-13, finishing runner-up in the WCHA Tournament in 2013 and 2014. North Dakota finished fourth or higher in each of their final seven campaigns, with Idalski directing a .500 record in WCHA play through his 10 seasons leading the program.

In 2006-07 Idalski served as an assistant coach on the St. Cloud State bench - a season in which the Huskies went 12-18-7, one of only 10 campaigns with double-digit wins in the program's 24-year history. He led the defenders, coordinated advance scouting and oversaw the Huskies' recruiting efforts. His recruiting class was headlined by legendary SCSU goaltender Ashley Nixon, who graduated second all-time in saves, fourth in save percentage and fifth in goals against.

Before his first stint at St. Cloud State, Idalski enjoyed a highly successful five-year tenure as head women's hockey coach at the University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point, where he amassed a 108-21-11 (.811) record and was a four-time finalist as American Hockey Coaches Association (AHCA) National Coach of the Year.

Idalski guided UW-Stevens Point to an NCAA Division III runner-up finish in 2003-04, a third-place national finish in 2005-06 and a national quarterfinal finish in 2004-05. He led the Pointers to three Northern Collegiate Hockey Association (NCHA) regular season championships (2002, 2005, 2006), four NCHA playoff titles (2002, 2004, 2005, 2006) and was twice named NCHA Coach of the Year (2002, 2005). During his time at UW-Stevens Point, Idalski tutored three All-Americans, six Academic All-Americans and 17 All-NCHA selections.

UW-Stevens Point appeared in two DIII Frozen Fours under Idalski and became the first team to finish the NCHA regular season undefeated in 2004-05.

A four-year letterwinner at UW-Stevens Point from 1991-1995, Idalski was a member of the Pointers' NCAA Division III runner-up team in 1992 and was a sophomore on the 1993 Division III national championship team. In 97 career games as a defenseman, he tallied five goals and 20 assists.

Following his Pointer playing days, Idalski went on to play professional hockey for two years with the Madison Monsters of the United Hockey League from 1995-1997. He then played two seasons with the Columbus Cottonmouths of the Central Hockey League from 1997-1999, and won the 1998 CHL regular season and playoff championship. After his professional playing days, Idalski spent the 1999-2000 season as the full-time assistant coach with the Cottonmouths.

Idalski has also been involved for several years as an instructor at the USA Hockey National Development Camps and other instructional hockey camps throughout North America.

A Warren, Michigan native, Idalski and his wife Nicole, have four sons - Beau, Jason, David and Mitchel.

Working primarily with the forwards and leading recruiting efforts, the 2010 Olympic Silver Medalist has guided eight Huskies to All-WCHA honors including five All-Rookie Team selections. 11 Huskies have delivered 20-point seasons under Siergiej's tutelage while 11 have posted double-digit goal campaigns.

Siergiej has recruited and coached three Olympic forwards in Jenniina Nylund (Finland, Beijing 2022), Klara Hymmlarova (Czech Republic, Beijing 2022) and Laura Zimmerman (Switzerland, Beijing 2022).

Laura Kluge (7-17-24) and Klara Hymmlarova (8-18-26) impressed as rookies in 2017-18 and 2019-20 respectively. Julia Tylke climbed to sixth all-time in goals at the conclusion of her SCSU career under Siergiej's watch.

Prior to her move to SCSU, Siergiej served as an assistant coach at Robert Morris during the 2013-14 season.

An iconic member of Wisconsin Women's Hockey history, Siergiej played for the Badgers from 2004-08. ▼ Personal: Daughter of Natalie and Wesley Gentry... majoring in Community Health with a minor in Psychology...

▼ Why Gentry chose SCSU: "After visiting St. Cloud, it reminded me a lot of home. I loved the rink and campus, it has many programs that I am interested in studying as well. I was able to stay at St. Cloud throughout my summers at National Camp. Being able to stay in the dorm, eat at the cafeteria, and play on the rink all made me realize that St. Cloud was where I wanted to attend and play hockey."
