HALL OF FAME INDUCTEES

FABIO EIDELWEIN | INDUCTION 2019

Despite playing for the Hilltoppers for just two seasons, Eidelwein made his mark on the record book. He is St. Edward's second all-time leading scorer with 39 career goals and is ranked in the top five in goals scored in a single game (3rd-4), assists in a game (3rd-3), points in a game (3rd-8) and holds the second and third spot for most points in a season with 46 in 1999 and 45 in 2000. Eidelwein was the Heartland Conference Most Valuable Player and First Team All-Conference selection in 1999 and 2000 and earned First Team All-Region honors in 2000. He led the Hilltoppers to two Heartland Conference Championships and one NCAA Tournament Appearance (1999).

DAIRAN TALLEY | INDUCTION 1999

Talley lettered four seasons for the Hilltoppers from 1991 to 1994. During his four seasons, he helped lead the team to a 45-27-7 record, three postseason appearances and a Heart of Texas Conference Championship in 1992 and 1994. He earned two nods at all-conference and all-district, as well as being named honorable mention all-America twice. Talley graduated in 1995 with a degree in Biology and currently resides in San Antonio, Texas.

GABE JONES | INDUCTION 2002

Gabe Jones was among the group of soccer players that put the men's soccer program on the map. During his time in the program, he led the team to a conference title and three post-season appearances. Honors earned while at St. Edward's include two-time All-Conference, Conference Freshman of the Year, three-time NAIA All-District, NAIA SW Regional Team and NAIA All-American. Jones played professionally for several years in both Germany and the U.S., including time spent with the Dallas Burn in Major League Soccer.

KIRK WAGNER | INDUCTION 2002

Wagner was among the group of soccer players who established the St. Edward's program as a regional power in the early 1990's. During his tenure, the soccer team won a conference title and advanced to post season play three times. While finishing his degree at St. Edward's, Wagner served as an assistant soccer coach before playing professionally in Germany. Today, he is the general manager for Monarch Separators in Houston, Texas. Honors while at St. Edward's include three-time team captain, two-time all-conference, two-time NAIA All-District and NAIA All-American.

IAN LIPSKI | INDUCTION 1997

Lipski was a four-year letterwinner for the Hilltoppers from 1989 to 1992. During his four years, he helped lead the Hilltoppers to a district tournament appearances and a Heart of Texas Conference Championship in 1992. Lipski was four-time all-conference performer, two-time all-district honoree, and honorable mention all-America. The summa cum laude graduated in 1993 with a bachelors degree. He currently is a clinical assistant professor at MD Anderson Cancer Center in Houston, Texas.
