Assistant Coach

St. Edward's University has named Nuno Gourgel as the fifth head coach in program history, Director of Athletics Dr. Jim Sarra announced.

Gourgel arrives after a standout run at Utah Valley, where he helped lead one of the most successful seasons in program history. The Wolverines captured the WAC Regular Season Championship, earned an NCAA Tournament berth, and finished with an RPI of 37. They ranked among the top-scoring teams in the country, finishing in the top five nationally in scoring offense and leading the NCAA in total assists.

We're here to build a championship-caliber program that is respected nationally, and I'm excited to get to work."

In addition, Gourgel served as Sporting Director of Utah United, leading the club to the 2025 USL W League National Championship in its inaugural season. Utah United was the league's highest-scoring team and helped propel players such as Seven Castain (Orlando Pride) and Taylor Rath (Chicago Red Stars) into the professional ranks.

He has also developed NWSL talent, coaching Courtney Brown (Utah Royals FC) and Katie O'Kane (Racing Louisville FC) during his time at the University of Utah, as well as, Ruby Hladek (Seattle Reign) and Faith Webber (Denver Summit)

Prior to his time in Utah, Gourgel served as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at Robert Morris University, where he led domestic and international recruiting efforts while contributing to player development and match preparation. During his tenure, the Colonials achieved their first winning season in over 20 years and secured consecutive conference tournament appearances.

Gourgel began his head coaching career at Snow College, building both the men's and women's programs from the ground up. From 2016 to 2018, he compiled a combined 108-30-13 record, including a dominant 59-7-11 mark with the women's program. His leadership earned him three Region XVIII Coach of the Year honors, while guiding his teams to three regular-season titles and three region tournament championships.

A native of Portugal who grew up in London, Gourgel developed in the academies of Tottenham Hotspur FC and Leyton Orient FC before continuing his playing career at Ashford University. He holds an MBA in Sport Business from Saint Leo University, along with bachelor's degrees in business administration and sport and recreation management.

KAT NICHOLS

ASSISTANT COACH

St. Edward's Athletics welcomed Kat Nichols to the Hilltop as the new assistant women's soccer coach in July 2025.

Nichols joins the Hilltop after serving as an assistant coach specializing in the defensive backline and goalkeepers for Pittsburg State, which produced four all-conference players in the program's first season last year.

Before that, she served as the director of coaching and college liaison for the Vestavia Hills Soccer Club. In her time leading the college liaison program, she helped place over 35 girls on college teams at various levels. Vestavia Hills won state championships in 2023, 2018, and 2016, were national cup qualifiers in 2021, and SCCL champions in 2019.

Nichols played centre back at Samford University for four years, earning a bachelor's degree in sociology in 2005.

2025 SEASON REVIEW

2025 SEASON RECAP

Measured Moments: How St. Edward's Recalibrated and Rallied in 2025

AUSTIN, Texas — Nick Cowell didn't make much of it when the final whistle blew on St. Edward's 2025 home opener, a 7-0 win over North Greenville.

Handshakes, a few smiles, and a team photo commemorated Cowell's 250th victory at St. Edward's in the first home game of his 20th season on the Hilltop. The Hilltoppers' longtime gaffer paused just long enough to acknowledge the milestone, then quickly moved on to preparing for the next challenge in a season full of them.

St. Edward's opened the season ranked sixth in the Lone Star Conference preseason poll, and sophomore forward ANNIE ROCHA held up as the league's Preseason Offensive Player of the Year.

The non-conference schedule offered little margin for error, with two nationally-ranked Rocky Mountain opponents in four games. The exception came in the home opener, when Rocha recorded a first-half hat trick in St. Edward's seven-goal home opener, earning the sophomore LSC Offensive Player of the Week.

St. Edward's didn't lack for opportunities in its conference opener at Oklahoma Christian, doubling the Eagles up in shot attempts but falling 2-0 on the scoreboard.

The Hilltoppers found their footing on Rocha's right boot, getting three goals over the next two games. Rocha scored two of the Hilltoppers' three goals in a 3-2 win over West Texas A&M, on a passing clinic held by MARIE HANNEDOUCHE and JISELL ZAVALETA DENOVA. Senior midfielder KATIE FITZPATRICK added the third goal and joined Rocha in the scoring column.

of a 2-2 draw against Angelo State.

Finishing remained inconsistent even as shot attempts surged in a 1-0 loss to St. Mary's and a scoreless draw with UT Tyler. The Hilltoppers took an early lead against Midwestern State out of a corner set piece to Hannedouche, but didn't have enough firepower in a 2-1 loss after losing Rocha for the remainder of the regular season to a knee injury in the 15th minute.

Nearly midway through conference play, St. Edward's stood 1-3-2 with its offensive engine now sitting on the bench and a lot of questions moving forward.

Progress came gradually rather than all at once. Senior co-captains Bailey Williams and Fitzpatrick provided steady leadership and an unwavering belief expressed through daily consistency rather than public attention. It was enough to stabilize the team during the transition as Cowell tinkered with lineups and formations, empowering Williams to find her way into the midfield and attacking third from her defensive position, and challenging Hannedouche to be more aggressive.

St. Edward's adjusted without Rocha rather than unraveling.

Rocha's game relied on direct pressure, while Hannedouche brought creativity and improvisation. The French graduate midfielder found pockets between the lines, took defenders on when space disappeared, and delivered when needed. It was her creativity that helped St. Edward's generate so many opportunities, and now Cowell demanded she step up and feature more in the end product.

She responded by delivering a brace in a 4-0 road win over Eastern New Mexico, with freshman MACY JENNINGS scoring less than 15 seconds into the match for her first career goal in her first collegiate start. In the following game, Hannedouche and senior KARLEE FRIEBELE combined on the decisive goal on senior day, connecting for Friebele's first goal at St. Edward's in her first start, winning 1-0 over Texas Permian Basin.

Hannedouche added an assist in a 2-0 win at Texas A&M International, scored both goals in a 2-1 victory over Lubbock Christian, and scored the game-winner against Sul Ross State in the regular-season finale. She finished with six goals and four assists for 16 points, earning All-LSC Third Team and United Soccer Coaches All-Region Third Team honors.

St. Edward's surged, winning five of its final eight regular-season games to overtake Oklahoma Christian for the final seed in the LSC Tournament.

Williams, LANE ROGERS, and MCKENNA KEELEY fortified the Hilltopper defense, combining with goalkeeper Dariah Schlumbohm for four shutout victories over that stretch. Schlumbohm remained a steady fixture in the net, recording 76 saves and another LSC Goalkeeper of the Week award. RILEY SISSON, Ava Maulden, ISABELLA RUIZ, MACY JENNINGS, and others provided timely goals and energy.

At the conclusion of the regular season, on a 2-0 win over Sul Ross State to close the regular season, the Hilltoppers entered the LSC Tournament with plenty of momentum and with a proven focal point returning.

Rocha made a surprise appearance in the first round of the LSC Tournament, entering the game in the 38th minute and immediately producing a highlight goal. After host Lubbock Christian scored the equalizer in the second half, it was Rocha's PK in the shootout that sealed the win.

In the immediate aftermath, the team rushed onto the field to celebrate. Then, some handshakes, a few smiles, and a brief interview with Cowell and Rocha to mark the moment before quickly moving on to the next challenge.

Though St. Edward's lost in the quarterfinals to Midwestern State, Cowell's 20 seasons at St. Edward's show that building a successful program or season isn't about the highest or bleakest moments, but all the work that comes in between.

Hannedouche, Schlumbohm Earn LSC Postseason Recognition

AUSTIN, Texas – The Lone Star Conference announced its 2025 women's soccer postseason awards, naming St. Edward's midfielder MARIE HANNEDOUCHE to the All-LSC Third Team. Hilltopper goalkeeper DARIA SCHLUMBOHM earned All-Academic Team honors for the second consecutive year.

Hannedouche led St. Edward's with 16 points this season, scoring six goals — including two game-winners — and a team-high four assists. She started all 19 games, totaling 1,131 minutes played. She scored two goals in two shots on goal in a 2-1 win over Lubbock Christian on Oct. 25.

Schlumbohm started all 20 games in the net for St. Edward's this season, totaling 1,765 minutes, and ranks third in the conference in total saves at 76, maintaining a 3.99 cumulative GPA.

The United Soccer Coaches announced its 2025 Women's Soccer All-Region Teams, naming St. Edward's graduate midfielder MARIE HANNEDOUCHE to its All-Region Third Team.

St. Edward's posted a 7-10-3 record, including 6-6-2 in conference play.

HALL OF FAME

WOMEN'S SOCCER HALL OF FAMERS

HEATHER YOUNG-FORSHAY INDUCTED 2002

Young-Forshay had an outstanding four-year career for the women's soccer team at St. Edward's and graduated with a 4.0 grade point average. Following graduation, she stayed an additional year to lend her considerable talents to the program as an assistant coach. Since graduation, Young-Forshay lives in Austin and works for GSD&M Advertising. Honors while at St. Edward's include two-time team captain, team MVP, two-time all-region, NAIA All-American and two-time NAIA Academic All-American.

KRISTEN GASCOYNE-ROBBINS INDUCTED 2018

Gascoyne-Robbins enters as the second women's soccer player to be inducted. Gascoyne graduated in 2008 and was a 200t NSCAA Third Team All-Americ selection and a finalist for NCAA Woman of the Year in 2008. A three-time all-region pick, Gascoyne-Robbins was named the Heartland Conference Woman of the Year in 2008, Heartland Conference MVP in 2006 and 2007 and Freshman of the Year in 2004. She helped lead the Hilltoppers to three conference championships, two NCAA Tournament berths and one Sweet 16 appearance. Gascoyne-Robbins was also a CoSIDA Academic All-District Second Team selection in 2005.

WOMEN'S SOCCER HALL OF FAMERS

KELLY BOYD INDUCTED 2019

Boyd graduated in 2011 and was an NSCAA Third Team All-America selection and First Team All-Region pick in 2010 while leading the Hilltoppers to a Heartland Conference Championship and NCAA Elite Eight appearance. She was named the Heartland Conference Most Valuable Player and Defensive Player of the Year that same season. During her career, Boyd earned Heartland Conference first team honors twice (2009, 2010) and second team honors twice (2007, 2008) as the Hilltoppers won two conference titles and made three NCAA Tournament appearances. A standout in the classroom as well, Boyd earned NSCAA Academic All-America Third Team, Academic All-Region First Team and Academic All-District Second Team honors.

MIKE SMITH INDUCTED 2020

The SEU men's and women's soccer programs have been perennial powerhouses in Division II and they were berthed from the efforts of Mike Smith. Smith started out as the men's coach in 1987 and started the women's program in 1990, coaching both until the 2003 season. He posted a career record of 74-71-7 (.510) with the women's team and led them to three postseason appearances and one regional appearance.

WOMEN'S SOCCER HALL OF FAMERS

KELSEY BAIRD (YEATTS) INDUCTED 2020

Baird is one of the most decorated women's soccer players in St. Edward's history. An honorable-mention All-America selection in 2008, Baird was a finalist for the prestigious NCAA Division II Woman of the Year award in 2009 after earning Heartland Conference Woman of the Year honors. Baird was a three-time, first-team all-region selection and earned second-team honors once. She earned three first-team All-Heartland nods while leading the Hilltoppers to two conference championships and NCAA Tournament appearances in 2006 and '07 with SEU advancing to the Sweet 16 in 2006. A standout in the classroom as well, Baird was a CoSIDA Second-Team All-District pick in 2008 and was selected to the NCAA Division II 40th Anniversary Tribute Team.

KIM ABBOTT INDUCTED 2022

Abbott left an indelible mark on the program as its first NSCAA First Team All-American (2009), and three-time D2CCA All-Region selection. At the time of her induction, she was tied for most games played (82), third in career assists (29), and fourth in points (91). Her 13 assists in a season were a single-season record. Abbott was instrumental in the Hilltoppers winning two Heartland Conference Championships while making two NCAA National Tournament Quarterfinal appearances, posting a 63-12-6 overall mark during her time on the Hilltop.

WOMEN'S SOCCER HALL OF FAMERS

JULIA WHITACRE (HARRISON) INDUCTED 2024

Whitacre '17 is a four-year starting midfielder and one of the best defensive players in St. Edward's women's soccer history, earning All-America and Academic All-America Third Team in 2016 and All-America Honorable Mention in 2013. She also earned All-Region honors in all four years. She earned four All-Heartland Conference First Team selections, the 2013 Freshman of the Year, three All-Tournament Teams, including the 2014 Heartland Conference Tournament MVP, and the 2016 Heartland Conference Player of the Year. She was also the 2016 SEU Female Senior Athlete of the Year.

During Julia's tenure, St. Edward's had a 62-13-7 (.799) record, including 37-2-1 (.938) in conference play. Her Hilltoppers won two Heartland Conference Championships and three regular-season titles, earning four NCAA Tournament bids, advancing to the Elite Eight in 2013 and Sweet 16 in 2015.

RACHEL DEFEAUW (MURRAY) INDUCTED 2024

Defeauw was a four-year starting forward for the St. Edward's women's soccer program from 2010-2013, earning the 2013-2014 Heartland Conference Woman of the Year and finishing among the top ten finalists for NCAA Woman of the Year and the St. Edward's Female Student-Athlete of the Year.

Defeauw is tied for St. Edward's career record for games played (82) and holds the program's career records for assists (34), points (114), and shots (218). She's second all-time in goals scored (40), shots on goal (111), and game-winning goals (17).

She is in the top five for single-season records in multiple statistical categories, including second in assists (11, 2010), fifth in shots on goal (33, 2011), as well as third (six, 2011) and fourth (five, 2012) in game-winning goals. She's twice posted seven points in a game, the third most in program history.
