LIPSCOMB (17-20, 9-6 A-SUN)

vs.

STETSON (23-13, 6-6 A-SUN)

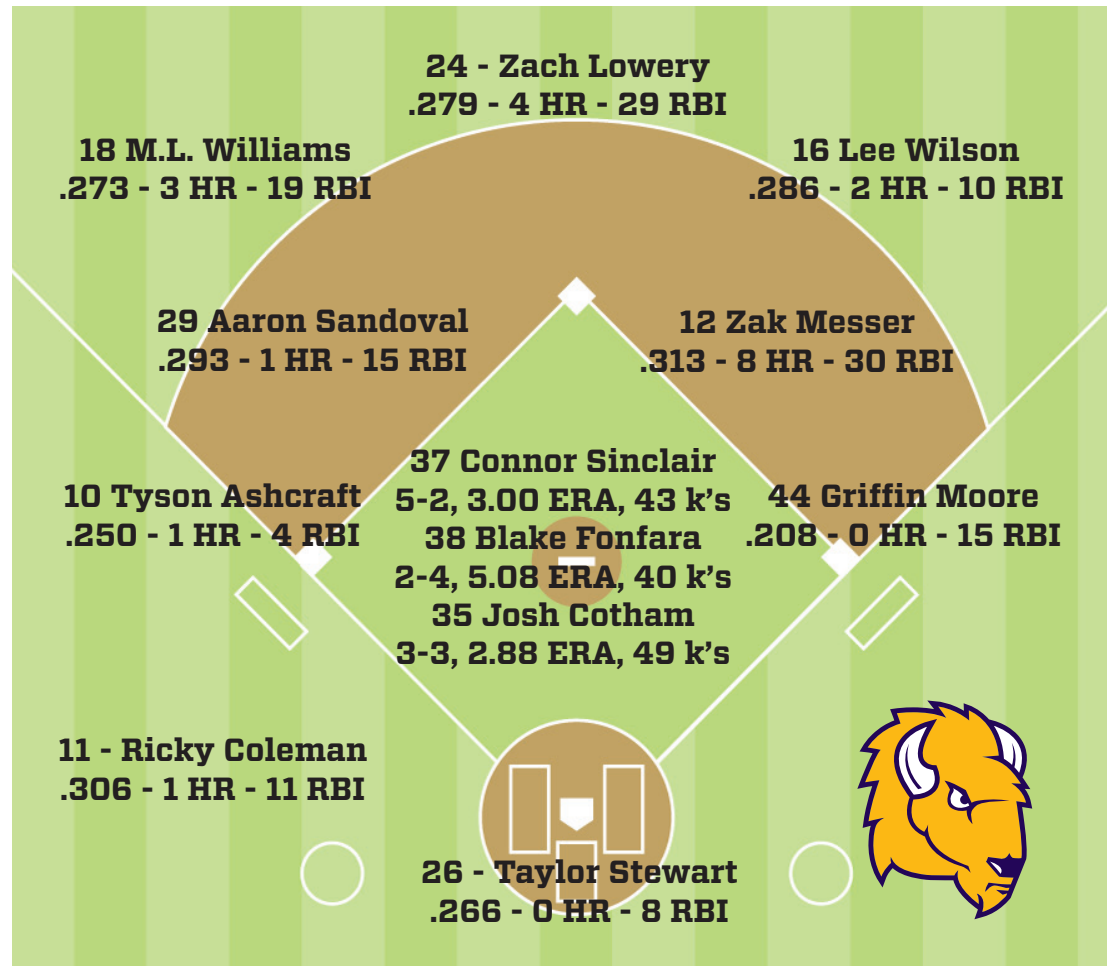

Games 38-40

Melching Field at Conrad Park

Around the horn...

- Lipscomb returns to the "Sunshine State" to face Stetson this weekend after a trip to North Florida last weekend. The remaining nine A-Sun games for the Bisons will be in the "Music City".
- The Bisons set a school record for strikeouts in Wednesday night's loss fanning 17 Western Kentucky batters. Lipscomb carried a no hitter into the ninth inning before the Hilltoppers mounted a comeback. Will Blalock fanned five in the first five innings of the night before Hunter Brothers struck out all six batters he faced in the sixth and seventh innings. Gil Rehwinkel added a pair of punchouts in the eighth before Tyler Burstrom set the new mark with a K in the ninth.
- Last Friday night's win over North Florida got the Bisons off to a 9-4 start in Atlantic Sun play marking the best league start in school history.
- Former Bison and current Colorado Rockies pitcher Rex Brothers is off to a good start in Denver. Brothers has made six appearances and allowed only one earned run leading to a 1.42 ERA and a 1-1 record.

PROBABLE STARTING LINEUP

With over 300 collegiate wins under his belt, Jeff Forehand was named the 15th coach in the history of the storied Lipscomb program in 2007.

Under his direction, the Bison reached the NCAA Tournament for the first time in school history in 2008 behind an Atlantic Sun Conference Tournament Championship. A major underdog, Lipscomb traveled to Athens, Ga., taking out host Georgia in the opening round before falling to Georgia Tech in round two. That setup a rematch with the Bulldogs and Georgia prevailed in round two ending the Bison first NCAA Regional.

Forehand's 2009 club came within one win of back-to-back trips to the NCAA tournament falling in the A-Sun championship game. That season would see another milestone for Forehand's program as pitcher Rex Brothers would become the second Lipscomb player drafted in the top round of the Major League Baseball draft. Taken as the 34th overall pick in the draft by the Colorado Rockies, the hard-throwing lefty made a quick rise to the majors making his MLB debut June 6th, 2011 with a 96 mph fastball against the San Diego Padres.

Having players drafted is nothing new for Forehand however, as a number of his student-athletes have received the call on draft day. Casey Bond, who plays in the Hollywood feature film Moneyball and John King got the trend started in Forehand's first season in 2007 as both were selected by the San Francisco Giants. A right-handed pitcher, King was a 17th-round selection, while Bond got the call in the 25th round. Also among the Lipscomb standouts who have been drafted under Forehand are catcher Caleb Joesph, who was drafted in the seventh round by the Baltimore Orioles in 2008, and righty hurler Josh Smith, who was chosen by the Cincinnati Reds in the 21st round in 2010.

With Forehand's leadership, the Bison have had seven selections on the A-Sun All-Conference team and over 80 honorees on the league's All-Academic Team. The Bison have also placed eight players on the A-Sun All-Freshmen team including Brothers, who was A-Sun Freshman of the Year in 2007.

Prior to taking over the Lipscomb program in 07, Forehand had a highly successful stint across town at Trevecca Nazarene where he led the Trojans to a 211-142-1 in six seasons. At Trevecca, Forehand earned 2004 NAIA Region XI Coach of the year and was twice named TransSouth Conference Coach of the Year in 2004 and 2005. The Trojans also excelled in the classroom as the team grade point average increased a half a point in his tenure.

While at Trevecca, Forehand saw three players have their names called on draft day as Mario Campos (Red Sox, 2001), B.J. Jenkins (San Diego Padres, 2004) and Brad Coon (Los Angeles Angels of Anaheim, 2005) each were selected.

Before taking over the Trojan's program, Forehand got his head-coaching start at Nashville's Goodpasture Christian School where in seven seasons he won three state titles (1995, 1997, 1999). He is also a three-time Tennessee State Coach of the Year honoree winning the award each of those three years. Prior to taking over the Goodpasture program, Forehand served as an assistant coach from 1990-92 under his father, Fred, at Montgomery Bell Academy.

A native of the "Music City", the former second baseman played college ball at nearby Belmont under coach Dave Whitten graduating in 1999. Forehand also holds a Masters of Education degree from Tennessee State.

A lifelong resident of the city of Nashville, Forehand and his wife, Karen, have two sons, Gant and Brooks.

GETTING ON BOARD...

Lipscomb junior right fielder Lee Wilson entered the April Fool's day contest against ETSU having reached in 34 straight contests dating back to last season but the streak was snapped against the Bucs as Wilson went 0-for-4 at the dish.

WEEKLY HONORS FOR MESSER...

Senior second baseman Zak Messer was honored as the CollegeBaseballInsider.com Southeast Region Player of the Week, the Atlantic Sun Conference Player of the Week and the CollegeSportsMadness.com A-Sun Player of the week for his outstanding the week of March 26th. Messer hit .538 with two doubles, a triple and a pair of home runs. The veteran drove in seven runs to become the first Lipscomb player to earn A-Sun Player of the Week honors since the Bison joined the league in 2002.

CROSSING THE DISH...

Already the career leader in hits for the Bison, senior M.L. Williams scored four runs against Mercer to claim the career record for runs scored surpassing the previous all-time mark of 144 held by Allen Bolden.

SECOND INNING WOES...

The second frame has been an Achilles heel for the Bisons this season. Opponents have outscored Lipscomb 33-12 in the second inning. The Bisons have almost flipped that number in the third inning however outscoring opponents 30-11.

JUST A SWINGING...

Led by eight k's by Josh Cotham, Lipscomb pitchers combined to fan a school record 16 batters against Middle Tennessee. The Bison had previously struck out 15 batters on four other occasions but a Gil Rehwinkel strikeout with two away in the ninth against the Blue Raiders put a new mark in the record book.

WELCOME BACK NESSER...

The Bison welcomed Zak Messer back to the lineup for opening day and the redshirt senior is already making an impact for Lipscomb. Following a medical redshirt season a year ago that saw him play in only four games, Messer has driven in a team-high 30 RBI including a team-best eight home runs for the Bison so far this season.

ONE-HIT WONDER...

Redshirt freshman Will Blalock and senior Dannie Strable combined to one-hit Middle Tennessee on Feb. The lone hit was an infield single to second base. It was the fewest hits allowed for the squad since March 29, 2008 when Brandon McClurg threw a no-hitter against Kennesaw State.

PRESEASON HONOR...

A 2011 All-Atlantic Sun Second-Team selection, senior outfielder M.L Williams was named to the College Sports Madness Preseason All A-Sun first team.

ON THE WEB...

Bison baseball will be featured on ASun.TV 22 this spring including 11 Atlantic Sun contests. Veteran announcers Craig Hartline and Justin Seamon will be joined by Lipscomb student Taylor Jackson on the calls.
