Head Coach: Joe Dooley (George Washington, 1988) - Record: 144-97, 8th season overall

Assistants: Michael Fly (Kentucky, 2006), Tom Abatemarco (Dowling, 1974), Aaron Miles (Kansas, 2005)

UNDER THE HAT

•Luke Doyle enters the final regular-season game of the year needing two 3-pointers to break his own school record for triples in a season. Doyle set the current mark of 72 last year.

•Looking ahead to the ASUN Tournament, the Hatters will serve as either the seventh or eighth seed. A win against FGCU assures the Hatters of seventh. A loss, combined with an NJIT win over USC Upstate, puts the Hatters at eighth.

•Derick Newton is the first Hatter with back-to-back 500-point seasons since Mark Brisker in 1991 (603) and 1992 (633).

•Divine Myles needs 12 points to reach the 500-point mark. If he does, he and Newton would be the first teammates to do it in the same season since Joel Hancock (554) and Dalton Epting (550) in 1961-62.

About the Game

•The Hatters close out the regular season on Thursday when they visit current ASUN leader FGCU in Fort Myers.

•Thursday's game is 23rd meeting all-time between the Hatters and Eagles. FGCU holds a 15-7 lead in the series, including an 89-88 win in DeLand back on Jan. 7

•The last two games in the series have been decided by a combined total of three points. In addition to their one-point win in January, FGCU also won, 80-78, in overtime in last season's ASUN Tournament championship game.

Three of a Kind

Divine Myles, Brian Pegg reached the 1,000-career points milestone earlier this season, and they were joined by Derick Newton in early February, marking the first time in Stetson history three players had 1,000 points during the same season.

The trio also has another unique distinction across the college basketball landscape: Only five other teams currently boast three (or more) 1,000-point scorers: Siena (4), Michigan, New Hampshire, North Carolina and USC.

Sophomore Scorers

Now that Derick Newton has reached 1,000 career points, he finds himself among the top career scoring sophomores in Division I. Following Wednesday's 16-point effort at Bethune-Cookman, Newton ranks fifth among all active sophomores in career scoring with 1,088 points. The Top 5 Sophomores (thru Tuesday):

Player, School Points

Digging Deeper

•Stetson limited NJIT to 33.3 percent shooting in last Saturday's 60-56 loss, the lowest opponent field-goal percentage by a Division I opponent since holding Bethune-Cookman to 32.3 percent on Dec. 3, 2013.

•Derick Newton was named ASUN Player of the Week last on Jan. 30 after helping the Hatters to a 1-1 week by averaging 28.5 points and 6.0 rebounds while shooting 60 percent (18-30) from the field. He scored 31 points in a loss last Wednesday at Jacksonville, and led the Hatters with 26 points in their win over North Florida on Saturday.

•Stetson's rally on Jan. 28 against UNF was made possible by a 56-point 2nd half outburst. It was the Hatters' second straight game with 50 or more points after halftime, and the sixth time this season Stetson has topped the 50-point mark in the 2nd half. The high-water mark was a 63-point effort against The Citadel.

Director of Operations: Chad Vincent (Stetson, 2016) – 1st season

•Stetson had a season-low 3 turnovers in a Jan. 19 win vs. NJIT. It was the fewest number of turnovers in the Corey Williams era.

•Junior guard Angel Rivera had 6 assists on Jan. 7 against FGCU, pushing him over the century mark for the 3rd straight season. Only three other Hatters (Frank Ireland, Terry Johnson, Brad Weston) have 3 straight 100-assist seasons. He is currently 5th on the program's all-time list with 424 assists.

•Junior guard Divine Myles became the 33rd player in school history to reach the 1,000-point mark on Dec. 18 against Fort Wayne. He is the first Hatter to do so since Aaron Graham in 2014. He currently ranks 23rd in career scoring (1,180).

•Angel Rivera leads the ASUN and ranks 21st nationally in total assists (154) and 30th in assists per game (5.5) entering play Thursday.

•Stetson has made at least one 3-point field goal in each of the last 390 games after making 8 last Saturday at NJIT. Stetson's last game without a trey was vs. Colorado State on Dec. 28, 2004.

•Junior center Larry Dennis turned in the best performance of his Stetson career on Jan. 14 with 14 points, 11 rebounds and 2 blocks at Kennesaw State. All figures either tied or set career-highs, and his 29 minutes were also a personal best.

•Sophomore forward Derick Newton recorded the second 30-10 game of his career against Florida A&M (33-11). His 33 points are the most by a Hatter this century.

•Divine Myles missed Stetson's game with Florida A&M on Nov. 26, snapping a streak of 66 consecutive starts and 70 straight games played.

•Angel Rivera dished a career-high 13 assists against Florida College. It was the 4th double-digit assist effort of his career. He has 5 total games with at least 10 assists in his career.

•Stetson has twice made 15 3-pointers in a game this season (FIU, Florida College)

About Stetson

Stetson University is located in DeLand, Fla., with a second campus in Gulfport, Fla. and two satellite centers. Founded in 1883 by Henry A. DeLand as the DeLand Academy and later renamed Stetson University to honor its benefactor, Philadelphia hat maker John B. Stetson, the university has a storied history of leadership, values and significance. The university is home to many Florida firsts, including the first collegiate newspaper, the oldest schools of business administration and music, the first college of law and the state's first private university to integrate.

Notable athletic alums include 2014 American League Cy Young Award winner Corey Kluber; 2014 National League Rookie of the Year Jacob deGrom; former NBA forward Lorenzo Williams; Miami Marlins third baseman and current free agent Chris Johnson; Ray Finkle, former Miami Dolphins kicker and later a police chief in Miami; Atlanta Falcons President & CEO Rich McKay; college basketball Hall of Fame inductee Dr. Glenn Wilkes & ESPN reporter Britt McHenry.

Some of the more notable non-athletic alums include former actor Ted Cassidy, who played Lurch the Butler in TV's The Addams Family; composer Gerard Marino; 1960s country singer Wilma Burgess; and former Marine Corps General Roy Geiger.

HEAD COACH COREY WILLIAMS

Slowly but surely, Corey Williams is building something special in DeLand.

Williams has been deliberate in his quest to turn the Hatters into a winner. He hasn't gone for the quick fix. He is building a program, not just a team. And that program is on the verge.

At the end of the 2015-16 season, Williams' efforts finally began to pay off. The Hatters closed the regular season with a thrilling 80-73 win over conference foe FGCU, then steamrolled their way to a pair of Atlantic Sun Conference Tournament victories to reach the tournament finals for the first time since 1994.

With a championship on the line, Williams guided a senior-less roster to within a basket of winning the title as the Hatters lost 80-78 in overtime at FGCU. Despite the defeat, Williams and the Hatters served notice that the rebuild is nearing completion.

As he enters his fourth season at Stetson, Williams has assembled his most talented and experienced team. Williams knows something about talent and experience. With an NBA championship and nine NCAA Tournaments as both a player and coach on his resume, he knows what it takes to be a winner.

Williams was named the 21st head coach in program history on June 3, 2013 – less than 10 weeks before the start of the school year.

A native of Macon, Ga., Williams played point guard at Oklahoma State. He had a lengthy career as a professional player, spending his rookie season in the NBA with the Chicago Bulls where he was a part of the 1993 NBA Championship team, before starting his coaching career.

Prior to taking the reins at Stetson, Williams spent six seasons as an assistant at Florida State. His career with the Seminoles coincided with the team's winningest five-year period, beginning in 2007-08. During this time the team won its first ACC Championship, enjoyed a school-record run of four straight NCAA Tournament appearances, four consecutive years of double digit wins in ACC play, produced five NBA Draft picks, recorded 16 wins over nationally ranked teams and appeared in the national rankings in four straight seasons.

Before joining the Florida State staff, Williams was an assistant coach for seven seasons at Oral Roberts where he aided the Golden Eagles in achieving an average of 18 wins per season, including 20 or more wins in each of his last three seasons in Tulsa. ORU captured the Mid-Continent Conference regular season and tournament titles in 2006 and 2007, advancing to play in the NCAA Tournament each season. The 2006-07 squad not only finished with a 23-11 record, but the Golden Eagles also stunned the college basketball world when they defeated then-No. 3 Kansas, 78-71, in an early-season game at legendary Allen Fieldhouse.

Williams played collegiately at Oklahoma State from 1989-1992. He finished his career eighth on OSU's career scoring charts with 1,320 points. During his collegiate playing career he helped lead the Cowboys to consecutive NCAA Tournament Sweet 16 appearances under Coach Eddie Sutton in 1991 and 1992. The Cowboys were ranked 14th in the final Associated Press poll of the 1991 season and 10th in the final coaches' poll following the 1992 season. With Williams in Oklahoma State's line-up for 128 games during his four-year varsity career, the Cowboys ranked as one of the top teams statistically in the nation.

Following the conclusion of his collegiate career, Williams was a 2nd-round draft pick of the Chicago Bulls, but that wasn't his only professional opportunity. Despite having not played football since junior high, the Kansas City Chiefs selected Williams in the 12th round of the 1992 NFL Draft. He was the only OSU Cowboy drafted that year.

Williams, 46, earned his bachelor's degree in education from Oklahoma State in 2002. He and his wife, Nicole, have two children: Jourdan (17) and Corey, Jr. (13).

STETSON'S DIVINE MIRACLE

Divine Miracle Myles is his given name, and he most certainly earned it.

He earned it because he wasn't supposed to live. His mother's pregnancy was wrought with complications. Doctors were so certain he was going to be stillborn they almost threw him away after he was delivered. But the Stetson freshman – and a higher power – had other ideas.

Myles' mother, Tonya, was 20 years old when she was pregnant with Divine. It was a difficult pregnancy, and Tonya was told by her physicians her son would likely be stillborn. Their tests indicated she wouldn't carry him to full term. They said Divine didn't have a nose or a mouth, that his eyes, lungs and heart weren't developed. Doctors also cautioned that if he survived, he would be mentally retarded, without any motor skills of any kind, and he would be dependent upon his family for the rest of his life.

On Feb. 25, 1996, at just 24 weeks, Tonya went into labor. Divine was delivered via C-section and when he was removed from his mother's womb, Divine stunned them all.

"On the day I was born I was still in the amniotic sac and they were about to dispose of me," said Myles. "But God intervened and I kicked the bag open and began crying and screaming. When I was born I was whole. I was a healthy baby."

Shocked at what they were seeing, nurses immediately asked the doctor to place a breathing tube in the newborn. But the delivery doctor resisted and instead told nurses to check Divine's Apgar score, a procedure used to assess the health of a newborn child. Divine tested at the top of the chart.

Despite what his family called a miracle birth, doctors believed Divine still had a long road of recovery ahead of him. They insisted he be placed into a series of courses and classes designed to stimulate him both physically and mentally. For three years, Divine attended those classes until his mother decided he didn't need them anymore.

"I was 2 or 3 years old when I was in those classes, and I was ahead of all of the other kids," he said. "The doctors kept telling her I needed to go to the classes. But my mom said I was fine and she stopped taking me. She continued to work with me at home. The only effect I've had from any of this is that I had stiff bones as a child but I grew out of that."

It isn't hard to imagine that the series of events immediately before and after his birth have had a profound impact on Divine. A deeply religious young man, Divine believes the faith that he and his family hold so dear had a lot to do with not only his initial survival, but how he's thrived as well.

"We talk about it a lot because it's a big testimony in my life," he said. "My mom reminds me every so often how blessed I am, and that God has a purpose for me and has great things in store for me. That's why my middle name is Miracle. No man on Earth could get me through this. It was all God."

Myles went on to lead a perfectly normal childhood and developed into one of Alabama's top prep players at Blount High School, helping lead the Leopards to a 27-4 record and runner-up finish in the 2014 Alabama 6A state tournament. No in his third season with the Hatters, Myles has started all but two games. He is once again among A-Sun leaders in scoring, assists, steals and field-goal percentage.

And while every student-athlete has their share of challenges, Myles isn't likely to be fazed by a hostile crowd or a larger opponent. He's already faced down the biggest challenge of his life... and it's a Miracle he came out on top.
