THE STORYLINES

LET'S GET IT STARTED

Columbia is 77-38 all-time in season openers. Last season, the Lions dispatched Kean University, 107-62.

ENGLES ERA

No stranger to Morningside Heights, Jim Engles enters his first year as head coach of Columbia after a successful eight-year stint with NJIT. Engles spent five years as an assistant coach under Joe Jones from 2003-08.

ABOUT STONY BROOK

- •The Seawolves are coming off their first ever NCAA Tournament appearance after a 26-7 campaign and America East Championship in 2016-17.
- Jeff Boals takes over the program after Steve Pikiell went on to take the Rutgers head coaching position.
- Stony Brook also lost its top three scoreres (Jameel Warney, Carson Puriefoy and Rayshuan McGrew) to graduation.
- Senior guard Ahmad Walker is the team's leading returning scorer (10.3 PPG) and rebounder (7.1 RPG).

SERIES HISTORY

Stony Brook leads the all-time series with the Lions, 12-6, and have won the last three meetings. Last year, the Seawolves trailed by as many as 17 points, but used a 24-3 run in the second half to earn a 69-60 victory at Island Federal Credit Union Arena.

POLL POSITION

Columbia was picked fifth in the preseason lvy League polls. Princeton was tabbed as the early favorite, followed by Harvard, Yale and Penn, respectively.

COLUMBIA BASKETBALL ON THE CUSP PODCAST

The Columbia University Sports Management program will produce a series of podcasts involving the men's and women's basketball programs this season. The podcasts will be part of the program's podcast series, The CUSP Show. The show is produced by staff and students of the Columbia University Sports Management program, and hosted by faculty members and sports business grandees Joe Favorito and Tom Richardson. The podcasts can also be found in the App Store and by going to BlogTalkRadio.com/ TheCUSPshow.

CIT CHAMPIONS

Last year, Columbia became just the second lvy League team to win a postseason tournament and the first since Princeton won the NIT in 1975. The Lions established program records for wins (25), nonconference wins (15) and home victories (18). Columbia's ten lvy League victories were the most for the Lions since 1993.

LUKE SKYWALKER

Senior forward Luke Petrasek is the team's leading returning scorer after posting 10.2 points on 44.2-percent shooting from downtown. Petrasek recorded 16 points and eight rebounds in the CIT Championship Game against UC Irvine and hit a gamewinning trey at Manhattan last season.

THE IVY LEAGUE TOURNAMENT

The Ivy League will add men's and women's basketball tournaments to its slate of conference championships beginning in March 2017. The League's Council of Presidents approved four-team tournaments in men's and women's basketball, with a onegame reduction for each team in the regular season. The tournaments will determine the conference's automatic bids to the NCAA Division I Basketball Championships. The regular season champion will receive an automatic bid to the postseason NIT. The 2017 Ivy League Men's and Women's Basketball Tournaments will both be held over the same two competition days, March 11 and 12, at The Palestra in Philadelphia.

BILL CAMPBELL'S NO. 67 FEATURED ON JERSEYS

For all of its 31 varsity sports, Columbia will wear a No. 67 patch on its uniform in honor of former Lion football player, coach, confidante and friend Bill Campbell, who passed away in April, 2016 at age 75. Campbell captained the 1961 Ivy League Championship football team. He returned to Columbia to coach the Columbia Football team for six seasons between 1974 and 1979. Campbell went on to make his mark in the business world, working for Kodak, Apple - where he rose to the level of executive vice president, and founded, served as President and CEO of Claris and became chairman of Intuit, the maker of Ouicken, OuickenBooks and Turbo Tax. In the fall of 2014, the athletics program retired uniform number 67 - the number Campbell wore as an offensive lineman and linebacker for all 31 of Columbia's varsity teams.

A LOOK BACK...

STONY BROOK SURGES PAST MEN'S BASKETBALL, 69-60

STONY BROOK, N.Y. – Stony Brook used a 24-3 run in the second half to come away with a 69-60 victory over the Columbia men's basketball team Saturday night. The Lions dropped to 9-6 and saw their five game winning streak snapped with the defeat.

In the first half, Columbia shot 7-of-11 from long range and forced the Seawolves' (9-4) top two players, Jameel Warney and Carson Puriefoy, to sit on the bench for a long stretch due to foul trouble. Defensively, the Lions put forth a strong effort and held Stony Brook to 31.3 percent shooting to take a 36-25 advantage into the locker room.

Columbia knocked down two more 3-pointers to start the second half before Puriefoy and Warney sparked their team. Puriefoy started the rally with a pair of drives and turned a 17-point deficit into a 51-45 advantage at the 8:48 mark.

The Lions committed 13 second half turnovers and shot just 8-of-28 from the field after halftime as they suffered their third-straight defeat to Stony Brook.

Warney finished with a game-high 20 points, while Puriefoy posted 18.

Grant Mullins paced the Lions with 14 points and Lukas Meisner grabbed eight rebounds. Columbia did win the battle of the boards, 39-33, against the Seawolves, who came into the night +10.7 in the rebounding margin category.

HEAD COACH
JIM ENGLES
FIRST SEASON
DICKINSON '90

2015 Metropolitan and Mid-Major Coach of the Year Jim Engles became the 23rd head coach in the 116-year history of men's basketball program in April 2016.

Engles returns to Columbia after spending the past eight years as head coach for the New Jersey Institute of Technology. Over the past six seasons at NJIT, Engles compiled a 100-88 record, including back-to-back 20-win seasons the past two years. Prior to leading the Highlanders, Engles served as an assistant coach at Columbia under former head coach Joe Jones from 2003 to 2008.

NJIT had competed at the Division I level for only two seasons when Engles arrived in 2008, and in three years he turned them into a 15-win program. In 2014-15, he directed the Highlanders to a 21-12 record, including an upset at No. 16 Michigan and a postseason berth, advancing to the semifinals of the CollegeInsider.com Tournament (CIT).

At the conclusion of the 2014-15 season, Engles was named John McLendon National Coach of the Year honors from CollegeInsider.com, received the Peter A. Carlesimo Division I co-Coach of the Year from the Metropolitan Writers Association and was a finalist for the Skip Prosser Man of the Year and Hugh Durham National Coach of the Year awards.

In 2015-16, Engles once again led the Highlanders to the semifinals of the CIT, where they faced the eventual champions, Columbia, at Levien Gym. His team also finished tied for second place in the America Sun Conference in its first year in the league.

In addition to the tremendous success over the past two years, Engles won a Great West regular season championship and was selected the Great West Conference Coach of the Year in 2012-13. In 2010-11, he picked up a vote for AP National Coach of the Year after NJIT posted a 15-15 record.

The success of Engles' Highlanders squads culminated with NJIT committing to build a new $100 million Wellness and Events Center and receiving an invitation to join the Atlantic Sun Conference after spending two years without any conference affiliation.

In his first stint with the Lions, Engles helped Joe Jones turn around the Columbia program from a last-place finish in The Ivy League, into a consistent competitor in non-conference and league play, including the first .500 finish in league play since 1992-93.

THE ENGLES FILE

- CAREER COACHING RECORD: 111-139 (.444)
- POSTSEASON COACHING RECORD: 6-2 (.750)
- LED NJIT TO 2012-13 GREAT WEST REGULAR SEASON CHAMPIONSHIP
- 2014-15 PETER A. CARLESIMO DIVISION I CO-COACH OF THE YEAR (METROPOLITAN WRITERS ASSOCIATION)
- 2015 JOHN McLENDON NATIONAL COACH OF THE YEAR (COLLEGEINSIDER.COM)

Prior to joining Columbia as an assistant in 2003, Engles spent the previous six seasons at Rider University, where he was the top assistant coach for the Broncs under Don Harnum, as well as their recruiting coordinator. Rider's basketball program enjoyed great success with Engles on staff, including winning the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference regular-season title during the 2001-02 season and making the school's first appearance in the postseason NIT in 1998.

Before joining Rider, Engles spent seven seasons as an assistant coach at Wagner College. He assisted Tim Capstraw in guiding the Seahawks to the best winning-percentage turnaround in Division I basketball, going from four wins in 1991-92 to 16 in 1992-93. Wagner also recorded the most Division I wins in school history during that time, and competed against Rider for the Northeast Conference Championship in 1993 on national television.

A Staten Island native, from St. Peter's High School, Engles played college basketball for Dickinson College, where he was a three-year letterwinner. He helped lead the Red Devils to the second-most single-season victories in school history at the time during the 1989-90 season. After graduating from Dickinson in 1990 with a B.A. in political science, he earned his M.B.A. from Wagner College in 1997.

His grandfather, Ken Engles, was a player and coach at Georgetown University, while his uncle, John Engles, was a high school All-American who went on to play at Penn under the direction of Hall of Fame coach Chuck Daly.
