Woodard was the No. 39 ranked JUCO nationally, per JucoRecruiting.com, was a standout during his two seasons at Southwest Tennessee CC. He was named the TCCAA Freshman of the Year (2022-23) and earned First Team All-TCCAA distinction last year.
- The next addition was CJ Luster, the No. 22 JUCO player in the nation, according to JucoRecruiting.com. He was the leading scorer at Salt Lake CC, averaging 16.4 ppg. - Bryan Mitchell, a walk on, was the eighth and final newcomer. He is a New Jersey native and played at IMG Academy.

- With 13 wins on the Island last year, the Seawolves have posted 10 or more wins at home in 11 of the last 15 seasons.
- Under the guidance of head coach Geno Ford, Stony Brook is 51-30 on its home court.

OHIO'S OWN, FORD'S A HALL OF FAMER

- Prior to his coaching career, Geno Ford made a name for himself on the court in his home state of Ohio. This past summer, Ford was inducted into the Ohio Basketball Hall of Fame as part of the class of 2023.
- While playing for his father, the renowned coach Gene Ford (inducted into the Ohio Basketball Hall of Fame in 2018) at Cambridge High School in eastern Ohio, Ford registered an impressive 2,680 career points.
- To this day, that total stands as the fourth highest in Ohio's rich basketball history, surpassing basketball icons such as LeBron James, Jerry Lucas, and Bob Huggins.
- Ford ranks second in the state's record books, only behind Luke Kennard, for both single-season and career free throws made, tallying 288 and 697 free throws made, respectively.
- In 1993, Ford's exceptional performance on the court earned him the prestigious honor of being named Ohio's "Mr. Basketball", solidifying his status as one of the state's standout players.
- He continued his basketball journey at Ohio University, starting in 113 out of 123 games for the Bobcats. In his final two seasons, he led the team in scoring, contributing a total of 1,752 points during his collegiate career. Ford maintained an impressive scoring average of 14.2 points per game, displaying his accuracy with a 79.6 percent success rate from the free-throw line and shooting 36.8 percent from beyond the arc.
- Following a season with the Leicester Riders in the British Basketball League, he returned to the United States to embark on his coaching career.
- In recognition of his outstanding contributions to the sport, Ford was inducted into the Ohio Valley Athletic Conference Hall of Fame in 2004 and enshrined in the Ohio University Athletics Hall of Fame in 2008. Now, he adds another prestigious honor to his list of achievements as he enters the Ohio Basketball Hall of Fame, a well-deserved tribute to his remarkable career and lasting impact on the game he loves.

FIFTH SEASON

Geno Ford enters his sixth season as head coach of the Stony Brook University men's basketball program in 2024-25. Ford guided the Seawolves to the CAA Championship Game in the school's second season as a member of the conference in 2023-24. The Seawolves won 20 games for the ninth time in the program's Division I history and the second time under Ford. Stony Brook entered the CAA Tournament as the No. 7 seed, defeating No. 10 Northeastern and producing upsets of No. 2 Drexel in double overtime and No. 3 Hofstra to advance to the CAA Final for the first time in program history. Stony Brook ultimately fell to top-seeded Charleston in overtime.

Stony Brook went 13-3 at home in 2023-24, posting double-digit home victories for the 10th time in the last 15 seasons. Under the tutelage of Ford and his staff, graduate guard Tyler Stephenson-Moore earned All-CAA, All-MBWA and NABC All-District honors in 2023-24, while the team as a whole posted a cumulative grade point average above 3.0 during the academic year.

Ford's fourth season at the helm of the Stony Brook men's basketball program was the Seawolves' first as a member of the Colonial Athletic Association, now the Coastal Athletic Association. Stony Brook finished the season at 11-22 overall and 6-12 in league play, earning the No. 10 seed in the 2023 CAA Championships. Stony Brook's first season in the conference ultimately culminated with a loss to the eventual conference champion Charleston Cougars in the quarterfinals, but the Seawolves upset the North Carolina A&T Aggies in the first round, the program's first-ever postseason victory as a member of the CAA. Under Ford's tutelage, Tyler Stephenson-Moore was voted to the All-CAA Third Team after a breakout season on the Island.

During the 2021-22 campaign, Ford was instrumental in developing one of the most dangerous backcourts in the region, with a pair of all-conference guards in Tykei Greene and Anthony Roberts leading the way. Greene was inside the top 100 nationally in numerous rebounding categories, while Roberts scored the program's first 40-point game since 2015-16. The squad was also one of the most protective in Stony Brook's Division I history, finishing with the second-lowest turnover rate since 2000. It also was the fourth-most efficient offense since 2000 and the best mark since the 2015-16 campaign. His squad finished inside the Top 25 nationally in fewest fouls and fewest turnovers, as well as the top 50 nationally in turnovers per game.

Ford guided one of the nation's most intimidating defenses in 2020-21, finishing 16th nationally in blocks per game and 36th in the country in field-goal percentage defense. In his first season at the helm of Stony Brook in 2019-20, Ford led Stony Brook to its seventh 20-win season in nine years, finishing with a 20-13 record and a berth in the America East semifinals.

They continued a decade of excellence in which they finished inside the top two in nine of the last 10 seasons, something that hasn't been done by any other America East team. He also helped lead three all-conference selections, including first-teamer Elijah Olaniyi and second-team selection Andrew Garcia to success during the season. His offense also broke records from beyond the arc this season, making a total of 274 3-pointers this year, a new team record. Makale Foreman also set a new mark individually, draining 104 shots from outside.

The Cambridge, Ohio native became the head man after three years as the Associate Head Coach under Boals, helping lead Stony Brook's offense to one of its most prolific outputs in Division I history with 71.6 points per game. That number was only bettered by the 2015-16 conference championship team. Under Ford's associate head coach tenure, Stony Brook finished inside the top two in the standings in two of his three seasons with two America East semifinal berths also during that time.

He also brings a wealth of head coaching experience with two stops coming before this. He took over at Kent State in 2008, helping lead the Golden Flashes to a 68-37 record in his three years just outside of Cleveland, Ohio. This included a 35-13 mark in the Mid-American Conference and a pair of MAC regular-season championships, becoming the first MAC coach in 48 years to win back to back regular-season crowns.

He parlayed that into a job in the Missouri Valley Conference with Bradley, guiding the program to the nation's seventh-best turnaround in his second season, leading the team from a 7-25 mark to 18-17 the following year. He also coached the second MVC player ever to record 500 points, 100 rebounds, 100 assists and 70 steals in a season in Walt Lemon, Jr.

The Ohio University graduate sits sixth in school history with 1,752 career points after averaging 18.9 and 18.7 per night in his junior and senior seasons, respectively. He was also First-Team All-MAC and Academic All-Conference selection as a senior in 1997. During the summer of 2023, Ford was inducted into the Ohio Basketball Hall of Fame.
