O'CONNOR'S IMPRESSIVE ROOKIE YEAR

- Collin O'Connor received four CAA Rookie of the Week honors last season, earning the award in November, December, February and March. At the end of the regular season he was also named to the CAA All-Rookie Team.
- In his career debut against No. 18 Marquette, the guard from Dayton, Ohio tallied seven points and added five assists. Then, in the second game of the season against Central Michigan, he scored a game-high 16 points, including the game-winning layup with 3.7 seconds left, to help the Seawolves erase a 12-point, second-half deficit in a 73-72 victory.

He played all 40 minutes in both games, shooting better than 40% from the floor and 36% from three-point range. THE FORD FILE

OHIO'S OWN, FORD'S A HALL OF FAMER

- Prior to his coaching career, Geno Ford made a name for himself on the court in his home state of Ohio. Two summers ago, Ford was inducted into the Ohio Basketball Hall of Fame as part of the class of 2023.
- While playing for his father, the renowned coach Gene Ford (inducted into the Ohio Basketball Hall of Fame in 2018) at Cambridge High School in eastern Ohio, Ford registered an impressive 2,680 career points.
- To this day, that total stands as the fourth highest in Ohio's rich basketball history, surpassing basketball icons such as LeBron James, Jerry Lucas, and Bob Huggins.
- Ford ranks second in the state's record books, only behind

Luke Kennard, for both single-season and career free throws made, tallying 288 and 697 free throws made, respectively.

- In 1993, Ford's exceptional performance on the court earned him the prestigious honor of being named Ohio's "Mr. Basketball", solidifying his status as one of the state's standout players.
- He continued his basketball journey at Ohio University, starting in 113 out of 123 games for the Bobcats. In his final two seasons, he led the team in scoring, contributing a total of 1,752 points during his collegiate career. Ford maintained an impressive scoring average of 14.2 points per game, displaying his accuracy with a 79.6 percent success rate from the free-throw line and shooting 36.8 percent from beyond the arc.
- Following a season with the Leicester Riders in the British Basketball League, he returned to the United States to embark on his coaching career.
- In recognition of his outstanding contributions to the sport, Ford was inducted into the Ohio Valley Athletic Conference Hall of Fame in 2004 and enshrined in the Ohio University Athletics Hall of Fame in 2008. Now, he adds another prestigious honor to his list of achievements as he enters the Ohio Basketball Hall of Fame, a well-deserved tribute to his remarkable career and lasting impact on the game he loves.

FORD BY THE NUMBERS

- Head coach Geno Ford enters his seventh full season at the helm of the Seawolves, leading Stony Brook to a 86-102 record through his first six full campaigns as head coach.
- Ford was elevated to head coach on March 26, 2019, after his former Ohio teammate and former head coach Jeff Boals resigned to accept the head coaching job at Ohio.
- Ford served as interim head coach for Stony Brook's loss to UCF at the 2019 Roman College Basketball Invitational.
- His coaching career began as an assistant coach at his alma mater, Ohio University. He then assumed head coaching positions at Shawnee State, Muskingum, and Kent State, accumulating a 165-155 record across those 10 seasons.
- For four years, he served as the head coach at Bradley University before taking charge of the men's basketball program at Stony Brook, where he has been making a significant impact for the past six years.
- Ford and the Seawolves put together a 20-win campaign in 2023-24, advancing to the CAA Championship as the seven seed. Stony Brook became the second seven seed to play in the CAA Final (East Carolina, 1993).
- In Ford's first season, Stony Brook won 20 games for the eighth time in the last 11 seasons and finished in second place in the America East, their ninth top-two finish over that time period.
- Coach Ford celebrated his 200th career win on December 14, 2021, against Central Connecticut State.

THREE NEW COACHES JOIN THE STAFF

- Aaron Clarke returns to his alma mater to serve as the Director of Player Personnel. The 2024 graduate spent the last year working with Adam Harrington and Mat Sulda running individual and group basketball workouts in N.J.
- Following four seasons at Sacred Heart, Clarke transferred to Stony Brook as a graduate student ahead of the 2022-23 season. In two seasons as a Seawolf he scored 460 points, giving him 1,678 in his career. Clarke scored 69 points during the 2024 CAA tournament, including the game-winning points with 18 seconds left in double overtime in the semifinal vs. Drexel to send the Seawolves to the championship game.
- Tyler Stephenson-Moore joins his former teammate Clarke in returning to Stony Brook as the Director of Basketball Operations. Also a 2024 graduate, Stephenson-Moore played professionally overseas last year in Germany's Bundesliga ProA with Phoenix Hagen. Before accepting this position, he was set to play in Sweden with BC Lulea in the Basketligan this year.
- One of the all-time great Seawolves, Stephenson-Moore spent his full five-year career (2019-24) in Stony Brook and can be found throughout the record books, most notably ranking 11th in program history with 1,359 career points and first in games played with 140. A two-time All-CAA honoree and 2024 NABC All-District and All-MET selection, he helped lead Stony Brook to 78 wins in five years.

- Andy Hipsher returns to the NCAA as Stony Brook's new Associate Head Coach after spending the last seven years coaching in Europe. He brings with him over 20 years of coaching experience, helping multiple teams to postseason appearances and conference titles.
- Following a standout playing career at Akron (1999-2004) that saw him score 1,136 points, Hipsher would gain invaluable experience working under hall of fame coaches Bob Knight and Lon Krueger prior to landing his first assistant coaching position at Utah Valley in 2006. He would subsequently coach at Western Michigan, South Florida, and UTRGV, before leaving for Europe in 2018 and serving as both an assistant coach and head coach for several teams across Germany, Denmark, Finland, and the Czech Republic.

FROM TEAMMATE TO COACH

- Aaron Clarke and Tyler Stephenson-Moore were not only teammates with each other during their playing days, but were also teammates with current team members Toby Onyekonwu and Leon Nahar. Clarke, Onyekonwu, and Nahar all joined Stony Brook the same year in 2022.
- Similarly, Clarke and Stephenson-Moore, who both graduated in 2024, are now coaching alongside their old coaches Geno Ford and Jaden Uken.

4 X 1000

- Stony Brook's coaching staff is one of a few in the country to feature four members who scored 1,000 career points as Division I athletes: Geno Ford (1,752), Andy Hipsher (1,136), Aaron Clarke (1,678), and Tyler Stephenson-Moore (1,359).

SEVENTH SEASON
OHIO '97

Geno Ford enters his seventh season as head coach of the Stony Brook University men's basketball program in 2025-26. Ford and the Seawolves are coming off an 8-24 season in 2024-25. Stony Brook entered the CAA tournament as the No. 13 seed and nearly advanced to the second round after erasing a 16-point deficit against No. 12 Delaware late, only to fall just short in the closing minutes. Under Ford's guidance, this season saw junior transfer CJ Luster II earn All-CAA Third Team honors and make All-Met Third Team, while freshman Collin O'Connor picked up four CAA Rookie of the Week awards and a spot on the CAA All-Rookie Team.

The prior year, Ford guided the Seawolves to the CAA Championship Game in the school's second season as a member of the conference in 2023-24. The Seawolves won 20 games for the ninth time in the program's Division I history and the second time under Ford. Stony Brook entered the CAA Tournament as the No. 7 seed, defeating No. 10 Northeastern and producing upsets of No. 2 Drexel in double overtime and No. 3 Hofstra to advance to the CAA Final for the first time in program history. Stony Brook ultimately fell to top-seeded Charleston in overtime. This marked the sixth time in the Division I era that the Seawolves played in a conference final and was the first time since 2016.

The Seawolves went 13-3 at home in 2023-24, posting double-digit home victories for the 10th time in the last 15 seasons. Under the tutelage of Ford and his staff, graduate guard Tyler Stephenson-Moore earned All-CAA, All-MBWA, All-Met, and NABC All-District honors in 2023-24, while the team as a whole posted a cumulative grade point average above 3.0 during the academic year. This year also saw the team set a new record for made threes in a season with 277 to best the mark set back in 2019-20.

Ford's fourth season at the helm of the Stony Brook men's basketball program was the Seawolves' first as a member of the Colonial Athletic Association, now the Coastal Athletic Association. Stony Brook finished the 2022-23 season at 11-22 overall and 6-12 in league play, earning the No. 10 seed in the 2023 CAA Championships.

The 2021-22 season, Stony Brook's first in the CAA, ultimately culminated with a loss to the eventual conference champion Charleston Cougars in the quarterfinals, but the Seawolves upset the North Carolina A&T Aggies in the first round, the program's first-ever postseason victory as a member of the CAA. Under Ford's tutelage, Tyler Stephenson-Moore was voted to the All-CAA Third Team after a breakout season on the Island.

During the 2021-22 campaign, Ford was instrumental in developing one of the most dangerous backcourts in the region, with a pair of all-conference guards in Tykei Greene and Anthony Roberts leading the way. Greene was inside the top 100 nationally in numerous rebounding categories, while Roberts scored the program's first 40-point game since 2015-16. Led by this duo, the Stony Brook offense posted its fourth-most efficient year in the Division I era, per KenPom, and ended up producing the second-lowest turnover rate in program history, ranking top 25 nationally in fewest fouls, fewest turnovers, and turnovers per game. Under Ford the Seawolves boasted one of the nation's most intimidating defenses in this year, finishing 16th nationally in blocks per game and 36th in the country in field-goal percentage defense.

In his first season at the helm of Stony Brook in 2019-20, Ford led Stony Brook to its seventh 20-win season in nine years, finishing with a 20-13 record and a berth in the America East semifinals. The team continued a decade of excellence in which it finished inside the top two in nine of the last 10 seasons, something that has not been done by any other America East team. Ford helped lead three all-conference selections, including first-teamer Elijah Olaniyi and second-team selection Andrew Garcia to success during the season. His offense broke records from beyond the arc this season, making a total of 274 3-pointers this year for a new team record. Makale Foreman also set a new record individually, draining 104 shots from outside.

The Cambridge, Ohio native became the head man after three years as the Associate Head Coach under Boals, helping lead Stony Brook's offense to one of its most prolific outputs in Division I history in 2018-19 with 71.6 points per game. That number was only bettered by the 2023-24 squad and the 2015-16 conference championship team. Under Ford's associate head coach tenure, Stony Brook finished inside the top two in the standings in two of his three seasons with two America East semifinal berths also during that time.

He also brings a wealth of head coaching experience with two stops coming before this. He took over at Kent State in 2008, helping lead the Golden Flashes to a 68-37 record in his three years just outside of Cleveland, Ohio. This included a 35-13 mark in the Mid-American Conference and a pair of MAC regular-season championships, becoming the first MAC coach in 48 years to win back to back regular-season crowns.

Ford parlayed that into a job in the Missouri Valley Conference with Bradley, guiding the program to the nation's seventh-best turnaround in his second season, leading the team from a 7-25 mark to 18-17 the following year. He also coached the second MVC player ever to record 500 points, 100 rebounds, 100 assists and 70 steals in a season in Walt Lemon, Jr.

The Ohio University graduate sits sixth in school history with 1,752 career points after averaging 18.9 and 18.7 per night in his junior and senior seasons, respectively. He was also First-Team All-MAC and Academic All-Conference selection as a senior in 1997. During the summer of 2023, Ford was inducted into the Ohio Basketball Hall of Fame.
