705 AND COUNTING

- SU joined the elite 700-win club with its 52-17 thumping of Tulane on Sept. 21. The Orange became the 16th FBS program to reach 700 all-time victories (Virginia Tech recorded its 700th win earlier the same day, becoming the 15th team to achieve the milestone).
- SU's all-time record is 705-504-49.
- The Orange is tied with Virginia Tech for the most wins of any ACC program (705). Georgia Tech (701 wins) is nipping at both their heels.
- Since its first year of football in 1889, Syracuse has produced 82 winning seasons.

WELCOME TO THE ACC

- The Orange went 4-4 in its maiden ACC voyage and finished in a tie for third place with Boston College in the Atlantic Division.
- SU posted a 4-2 divisional record. The only two division rivals to beat the Orange were BCS national champion Florida State and Orange Bowl champion Clemson.
- Syracuse officially joined the ACC on July 1, 2013 and opened conference play on Oct. 5 against Clemson at the Carrier Dome.

HOME SWEET DOME

- Overall Carrier Dome football record: 128-76-2.
- The Orange has posted three undefeated seasons at the Dome (1987, 1988, 2001). SU went 6-0 at the Loud House in each of those years.
- SU won a record 16 straight Dome games from Oct. 4, 1986 when it beat Missouri (41-9) to Oct. 7, 1989 when it lost to Florida St. (41-10).
- The Orange has posted at least a .500 home record in 29 of the building's 34 seasons, including 2013.
- Syracuse went 4-2 at the Dome this season.

MASSIVE MARGINS

- SU beat Wagner (54-0) and Tulane (52-17) in back-to-back weeks by an average of 44.5 points during the month of September.
- The last time the Orange won consecutive games by at least 35 points was in 1997. Syracuse routed East Carolina (56-0), Rutgers (50-3), and Temple (60-7) in succession.

| | +56 | SU 70, Rutgers 14 | 1998 |

CLOSE SHAVES

- Since 2009, Syracuse is 14-8 (.636) in games decided by seven points or less.
- The Orange was 2-2 in that scenario during the 2013 season. SU bested Boston College in exciting fashion, 34-31 on Nov. 30 and trumped Minnesota in the Texas Bowl, 21-17. The Orange's close losses were to Penn State (23-17) and Pittsburgh (17-16).
- In sticking with that theme, Syracuse has a 7-6 (.538) record in overtime since the NCAA instituted the rule in 1996.

ORANGE DEBUTS ALTERNATE HELMET

- For its Sept. 21 home game against Tulane, Syracuse debuted a specially-designed alternate helmet for the first time.
- The helmet was created with input from Orange players and staff, and features a Navy Blue matte finish that fades into orange. A metallic Syracuse Block 'S' logo is affixed to each side.
- To complete the look, SU donned its traditional home blue jerseys along with blue pants.
- Syracuse also wore the all blue combination for its inaugural ACC game Oct. 5 versus Clemson and its Nov. 23 home game versus Pitt.

HONORING TWO ORANGE GREATS

- Former SU quarterbacks Don McPherson and Donovan McNabb had their jerseys retired this fall. McPherson's No. 9 was raised to the Dome rafters on Oct. 5 (vs. Clemson). McNabb's No. 5 was retired Nov. 2 (vs. Wake Forest).
- They are the third and fourth individual jerseys retired by the program, joining Larry's Csonka's No. 39 and John Mackey's No. 88. The No. 44 is the only retired number in SU football history.
- A College Football Hall of Famer, McPherson led the Orange to an 11-0-1 season and a No. 4 final ranking as a senior in 1987. He was second in the Heisman Trophy balloting to Tim Brown of Notre Dame that season and won a slew of individual awards, including the Davey O'Brien Award and Maxwell Award.
- SU's career leader with 77 TD passes, McNabb was the first player to earn All-BIG EAST First Team honors four times and he led SU to three straight BIG EAST titles (1996, 1997, 1998). McNabb recently retired after 13 NFL seasons, including 11 with the Philadelphia Eagles. He was a six-time Pro Bowler and led the Eagles to five NFC championship games and an appearance in Super Bowl XXXIX.

PAT KILLORIN RECEIVES 2013 ZUNIC AWARD

- The center for the Orange from 1963-65, and one of the lead blockers for SU legend Floyd Little, Pat Killorin was the recipient of this year's Zunic Award, presented by the Syracuse Football Club.
- Killorin was a two-time All-East selection at Syracuse and played in the Hula Bowl and East-West Shrine Game in 1966. He was selected in the third-round of the 1966 NFL Draft by the Pittsburgh Steelers and played one year in the NFL.
- A Syracuse Letterwinner of Distinction, Killorin is a current registered Food Safety Sanitarian for Brulin Holdings and he's the former President/CEO of Patco Management, Inc., a nationally known food safety consultant, and Prosan Inc., a professional food safety audit and training company.
- Killorin's civil service includes working as a family care giver for Hospice, volunteering for Meals on Wheels, as well as multiple voluntary youth coaching positions. Killorin received the United Way of Central New York "Exceptional Volunteer" Award in 2007.
- The Zunic Award is given out to those who exhibit the courage and spirit of Mike (a four-year starting linebacker at SU) and Judy Zunic who perished in a plane crash in 1989. The Zunics voluntarily gave up their seats to assist with the exit door during an emergency landing. The people where the Zunics were originally seated survived.

LITTLE PART OF 2013 ACC LEGENDS CLASS

- Syracuse's own Floyd Little, along with 14 other football icons from ACC schools, made up this year's ACC Football Legends class. The group was honored the night before the Dr. Pepper ACC Football Championship Game in Charlotte, N.C.
- Little (1964-66) was a three-time Orange All-American and still holds the SU career records for touchdowns (46) and punt returns for touchdowns (6). He graduated as the school's all-time leading rusher with 2,704 yards and still ranks sixth on SU's all-time rushing list.
- Little was selected by the Denver Broncos in the 1967 NFL Draft and he enjoyed a spectacular nine-year NFL career.
- He was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1983 and the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2010.
- Other notable names in this year's ACC Legends Class included: Terry Kinard (Clemson), Boomer Esiason (Maryland) and Edgerrin James (Miami).

SU SPENDS WEEK AT FORT DRUM

- For the second year in a row, SU moved preseason camp to Fort Drum for several days in August. The Orange traveled to the military post about 86 miles north of Syracuse on Aug. 12 and stayed there until Aug. 16.
- The experience featured Army physical training and small unit leadership seminars in addition to regular meetings and practice at Sligh Field. Members of the Orange ate in the Army dining facility and slept in the barracks.
- The military exercises culminated with a paintball challenge on Aug. 16, and the football portion of the week wrapped up with a youth clinic and scrimmage on Aug. 15 for 10th Mountain Division soldiers and their families.

2014 NON-CONFERENCE SCHEDULE SET

On Oct. 23, SU announced its non-conference schedule for next season. The slate features home games with Villanova and Maryland, a road date at Central Michigan, and a marquee matchup with Notre Dame at MetLife Stadium in New Jersey.

2014 Syracuse Football Schedule
Aug. 30 – Villanova
Sept. 13 – at Central Michigan
Sept. 20 – Maryland
Sept. 27 – vs. Notre Dame (MetLife Stadium)

ACC Home Games: Duke, Florida State, Louisville, NC State

ACC Road Games: Boston College, Clemson, Pittsburgh, Wake Forest

INDOOR PRACTICE CENTER WILL ENHANCE PROGRAM FACILITIES

- The announcement that an Indoor Practice Center will be built on the site of the Joseph Vielbig Track was made in February 2013 and the ceremonial ground-breaking for it was held on Sept. 14, 2013.
- The $17 million, 87,000 square foot building will provide the football program with an innovative and modern practice environment, enhance recruiting efforts, and help develop the best and brightest student-athletes from across the nation. While the football program will be the main tenant of the new center, all Syracuse Athletics programs will have access and use of the center to better develop student-athlete performance and provide a student-athlete experience at Syracuse University second to none.
- In the Fall of 2012, the Iocolano-Petty Football Complex, which serves as the home of Syracuse football, underwent a major renovation. State-of-the-art upgrades improved the locker room, student-athlete lounge, cafeteria, Hall of Fame lobby, and team auditorium.

NEW YORK'S COLLEGE TEAM

The only BCS school in the Empire State, Syracuse University is New York's College Team. Victories in the 2010 and 2012 New Era Pinstripe Bowls in Yankee Stadium and overwhelming success for the men's basketball team in Madison Square Garden underscore Syracuse's prominence in the nation's biggest city, which is home to Syracuse University's largest alumni base.

The Orange hue extends into New Jersey where MetLife Stadium has played host to 11-time national champion Syracuse men's lacrosse contests and will be home to the football Orange for multiple games in the next two decades, including the 2013 New York's College Classic against Penn State.

The Orange brand is prominent on the airwaves across New York State via the Syracuse IMG Network, including game and coaches show broadcasts, and in the Big Apple, with games televised on the MSG and YES Networks. Syracuse is also woven into everyday life in New York City with signage on the ABC ribbon board, in Yankee Stadium and on New York City taxi tops, and in the Orange Box at the U.S. Tennis Open.

BROMLEY A DOMINATING D-TACKLE

- Senior DT Jay Bromley was a handful for opposing offenses. An All-ACC Third Team selection, Bromley led all SU down linemen in tackles (42) and he was tops on the squad in sacks (10.0) and tied for team-high honors in tackles for loss (14.5).
- Bromley finished tied for 18th in the nation in sacks per game (0.77) and was the first interior defensive lineman to lead the Orange in sacks since Nick Santiago (4.5 sacks) in 2008.
- Bromley's 10 sacks were the most for an Orange interior lineman since Rob Burnett had 11 in 1987.
- The Jamaica, Queens native registered a career-best 3.0 tackles for loss, including two sacks, versus Clemson on Oct. 5.
- He posted three two-sack games this year (Wagner, Clemson, Wake Forest).
- Bromley also forced three fumbles this year, tied for the fourth-most in the ACC.

NO RUSH

- SU ranks fourth in the ACC in rushing defense at 137.4 yards allowed per game.
- The Orange was the only FBS team not to allow a 100-yard rusher in a game in 2013. The last back to gain 100 yards against SU was Temple's Montel Harris (106 yards) on Nov. 23, 2012.
- The SU defense shut down BC's Andre Williams, the nation's leading rusher and Heisman finalist, on Nov. 30. The Orange held Williams to 29 yards on nine carries (3.2 ypc) before he left in the third quarter with an injury. Williams entered the game averaging 188.5 yards per game and 6.5 yards per carry.
- SU limited five opponents this season to less than 100 yards on the ground, including three of the last five.

PITCHING SHUTOUTS

- SU's 13-0 shutout of Wake Forest on Nov. 2 was the Orange's second of the year. SU also blanked Wagner, 54-0, on Sept. 14.
- It's the first time since 1997 (Wisconsin, East Carolina) that the Orange has recorded two shutouts in the same season.
- The goose egg by Wake Forest represented the first conference shutout by the Orange since a 42-0 whipping of Rutgers in 1996.
- In SU's seven wins, the defense held the opposition scoreless in 17 of 28 quarters.

SPRUILL SHOWS EXPERIENCE

Starting LB Marquis Spruill, who played all three linebacker spots in his career, started 49 games from 2010-13, tied with East Carolina's Derrell Johnson for the most by a player at his position during that time.

Most Starts (FBS Linebackers - 2010-13)

| | Player, Team | Starts |
|---|---|---|
| 1. | Derrell Johnson, East Carolina | 49 |
| | Marquis Spruill, Syracuse | 49 |
| 3. | Shawn Jackson, Tulsa | 47 |

SHAFER'S DEFENSIVE NOTABLES

Scott Shafer served as SU's defensive coordinator from 2009-12 before being named head coach. Below are some notable trends since he's arrived:

- The SU 'D' has held opponents to less than 100 yards rushing 23 times and is 16-7 in those games.
- SU is 14-4 when holding its opponents to less than 300 yards of total offense.
- Syracuse is 20-5 when holding its foes to fewer than 20 points.

ORANGE SLICES: SPECIAL TEAMS

BLOCK THAT KICK

- For the second time since 1997, the Orange's special teams blocked three kicks in a game, rejecting two Tulane punts and one field goal in the first half against the Green Wave on Sept. 21.
- DB Darius Kelly and DT Eric Crume had the punt blocks, while DT John Raymon got his hand on a Cairo Santos field goal in the second quarter.
- The three blocks directly resulted in 21 Orange points as the offense capitalized on each one.
- Since 1997, the only other game in which Syracuse blocked three kicks was in 2003 against Rutgers (2 punts and 1 FG).
- The Tulane game marked the first time since the Buffalo game in 2004 that the Orange registered two punt blocks. Anthony Smith was credited with both against the Bulls that day.
- Raymon's rejection of Santos' field goal attempt ended the kicker's streak of 26 consecutive made field goals.

SCOTT SHAFER, HEAD COACH

SUCCESSFUL DEBUT

Scott Shafer was the only first-time head coach in the ACC in 2013. Nationally, he was one of six first-time FBS coaches (below) to lead his team to a bowl and he was one of four* to win their postseason debut.

| Name | School | Bowl Result |
|---|---|---|
| Rod Carey | N. Illinois | L, 14-21 |
| Bryan Harsin * | Arkansas St. | W, 23-20 |
| Mark Helfrich | Oregon | W, 30-7 |
| Kliff Kingsbury | Texas Tech | W, 37-23 |
| Scott Shafer | Syracuse | W, 21-17 |
| Matt Wells | Utah St. | W, 21-14 |

 - Harsin accepted the head coaching job at Boise St. and did not coach Arkansas St. in the GoDaddy Bowl.*

HARD-NOSED

Scott Shafer has a vision for Syracuse football and it's "hard-nosed". The term has evolved into Shafer's mantra and a characteristic he believes the Orange must embody to succeed.

hard-nosed [hahrd-nohzd]
hardheaded or tough; unsentimentally practical.

From Shafer's introductory press conference:
"I envision a hard-nosed team that's from a hard-nosed town. The thing I like about Syracuse, the city, is that the people who live here and embrace it, they're tough people, they're hard-nosed people who work their ass off. And they expect a hard-nosed football team. In my opinion, it's our job to put a product on the field that the community can say that's us."

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING

"I am excited about the tremendous opportunity for Coach Shafer and Syracuse University. Scott is hard working, enthusiastic and of high character. Great things will happen with Shafe. He and his family will continue the rich and great Syracuse tradition."

Jim Harbaugh
San Francisco 49ers Head Coach

"Scott Shafer brings enthusiasm to teaching young men to be excited about the game of football and play it the right way. He is going to make it an environment that's fun to be in – the coaches are going to love to come to work every day and the players are going to love to come to practice every day. I think the results of that will show when people are watching the games, the team and their unity. They will know that it starts from the top. It will be an exciting, fun environment for everyone.

"Coach Shafer believes in keeping it simple, having guys play fast and with a lot of emotion. Everything is about passion and enjoying the game, the camaraderie and guys playing together. That is what Scott's about and I think it's going to transfer onto the field."

David Shaw
Stanford Head Coach

One of the top defensive minds in college football, Scott Shafer was named the Syracuse football program's 29th head coach on Jan. 29, 2013 after serving as the Orange's defensive coordinator for four seasons. In 23 years as a college coach, Shafer has mentored 38 all-conference performers and four All-Americans.

GAME SUMMARIES

GAME #1

Syracuse 17
vs. Penn State 23

August 31 at MetLife Stadium • East Rutherford, N.J.

Syracuse started the Scott Shafer era with a 23-17 loss to Penn State in the second New York's College Classic at MetLife Stadium. Junior captain Jerome Smith was responsible for both Orange touchdowns, scoring on runs of 10 yards and one yard in the second half. Smith finished the game with 16 carries for 73 yards.

Senior Drew Allen got the starting nod at quarterback for Syracuse and threw for 189 yards on 16-of-37 passing. He was intercepted twice, including one on third down with 1:53 remaining that ended any hope of an Orange comeback.

The SU defense had an impressive day, forcing four Penn State turnovers (two fumbles and two interceptions). Linebacker Marquis Spruill and defensive end Robert Welsh each had sacks. Welsh also set up Smith's second touchdown, running back an interception 31 yards to the Penn State 1-yard line in the fourth quarter. Cameron Lynch led the team with a game-high 10 tackles.

As a unit, the Syracuse defense held the Nittany Lions to 1-for-16 (.063) on third down to help keep the Orange within striking distance.

The Orange opened the game's scoring when Ross Krautman kicked a 32-yard field goal on the first SU drive of the second quarter, giving SU 3-0 lead with 12:32 left in the first half.

Penn State responded with two Sam Ficken field goals in the final six minutes of the second quarter, a 36-yarder and a 35-yarder, to claim a 6-3 halftime advantage.

PSU extended the margin to 13-3 on their first drive of the second half as quarterback Christian Hackenberg hit Allen Robinson for a 51-yard touchdown.

On the ensuing possession, George Morris II returned the kickoff 35 yards, and Allen hooked up with Jeremiah Kobena on a 55-yard pass, to get the Orange into scoring position. Smith finished the drive with a 10-yard run into the end zone, and Krautman's PAT closed the gap to 13-10 with 11:05 left in the third quarter.

Syracuse had an opportunity to tie the game after corner Brandon Reddish stripped Robinson and returned the fumble 46 yards to the Penn State 27. The SU offense only managed one yard on three plays and Krautman's 43-yard field goal try was wide.

In the fourth quarter, Ficken hit a career-long 46-yard field goal to give the Nittany Lions a 16-10 advantage with 14:16 left to play. PSU's next drive ended with a 54-yard touchdown pass from Hackenberg to Eugene Lewis to make the score 23-10.

After Welsh's interception and run back, Smith pushed his way into the end zone for six points and Krautman's PAT trimmed the Nittany Lion lead to 23-17 with 6:58 left.

The Orange defense forced three-and-outs on Penn State's next two series to give Allen and the offense two more opportunities to tie the game or take the lead. The first SU drive ended in a punt. On the second, PSU's Trevor Williams intercepted Allen with 1:53 on the clock sealing the victory for the Nittany Lions.

NU extended the lead to 10-0 with 3:15 remaining in the first quarter on a 32-yard field goal by Jeff Budzien.

On the ensuing possession, Northwestern's Traveon Henry intercepted a long pass from Orange quarterback Drew Allen with just more than 11 minutes left to give the Wildcats possession on their own 46. Five plays later Budzien cashed in on the turnover, hitting a 21-yard field goal for a 20-0 Northwestern advantage.

Smith cut the lead to 20-7 as he found his way into the end zone on a three-yard run with 6:29 left in the half, but Colter answered on Northwestern's next possession, scrambling for a 16-yard score to push the margin back to 20 points, 27-7. Late in the first half, the Wildcats took advantage of another Allen interception, scoring with two seconds left on a Siemian-to-Christian Jones pass to go up 34-7 at halftime.

On the first series of the second half, Syracuse marched 75 yards and Allen capped the drive by hitting Kendall Moore for his first career touchdown. Ross Krautman missed the extra point, ending his streak of 66 consecutive made PATs, and the score remained 34-13 with 12:32 left in the third.

GAME #5

|---|---|
| Syracuse | 14 |
| vs. Clemson | 49 |

October 5 at Carrier Dome • Syracuse, N.Y.

In its inaugural ACC game, Syracuse had its six-game Carrier Dome win streak stopped by No. 3 Clemson 49-14 in front 48,961 fans, the largest home crowd for the Orange since November of 2000. Syracuse rushed for 323 yards, sparked by Jerome Smith (125 yards) and Devante McFarlane (95 yards). Clemson's Tajh Boyd matched his own school record, tossing five touchdown passes to lead the Tigers.

Ashton Broyld led all Orange receivers with five catches for a career-high 64 yards. Terrel Hunt completed eight of his 24 passes for 52 yards and rushed for 57 yards on 13 carries. Hunt also made his first career reception in the game on a throw-back pass from Broyld.

The SU defense tallied eight tackles for a loss, including four sacks. Marquis Spruill led all SU defenders with nine tackles, all solo, including two for a loss. The SU secondary intercepted Boyd twice, including one by Julian Whigham in the second quarter to end Boyd's school-record streak of 187 passes without a pick.

Boyd completed 20-of-27 passes for 455 yards in the contest. Sammy Watkins led the Clemson receiving unit, catching four passes for 126 yards, including a 91-yard TD reception in the third quarter. Adam Humphries caught a pair of touchdowns for the Tigers. He finished with three receptions for 118 yards.

Clemson was the first to score when Boyd hit Humphries for a 60-yard touchdown 37 seconds into the contest. The Tigers got a one-yard TD run from Zac Brooks, and Boyd connected with Humphries for another long touchdown, this one 42 yards, to go up 21-0 at the end of the first quarter.

After breaking free for a first down in the final seconds of the first period, Smith escaped the Tiger defense again on the next play and ran 66 yards into the end zone to put the Orange on the board nine seconds into the second quarter, trimming the Clemson margin to 21-7.

Boyd responded with TD passes to Stanton Seckinger and Martavis Bryant to give the visitors a 35-7 margin at the half.

In the third quarter, Prince-Tyson Gulley found a hole in the Clemson defense and ran 28 yards for a touchdown with 12:31 remaining to close the gap to 35-14.

The Orange tried to inch closer later in the period, faking a punt on 4th-and-9. The play worked to perfection as McFarlane ran 38 yards deep into Clemson territory, but SU couldn't capitalize on the drive and the Tigers took advantage on the ensuing series as Boyd threw a 91-yard bomb to Watkins to extend the Clemson lead to 42-14. The Tigers added a late touchdown in the fourth quarter to produce the final score.

October 12 at Carter-Finley Stadium • Raleigh, N.C.

The Orange scored two late touchdowns to pull away from NC State, defeating the Wolfpack 24-10 in front of 56,639 at Carter-Finley Stadium. The victory marked the team's first conference win as a member of the ACC.

Syracuse rushed for a season-high 362 yards in the contest and averaged 9.1 yards per rush. Jerome Smith and Prince-Tyson Gulley powered the Orange attack. Smith gained 140 yards on 19 carries and Gulley finished with 132 yards on nine attempts. Both running backs had one touchdown and broke off runs of at least 50 yards during the course of the game. Quarterback Terrel Hunt contributed 92 yards on the ground, the highest rushing total for an SU signal caller since Donovan McNabb (99 yards) versus Miami on Nov. 28, 1998.

Hunt completed 10-of-20 passes for 74 yards through the air. He was intercepted twice by NC State's Jack Tocho. Ashton Broyld paced all Orange receivers with three catches for 43 yards, including a career-long 39-yard reception in the second quarter.

Two Orange defenders had career days with Cameron Lynch posting a career- and game-high 14 tackles, including two for a loss. Durell Eskridge made 13 stops and intercepted his second pass of the season.

Syracuse opened the game's scoring on the first drive of the second quarer. Hunt found an opening in the NC State defense and scrambled 17 yards to the 1-yard line. Smith finished things off, pushing his way into the end zone to give the visitors a 7-0 lead with 11:11 to go in the half.

Later in the quarter, the two sides exchanged interceptions on three consecutive drives. NC State capitalized on SU's second turnover when Pete Thomas hit David Grinnage for a 21-yard touchdown to tie the score just before halftime.

In the second half, the two teams exchanged field goals, including a 27-yarder by the Wolfpack's Niklas Sade that knotted the game 10-10 with 10:12 left to play.

After the SU defense forced a punt on the next Wolfpack possession, Smith sprinted 57 yards down to the NC State 18-yard line. Gulley scampered to paydirt on the next play for a 16-10 SU advantage. A bad snap on the extra-point resulted in a failed pass from holder Charley Loeb to Kendall Moore and the score remained 16-10.

The Syracuse defense forced a three-and-out on the next Wolfpack series and the Orange took over on its own 47. A 48-yard burst by Gulley put the ball on the NC State 5-yard line. Two plays later Hunt sealed the victory, scoring from eight yards out.

For NC State, Thomas was 17-for-35 for 151 yards and a touchdown. Bryan Underwood led the Wolfpack receiving corps with six catches for 89 yards.

November 30 at Carrier Dome • Syracuse, N.Y.

Terrel Hunt hit Josh Parris for an eight-yard touchdown to lift Syracuse past Boston College, 34-31, on Saturday, Nov. 30 at the Carrier Dome. Hunt led the Orange 75 yards in 2:02 to overcome a 31-27 deficit and defeat the Eagles to become bowl eligible.

Hunt finished with a career-high 360 yards of total offense, including a personal-best 270 passing yards and 90 rushing yards. He completed a career-high 29-of-43 passes, including two touchdowns to Parris. He also ran for a score.

The Orange offense was efficent all day, converting 66.7 percent of the time (12-of-18) on third down and running a season-high 94 plays for 480 yards.

The SU defense held BC's Andre Williams, the nation's leading rusher, to 29 yards on nine carries. The output was 159.5 yards below Williams' season average of 188.5 yards per game. Williams left the contest in the third quarter with an injury and did not return.

The Orange missed out on two scoring opportunities in the first quarter and trailed 7-0 after Williams scored from 26 yards out with 1:57 to go in the opening period. But SU responded with three straight second-quarter scoring drives, a one-yard TD plunge by Hunt, to claim a 21-7 margin.

The Eagles closed the gap to 21-14 at halftime on a nine-yard touchdown pass from Chase Rettig to C.J. Parsons with 40 seconds remaining in the second quarter. The Eagles struck again on their opening drive of the third quarter to tie the game, 21-21, as Rettig connected with Jake Sinkovec for a nine-yard score at the 9:56 mark of the third stanza.

The Orange answered late in the quarter with a 42-yard field goal by Ryan Norton with 3:44 remaining to go back in front, 24-21.

Boston College regained the lead midway through the fourth quarter when Rettig leaped into the end zone from the one to make the score 28-24 Eagles with 7:49 to play. A Norton 44-yard field goal with 5:03 to go trimmed the margin to 28-27, but a Hunt interception led to a Nate Freese 21-yard field goal and a 31-27 BC lead.

With 2:08 left and no timeouts, Hunt completed passes to Parris and Alvin Cornelius to quickly get the Orange near midfield. An eight-yard Hunt run and a BC penalty for pass interference put the ball on the Eagles' 33-yard line. Hunt took off running again on the next play. He was corralled by a host of BC defenders and the ball came loose. Center Macky MacPherson alertly jumped on it at the BC 25 to keep SU's hopes alive. Four plays later, on first-and-goal, Hunt delivered a strike to Parris on a tight-end throwback and Parris bulled his way into the end zone for the winning points.

|---|---|
| Syracuse | 21 |
| vs. Minnesota | 17 |

December 27 at Reliant Stadium • Houston, Texas

Quarterback Terrel Hunt scored a last-minute touchdown to lift Syracuse to a 21-17 victory against Minnesota in the Texas Bowl at Reliant Stadium. Hunt scored from 12 yards out with 1:14 remaining, and the Orange defense held firm on the Gophers' final drive as SU won its third bowl game in four years.

Hunt was named the Texas Bowl Most Valuable Player. He set an SU bowl record with 19 completions, finishing the game 19-of-29 passing for 188 yards. He also tied for team-high rushing honors with 74 yards on 15 carries and two touchdowns.

After a scoreless first quarter, Hunt led the Orange on an 80-yard touchdown drive, capped by a Jerome Smith one-yard touchdown run. Ryan Norton's extra point put SU up 7-0 with 10:04 remaining in the first half.

That's how the score remained until the end of the second quarter when Minnesota's Chris Hawthorne kicked a 41-yard field goal as time expired to trim the SU margin to 7-3.

In the third quarter, Hunt extended the SU advantage to 14-3 on a five-yard touchdown run, capping a 15-play scoring drive. The sophomore QB converted a key fourth-and-8 to keep the drive alive, running for nine yards down to the Minnesota 17. Three plays later, he was in the end zone and the Orange lead was 11 points.

The Gophers answered with a Mitch Leidner 20-yard scoring pass to Maxx Williams on the opening play of the fourth quarter for Minnesota's first touchdown. The Gophers tried for two, but the SU defense smothered Leidner before he could get off a throw and the score stayed 14-9 with 14:55 remaining in the game.

Minnesota claimed its first lead of the on its next possession as Leidner connected with Drew Wolitarsky for a 55-yard touchdown to put the Gophers in front, 15-14. This time Minnesota's two-point try was successful, stretching the lead to 17-14.

After the two teams traded punts, the Orange had an opportunity to tie the game with less than four minutes left, but Norton's 45-yard field goal attempt was wide right.

On the ensuing Minnesota possession, SU shrewdly used its timeouts to slow the Gophers' momentum, and a timely sack by Robert Welsh on third-and-5 from the Minnesota 32 forced a punt. That set the stage for Brisly Estime, who returned the ensuing punt 70 yards to the Gopher 14-yard line.

Prince-Tyson Gulley picked up seven yards on two runs, but a false start penalty on third-and-3 backed the Orange up to the 12. On the next play, Hunt dropped back to pass then scrambled up the middle and into the end zone for the go-ahead points.

The Gophers had one last chance, driving to the SU 40-yard line with less than 25 seconds left. Leidner heaved the ball deep twice, but Brandon Reddish and Ritchy Desir were there to break up the passes and the Orange held on.
